

100 Million 331

Chapter 331 - 331 This Face Is As Thick As A City Wall?

331 This Face Is As Thick As A City Wall?

Chen Xuan wasn't embarrassed at all when her thoughts were exposed by Section Chief Yao.

"Section Chief Yao, don't misunderstand. We're just a little curious. Which company is so powerful? They actually reached the bidding requirements so quickly?"

Section Chief Yao picked up the glass of water and took a sip. "This... After all, it involves some confidentiality principles, so it's not convenient to disclose it."

Chen Xuan was constantly paying attention to his expression. "If I'm not wrong, it should be Cinda Corporation, right?"

Section Chief Yao raised his eyebrows. "Why would you say that?"

Chen Xuan immediately used her trickery skills. "Because I have a good relationship with Cinda's Secretary Liu. She was the one who revealed it to me."

At the same time...

Secretary Liu, who was accompanying Peng Shaokun back to the company, couldn't help but sneeze.

Who's talking about me behind my back?

Could it be that Old Peng misses me?

Didn't she just accompany him after accompanying Little Peng last night?

She definitely wouldn't have thought that she had unknowingly taken the blame.

Section Chief Yao was not so easily fooled. "Since you have a good relationship with Secretary Liu, you can just ask her. Why are you asking me?"

Chen Xuan smiled.

"She's a secretary after all. There are many things she doesn't know, such as... Where did Cinda Corporation find so much money? Could it be that someone invested in them?"

Section Chief Yao sneered. "President Chen, you'd better give up on this idea as soon as possible. You're still too inexperienced to get information from me."

Chen Xuan sighed helplessly.

“Section Chief Yao, you should know that our proposal is the best among all of them. We’re stuck at the capital level now. I hope you can help us.”

Section Chief Yao interrupted with a cold face.

“Don’t say that. I, Yao Bin, have always been fair and impartial. Even if a knife is placed on my neck, I will never reveal anything about Cinda to you.”

Chen Xuan and Zhang Youting heard his words.

They fell into despair again.

If they couldn’t find out the inside story of Cinda Corporation...

Then their last hope would be cut off.

They could only regret being eliminated.

Cinda would get the project without any suspense.

Their strength would also increase by leaps and bounds.

Peng Wannian might even become the richest man in Zhonghai.

And she had completely offended Peng Shaokun last night.

Peng Shaokun would definitely not let Lingyun Real Estate go in the future.

Her future was bleak!

At this moment.

The office door was suddenly pushed open.

A man in his fifties walked in.

“Old Yao, send the information that the bidding company just submitted to my office later.”

Section Chief Yao saw the man and stood up hurriedly. "Director Huang, you could have just asked someone to inform me about such a small matter. Why did you have to come down personally?"

Director Huang was a little unhappy. "Of course I have to do such a small thing ourselves. We are here to serve the people, not to be the boss."

Section Chief Yao nodded quickly. "Yes, yes, yes. I'll send it up to you later."

"Then go ahead."

Director Huang nodded and was about to leave.

At this time, he suddenly saw Ye Feng who was standing in the corner.

His expression was instantly stunned. "Little Brother Ye?"

Actually, Ye Feng had already recognized him.

Director Huang was the father of the 'bootlicker' who had jumped off the building last night.

Huang Yuanshen, the deputy director of the municipal office.

“Hello, Director Huang. We meet again so soon.”

Ye Feng also greeted him.

“It’s really you? Why are you here?”

Huang Yuanshen walked up quickly and held his hand tightly. He looked very excited.

“I’m here with a friend to do something.”

Ye Feng pointed at Chen Xuan and Zhang Youting.

Chen Xuan and Zhang Youting were also dumbfounded.

They had been to the municipal center many times, so they naturally knew Deputy Director Huang.

They knew that he was mainly in charge of planning and approval.

He was also the person in charge of the renovation of the Laocheng District.

He held the power of their life and death.

Ye Feng actually knew him?

Moreover, Deputy Director Huang's excited expression was as if he had seen his savior.

What was going on?

Section Chief Yao, who was at the side, was also stunned. "Deputy Director Huang, do you know this gentleman?"

Huang Yuanshen sighed. "Not only do I know him, but Little Brother Ye is my son's savior. If it weren't for him..."

As he said that, a look of lingering fear appeared on his face.

If not for Ye Feng, their entire family would be ruined.

When Section Chief Yao heard this, he was so scared that he almost peed his pants.

He did not expect this young man to have such a relationship with Deputy Director Huang.

Huang Yuanshen looked at Ye Feng gratefully.

“Little Brother Ye, what are you here for today? Is there anything I can help with? As long as you say it, I will definitely do it.”

Ye Feng quickly waved his hand. “No need, Section Chief Yao is a fair and impartial person. I believe he can help us solve it.”

Huang Yuanshen nodded. “That’s good. If he can’t solve it, you must come to me.”

“Good!”

“I still have work to do here, so I’ll be leaving first. I’ll definitely invite you over for dinner another day. Your aunt still has to thank you properly.”

“Definitely, definitely.”

The two of them exchanged a few more pleasantries.

Huang Yuanshen left reluctantly.

As expected, after Huang Yuanshen left, Section Chief Yao immediately walked over respectfully.

“Mr. Ye, please take a seat.”

As he spoke, he let Ye Feng sit on his seat.

He carefully massaged his shoulders.

Chen Xuan and Zhang Youting were dumbfounded.

Section Chief Yao, who was bossing them around just now...

Now, he had become like a pug.

There were actually two faces?

“Mr. Ye, if you want to know anything, just ask me. I’ll definitely tell you everything I know.”

Section Chief Yao carefully looked at Ye Feng’s expression.

“That’s not very good, right? Didn’t you just say that you’re impartial and won’t say anything even if a knife is placed on your neck?”

Ye Feng had a mocking smile on his face.

“How can Mr. Ye’s matter be called ‘selfish’? Your real estate company is also serving the people. Is revealing some information to you called favoritism? It can’t!”

Section Chief Yao replied righteously.

Ye Feng and the other two could not help but admire him.

This Section Chief Yao had mastered the essence of the book.

This face was as thick as a city wall!

Chapter 332 - 332 How Can It Get Over This?

332 How Can It Get Over This?

“Wanfeng Real Estate, a subsidiary of the Cinda Corporation, has indeed reached an agreement with Qingyun Investment Company in the past few days.”

“Qingyun Investment Company?”

“Although Qingyun Investment Company isn’t very famous, they are very powerful. There are many big companies in the country that they have shares in.”

“Why would Qingyun Investment Company suddenly cooperate with Cinda?”

“I heard that one of the major shareholders of Qingyun Investment Company is Peng Shaokun’s classmate at Yale University. She was the one who pushed for this collaboration.”

“What’s her name?”

“Qiu Min.”

Ye Feng got the information he wanted from Section Chief Yao.

He immediately left with Chen Xuan and Zhang Youting.

“Youting, immediately get someone to investigate this Qiu Min.”

“Alright.”

..

The efficiency of Lingyun Real Estate was still very fast.

When the three of them walked out of the municipal building.

Zhang Youting received Qiu Min’s information.

“Wow, she’s a beauty.”

When she clicked on the information, she immediately exclaimed.

Ye Feng took the iPad from her.

The woman in the photo was about 25 or 26 years old.

She was wearing a white racing suit.

Her long, soft hair fluttered in the wind.

She looked valiant and heroic.

In terms of looks, she was actually on par with Chen Xuan and Zhang Youting.

