

Chapter 1605

Such a young girl even dared to talk back to her. She must be seeking death!

Jewel shook her head with a determined expression. "Don't you dare hurt Sister Debra so long I'm here!"

Jewel then glared at Megan. "You evil woman who had done so many bad things to Darryl. You framed him by saying he killed Mount Hua Sect Master. A vicious woman like you should die..."

Slap!

Megan quickly walked over and slapped Jewel brutally on the face before she could finish.

"B*tch. How dare you talk to me like that! You have no manners!" Megan coldly said. She felt that a slap was not enough to relieve her anger, so she slapped Jewel a couple more times with one harder than the next!

Slap! Slap! Slap!

The crisp slapping sounds kept ringing!

How could the extremely weak Jewel take it? At that moment, there was blood coming out of her mouth and her legs felt like jelly. However, she kept yelling, "Evil woman! You should die! You should die..."

It was one matter of not saving them, but Megan still wanted to bully Debra. There was no one more vicious than Megan.

Megan was even more furious upon hearing those words and grabbed Jewel's hair before slapping her even more violently.

"Jewel..."

"Megan, you're hitting a young girl. Are you even human?"

"Come at me if you dare..."

Dax, Chester, Debra, and the others were extremely shocked and furious upon seeing this scene as they yelled at Megan.

Especially Dax, he was so furious that he was about to explode with his extremely reddened eyes.

Jewel was such a good and adorable girl, yet she was being beaten by Megan. It was infuriating.

"Hehe..."

Megan sneered upon hearing their yells, "You asked me not to hit her? I especially want to hit her. Not only do I want to hit her, but I also want to kill this rude girl as well."

Megan then engaged her internal energy and was about to violently hit Jewel squarely in her heart!

Dax, Debra, and the others were instantly worried as their expressions changed to the extent their hearts were about to pop out.

'Master Darryl... We'll see each other in the next life.'

Jewel's tears could not stop falling upon seeing Megan's attack approaching her as she closed her eyes in despair.

Although Jewel was also a cultivator, she was not Megan's match.

"Master Castello. No!"

A figure swiftly approached right at this moment with a stern expression.

It was Sect Master Endless!

Megan furrowed her brows and forcefully retracted her attack!

"Woo!"

Sect Master Endless took a deep breath before putting his hands together and slowly said, "Amitabha, Master Castello. We're all connected since all of us are from the same mainland. Let's not fight each other in such crucial moments. We should more so not hurt or kill the innocent..."

Master Endless found it inappropriate to interfere with Megan's grudge against Darryl at first. However, he could no longer take it upon seeing Megan bullying a young girl.

Master Leonard then persuaded her, "Yes, she's just a young girl. Why should you be bothered with her? Let's quickly go before the Royal Army arrives."

In truth, Master Leonard wanted to persuade Megan to rescue the Carter family and Elysium Gate altogether. However, he completely put the idea aside upon seeing the current situation.

"Consider yourself lucky today."

Megan slapped Jewel once more. "I'll let you go on behalf of Wudang and Shaolin. I'll make you suffer the next time you're in my hands. B*tch, consider yourself lucky that I only slapped you this time."

Chapter 1606

In truth, Megan was preparing to kill Jewel!

However, both Shaolin and Wudang were famous sects with high status in the World Universe's world of cultivators. Megan had to give them the face and obey them if they stepped out to persuade Megan against attacking Jewel.

Jewel's face was red and swollen. However, her eyes were still full of defiance.

"Megan, wait and see!" Dax glared at Megan at that moment. "I'll settle this with you once I get out of this alive!"

At the same time, Chester's eyes were reddened too as he glared at Megan.

He could never forget how tragically his wife died in her hands.

In addition to the way Megan wanted to kill Jewel moments ago, such a woman would only bring troubles for the world of cultivators!

"Woo!"

Megan smiled condescendingly upon feeling the anger of Dax and the others. "It's undetermined who will be a trouble for who in the future."

Megan then waved her hands at her surrounding Emei disciples. "Quick, let's leave with the sect masters."

She had been in the prison for a long time and others would easily start suspecting her if she were to continue staying there.

After all, this was the Royal City Prison where their security could not be so lax all the time.

“Yes, Master.” Dozens of Emei disciples responded before leading the way and guarding those sect masters out of prison.

Megan slowly followed suit.

Megan turned around and smiled ambiguously at Dax and the others in the prison once the last person was brought out and coldly said, “Dax and Chester, the world of cultivators in the World Universe will be firmly in my hand by then even if you could escape out alive. At that time, I won’t be afraid at all even if you three brothers joined forces.”

Megan then smiled seductively before turning around and left.

‘What?’

‘World Universe’s world of cultivators will be in her hands?’

Dax and Chester’s expressions instantly darkened.

Could she have something planned out to speak so surely?

Damn it!

Chester was always stable and farsighted. He immediately thought of something and anxiously said, “Megan must be faking the entire rescue operation! She must have thought of some vicious ways to deal with Master Leonard and the others.”

