Chapter 851 - 851 Are You Staying Alone At Night?

851 Are You Staying Alone At Night?

Just as Ye Feng was about to return to his room after settling the matter here, he saw a man in his thirties walking over quickly.

“Hello, Mr. Ye. I’m the hotel’s deputy manager, Zhang Sheng. On behalf of the hotel, I would like to express my deep apologies to you. Don’t worry, we will definitely deal with this matter seriously.”

The moment this man walked over, he held Ye Feng’s hands tightly. His face was filled with righteousness.

But Ye Feng was sneering in his heart. This Deputy Manager Zhang had already arrived, but he had been hiding far away. Did he think that he did not see it?

Now that the matter was over and the manager was about to be fired, he ran out eagerly.

This should be called the mantis stalking the cicada, unaware of the oriole behind, right?

But Ye Feng did not dislike such scheming people. This was a way to protect himself.

At least this person was smart enough to not rush over to be cannon fodder.

“Deputy Manager Zhang should be promoted soon, right? Then I’ll congratulate you in advance.”

Ye Feng had a gentle smile on his face as he congratulated Zhang Sheng.

The hotel manager, who was still kneeling on the ground like a dead dog, glared fiercely at Zhang Sheng.

He had already offended them, and now he was here to pick the fruit. He was simply going too far.

However, he was also very clear that his position as a manager was at an end. Zhang Sheng was very likely to take over his position, and the fate of the two would change drastically.

When Zhang Sheng heard Ye Feng’s congratulations, he immediately showed a fawning attitude. “Even if I can get promoted, it is all thanks to Mr. Ye. If you are not satisfied with our hotel’s service, you can tell me. I will do my best to satisfy your requirements.”

Saying so, he took out a name card from his pocket and handed it to Ye Feng.

One should not hit a smiling person, Ye Feng accepted his goodwill. "Then thank you, Manager Zhang. I have nothing to be dissatisfied with for the time being. If there's nothing else, I'll go back to my room first."

After receiving the name card, Ye Feng immediately went to his room.

Zhang Sheng rolled his eyes and hurriedly walked to the female elevator specialist and whispered a few words into her ear.

After the girl heard this, her face turned red. She turned to look at Ye Feng's back, feeling a little embarrassed.

Zhang Sheng hurriedly pushed her. "Mr. Ye saved you. Shouldn't you repay him?"

"Besides, a young, handsome, capable man like Mr. Ye who abhors evil like an enemy, how can you suffer?"

That girl hesitated for a moment, but in the end, she turned around and chased after Ye Feng.

Zhang Sheng rubbed his hands excitedly. Even Smith, a senior executive in Sotheby's China, respected this young man.

If he could curry favor with him, he might really be able to hug a golden thigh.

The moment Ye Feng left, the onlookers started to disperse. They were still talking about what had just happened in a low voice, and their expressions were a little excited.

They would probably be able to brag about this for a long time.

Smith waited for everyone to disperse before turning to wave at Bryce. "Go back to your room first. I'll talk to you later. Anyway, you can't cause trouble for me again."

Bryce glared at him, obviously dissatisfied with the way he handled the situation today.

Then, without saying a word, he left with the Chinese girl in his arms.

..

Ye Feng had just walked to his room and was about to open the door when he suddenly realized that the female elevator specialist had followed him.

He could only stop and ask, "Is there anything else?"

The girl was obviously a little embarrassed. "I really have to thank Mr. Ye for saving me today. If it weren't for you, I wouldn't know what to do."

Ye Feng waved his hand casually. "No need to thank me, it was just a small matter. No matter who it is, I will not stand by and watch."

The girl nodded and mustered her courage to ask, "Mr. Ye, are you staying alone tonight?"

Ye Feng did not know why she asked this question, but he still nodded honestly. "Yes, what's wrong?"

The girl bit her lower lip. "If... If Mr. Ye doesn't mind, I'll... I can stay."

She was already making it clear. How could Ye Feng not understand what she meant? His expression darkened. "You don't think that I saved you because I wanted to covet your beauty, right?"

The girl panicked and waved her hand hurriedly. "I didn't mean that. I just... I just feel that I can't repay you for saving me..."

Ye Feng looked at her panicked expression and immediately asked, "Did that Manager Zhang ask you to come?"

The girl was stunned. "You... How do you know?"

Ye Feng immediately snorted. That Manager Zhang was obviously trying to please him, and then he used this girl's gratitude to him to get her to come over and 'sleep with him'.

"Go back and tell him that if he continues to play such dirty tricks, he can forget about being the manager."

The girl nodded in fear. She admired Ye Feng's actions as a gentleman.

But at the same time, she was a little unwilling. Was it because she was not charming enough that the other party did not like her?

"Alright, don't let your imagination run wild. Hurry up and go back."

Ye Feng immediately ordered her to leave.

Chapter 852 - 852 It's Worse Than Death!

852 It's Worse Than Death!

The girl could only nod and leave.

Ye Feng looked at her graceful back and felt a trace of regret.

To be precise, this girl was not bad looking. Although she could not compare to top-notch beauties like Xu Jingxin and Zhuang Xiaojiao, she was still above average.

What was even rarer was that she had a good figure. Otherwise, she wouldn't have aroused Bryce's evil thoughts.

In addition, she was the one who came to his door. It was really a pity to be rejected by him like this.

However, he was only sentimental and not promiscuous. If he accepted every woman who came to his door, what kind of person would he be? A stallion?

He smiled and shook his head, then turned around and returned to his room.

'Yes, I'll call Feng Jianwu immediately and ask her to come over tonight to discuss the profoundness of martial arts.'

..

After Bryce returned to his room, he lost his temper again.

Today's incident could be said to be the greatest humiliation he had ever suffered in his life. He actually knelt down to a lowly Chinese person. Now, just thinking about it made him gnash his teeth in hatred.

"Mr. Bryce, why are you so calculative with those lowly Chinese people? It's not good to be angry."

The Chinese woman took the initiative to stick to him and kept rubbing against him.

Bryce lowered his head and glanced at her. "Aren't you from China? Does that mean you are also very lowly?"

The woman immediately smiled obsequiously. "I'm fated to be born here. My parents gave me no choice."

"But my heart doesn't belong here."

As she spoke, she took the initiative to pull open her collar.

Bryce looked at the white inside and immediately pressed her down on the sofa, ready to lash out at her.

The woman let out a seductive laugh and even took off her clothes.

However, after waiting for a long time, she did not see him come. She immediately looked over in confusion.

It was as if Bryce was standing there with a gloomy expression, but he did not make any further moves.

“Mr. Bryce, what’s wrong?”

The woman immediately took the initiative to lean over.

The woman took the initiative to approach him again. “It’s okay, Mr. Bryce. You’re probably angry with that little b*stard, so you’re not in the right state. You might be fine tomorrow.”

She wanted to find an excuse for Bryce and not embarrass him too much.

But Bryce was in a frenzy right now. He immediately slapped her. “You b*tch, are you mocking me?”

The woman took a solid slap, but she did not dare to be unhappy at all. She hurriedly explained, “Mr. Bryce, that’s not what I meant. I just wanted to say...”

