Chapter 791 - 791 I'm Ashamed To Be With You!

791 I'm Ashamed To Be With You!

Ye Feng was stunned for a moment, but he quickly remembered, wasn't this the boss who opened the blind box at the antique street?

He had a very good impression of this person. He had opened so many valuable blind boxes at that time, and the other party did not go back on his word and cashed them out on the spot.

"Boss Xue? Nice to meet you."

He naturally didn't have a good expression when facing people with ill intentions. However, he was still very kind to people with good intentions.

Xue Pu looked behind him and asked regretfully, "Could it be that Grandmaster Xiao Ye has been hired as an appraiser by another antique shop?"

Ye Feng shook his head. "No, I am actually the owner of Zhonghai's Maple Leaf Pavilion, I am here to purchase goods today."

Xue Pu suddenly understood, "So that's how it is. I knew that Grandmaster Xiao Ye's appraisal ability was so strong. He definitely wasn't a nameless person. I believe that under the leadership of Grandmaster Xiao Ye, Maple Leaf Pavilion would definitely walk toward glory and have an unlimited future.”

Yao Shunmin and the rest looked at each other, listening to Xue Pu and Ye Feng’s conversation, these two seemed to be very familiar with each other? Moreover, he was very respectful to this kid. This made them puzzled.

“Boss Xue, you and this little... do you know Boss Ye?” Yao Shunmin asked in confusion.

Xue Pu turned around and glanced at him indifferently. “I’ve met Grandmaster Xiao Ye once and personally experienced his powerful appraisal ability. He can be said to be the strongest antique master I’ve ever seen in my life.”

Hua...

As soon as he said this, the crowd immediately erupted into a wave of exclamations. Those who did not know the truth began to discuss in low voices.

“So that kid... Was Boss Ye’s appraisal ability really that strong?”

“Boss Yao wasn’t the one who spoke just now. He was the one who colluded with Liu Zimu to intentionally scam Purple Bamboo Pavilion?”

“Compared to Boss Yao, I believe in Boss Xue’s character more. Since he said that Boss Ye’s appraisal ability is very strong, then he must be right.”

“Then, does that mean that Boss Yao is deliberately slandering them? Isn’t this too black-hearted?”

“Hehe, he was slapped in the face by Maple Leaf Pavilion in public. He felt embarrassed, so he deliberately smeared them, right?”

“Aiya, I was fooled by him just now and even scolded Maple Leaf Pavilion a few times. This b*stard is too bad!”

“Shh, be careful Boss Yao doesn’t hear you. Do you still want to stay in Yang Cheng?”

“He can do such a shameless thing, and he doesn’t want anyone to say anything?”

Listening to everyone’s discussion, the expressions of Yao Shunmin and the others were a little ugly.

Now that Xue Pu was there as a witness, their act of deliberately throwing dirty water on them immediately fell apart.

Since the other party’s appraisal ability was really so strong, why did he need to collude with Liu Zimu?

Yao Shunmin felt hatred in his heart, but he still tried his best to keep a smile on his face. "Boss Xue, I'm afraid you don't know this. This Boss Ye is very arrogant. He doesn't even take the antique dealers of our Yang Cheng seriously. Just now, all of us have decided to join forces to shut down Maple Leaf Pavilion. Don't be bewitched by his flowery words."

His words were obviously trying to pressure Xue Pu, telling him that if he stood with Ye Feng, he would be going against the entire antique world of Yang Cheng.

After Xue Pu heard his words, he immediately frowned. "What exactly happened?"

Sun Shouyi, who was standing at the side, knew Boss Xue's weight and hurriedly recounted what had happened.

Xue Pu's expression immediately darkened after hearing this. "Nonsense! How could such a despicable thing happen in the antique world of Yang Cheng? I'm ashamed to be with you!"

Yao Shunmin immediately became anxious. "Boss Xue, don't listen to his side of the story. It's not like what he said..."

Xue Pu stared at him coldly. "Then tell me, what exactly happened?"

Facing his sharp gaze, Yao Shunmin could not open his mouth. "Anyway, we've already decided to ban them. As long as I'm still alive, Maple Leaf Pavilion can forget about entering Yang Cheng."

The antique dealers from earlier also nodded in agreement.

When Xue Pu heard their words, it was as if he had heard a joke. “Do you really think that you can stop Maple Leaf Pavilion with just your abilities?”

Yao Shunmin’s face immediately darkened. “Does Boss Xue really want to go against the entire antique world of Yang Cheng with this kid?”

Xue Pu heard him trying to sow discord, but he didn’t fall for his trick. “Don’t use words to push me. I, Xue Pu, don’t think I have that ability.”

“With Grandmaster Xiao Ye’s strength, he doesn’t need my help to easily enter Yang Cheng. In front of them, you’re just a bunch of chickens and dogs!”

Those antique dealers were called ‘chickens and dogs’ by him, and their expressions were a little ugly.

“Boss Xue, we don’t like what you’re saying. Can Maple Leaf Pavilion really kill their way out to Yang Cheng?”

“Let’s all work together to block them. I don’t believe they can survive in Yang Cheng.”

“As long as Boss Xue doesn’t help us, we’re confident that we can keep Maple Leaf Pavilion out of Yang Cheng forever.”

“Boss Xue, aren’t you exaggerating others’ morale and reducing your own prestige? We Yang Cheng people are not to be trifled with.”

“Let’s join hands and boycott Maple Leaf Pavilion...”

Chapter 792 - 792 If This Was In Ancient Times, You Would Have Been Conferred as a Marquis

792 If This Was In Ancient Times, You Would Have Been Conferred as a Marquis

Xue Pu faced the crowd’s raging emotions and a sneer hung on his face. “It’s not that I’m looking down on you, but even if you all join hands, you’re still not Grandmaster Xiao Ye’s match.”

Yao Shunmin glanced at Ye Feng and smiled disdainfully. “So what if his appraisal ability is strong? There are many doors to the antique shop. If there is no one to protect them, they will not be able to establish a foothold in Yang Cheng.”

Xue Pu shook his head and smiled. “I’ll only say one thing. The people of the Chaoxin Gang are extremely respectful to Grandmaster Xiao Ye. As for the rest, you guys can think about it yourself.”

After he finished speaking, he respectfully retreated behind Ye Feng like a devout student.

However, everyone present was shocked by his words.

“What is it? Chaoxin Gang? Those people can do anything, yet they are actually very respectful to Boss Ye? How can this be?”

“I’ve come into contact with that group of people before. They’re all a group of unruly people. How did Boss Ye get in touch with them?”

“We, who do business, also have to listen to the attitude of the Chaoxin Gang. If they come to our shop to cause trouble, I’m afraid it won’t be long before we close down.”

“If there really is someone from the Chaoxin Gang protecting them, then no one would dare to provoke Maple Leaf Pavilion!”

“It’s not that a fierce dragon can’t cross the river. Boss Ye dared to say that just now, so he has such confidence?”

“I can tell that Boss Ye isn’t a simple person at first glance. Look at the size of his celestial heavens and earth pavilions. If this was in ancient times, he would have been conferred the title of Marquis and minister.”

“I was wondering why I had the urge to kneel down when I saw Boss Ye...”