Chester was so anxious and sweated profusely when he said that.

He was too careless. Megan had previously murdered the Mount Hua Sect Master. How could she be so kind-hearted to come to save Wudang and Shaolin?

Chester rushed to the bars with that thought in mind and yelled outward, “Master Leonard! Sect Master Endless! Megan has treacherous intentions, so all of you have to be careful...”

However, only the night breeze replied to him as Shaolin, Wudang, and the other sects were already taken far away by Megan.

“Master Wilson is right, Megan is too malicious...”

“Yes, such a vicious woman. How kind-hearted could she be?”

“We’re done for, we’re clearly done for...”

Dax, Susan, Debra, and the others all came to their senses at that moment. They were extremely saddened and anxious.

...

Meanwhile, Wudang, Shaolin, and the other sects successfully escaped the Royal City under the Emei disciples’ protection.

Such was because Megan had planned this with Ambrose of course who gave the command to relax the city gate security. Otherwise, they could not have successfully brought so many sects away just solely depending on the Emei Sect’s powers.

This was the New World Royal City after all.

It was unfortunate that Master Leonard, Sect Master Endless, and the other sect masters did not notice all these as their only concern at that moment was to leave the place as fast as possible. It had not occurred to them the reason their escape was so smooth.

Chapter 1607

They finally reached the woods a few kilometers outside of the Royal City.

All of them stopped to rest.

“Everyone!”

Megan smiled at that moment and slowly said, “The previous intense battle with the New World Royals has left you with depleted internal energy. I’m afraid the Royal Army and Incandescent Sect will catch up with us soon if all of you continue in this manner.”

Megan then took out a jade flask before she smiled and said, “I coincidentally have some elixir here that could help you regain your internal energy. Everyone, quickly have some, so as we could deal with the unexpected easier once your internal energy has fully recovered.”

Megan then passed the flask to one of the disciples beside her and instructed the disciple to pass it on to Master Leonard and the rest.

Megan’s face was smiling at that moment, yet her eyes showed hints of maliciousness.

Wow!

The cultivators of Wudang and Shaolin were extremely excited and delighted at that instance.

Master Leonard, Sect Master Endless, and the other sect masters stood up and expressed their gratitude.

“Thank you, Master Castello.”

“How thoughtful of you, Master Castello.”

“Yes, you must’ve spent a lot on the elixirs.”

The praises which kept coming only made Megan smile even wider and waved her hand in dismissal. “We’re all connected since we’re from the same mainland. You all don’t have to be so polite.”

The elixir had been passed to the unsuspecting Master Leonard and the others at that moment as all of them consumed the elixir.

Megan’s lips curled into a smile upon seeing this scene as she had succeeded halfway so long they consumed the elixir.

Woola!

They sat on the floor with their legs crossed and started to recuperate their internal energy after they consumed the elixir.

However, Sect Master Endless suddenly frowned hard after a few seconds and shuddered...

Something was not right...

Sect Master Endless’s face turned pale at that moment and started to wonder about the strange situation. The speed at which he regained his internal energy should have increased after consuming the elixir. However, not only did his energy field did not react at that moment, but he also felt as though his internal energy had been locked up and unable to be engaged at all.

Not only that, he felt immensely weak—as though his energy field was being suppressed!

This was a sign of being poisoned!

Sect Master Endless stood up with that thought in mind. However, his legs were sore and felt like jelly—unable to exert any strength.

'Haha! The elixir is working!'

Megan was extremely delighted upon seeing this scene before she smiled and looked at Sect Master Endless. "Sect Master Endless, what's wrong?"

Her tone sounded concerned, yet mixed with maliciousness in it.

"Master Castello, I-I..." Sect Master Endless opened his mouth and tried to say a few words but was cut off by Megan.

Megan smiled and said, "Master, are you feeling extremely sore and weak? As though there's an invisible force suppressing your energy field and you can't engage any internal energy?"

Swoosh!

The expression of Sect Master Endless darkened upon hearing that and suspiciously looked at her. "Master Castello—there's something in the elixir that you gave us, right?"

Master Leonard and the other looked at Megan in fear and anger upon hearing that before reprimanding.

"Master Castello, what do you mean by this?"

"How could you be so vicious despite being such a gorgeous woman? How could you poison us?"

Chapter 1608

"Megan, what is it that you want? We did not have any feud with you. Why did you poison us?"

Master Leonard wanted to rush over while reprimanding but only took two steps before his expression changed. He could feel that he could not use his internal energy at all and felt his entire body sore and weak at the same time!

At that very moment, the others started to tremble with changed expressions!

"Damn, my internal energy seems to have been suppressed..."

"Mine too..."

"Such a terrible poison..."

The powerful cultivators of each sect slumped onto the ground before they could finish talking—barely able to move.

Megan then said to Sect Master Endless upon seeing this scene, "Master Endless, you are right. What I gave you isn't the elixir to regain your internal energy, but poison! I'm sure you did not expect this, right?"

'What? It's really poisonous!'

