Chapter 61 - 61 It's Fake At First Sight?

61 It's Fake At First Sight?

Ye Feng drove his Lykan and slowly caught up with Zhou Shuyao, walking side by side with her.

“Where are you going? I’ll give you a ride?”

Ye Feng rested his chin on the window and smiled shamelessly.

“I don’t need it.”

Zhou Shuyao turned her head away and pretended to be angry.

“You’re really angry?” Ye Feng asked despite knowing the answer.

“Hmph!”

Zhou Shuyao ignored him and continued walking.

Ye Feng sped up and stopped the sports car in front of her, then he got out of the car.

“Ye Feng, what kind of person do you think I am? Do you think you can do whatever you want to me just because you let me manage these apartments?”

Zhou Shuyao was still a little angry.

“I definitely didn’t mean it that way!” Ye Feng hesitated.

“But what?” Zhou Shuyao asked.

“It’s just that you’re too beautiful, I can’t control myself.” Ye Feng gave a very reasonable explanation.

“Pfft!” Zhou Shuyao couldn’t help but laugh. “What a glib tongue.”

Ye Feng was relieved when he saw her smile through her tears. He stepped forward and held her hand.
“Let’s go. I’ll treat you to a meal as an apology.”

“Then I’ll have to make you pay for it.” Zhou Shuyao threatened.

Although it sounded like a threat, it was obvious that she had already forgiven Ye Feng's rash actions.

"No problem. You can choose any restaurant in Zhonghai."

Ye Feng helped her open the car door.

...

Ye Feng brought Zhou Shuyao to the Shangri-La Hotel, which was the closest.

He had heard from Shen Baitian that there was a star-rated restaurant here.

Just as the two of them entered the Shangri-La Hotel, Ye Feng suddenly heard a system notification.

[A new opportunity mission has been detected – Complete Sotheby's consignment mission.]

[System navigation activated. Please walk 12 meters in your current position and take the elevator to the 12th floor.]

Ye Feng's heart skipped a beat, and he immediately pulled Zhou Shuyao toward the elevator.

When the two of them arrived at the 12th floor according to the navigation, they found that it was a huge venue.

The venue was already packed with people.

"What are they doing?" Zhou Shuyao was a little curious.

"Let's go and take a look." Ye Feng did not explain further. He walked into the crowd.

At this moment, he saw a middle-aged man with a refined temperament standing on the stage and speaking loudly.

"Hello, everyone. I'm Chen Qiushan, the General Manager of the China region of the Sotheby's Auction House. I'm sure everyone knows the reason why I've gathered you here today."

"The Sotheby's Summer Auction will be held next month, but unfortunately, there hasn't been a fine item that's enough to hold the auction so far. I've heard that there are crouching tigers and hidden dragons in Zhonghai's collection world, so I came here rashly. I hope everyone can give our Sotheby's a hand."

“If anyone’s item reaches this standard, Sotheby’s is willing to offer a free auction service. We won’t charge a single cent.”

After listening to his speech, everyone in the venue became excited.

Sotheby’s was the most famous auction house in the world.

The items auctioned in this auction house were often sold for sky-high prices.

Which collector would not want to put their collection up for auction in Sotheby’s?

However, Sotheby’s had a high bar, and ordinary collections would not catch their eye.

Secondly, the commission they charged was very high, which made many collectors’ hearts ache.

Now that Manager Chen had promised that as long as they could produce a piece of fine work that was enough to hold the ground, they would be exempted from all commission, so they could not help but be tempted.

They all eagerly took out their collections and lined up to wait.

There were a few Sotheby's appraisers at the scene, who were carefully appraising the items for everyone.

Ye Feng's heart moved. He asked Zhou Shuyao to wait here for a while.

Then, he turned around and went downstairs to get the painting, The Girl in the Red Hat, from the car.

The appraisal was still going on when he returned to the venue.

"What are you holding in your hand?"

Zhou Shuyao saw that he was holding a box in his hands and couldn't help but be curious.

"You'll know in a bit."

Ye Feng purposely kept her in suspense and then went to line up.

Sotheby's appraisers were very professional, and the appraisal process was very fast.

Soon, it was Ye Feng's turn.

When he unfolded the painting, it immediately attracted the attention of many people around him.

The Girl in the Red Hat?

There was no lack of sharp-eyed people present, so they naturally knew the origin of his painting.

They just didn't know if it was real.

"Little brother, I can tell that your painting is fake. It's better if you don't join in the fun."

A middle-aged man behind Ye Feng acted like he knew what was going on.

"How do you know it is fake?" Ye Feng asked.

"Do you still need to ask? Everyone knows that 'The Girl in a Red Hat' is one of Picasso's representative works. If it was real, its value would be immeasurable. How could a collection of this level be in the hands of a young man like you?"

The surrounding people listened to his logical analysis and nodded in agreement.

Every piece of Picasso's work could be sold for an astronomical price.

If anyone had a painting of Picasso in their hands now, they would just wait for it to appreciate in value. Why would they put it up for auction?

Ye Feng did not care about them anymore. He passed the painting to the appraiser of Sotheby's.

The appraiser took the painting indifferently.

Obviously, he didn't have much hope.

However, when the appraiser's gaze fell on the painting, he immediately gasped.

"This..."

Chapter 62 - 62 Authentic Work! A Sensation At the Scene!

62 Authentic Work! A Sensation At the Scene!

The people in line saw the appraiser's strange expression and gathered around.

“Is this painting real or fake?”

The middle-aged man who had just concluded that Ye Feng’s painting was an imitation hurriedly asked.

The appraiser wiped the sweat from his forehead and quickly gathered the other appraisers.

The few of them surrounded the painting and looked at it for a long time, their expressions becoming more and more serious.

“It’s really the authentic work of Picasso!”

After a while, one of the appraisers shouted.

As soon as he said this, the originally chaotic venue immediately became quiet.

Everyone was shocked by his words.

An authentic work of Picasso had actually appeared?

“Really? A painting by Picasso? That’s priceless!”

“Where did this young man come from? We’ve never heard of this person in the collection world of Zhonghai City!”

“You really can’t judge a book by its cover. Such a young man can actually produce an authentic work of Picasso?”

“We can’t be sure that it’s authentic yet, right? What if the appraisers are wrong?”

The crowd discussed animatedly. They were all somewhat bewildered.

It was mainly because the news was too shocking.

Most people couldn’t accept it.

At this time, Chen Qiushan, the General Manager of the China region of Sotheby’s auction house, came after hearing the news.

When he saw the painting, The Girl in the Red Hat, he felt as if he was struck by lightning. He hurriedly went forward to take a closer look.

After a long while, he looked up at Ye Feng in disbelief. "Friend, where did you get this painting?"

