

100 Million 711

Chapter 711 - 711 A Man With A Halo

Ye Feng had planned to bring Xia Qiu out for a meal, but the traffic jam was so heavy that it was almost impossible to move.

Looking at the endless fleet of cars, Ye Feng looked at Xia Qiu helplessly. "It seems that it will be difficult to clear the roads in a short period of time. There are some snacks in the car. If you are hungry, you can fill your stomach first."

Xia Qiu shook her head. "I'm not hungry..."

Before she could finish speaking, her stomach made a rumbling sound, which immediately made her blush.

Just as Ye Feng was about to tease her, he suddenly saw a group of people surrounding the green belt in front of him. He did not know what was going on.

"What happened?"

Xia Qiu looked at Ye Feng in shock.

"Let's go down and take a look."

Ye Feng did not hesitate. He immediately opened the door and got out of the car.

When the two of them squeezed through the crowd, they saw a little girl lying flat on the ground. Her delicate little face was already purple from suffocation.

A balding middle-aged man was already kneeling in front of her and crying. "Is there a doctor? Hurry up and save my daughter. As long as my daughter can escape, I will definitely reward them heavily..."

Although everyone had sympathetic expressions on their faces, they chose to watch from the sidelines. No one stood up.

Ye Feng saw that the girl's condition was very critical. He did not hesitate and immediately stood out. "Let me take a look."

The balding middle-aged man grabbed his hand as if he was holding onto a life-saving straw. "Are you a doctor?"

Ye Feng was stunned by his question. "Uh... I'm not a doctor. I only know a little about medicine."

The middle-aged man immediately hesitated. Clearly, he had some doubts about his ability.

The surrounding onlookers also began to speak coldly.

“You’re not a doctor. Why are you blindly joining in the fun?”

“Yeah, if it’s bad for the child, who’s going to take care of it?”

“Do you really think of yourself as a superhero? If you don’t have the ability, don’t pretend to be fat.”

“Young man, don’t do bad things with good intentions...”

The balding middle-aged man was hesitant. Should he let this young man try? However, after hearing everyone’s words, he still felt that he could not risk his daughter’s life.

“Thank you for your kindness, little brother. I’ll ask the others.”

The man smiled politely at Ye Feng and turned to the others for help. “Is there a doctor? Come and save my daughter...”

Ye Feng shrugged. He was despised.

He could only shake his head and retreat with a bitter smile.

Xia Qiu immediately gave him a thumbs-up. Although he couldn't help much, his courage to step forward at a time like this was admirable.

The middle-aged man asked a few more questions, but no one stepped forward.

At this moment, the little girl's expression was extremely ugly. Her body began to twitch. It was obvious that she had reached a critical juncture.

The middle-aged man was as anxious as an ant on a hot pan. He shouted to the surroundings again, "If anyone can save my daughter, I'll give him 10 million... No, 100 million!"

As the saying went, there would be brave men under great rewards!

A few people from the crowd who had been watching coldly immediately scrambled to stand up.

"I'm a teacher at the medical university. Let me try..."

"I'm the attending physician of La Liga Hospital. I have 20 years of clinical experience..."

“I’m the director of Zhongjing Chinese Medicine Hall. I’ve always been responsible for helping the world. Let me take a look...”

“...”

Ye Feng and Xia Qiu looked at each other. They could not help but laugh.

The 100 million bounty was like a bomb in the water, exploding so many fish and prawns.

Just now, they were all pretending to be dead, but now, they were all jumping out to help the world.

The middle-aged man couldn’t care less about these things now. He made room for everyone while introducing his daughter’s situation.

“My daughter was born prematurely. Her mother had a car accident when she was seven months pregnant with her. She passed away after giving birth to her, so her constitution has always been weak. Although I’ve been thinking of ways to help her recuperate all these years, the effect is minimal...”

The doctors listened to him and went forward to check.

“Sigh, because this child was born prematurely, many of her organs have not fully developed. Her physique is much worse than ordinary people, which is why this situation has occurred.”

“Looking at her condition, she should be suffering from congested heart failure. We have to send her to the hospital immediately.”

“But the traffic jam is so serious that we can’t go to the hospital in time.”

“It’s a pity that I didn’t bring all my tools. Otherwise, this small problem would be easy to solve.”

“Me too...”

The few of them began to discuss in low voices, but no one dared to rashly save her.

After all, someone who could offer a 100 million bounty must have a powerful background. It would be fine if they were saved, but if an accident happened, they could not bear the responsibility.

While they were discussing, the girl’s condition was no longer optimistic. She had even stopped convulsing and her breathing was getting weaker and weaker.

The middle-aged man hurriedly stopped them from talking. “Can you guys stop talking? Save my daughter first.”

Those people began to criticize him.

“Don’t be anxious. Let us discuss the treatment method first.”

“That’s right. A life is at stake. How can we play around?”

“If we don’t discuss the treatment plan first and rescue her rashly, it will only backfire.”

“We’re doing this for your daughter’s safety...”

Although the middle-aged man was anxious, he had no other choice but to be anxious.

At this moment, a voice suddenly came from the crowd. “A bunch of quacks. Are you trying to save or harm people?”

Everyone turned around and saw a man full of righteousness walking out.

Just his righteous spirit alone would make everyone believe that he was an angel who saved the earth.

The few doctors who were called quacks all had ugly expressions on their faces as they looked at the man.

The middle-aged man who claimed to be the director of the Chinese Medical Hall shouted angrily, "Who are you? Do you know anything about medicine? If you don't understand, then don't act blindly here."

Before the man could reply, the attending physician of La Liga Hospital exclaimed, "Isn't this Director He of Yang Cheng Third Hospital?"

The head of the Chinese medicine clinic looked at him in confusion. "Is he very famous?"

The attending physician stood up excitedly. "Of course, Department Director He Runbin is the authority in the Cardiology Department. In Yang Cheng, if he says he's second, no one would dare to say he's first."

After he finished speaking, he quickly went up to him like a fan who had seen his idol. "Director He, I'm the attending physician of La Liga Hospital, Zhao Qi..."

He Runbin glanced at him indifferently. "How can you save people like this? Isn't this nonsense?"

Zhao Qi didn't dare to retort. He hurriedly lowered his head in grievance. "It's mainly because this child's condition is a little special. We didn't dare to do anything to her."

Chapter 712 - 712 Is This the Keyboard Warrior They Often Talk About?

He Runbin didn't say anything else. He immediately pushed the doctors away and went forward to check on the little girl's condition.

A few doctors stood at the side with their hands behind their backs, wanting to see how he would handle it.

When the balding middle-aged man heard about the other party's background, he was even more surprised and happy. "Director He, you have to save my daughter. As long as you can save her life, I'll give you 100 million as a reward."

He Runbin had just arrived and hadn't heard the bounty before. When he heard this, his body suddenly trembled. "You... Are you serious?"

The man hurriedly took out his business card from his pocket. "I'm Xu Jian, the chairman of Jianli Sporting Goods Company. I promise I won't go back on my word."

He Runbin took the business card and looked at it. His originally stern expression immediately became gentle. "Chairman Xu, don't worry. I will do my best to save your daughter."

