Chapter 871 - 871 Robbery

871 Robbery

Ye Feng's methods were indeed shocking. When the thugs looked at him again, they looked as if they had seen a ghost.

Especially that triangular-eyed guy and the yellow-haired guy. They were filled with regret.

They just wanted to touch porcelain. Who would have thought that things would turn out this way? What kind of demons did they provoke? His strength was more abnormal than the previous one.

Ye Feng slowly walked toward the two of them and squatted down. The two of them were too frightened and subconsciously wanted to crawl backward.

"Come here, I have something to discuss with you," Ye Feng immediately berated. The two of them trembled and quickly crawled over.

"Hero, please spare our lives. We were just blinded for a moment and accidentally offended the two of you. We only ask for your mercy and let us live..."

Triangular-eyed and the blond hurriedly knelt down and begged for mercy.

Especially that yellow-haired guy, he was even more unbearable. He was so scared that he peed his pants. As he kowtowed, the fishy yellow liquid dripped onto the ground.

Ye Feng took a step back with a look of disdain. “With this little courage, you still dare to come out and extort me?”

The two of them looked at him in horror. They really wanted to say that they had never met a pervert like him before!

However, they did not dare to say such words. They only kept kowtowing and begging for mercy.

Ye Feng could not be bothered to waste his breath on them. “It’s not impossible to let you go, just give me 1 million yuan as compensation for your mental damage.”

“Ah?”

The two of them thought that they had heard wrongly. They were the ones who were shocked, okay?

“What? You brought so many people here and scared me. Shouldn’t you compensate me for mental damage?” Ye Feng’s expression darkened, another glass shard appeared in his hand.

Boom!

The glass shards hit the wall beside them, scaring the two of them.

“We’ll compensate you.”

Triangular-eyed man quickly agreed, then he took out his phone and transferred the money to Ye Feng in humiliation.

It had always been them who blackmailed others. Today, they were actually blackmailed in return. This was simply a great humiliation!

After Ye Feng received the money transfer, he nodded in satisfaction. “I’ll let you off this time. If you dare to extort tourists from the mainland again, once I find out, you won’t be as lucky as you are today.”

The triangular-eyed man and the yellow-haired man hurriedly waved their hands. “I won’t dare to, I won’t dare to do it again...”

Cheng Fei’er walked over. “You are not allowed to mention what happened today to anyone. If we find out that the news has been leaked, none of you will have a good time.”

She and Ye Feng came to the casino secretly. They did not want to be too eye-catching. They had to keep a low profile.

The triangular-eyed man and the yellow-haired man nodded their heads vigorously. "We won't say anything. We definitely won't say anything."

What kind of joke was this? Twenty or thirty of his men were easily taken care of by two people...No, to be precise, it was taken care of by one person.

They couldn't wait to hide such an embarrassing matter. Who would tell the whole world about it?

Cheng Fei'er heaved a sigh of relief. "That's good. Next, we need you to cooperate with us and put on a show."

Triangular-eyed and the blond looked at her with a dumbfounded expression. They were good at extortion, but acting? No way!

..

After a while, Ye Feng and Cheng Fei'er walked out of the alley with dirty faces, while the triangular-eyed man and the yellow-haired man were cursing behind them.

“Consider the two of you lucky this time. I only made you pay 1 million yuan. Don’t fall into my hands in the future. At that time, you won’t be so lucky...”

Cheng Fei’er had taught them to say these words. When they said it, they felt their hearts ache.

They were the ones who had been extorted 1 million yuan, alright?

Many people on the street looked over curiously, but some locals were already used to it.

“It’s the yellow-haired guy again. These heartless guys specialize in scamming tourists from the mainland. This time, two unlucky guys fell for it.”

“This kind of person is ruining the image of our casino. Why doesn’t anyone care about them? Who would dare to come here to play in the future?”

“This kind of local snake is very difficult to deal with. Relying on their numbers, no one dares to care if something really happens. These two can only admit that they’re unlucky.”

“When they went in with the blonde, I already knew the result. I just didn’t expect to be cheated of 1 million yuan.”

“Who asked these mainland tourists to be so rich? Take it as a lesson this time...”

The passersby on the road sympathized with Ye Feng and Cheng Fei'er, but they did not dare to provoke the yellow-haired guy and his group. They all hid far away.

"Great hero, great aunt, we can only send you here. We still have to send our brothers to the hospital."

Triangular-eyed sent the two of them out of the alley and spoke in a low voice after putting on a show.

"Remember, if this matter gets out, I'll come looking for you again."

Ye Feng waved at him, then pulled Cheng Fei'er and left.

The triangular-eyed man and the yellow-haired man watched the two of them leave and heaved a sigh of relief. They had finally sent these two living ancestors away.

What was this? They were the bad guys, alright?

Now, not only were they blackmailed, but they also had to cooperate with them.

They were probably the most aggrieved bad guys in history, right?

It was really embarrassing for the group of 'bad guys'!

Ye Feng and Cheng Fei'er walked far away before they could not help but laugh.

Especially Cheng Fei'er, who was laughing so hard that tears were coming out.

"Alright, stop laughing. Hurry up and contact your informant. He's probably waiting anxiously," Ye Feng quickly reminded her.

Cheng Fei'er looked at him with a complicated gaze before taking out her phone to contact the informant.

After a while, they saw a middle-aged man in ordinary clothes walking toward them.

"You're Miss Cheng, right? Hello, I'm a friend introduced by Miss Lu. My name is Ouyang Xi."

The man walked up to Cheng Fei'er and shook her hand.

"Hello, Mr. Ouyang. This is my friend, Feng Ye." When Cheng Fei'er faced outsiders, she returned to her cold and aloof attitude.

Ouyang Xi nodded at Ye Feng as a greeting, then he continued to look at Cheng Fei'er. "I have been waiting here for a while. Did Miss Cheng encounter any trouble?"

Cheng Fei'er shook her head and blinked at Ye Feng.

"No, I just conveniently robbed them."

Ouyang Xi was confused when he heard Cheng Fei'er's explanation.

What did she mean by conveniently robbing them?

Cheng Fei'er did not explain to him in detail and went straight to the point. "Where is that Ah Can now?"

"We've been monitoring his residence for the entire day. He suddenly left half an hour ago. We wanted to follow him, but this guy was very vigilant. He changed cars several times in the middle. We lost him."

Ouyang Xi lowered her head in shame.

Ye Feng suddenly said, "Then do you think he will come back tonight?"

Ouyang Xi shook his head. "I don't know. This guy is cunning and has three burrows. It's not easy for us to judge."

Ye Feng asked again, "Then where does he usually go when he goes out?"

Ouyang Xi still shook his head. "He's a reclusive person. He rarely goes out and has no pattern at all."

Ye Feng was a little speechless. He did not know anything. This was a lonely investigation.

However, he also knew that this Ah Can was indeed difficult to deal with. After all, he was the King of Thieves in the casino. Even he had suffered a loss at his hands.

It was already very rare for Ouyang Xi to be able to find him a place to stay.

Chapter 872 - 872 Nothing Ventured, Nothing Gained?

872 Nothing Ventured, Nothing Gained?

Cheng Fei'er looked at Ye Feng helplessly. "What do you think we should do next?"

After the experience in the alley just now, she now had an inexplicable dependence on Ye Feng. When faced with a difficult problem, she subconsciously wanted to hear his opinion.