Ye Feng frowned. "General Manager Chen, I'm afraid it's not in line with the rules for you to ask this?"

This was already considered a private matter, and it was clearly a little rash for the other party to ask this question.

Chen Qiushan came back to his senses and quickly apologized, "I'm sorry, I'm sorry. I was too rash. I was just too shocked. This painting has disappeared for many years. I didn't expect it to reappear in Zhonghai City."

His words were undoubtedly the final word.

Even the general manager of the Sotheby's Auction House had confirmed that it was an authentic Picasso, so who would dare to say that it was fake?

With that, the entire venue was in an uproar.

They had undoubtedly witnessed a part of history.

One could only imagine what kind of waves would be set off in the collection world when the news of Picasso's authentic work spread.

Chen Qiushan held Ye Feng's hand in excitement.

"My friend, you must hand this painting over to our Sotheby's Auction House. The starting price of this painting is at least 500 million, and I believe the final transaction price will be far more than this."

His words once again dropped a heavy bomb in the venue.

Although everyone knew that Picasso's paintings were priceless, they had not expected them to be worth so much.

The starting price was actually 500 million?

Wasn't this a little too scary?

Zhou Shuyao, who was standing beside Ye Feng, was so shocked that she could not speak.

Even though she already knew Ye Feng's strength...

However, when he casually took out a painting that could be sold for more than 500 million, it still made her feel that it was unreal.

That was 500 million yuan!

To an ordinary person like her, it was definitely an unimaginable astronomical figure.

Out of everyone present, only Ye Feng was able to remain calm, because he already knew the value of this painting.

“It’s my honor to put this painting up for auction in Sotheby’s.”

Chen Qiushan gave him a thumbs up when he saw how calm he was.

“This friend is so young, but his heart is so calm. It’s really rare! If you don’t mind, let’s be friends. In the future, if you need my help, just ask.”

As soon as he said that, the few Sotheby’s staff members behind him were shocked.

They were well aware of Chen Qiushan’s background.

However, he was not as simple as the general manager of the China region of the Sotheby's Auction House.

The background behind him was extremely terrifying.

This was the first time they had seen Chen Qiushan take the initiative to befriend someone, and it was a young man.

However, Ye Feng did not know the value of this friendship. He only nodded his head lightly.

He took the initiative to give his name and then exchanged contact information.

At the same time, the system's notification sound rang in his mind again.

[Congratulations to the host for completing the destiny navigation mission! The system rewards 500 million yuan worth of investment information.]

Immediately after, the trend chart of the three stocks was reflected in his mind.

Ye Feng could not help but be shocked.

This time, the system did not reward him with real estate, sports car, or any other physical items. Instead, it gave him a trend chart of three stocks.

It was planning to let him enter the financial industry.

“Brother Ye, if it’s convenient, how about I treat you to dinner tonight?”

After the consignment process was completed, Chen Qiushan took the initiative to invite him.

Ye Feng smiled apologetically, “I’m sorry, I’ve already made an appointment to have dinner with this lady.”

Then, he pointed at Zhou Shuyao.

Chen Qiushan immediately smiled, “I understand, I understand. Let’s meet again when we have time.”

The group of staff members behind him all looked at Ye Feng in shock.

This fellow actually rejected General Manager Chen’s invitation for a woman?

He probably didn't know what this meant, right?

Zhou Shuyao, who was standing at the side, was also in disbelief.

He was the general manager of Sotheby's Auction House.

Now that he had invited Ye Feng for a meal, this guy actually refused?

Was he crazy?

Ye Feng did not care about what everyone was thinking.

He wouldn't even care if the President of the United States was trying to curry favor with him, let alone the general manager of the Sotheby's Auction House.

After saying goodbye to Chen Qiushan, he pulled Zhou Shuyao out of the venue.

Chen Qiushan looked at his back and smiled in admiration.

"Interesting!"

Chapter 63 - 63 The Heartwarming Big Sister Next Door

63 The Heartwarming Big Sister Next Door

When he was eating with Zhou Shuyao, Ye Feng was still thinking about the information on the three stocks.

Zhou Shuyao could tell that he had something on his mind, so she asked considerately, "Are you in trouble? Tell me, I might be able to help you."

Ye Feng thought for a moment. "I want to buy a few stocks recently, but I know nothing about this. I want to find a professional to help me, but I don't know anyone in this field."

After listening to his statement, Zhou Shuyao's eyes rolled. "I do know a professional. She is now a trading manager at Dong'an Securities."

Ye Feng's eyes brightened. "Can you introduce me to them?"

Zhou Shuyao covered her mouth and laughed. "You know this person too?"

Ye Feng was confused. "I know them too? Who is it?"

Zhou Shuyao calmly ate two mouthfuls of food and slowly took two sips of her drink until Ye Feng was extremely anxious.

She then spoke again. "Sister Xu Man. Have you forgotten? You were neighbors in the past."

Ye Feng heard her reminder and the image of a mature woman flashed in his mind.

The Xu Man she was talking about used to live next door and was a few years older than him.

She had always taken care of him like a sister.

After that, she was admitted to college and worked outside during the summer and winter holidays, and she rarely went home.

The chances of the two meeting became less and less.

If Zhou Shuyao hadn't mentioned her at this time, he would have almost forgotten about her.

He pulled out the number that he had not called for a long time.

Ye Feng gathered his courage and called.

The call was picked up very quickly, and a slightly lazy voice came through. "Hello, who's this?"

Ye Feng's heart skipped a beat. "Sister Xu Man, I'm Ye Feng."

After a few seconds of silence, the other party suddenly raised her voice by a few octaves. "Where did the sun set today? You actually took the initiative to call me? The heavens!"

Ye Feng was speechless when he heard her exaggerated voice. "Sister Xu Man, I need your help with something."

Xu Man's voice was filled with resentment. "I knew you wouldn't think of me for no reason. What's the matter? I'll say this first, I can't help you with big things, and I can't be bothered with small things."

Ye Feng touched his nose. "It's like this, I've been thinking of buying a few stocks recently, but I know nothing about this. I heard that Sister Xu Man is working in a securities company now, so I want you to help me with it."

Xu Man's voice suddenly turned serious. "Xiao Feng, are you still in school? Listen to your sister's advice. Don't speculate in the stock market, or you'll cry."

Ye Feng scratched his head. "Don't worry, I'm just having fun, I won't throw in all my assets."

Xu Man remained silent for a while before she spoke again. "It's good that you know the limits. I can help you with the operation, and I'll only charge you the lowest commission. I can't guarantee that you'll make money, but at least you won't lose much."

Ye Feng quickly thanked her, "Thank you Sister Xu Man, I'll treat you to a meal when you're free."

