Chapter 831 - 831 This Guy Is Really Big-Hearted!

831 This Guy Is Really Big-Hearted!

Liu Wenyuan asked about Ye Feng's recent cultivation situation, and after seeing that he was fine, he left with a peace of mind.

After he left, the atmosphere in the ward became awkward again.

When Xu Jingxin thought of what this guy had done just now, she felt her cheeks burn. She could only pretend to be angry.

Ye Feng was trying to explain something. At this moment, there was a knock on the ward door. He had no choice but to get up and open the door.

The person standing outside the door was one of Zhuang Xiaojiao's guards. Ye Feng remembered that Zhuang Xiaojiao had told him that this person was called Zhao Xinwu.

When he saw that it was Ye Feng who opened the door, he was pleasantly surprised. "Mr. Ye, you're awake?"

Ye Feng nodded expressionlessly. "How is Miss Zhuang now?"

When Zhao Xinwu heard him mention this, he was immediately overjoyed. “The hospital has re-examined Miss and said that her condition is under effective control. She’s fine for the time being. We have to thank Mr. Ye for this.”

Ye Feng nodded lightly. “That’s good, I will go and see her later. Why are you looking for me?”

Zhao Xinwu glanced at Xu Jingxin in the room and hesitated.

Xu Jingxin was very observant. She immediately stood up. “I’ll go out and get some hot water. You guys can chat first.”

After saying that, she took the hot water bottle and walked out.

Ye Feng invited Zhao Xinwu into the ward. “What’s the matter, say it.”

Zhao Xinwu immediately took out his phone and said respectfully to him, “Mr. Ye saved Miss’s life this time. Our leader wants to talk to you and personally express his gratitude.”

Ye Feng’s eyebrows twitched slightly. “There’s no need for that, right? I only did what I should have done.”

The main reason was that he had put Zhuang Xiaojiao in danger previously. Now that he had to call her parents, he was still a little nervous.

Especially when he knew that the 'leader' must have an extraordinary background, it made him even more nervous.

When Zhao Xinwu heard his words, he secretly admired him.

If it were anyone else, they would be eager to cling onto this thigh when facing a behemoth like the Zhuang family.

And Ye Feng had done the Zhuang family a favor, but he did not want them to return the favor. This was really too rare.

"Our leader has already called repeatedly and instructed us to inform Mr. Ye as soon as he wakes up. Please don't make things difficult for me."

Zhao Xinwu could only continue to persuade him when he saw his refusal.

Ye Feng hesitated for a moment before nodding. "Alright then."

Zhao Xinwu was overjoyed. He did not say anything else and hurriedly dialed Old Master Zhuang's number.

The phone rang a few times before it was picked up.

Zhao Xinwu hurriedly reported in a low voice, "Master, Mr. Ye is awake."

A vigorous voice immediately came from the other end. "Is this Little Mr. Ye? I'm Xiaojiao's grandfather, Zhuang Jingyuan. I have to thank you on behalf of Xiaojiao."

When Ye Feng heard this name, his heart thumped wildly. This name was not unfamiliar to him, or rather, it was not unfamiliar to most Chinese people.

This name often appeared in the news.

He knew that Zhuang Xiaojiao came from a wealthy family, but he did not expect her to be this impressive.

Fortunately, his state of mind was relatively calm. He quickly regained his composure. "Hello Old Master Zhuang, I am Ye Feng. Xiaojiao is my good friend. I only did what I should do. You don't have to be so polite."

Zhao Xinwu had been paying attention to his expression. He was a little surprised at first. It was obvious that he did not expect Zhuang Xiaojiao's grandfather to be that big shot.

However, he quickly regained his composure, which was something he did not expect.

To be able to remain calm in the face of this big shot was definitely not something an ordinary person could do.

Zhuang Jingyuan, who was sitting opposite him, did not expect that this kid would be so calm in front of him. He paused for a moment before continuing.

"No matter what, you are Xiaojiao's savior, and also my Zhuang family's great savior. If you have any requests, feel free to ask. As long as it's within my ability and doesn't violate my principles, I'll do my best to help you."

Zhao Xinwu was even more shocked. He had never heard Old Master Zhuang make such a promise to anyone.

With the Zhuang family's strength, as long as Ye Feng's conditions were not too ridiculous, they would be able to satisfy them.

This was a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity that others could not even beg for.

But Ye Feng's answer almost made his jaw drop.

"Mr. Zhuang, I respect you very much. If it were anyone else, I would have hung up the phone by now. You're not insulting me, you're insulting your granddaughter. Do you think I saved her just to get benefits from her?"

Ye Feng's voice was filled with anger as he reprimanded him.

This gave Zhao Xinwu, who was beside him, a great fright. Was this guy crazy? How dare he use such a tone to speak to his master?

Even though he had experienced countless life-and-death situations, he was still terrified.

He was afraid that Old Master would go crazy and order him to kill this kid.

Fortunately, his master was not as petty as he thought. The other end of the phone only paused for a few seconds. He was probably shocked by Ye Feng's words, but soon, a hearty laugh came from the other end.

"Little Mr. Ye, don't misunderstand. I didn't mean that. Of course, I know that you saved Xiaojiao out of friendship. I'm the one who fell into the cliché. I apologize to you. Since you have such a good relationship with Xiaojiao, then I won't be polite with you. If you come to Yanjing in the future, remember to come over for dinner."

As he spoke, his tone became extremely cordial, as if he were an elder talking to a junior.

Zhao Xinwu, who was beside him, was so shocked that his eyes were staring straight ahead.

His master actually apologized to someone?

This was simply a fantasy!

What shocked him even more was the latter part of the sentence.

Who didn't need to be polite to? Of course, it was his family.

His Old Master did not treat Ye Feng as an outsider anymore? He even asked him to 'come over' for dinner?

This was simply inconceivable!

Looking at Ye Feng's expression, it was still as calm as water, without any ripples.

Why was this guy so calm after hearing this?

This guy was really big-hearted!

“Since you’re on good terms with Xiaojiao, I won’t treat you as an outsider. I’ll call you Xiao Feng from now on. Xiao Feng, do you think Xiaojiao... How many more years can she live?”

Zhuang Jingyuan had wanted to ask if Xiaojiao’s illness could be cured, but that was obviously too much of an extravagant hope, so he changed it to how many years she could live.

Ye Feng frowned and thought for a moment before giving an answer. “After this treatment, she is temporarily out of danger. I will prescribe some medicine for her and she should take it regularly. There should not be any problems for the next three years.”

Zhuang Jingyuan’s voice trembled. “She can only live for three years? I’m sorry, I know this is already a miracle. We’ve already found the best heart disease authority in the world, and they all said that she won’t live for more than a year. I’m already very grateful that you allowed her to live for two more years, but...”

Ye Feng hurriedly interrupted him, “I said that this treatment can ensure her safety for three years, I did not say that she can only live for three years.”

Zhuang Jingyuan was stunned for a moment before he immediately became excited. “You mean, there’s still hope for her illness to be cured?”

Chapter 832 - 832 As Long As I'm Alive, She Can't Die!

832 As Long As I'm Alive, She Can't Die!

Ye Feng hesitated for a moment before answering, “I cannot guarantee it, but as long as my surgical skills can improve to a certain level, there should be a chance of curing her. In short, as long as I’m alive, she can’t die!”