However, the heroic spirit on her body was something that the two of them did not possess.

However, Ye Feng only took a few glances before he continued to swipe downwards.

Chen Xuan had been paying attention to Ye Feng's expression.

He did not seem to be attracted by the woman's beauty.

She felt happy for no reason.

She knew that Ye Feng was not a lecherous man.

She was right.

However, she clearly misunderstood.

Ye Feng just wanted to see if there were any other photos below.

After all, the woman in the photo with the racer outfit was wrapped up tightly.

He couldn't see her figure.

However, to his disappointment, there was only one photo in the information.

The rest was just a text introduction.

Ye Feng patiently read the information.

He had a rough understanding of this woman.

He knew that she had just returned to the country recently.

Usually, other than going to work at the company, she rarely attended any gatherings.

However, she would go racing in the suburbs every few days.

She often went to a place called Crab Bay.

Seeing this, Ye Feng could not help but smile.

Racing?

It seemed that his god-level driving skills, the driving skills of Mount Haruna, had finally come into play!

At the thought of this, he immediately turned to look at Chen Xuan and the other woman. "I'll go meet this woman personally."

Chen Xuan had also finished reading Qiu Min's information.

She knew that she was a crazy fan of racing.

She was instantly worried.

"You... Are you going to race? That was too dangerous. At most, we won't do this project. Don't take the risk."

"Don't worry. With my skills, it's a piece of cake for me to take care of a female driver."

"Then... I'll go with you."

"What are you going to do? If anything happens..."

"Didn't you say that dealing with her was a piece of cake? How could there be an accident?"

“But...”

“Anyway, if you don’t bring me along, I won’t let you go.”

Ye Feng saw that she was so stubborn, he agreed helplessly: “Alright, then send me back first, I’ll get my car.”

Chen Xuan smiled happily.

..

Weng...

Ye Feng drove the Lykan supercar out of the garage.

Then, with a beautiful drift, he stopped in front of Chen Xuan and Zhang Youting.

“Wow, so handsome!”

Zhang Youting’s eyes almost popped out.

They didn't know if she was talking about the car or the person.

Ye Feng opened the hood and turned to Chen Xuan: "Get in."

Chen Xuan immediately got into the passenger seat happily.

Zhang Youting immediately panicked. "Sister Xuan, I want to go too."

Chen Xuan looked at her apologetically. "You can't sit here anymore."

There were only two seats in this car, so there was no room for a third one.

"Then what should we do?"

Zhang Youting was about to cry.

"Be good. Go back to the company first. I'll be back after I'm done."

Chen Xuan comforted her as if she was coaxing her sister.

Ye Feng did not say anything.

He started the car.

The extremely cool Lykan supercar immediately turned into a red light and quickly disappeared from sight.

Zhang Youting looked in the direction of the supercar.

For the first time, she felt jealous of Chen Xuan.

Through these few contacts...

Ye Feng was young, handsome, rich, considerate, calm, and opinionated...

He seemed to have countless good points.

Why should such an outstanding man only belong to you, Chen Xuan?

However, she quickly woke up.

Why did she have such thoughts?

She had always treated Chen Xuan like her own sister.

Why was she suddenly so jealous of her?

Jealousy could really drive people crazy.

Thinking of this, she quickly dispelled this thought.

She got into the car and left.

..

Ye Feng drove the Lykan toward Crab Bay.

Along the way, the number of heads turned was off the charts.

Many cars on the road gave way.

Just a slight collision with this kind of car was enough to make them bankrupt.

After leaving the urban area, the speed of the supercar finally increased.

It was also Chen Xuan's first time experiencing the rush of adrenaline.

Originally, it would take at least half an hour to reach Crab Bay.

Ye Feng arrived in less than ten minutes.

Crab Bay is located at the western foot of Luoyang Mountain.

Because there were many sharp turns on the mountain road, many of them were like crab traps, hence the name.

This place was regarded as a holy land by many biker gangs in Zhonghai City.

In the hearts of the bikers in Zhonghai City, if they hadn't finished the entire journey to Crab Bay, they would be embarrassed to call themselves a veteran biker.

When Ye Feng arrived at the foot of the mountain in his Lykan supercar...

He saw a few cars blocking his way.

"Stop the car. The road is closed. Please return the way you came."

A few hooligans waved at Ye Feng.

Ye Feng chuckled.

Not only did he not stop, he even sped up.

"Are you f*cking deaf? Stop the car!"

When the group of people saw this, they immediately shouted loudly.

What happened next was shocking.

A few cars were blocking the road.

The distance between each car was very close.

It was less than two meters away.

There was no way a car could pass through the middle.

However, Ye Feng's actions were like he was in a trance.

The left tire suddenly ran over a high platform and then suddenly swerved to the right.

The left side of the car was immediately lifted up.

The entire car relied on the two wheels on the right side to move forward.

And it was still very fast.

He directly passed through the two cars blocking his way.

When the person in charge of blocking the road reacted, he could only see Ye Feng's taillights.

"D*mn, what kind of heaven-defying technology is this?"

"It's simply too godly. He can even f*cking pass this?"

"He's here to cause trouble. Hurry up and report to God Qiu."

"Yes, yes, yes. Hurry up and report."

"Hello, is this God Qiu? Someone just passed our checkpoint and entered the competition area."

"He's not riding a motorcycle. He's driving a sports car. I think it's a Lykan supercar?"

"He didn't fly over, it was... he drove between the cars. I really didn't lie to you..."

Chapter 333 - 333 How Domineering!

333 How Domineering!

“God Qiu, what happened?”

At the same time, at the starting point of the Crab Bay Race Track, there were many modified cars parked in an open space.

All the famous racing masters of Zhonghai were gathered here.

Among this group of people, there was a beautiful woman in a white racing suit.

This woman was very good-looking.

Furthermore, she looked neutral.

As her gaze moved, she would occasionally reveal a heroic spirit.

She was extremely tall, about 1.76 meters tall.

Her long hair was blown wildly by the mountain wind.

It added a bit of indescribable charm.

This group of people obviously had her as their center.

It was not because of her noble status or how rich she was that they lowered their heads and submitted.

Instead, she relied on her true strength to win the recognition of this unruly racing gang.

This woman's name was Qiu Min.

It was the major shareholder of Qingyun Investment Company that Ye Feng was looking for.

In Crab Bay, she was addressed as 'God Qiu'.

Someone asked.

Only then did Qiu Min come back to her senses. "Ah San said that someone broke in."

Everyone was shocked.

“Are you kidding me? We’re having a competition today, so we got people to block the road in advance. How can anyone barge in?”

“Yeah, I went to take a look just now. A few cars were blocking the middle of the road. It’s impossible for any car to pass through.”

“Unless he flew here, it’s impossible.”

“Are they lying about the situation?”

Qiu Min shook her head. “I heard from Ah San and the others that the person left the ground on his two wheels and tilted the car to the side, passing through the middle of the two cars.”

When everyone heard the explanation, their expressions became even more shocked.

This kind of technology was really shocking.

“God Qiu, do you want us to intercept them again?” someone immediately suggested.

Qiu Min pondered for a moment and shook her head. "There's no need. Since he wants to come in, let him come in. Let's see what his background is."

Just as everyone was talking...

Suddenly, they heard the roar of an engine.

They turned around and saw a red light speeding toward them.

In the next second, it had already stopped in front of everyone.

It was an extremely cool Lykan supercar.

Everyone looked at each other and saw the shock in each other's eyes.

"This car is so cool. It's probably the most handsome sports car I've ever seen."