Ouyang Xi, who was beside her, was secretly shocked. He knew Cheng Fei'er's identity very well. She was an elite of the Security Team.

He thought that this operation would be based on her orders and that this young man should be here to cooperate with her.

He did not expect her to ask for his opinion instead.

This forced him to re-evaluate this young man. It seemed that he had underestimated him.

Ye Feng lowered his head and pondered for a moment. "Let's sneak into Ah Can's house and wait for him."

Before Cheng Fei'er could agree, Ouyang Xun shook his head in opposition.

"No! This Ah Can is very vigilant. He has installed many hidden anti-peeping devices around his residence. As long as someone approaches, he will be alerted. The last time we were monitoring him, someone triggered the surveillance equipment and exposed his whereabouts. He escaped and never returned to that residence."

Ye Feng shrugged nonchalantly. "I was just giving a suggestion. If you don't want to go in, then just wait outside."

Cheng Fei'er frowned and pondered for a moment before finally making a decision. "Nothing ventured, nothing gained? Whether we can get in or not, we have to try."

Seeing that she had made up her mind, Ouyang Xi did not say anything else.

The three of them then decided to split up. Ouyang Xi would be in charge of guarding the outside while Ye Feng and Cheng Fei'er would try to sneak into Ah Can's house.

After the division of labor, Ye Feng and Cheng Fei'er headed toward Ah Can's residence.

It was a small building with three floors and an independent courtyard.

To be able to own such a residence in a place like the casino, one could be considered rich. Moreover, according to Ouyang Xi, Ah Can had more than one residence.

It seemed that being a thief was indeed profitable.

The walls of the small courtyard were not too high. With their skills, they could easily climb over them.

Cheng Fei'er took two steps back and rushed forward, ready to climb over the wall.

But at this moment, Ye Feng suddenly grabbed her arm.

As her inertia was too strong and Ye Feng's pulling force was also very strong. Cheng Fei'er's body crashed into his embrace.

Ye Feng only felt two warm fragrances pressing against his chest. He subconsciously looked down and felt dazzled.

Cheng Fei'er was wearing a spaghetti strap short skirt today, which made her cleavage look even more delicate.

At this moment, it squeezed against his chest, and it immediately felt as if it was about to jump out of her collar.

He had the urge to spurt out blood...

Cheng Fei'er first cried out in surprise, then pushed him away forcefully and rubbed her chest.

The dike was higher than the shore, and the waves would destroy it. Some things were too prominent and easily damaged.

“Are you crazy?” She was in so much pain that she was about to cry. She glared at Ye Feng unhappily.

“Big sister, I’m helping you. Look,” Ye Feng explained while pointing at a hidden corner on the wall.

Cheng Fei’er looked in the direction he pointed and saw a sensor device. As it was installed very discreetly. She did not notice it just now.

She was an elite member of the Security Team. What kind of equipment did she not know? At a glance, she could tell that it was a human body-sensing device.

As long as someone approached the detection range, it would alert the owner immediately.

If Ye Feng had not stopped her in time, once she got close to the wall, Ah Can would definitely have received the news and would not have returned to this residence in the future.

In that case, their clues would be cut off again, and their mission to the casino would have to be terminated.

“I’m sorry...”

Realizing that she had misread Ye Feng, Cheng Fei’er could only apologize in embarrassment.

With this false alarm, the two of them did not continue to advance rashly. Instead, they observed carefully and found sound sensors, heat sensors, and other devices in different locations.

Under the protection of these sensing devices, even a fly entering the courtyard would have nowhere to hide.

Let's put it this way. This house looked ordinary, but it was actually impregnable. There was nowhere to attack.

"This Ah Can is indeed a thief. He actually made his residence look like a fortress," Cheng Fei'er could not help but complain after checking the equipment.

Ye Feng could not help but laugh. "As a thief, you have to guard against thieves first. Looks like our plan to sneak into the residence has failed."

Cheng Fei'er's face was bitter. "Then what should we do now?"

Ye Feng could not help but sigh. "One word, wait!"

Although this was a stupid idea, there was no better way now.

Cheng Fei'er was also very clear about this. Although she was very unwilling, she could only helplessly accept the reality.

The two of them then left the house and began to look for a hidden place to hide.

However, after searching for a while, only a green belt outside the house could barely hide someone.

Moreover, the space was very small and could only accommodate one person at most.

If it was two people, it was inevitable that there would be some physical contact.

Ye Feng did not have any objections. He directly threw this problem to Cheng Fei'er. "What do you think?"

Chapter 873 - 873 Higher than the Shore, And the Waves Will Destroy It

873 Higher than the Shore, And the Waves Will Destroy It

Cheng Fei'er suddenly felt a headache. She was actually a very conservative girl. It was a little difficult for her to squeeze into such a small space with a man.

Ye Feng did not bother about her. He walked into the green belt and sat down.

His body was so huge that he took up more than half of the space.

Cheng Fei'er immediately became anxious. "If you sit like this, what should I do?"

Ye Feng patted his leg. "Can't you just sit on my leg?"

Cheng Fei'er was a little dumbfounded. He was sitting in an 'L' shape. If she sat on his lap and the two of them faced each other, it would be too embarrassing.

Ye Feng saw that she was still hesitating, and he immediately pursed his lips. "We are carrying out a mission now, of course we have the right to do so."

"What woman haven't I seen? Are you afraid that I'll take advantage of you?"

Cheng Fei'er looked around again. Ah Can could return at any time. If she continued to be so hesitant, it was very likely that her whereabouts would be exposed.

If Ah Can escaped again, the clues to Niu Sidun would be cut off, and this big bad guy who harmed the interests of the people would not be caught in the net of justice...

At the thought of this, she finally gritted her teeth and went all out for the benefit of the people.

Then, she followed him into the green belt and sat on Ye Feng's lap.

The two of them were sitting face to face, and they could even hear each other's heartbeats. It could be said that they were extremely ambiguous.

Ye Feng's eyes could not help but move downwards. He could watch the game while carrying out the mission. It was a special experience.

Cheng Fei'er bit her lips and hurriedly stopped him in a low voice. "Don't look. If you look again, I'll dig your eyes out."

Ye Feng was helpless. He could only shift his gaze back to her handsome face. "Then I'll look at her face, alright?"

Cheng Fei'er continued to wave her small fists threateningly. "You're not allowed to look either."

Ye Feng rolled his eyes. "I can't look at the top, I can't look at the middle, I can't look at the bottom, right?"

Cheng Fei'er was instantly speechless. She felt like she was going crazy. If she could really catch Ah Can this time, she would definitely give him a good beating. Otherwise, she would not be able to live up to the treatment she had suffered.

After finally resting for a while, Ye Feng's legs suddenly started to move rhythmically.

Cheng Fei'er sat on his lap and moved up and down with him. That scene was very evil.

"What are you doing?" She immediately scolded him in a low voice.

"My legs are numb," Ye Feng explained casually. The 'activities' became more frequent.

"Don't move." Cheng Fei'er's pretty face had already turned red to the tips of her ears. Although she had never experienced this kind of thing, she was quite knowledgeable and immediately thought of some embarrassing scenes.

"Big sister, this is a real leg, not a prosthetic leg. You've been sitting on me for so long and I'm already numb. You have to let me move around a little," Ye Feng immediately complained.

Cheng Fei'er clenched her fists tightly, wishing she could press this guy to the ground and beat him up. However, in the end, she gave up on this idea.