Sect Master Endless was afraid and angry at the same time. All these sects had no feud with Megan, why did she do that?

He sweated profusely. What poison did Megan give them? Such an impressive poison that he did not even notice it!

Megan smiled even wider at that moment as she maliciously looked at Sect Master Endless, "Master, don't bother trying to guess. What I gave you is the Dark Day Pill. This poison smells good but is extremely poisonous."

'Dark Day Pill?'

Sect Master Endless, Master Leonard, and the others were confused upon hearing that.

What sort of poison was that? Why had they not heard about it before?

Megan smiled but said nothing upon seeing their reactions.

The Dark Day Pill was indeed a poison stated in the Immortal Pure Scripture which Megan was practicing. The Yellow Turban Rebellion leader, Zhang Jue invented this pill to control his enemies a thousand years ago.

The Yellow Turban Rebellion was wiped out later on and Zhang Jue had gone missing, so this poison ceased to exist in the world of cultivators.

The Dark Day Pill saw daylight once again when Megan started practicing and cultivating the Immortal Pure Scripture.

At that moment, Megan looked pleased with them and said, "Master Endless and Master Leonard. The effects of the Dark Day Pill are almost similar to the Heaven Cult Elixir from the Grandmaster Heaven Cult, but its effect is 10 times worse."

Megan's eyes then fell on Sect Master Endless. "In addition, the special feature of the poison is it reacts faster toward stronger poisoned people. Sect Master Endless is the first to react—no wonder you're Shaolin's First Divine Monk."

Sect Master Endless had been practicing the Body Transformation Scripture cultivation method which was not too impressive at the beginning but would get stronger the more you cultivate it. At that moment, Sect Master Endless had grown to be extremely strong!

The other sects were anxious as well at that moment.

'Megan said the Dark Day Pill was ten times worse than the Heaven Cult Elixir?'

Their expressions changed upon hearing that and could not help but secretly gasp!

Although the Grandmaster Heaven Cult no longer exists, everyone was familiar with the Heaven Cult Elixir. The Cult Master of the Grandmaster Heaven Cult previously used the Heaven Cult Elixir to control his people. It had been said that those who consumed the Heaven Cult Elixir would have their bodies rot to death if they did not consume the antidote within a year. It would be a tragic death.

If the Dark Day Pill was 10 times worse than the Heaven Cult Elixir, would it not be even more tragic when the poison acts?

"Master Castello..." Sect Master Endless was the first to come to his senses. He first chanted a Buddhist verse before looking at Megan and slowly said, "Why are you doing this? We have no grudge with you."

Swoosh!

Chapter 1609

Master Leonard and the others glared fiercely and furiously at Megan at the same time.

Megan was really too sinister. How dare she take advantage of them and poison the major sects. Was she not afraid of becoming the World Universe's public enemy?

Megan smiled and looked at them before slowly saying, "My fellow sect masters, don't panic. I don't plan to kill you."

“My conditions are simple. All of you will recognize me as the Alliance Master from today onwards and shall not defy any of my commands. I’ll immediately help you lessen the effect of the poison as long as you agree. You should know that the poison has penetrated the meridians all over your body once you’ve consumed the Dark Day Pill. In the entire Nine Mainland, there is no one else who has the antidote other than me.”

Megan’s eyes swept across them as she said that.

Megan’s final purpose of saving the sects was indeed to become the World Universe Alliance Master. It would have been very hard to capture Shaolin, Wudang, and the other sects together at once with just Emei Sect’s powers.

However, Wudang, Shaolin, and the other sects were locked up by the New World Royals because they tried to rescue Darryl’s friends and family this time.

It was a rare opportunity.

Wow!

All of the sect masters suddenly erupted into an uproar upon hearing her words.

“You want to be the Alliance Master?”

“Although you are the Emei Sect Master, you’re still young and inexperienced. What makes you think you could be the Alliance Master?”

“Yes. In addition, you are using such dirty tricks. You think all of us will be afraid of death?”

Their accusations toward Megan kept going.

Megan smiled and scanned the surroundings upon hearing that. “Let’s not talk about whether I have the abilities or not first. All of your lives are currently in my hands.”

Megan then slowly walked to Sect Master Endless. “Sect Master Endless, Shaolin is respected by all in the World Universe. Why don’t you be the first to speak?”

The other sects would be less of a worry so long Shaolin bowed to her.

“Amitabha!” Sect Master Endless’s face was full of helplessness as he looked at Megan and deeply said, “Master Castello—Shaolin and Emei have always been connected. I witnessed when you first joined the Emei with great character, yet now you’ve gone evil. Such a pity...”

Sect Master Endless then sighed and continued, “Master Castello, listen to me. There’s still time to repent.”

Megan frowned and coldly said, “Stop with the nagging. Are you or are you not going to recognize me as the Alliance Master?”

Sect Master Endless shook his head. “Master Castello. Although you’re talented, it’s less than sufficient to be the Alliance Master...”

