

100 Million 1001

Chapter 1001 You Want to Escape From My Palm? -

1001 You Want to Escape From My Palm?

On the other side, Ah Can had just rushed out of the cabin when he met a group of Hong family security personnel.

“Stop!”

The group of people roared and immediately pounced on him.

Ah Can hurriedly took off his tuxedo and threw it at those people. Then, he turned around and fled in the opposite direction. Soon, he rushed to the deck.

At this moment, many guests on the deck were still watching the game through the big screen.

As the broadcast here was five minutes later than the one inside, it had just reached the part where Ah Can accused Ye Feng of cheating.

“Number 83 cheated? How dare you cheat at the Gambling King Tournament?”

“I’ve already told you that this kid was lucky enough to enter the finals in the first few rounds. There must be something fishy going on. You guys still didn’t believe me.”

“No wonder he dared to bet 10 million on such lousy cards in the match just now. He cheated.”

“According to the rules of the casino, cheating will result in a lifetime ban.”

“This brat doesn’t look like a good person at first glance...”

Just as everyone was mocking Ye Feng, a masked man suddenly rushed onto the deck.

“Hmm? Wasn’t this the contestant who exposed Number 83’s cheating? Why did he run out?”

Someone immediately recognized Ah Can and exclaimed loudly.

Everyone made a comparison. It was really the contestant on the screen.

“Why did he run out? Is the competition over?”

“Is there a need to ask? He must have advanced, so he came out to get some fresh air and prepare for the finals.”

“This contestant has a chance of becoming the Gambling King. Everyone, hurry up and get your autographs.”

“That’s right. If he really becomes the Gambling King, it will be difficult to see him again in the future...”

Those who could come to watch the Gambling King Tournament were all people who were very obsessed with gambling.

The Gambling King was the person they admired the most, just like how idols were to diehard fans.

When someone reminded them, everyone immediately swarmed toward Ah Can, wanting him to sign an autograph and take a photo with them.

Ah Can was fleeing. When he saw everyone surrounding him, his expression instantly changed. Without any hesitation, he raised his leg and kicked the first person who rushed over.

The people behind him stopped in their tracks and glared at him in shock and anger.

“Hey, how can you hit someone? What kind of person are you?”

“You haven’t won the title of Gambling King yet. Even if you did, you can’t just hit people.”

“We treat you as our idol, but you treat us like this?”

“You must give us an explanation...”

Everyone was immediately enraged and wanted to demand an explanation from him.

However, what greeted them was another round of punches and kicks from Ah Can.

When he kicked the people in front of him away, the crowd also made way for him.

At this moment, the Hong family’s men caught up. “Stop!”

Ah Can’s expression changed. He hurriedly pushed everyone away and continued to rush toward the ship.

As long as he could reach the ship’s side, he could jump into the sea and escape.

At this moment, someone in the crowd suddenly stretched out a foot and tripped him.

Because Ah Can was too flustered, he was not prepared. He immediately staggered and almost fell. He hurriedly turned around to look.

An extremely handsome woman walked out of the crowd. “Ah Can, since you’re here, then stay.”

This woman was none other than Cheng Fei'er, who was watching the match on the deck.

Actually, it was fake that she was watching the competition. Ye Feng had arranged for her to stay here to prevent Ah Can from escaping.

Ah Can didn't dare to stay any longer. He continued to get up and rush toward the side of the ship.

Cheng Fei'er immediately rushed forward and locked his shoulders.

However, Ah Can was like a loach. He easily broke free from her hands and did not tangle with her. He was about to jump onto the ship's side.

At this moment, the Hong family's men just happened to catch up.

These people were sent to maintain the order of the competition, so they were naturally carefully selected experts. Each of them was very skilled.

One of the bodyguards immediately kicked Ah Can's head.

Ah Can only tilted his head slightly and easily dodged it.

At the same time, a kick came from behind.

His body was like plasticine as he immediately made an exaggerated bend and easily dodged again...

Four or five people attacked at the same time, but he dodged all of them.

Cheng Fei'er was secretly shocked. The King of Thieves was indeed the King of Thieves. This kind of abnormal flexibility and agility was really amazing.

Although she thought so, her hands did not stop moving. While Ah Can was dodging the attacks of the others, she immediately reached out and grabbed his arm.

This time, she used all her strength.

Ah Can struggled, but he couldn't break free.

At this moment, more people had already caught up to the deck. If he did not escape now, he would not have a chance.

Suddenly, he spat out a blade from his mouth and bit it tightly with his teeth. His head suddenly stretched out and slashed at Cheng Fei'er's arm.

According to common sense, a person's head couldn't lick his elbow.

However, the flexibility of this guy's body was unbelievable. The blade in his mouth actually cut Cheng Fei'er's hand that was grabbing his elbow.

Cheng Fei'er subconsciously let go, and it was too late to catch him again.

After Ah Can broke free, he directly used a powerful collision to knock the others away. Then, he jumped off the deck.

His body was like a cannonball, falling from a height of more than ten meters and crashing into the sea.

The people on the ship could only sigh.

At this time, Ye Feng ran out from inside. "Where is he?"

Cheng Fei'er pointed at the sea helplessly. "He jumped into the sea."

Ye Feng leaned on the side of the ship and looked down. He saw Ah Can's head floating above the sea.

This guy even deliberately took off his mask and gave him the middle finger. His voice came from afar.
"You want to catch me? In your next life!"

Ye Feng's lips curled up. Trying to escape from me? Dream on!

I'll let you be smug for a while.

At this moment, the tourists on the deck were still in shock and did not know what had happened.

At this moment, the staff of the competition came over to explain, "Everyone, calm down. That guy was caught cheating and refused to cooperate. That's why we had no choice but to use emergency measures..."

When everyone heard the explanation, they were relieved.

Since he cheated, he deserved to be caught!

However, what puzzled them was that wasn't Feng Ye the one who cheated? Why did it become that person again?

This plot was a little brain-burning!

Chapter 1002 Don't Worry, He Can't Escape -

1002 Don't Worry, He Can't Escape

Just as the tourists were confused, the broadcast happened to be until Ye Feng had proven his innocence and suddenly accused Ah Can of cheating.

Ah Can quibbled a few words and suddenly ran away. He was caught by Xiao Changqing and inadvertently exposed the fact that he cheated...

At this moment, the truth was finally revealed.

"This b*stard really cheated? You actually dare to slander others?"

"Such a morally corrupt person actually made it to the semi-finals? This is really the shame of the Gambling King Tournament."

"This year's Gambling King Tournament is really... This is much more fun than gambling."

"In any case, it was quite exciting. I was even kicked by that b*stard just now..."

Everyone started cursing at Ah Can. At the same time, they understood the organizer's actions just now.

This was also the reason why Ye Feng deliberately set up a trap for Ah Can in the bet.

He had to give the Hong family a legitimate excuse to make a move. Otherwise, if they were to make a big fuss in the Gambling King Tournament, they would indeed be condemned by everyone.

At this moment, Hong Xiaotian and Xiao Changqing also chased after them.

"He ran away?" Hong Xiaotian looked at Ah Can, who was swimming in the sea, and slammed the side of the ship hatefully.

"Old Hong, it seems like your family has raised a bunch of trash. So many people can't even catch one person." Xiao Changqing couldn't help but laugh.