Xu Jian immediately thanked him profusely.

He Runbin didn't say anything else and began to check on the little girl's condition.

Xia Qiu immediately whispered to Ye Feng: "This Director He seems to be quite reliable, right?"

Ye Feng nodded in agreement. "Since he can be a director, he must have some skills, right?"

After He Runbin checked the girl's condition, he immediately frowned and looked up at the crowded traffic. He was afraid that it would be difficult to clear it in a short time.

"There's no equipment here. I can only do some emergency treatment. Hurry up and call the ambulance over."

"I've already called them," Xu Jian replied hurriedly. "However, with the traffic jam on the road like this, the ambulance will probably not be able to get through in a short time. I have to ask Director He for help."

He Runbin did not say anything else. He rolled up his sleeves and prepared to perform CPR on the girl.

When Ye Feng saw this scene, he hurriedly stopped him. "Don't do CPR, this child's heart and lungs are failing. Her organs are very fragile. CPR will be very dangerous."

He Ruibin turned around and glanced at him. "What do you know? She's already unconscious because of suffocation. Do you know what will happen if she doesn't recover her breathing as soon as possible?"

Ye Feng frowned. "Even if we want to help her regain her breathing, we don't have to use this method. It's too dangerous."

He Ruibin immediately sneered. "I want to use a respiratory machine. You should find one for me. If you can't find it, stop making sarcastic remarks. I have confidence in my technique. There will definitely be no accidents."

The other doctors naturally supported Director He unconditionally. They started to berate Ye Feng.

"Are you a doctor? If you're not, then shut up and stop causing trouble here."

"Are you even better than Director He? Which hospital are you from?"

"What? He just said that he's not a doctor at all. He probably just learned some medical knowledge online, right?"

"How dare you teach a doctor how to save a person if you learn some medical knowledge? What a joke."

Not only them, even the surrounding crowd started to speak rudely to Ye Feng.

"Hahaha, you taught yourself some medical knowledge and you dare to teach experts how to treat patients? This is the funniest joke I've heard this year."

“Is this the keyboard warrior they often talk about? Does he really think that he can solve everything by tapping on the keyboard?”

“He must have gone crazy from wanting to be famous, right? Does he think that he is doing a good deed? Actually, he’s just an idiot.”

“This kind of person is only harmful to society. There’s no benefit at all...”

Xia Qiu wanted to defend Ye Feng, but she did not know how to start.

In fact, even she felt that Ye Feng was overestimating himself. He was not a medical student, so he could not blame others for mocking him when he was pointing fingers at a professional doctor.

Facing everyone’s criticism, Ye Feng could only shut his mouth obediently. He had already said what he needed to say. As for whether he listened or not, it was none of his business.

Xu Jian glared at him angrily. His daughter’s life was already in danger, and this guy was still trying to gain the attention of the crowd?

Suppressing the anger in his heart, he immediately turned back to look at He Runbin. “Director He, don’t bother about him. Just treat him according to your method. I only believe in you now.”

He Runbin also glared at Ye Feng coldly and started to perform CPR on the girl.

It had to be said that his technique was very standard. It could even be said to be a textbook technique.

The few doctors who had the mentality of learning could not help but praise him.

“Department Director He’s technique is really superb. Although I’m a teacher at a medical university, I’m not as good as him.”

“Of course. Department Director He is an authority in the Cardiology Department. I’ve always regarded him as my idol.”

“It’s this child’s fortune to be able to meet Director He here.”

“I believe that with Director He’s ability, he will definitely be able to turn this child around.”

Just as everyone was chatting, the girl’s originally pale face began to gradually turn rosy.

Everyone was immediately overjoyed. They did not expect Director He’s medical skills to be so superb that the little girl’s condition would improve so quickly.

But only Ye Feng's expression changed drastically. Something bad was going to happen!

Chapter 713 - 713 You're Worrying Too Much I'm Not as Petty as You

"Department Director He is indeed an authority in the industry. He managed to stabilize the patient's condition with just a CPR."

"You're a traditional Chinese medicine practitioner, so you might not be able to tell, but Department Director He's technique is very particular. Not only can he allow the patient to regain spontaneous breathing, but he can also do so without harming the heart and lungs. Not everyone had such an ability."

"That's right. Director He's technique can be said to be the best I've ever seen. I've really gained some insight today."

"Department Director He, if you have time, I would like to invite you to our medical university to give a lecture and teach about CPR..."

A few doctors were praising He Runbin's technique, and for a moment, their words all became a mystery.

The surrounding crowd was not as knowledgeable as them. Hearing their words, they knew that the little girl was probably saved, so they were not stingy with their praises.

"This Director He is really a living Buddha. This girl's luck is really good."

“Saving a life is better than building a seven-storied pagoda. Director He must live a long life.”

“With such a good doctor like Director He, we commoners can rest assured.”

“Yeah, we must send a banner to Director He. He’s really a living Hua Tuo!”

“Even if Bian Que was reborn and Hua Tuo was still alive, I’m sure he wouldn’t be able to do much, right?”

Xu Jian was even more excited. He grabbed He Runbin’s hand tightly with both hands. “Director He, I really... I don’t know how to thank you. Let me kowtow to you first...”

As he spoke, he was about to kneel down.

He Runbin hurriedly held him up. “Mr. Xu, there’s no need to kowtow. However, the reward we agreed on before...”

Xu Jian immediately understood. “Don’t worry, Director He. I’ll transfer the money to you later. I’ll definitely not miss a cent.”

He Runbin hurriedly explained, "Mr. Xu, please don't misunderstand. Actually... I don't want that money for myself. I want to help more patients who can't afford to see a doctor."

He Jian quickly nodded. "I understand. Not only is Director He skilled in medicine, but his character is also noble. He is really a saint."

The surrounding commoners also praised.

At this moment, a discordant voice suddenly sounded, "Stop flattering him for now. Hurry up and take a look at this child. Her complexion doesn't look normal. I suspect that her heart meridian is damaged and her blood and qi have coagulated..."

He Runbin immediately looked at Ye Feng coldly. "Are you done? Just now, you were talking coldly. Now that the patient is out of danger, you're still talking nonsense? Are you only satisfied if something happens to the patient?"

Not only him, even the people around him started to 'fire' at Ye Feng.

"Don't you have any sympathy? Everyone is worried about the little girl's safety, and you're the only one making sarcastic remarks."

"That's right. Don't tell me that Director He doesn't know as much as you do? You can tell that there's something wrong with the child's expression, but Director He can't?"

“Compared to a keyboard warrior who only knows how to spout nonsense, I trust professionals more.”

“I think he only knows how to talk. If you really let him do it, he’ll definitely be at a loss.”

“How can there be such a person? What a cold-blooded animal...”

Even He Jian glared at Ye Feng angrily. “Sir, Director He is my benefactor, I will not allow you to speak to him like this. If you disrespect Director He again, I won’t be polite.”

When Ye Feng saw that he was being treated like a donkey even though he was being kind, he was too lazy to bother and pulled Xia Qiu away.

“This kind of person should have left long ago. Staying here will only cause trouble.”