“Oh.” Megan attacked swiftly upon hearing his words and jabbed Sect Master Endless’s acupoints.

Sect Master Endless was already extremely weakened after consuming the Dark Day Pill, yet Megan jabbed at the painful points.

Gasp!

Sect Master Endless’s face turned immensely pale under immense pain and was sweating profusely! He started trembling violently and kept on gasping.

Sect Master Endless felt like being bitten by thousands of ants at once at that moment. An excruciating pain that one would never know without personally going through it.

Megan's lips curled before smiling seductively and charmingly, while the surrounding crowd was shuddering in fear.

This very pretty woman was so vile.

"Master Leonard."

Megan's eyes fell on Master Leonard at that moment. "Sect Master Endless is an old man who doesn't understand his current situation. I'm certain you're better, right? I'll save you from the pains of the flesh as long as you kneel and call me Alliance Master."

Chapter 1610

Master Leonard fearlessly sneered, "Hehe... Megan, you underestimated Wudang. Wudang won't be the sect it currently is if I were to recognize you as the Alliance Master today."

"Great! Great!" Megan nodded furiously. "Such integrity!"

Megan then attacked once more and jabbed at Master Leonard's painful acupoints.

Master Leonard instantly wailed loudly before falling to the floor and rolling about.

It was without a doubt that the Dark Day Pill was a vicious poison. Other than having their internal energy suppressed to the extent of not having any strength once a cultivator consumed it, their pain sensitivity had also been increased tremendously. In other words, the pains they felt would be much more intense than usual.

Even powerful cultivators like Sect Master Endless and Master Leonard would not be able to take it under these circumstances!

Gasp!

The other cultivators turned pale upon witnessing this scene and shuddered in fear from the bottom of their hearts!

"What about all of you?" Megan scanned the surroundings at that moment with her icy-cold voice. "Those who follow me will live while those who don't will die. I want all of you to properly think about this."

The Mountain Peak Sect Master was the first to walk out and knelt in front of Megan before loudly saying, "All hail the Alliance Master!"

It was not a joke. Megan's tactics were too vicious. Even Sect Master Endless and Master Leonard could not even endure it. How could the others?

It was wise to follow the current trends as they said. They had no choice but to submit to Megan based on the situation right before their eyes.

"All hail the Alliance Master!"

The surrounding people instantly knelt as well.

The situation before their eyes was clear. The results would be death if they did not submit to Megan.

They were not fools. No one wanted to die.

Megan curled her lips into a smile upon seeing this scene.

Her hard work had paid off.

Megan looked at Sect Master Endless and Master Leonard with that thought in mind. "So? Master Endless and Master Leonard, have you given more thoughts about it?"

"Woo!" Sect Master Endless took a deep breath while sweating profusely. He stuttered while feeling immensely weak, "S-since... Master Castello has been elected by everyone, I have no opinion about it..."

His pained expression contained hints of helplessness as he said that.

The situation in front of him was clear with all of the sects supporting Megan. Shaolin would be the odd one out if they continued with their usual ways. His life was still in Megan's hands after all.

Master Leonard beside him did not say anything, but his expression was indifferent and acquiescent.

"Woo!"

Megan let out a sigh and was immensely delighted. She smiled and looked at Sect Master Endless. "Won't it be great if you behaved like this earlier? You won't have to suffer in the first place."

Megan then slowly walked over and undo Sect Master Endless and Master Leonard's painful acupoints.

The pain slowly subdued as the two of them suddenly looked immensely relieved.

Silence!

It was utter silence! Other than the surrounding night breeze from the woods, it was total silence as everyone looked at Megan.

This woman was terrifying! She looked gentle and charming externally, yet she was vicious!

"Everyone!"

Megan scanned the surroundings right at this moment and smiled. "I won't say no to being the Alliance Master since I have everybody's love. Everyone, rest for a while. I'll need you to do something for me once we return to the World Universe."

"Please tell us, Alliance Master!" The surrounding cultivators instantly responded in unison in a respectful tone.

"I want all of you to destroy everything that has to do with Darryl once we head back without leaving a single one behind," said Megan coldly. Although she was smiling, her eyes were filled with maliciousness.

The Elysium Gate had been punishing evil and upheld the good all these years. They have managed to conquer a lot of evil forces in the world of cultivators with most of these evil forces having turned a new leaf to do good instead and joined the Elysium Gate though some did not.

Chapter 1611

Megan loathed Darryl due to love, so she considered all these forces that were friendly to Darryl an annoyance.

Gasp!

The entire crowd was in an uproar upon hearing that as many cultivators' expressions changed.

What? Megan just became the Alliance Master and she had already wanted to fight against Darryl?

Darryl was the World Universe's ultimate hero. Otherwise, the other sects would not have risked their lives to break into the New World Prison!

All of them instantly looked at each other—troubled.

"Yes, Master!" They replied in unison a few seconds later.

In truth, they were reluctant to become Darryl's enemies.

However, they had no choice as their sect's lives were in Megan's hands. They had to obey her every command.

Hmm!