At this moment, Zhuang Jingyuan, who was far away in Yanjing, was completely stunned. He could not believe his ears.

After being stunned for a while, two lines of tears rolled down his cheeks.

This was probably the best news he had heard in all these years.

All these years, because of his granddaughter’s illness, he had almost never had a good night’s sleep. He even personally went to look for medical books. After a few years, he had almost become half a medical expert.

However, the more he knew about his granddaughter’s illness, the more desperate he felt.

Because with the current medical technology, there was no precedent for a cure.

He was already in despair.

He never expected to hear such good news from a young man who was about the same age as his granddaughter.

As long as I'm alive, she can't die!

Although these words sounded a little childish, it made him feel refreshed.

"Xiao Feng, I'll leave Xiaojiao in your hands. She's very childish. There will definitely be times when she makes you unhappy. You have to bear with her..."

When Ye Feng heard Zhuang Jingyuan's words, he was speechless.

What did he mean by 'entrusted to you'? Why did it feel like he was entrusting her life to him?

"Don't worry, Old Master. I'll take good care of her. She should be awake now. I'll go and see her first. I won't talk to you for now."

"Okay, okay, okay. Go quickly. We'll keep in touch at all times..."

Zhuang Jingyuan agreed readily. After the other party hung up the phone, he sat there in a daze, digesting the huge surprise.

At this moment, his son Zhuang Jiqing and his daughter-in-law Fang Yu happened to walk in. They were shocked to see the old man sitting there in a daze.

“Father, what’s wrong?” Zhuang Jiqing rushed over and asked worriedly.

Only then did Zhuang Jingyuan come back to his senses. He said lightly, “I just talked to Xiao Feng on the phone.”

“Who is Xiao Feng?” Fang Yu asked in confusion. The old man called him so intimately, so he should be a junior in the family, right? But she didn’t seem to remember that there was such a person at home.

“Father should be talking about Ye Feng, right?” Zhuang Jiqing was also a little surprised. He did not expect his father to change his mind so quickly.

“That’s right, it’s him.” Zhuang Jingyuan nodded.

“He... What did he say to you?” Zhuang Jiqing saw his father’s dejected look and his heart started to beat fast.

“He said... Xiaojiao can still be saved...” When Zhuang Jingyuan said this, his expression became excited again. His old face could not help but reveal a happy expression.

“Still... What do you mean by that?” Fang Yu looked at the old man in a daze. In her memory, she had never seen the old man lose his composure like this.

Zhuang Jiqing also looked at his father in disbelief. “Father, he... Is what he said true?”

Zhuang Jingyuan nodded heavily. “He told me personally that as long as his surgical skills improve, there’s hope of curing Xiaojiao. I can hear that he is very confident. He should have a certain degree of confidence.”

Before Zhuang Jiqing could get excited, Fang Yu’s legs gave way and she fell to the ground.

He hurriedly helped her up. “Fang Yu, are you alright?”

Fang Yu’s tears had already burst out of her eyes. She grabbed his sleeve tightly. “Jiqing, did you hear that? Xiaojiao can still be saved, she can still be saved...”

Zhuang Jiqing was so excited that he couldn’t control himself. He hurriedly nodded. “Yes, I heard it. Our daughter can still be saved. She won’t die.”

After giving birth to their daughter, his wife fell seriously ill and could no longer conceive. Xiaojiao was their only lifeline.

All these years, the husband and wife had been mentally and physically exhausted in order to treat their daughter's illness.

The impact of hearing this news was obvious.

Zhuang Jingyuan could no longer hold it in. He immediately raised his head and laughed out loud. "Hahaha, I knew it. I've been upright all my life. I've never done anything wrong. I definitely won't let my descendants suffer retribution. Ye Feng, good job hahaha..."

Zhuang Jiqing and his wife were in a good mood now that they had a burden on their minds. They also laughed.

"Father, such a good thing should be shared with everyone in the family. I'll go inform everyone to have a meal together tonight. What do you think?" Zhuang Jiqing quickly asked his father.

Zhuang Jingyuan waved his hand. "Don't reveal this news for the time being. Although Xiao Feng said he's confident, what if... It is better to wait until there is concrete news."

Zhuang Jiqing didn't say anything else after hearing his father's words.

“Alright, you guys go back first. I’m a little sleepy and want to have a good sleep.”

As Zhuang Jingyuan spoke, he felt sleepy and fell asleep on the rocking chair.

Zhuang Jiqing didn’t bother him anymore. He knew that his father hadn’t had a good night’s sleep all these years. Now that he had put down a heavy burden, he finally couldn’t take it anymore.

Even he felt an unprecedented tiredness. He had to go back and have a good sleep.

The husband and wife left quietly.

Chapter 833 - 833 Don't Tell Me You Despise Me?

833 Don't Tell Me You Despise Me?

Zhao Xinwu used to be a soldier in the Special Forces. Later, he was sent to protect Old Master Zhuang.

This person could be considered someone who had experienced countless life and death situations. He was definitely a fierce person who was indifferent to life and death.

But at this moment, he was full of admiration for Ye Feng.

This young man in his twenties could definitely crush him in terms of martial strength. In addition, whether it was in antiques, gambling, or medicine, he had amazing performance.

What he admired even more was his temperament. Even when he faced Old Master Zhuang, he felt a sense of trepidation. However, this young man was able to deal with it calmly and even dared to scold him.

“Mr. Ye, I, Old Zhao, have never admired many people in my life. You are definitely one of them.”

He said it very seriously and even gave him a thumbs up.

Ye Feng returned the phone to him and could not help but smile. “Since Brother Zhao thinks highly of me, then don’t call me Mr. Ye. It sounds so awkward.”

Zhao Xinwu immediately nodded. “Alright, then I’ll be arrogant and call you Brother Ye.”

Only then was Ye Feng satisfied. “In the future, when we have time, let’s have a drink with Brother Zhao. Let’s go and see Xiaojiao first.”

Zhao Xinwu did not say anything else and brought him directly to Zhuang Xiaojiao’s ward.

Zhuang Xiaojiao was sitting cross-legged on the hospital bed, eating snacks while watching TV. She would occasionally laugh.

At this time, she suddenly heard footsteps coming from outside, as well as the conversation between Ye Feng and Zhao Xinwu.

Shocked, she hurriedly turned off the TV and threw the snacks into the bedside table. Then, she lay back on the bed and pretended to be weak.

After Ye Feng entered, he only glanced around before looking at her calmly. "Are you feeling better?"

Zhuang Xiaojiao shook her head weakly. "I still feel a little uncomfortable. Just stay here with me. It'll be safer if anything happens."

Ye Feng frowned. "Logically speaking, that shouldn't be the case. After my treatment, you should be alive and kicking, eating snacks and watching TV. Why are you still like this?"

Zhuang Xiaojiao looked away guiltily. "Maybe... It's because your medical skills aren't superb enough that you've treated me even more seriously."

Ye Feng nodded thoughtfully, then he picked up a potato chip from the blanket. "Who ate this potato chip? Was there a rat in the ward?"

Zhuang Xiaojiao was shocked at first, but she quickly regained her composure. She raised her trembling hand and pointed at Zhao Xinwu beside her. "He ate it..."

Zhao Xinwu pointed at himself in disbelief. "Me?"