Before she could finish her sentence, Bryce slapped her again. “How dare a lowly Chinese sow laugh at me?”

The more he spoke, the angrier he got. In an instant, the anger he felt from Ye Feng and the fear of his lower body suddenly losing its function erupted at the same time. He punched the woman's face one punch after another.

The woman's face, which she had spent a lot of money on, was soon beaten beyond recognition.

At first, she kept begging, but soon she stopped breathing. She probably fainted.

Bryce threw her aside like trash, then hurriedly put on his clothes and rushed to the hospital.

..

After Ye Feng returned to his room, he went to take a shower. He had not cleaned himself properly in the hospital these two days, and his body was starting to smell.

After washing up, he immediately walked out refreshed and was about to turn on the television to watch for a while.

At this moment, his gaze suddenly froze.

He found that the drawer of the TV cabinet was not completely closed, but there was a gap of about half a centimeter.

If it was someone else, they definitely wouldn't be able to see anything unusual.

However, his memory was amazing. He clearly remembered that when he left, the drawer was completely closed.

There was only one possibility. Someone had entered his room.

Not good!

He suddenly realized something, and a layer of cold sweat broke out on his back due to fear.

The other party had entered his room, so they must have stolen in. However, his belongings were not lost, which was why he did not notice it immediately.

Since the other party was not here for the money, it meant that they had other intentions... King Xiang's treasure map!

He had hidden the six King Xiang's secret treasure maps in a few secret places just to be safe.

Realizing the other party's goal, he hurriedly took out the fragments. Five of them were safe and sound.

However, when he laid down the sofa and was about to take out the fragment stuck to the bottom of the sofa, he found that the fragment hidden there had disappeared.

This discovery made him break out in cold sweat.

He was about to complete the small goal of 10 billion and upgrade the deep scanning function. Then, he could go and find King Xiang's secret treasure.

However, at this critical moment, the treasure map was lost.

He forced himself to calm down and think of any possibility.

The final conclusion was that the thief had probably left not long ago.

From the fact that the other party did not leave any traces behind, it was obvious that the person was an expert.

Since they were an expert, if they could find one of them, they would definitely be able to find the other fragments.

Then why did they only take one piece?

There was only one possibility, and that was that there was not enough time.

It was very likely that the thief was looking for the treasure map just now. At this time, he just happened to rush back and had a conflict with Bryce outside, which inadvertently stopped the thief's actions.

Since he lived on the ninth floor, it was impossible for the other party to jump out of the window and escape. They could only leave through the corridor.

At that time, there were a lot of people outside to watch the show. It was very likely that they had escaped during the chaos.

After sorting this out, Ye Feng immediately put on his clothes and left the room.

There were surveillance cameras in the corridors, and he could check from the security room.

He had to find this person as soon as possible. He could not give them the chance to escape from Yang Cheng. Otherwise, it would be like a stone sinking into the sea and there would be no news.

When he arrived at the security room on the first floor, a few security guards were playing cards inside. The entire room was filled with smoke.

Ye Feng pushed the door open with a bang and frowned at them: "Who is in charge here?"

When the security guards saw that he was dressed in branded clothes and had an extraordinary aura, they thought that some leader had come. They hurriedly threw down the poker cards in their hands and threw the cigarette butt on the ground to extinguish it.

One of the men with a slanted hat and disheveled clothes hurriedly stood up. As he buttoned his shirt, he replied respectfully, "I'm the captain. You... What can I do for you?"

Ye Feng directly stated his intention. "I lost something, I want to check the surveillance cameras."

The security guards who were originally panicking looked at him dumbfoundedly.

Not a leader?

..

"You... Aren't you the leader?" The security captain looked at him suspiciously.

“Do I look like a leader to you?” Ye Feng did not know whether to laugh or cry.

The security captain immediately heaved a sigh of relief and glared at him. “You’re not the leader. Where did you get your authority from? You scared me.”

Ye Feng was also speechless. You can’t blame me for having a good temperament, right?

The security captain sat down on the chair and took a sip of tea to calm himself down. Then, he looked at him from the corner of his eyes. “What did you lose? Is it expensive?”

“...”

Chapter 853 - 853 Where Did He Get Such Prestige From?

853 Where Did He Get Such Prestige From?

Ye Feng was stumped. He really did not know how to answer this question.

King Xiang’s treasure map was of course very valuable, but if he said “I lost a treasure map” directly, he would probably be treated as a fool, right?

“Is it important whether it’s expensive or not?”

The security captain said impatiently, "If it's expensive, you can call the Office of Personnel and ask them to come over and check the surveillance cameras."

"If it's not valuable, then there's no need to find it."

Ye Feng frowned. "Although it is not very valuable, it is very important to me. I hope you can make an exception."

As he spoke, he took out a few bills from his pocket and stuffed them into his hand.

The security captain's eyes lit up and he stuffed the money into his pocket, but he still shook his head. "No, not everyone can see this surveillance camera. We have to protect the privacy of our guests."

Ye Feng was a little anxious. He did not have the time to waste on him. He directly stuffed all the cash he had into his hands. "Can you let me see it now?"

The stack of notes was worth at least a few thousand dollars. The security guard's eyes were wide open. "Rich people are really different. Just a casual move is equivalent to my monthly salary."

Ye Feng did not have much patience. "I suspect that the thief has not left for too long. Quickly investigate for me, I am anxious."

The security captain still looked at him calmly. "Are you in a hurry? Then this bit of money won't be enough."

"If the higher-ups find out that I let you see the surveillance footage in private, I won't be able to bear the consequences. You should at least give me tens of thousands of yuan."

He clearly saw that Ye Feng was very rich and was in a hurry, he wanted to ask for an exorbitant price.

Ye Feng held back his anger and nodded, "No problem, but I don't have that much money on me now, let me take a look at the surveillance footage first. After I catch the thief, I will definitely make it up to you."

The security captain immediately sneered. "Do you really take me for a fool? When you catch them, will you even spare us a second glance?"

"If you want to see the surveillance footage, you can. First, bring me 100,000 yuan. Otherwise, go back to where you came from."

Ye Feng's expression darkened. "Are you sure you don't want me to investigate?"

When the security captain heard that he dared to threaten him, he immediately sneered. "Are you trying to scare me? Then I'll say it here. I won't let you investigate. No matter who comes, it won't work."

He had had enough of the rich people's cowardice. Today, he finally had the chance to take them down. He felt indescribably comfortable.

Ye Feng did not waste any more words with him. He took out his phone and called Deputy Manager Zhang.

..

Zhang Sheng was talking in the General Manager's office.

According to General Manager Qiu Rui, the original Manager Huang Xiang had been fired and the hotel was considering a new manager.

As the deputy manager of the hotel, he was also on the list of candidates.

However, because he was too inexperienced and did not have any strong backing, his chances were very slim.

Zhang Sheng's mood was at rock bottom when he suddenly received a call from Ye Feng.

His eyes lit up, and he hurriedly said to Qiu Rui, "General Manager Qiu, that Mr. Ye called me. It's probably something urgent. Do you think I should answer it?"

Qiu Rui was shocked. "That Mr. Ye called you? Of course, you have to accept it. You have to ask him if he has any requests and try your best to satisfy them."