Hong Xiaotian and his subordinates around him were furious. They stared at him with unfriendly gazes.

“Don’t worry,” Xiao Changqing said seriously. “He won’t be able to escape.”

The Hong family’s men were all gathered on the ship, while his men were... On the sea!

At the same time, Ah Can was happily swimming in the sea.

As a famous King of Thieves in the Gambling City, he had to learn all the skills of flying in the sky, running on the ground, and swimming in the sea. Otherwise, he would have died a long time ago.

‘Hmph, no matter how cunning you are, you still have to drink my foot washing water!’

‘You want to capture me? Wait for the next life.’

Ah Can swam leisurely, preparing to go ashore to find a lady to relax.

However, at this moment, he suddenly felt a sense of danger.

Before he could react, a fishing net began to surface around him.

Not good! He had fallen into a trap!

He immediately reacted and began to struggle with all his might.

But he was still a step too late!

The fishing net was pulled in very quickly. In just a few breaths, it wrapped around him and lifted him out of the water bit by bit.

Immediately after, a few speedboats quickly approached and began to circle around him.

At the same time, the people on the speedboat were still laughing loudly, as if they had caught a big fish.

These were all Xiao family's people. Ye Feng had arranged for them here in advance to prevent Ah Can from jumping into the sea to escape.

"Hahaha, Mr. Ye, you're really smart. This b*stard really jumped down."

One of the leading men with a scar on his face drove the speedboat in front of Ah Can with a sinister smile on his face. "Put him down."

A few of his subordinates immediately moved and placed the fishing net on the speedboat. However, they also knew that this guy was very cunning and did not dare to remove the fishing net.

The scar-faced man kicked Ah Can in the stomach. "B*stard, keep running!"

Ah Can arched his back from the kick and glared at him hatefully.

"Yo, you're still f*cking unconvinced, aren't you?" The man stepped on his face and crushed it a few more times.

"You better not let me escape. Otherwise, I will never let you go." Ah Can's voice was filled with viciousness that made one's scalp go numb.

The scar-faced man immediately sneered, "You fell into my hands and you still want to escape? Dream on."

As he spoke, he kicked him again.

A mocking look appeared on Ah Can's face. "As long as I'm still breathing, there's a possibility of escaping. Unless you kill me now."

The scar-faced man showed a disdainful expression. He couldn't be bothered to pay attention to him anymore. Now, he just needed to wait for Mr. Ye and the others to rush over and successfully complete their mission.

Ah Can's eyes flickered a few times, and he simply cursed, "Look at how tall and strong you are, but you're still a coward. You don't even know how to kill people?"

"Do you pee your pants when you see blood? I think you shouldn't come out and mess around. It's better for you to go home and coax the children."

"Oh, right, are you sure your child is yours? Hahaha..."

"Do you want to die? How can it be that easy? Then I'll let you have a taste of what it feels like to be dead."

A hint of ruthlessness flashed across the scar-faced man's face. He took out a dagger from his boot and slowly squatted in front of Ah Can.

"I heard that you are some bullshit King of Thieves, right? These hands look like they've been well-maintained. They're even more tender than a woman's hands. I really can't stand it!"

As soon as he finished speaking, the dagger pierced through the back of Ah Can's right hand and came out from his palm.

"Ah..."

Ah Can immediately let out a shrill scream.

He was able to become the famous 'King of Thieves' in the Gambling City because of his hands. Therefore, he cherished his hands very much.

Now that his right hand was crippled, this was simply more painful than killing him.

"B*stard, I will definitely kill you!"

He was like an angry lion, staring at the scar-faced man with bloodshot eyes.

The scar-faced man could be considered to have killed people like flies, but he was so scared that he took a step back.

However, he quickly reacted. He was too cowardly in front of these subordinates. He was actually scared away by a look from the other party.

At the thought of this, he immediately flew into a rage out of humiliation. "You want to kill me? Unfortunately, you won't have the chance. I'll send you on your way first."

As he spoke, he was about to stab the dagger into Ah Can's chest.

At this moment, Ah Can suddenly straightened his upper body and bumped into the scar-faced man.

Since they were on a speedboat, it was not that stable. Moreover, the scar-faced man was currently in a rage and was not on guard.

He staggered and fell backward.

A few of his subordinates subconsciously went to help him up, forgetting to watch over Ah Can.

Ah Can took the opportunity to flip over and fall into the sea.

By the time everyone reacted, they had already lost track of him.

“Motherf*cker, you still want to run? All of you, jump down and fish him up. I want to see him alive, and I want to see his corpse if he’s dead.”

The scar-faced man was shocked and angry. This person was specifically asked by Boss Xiao. If he let him go, then it would be a big sin.

Without another word, the subordinates all jumped into the sea.

..

The scar-faced man and his gang often did business at sea, so they were very good at swimming. This was a shallow sea, so it was as easy as walking on flat ground for them.

With so many people going down, they would definitely be able to fish this b*stard out!

The scar-faced man remained on the speedboat, staring at the sea.

However, at this moment...

A cloud of blood mist suddenly emerged from the water, dyeing the sea red.

The scar-faced man immediately widened his eyes in fear. However, what truly shocked him was still to come.

Then, flowers of blood kept emerging from the bottom of the sea, and the surroundings of the speedboat were soon dyed in a sea of blood.

More than a dozen corpses slowly surfaced from the sea. They were all the subordinates who had just jumped in.

“Ghost, ghost...”

He immediately exclaimed and was about to start the speedboat.

At this moment, the ship suddenly shook twice.

When he looked back, he saw a man covered in water jumping onto the stern.

It was Ah Can!

Chapter 1003 We Will Meet Again -

1003 We Will Meet Again

“You... Don’t come over...”

The scar-faced man held the dagger tightly in front of his chest and looked at him in horror.

More than ten people were killed in an instant.

This guy in front of him was not just a little terrifying.

A sinister smile appeared on Ah Can’s face. “I just said that if you let me escape, you’re dead.”

The scar-faced man knew that he couldn’t dodge, so he immediately made up his mind and charged forward with a dagger in his hand.

He didn’t see how Ah Can dodged. With a slight sway of his body, he dodged his attack.

At the same time, his finger gently brushed across the scar-faced man's throat. The scar-faced man's expression instantly froze, and blood spurted out from his throat.

Ah Can licked the blade with his scarlet tongue and put it back into his mouth. Then, he kicked the scar-faced man's body off the yacht.

At this time, Ye Feng's yacht was rapidly approaching them.

Ah Can had a cold smile on his face. He waved at Ye Feng. "We will meet again."

After saying that, he drove the yacht away quickly.

When Ye Feng, Xiao Changqing, Hong Xiaotian and the rest arrived, they only saw a dozen corpses floating on the sea.

"Old Xiao, it seems like your subordinates are also a bunch of trash. At least none of my subordinates died." Hong Xiaotian was very vengeful. He had not forgotten how Xiao Changqing had mocked him just now.

Xiao Changqing's face was ashen, not because he had lost a few subordinates, but because he had lost face in front of Ye Feng.

Hong Xiaotian could also find an excuse to say that he was afraid of accidentally injuring the tourists, so he did not dare to kill Ah Can on the boat.

However, he could not find an excuse. Ah Can was clearly trapped, but in the end, the other party still escaped at the last moment.

"Mr. Ye, I'm sorry. I didn't expect this Ah Can to be so cunning..."