Zhuang Xiaojiao glared at him. "It's clearly you. Are you still trying to deny it?"

Zhao Xinwu felt that he was even more wronged than Dou Er, but since the Miss had said so, he could only bite the bullet and admit it. "Yes, I ate it."

Ye Feng glared at her angrily. "Next time, wipe your mouth clean before you lie."

Zhuang Xiaojiao touched the corner of her mouth and realized that there were some chips on it. She knew that she could not hide it anymore and immediately sat up in embarrassment. "It's mine. What's wrong?"

Ye Feng snorted. "After being exposed, you started to act shamelessly, right?"

As he spoke, he waved his hand to signal Zhao Xinwu to leave.

Zhao Xinwu immediately left the ward and stood guard outside.

Ye Feng sat beside the bed and said to Zhuang Xiaojiao, "Give me your hand. Let me see how you've recovered."

Zhuang Xiaojiao immediately stretched out her fair wrist without saying a word.

Ye Feng placed his finger on her wrist and counted for a while, then nodded. "Yes, as strong as a small bull."

Zhuang Xiaojiao was instantly unhappy. "Do you know how to use an analogy? How can you describe people like that?"

Ye Feng smiled embarrassedly, but he quickly became serious. "My medical skills are still lacking, I can only save your life temporarily. It will take some time to completely cure you."

"During this period of time, it's best for you to stay here and recuperate."

Zhuang Xiaojiao looked at him suspiciously. "Don't tell me you despise me? You don't want to play with me anymore, so that's why you said that, right?"

Ye Feng rolled his eyes. "Why are you biting Lu Dongbin? Don't you know how to be kind? I'm doing this for your safety. You can't run around like you used to."

Zhuang Xiaojiao knew the seriousness of the matter, but she did not give in. "It depends on my mood."

Ye Feng took out a silver needle from his pocket. "Your current condition is not stable. I need to help you consolidate the effect."

Zhuang Xiaojiao's expression immediately became unnatural. "No... You still have to take off your clothes..."

At this point, her cheeks were already burning.

She still remembered the scene of him treating her in the RV that day. At that time, he had already seen her naked.

Now that she thought about it, she wished she could find a place to hide.

Ye Feng knew what she was thinking. He found it funny. "Don't worry, I won't stab you there this time, I only need to use needles on the soles of your feet."

Zhuang Xiaojiao heaved a sigh of relief, but she immediately became nervous again. Even if she was stabbed, she was still a little embarrassed.

Ye Feng saw her bashful look and could not help but laugh out loud, "Isn't Miss Zhuang usually fearless? Are you afraid of needles?"

Zhuang Xiaojiao glared at him. “Who... Who’s afraid? I’m just...”

Ye Feng nodded. “I understand, your feet are a little smelly, it’s embarrassing to show them. It’s okay, I’m not afraid.”

Zhuang Xiaojiao was furious. She lifted the blanket and put her feet in front of him. “Whose feet are smelly? It’s not smelly at all, okay?”

Ye Feng actually did not have any special fetishes in this area, but when he saw that fair and jade-like foot, his heart started to beat uncontrollably, and his expression started to change.

Zhuang Xiaojiao hurriedly retracted her foot.

But Ye Feng reacted quickly. He grabbed her ankle. “Don’t move, I’m going to stab in?”

Chapter 834 - 834 If You Want to Be My Woman, You Have to Be Obedient

834 If You Want to Be My Woman, You Have to Be Obedient

Zhuang Xiaojiao’s cries of pain could be heard from the ward. Zhao Xinwu dug his toes awkwardly.

Although he could hear that his Master seemed to be trying to matchmake the two of them, this was a hospital after all. Wasn’t he a little too impatient?

At this moment, Xu Jingxin suddenly walked over. "Is Mr. Ye inside?"

She had gone out for a while and when she returned to the ward, she realized that Ye Feng was no longer there. She guessed that he was here to see Zhuang Xiaojiao.

"Cough cough, that... He..."

Zhao Xinwu did not know how to answer, but at this moment, they heard Ye Feng's voice from inside.

"Don't move. It'll be over soon."

Zhao Xinwu scratched his head. "Miss Xu, don't misunderstand. They... He's probably treating her, right?"

Xu Jingxin's expression was a little unnatural. "I understand."

With that, she turned around and left.

After about twenty minutes, Ye Feng pulled out all the silver needles. "I'll write a prescription later. Get Brother Zhao to get the medicine, then you must take it on time every day, do you hear me?"

Zhuang Xiaojiao buried her head in the blanket and nodded silently.

Ye Feng was too lazy to tease her. "Alright, I still have something to do, I'll be leaving first. Call me if you feel unwell, or ask Brother Zhao to call me."

Zhuang Xiaojiao quickly poked her head out, her face full of reluctance. "You... Are you leaving?"

Ye Feng glanced at her. "Then what else? I can't stay here with you forever, right?"

"Why not?" Zhuang Xiaojiao stared at him with her big, watery eyes. "Ye Feng, you won't abandon me, right?"

Ye Feng found it funny. "Why do you make it sound like we are going to part forever? Don't worry, you're my patient now. I won't give up halfway."

Zhuang Xiaojiao smiled. "Anyway, I'm depending on you for the rest of my life. Even if you run to the ends of the Earth, I'll catch you. Don't even think about escaping from me."

Ye Feng could not help but roll his eyes. "Who is like you? I saved you out of kindness, but you want to blame me?"

Zhuang Xiaojiao looked at him in disbelief. "Do you know how many men are pursuing me? I'm giving it to you for free and you don't want it?"

Ye Feng looked at her arrogantly. "Then you don't know how many women are pursuing me. If you want to be my woman, you have to be obedient."

"Stay in the ward. Without my orders, you're not allowed to go anywhere."

After he finished speaking, he left with a devilish smile.

Zhuang Xiaojiao stared blankly at his back as he left. For a moment, she was infatuated.

..

Ye Feng walked out of the ward in a carefree manner, but Zhao Xinwu's one sentence made him break down.

"Miss Xu just came over and heard you..."

Before he could finish his words, Ye Feng's expression changed and he ran toward his own ward.

When he rushed back to the ward, it was empty except for a note on the bed.

He picked it up and saw the words: "I'm going back to Zhonghai. You and Miss Zhuang should have a good life."

Ye Feng was stunned. Although the note was short, he could smell the strong smell of jealousy.

Sigh, this d*mn charm!

He threw down the note and hurriedly chased after her.

He had thought that Xu Jingxin had already left for a while and it would be difficult to catch up.

However, when he ran out of the corridor, he saw her standing in front of the elevator. She did not enter the elevator even when it arrived, as if she was waiting for him to catch up.

Ye Feng held back his laughter and chased after her. "Jingxin, listen to my explanation..."

Xu Jingxin glared at him coldly when she saw him chasing after her. Then, she quickly walked into the elevator.

Ye Feng was still a step too late. He had no choice but to run down the stairs.

Fortunately, he was physically strong enough to catch up to Xu Jingxin from the fifth floor to the first floor.

He ignored the strange looks from the people around him and hurriedly went up to them. "Jingxin, listen to my explanation. We're really not like what you think."

Xu Jingxin's face was cold. She ignored him and walked out.

Ye Feng could only follow in her footsteps.

Everyone in the hall looked at the two of them strangely.

"That man must have cheated on his wife."