Mr. Ye was someone that even a foreign company executive like Smith was afraid of. Clearly, he had a powerful background.

Zhang Sheng immediately pulled out the tiger skin and said with a meaningful expression, "This Mr. Ye is very sure of my ability to work. He even said that the position of manager is probably mine. Haha, I know he's joking."

General Manager Qiu's expression changed. If this distinguished guest said so, then he had to reconsider the manager position.

Zhang Sheng saw that he had achieved his goal, so he hurriedly walked out of the office and picked up the phone.

But when he heard Ye Feng's words, his expression changed drastically. He hurriedly rushed toward the security room.

When he rushed to the security room in a hurry, he saw the group of security guards playing cards by themselves. The honorable Mr. Ye was ignored by everyone.

He was instantly annoyed and kicked the door open.

The security captain immediately cursed, "Another f*cking crazy one? You don't have hands..."

As he spoke, he turned around and saw Zhang Sheng's dark face. He was shocked.

He hurriedly threw away the cigarette in his mouth and got up from the ground. "Deputy Manager Zhang, why are you here?"

He was also well-informed. He heard that the original manager, Xiang Huang, had offended a distinguished guest and had been fired by the hotel.

This Deputy Manager Zhang was very likely to be promoted to manager, so he had to be careful.

Zhang Sheng walked in with a dark face. "Who allowed you to play cards during working hours? Everyone who participated in the game today will have their wages deducted by 200 yuan."

The faces of the group of security guards changed drastically. Their monthly salary was only two to three thousand yuan. Two hundred yuan was enough to cover several days of salary.

The security captain hurriedly put on a fawning smile. "Manager Zhang, our brothers were bored, so we played a few rounds."

“Don’t worry, we won’t affect our work.”

When Zhang Sheng heard his words, he became even angrier. “It won’t affect work? The customer has lost something, and you still dare to say that it won’t affect your work?”

The security captain immediately looked at Ye Feng who was standing at the side. So this guy was calling Deputy Manager Zhang?

If you had said earlier that you knew Deputy Manager Zhang, wouldn’t there be so many problems?

He was cursing in his heart when Zhang Sheng’s next sentence made him feel as if he had fallen into an ice cave.

“Do you know that Mr. Ye is a VIP of our hotel? Xiang Huang was just fired because he offended Mr. Ye. Do you want to get lost with him?”

The security captain’s legs gave way and he almost fell.

Chapter 854 - 854 I’ll Help You Find It Even If I Dig Three Feet Deep

854 I’ll Help You Find It Even If I Dig Three Feet Deep

The security captain never dreamed that the VIP that Manager Huang had offended was actually this young man.

If he had known earlier, he would not have made things difficult for the other party. He would have worshipped the other party as his grandfather.

It was mainly because the few security guards who followed Manager Huang to make things difficult for Ye Feng were also fired. If these people were still here, they would have recognized Ye Feng immediately.

“Ye... Mr. Ye...”

He forced a smile with difficulty. He wanted to apologize to Ye Feng.

But Ye Feng could not be bothered to waste time with him. “Stop talking nonsense, quickly check the surveillance cameras.”

The security captain nodded hurriedly. “Transfer, transfer, transfer immediately!”

As he spoke, he personally went to check the surveillance footage for Ye Feng.

Only then did Zhang Sheng heave a sigh of relief. He turned around and smiled at Ye Feng flatteringly. "Mr. Ye, it's all because that Huang Xiang didn't discipline them in the past, that's why they are so undisciplined."

"If I become the manager, I'll definitely rectify it."

Ye Feng knew what he meant, but he was too lazy to waste time with him. He quickly walked to the monitor.

At this time, the security guard had already checked the surveillance footage of Ye Feng's floor and was checking it carefully.

"There's no need to look at the ones from a few days ago."

Ye Feng saw that they wanted to start investigating from the day he moved in. How long would it take?

The security captain did not dare to say anything more and hurriedly pulled out the surveillance footage for today.

"Hurry up!" Ye Feng ordered.

The security captain hurriedly sped up the video.

But Ye Feng still felt that it was too slow. He took over the mouse and sped up the video to 16x.

The few people in the security room were shocked. What could they see at such a fast speed?

People appeared in the corridor from time to time, but because of the acceleration, they basically flashed past as soon as they appeared, and they could not be seen clearly at all.

But in Ye Feng's eyes, all of this was extremely clear. Everyone's height, body shape, movements, and the color of their clothes were all clear.

Finally, ten minutes before he returned in the afternoon, a man in cleaning attire suddenly appeared in the surveillance camera.

Ye Feng immediately stopped fast-forwarding. He started to observe that person's every move.

The person pushed the cleaning cart and walked at a moderate pace, but his eyes looked left and right from time to time. It was obvious that he was observing the surroundings.

Soon, he arrived at Ye Feng's room, he took out a room card from his pocket and swiped it on the door before entering the room.

Ye Feng immediately turned to look at Zhang Sheng. "Is this cleaner one of your people?"

Zhang Sheng hurriedly shook his head. "No, our cleaners are all women."

"Moreover, you specifically instructed the hotel that no one is allowed to enter your room without your permission, so we didn't arrange for any cleaning staff to be assigned to your room during this period of time."

Ye Feng frowned even more. "Then how did he get my room card?"

Zhang Sheng hurriedly wiped the cold sweat off his forehead. "I'll get someone to investigate right away. I'll definitely give you a satisfactory explanation."

After saying that, he hurriedly walked to the side to make a call.

Ye Feng continued to watch the surveillance footage. After that person entered for about ten minutes, he appeared in the surveillance footage, and then Bryce and the people in the elevator came out.

He already knew what happened after that, so he fast-forwarded it.

It was probably when Smith arrived. As there were more and more people watching, the person finally walked out of his room and escaped in the midst of the chaos. He even walked past him.

At that time, all his attention was on Smith and Bryce, so he didn't notice this person.

After figuring this out, he immediately gritted his teeth in hatred.

At this moment, Zhang Sheng came back after making a call. "Mr. Ye, I've already investigated."

"The front desk said that an employee was absent-minded in the second half of the night yesterday and secretly left his post for half an hour. Someone probably stole the room card from the front desk during this period of time..."

At this point, his face had already turned pale. "Mr. Ye, don't worry. Regarding this matter, our hotel will definitely be responsible to the end."

Ye Feng could not be bothered to vent his anger on them. The other party was obviously not an ordinary thief, plus they were scheming against him. The hotel could not defend against them.

He could only blame himself for being too careless. Perhaps it was because everything had been going smoothly during this period of time that he had become a little careless.

Fortunately, he came back in time. If he had come back a little later, he might have lost King Xiang's secret treasure map.

This could be considered as a lesson for him to be on guard at all times and not let similar incidents happen again.

He copied the video and sent it to Zhao Fulin.

When Zhao Fulin heard about this, he immediately replied: "Don't worry Brother Ye, as long as this person is still in South Guangdong, I will dig three feet underground to help you find him."

After he hung up, he sent Gao Hu a copy of the video.

Cats had their ways, and rats had their ways.