He looked at Ye Feng who was standing at the side with a face full of shame.

Ye Feng looked in the direction where Ah Can escaped. He shook his head and smiled. "I don't blame you. If this guy was really that easy to catch, would I have gone through so much trouble?"

In fact, he had already expected this outcome.

Since Ah Can was known as the 'King of Thieves', how could he be so easily caught?

It was because of this that he set up the third line of defense.

"Ah Can, if I really let you escape today, where would I put my face?"

Ye Feng looked at Ah Can who had turned into a small black dot, killing intent flashed in his eyes.

..

Ah Can drove the yacht far away before finding a beach to dock.

He turned around and saw that no one was chasing after him. He then heaved a sigh of relief.

As the wound on his hand had been soaked in seawater, it was now in excruciating pain.

However, the pain on the surface was far inferior to the pain in his heart.

The dagger had pierced through his palm. Even if the wound healed, his hand would not be as good as before. His strength would definitely be greatly reduced.

"B*stard, I killed you in one strike. You're lucky."

When Ah Can thought of that scarred face, he gnashed his teeth in hatred.

If he wasn't in a hurry to escape, he wouldn't have let that b*stard die so easily. At the very least, he would have skinned him alive to relieve the hatred in his heart.

He slowly walked ashore and went to the store by the shore to buy some mineral water. He took a few gulps and poured the rest on his wound.

With the help of the cold mineral water, the wound finally didn't hurt as much.

Ah Can let out a long breath. He was prepared to find a place to rest first, before thinking about how to take revenge on Hong family, the Xiao family, and Ye Feng.

He had suffered such a huge setback today. He would definitely not let it go just like that.

He would not let off any of the people who participated in the encirclement today.

However, before he could take two steps, a strong sense of danger suddenly surged into his heart.

This was a sense of crisis that he had gradually honed after experiencing countless life-and-death situations.

He subconsciously rolled forward.

However, he was still a step too late. Just as he rolled forward, a gunshot rang out.

His right leg was pierced through by the sniper rifle.

"Ah..."

At that moment, Ah Can almost fainted from the pain, and he kept cursing in his heart.

This little b*stard Ye Feng was too ruthless!

In order to deal with him, even snipers were mobilized. Why didn't you f*cking mobilize your aircraft and cannons?

As soon as he thought of this, he heard the sound of a propeller above his head.

"F*ck, they really f*cking sent a plane?"

He looked up and saw two helicopters flying toward him.

"F*ck, I'll f*ck..."

He cursed a few times and rushed out in a hurry. He didn't dare to walk in a straight line, but kept moving in an S-shape.

Bang, bang...

At the same time, two more gunshots rang out.

Fortunately, he dodged quickly and was almost hit again.

"Ye Feng, if I can survive today, I will definitely not let you off..." Ah Can cursed as he fled.

In order to deal with him, this Ye Feng really used all the forces. He did not know whether to cry or feel honored.

Just as he was cursing in his heart, he saw more than 20 heads suddenly pop out from behind the cover. Each of them was holding a gun.

It was over. This time, there was really no way out!

Chapter 1004 Even God is Helping Me -

1004 Even God is Helping Me

After Ah Can snatched the boat and escaped, Liu Fanghai and the others received the news.

Fortunately, Ye Feng had predicted this possibility in advance. He had already arranged for the Golden Broth Security guards to be stationed at the nearby landing points.

And Ah Can happened to bump into the muzzle of a gun.

Liu Fanghai slowly walked out with his men and looked at Ah Can with a smile. "You're quite good at running. So many people actually couldn't stop you."

Ah Can slowly raised his hands. "I say, isn't this Mr. Ye too ruthless? Didn't I just steal a piece of his map? Is there a need for him to chase me to the ends of the earth?"

Now that he had more than twenty guns pointed at him, he did not even have the courage to run away.

Liu Fanghai sneered. "You've offended Mr. Ye and you still want to run?"

"Even if you run to outer space, we can still catch you. If you don't want to be shot in the head, then hold your head and squat down."

Ah Can didn't dare to resist and could only do as he said. "Alright, I'm convinced. I won't run anymore, alright?"

Liu Fanghai immediately gestured to his subordinates. Immediately, two people walked out and were about to arrest Ah Can.

At this moment, a childish little girl's voice suddenly sounded, "Mommy, come and chase me..."

Everyone turned around and saw a little girl about three or four years old running over.

"Don't come over..." Liu Fanghai shouted, but it was too late.

How could an old fox like Ah Can let go of such a good opportunity? He immediately rolled on the ground and grabbed the little girl in his hand.

"All of you, f*cking step back, or I'll kill her."

Ah Can's eyes were wide open as he pressed the blade against the little girl's throat. With just a light cut, she would be dead.

The little girl was so scared that she started crying loudly. Her legs kept flapping. "Mommy, Mommy, save me..."

The girl's mother was also scared silly at this time. It took her a long time to react and immediately begged, "Let go of my daughter..."

As she spoke, she was about to rush over.

Ah Can exerted force with the blade in his hand and immediately cut the little girl's neck. Blood flowed out.

"Mommy..." The little girl cried even harder.

The woman's face had turned pale from fright. She stopped in her tracks in a hurry. "I beg you, don't hurt my daughter. I'll give you anything you want. I beg you..."

Ah Can couldn't be bothered with her. He turned to look at Liu Fanghai and the others. "Are you all f*cking deaf? I told you to get lost!"

Liu Fanghai gritted his teeth. In the end, he waved his hand and ordered Golden Soup Security to retreat.

After all, they weren't from the Office of Personnel. Using guns was already a big offense. If someone died, it wouldn't be a joke.

Ah Can immediately laughed arrogantly. "Even God is helping me. He sent me a little angel at the critical moment."

As he spoke, he stuck out his tongue and licked the blood on the little girl's neck.

"Mommy..." The little girl was crying so hard that she kept calling for her mother.

"Be good. As long as you help me with a small favor, I won't hurt you." Ah Can gave her a gentle smile.

At this moment, he did not look like a vicious thug. Instead, he looked like a kind father.

The little girl looked at him blankly. "Really?"

Ah Can immediately nodded. "Uncle won't lie to children. Let's make a pinky promise."

As he spoke, he actually held her little hand and hooked his finger with the little girl's.

The little girl's tearful face revealed an innocent smile.

Ah Can turned to look at Liu Fanghai. "Send me a car."

Liu Fanghai stared at him with a gloomy expression. He was in a dilemma. If he really gave him a car, then the mission Mr. Ye gave him might fail.

"My patience is limited. Don't force me," Ah Can urged impatiently and pressed the blade against the little girl's neck again.

Liu Fanghai had no choice but to compromise. "Alright, I'll give you the car. But let the child go first. She's innocent."

Ah Can laughed sinisterly. "Don't tell me you're also treating me like a three-year-old? If I let her go, you'll probably send me a hearse, right? Hurry up, I'll only give you five minutes. If you exceed one minute, I'll break one of her fingers."

The little girl looked at him blankly, as if she couldn't understand why this uncle who was smiling at her just now suddenly became so fierce.

Liu Fanghai had no choice but to get someone to prepare a car for him.

Soon, a Toyota Corolla drove over.

"Park in front, put the keys on the front of the car, and scram," Ah Can continued to order.

Liu Fanghai instructed his men to do as he was told. Then, he looked at him. "Can you let the child go now?"

