“Yes!” Zhang Jue responded.

Then, he stood up and selected several adept generals as candidates to sneak into the Carter Mansion to kidnap Susan.

The tactic was more likely to succeed had Zhang Jue and Yang Jian taken action personally. However, they were an Emperor and a Military Adviser. How could the supreme leaders work on something that could fail? Therefore, the subordinates were sent instead.

A few minutes later, the selected generals disguised as civilians who had returned from outlands and snuck into Mid City.

At the Carter Mansion...

All the Carter family members and the elites of various sects had gathered in the main hall. Everyone was solemn, and the atmosphere was extraordinarily depressing and gloomy.

The North Moana Army drew near, and Mid City was at stake.

Although they had just blocked a wave of attacks by the North Moana Army, none of them were happy.

Susan had summoned everyone to discuss countermeasures.

However, they had not come up with a constructive plan even after a lengthy discussion. They felt the tremendous pressure on their shoulders when they thought of the North Moana Army's strength and how there seemed to be no way out.

Ugh!

Susan frowned and sighed.

‘Is there no way out for Mid City? Is it God’s will?’

“If Darryl is here, we won’t have to worry about it.” Dax mumbled anxiously, “But he had to go look for Debra. We have no idea where he is, and no one could locate him.”

'Yup!'

Everyone nodded silently.

Darryl would probably have a solution. After all, he had successfully repelled the North Moana Army in South Cloud World.

Everyone was flustered because they could not reach Darryl.

"Mrs. Carter!"

Chester looked at Susan and said warmly, "You've worked really hard commanding the armies and haven't rested well in the past two days. Now that Yang Jian is quiet, why don't you go and take a rest? We will not let our guards down while defending Mid City."

Chester was an observant and caring man. However, he could not bear looking at Susan, who was tired of holding out against the difficult situation.

Everyone else also agreed with him.

"Yes, Mrs. Carter, go and rest."

"Leave Mid City to us."

"That's right; you are our backbone since Darryl is not here. So don't get yourself burned out."

Everyone expressed their concern and care. Susan, though a woman, had proven her exceptional leadership in leading the group to hold out against the attack from the North Moana Army.

"Very well."

Susan smiled faintly after she heard their suggestions and nodded. She was very moved. "Then I will go and take a rest. Thank you for taking care of our defense."

Then, Susan slowly walked out of the hall and disappeared from everyone's sight.

Susan exhaled deeply at the backyard; she felt worn out. Even though she was tough, she was a woman nonetheless. It was an arduous and demanding responsibility to be in charge of defending Mid City.

Pitter-patter...

Just as Susan was about to enter her room, she heard the sound of footsteps in the garden not far away.

Then, more than a dozen people in black appeared in front of her, and each emanated a forbidding aura.

Those people were excited to see Susan; their eyes lit up.

The aloof leader, whose eyes flickered in excitement, was Jake Herald.

Those people in black were the North Moana Army generals that Zhang Jue had hand-picked for a mission to kidnap Susan, and Jake was the captain of that operation.

Hiss!

Susan gasped and trembled when she discovered them.

'Who are these people? How dare they break into the Carter Mansion?'

Jake laughed and smiled triumphantly as his gaze met Susan's, and he said, "I didn't expect this to go so smoothly. We saw you as soon as we got in. Mrs. Carter, come with us, please!"

Jake felt extremely relaxed when he said that, as if he was only engaging in a casual conversation. He thought it would be difficult to sneak into the Carter Mansion to kidnap Susan, but to his astonishment, Susan was the first person they met after they had crept into the garden.

More importantly, Susan was alone, with no one else to protect her!

'What a godsend opportunity!'

Then, Jake slapped Susan without any hesitation!

Jake's companions drew closer and surrounded Susan.

Susan felt a little flustered when the enemies charged at her, but she was a wise woman. She quickly calmed down, leaped, and ran to the depths of the garden swiftly.

The Carter Mansion had always been heavily guarded. Under normal circumstances, it would be impossible for Jake and his group of men to sneak into the Carter Mansion so easily. However, due to the attack from the North Moana Army, many of their members were deployed to the defense operation. Hence, there was no one in the backyard.

Susan was brilliant. She did not act rashly to greet the attack from Jake and his group of men after she sensed their forbidding aura.

“Do you want to run?” Jake snorted coldly; he gathered his men and quickly tore after Susan!

Then, Jake gave an order to his men. “Quickly! We must not allow her time and opportunity to get help!”

“Yes!” The men responded in unison.