“That’s right. This kind of person is just here to find a sense of existence. He’s useless.”

“He probably wants to show off in front of that girl.”

“By the way, that girl looks a little like Xia Qiu.”

“I wouldn’t have noticed if you didn’t mention it. It seems to be true...”

The two of them had already walked far away, but they could still hear the mocking voices behind them.

Xia Qiu was a little worried about Ye Feng. She quickly comforted him, “These people are too mean. Please don’t take it to heart. When I first debuted, I couldn’t stand the bad reviews of others either. I even cried a few times in secret, but I slowly got used to it.”

Ye Feng waved his hand generously. “You worry too much, I am not as petty as you. I just wanted to laugh a little. These idiots thought that they were doing a good deed, but in reality, they were all accomplices. That little girl will be killed by them.”

Xia Qiu was still a little angry when she heard him mocking her in the first half. However, when he heard the last sentence, her expression changed. “That little girl’s life is in danger?”

Ye Feng sighed helplessly, “That He Runbin’s CPR just now damaged her already weak heart and lungs. I’m afraid...”

Xia Qiu was anxious. “Then we should hurry up and remind them.”

Ye Feng shrugged. “Will they believe you? They only believe in authority.”

Xia Qiu thought of the attitude of those people and knew that Ye Feng was right.

Just as the two of them were about to return to the car, they suddenly heard Xu Jian's scream from behind. "Mengmeng, what's wrong with you, Mengmeng? You don't scare Daddy, ah, ah,"

Xia Qiu hurriedly pulled Ye Feng. "Something happened, let's go and take a look."

Ye Feng shook off her hand and said, "If you want to go, then you go. I don't want to be cheap to the point where my hot face is stuck to someone else's cold butt."

With that, he turned around and sat in the driver's seat.

Xia Qiu had no choice but to sit down and follow him in, but her eyes were still looking over there.

Just a moment ago, the little girl, whose face had already turned rosy, suddenly spat out a mouthful of blood without any warning, and her body began to twitch violently.

This sudden change shocked everyone.

Especially Xu Jian, he was scared out of his wits and directly screamed.

He Runbin also rushed forward to check, but the girl was still vomiting blood. Even her nostrils and eyes were bleeding. It looked very scary.

Xu Jian saw his daughter's miserable state and immediately lost his rationality. He directly pushed He Runbin to the ground.

"B*stard! You killed my daughter! I'm going to kill you!"

Chapter 714 - 714 Your Heart Is Still Not Hard Enough

He Runbin was also at a loss for words at this moment. He allowed Xu Jian to punch his face again and again. "This shouldn't be. How could this be? How could this be..."

The people who had been flattering He Runbin were completely dumbfounded.

"This... She was fine just now. Why did she suddenly become like this?"

"Isn't this too scary? Why is she bleeding from her seven orifices? This child is too pitiful."

"Isn't Director He an authority in the industry? How did you treat the child like this?"

"What authority? I think he's just fishing for fame. Who knows how he got this title of authority?"

“This quack is a murderer. He should pay with his life for this child.”

“That’s right. A life for a life...”

Everyone’s angry curses finally woke He Runbin up.

Yes, this was not a hospital. If he did not quickly shift the blame, he might get into big trouble.

At the thought of this, he quickly turned his furious gaze to the doctors beside him. “This is all your fault. If you hadn’t messed around just now, how could this child have an accident?”

Those people immediately understood that this guy was trying to shift the blame and began to complain.

“I’m innocent. I didn’t do anything. I just checked the child’s condition.”

“I didn’t do anything either. Everyone has to testify for me.”

“It’s clearly your own medical skills that are not good enough. How can you blame it on us?”

“It’s your responsibility. Don’t even think about pushing the blame to us...”

The few of them began to shirk their responsibilities, but no one looked at the girl again.

Under such circumstances, the little girl was obviously hopeless. If anyone interfered at this time, they would have to bear a lot of responsibility.

When the crowd saw this scene, they could not stand it anymore.

“You still have the nerve to call yourself doctors? That child is about to die, and you’re still trying to shift the blame?”

“This is their true colors. We were all deceived by their sanctimonious appearance just now.”

“That’s right. This group of people is like this. If they are cured, it’s their own credit. If they are not cured, it’s someone else’s problem.”

“With their behavior, who would dare to put their lives in their hands?”

“Their medical skills are not good, but their bragging ability is first-class...”

Amidst the scolding, a different voice suddenly said, "I didn't expect a group of professional doctors to be worse than a layman. The young man could tell that the child's expression was not right, but the group of professional doctors could not."

His words immediately reminded everyone present.

"That's right. Where's that little brother just now? He had seen through the problem from the beginning, but no one believed him."

"Not only did no one believe it, but you also mocked him when he made a suggestion."

"I didn't mock him. I always thought that what that young man said made sense."

"You're really a hindsight. I clearly saw you scolding the most vigorously just now, but you still said that you didn't."

"I'm not. I didn't. You're mistaken..."

Amidst the noise, Xu Jian suddenly reacted and hurriedly got up from the ground. "That's right. Where's that young man? Did any of you see that little brother?"

At this moment, someone suddenly pointed at Ye Feng's car.

"I saw him and that girl get into that car. That car is so cool. It's obviously expensive. Also, that girl looks too much like Xia Qiu..."

Before he could finish his nonsense, Xu Jian hurriedly carried the dying girl and ran toward Ye Feng's car.

At this moment, the car in front had already moved forward, and Ye Feng was about to start the car.

Xu Jian suddenly hugged his daughter and knelt in front of his car with a thud. "Godly doctor, please stop. I beg you to save my daughter..."

Ye Feng quickly stepped on the brakes and stuck his head out of the car window. "What are you doing? Do you want to die?"

Xu Jian put his daughter down on the ground and his head hit the ground. "Please, save my daughter, please..."

Ye Feng looked at the skinny body on the ground, and his heart softened.

Xia Qiu also looked at him. "Ye Feng, if you have a way, please save this child. She is quite pitiful."

Ye Feng sighed. Sigh, his heart was still not hard enough.

Although he had been treated coldly by Xu Jian just now, he still could not bear to see a weak life dying in front of him. He immediately pushed the door open and got out of the car.

Xu Jian was overjoyed. He knocked his head even harder, and soon, his head was covered in blood.

But Ye Feng did not bother with him. He went to check on the little girl's condition.

Her current situation was extremely dangerous. It could even be said that even if she was sent to the hospital now, it would be very difficult to save her.

Even if he had the Green Bag Scripture Medical Skill, which was a godly-level medical skill, he was not 100% sure.

Ye Feng checked the girl's condition and said to Xu Jian, "If it was just now, I might still have the confidence to save her. But now, I can only say that I'll try my best. You'd better not have too much hope."

Xu Jian turned around and glared at He Runbin and the others. If it weren't for these quacks, his daughter wouldn't be in such a miserable state.

He Runbin and the others hurriedly lowered their heads, not daring to look him in the eye.

Xu Jian was not in the mood to settle the score with them. He hurriedly begged Ye Feng, "Little divine doctor, you must save my daughter. If she dies, I don't want to live anymore..."