Xu Man returned to her usual laid-back attitude. "Don't be so free. Come to my company tomorrow. I'll give you some guidance and tell you some inside information so that you won't sink deeper and deeper into this."

Hearing her words, Ye Feng's heart warmed. "Okay!"

The two of them chatted for a while more before hanging up the phone.

Seeing the two of them chatting so enthusiastically, Zhou Shuyao suddenly felt a sense of crisis.

Why did she mention Xu Man to him?

Wasn't this making a great enemy for herself for no reason?

Thinking of this, she immediately regretted it.

...

The next morning, Ye Feng changed into a brand new suit.

After looking at himself in the mirror for a long time and making sure that there was nothing wrong, he drove out of the door with his Lykan.

It was 9:30 when he arrived at Dong'an Securities.

The office building of Dong'an Securities was very grand. It was about a dozen stories high and looked very imposing.

Ye Feng walked into the main hall and went straight to the front desk, " Hello, I'm looking for Xu Man. We've already made an appointment.

The girl at the front desk immediately smiled. "You must be Mr. Ye Feng? Manager Xu is in a meeting right now, but she has already instructed me to take you to her office directly if you come. This way, please."

Saying so, she enthusiastically led Ye Feng upstairs.

Ye Feng was very touched.

He didn't expect Xu Man to be so concerned about him, even ordering her subordinates to receive him.

Xu Man's office was on the third floor.

When he was led into her office by the female receptionist, he saw that the desk and the carpet were covered with all kinds of flowers.

This... Ye Feng looked at the female receptionist in confusion.

"These are all gifts from Manager Xu's suitors. We have to get the janitors to clean them up every day, and they'll continue to pile up the next day," the female receptionist explained in an envious tone.

"Your Manager Xu is quite popular with the men." Ye Feng could not help but be filled with emotions.

"It's not just men, we women like Manager Xu too. She's pretty and capable. She's a role model for all of us women!"

The receptionist's eyes sparkled at the mention of Xu Man.

It was as if she was a brainless fan.

"Is she as good as you say?" Ye Feng was a little doubtful.

He remembered that Xu Man had always bullied him when they were young. She was more like a demoness.

"Of course, everyone in our company is in awe of Manager Xu. If you don't believe me, you can go and ask around!" Seeing that he didn't believe her, the female receptionist immediately became a little anxious.

At this moment, she suddenly heard a lazy woman's voice. "What are you trying to find out?"

Ye Feng turned around.

Then, he was petrified!

Chapter 64 - 64 Did You Have Plastic Surgery!

64 Did You Have Plastic Surgery!

Xu Man was dressed in a red suit and a pair of red diamond-studded high heels.

Her big, wavy hair quivered as she walked.

Her white cheeks and bright red lips were like a plum flower on a piece of rice paper.

Her entire person exuded a kind of soul-snatching charm.

Ye Feng could not help but swallow his saliva.

Was this still the female lunatic who was usually sloppy in his memory?

She was simply a goddess!

“What, you don’t recognize your sister?” Xu Man walked up to him and waved her hand in front of his eyes.

“Did you get plastic surgery?” Ye Feng had been holding it in for a long time, and finally said this.

“Get lost! Are you looking for a beating?” Xu Man glared at him in annoyance.

The two of them laughed and scolded each other, and the sense of strangeness immediately disappeared.

“Not bad, you’re a decent kid now. These clothes aren’t cheap, right?”

Xu Man sized up Ye Feng. A strange light flashed past her eyes.

She remembered that Ye Feng used to be very self-abased in front of her, and he was always shy when he spoke or did things.

And the current Ye Feng had a strong sense of self-confidence.

This kind of aura could only be seen on those who had succeeded.

“It’s alright,” Ye Feng smiled lightly.

“Listen to me. You’re still in school and your family isn’t that well-off. You should use your money where it should be used and not pursue superficial vanity.”

Xu Man knew that Ye Feng's family was poor, and he was just in his first year of university, so he must be short of money.

He was probably afraid that she would look down on him, so he bought such expensive clothes.

Ye Feng knew that she had good intentions. He could only nod in agreement.

After that, Xu Man personally helped Ye Feng to open an account and signed a letter of authorization.

After she was done with the procedures, she sent her assistant away and waved to Ye Feng. "Come here."

Ye Feng walked over obediently.

A faint perfume smell immediately assailed his nose, making him somewhat restless.

Xu Man did not notice his expression and pointed at the computer screen instead.

"If you must invest in the stock market, I'll recommend this stock to you. I've received some insider information that this stock will be doing very well in the future."

Ye Feng nodded his head repeatedly while secretly observing Xu Man.

It had to be said that this sister-next-door was getting more and more charming.

No wonder she could receive so many fresh flowers every day.

Xu Man explained it to him for more than half an hour.

However, he only heard a little as he spent most of his time observing Xu Man.

“Alright, let’s stop here for today. You won’t be able to digest too much. Go back and think about it. Once you’ve decided on which stock to buy, just let me know.”

Xu Man stood up and stretched.

Her lithe figure could be seen at a glance.

Ye Feng almost spat out blood and quickly looked away. “Sister Xu Man, are you free today? I’ll treat you to a meal.”

Xu Man sighed. "There's still a lot of things to do today. Let's wait for another day."

Ye Feng nodded. "Alright, let's meet another day."

Then, he walked out of the office.

Xu Man personally escorted him to the elevator.

The employees of the security company who passed by all looked on curiously.

Manager Xu was usually very cold and aloof.

The guests that she personally saw off were all extremely distinguished.

Who was this young man?

After sending Ye Feng off, Xu Man was about to return to her office.

At this moment, a middle-aged man who was a little balding walked over quickly. "Manager Xu, are you out to see our guests off?"

Xu Man frowned when she saw the man.

The man's name was Wang Changgeng and he was her biggest competitor in Dong'an Securities.

Usually, in order to compete for customers, he had done a lot of underhanded things to her.

"Yes, Manager Wang, is there anything I can help you with?" Many years of working experience had trained Xu Man to be able to hide her emotions.

"That person just now is your new big client?" Wang Changgeng thought the young man was a big client when he saw Xu Man walking him out.

"No, it's my neighbor. He's still in university and wants me to help him choose a few stocks to earn some money for his living expenses." Xu Man did not hide anything.

Hearing this, Wang Changgeng immediately breathed a sigh of relief. 'So they're neighbors!' "Manager Xu, you still have the time to help your neighbors with their business?"

"What do you mean?" Xu Man asked with a faint smile.

Wang Changgeng smiled triumphantly. "Your performance this month isn't very good. I've left you far behind. Manager Xu, you have to work harder."