"How did you know?"

"Didn't you hear what he said just now? 'It's really not like what you think.' He must have been fooling around with another woman and was caught by his wife on the spot."

“That makes sense. Isn’t this man too scumbag? With such a beautiful wife, he actually went out to fool around?”

“Then you don’t understand. Flowers are not as fragrant as wildflowers. You’re used to eating delicacies, so you have to try the wild game on the roadside.”

“It sounds like you know a lot. Have you tasted wild animals before?”

“I’m innocent, Honey. I’m talking about that kid. I’m a good man.”

“Hmph, none of you men are good...”

Just as Ye Feng walked out of the hospital lobby, a system notification suddenly rang in his ears.

[The system has detected a new treasure navigation. Ding Richang’s mansion ruins. Please drive along the current road for 100 meters and turn right...]

He hurriedly stopped in his tracks, and a look of joy appeared on his face.

Xu Jingxin took a few steps forward. Seeing that he did not chase after her, she turned around and saw that he was still smiling.

It was as if her departure made him very happy.

This made her feel even sadder.

She put down her pride and came all the way from Zhonghai to Yang Cheng to look for him.

In the past two days, he had first scolded her because of Zhuang Xiaojiao, and now he was flirting with Zhuang Xiaojiao.

It was fine if he didn't explain to her, but now that he saw her leave in a huff, he was actually secretly happy?

She suddenly felt like she had been abandoned, and her tears fell.

In the end, she was still wronged!

Chapter 835 - 835 Principles, Do You Understand?

835 Principles, Do You Understand?

Ye Feng was extremely excited about the new treasure navigation when he suddenly saw Xu Jingxin's tears. He was shocked.

“Why are you crying?”

Xu Jingxin could be said to be the smartest and most sensible girl he knew. He rarely saw her emotional fluctuations. Now that she suddenly cried, he was really at a loss.

Xu Jingxin turned her head away and did not speak. She was speechless.

The people who came in and out of the hospital looked at him with anger and disdain, as if he had committed some unforgivable crime.

Ye Feng quickly held Xu Jingxin’s hand. “Come with me to a place first, I will explain to you on the way.”

Xu Jingxin only struggled for a moment, then let him lead her to the parking lot.

..

“So you’re just giving her acupuncture?”

On the way to Ding Richang’s old residence, Ye Feng explained to Xu Jingxin what happened in the ward.

After Xu Jingxin heard this, she realized that she had misunderstood something.

“Then what did you think it was?” Ye Feng immediately asked.

“I thought... I thought it was acupuncture too,” Xu Jingxin quickly and awkwardly quibbled.

“Oh, I understand. Don’t tell me you think... Miss Xu Jingxin, your thoughts are a little unhealthy.” Ye Feng understood that she had misunderstood something and started to tease her.

Xu Jingxin’s face turned red and she quickly changed the topic. “Where are you taking me?”

Ye Feng did not know how to explain it to her. He could only answer casually, “Go out to relax.”

Xu Jingxin saw that he did not say anything, so she did not ask further.

Ding Richang’s old residence was not too far from the hospital. It only took them less than ten minutes to get there.

When the two of them arrived at their destination, they found that it was a very large courtyard, covering an area of more than 6,000 square meters.

This place had been transformed into a tourist attraction, and there were many cars parked at the entrance. They were probably tourists.

“Why did you suddenly come to Ding Richang’s old residence?” Xu Jingxin looked at Ye Feng strangely.

“You know this place?” Ye Feng was also surprised.

“Of course, Ding Richang is a corrupt official. Is there anyone who doesn’t know this person?” Xu Jingxin acted as if it was a matter of course.

Ye Feng touched his nose awkwardly. “I don’t know him. Is it embarrassing?”

Xu Jingxin then realized that this guy had not even finished his freshman year and his educational level was still in his third year. He might not know this person, so she could only patiently give him general knowledge.

“This Ding Richang was the biggest corrupt official in the local area during the late Qing Dynasty. Because he was highly appreciated by Li Hongzhang, his official career was successful...”

Ye Feng listened to her explanation as he walked into the house.

In fact, for modern people who are used to seeing all kinds of high-rise buildings, such an old house would not be shocking without some historical background.

He didn't really listen to Xu Jingxin's words. He just followed the system's instructions and walked forward.

He thought that he would be able to find the treasure without any obstacles.

However, when the two of them arrived at the backyard, they were suddenly blocked by a man with a red armband. "Stop, what are you doing?"

The man had a fierce-looking face and a cigarette in his mouth. He didn't look like a kind person at first glance.

Ye Feng immediately explained: "We are here for a vacation, we just happened to be here. Is there a problem?"

The man pointed at a sign beside him. "Can't you read Chinese characters? You're not allowed to enter here."

Ye Feng turned his head and saw the sign that said 'Temporarily closed, no visitors allowed'.

He immediately frowned. "Aiya, why aren't they open? We came all the way here just to admire the ancient buildings here. It's a pity that we can't enter."

As he spoke, he glanced at the man. "Can you make an exception? Let's go in and take a look before leaving."

The man's face darkened. "Principles, do you understand? We have to act according to the rules. Since the rules forbid us from entering, even if the emperor comes, we can't enter..."

Ye Feng did not wait for him to finish. He immediately took out a few hundred dollar bills and stuffed them into his hand. "I can tell that you are a warm-hearted person, you definitely can't bear to see us come here for nothing, right?"

The man's eyes lit up and he quickly stuffed the few hundred yuan into his pocket.

His job was so shabby that it was not even as good as a guard. The guard would even be given a pack of cigarettes every now and then, and he basically received a salary of less than 2,000 yuan.

A few hundred yuan was already a lot of money for him. It was enough for him to work for more than a week.

"Haha, no problem, no problem. Rules are dead, but people are alive. Since you are studying ancient architecture, you are also doing it for our country. But you have to look at it quickly and leave immediately after you're done. If the leader finds out, not only will you be punished, but I'll also be punished."

Ye Feng hurriedly nodded in agreement, then he pulled Xu Jingxin and quickly walked toward the backyard.

He was still muttering in his heart. As expected of someone who looks after the houses of corrupt officials. He had not learned anything else, but he had learned corruption first.

“Why did you have to come to the backyard?” Xu Jingxin was baffled by his behavior.

He said that he was here for a vacation, but he was just looking around on the way. He didn’t look at it at all. It seemed like he was just running to the backyard.

“I heard that rich people like to hide their treasures in the backyard. What if we can dig them up?” Ye Feng said half-truthfully.

“Haha, why are you so childish? Even if there really is a treasure, it would have been discovered by others long ago. Would it be our turn?” Xu Jingxin immediately covered her mouth and laughed.

Ye Feng did not explain much. He just followed the system’s guidance.

The backyard had been abandoned for a long time and no one had repaired it. The moment he walked in, it felt gloomy.

Xu Jingxin felt a chill run down her spine. “This place is so old. What’s there to see? Let’s hurry up and leave.”

Ye Feng did not answer her. He slowly walked to a dry well in the courtyard.

At the same time, the system’s voice sounded again.

[The navigation is over!]

..

After finding the treasure, Ye Feng did not stay any longer. He immediately left with Xu Jingxin.

After leaving Ding Richang’s old residence, he ran to the grocery store next door and bought a few woven bags, shovels, ropes, and other tools.