Susan ran as quickly as she could, and at the same time, she continued to look over her shoulder. She was shocked when she saw the distance between Jake and herself had gotten closer!

However, Susan did not panic. Instead, her lips curved into a confident smile.

In the depths of the backyard was a Peach Blossom Forest left by the ancestors. There was a very mysterious formation in the forest. Many years ago, Darryl had broken in by mistake, and he was almost trapped inside.

Susan believed that Jake and his men would have a hard time figuring their way out if they were trapped within the formation in the Peach Blossom Forest.

Susan had the opportunity to lead Jake and his men to the front hall, where Dax, Chester, and various Sect Masters were present.

However, she changed her mind after some careful consideration.

Even though there were many people in the main hall, they might have failed to defend Mid City against the enemy if the North Moana Army decided to attack during the chaotic fight.

Susan did not hesitate, and soon, she arrived at the Peach Blossom Forest entrance; she leaped through it!

After Darryl got the Bai Qi Formations from a dry well in the Peach Blossom Forest, he immediately shared with Susan how he cracked the forest’s formation.

Hence, Susan was not afraid that she might be trapped within it.

Jake and his men stopped outside the Peach Blossom Forest; they did not enter it rashly. Instead, they studied the entrance intently.

“This woman is not pulling our legs, is she?”

“Yeah, we should be careful.”

They had observed how Susan had led the various sects in the World Universe to resist attacks from North Moana Army. Jake knew that the woman was resourceful.

Jake took a deep breath. He frowned and said without any hesitation, “This woman is trying to take advantage of this Peach Blossom Forest to get rid of us. Time is running out, so hurry up.”

Jake went in first.

His men exchanged looks with each other before they trailed after him.

What?

The moment they entered the Peach Blossom Forest, Jake and his men were dumbfounded!

Swish!

Every tree moved as if it was alive in the Peach Blossom Forest! It seemed to be out of order, yet they were easily traceable.

Jake and his men were confused.

“Shit! This is a formation!” someone shouted as the men panicked.

Jake’s face darkened. He did not expect that he would fall into Susan’s trap.

The next second, Jake thought of something and quickly turned around to look for an exit. However, he was utterly stunned to find that the forest surrounded him; there was no exit to be found.

“Don’t panic!”

Jake tried his best to calm down. Finally, he let out a frustrated shriek and said, “Everyone, spread out and try to look for an exit. If you see the woman, send a signal; don’t try to take care of her on your own.”

Jake’s face was ashen in a rage.

As the North Moana Army general, he had seen a lot after fighting alongside the Emperor for so long. He had never expected that a woman would fool him.

“Yes!” his men responded; they quickly spread out in different directions.

Susan, who was hiding nearby, cracked a smile after she saw what had happened. Then, she left the Peach Blossom Forest quietly.

Susan figured that those men were full of vigor and strength; it would not be easy for her to ambush them. Instead, she would rather attempt to capture all of them after they were trapped for a period.

Even though Susan did not know Jake, she knew that Yang Jian must have sent them.

Early the following day, Susan went to the Peach Blossom Forest to check on the men.

Soon, she found Jake and his men in the middle of the forest.

Susan laughed out loud when she saw the miserable state those people were in—they sat around a peach blossom tree, and they looked sluggish and utterly deflated.

It was apparent that they had been looking for an exit all night long, and they were exhausted.

“You—”

Jake heard some movement and opened his eyes. He was shocked and angry to see Susan!

His men also felt the same way as he did. They scrambled to their feet and tried to attack Susan, but they were worn out from the night before, so their movements seemed very stiff.

Snap! Snap! Snap!

Susan tried not to smile as she sealed the men’s acupoints quickly.

Then, she bound their hands, grouped them with a long rope, and took them out of the Peach Blossom Forest.

Whoa!

Chester, Dax, and the elites of various sects surrounded the men at once at the main hall. All of them were astonished to see Susan had managed to capture more than a dozen men in black.

“Yang Jian must have sent these men. I trapped them in the Peach Blossom Forest last night.” Susan smiled as she told everyone what had happened.

Whoa!

Everyone was surprised to hear that, and they praised Susan for her move.

“Mrs. Carter is indeed witty and smart.”

“Yes, these people are quite powerful. They all look familiar, like the people from North Moana Army...”

“Mrs. Carter, you are amazing. You managed to catch all of them.”

Everyone showed their admiration to Susan; they were extremely excited.

