He was not sure when Jackie opened her eyes. Her beautiful face was all red due to the steam from the hot water as her eyes stared coldly at Darryl, releasing a strong killing aura.

“You are asking for death!” she shouted.

Feeling Jackie’s vision, Darryl was in a cold sweat, but he calmed down quickly.

‘She is naked now; why should I be worried?’

“You!” At that moment, Jackie bit her lips tightly, her eyes filled with anger. “You violated my purity. I-I will kill you!”

As she spoke, Jackie’s face was filled with incredible anger.

She was the Illusional Sound Sect’s Sect Master. A man had seen her body, and she felt worse than death!

Feeling Jackie’s anger, Darryl smiled and said, “Elder Master, don’t be so emotional. The black cloth was loose and it fell on its own. Don’t blame me because I didn’t know you were a woman.”

As he spoke, Darryl checked out Jackie. Jackie was an incredibly beautiful lady; her body and her looks were almost perfect. Especially looking at her in the bath. It was just like the poem that read, ‘Natural as the decoration, beauty from the clear water.’

“You...” Jackie was furious; she bit her lips until it almost bled. She wanted to kill him, but she had to control herself when she remembered that she was naked.

Darryl knew when to stop. After looking at Jackie for another few seconds, he shifted his gaze away from Jackie's body as he smiled and said, "Elder Master, you continue to soak in the bath, I will excuse myself. Excuse me."

'If I do not leave now, I will never have the chance anymore!' he thought.

Darryl activated his body and leaped out of the window. Jasmine and Snowy were guarding the door outside, so he could not leave from there. As such, he could only leave from the window.

After he jumped out the window, Darryl took a deep breath and charged towards the main door.

"Come here! Anyone!"

Jackie was furious and awkward. She was completely naked, so she could not go after him. She could only scream and shout, "Come here! Anyone! Take down the bastard. Kill him..."

Hearing the commotion, Jasmine, Snowy, and others outside did not think further as they pushed the door and barged in.

At that moment, everyone was stunned when they saw the situation in the room. They saw Jackie was still soaking in the pail with her face blushed and a strong killing aura in between her brows. As for Mister Derby, he was nowhere to be seen.

"This Derby bastard. He peeked at me when I was in the bath. He ran away by jumping out of the window," Jackie spoke calmly when she saw everyone was in shock. “Hurry, he couldn’t have run far. Go after him immediately.”

Hearing that, Jasmine and Snowy’s bodies trembled as they were furious.

‘How dare this Mister Derby peek when Elder Master was in the bath?!’

The next second, Jasmine came back to her senses and ordered the disciples without hesitation, “Hurry, go after him!”

At the same time, Jasmine left the room quickly.

Meanwhile, Darryl had arrived at the main entrance of the main altar.

“Darren, stop there!” Jasmine shouted from behind him.

Darryl was shocked as he turned to look, and he saw Jasmine and Snowy leading almost a hundred female disciples, chasing after him tightly.

‘This Sun Set Sect reacted so fast, and they arrived so quickly,’ he thought.

Darryl did not respond but ran faster.

“Mister Derby, don’t run. We shall talk about what had happened. You don’t have to do this,” Snowy shouted worriedly as her brows locked.

Although she had only known Darryl for a short period of time, Snowy believed that Mister Derby was not a perverted person. Earlier, when she was attacked by the chill aura and hugged Darryl, he treated Snowy like a perfect gentleman.

Jasmine's face was cold. She was furious when she saw that Darryl did not even look back but continued running. She lifted her gentle hands, and a few rays of cold glow shined, slicing through the darkness, and came after Darryl.

Squeak. Squeak. Squeak.

Wherever the cold glow passed through, the air would generate a sharp squeaking sound. It was as fast as lightning, and in a blink of an eye, it reached Darryl's back.

Darryl had the shock of his life. 'What secret weapon is that? It is so powerful!'

He immediately avoided it, but he still did not manage to avoid it completely. A cold glow hit him on the wind acupoint on his back. At that moment, Darryl's body froze, and he could not move at all.

Squeak. Squeak. Squeak.

The other cold glow landed on the ground in front of Darryl. Under the moonlight, he could see that they were a few silver needles. They were shorter than the regular silver needles used for acupuncture; they were covered with a light purple ray. The ends of the needles were carved with the shape of feathers.

When he saw the silver needles, Darryl's heart trembled.

'She is using silver needles as a secret weapon, and the silver needles looked really special.'

What surprised Darryl more was, after the silver needle poked on the wind acupoint on his back, his body could not move a single bit. Darryl's power was almost achieving Heaven Ascension level, so even if he were to be attacked by a secret weapon, he would easily retract the weapon. However, he had tried to activate his internal energy, but he could not eject the silver needle.

At that moment, Darryl did not know that the secret weapon that Jasmine was using was her most secret technique, Sky Feather Needle.

Sky Feather Needle was made using a special purple gold metal. Once an acupoint was punctured, all the blood and energy surrounding the acupoint would be sealed. Not to mention Darryl, even any other Heaven Ascension warrior, could not do anything.

Just when Darryl was still in shock and looking at the Sky Feather Needle, Jasmine, Snowy, and the others reached him.

At that moment, Jasmine looked coldly at Darryl. "Darren! How dare you peep when Elder Master was in the bath. I respected you; I did not expect you to be such a deviant person."

Jasmine and Jackie were like sisters. She was furious when she knew Jackie's purity was violated.