Xu Man was extremely annoyed by his smug look.

However, the other party was telling the truth.

Her performance this month was indeed very poor, and she had been completely left behind by the other party.

The other party ridiculed her, but she couldn't be angry.

She was about to turn around and leave to avoid the sharp edge.

At this moment, her assistant suddenly ran over. "Sister Man, the new account you're managing has bought three stocks in one go."

Xu Man was stunned for a moment before she reacted.

It should be Ye Feng who bought it, right?

However, she had only recommended one to him. Why did he buy three at once?

This guy wanted to learn how to run before he even learned how to crawl.

“How much did he buy?” Xu Man asked nonchalantly.

“He bought 100 million in each stock!” The assistant was extremely excited.

“How much?”

Xu Man and Wang Changgeng exclaimed at the same time.

100 million for each of the three stocks?

This was a super big order!

Chapter 65 - 65 Do I Need To Explain To You?

65 Do I Need To Explain To You?

“Are you sure you didn’t make a mistake?”

Xu Man was stunned for a long time and still couldn't be sure.

The assistant nodded with certainty. "It's absolutely true. I've confirmed it a few times. He has indeed bought three stocks worth more than 100 million yuan."

Wang Changgeng immediately glared at Xu Man. "Manager Xu, didn't you say that the young man was just your neighbor? How are you going to explain this?"

His performance this month had already surpassed Xu Man's.

And it was the only time in history.

He had thought that he could finally hold his head high.

He didn't expect that before he could sit down, he would be overtaken by the other party.

He was furious.

Xu Man's face darkened when she heard his tone. "Do I need to explain myself to you?"

Wang Changgeng's expression suddenly became extremely embarrassed, and he stood in place for a long time, unable to speak.

After a long time, he seemed to have recovered a little and said, "Alright, you win. Let's wait and see."

After he finished speaking, he left in a Huff.

Xu Man ignored him. She took out her phone and called Ye Feng. "Ye Feng, did you buy those three stocks?"

"Yeah, what's wrong?"

Ye Feng's tone was very calm. It was as if he did not buy 300 million worth of stocks, but three packets of instant noodles.

"Where did you get so much money?"

Xu Man's mind was still in a daze. She was in disbelief.

"I made a small fortune some time ago."

Ye Feng made up an excuse.

“300 million is a small fortune? Then how much is considered big?” Xu Man shouted and attracted the attention of many passersby.

She couldn't be blamed for making a fuss.

With Ye Feng's family background, what kind of fortuitous encounter did he have to be able to earn 300 million?

If she did not know Ye Feng's character, she would have suspected that Ye Feng was doing something illegal.

“Don't worry, Sister Man. Don't you understand me? This money is definitely clean.”

Ye Feng had already guessed what she was thinking, and he explained immediately.

“That's good. But didn't I recommend you a stock? Why did you make the decision to buy three trashy stocks?”

Xu Man's heart, which had just calmed down, was once again in her mouth.

From her many years of experience, she could tell that the three stocks that Ye Feng had bought were not doing well.

It could even be said to be trash.

Who would buy such a stock?

"I think these three stocks have a lot of potential. What if they create a miracle?"

Ye Feng's tone was filled with confidence.

This surprised Xu Man. "Do you have any inside information?"

Since Ye Feng could own several hundred million in assets in such a short period of time, he might have really latched onto the thigh of some big shot.

Ye Feng smiled mysteriously. "If Sister Xu Man trusts me, why don't you buy some as well? If you make a profit, it's all on you. If you lose, it's all on me."

Xu Man was disdainful. "I'm not buying that kind of trash stock."

The two of them chatted for a while more before hanging up.

Xu Man frowned and fell into deep thought.

From Ye Feng's tone, he seemed to be very confident in these three stocks.

Should she also buy some?

She had saved up some money over the past few years, about 5 million.

However, according to her own judgment, it was impossible for these three stocks to rise.

What if it all went to waste?

The assistant beside her saw her frowning and couldn't help but worry. "Sister Man, are you okay?"

Xu Man raised her head slowly as if she had made a decision. "Go and use all the money in my account to buy these three stocks."

After hesitating for a while, she decided to trust Ye Feng this once.

She couldn't explain the exact reason.

The assistant was stunned. "Sister Man, you're not joking, are you? These three stocks have been falling. It's a bottomless pit."

Xu Man's eyes became determined and she mimicked Ye Feng's tone. "I think these three stocks have a lot of potential. What if they create a miracle?"

The assistant had no choice but to follow her instructions.

However, she was secretly reproaching her in her heart.

Sister Man had always been a steady person when it came to business.

Why did it seem like she had changed into a different person after making a call?

She was really out of her mind.

...

Time passed by.

Xu Man had been sitting in her office, sipping her tea slowly.

On the surface, she looked very calm.

However, the glass of water in her hand kept shaking, betraying her nervousness.

She didn't even dare to turn on her computer.

She was afraid to see the three stocks continue to fall.

After all, she had invested all her assets.

If she lost, her years of hard work would be in vain.

She also did not know why she had gone crazy with Ye Feng.

It was too late to regret it now.

She could only leave it to fate.

Just as she was feeling extremely tormented, the office door was suddenly pushed open.

The assistant walked in in a panic. "Sister Man, Sister Man, those three stocks..."

Because she was too excited, she couldn't even speak clearly.

Xu Man's heart skipped a beat. Could it be that it had plummeted?

"Those three stocks are rising like crazy!"

The assistant took a sip of water from Xu Man's glass and exclaimed.

"Really? How much did it increase by?"

Xu Man immediately stood up in surprise.

“It’s been going up since 10 minutes ago, and it’s rising very quickly. It’s almost 5% now, sob sob.”

Before the assistant could finish, Xu Man had already turned on her computer to look at the market trend.

As expected, the three stocks that Ye Feng had asked her to buy had risen from the previous decline.

And compared to the previous decline, the rise was getting faster and faster.

A total increase of 8%!

12%!

...

Xu Man had been in the securities industry for a few years, but she had never seen such a crazy rise.

Her heart was in her throat.

She quickly dialed Ye Feng's number.

"Ye Feng, what's going on?"

Chapter 66 - 66 Don't Ask Anything

66 Don't Ask Anything

"What's wrong, Sister Man?"

When he received Xu Man's call, Ye Feng had just returned to the villa and was about to take a hot bath.

When he heard her flustered tone, he thought that something had happened.

"The three stocks you bought have gone crazy." Xu Man's voice was trembling.

“Isn’t that a good thing? Why are you panicking?” Ye Feng was relieved and walked into the bathtub.

“How can I not panic? I’ve been in the industry for so many years, but I’ve never seen such a crazy rise in the market.” Xu Man was surprised by his calm tone.

