

Chapter 2701

The Ryukin Gold Altar disciples agreed.

" That's true. How can that kid possibly be better than my Master?"

" It's probably luck that he managed to diagnose Senior Sister's problem!"

" Donna, don't be hypocritical. I think you're here for a joke, right?"

Donna was so angry by the accusations hurled at her and her body trembled!

The next second, she plucked up the courage and reasoned with Alan, "Altar Master Alan, if Sandhurst doesn't know anything, could he so accurately diagnose Tina's problem? If he merely got lucky, why did he accurately bring up the Wind Nervus Acupoint and the Yin Spirit Acupoint?"

Alan stood there, speechless! He could not refute Donna's statement.

At the same time, the surrounding Ryukin Gold Altar disciples had also stopped scolding her!

Everything the kid mentioned earlier had happened to Tina. How could the description fit so accurately if it was just a coincidence?

Suddenly, Jet noticed Darryl and he was shocked. " Who is this person?"

Alan felt awkward and explained the situation to Jet.

'Darryl sent him?' Jet frowned.

Then, he laughed out loud and said to Alan, " If this little brother could recognize Tina's condition, maybe he really has a way to help her. Why don't you let him give it a try!"

Alan's face looked grave and he instinctively resisted the idea. " Jet, are you kidding me? How can the life of our Holy Saint Sect disciple be handed over to an outsider?"

Alan's face looked extremely embarrassed when he said that. He looked embarrassed when he said that. He had prematurely assumed that the kid to be an incompetent, undistinguished person and forced Donna to send him away a few minutes ago. If he changed his mind and got Sandhurst to treat his apprentice, how could he face his people as the Ryukin Gold Altar Master?

Tina, who laid there, said painstakingly, " L ... I don't want him to save ..."

Like Alan, Tina looked down on the person Donna brought into the sect from the bottom of her heart.

Jet smiled and replied helplessly, " This is the only feasible way. Otherwise, you can try to ask the Sect Master to leave his cultivation in seclusion. You know about his temper. The consequences could be disastrous."

Alan was in a dilemma because Jet was right. Who would dare to interrupt the Sect Master as he cultivated in seclusion?

Moreover, Jet also suggested that even the Sect Master might be equally helpless even if he was there.

After around ten seconds, Alan made up his mind and waved at Darryl, " Give it a try since you know what to do!"

Alan never wanted to get help from him, but there was no other way. Tina would die if she were not rescued in time!

However, Darryl stood in place.

" Altar Master Alan, do you think I'll save her just because you told me to? You tried to send me away," he said, looking at Alan with a faint smile.

Alan's face became ugly all of a sudden, but he still managed to squeeze a smile. " Little brother, I hope you don't mind how I offended you earlier."

He wore a smile on his face but felt cold and gloomy on the inside.

' F * ck, this kid is cocky. He'd better watch out!' he thought.

Darryl pondered and looked reluctant. " Since Altar Master Alan is sincerely asking for my help, I will give it a go, but I have one condition."

" What is it?" Alan asked with a frown.

The Ryukin Gold Altar disciples also furrowed their brows and stared at Darryl with displeasure.

This kid really thinks he's something, huh? Master has already made a compromise yet he's trying to make things difficult? ' they wondered.

" It's very simple. If I save Tina, she'll apologize to Donna in public. Also, in the future, people from Ryukin Gold Altar will have to treat Donna respectfully and call her Senior Sister." Darryl smiled as he looked around.

Chapter 2702

Everyone was shocked by what Darryl said. The Ryukin Gold Altar disciples were furious and looked annoyed,

" Hey, kid. What are you talking about?"

" You want us to call Donna, Senior Sister? Did you say you want Senior Sister Tina to apologize to her?"

" What right do you have to demand such a thing?"

Jet, who stood to the side, also frowned as he looked at Darryl with interest. A strange luster shone in his eyes. This kid is ballsy. How dare he talk to Alan like that?

Donna was even more shocked as she stared at Darryl blankly, totally stunned.

She knew that Darryl's follower had a strong sense of justice and when he saw the people from Ryukin Gold Altar were against her. He wanted to take advantage of Tina's condition to seek justice for her.

But isn't he being too confident? What if he can't save Tina? ' she thought.

Alan was furious as he summoned his internal energy and glared at Darryl. ' Kid, you're asking for a death sentence!"

Alan was about to shoot at Darryl. He thought he had been so forgiving to allow a stranger to save Tina. How could Darryl brazenly ask for more after what was given?

Darryl was not even panicked by Alan's anger. He merely smiled faintly. What? The dignity of Ryukin Gold Altar is more important than Tina's life? It seems that you as her Master don't really care about her life after all. "

Alan was speechless.

Jet smiled and tried to mediate the situation." Altar Master Alan, what this little brother asked for is not too much. The five altars in Holy Saint Sect belong to the same school. It's not wrong for your disciple to call Donna, Senior Sister.

" Furthermore, we can't ignore Tina's condition any longer. We have to save her!" Jet said as he glanced at Tina.

Tina was weak and looked reluctant to accept Darryl's help as she glared at Darryl.

How dare he make such a request? I am the Ryukin Gold Altar Senior Sister, how can I apologize to Donna? How would I be able to stay in the sect after this news spreads? ' Tina pondered, wanting to refuse Darryl's help.

However, she did not have the courage to do so. Both her Master and Altar Master Jet were clueless about her condition and she might die if she did not get help immediately.

Moreover, Alan was not refusing, so Tina had no choice but to accept it.