When Gao Hu heard that Mr. Ye had lost something, he was furious. He immediately made a military pledge to Ye Feng, "If I can't find this bastard within 24 hours, I will give my head to Mr. Ye as a chamber pot."

Ye Feng was speechless. Why would I want your head?

"If you find this person, don't kill him. Bring him here and I'll interrogate him personally."

After he hung up the phone, he saw Manager Zhang and the security captain looking at him with pale faces.

They were just by the side, they heard the entire process of Ye Feng's phone call. Only then did they know how terrifying this Mr. Ye was.

Although they didn't know the other party's identity in the first call, since he dared to say something like 'as long as this person is still in South Guangdong Province, I'll dig three feet into the ground to help you find him', it was obvious that he was not an ordinary person.

From this, it could be seen how terrifying Mr. Ye's strength was.

They had never expected that they would be a super big shot!

Chapter 855 - 855 Acquired Shennong Pharmaceutical Company

855 Acquired Shennong Pharmaceutical Company

After leaving the security room, Ye Feng returned to his room.

After putting the remaining 4 pieces of secret treasure map on the tea table and observing them for a while, he took out his mobile phone and took some photos as backup.

Then, he hid the five fragments in some ordinary objects. There was a piece in the magazine on the coffee table, a piece hidden in the pillow, and a piece thrown under the cushion...

The people in the hotel did not dare to enter his room rashly. Those who dared to enter his room, no matter how deep you hid, they would be able to find it. It was better to put them in these ordinary objects. Perhaps it would have a certain confusing effect.

After that, he made a pot of tea and waited for Zhao Fulin and Gao Hu's news.

At this moment, his phone suddenly rang. It was an unknown number.

Ye Feng stared at his phone, countless thoughts flashed through his mind. Could it be the person who stole his fragment? Calling to blackmail? Weren't they too arrogant?

However, when he picked up the phone, the other party's words made him very speechless.

"Hello, is this Mr. Ye Feng? We're from Shennong Pharmaceutical Company. We received news that you've acquired our company. Do you have time to hand over the shares?"

Ye Feng looked at the time. It was only three in the afternoon.

Zhao Fulin and Gao Hu probably wouldn't have any news for a while, so he agreed immediately.

After he returned to the hospital last night, he had already checked the information about Shennong Pharmaceutical Company on the internet.

He knew that this company was a well-known pharmaceutical company in South Guangdong Province. At its peak, it had even become a cultural name card for South Guangdong Province.

Unfortunately, for some unknown reason, the company had been declining over the years. Now, there was basically not much news about this company.

When he arrived at Shennong Pharmaceutical Company, he could feel a gloomy atmosphere.

It was a large courtyard with a few old buildings.

If it was twenty years ago, it might have been good, but in the high-rise Yang Cheng of today, it was a little too shabby.

The security guard at the door could not even see him. He entered the courtyard without any obstruction.

When he entered the main building of the pharmaceutical company, he saw a fat middle-aged woman knitting a sweater at the front desk.

He walked over and asked, "Hello, may I know how to get to the Legal Department?"

"Take the stairs to the third floor and turn right at the second door." The woman didn't even raise her head and replied casually.

Ye Feng did not say much. He went up to the third floor and knocked on a door with a 'Legal Department' sign.

Soon, a man with a sad face came over and opened the door. "You're Mr. Ye, right? Please come in."

When Ye Feng entered the room, he saw a few elderly people sitting on the sofa. There were men and women. The youngest was in his fifties.

When these people saw Ye Feng enter, they frowned at the same time. They felt that he was too young.

The man who opened the door for Ye Feng was the first to introduce himself, "Hello Mr. Ye, my name is Han Ziqiu, I am the manager of Shennong Pharmaceutical Company's Legal Department."

Then, he pointed at the old man sitting in the middle of the sofa. "This is the Chairman and attending physician of Shennong Pharmaceutical Company, Qi Changfeng. This is..."

He introduced them one by one. They were all core leaders of Shennong Pharmaceutical Company.

Ye Feng shook hands with these people, trying his best to appear humble.

However, these people were clearly not very friendly to him.

Especially the chairman, Qi Changfeng, who said directly, "If I had known that the person who bought our company was so young, I would never have agreed."

Ye Feng raised his eyebrows. "Chairman Qi, do you have any concerns? Just say it."

The person sitting next to Qi Changfeng hurriedly tugged at his sleeve, signaling him not to speak nonsense.

But Qi Changfeng did not care about his reminder. He continued to look at Ye Feng without any hesitation.

"I know what you young people are thinking now. You must think that we old things are too pedantic and can't accept new things."

“After you take over Shennong Pharmaceutical Company, I reckon that you will immediately carry out a drastic reform. Whether it’s the management personnel or the operating model, you will have to fully approach Western medicine, right?”

After hearing his question, Ye Feng only smiled faintly. “I don’t have any specific plans for the time being, but since your company has already been acquired by me, there must be a problem with the original model. I do need to make some adjustments...”

Before he could finish, Qi Changfeng was instantly enraged. He slammed the coffee table loudly. “Who said that there’s a problem with our model? It’s clearly you young people who don’t understand the profoundness of Chinese medicine and blindly worship foreign things. Are we the pedantic ones, or are you the pedantic ones?”

It’s not me who’s wrong, but the world?

Ye Feng did not expect him to be so agitated. His expression turned ugly.

He felt that there was nothing wrong with what he said. There were obviously many problems with Shennong Pharmaceutical Company being able to reach the stage of being acquired.

If they did not find the problem and solve it, would they let it continue to lose money?

At this moment, the man sitting next to Qi Changfeng hurriedly eased the atmosphere. “Haha, let’s discuss this later. Let’s finish the handover process first.”

Ye Feng had heard from the introduction that this person was the company's General Manager, Ma Jian. He was in his early fifties and could be considered a young man.

The atmosphere in the room became slightly better after he came out to smooth things over.

Then, everyone began to take over.

Ye Feng was already very familiar with this set of things, but Qi Changfeng and the others were a little confused. They still needed him to remind them of many things.

Just like that, they dragged it out. What could have been done in half an hour was wasted for nearly an hour before it was completed.

"Mr. Ye, it's almost dinner time. Why don't we go and have a meal together?"

Ma Jian immediately suggested after the handover.

However, Qi Changfeng, who was beside him, was clearly not very happy, but he did not say anything.

Ye Feng was about to speak.

At this moment, the door to the room was suddenly pushed open. “Chairman, last month’s performance statistics are out. Our market share in South Guangdong Province has further declined and has fallen below 3%.”

The atmosphere in the room, which had already eased up slightly, fell to freezing point again. Chapter 856 - 856 I Have a Little Immature Suggestion

856 I Have a Little Immature Suggestion

Just as the handover was completed, such news came from the other side. This made all the higher-ups of Shennong Pharmaceutical Company feel embarrassed.

“Hmph, people these days don’t know what’s really good medicine. They only know how to blindly worship foreign things!”

Qi Changfeng felt embarrassed and immediately spoke indignantly.

The other company executives also nodded in agreement.

“Yes, our Chinese patent medicine is cheap and effective, but those people only believe in Western medicine and treat our treasures as waste.”