Xu Jingxin watched his series of abnormal actions silently and did not ask why.

It was not until the two of them returned to the hospital that she could not help but ask, “What exactly do you want?”

Ye Feng looked at her sneakily. "I found treasure in the backyard. I will dig it out tonight. Do you dare to come with me?"

Xu Jingxin's mouth was wide open. After a long while, she said in disbelief, "Treasure? How did you find out?"

She had been following him at that time, but she didn't see him rummaging around. How did he find the treasure?

Chapter 836 - 836 I've Never Tried This Before!

836 I've Never Tried This Before!

Ye Feng smiled mysteriously. "Then don't worry about it. If I say there is, there is. Just tell me if you want to go or not."

Xu Jingxin was tempted. She had always been curious about such mysterious things.

However, when she thought of that eerie courtyard, she hesitated.

Seeing this, Ye Feng immediately spread his hands. "It's fine if you don't dare to go, I'll go find Zhuang Xiaojiao. She should be quite interested in this kind of thing."

When Xu Jingxin heard the name 'Zhuang Xiaojiao,' she hurriedly pulled him back. "I'll go."

Ye Feng looked at her strangely. It seemed that Zhuang Xiaojiao's name was really useful.

Xu Jingxin felt a little uncomfortable under his gaze. "I just think... Miss Zhuang's condition is still unstable, so it's better not to disturb her for the time being."

After saying that, she lowered her head guiltily.

Ye Feng could not be bothered to expose her thoughts. He only nodded lightly. "Alright, go and sleep for a while, rest well."

"I'll call you when we take action at night."

Because Ye Feng was staying in a VIP ward, other than the hospital bed, there was also a sofa, coffee table, and a single bed for the staff to rest.

Xu Jingxin didn't say anything else and went to the single bed to rest.

She didn't sleep much last night. She only took a nap in the morning, but she woke up very quickly. She was really sleepy now and fell asleep as soon as she touched the pillow.

Ye Feng leaned on the bed and started to plan his actions for the night.

..

At night, Ye Feng and Xu Jingxin arrived at Ding Richang's old residence.

There was no moonlight tonight, and the entire courtyard was submerged in the pitch-black night.

The two of them went to the wall of the backyard. This wall was about two meters tall, but to Ye Feng, it was useless.

He jumped onto the wall first and was about to pull Xu Jingxin up.

However, Eldest Miss Xu smiled faintly and took a few steps back. She suddenly rushed forward, stepped on the wall with one foot, and nimbly jumped onto the top of the wall.

Then, she flipped over and landed in the courtyard.

Ye Feng immediately gave her a thumbs-up. "Not bad, your skills are not bad."

Xu Jingxin smiled smugly. “Do you really think I’m that kind of weak young lady? I’ve just been hiding it all along.”

“If you dare to bully me again in the future, watch how I deal with you.”

Ye Feng curled his lips and smiled. He directly jumped in front of her and hooked his arm around her slender waist. “If I really want to bully you, can you resist?”

He hugged her tightly. Xu Jingxin struggled a few times but could not break free. She was a little embarrassed and angry. “Let go. If you dare to touch me again, I’ll... I’ll tell my brother that you bullied me.”

Ye Feng did not care about her threat. “If your brother finds out that you, the great Miss Xu, followed me into someone else’s backyard in the middle of the night and became a thief, I don’t know if he will deal with you or me first.”

Xu Jingxin immediately burst into laughter. She could already imagine her brother’s expression when he found out about this.

The education she had received since she was young was a typical elite education. It was unimaginable for her to do such a thing.

Her smile was like a blooming mountain flower. It was beautiful. Ye Feng’s eyes were staring blankly.

However, he still firmly remembered his mission. Now was not the time to linger around women.

“Hurry up and leave. This place is in ruins.”

Ye Feng walked inside first, and Xu Jingxin quickly followed.

The two of them came to the well in the courtyard and looked inside. It was dark inside, and they didn't know how deep it was.

“The treasure you mentioned, could it be in the well?”

Xu Jingxin felt her scalp go numb. The backyard was already gloomy enough. Did they have to go down into the well?

She heard that in the past, these rich families often threw their servants who had made mistakes into the well to drown. Who knew what strange things were down there?

Ye Feng turned around and smiled at her. “If you don't dare to go down, then wait for me on top.”

As he spoke, he tied the rope he had bought in advance to a tree trunk that was as thick as a bowl.

Xu Jingxin looked around and suddenly shivered. "I'm more scared up there alone. I'd better go down with you."

She was already regretting following this guy to this godforsaken place.

Ye Feng shook his head. After confirming that he was tied up, he turned to Xu Jingxin and slowly opened his arms: "Then come up."

"What? Where to?" Xu Jingxin did not understand what he meant.

"Of course you're lying on me. I'll bring you down along the rope," Ye Feng said seriously.

"Lying on your body..." Such a shameful action made Xu Jingxin hesitate.

Ye Feng pointed at the well indifferently. "Then why don't you go down first?"

Xu Jingxin looked into the well and shuddered. She was curious, but she still needed to train her courage. She did not dare to go in alone.

She immediately shook her head at Ye Feng.

Ye Feng pursed his lips. "Then why don't you wait up here first? I will go down and investigate, then you can come down."

Xu Jingxin looked at the dark surroundings and shook her head again.

Ye Feng was a little angry. "Women are so troublesome. If I had known earlier, I would not have brought you here."

"You can't do this, you can't do that, and you still want to find King Xiang's secret treasure? I think you should go home and give birth."

Xu Jingxin was provoked by him and her temper flared up.

She walked up to him and wrapped her arms around his neck. Her long legs wrapped around his waist like an octopus.

"Is this okay?"

This sudden intimate gesture made Ye Feng feel a little helpless.

He had never tried this before!

Chapter 837 - 837 Bullsh*t, Where the F*ck Is There a Ghost In This World?

837 Bullsh*t, Where the F*ck Is There a Ghost In This World?

Fortunately, Ye Feng kept in mind the purpose of this trip, he was not blinded by beauty... At most, he would be dizzy for a moment and quickly wake up.

Then, he began to follow the rope down into the well.

Xu Jingxin was a little nervous at first, but when she felt the warmth from Ye Feng's body, she calmed down.

The fear in her heart lessened slightly, but other thoughts appeared again.

It was very quiet in the well. There was only the sound of their panting, which made her blush a little.

This was the first time she had been in such an ambiguous position with a man. Fortunately, it was dark in the well, or she would have died of embarrassment.

Ye Feng had already prepared a flashlight in advance. He was about to take it out and turn it on.

At this moment, he suddenly heard a few deep conversations coming from outside.

The two of them were shocked. Could it be that they had been discovered by the security personnel here?

But Ye Feng quickly heard their conversation.

“Third Brother, you called us all the way here just to come here? Is there really treasure in this godforsaken place?”

“You don’t understand. Do you know what this place is?”

“Isn’t it Chang’s old residence? Who doesn’t know?”

“It’s Ding Richang. Do you know what he does?”

“I don’t care what he does. What does it have to do with me?”

“This old thing was a corrupt official when he was alive. It’s said that his family had so much money that they couldn’t spend it all in a few lifetimes. Do you think he has hidden a treasure in the courtyard?”

“Third Brother, don’t joke around. Who would hide money in the courtyard?”