When everyone heard that Ye Feng had a relationship with the Chaoxin Gang, their attitude immediately took a 180-degree turn. Many of them even started flattering him.

Maple Leaf Pavilion was also staring at their boss blankly.

Was their boss really that powerful?

Especially people like Sun Shouyi and Lin Qianqian who were more familiar with Ye Feng, they were also filled with disbelief.

How long had Ye Feng been in Yang Cheng? He already had such great influence? Was he cheating?

As for those people who had followed Yao Shunmin and clamored to boycott Maple Leaf Pavilion, they all dispersed dejectedly.

To put it bluntly, the antique world was just a small circle. When faced with outlaws like the Chaoxin Gang, they had no resistance at all.

Now, they were not even talking about boycotting Maple Leaf Pavilion, they were even worried that Ye Feng would come after them.

Yao Shunmin was the only one left standing in the arena. He was the one who had taken the lead in attacking Maple Leaf Pavilion. He was in high spirits just now, but now, he was in a difficult position to back down.

He couldn't afford to offend the Chaoxin Gang, but if he were to run away like this, where would Purple Bamboo Pavilion put their face in the future?

"Ahem, it's not impossible for Maple Leaf Pavilion to enter Yang Cheng. As long as... As long as you can abide by the rules and get along well with your peers, our Purple Bamboo Pavilion will still welcome you very much..."

Everyone present could tell that he wanted to give in, but he couldn't erase his pride, so he had to say some high-sounding words.

But Ye Feng did not indulge him, he asked coldly: "Follow the rules? Whose rules? Is this the rule set by your Purple Bamboo Pavilion?"

Yao Shunmin hurriedly waved his hand. "No, no, no. It's... Everyone set the rules together, they set them together..."

As he spoke, he wiped the cold sweat off his forehead. His face was pale with fear.

Ye Feng sneered, his gaze slowly swept across everyone present.

"Our Maple Leaf Pavilion is here to do business. We don't want to be enemies with anyone, nor do we want to break anyone's rules. But if anyone thinks that we are easy to bully, then you can try. It's a good opportunity for me to kill the chicken to warn the monkeys."

Everyone nodded in agreement to his stare. They were afraid that their eyes were not sincere enough and would be misunderstood by the other party. That would be troublesome.

After saying that, Ye Feng did not say anything else and walked out.

The people from Maple Leaf Pavilion immediately followed. Everyone felt proud.

Previously, they had suffered many difficulties from the antique dealers in Yang Cheng. In the end, they could only swallow their anger. After all, this was not their territory.

However, it was different now. With this domineering boss backing them up, they would be looked up to by others in Yang Cheng in the future. No one would dare to provoke them again.

And Maple Leaf Pavilion was about to enter a bigger stage.

Whether it was Sun Shouyi, Lin Qianqian, Liu Zimu, or the others, they were all filled with confidence for the future.

Maple Leaf Pavilion's signboard would definitely resound throughout the entire South Guangdong Province and even the entire country.

..

Ye Feng and Xue Pu chatted for a while longer, and after saying some 'take care of each other in the future', they left.

Maple Leaf Pavilion had rented a small warehouse in Yang Cheng to store their goods.

When the few of them joined hands and sent the three large wooden chests into the warehouse, Sun Shouyi and the others couldn't wait to open the chests and take a look.

However, before the boss said anything, they naturally did not dare to act rashly.

Ye Feng naturally saw through their thoughts, he waved his hand. "Open it and take a look."

Everyone immediately cheered as they searched for tools to open the crates.

Lin Qianqian could not wait to squeeze to the front. She wanted to see what kind of treasure this guy had spent 10 million to buy these 'blind boxes'.

The moment the box was opened, everyone was stunned apart from Ye Feng.

The chest was filled with all kinds of old objects. There were bronze Buddha statues, jade artifacts, ceramic cups, and agate bowls. It was a dazzling array.

The box was covered with thick thatch, so the items were not damaged from bumping into each other.

Everyone started to take out the items inside. By the time the three boxes were emptied, the floor was already filled with at least a few hundred items.

“I counted. There are a total of 221...”

Lin Qianqian’s voice trembled when she revealed the statistics.

The harvest this time was far beyond her imagination.

She was still blaming Ye Feng for taking too much of a risk, but now, she only felt shock and guilt.

Did this guy really have x-ray vision? Otherwise, how would he know that there were so many treasures in this box?

As she thought about it, she subconsciously covered her chest.

..

“Everyone, please identify what year these things are from.”

Sun Shouyi suppressed the excitement in his heart and was just about to instruct everyone to appraise it.

“They are all funerary objects from the Northern Wei Dynasty.”

Ye Feng was leisurely sitting on a chair, drinking the milk tea that Feng Jianwu had just bought.

“You... How do you know?”

Lin Qianqian was shocked once again. Ye Feng had never checked them before, and he could actually determine the age of these antiques?

Ye Feng wanted to say that it was because he had a system. Of course, this kind of thing couldn't be said, so he had to make up nonsense. “Because those three people were all from Xishan Province, and it looked like they were digging graves. It used to be the capital of the Northern Wei Dynasty, so it is estimated that there are many large tombs...”

Chapter 793 - 793 Which Woman Could Resist His Charm?

793 Which Woman Could Resist His Charm?

Although everyone felt that Ye Feng's reason was a little far-fetched, he had brought too many surprises to everyone today, so everyone subconsciously chose to believe him.

Several appraisers picked up the antiques and examined them. They nodded. "That's right, they are indeed from Northern Wei. Mr. Ye is really amazing!"

When they looked at Ye Feng again, their eyes were filled with admiration.

Sun Shouyi excitedly rubbed his hands together. "Everyone, don't be in a hurry to admire it. Let's estimate the price together and see how much the things here are worth."

Everyone did not say anything else and started to appraise the items. Lin Qianqian was in charge of counting the items.

Due to the large number of items, everyone counted for nearly two hours before they had a rough estimate.

Lin Qianqian looked at the final results and was so shocked that she could not close her mouth.

Sun Shouyi hurriedly asked, "Deputy Manager Lin, how much did you calculate?"

The others also stared at her with burning eyes, not even daring to breathe loudly.

Lin Qianqian calmed herself down. “There are a total of 221 items in this box. The lowest one is valued at 800,000 yuan, and the highest one is valued at 20 million yuan. The total value is... A little over 400 million.”

Although everyone knew that this number must be huge, they didn’t expect it to be so much. They were stunned for a moment.

“My god, he bought it for more than 10 million, but he can actually earn more than 400 million?”

Liu Zimu, who had just joined Maple Leaf Pavilion, was a little stunned. This time, he had actually made more than 40 times the profit. This was the most shocking harvest he had ever seen.

Looking at Ye Feng again, he was simply shocked!

Needless to say, the others were so shocked that they could not close their mouths.

“Oh my god, the boss is indeed extraordinary. He got 400 million worth of goods in one go?”

“With this batch of goods, it’s enough for us to successfully enter Yang Cheng and quickly gain a foothold.”

“How did Mr. Ye do it? We were all there, and he didn’t even look at the box, so how did he know there was a treasure here?”

“If you can understand it, you’ll be the boss. It could only be said that he has strength, courage, and luck.”

“If this kind of person doesn’t succeed, the heavens won’t tolerate it!”

When everyone looked at Ye Feng again, they respected him like he was a god!