Megan nodded in satisfaction and smiled. 'Darryl! I begged you previously, yet you refused me! Refusing me will be your most regretful decision you've ever made in your entire life.'

...

Meanwhile in the New World Palace.

Monica was sitting by the window in her chamber with her gorgeous face full of worry and sadness. It was a huge contrast with the elegant robe she was adorning.

Lord Kenny's beastly character went into overdrive three days ago as he tore away Monica's clothes. However, Monica slapped him at the last moment.

Lord Kenny suddenly regained clarity when he was slapped.

In truth, Monica was the only woman in Lord Kenny's heart and he was not thinking straight when he tore off her clothes!

Lord Kenny apologized to Monica after that.

That incident was a few days ago. However, Monica did not take it to heart because her heart was constantly thinking about Darryl to the point of soul-crushing.

Monica was extremely bitter in her heart at that moment. She was reunited with Darryl for not long, yet they had to part again.

She also did not know how Darryl was doing after escaping the palace.

"Mother Empress!" A yell came from outside her chamber right at this moment before Ambrose slowly entered with a concerned face.

Ambrose noticed his mother always had a sad face ever since entering the palace.

"Woo!"

Ambrose approached Monica at that moment and asked, "Mother Empress, why are you unhappy all the time?"

Monica turned her head and flatly said, "Ambrose, stop calling me Mother Empress. I'm not your Mother Empress!"

Monica never wanted to be the Empress and hearing that only made her uncomfortable.

More importantly, Monica had clearly felt that the once obedient and adorable Ambrose had changed and became like a stranger to her.

"Mother!" Ambrose chuckled helplessly upon hearing that and immediately changed the way he called her. He then walked over and comforted her. "Mother, I don't understand what's so good about that Darryl? He can't even protect his own woman, yet the whole day you can only think about him."

Ambrose then scanned the surrounding elegant and majestic chamber before continuing, "Isn't it good to be the Empress. Father Emperor loves you so much and there are so many people to serve you. You have a lifetime of wealth and glory to enjoy—"

Monica's expressions changed before he could finish and immediately interrupted. "Shut up! Even if there's something bad about him, he's still your biological father regardless."

Monica then waved her hands. "Go away. Let me be in peace."

Chapter 1612

In truth, Monica wanted to fiercely educate Ambrose but knew in her heart that Ambrose had already grown up at that moment. He was not her little boy anymore.

"Alright...then! Mother, rest well!" Ambrose silently sighed, turned, and left her chamber.

"Your Highness!"

A eunuch hastily approached him when he was outside the chamber. "A young lady is asking to see you at the palace entrance!"

'Another young lady? It must be one of Megan's Emei Sect disciples.'

Ambrose furrowed his brows before waiving and said, "Tell her I'm not seeing guests."

He had already cooperated with Megan and let Wudang, Shaolin, and the other sects go. What else did she want? He was the Prince after all. How could she see him whenever she wanted to?

The eunuch had a conflicted expression and bitterly said, "Your Majesty, I've said so too, but the lady was determined and said she won't leave until she gets to see you!"

Ambrose sighed upon hearing this before following the eunuch to the palace entrance.

'Hmm?'

Ambrose shuddered when he reached there! He noticed a beautiful petite figure standing by the palace gates. This young girl was extremely gorgeous with an egg-shaped face and extremely exquisite features. She was in a pastel-colored short dress—as adorable as a flower elf.

It was Eira Hansen whom he had not seen in a long time!

"Brother Ambrose..."

Eira was shocked and delighted upon meeting Ambrose before she let out a cheer and rushed over like a small bird into Ambrose's arms.

"Sister Eira!" Ambrose came to his senses after the gentle figure was in his arms. He was stunned and elated at the same time. "It's you..."

Ambrose was happily smiling when he said that. He was extremely happy! Ambrose could not help but size Eira up at the same time.

The little girl was all grown up after not seeing her for a few years. She was like a little fairy!

Eira blinked her eyes before she smiled and said, "Brother Ambrose. I'm sure you didn't expect this, right?"

Although she had not seen him for a few years, she felt close to Ambrose in Eira's heart. In addition, their relationship seemed to have become closer!

Ambrose heavily nodded his head. "Not only is this unexpected, but I'm also completely surprised. Come, let's talk inside."

He then took Eira's hand and entered the palace.

At the Prince's Palace, he invited Eira to take a seat and concurrently instructed the eunuch outside to quickly prepare tea and some snacks.

"Sister Eira, where have you been all these years?" Ambrose could not help but ask once the tea and snacks were served.

In truth, Ambrose did not forget to look for Eira besides practicing hard on cultivation, but the entire Nine Mainland was too huge. Ambrose has gone to many places, yet received no news on Eira's whereabouts.

"I..."

Eira's eyes dimmed a little upon hearing this before immediately smiled and said, "Mother has been taking me everywhere all these years! We've almost traveled the entire Nine Mainland."

"Do you know that I've encountered many interesting things..."

"My powers are also much stronger than before. I've become amazing..."