"This car should be the legendary Lykan, right? I've seen it in a movie before. This is the first time I've seen it in reality."

“I heard that there are only seven of these cars in the world, and the price is as high as 60 to 70 million.”

“Does he want to use this car to race? Is he crazy? What if there’s a little bump? Wouldn’t it hurt to death?”

“The brain circuits of rich people are really strange.”

At the same time...

Inside the Lykan supercar.

Chen Xuan was so scared that her face turned pale.

Her body was still trembling slightly.

She had never taken such a fast car before.

There were a few times when she felt like the car was going to fly.

Adrenaline surged.

However, the amazing thing was that she actually slowly fell in love with this exciting feeling.

She really wanted to shout, "Don't stop..."

Ye Feng's lips curled into a faint smile as he pushed the door open and got out of the car.

Qiu Min had been staring at the Lykan supercar.

When she saw him walk down, her eyes immediately revealed a look of surprise.

She didn't expect the driver to be so handsome.

However, she was only distracted for a moment and immediately reacted.

"Friend, what do you mean by forcing your way through?"

Ye Feng slowly walked in front of her: "I heard that there is a female racing god in Crab Bay, so I want to challenge her."

When Qiu Min heard this, the corners of her mouth curled up slightly. “You want to challenge me? Are you skilled enough?”

Ye Feng sized her up: “My skills are average, but it should be more than enough to deal with you...”

Qiu Min sneered. “I’ve forgotten how many times others have made such a big boast. Those people before me have all been defeated by me.”

Ye Feng rubbed his nose: “That is because they are too weak, it does not mean that you are strong.”

Qiu Min was so angry that she laughed. “Alright, I accept your challenge. But you have to go to the back of the line first. After I’m done competing with others, I’ll deal with you.”

Ye Feng turned around and looked at the group of people behind him: “Who do you want to compete with?”

One of the men, who was in his thirties, came forward. “She’s competing with me. We already made an appointment a few days ago.”

Ye Feng nodded: “Which one is your car?”

The man pointed at the modified Subaru SUV behind him. "This is it. Why?"

Ye Feng did not say anything else.

He picked up a stone from the ground.

Then, under everyone's watchful eyes, he walked to the front of the car.

With a bang, it hit the front windshield.

The windshield immediately cracked.

The man was instantly enraged. "What the f*ck do you mean?"

"I'm sorry, Brother. I'll pay for the car at the original price. Go to the side and cool down."

Ye Feng said as he walked back to Qiu Min: "He can't compete now, can he compete with me?"

Qiu Min was speechless.

This man was really overbearing.

If you insist on competing, it's not like you can't make an exception.

Why did you smash someone's car?

"Then let's compete. I hope you're a qualified opponent and don't disappoint me."

After saying that, she immediately put on her helmet and got into a modified golf car.

Ye Feng liked her swift and decisive personality.

It was not sloppy at all.

Immediately, he turned around and returned to the car.

The two cars drove to the same starting line and prepared for the race.

“What do you think of this match? What are the chances of this kid winning?”

“What are the chances of winning? In my opinion, not even 10%. We have all witnessed God Qiu’s skills. How dare any Tom, Dick, or Harry challenge her?”

“That’s right. I’ve never seen this kid in Zhonghai. It feels like he just popped out of nowhere.”

“He’s probably a rich second-generation heir. Coming to race is just an excuse. He probably wants to use this opportunity to hit on God Qiu, right? After all, God Qiu is a great beauty.”

“Are you dreaming? How could God Qiu be interested in such a pretty boy? Do you think you’re so great just because you have two lousy coins?”

“Just wait and see. God Qiu will definitely beat him up.”

“Stop talking. The competition is about to begin.”

“...”

Chapter 334 - 334 Do You Don't Even Care About Your Life To Win?

334 Do You Don't Even Care About Your Life To Win?

“Three.”

“Two.”

“One.”

“Begin!”

With a command...

The Lykan supercar and modified golf car shot out like arrows.

But Ye Feng’s Lykan was not a professional race car.

In the beginning, it was far slower than Qiu Min’s golf car.

He was immediately left behind.

“Hahaha, I knew this kid was asking to be humiliated. How dare he PK with God Qiu? He’s courting death!”

“His car is at a disadvantage. God Qiu’s golf car was modified by an expert. Just the raw materials cost 6 to 7 million.”

“Even if he doesn’t modify it, he can’t beat God Qiu. With God Qiu’s skills, she can definitely participate in international competitions. She’s just too lazy to go.”

“This kid has been left behind since the beginning. If he can’t find a chance to overtake, then he will definitely lose this game.”

“God Qiu is too kind. She didn’t even discuss the bet with him. She should have thought of a way to win his car.”

“That car is worth 60 to 70 million yuan. This kid would be crazy to bet with her.”

“Then at least win something else. Let this kid learn a lesson.”

“Stop talking. They’re almost at the first bend.”

They had been using drones to film the entire process.

Therefore, they could see the real-time image.

At this time, Qiu Min and Ye Feng had reached the first turn.

This bend had a 90° bend.

It wasn't too difficult.

Qiu Min drove the golf car and immediately made a beautiful drift.

She easily drove through the bend.

Everyone was already used to her various godly moves.

Therefore, they were not surprised.

There were only a few sporadic exclamations.

But what Ye Feng did next shocked them.

He did not slow down as he passed through the bend.

But he didn't drift like Qiu Min.

Instead, he made a sharp turn, and the car immediately tilted heavily.

The two wheels on the left were suspended in the air.

He was about to flip.

One had to know that there were cliffs that were dozens of meters high on both sides of the road.

Once he fell, it was very likely that the car would be destroyed and the person would die.

This was also the reason why Crab Bay was so daunting.

Usually, when passing through this kind of curve...

They could either choose to slow down or drift like Qiu Min.

It was very dangerous to make such a sharp turn.

At the same time, it was also the most amateur way to deal with it.

However, the worrisome thing did not happen.

After the Lykan drove past the curve, it immediately turned around and continued to move forward at a fast speed.

This god-like operation immediately made the spectators dumbfounded.

“Was this a mistake or was it intentional? Why can't I understand it?”

“If it's intentional, isn't this technology too terrifying? If you make such a sharp turn at a bend, if you make a mistake, the car might crash and kill you!”

“If it's a mistake, then this kid's luck is too good. He actually managed to pass the test in a shorter time than God Qiu.”

“The distance between the two seems to have shortened. God Qiu has started to accelerate.”

“The previous curve was too easy. It didn’t give God Qiu any pressure. The next few curves will be hell level.”

“Don’t speak, continue watching...”

At this moment, Qiu Min had already entered the second curve.

This bend was even more dangerous than the first one.

It was an angle close to 30°.

The difficulty soared.

Qiu Ting had already run Crab Bay countless times.

She was already familiar with it.

She was about to drift into the bend.

At this time, Ye Feng's Lykan supercar suddenly appeared in the rearview mirror.

It looked like he wanted to take the opportunity to overtake her.

A disdainful smile immediately appeared on her face.

What wishful thinking!

Ever since she started racing, she had never been overtaken by someone else after taking the lead.

Although she admitted that Ye Feng's skills were not bad...

However, it was not that easy to surpass her.

She immediately did a textbook drift and entered the curve.

Almost at the same time, Ye Feng's Lykan also drifted into the curve.

The two cars were almost next to each other, less than a meter apart.

If they were not careful, they might both fall off the cliff.

The spectators immediately erupted!

