

Global Lord: 100% Drop Rate

C 3

World Channel! Sword Shield Soldier Recruitment Book!

I have two professionals under me now.

Zhou Zhou thought to himself, feeling a sense of security.

However, this was naturally far from enough!

“Zhang Cang, you will lead the other subjects with Bai Yi to patrol the territory’s protective barrier. See if there are any fog monsters around. If there are any, kill them, then bring the body to me. Remember, it’s best to kill the monsters through the protective barrier! If you’re confident that you won’t be injured, you can try to leave the protective barrier and kill the monsters, but don’t get too far away! Your own safety comes first!” Zhou Zhou reminded.

These two soldiers were his treasures. He did not want anything to happen to them.

“Yes, my Lord!” Zhang Cang said respectfully before he went to look for Bai Yi and the others.

At this moment, four consecutive notifications suddenly sounded in Zhou Zhou’s ears.

[The Lord’s personal information has been unlocked!]

[Cerulean Planet Lord’s World Channel has been unlocked!]

[Cerulean Planet Lord’s Marketplace has been unlocked!]

[Friend List has been unlocked!]

Zhou Zhou was stunned and opened the Lord’s personal information.

[Lord Title: None]

[Strength Level: Black Iron-Tier Elementary Grade]

[Territory Name: Unnamed]

[Territory Level: Black Iron-Tier Elementary Grade]

[Territory Area: 400m x 400m x 400m]

[Lord Talent: 100% Drop Rate (Legendary-Tier)]

[Territory Building: The Lord's Wooden House (Black Iron-Tier Elementary Grade), Gate of Summoning (Black Iron-Tier Elementary Grade)]

[Race Talent: None]

[Equipment: None]

[Skill: None]

[Mist Core: Two]

[Origin Crystal: Zero]

Zhou Zhou thought for a moment and named his territory Blazing Sun City and gave himself the title of Lord of The Blazing Sun. The land under his feet was the Blazing Sun Desert after all. He did not want to think of other names.

Then, he opened the Cerulean Planet Lord's Marketplace and Friend List.

The Cerulean Planet Lord's Marketplace was a place for the Lords to trade goods. However, there were not many goods other than some basic materials such as stone, wood, and metal for the time being because it was just opened.

His friend list was also empty.

Seeing this, Zhou Zhou opened the Cerulean Planet Lord World Channel.

A text notification appeared in the next moment and a virtual screen with the Cerulean Planet as the background appeared in front of him.

A huge number of comments from other Lords were refreshing in the channel.

[Brothers and sisters, have we really transmigrated?]

[We've really transmigrated. It's not a dream. I just slapped the subject I summoned, but this stupid subject retaliated with a big slap. My face still hurts...]

[The loyalty of the subjects that I have just summoned is generally only slightly above the passing mark. It's best not to do anything to lower their loyalty.]

[Haha, what's your Lord Talent? I've a Diamond-Tier Lord Talent — Knight Hall. My territory comes with a special building. I can send my subjects in after paying a certain price. They will become a special combat profession that masters combat spirit— The Combat Spirit Knights!]

[F*ck! Diamond-Tier Lord Talent!? I only have a Black Iron-Tier Lord Talent called 'Subject Recruitment Order' which allows me to summon three more subjects from the Gate of Summoning everyday.]

[I'm alright. I've a Green Bronze-Tier Lord Talent — Ghost Master Station. There will be Ghost Master Professionals passing through my territory. I have a certain percentage of chances in recruiting them as my subjects!]

[I have a Yellow Gold-Tier Lord Talent — Falcon Corps! The territory has its own Falcon Barracks. I can recruit a special combat army with Cerulean Planet's technology!]

[The difference in talent between the Lords of different levels is so obvious.]

[Boohoo, I envy you guys. I didn't even awaken my Lord talent.]

[Why can't I awaken my Talent like all of you? This is so unfair!]

[The lifespan of the locust is extremely short!]

[Have you guys gone out to fight the Scarlet Fog monsters? I just asked my subjects to fight an Iron-Fang Fog Hound through the protective barrier. It only dropped two units of Mist Core and one unit of flesh.]

[There are monsters on your side too?]

[I have them too, and there are seven or eight of them!]

[It can drop flesh and blood??? Why did mine only drop two units of Mist Core?]

...

Zhou Zhou looked at it for a while and pondered.

From the discussion of these Lords, High-level Lord Talents seemed to be very rare. About 80% of the Lords had Black Iron, Green Bronze, and White Silver-Tier Talents. The remaining 20% were Yellow-Gold Tiers and above.

He had yet to see anyone mention a Legendary-Tier Lord Talent like his.

[The strength of the monsters outside is really ridiculous. It's so difficult to kill even one through the protective barrier. Moreover, this is only the first day. How difficult will the Novice Lord Test in seven days be?]

[Hold it right there. I'm starting to panic.]

[Killing monsters can increase the strength of your subjects and yourself. You will probably have to rely on this path if you want to survive the Novice Lord Test in seven days.]

[It's too inefficient to just rely on the protective barrier to kill monsters.]

[Do you dare to go out if you don't have enough subjects?]

[If I go out, I won't be able to defeat the monsters. If I don't go out, the efficiency of killing the monsters will be low. What a dilemma.]

Zhou Zhou became vigilant as he read on.

These Lords are right. If the monsters on the first day are already so tough, how strong will the monsters be in seven days? If I want to safely pass the test in seven days, I have to work hard to accumulate strength during this period of time!

At this moment, not far away, the sounds of battle could be heard.

Two gentle balls of Promotion Energy appeared in his body out of thin air, making him feel refreshed.

After a while, Bai Yi, Zhang Cang, and the other subjects carried the corpses of the two Desert Fog Lizards and walked over excitedly. They then placed the corpses in front of Zhou Zhou.

"I'm here to report, my Lord!"

"We just discovered these two Desert Fog Lizards and have already dealt with them through the protective barrier."

Bai Yi and the other residents looked at Zhou Zhou expectantly after saying that.

When Zhou Zhou saw their gazes, the corners of his mouth could not help but twitch a few times.

He looked at the corpses of the two Desert Fog Lizards. One of the corpses was also a Black Iron-Tier Elementary Grade Desert Fog Lizards. The loot it could drop was exactly the same as the previous Desert Fog Lizards.

As for the other Desert Fog Lizard's corpse, not only was it twice the size of the other Desert Fog Lizard, but its loot seemed much richer than the previous one.

[Item Name: Desert Fog Lizard's Corpse]

[Item Level: Black Iron-Tier Intermediate Grade]

[Item Effect: Contains unextracted loots.]

[Item Description: Fog Monster killed by the soldiers of Blazing Sun City.]

[Prompt: In two hours, this corpse will turn into fog and be reborn in the future.]

[Loot drop rate: four units of Black Iron-Tier Mist Core (Drop Rate: 100%), one unit to 40 units of Black Iron-Tier Intermediate Grade Desert Fog Lizard meat (Drop Rate: 20% to 0.5%), three kg water bag (Drop Rate: 3%), one gradeless Sword Shield Soldier Class Change Certificate (Drop Rate: 0.1%), one Black Iron-Tier Intermediate Grade Sword Shield Soldier Recruitment Book (Drop Rate: 0.1%)]