Darryl smiled bitterly as he explained, "Sect Master, you misunderstood. I did not peep at Elder Master bathing. It was just that the black cloth fell by accident and I saw her by accident. Besides, I didn't even know the Elder Master was a woman."

As he said that, Darryl looked innocent and sincere.

Honestly, he did not even want to explain the situation earlier, but he had no choice. Jasmine's secret weapon, the silver needle, was too unusual. He could not even move a single bit. As such, he was worried things might get worse if he did not explain.

When she heard that Jasmine's eyes were shining as she said coldly, "Why are you running if you saw her by accident?"

"Sect Master, I saw Elder Master in her bath, and she wanted to kill me. Shall I stand there to wait for my death if I don't run?" Darryl replied, frustrated.

Darryl secretly took note of Jasmine's reaction, and at the same time, he felt extremely uneasy. He almost managed to leave the Sun Set Sect. Who knew that Jasmine could seal his acupoint by using a single silver needle? What a waste of his effort!

Luckily, they still did not know Darryl's real intention was to leave the Sun Set Sect. Jasmine's gaze softened when she saw Darryl was not lying.

At that time, Snowy bit her lips and said softly. "Sect Master, it seems like this was really a misunderstanding. Mister Derby did not do it intentionally. If he was a perverted person, he would do more than just watch Elder Master in the bath. Besides, he was not aware that the Elder Master was indeed a female."

Jasmine nodded in agreement, but she still did not remove the silver needle on Darryl's back.

Jackie walked over in a sleeping robe; her long, fair legs were exposed under the robe, not to mention how sexy she looked. However, at that moment, she looked enraged. Her figure made Darryl's eyes turn straight.

When she felt Darryl's gaze, Jackie became furious. Her body trembled as she shouted, "You useless bastard! Kill this person for me now. Remove both of his eyes after you kill him."

'This person looked at me when I was in the bath. This sin is unforgivable. Now that he's captured, his eyes are still deviant! He deserves to die,' she thought.

Darryl was in shock, and he quickly looked away as he smiled bitterly, "Elder Master, please calm down. This is just a misunderstanding."

'Sh*t! I just glanced at you and you want to kill me. If I had touched you, would I have been sliced 10,000 times?' he thought.

At that moment, Jasmine walked over and consoled Jackie, "Mister Derby explained the situation earlier. The black cloth fell accidentally. He didn't do it intentionally, so let's just let this go."

"That's right!" Snowy added immediately. "Since this is just a misunderstanding, Elder Master, please forgive him. Besides, Mister Derby still needs to treat your injury."

Jackie did not speak as she looked closely at Darryl in anger and a dark expression.

At that moment, the entire place was pin-drop silent. The atmosphere was depressing.

Gulp!

Darryl swallowed his saliva secretly; his forehead was covered with a layer of cold sweat. 'Sh*t, I hope Jackie won't actually kill me. Honestly, with my acupoint being sealed by the silver needle and my inability to move a single muscle, if Jackie were to take action, I would not even have the chance to defend myself.'

Slap!

Just at that moment, Jackie approached him slowly and unexpectedly slapped Darryl hard across the face.

The slap was really strong, and at that instant, there was not a single sound as everyone was stunned.

"Darren, I will forget about what happened today. If something like this happens again, I'll make sure you'll be asking for death!" Jackie said coldly.

She knew as well that the incident earlier was a misunderstanding. The Darren in front of her eyes was not peeping at her intentionally.

No matter what, he saw her entire pure body. That was Jackie's greatest humiliation. Even if she did not kill him, she could not let him off easily.

Then, she lifted her gentle hands and sealed a few acupoints on Darryl's body before she removed the silver needle. This way, Darryl would still be under control.

Jackie's face was cold as ice and emotionless as she ordered, "From now onwards, send a few people to follow him closely. Don't let him roam freely in the Sun Set Sect. Kill him immediately if he does any deviant act."

Jackie glared at Darryl as she was still furious.

The truth was, Jackie wanted to kill Darryl immediately. However, Snowy was right. Darryl had great medical skills, and she still needed his help to cure her injury. She needed to put the thought of killing him aside.

"Yes, Elder Master!" a few female disciples replied in unison. They then brought Darryl into the room as if they were ushering a prisoner.

At that moment, Darryl wanted to cry, but there were no tears.

'Jackie is so calculative. Everyone already concluded that it was a misunderstanding. She already slapped me for that, so we should be even. How could she still order a few disciples to watch me all the time. How will I be able to leave?' he thought.

In the past, Darryl would be delighted if a few beautiful female disciples were guarding him. However, at that moment, all he thought about was leaving the Sun Set Sect. He had no time to consider anything else.

Meanwhile, Yang Jian was sitting on his throne in the main hall at North Moana Continent. He was dressed in a dragon robe as he listened to his ministers' reports about the situation of the continent.

Ever since he went to conquer the South Cloud World and was defeated by Darryl, Yang Jian had not sent his army to conquer any other continent. Instead, he ordered the army to put more effort into training and to be ready at all times.

At the same time, Yang Jian also kept sending people to find out Darryl and Ghost Valley Sage's location. He was fearful of Ghost Valley Sage. If Ghost Valley Sage followed Darryl, he would not dare to do anything to Darryl.

At that moment, Gonggong walked into the main hall. Her exquisite face was filled with delight and emotion as she said politely, "Your Majesty, I have investigated carefully. After we retreated from South Cloud World, Senior Ghost Valley Sage had split up with Darryl.