Ah Can blocked using the little girl in front of him to prevent a sniper from shooting. Then, he walked to the car vigilantly.

He looked at the backseat to make sure that there was no one hiding behind him before taking out the car keys and opening the door.

Then, he started the car again. After confirming that there were no problems, he heaved a sigh of relief.

“Go back and tell Ye Feng that I won’t let him off. Maybe one day when he goes to the toilet, sleeps, or makes love, I will suddenly appear behind him, hahaha...”

Ah Can laughed maniacally. Then, his face suddenly became ferocious. He waved the blade in his hand, about to cut the little girl’s throat.

“Don’t...” When the girl’s mother saw this scene, her eyes immediately widened in fear.

Bang!

At this moment, the sniper hiding in the dark fired again. The bullet almost brushed past Ah Can’s ear and hit the car.

Ah Can couldn’t be bothered to kill anymore. He hurriedly left the little girl behind, then closed the car door with a bang, and sped away.

“The two of you, take the child to the hospital. The rest of you, get in the car and chase after him. Even if you have to chase him to the ends of the earth, you have to bring this b*stard back.”

Liu Fanghai immediately left two female members to take care of the little girl while the rest of the people got into the car.

Weng, weng, weng...

More than ten cars immediately chased after Ah Can.

Chapter 1005 You're Right, We Meet Again -

1005 You're Right, We Meet Again

"Hu..."

Ah Can drove the Toyota Corolla through the crowded traffic.

The drivers on the road all dodged to the side.

"D*mn it, are you in a hurry to reincarnate?"

A driver stuck his head out of the window and cursed at the back of his car.

However, before he could retract his head, swoosh... More than ten cars followed closely behind the Corolla.

The driver was so scared that his face turned pale. "What the f*ck is going on? Are you shooting a Hollywood blockbuster?"

The drivers on the road were all shocked by this scene. The racing scene that should have appeared in a movie was actually happening in reality.

Ah Can drove the car to the maximum speed with a crazy smile on his face.

At this moment, a Golden Soup Security Company's car had already caught up. A security guard leaned out of the window and pointed a gun at him. "Stop the car immediately, or I'll shoot..."

Before he could finish, Ah Can's car suddenly changed direction and rammed into the car.

Weng, weng, weng...

The engine roared, and the car was knocked off the road and crashed into a street lamp pole.

“Hahaha...”

Ah Can let out a hair-raising laugh and continued to drive at high speed.

During this period, Golden Broth’s car caught up with him several times, but in the end, he was able to shake them off.

At this moment, a red light suddenly lit up in front of them. There were many pedestrians crossing the road on the sidewalk.

However, his car didn’t slow down at all and directly rushed over.

Bang bang bang...

A few pedestrians were immediately sent flying by him, and the scene was filled with screams.

He could be so inhumane, but Liu Fanghai and the others could not. They could only slow down and take a detour.

By the time they caught up, they had already lost track of Ah Can.

“F*ck, find him! Even if you have to dig three feet into the ground, you have to dig him out today!”

Liu Fanghai slammed the steering wheel angrily. He held the walkie-talkie and roared at his subordinates.

Ye Feng had given him such an important mission, and he had even given the other party a military pledge, but under the encirclement of so many people, Ah Can had actually escaped.

If he didn't catch this b*stard, how could he face Mr. Ye?

..

At the same time, Ah Can had already fled far away.

Looking at the rearview mirror, he could no longer see the Golden Broth Security guards.

“Hehehe, you want to catch me? You guys are still a little inexperienced.”

Ah Can was extremely pleased with himself. Ye Feng had set up many obstacles to capture him, but in the end, he suffered heavy losses and could not catch a single hair on him.

The Hong family, the Xiao family, and Golden Broth Security were the three most powerful forces in the Gambling City. They were all played by him.

Who else in the entire Gambling City?

This kind of achievement was enough for him to be proud of.

What was the King of Thieves? This was the King of Thieves!

However, the only thing that made him unhappy was that his right hand and right leg were seriously injured. Even if they recovered, they would definitely not be able to recover to their peak condition.

“How hateful!”

He gritted his teeth. This debt was all on Ye Feng's head.

“Wait for me to rest for a few days, then I’ll settle the score with you!”

He cursed under his breath and threw the car to the side of the road. Then, he looked around warily. After confirming that no one was following him, he limped into a small alley.

Because he had many enemies, he did not dare to go to the hospital when he was injured.

However, he knew of an underground hospital nearby that specialized in treating members of the underground organization.

However, as he walked, he suddenly felt a chill in his heart. He had a bad feeling.

His premonition was very reliable. Every time it appeared, something bad would happen.

Just today, this premonition had saved his life several times.

He suddenly stopped and was about to leave the alley.

Suddenly, a woman appeared at the entrance of the alley.

Ah Can’s eyelids immediately twitched. He recognized her at a glance. This was the woman who tripped him on the boat.

There was indeed a problem!

He was shocked and turned around.

A man appeared silently on the other end with a teasing smile on his face. “You’re right. We meet again.”

It was Ye Feng!

Ah Can's face twitched twice. When he fled on the speedboat, he said proudly that "We will meet again", but now Ye Feng returned the favor. There was endless mockery in his words.

No matter how you change your form, you still can't escape from my palm.

After Ah Can drove the speedboat away, Ye Feng went ashore and chased after Liu Fanghai and the rest.

However, just as they were halfway there, they received a message from Liu Fanghai. He told them about how they surrounded Ah Can and gave them the other party's escape route.

With Ye Feng's driving skills, it was easy for him to chase after someone.

Ah Can observed the surroundings while smiling bitterly at Ye Feng. "Big brother, why did you cause such a huge commotion to capture me?"

"Did I offend you?"

Ye Feng immediately sneered: "Ah Can, at this time, are you still trying to act dumb? You stole my treasure map. Do you really think I can't find you?"

Ah Can looked at him innocently. "Big brother, are you mistaken? What treasure map? I don't know."

Cheng Fei'er also walked over at this time, a hint of mockery on her lips. "At this time, is there still a need to quibble?"

"Don't you know what you did in Yang Cheng some time ago?"

Ah Can's face was full of confusion. "I haven't left Gambling City recently. Are you guys mistaken?"

It had to be said that this guy's acting skills were really perfect.

If Ye Feng and Cheng Fei'er were not 100% confident, they would have been fooled by this guy's disguise.

Ye Feng snorted coldly. "It doesn't matter if you don't admit it. As long as I capture you, I have ways to make you talk."

Ah Can had already regained his composure. A strange smile appeared on his face. "Then we'll talk about it after you catch me..."

Before he could finish his sentence, he suddenly tapped his left foot on the wall, and his body immediately flew toward the opposite wall.

As long as he could climb over that wall, he would be able to escape again.

But Ye Feng did not stop him. He only sneered.

Just as Ah Can was about to grab the wall, he flicked his finger lightly, and a silver needle as thin as an ox's hair suddenly flew out.

Ah Can felt his right arm go numb, and his strength was immediately reduced by half.

With a thud, he fell back into the alley.

..

Ah Can fell back into the alley again, and his heart was inexplicably shocked.

He reached out and pulled out a silver needle from his arm. Such a thin silver needle would break very easily.

But Ye Feng could actually use it as a hidden weapon. He could even accurately hit someone's acupoints. It was simply unbelievable!