Ye Feng frowned immediately. "I have already said it clearly, I have no confidence. If you agree, I'll try my best. If you don't agree, then find someone else."

Xu Jian thought that he was raising the price and hurriedly said, "Don't worry. As long as you can save my daughter, I can even give you all my assets..."

Ye Feng did not wait for him to finish. He stood up and prepared to get into the car.

Who the f*ck cared about your family property? Who was he insulting?

Xu Jian hurriedly hugged his thigh and pleaded, "I agree. No matter what the outcome is, it has nothing to do with you."

Ye Feng received Xu Jian's promise, he walked back and prepared to save her.

At this moment, the people watching the show persuaded him.

“Young man, I advise you not to get involved in this muddy water. It’s fine if you can save her, but if you can’t, I’m afraid you’ll get into trouble.”

“That’s right. This child is hopeless. Whoever meddles now will be unlucky.”

“Don’t think that he’s saying it nicely now that he won’t find trouble with you, but when the time comes, it’s hard to say.”

“You’re still young. Don’t be silly. Think about your family.”

Xia Qiu was originally very supportive of Ye Feng’s rescue, but when she heard everyone’s words, she started to worry. “Ye Feng, you... Do you want to reconsider?”

Xu Jian was afraid that Ye Feng would go back on his word, and he hurriedly waved his hand. “I won’t, even if my daughter really... I won’t blame this little brother for saving her. This is her life...”

Chapter 715 - 715 One Look and You Can See That He's a Newbie

Someone around them immediately sneered. “Who knows if you’re telling the truth?”

“That’s right. You say it nicely now, but who knows if you’ll turn your back on me when the time comes?”

“Too many things have happened between a farmer and a snake. Sometimes, the human heart is even more poisonous than a snake.”

“Get him to write down a written agreement. Don’t go back on your word when the time comes...”

Ye Feng turned a deaf ear to everyone’s suggestion. “I will have a clear conscience. As for what happens after that, let’s talk about it later.”

Seeing that he didn’t listen to advice, everyone couldn’t be bothered to talk nonsense anymore. They all looked at him as if he was a fool.

Even some of them secretly hoped for him not to save the girl and then have Xu Jian bite back at him. Who asked him not to listen to their advice?

Ye Feng did not say anything else. He immediately took out a bag of silver needles.

He Runbin and the others came forward to see how he treated the patient, but when they saw him take out the silver needles, their eyes immediately widened.

Especially He Runbin, he couldn’t help but laugh. “You’re not planning to use this bag of silver needles to save people, are you? It can’t be, right?”

Even the director of the Chinese medicine hall found it a little ridiculous. “Acupuncture can only be used as an auxiliary treatment. How can it save lives? Aren’t you being too childish?”

Although the others did not speak, they also felt that it was unreliable.

Ye Feng could not be bothered to explain to them. He just took out a piece of dried lingzhi and stuffed it into the girl’s mouth.

The director of the Chinese medicine hall was mocking him. When he saw this scene, his eyes widened. “This is... A hundred-year-old lingzhi? No, from the looks of it, it should be at least 300 years old, right?”

The few Western doctors beside him had never studied Chinese medicinal herbs before. They immediately asked curiously, “Is this medicinal herb very precious?”

The director of the Chinese medicine clinic was so shocked that he could not close his mouth. “It’s not just precious, it’s simply... It’s a priceless treasure that can save lives at a critical moment. How precious do you think it is? You can’t buy it even if you have money.”

Everyone was speechless. This guy really went all out.

When Xu Jian heard this, he was extremely touched.

This young man was still willing to step forward to save his daughter at such a critical juncture. He even took out such precious medicinal herbs. He was simply like a Bodhisattva in the world.

Ye Feng turned a deaf ear to everyone's words. After putting the lingzhi into the girl's mouth, he opened her clothes and pierced the silver needles into her qu chi, ren zhong, lao gong, ji quan, xi men, neiguan, and other acupoints.

His movements were extremely slow, and the girl was like a candle in the wind. A small breeze could blow it out, and he could not make any rash progress.

He Runbin saw this and immediately sneered, "You're obviously a newbie."

Looking at the Chinese medical hall master, he seemed to be possessed. He was staring blankly at Ye Feng's acupuncture technique.

He Runbin pushed him. "What's wrong? Is there a problem with his technique? I've seen others perform acupuncture before. How can they be so slow? One look and I know that the technique is not skillful."

The owner of the Chinese medical hall turned around and glanced at him. "What do you know? This young divine doctor's technique is simply... I don't even know how to describe it. In short, it's very awesome. You won't understand even if I tell you."

He Runbin was, after all, an authority in the medical world of Yang Cheng. He felt a little embarrassed when he was rebuked like this.

However, he knew nothing about Chinese medicine. He was afraid that he would make more mistakes, so he could only snort coldly. “What’s the use of having amazing techniques? The key is to see if there is any effect. If he can’t save the person, no matter how awesome the technique is, it’s useless.”

The Chinese medical hall’s owner could not be bothered to talk nonsense with him. He continued to stare at Ye Feng.

When Ye Feng finished the twenty-three silver needles, he was already covered in sweat, as if he had just participated in a huge battle.

Without any time to rest, he immediately began to gently massage around these acupoints to help her circulate her qi and blood.

The surrounding people followed his gentle movements and began to hold their breaths. It was as if a single breath would kill the girl.

Then, everyone saw a magical scene.

The little girl’s face, which was already ashen, began to turn red.

This redness was visibly different from the redness of He Runbin’s after CPR.

The red color from before was more like the scarlet color of blood. At this moment, the red was like the sunset glow hanging in the sky in the evening, so red that it was intoxicating.

Xu Jian was extremely nervous. He was afraid that he would be happy for nothing like before, so he still did not dare to move.

He Runbin was conflicted. On one hand, he hoped that Ye Feng could save the little girl. That way, he could get rid of the responsibility. At the same time, he hoped that he would fail. Who asked him to beat his face until it swelled up?

However, most of the people present still sincerely hoped that he could succeed.

After all, it would be a pity for such a young girl to die like this.

After a moment, the girl's long eyelashes suddenly fluttered.

Everyone thought that they were seeing things. They rubbed their eyes and looked again. They saw that her eyelashes were trembling more and more clearly.

Suddenly, a pair of big eyes slowly opened.

At that moment, the entire world lit up.

Chapter 716 - 716 At That Moment, There Was Light on His Body

“Daddy...”

The little girl looked at Xu Jian. She was confused at first, but she quickly regained her clarity and called out.

Although her voice was weak, it was like the sound of nature, causing Xu Jian to shiver.

“Mengmeng, Daddy is here. Are you alright?”

Just one sentence seemed to have exhausted all his strength. He was already in despair. He had not expected his daughter to wake up. He was overjoyed.

Even the people who were watching the show were stunned. No one spoke for a long time. They were all looking at Ye Feng as if he was a monster.

“Oh my god, he actually saved her? Is this true?”

“I can’t take it anymore. The hair on my body is standing up. This... isn’t this a little scary?”

“Me too. Especially when the little girl called out ‘Daddy’, I got goosebumps all over my body.”