Eira was right. Aurora brought Eira along and roamed the entire Nine Mainland ever since being forced to leave the Emei Sect. Although they did not often stay in a place for long, Eira gained quite a lot of knowledge through the experience as well.

'I see.' Ambrose nodded his head in realization upon hearing that. No wonder he could not get any news on her. She had been wandering around at such a young age. It must be tough on her!

Ambrose could not help but think back about his tough childhood at that instance and felt closer toward Eira who had gone through similar life experiences.

Ambrose could not help but ask emotionally, "Right. Sister Eira, how did you know I'm at the palace?"

"Hehe..."

Eira smiled. "The news spread throughout the entire New World when Brother Ambrose was crowned prince. I would have heard about it of course!"

Eira then suddenly thought of something and slapped her forehead. "Right, Brother Ambrose. I came looking for you today for a favor!"

Chapter 1613

Haha...

Seeing her adorable look, Ambrose could not help but laugh. He stretched his hand out and tapped on Eira's nose. "Don't be polite with me. Tell me if there's anything and I'll try to help you out the best I can."

He was the Prince. He would try his best to take it for her even if it's the moon and stars as long as Eira liked it.

"Brother Ambrose..."

Eira cocked her head in an embarrassed look before softly saying, "I hear...that the World Universe's sects have been captured during daytime. Could you please release them?!"

Although she was embarrassed, Eira's eyes were full of hope.

For the past few days, Aurora brought Eira along to the New World to gain some experience and got news about Darryl fighting in an intense battle against the New World Emperor. Darryl later somehow escaped but his friends and family were all captured.

Aurora loathed Darryl, so she would naturally not be bothered with any of that. However, she then learned that Wudang, Shaolin, and the other sects had come over to break them out of prison, but ended up being caught as well.

Although Aurora had left Emei a long time ago, she still paid attention to the world of cultivators' situation in the World Universe. She was clear that the World Universe would be finished if Wudang, Shaolin, and the other sects were destroyed by the New World Royals.

Aurora then brought Eira to gather news at the Royal City.

Except that Aurora was proud and arrogant. She wanted to save the other sects but did not do so due to her ego and would also not say it in front of Eira.

Eira's a smart girl, so she naturally knew what her mother was thinking.

Eira secretly slipped out just moments ago while Aurora was resting in her inn.

It was because she heard that her good friend Ambrose was now the New World Royals' Prince. He would surely release them based on their relationship if she were to find him.

'Hmm?'

Ambrose was stunned for a while upon hearing this and looked at Eira in a daze. "You want to release Wudang, Shaolin, and the other sects?"

"Yes!"

Eira seriously nodded with her pretty face. "Although I was kicked out of the Emei Sect, I'm still from the World Universe after all..."

Eira then tugged on Ambrose's arm and coquettishly shook it. "Brother Ambrose, please take it as though I'm begging you. Please..."

Eira did not know that the Wudang, Shaolin, and the other sects had been rescued by Megan at that moment.

"Ok..."

Ambrose chuckled and looked at Eira. "You don't have to beg me. Wudang, Shaolin, and the other sects have been released by me!"

In truth, Ambrose wanted to say that he cooperated with Megan and released them.

However, he changed his mind as he recalled Aurora and Eira were kicked out of the Emei Sect due to Megan, so he hid that part of the truth.

"Really?"

Eira shuddered upon hearing that as she grabbed hold of Ambrose's arm with a surprised face.

Ambrose looked at Eira full of love and tenderness before he smiled and said, "Why will I lie to you about such a thing? My silly Eira."

Although Ambrose was still not fully an adult at that moment, he knew a little about love too.

"That's amazing!"

Eira cheered. She then could not help herself but approached Ambrose's forehead and pecked lightly on it.

Buzz!

Ambrose instantly tensed at that moment as he felt the warmth on his face. His mind was buzzing and in bafflement.

'E-Eira kissed me?'

It was a great feeling.

Swoosh!

Eira realized she went overboard a little upon seeing Ambrose looking at her in a daze and her exquisite face suddenly blushed. It was unspeakably adorable and charming.

Chapter 1614

Ambrose and Eira looked at each other as the atmosphere in the palace changed a little at that moment.

"Brother Ambrose!"

A few seconds later, Eira came to her senses and gently asked, "W-why did you let those sects go?"

Uh...

Ambrose scratched his head and was conflicted.

He knew that he could not mention Megan in front of Eira, so how should he go about explaining?

"His Majesty has arrived!"

However, a eunuch suddenly yelled out loud from outside the main hall just when Ambrose was secretly conflicted and followed by footsteps heading toward them.

'Father Emperor is here!'

Ambrose jumped at that instance in sudden panic.

The palace had strict rules, especially at night. No one was allowed to enter on their own without the Emperor's permission. Even the Prince could not bring anyone in!

Eira was not a royal member, so if she might get into trouble if she were seen by the Emperor!

'The Emperor is here?'

Eira was stunned as well at the same time as she quickly stood and said to Ambrose, "Brother Ambrose, what should we do?"