“As one lives for a long time, one can see everything. It’s good to get used to it. By the way, how much has it risen to now?” Ye Feng picked up a glass of red wine from the edge of the bathtub and swirled it in his hand. He was very satisfied.

“Now, after adding in the 10 losses that we’ve made up for, we’ve already accumulated an increase of 18%. No, it’s already 20%. Let’s stop while we can.”

Xu Man realized that while she was speaking to Ye Feng, it had increased by another 2%. She felt that her heart could not take it anymore.

“Don’t worry, let the bullet fly a little longer,” Ye Feng’s tone was filled with confidence.

“Ye Feng, listen to my advice. Insatiable greed is the worst thing in the stock market. We have already earned enough. Let’s sell it.” Xu Man was a little anxious.

“You just have to do as I say. Sell it when the stock rises to 30%.” Ye Feng gave a number.

The system told him when to buy and when to sell.

That was why he was able to sit on the sidelines.

Seeing that she couldn't persuade him, Xu Man had no choice but to hang up the phone.

But she couldn't let it go, so she could only stare at the market trend.

Even the slightest fluctuation would make her nervous.

Then, she saw the three stocks soaring in front of her eyes.

A total of 23% increase!

In addition to the loss-making portion, there was a 25% increase!

A total of 27% increase!

...

30% profit!

The further the K-line moved, the slower the increase was.

“Hurry up and throw them all away!”

Xu Man saw that the three stocks had already reached the critical point that Ye Feng had mentioned, she quickly shouted.

The little assistant came back to her senses and quickly started to operate.

Even Xu Man had never seen such a crazy rise in popularity, let alone a small assistant like her.

Her hands were still shaking as she operated the computer.

At the same time, she was filled with regret.

If she had known that these three stocks would rise at such a crazy rate, she would have bought them together with Xu Man.

In such a short time, it had increased by 30%. This was simply picking up money.

It was laughable that she had just mocked Xu Man for being out of her mind.

So she was the clown?

With the assistant's manipulation, all three stocks were sold.

Xu Man slumped into the chair as if she was dehydrated.

The soul-stirring process just now was no different from a war.

She was completely exhausted.

However, the harvest this time was too great.

In just a short while, after deducting the capital of 5 million and some processing fees, she had earned nearly 1.5 million.

This made her feel unreal.

She had worked hard for so many years and only saved up more than 5 million yuan.

In such a short period of time, she had earned almost half of her net worth.

This was simply too crazy.

However, compared to Ye Feng, her income was nothing.

After this short-term operation, Ye Feng's assets had increased by 90 million.

That was truly terrifying!

Just as she was in a daze...

Suddenly, she heard her assistant exclaim, "It's falling! Sister Man, those three stocks have started to fall!"

Xu Man quickly turned around and saw that the three stocks that had been soaring suddenly plunged without any warning.

In just ten minutes, it fell back to the lowest point when she bought it.

And it was still falling, with no end in sight.

This made her break out in cold sweat.

If she had sold it just a little later, the consequences would have been unimaginable.

At the same time, a huge question appeared in her mind.

How did Ye Feng's prediction become so accurate?

Not only did he know that these three stocks would rise sharply today, but he could also accurately cash out at the highest point.

Could it be that he had some special ability?

Thinking of this, she quickly picked up her phone and called Ye Feng.

“You’ve thrown them all away?”

Before she could speak, Ye Feng had already asked.

“Ye Feng, tell me the truth, what are you doing?”

Before she could ask, Ye Feng interrupted her. “Don’t ask anything. I won’t tell you even if you ask.”

Xu Man laughed at his words.

Indeed, everyone had an inhumane secret.

Why did she bother to get to the bottom of it?

After all, she had gained a huge advantage this time.

One must know when to stop.

“Alright, I won’t ask anymore. Are you free later? I’ll treat you to some tea.” Xu Man took the initiative to invite him.

“I’ve helped you earn such a large sum of money, and you’re just going to treat me to tea? Aren’t you too stingy?” Ye Feng laughed and teased.

“Then what do you want to eat? You can choose any restaurant in Zhonghai.” Xu Man was in high spirits when it came to happy events, so her words were a little more overbearing.

“Forget it, let’s have some tea. Send me the address later.”

Ye Feng hung up the phone and changed into a brand-new suit.

Then, he drove the Ferrari Enzo and rushed to the place he had agreed to meet Xu Man.

Just as he was humming a tune and enjoying the scenery along the way, the system notification rang in his mind again.

[New treasure-hunting mission detected – Imperial Green raw jade stone.]

[System navigation activated. Please drive along the current road and turn right after 100 meters.]

Ye Feng was stunned.

A new treasure-hunting mission?

He quickly sent a message to Xu Man, saying that he had run into some trouble on the way and would be a little late.

Then, he followed the route provided by the system's navigation system and changed his direction.

Chapter 67 - 67 I Don't Understand the World of the Rich

67 I Don't Understand the World of the Rich

Ye Feng followed the system's navigation.

After about half an hour, the car drove into a construction site.

The workers, who were busy with their work, saw an extremely cool sports car driving in. They all put down their work and looked at it in surprise.

For people who lived at the bottom of society, they had only seen sports cars of this level on TV.

They didn't expect to see it in reality.

Due to the potholes on the road, the sports car could not move forward.

Ye Feng had no choice but to park his car outside the construction site and continue walking according to the system's navigation.

After a short while, they arrived in front of a pile of crushed stones.

[Navigation complete.]

Could it be that the raw jade stone was actually in this pile of gravel?

Looking at the small mountain of rocks, he began to think of retreating.

However, at the thought of the priceless Imperial Green raw jade stone, he gritted his teeth, stomped his feet, and climbed up the pile of stones, starting to search.

The workers on the construction site all looked at Ye Feng in a daze.

They didn't know what this rich man had suddenly gone crazy for him to start moving stones.

They didn't know, and they didn't dare to ask.

After all, Ye Feng was a college student who did not exercise. He was tired after moving for a while, he had to stop.

Then, he waved to a few workers who were watching the commotion not far away. "Help me move the things. After you're done, I'll give each of you 1000 yuan."

When the workers heard that he needed help, they instinctively wanted to refuse.

After all, it was also a pleasure to see a rich man working like a dog in front of them.

However, when they heard that there was a reward of 1000 yuan, they could no longer be bothered to watch the show and immediately rushed up.

They worked hard at the construction site and only made 200 yuan a day.

Now, they could earn 1000 just by moving a pile of stones. This was simply a pie falling from the sky.

It had to be said that there were specializations in every field.

The speed at which these workers moved the stones was many times faster than Ye Feng. In just a short while, more than half of the stones had been moved.

