

Chapter 13

This Watch Is Very Expensive, Don't You Want To Know More?

Thinking of this, Lin Jie quickly followed.

Xu Man hesitated for a few seconds before following after him.

Unlike Lin Jie who wanted to see Ye Feng make a fool of himself, she was simply attracted by Ye Feng's handsome appearance.

'You're so handsome, why don't you have money?' Xu Man could not help but sigh.

Ye Feng also saw Lin Jie and Xu Man who were following him, but he did not care. He just walked into the luxury store.

“Hello, Sir. Welcome. How can I help you? ”

Very soon, the shop assistant saw Ye Feng and quickly went up to ask.

She did not look down on Ye Feng just because he was dressed in ordinary clothes. She always had a gentle smile on her face.

Ye Feng had a good impression of the shop assistant. He smiled and said, “I want to buy a few sets of clothes, but I don’t know which ones are suitable for me. Can you recommend some to me?”

Lin Jie, who had just entered the shop, was stunned when he heard that.

Ye Feng was actually here to buy clothes!

Could he afford it?

Beside him, Xu Man was equally shocked.

'Could it be that Ye Feng is a hidden rich man?'

Instantly, Xu Man's mind began to race.

Ye Feng glanced at Lin Jie and the other Xu Man, then continued to look at the shop assistant.

The saleswoman smiled and nodded. "Of course you can. You look so young, Sir. A version that is too formal won't suit you. We have a few types of casual wear in our store. Do you want to take a look?"

"Alright, thank you!" Ye Feng nodded.

Soon, the shop assistant came back with a few casual shirts.

Ye Feng tried it, the effect was not bad.

"Pack these up for me. Also, help me match my pants."

“Alright. What size are you wearing, Sir?”

“...”

Lin Jie and Xu Man were stunned by the conversation between Ye Feng and the shop assistant.

Even if they didn't see the price of the clothes, they knew that the things in such a store would not be cheap.

But Ye Feng chose a few sets without hesitation!

When did he become so rich?

Lin Jie's face was filled with disbelief.

Xu Man's eyes were fixed on Ye Feng.

However, the bill had not been paid yet, and she was not sure if Ye Feng was really rich, so she did not act rashly.

On the other side, the shop assistant had also helped Ye Feng with his outfit.

Ye Feng looked at the effect. It was not bad. He was ready to pay the bill.

However, he stopped after taking two steps.

In his hands...

Something seemed to be missing!

The shop assistant noticed Ye Feng's abnormal behavior and asked with a puzzled expression, "Mr. Ye, is there a problem?"

"No problem," he said. "No." Ye Feng shook his head and asked again, "Do you sell watches here?"

The sales assistant heaved a sigh of relief when she heard that it was not a problem with the clothes.

After that, the smile on her face became even more radiant, and she hurriedly nodded.

“Of course. Our shop has cooperation with several world-famous brands. Which brand do you like?”

Ye Feng thought for a while and said, “I’ll take a look first.”

He did not care about the brand of the watch at all.

Anyway, he had plenty of money now. He could afford it no matter how expensive it was, as long as it was to his liking.

“Alright, please wait a moment.” The saleswoman poured a glass of water for Ye Feng first, then came over with the three forms. “Mr. Ye, all the watches in our shop are here. Take your time to look at them. Call me if you like anything.”

Ye Feng nodded.

After the saleswoman left, he flipped through the list.

The first one was a Patek Philippe watch.

After Ye Feng finished looking through it, he did not find anything he liked, so he looked at the second list.

This book was filled with pictures of various Bulgari.

Business, leisure, sports... There were all kinds of things.

The price range from a few hundred thousand to a few million.

Ye Feng flipped through the pages.

Suddenly, he fixed his eyes on a daily watch.

Bulgari Octo Crystals 103195, a watch made with complex and exquisite craftsmanship.

A sapphire crystal mirror, a smoky-colored sapphire dial, and embedded with cut diamonds...

This was it!

Ye Feng took a fancy to this watch at first glance.

The price of over 6 million was nothing to him now.

Immediately, Ye Feng called for the shop assistant.

“Mr. Ye, which one do you like?” the shop assistant asked with a smile.

Ye Feng pointed at the picture on the list and asked, “Do you have this one in stock?”

“Mr. Ye, you really have a good eye. This watch is the pinnacle of the Bulgari Octo series, and there are only eight pieces in the world...”

“Miss, I’m sorry. I just want to know if this watch is available in stock.” Ye Feng could not help but interrupt the saleswoman.

He didn’t know much about wristwatches, and he didn’t want to know too much. He just wanted the appearance to suit his taste.

“There is!” The shop assistant nodded.

It was a coincidence that their store had a watch of this style.

“Can I take a look?”

The shop assistant thought about it and nodded. “Sure, please wait a moment.”

The watch was quickly brought over. When he opened the exquisite box, an exquisite watch appeared in front of him. It was exactly the same as the one in the picture.

Ye Feng looked at it. He was very satisfied. “Help me wrap it up!”

“Ah?”

“I’m taking this watch!”

“That... Don’t you want to find out more?” the saleswoman reminded him out of goodwill. After all, this was a matter of more than 6 million yuan.