"I also found out that Senior Ghost Valley Sage was indeed released by Darryl from the Seven Treasures Exquisite Pagoda. Technically, Ghost Valley Sage would need to recognize Darryl as his Master. However, he's an arrogant person and insisted on not recognizing Darryl as his Master. At that time, it was only after Darryl begged him endlessly did Senior Ghost Valley Sage agree to help him to defend against our North Moana army."

'Really?' Yang Jian's eyes shone when he heard that.

He stood up and looked closely at Gonggong. “Are you sure about everything you’ve just reported to me?”

“Everything is the truth; I would never lie to Your Majesty.” Gonggong looked serious as she nodded. “Senior Ghost Valley Sage has now ventured around the world. We are not sure where he really is. As for Darryl, I managed to find out that he is at the Yellow Sea Continent alone. We are not sure what he is up to.”

Yang Jian looked up at the sky and laughed out loud; he was delighted.

‘After all these days, Darryl was not related with Ghost Valley Sage at all. I was worried for such a long time for no reason.’

At that moment, Gonggong smiled and spoke respectfully, “Your Majesty, since Darryl is not related to Senior Ghost Valley Sage, there is nothing we should be worried about anymore. Darryl is not in the World Universe, so I suggest we use this good opportunity to attack the World Universe.”

Gonggong’s eyes were shining with confidence as she continued to speak, “Your Majesty wanted to capture Darryl alive, right? The safety of the World Universe is Darryl’s top priority. Once we attack the World Universe, Darryl will definitely appear.”

Yang Jian nodded, smiling. “Alright! That’s a good suggestion. Send the soldiers to attack the World Universe immediately.”

At that moment, Yang Jian was smiling, but his eyes were shining with desperation.

“Yes!” Gonggong replied.

A few minutes later, a few hundred thousand North Moana soldiers gathered together quickly. Under Yang Jian’s leadership, they embarked on a journey towards the World Universe.

After a few hours of walking, the army finally arrived at the border between World Universe and North Moana continent.

At the border, deep in the woods, a woodcutter was walking slowly on a path with his little son. The woodcutter lived there for generations, relying on cutting trees in the mountain and hunting for a living. That was the first day he brought his child with him to teach him how to hunt.

Roar!

Just at that moment, a heart trembling roar came from the woods in front of them. Then, a fierce tiger jumped in front of them.

The woodcutter’s body trembled when he saw the tiger. He was scared for his life.

“Father, the tiger. I-I’m scared!” His son was completely in shock as he hid behind the woodcutter, his entire body shaking.

“Don’t be scared. Don’t be scared...” the woodcutter kept consoling his son.

However, his face was pale, and he was also terrified. Although he was a hunter, he was not a tiger hunter; he would not be able to fight a tiger.

Roar!

At that moment, the fierce tiger roared again. Its blood-red eyes looked closely at the father and son. It opened its huge mouth, and his huge body leaped and charged at them.

Seeing the fierce tiger charging towards them, the woodcutter held his son tightly as he shut his eyes. He felt completely hopeless at the bottom of his heart. 'We're done. If I knew there would be a fierce beast today, I wouldn't have brought my son.'

“Monster, don’t harm the weak!” a voice suddenly shouted from above.

The woodcutter looked towards the sky where the sound came from, and his body trembled immediately. He took a cold breath and was stunned.

He saw a very slim figure flying towards him that looked like a goddess, dressed in a long white dress. Her alluring body was shown off perfectly, and her exquisite facial features were just like a goddess.

That woman was Megan.

After being buried alive by Ambrose at Emei Mountain, Megan had used the breath-holding method to save herself. After thinking about all the things she had done, and the consequences, Megan had a great self-realization. She let go of all the hatred in her heart, as well as the fame and left Emei Mountain to venture all around the world.

During that period of time, every place that Megan went, she would do a lot of good deeds. She punished evil and helped the poor, benefitting all the citizens as she tried to redeem all the sins she had committed before.

She was passing by this place by coincidence when she saw a fierce tiger trying to harm the woodcutter and his son. Megan did not hesitate and went over to stop it.

At that instant, the woodcutter was completely stunned with his mouth wide open as he looked at Megan in mid-air.

'Is she a goddess from heaven?' he thought.

Roar!

The fierce tiger roared as it felt that Megan was a threat and charged at her.

Megan did not panic at all when she saw the fierce tiger pouncing towards her. Her face was extremely calm. She shouted, and her body floated in the air, making a turn, "Prepare to die, you beast!"

She avoided the tiger's pounce, and at the same time, extended her gentle hand and slammed it on the tiger's head.

Bang!

With a deep moan, the fierce tiger's skull cracked, and it died on the spot. Its enormous body fell in the woods.

Following that, Megan's body landed gracefully.

Seeing that, the woodcutter and his son were incredibly amazed.

A few seconds later, the woodcutter regained his thoughts and bowed to Megan to thank her. "Thank you, fairy, for your help."

'She killed a fierce tiger so easily. Who could she be if not a fairy?' the woodcutter thought.

Megan smiled lightly as she waved her hand and said, "Brother, don't worry about it. I am not a fairy; I am just a passerby."

As she spoke, Megan looked around and continued to say, “The environment around here is complicated; you need to be extra careful when you go hunting up the hill.”

“Yes, thank you, fairy, for your reminder.” Woodcutter nodded repeatedly; he then brought his son down the hill.

Sigh!

When she saw the father and son walking far away, Megan sighed gently, feeling relaxed.