“That’s right. If we want to hide, we should hide in the graveyard. We should dig his grave instead of coming here.”

“You two are so scared when you came here. How dare you go to the tomb? Alright, cut the crap. Hurry up and look around to see if there’s anything valuable.”

Immediately after, they heard rummaging sounds coming from outside, and from time to time, a few flashlights flashed.

Ye Feng relied on the strength of his legs to support himself against the wall of the well. He frowned and pondered.

“Do you think they will come here?” Xu Jingxin was a little nervous.

“Probably not.” Ye Feng shook his head with uncertainty.

However, the more they feared, the more it came true. At this moment, they heard another conversation outside.

“Why is there a rope here?”

“It looks new. Did someone drill into the well?”

“Who would go into a well in the middle of the night?”

“I didn’t say it was drilled at night. It might have drilled in during the day and forgotten to take it away when it came out.”

“How about... Shall we go down and take a look? What if there’s some treasure inside?”

“Hehe, what if there’s a ghost inside? Haven’t you watched horror movies? Many female ghosts with disheveled hair came out of the well.”

“It’s late at night. Can’t you say something else? I’m already scared enough, and you’re still talking about ghosts?”

“Look at your guts. You won’t be able to make a fortune in this lifetime. I haven’t touched a woman for a few days. If there’s really a female ghost, I’ll have a good time first.”

“You’re too f*cking inhumane. You won’t even let a female ghost off.”

“If I’m desperate, I won’t even let a sow off, let alone a female ghost.”

“It just so happens that I need to pee a little. I’ll try to pee inside first. Even if there’s a female ghost, I can drown her to death.”

As soon as this voice sounded, Ye Feng heard the sound of pants being unbuttoned from outside the well.

Xu Jingxin was anxious. She looked at Ye Feng in panic. “What should we do?”

Ye Feng could not help but grit his teeth. These two b*stards were too hateful. Why did they have to come here to pee in such a huge courtyard?

Just as he was about to rush out and get rid of these three b*stards, his eyes suddenly turned and a bad idea popped up.

Then, he whispered a few words into Xu Jingxin’s ear.

Xu Jingxin refused at first, but if she dragged it on, the two b*stards above would really pee in. Then, she would even have the heart to die.

After hesitating for a moment, she finally nodded.

The two people outside were smoking and untying their belts, about to pee inside.

At this moment, a woman's voice suddenly came from the well. "Give me back my life..."

The sound was very mournful. Coupled with the sound amplification effect of the well, it seemed even more strange.

Especially in such a dark place, it was really scary.

The two of them shuddered, and a chill ran down their spines and into their skulls. The urge to pee that was about to spurt out was immediately suppressed.

"Oh my god, a ghost!"

One of them immediately screamed and ran back.

The other one was even worse off. His legs went soft and he directly knelt on the ground. His crotch was instantly wet.

The person who was rummaging around was also shocked. He hurriedly turned around and asked, "What's wrong?"

The person who had escaped said in a trembling voice, "Third... Third Brother, a ghost... There's a ghost..."

That 'Third Brother' immediately slapped him. "Bullsh*t, where the f*ck are the ghosts in this world? I'm a materialist..."

Before he could finish, he saw a woman with disheveled hair emerging from the well.

To be precise, it floated out.

Because her hands were hanging vertically and floating out.

Her long hair covered her entire face, and she was wearing a long white dress that was very eye-catching in the middle of the night.

"Ah..."

"Ah..."

"Ah..."

Three screams sounded almost at the same time. The three thieves immediately fled in panic.

“Who are you? Why did you disturb my sleep? Since you’re here, don’t even think about leaving...”

The voice of the ‘female ghost’ became more and more shrill. The three of them were scared out of their wits and rushed toward the courtyard wall.

When a person was forced into a corner, they would be able to unleash unimaginable potential.

When the three of them climbed over the wall, it took them quite a while. However, now, they only needed to tap lightly on the wall and grab the edge of the wall. Then, their bodies rushed up and directly climbed over the wall.

After jumping out of the courtyard, the three of them still did not dare to breathe for a moment and rushed forward desperately.

What was the safest place to be in danger?

Of course, it was the Office of Personnel.

Near Ding Richang's former residence, there was a tolerance hall.

The three of them rushed in without any hesitation.

Chapter 838 - 838 Could It Be That He Had Really Seen a Ghost?

838 Could It Be That He Had Really Seen a Ghost?

There were a few officers on night duty in the office when they suddenly saw the three of them rush in.

Two of them lost their shoes and two peed in their pants. The smell of urine immediately wafted into the room.

The few officers were a little dumbfounded. Just as they were about to go forward and ask, they heard the three of them mutter, "Ghost... Ghost, there's a ghost..."

The few officers looked at each other suspiciously.

One of the men, who looked like a leader, hurriedly walked up to the three of them. "What exactly happened to you? Can you explain it in detail?"

The 'Third Brother' hurriedly grabbed his arm. "It's Ding Richang's old residence. There's a ghost in there!"

The officer immediately looked suspicious. “Ding Richang’s former residence? What are you doing there so late at night?”

Third Brother could not care less about lying at this moment. He hurriedly told the truth, “We’re going inside to see if we can find anything valuable.”

“But just as we were searching, we suddenly saw a female ghost floating out of the well with disheveled hair...”

When he said this, his face suddenly turned pale, as if the female ghost was right in front of him.

The officer frowned. This guy’s words were normal at the beginning, but why did he start to talk nonsense later?

What female ghost? What floated out of the well? It was a mess.

“You just said that you went in to steal things?” The officer immediately caught the main point of his words.

“That’s not the main point. The main point is that there’s a ghost inside,” Third Brother continued to explain.

A smile immediately appeared on the official's face. Although this theft wasn't a big case, no matter how small a fly was, it was still meat. Moreover, it was meat that was delivered to his door. Of course, he would refuse.

"Xiao Chen, Xiao Li, take them to make a statement and let them explain the motive and process of the crime in detail," he immediately ordered the two younger officers beside him.

The two officers immediately walked up and brought the three people to the interrogation room.

When the three of them left, they kept turning around to remind them, "There really is a ghost. You have to believe us..."

It was not until the three of them were taken away that a police officer came over. "Captain Zhou, do you think what they said is true? Ding Richang's former residence really has... a ghost?"

Captain Zhou turned around and glared at him. "They're crazy. Are you crazy too? Don't forget what we do. We're on business."

The officer smiled awkwardly. "I know it's a little ridiculous, but seeing how serious they are, I'm a little nervous."

Captain Zhou snorted. "They have a guilty conscience. They look like ghosts."

The officer immediately flattered him. "Captain Zhou, your words sound a little philosophical. Should we go and take a look?"

Captain Zhou looked at him angrily. "Looking at ghosts? You can go if you want."

With that, he turned around and walked toward the interrogation room.

The officer asked for a snub and could only go back to doze off.

..

At the same time, in the backyard of Ding Richang's old residence, Xu Jingxin had been laughing for a long time.

It was ridiculous to see the three men peeing their pants in fear.

Ye Feng was also affected by her laughter, he laughed for a while. "Look at them, how scared are they? They even lost their shoes."

Xu Jingxin glared at him. "It was your stupid idea!"

Not only did this guy ask her to pretend to be a ghost, but he also deliberately lifted her up and 'floated' out of the well to make it look real.