“Sigh, it’s like Western medicine is spreading to the East. The media and academia are all focused on Western medicine now. Where is the living space for our Chinese medicine?”

“We did not lose in terms of strength, but because of people’s ideologies of worshipping foreign things. Nobody believes in the good things left behind by our ancestors. How pathetic!”

“Hehe, it’s their loss if these people don’t choose our products. When they have a taste of Western medicine, they will know how good Chinese medicine is.”

“Many people actually said that we are pseudoscience. Of course we’re not pseudoscience.”

When the group of old Chinese doctors talked about the current social atmosphere, they all looked indignant.

But no matter how Ye Feng listened to them, he did not hear them reflect on their own problems. They were always picking on the patients, the academic community, and society.

He couldn’t help but shake his head.

In his opinion, these old fellows might be very good Chinese medicine experts, but they were not good managers.

A good business manager should consider how to let users understand their products and how to better promote themselves instead of pushing all the problems to the users when they encounter setbacks.

At this moment, Ma Jian, who had been silent all this while, suddenly interrupted. "I think we should think about how to solve the problem now, not just argue about who should be responsible."

When Ye Feng heard this, he could not help but look at him a few more times. It seemed that this General Manager Ma was an exception among this group of people.

However, the odd one out was often ostracized.

As soon as he finished speaking, he immediately attracted the attention of the others.

"I don't agree with you. Only by figuring out who's responsible can we find a solution to the problem."

"We've already thought of what we should do, but the patient just won't buy it. What can we do?"

"That's right. The packaging of the products has also been changed, the advertisements have been launched, and the prices have been reduced. We've thought of all the ways we should, but no one bought it."

"This is a phenomenon caused by the bad atmosphere in society. The entire Chinese medicine industry is in a slump, and we're not the only one."

“Yeah, so many Chinese medicine companies have closed down in the past few years. It’s already a miracle that only our company is still holding on...”

Ye Feng could not be bothered to listen to their argument. He walked to the side and started reading the documents on the table.

This information was some of Shennong Pharmaceutical’s core secrets, including some drug formulas, as well as the company’s operating model, and so on.

He read things very quickly and could basically read ten lines at a glance.

Half an hour later, the group of people had almost finished arguing. He had a basic understanding of the company’s operating model.

“Everyone, I have a little immature suggestion.”

He put down the documents and turned to look at the group of executives.

Qi Changfeng could not help but laugh. “Little kid, if you don’t investigate, you don’t have the right to speak. You’ve just taken over Shennong Pharmaceutical Company and don’t know the company at all. What useful suggestions can you give?”

Although the others were not as aggressive as him, they did not think that Ye Feng would be able to come up with any valuable ideas.

In order to save the company's declining performance, they had thought of countless methods, but none of them had any effect. This kid's butt hasn't even warmed up yet, and he could already think of a way?

Ye Feng smiled nonchalantly. "Of course, I'm new here, my understanding of the company is definitely not as good as yours. However, I've run a few companies before, so I might be able to provide you with some different insights."

Qi Changfeng sat back on the sofa and took a sip of tea. "Then I'd like to hear Mr. Ye's opinion."

Although he said so, his tone was somewhat disapproving. It was obvious that he did not take this young man, who was about the same age as his grandson, seriously.

The others also took their seats, wanting to hear what he had to say.

Ye Feng patted the documents on the table and said after some deliberation, "I looked at the company's operating model just now. It is still using traditional Chinese medicine consultation. Every pharmacy has a doctor. When patients come to see a doctor, they will prescribe medicine according to their symptoms..."

Before he could finish, Qi Changfeng interrupted him. “What’s wrong with this model? We’ve been operating in this model for decades. We even became the cultural name card of South Guangdong Province. When we were at our peak, you were still playing with urine at home.”

The other executives also laughed out loud, taking advantage of their seniority.

Ye Feng was looked down upon by them, but he did not show any signs of anger. He continued to speak slowly.

“Of course, this model has its advantages, but the disadvantages are also very obvious. The biggest problem is that the standards are not uniform.”

“The doctors in every pharmacy will prescribe medicine to the patients based on their own experience.”

“This creates a problem. The patient might only need two doses of medicine in this pharmacy, but if they change to another pharmacy, they might need three or four doses of medicine.

As these medicinal shops are all under Shennong Pharmaceutical Company, in the long run, it will be a huge blow to our reputation. I wonder if I’m right?”

After he finished speaking, he immediately looked at Qi Changfeng and the others.

Qi Changfeng immediately sneered and said, “How can you measure the number of patients you treat?”

“The patients’ conditions are different. Of course, we have to prescribe the right medicine for them. The dosage will definitely be different.”

Ye Feng smiled lightly. “But we are a pharmaceutical company after all, not a hospital. I think we need to separate medicine from medicine. Those who treat diseases only treat diseases, and those who make medicines only make medicines. If the two are mixed together, it will be impossible to form a scale, let alone compete with others.”

After he finished speaking, the room immediately fell silent. Even Qi Changfeng, who loved to interrupt, did not refute immediately.

Clearly, he had hit the nail on the head.

The senior executives of Shennong Pharmaceutical Company did not expect this young man to be able to hit the nail on the head. They could not help but look at him in a new light.

However, it was a little difficult for them to slap themselves in the face and admit that they had looked down on them just now.

General Manager Ma Jian then asked, “Mr. Ye, what are your specific plans?”

Ye Feng looked at this person a few more times. “My plan is to turn Shennong Pharmaceutical Company into a super large corporation that has the entire Chinese medicine industry chain. This includes the cultivation, planting, and processing of Chinese medicinal herbs, as well as the research and development of drugs, sales network, Chinese medicine hospitals, and so on..."

Chapter 857 - 857 This Prescription Definitely Came From a Famous Doctor!

857 This Prescription Definitely Came From a Famous Doctor!

Those executives were originally looking forward to his plan, but when they heard this, they felt that it was a little ridiculous.

Qi Changfeng interrupted him rudely. "It's understandable for young people to aim too high, but this is not how a company should be run. Do you know how much money you need to do what you said? Where does the money come from? Is the wind blowing?"

Although the others didn't say anything, they basically all had the same intention.

Ye Feng smiled nonchalantly. "I am talking about a long-term plan. As for how to help the company tide over the current difficulties, I think we're already in the industrial era. We can't go down the old path. We must first standardize the prescription so that we can mass produce new drugs that are easy to brew and consume..."

This time, it was the General Manager, Ma Jian, who interrupted him. "Mr. Ye, we have also considered this problem before, but we have no choice but to give up."

Ye Feng raised his eyebrows. "What reason?"

Ma Jian sighed helplessly. "Because the research and development of new drugs takes a long time and the investment is huge, we may not be able to achieve results."

"Shennong Pharmaceutical Company already has a huge problem with our capital chain. We don't have that much money to invest in research and development."

As soon as he finished speaking, Qi Changfeng and the others followed suit.

"Some people really think that we are all old antiques? Don't you know how to be flexible? What a joke."

"It's not that we don't want to change, but the conditions don't allow it. Otherwise, who would be willing to wait for death?"

"We are old, but we are not senile. Of course, we know the benefits of mass production, but what's the use of knowing? Without money for research and development, everything is empty talk."