“Just a few silver needles actually saved her? Isn’t his medical skills too heaven-defying?”

“Someone’s actions were as fierce as a tiger and almost took the life of a little girl. However, some people can save a patient’s life with just a few silver needles. This is the difference.”

“Because some people are just fishing for fame and reputation. The real experts are all among the people.”

“Sigh, such a person with superb medical skills can’t even get a medical qualification certificate. Some so-called directors and authorities are just a bunch of good-for-nothings...”

Hearing everyone’s mockery, He Runbin and the others all revealed embarrassed expressions.

To be honest, it wasn’t that their medical skills weren’t good, but that young man’s medical skills were too abnormal.

“I’ve been running a Chinese medicine hall for decades, but I’ve never seen such medical skills. It’s simply unbelievable!”

“That’s right. With just a few silver needles, he really saved the girl? This... This is unbelievable.”

“Such a person doesn’t even have the qualifications to practice medicine? Then what are we?”

“I must invite him to our medical university to give a lecture on acupuncture therapy...”

Even He Runbin, who was at the side, had to admit that this young man’s medical skills far surpassed his academic authority.

At least the little girl was temporarily out of danger in his hands. This kind of medical skill was simply unheard of.

As for Xia Qiu, she was so shocked that she couldn’t close her mouth.

Just now at the antique street, when Ye Feng was called a ‘Grandmaster’, it was already shocking enough.

She never expected him to be skilled in medicine.

This was even more shocking than antiques. To put it bluntly, antiques were just a game for a bunch of people who had nothing to do. It had nothing to do with the people’s livelihood.

However, medical skills were different. This was the ability to truly save people from fire and water. It was related to the life and death of a person or even a family.

And Ye Feng had just saved a living person, which meant that he had saved a family that was about to be destroyed. He had done a great deed.

The shock that this brought to her far exceeded his wealth and other abilities.

At that moment, there was light on his body.

It was unknown who took the lead in clapping, but the applause spread rapidly like a plague. Soon, the place was filled with thunderous applause.

At this moment, Ye Feng was like a savior in the hearts of the underlings.

The drivers who were driving at a slow speed all looked over curiously, not knowing what was going on.

Xu Jian calmed down his excitement. He quickly walked in front of Ye Feng and knelt on the ground. "Benefactor, thank you for saving my daughter's life. Thank you..."

As he spoke, he knocked his head heavily on the ground, making a 'dong dong dong' sound.

Every time he did so, it struck the hearts of everyone. They could completely understand his current feelings. Some of them were so soft-hearted that they even began to cry secretly. It was really too touching.

Ye Feng hurriedly helped him up, "Mr. Xu, please don't be like this, it was just a small matter."

Xu Jian was already in tears.

"I was really condescending before. You took the initiative to help me, but I didn't appreciate it. Fortunately, you didn't care about the past and saved my daughter's life in time. Otherwise, I wouldn't be able to atone for it with a hundred deaths. You're simply a living Bodhisattva. I'll definitely place your memorial tablet at home in the future so that my children and grandchildren can worship you..."

Ye Feng was shocked, and he waved his hand. "There's no need for that, I'm still alive and well. If you worship my memorial tablet... Ahem, it's not appropriate."

Xu Jian hurriedly wiped his tears. "By the way, I haven't asked for your name."

Ye Feng immediately reported his name. "I am Ye Feng."

Xu Jian remembered this name in his heart. "Benefactor Ye, please give me your bank account number. I will immediately transfer the 100 million bounty promised to you."

Ye Feng's expression immediately turned cold. "You don't think that I saved your daughter for that little reward, right? If that's the case, then you have underestimated me."

With that, he turned around and got into the car.

Xu Jian hurriedly pulled him back and pointed at the Blue Charm Night.

"Benefactor must have an extraordinary family background to be able to afford such a car. He definitely won't care about this 100 million bounty. But I've already promised you before. If I go back on my word, I'm afraid I won't be able to sleep and eat in peace in the future."

Although the surrounding crowd was jealous, they all tried to persuade him.

"Yes, this 100 million bounty is what Divine Doctor Ye deserves."

"I just searched for this car on the internet. This car is called Blue Charm Night. It's limited to one in the world and costs hundreds of millions."

"Oh my god, the car that he opened is worth hundreds of millions. How rich must his family be?"

“He has such medical skills, is he afraid that he wouldn’t be able to earn money? 100 million or 200 million is just a little pocket money to them.”

“Although Divine Doctor Ye doesn’t lack this bit of money, since we’ve already agreed beforehand, we should accept this money. Those who did good deeds should be rewarded.”

“That’s right. Divine Doctor Ye, please accept the money...”

Ye Feng was still a little hesitant.

Xu Jian was already kneeling on the ground again. “If you don’t accept the money, benefactor, I’ll kneel here and not get up.”

Ye Feng was dumbfounded.

There was actually someone who used this method to threaten him and wanted to give him money?

It seemed that he had no choice but to accept the money.

Chapter 717 - 717 Don't You Want Your Face Anymore?

“Alright then, I’ll take the money.”

Ye Feng could only nod in agreement and gave him his account number.

Only then did Xu Jian smile happily, as if he had taken advantage of a great deal.

The others also smiled in satisfaction, as if the money had entered their pockets.

Just when everyone was happy, He Runbin did not agree. He immediately walked out with a dark face.
“Mr. Xu, what about my reward?”

When Xu Jian looked at him, and his face immediately darkened. “What reward?”

“You promised me before that you would give me a reward of 100 million yuan as long as I save your daughter. Are you trying to deny it now?” He Runbin said confidently.

Xu Jian thought he had heard wrongly. “I did promise, but my daughter was saved by Mr. Ye. What does it have to do with you? You almost killed my daughter just now. I haven’t even settled the score with you yet, and you still have the face to ask me for the reward?”

Even the onlookers looked at He Runbin in disbelief.

“I’ve never seen such a shameless person. Just now, he almost killed someone’s daughter, and now he still has the face to come out and ask for the bounty?”

“The shameless are invincible. How could he say such words?”

“He’s a department director of a big hospital? Where is his face? Doesn’t he want any face?”

“I’ve really opened my eyes. The forest is so big, and there are all kinds of birds.”

He Runbin turned a deaf ear to everyone’s mockery and continued to speak with conviction.

“What do you know? If it wasn’t for my CPR just now that allowed your daughter to regain her breathing, would those few silver needles have been able to save your daughter? At least half of the credit goes to me. I’ll get at least 50 million out of this 100 million.”

Xu Jian was completely clueless about medicine and was really intimidated by his words. Could it be that his daughter’s waking up really had something to do with his CPR?

This time, even the doctors could not stand it anymore.

“He Runbin, aren’t you too shameless? Your CPR just now almost harmed the girl, and you still have the cheek to say such things?”

“You’re bullying him for not knowing medicine, but we’re not easy to fool. The child waking up is all thanks to Divine Doctor Ye. What does it have to do with you?”

“To think that I treated you as my idol before. I didn’t expect you to be so shameless.”

“You’re a disgrace to medical professions. I’ll definitely report this to your hospital and get rid of scum like you from the medical team.”