Lin Qianqian was even more excited. She hugged Ye Feng and kissed him, “Ye Feng, you are really amazing! How did you know that there was a treasure in the chest?”

As she spoke excitedly, she suddenly noticed that the atmosphere around her was a little strange.

When she turned around, she saw that everyone was looking at her with a strange smile.

She immediately realized that she seemed to have... kissed him?

Her pretty face turned red at a speed visible to the naked eye, until it was almost dripping with water.

“I... I’ll go outside and take a look...”

She covered her face and ran out hurriedly. She kept screaming in her heart. ‘It’s over, it’s over. I really won’t have the face to see anyone in the future.’

Everyone then looked at Ye Feng strangely, their instincts told them that there was a story between these two.

Ye Feng coughed awkwardly, “What are you looking at? Deputy Manager Lin was too excited and couldn’t control her emotions. It was all because of... the relationship between colleagues...”

When everyone heard his forced explanation, they all scoffed.

Only a ghost would believe you. Since it was because of the feelings between colleagues, why didn’t she kiss them but kissed him?

But they did not find it strange. Which woman could resist Ye Feng’s charm?

Not to mention women, even the men could not hold on much longer.

A young, handsome, rich, and perverted man with such charisma could turn gay women straight and straight men gay.

Ye Feng saw the strange gazes of these old men, he felt that if he continued to stay here, he might be in danger.

“That... Old Sun, sell these goods as soon as possible. You can set a slightly lower price. After you sell them, transfer the money to my account. I urgently need money recently.”

After giving his instructions, he hurriedly left with Feng Jianwu.

When the two of them walked out of the warehouse, they saw Lin Qianqian feeding two stray cats from afar.

She clearly saw the two of them come out, but she still pretended not to see them. She was probably too ashamed to see him for a while.

Ye Feng shook his head and smiled. He did not greet her and prepared to leave.

At this moment, Feng Jianwu suddenly said to him, “Master, you can go back first. I want to bring Sister Lin around Yang Cheng.”

Ye Feng looked at her in surprise. “You are not familiar with Yang Cheng, don’t get lost together.”

Feng Jianwu smiled sweetly. “Don’t worry, I won’t.”

Ye Feng saw that she was determined. He did not say anything more and left alone.

Lin Qianqian saw Ye Feng’s car leaving and heaved a sigh of relief. Just now, she had done that kind of action in front of everyone. Now that she thought about it, she still felt embarrassed.

She wondered if he would think that she was frivolous. What if he hated her because of this?

Just as she was worrying about her gains and losses, a voice suddenly sounded from behind her. “Sister Lin, can we have a good talk?”

Lin Qianqian turned around and saw Feng Jianwu standing behind her with an adorable smile on her face.

“Alright...”

Chapter 794 - 794 Jianwu Is Master's Little Cotton-Padded Jacket

794 Jianwu Is Master’s Little Cotton-Padded Jacket

After Ye Feng returned to the hotel, he calculated the results of the past few days.

During this period of time, he had already solved the 1.5 billion gap by collecting antiques, speculating in land, harvesting casino leeks, and adding on the antiques he had obtained today.

To be able to get such a large sum of money in a week was enough to make many people dumbfounded.

However, he was still not satisfied with this speed. There were still more than 6 billion left to reach the goal of 11 billion. There was still a long way to go.

He still needed to think about where to get money next.

He spent the entire afternoon in his room, thinking of countless ways to earn money, but in the end, he rejected them all.

Either the cycle was too long, or the risk was too high. In the end, there was only one way left, and that was the stone-gambling festival that Xu Jingxin had mentioned.

Although he didn't know the exact situation of this stone gambling festival, as long as it was about gambling, his in-depth scanning could come in handy. In fact, it was no different from cheating.

Just as he was letting his imagination run wild, the sky had already darkened.

He felt a little hungry, so he went to knock on Feng Jianwu's door first. However, there was no response from inside. He reckoned that she had not returned yet.

He didn't know where the two women were going, but with Feng Jianwu, a powerful ninja, there was no need to worry about their safety.

He went downstairs to have some food, then came back to wash up and prepare to sleep.

Just as he was in a daze, his phone suddenly rang.

He picked it up and saw that it was from Feng Jianwu. There were only four short words: [Come to my room.]

Grandmaster Xiao Ye's sleepiness was instantly gone. The moment he thought of Feng Jianwu's wild and wild nature in bed, his blood began to surge.

He couldn't be bothered to put on his clothes, so he wrapped a towel around himself and went out.

He pushed the door open a crack and stuck his head out. After seeing that there was no one outside, he quickly slipped into Feng Jianwu's room.

Her door was not locked, and there was even a crack.

This made him even more satisfied. This little girl was becoming more and more sensible. She even knew how to leave the door open for her master.

When he entered the room, he found that it was pitch-black inside. Through the moonlight that shone into the room, he could vaguely see a woman lying on the bed.

He tore off the towel, threw it on the ground, and jumped on it...

But soon, his entire person was not well.

It didn't feel right!

Feng Jianwu had a slightly plump physique, so she felt a little rounder. However, the feeling coming from his hand was a little... skinny.

In his panic, he hurriedly turned on the bedside lamp.

What entered his eyes was a slightly mixed-blood face. Her face was flushed red, as if she was drunk.

Lin Qianqian?

He could not help but shiver. What was going on? There must be a problem somewhere.

Just as he was in a daze, he suddenly heard a chuckle from the side.

He turned around and saw Feng Jianwu hiding on the other side of the bed and laughing secretly.

Ye Feng was instantly angry. "So it was you, a little girl, who was behind this? You... what are you trying to do?"

Feng Jianwu got up from the ground and looked at him innocently with her big, watery eyes. "Master, don't you like the surprise Jianwu prepared for you?"

Ye Feng was so anxious that he was incoherent. "Wha... What kind of bullsh*t is this? This is a shock, alright? What did you do to her?"

As he spoke, he could not help but glance at Lin Qianqian. Feng Jianwu had probably taken off her clothes. At this moment... It was very charming.

Feng Jianwu had a lollipop in her mouth. "She's fine. I just drugged her. She'll be fine when she wakes up tomorrow."

Ye Feng was so angry that he almost cursed. "You... why did you drug her?"

"I can tell that Master seems to like her a little. Jianwu is Master's little cotton-padded jacket. Since you like her, why don't Jianwu get her for you?"

Ye Feng almost fainted from anger. "When did I say that I liked her... Even if I like her, you can't use such methods. Do you know what this is called..."

"What is this called?"

Feng Jianwu looked at him nonchalantly.

Ye Feng patted his forehead: "No matter what, what you did was wrong."

"Even if you want to do that, you have to get the person's consent. You can't use such methods, understand?"

Feng Jianwu looked like she didn't understand. "What's the difference? Since Master likes her, and she likes Master, wouldn't it be the same no matter what method you use?"

Ye Feng felt like he was playing the lute to a cow. "Jianwu, you don't have to do whatever you want just because you like someone. The most important thing is to be able to restrain the desires in your heart, do you understand?"

Feng Jianwu nodded thoughtfully. "I understand now. It's like killing someone. You clearly want to kill them, but you have to restrain your killing intent and wait for the right opportunity to kill them in one strike. Isn't that so, Master?"