The main reason was that they could not beat up their teammates during the operation. The secondary reason was that she couldn't beat him.

Fortunately, Ye Feng did not continue to tease her. After a few movements, he stopped.

The two of them waited from day to night, but Ah Can was nowhere to be seen.

The temperature at night plummeted. Cheng Fei'er was only wearing a thin short skirt and was already shivering from the cold.

Ye Feng saw this and immediately opened his arms. "Do you want me to hug you?"

Seeing that Cheng Fei'er was about to get angry again, he hurriedly explained, "Don't misunderstand. I didn't mean to take advantage of you. I just pity you."

Cheng Fei'er snorted coldly. "I don't need your pity."

Ye Feng's face turned cold. He could not be bothered to waste any more emotions.

After a while, Cheng Fei'er finally couldn't hold on any longer. She took the initiative to lean over and at the same time, she didn't forget to threaten, "You... You're not allowed to have any improper thoughts?"

Ye Feng was speechless. You took the initiative to come over, you want me to not have any improper thoughts? How could she be so overbearing?

Just like that, the two of them joined the group to keep warm. They waited for more than two hours. It was already late at night, but Ah Can still had not returned.

“This b*stard probably won’t be coming back tonight, right?” Cheng Fei’er leaned against Ye Feng’s chest and could not help but curse.

“Have we been waiting for a long time?” Ye Feng could not help but curse.

“Forget it. Let’s cancel today’s operation first.”

Cheng Fei’er could not stand the cold anymore. Even though Ye Feng’s body was emitting heat, she could not resist the cold. She wanted to stand up immediately.

However, she had squatted for so long that she could no longer feel her legs. As soon as she stood up, she fell back down again.

“Ah...”

“Ah...”

The two of them let out a scream at the same time.

The dike was higher than the shore, and the waves would destroy it. The protruding things were the most vulnerable.

Ye Feng suffered a heavy blow. That kind of pain was something that women could not understand.

“I... I’m sorry...”

Cheng Fei’er was really going crazy now. She was very clear where she had sat just now because she was also in pain. She wished she could find a crack in the ground and hide in it.

She suddenly realized why every time she was with this guy, something that made her extremely embarrassed would happen.

It seemed that this guy was really her nemesis.

She hurriedly stretched her legs and was about to stand up again.

At this time, Ye Feng suddenly pressed her back down.

“What are you doing?” She immediately suppressed her anger.

“Someone is coming.” Ye Feng hurriedly made a shushing gesture, lowering his voice to the lowest.

“Where?” Cheng Fei’er listened carefully but did not hear anything. She thought that this guy was teasing her again.

After a while, she heard footsteps approaching.

This discovery immediately shocked her.

She had undergone extremely rigorous training in the Security Team, so her hearing was far better than ordinary people. She could hear any movement within ten meters.

But compared to Ye Feng, she was miles away.

She was afraid that this guy had already heard him when he was 20 meters away.

Wasn’t this kind of hearing a little too abnormal?

Chapter 874 - 874 Where Was the Gentlemanly Demeanor?

874 Where Was the Gentlemanly Demeanor?

After a while, the footsteps got closer and closer. It was obvious that they were coming toward this house.

Ye Feng was like a wild beast that was hunting, ready to attack at any moment.

However, when he saw the person's face clearly, he suddenly stopped.

Because the person who came was not Ah Can, the situation had changed.

Cheng Fei'er also noticed this person's appearance. He was about 20 years old and had long, flowing hair. He looked rather dashing.

The man came to the door of Ah Can's courtyard and took out the key to open the door. He pushed the door open and entered as if it was his own house.

Only after he entered the house did Ye Feng and Cheng Fei'er come out from the green belt.

Ouyang Xi happened to walk over from the opposite street and met up with the two of them.

Cheng Fei'er hurriedly asked him, "Did you see the young man who just went in? Who is he? Why was he able to enter Ah Can's house?"

Ouyang Xi immediately explained, "This person is Cao Wenhui, Ah Can's last disciple. Because Ah Can doesn't have a son, he has always regarded him as his adopted son."

Cheng Fei'er was shocked. "No wonder he can enter Ah Can's house as he pleases. So he's the last disciple? He should be a thief as well."

"Yes." Ouyang Xi nodded. "This Cao Wenhui is known as the 'Little Thief King'. In terms of theft, he has inherited all of Ah Can's teachings. He even has the tendency to surpass his master."

At this time, Ye Feng who had not spoken suddenly asked: "Is there anything good about this person?"

Ouyang Xi thought about it and suddenly said, "This person is addicted to gambling and often goes to some underground casinos."

Ye Feng's eyes lit up. "He likes gambling? I like it too. How's his gambling skills?"

Ouyang Xi immediately smiled. "This guy is skilled in stealing, but he's not as good at gambling. He often loses everything. However, every time he loses, he will steal some, so he can never lose all of it."

The more Ye Feng heard, the more he wanted to laugh. This guy had prepared this for him.

Cheng Fei'er noticed his expression and couldn't help but be curious. "Do you have a solution?"

Ye Feng looked confident. "We need to change our way of thinking. Since this Ah Can is too cunning, we can start from his disciple."

Cheng Fei'er's interest was piqued. "What's your plan? Tell me."

Ye Feng gave her an unfathomable smile. "I have my own plan!"

Cheng Fei'er saw that he was deliberately mystifying and could not help but snort lightly. "Acting mysterious."

..

When the two of them returned to the hotel, it was already very late.

As soon as they entered the couple suite, the atmosphere instantly became ambiguous again.

This was the first time Cheng Fei'er was in the same room as a member of the opposite sex in the middle of the night. She immediately dug her toes awkwardly.

Ye Feng did not tease her anymore. This woman had suffered too much today. If he continued to push his luck, he was afraid that she would go crazy.

After taking a shower first, he tactfully lay down on the sofa and prepared to sleep.

Only then did Cheng Fei'er heave a sigh of relief. She took her time to take a shower in the bathroom and then lay back on the sofa.

It was only at this moment that her heart finally settled down.

This guy was quite gentlemanly! He actually knew how to take care of a girl and took the initiative to sleep on the sofa.

At this moment, the wound on her arm suddenly began to ache.

During the day, she had a cut on her arm. Later on, the blood gradually coagulated. Coupled with the cold outside, the pain had lessened a lot.

Now that she had taken a shower and her wound was wet, it started to hurt again.

Although she was already used to this kind of pain, she could not help but snort.

Right at this moment, she heard Ye Feng standing up and walking toward her. Her heart was in her throat again.

What was he trying to do?

Could it be that he wanted to do something bad to her?

If that were the case, what should he do?

Resist? But she was no match for him.

Accept it silently? He might as well kill her...

Just as she was struggling in her heart, Ye Feng suddenly spoke. "I have some medicine here. Apply it on your wound."

Cheng Fei'er was stunned. She had thought of many possibilities, but she had not thought of this one.

This guy wasn't trying to molest her, but to give her medicine?

"What? Oh... No need, I... My wound is fine."

She hurriedly sat up on the bed and stammered.

She was probably afraid of arousing Ye Feng's lust, so she was wearing a set of pink pajamas that covered her from head to toe, not revealing a single part of her skin.

Ye Feng saw her thoughts. He could not help but laugh in his heart. "This medicine of mine is my own secret recipe. Not only is it very effective in healing wounds, it can also remove scars."