‘I saved two more people today. Will I have redeemed myself from some of the sins I’ve committed?’

Just then, she heard the sound of horse hoofs coming from the main road under her.

Megan went to take a look immediately, and her body trembled at that instant.

She saw an army of hundreds and thousands of soldiers on the main road not far away, speeding by in a very tidy formation. The soldiers were all wearing black armor. Not only that, a few thousand big birds were flying in the sky. A soldier was riding on each of the big birds. The suffocating killing aura could be felt even from a very far distance.

In front of the army, a huge figure was floating in mid-air. He was wearing golden armor, looking smart, and a huge black dog was beside him.

It was Grandmaster Erlang, Yang Jian, together with his Howling Celestial Dog.

Megan's face turned pale instantly at what she saw, and her body could not stop trembling.

'Yang Jian is leading the North Moana grand army to attack the World Universe?'

Megan was trapped in the North Moana palace before, so she recognized Yang Jian.

A few seconds later, she came to her senses and went down the mountain immediately.

At that moment, Megan had come up with a plan. The North Moana army was attacking the World Universe, which was an emergency situation. She must notify all the sects the first chance she gets.

She had forced all the warriors of all the sects to consume the Dark Day Pill. Megan was embarrassed to meet all the sects. However, given the safety of the World Universe was at threat, none of that mattered anymore.

Meanwhile, the Carter family had returned to a peaceful life in Mid City. The community had a peaceful period of time too.

However, the Carter family was exceptionally merry that day. All the sects gathered there at the same time and unanimously nominated Darryl as the Alliance Master.

When all the sects recognized Megan as the Alliance Master earlier, it was not by their own free will. No matter what, all of them consumed the Dark Day Pill, and their lives were in Megan's hand, so they had no choice but to obey her.

However, as Ambrose had buried Megan alive, she would have been dead for a long time.

Most importantly, Yang Jian led the North Moana grand army to conquer the World Universe earlier. That caused everyone to be really worried. As the World Universe still does not have a leader, they needed to recommend an Alliance Master to lead them.

Earlier at the South Cloud World Continent, news that Darryl defeated the North Moana grand army was spread across all nine continents. He was the most suitable candidate to be the Alliance Master.

At that moment, Susan, Sara, Yvette, and the others were sitting in the main hall with smiles on their faces, looking relieved and relaxed. Darryl was nominated as the Alliance Master; who would not be happy for him?

All the different sects were present and seated as guests. There were many familiar faces: Master Leonard from Wudang Sect, Sect Master Endless of Shaolin Sect, Beggars' Sect, Iron Palms Sect, and Giant Whales Sect were all present.

At that moment, Susan smiled and looked around.

"Thank you, everyone, for thinking so highly of Darryl. However, he is not at the Carter Mansion right now; he is out on some tasks. As such, let's wait for his return before we discuss the Alliance Master situation," she said softly.

Susan had been at the Westrington Continent earlier, and when Darryl had led the grand army to return to World Universe, she had followed him back too.

‘What?’

‘Darryl was not around?’

When they heard that, all the warriors of all the sects were stunned. They had awkward expressions on their faces.

If the Alliance Master were not decided, the World Universe would be without a leader if Yang Jian ordered the North Moana grand army to attack them. That would be a huge problem as they would not be organized with no leadership.

Just then, Chester stood up and said with a smile, “Don’t worry, everyone! Darryl has defeated the North Moana grand army in the South Cloud World before. His reputation is well known across the world. Yang Jian has learnt his lesson, and would not attack our World Universe by surprise.”

Chester was a sensitive person; he could easily see everyone’s worry. When he said that, everyone became excited, and smiles appeared on their faces.

“Sect Master Wilson is right. Even if Sect Master Darby is yet to be the Alliance Master, the North Moana Continent will attack us so recklessly.”

“I heard about the battle at South Cloud World. Sect Master Darby really used his army well.”

“Ha-ha! With Sect Master Darby as our guardian angel, there is nothing we should worry about.”

Everyone discussed their own opinions of Darryl amongst themselves as Chester felt amused and lost for words.

Dax, Yvette, and the others, who were beside Chester, were smiling discreetly too.

‘How interesting this bunch of people are. Earlier when they were working for Megan, they belittled Darryl in many ways. Now that Megan is dead, they turn around and worship Darryl instead.’

2115

Just as everyone was complimenting Darryl, someone suddenly pushed the door of the main hall open. A slim and alluring figure sauntered in.

It was Megan.

Half an hour ago, Megan visited the major sects and realized that they were all at the Carter family's home. Megan dared not delay further, so she went right inside.

She was exhausted and her face looked tired as her eyes shone with worry.

'What?'

Everyone was stunned when they saw Megan.

'Is that...Megan?'

'Wasn't she buried alive by the Prince of the New World at Emei Mountain? Why isn't she dead?'

'She was buried a few feet underground, yet she managed to live. How did she do that?'

At that moment, everyone's minds were spinning as they stared at Megan in disbelief.

Bang!

Finally, Watson Tucker was the first to gather his thoughts. He slammed the table and pointed at Megan, “Megan, a person with a poisonous heart like snakes and scorpions. You deviant woman; how dare you show your face here?”

Watson was a famous traitor. With Darryl being nominated as the Alliance Master, Darryl would be his biggest support. As for Megan, although she survived the tragedy, she was of no use anymore. As such, he no longer needed to impress her.

As he spoke, the rest of the people from the sects followed him and started to scold Megan!