Ye Feng rubbed his temples. "More or less. Anyway, you can't do this kind of thing again in the future... Even if you want to do it, you have to get my permission first, understand?"

Feng Jianwu nodded and said, "Master, please go back. I'll help her put on her clothes."

Ye Feng actually wanted to stay for a while longer. Even if he could not play with it, he could at least watch it from afar.

However, since the other party had already given the order to leave, he could not stay here any longer.

Just now, he was still lecturing her righteously. Now, it was not good for him to show too much greed.

Taking the opportunity to turn around, he stole another glance before picking up the towel from the ground and wrapping it around his body.

When he was almost at the door, he deliberately turned around and instructed, "Hurry up and help her dress up. Don't catch a cold."

Then, he took a glance.

This dress was really white!

Chapter 795 - 795 The Best Wife

795 The Best Wife

The next morning, when Ye Feng walked out of his room, he bumped into Feng Jianwu and Lin Qianqian who were walking out of the room next door.

"Qianqian? Were you with Jianwu last night?"

Ye Feng looked at Lin Qianqian in shock, while Feng Jianwu secretly gave him a thumbs up.

This acting was amazing!

Lin Qianqian scratched her head and looked at him shyly.

“Yesterday, I went to the bar with Jianwu and drank until I was unconscious. Fortunately, Jianwu carried me back. I even vomited all over because I drank too much, and it was Jianwu who helped me change my clothes. She’s really a kind and good girl.”

Ye Feng raised his eyebrows at Feng Jianwu, ‘Not bad, little girl, your acting skills are even more mature than mine.’

“Qianqian, as a friend, I still have to say something to you. Girls must protect themselves when they are outside, especially not drinking too much. It’s not safe. Even if you don’t think about others, you have to think about yourself,” he said in a lecturing tone with a straight face.

Lin Qianqian’s little head almost reached her chest. “I know I was wrong. I won’t do it again.”

Ye Feng nodded in satisfaction. “Alright, you didn’t eat much last night, you must be hungry? Hurry up and go for a meal.”

Lin Qianqian looked up at him. “Aren’t you going to eat with us?”

Ye Feng waved his hand. “I still have something to do, I’ll be leaving first. After you finish eating, hurry back and meet up with Old Sun and the others. Hurry up and deal with that batch of goods.”

With that, he turned around and left.

Lin Qianqian looked at Feng Jianwu gratefully. "Jianwu, I really have to thank you for last night. If it weren't for you, the consequences would be unimaginable. I didn't expect my alcohol tolerance to be so bad..."

Feng Jianwu waved her hand generously. "You've already thanked me many times this morning. There's no need to be so polite with me. Aren't we friends?"

Lin Qianqian nodded heavily. "That's right. We are good friends. Best friends."

"Alright, stop talking. Let's go and have breakfast first."

"Okay, I'll treat you."

"Then I won't stand on ceremony with you."

"By the way, Jianwu, after you helped me change my clothes, did you see where my underwear went?"

"I didn't see it. Were you wearing it?"

"What are you talking about? Which person doesn't wear it?"

“I don’t wear it often!”

“Uh...”

After Ye Feng returned from Feng Jianwu’s room last night, he received a call from Xu Jingxin, telling him that today was the opening day of the stone gambling festival.

The two of them agreed to meet this morning and then go to the venue together.

He only wanted to keep a low profile this time, and he did not want to attract too much attention. Ye Feng’s Blue Charm Night was too eye-catching, so they decided to drive Xu Jingxin’s BMW 3 Series over.

When he walked out of the hotel, he saw Xu Jingxin waiting for him downstairs.

She was bare-faced today. She was wearing a loose white knitted sweater, a pair of jeans, and a pair of black leather boots.

The clothes were actually very ordinary. They probably did not cost more than 300 yuan, but when she wore them, they immediately raised the level.

Xu Jingxin usually wore conservative clothes and rarely wore spaghetti straps or shorts like Zhuang Xiaojiao and Lu Xiaoya. However, her figure was not inferior to them at all. In fact, it was even slightly better.

Of course, this was his visual estimation. If he wanted to get an accurate number, he had to measure it with his hands. However, he did not have the courage to do so yet.

Ye Feng quickly retracted his gaze and asked with a smile, "You haven't eaten yet, right? Do you want to have breakfast together?"

"I know you haven't eaten, so I've already bought it for you." Xu Jingxin pointed at the front passenger seat.

Ye Feng looked over and saw a serving of soup dumplings and soy milk on the seat, the packaging had the words 'Fu Long' printed on it.

He knew that this breakfast shop was very famous in Yang Cheng. There were many people queuing up every morning to buy breakfast, and they often had to queue for more than an hour.

"This is... Did you buy it yourself?" He could not help but look at Xu Jingxin in a daze.

Why didn't you ask me if I wanted to go to the toilet myself?" Xu Jingxin could not help but laugh when she heard his question.

"I'm really flattered that you went to line up early in the morning to buy breakfast for me." Ye Feng looked into Xu Jingxin's eyes seriously.

"Who... Who specially bought it for you? I... I bought it for me, and I also brought you one." Xu Jingxin's eyes were a little flustered. Clearly, her words were a little against her will.

Actually, she had already eaten in the morning. When she drove past Fulong Breakfast Shop, she saw a long queue outside. After asking around, she found out that this breakfast shop was very famous. Many people came from afar to queue up to buy it.

She thought that Ye Feng might not have eaten breakfast yet, so she went to queue up and bought one.

Although it wasn't as cold as the north, it was still early winter. The temperature in the morning was still quite cold. Everyone else was fully armed, but she was the only one who was shivering in the wind in thin clothes.

Ye Feng looked at the breakfast, then looked at her. His heart ached, and he really wanted to hug her and warm her up. However, their relationship had not reached that stage yet. If he rashly sent her warmth, it would only be taken as having ill intentions.

"Alright, hurry up and get in the car. Let's talk as we walk." Xu Jingxin was a little embarrassed by his stare and hurriedly got into the driver's seat.

Ye Feng sat in the front passenger seat. "You want me to eat in the car?"

Xu Jingxin was a bit of a clean freak. The car was almost completely clean, and there was a faint fragrance. It was obvious that she usually took good care of it.

Even he couldn't bear to eat breakfast here.

"But I can't watch you eat outside. What would that look like?" she said helplessly and started the car.

Ye Feng looked at her perfect side profile. He was filled with emotions.

Among the girls he knew, if he had to choose the perfect candidate for a good wife, it would definitely be Xu Jingxin.

Zhuang Xiaojiao was too crazy and was suitable to be a playmate. Lu Xiaoya and Shen Baitian had been pampered since they were young and were still waiting for others to serve them. Chen Xuan was a workaholic. She couldn't even take care of herself when she worked, let alone take care of others.

Although the other girls were also outstanding enough, they also had various problems.

Only Xu Jingxin was impeccable in terms of family background and personal intelligence.

What was even rarer was that she could always take his feelings into account. She was definitely the best candidate for a wife.

Unconsciously, a sentence came out of Ye Feng's mouth: "Wife... Ah, no, Jingxin, what do you think of this Stone Gambling Convention?"

Xu Jingxin blushed when she heard him call her 'wife', but she pretended not to hear him.