He Runbin glared at them coldly, then turned to look at Xu Jian. “You can say whatever you want, but my contribution cannot be denied. If you don’t fulfill your promise today, I won’t let you off.”

Xu Jian sneered at him. “Why? Are you planning to rob me?”

He Runbin said in a threatening tone, “I’m robbing money, I’m not as good as you, I’m self-confident. I still have some connections. I’m telling you, if you don’t have integrity after crossing the river, who dares to do business with you?”

Xu Jian’s expression changed when he heard this.

Since He Runbin was able to become a department director of a large hospital, his connections must be extremely wide.

After all, regardless of whether they were poor or rich, they would still need to ask a doctor for help one day, not to mention He Runbin, who was an expert doctor. He definitely had a lot of connections.

If he really spread bad things about him everywhere, it would definitely have a huge impact on his business, which made him worried.

Although the surrounding crowd was also extremely angry at He Runbin's shamelessness, they couldn't do anything about it.

In terms of connections, they really couldn't compare to the director of this hospital.

Xu Jian sighed helplessly. Even though he knew that the other party was threatening him, he had no choice but to compromise.

In the business world, reputation was more important than money.

Just as he was about to compromise, he suddenly heard Ye Feng say, "Director He is from the Third People's Hospital, right?"

He Runbin turned to look at him. "Yeah, what's wrong?"

Ye Feng smiled lightly, "I know Deputy Director Qin of your hospital. If you continue to pester me, do you believe that I will tell him about you?"

The last time he went to help Luo Jingyuan's wife deliver a baby, Deputy Director Qin wanted to hire him to be a doctor in the hospital, but he rejected him in the end.

Speaking of which, the two of them had met once before and he was not trying to scare He Runbin.

He Runbin was shocked at first. Deputy Director Qin was his direct superior and was expected to be promoted to the position of director within the year. He also had a chance to compete for the position of deputy director.

If this young man in front of him really knew Deputy Director Qin, it would not be a joke if he reported this matter.

However, he was unwilling to give up such a large reward just because of a sentence from the other party.

After thinking about it for a while, he finally decided to test the waters first. "You know our Deputy Director Qin? Then do you know the name of our Deputy Director Qin?"

Ye Feng was immediately stumped by his question, he really did not know the name of that Deputy Director Qin.

He Runbin saw his expression and immediately confirmed that he was bluffing. “Hehe, you can’t even call out Deputy Director Qin’s name, and you dare to say that you know Deputy Director Qin? You don’t even have a draft when bragging?”

“So what if you know our Deputy Director Qin? I, He Runbin, am upright and not afraid of shadows. I won’t take a single cent for what I shouldn’t take, but I won’t take a single cent less for what I should take. Even if Deputy Director Qin came, I would dare to say so.”

His words were sonorous and powerful, and they immediately shocked everyone present.

Xu Jian sighed. He raised his head and looked at Ye Feng. “Benefactor, forget it, I will just give him 50 million. There is no need to create more problems.”

Ye Feng ignored him. He just smiled at He Runbin. “Well said, you won’t take anything that you shouldn’t. As for whether you should take it or not, let Deputy Director Qin decide.”

As he spoke, he immediately took out his phone.

Chapter 718 - 718 I'm Starting to Believe in the Light Again

Ye Feng did not have Deputy Director Qin’s phone number, but he had Doctor Jiang Wanrong’s WeChat. He immediately sent her a WeChat message and asked her to send Deputy Director Qin’s phone number over.

There had been no news from Jiang Wanrong for a long time. Perhaps she was busy?

He Runbin was even more certain that he was bluffing. “Why? Don’t you know Deputy Director Qin’s number? Do you want me to give you his number?”

Ye Feng immediately nodded. “Alright, read it for me.”

He Runbin sneered in his heart. He wanted to see how long this guy could pretend. He immediately found Deputy Director Qin’s number. “1392445...”

The crowd looked at each other. This scene was really funny. One of them claimed to report the other party, and the other took the initiative to give the other party the phone number. They were simply two weirdos.

After Ye Feng received the phone, he smiled at He Runbin in admiration and dialed the number.

The phone rang twice before it was picked up. Deputy Director Qin’s voice came from the other end. “Who is it?”

Ye Feng immediately introduced himself, “Hello, Deputy Director Qin, I am Ye Feng.”

Vice Hospital Director Qin was stunned. “Ye Feng?”

Ye Feng immediately reminded him, “I helped my friend’s wife deliver the baby that day and met you once...”

Deputy Director Qin immediately remembered. After all, this was the first time he had encountered such a strange thing in so many years. It was difficult not to remember.

“Oh, so it’s you. Why? Are you willing to accept my employment?”

“That’s not it. I have something to tell you. It’s related to a director of your hospital.”

“Please speak.”

Ye Feng immediately recounted what happened earlier.

He Runbin was bewildered. This guy really knew Deputy Director Qin? Did he shoot himself in the foot?

At this time, Ye Feng had already finished narrating the entire story. He did not add any embellishments, and he left the matter to Deputy Director Qin to judge.

When Deputy Director Qin heard this, he was furious. “Mr. Ye, don’t worry. I will give you a satisfactory answer. Now, give the phone to He Runbin.”

Ye Feng did not say anything else. He immediately put his phone on speaker.

He Runbin walked over uneasily. "Deputy Director Qin..."

Before he could speak, he heard Deputy Director Qin's angry voice. "He Runbin, how dare you extort money? Are you a doctor or a bandit?"

He Runbin shivered. "Deputy Director Qin, it's not like that. The family promised to give me a reward of 100 million yuan as long as his child was saved..."

Deputy Director Qin became even angrier. "You still have the cheek to say that? As a doctor, it's your duty to treat and save people. How dare you ask for a reward?"

"I'm not in the hospital," He Runbin said righteously. "It's not considered accepting a red packet. I'm just receiving a little proper remuneration."

Deputy Director Qin was infuriated by him. "Fair reward? Just because of your mistake, that child almost died. You can fool others, but can you fool me? If it weren't for Mr. Ye's timely treatment, you would definitely have been sued this time. It's fine if you don't know how to be grateful, but you actually dare to take the opportunity to blackmail him? Are you still human?"

He Runbin's thoughts were exposed by the other party and he immediately admitted his mistake. "Deputy Director Qin, I... I know I was wrong. At most, I won't ask for the reward."

Deputy Director Qin immediately sneered. “Just knowing your mistakes is enough? With your character, you’re no longer suitable to work in our hospital. Come to the hospital immediately to handle your resignation procedures.”

He Runbin was shocked. “Deputy Director Qin, I only made a small mistake. Do you have to make such a big fuss?”

Deputy Director Qin’s voice was cold. “It seems that you still don’t realize the seriousness of your mistake. I think you are no longer worthy of being a doctor. I will propose to the South Guangdong Medical Association to revoke the medical qualifications of people like you.”

He Runbin immediately became anxious. “Deputy Director Qin, are you trying to kill me? I... At most, I’ll just apologize to them. You can’t do this...”

Deputy Director Qin did not listen to his explanation. “I’ve made up my mind. If you have anything to say, you can go to the Medical Association to defend yourself.”