"If we can really develop a new drug, our Shennong Pharmaceutical Company might have a chance to turn the tables, but who would be willing to invest in our research and development?"

The few of them complained like resentful wives. They were basically saying that Shennong Pharmaceutical could not afford the long-term research and development and the huge investment.

Ye Feng naturally knew this problem.

Many patients complained that the medicine was too expensive, but the pharmaceutical companies were helpless because the initial investment in developing the medicine was huge and took a long time.

Even so, ninety-nine percent of the research and development might not be able to see results, so the cost of research and development was very huge.

The wool came from the sheep. The cost of the early research and development was naturally borne by the patient.

This was why drugs were so expensive and why some pharmaceutical companies would go bankrupt.

Shennong Pharmaceutical Company's biggest predicament now was that the old model could not work, and they did not have the money to try the new model. They could only sit and wait for death.

"You only need to be responsible for the company's transformation. As for the standardized production of the prescription, I'll take care of it."

The moment Ye Feng said this, all the executives stood up in shock.

"Are you serious?" Qi Changfeng looked at Ye Feng suspiciously, wondering if he was just spouting nonsense.

How difficult was it to develop a new drug? He could handle it alone? What kind of joke was this?

Ye Feng only smiled lightly, he took out three pieces of paper from Shennong Pharmaceutical Company's original pharmacy and modified them.

Qi Changfeng walked over impatiently, wanting to check it out.

But Ye Feng kept the three formulas. "It's not that I don't trust everyone, but this involves the company's secrets. Each of you must sign a confidentiality agreement first. You must promise not to leak the formulas before I can show them to you."

Qi Changfeng and the others were a little unhappy when they saw how he did not trust them.

However, they were all obsessed with medicine and wanted to see what his new prescription could do, so they had to sign a confidentiality agreement.

Only then did Ye Fan hand over the three prescriptions to them. Not only were the names of the medicinal herbs written on the prescriptions, but there was also the processing technology of each medicinal herb, as well as the proportion of the medicinal herbs, and so on.

Qi Changfeng and the others immediately saw that these three prescriptions were for colds, bruises, and digestion.

The cold medicine would be made into granules, the medicine for bruises would be made into plasters and band-aids, and the medicine for digestion would be made into tablets.

When they finished reading the first prescription, they were already shocked.

They had been immersed in traditional Chinese medicine for decades and had an unparalleled understanding of its medicinal properties.

Ye Feng's prescription was completely in line with the medical theory, and the usage of the medicine was very imaginative, but after thinking about it, it was reasonable. Some of the medicines were simply a stroke of genius.

"Oh my god, why didn't I think of adding bezoar and agastache into this prescription before? This is simply a stroke of genius!"

"Indeed, this prescription is really too wonderful. No wonder I always felt that this prescription seemed to be missing something. Today, I finally understand."

"After reading this prescription, I realized that I had read all the medical books in the past. Why didn't I think of that?"

"This prescription is definitely from a famous doctor!"

It was like a person obsessed with calligraphy suddenly seeing Wang Xizhi's handwriting. It was also like a person who was obsessed with martial arts and suddenly obtained a martial arts secret manual.

One could imagine how shocked they were at this moment.

A moment later, Qi Changfeng looked at Ye Feng in disbelief. "This... Did you really prescribe this prescription? Or is it someone else?"

Ye Feng was amused by his question. "When I was changing the prescription, weren't you all watching?"

"Do you think I stole your prescription in advance, then got someone to modify it and show it to you today?"

After he said this, the others also laughed.

These three formulas were modified according to Shennong Pharmaceutical's formulas. These were all core secrets, and outsiders could not obtain them in advance.

And the entire process of Ye Feng changing the prescription, they had all witnessed it with their own eyes. No one else had given him any guidance.

This was what made them feel incredulous.

How old was he? How could his medical skills be so good? Even these old fellows were ashamed of their inferiority!

Chapter 858 - 858 Your Medicine Is Really Miraculous!

858 Your Medicine Is Really Miraculous!

“This recipe is very exquisite. I just don’t know how effective it is.”

Just as everyone was excited, one of the executives suddenly raised a question.

This was like a basin of cold water that extinguished some of the enthusiasm of the crowd.

Ma Jian pondered for a moment and suddenly pointed at Han Ziqiu, the head of the Legal Department. “Didn’t Xiao Han catch a cold these two days? Then according to Mr. Ye’s prescription, give him a dose of medicine to take and test the effect?”

Han Ziqiu couldn’t help but smile bitterly. “Are you using me as a guinea pig?”

Ma Jian chuckled. “Isn’t this considering the big picture? If it proves that this medicine is really effective, then you will be a great hero to our company.”

Han Ziqiu nodded helplessly. "Then I'll be a lab rat."

The executives present all laughed in relief.

At this moment, Qi Changfeng suddenly said, "My stomach hasn't been very good. The old problem has been acting up again these past few days. Let me try the effects of this medicine."

Everyone looked at him strangely. This old fellow was not happy with Ye Feng earlier. Now he wanted to test the medicine?

Qi Changfeng's face turned red from their looks. "I just can't stand those useless brats who only know how to talk big."

"Since Mr. Ye really has the ability, then of course I admire him very much."

Ye Feng liked his stubbornness. At least he knew the big picture and would not let his personal likes and dislikes affect his work. Otherwise, he would really have to consider changing his management.

"Then the medicine for bruises..."

Ma Jian was about to say something when he realized that everyone was staring at his leg. This made his hair stand on end. "You're not thinking of breaking my leg so that I can test the medicine, are you?"

The few people present all laughed out loud.

They were just joking. It was impossible for them to really break Ma Jian's legs.

Fortunately, their company had a laboratory. They could find a white mouse or rabbit to try.

After these arrangements were made, everyone was somewhat expectant, but also somewhat nervous.

Whether the company could survive depended on whether these three prescriptions were effective.

"Mr. Ye, it's getting late today. You don't have to go back. The company has a dormitory building. We'll discuss the details after we see the effects of the medicine tomorrow morning."

After Ma Jian finished arranging everything, he turned to look at Ye Feng.

It was already 9 pm. Ye Feng looked at the time and nodded in agreement.

After having a meal in the company cafeteria, he returned to the dormitory that Ma Jian had arranged for him to rest.

The next morning, he was still in a daze when someone knocked on his door.

“Mr. Ye, open the door, Mr. Ye...”

Ye Feng could only rub his sleepy eyes and get up to open the door.

Then, he saw Qi Changfeng, Ma Jian, and the others standing outside the door. Everyone looked excited.

“What time is it? What are you guys doing up so early?”

Ye Feng looked at the time. It was only six in the morning. These people were too inhumane.

Qi Changfeng grabbed his hand excitedly. “Mr. Ye, I’ve never admired anyone in my life, but I’m really impressed by you. I’m so impressed that I’m prostrating myself on the ground.”

Ye Feng’s hand was tightly grabbed by him. He immediately had goosebumps. He quickly pulled his hand away. “What happened?”

Qi Changfeng's voice was trembling due to his excitement. "I took the medicine you prescribed last night and fell asleep immediately."