"This Stone Gambling Convention is the grandest in recent years. The number of raw stone manufacturers and jewelers has broken the records in recent years..."

The two of them chatted about the Stone Gambling Convention as they rushed to the stone gambling venue.

Chapter 796 - 796 You're Really a Jinx

796 You're Really a Jinx

Xu Jingxin said that the Stone Gambling Convention was held in the mussel village in the southern suburbs. The city could not provide such a large place.

"I've heard of this Mussel Village. It doesn't have a good reputation. It's said that there are unruly people in the poor mountains and rivers."

Ye Feng told Xu Jingxin about the news that he had heard.

However, Xu Jingxin did not think much of it. "There are bad people everywhere. You can't just kill them all with a stick. If an entire village is filled with bad people, what would happen? Don't just believe it, you have to see it with your own eyes to make an accurate judgment."

Ye Feng quickly nodded.

However, his jinx was soon verified. Just as the two of them entered the area of the Mussel Village, a tricycle was driving slowly in front of them.

Xu Jingxin pressed the horn twice, but the other party seemed to not hear her. He continued to move slowly, not even as fast as the passers-by.

Xu Jingxin had no choice but to overtake the car.

However, before her car could completely overtake the tricycle, an old lady suddenly appeared in front of her.

"Ah..."

Fortunately, Xu Jingxin's mentality was relatively stable. Although there was a moment of panic, she quickly calmed down and hurriedly stepped on the brakes.

But even so, the old lady in front of her still let out an "Aiyo" and fell to the ground.

But Ye Feng clearly saw that the car did not touch her at all. It was obvious that they were being scammed.

The moment the old lady fell to the ground, the 'passers-by' surrounded her smoothly.

"Not good. A female driver hit someone. Everyone, hurry up and come over to take a look."

"Hey, isn't this Zhu Zi's mother? How did she get into a car accident? Hurry up and inform Zhu Zi."

"I know this car. It's called a BMW."

"So what if they're rich? They had to take responsibility for hitting someone. Get out of the car!"

Xu Jingxin looked at Ye Feng helplessly. "You really jinxed me. You actually hit the nail on the head."

Ye Feng smiled bitterly as he loosened his seatbelt. "Let's go down and take a look."

When the two of them got out of the car, they were immediately surrounded by a group of indignant villagers.

"How do you drive? Are you blind? Can't you see such a living person?"

"So it's a female driver? Then it's not strange that you're still in the system."

"How are you driving? This is murder!"

"Don't let her escape. Everyone, surround the car first..."

Xu Jingxin quickly tried to calm everyone down. "Don't worry, everyone. We won't run away. Let us check on the old woman first."

As she spoke, she walked quickly to the old lady. "Auntie, are you feeling unwell?"

The old lady lay on the ground and moaned in pain. "Aiyo, I... My entire body is hurting. Am I going to die?"

Xu Jingxin was speechless when she saw her poor acting skills. "Auntie, let me help you up and see if you can walk."

The old lady immediately glared at her. "Are you speaking like a human? If you get hit, can you try to walk?"

The surrounding villagers also began to criticize.

"That's right. Your woman is too bad at talking. What do you mean by trying to walk?"

"Hmph, I think she just doesn't want to take responsibility. Everyone, stop them. Don't let them escape."

"The people from the city have always looked down on us from the countryside. They don't care about our lives at all."

"So what if they're from the city? Is their life more precious than ours? Didn't they grow up eating our rice?"

Everyone started to exaggerate. Ye Feng and Xu Jingxin did not know whether to laugh or cry.

At this time, Ye Feng suddenly noticed that the old lady had a jade hairpin on her head. Although the quality of the jade was not too good, the carving was extraordinary. It was obvious that it was not an ordinary item.

He immediately activated the deep scan and saw all the information about the jade hairpin.

[Jade hairpin with a dragon carved from jade. It was identified as a special item from the Qing Dynasty Palace. It was Empress Dowager Cixi's favorite item. After her death, it was buried with the coffin. Later, it was stolen by Sun Dianying... System valuation: 300,000,000!]

Although Ye Feng was already mentally prepared, he was still shocked by this information, it was the hairpin that Empress Cixi had worn before?

Although he disliked Empress Cixi, he liked the things she used. After all, they were all money.

He suppressed his excitement and did not take immediate action. He waited and saw what would happen.

At this moment, a burly man suddenly pushed the crowd aside and walked in. "Mom, what's wrong?"

The male lead was online!

When the old lady saw the man coming over, she immediately cried, “Zhu Zi, your mother was hit by a car. She’s probably going to die soon. You won’t have a mother in the future.”

The man squeezed for a long time but couldn’t squeeze out a single tear. However, he still said in a sobbing tone, “Mom, if you die, I’ll make them pay with their lives.”

Saying so, he stood up and looked at Ye Feng and the other two.

This guy was estimated to be nearly 1.9 meters tall, a full head taller than the two of them. At this moment, he was glaring at the two of them, which was quite intimidating.

“Are you the ones who hit my mom? Tell me, how should we resolve this matter?”

As the man spoke, he clenched his fists so hard that they made cracking sounds. The threat was self-evident.

Xu Jingxin was indifferent to his threat. She just took out her phone from her pocket.

“Let me say this first. I didn’t hit her. I have a car recorder in my car to prove it.”

“But out of humanity, I can help her call an ambulance and go to the hospital for a full-body checkup. I can pay for the checkup.”

“But remember, this doesn’t mean that I hit her. It’s just out of humanity.”

As she spoke, she was about to make a call.

At this moment, the man suddenly snatched her phone away and threw it heavily on the ground. The phone immediately shattered into pieces.

“Humanity my ass. If you don’t pay up today, I’ll beat you until you can’t be humane.”

Chapter 797 - 797 Aren't You Surprised? Is It Surprising?

797 Aren't You Surprised? Is It Surprising?

Although Xu Jingxin had always been in a good mood, she was still a little angry when she met such an unreasonable person. “You’ve already destroyed someone else’s property. I can call the police.”

The man waved his fist. “How much is your broken phone worth? It’s fine if you don’t apologize after bumping into my mother like this, but you still want to call the police? Go ahead and report it.”

His punch seemed to have sent a signal to the others, and everyone immediately became excited.

“This is the two people in the city. Aren’t they too arrogant? Not only did she not apologize for hitting someone, she even dared to threaten to call the police?”

“Do you really think that we villagers are easy to bully? If you do not give us an explanation today, you won’t be able to leave the village.”

“That’s right. I saw you hit her with my own eyes just now. Even if the police came, we have witnesses.”

“Yes, we can all testify...”

Xu Jingxin had lost her patience at this group of unruly people. “Tell me, what do you want?”

The man stared at her. “That depends on whether you want to settle it publicly or privately.”

Xu Jingxin’s lips curled into a mocking smile. “I want to hear it. So what if it’s public? So what if it’s private?”

The man was very familiar with this kind of business. He immediately said, “If it’s public, then we’ll call the police according to your wishes. If you don’t give us a satisfactory explanation when they come, the people of the Mussel Village will not agree.”

A group of people around them responded one after another. There were at least twenty to thirty people in this group. If they really wanted to cause a ruckus, even the officials would have a headache.

The man waited for them to finish their demonstration before continuing, "If it's a private settlement, then it's much simpler."