“D*mn, isn’t this too dangerous? Is this kid crazy? Does he not want to live anymore?”

“But to be honest, this kid’s skills are really awesome! Especially this drift, it’s so cool!”

“That’s right. It’s almost the same as God Qiu. I can’t do it anyway.”

“No wonder he dared to challenge God Qiu. Looks like he has some skills. God Qiu has finally met her match.”

“It’s still too early to say. God Qiu didn’t give him any chance at all. It won’t be easy for him to overtake her!”

The next few curves.

Ye Feng wanted to overtake her several times.

However, Qiu Min did not give him any chance.

She displayed the powerful skills that a female racing god should have.

Just like that, the two of them entered a straight path.

In the middle of this straight road, there was a 'concave' road.

After passing the 'concave' road, there was another curve that was almost 30° ahead.

This kind of road condition was very dangerous.

If they didn't control it well, they might rush off the cliff.

Even Qiu Min had to slow down slightly.

At this moment, a shocking scene happened.

Not only did Ye Feng's Lykan not slow down, it even accelerated.

He flew up on the concave road.

Qiu Min's golf car happened to enter the low-lying area.

She felt her head turn black.

Then, she saw Ye Feng's car flying over her head like a bird spreading its wings.

Her eyes widened.

Was this guy crazy?

He actually dared to speed up on this road?

There was a 30-degree bend ahead.

If he didn't control it well, he might rush off the cliff.

In order to win against her, would he even give up his life?

Not only her, but even the spectators were shocked.

"My god, it actually flew? He used to fly a plane, right?"

"Crazy, crazy, this guy is crazy! There's a 30-degree curve ahead. Isn't he afraid of death?"

"Yes, the car is still in the air. When he lands, he'll probably be at the edge of the cliff, right?"

"It's over. This kid is dead. Hurry up and call 120 for him."

"Why are you calling 120? Just contact the crematorium directly."

"There seems to be a woman in his car. She's going to be buried with the kid."

"Brother, have a safe journey!"

Chapter 335 - 335 You Are Insulting My Intelligence

335 You Are Insulting My Intelligence

“Ah...”

At the same time, inside the Lykan supercar.

Chen Xuan screamed.

She was actually flying.

Furthermore, there was a cliff in front of them.

She watched helplessly as the car drove off the cliff.

This was the first time she felt death so close to her.

She was so nervous that every pore on her body trembled.

Bang!

The car landed.

At this moment, they were less than two meters away from the cliff.

The car was traveling at a speed of more than 200 kilometers per hour.

The distance of two meters was covered in the blink of an eye.

It was impossible for anyone to do anything rational in such a short period of time.

But Ye Feng could.

It was not based on reason.

It was instinct.

This instinct was hard to describe.

It was like something that had fused into his bones.

It appeared before the judgment of consciousness.

It was almost at the critical moment.

The Lykan ran over the edge of the cliff.

The two wheels on the right were already suspended in the air.

Half of the car was on the road, and the other half was on the cliff.

It was extremely dangerous!

However, in the end, he managed to avoid danger.

He drove on the right path.

Chen Xuan's worried heart finally calmed down.

She quickly turned around and looked at Ye Feng.

His face was still as calm as water.

There were no visible ripples.

She could not help but exclaim in her heart.

Wasn't this guy's mental fortitude too strong?

They had just walked through the gates of hell.

He actually didn't have any reaction?

In fact, Ye Feng was also surprised.

The series of godly actions just now was completely instinctive.

It was like a boxer who couldn't help but want to challenge a strong opponent.

He did not expect it to be completed so easily!

Behind the Lykan supercar.

The others were already stunned by this god-like operation.

Especially Qiu Min.

She stared blankly at Ye Feng's taillights.

It was already impossible to describe the shock at this moment.

She had always been known for playing with her life in racing.

She often challenged her limits and made some dangerous moves.

Before she got the title of 'Female Racing God'.

She was more commonly known as the 'Desperate Third Lady'.

It could be seen how crazy she was when it came to racing.

However, she had been playing for so many years...

And she had never seen crazy actions like Ye Feng's.

Qiu Min was 100% sure.

If she did the same thing as him.

It would definitely be a car crash.

And this guy actually, actually completed such an action.

It was simply too cool!

Even she was shocked.

One could imagine how shocked the spectators were.

Almost everyone was dumbstruck.

Only after a long time did someone come back to their senses.

“F*ck, what did I just see? Is this something a human can do?”

“I originally thought that God Qiu was already awesome enough. I didn’t expect this person to be even more awesome than her. He’s simply a super god!”

“When he landed just now, he was less than two meters away from the cliff. How could he still do such a thing? Is he still human?”

“The operation is secondary. The main thing is that he’s too bold, right? How dare you do such a dangerous thing?”

“He’s either a lunatic or a genius. Unless you have absolute confidence in your skills, who would dare to do this?”

“I’ve decided. He’ll be my only idol from now on. I’ll fight anyone who dares to profane my idol!”

“Do any of you know his name? I don’t think I’ve seen it before! With his skills, how can he be unknown?”

“Maybe he’s just playing? He doesn’t usually appear in the racing circle.”

“You can play with such skills just for fun? Then shouldn’t we, the so-called elite players, find a piece of tofu and kill ourselves?”

“We can’t compare. How can ordinary people like us compare to such a genius?”

“...”

There was no suspense in the following matches.

After Ye Feng took the lead, he did not give his opponent any chance.

He reached the finish line like lightning.

The final time was 7 minutes and 52 seconds.

Everyone was dumbfounded by this result.

The record for the entire race in Crab Bay was 24 minutes and 47 seconds.

It was refreshed by Qiu Min at 13 minutes and 24 seconds a while ago.

It had only been maintained for a few days.

It was refreshed again.

Moreover, it had almost halved.

One could imagine how fast Ye Feng's speed was.

Five to six minutes after Ye Feng reached the finish line...

Qiu Min followed him to the finish line.

After getting out of the car, she looked at the Lykan with a complicated gaze.

This was the first time she had experienced the feeling of 'eating exhaust'.

However, she was convinced.

The other party's skills were indeed much better than hers.

It could even be said that the two were completely incomparable.

They were not on the same level at all.

At this moment, the door of the Lykan opened slowly.

Ye Feng and Chen Xuan got off the car together.

When Qiu Min saw this, her gaze turned strange.

Chen Xuan suddenly asked Ye Feng: "Did you not have enough fun?"

“How did you know?” Ye Feng asked casually.

“I saw you step on the accelerator pedal to the bottom just now, and you’re still stepping on it. You must be thinking that the speed is too slow.”

Ye Feng nodded: “Smart! If it was a professional sports car, it would have been faster. What a pity!”

Hearing their conversation...

Qiu Min and everyone present almost fell over.

There should be a limit to acting cool, right?

You’re trying to act all B, so that others have nothing B to act with!

You’ve already more than doubled the Crab Bay record.

Was this too slow?

No matter how fast you were, you might as well fly a fighter jet.

However, they knew that Ye Feng was telling the truth.

After all, he was driving a sports car, which couldn't match the speed of a professional racing car.

If he was driving Qiu Min's modified golf car, he would probably be even faster.

Qiu Min calmed herself down and took the initiative to step forward. "Your skills are indeed very strong. I admit defeat."

Ye Feng smiled lightly: "Thank you."

Qiu Min looked at him curiously. "I want to ask you how you trained your skills."

"Yes... If I tell you that I haven't practiced for a day, will you think that I'm bragging?"

"No! I'll think you're insulting my intelligence."