"If you want to leave an ugly scar on your arm, then pretend I didn't say anything."

As he spoke, he turned around and walked away.

"Wait... Wait a minute."

Cheng Fei'er hurriedly called out to him, then stared at the medicine bottle in his hand doubtfully. "Can this medicine really remove scars? Will it have any effect on the scars left behind by the old injuries?"

Ever since she joined the Security Team, getting injured was a common occurrence.

In the beginning, every time she had a scar, she would cry for a long time under the blanket.

However, as the scars on her body increased, she could no longer cry. She was a little desperate.

But then again, which girl didn't like beauty?

Especially for a beautiful girl like her. Who would want to leave ugly scars on her body?

Thus, when she heard that Ye Feng's medicine had the effect of removing scars, she was overjoyed.

Ye Feng placed the medicine on the bed. "This medicine is mainly used for new wounds. It is not very effective for old wounds..."

Cheng Fei'er was instantly disappointed.

However, Ye Feng immediately changed the topic. "If you need medicine to remove scars, I can specially concoct a new medicine for you."

Cheng Fei'er's eyes lit up and she hurriedly grabbed his hand. "Really?"

Ye Feng's gaze lingered on her. At the same time, he licked his lips. "Sure, but you have to agree to one condition."

Cheng Fei'er subconsciously covered her chest and looked at him warily. "What condition? If it's too much, I won't agree."

Ye Feng saw her defensive stance and rolled his eyes. "Don't worry, I'm not as wretched as you think."

Cheng Fei'er heaved a sigh of relief. "Then what do you want me to do?"

Ye Feng pointed at the sofa behind him. "I will sleep on the bed tonight, you sleep on the sofa."

Cheng Fei'er was dumbstruck.

Where was the gentlemanly demeanor?

..

The next morning, Ye Feng and Cheng Fei'er had just gone downstairs for breakfast when they received a message from Ouyang Xi, saying that Cao Wenhui had gone to the casino again.

The two of them immediately went back to change their clothes and went straight to the casino.

When the two of them arrived at the underground casino, they saw Cao Wenhui who was gambling with someone.

Chapter 875 - 875 Invincible Prodigal in the Universe

875 Invincible Prodigal in the Universe

“Big, big, big...”

Cao Wenhui stared at the dice cup and shouted excitedly.

At this moment, the dealer slowly opened the dice cup. The three dice were: 1 point, 3 points, 3 points, small.

“F*ck!”

Cao Wenhui slammed the table and sat back down angrily.

The person who had won the money could not help but say coldly, “Cut Hand Hui, looks like your luck today is not very good. You come to give us money every day, and we’re already about to win your hand.”

The others also burst into laughter.

This Cao Wenhui basically lost every time he gambled, but he loved to play. Almost all of them had won money from him.

Cao Wenhui snorted coldly. “I have money. If you have the ability, come and win.”

With that, he continued to place his bets.

Ye Feng and Cheng Fei’er watched for a while. This guy was really a noob. He had played a few rounds in a row but did not win even once.

“Let’s go exchange for chips.” Ye Feng pulled Cheng Fei’er and walked toward the counter.

“Do you know how to play?” Cheng Fei’er looked at him suspiciously.

“Remove the question mark. I’m the new God of Gamblers who swept through the casinos in South Guangdong,” Ye Feng boasted proudly.

“Tsk, I’d be a fool to believe you.” Cheng Fei’er obviously did not believe him.

Ye Feng did not explain to her. He directly shouted at the person at the counter. “Give me 2 million in chips first.”

The noisy casino immediately quieted down, and everyone looked over curiously.

Everyone’s eyes were first attracted by Cheng Fei’er. After all, she was too beautiful. It was difficult not to notice her.

But soon, everyone’s gaze shifted to Ye Feng.

“Do any of you know this person?”

“I haven’t seen him before. It’s probably his first time here, right?”

“It’s your first time here and you dare to exchange for 2 million in chips? He’s really rich.”

“Yeah, those who dare to exchange so many chips at once are either experts or fools with money.”

“I think this kid belongs to the latter. He just wants to act like a b*tch in front of a beautiful woman.”

“Then I’ll have to play with him later. I’ll definitely win this 2 million.”

“What do you mean you’ll definitely win? Anyone who sees it will get a share, okay?”

Everyone started to whisper. They were clearly treating Ye Feng as a fat sheep.

Even Cao Wenhui could not help but look at Ye Feng a few more times. His expression was complicated. No one knew what he was thinking.

Cheng Fei’er suddenly felt a headache. She had always wanted to keep a low profile when she came to carry out this mission.

But Ye Feng liked to be in the limelight. He attracted a lot of attention.

Ye Feng ignored her hint. After exchanging the chips, he walked toward the gambling pool.

“Little brother, come to our table and play.”

“Come to our side...”

Everyone present greeted him warmly. Some of them almost drooled when they saw the chips piled up on his plate.

Ye Feng randomly found a table to play dice and sat down. He placed 100,000 on ‘small’.

The other people at the table looked at each other and saw joy in each other’s eyes. This guy was simply here to give them money.

Everyone followed suit and placed their bets. Then, everyone at the table began to shout loudly.

“Big, big, big...”

Cheng Fei'er was obviously not used to this kind of environment. She frowned and took a few steps back. She looked at Cao Wenhui on the table beside her, afraid that he would run away.

Cao Wenhui noticed her gaze and immediately turned around to look at her, throwing her a flirtatious look.

Cheng Fei'er hated this person even more. If it wasn't for the mission, she really wanted to slap him.

At this time, Ye Feng's dice cup was opened, 4 points, 4 points, 6 points, big!

This was only the first round, and Ye Feng had already lost 100,000 yuan.

Cheng Fei'er's heart ached so much that she could not breathe. Her monthly salary was less than 20,000 yuan.

This guy had actually lost half a year's worth of her salary in one go. He was really an invincible prodigal in the universe.

Ye Feng also had a 'regretful' expression. He pounded the table in exasperation.

However, the others who had bet on 'big' started to cheer and celebrate.

The gazes of the people at the surrounding tables were attracted, and their faces were filled with envy.

The second round started, Ye Feng seemed to be more enthusiastic, he bet another 100,000 on 'small'.

Cheng Fei'er wanted to stop him, but the dealer suddenly said, "Once you've made the bet, you're not allowed to go back on your word."

She could only glare at him angrily. This guy was really crazy.

Ye Feng ignored her. He also shouted along with the others: "Small..."

But unfortunately, he still got a 'big' in the end, and he lost another 100,000 yuan.

After that, he played a few more rounds, and each time, he happened to bet on the losing side.

In less than half an hour, he had lost nearly 1 million yuan.

The people at his table also learned to bet on the opposite side of him no matter what he bet on.

In just a short while, they were already numb from winning.

The surrounding people were extremely jealous. Such a big fat sheep had actually fallen into someone else's mouth.

"Isn't this kid's luck too bad? After playing more than ten rounds, he actually didn't win a single round."

"I thought Cut Hand Hui was already unlucky enough. I didn't expect someone worse than him to come."

"That's right. Cut Hand Hui can win at least one or two out of ten rounds, but this guy can't even win once."

"Aiya, I can only watch them win money. No one came down to let us win."

"Stop dreaming. It's not easy to meet such a big fat sheep. How can they be willing to let go?"

Everyone was chatting sourly, envious, and jealous of the people at that table.