Xu Jingxin sneered. "How much do you want me to pay?"

The man looked at the two of them and then at the BMW. "100,000!"

Xu Jingxin was amused. "You really dare to ask for an exorbitant price."

The man's eyes widened in anger again. "How much is my mother's life worth? If she really suffers from cerebral hemorrhage or internal bleeding, your 100,000 yuan won't even be enough for the medical expenses."

Xu Jingxin wanted to say something more, but Ye Feng suddenly stopped her and turned to smile at the man.

"If that's the case, then all the more we can't lose money. If there's really a cerebral hemorrhage or something, our responsibility will be huge."

"It just so happens that I've studied medicine before. Out of humanity, I'm here to help your mother check and see what's wrong with her."

Without waiting for the man to agree, he squatted down in front of the old lady. “Old lady, what’s wrong with you?”

The old lady was bored waiting and was already a little distracted. She didn’t expect him to suddenly come over and hurriedly hugged her leg. “Aiyo, my leg hurts. I think it’s broken?”

Ye Feng smiled coldly. “Your leg hurts, right? I’m good at treating legs. Let me take a look at you.”

As he spoke, he grabbed the old lady’s leg and gently bent it.

“Aiyo...”

The old lady immediately let out a blood-curdling scream. Her entire leg began to cramp, and she was in excruciating pain.

“Hurry up and stand up and take two steps, or you’ll really be crippled,” Ye Feng urged.

After all, the old lady was not a professional actress, so she did not know what an actress’s conviction was.

Upon hearing this, she immediately forgot her 'job' and hurriedly got up and started jumping on the ground.

Looking at her agile movements, even young people could not compare to her.

Ye Feng looked at the man with a harmless smile on his face. "Look, the old lady has recovered, aren't you surprised? Is it surprising?"

Xu Jingxin couldn't help but cover her mouth and laugh. This guy was really good at messing with people.

The surrounding 'public' was also stunned. They had never encountered such an unexpected situation before.

In the past, those people would obediently pay up to appease the public, but the situation today seemed to be different.

How should they act now?

Everyone could only look at the 'pillar'. Clearly, he was the executive director.

That man's expression was extremely dark, and he stared coldly at Ye Feng. "Brat, you are courting death, do you know that? Now, I have changed my mind. If you don't give me 500,000 yuan, don't even think about leaving Mussel Village today."

Ye Feng smiled fearlessly. "What? Since scamming didn't work, they started to rob? Then you have to consider it carefully. The nature of this is different."

The man sneered. "Do you know what it means to not blame others? Even if we beat you to death today, you will die in vain, do you understand?"

Ye Feng had a mocking expression on his face. "Then you can try."

The man's face immediately darkened. "Hmph, you refuse a toast only to drink a forfeit. Then we'll teach you a lesson."

As soon as he finished speaking, a group of unruly people immediately surrounded Ye Feng and the others.

These people were holding shovels, hoes, forks, and other farming tools in their hands. They were obviously prepared to scare people.

However, Ye Feng did not seem to care about their threats.

What puzzled the crowd even more was that the man was tough, but the woman had an indifferent expression on her face. She was not frightened by their imposing manner at all.

This caused them to be a little confused. Usually, at this stage, they would all admit defeat. This was the first time they had seen someone who did not listen to persuasion or coercion.

“Brat, I’ll give you one more chance. As long as you obediently hand over the money, we’ll let you go immediately. Although money is important, how could it be more important than his life?”

The man was also panicking. He only wanted to extort some money and did not want to make things big. His words already had a hint of surrender.

But Ye Feng did not fall for his tricks. “If you want to fight, hurry up and finish it, we still have to go to the Stone Gambling Convention.”

A bunch of unruly people had question marks on their faces. How could they be like this? He was completely looking down on them.

Everyone looked at the burly man with questioning eyes.

“Good boy, you asked for it. Hit him!”

The man gritted his teeth and was about to wave his hand to signal for everyone to attack.

At this time, Ye Feng's right hand suddenly reached out like a ghost, snatching the shovel from the hands of a thug.

"Since we're going to fight, we have to have a good weapon. Hmm, this shovel is not bad, but it's a little long."

He seemed to be muttering to himself as he suddenly exerted strength in his hand.

Kacha!

The handle of the shovel, which was as thick as a wrist, broke into two.

Chapter 798 - 798 Have You Forgotten? You're the Bad Guys!

798 Have You Forgotten? You're the Bad Guys!

When the handle of the shovel was broken, the group of unruly people also trembled.

The handle of the shovel was made from ash wood. This wood was very tough, so it could be used as a farming tool for heavy physical labor.

Even an adult man might not be able to break this shovel handle with a single kick.

As everyone knew, if one wanted to break something with both hands, one could only rely on the strength of the wrist. The difficulty of doing so was not ordinary.

However, it was broken by this young man.

Everyone felt their scalps go numb as they retreated.

The pillar was so scared that he took a step back. "You... what are you doing?"

Ye Feng held the handle of the shovel and walked toward them slowly. "What do you think we are doing? Didn't you say you wanted to beat me up just now? Hurry up and do it."

Zhu Zi retreated repeatedly, his face filled with fear. "You... don't come over. If you come over again, I'll call the police."

When Ye Feng heard this, he was speechless. "Brother, have you forgotten? You guys are the bad guys! It was you who robbed us. Why are you calling the police?"

Xu Jingxin couldn't hold it in any longer. She leaned against the car and burst into laughter.

This scene was really comical.

The originally fierce and unruly people had now become a vulnerable group. He was originally blackmailed and robbed, but now he had become a robber.

Zhu Zi could not hold on any longer. He knelt on the ground with a thud. “Hero, we were blind and did not know that your divine skills are unparalleled. Please spare us...”

What kind of joke was this? This was a fierce person who could easily break the handle of a shovel. If he was punched, he would probably go to see the King of Hell.

Facing such a fierce person, he did not even have the courage to escape.

With him taking the lead, the other unruly people also knelt down and kowtowed.

This scene made Ye Feng feel a little awkward. They said that they would teach him a ‘lesson’. Was this how they taught him?

“So, you’re not going to scam me?”

“I’m not touching it anymore.”

“No more robbery?”

“I’m not snatching anymore, I’m not snatching anymore.”

That’s good, that’s good.”

“Ah?”

Ye Feng did not care about their shocked expressions. He grabbed the handle of the shovel with his right hand and knocked it with his left hand a few times. “You broke my friend’s phone just now. Don’t you think you should compensate me?”

The man hesitated for a moment and finally nodded. “Y... Yes.”

Ye Feng smiled, “My friend’s phone was custom-made by the fruit company, it costs at least 100,000 yuan. Do you want cash or bank transfer?”

The man’s eyes widened. “100,000? Isn’t this too much?”

Ye Feng immediately snorted, “Too much? If you delay our trip to the Stone Gambling Convention, many good raw stones might be bought by others. We will lose at least tens of millions.”

“Also, we were frightened just now. This compensation for the loss of work, mental damage, and...”

The man hurriedly interrupted with a sad face, “Don’t... Don’t calculate anymore. Can’t we make a deal?”

Ye Feng immediately shrugged. “Then take the money.”

The man hurriedly gathered the group of people to discuss the matter of raising money.