“...Then pretend I didn’t say anything.”

Chapter 336 - 336 Killer Move!

336 Killer Move!

“Hello, let me formally introduce myself. My name is Qiu Min.”

“Hello, I am Ye Feng.”

Qiu Min repeated Ye Feng’s name a few times and memorized it in her heart.

Then, she leaned against her golf car. “Tell me, why are you looking for me?”

Ye Feng’s lips curled up: “How did you know that we were looking for you?”

Qiu Min took out a bottle of mineral water from the car and raised her head to take a sip. “Don’t tell me you came all the way to Crab Bay just to have a match with me.”

Ye Feng did not ask for her permission. He snatched the water from her hands and drank two mouthfuls: “Why can’t I come here to compete with you?”

Qiu Min blushed when she saw him drinking the water she had drunk.

She coughed dryly to hide her embarrassment.

“With your skills, if you wanted to compete with others, you would have made a name for yourself in Zhonghai. However, your name has never been heard of in the racing circle of Zhonghai. Either you don’t like to compete with others, or there are other reasons.”

Qiu Min analyzed while observing Ye Feng’s expression: “In short, you must have ulterior motives for coming here today. If you are not competing with me, you must have something else to discuss with me, right?”

Ye Feng immediately gave him a thumbs up: “Smart! As expected of the major shareholder of Qingyun Investment Company.”

He pointed at Chen Xuan and said, “Let me introduce you. This is President Chen Xuan of Lingyun Real Estate.”

Qiu Min glanced at Chen Xuan and immediately understood. “Oh, I know why you’re looking for me. It’s about the bidding, right?”

Chen Xuan quickly nodded. “Miss Qiu should have heard that the bidding rules for the project Laocheng District have been changed. The bidding company needs to first take out 70% of the project funds as a reserve fund...”

Qiu Min interrupted her. "Because Qingyun Investment decided to invest in Wanfeng Real Estate under the Cinda Corporation, you felt threatened?"

Chen Xuan nodded without hesitation. "That's right. Wanfeng Real Estate has become the company with the most hope of winning the bid, and Lingyun Real Estate may be eliminated."

Qiu Min's lips curled into a mocking smile. "Are you trying to persuade me to cancel the cooperation with Wanfeng Real Estate?"

Chen Xuan hesitated for a moment. "I know this request is a little too much, but I still hope that President Qiu will consider investing in Lingyun Real Estate. Our company..."

Before she could finish, Qiu Min interrupted her again.

"Stop talking. We've already decided to cooperate with Wanfeng Real Estate. The most important thing in doing business is integrity. I won't break the contract one-sidedly."

Chen Xuan didn't want to give up so easily. She continued to persuade her, "As far as I know, you haven't signed the contract yet, so there's still room for negotiation."

Qiu Min turned to look at Ye Feng.

“I’ve always separated work and life. Don’t think that just because you beat me in racing, you can influence my decisions at work. I will not easily change my decision.”

Chen Xuan saw her firm attitude and was at her wit’s end.

At this time, Ye Feng finally spoke: “We are not begging you, we are helping you.”

Qiu Min burst out laughing. “Help me with what?”

Ye Feng looked at her calmly, “You don’t know Peng Shaokun well, do you?”

Qiu Min seemed to have heard a joke. “I was his university classmate. I should know him better than you do.”

Ye Feng shook his head and smiled: “I’m afraid not? You guys only know each other as classmates. I’m afraid you don’t know what kind of person he is.”

Then, he told her what he saw in the parking lot that night.

Qiu Min immediately frowned when she heard that.

If what the other party said was true, then Peng Shaokun's character was indeed very low.

He was completely different from the gentle and gentlemanly Peng Shaokun she knew.

"Even if his character is bad, what can we say? We invested in Wanfeng Real Estate, not Peng Shaokun. As long as he doesn't affect the company's operations, it's his personal freedom to decide what kind of character he has."

Although Qiu Min despised Peng Shaokun's character, she did not change her decision to invest.

Chen Xuan let out a long sigh, she turned around and looked at Ye Feng: "Since President Qiu has made up his mind, let's go."

She didn't have much hope this time.

Now that she saw Qiu Min's firm attitude, she felt that she had to be careful.

She had no choice but to give up.

However, Ye Feng was unmoved. He continued to look at Qiu Min. "Then if I tell you that Wanfeng Real Estate has a huge financial problem? Will you still continue to invest?"

Qiu Min's expression immediately turned ugly.

"We've checked Wanfeng Real Estate's accounts for the past two years. There are no problems. I admire your driving skills. I didn't expect you to use such a method to slander your opponent in order to achieve your goal. I'm so disappointed."

As she spoke, she was about to get into the car and leave.

At this time, Ye Feng continued: "I've never said anything without evidence. I have evidence of Wanfeng Real Estate's financial fraud. You can go and verify it."

As he spoke, he took out a document bag from the car.

Qiu Min was stunned and subconsciously took the folder.

She took out the document and read it carefully.

The more she looked, the more shocked she became.

This information was all about the financial cost of Wanfeng Real Estate.

It included how to fabricate income, increase assets, leave out debts, and post hidden losses.

“Where did you get this information?”

She immediately raised her head and looked at Ye Feng, her eyes were filled with shock.

These were definitely top secret information of Wanfeng Real Estate. How did they end up in Ye Feng’s hands?

Even Chen Xuan was stunned.

She did not expect Ye Feng to have such a trump card.

She actually didn’t know about it at all.

Ye Feng’s lips curled up: “You don’t have to worry about how I got it. There are traces of all the fakes on this. You can go and verify if it’s real or fake.”

After he went home last night, he thought of helping Chen Xuan with the bidding today.

Just in case, he called Kong Xianghui.

He asked him to help investigate Wanfeng Real Estate.

Kong Xianghui was worthy of being the person in charge of the Hurun Rich List.

In less than a night, Wanfeng Real Estate was turned upside down.

Early in the morning, he had someone send this information over.

At the same time, he also reminded him repeatedly not to say that he helped him investigate.

Otherwise, if he let those rich men in Zhonghai know how powerful he was, who would dare to trust him in the future?

Then, he could forget about continuing his work.

Qiu Min heard his reminder.

She immediately walked to the side to make a call.

Chapter 337 - 337 The Territory Was Invaded!

337 The Territory Was Invaded!

Qingyun Investment Company was very efficient.

In a short while, the results were found.

When Qiu Min hung up the phone and walked back, she looked at Ye Feng with a complicated gaze.

“After investigation, there are indeed serious problems with Wanfeng Real Estate’s finances. Their methods of forgery are very clever. Even I was almost fooled by them.”

When she said this...

Although she looked calm on the surface, she was extremely angry on the inside.

This was the first big investment she had made since she returned to China to take over the company.

She almost capsized.

If it was not for Ye Feng's timely reminder, it might have caused a huge loss to Qingyun Investment Company.

The consequences were simply unimaginable.

Ye Feng slowly leaned against the Lykan supercar: "I think you've been overseas for too long, you still don't understand the schemes of the domestic business world. You can't even see through such a low-level trap."

Qiu Min looked furious. "Peng Shaokun is too despicable. I trusted him so much because we were classmates. He actually lied to me."

Ye Feng could not help but laugh: "He even dared to touch his father's woman, what else can't he do?"

The more Qiu Min thought about it, the angrier she became. She immediately took out her phone and made a call.

Ye Feng hurriedly stopped her: "What are you doing?"

“I want to ask him why he lied to me.” Qiu Min gritted her teeth.

