

100 Million 21

Chapter 21

An Invisible Pretentious B*stard Is the Most Deadly!

“Brother Feng, are you planning to move out today?” Fatty Chu asked upon seeing this.

“Yes.” Ye Feng nodded.

“Do you need me and Old Ma to help you?”

“No, I’ve already called a moving company.” Ye Feng shook his head.

“So you were the one who called for the truck downstairs?”

“Yes.”

“A nouveau riche.” Fatty Chu was a bit speechless.

Although it wasn’t expensive to find a moving company, it would cost at least a thousand or a few hundred yuan for such a big truck and so many people to help move!

It was more than a month’s living expenses for an ordinary college student!

Ye Feng smiled. He did not reply.

Fatty Chu didn’t mind. He only started to help Ye Feng pack up.

Ma Hongfei also came over to help.

The three of them chatted while packing.

As they talked, they talked about Xia Qiu's concert.

Fatty Chu was obviously a little excited at the mention of this. "Brother Feng, Old Ma, do you know how expensive the tickets to Xia Qiu's concerts are now?"

Ye Feng shook his head. Ma Hongfei asked, "How expensive is it?"

"Even the lowest-ranked ordinary tickets were sold for nearly 1,000 yuan!" Fatty Chu's expression was one of utter disbelief.

There were three types of tickets for Xia Qiu's concert: Ordinary tickets, VIP tickets, and a private room.

The ordinary tickets were divided into first-class, second-class, third-class, and last-class tickets by their distance from the stage.

The last-class tickets were the furthest from the stage and also the cheapest. The official price was 500 yuan, but in the hands of a scalper, it was actually raised to nearly 1,000 yuan.

'It is indeed quite expensive!' Ye Feng thought.

Ma Hongfei was also shocked by the price. "It's so expensive. I don't think anyone will buy it, right?"

"You're wrong, Old Ma. There are many people who want to buy it. Besides, this is already considered cheap. An ordinary first-class ticket costs at least 3,000 yuan..."

"As for the VIP tickets in the first few rows, you can't get them without 10,000 yuan."

“F*ck!” Ma Hongfei could not help but shake his head.

He didn’t chase after celebrities, so he couldn’t understand the thoughts of those fans. Was it worth it to spend so much money just to watch someone sing a few songs?

Seeing this, Fatty Chu couldn’t help but roll his eyes. “That’s enough to scare you? You don’t know the price of a diamond card with a private room.”

“How expensive is it?”

“It’s said that someone is willing to offer 100,000 yuan to buy it.”

“Hiss...” Ma Hongfei could not help but gasp.

100,000 yuan was enough for the down payment of a house in Zhonghai City. The star chasers were really... Crazy!

Fatty Chu chuckled. “But the diamond card isn’t for sale. It has nothing to do with us. Let’s talk about what happened in school.”

“I heard that there are girls who are willing to spend a night on a date in exchange for an ordinary first-class ticket. Tsk, tsk...”

As he said this, Fatty Chu’s smile also became subtle.

Ma Hongfei shook his head when he heard that. It was obvious that he could not understand the girls’ thoughts.

Ye Feng also felt his worldview crumbling.

If an ordinary first-class ticket could get him a girlfriend, then wouldn't the diamond card in his hand make countless girls throw themselves into his arms?

However, after seeing Xia Qiu's beauty, he was no longer interested in the girls in school.

Seeing that Fatty Chu's words were filled with anticipation for the concert, he asked: "Fatty, you want to go to the concert too?"

"Of course I do!" Fatty Chu hurriedly nodded his head.

It wasn't just him, almost everyone in the school wanted to.

However, many people could not get a ticket and were unwilling to buy the high-priced tickets from the scalpers, so they could only think about it.

Ye Feng chuckled. He nodded. "Alright, I will bring you there tomorrow night."

Hearing this, Fatty Chu and Ma Hongfei were both stunned.

The two of them stared at Ye Feng in disbelief.

After a while, Fatty Chu was the first to recover from his shock. He hurriedly asked, "Brother Feng, you got a ticket? What's the grade?"

Ye Feng did not reply, he only placed a black card on the table.

Fatty Chu focused his gaze and his eyes immediately widened. "F*ck, f*ck... This, this, this, this is a diamond card!"

Hearing this, Ma Hongfei looked like he had seen a ghost.

“Fatty, are you sure you didn’t see wrongly?” Didn’t the fatty just say that the diamond card cost more than 100,000 yuan and was not for sale? How did Ye Feng get it?

Fatty Chu quickly shook his head. “There’s no mistake. This is a diamond card!”

He would go to the official website to try and buy tickets every day, so he had already memorized the appearance of the tickets of all levels. He would definitely not be wrong.

“Brother Feng, where did you get this card?” he asked.

“You guess.”

“...” The corner of Fatty Chu’s mouth twitched. How was he supposed to guess?

However, he didn’t dwell on it too much. When he came to his senses, he immediately thanked him. “I can’t repay your great kindness, but...”

Ye Feng gave him a look to let him experience it himself.

Fatty Chu didn’t beat around the bush.

After chuckling, he turned to look at Ma Hongfei. “Old Ma, are you going?”

“Thank you, Brother Feng, but I won’t be going.” Ma Hongfei smiled bitterly and shook his head.

His family’s financial situation was not very good. Whenever he was free, he had to work part-time to earn his tuition and living expenses. Having fun was too extravagant for him.

Ye Feng knew Ma Hongfei’s difficulties and did not try to persuade him.

He continued to clean up!

Fatty Chu, on the other hand, took out his phone and took a few pictures of the diamond card. After getting Ye Feng's permission, he posted a few more pictures on his WeChat moments.