She felt that she had been led astray by this fellow.

Ye Feng did not mind. "You acted well, especially when you said 'return my life', even I was shocked."

"It's a pity that you're not an actor."

Xu Jingxin didn't realize it at the time, but now that she thought about it, she was really good at acting. She didn't expect that she had the potential to be an actress.

She could not help but feel a little smug.

"Alright, don't be so smug. We still have important things to do." Ye Feng stood up as he spoke, but because of the three thieves, he was delayed for quite some time.

"Do you think they will find more people? Why don't we go back today and come back another day?" Xu Jingxin was still a little worried.

"Don't worry. Even if they have a hundred guts, they won't dare to come again. In the future, when they pass by this place, they will have to take a detour." After Ye Feng finished speaking, he opened his arms again.

This time, there was no need to say anything more. Miss Xu had already skillfully hung herself up, just like a little sloth.

The two of them entered the well again. This well was clearly deeper than they had imagined.

They had already descended more than ten meters, but they had yet to reach the bottom.

Right at this time, Ye Feng suddenly stopped in mid-air and knocked on the wall of the well.

Xu Jingxin was confused. "What's wrong?"

Ye Feng knocked a few more times. "This well wall is hollow."

Xu Jingxin was also a smart person. Her eyes immediately lit up. "Is there something hidden inside?"

Ye Feng did not say much. He took off the shovel on his back. "Break it open."

As he spoke, he began to knock on the wall of the well.

He was very strong, and in a few moves, he broke open the wall of the well made of green bricks.

Hualala...

A pile of green bricks immediately scattered inside, revealing a hidden space.

Ye Feng immediately shone his flashlight inside. He saw two red wooden boxes neatly placed inside.

The red wooden boxes were all one meter square and were locked with copper locks.

“You climb in first.”

Ye Feng immediately pulled Xu Jingxin to the entrance of the hole.

Although Xu Jingxin was shy, she couldn't care less and crawled in first.

Ye Feng followed suit.

Only then did the two of them see the secret room clearly. It was about a dozen square meters in size. Other than these two boxes, there was nothing else.

“This old man Ding is too petty. Such a big treasure vault, he didn’t put more gold and silver treasures, but only put these two broken chests?” Ye Feng could not help but complain.

“Open the box and see what’s inside.” Xu Jingxin’s curiosity was piqued again, and she hurriedly urged him.

Ye Feng could not be bothered to study the structure of the copper lock. He directly swung his shovel and smashed it.

After so many years, the copper lock had already decayed and was immediately smashed down.

He immediately reached out and opened the lid of the box, shining his flashlight inside.

Then, the two of them widened their eyes in unison.

Did they really see a ghost?

Ye Feng and Xu Jingxin’s eyes were about to turn into the shape of gold ingots.

This was because the wooden box was filled with gold ingots.

This scene was too spectacular. At least, the visual impact was very strong.

Ye Feng could be considered a true tycoon now, what he did not lack the most was money.

However, no matter how much money there was, it was not as shocking as gold.

Especially now, there was so much gold here!

Chapter 839 - 839 I've Never Heard Of Them, But I Want To Acquire Them

839 I've Never Heard Of Them, But I Want To Acquire Them

Xu Jingxin reached out and grabbed a gold ingot. She felt that it was heavy. "How many pounds does this one weigh?"

Ye Feng also grabbed one and looked at it. "This is ten taels."

Xu Jingxin looked at him in surprise. "How did you know?"

Ye Feng pointed the bottom of the gold ingot at her. "It's written below."

Xu Jingxin immediately rolled her eyes. She thought that this guy was knowledgeable. "How much can such a gold ingot be worth?"

"I remember that the auction house in Xiangjiang had sold a gold ingot from the Qing Dynasty for about 1.1 million yuan," Ye Feng answered as he opened another box. As expected, it was also a box of gold ingots.

"One of them can be sold for 1.1 million? How many gold ingots are there in this box?" Xu Jingxin's jaw dropped in shock.

"There should be more than 200 in this box." Ye Feng estimated that the two boxes added up to about four to five hundred.

Xu Jingxin calculated and her mouth opened even wider. "In other words, these two boxes of gold ingots can be sold for more than 500 million yuan?"

Ye Feng nodded. "Almost."

Xu Jingxin looked at him with a bewildered expression. "Tell me honestly, how did you know there was a treasure inside?"

This matter was a little unbelievable. The gold was hidden so deeply that no one except the owner of the gold would know.

But Ye Feng knew it. He even found it accurately.

This simply couldn't be explained with common sense.

"Are you sure you want to hear it?" Ye Feng looked at her faintly.

This gaze immediately made Xu Jingxin's hair stand on end.

She had heard and seen many stories of people killing each other after finding the treasure because of the uneven distribution of the spoils.

Although she did not plan to split the gold and knew that Ye Feng would not harm her, she was still shocked.

"Hahaha, I'm just joking with you. Actually, I accidentally got the news, so I wanted to try my luck. I didn't expect to really find it." Ye Feng immediately regained his smile. He casually gave a perfunctory reply.

With Xu Jingxin's intelligence, she naturally knew that he was lying, but since he didn't want to say it, she didn't bother to ask.

“So many gold ingots, how are we going to get them up?”

“I brought a woven bag.”

Ye Feng took out the woven bag that he had prepared beforehand, and the two of them started to store the gold ingots inside.

This was because the quality of this woven bag was worrying. One could not contain too much, or it would easily tear.

The two of them counted as they packed. In the end, each bag contained a hundred gold ingots, a total of five bags.

The two of them added up to a total of 500 gold ingots, not one more nor one less.

Ye Feng was very satisfied with the harvest of this operation. He smiled and said to Xu Jingxin: “I will go up first, you tie these woven bags to the rope.”

Xu Jingxin hesitated. “Are you leaving me here alone?”

Ye Feng placed his hand on her shoulder. "You are no longer that young lady, you are now an explorer."

"An explorer must first have a brave heart. I believe you can do it."

With that, he walked out of the secret room and climbed up the rope.

Xu Jingxin encouraged herself, but she still felt a little scared.

She couldn't help but laugh at herself. It seemed that she was a little too fond of dragons.

In the past, she had been looking forward to going out to explore every day, now that she finally had the chance, she was so afraid. No wonder Ye Feng would laugh at her.

Thinking of this, she immediately dispelled the fear in her heart. She walked over and tied the woven bag, before pulling the rope to inform Ye Feng.

The woven bag that contained a hundred gold ingots was quickly carried up by Ye Feng.

The two of them cooperated very well. In a short while, they had transported all five woven bags out.

Finally, Ye Feng used a rope to pull Xu Jingxin up.

After this ordeal, their heads and bodies were covered in dirt and dust, just like two mice.

The two of them looked at each other's sorry state and immediately lay down at the well and laughed heartily.

Although they did not encounter any danger during this treasure hunt, it still made the two of them feel like comrades.

Ye Feng, thank you."

"Thank me for what?"

"I've always wanted to be an explorer, but I've never been able to find the opportunity. You can be considered my guide and helped me take the first step."

"If your brother finds out, he'll probably skin me alive, right?"

"Haha, don't worry, I'll protect you."

“Then you have to keep your word.”

“Then how much do you plan to give me from this harvest?”