At the same time, Cao Wenhui's eyes were also red with defeat.

He had exchanged 500,000 chips today, and now he only had 20,000 to 30,000 left. If he played another two rounds, he would probably lose everything.

At this time, he suddenly heard the discussion of the crowd, he immediately turned to look at Ye Feng who was beating his chest and stamping his feet. His eyes lit up.

I can't beat them, but can't I beat this kid?

For a noob, the fastest way to regain his confidence was to beat another noob.

Thinking of this, he immediately stood up and walked toward Ye Feng's table.

Noob, here I come.

Chapter 876 - 876 This Kid Is Simply a Guiding Light

876 This Kid Is Simply a Guiding Light

"Can you add me in?"

Cao Wenhui walked over and asked the people at Ye Feng's table.

If it was someone else who wanted to join, they would definitely not agree to it. They had finally managed to catch a big fat sheep like Ye Feng, but they did not want anyone else to take a share.

But Cao Wenhui was different.

This guy's gambling skills were not much better than this 'fat sheep'. It was obvious that he was here to give away his life, so they naturally had no reason to refuse.

"Come, come, come. Hurry up and bring a chair over for Brother Cao."

Everyone immediately invited him to sit down enthusiastically. Then, they looked at each other. Everyone's faces were filled with joy.

Even the gamblers at the other tables were drooling with envy.

To be able to gather these two 'Crouching Dragon Phoenix Chicks' at the same table, wasn't their fortune too good?

As for Ye Feng and Cao Wenhui, they also had their own thoughts.

Cao Wenhui also treated Ye Feng as a 'fat sheep' and wanted to rip him off.

As for Ye Feng, the reason why he had deliberately lost for so long was to bait this guy.

Now that the fish had taken the bait, how could he not be happy?

However, if he wanted him to bite tighter, he still had to put more bait.

At this moment, a new round began. After the dealer finished shaking the dice, he looked at the crowd.
“Bet is off!”

This time, Ye Feng directly bet 200,000 on ‘small’.

The others had already figured out their strategy and bet on ‘big’.

Cao Wenhui nervously placed the remaining 20,000 chips in his hand on big.

Then, he began to shout along with everyone else, “Big, big, big...”

When the dealer opened the dice cup, it was indeed 5 points, 6 points, 6 points, big!

“Ah, I won...” Cao Wenhui immediately shouted in excitement. He had only wanted to give it a try. He did not expect to really win.

This kid was simply a guiding light. As long as they bet against him, they could win.

Ye Feng ‘regretfully’ pounded his chest and stomped his feet.

Cheng Fei’er was completely speechless.

You could say that this guy had bad luck, but he almost perfectly avoided every chance to win.

But if you said that he was lucky, he didn’t win even once.

She did not know what Ye Feng’s plan was, but in such a short time, he had already lost more than 1 million.

But Ye Feng’s ‘miserable’ journey was not over yet. In the next few rounds, he continued to play steadily. He only had 200,000 chips left.

And Cao Wenhui had miraculously won nearly 100,000 yuan. This had already broken his record for winning money in history.

Needless to say, the others had won a lot.

Only Ye Feng was gritting his teeth and panting heavily. He looked like he had lost too much.

At this moment, a new round began. After the dealer finished shaking the dice, he looked up at the crowd again. "The bet is off the table."

The others all turned their gazes to Ye Feng. He had become the guiding light for everyone. As long as they bet against him, they would definitely win.

Ye Feng gritted his teeth and bet the remaining 200,000 on 'big'.

The others immediately knew what to bet and all bet their chips to small.

Because of their previous experience, they had won too many rounds. Everyone was a little careless and bet all their chips at once, leaving no room for negotiation.

"Big, big, big..."

"Small, small..."

A group of people began to surround the dice cup and shout loudly. Even the gazes of the other tables were attracted.

The dealer waited for everyone to finish placing their bets before opening the dice cup with waning interest. Based on his previous experience, this newcomer would definitely lose.

But when he opened the dice cup, he was stunned.

The three dice were 3, 5, and 6 respectively. Big!

He actually won?

The dealer thought he was seeing things and hurriedly rubbed his eyes.

That was right. Adding up to 13 points, it was big!

The other people at the table were also looking forward to it, but when they saw the results, their smiles froze.

This kid actually guessed correctly this time?

Even Cao Wenhui looked at Ye Feng with a blank expression.

Like the others, he bet all the chips in his hand and lost everything in one round.

The group of people immediately pounded their chests and cursed endlessly.

Only Ye Feng jumped up happily. He kept shouting: "I won, I won haha..."

Even Cheng Fei'er, who was standing behind him, was overjoyed.

Although he only won 200,000 yuan this time, at least he could see the money that he could turn back. It was still worth being happy about.

The people at the other tables were also speechless.

"This kid has finally blossomed. It was not easy for him to win once."

"Look at how happy this kid is. He looks like he hasn't seen the world."

“I can understand. After all, he’s lost the entire morning and finally won. Who wouldn’t be happy?”

“The others were tricked by him. They all lost this round, but the Zhuang family made a fortune.”

“Isn’t that good? If they lose everything, they can come down, and we can go up against them.”

Although Ye Feng won this round, no one took it seriously. After all, he had only won one round after playing so many rounds. No matter how they looked at it, it was like a blind cat had encountered a dead mouse.

The others at the same table cursed for a long time, but they were helpless.

Immediately, two of them had no choice but to leave. The people at the other tables were scrambling to fill in the seats, and they almost fought over it.

Ye Feng was like a ‘fat meat’ now. They wanted to take a bite.

Other than these two people, the others chose to exchange their chips and continue playing.

Cao Wenhui only hesitated for a moment before he followed suit and exchanged for 500,000 yuan worth of chips.

The dealer waited for everyone to exchange their chips before shaking the dice again.

Everyone at the table continued to look at Ye Feng. They still treated him as a beacon.

This time, Ye Feng played even bigger. He directly pushed all the 400,000 chips to the 'small' side.

Without any hesitation, everyone placed all their chips on the 'big' side.

"Big, big, big..."

"Small, small..."

The crowd's shouts were deafening, as if they wanted to tear the roof off.

The dealer was also a little flustered at this time. This group of people had gone crazy. They had bet all their chips as soon as they came up, leaving no way out.

"Open, open, open..."

Everyone continued to stare at the dice cup and shouted loudly.

At this moment, no one else was playing at the other tables. Everyone had gathered at this table to watch the show.

The dealer calmed down and slowly opened the dice cup.

Everyone widened their eyes and looked over.

[The first die: 5 points]

There was hope!

Only three dice that added up to more than 11 points were considered big. The first die was a 5 point, and as long as the remaining two added up to 6 points, they would win again.

The second die was a 4.

The hope was even greater!

Everyone's breathing was about to stop. The two dice now added up to 9 points. They only needed another 2 points to win.

Moreover, this hope was still very high.

Chapter 877 - 877 You Can Catch a Big Fish Only by Placing a Long Line

877 You Can Catch a Big Fish Only by Placing a Long Line

"2 points."

"2 points."

"2 points..."

They all began to shout in unison, with an imposing manner that could swallow mountains and rivers.

Even Cheng Fei'er was affected by the atmosphere, her heart already in her throat.

Ye Feng had bet 400,000 yuan. If he lost this round, he would have lost all 2 million yuan.

She was nervous for him while secretly observing his expression.