Ye Feng was really defeated by her naivety.

“Sister, if you call him like this, he will definitely find an excuse to brush you off. Besides, even if he admits it honestly, what can you do to him?”

Qiu Min felt that what he said made sense.

Even if Peng Shaokun admitted to the fraud, what could she do to him?

After all, both parties had not signed an official contract yet.

Even if they wanted to sue the other party, they wouldn't be able to find a reason. At most, the cooperation would be ruined.

However, she still could not vent her anger.

“Then what should I do now?”

Qiu Min could not think of any other way. She could only look at Ye Feng with a questioning gaze.

Ye Feng immediately acted as her advisor and helped her plan.

“You just want to vent your anger. The method is actually very simple. You’re working with Lingyun Real Estate, but don’t make it public for the time being. Wait until the bidding is over before making it public...”

Qiu Min’s eyes immediately lit up when she heard this.

She could even imagine how terrible Peng Shaokun’s expression would be.

The duck that he thought was in his mouth suddenly flew away.

He would probably vomit blood from anger, right?

Although she was getting more and more excited, she still looked at Ye Feng and Chen Xuan calmly.

“I don’t trust Peng Shaokun, so why should I trust you? He can lie to me, but can’t you lie to me?”

Chen Xuan also spoke at this moment.

“President Qiu, although Lingyun Real Estate is a new company, we have always been based on integrity. Qingyun Investment can send anyone to review our financial situation. We will fully cooperate.”

Qiu Min frowned and pondered for a moment. “I’ll make a call first.”

With that, she dialed the number of Section Chief Yao Bin, who was in charge of the bidding.

“Hello, Section Chief Yao. I’m Qiu Min from Qingyun Investment.”

“Hello, Miss Qiu. What’s the matter?”

“It’s like this. I would like to know more about Lingyun Real Estate.”

“Isn’t Qingyun Investment planning to invest in Wanfeng? Why are you suddenly asking about Lingyun Real Estate?”

“It’s just business. I have to be careful since the capital injection this time is huge.”

“Oh, I understand. Lingyun Real Estate is a new company, but its momentum is very strong. Moreover, whether it’s the management, the company structure, or the cash flow, they’re all very healthy...”

“From what Section Chief Yao said, he seems to be very optimistic about Lingyun Real Estate.”

“Of course. Lingyun Real Estate’s bidding proposal is actually the best among all the companies. The only thing we lack now is capital flow.”

“So, if there is enough capital, Lingyun Real Estate will most likely win the bid?”

“It’s not very likely, but 100%.”

“Alright, Section Chief Yao. I understand. Thank you for the information.”

Qiu Min hung up the phone and looked at Ye Feng and Chen Xuan in surprise.

She didn’t expect Section Chief Yao to have such a high opinion of Lingyun Real Estate.

In fact, Qingyun Investment had previously evaluated Lingyun Real Estate.

This company was only established less than two years ago.

Their overall strength was only above average in Zhonghai.

It could not be compared to a big company like Wanfeng Real Estate.

Therefore, they didn't consider Lingyun Real Estate.

She did not expect that they had almost missed out on a pearl.

"I'll send someone to Lingyun Real Estate for a surprise inspection later. If there's no problem, we can sign the contract."

Hearing her words, Chen Xuan immediately covered her mouth in disbelief. "You mean... You want to invest in Lingyun Real Estate?"

Qiu Min smiled and reached out her hand. "Actually, I still have to thank you. If you hadn't reminded me in time, I might have made a very serious mistake."

Chen Xuan hurriedly shook her hand, her hands trembling with excitement.

She had already given up on any hope.

She did not expect that when she was in a dilemma, there would be a bright future.

With Qingyun Investment's capital injection and Lingyun Real Estate's bidding plan, the company would be able to obtain a large sum of money.

Chen Xuan believed that Lingyun Real Estate would definitely win this bidding.

Her gratitude toward Qiu Min was beyond words.

At the same time, she was extremely shocked at Ye Feng.

She did not expect that he would really turn the tide.

After shaking hands, Qiu Min discussed some details of the cooperation with Chen Xuan.

Then, she turned to look at Ye Feng. "I really have to thank you this time, if it wasn't for you, I might have been cheated by Peng Shaokun."

Ye Feng smiled lightly: "It was nothing, not worth mentioning."

Qiu Min's eyes were filled with curiosity. "Can I add you on WeChat? If you have nothing to do in the future, we can play with the car together."

Ye Feng did not think too much: "Sure."

The two of them immediately added their contact details.

Seeing this scene, Chen Xuan, who was originally immersed in joy, immediately became vigilant.

It was as if her territory had been invaded by an enemy.

And this 'enemy' was very troublesome.

Chapter 338 - 338 How Could This Be?

338 How Could This Be?

A few minutes later, Ye Feng achieved his goal and bid farewell to Qiu Min naturally.

By the time he and Chen Xuan left, it had been a while.

Qiu Min was still browsing through her Moments.

As she flipped through it, Qiu Min became more and more surprised.

Because, just half a year ago.

Ye Feng's post was still a little 'shabby'.

He would feel sorry for the high prices in Zhonghai because of KFC.

He would even mock himself for being too poor because of the 600 yuan a month rent.

This made her puzzled.

A man who drove a Lykan supercar worth 60 to 70 million to race with her...

How could he have been so miserable half a year ago?

How was this possible?

What exactly happened in the past six months?

At the thought of this, Qiu Min, who was curious about a member of the opposite sex for the first time, immediately turned off her phone and turned to look at a subordinate.

“Ah San, help me check this person’s information. The more detailed, the better.”

“Yes!”

..

On the other side, on the Lykan supercar, Chen Xuan couldn’t help but exclaim, “That Miss Qiu is really a good person.”

“Not bad indeed.” Ye Feng nodded in agreement.

“Do you like her?” Chen Xuan asked.

Ye Feng turned around and saw that she was staring at him: "Are you joking? How could I like her?"

Chen Xuan refused to give up. "Didn't you say that she's not bad?"

Ye Feng rolled his eyes: "There are so many good people, how can I like them all?"

"But I think that Miss Qiu seems to be very interested in you," Chen Xuan said with a deeper meaning.

Ye Feng could not help but smile: "There are many people who are interested in me. Aren't you interested in me?"

Chen Xuan pursed her lips. "Tsk, who would be interested in you? You're so thick-skinned."

Ye Feng said unhappily: "I just helped you close such a huge deal. It's fine if you don't thank me, but you still say such words? Ungrateful woman."

Chen Xuan stuck out her tongue. "You're the company's major shareholder. Isn't this what you should do?"

Ye Feng was completely speechless.

After a moment of silence.

Chen Xuan spoke again, "Will you still race with her in the future?"

Ye Feng scratched his head: "Not necessarily, let's talk about it later."

Chen Xuan bit her lower lip and seemed to have mustered up her courage to say, "If you come again, can you bring me along?"

Ye Feng looked at her in surprise: "What are you doing here?"

Chen Xuan was speechless. "I..."

Ye Feng immediately revealed a mischievous smile: "Oh, I understand. You're afraid that I'll fall in love with her over time, so you came to spy on me, right?"

Chen Xuan's heart was exposed by him, and her pretty face immediately blushed to the ears.

"Who wants to spy on you? I... I just like the excitement of this kind of car racing..."

“Actually, there are more exciting sports than racing. Do you want to try?”

Ye Feng’s gaze kept on scanning her.

It was extremely aggressive.

Chen Xuan hurriedly covered her vital parts, feeling both embarrassed and angry. “You... You hooligan!”