Ambrose forced himself to be calm and replied, "Don't panic, we'll find a place for you to hide."

Eira responded and was about to find a place to hide.

"Haha, Ambrose, are you asleep yet?"

A chuckle came from the main hall's entrance right at that moment as Lord Kenny slowly walked in wearing a golden dragon robe while emitting a powerful aura. He was unspeakably majestic.

'Hmm?'

He noticed the flustered Eira when Lord Kenny just entered and stopped smiling. He pointed at Eira and asked Ambrose, "Ambrose, who is she?"

At the same time, Lord Kenny could not help but size Eira up and was secretly praising her, 'This girl is only in her teens, yet she's extremely gorgeous like a fairy. She'll be a stunning lady when she grows up.'

'Damn it! Father Emperor found out.'

Ambrose held back the uneasiness in his heart upon seeing this scene and softly said, "Father Emperor, her name is Eira Hansen and she's my friend. We haven't seen each other in many years and she purposely came over tonight to catch up."

Ambrose decided to be honest since he was caught by the Emperor.

Ambrose secretly hinted at Eira with his eyes as he said that.

Eira was a smart girl and immediately understood before quickly curtsy at Lord Kenny. "Eira Hansen greets Your Majesty..."

Her face was calm as she said that, but she was extremely worried in her heart.

The aura that Lord Kenny emitted was extremely powerful after all.

"Get up, get up!"

Lord Kenny chuckled and waved his hands and Eira. "You don't have to be so nervous since you're Ambrose's friend."

Lord Kenny then said to Ambrose, "I see, so she's your friend."

He had always treated Ambrose as his own and was always a benevolent father. More importantly, Eira was so gorgeous. They were the perfect pair when she stood next to Ambrose! How could he be angry?

"Woo!"

Ambrose and Eira looked at each other upon hearing that and secretly let out a sigh of relief.

Lord Kenny slowly walked over at that moment before sitting down and asked Ambrose, "Ambrose, I heard that Wudang, Shaolin, and the other sects broke into the prison during daytime and were caught by you. What's the current situation?"

Uh...

Ambrose scratched his head and was a little conflicted before carefully saying, "Father Emperor, I did catch those sects. However, I've...also released them."

Lord Kenny's expressions changed as he immediately stood up, frowned, and asked, "Why?"

Wudang, Shaolin, and the other sects fell into the trap. It was a good chance to weaken the World Universe's powers. However, Ambrose ended up letting them go.

"Woo!"

Chapter 1615

Ambrose took a deep breath and slowly explained, "Father Emperor. I understand your wish is to conquer the Nine Mainland. However, Father Emperor has just ascended the throne not long ago. The most important matter now is to buy the hearts of the people. I'm afraid others would say that you're too cruel if we destroy the World Universe's sects."

Ambrose then looked at Lord Kenny's reaction before continuing, "I released them so that I could give you a kind and good name. Furthermore, these sects are just a bunch of novices. It'll be a piece of cake if we want to destroy them in the future."

Although he treated Lord Kenny as his real father, he still could not tell him the fact that he conspired with Megan.

Lord Kenny's expressions changed a few times upon hearing this before nodding and said, "Hmm... So this is what's going through your mind. Not bad. Not bad. Ambrose. Who would have thought that you can be so thoughtful at such a young age? My efforts did not go to waste."

Lord Kenny then looked arrogant and said, "You're right. It's just a matter of thought if we wanted to destroy these bunch of novices."

The main enemy was Darryl in Lord Kenny's heart. As for Wudang, Shaolin, and the other sects—they only came in second.

"Father Emperor is wise!" Ambrose smiled happily and made obeisance at the same time.

Lord Kenny waved his hands before smiling at Ambrose and said, "Ok, let's not talk about this! I just finished work and I'm a little hungry right now. Ambrose, why don't you accompany me for some supper?"

Lord Kenny then turned to look at Eira. "This young lady can join us too!"

She was considered one of their own since she was Ambrose's friend.

'What? The Emperor invited her for supper?'

Eira was stunned at that instance and felt she was too lucky.

Eira then came to her senses before bowing with respect and fear. "Thank you, Your Majesty..."

Ambrose was unspeakably elated and excited at that moment. His father indeed loved him a lot as not only did he not blame him for bringing Eira into the palace, but also treated her as their own.

Ambrose quickly instructed the eunuch by the side to prepare supper as that thought crossed his mind.

Eira was a thoughtful and happy girl. She gradually relaxed a little and was not as restricted as before upon feeling Lord Kenny's benevolent eyes.

It had to be said that Royals lived differently than any other noble or officials. In a short while, it was a feast with assorted amazing dishes served. The aroma of the food was everywhere.

"Come, come, Ambrose and the young lady. Relax a little and let's sit together," said Lord Kenny passionately at that moment as he also dimmed his powerful aura a little.

Ambrose and Eira looked at each other and were about to take their seats.

Bang! Bang!

"Ah..."