The way he looked at Ye Feng now was like he was looking at a ghost.

What kind of monster did he provoke?

At that time, he had accepted the mission because the employer's offer was too high and he could not resist the temptation.

If he had known that this guy was so difficult to deal with, he wouldn't have accepted it even if he were offered 10 billion.

Chapter 1006 What Has Your Master Can Not Seen Before? -

1006 What Has Your Master Can Not Seen Before?

"Hahaha, your concealed weapon technique is not bad. Who did you learn it from?" Ah Can slowly got up from the ground and gave Ye Feng a harmless smile.

"Self-taught. Do you want to learn? If you want to learn, just obediently surrender." Ye Feng looked at him with a smile.

"Of course I want to learn, but... I'm afraid you can't teach me..." Ah Can was halfway through his sentence when he suddenly flicked the silver needle back with considerable force.

While Ye Feng was dodging, he turned around and ran toward Cheng Fei'er.

Of the two, Cheng Fei'er was clearly easier to deal with.

Cheng Fei'er saw him rushing toward her and only sneered before immediately leaping forward to meet him.

Ah Can's speed was extremely fast. The moment he came into contact with Cheng Fei'er, his body suddenly swayed, and he actually appeared behind her in an instant. He was about to accelerate and escape.

However, Cheng Fei'er had already been prepared for this move. Her right hand reached out like lightning and grabbed his left arm.

Ah Can used the same trick again. With a slight shake of his arm, he actually escaped from her hands like a loach.

Cheng Fei'er was furious. She had already used all her strength, but she did not expect the other party to still be able to break free. This was too much of a slap in the face.

She immediately made up her mind and continued to use the grappling hand.

After all, Ah Can was injured, and his movements were no longer as agile as before.

Before he could even take two steps, Cheng Fei'er grabbed his arm again and threw him over her shoulder.

However, this guy was too difficult to deal with. The moment his body landed, he pushed his feet on the ground to avoid contact with the ground.

Then, his arm twisted in an exaggerated manner and he escaped from Cheng Fei'er's hands again.

Cheng Fei'er's head was really hurting now. She had never met such a difficult opponent before. She quickly asked Ye Feng for help.

But Ye Feng just stood at the side and watched the show. He did not have any intention of helping.

Not only that, he even mocked her, “You’re an elite member of the Security Team, but you can’t even catch a thief. How embarrassing.”

Cheng Fei’er glared at him hatefully, completely giving up on the idea of asking him for help.

However, his words were not completely unreasonable. If she could not even catch such a thief, it would be too embarrassing for the Security Team.

When she thought of this, she immediately became ruthless.

Ah Can had just broken free from Cheng Fei’er’s grip and was about to continue fleeing when he was suddenly kicked in the right leg by the other party.

“Ah...” Ah Can let out a shrill scream. His leg had been shot through by a sniper rifle. Although his bones weren’t injured, his injuries were still quite serious.

At this moment, his wound was kicked hard, and a piercing pain came, almost making him faint.

This woman was so ruthless!

Before he could curse, Cheng Fei’er grabbed his arm for the third time and then twisted it backward.

His arm dislocated with a ‘kacha’.

“Ah...” Ah Can screamed again, and a chill ran down his back. “I won’t run anymore, I... I’m convinced...”

He felt that if he continued to struggle, he would be tortured to death by this woman.

Cheng Fei'er was like an emotionless machine. She immediately took out a pair of handcuffs from her waist and handcuffed him.

Then, she blew at the few strands of hair on her forehead and looked at Ye Feng arrogantly.

Ye Feng was amused by her child-like expression. He immediately gave her a thumbs-up. "The Security Team is indeed worthy of its reputation."

Cheng Fei'er was satisfied. He could insult her, but not the Security Team.

But she immediately heard Ye Feng add: "To be able to catch a heavily injured thief, it proves that you are not completely useless."

After saying that, he took the lead and walked out of the alley.

Cheng Fei'er looked at his arrogant back and gritted her teeth.

However, that man was someone she could not stand and could not defeat. She really could not do anything to him.

She snorted angrily and kicked Ah Can's wound again.

"Ah..." Ah Can screamed again, feeling depressed.

This woman was too hateful. Who provoked you? Why are you taking it out on me?

..

"You still don't want to tell me the truth?"

In an underground warehouse of the Xiao family, Cheng Fei'er glared at Ah Can.

The warehouse was surrounded by people from the Hong family, the Xiao family, and Golden Broth Security. There were at least a few hundred people in total. Even if Ah Can grew wings, he could forget about escaping.

Ah Can rested his legs on the table and glanced at her disdainfully. "Your Master Can is the King of Thieves who terrorizes the Gambling City. Do you think a little girl like you is qualified to interrogate me?"

Cheng Fei'er was scorned by him and was even more furious. "What bullsh*t King of Thieves? No matter how powerful you are, aren't you still in our hands?"

Ah Can looked at the hundreds of people around him. "There are so many of you here to catch me, and you still have the cheek to brag?"

"If you have the guts, let me go. Come and catch me alone. As long as you can catch me, I'll tell you everything I know."

Cheng Fei'er was speechless. She had to admit that this guy was too troublesome. It was impossible for her to catch him alone.

She turned to look at Ye Feng who was sitting at the side. This guy was resting with his eyes closed. He did not seem to want to participate in the interrogation.

She gritted her teeth and turned to look at Ah Can again. "I don't want to waste my breath on you. I advise you to cooperate obediently so that you won't suffer."

Ah Can immediately burst into laughter. "You're just a little girl. You haven't even grown your hair yet, and you still want to scare your Master Can? What kind of situation has Master Can not seen before? If you have any moves, just come out."

As he spoke, he suddenly took out his hands that were handcuffed behind his back and threw them on the table.

Then, he took out a pack of cigarettes from his pocket, lit one, and slowly exhaled a mouthful of smoke.

Cheng Fei'er's eyes immediately widened.

How did he unlock the handcuffs?

Chapter 1007 Why Do You Think People Call Me the King of Thieves? -

1007 Why Do You Think People Call Me the King of Thieves?

The handcuffs used by Cheng Fei'er were specially made by the Security Team and were much more sophisticated than the handcuffs used generally.

The person who designed this pair of handcuffs was a top expert who specialized in designing military equipment.

Furthermore, during the research and development period, they had specially found many lockpicking experts and thieves to test it. No one had ever been able to open it without a key.

She didn't expect Ah Can to open it so easily.

"You... How did you do it?" Cheng Fei'er quickly walked forward and picked up the handcuffs to check them.

The handcuffs were still intact and there were no signs of them being opened. How did this guy get out?

Ah Can smoked his cigarette with a disdainful smile on his face. "Why do you think people call me the King of Thieves? Your handcuffs can handcuff others, but can they handcuff your Master Can?"

His words were too arrogant. Although Cheng Fei'er wanted to refute him, she really had nothing to say.

“Okay, don’t be too arrogant. I don’t believe that I can’t deal with you. Go find a rope and tie him up,” she ordered one of the Golden Soup Security guards.

The subordinate immediately went to find a rope as thick as a thumb and began to tie Ah Can up.

Ah Can had a cigarette in his mouth and did not resist at all.

The subordinate knew that this guy was very cunning, so he tied his arms behind his back to the back of the chair and tightened the rope tightly around his body.

