

Found 100 Million In My Rented Apartment - Chapter 9

Chapter 9

Destiny Navigation Activated, A Wedding Ring

Lin Junjun nodded.

Since it was not a secret, she told Ye Feng casually.

It turned out that an old man living in Villa No. 3 had lost his wedding ring from decades ago.

The old man and his wife were very loving. They had worked hard together for decades, from the most difficult times to today.

The ring was a symbol of their shared life and death. Although it was not valuable, it was a priceless treasure to the old man.

“From black hair to white hair. This kind of love really makes people envious!”

Lin Junjun felt a little emotional after she finished speaking.

Unwavering love was rare even for ordinary people, let alone Shang Hai, who had a life full of temptation.

Ye Feng did not feel much about this.

Now that his curiosity had been satisfied, he didn't plan to stay any longer and bade Lin Junjun farewell.

“Mr. Ye, this is my phone number. You can contact me at any time if you need anything!” Seeing that Ye Feng was about to leave, Lin Junjun quickly passed her business card over.

After Ye Feng took it, he walked out of the villa area.

Lin Junjun continued to lead the security guards in their search for the wedding ring.

[A new land of opportunity has been detected. Route planning has been started for the host.]

[Host, please follow the current path and walk forward for 100 meters. Then, turn left and walk straight for 300 meters. Finally, walk 500 meters to the right. The whole journey is 900 meters. You will reach your destination in 10 minutes.]

A new opportunity!

Ye Feng was slightly surprised.

He immediately started walking forward.

Ten minutes later, Ye Feng had arrived at his destination.

There was an artificial lake here. The water in the artificial lake was very clear, and carps could be seen swimming in it.

Around the man-made lake was a large lawn, with some ginkgo trees and low shrubs.

The environment was not bad!

But... It seemed to have nothing to do with his luck?

There was no one or anything here, so what was his opportunity?

Ye Feng had a headache.

Suddenly, there was a flash of light in the grass.

Eh?

Ye Feng was stunned. He squatted down and looked at it carefully. A moment later, a platinum ring appeared on his hand.

The ring was a little old, looking like a style from the 70s and 80s.

However, the ring was well-preserved, and there was not a single scratch on it, as if it was newly bought.

Could this be his lucky chance?

It didn't look like anything special.

Even if it was old, it wasn't worth much...

Wait a minute!

A wedding ring!

Suddenly, Lin Junjun's words rang in Ye Feng's mind.

Could this ring be the wedding ring that the old man had lost?

Ye Feng did not think that this was a coincidence!

The reason the system didn't give him any hints this time was probably because Lin Junjun had already told him about it. As such, it was very likely that the ring belonged to that old man.

Hence, he took out his phone and called Lin Junjun.

When Lin Junjun heard that Ye Feng had found a ring that most likely belonged to the owner of Villa No. 3, she was extremely excited.

She did not tell Ye Feng that the old man in Villa No. 3 was not an ordinary person.

Tan Bohong, Elder Tan, was a real giant in the business world of Zhonghai City.

Not only was he highly respected, but he also had a wide network of connections all over the country!

Even the provincial governor had to show respect to him, let alone the prefect of Zhonghai!

It was a big deal to find his token!

At the thought of this, Lin Junjun immediately said, "Mr. Ye, please wait for me. I'll be right there!"

"Alright!" After agreeing, Ye Feng sat on the bench and waited for Lin Junjun.

On the other side, Lin Junjun also hurriedly called Elder Tan.

In Villa No. 3.

When Tan Bohong heard the news of the ring, he lost his usual calm and gentlemanly demeanor. He was so excited that he stood up from the sofa.

“President Lin, thank you so much!”

For the past two days, he had been so anxious that he couldn’t even eat because of the ring’s disappearance.

There was finally some news!

He immediately went to look for Lin Junjun.

After he found out from Lin Junjun that she wasn’t the one who found the ring, but someone else who found it at the artificial lake, Tan Bohong immediately rushed over to the lake.

Five to six minutes later, Lin Junjun saw Ye Feng and was about to greet him when the words that were on the tip of her tongue came to an abrupt end.

That was because she saw a scene that seemed like a fantasy story.

The white-haired Elder Tan was actually wearing slippers and running all the way here!

When Lin Junjun saw the nervous yet expectant look on Elder Tan’s face as he scanned the crowd by the lake, she instantly understood what was going on.

She subconsciously looked at Ye Feng again, her expression was filled with envy.

It was because, from Elder Tan’s actions, she could completely conclude that this ring’s weight in Elder Tan’s heart was much heavier than she had imagined!

Just this ring alone was enough for Elder Tan to owe Ye Feng a huge favor!