She found that Ye Feng was still very calm. Regardless of his luck, his calm state of mind was worthy of admiration.

She asked herself. If she had lost so much money, she would definitely not have been able to maintain her composure.

Just as the atmosphere in the casino was extremely tense, the last die finally revealed its true appearance.

1 point!

The originally lively atmosphere instantly froze.

Everyone seemed to have been petrified. They were all stunned and motionless.

There were six sides to the die. Other than 1, as long as they rolled any of the other five sides, they would win this time.

However, it was as if the heavens were deliberately playing with them. The probability of one point appearing was the smallest.

The three dice were 5 points, 4 points, and 1 point, adding up to a total of 10 points. Small!

Ye Feng won!

Everyone looked at him in a daze. This kid was right again?

Didn't he always have bad luck before? Why did things suddenly turn around?

Different from everyone's stunned expressions, Ye Feng jumped up and shouted excitedly: "I won again hahaha, I won again..."

Cheng Fei'er also revealed a smile that she hadn't seen for a long time. This guy was really lucky.

He won another 400,000 yuan this time. If this continued, he would be able to get back his capital very soon.

At this moment, a few people at the table began to leave dejectedly, but someone immediately replaced them.

Although Ye Feng won two matches in a row, because he had lost too many times before, everyone still felt that he was lucky, he might not be so lucky next time.

Cao Wenhui hesitated.

The 500,000 chips that he had just exchanged had been lost again. He had already lost 1 million today. Should he continue playing?

Ye Feng saw his hesitation and immediately urged: "Are you still playing? If you don't want to play, hurry up and make room for others to come up."

The others also chimed in.

"Yeah, don't be a dog in the manger. There are still people queuing here."

"Cut Hand Hui, I advise you to stop playing. Otherwise, you'll lose everything again."

"If you don't want to play, hurry up and come down. My hands are already itching..."

Cao Wenhui was about to stop, but after being scolded by them, he immediately became rebellious.

Especially when he was looked down upon by Ye Feng, this 'fat sheep' that was a huge humiliation.

"I'm playing, who said I'm not playing? I'll accompany you to the end today."

He immediately stood up angrily and shouted at the casino's waiter, "Change another 500,000 yuan for me... No, 1 million in chips."

Everyone was immediately shocked. It seemed that this guy was going all out. He actually exchanged so many chips in one go.

An undetectable smile flashed across Ye Feng's face. It seemed like this guy had taken the bait.

However, he was very clear about the technique of fishing. Only by casting a long line could he catch a big fish.

When the fish bit the bait, it was best not to drag it too hard, because the fish might be stimulated and struggle violently, which would make it easy to get off the hook.

The correct way was to drag it out and let it go, slowly dragging it into your own basket.

Therefore, in the following rounds of gambling, he controlled the rhythm. If he won one or two rounds, he would lose a few rounds. Overall, he would lose more than he won.

Just like that, after about half an hour, all the chips on his table had been lost.

Cheng Fei'er was completely speechless. This prodigal really lost all his money.

Ye Feng also had a 'depressed' expression. He patted his butt and stood up. "Forget it, I'm not playing anymore. I'm really unlucky today. You guys go ahead and play."

When everyone saw that this 'fat sheep' wanted to leave, how could they agree? They all stood up to persuade him.

"Why are you in such a hurry? Let's play a few more rounds."

"That's right. Everyone is having fun. How disappointing would it be if you left?"

"What do you think? How big? We'll listen to you, okay?"

"That's right, we'll accompany you to the end..."

Even Cao Wenhui stood up to persuade him. In just a short while, he had won more than 200,000 yuan.

They were just winning, so how could they let this fat sheep leave so easily?

When Ye Feng heard everyone's persuasion, he looked at them with disdain. "It's not that I don't want to play with you, but you guys are playing too small. When I was in Las Vegas back then, I was playing games worth tens of millions. This kind of small game is really too boring."

When everyone heard this, they rolled their eyes.

With his lousy skills, why would he go to Las Vegas? A bet of tens of millions? Wasn't he too good at boasting?

However, regardless of whether the other party was bragging or not, there was no way they could answer this. They could not afford to play such a ten-million-level gamble.

Ye Feng gave everyone a disdainful look. "Since you can't afford to play, then I won't accompany you. All of you are not worthy of me wasting my time."

With that, he prepared to leave with Cheng Fei'er in his arms.

At this moment, Cao Wenhui suddenly stood up. "A ten million bet, right? Let me play with you."

Chapter 878 - 878 Peak Duel Between Two Rookies

878 Peak Duel Between Two Rookies

Hearing Cao Wenhui's words, everyone present was shocked.

"Did I hear wrongly? Cut Hand Hui actually wanted to play a bet worth tens of millions?"

"Is this guy crazy? Where did he get so much money?"

"With his trash skills, he still dares to gamble with tens of millions? Aren't you afraid of losing everything?"

"How many times has he gone bankrupt? If he loses, he can just steal some more."

"He lost so much in the past. It's not easy for him to meet someone who's even worse than him today. Of course, he doesn't want to let go so easily."

"I think that if the two of them bet, Cut Hand Hui still has a chance of winning..."

Indeed, they were right. Cao Wenhui thought so.

He had always been addicted to gambling, but his skills were too bad, and he would lose everything every time.

In the past few years, he had already lost at least tens of millions.

It was not easy for him to meet a weakling who was weaker than him today. He was really unwilling to let go of such a heaven-sent opportunity.

It just so happened that his master had recently completed a 'business deal' and received a commission of more than 100 million yuan. It was temporarily stored with him and could be temporarily used.

Ye Feng did not expect that someone would dare to accept a 10 million bet. He looked at him with a dazed expression. "You... Do you really want to play with me?"

Cao Wenhui raised his chin provocatively. "What? You don't dare to accept the challenge?"

Ye Feng hesitated. "That's not it, it's just... Do you have that much money?"

Cao Wenhui immediately took out a bank card from his pocket and slammed it on the gambling table. "There's more than 100 million in this card. If you have the ability, come and win it."

Everyone else in the casino stared at his bank card with burning eyes.

Unfortunately, they didn't have enough capital and didn't even have the right to play at the mahjong table.

Ye Feng was forced into a 'difficult situation' and could only grit his teeth. "Then I have to make the rules clear. We will each have a dice cup, and we will see who gets the highest number. 10 million per round. If you lose, transfer the money immediately. No credit."

Cao Wenhui immediately nodded. "No problem. We'll do as you say."

Ye Feng could not find any other 'excuses' now. He could only sit back at the gambling table.

Cheng Fei'er saw that this guy was really going to gamble with tens of millions of yuan and hurriedly pulled his arm. "Are you crazy? Don't you think you've lost enough?"

She was really worried that if this guy continued to lose, he wouldn't be able to act at all.

When everyone saw this scene, they could not help but laugh.

It seemed that even his woman did not believe that he could win.

Ye Feng was a little 'furious'. He pushed her away. "Women have long hair but short knowledge. I think it's because you've been standing here that my luck is so bad. Get lost."

Cheng Fei'er saw that her kind intentions were treated as a donkey's liver and lungs, and she was instantly furious. She immediately walked to the side angrily, too lazy to care about his business.

Ye Feng then turned around and looked at Cao Wenhui. "Alright, let's begin."

At this moment, someone had already pushed two dice cups in front of the two people and then surrounded them with anticipation.

This battle was too interesting.

It was a showdown between two noobs, and it was a bet worth tens of millions.