When the subordinate tied Ah Can up, Cheng Fei’er looked at him provocatively again. “If you have the ability, continue to struggle free.”

Ah Can took two puffs of the cigarette in his mouth before spitting it out. “You want to trouble your Master Can with this kind of child’s play? It’s said that women have long hair but short knowledge. Today, Master Can will let you broaden your horizons.”

As soon as he finished speaking, his hands were already in front of him, and the rope on his body fell off.

The subordinate who was in charge of tying him up just now was stunned. “I tied him up very tightly. How did he break free? What a ghost!”

Everyone else present widened their eyes.

They had seen the entire process of tying him up. He was indeed tied up very tightly.

However, Ah Can had only spoken a few words before he successfully broke free.

The King of Thieves was indeed the King of Thieves. His methods were indeed extraordinary.

Cheng Fei'er was so angry that her pretty face turned pale. Especially when Ah Can was staring at her with disdain, this made her even angrier. "I don't believe it. You really have the Seventy-Two Transformations?"

As she spoke, she personally walked over and tied him up.

The Security Team had many ways to tie up prisoners, and she was using an improved version of the tortoiseshell binding. The more the person struggled, the tighter the binding would be.

Even if he was the King of Thieves, he was still a human, not a god. She did not believe that she could not restrain him.

After tying the last knot, she asked two strong men to come over and tighten it.

Cheng Fei'er clapped her hands in satisfaction and walked up to Ah Can. "Aren't you the King of Thieves? If you have the ability, try again."

Ah Can could not help but shake his head. "Sigh, you woman..."

Cheng Fei'er looked at him smugly. "What? Can't break free? Then behave yourself."

The sneer on Ah Can's face grew stronger. "I just think you're wasting your time. Do you think your little tricks will make it difficult for your Master Can?"

The moment he finished speaking, his hands broke free again and deliberately reached out to shake Cheng Fei'er. "What other tricks do you have? Continue to use them."

Everyone, including Cheng Fei'er, was shocked by this guy's ability to escape.

They had all seen the knot that Cheng Fei'er had tied and knew that it was a very clever method of tying. Once bound, there was basically no possibility of escape.

But Ah Can had done it, and it was so fast.

They didn't see how he struggled. How did he break free?

It was like magic.

Only Ye Feng who was sitting at the side could see through it. He could not help but reveal a playful smile.

Cheng Fei'er was completely at her wit's end. Facing someone like Ah Can, it was like a weasel biting a turtle. She had no idea where to start.

Ah Can had an arrogant smile on his face. "Why don't we make a bet?"

Cheng Fei'er glared at him angrily. "Bet on what?"

Ah Can licked his lips. "I'll give you three more chances. You can use any method to tie me up. As long as you can make me unable to move, I'll cooperate with your interrogation."

"If I can successfully escape three times, you will let me go. How was it? Think about it?"

Cheng Fei'er immediately sneered. "You're already a fish on our chopping board now. Is there a need for me to bet with you? Even if you don't cooperate, I have a way to make you talk."

Although she said that, she knew that she had changed her direction and admitted defeat because she really could not tie the other party up.

The sneer on Ah Can's face became even more pronounced. "Then you can try and see if I'll say a word."

Cheng Fei'er's face darkened, and she was about to fly into a rage.

At this time, Ye Feng, who had been silent all this while, suddenly stood up and walked over. "Alright, I'll bet with you."

"Ye Feng, you..."

Cheng Fei'er was instantly anxious. Didn't this guy see how cunning Ah Can was just now? He actually dared to agree to bet with him?

Ah Can's eyes immediately lit up. "You're a man. Then I can take another step back and give you five chances. You can use any method to trap me."

Ye Feng slowly took out the silver needles from his pocket. "No need for five times, one time is enough."

Before Ah Can could speak, his right hand had already reached out like lightning. In the blink of an eye, four silver needles had pierced into the acupuncture points on his shoulders and legs.

"What do you mean?" Ah Can did not notice anything wrong with his body. He looked at Ye Feng in confusion.

"I've already tied you up. If you can still escape, you can leave on your own. I guarantee that no one will stop you."

Ye Feng had a harmless smile on his face. He turned around and waved at his subordinates. "Move aside, let him go."

Everyone was confused and did not know what he wanted to do.

However, since Mr. Ye had given the order, they could only do as he said and spread out to both sides.

Chapter 1008 I Will Interrogate This Person Personally -

1008 I Will Interrogate This Person Personally

Ah Can looked at the path that led to the door, then looked at Ye Feng with doubt. "You really want me to leave?"

Cheng Fei'er hurriedly tugged at Ye Feng's sleeve and gave him a meaningful glance.

They had gone through so much trouble to capture Ah Can. How could they let him go so easily?

Ye Feng ignored her. He nodded seriously at Ah Can. "Please."

Ah Can was immediately overjoyed. "Then I'm really leaving."

After saying that, he immediately stood up and left.

However, just as he took a step forward, his legs went soft and he fell to the ground with a thud.

He was instantly horrified. At this moment, he could not feel the existence of his legs at all. It was as if these legs no longer belonged to him.

He subconsciously wanted to reach out to touch it, but to his horror, his hands did not listen to him. He used all his strength, but he could not raise them at all.

"What spell did you use on me?" Ah Can looked at Ye Feng in fear.

Everyone, including Cheng Fei'er, was shocked.

They could all see that Ah Can had completely lost his ability to move. He couldn't even get up on his own.

They had used all sorts of methods just now, but they had failed to tie Ah Can up.

And Ye Feng had only inserted a few needles into his body, yet he was able to bind his limbs?

Wasn't this too miraculous?

Ye Feng had a faint smile as he slowly squatted in front of Ah Can. "You are indeed quite powerful. You can actually cultivate the Bone Shrinking Technique to such a level."

"It's impossible to tie you up with a rope. Fortunately, I have a better way than a rope."

Hearing his explanation, Cheng Fei'er and the others finally understood.

Ah Can actually knew the Bone Shrinking Technique. No wonder they couldn't tie him up no matter what method they used just now.

The principle of this Bone Shrinking Technique was simple. It was to train the body's flexibility to the limit through abnormal training, so that the body and bones could be folded to the smallest state.

However, it was easy to say. If one wanted to practice it well, they would have to undergo extremely cruel training. Sometimes, in order to ensure the tightness between the bones, they would even have to break the bones and reattach them.

Who knew how much hard work it would take to reach Ah Can's level?

But fortunately, the wicked would be punished. Even though Ah Can's Bone Shrinking Technique was powerful, Ye Feng's silver needles could restrain him.

Cheng Fei'er could not help but secretly glance at Ye Feng. This guy seemed to be omnipotent.

Their thorny problem was actually solved by him.

Ah Can's face was already ashen. Although he could break free from any rope, he couldn't break free from this invisible rope.

He could not help but sigh in his heart. He had underestimated this kid!

Ye Feng got someone to help him back to his seat. He smiled at him. "You said earlier that as long as I can trap you, you will cooperate, right?"

Ah Can's eyes darted around. "I said to tie me up with a rope, not with needles."

"If this counts, then you might as well cut off my limbs. Then I won't be able to leave."

The smile on Ye Feng's face disappeared. "Are you trying to deny it?"

Ah Can leaned against the wall like a dead pig that wasn't afraid of boiling water. "Why else would I say that you're stupid? I'm a thief, and you believe what a thief says? You're really stupid."