"In the end, I slept until the latter half of the night when my stomach suddenly felt uncomfortable. Then, I ran to the toilet and had a good poop. My poop was all black..."

Ye Feng hurriedly interrupted him: "Let's not talk about the details, just tell me the result."

Qi Changfeng coughed awkwardly. "In the end, after I pooped this time, I only felt my body feel extremely refreshed and my stomach felt warm. It was simply extremely comfortable."

"This medicine of yours has a miraculous effect!"

A senior executive beside him nodded quickly. "My wife's stomach hasn't been feeling well for the past two days. I brought some medicine home last night for her to take. The effect after she took the medicine is exactly the same as Chairman Qi's."

"Your medicine is really miraculous!"

The executives present were extremely excited. With this medicine, their company would be saved.

But Ye Feng only replied with a listless "Oh", "Is there anything else? If not, I'll go to bed first."

Qi Changfeng and the others' faces twitched crazily. Who was this person? They were all so excited, and he actually wanted to go to sleep?

At this moment, he saw the head of the Legal Department, Han Ziqiu, rushing over. "Mr. Ye, good news, good news. Your medicine is really miraculous!"

Ye Feng could not help but roll his eyes. "A bunch of uncultured people, can't you use other words?"

Han Ziqiu didn't know what was going on, so he just reported his situation to everyone. "After I went home last night, I took the cold medicine you prescribed and went straight to bed. In the end, I was drenched in sweat after sleeping for less than two hours. Guess what?"

Qi Changfeng was a little unhappy. "We're doing crosstalk with you? How is the effect? Hurry up and tell us."

Han Ziqiu suppressed his excitement. "I've completely recovered from my cold. I just feel refreshed and full of energy."

"It's all good with one dose of medicine. This is probably the best cold medicine I've ever seen. Once it goes on the market, it'll probably sell like crazy!"

After he finished speaking, everyone became even more excited.

Everyone's face was filled with child-like smiles.

Shennong Pharmaceutical Company was already in its twilight years. Many people had already left and found other jobs.

They had been able to stay here all this time because they undoubtedly had deep feelings for the company and wanted to save it.

However, they did not have the ability to do so before, so they could only be anxious.

And Ye Feng's sudden appearance gave them hope.

The group of old men, whose average age was in their sixties, suddenly glowed with youthful vitality.

Everyone was filled with hope for the future.

They believed that under Mr. Ye's leadership, Shennong Pharmaceutical Company would definitely regain its glory!

Chapter 859 - 859 I Can Help You Endorse for Free

859 I Can Help You Endorse for Free

The laboratory soon sent news that the rabbit whose leg was broken by them last night had recovered very quickly after using the new ointment.

According to their current estimates, it would probably recover in a few days.

Qi Changfeng and the others had actually already expected this outcome, but when this news came, it still made them extremely excited.

“Mr. Ye, you’re really the savior of Shennong Pharmaceutical Company. I’ll kowtow to you on behalf of everyone in Shennong Pharmaceutical Company.”

As Qi Changfeng spoke, he was about to kneel and kowtow.

Ye Feng hurriedly stopped him. “Chairman Qi, what are you doing?”

Qi Changfeng looked at him excitedly. “Shennong Pharmaceutical Company was founded by us old fellows. It’s like our own children.”

“In the past few years, we have watched this ‘child’ deteriorate day by day. We old fellows are anxious, but we are at our wits’ end...”

When the others thought of the suffering they had suffered over the past few years, they could not help but cry.

Qi Changfeng looked at Ye Feng gratefully. "But your arrival has brought us hope."

"As long as we can see Shennong Pharmaceutical Company regain its glory, even if we old fellows die immediately, it's worth it!"

Ye Feng could feel the sincerity in his words. "Everyone, please don't say that. The drug development is only the first step. The following production and management will still depend on everyone. I hope that everyone can cheer up and let Shennong Pharmaceutical Company regain its vitality."

Ma Jian also nodded excitedly. "We all thought that the company had no hope in the past, so we started to muddle along. Now that we finally saw hope, we will immediately begin to reorganize the company and prepare for a big operation."

Ye Feng was very satisfied with their assurance. "Mass production is only the first step. Our marketing needs to keep up."

"It's best if we can find a popular and high-quality idol to endorse. This will make our products more suitable for young people."

"Young people are the future. As long as we capture them, Shennong Pharmaceutical Company will be able to live for a long time."

Ma Jian immediately scratched his head awkwardly. "But we've never found a spokesperson before. We don't know what kind of celebrities and idols young people like. Moreover... Hiring a spokesperson should cost a lot of money, right?"

The last question was what he was most concerned about. Shennong Pharmaceutical Company could not afford to spend much money on marketing.

Ye Feng pondered for a moment. "Leave this matter to me."

With that, he took out his phone and called Xia Qiu.

..

Xia Qiu had been especially busy recently. She had just finished filming Like a Dream and was about to prepare for her concert tour.

It was not easy to get a day off today, so she just wanted to sleep in.

However, she was woken up by a rapid ringtone just after 6 o'clock. She was immediately furious and grabbed her phone to scold that person.

However, when she saw the caller ID, her anger immediately dissipated and was replaced by endless joy.

“Sister Hong, Sister Hong, he called me. He actually took the initiative to call me!”

She rushed out of the room and knocked on the door of Sister Hong, who was sleeping in another room.

Sister Hong walked out with disheveled hair. “What’s wrong, Miss? Didn’t you want to have a good rest today? Why are you up so early?”

Xia Qiu waved her phone in front of her eyes excitedly. “He called me. He actually called me on his own accord.”

Sister Hong was instantly speechless. “Just a call, is there a need to be so agitated?”

Xia Qiu smiled happily. “Why do you think he called me so early? Does he want to go shopping with me?”

“Then what do you think I should wear? Do I want to get my hair done?”

Sister Hong immediately rolled her eyes. “Hurry up and answer the phone. If you don’t, he’ll hang up.”

Xia Qiu finally reacted and hurriedly tidied her hair. "Sister Hong, am I ugly now? Should I put on some makeup first?"

Sister Hong was speechless. "It's just a phone call. You're not even appearing on camera. What are you afraid of? Hurry up and answer it."

Xia Qiu finally calmed down. Before Ye Feng hung up, she picked up the call and asked softly: "Hello, Mr. Ye, why are you calling me?"

Then, she heard Ye Feng's voice: "Are you busy recently?"

Xia Qiu felt that he was definitely asking her out for a shopping date. She shook her head hurriedly. "No, not at all."

Ye Feng pondered for a moment before continuing: "It's like this. I just acquired a pharmaceutical company. They're about to launch a few new drugs, and they urgently need a spokesperson. I thought of you immediately..."

Before he could finish, Xia Qiu nodded. "Alright, I agree."

Sister Hong panicked. As Xia Qiu's manager, she had to put Xia Qiu's interests first.

Even if it was the boss of her company, she should still argue.

Why did this silly girl agree in such a hurry?

Xia Qiu ignored her and walked away.

She agreed so readily, it made Ye Feng's prepared excuse useless. "Why don't you ask which company it is? What product? Is it reliable?"

Xia Qiu smiled sweetly. "Since it's your company, I believe there's no problem with the product."