“Megan, you will not be able to redeem yourself from everything you’ve done in the past even if you died a hundred times. Since you survived the tragedy that time, you should have just located a place to stay for the rest of your life. Don’t interfere with anything about the community anymore.”

“That’s right, this is not a place for you to be. Get lost!”

“In my opinion, she’s here to beg Sect Master Darby to let her stay. Ha-ha, what a cheap woman.”

They scolded her horribly, but Megan pretended that she did not hear them.

The next second, Megan looked at Susan and said, “Madam Susan, where is Darryl? I have something urgent to tell him!”

Darryl was the World Universe's hero. He was really influential and had excellent knowledge of war strategies. He was the only person who could defend against North Moana's attack.

Susan looked calm and showed no change in emotion as she casually said, "He's not here."

Susan was in shock when she saw Megan was resurrected from her death. However, when she thought of all the things Megan did before, Susan did not bother to speak further.

'Not there?' Megan trembled as her face paled. She was extremely worried. 'Oh no! The North Moana grand army have already passed the border but Darryl isn't around. We're in trouble.'

Megan continued to ask, "Where has he been? Is there any way to contact him?"

When Susan hesitated and was considering if she should answer Megan, Dax interrupted them, "Megan!"

Dax looked closely at Megan; his stare was not friendly at all as he said coldly, "Why do you need to see Darryl? Haven't you tortured him enough all these times? You still want to harm him? Let me tell you, we don't know where Darryl is now. Even if we knew, we wouldn't tell you."

As he spoke, Sara, Yvonne, and the others nodded their heads in agreement.

'This woman is a deviant person. We must beware of her!'

However, all of them did not know that she had turned over a new leaf.

When she heard that, Megan smiled bitterly but did not respond.

‘That’s right, I was deviant previously.’

Soon, Megan adjusted her feelings, looked around, and said to all the members of the various sects, “This is an emergency. I will get straight to the point. To all Sect Masters, please gather all your people to head towards the Mount Hua area to defend against the North Moana grand army.”

As she spoke, she looked upset as she continued to say, “I saw it with my own eyes. Five hours ago, Yang Jian led his army through the border at the south-west area. I estimate they will reach Mount Hua very soon.”

A stone splashed into the sea, creating huge waves.

Everyone was shocked and stunned. 'What? Yang Jian is attacking us?!'

The next second, Watson could not help but laugh coldly as he teased Megan, "Megan, what game are you trying to play now? Yang Jian's North Moana grand army was just recently defeated by Sect Master Darby at the South Cloud World. How could he dare to attack our World Universe?"

As he spoke, many people gathered their thoughts and started to agree with him.

"That's right, this woman must have an evil motive behind it."

"Megan, do you think you can trick us again and use your deviant ways to attack us? Ha-ha! Save it; this trick of yours will never work."

"That's right, this woman is just talking rubbish. Don't believe her, everyone."

In everyone's heart, they did not believe that Yang Jian would attack them.

Megan was worried instantly as she said to Watson and others, "Everything I've said is true. The North Moana grand army is attacking us. The World Universe will be destroyed if we do not strategize and plan in time."

Ha-ha!

Watson laughed coldly as he teased, “Megan, stop pretending to care. The World Universe will be destroyed if we really listen to you.”

Although Watson looked arrogant but fair, his eyes were shining from revenge.

‘Megan, Megan, Megan. I was by your side before, and I was worthless like a dog. Today I must gain back my dignity from you,’ he thought.

Ha-ha!

After he spoke, everyone broke into laughter. The way they looked at Megan was filled with ridicule and disgust. All of them thought they had revealed Megan’s evil motive.

Megan stomped her feet in worry as everyone laughed. She said coldly to Watson, “Watson, I admit I was wrong with how I treated you, and all the major sects. However, I swear on my life that whatever I am saying is the truth. Yang Jian is attacking us! If you continue to be so difficult, don’t blame me for taking action!”

When she said that, Megan had an icy expression on her face.

‘This Watson is really an idiot. When I was the Alliance Master, he was always by my side, trying all his tricks to impress me. Now that he sees that I have nothing left, he immediately distanced himself from me and tried to humiliate me in many ways!’

Feeling Megan's cold demeanor, Watson was shocked. He took a step backward subconsciously. During his time under Megan's strong guidance, Watson was always terrified of her to his bones. He panicked when he saw Megan was angry.

However, he looked at everyone around him and gathered his courage again. He pointed at Megan and shouted loudly, "Megan, stop showing off in front of me. Irrespective of how powerful you are, we, the Tucker Cult, are fair and brave. We will not surrender to a deviant woman like you."

As he spoke, Watson shouted loudly towards everyone, "Everyone, this Megan is a deviant person. Everyone here would have been tortured or bullied by her. Do we still want to allow her to act so proudly in front of us?"

After he spoke, everyone remembered how Megan controlled them. Everyone was furious and started to scold Megan while pointing at her.

"Tucker Cult's Sect Master is right. Megan has done many evil things; we must not allow her to continue to do so!"

"That's right, this Megan is so arrogant. She does not respect any of us. How despicable!"

"Megan, don't blame us for taking action if you still do not get lost!"

Everyone was speaking and scolding her. All of them could not hide their anger and vengeance against Megan.

Previously, Megan relied on the Dark Day Pill to force all the sects to nominate her as the Alliance Master. All the major sects remembered that as their greatest humiliation. They would never forget that.