Ye Feng stared straight at him. "This is the last time I'm going to persuade you nicely. You better tell me the truth, otherwise, I will make you regret being born into this world."

Ah Can also stared at him with a hint of disdain in his eyes. "Since you know that I practice the Bone Shrinking Technique, you should know how painful the process of practicing this technique is."

"I can even endure this kind of pain. What other methods can't I endure? If you have any ability, just show it to Master Can."

Arthur walked over and said, "Mr. Ye, don't waste your breath on him. Give me five minutes and I promise I'll make him talk."

After saying that, he looked at Ah Can with a sinister smile as if he were looking at a piece of fat meat.

But Ye Feng raised his hand to stop him. “No need, I will interrogate this person personally.”

Although he had seen Arthur’s cruel methods when interrogating Jiang Chusheng, Ah Can was not Jiang Chusheng.

Just as he had said, he was able to cultivate such a cruel cultivation technique like the Bone Shrinking Technique to such a realm. It was obvious that ordinary physical pain would not be able to make him yield.

He pondered for a moment, then suddenly leaned into Arthur’s ear and whispered a few words to him.

Arthur heard something and shivered. He looked at him with a questioning gaze, as if asking, “Do we really have to use such a cruel method?”

Ye Feng patted his shoulder. “Go, come back quickly.”

Arthur nodded with fear. He called two people over and walked out with him.

Cheng Fei’er was curious. What could scare Arthur, a man who killed people like flies?

Soon, she got the answer.

After about 20 minutes, Arthur and the others returned with a bag in their hands.

“Mr. Ye, I’ve found everything you wanted.” Arthur walked in front of Ye Feng and answered respectfully.

“Pour it out.” Ye Feng nodded lightly.

Arthur immediately got someone to find an empty bucket and shook the things in his pocket into it.

Cheng Fei'er looked over curiously, wanting to see what it was that made it so mysterious.

Then, she saw a large pile of centipedes, scorpions, venomous snakes, toads... It made one's hair stand on end.

"Ah..."

She was so frightened that her face turned pale. She turned around and ran into Ye Feng's arms.

As the soft fragrance entered his embrace, Ye Feng's heart skipped a beat. His hands immediately stuck to her back and buttocks.

Cheng Fei'er was wearing a wine-red silk dress today. The dress was very tight and felt very good.

When the group of subordinates saw this scene, they all revealed a faint smile on their faces and lowered their heads. Would they be silenced?

Cheng Fei'er also reacted at this time. She hurriedly struggled out of Ye Feng's embrace and glared at him hatefully.

This guy really knew how to climb along the pole. Wasn't he taking advantage of others?

..

"Why did you bring so many poisonous insects here?"

Cheng Fei'er was very afraid of these poisonous insects.

Although the Security Team also had field survival training and often asked them to catch spiders, caterpillars, and poisonous snakes, her results in this area had always been at the bottom.

She was traumatized by these things from the bottom of her heart.

Ye Feng looked at the poisonous things in the bucket with admiration, as if he was admiring something beautiful. "Of course it's useful."

As he spoke, he glanced at Ah Can.

Ah Can immediately sneered. "Hehe, I thought you could come up with something new. It seems that I overestimated you. Do you think you can scare me with these things?"

Ye Feng gave him a meaningful smile. "You will know later."

Although Ah Can was a little puzzled, he was still disdainful. He didn't think that he had any novel methods.

At this time, the poisonous creatures in the barrel had already started to attack each other, and the fight was very fierce.

Arthur and the rest were curiously watching the situation, while Ye Feng sat back on his chair and started drinking tea.

Cheng Fei'er looked at him in confusion. "What exactly do you want? Why can't I understand it?"

Chapter 1009 I Don't Believe That There's Such A Poison In This World -

1009 I Don't Believe That There's Such A Poison In This World

Ye Feng winked at her. "It's right that you don't understand, because you are still too young."

Cheng Fei'er was speechless. He was just a little brat, and he actually said that she was too young?

Although she didn't ask, she knew that this guy always had a lot of tricks up his sleeve. She was slightly looking forward to it.

After about half an hour, Arthur suddenly shouted at Ye Feng: "Mr. Ye, only one centipede is left among these poisonous creatures. Do you need to find more?"

Ye Feng slowly stood up. "No need, this is enough. Go get a pot."

Hearing his request, everyone present was even more confused. Why did he need a pot?

Was he planning to cook these poisonous creatures and eat them?

Ye Feng did not explain. He waited for Arthur and the others to bring the pot over, and he plugged it in and boiled a pot of water.

When the water boiled, he put on gloves and took out the only centipede that survived from the bucket.

Cheng Fei'er immediately hid far away in fear.

Ye Feng did not bother about her. He directly threw the centipede that was still struggling into the pot of boiling water.

He took out a porcelain bottle from his pocket, poured some white powder into the pot, and began to stir it with a spoon.

"That barrel of poisonous creatures were biting each other inside. The one that can survive until the end is the most poisonous one inside. Moreover, all the poison of these poisonous creatures is gathered on its body..."

He explained to Ah Can as he brewed the medicine. "I added some special powder into it just now. Do you want to know what effect this poison will have?"

Ah Can immediately sneered. "What effect can it have? At most, I'll be poisoned to death. How can this scare me?"

Ye Feng shook his head. "You are wrong, it will not kill you immediately. It will act up slowly. In the beginning, your body will just be a little itchy, like a little bug running around in your body. You want to reach out and scratch it..."

His voice was very bewitching, making people feel as if they were there.

Everyone present felt as if there was really a bug running around in their bodies, and they subconsciously scratched their heads.

Cheng Fei'er knew that this guy didn't have anything good to say, so she hurriedly covered her ears, not wanting to listen anymore.

Ye Feng continued, "As the 'bug' grows, this itch will continue to increase, then you will scratch continuously, scratch with all your strength. The more you scratch, the more itchy it gets, and the more you scratch."

"And your skin will become very loose at this time. Under your scratching, you will peel off your skin layer by layer."

"Have you ever eaten potatoes? Yes, it's like peeling potatoes..."

Ah Can's expression had already changed. His original disdain had been replaced by fear. "You... Are you trying to scare me? How can there be such a poison in this world?"

Ye Feng had a pure smile on his face, but in Ah Can's eyes, it made his hair stand on end. "Scared? If you're afraid, confess honestly so that you won't have to suffer this pain."

Ah Can stared at him for a long time, as if he wanted to see through the truth in his words. After a moment, he laughed disdainfully again. "Do you really think I'm a three-year-old? You want to scare me with just a few words? I don't believe that there's such a poison in the world."

"You really won't shed tears until you see the coffin. Then you'll have to wait to taste the feeling of a hundred claws scratching your heart."

Ye Feng could not be bothered to talk nonsense with him. He looked at the pot again.

After another ten minutes or so, the pot actually emitted waves of fragrance, making one's appetite increase.

However, when everyone thought of what was cooking in the pot, their appetite immediately turned into disgust.

Ye Feng found a bowl and filled it with centipede soup. He turned around and passed it to Arthur. "Let him drink it."

Arthur was also a ruthless person. He took the bowl and turned to walk toward Ah Can.

Ah Can's expression changed again and again, but he couldn't move his hands or feet now. He couldn't resist even if he wanted to.