Right at this time, Ye Feng suddenly saw a worker carrying a black rock.

The worker was still cursing, "This stone is so f*cking heavy."

Ye Feng rushed up without a second word and snatched the stone from his hands.

Before he could take a closer look, he heard the system notification sound in his ear again.

[Congratulations to the host for completing the treasure-hunting navigation. You have received an additional system reward: All the shares of Zhonghai Hot Springs Resort will be rewarded with 600 million yuan.]

Ye Feng was immediately overjoyed. He was too lazy to look at it, and he directly moved the raw jade stone into the trunk.

Then, he took out a stack of cash and threw it to the workers without even counting it.

Then, he drove away in his Ferrari.

The few people were left in a state of confusion.

I don't understand the world of the rich!

...

Ye Feng drove to the tea room and found the private room that Xu Man had booked.

He saw her drinking tea slowly inside.

Seeing Ye Feng's arrival, she hurriedly came up to him excitedly, "Ye Feng, I earned 1.5 million today, a whole 1.5 million!"

She still couldn't believe that she had earned so much money in half a day.

“Isn’t it just 1.5 million? Do you have to be so excited?” Ye Feng sat opposite her calmly and poured himself a cup of tea.

“Of course it’s nothing compared to a big tycoon like you. But for a poor person like me, it’s a huge sum of money.”

Xu Man felt bored when she saw that he wasn’t happy at all.

“This is nothing. There will be plenty of opportunities to earn money in the future,” Ye Feng said in an enigmatic manner.

“You have inside information?” Xu Man’s eyes lit up immediately.

“It’s a secret,” Ye Feng purposely made a riddle.

“It’s fine if you don’t want to say it. In any case, I’m definitely hugging onto your thigh. Don’t even think about ditching me, hmph!” Xu Man’s tone carried a hint of coquettishness.

This made Ye Feng’s heart beat rapidly.

This woman was too alluring.

Wasn't this a test for the officers?

"Tell me the truth, how much money do you have now?" Xu Man looked at Ye Feng curiously with her big, watery eyes.

"I'm a poor man. That 300 million is all I have." Ye Feng immediately started to cry.

"Really?" Xu Man was in disbelief.

"It's absolutely true. Do I look like the kind of person who would lie?" Ye Feng's gaze was extremely sincere.

Just then, his phone suddenly vibrated twice.

A bank message and a WeChat message popped up almost at the same time: [Your bank card ending with 1263 has received a transfer of 550 million yuan!]

"Pfft, pfft, pfft."

Xu Man, who was drinking tea, spat it on his face.

At the same time, the water in the teacup spilled on her chest.

“I’m sorry...”

When she realized that she had lost her composure, she quickly reached out to help Ye Feng wipe the water off his face.

“You didn’t get scalded, right?”

Ye Feng also hurriedly took a piece of tissue and helped her wipe the water stains on her chest.

Then, the air in the tea room suddenly froze.

The two of them looked at each other, petrified.

“Ah!”

After a long while, Xu Man was the first to snap out of her daze. She pushed him away hurriedly and returned to her seat.

Ye Feng also retracted his hand awkwardly.

He even secretly rubbed his fingers.

“Have some tea,”

“I’m not hungry.”

“Have some desserts.”

“I’m not thirsty.”

“...”

After the embarrassing scene just now...

The atmosphere between the two of them was a little strange.

At this time, Ye Feng’s phone suddenly rang.

He was relieved and quickly answered the phone.

“Hello, Mr. Ye. Your painting, The Girl in the Red Hat, has been sold for a total of 550 million yuan. It has been transferred to your bank card. Have you received it?”

Xu Man could vaguely hear the contents of the call.

Then, she opened her mouth wide in shock.

A painting was auctioned for 550 million?

Chapter 68 - 68 System's Deep Navigation Function Activated

68 System's Deep Navigation Function Activated

The call was from the general manager of the Sotheby's Auction House, Chen Qiushan.

“I've already received it. Thank you, Manager Chen,” Ye Feng immediately replied.

“Mr. Ye, you’re too polite. You’ve done me a big favor this time. If it wasn’t for your painting, I would’ve lost a lot of face.”

“You’re too kind, Manager Chen. I still have to thank you for this painting being able to fetch such a high price.”

“Alright, let’s not be so formal. This time, we’re friends. If there’s anything I can help you with in the future, just let me know.”

“What a coincidence, I have something to ask you.”

Ye Feng suddenly thought of something and spoke hurriedly.

“Go ahead,” Chen Qiushan quickly agreed.

“Well, I have a piece of raw jade that I want to sell. Do you have any channels?” Ye Feng’s attitude was very sincere.

“Hai, I thought it was something big. It’s such a small matter?”

Chen Qiushan sounded a little disappointed, but he gave a quick answer.

“I have a very good friend who has opened a stone gambling shop in Zhonghai. I’ll tell him about it, so you can go to him directly.”

Then, he sent an address to Ye Feng.

“Thank you, Manager Chen.”

Ye Feng chatted with Chen Qiushan for a while more before hanging up the phone.

Xu Man, who had been eavesdropping, asked, “Who’s this Manager Chen you’re talking about?”

Ye Feng lifted his teacup and took a sip. “Chen Qiushan from Sotheby’s Auction House.”

“Chen Qiushan?”

Xu Man was stunned.

“What, is he very famous?” Ye Feng saw her expression and wanted to laugh.

“He’s not just famous, he’s a legend in the business world. Many of his business cases have been written into business textbooks. I didn’t expect you to know him. Looks like I’m going to have to look at you in a new light.”

Xu Man’s gaze toward Ye Feng was filled with curiosity.

She really couldn’t understand this boy-next-door that she had watched grow up.

What had this guy experienced?

How could such a drastic change happen in such a short time?

Ye Feng could not help but feel a little helpless when he was sized up by her.

All he did was know Chen Qiushan.

Was there a need for this?

...

The two of them had afternoon tea.

As Xu Man still had work to do, she returned to the company first.

Meanwhile, Ye Feng brought the raw jade stone to the stone gambling den that Chen Qiushan mentioned.

When he arrived at his destination, he was immediately stunned by the scene in front of him.

The stone gambling den was at least ten thousand square meters.

The market was filled with stalls.

There were piles of raw stones of various sizes on the stall.

The stone gambling den had a huge crowd, and it looked as noisy as a wet market.

After all, there was no lack of people in the world who wanted to get rich overnight.

“Argh! Let me die, I’ve lost all my family’s fortune, and now it’s all gone. What’s the point of me living?”

The moment Ye Feng entered the market, he saw a middle-aged man with unkempt hair and a dirty face wailing in pain.