Ye Feng hesitated for a moment. "But this company is having some difficulties now, I'm afraid that the endorsement fee..."

Xia Qiu nodded understandingly. "I know. I can help you endorse for free."

Sister Hong, who was standing at the side, stomped her feet anxiously. She was really her great-aunt.

The endorsement of this medicine was already a huge risk, so she had to be extremely cautious.

Moreover, with Xia Qiu's current status, the endorsement fee was also very high. How could she agree so easily?

However, this lady had already agreed. What else could she do?

Fortunately, Ye Feng knew the rules. He did not really ask her to do it for free. "Of course I can't let you endorse for free, I still have to pay you the endorsement fee, but it won't be too much for now."

"We can sign it for a year first. When the company has sufficient funds, we can sign it again."

Xia Qiu naturally had no objections. Being able to endorse his company was something she was more than happy to do.

Sister Hong, who was standing at the side, also heaved a sigh of relief. It was fine if it was a little less. It was better than not having a single cent.

Moreover, she believed in Ye Feng's strength. This pharmaceutical company would definitely be able to revive from the ashes.

Perhaps Xia Qiu could even benefit from this pharmaceutical company.

There were some values that money couldn't measure.

..

After Ye Feng hung up the phone, he turned to look at the expectant crowd. "Xia Qiu has already agreed to be the spokesperson, we will sign a one-year contract first, the endorsement fee... Just give 2 million."

Everyone widened their eyes in disbelief.

No matter how ignorant they were, they had all heard of Xia Qiu. After all, every day when they turned on the television, they would see her advertisements and news. Everyone knew that this girl was currently the most popular female celebrity.

For a celebrity of this level, the signing fee would start from at least 10 million, or even up to hundreds of millions.

They had never expected to receive such treatment from a superstar.

And Ye Feng actually settled it with just a phone call, and it was signed at such a low price.

This allowed them to experience Ye Feng's strength once again.

Perhaps, if the company was handed over to him, it would really be possible to create another glory!

Chapter 860 - 860 I Will Not Let Mr. Ye Down!

860 I Will Not Let Mr. Ye Down!

When everyone thought of this, they were extremely excited.

Ye Feng was about to discuss some details with them when he suddenly received a call from Zhao Fulin.

“Brother Ye, that person has already sneaked out of Yang Cheng. We didn’t catch up.”

“The person who escorted him away has been captured and taken away by Gao Hu’s men.”

“I’m really sorry that I couldn’t help you this time.”

Zhao Fulin was obviously ashamed of this and quickly apologized over the phone.

When Ye Feng heard this news, he was not in a good mood, but he still comforted him with a smile:
“Brother Zhao, don’t say that, these people clearly planned their escape route in advance. You probably didn’t rest well the whole night, right? Hurry up and sleep for a while.”

Zhao Fulin sighed, "Okay, I don't want to say anything else, but don't worry, no matter where this b*stard goes, I will help you catch him."

The two of them chatted for a while more before ending the call.

As soon as he hung up, Gao Hu called. "Mr. Ye, I didn't do my job properly and let that b*stard escape. Please punish me."

Ye Feng had already heard the news from Zhao Fulin, he had calmed down a little. "I heard that you caught a person. Did you get any information?"

Gao Hu was a little nervous. "We've been interrogating him for a long time, but this guy is very tight-lipped. He won't say anything even if you beat him to death."

Ye Feng frowned and thought for a while. "Send me the address, I will go and investigate it personally."

Then, he hung up.

Gao Hu then sent the address to his phone.

Ye Feng immediately stood up and instructed Qi Changfeng and the others, "Just follow the plan first. Contact me if anything happens. I still have something to do, so I'll be leaving first."

Qi Changfeng led a group of company executives and sent him out of the company.

The employees in the company were a little surprised when they saw a group of leaders accompanying a young man.

Moreover, this group of leaders usually looked sad, as if someone owed them money.

But today, everyone's faces were filled with happy smiles, as if they had eaten honey.

This immediately made them suspicious and uncertain, and they all guessed the identity of this young man.

Ye Feng had planned to give them a speech to boost their morale.

But now, these tasks could only be handed over to Qi Changfeng and the others.

"Mr. Ye, when you just came yesterday, I was so disrespectful to you. I was old and muddle-headed. I hope you won't hold it against me."

When Qi Changfeng sent Ye Feng to the car, he finally could not help but apologize.

Ma Jian and the others were a little surprised. Qi Changfeng was usually unyielding and had never lowered his head to anyone in his life. This was the first time they had seen him like this.

Ye Feng just waved his hand casually. "Chairman Qi, you don't have to say this, I can understand your feelings at that time. However, we are all comrades in the same trench now. Shennong Pharmaceutical Company will rely on you in the future."

Qi Changfeng and the others answered in unison, "I won't disappoint Mr. Ye!"

Ye Feng nodded in satisfaction. He did not say anything else and drove away.

Qi Changfeng and the others looked at the car that had gone far away and could not help but feel a myriad of emotions.

"You can't judge a book by its cover. Although this Mr. Ye is young, his strength and breadth of mind are really something that we old fellows can't compare to."

"In the past, I didn't believe in the existence of geniuses. Today, I finally know what a genius is."

"I often overlook his age and feel that he has a maturity that we can't compare to."

“He’s the same age as our grandson, but the strength and bearing he displayed really impressed us.”

“I’m afraid only such a genius can bring Shennong Pharmaceutical back to life, right?”

..

Ye Feng followed Gao Hu’s address and drove to a warehouse not far from the dock.

At the entrance of the warehouse, there were two members of the Chaoxin Gang.

When they saw Ye Feng, the two of them hurriedly went up to him and opened the car door for him.

“Where’s Gao Hu?”

“They are still interrogating him inside, but that kid’s mouth is too tight. He’s half dead, but he won’t say a word...”

The man answered as he led Ye Feng into the warehouse.

Chaoxin Gang was currently trying its best to transform. This warehouse was rented to store goods and was ready to go out to sea. It was filled with all kinds of cargo boxes.

At this moment, in the middle of the warehouse, a man was hanging from the beam of the warehouse. He was already beaten to a pulp.

Blood flowed down his pants and dripped onto the ground.

Gao Hu was holding a whip in his hand, and he was constantly whipping him.

There were also many people from the Chaoxin Gang surrounding him, all of them cursing.

Seeing Ye Feng come in, Gao Hu stopped what he was doing and lowered his head in shame. "Mister Ye, I made a military pledge to you, saying that if I can't catch that b*stard, I will bring my head to you. Just kill me."

Ye Feng patted his shoulder. "I can only blame myself for being careless. How can I blame you? I know you've done your best."

Gao Hu was instantly touched. If it was the old Gao Junming, he probably wouldn't have let him off so easily.

Ye Feng slowly walked to the man who was being hit. "As long as you tell me everything you know, I will heal your injuries immediately and give you a sum of money."

The man's eyes were covered in blood. He opened them a little after a long time and glanced at him.

"Hahaha, so the people of the Chaoxin Gang all listen to a little brat? I'm dying of laughter, haha..."

Gao Hu was instantly enraged and lashed out again.