“I’m talking about sports like rock climbing and snowboarding. What are you thinking? What are you thinking all day?”

Ye Feng shook his head in disdain.

Chen Xuan’s face turned even redder.

This guy was obviously deliberately misleading her and making her think in that direction. Then, he would make a countercharge.

This made her suffer in silence.

..

Two days passed quickly.

Finally, it was time to announce the results of the bidding for the land in the old urban area.

That afternoon.

All the CEOs of the companies participating in the bidding were gathered in the city center hall.

“Which company do you think will win the bid this time?”

“Is there a need to ask? It must be Wanfeng Real Estate!”

“Yeah, Wanfeng Real Estate has the backing of Cinda Corporation. At the same time, it has also received an investment from Qingyun Investment. Victory is in the bag.”

“Wanfeng Real Estate has always been the leader of the Zhonghai real estate industry. If we get this project, our strength will be further improved.”

“Peng Wannian has a good son. He’s so young, but he’s so capable. His future is limitless.”

“Yeah, many shareholders didn’t agree to let Peng Shaokun take over Cinda Corporation. I’m afraid they have nothing to say now.”

“This Peng Shaokun will definitely become a big shot in the business world of Zhonghai in the future...”

Just as everyone was discussing...

Peng Shaokun and Secretary Liu slowly walked into the hall.

He was wearing a white suit today.

It made him, who was already handsome, even more handsome.

In particular, his body exuded a proud aura.

Many female bosses looked at him.

Immediately, many people swarmed up and surrounded him.

“Congratulations, President Peng. Wanfeng Real Estate is determined to win this bid.”

“I think it’s well-deserved. Although President Peng is young, everyone can see his strength.”

“I believe that Cinda Corporation will achieve greater heights under the leadership of President Peng.”

“I think it’s time for Chairman Peng to consider handing Cinda Corporation over to President Peng.”

“That’s right. With Little President Peng’s current strength, he can completely take over the huge ship of Cinda.”

“...”

Peng Shaokun became more and more pleased with himself after hearing everyone’s flattery.

“Seniors, you flatter me. I was lucky to win this time, but I still have many shortcomings. I hope that seniors can give me more pointers.”

Hearing this, everyone started to flatter him again.

“President Peng is too humble. We still have to rely on your guidance in the future.”

“Not only is President Peng capable, but he’s also so humble. It’s really rare.”

“If it were anyone else, at Little President Peng’s age, with such achievements, their tail would have long been arrogant to the sky.”

“You should give birth to a child like Peng Shaokun!”

Peng Shaokun felt a little smug from the flattery.

“I’ve already booked a large private room at the Wanjiang Restaurant. After the announcement of the bidding results, I’ll treat everyone to a meal. Everyone, please give me some face.”

Everyone immediately scrambled to agree.

This project was huge.

If they could take the opportunity to build a good relationship with Peng Shaokun and get a share of the profits, they could also gain huge benefits.

Naturally, they were more than happy to do so.

At this moment, three more people walked in from outside.

Peng Shaokun looked back and immediately revealed a strange smile.

They were Ye Feng, Chen Xuan, and Zhang Youting.

Chapter 339 - 339 Are You Worthy of Fighting with Little President Peng?

339 Are You Worthy of Fighting with Little President Peng?

Seeing the three of them come together.

Peng Shaokun immediately sneered. "What are you doing here?"

Chen Xuan held Ye Feng's arm and looked at him indifferently: "Of course we are here to wait for the results."

Peng Shaokun seemed to have heard the biggest joke. “Hahaha, is that really necessary? Are you really that naïve to think that Lingyun Real Estate still has a chance?”

Chen Xuan sneered. “Whether there’s a chance or not, it’s not up to you to decide. It’s up to strength.”

Peng Shaokun immediately turned to look at the others.

“Did you hear that? She actually told me to rely on strength to speak. She doesn’t think that Lingyun Real Estate can compete with Wanfeng Real Estate, does she?”

Everyone immediately smiled obsequiously.

“Lingyun Real Estate has only been established for less than two years. How can it compete with Wanfeng Real Estate?”

“That’s right. Wanfeng Real Estate has already received an investment from Qingyun Investment. What can Lingyun Real Estate do to compete with them?”

“President Chen, don’t embarrass yourself here. It’s better to go back early.”

“That’s right. This is a man’s battlefield. Why are you, a woman, blindly interfering? It’s better to get married and have children as soon as possible.”

“You think you’re worthy of fighting with President Peng?”

Logically speaking, in the business world, unless there was an irreconcilable hatred, no one would speak ill of each other in person.

However, they were all a group of old foxes.

Naturally, they could tell that Peng Shaokun didn’t like Chen Xuan.

There was even some hatred.

Therefore, in order to please Peng Shaokun, they didn’t care about getting on Chen Xuan’s bad side.

After getting this project, Wanfeng Real Estate’s strength would soar.

Lingyun Real Estate, which had lost its project, wouldn’t have much development for at least a few years.

Peng Shaokun could stomp them to death in minutes.

Therefore, they all chose to stand on Peng Shaokun's side without hesitation.

"Young Master Peng, don't get too cocky. Until the last moment, it's still unknown who will win."

Ye Feng suddenly spoke.

Peng Shaokun glared at him fiercely.

Then, he turned to look at Chen Xuan.

"Actually, I can give you a chance. As long as you dump him and choose to fall into my arms, I can let Lingyun Real Estate have a share of the profits!"

Hearing this, everyone spoke enviously.

"President Chen, hurry up and agree. This is a huge opportunity."

"That's right. He's just a pretty boy. How can he be compared to this heaven-sent opportunity?"

“You’re not losing out at all by following Little President Peng. Others can’t be envious even if they want to.”

“President Chen, if I were you, I would agree without hesitation. It’s a pity that I’m a man, old and ugly.”

“We fought until our faces turned red, but President Chen was able to win so easily. I’m so jealous!”

“Ahahaha...”

Chen Xuan was furious by these people’s foul language.

Her pretty face was pale.

Ye Feng patted her hand to comfort her.

Then, his sharp gaze swept across the few people from before. “I’ll remember you. After Lingyun Real Estate wins the bid, you will be permanently excluded from the list of partners.”

Hearing this, the few of them burst into laughter.

“Is this kid crazy? Are you still daydreaming?”

“Does he think that Lingyun Real Estate still has a chance? How childish and laughable!”

“They’re both young people. Look at Little President Peng and then look at him. This is the difference!”

“How dare a braindead like you compare yourself to President Peng? You’re not even fit to carry President Peng’s shoes.”

“I’m really scared. Lingyun Real Estate must exclude me from the list of partners. I’m begging you.”

“I’ll blacklist Lingyun Real Estate first. As long as my company doesn’t go bankrupt, I won’t work with you.”

“Let’s see how long they can last if we isolate Lingyun Real Estate.”

Ye Feng heard everyone’s counterattack and sneered.

But he did not say anything else.

Everything depended on strength.

At this moment, Section Chief Yao slowly walked into the hall with a stack of documents in his hand.

Everyone immediately maintained their silence.

“Today is the day to announce the results of the bidding. I’m sure everyone is looking forward to it as much as I am. Next, let me introduce the government’s plan for this project...”

Next...

Section Chief Yao explained the specific plan of this project to everyone.

It included the importance the government attached to the project and the perfection of the surrounding facilities.

Although everyone knew this project like the back of their hands, however, they still felt their blood boil.

It could be seen that the higher-ups were determined to make this the core area of Zhonghai City.