Arthur opened his mouth and poured the bowl of centipede soup into it.

The taste of the centipede soup was actually quite good. The fear in Ah Can's heart faded a little. This kid was indeed scaring him.

How could there be such a poison in this world? Did he really think of Master Can as a three-year-old child?

“Kid, this soup is really not bad. Give Master Can two more bowls.” He immediately looked at Ye Feng arrogantly.

Ye Feng had a strange smile on his face. “Then give two more bowls to Master Can.”

Arthur went to get two more bowls and poured them into Ah Can’s mouth.

“Mmm, it’s delicious. Kid, your cooking skills are not bad. Come and cook for Master Can in the future.” Ah Can continued to provoke Ye Feng.

“Sure, but the premise is that you can live past today.”

Ye Feng smiled as he removed the silver needles from Ah Can’s body, then looked at Cheng Fei’er. “It’s time for dinner, I’m hungry too. Let’s go out and have some food first.”

“Then, he...” Cheng Fei’er hesitated.

“Trust me, there will be good news after we finish eating.”

Ye Feng pulled her hand and walked out.

Arthur and the others looked at their backs with envy.

Mr. Ye went on a date with a beautiful woman, but they had to stay behind to watch over the criminal.

However, they were very curious. Was the medicinal effect that Mr. Ye said true? Was there really such a poison in this world?

Everyone looked at Ah Can, wanting to see what had changed.

Chapter 1010 Chinese People Don't Lie to Chinese People -

1010 Chinese People Don't Lie to Chinese People

"Is the medicine you said real, or are you just scaring him?"

Ye Feng did not drive. They just strolled around the streets.

Cheng Fei'er was obviously still worried about Ah Can and asked carefully.

"Of course it's true. Chinese people don't lie to Chinese people," Ye Feng casually joked.

"Then you don't have to let go of his hands and feet, right? What if he runs away again?" Cheng Fei'er was still worried. Before Ye Feng left, he removed the silver needles from Ah Can's body.

Although Arthur and the others were watching him, Ah Can was too cunning. If he escaped again, it would not be easy to catch him again.

"Aren't you annoying? Why do you keep bringing him up?" Ye Feng was getting impatient, and he quickly interrupted her.

"But..."

"No buts. There seems to be a Portuguese egg tart shop ahead. There are so many people queuing up. It should be delicious. Let's go and buy one too."

Cheng Fei'er wanted to continue but was interrupted by Ye Feng.

She looked in the direction he was pointing and saw an egg tart shop ahead.

The shop wasn't very big. There was only a small window, but there was a long line in front of the shop. There were 20 to 30 people.

She had been busy catching Ah Can today. She hadn't eaten for a day, so she was indeed a little hungry.

She did not dampen the mood and followed Ye Feng to the back of the queue.

This egg tart shop was very popular. The two of them had only queued for a few minutes, and the queue behind them was getting longer and longer. There were at least 40 to 50 people.

After waiting in line for half an hour, there were only two customers left in front of them. The two of them could even smell the fragrance coming from inside.

"It smells so good. I'll buy ten later." Cheng Fei'er's eyes were fixed on the display window, and her saliva was about to flow out.

"What a gluttonous cat." It was rare for Ye Feng to see her like this, and he could not help but tease her.

Cheng Fei'er did not argue with him. Her beautiful eyes stared at the egg tarts in the window, as if she was afraid that they would be snatched away.

After finally getting rid of the two customers in front of them, the two of them were about to go forward.

At this moment, a man suddenly squeezed in front of the two of them. He didn't even look at them. Instead, he waved at a woman in the distance. "Mingjie, this egg tart shop seems to be very good. Come quickly..."

Judging from his accent, he seemed to be from the mainland.

Ye Feng was enraged. They had been queuing for more than half an hour. It was finally their turn, but someone had cut in without even telling them.

How could he f*cking tolerate this?

He was about to argue with the man, but Cheng Fei'er stopped him and comforted him softly. "It's not worth getting angry over such a small matter."

After saying that, she even gave him a sweet smile.

Ye Feng saw that she had already said so, so he did not flare up again. It was only a matter of one or two minutes anyway. He might as well endure it for now.

However, he obviously thought too simply.

"I don't want to eat egg tarts."

The one who spoke was the woman. She was quite good-looking. Although she couldn't compare to Cheng Fei'er's beauty, she could at least be considered a school belle.

The woman was wearing a long white dress and a pair of extremely tall high heels. She walked slowly and took more than a minute to cover the distance of more than ten steps.

The man smiled ingratiatingly. "Look at the long queue here. This egg tarts must be delicious. Trust me this time."

However, the woman still shook her head. "Eating too many egg tarts will make you fat. I've been trying to lose weight recently."

"It's just a few egg tarts. You won't gain much weight." The man continued to coax her in a fawning tone. "Besides, you're already so thin. There's no need to lose weight at all."

The woman continued to shake her head. "You have to start losing weight bit by bit. If you think it's okay to eat a little less every time, you'll get fat very quickly."

The man continued to persuade her, but the woman kept shaking her head in refusal.

The two of them went back and forth for more than two minutes, but they still hadn't decided if they wanted to buy it.

The people in the queue behind them began to complain.

"Do you want to buy it or not? If you don't want to buy it, can you let us buy it first?"

"That's right. It's one thing to cut in line, but you're also a dog in the manger. This is too much."

"Can you go to the side and discuss it? We've been waiting for so long. Let us buy it first."

"Yeah, we're all in a hurry to go home. You guys have wasted all our time..."

It was normal for everyone to complain. After all, everyone had been queuing for more than half an hour, but these two guys cut the line as soon as they arrived.

Not only that, but they were also acting out a 'romance drama' in front of them. Anyone would be angry.

When the man faced the 'goddess', he still acted like a bootlicker, but when it came to others, he was completely different. "What are you arguing about? Will you die if it's later? Are you all in a hurry to reincarnate?"

The man was tall, at least 1.8 meters tall. When he was angry, he was really intimidating.

Although the crowd behind them was angry, they still shut up and did not dare to say anything else.

The man looked pleased and continued to look at the woman. "Mingjie, don't listen to these dogs barking. Think about it carefully. There's no hurry."

The woman did not think that there was anything wrong with the man's attitude. She tilted her head and pretended to be cute as she thought about it. "I think I don't want it. If I get fat from eating, no one will want me."

The man immediately smiled obsequiously. "That's even better. Doesn't that mean I have no competitors? That's all the more reason to buy it."

As he spoke, he turned to the boss and shouted, "Boss, give me five egg tarts."

Although everyone was unhappy, they finally heaved a sigh of relief. They hoped that these two would quickly leave after buying them.

However, the woman was up to no good again. She hurriedly waved her hand at the boss. "I really don't want it. Even if I buy it, I won't eat it."

The boss was also a little angry. These two people had spent more than ten minutes here, which had seriously affected his business. "Can the two of you discuss it before coming back? The customers behind are all waiting anxiously."

It would have been better if he hadn't said anything, but now that he had, the man was immediately enraged.

Bang!

The man smashed his fist on the glass and looked fierce. "What the f*ck do you mean? Are you looking down on me? Do you believe that I will burn down your shop?"

The boss did not expect him to be so angry and was immediately scared silly.

Ye Feng could not help but shake his head. Being a bootlicker and a lunatic leopard at the same time. Amazing!