He Runbin’s legs gave way and he fell to the ground.

With Deputy Director Qin’s prestige, if he proposed to the Medical Association, the association would most likely approve. Moreover, he was indeed in the wrong this time, so there was even less possibility of turning things around.

In other words, his future was completely ruined and he could no longer practice medicine.

When the crowd saw this scene, they immediately cheered.

“That’s great. This kind of person should have been disqualified from practicing medicine a long time ago, so that he wouldn’t come out and continue to harm people.”

“Just now, he was using his connections to threaten others. Now that he can’t become a doctor, who will give him face?”

“Serves him right. Who asked him to be so shameless? Divine Doctor Ye saved him indirectly, yet he didn’t know how to be grateful and still came out to ask for the reward? How shameless.”

“Good will be rewarded with good and evil will be rewarded with evil.”

“Hahaha, I’m starting to believe in the light again...”

Everyone’s words were like a sharp knife stabbing into He Runbin’s heart. His reputation was completely ruined. In the future, there would probably be no place for him in Yang Cheng.

Deputy Director Qin heard the cheers on the phone and knew how much He Runbin had gone too far. He immediately asked carefully, “Mr. Ye, are you satisfied with my handling?”

Ye Feng immediately nodded. "Very satisfied, Deputy Director Qin is able to be upright and impartial, it is the patient's great fortune."

Deputy Director Qin laughed out loud after hearing Ye Feng's praise. "Then, Mr. Ye, do you want to consider coming to my hospital to provide medical services..."

"Hey, hey... I'm sorry, the signal isn't very good. I'll hang up first..."

Ye Feng hurriedly hung up the phone. What kind of joke was this? Asking a tycoon worth tens of billions like him to be a doctor? He really could think of it.

He Runbin looked at him with a face full of pleading, "Divine Doctor Ye..."

He wanted to ask Ye Feng to put in a good word for him to Deputy Director Qin and cancel his punishment.

But Ye Feng did not look at him again. He turned around and walked to the little girl to check on her condition.

The little girl could barely sit up now. Her breathing was even, and her big eyes were sizing up Ye Feng.

Ye Feng saw her sick expression and immediately felt pity for her. "What's your name?"

The girl answered timidly, "Xu Meng."

Ye Feng nodded slightly. "Are you feeling unwell anywhere?"

Xu Meng looked at her father who was worried and immediately shook her head. "No, I'm fine now. Daddy, don't worry about Mengmeng."

Xu Jian's eyes welled up with tears when he heard his daughter's sensible words. "Mengmeng, it's because Daddy is useless that you're suffering from this illness..."

Xu Meng immediately panicked. "Daddy, don't cry. Mengmeng is fine."

Xu Jian hurriedly wiped away his tears and regained his strong father image.

Chapter 719 - 719 Since You're Outstanding, You Have to Admit It

When Ye Feng saw this scene, he could not help but sigh. "Mr. Xu, please add me on WeChat."

Xu Jian didn't know what was going on, but he quickly added his WeChat.

Ye Feng then created a list and sent it to him, "Follow my prescription and get your daughter to take it once in the morning, once in the afternoon, and once in the evening. After half a month, her body functions should be improved effectively. At least, the situation today will not happen again."

Xu Jian widened his eyes in disbelief. "Is what you said true?"

His daughter had been sick because of her premature birth. He brought her to all the major hospitals in the country, but she could not be completely cured.

And hearing Ye Feng's words, he could completely improve his daughter's physical condition, and even guarantee that her illness would not relapse. This was something that he did not even dare to dream about.

Ye Feng saw that he was skeptical and could not help but twitch his lips. "If you don't believe me, just pretend that I didn't say anything."

Xu Jian hurriedly waved his hand. "I believe you, I believe you. I have 100% faith in your medical skills. However... I just don't dare to think that such a good thing will happen..."

As he spoke, he started sobbing again.

Xia Qiu looked at Ye Feng in a daze. The current him was more charming than ever.

No matter how much money he had or how popular he was, it was not as touching as him saving a life or a family.

Xu Jian hurriedly kept the precious prescription and then hurriedly said to his daughter, “Mengmeng, hurry up and thank your savior! He gave you a second life.”

Xu Meng hurriedly raised her delicate little face. “Thank you, Uncle.”

Ye Feng was planning to pat her head, but when he heard this, his movements froze and he retracted his hand in embarrassment.

This girl... was really ugly!

The ambulance finally arrived.

Ye Feng helped to send Xu Meng to the ambulance. Xu Jian did not forget to promise him before he left, “Don’t worry, benefactor, the money will be transferred to you very soon.”

Looking at the ambulance leaving, Ye Feng felt a sense of satisfaction. How many people in this world could receive sincere gratitude from others?

If everyone contributed a little, how beautiful would the world be?

This topic was elevated, Ye Feng felt that he could not continue like this, or he would really become a saint.

Just as he was about to walk back, the crowd suddenly swarmed up and surrounded him.

“Divine Doctor Ye, my grandmother has a heart and brain disease. Do you have a prescription? I’m willing to pay for it.”

“Divine Doctor Ye, my dad has a slipped disc. Please give me a prescription.”

“Divine Doctor Ye, my wife has fallen ill after giving birth. Please give her a prescription.”

“Divine Doctor Ye, my ability in that aspect has deteriorated a little...”

Nowadays, there were many people who were sick, but there were too few good doctors who could cure them. It was not easy to meet such a divine doctor today, and everyone wanted to ask for a cure.

Many cars passing by heard the commotion and stopped one after another to run down to ask for medicine.

Seeing that more and more people were coming over, it might cause a traffic jam again, Ye Feng had no choice but to point at Xia Qiu, "Look, the superstar Xia Qiu."

Everyone was stunned and looked back.

Xia Qiu had been watching the show from the side, but she did not expect him to divert the trouble. Her face turned pale in fright.

At this time, Ye Feng had already broken out of the encirclement. He grabbed her small hand: "What are you looking at? Hurry up and run."

Xia Qiu hurriedly lifted her skirt and ran after him. A group of people chased after the game.

Many passers-by looked at this scene in shock, not knowing what was going on.

Fortunately, Ye Feng and the other returned to the car in time and left.

Everyone could only look at the sports car that had gone far away. They wanted to cry but had no tears.

...

Ye Feng drove the Blue Charm Night and finally stopped at a scenic area near the sea.

“Hahaha...”

Xia Qiu looked at his sorry state and couldn't stop laughing.

Ye Feng looked at her helplessly. “Is it that funny?”

Xia Qiu immediately nodded. “I rarely see you in such a sorry state. It seems that being too popular isn't good.”

Ye Feng shrugged his shoulders. “There's no other way. People who are too outstanding always become the focus.”

Xia Qiu immediately rolled her eyes. “Who praises themselves for being outstanding? You're too narcissistic.”

Ye Feng did not mind. “Since you are outstanding, you should admit it. Why are you so hypocritical?”

Xia Qiu couldn't refute him. She had to admit that this guy was indeed a little too outstanding.

“Where did you learn your medical skills? And you’re so powerful? Even the director of the hospital is not as good as you.” She sized up Ye Feng curiously. This guy had too many secrets.