Megan ignored everyone's taunts. Her original thought was, in view of the security of the World Universe, she wished to invite all the sects to defend the North Moana grand army at the first instance. She did not expect that all the sects would not believe her words at all. Not only that, all of them were scolding her.

At that moment, Megan lost her patience as she looked closely at Watson. Her body was trembling. "Watson, I am asking you. Are you going to agree to bring your disciples to Mount Hua to defend against the enemy?"

Megan was extremely emotional, especially when she saw Watson's disgusting and pale face. Her body was trembling secretly.

With support from all the sects, Watson lost all his fears completely. He smiled coldly towards Megan and said, "Defend against the enemy? Megan, is that really necessary? Everyone has speculated about your evil motive; you still want to continue to act? Let me tell you, in view of what you have done for the World Universe, I will not give you any trouble. However, if you are still clinging to talking nonsense, don't blame me for taking action against you!"

Although his words sounded fair and true, Watson's eyes looked despicable!

'Ha-ha! Megan, it's finally your turn today?!'

Megan almost exploded as she glared at Watson. "Did you just say I am clinging to speaking nonsense?"

'The North Moana grand army is attacking. Not only are they not taking preventive measures, they are humiliating me. What douchebags,' she thought.

The different sects were impatient, too, as they shouted at Megan.

"Sect Master Tucker is right. If you don't leave, Megan, we will take action!"

"That's right. We will not give you trouble given that we are from the same community. However, please don't cross the line!"

"Yes, you should be grateful that we are letting you go today, so act wisely!"

She heard everyone's humiliating words and could not stand it anymore.

"Fine, fine. You people claim to be good sects helping the weak, but all of you can't even differentiate right from wrong. I am no longer an Emei Sect Sect Master and Alliance Master. I don't care about these titles or fame. So why would I lie to you? However, you keep harping on my wrongdoings from before and being calculative but you still insist you are honorable. What a joke!" she shouted.

Megan took a deep breath and sounded determined. “I am not going to waste anymore time speaking. No matter what, all of you must follow me to Mount Hua. If we are a step too late, the entire World Universe will be in trouble. All of you will not be able to escape from being responsible for that!”

A stone splashed into the sea, creating huge waves.

Everyone’s expression changed as all of them stood up and pointed at Megan to scold her.

“What are you talking about?”

“Who do you think you are?! What gives you the right to speak to us in such a way?”

“You don’t know your place. So arrogant!”

At that time, Watson was the first to jump out and pull out a long sword. He shouted, “Everyone, we shouldn’t waste time talking to such a poisonous and deviant woman. Let’s all charge and capture her!”

After he spoke, Watson’s long sword almost reached Megan’s chest!

At the same time, over 20 warriors from the sects charged forward too! At that instant, Megan was closely surrounded!

Everyone from the Carter family was sitting there, looking at each other.

At that moment, Sara's beautiful brows lifted slightly, and she could not help but said softly to Susan, "Mother, if they really break into a fight, shall we take action too?"

When she said that, Sara could not help glaring at Megan with annoyance. Megan hurt Darryl multiple times, so Sara did not have a good impression of Megan.

Sigh!

Susan sighed lightly and shook her head as she said, "Let's observe the situation before we decide."

Susan was a diligent person. Although she could not tell if Megan was telling the truth or not, she was sure that Megan was not a stupid woman. She would not be so silly to drop by for nothing and give all the sects the opportunity to attack her.

Hearing that, Sara moaned but did not say a word.

Yvette, Chester, and the rest were also sitting there silently on the side, observing the situation. None of them showed any interest in getting involved.

'Stupid. They're all a bunch of idiots,' Megan thought.

She looked calm when she saw the various sects surrounding her, but the anger that was boiling in her heart exploded completely. She raised her gentle hand and gripped her long sword firmly.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

At that moment, Megan's figure was moved sleekly as she blocked their attacks, swaying her long sword. However, after just a few minutes, she was forced to move backward.

With Megan's power, there was no problem for her to fight against the group of people surrounding her. From the very beginning, she wanted to teach these stubborn people a good lesson, but in the end, she controlled herself.

No matter what, these people were the key warriors of the World Universe. They were still needed to defend against the North Moana grand army's attack. If some of them were injured, the World Universe's power would be weakened substantially.

'What?' Susan, Chester, and the others furrowed their brows discreetly.

'Why is Megan so weak? How can she be defeated so horribly?

'Is it because she did not use her full power?'

'That is not right. Given Megan's character, why would she have mercy for Watson and the others?'

"What is going on?" Dax locked his brows and was curious.

Chester, who was beside him, took a deep breath and said slowly, "Something is definitely weird. Given how strong Megan is, if she uses all her power, she would definitely not be defeated so easily. It seems like she did that on purpose."

At that moment, Yvette said to Susan, "Megan is a deviant person, we must not let our guards down no matter what her intention was."

When she heard that, Susan nodded her head, but she did not speak. She focused on observing the ensuing battle.

Bang!

At that moment, Megan was surrounded and started to lose her stance. Suddenly, Watson found the opportunity to approach her back and knocked away the long sword in Megan's hand.

Then, a Wudang Sect warrior took the opportunity to approach and seal Megan's acupoint.

In an instant, Megan's body trembled, her face looked pale, and she could not move a muscle.

Watson was so satisfied. He walked over quickly and said to Megan, teasing her, "Ha-ha! Megan, it's finally your turn. I asked you to leave earlier but you refused. Are you satisfied now that you've been captured?"

Megan looked calm and did not respond. She felt there was no need for her to get into a quarrel with a despicable person like Watson.