This operation was really a big loss. Not only did they not get a single cent, but they also had to pay for it.

After a while, the man came over with a stack of crumpled bills. “Hero, we only managed to gather less than 10,000 yuan. There’s really nothing left.”

Ye Feng obviously did not believe it. “You guys have probably done many wicked things like this, right? After so many times, you probably extorted a lot of money, right? Where did the money go?”

The man hurriedly explained, “Hero, although we have extorted a lot of money, we have a lot of people too. Each time we give everyone a point, in fact, each person won’t lose much money.”

Ye Feng glared at him. "Who told you to find so many people? Don't you know what it means to simplify a team?"

"If a team wants to be big, they must consider cost and efficiency."

"The labor cost is high, but the efficiency isn't improved. As a leader, you cannot shirk responsibility..."

The man nodded as he listened, his attitude very pious.

Xu Jingxin was dumbfounded. Was this guy giving them corporate training? Did he really intend to let them make the hit-and-scam industry bigger and stronger?

Ye Feng explained it to him and then stopped, "I will not charge you for these business management training, but you have to pay for the phone, not a single cent less."

The man looked sad again. "We really don't have any money. Why don't we... I'll work for you for free. Just treat it as paying off my debts. I can still continue to learn from you."

"What's the use of asking me for you? I don't intend to scam you, so I have to take care of your meals."

Ye Feng glared at him angrily, then he glanced at the hairpin on the old lady's head as if nothing had happened. "If you really don't have money, you can use other valuable things to pay for it."

The man turned around and looked at the unruly people. They were all dressed in rags. How could they have anything valuable?

Ye Feng saw that he had no judgment. He could not be bothered to waste any more time, and he pointed at the hairpin on the old lady's head. "I think this hairpin is worth some money, I'll take it."

When the old lady heard this, she hurriedly waved her hand. "No, this is our family heirloom..."

Before she could finish, her son had already reached out and taken it down. "What family heirloom? My father just said that, and you really believed him? What treasures could our eight generations of poor farmers have?"

As he spoke, he handed the hairpin to Ye Feng like he was presenting a treasure.

It wasn't like he hadn't seen a real jade before. This hairpin was obviously made of ordinary material. No matter how valuable it was, it would only be worth a few hundred yuan at most.

Now that he could use it to offset 90,000 yuan, he was more than happy to do so. He even mocked Ye Feng in his heart. He actually liked this kind of trash.

Ye Feng held the hairpin in his hand, and a smile finally returned to his face. "Alright, then you don't have to pay for the phone."

"You guys should go back quickly. In the future, find a proper job. If I see you guys again, it won't be so easy to talk."

"Thank you for sparing my life, thank you for sparing my life..."

The burly man hurriedly thanked the group of unruly people and left with the old and the young.

Xu Jingxin waited for those unruly people to leave before walking up to them. "You're really black-hearted. You want 100,000 yuan for a cell phone?"

Ye Feng smiled nonchalantly. "I'm giving him a taste of his own medicine."

Xu Jingxin looked at the hairpin in his hand. "What do you want this hairpin for? Looking at the color of this jade, it seemed very ordinary."

Ye Feng deliberately gave a mysterious smile. "You don't understand, this hairpin is very valuable."

Xu Jingxin rolled her eyes at him. "Don't try to lie to me. If this hairpin can be sold for more than 10,000 yuan. I can agree to any request of yours."

Ye Feng immediately revealed a malicious smile: "Any request? Are you sure?"

Chapter 799 - 799 Is Your Grandmother Empress Dowager Cixi?

799 Is Your Grandmother Empress Dowager Cixi?

Xu Jingxin nodded confidently. "Of course I'm sure. If you can sell it..."

Before she could finish, she suddenly heard a voice behind her. "Brother, are you selling that hairpin? I'm willing to pay 100,000 yuan."

The two of them turned around and saw a Mercedes-Benz G parked by the roadside. A man was sitting in the driver's seat, looking at them with a smile.

This man was about twenty years old and was quite handsome, but when he smiled, he always gave off a sinister feeling.

If it was not for the Peng City license plate on the front of the car, Xu Jingxin would have thought that this guy was hired by Ye Feng. He was actually willing to spend 100,000 yuan to buy that hairpin? Are you stupid and rich?

However, what surprised her was what happened next.

She thought that Ye Feng would agree without hesitation. After all, it was not easy to meet such a stupid buyer.

However, she did not expect Ye Feng to reject him directly: "I'm sorry, the hairpin is not for sale."

Xu Jingxin looked at him blankly. She did not know what he was thinking. It was already 100,000 yuan, and he was still not selling it?

The man didn't seem surprised by his refusal. He just grinned. "I really like this hairpin. Name a price. As long as it's not too outrageous, I can accept it."

Ye Feng was still unmoved. "It's better not to open it. You can't afford it anyway."

The man was still a little unwilling to give up. "To be honest, the quality of your hairpin is very ordinary."

"The reason why I want to buy it is because my grandmother used to have an identical one. Later, she accidentally broke it. I want to buy it back to make her happy."

"How about this? I'm willing to buy it for 500,000 yuan."

Hearing his words, Xu Jingxin was also touched by his filial piety, and the other party's offer was indeed not low. She immediately turned to Ye Feng. "I think he's quite sincere. Why don't we sell it to him? It can also be considered as helping his grandmother fulfill her wish."

Ye Feng ignored her. He stared at the man for a while. "Your grandmother also has the same hairpin? Then may I ask, is your grandmother Empress Dowager Cixi? Or the nanny beside the Empress Dowager?"

That young man clearly understood. He was still hoping that Ye Feng did not see through the origin of this hairpin and wanted to buy it at a low price.

Now that the other party had pointed it out, he did not continue to pester him. He just smiled faintly and drove away.

Xu Jingxin saw that Ye Feng had made the man give up with just one sentence, she was even more confused. "This... What is going on? Why did he leave after hearing your words?"

Ye Feng did not answer her question. Instead, he teased: "You just said that as long as this hairpin can be sold for more than 10,000 yuan, you will agree to any of my requests."

Xu Jingxin's face turned red and she immediately tried to deny it. "I said I'm selling it, but you're not selling it."

Ye Feng snorted lightly. "I knew you would go back on your words. Do you want to know why I didn't sell it?"

Xu Jingxin quickly nodded. She was very curious. If she did not solve this mystery today, she would not be able to sleep at night.

Ye Feng did not answer her directly. He took a photo of the hairpin and sent it to Chen Qiushan.

Less than a minute later, the other party sent a long voice message.

“D*mn, Brother Ye, aren’t you too awesome? If I’m not wrong, this is the hairpin that the Empress Dowager likes the most, right? Where did you get it? How do you always get such rare treasures? This hairpin must be auctioned at our auction house. I guarantee that it will be auctioned for a good price...”

He rambled on and on in one breath, but Xu Jingxin still understood. This hairpin was actually worn by Empress Dowager Cixi? Then, its value would be difficult to estimate.

No wonder when that person heard Ye Feng mention ‘Empress Dowager Cixi’, he left dejectedly.

“That person is too despicable. I thought he really wanted to be filial to his grandmother. I didn’t expect him to be so shameless!”

She was so angry that her face turned pale. She was even kind enough to persuade Ye Feng to sell it for 500,000.