But soon, the man was taken out by the security guards.

He could still hear his heart-wrenching cries from afar.

To put it bluntly, stone gambling was like a knife to heaven and a knife to h*ll.

Some people would become rich overnight if they won the bet.

There were luxury cars, beautiful women, villas, and everything.

And the person who lost the bet was likely to go bankrupt.

After all, there were too many uncertainties in gambling.

No one had x-ray eyes that could see what was inside the stone.

They could only bet on their luck.

Ye Feng shook his head and was about to call the friend that Chen Qiushan had introduced.

At this moment, the system's voice suddenly sounded in his mind.

[Congratulations, host. You've triggered the system's deep navigation function. This function will automatically scan for hidden treasures within a one-meter radius. Unlocking this function will cost you 10 million. Do you want to unlock it?]

Ye Feng heard the system notification and was stunned for a moment.

It can be played like this?

Without any hesitation, he immediately chose 'confirm'.

It was just a mere 10 million.

It was nothing to him now.

[System's deep navigation function activated.]

Following the system's notification, a miraculous scene appeared.

The system had actually marked out those raw gemstones that were pitch-black on the surface and had no inkling at all.

[Normal stone, value 0]

[Glutinous-type jade, about 1.2 kg, worth about 2 million yuan.]

[Ice-type jade, about 0.7 kg...]

The information of each raw stone was listed in detail.

Ye Feng's heart immediately jumped twice.

They were simply mountains of gold.

Moreover, it was the kind that he could pick up at will.

Then, here came the problem.

Since the deep navigation system could display the information of the raw stone, could it display the information of a person?

For example, what color of underwear was she wearing?

What was her size?

What style?

At this moment, a female staff member of the stone gambling den walked over. "Sir, how can I help you?"

Ye Feng looked at her and sighed in disappointment.

It seemed that this deep navigation could only be used for treasure hunting.

It was ineffective against humans.

“No need, I’m just looking around.”

Ye Feng rejected her good intentions. He walked to a stall and picked out a few raw jadeite stones.

“I’ll take these.”

Then, he walked to another stall. “That one, that one, and that one, I’ll take them all.”

Just like that, he shuttled back and forth between the various stalls.

His strange behavior immediately attracted the attention of many people in the stone gambling den.

Was this guy here to buy raw stones or vegetables?

Chapter 69 - 69 The Legendary Stupid and Rich People?

69 The Legendary Stupid and Rich People?

“This person is really a fool with a lot of money!”

“That’s right. How can you buy raw stones like this? Aren’t you just throwing your money away?”

“There’s a lot of knowledge in stone gambling. How can a rookie understand it?”

“Let’s wait and see. He won’t even have a place to cry later.”

The old players in the stone gambling den saw this and started to mock Ye Feng’s actions.

But Ye Feng did not care about this.

He picked eight or nine raw gemstones in a row. He did not continue.

Although there were still many ‘valuable’ raw stones at the scene that he could see thanks to the deep navigation, however, either the color wasn’t good, or the content was too little.

Although he could earn some money, it was not worth his time.

At this moment, the people who were watching the show started to make a fuss.

“This brother, can you cut the stones you bought and let us all see it?”

“That’s right, that’s right. I’ve never seen anyone buy raw stones like this. This brother is really a ruthless person!”

“Don’t say that. This is called casting a wide net to catch more fish. What if a blind cat catches a dead mouse?”

“Hehe, if he can cut something out of those stones, I will eat all the stones here!”

Hearing everyone’s discussion, Ye Feng only chuckled.

“Alright, then I’ll let you guys experience it.”

Saying so, Ye Feng asked the staff to help him move the stones to the quarry.

“Tsk, he’s really angry when I say he is fat? Do you really think you’re a jade master?”

The crowd laughed as they followed.

At the same time, at a rough stone stall not far away...

A woman in white, who was picking raw stones, slowly raised her head. Her beautiful face was full of confusion. "Uncle Liu, what happened over there?"

An old man behind the woman replied respectfully, "Someone is probably going to cut the stone, right?"

The woman was suddenly very curious. "Let's go and take a look."

The old man heard this and hurriedly followed.

His sharp eyes were constantly paying attention to the movements around him.

It was like an eagle.

Ye Feng asked the staff to help move the raw stones to the quarry.

Then, he picked the most inconspicuous piece and marked it with a pen.

Then, he handed it to the master in charge of cutting the stone. "Cut it according to the marks I drew."

The master shook his head and sighed as he placed the raw stone into the machine.

Evidently, he was not optimistic about the stones that Ye Feng picked.

However, out of professional ethics, he still started the machine.

Screech, screech, screech—

The ear-piercing sound of grinding wheels and stones rubbing against each other rang out.

The crowd was looking forward to it.

They all wanted to see the interesting expression on the prodigal's face after the raw stone was broken.

At this moment, they suddenly heard the stone cutter's surprised voice.

"It actually came out?"

His voice carried a tone of disbelief.

The onlookers' eyes widened when they heard this.

It came out?

How was this possible?

The few stones that the kid randomly picked could actually have things?

Immediately, a few impatient people quickly walked over to check.

Then, they saw a mesmerizing green color flowing out from the cracks in the rock.

"It really has something?"

The few of them turned around and looked at Ye Feng.

Their eyes were filled with surprise.

Ye Feng's expression was very calm. He only nodded at the stonecutter. "Continue."

The stonecutter hurriedly put away his shocked expression and continued cutting.

Soon, he finished cutting the raw stone.

He took it out and had a look.

A touch of heart-penetrating green. It was presented in front of everyone.

The eyes of the woman in white in the crowd also lit up.

"D*mn, he actually raised the price?"

"And it's a glutinous type. Such a big piece should be worth at least a few hundred thousand yuan, right?"

"This kid is really lucky. He randomly picked a few pieces and bet on it."

“Who was the one who said that if his bet went up, he would eat all the stones here?”

“He’s just a blind cat that got lucky. If he’s so capable, let him pick up another piece. If he can hit it again this time, whoever doesn’t eat it is a b*stard.”

Ye Feng turned a deaf ear to everyone’s words.

He took the raw stone and looked at it, then threw it aside.

It was like throwing away garbage.

Then, he picked out a piece from the pile of raw stones, marked it, and handed it to the master.

“Continue!”

Although the stonecutter had a whole new level of respect for Ye Feng, he did not believe that Ye Feng could raise his bet by two stones in a row.

How could anyone be lucky twice in a row?

Even though he thought this way, he still continued to start the machine.

Screech, screech, screech—

The grinding wheel started to move again.

The grinding wheel had just cut in less than an inch when suddenly, a dazzling green color seeped out.

The stone-cutting master's hand trembled, and he almost cut off the stone.