Everyone could see that this was a huge opportunity.

Once captured, they would obtain immeasurable benefits.

However, opportunities were always reserved for those with strength.

Among the people present, there were only a handful of people with such strength.

After Section Chief Yao finished introducing the project plan, he officially entered the main topic.

“There are as many as fifty-six companies participating in the bidding this time. However, only three companies entered the final review. Next, I’ll announce the price offered by these three companies...”

“Wanfeng Real Estate’s bid price is... 2.56 billion!”

When he announced this...

The crowd was already clapping.

Everyone looked at Peng Shaokun with congratulatory eyes.

It seemed that the bidding result was already certain.

Peng Shaokun was not surprised by this result.

However, he still politely waved at the people from Thunderbolt Real Estate.

The people from Thunderbolt Real Estate weren't in a good mood.

In the end, they missed this bid with a small gap of 70 million.

However, they still congratulated Peng Shaokun generously.

Everyone at the scene began to rush to congratulate Peng Shaokun.

It was as if Wanfeng Real Estate had become the final winner.

This was because only Wanfeng Real Estate and Thunderbolt Real Estate had the strength to compete.

Now, Thunderbolt Real Estate was not selected.

Wanfeng Real Estate would definitely be the final winner.

As for the other company, they should be accompanying them.

It was not within their consideration at all.

But at this moment.

Section Chief Yao continued to announce.

“Lingyun Real Estate’s bid price is... 2.56 billion... and one yuan!”

Chapter 340 - 340 A Dollar's Edge?

340 A Dollar’s Edge?

When they heard Section Chief Yao’s final announcement of the results...

The entire hall fell into a dead silence.

Everyone's faces were filled with disbelief.

They thought that they had heard wrongly.

Wanfeng Real Estate's bid price was 2.56 billion.

Lingyun Real Estate's bid price was 2.56 billion... and 1 yuan?

With the advantage of one yuan, they managed to get this piece of land?

Become the final winner?

How was this possible?

Peng Shaokun only came back to his senses after a long time. He immediately rushed in front of Section Chief Yao. "You're talking nonsense. This is absolutely impossible!"

Section Chief Yao frowned. "President Peng, I can understand how you feel right now, but I hope you can remain calm."

Peng Shaokun's eyes were red. "Calm down? How am I supposed to calm down? I've invested so much into this project, but in the end, I actually lost. Moreover, I lost by a difference of one yuan. Can I stay calm?"

Section Chief Yao looked at him coldly. "Whether you accept it or not, this is the truth. Lingyun Real Estate's bid is indeed one yuan higher than yours."

Peng Shaokun's eyes went black and he almost fell down.

Secretary Liu, who was beside him, reacted quickly and quickly held him up.

Peng Shaokun pushed her away like a wild beast that had lost its mind.

He pointed angrily at Section Chief Yao. "It must be you. You must have leaked our bid price to them. You bent the law for personal gain. I'm going to sue you..."

Section Chief Yao's face darkened. "Peng Shaokun, how dare you slander me? Do you have any evidence?"

Peng Shaokun had completely lost his mind. “Their bidding price is only one yuan higher than mine. Obviously, they knew our bidding price in advance. You must have leaked it to them.”

Section Chief Yao’s gaze was cold.

“Only the leaders in charge of the final review know the price you gave. I just got the results. Are you suspecting that someone among those leaders is bending the law for personal gain?”

Peng Shaokun was immediately speechless.

Those leaders were in charge of the real estate planning and approval of the entire Zhonghai.

He did not dare to spout nonsense without any evidence.

Otherwise, Wanfeng Real Estate would never be able to survive in Zhonghai.

Even so, Peng Shaokun was still very suspicious.

Who leaked their bid price?

At this time, Secretary Liu who was standing beside him stole a glance at Ye Feng.

She couldn't figure out who leaked this secret information.

One had to know that only a few people knew about this matter from the planning to the execution.

Other than Peng Shaokun himself and her, the secretary, only the important people in charge of this area and Qiu Min of Qingyun Investment Company knew about it.

Ye Feng noticed her gaze and smiled.

Previously, when he and Qiu Min had reached an agreement, these secrets were naturally told by her.

On the other side, Peng Shaokun didn't know who leaked the secret.

However, he was still a little unwilling.

"Section Chief Yao, the rules of our bidding this time state that the company that wins the bid must have more than 70% of the capital flow of the entire project. I'm afraid Lingyun Real Estate doesn't meet this requirement, right?"

Hearing his question, everyone present nodded.

“That’s right. A conservative estimate for this project is tens of billions. Lingyun Real Estate needs to have at least 7 billion in cash flow.”

“If they don’t have that much money, it won’t be a joke if the project is half-finished.”

“Lingyun Real Estate’s current valuation is only a few billion, right? Where did they get so much cash flow?”

“You have to give us an explanation. Otherwise, we won’t accept it.”

“Yes, I’m not convinced!”

Looking at the angry crowd, Section Chief Yao could not help but sneer. “Lingyun Real Estate has provided sufficient proof of funds and is in full compliance with this regulation.”

When Peng Shaokun and the others heard this, their expressions changed drastically.

“That’s impossible. Where did Lingyun Real Estate get so much money?”

“Yes, unless they suddenly receive capital injection, they will never have such a huge capital flow.”

“But where did they get the investment in such a short time?”

“Could it be that they made false accounts to deceive the audit?”

“If they find out, the consequences will be very serious.”

Just as everyone was bewildered...

Suddenly, they saw a woman walking in from outside.

This woman was very beautiful.

Her long, soft hair was casually draped behind her.

She was still wearing a white racing suit, which did not fit in with the atmosphere at the scene.

When Peng Shaokun saw her, he immediately walked over helplessly. “Qiu Min, I’m really sorry. We didn’t win the bid this time.”

This woman was Qiu Min.

Upon hearing his words, she immediately sneered. "I know."

Peng Shaokun was stunned. "How did you know?"

Qiu Min put her hands in her pockets. "Because I invested in Lingyun Real Estate, which allowed them to get the right to bid."

Peng Shaokun immediately showed an expression of disbelief. "What? You invested in them? Why are you doing this? Didn't you already decide to invest in Wanfeng Real Estate?"

Qiu Min sneered. "Do you need me to say what you did in public?"

Peng Shaokun was furious. "What did I do? You have to give me an explanation today."

Qiu Min looked at him coldly.

“I was originally still concerned about the face of my old classmate. Since you don’t know what’s good for you, then I’ll say it clearly. Your Wanfeng Real Estate’s finances are fake. Fortunately, I was reminded by Mr. Ye to avoid a huge loss...”

Everyone was shocked when they heard this.

Wanfeng Real Estate’s financial fraud?

Was this for real?

Reputation was very important in the business world.

If Wanfeng Real Estate was proven to have faked its finances...

In the future, not many companies would dare to work with them.

“I trusted you so much. I didn’t expect you to lie to me. How despicable.”

Qiu Min could not hide the anger in her heart.

“Ye Feng... He’s slandering me. Qiu Min, don’t believe his nonsense. He has a grudge against me and deliberately framed me...”

Peng Shaokun suddenly became anxious and spoke without thinking.

He wanted to rush up and strangle Ye Feng.

It was this kid who ruined his plans again.

Qiu Min immediately took out a document bag. “All the evidence of your construction costs is here. Do you still need me to read them out for you one by one?”

Peng Shaokun, who was about to struggle, immediately stopped.

He didn’t even dare to let out a fart.