Since the invasion from the North Moana Army, the World Universe Continent had been in a passive state; they were always retreating from the enemies. So the World Universe elites felt proud when Susan managed to capture those men; it had boosted their morale.

“Mrs. Carter!”

Chester stepped forward and smiled at Susan. “You’re quick-witted, indeed. So what shall we do next? What do we do with these people?”

All eyes were on Susan. Many of them wanted to kill Jake and his men immediately. After all, the North Moana Army had conquered so many cities and caused the World Universe to suffer.

However, Susan was their leader, so they were willing to listen to her decision.

Susan pondered and said, "Let's tie them up and drag them out of the city to show them to Yang Jian."

Susan looked calm, but it was not hard to spot the luster in her eyes.

She wanted to kill Jake and his men, but on second thought, if they showed everyone that they had managed to catch the intruders, it might lower the North Moana Army's morale. The troops' fighting spirit was essential when they faced their enemies in battle. The World Universe would have a greater chance of defending their land if the North Moana Army was low in spirit.

"Great!"

Chester nodded his approval with a smile and said, "That is a good idea."

He was smart, so he could figure Susan's intention at once.

Everyone else also nodded in agreement.

A few minutes later, Jake and his men were dragged out of the city and tied to the wooden stakes that faced the North Moana camp.

In the big tent within the North Moana camp...

Yang Jian frowned. He was looking at the sand table in front of him, and he felt very anxious. Zhang Jue, next to him, seemed calm, but his expression was solemn.

'Jake and the others had been out all night, and there had not been an update from them.'

'Was their mission exposed? Did they get caught?'

“Report—”

A soldier ran in and knelt with a thump. “Your Majesty, Military Adviser, something terrible has happened. The Carter family caught General Jake and the others, and now they are tied to some stakes outside the city...”

‘What?’

Yang Jian was surprised and angry to hear that. “Is it true?”

“It’s true!” the soldier replied cautiously; he was sweating profusely.

Yang Jian did not say anything else; he quickly walked out of the tent, and Zhang Jue followed suit.

When Yang Jian got out of the tent, his face turned green in a rage when he saw the situation in front of him.

Jake and his men were tied to the stakes, with their heads hanging low. They were no longer giving away the air and poise of the North Moana Army.

“Scums! A bunch of scumbags!”

Finally, Yang Jian reacted. He let out an angry howl and then yelled, “Send my order to attack the city. Do not spare anyone from the Carter family and the other elites!

Yang Jian was practically shouting the last part of the command.

The North Moana Army was well known on all nine continents. As for Jake and his men with him—the North Moana generals had failed to attack a woman but were arrested and hung on a display instead; they were a shame to the North Moana Army!

Yang Jian had intended to show his benevolence to the civilians as he tried to conquer Mid City, but he could not be bothered after his anger was aroused.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

The North Moana Army quickly assembled. After a few seconds, the war drums were played! The North Moana Army had launched a mighty assault on Mid City again.

Meanwhile, in the sea about hundreds of kilometers away from Donghai City.

A wooden boat moved along with the waves amid the choppy sea.

Rama sat on the boat's bow with his eyes slightly closed; he was engrossed in meditation. Behind him, Donoghue rowed the boat with a pair of oars.

Donoghue's attention had always been on Rama even though he was rowing the boat. There was a hint of resentment in his eyes.

Donoghue hated his life after Rama castrated him and was forced to be Rama's apprentice. Donoghue hated Rama. For the last two days, he only thought about revenge. However, his energy field was injured after the castration process. Donoghue was greatly wounded, and it would take a long time to recover.

As for Rama, who was learned in Buddhism, he had completely recovered in only a day.

Donoghue could only put up with his resentment for the monk.

Suddenly, Rama opened his eyes. He was done with meditation, and he stood up slowly.

The next second, Rama looked at the sea in front of him and asked, "Vikara, how long will it take to get to the World Universe?"

Vikara was Donoghue's dharma name.

Donoghue responded, "About half a day; you will be able to see the World Universe's port soon."

Donoghue was curious, so he asked, "Master, I heard that the North Moana Army is attacking the World Universe continent. It's chaotic there right now. Why would we go there?"

Donoghue had learned that the Temple of Enchanted Retreat, where Rama was from, had been a place of seclusion for thousands of years. The monks from the temple rarely went down the mountain.

Donoghue was curious; Rama was the temple's head, and he would not have descended the mountain. However, he had also continued to ask Donoghue about the situation in the nine continents as if he had a mission.