“I... Self-taught, of course,” Ye Feng casually replied.

“Liar.” Xia Qiu saw that he didn’t say anything and didn’t bother to ask.

“I don’t think you look right. Do you want me to check you out?” A mischievous smile flashed across Ye Feng’s face.

“Really? I’ve indeed been feeling a little unwell recently. Can you help me take a look?” Xia Qiu immediately tensed up.

Ye Feng touched her smooth wrist, and his expression suddenly changed. “This is bad.”

Xia Qiu’s face turned pale. “What... What’s wrong?”

Ye Feng looked at her with a serious expression. “Do you often feel chest tightness and breathlessness, and these symptoms are very obvious during the day, but they disappear at night?”

Xia Qiu nodded nervously. “Yes, this... What illness is it? Is it serious?”

Ye Feng thought for a moment and finally gave the diagnosis. "Maybe the bra is too small."

Xia Qiu stared at him blankly, her face turning red at a visible rate.

Chapter 720 - 720 Don't Go overboard, I Have Dignity Too

Xia Qiu's bashful look was extremely charming. It made Ye Feng's heart skip a beat.

He suddenly transformed into a lion and began to approach his prey bit by bit.

Xia Qiu could sense that danger was approaching, but she still kept her head down and didn't speak.

This was obviously a form of tacit approval.

Ye Feng's heart was getting more and more agitated. He did not bother to hide it anymore, and he leaned his entire body to the side.

Miss Xia closed her eyes and gripped her clothes tightly. Her fingers were pale.

Ye Feng stared at the red lips that countless men coveted. His breathing became rapid.

At this moment, the atmosphere in the carriage was already in place, and it looked like they were just one step away from the door.

Suddenly, Ye Feng's phone rang, ruining this rare atmosphere.

Xia Qiu shyly pushed him away and escaped from the car.

Ye Feng slammed the steering wheel. What b*stard was sending him a message at this time?

However, when he saw the notification from the bank: [Your account number ending with 786 has been transferred: 100,000,000 yuan, account balance: 3,430,201,362 yuan...]

This Xu Jian kept his promise, but he ruined his good deed... Forget it, there would still be opportunities in the future.

Then, he got out of the car and walked with Xia Qiu for a while. After the incident just now, the atmosphere between the two of them was a little strange. They walked silently and did not talk about anything else.

After that, Ye Feng sent her back to the hotel, and she did not say anything to him. She quickly got out of the car and left.

Ye Feng looked at her graceful back and felt sorry for a while before driving back.

After returning to the hotel, he calculated the day's harvest. Other than the 30 million he earned at the antique street, he also received 100 million from Xu Jian as a thank-you gift. In total, he earned 130 million.

"I only earned this much money in an entire day. Sigh, I have a long way to go."

He sighed helplessly.

If his words were heard by others, they would definitely roll their eyes.

Earning more than 100 million in a day, and it was all in cash. This was something that 99% of large companies couldn't do, and he actually thought it was too little?

Of course, he also understood this principle, but this was still a little far from his goal of more than 7 billion.

He collected his emotions and opened the in-depth scan page again.

After today's trial, the upgraded depth scanning function was really useful. He gritted his teeth and stomped his feet. He spent another billion to expand the scanning range to 100 meters.

This time, even the furnishings of the other rooms in the hotel were clearly displayed in front of him.

Of course, the in-depth scanning function could only be used on items and not people. Otherwise, he wouldn't mind watching a few live broadcasts.

Just as he was feeling regretful, he suddenly received a call from Zhuang Xiaojiao.

The woman immediately asked, "Who's the woman who went shopping with you today?"

Ye Feng was drinking water and almost spat it out. He angrily smashed the cup on the coffee table. "Zhuang Xiaojiao, you sent people to spy on me again?"

Zhuang Xiaojiao sounded a little smug. "Why? Did you do something wrong, or did you fear being discovered by me?"

Ye Feng was furious. "What did I do wrong?"

"You actually brought another woman to the antique street?" Zhuang Xiaojiao gritted her teeth. "You... You playboy."

Ye Feng could not help but roll his eyes. "So what if it's the antique street? What does this have to do with being a playboy? Besides, who do you think you are to care who I take shopping? Forget about going to the antique street, even if it's to get a room, that's my business."

When Zhuang Xiaojiao heard that he actually dared to contradict her, she became even angrier. "Ye Feng, you... I'm going to be angry, and it's the kind that can't be coaxed."

Ye Feng was not threatened by her, he only sneered: "What does your anger have to do with me? You're not my girlfriend. I have no obligation to coax you."

"I can't do anything to you, but I can find trouble with that woman." Zhuang Xiaojiao threatened immediately. "Don't think I don't know. Her name is Xia Qiu. She's a small celebrity, right?"

Ye Feng frowned. "What do you want?"

Zhuang Xiaojiao said smugly, "Do you believe that I'll post the photos of you shopping on the internet tomorrow? If her fans find out that she's shopping with a man, I wonder if they'll spit on her to death..."

Ye Feng clenched his fists. His attitude softened in the end. "What do you want?"

"Apologize."

"Why should I apologize?"

“If you don’t apologize, it’s fine. Tomorrow’s news...”

“Alright, I’m afraid of you. I apologize to you, okay?”

“Your attitude is not sincere at all.”

“I... I sincerely apologize to Miss Zhuang. Please forgive me.”

“Then where did you go wrong?”

“How would I know what I did wrong?”

“You don’t know? Then tomorrow’s news...”

“I shouldn’t go shopping with other women, right?”

“Then do you still dare to do it in the future?”

“Don’t go too far. I have my dignity too.”

“You still dare to talk back? Then tomorrow’s news...”

“I... I won’t dare to do it again.”

Facing this woman, Ye Feng’s dignity was completely destroyed. If it wasn’t for the fact that he was concerned about the other party’s background, he would have slapped her long ago.

Zhuang Xiaojiao had the upper hand and was very arrogant. “What are you planning to do tomorrow?”

Ye Feng replied unhappily: “Jumping off a building.”

Zhuang Xiaojiao pretended to be shocked. “Why did you jump off the building?”

Ye Feng huffed angrily. “You caused it.”

Zhuang Xiaojiao felt wronged. “I didn’t. It was clearly your fault. I order you not to jump.”

Ye Feng gritted his teeth in anger. “Why do you care if I jump off the building?”

Zhuang Xiaojiao was overbearing. “Even if you want to jump, you have to accompany me to the shopping mall before you jump. I’ve looked up a lot of guides these two days.”

Ye Feng directly rejected: “I’m not going.”

Zhuang Xiaojiao continued to threaten, “Not going? Then tomorrow’s news...”

Ye Feng was so angry that he almost vomited blood. “I... I agree, okay?”

Zhuang Xiaojiao was satisfied. “That’s a good boy. Sleep early tonight. I’ll look for you tomorrow morning. Good night!”

Ye Feng hung up the phone and punched the air twice.

This woman was really arrogant now. It seemed that he had to teach her a lesson tomorrow and let her know how powerful Mr. Ye was.

Humph...