Slap!

Feeling how cold Megan was, Watson felt like he was being humiliated, and that caused his anger to burn. Unexpectedly, he slapped Megan across the face.

The slap was so strong that Megan's body trembled, and she almost fell to the ground.

"Megan, earlier all the members of the community gave you a chance. Not only did you not appreciate it, you acted so disrespectfully. You can't blame us for taking action!" Watson said coldly.

Then, he turned his head and looked at Susan while he squeezed out a smile to impress her. "Madam Susan, what shall we do with Megan?"

Everyone nominated Darryl as the Alliance Master, and since Susan was his godmother, naturally, he needed to respect her.

At that moment, all the warriors were looking at Susan.

Although the Carter family was not involved in the ordeal earlier, they were all on the Carter family's ground. Besides, Darryl had been nominated as Alliance Master. As such, the Carter family should be the one to decide what to do with Megan.

With everyone watching her, Susan stood up slowly and looked closely at Megan. Then, she spoke calmly, "Lock her up for the time being."

Although her voice was not loud, her aura was undeniable.

Zoran had died, and Darryl was not around, so Susan became the leader of the Carter family. Each and every one of her actions represented the Carter family.

As she spoke, two Carter family disciples came over and took Megan away from the main hall.

Susan's expression did not change when she saw Megan being taken away. However, her eyes were filled with mixed emotions.

Megan's reaction earlier was too unusual. She did not defend herself with all her might. 'Could it be that what she said about the North Moana grand army is true?'

Susan did not hesitate further and ordered the disciples beside her, “Quickly send someone to investigate if the news about the North Moana grand army attacking is true. Report back immediately.”

“Yes, Madam!” the disciples replied and left the main hall quickly. Just at that moment, Watson walked over and asked curiously, “Madam, you don’t believe Megan’s words, right? This woman is deviant; she’s great at lying!”

As he spoke, many people agreed with him.

“Yes, don’t be bothered by this woman’s words.”

“It will be wiser to ask Sect Master Darby to return quickly to take over the position as Alliance Master. That is more important.”

When she heard that, Susan smiled and opened her mouth to speak, “Thank you everyone for your reminders; I know what to do.”

Susan changed her tone and continued to say, “Everyone is here together to nominate Darryl as the Alliance Master. Not only does the Carter family feel proud, it is also Darryl’s honor. I shall get my people to prepare the banquet later, so everyone please enjoy yourselves. When Darryl returns, I will ask him to gather everyone to discuss the matter about the Alliance Master.”

Watson and others all smiled happily.

“Madam is so generous.”

“Yes, sorry to disturb.”

Susan smiled at everyone's compliments but did not speak. Then, she ordered her people to set up the banquet.

Soon, the food was ready, and Susan was guiding all the warriors from the different sects into their seats. They were clinking their glasses, and the atmosphere was so merry.

A few hours later, the banquet dinner ended, and Susan arranged for all the warriors of the sects to rest at the Carter Mansion.

At that time, it was late at night, and the entire Carter Mansion was in complete peace and silence.

Bang!

Suddenly, the main door was forced open. Then, the family's disciple who was sweating profusely, ran in panicked, shouting loudly, "Oh no, the North Moana grand army is here. They have already destroyed Mount Hua, and are now heading towards Yunzhou City."

Everyone from the Carter family members to the sect warriors woke up from their daydreams after hearing the shouting. Their expressions had changed.

'Megan wasn't lying.'

'The North Moana Continent is here.'

At that same time, everyone felt conflicted.

Megan was captured around five to six hours ago. If everyone had believed her and rushed to Mount Hua in time, perhaps they might have been able to stop the North Moana army.

"Hurry!"

Susan was in shock as she rushed into the room and shouted, "Hurry! Everyone please gather all your disciples to support Yunzhou city."

Bang! Bang! Bang!

All the sects started to light the emergency fireworks. The instantly, the sky above the Carter Mansion was instantly lit up with beautiful fireworks, but no one was enjoying it. Everyone looked worried and terrible.

Over ten minutes later, all the sects had sent their disciples to gather at the Carter Mansion. There were hundreds and thousands of them, and everyone moved towards Yunzhou City immediately.

Meanwhile, at the Sun Set Sect in the Yellow Sea Continent, Jackie was no longer dressing like a man after her female identity had been revealed. Now she was wearing a long dress. She had also allowed Darryl to continue treating her injury.

Of course, due to the recent misunderstanding, Jackie did not use the medicated bath method anymore. She got Darryl to change to another treatment method.

However, although she allowed Darryl to continue to be her doctor, Jackie did not change her attitude towards Darryl. She continued to shout and order him, just like how she treated a servant.

In Jackie's heart, Darryl had seen her body which was extremely deviant. She considered herself generous for not killing him. How could she treat him well?

Under such circumstances, Darryl was really frustrated.

Soon, two days had passed, and Darryl sat on a chair in a room, looking out the window. He saw a few female disciples were guarding the door as he sighed quietly, wanting to cry but had no tears.

Not only was he being ordered around by Jackie, there were also people guarding him all the time. When would he be able to leave the Sun Set Sect?

Honestly, over the past two days, Darryl had thought of many ways to escape, but he gave up in the end.

He felt that he did not mind going into a battle as long as he could leave Sun Set Sect. However, once he thought of Jasmine's Sky Feather Needle, he lost confidence. The Sect Master's Sky Feather Needle was as thin as hair. It had no sound or shadow when it was released, making it hard for someone to avoid it.