Rama sighed as he stared at the water and blue sky in front of him. The serene state of the environment did not help to ease his mind. Instead, Rama was very worried when he said, "There is a vision in the Chaotic Mountain Range—the nine continents will be involved in a disaster. All nine continents' rulers have to unite to eliminate this disaster."

Then, Rama turned his head to glance at Donoghue before he continued to say, "The North Moana is the strongest among the nine continents, but Yang Jian had been leading his army to conquer the other continents. He had disrupted the peace with his armament. I will take you to the World Universe to attempt to persuade Yang Jian to stop the war. The safety of everyone in all the nine continents is at stake..."

'What?'

Donoghue was stunned to hear that.

'This monk wants to dissuade Yang Jian and stop the war? And he said there is a vision in the Chaotic Mountain Range?'

'What kind of a vision can threaten the safety of all nine continents?'

Donoghue pondered that. His brain buzzed from processing all the information, and he was engrossed in his thoughts for some time.

Meanwhile, at Mid City in the World Universe.

Mid City had turned into hell—the ground had been stained red with blood. The Carter family and the disciples of various sects had fallen in a pool of blood under the North Moana Army's strong attack!

The battle had been going on fiercely for five hours!

During those five hours, the Carter family and various sects had suffered casualties. Initially, there were more than 300,000 people from the World Universe. However, after the onslaught, there were incalculable deaths and injuries—only about 100,000 people were left!

The North Moana Army, on the other hand, had only lost more than 10,000 people. They were too strong.

The disparity in strength had gotten more prominent; the Carter family and the various sects could no longer hold out against the attack. However, they gritted their teeth and continued to fight!

Mid City was at stake. The forces from the other cities and some major families had rushed to support Mid City from all directions.

However, they could not deal with the North Moana Army.

The fierce battle continued, and the World Universe's number of casualties continued to rise.

The entire Mid City was in a state of war with screams all around the place. The scent of blood filled the air, and that eclipsed even the sun.

The Carter family and the various sects and forces fought along the way, and finally, they had retreated to the Carter Mansion.

Half of the Mid City was under Yang Jian's control.

The situation had gotten unfavorable to the World Universe, but the Carter family and various sects had not given up. On the contrary, they were ready to continue fighting in the bloody battle.

A figure stood bravely as he engaged in a melee fight!

It was Dax!

Dax was covered in blood, and he had suffered multiple injuries from head to toe. There were more than a hundred wounds!

Behind him, Susan and Chester and the various Sect Masters were at the last ounce of their strength. They could not even stand firmly, but every single one of them looked determined, without the slightest sign of giving up as they gripped their weapons tightly.

In front of them, countless soldiers from the North Moana Army swarmed forward. It was impossible to kill so many of them!

Dax had fought tirelessly; he had almost exerted himself to the last ounce of his energy; he could not even hold his double axes well. Finally, however, he gritted his teeth and rushed to the forefront.

Dax was known for his violent temper and righteousness. He knew that there was no way they could win the battle, but he wanted to kill a few more enemies.

“Dax, come back!”

“Let’s retreat and don’t rush forward anymore.”

Susan and others who were slowly retreating were extremely anxious when they saw Dax did the opposite.

However, Dax could not hear them. He was too engrossed in the battle.

More and more enemies quickly surrounded Dax because he had gone too far upfront! Finally, a North Moana soldier got behind Dax and stabbed a spear into Dax’s back!

Pfft!

Blood oozed from the stab wound!

Puff!

Dax felt the strength in his body diminished; he was extremely weak. He almost fell to his knees.

At the same time, a few North Moana soldiers took the opportunity to charge forward and stab Dax with their long sabers!

“Dax!”

Chester roared and rushed to Dax. He shielded Dax with a wave of his right hand in the air to form a protective shield.

Clang! Clang! Clang!

Dozens of long sabers slashed on the protective film, and they produced the sound of metal clashing.

Chester was a level four Martial Emperor, but he had consumed a lot of internal energy during the fight. His face had paled from his effort to evade the attacks from the many North Moana soldiers!

“What a foolish act of overconfidence!”

Someone commented before a slender figure came into sight. It was Gonggong.

The brave Dax and Chester had caught Gonggong’s attention for a while. However, Gonggong could not remain at ease when she saw both of them injured after they had killed many North Moana soldiers.

Click!

Gonggong flipped her hand, and a Purple Category longsword appeared in her hand. Then, she stabbed the sword at Chester!

At the same time, hundreds of North Moana soldiers swarmed in and surrounded Dax and Chester!

Clang!