They didn't know whether to laugh or cry.

Cao Wenhui didn't waste any words and started shaking the dice cup in front of him. The dice inside made a crisp sound, and everyone's hearts began to rise.

Whoosh!

The dice cup stopped and he opened it with a confident smile.

4 points, 4 points, 6 points, adding up to a total of 14 points, it was already a lot of points.

Everyone looked at Ye Feng mockingly. This guy was probably in trouble for this round.

After Ye Feng saw Cao Wenhui's points, his expression turned serious. He did not touch the dice cup for a long time.

Everyone saw him dawdling and immediately urged him.

"What are you waiting for? Hurry up and shake it."

"That's right. He has already rolled 14 points. Are you going back on your word?"

"There are so many of us here watching. If you dare to go back on your word, none of us will agree."

"That's right, 10 million per round. This is the rule you set yourself. Don't think about going back on your word."

Ye Feng had a helpless expression, but he still picked up the dice cup and shook it clumsily.

Looking at the awkward posture of him shaking the dice cup, it was obvious that he was a newbie. Everyone laughed at him.

How dare he boast that he had been to Las Vegas?

Although Cheng Fei'er, who was sitting at the side, was a little angry, she couldn't help but poke her head out, afraid that this guy would lose again.

Whoosh!

Ye Feng's hands stopped moving, but he did not remove it in time. He took out a tissue to wipe his sweat.

Everyone was burning with anxiety and continued to urge him.

"Hurry up and open it. What are you waiting for?"

"Watching you shake the dice is really torturous. Can't you be more straightforward?"

“Why is a man so wishy-washy?”

“Hurry up and open it...”

Only when everyone’s hearts were in their throats did Ye Feng unhurriedly open the dice cup.

5 points.

5 points.

5 points...

The three dice had a total of 15 points, which happened to be slightly bigger than Cao Wenhui’s.

Everyone was stunned for a moment before they burst into exclamations.

“D*mn, isn’t his luck too heaven-defying? It’s only one point bigger?”

“What the f*ck, he won 10 million just like that? 10 million...”

“Isn’t this too exciting? My heart can’t take it anymore.”

“Cut Hand Hui’s luck is too bad. He can even lose like this...”

Everyone’s saliva flew everywhere as they spoke, while Cao Wenhui stood there in a daze, unable to come back to his senses for a long time.

Lost? He actually lost?

This was a bet worth tens of millions, and he actually lost right away?

This blow was so great that his brain was completely stunned.

Ye Feng pretended not to dare to look at it at first, but when he heard everyone’s exclamation, he turned around and jumped up excitedly. “I won? I f*cking won?”

Looking at his expression, it was obvious that he did not believe that he could actually win.

Cheng Fei'er, who was standing at the side, also heaved a sigh of relief. This 10 million level bet was too exciting. Her palms were now covered in sweat.

Fortunately, he won this round. This guy was really lucky this time.

After celebrating, Ye Feng turned to Cao Wenhui.

"If you lose, send me money..."

Chapter 879 - 879 You Call This a Rookie?

879 You Call This a Rookie?

Cao Wenhui was already drenched in sweat. This money was temporarily kept by his master, and he lost 10 million in one go.

If his master found out, he would definitely not let him off easily.

However, he couldn't go back on his word in front of everyone. If he really did that, he wouldn't be able to survive in the casino city in the future.

Under Ye Feng's urging, he finally took out his phone and transferred the money to the bank.

After Ye Feng received the transfer, he immediately smiled.

The people who were watching the show were all envious and jealous.

“10 million, winning 10 million in one round. Isn’t this too awesome?”

“Cut Hand Hui has really suffered heavy losses this time, losing so much in one round.”

“Doesn’t he just think that he’s easy to bully? In the end, he fell into it himself, haha.”

“Looks like he’s still the noob...”

Everyone started to mock Cao Wenhui.

Cao Wenhui was furious when he heard that. He stared at Ye Feng with bloodshot eyes. “Continue!”

He had to win back the 10 million as soon as possible. Otherwise, he wouldn’t be able to answer to his master.

He immediately grabbed the dice cup and shook it vigorously before opening it abruptly.

3 points.

5 points.

6 points.

14 points again.

Ye Feng did not dawdle this time. He grabbed his dice cup and shook it twice, slowly opening it.

4 points.

5 points.

6 points.

As if it was fate, it was 15 points again.

Everyone gasped. He won again?

He easily got another 10 million yuan. Wasn't this money too easy to win?

Cao Wenhui felt like he was struck by lightning. He stared at Ye Feng's die blankly. His mind was blank.

He lost, he actually lost again?

Ye Feng patted the table and looked at him with a smile. "Transfer."

In Cao Wenhui's eyes, his smile seemed to be mocking him, which made him even angrier.

Without saying anything, he transferred another 10 million to Ye Feng.

"Again!"

He was gradually losing his mind. In less than two minutes, he had already lost 20 million. Anyone would go crazy.

9 vs 10.

12 vs 13.

17 vs 18...

In the following matches, it was as if there was a ghost, Ye Feng's points were one point higher than his opponent's every time.

At this moment, those who were slightly smarter could already tell that this new kid had been pretending to be a pig to eat a tiger.

How was this a rookie? He was simply the God of Gamblers, alright?

If it was once or twice, it could still be said to be reasonable. However, every time, he was just one point bigger than the other party. That could not be said to be luck.

Everyone looked at Ye Feng in disbelief as if they had seen a ghost.

Even Cheng Fei'er was completely stunned.

Was this guy intentionally losing? So his gambling skills were so good? It was as if he was cheating.

However, the bystanders could see clearly, but the players involved could not.

Cao Wenhui had gone completely crazy at this time. He was focused on winning back the money he had lost and did not notice this at all.

Until the tenth transfer...

“Again!”

He gritted his teeth as he stared at Ye Feng. He wanted to ask for more dice.

But this time, Ye Feng did not touch the dice cup. He just looked at him quietly. “You have already lost 100 million. Do you still have money in your card?”

Only then did Cao Wenhui come to his senses. Unknowingly, he had actually lost 100 million.

There was only a little more than 100 million in this bank card, and now there was probably only a small change left.

Thinking of this, he broke out in a cold sweat.

This was the money that his master had asked him to keep temporarily, but he had actually lost it all.

If his master knew about this, he would probably chop him into pieces.

“B*stard, you cheated...”

He suddenly raised his head and looked at Ye Feng. He was like a wild beast that had lost its mind and was about to pounce on him and bite him.

Ye Feng’s expression immediately darkened. “Why, you want to go back on your words after losing? There are so many people watching. Who saw me cheat? Do you think everyone is blind?”

Everyone around nodded in agreement.

“That’s right. There are so many of us here watching. He didn’t cheat at all.”

“I can only say that his skills are too good. Just admit that you’re unlucky.”

“If you want to blame someone, you can only blame yourself for your poor skills. How can you blame others?”

“Cut Hand Hui, even if you lose, you have to lose fair and square. There’s no need to pester others.”

“If your gambling skills are so bad, who will dare to play with you in the future?”

Although everyone was envious of Ye Feng winning 100 million, they were even a little jealous, but they still said something fair.

Cao Wenhui also knew that, he had been watching Ye Feng’s movements carefully. No matter how skilled the other party was, he would not be able to cheat right under his nose.

However, he had lost too badly this time. How was he going to explain this to his master when he returned?