Wosh! Wosh!

Right at that moment, the sound of really light footsteps was heard from the outside suddenly. Then, Jasmine's voice was coming from outside. "All of you are dismissed; I have something to discuss with Mister Derby."

"Yes, Sect Master!" the disciples guarding Darryl outside the door replied and left immediately.

At that moment, Jasmine knocked on the door lightly and spoke gently, "Mister Derby, are you asleep?"

Her voice was so gentle; it was alluring.

"No, I'm not. Is there anything I can help you with, Sect Master?" Darryl replied, at the same time grumbling in his heart. 'It's so late at night; what does the Sect Master want from me?'

Outside the door, Jasmine remained silent and then said with a timid voice, "There is something I would like to seek your advice, Mister Derby."

'My advice? What advice does she want in the middle of the night?' Darryl thought.

He then saw Jasmine was wearing a long, black silk dress that showed her fair legs. It needed no further mention of how sexy she looked.

Gulp!

Darryl swallowed his saliva; he could not help but take another look at her.

Sect Master and Elder Master Jackie were the most beautiful and sexy women in the Sun Set Sect. Especially Jasmine, as she looked gentle, beautiful, and intelligent. No one would be able to resist her.

"Let me turn on the light first." Darryl smiled and was about to turn on the lights.

"Don't!" Jasmine bit her lips and shook her head at Darryl as she looked conflicted. "Don't turn on the lights. This is fine."

'What? She doesn't want to turn on the lights? Why is this Sect Master so secretive; what did she want to do exactly?' Darryl mumbled in his heart as he stared at Jasmine curiously.

Her exquisite face looked unnatural as it was such a huge contrast to her arrogant attitude.

The next second, Darryl smiled and asked, "Sect Master, what's the problem?"

Jasmine looked down and spoke in a soft voice, "Mister Derby, I came to look for you in the middle of the night because after I consumed the Yang Pill today, I feel really uncomfortable. I am here to check with you, Mister Derby."

'Not feeling well?' When he heard that, Darryl was stunned.

He gathered his thoughts quickly and curiously asked, "That is not right. The Yang Pill is the antidote for the chill poison in your body. After consuming it, it should only relieve the pain from the chill poison. Why would you feel uncomfortable?"

"Really!?" Jasmine was worried as she bit her lips tightly and looked at Darryl. She then looked down again and replied, "I-I have my period today. I feel that after consuming the Yang Pill, I didn't feel much relief from the chill poison in my body. In fact, I feel worse. Mister Derby, is it due to my period that the effect of the Yang Pill is affected?"

Her voice was so soft that it was almost as soft as the buzz of a mosquito or a fly. No one could hear here if you did not pay close attention.

That was right; Jasmine had her period that day. After consuming the Yang Pill, she felt horrible. However, she could not ask Darryl about it in front of everyone, so she chose to come alone at night.

Although Jasmine was the Sun Set Sect Master, she was still a lady. She felt embarrassed to meet Darryl alone to talk about a woman's intimate matters. While her voice was soft, Darryl was right in front of her, so he heard her clearly.

At that instant, Darryl realized something as he nodded his head. He was delighted in his heart.

After all that worry, that was the reason.

'This Sect Master is so interesting. She is the Sun Set Sect Sect Master, yet she is so embarrassed about such a small matter,' he thought.

Darryl laughed and nodded as he said, "I see, that's why. Sect Master, you guessed correctly. Your period would cause your body function to be distorted, affecting the effectiveness of the Yang Pill. What you're feeling is completely normal, and there is nothing to worry about."

Sigh!

When she heard that, Jasmine nodded silently as she sighed in relief.

Then, Jasmine bit her lips and asked Darryl, "Then, Mister Derby, is there any way to cure this?"

When she said that, Jasmine's eyes were filled with anticipation.

'Although this situation is normal and I have nothing to worry about, the feeling is really terrible.'

She believed with Darryl's great medical knowledge; there must be a way to cure that.

Darryl scratched his head and replied awkwardly, "There is, but it is not easy to do."

Jasmine was delighted, and she asked immediately, "Since there is a way, Mister Derby please tell me. My Sun Set Sect has a lot of special flora and fauna. No matter how rare the herb is, I will be able to get it."

At that time, Jasmine thought Darryl's solution required certain rare herbs.

Darryl smiled and shook his head, "Sect Master, it is not a matter of ingredients for the medicine. My other solution involves a man and woman relationship. What I meant was, Sect Master, you will need to remove your dress while I put my hand on your Moon Water Acupoint and activate my internal energy to heal you."

When she heard that, Jasmine blushed as she bit her lips until it was about to bleed.

It was really awkward.

The Moon Water Acupoint was located on the lower abdomen, and he might look like he was taking advantage of her.

At that moment, Jasmine hesitated.

At that time, Darryl smiled and said, "You are still pure, and I really don't want to violate you. However, there is no other way. If you are not willing to try, you may return to take a rest. I believe a strong lady like you can definitely stand a small suffering like that."

Although the method would allow Darryl to take advantage of the Sect Master, Darryl had no such thoughts at all.

At that moment, Darryl only hoped to find a way to leave this place quickly.

Jasmine locked her brows and hesitated as she bit her lips and said, "I...Mister Derby, let's go with your way."

Jasmine was against the idea of her removing her dress and allowing the man in front of her to put his hand on her Moon Water Acupoint. She was not willing to do it. However, she could not bear the indescribable pain.