Dax swung his double axes to resist the attack, but there were too many soldiers. As a result, there were more and more wounds on his body, and he was bathed in blood.

His blood continued to spill, and Dax's eyes were blood-red; he had lost his mind. Nevertheless, he held his giant axes and cut more than a dozen enemies.

Chester was exhausted as he continued to evade Gonggong's attack and the woman took the opportunity to send a palm attack on Chester's chest! Chester coughed out several mouthfuls of blood as he staggered and retreated to Dax's side.

"Brother Chester, you shouldn't have come," Dax said to Chester; he felt guilty.

Chester would not have come to his rescue and got hurt if Dax had not gotten himself into trouble in the battle.

"We're brothers, so please don't say that." Chester's face was pale, but he gritted his teeth and said, "Anyway, we can no longer defend Mid City, and we won't make it out of this besiege. So let's kill a few more enemies before we die..."

"Yes! Let's kill them!" Dax shouted in high spirit, and then the two brothers went all out!

Clang! Clang! Clang!

Dax could not recount how many times he swung his double axes or how many stabs he had suffered on his body. He was so severely injured that blood had stained his clothes red!

Dax was exhausted. He could feel that he was almost at his last breath. The pain was overwhelming; not a part of his body was not in pain!

Puff!

Next to him, Chester was at a disadvantage in the face of the powerful Gonggong.

Suddenly, Gonggong stabbed Chester with a sword. Chester could not dodge the attack, and the blade pierced his shoulder!

Chester felt that he had lost his strength as he trembled and staggered backward.

"Go to hell!" Gonggong sneered. She took advantage of the situation to pursue Chester and slapped Chester's chest with a palm attack.

Chester was only a Martial Emperor, so it was as if he had sought death when he fought against Gonggong.

Susan, who was nearby, as well as the various sect masters, exclaimed. They wanted to rescue Chester, but there were too many North Moana soldiers around them. They could not even take two steps forward.

“Brother Chester!”

Dax’s eyes were blood red. He roared and placed himself in front of Chester and took Gonggong’s palm attack instead.

Puff!

Dax groaned and spouted a mouthful of blood when the two palms collided. He retreated more than a dozen steps backward before he regained his footing.

Both Dax and Chester had exhausted their internal energy, and their bodies were covered in wounds. However, they were fearless in the face of the North Moana soldiers and Gonggong!

“Come on! Do you want to kill us? Come on!” Dax yelled desperately, and his eyes had turned red!

Next to Dax, Chester’s face was pale, but one could see his tenacious will through his eyes.

The North Moana soldiers exchanged looks with each other! They felt uncomfortable.

'How did those two not fall after suffering so many injuries?'

'Are they iron men? How did their blood continue to flow endlessly?'

Gonggong furrowed her brows as she watched two brave men; she felt impressed.

'These people from the World Universe are really tenacious. The situation is already falling apart, yet they are still resisting with all their might! Are they not afraid of death?'

Susan and the various sect masters were shocked to see what had happened, and their eyes turned red.

Darryl's sworn brothers were real indomitable men, indeed.

They would rather sacrifice their lives and suffer injuries all over their bodies than give up and step back while they defended the World Universe.

"You are not afraid of death, so what?"

Gonggong approached them and sneered, "You want to resist North Moana's attack, but if that's all the skills you have, then you obviously do not know your place!"

Gonggong issued an order to the North Moana soldiers. "They are already running out of strength. So don't be afraid; just kill them quickly!"

The North Moana soldiers armed with long spears charged forward.

Puff!

Dax was too weak to dodge as a dozen spears pierced through his body at once.

Dax could not hold it anymore; his blood gushed from his body!

Chester was also struck; his face was extremely pale.

“Sect Master Sanders, Sect Master Wilson!”

“Sect Master!”

“Sect—”

Susan and the various sects felt their hearts ache. Many disciples from Flower Mountain and the Eternal Life Palace Sect screamed in a frenzy. They could no longer hold back their tears!

Dax tried his best to wipe the blood around his lips as he looked at Chester with a weak smile. “Brother Chester, I shall die here with you. I have no regrets in my life. It is a pity that the three of us are not together at our last moment.”

Chester forced a weak smile, and then he said solemnly, “It’s good that Darryl is not there; he can avenge us in the future.”

Chester looked around at the densely packed North Moana soldiers in front of him and roared, “We have done our best to defend the World Universe, and I have no regrets to die!”

Roar!

His heroic spirit was too powerful!

“The three of us shall live and die together. I’m here, and I will never let anything happen to the two of you.” A loud voice echoed from a distance!