Ye Feng slowly stood up. “If you have no money to play, then let’s call it a day. When you have money, you can come and look for me.”

Cao Wenhui hurriedly stood up to stop him. “Don’t go...”

Ye Feng stopped in his tracks and turned around to look at him. “Is there anything else?”

Cao Wenhui looked troubled. "You... Can you return the money to me? This money belongs to my master. If my master finds out, I'm afraid he won't let me off..."

When Ye Feng heard this, his expression darkened. "What does this have to do with me? If you are willing to bet, you should be willing to admit defeat. How could you ask for it back after losing?"

The other people in the casino were also very angry at his words.

"Cut Hand Hui, what kind of nonsense is this? How can you ask for it back after losing?"

"That's right. Are you trying to break the rules of the casino?"

"Let alone this little brother, even if he agrees, we won't agree."

"You have the cheek to say such things? You're really not a man..."

Cao Wenhui also knew that his words were a little ridiculous. He had won money, and it was a huge sum of more than 100 million. How could he return it to him?

But he had no other choice. He hurriedly knelt on the ground and kowtowed to Ye Feng.

“I beg you, just treat it as the money I owe you. I’ll pay you back slowly in the future. However, this money belongs to my master. Please lend it to me first...”

Ye Feng was unmoved. He stared at him coldly. “No matter who this money belongs to, it has nothing to do with me. You’re the one who embezzled the money. You’ll find a way to plug the hole yourself. Whether you steal or rob, it has nothing to do with me.”

With that, he immediately turned around and called out to Cheng Fei’er, “Let’s go.”

Cheng Fei’er hurriedly walked over, hooked her arm around his, and walked out together.

Cao Wenhui knelt there in a daze. After Ye Feng’s ‘unintentional’ reminder, he immediately reacted.

Yes, I can steal.

Chapter 880 - 880 Little Thief King, You Really Live Up To Your Reputation!

880 Little Thief King, You Really Live Up To Your Reputation!

“Not bad. I didn’t expect you to be so good at gambling. So you were just pretending to be a pig to eat a tiger?”

The two of them had already walked far away when Cheng Fei’er cried out in surprise, her beautiful eyes filled with surprise.

Ye Feng smiled nonchalantly. "If I don't lose some money, how can I catch a big fish?"

Cheng Fei'er had finally experienced this guy's methods. He had unknowingly cheated Cao Wenhui, and he had directly cheated him of 100 million yuan.

This method, this mentality, it was really a little scary.

"Then what are your next plans?" After she exclaimed, she knew that Ye Feng definitely had a backup plan, so she immediately asked.

"This Cao Wenhui embezzled Ah Can's money. He's afraid of being scolded by his master, so he'll definitely think of a way to make up for it. How do you think he's going to do it?" Ye Feng did not answer directly. He asked a question instead.

Cheng Fei'er frowned and thought for a moment. "He's best at stealing, but it won't be easy to fill such a big hole."

Ye Feng nodded and smiled. "It is indeed not easy to make up for, but I believe that Cao Wenhui must have been to many places before, and he knows where to get money. We just need to follow him and we'll naturally figure it out."

Cheng Fei'er nodded in agreement.

The two of them immediately hid in the dark and waited for Cao Wenhui to appear.

Sure enough, after a while, they saw Cao Wenhui walk out of the casino dejectedly and then take a taxi to leave.

The two of them immediately hailed a taxi and asked the driver to follow them.

Just like that, the two cars drove one after the other to the suburbs. They saw the taxi in front stop in front of a luxurious villa area.

Ye Feng also asked the driver to stop the car and got off with Cheng Fei'er.

The security at the entrance of this villa area was very tight. Cao Wenhui did not choose to enter immediately, but wandered around, probably waiting for the sky to turn dark.

Ye Feng and Cheng Fei'er were not in a hurry either. They were watching from the shadows.

By the time the lanterns were lit, the sky had already darkened.

Cao Wenhui then began to walk slowly to the side of the villa complex.

Ye Feng and Cheng Fei'er immediately followed him.

Cao Wenhui came to the west wall of the villa area and looked around. Seeing that no one was paying attention, he ran over the wall.

Ye Feng and Cheng Fei'er looked at each other. This guy's skills were not bad.

The Little Thief King indeed lived up to his reputation!

The two of them were separated by more than ten seconds. They predicted that Cao Wenhui had already walked some distance before they climbed over the wall and entered.

Coincidentally, they saw Cao Wenhui turning around a villa and heading deep into the villa area.

The two of them quietly followed behind him and soon arrived in front of a dark villa.

Cheng Fei'er immediately took out her phone and started recording evidence.

Cao Wenhui took out a pair of gloves from his pocket and put them on. Then, he found a wire and walked to the door of the villa. After fiddling with it for a while, the door of the villa was easily opened.

Ye Feng and Cheng Fei'er looked at each other again. They were stunned by this guy's superb skills.

The locks of the houses in this high-end villa area were extremely precise. It was very difficult to open them with a wire.

But in Cao Wenhui's hands, it was as easy as flipping his hand. It had to be said that this guy's theft skills were too strong.

If he had half the skill in gambling, he wouldn't have lost so badly.

Seeing that Cao Wenhui had already entered the villa, Ye Feng and the other two immediately followed him.

After Cao Wenhui walked into the villa, he was not in a hurry to search for belongings. Instead, he took out a can of Coke from the refrigerator and leaned comfortably on the sofa to drink.

He had been at this spot for a long time and was very familiar with the situation of the owner of this house.

This house was bought by a wealthy businessman from the mainland. That wealthy businessman often came to the casino to gamble. He probably found it inconvenient to stay in a hotel, so he bought a villa directly.

Actually, he had wanted to make a move some time ago, but his master told him to stop for the time being and not cause trouble everywhere. He could only give up on the idea for the time being.

However, he had lost his master's 100 million today. He could not care less and could only make a move in advance.

After drinking his drink, he carefully cleaned up the scene and began to rummage through the valuables.

When he arrived at the master bedroom and pulled open the bedside table, he was instantly stunned.

In the drawer of the bedside table, there was a drawer full of luxury watches and jewelry.

He hurriedly took them out and counted them. These watches were luxury goods worth hundreds of thousands or millions, and the jewelry was also expensive.

Just this drawer alone was worth at least 20 to 30 million.

He felt his scalp go numb. He had really caught a big fish.

He hurriedly took out the cloth bag that he carried with him and put all these things inside before continuing to rummage through them.

It had to be said that this fish was really big. After that, he continued to rummage through it and found many good things, including some ornaments, calligraphy, and so on.

For someone like him who could be called the 'Little Thief King', not only was his thieving technique superb, but his eyesight was also very sharp. He had a deep understanding of these antique calligraphy and paintings, so he naturally knew what was valuable.

In just ten minutes, the total value of the items he had collected was close to 50 million.

This made his originally depressed mood immediately improve a lot.

Today's trip was quite fruitful. It seemed that there was hope to plug that hole.

But when he thought of this, he gritted his teeth in hatred toward Ye Feng.

He gradually understood that the little b*stard was probably setting a trap for him on purpose, waiting for him to crawl into it.

If he hadn't scammed so much money out of him, all the treasures he had now would have been his.

The more he thought about it, the angrier he got. 'Don't let me meet that little b*stard again. Otherwise, I'll make you pay.'

As he thought about it, he opened the master wardrobe and was completely shocked.