“It's rising again?”

His voice was already trembling.

However, the impact on everyone present did not weaken at all.

It increased again?

The crowd surged forward to take a look.

At this moment, the master who cut the stone took the raw stone out of the machine with trembling hands.

“Ice seed? It’s actually an ice seed?”

“This is much better than the glutinous seed just now. This kid’s luck is too heaven-defying, isn’t it?”

“I’ve been betting on stones for a few years now, but I’ve never won an ice seed.”

“Yeah, the heavens must be blind!”

The crowd immediately burst into an uproar.

There were envious and jealous people.

Most of them were filled with hatred.

Why were they not as lucky as a young man after so many years of stone gambling?

The white-robed lady also looked at Ye Feng in shock.

Although she had not been gambling on stones for a long time, she knew how small the chances of winning by two stones in a row were.

Was this luck or strength?

Ye Feng's expression was still very calm. He passed the third raw stone to the stonecutter.

"Continue!"

Chapter 70 - 70 It's Simply Turning Stone Into Gold!

70 It's Simply Turning Stone Into Gold!

At this point, the master of cutting stones no longer looked down on Ye Feng.

Are you kidding me?

He did not believe in luck.

To be able to raise two raw gemstones in a row, it was enough to prove that the young man in front of him had some ability.

After taking the raw stone carefully, the master started the grinding machine again.

Screech, screech—

This time, the stonecutter didn't let out any cries of surprise.

The surrounding crowd looked at each other.

What did that mean?

Could it be that it was solved this time?

Everyone heaved a sigh of relief.

If this kid continued to get more, they would really want to die.

However, before they could celebrate...

They saw the master remove the raw stone from the machine.

A touch of green that was even more dazzling than the previous two pieces appeared in front of everyone's eyes.

"Glass-type?"

The crowd of onlookers seemed to have been struck by lightning, and they were all stunned on the spot.

Glass-type water jade was extremely rare.

Many old players who had gambled on stones for their entire lives had never won.

And this young man, whom they had just laughed at for being a failure, had actually hit three pieces in a row.

Moreover, the third piece was a rare glass type.

How could they endure this?

The woman in white turned around and looked at the old man behind her. "Uncle Liu, what do you think?"

The old man who was called 'Uncle Liu' looked at Ye Feng sharply.

"This kid is not simple."

The white-clothed woman couldn't help but click her tongue.

This was the first time she had heard Uncle Liu praise a young man so much.

It seemed that this person was indeed interesting!

However, the matter that left everyone dumbfounded was not over yet.

The fourth stone had increased!

The fifth stone rose!

The sixth stone rose again!

...

Very soon, Ye Feng's nine raw gemstones were completely cut.

All of them had a stone, without exception!

Now, even a fool could see it.

This young man wasn't a prodigal, he was a true master.

No, he was even more powerful than a master!

If he didn't make a move, it would be fine, but once he did, it would definitely rise.

This was simply turning stone into gold!

When everyone looked at Ye Feng again, they were filled with admiration.

The lady in white thought for a moment and walked toward Ye Feng. "Hello, Sir. My name is Xu Jingxin. May I know you?"

Ye Feng was stunned for a moment and was about to answer.

At this moment, a fat middle-aged man walked over quickly. "Hello, are you Mr. Ye? I'm Manager Chen's friend, Tian Daguang."

Ye Feng could not be bothered with Xu Jingxin and hurriedly shook hands with Tian Daguang. "Hello, Mr. Tian, Manager Chen should have told you why I'm here, right?"

Tian Daguang quickly nodded. "He said that Mr. Ye has a raw stone that he wants to sell. You're Mr. Chen's friend, so you're my friend too. I promise you won't suffer a loss."

Ye Feng smiled lightly. "Mr. Tian, please wait for a moment, I will go and get that raw stone."

He turned around and walked out of the stone quarry.

Xu Jingxin, who had been ignored by the side, frowned slightly when she saw this.

This was the first time she had taken the initiative to befriend someone of the opposite s*x.

She didn't expect to be ignored by the other party.

This guy...

He really put on airs!

Soon, Ye Feng returned with the piece of jade that he found at the construction site.

Then, he used a marker to draw a line on it.

Then, he carefully handed it to the master who cut the stone and reminded him again and again, "Be careful when you cut it."

The master who was cutting the stones suddenly felt a mountain of pressure.

When he was cutting the pile of raw gemstones earlier, the other party had not even warned him to be so careful.

However, he only valued this raw stone so much.

Could it be that there was something special about this stone?

The crowd of onlookers was filled with even more anticipation.

The stone cutter took a deep breath and fixed the raw stone on the stone cutter. Then, he started the grinding wheel.

Screech, screech—

The sound of the grinding wheel cutting into the raw stone was heard again.

Everyone held their breath and looked up in anticipation.

Kada!

The first cut was completed.

The master who cut the stone was stunned on the spot.

It was as if he had been petrified.

There was no reaction at all.

“What’s the situation? Why did you stop?”

“Master, what are you doing? Say something!”

“Aiya, I’m worried to death. Tell me the truth.”

“...”

Seeing that he didn’t have any reaction, everyone started to urge him.

After a long while, the master finally came back to his senses.

Then, he shakily took down the raw stone with the window open and raised it above his head as if he was on a pilgrimage.

“The Imperial Green! I actually opened an Imperial Green!”

As his excited voice rang out...

The entire quarry suddenly fell silent.

Everyone’s eyes and mouth were wide open as they stared at the raw stone, dumbfounded.

The green light was so intoxicating.

It was the most beautiful color in the world.

It was so beautiful that it moved one’s soul.

It seemed to have a fatal magic power.

One could not help but be engrossed in it.

Xu Jingxin was also stunned by the scene.

Imperial Green!

As the name suggested, this was the king of jadeite.

Also known as emerald.

Even if it was the size of a fingertip, it was enough to be a family heirloom.

The raw stone in front of them was probably a few kilograms.

In front of the Imperial Green, all the jades were like stones in a toilet.

It instantly lost its luster.

Even Ye Feng himself was deeply attracted by this Imperial Green.

He didn't expect the Imperial Green to be so dazzling.

It was dazzling.

Tian Daguang was the first to react and he quickly pulled Ye Feng's hand. "Mr. Ye, you must sell this raw stone to me. I am willing to buy it for 600 million."

Whoosh! Whoosh!

As soon as he said this, the entire quarry was in an uproar.

600 million yuan!

A stone had earned him money that he wouldn't be able to finish spending even if he spent a few lifetimes.

It simply made people go crazy with jealousy!

Ye Feng muttered to himself for a moment, he shook his head.

"I'm sorry, but I don't want to sell this raw stone."