The people from the World Universe and North Moana were shocked when they heard that voice; they turned their heads in search of the voice.

Everyone was stunned by the sight that greeted them!

A colossal figure flew at a breakneck speed from the horizon!

It was a giant beast that was about 70 meters in length. It looked like a tiger, but it was not one. It had a dark purple body and a pair of wings on its back. It was surrounded by thunder and lightning.

It was Rocky!

A man stood on Rocky's back. The man had sharp facial features; he looked extremely cold! It was Darryl!

After so many years, Rocky's strength was close to the Heaven Ascension level!

Darryl stood on the beast; he looked majestic! There were 300,000 soldiers behind him—the Westrington Army!

Join this Telegram channel for daily updates - THE ULTIMATE HUSBAND

Darryl stood on Rocky's back proudly; he emanated a majestic aura, and his eyes glittered with tears.

Darryl had made his way to the World Universe after he summoned the Westrington Army at the Green Dragon City Gate. Along the way, Darryl saw many cities had fallen into ruins, and there were countless dead bodies!

Finally, he arrived in Mid City, and everywhere within his sight was in a state of war. The bustling and lively Mid City had turned into hell with blood everywhere.

His two brothers, Chester and Dax, were bathed in their own blood due to the fierce battle.

Darryl was a chivalrous man. He was heartbroken when he saw their miserable scene.

“Darryl—”

“Sect Master!”

“Alliance Master Darby is back!”

There were cheers from the World Universe when they saw Darryl. Whether it was the Carter family, the Elysium Gate Sect, or the various sects—everyone was extremely excited. A ray of dawn rose in their despaired hearts.

‘Darryl is back, and the World Universe is finally saved!’

“Chester, Dax!”

Darryl's eyes landed on Chester and Dax; his tears flowed freely. “I'm very sorry that I'm late.”

Darryl realized that Chester and Dax were covered with wounds, and they were both dripping with blood. Nevertheless, they had stood tall as they defended the World Universe even though they were utterly bathed in blood.

His Elysium Gate Sect member, the Carter family, and the people from various sects stood behind those two brothers. There were also countless bodies all over the ground!

Those who were lucky enough to survive were all seriously injured.

“You all deserve to die for hurting my brothers and family!” A cold voice came from Darryl’s mouth. Darryl raised his hands the next moment, and a wave of terrifying power condensed in mid-air around the man.

“Grand Destruction Art!”

Darryl yelled out loud as he pointed at the North Moana Army!

Buzz!

A violent breath of power burst out to form a hurricane-like vortex that went swooped straight to the ground!

Roar!

At the same time, Rocky also made a loud roar and charged at the enemies.

“What—”

Suddenly, amid the roars from the Grand Destruction Art and Rocky, nearly a thousand soldiers from North Moana screamed and fell into a pool of blood; they had failed to react quickly to the attack!

The World Universe’s elites were very excited; they cheered loudly.

“Darryl!”

A cold voice echoed from the North Moana Army camp. Then, a golden and majestic-looking figure hovered in the air. It was Yang Jian.

“Darryl, you’ve finally appeared!” Yang Jian’s eyes were cold as he hissed the words. “I wanted to conquer the entire continent before I tried to catch you, but I didn’t expect that you would show up here.”

Yang Jian looked at the 300,000 Westrington Army behind Darryl and said disdainfully, "The World Universe is gone. Surrender immediately and work for me. Perhaps, I can spare your life."

Yang Jian looked proud.

Even though Darryl's 300,000 Westrington Army was not small, their strength was not comparable to the North Moana Army. Hence, Yang Jian did not take them seriously.

'Surrender and be loyal to you?'

Darryl smiled coldly as he met Yang Jian's gaze; he was fearless. Then, he spoke clearly, and his voice reverberated throughout the area. "Yang Jian, I've defeated you once. You fled from me in the South Cloud World, and you still have the cheek to tell me to surrender? Who gave you the confidence to do that?"

Darryl had mocked Yang Jian deliberately. Yang Jian had taken advantage of Darryl's absence and led an army to attack the World Universe. It was a shameless act.

Yang Jian's face darkened; he was furious.

He was the Grandmaster Erlang who had been around for thousands of years. When had he been ridiculed in such a way?

"You shall die!"

Those three words came from Yang Jian as his eyes were fixed on Darryl. Then, he raised his hand and waved. "Listen to my order, soldiers! Destroy everyone from the World Universe Continent and the Westrington Army. Spare no one!"