Fighting sounds came from outside while being accompanied by wails and yells right at that moment. The fight seemed rather intense.

A royal guard then quickly walked in and respectfully said to Lord Kenny. "Your Majesty, a very powerful woman has intruded into the palace..."

'What?'

Lord Kenny's expressions changed upon hearing that. He was furious!

Who could be so bold as to intrude into the palace late at night?

They had no whatsoever respect for the Royals.

Ambrose and Eira's expressions changed too at the same time.

Ambrose then quickly stood and said to Lord Kenny, "Father Emperor, don't be angry. I'll go have a look!" He then quickly left.

Eira did not think much and quickly followed suit as well.

They soon reached the palace square as they saw a charming figure waving her long sword in mid-air. Her body was graceful, yet she emitted a terrifying aura.

The woman was in her thirties wearing a deep blue long dress with gorgeous features like the moon fairy!

The four Golden Dragon Guards and hundreds of royal guards were surrounding this fairy in layers, yet had to retreat due to her intimidating attacks without even being able to approach her!

Such an amazing woman! Even the four Golden Dragon Guards were not her match.

Ambrose was secretly stunned upon seeing this scene and tried to feel the woman's powers only to helplessly gasp.

She was at the Heaven Ascension level.

"Mother..."

Eira who followed along shuddered right at this moment at the scene before her eyes and could not help but yell out loud.

Eira then rushed forward without any care.

That gorgeous woman was none other than Aurora Hansen!

Chapter 1616

Aurora was initially sitting and resting in the inn when she opened her eyes to notice that Eira was gone. Aurora immediately and anxiously headed out in search of her.

She realized that Eira had entered the palace after searching for a long time and was distressed.

The palace had strict rules as it was the night, yet Eira intruded just like that. Was she seeking death?

At that moment, Aurora still did not know that Eira had come looking for Ambrose and immediately intruded into the palace to protect her daughter.

At this moment, Ambrose shuddered and subconsciously looked at Aurora with a shocked face!

'This fairy-like auntie is Eira's mother?'

Ambrose quickly walked two steps forward and yelled to the surrounding royal guards. "Stop. Everyone stop..."

"Woola!"

The four Golden Dragon Guards and surrounding royal guards stopped their attacks upon hearing the Prince's orders and quickly retreated.

"Eira!"

At that moment, Aurora kept her longsword and quickly ran forward to hug Eira in her arms. She angrily and anxiously said, "Young lady. Why did you come to the palace? Do you know how worried I am?"

Her tone was strict but was full of concern and at the same time could not help looked at Ambrose.

'Who's this boy? Why is Eira together with him?'

Aurora had heard of Eira mentioning Ambrose, only that she had never met him.

"Mother!" Eira cheekily stuck her tongue out before she chuckled and said, "I know you wanted to save the World Universe's sects, so I came to find Brother Ambrose for help."

Eira turned her head to look at Ambrose sweetly when she said that.

'This child is Ambrose?' Aurora nodded then looked at Ambrose. "You're the New World's prince?"

Aurora had mixed feelings in her heart when she asked.

Aurora has heard of many things regarding Ambrose ever since coming to the New World Royal City. One of them was the relationship between Ambrose and Lord Kenny Bred. Ambrose was not Lord Kenny's biological son who's biological father was Elysium Gate Sect Master, Darryl Darby. This piece of information had recently spread around the entire Royal City like wildfire.

Aurora's heart was aching as she thought of Darryl.

"Mother! Are you alright?" Eira could not help but ask upon sensing something was off with Aurora's expressions.

Aurora let out a sigh, smiled, and said, "It's nothing."

Aurora loathed Darryl to death. She would not have been forced to leave the Emei Sect were it not for him. Therefore, she was resistant to anything that had to do with Darryl. Aurora would also not let her daughter recognize Ambrose as her brother.

Ambrose walked over and bowed politely at Aurora right at this moment. "Hello, Auntie."

Although he grew up in the New World, Ambrose had often been to the World Universe through the years and learned a lot about the World Universe's modern colloquialisms and greetings.

Ambrose was deeply stunned by Aurora's elegance while greeting her and could not even move his eyes away from her.

He had not expected Eira's mother would be extremely gorgeous and charming.

"Hmm."

Aurora nodded her head with her indifferent and arrogant expressions.

As the previous Sect Master of the Emei Sect, Aurora was cold and arrogant regardless of who she was facing and always gave off the impression of an icy-cold goddess being high above the rest.

She did not wish to speak much.

More importantly, Ambrose was Darryl's child.

Ambrose could not be bothered about it as well upon feeling her indifference. He smiled and invited, "Auntie, it's better to be invited than a chance meeting. Why don't you rest in the palace tonight since you're already here at the palace looking for Eira?"

Ambrose's face was full of hope and sincerity as he said that.

He had not seen Eira for a long time and would want to catch up with her properly of course.

"No need!" Aurora coldly said without any emotions.

She then pulled Eira's hands and unquestionably said, "Eira, let's go."

Uh...