“I just made so much money with you yesterday. Let’s not split it this time, shall we?”

“That’s another matter. I’ve helped you a lot this time. If I hadn’t pretended to be a ghost to scare them, you would have been discovered.”

“Alright, this is your first adventure after all. I’ll give you a gold ingot as a souvenir.”

“Hmph, stingy!”

The two of them continued to chat. For some reason, they did not want to ruin the atmosphere too early.

Right at this time, Ye Feng heard a system notification: [Congratulations to the host for completing the treasure hunt mission. Reward: Shennong Pharmaceutical Group, valued at 6.5 billion...]

When Ye Feng heard this reward, he was stunned.

This was the real reward. Compared to this reward, the 500 gold ingots were just an appetizer.

“Jingxin, have you heard of Shennong Pharmaceutical Group?” he suddenly asked.

Xu Jingxin was immersed in the sweet atmosphere when he suddenly interrupted her. She was a little unhappy. “I’ve never heard of it. What’s wrong?”

“I haven’t heard of them either, but I want to buy them.”

“...”

Xu Jingxin felt that this guy’s thoughts were too jumpy. She could not keep up with the rhythm at all.

He had not even heard of the company’s name, and he wanted to acquire it?

Only Mr. Ye could do such a strange thing.

Chapter 840 - 840 It's Really Blinding!

840 It's Really Blinding!

On the other side, the atmosphere in the meeting room of Sotheby's Yang Cheng branch wasn't very harmonious.

William Smith, a director from the headquarters in China, was yelling at everyone in broken Mandarin.

"I don't know how you guys do your job. Why did your performance in the second half of this year decline so badly? I need you to give me an explanation."

The senior executives of the Yang Cheng branch kept their mouths shut and allowed him to reprimand them.

Seeing that no one spoke, William Smith immediately turned to look at Chen Qiushan, who was sitting on his left.

"Chen, the reason why you transferred from Zhonghai to Yang Cheng was to solve the problem of declining performance. But what have you been doing all this time? Why didn't I see your results?"

Chen Qiushan knew that he couldn't avoid his question, so he had to speak carefully.

"Director Smith, please understand. After all, Yang Cheng is a small place and does not have many items for auction. The head office sends all the good stuff to Xiangjiang and never cares about us. In order to get the auction item, I had to find a friend to help me. I really can't take out more..."

Smith didn't wait for him to finish. He raised his hand and interrupted him. "I don't want to hear these excuses. Just tell me, what solution do you have?"

Chen Qiushan frowned. "The main reason for the decline in sales is that the auction house has been auctioning antiques, paintings, and the like recently. There's nothing new. Those old customers are not paying. If we want to solve it, we have to find something new."

Smith was not satisfied with his answer. "Did you find it?"

Chen Qiushan couldn't help but laugh coldly. "How can it be that easy? The head office has never paid any attention to our Yang Cheng branch. All they know is to let us show our performance..."

Bang!

Smith slammed the table and glared at him. "Don't push all the responsibility to the head office. If everything depends on the head office, what do I need you for? It would be better to put a few pigs here."

When the executives present heard his words, their expressions turned ugly, but they did not dare to say anything.

However, Chen Qiushan was not used to his bad habits. He slammed the table and stood up. "If the head office is always so biased, putting all the good things in other branches for auction and ignoring us, then what do we need the head office for?"

His words immediately shocked everyone present. These words were already equivalent to a 'rebellion'. It was a great treason.

Smith also stood up slowly and looked at Chen Qiushan coldly. "Chen, you'd better take back your words. Otherwise, I'll report this to the head office. Do you know what the consequences will be?"

Chen Qiushan snorted coldly. "You can report whatever you want. Anyway, that's what I'm saying."

"If you want me to solve the problem, fine, but you can't push all the sh*t onto me and my subordinates."

Smith was about to say something when someone knocked on the conference room door. Chen Qiushan's assistant poked his head in.

"President Chen, Mr. Ye called and asked you to go to the hospital. He has a batch of treasures that he wants to hand over to our auction house for auction."

Chen Qiushan nodded. "Alright, arrange a car for me immediately. I'll be right there."

Smith immediately stopped him. "Chen, our problem hasn't been solved yet. Where are you going?"

Chen Qiushan suppressed his anger and looked at him. "Didn't you want to solve the problem? Can't I find someone who can help us solve the problem now?"

"If not for my friend's help, the branch's performance would have been even worse."

Smith stared at him for a moment. "I'll go with you. I'd like to see what's so special about this friend of yours."

Chen Qiushan couldn't be bothered to waste his breath on him. "If you want to follow me, I won't stop you. However, my friend has a bad temper. If you dare to speak to him in the same tone as before, I can guarantee that he won't chase you out."

With that, he walked out of the meeting room.

Smith sneered and immediately followed.

He was now very suspicious that Chen Qiushan was a traitor and deliberately put some good things that should have belonged to Sotheby's to other auction houses for profit.

Perhaps his friend had played a big role in this.

He followed them this time because he wanted to see what tricks the two of them were up to.

..

Ye Feng was talking to Xu Jingxin about what happened last night.

At this moment, the door of the ward was suddenly pushed open, and Chen Qiushan walked in quickly. "Brother Ye, why didn't you tell me you were hospitalized?"

"If you hadn't called me today, I wouldn't have known that you were hospitalized."

Smith followed behind him. When he saw Ye Feng lying on the bed, he started to look down on him.

He was too young. This kind of young man probably hadn't graduated from university yet. What good things could he bring out?

Chen Qiushan had placed all his hopes on this person. No wonder the branch's performance kept declining.

Ye Feng immediately stood up to welcome him. "Brother Chen, you're too kind, I'm fine now. I could have been discharged a long time ago, I just couldn't be bothered to move."

Chen Qiushan was instantly defeated by his reason. He then chatted with him for a while before getting to the main topic.

“You just told my assistant that you have a batch of treasures that you want to auction off at our auction house? What kind of treasure is it?”

Ye Feng purposely kept him in suspense. He did not answer him immediately. Instead, he gave Xu Jingxin a look.

When Xu Jingxin was in front of outsiders, she was very respectful to him and immediately acted as his assistant.

She pulled out a woven bag from under the bed.

Smith had been looking forward to it, but when he saw the ugly woven bag, he no longer had any expectations.

He even felt like he was being toyed with. He glared at Ye Feng hatefully.

Chen Qiushan did not mind. He understood Ye Feng very well. If it was just an ordinary treasure, he would not let him take it personally.

He immediately pulled open the zipper of the woven bag bit by bit.

Then, a pile of shiny gold ingots appeared in front of him.

He hurriedly closed his eyes to catch his breath before opening them again, his face filled with disbelief.

This was really blinding!

Actually, gold ingots were not considered rare.

Both Chen Qiushan and Smith were used to such things.

But it couldn't withstand the large quantity!

The gold ingots that they had seen before were all single, but there was a huge pile in this tattered woven bag. There were at least a hundred of them, just like cabbages.

This shocked them.

Smith was even more excited than Chen Qiushan. He hurriedly rushed over and grabbed a gold ingot. After examining it carefully, he was sure that it was authentic.

“Oh, my god! It was all real? I can’t believe my eyes.”

When he looked at Ye Feng again, he no longer looked down on him. Instead, he was filled with curiosity. Where did this young man get so many gold ingots?