Fortunately, Ye Feng did not listen to her. Otherwise, he would have suffered a huge loss.

Although she did not know the exact value of this hairpin, it was definitely not just 500,000 yuan.

For a moment, she felt ashamed.

Ye Feng then sent a voice message to Chen Qiushan: “Brother Chen, please help me estimate the price, see how much this hairpin can be sold for?”

Chen Qiushan quickly replied, “This hairpin has a very high historical value. It can definitely be considered a treasure. If I were to set a price, it would definitely be more than 30 million...”

When Xu Jingxin heard this, she was stunned again.

Although she knew that this was the hairpin worn by Empress Dowager Cixi and knew that its value would not be low, she did not expect it to be so ridiculously high.

“Ye Feng, I’m sorry, I was actually deceived by that person’s flowery words just now. I even advised you to sell the hairpin to him. You won’t blame me, right?”

Young Miss Xu usually had a smart look on her face. Now that she suddenly admitted her mistake, Ye Feng could not help but laugh.

“Let’s talk about the promise you just made.”

Chapter 800 - 800 Aren't I the Most Talented Child Prodigy?

800 Aren't I the Most Talented Child Prodigy?

In the end, Xu Jingxin still agreed to honor her promise, but Ye Feng had not thought of what he wanted from her, so he could only let her keep what she owed him.

The two of them continued on their way and soon arrived at the venue of the Stone Gambling Convention.

The venue was very large, at least the size of three football fields.

It was already crowded inside. There were many cars of different grades parked outside. There were vans that cost tens of thousands of yuan and luxury cars that cost millions. They were probably all here to gamble.

Their appearance naturally attracted the attention of many people.

Of course, these gazes were mainly focused on Miss Xu.

Although she did not put on makeup today, a beauty was a beauty. Even without makeup, she could still become the center of attention.

Fortunately, someone soon attracted all the glares from the crowd.

It was unknown who was the first to exclaim, "Master Li Jr. is here."

As soon as this voice was heard, everyone nearby rushed toward the door.

Ye Feng and Xu Jingxin looked at each other and smiled before entering the venue.

As Xu Jingxin walked, she introduced him. "The venue of this Stone Gambling Convention is mainly divided into three sections. They are the Full Gambling Section, the Half Gambling Section, and the Premium Grade Section..."

Ye Feng nodded as he looked around.

To put it bluntly, the Full Gambling Section was like a complete raw stone. Whether or not it could be gambled up depended entirely on one's luck.

Of course, there were also people who said that from the shell, color, crack, and other details, you could see the water inside.

He was skeptical about this statement. Many so-called experts who had gambled on stones for most of their lives had lost their entire fortune.

If these characteristics were really that useful, it wouldn't be a gamble.

As for the Half Gambling Section, it was filled with raw stones with open windows. Some of the materials inside had already been exposed, so the risk was slightly lower.

Therefore, the price of materials in the Half Gambling Section would be higher.

However, there were also risks in the gambling area. Many times, there was only a layer of material floating inside, and the whole thing would be useless after being cut open.

As for the Premium Grade Section, it was all materials that a group of experts unanimously judged to be 'greatly increased'. Those materials were very expensive and needed to be auctioned.

"Comrade Ye, do you have the confidence to win today?" Xu Jingxin looked at Ye Feng. A rare mischievous expression appeared on her face.

"Chief, just wait and see." Ye Feng immediately gave her a military salute.

“What chief?” Xu Jingxin immediately rolled her eyes.

“I don’t know why, but I just like being controlled by you. Don’t you think I’m a little cheap?” Ye Feng had a wicked smile in his eyes.

“Yes, I think so.” Xu Jingxin’s pretty face blushed slightly, and she quickly turned around and walked away.

What he said just now was too easy for people to imagine. What did he mean by ‘like to be controlled by you’? Was this a hint?

At this moment, they heard a commotion at the door. Then, they saw a large group of people escorting a young man into the venue.

This scene was like the scene in Water Margins, where Wu Song was treated like a hero after fighting a tiger at Jingyang Ridge.

When Ye Feng and Xu Jingxin saw that young man, they immediately looked at each other.

That young man was actually the person who asked Ye Feng for the hairpin at the village entrance.

“It’s really fate that we can meet here.” A playful smile immediately appeared on Ye Feng’s face.

“I think it’s a narrow road for enemies, right?” Xu Jingxin could not help but tease him.

The reason why she said that was because the young man had already seen the two of them, but his gaze was clearly unfriendly.

Ye Feng did not bother with him. He pulled a man who did not squeeze in. “Bro, what is this person doing? He seems to be quite popular with everyone.”

The man glanced at him. “You don’t even know him, and you dare to come to the Stone Gambling Convention?”

Ye Feng was amused by his words. “Why does he sound like Mazu, if I don’t pay my respects to him, I can’t go out to sea?”

The man immediately nodded. “Something like that. His name is Li Rui, the most talented child prodigy in the antique world in recent years.”

Ye Feng subconsciously touched his nose. “Aren’t I the most talented child prodigy?”

Xu Jingxin could not help but cover her mouth and chuckle. This guy was really narcissistic.

The man glared at him. "Can you compare yourself to him? Although he's young, he's already famous in the antique shop. Many antique masters admit defeat to him..."

Before the man could finish his flattery, a few of Li Rui's diehard fans came up to him to 'promote' him.

"Master Li Jr. isn't just in the antique shop. He also has a deep understanding of raw gemstones."

"That's right. I still can't forget last year's Stone Gambling Convention. Master Li Jr. cut out a piece of top-grade Imperial Jade from a pile of raw stones and was bought by a jeweler at a sky-high price of 120 million."

"That's right. Master Li Jr. also relied on this battle to become a god in the stone gambling circle. Just thinking about it makes my blood boil."

"However, Master Li Jr. doesn't care about that bit of money at all. He donated all the money. His strength and breadth of mind are really admirable."

"Master Li Jr.'s family is very rich. Playing with stones and antiques is just a hobby."

"To be able to complete his hobby to a height that others can't reach in their lifetime, Master Li Jr. is probably unprecedented, right?"

“Such a peerless genius might not even appear once in a hundred years. It’s not something we can understand...”

Everyone was not stingy with their praise, praising Li Rui to the point that he was unparalleled in the world.

After Ye Feng finished listening, he turned his head and whispered to Xu Jingxin, “Compared to me, he’s still a little inferior, right?”

Xu Jingxin smiled and was about to tease him.

However, his joking words were also heard by a few of Li Rui’s ‘braindead fans’.

“Why are you so shameless? You actually dare to say that Master Li Jr. is slightly inferior to you?”

“You really dare to say such big words. Aren’t you afraid that the wind will hurt your tongue?”

“Do you think you’re worthy of being mentioned in the same breath as Master Li Jr.? This is the greatest insult to Master Li Jr.”

“Hehe, you’re really like a pig with a green onion in its nose. Why are you pretending? Do you think you’re worthy?”

There were even people who felt that they were not satisfied with their scolding and immediately shouted toward the venue, “There’s a brat here who doesn’t know the immensity of heaven and earth. He actually dares to say that Master Li Jr. isn’t even worthy of carrying his shoes.”

His shout immediately attracted the attention of the entire venue.

Even Li Rui looked over.