Darryl cracked a smile when he noticed they were not protesting anymore. Well, since you're not saying anything, I'll take it as a ' yes!"

" Stop talking nonsense. Hurry up and save her," Alan said grimly.

Darryl smiled, but he did not move. Instead, he said to Alan, " Altar Master Alan, I can only tell you how to save a person and you will do as I say."

He became solemn as he explained carefully, " Please use your internal energy to disperse the remaining Yang energy poison in Tina's body to her meridians"

For the next few minutes, Darryl continued to explain all the details. His tone was indifferent, but he was firm.

When he was done giving instructions, Darryl folded his hands behind his back and looked at ease. " Okay, Altar Master Alan, you may start now.'

" What?" the Ryukin Gold Altar disciples could not hold back their emotions anymore.

" How dare you tell us Altar Master Alan what to do?"

" I don't think he knows what he's doing. He deliberately makes Master do it so that he can make excuses if he fails."

Darryl was not bothered by the comments hurled at him. To completely treat and heal Tina, the healer must have profound internal energy. I must admit that I am no better than Altar Master Alan in terms of internal energy. "

He looked serious, but his eyes flashed with a smile. It was true that treating Tina required strong internal energy. Darryl did not want to reveal his identity, so he did not want to show his internal energy.

It was true that treating Tina required strong internal energy. Darryl did not want to reveal his identity, so he would not want to show his internal energy.

Chapter 2703

Moreover, Darryl did not want to be involved as he was cautious around women, so he let Alan handle it.

Alan wore a gloomy expression and he was seething with anger. He could not accept that a superior Ryukin Gold Altar Master like himself would be ordered around by a young outsider. However, he held himself together and did not become irritable.

He shot Darryl a cold glance and warned, " If your way doesn't work, you won't walk out of here alive!"

Then, Alan sat cross-legged behind Tina and began to use his internal energy to drive the poison out from her body using Darryl's method.

Alan was the Ryukin Gold Altar Master for a reason; he was a capable man. Under Darryl's guidance, he managed to expel the Yang energy poison in Tina's body quickly.

After half an hour, Tina's pale face regained a healthy complexion. She had also recovered her energy and spirit, looking completely different from the half-dead state she was in before.

Everyone present was amazed to see the drastic change.

" She's all good now?"

" This is incredible!"

" Senior Sister seems to be completely healed!"

The astonished Alan stood up slowly. He felt the Yang energy poison in the depths of Tina's energy field had disappeared completely. What shocked him the most was that Darryl's method was the same one he used to help Tina integrate the coreopsis plant into her body. Only a few minor details were different and it was those minor details that almost killed Tina.

Donna, who was standing nearby, trembled in awe as she watched and admired Darryl. He saved Tina! His method was so simple and he explained it in just a few sentences. It was incredible.

Although Alan did the rescue, everyone knew that without Darryl's instructions, Alan's profound inner energy would have helped.

Jet smiled at Darryl. " Wonderful! How wonderful! Brother, you seem like an ordinary man, yet you have such outstanding medical skills!"

He looked expectantly at Darryl. "Where did you learn these medical skills?"

" I ... " Darryl wanted to say that he learned it from Divine Farmer but quickly changed his mind and said, " I stumbled upon a medical book and I study it whenever I'm free. "

Everyone knew that Darryl was close to Divine Farmer. If he mentioned Divine Farmer's name, his identity would definitely be exposed.

" I see!" Jet nodded without asking more.

The Wonder Flame Altar Master was smart. He could tell at a glance that Darryl was not telling the truth and did not try to pry the secret out of Darryl.

Darryl smiled at Alan. " Altar Master Alan, we gotta keep our word as a part of the cultivator's community. Now that your apprentice has been healed, you must fulfill the conditions, shouldn't you?"

He eyed Tina when he said that.

Alan's face grew so ugly that he was at a loss for words to refute Darryl.

At that instance, Tina's beautiful face was losing color rapidly! She bit her lip tightly and looked at Alan with a gloomy expression. She was reluctant to fulfill the conditions her Master had agreed to. If she refused to apologize to Donna, Alan would be humiliated and the entire Ryukin Gold Altar would become the laughing stock of the Holy Saint Sect.

B-but how will I face the people in the future if I apologize to Donna? ' she thought.

Finally, a few seconds later, Tina bit her lip and slowly walked to Donna.

" Donna ... I was wrong before. I'm sorry, " she whispered.

Her voice was so soft that you could only hear it if you were listening carefully.

Donna stood there, feeling the buzzing sensation in her head. She felt like she was in a dream. Tina, the Ryukin Gold Altar Senior Sister, had always been conceited. Donna could not believe that Tina would apologize to her.

Chapter 2704

Donna was even more surprised at what was happening after that.

Darryl chuckled when he noticed Tina's halfhearted apology. " Tina, you don't seem to be sincere. How could you say Donna's name if you're apologizing to her? You should call her Senior Sister Donna."

Tina was so angry, but she could not refute. " You!"

Tina managed her dissatisfaction and said to Donna, " Senior Sister Donna, I was wrong ..

She was so vexed when she had to say those words. She never dreamed that one day she would have to apologize to Donna! It had never ever crossed her mind that an outsider would make her lower her pride.

Donna replied softly, " Tina, as long as you won't be hostile to me and the Celestial Wood Altar in the future, I will let whatever happened in the past slip!"

Donna was kind-hearted and although the situation was a good outlet to vent her anger, she did not want to embarrass Tina since they belonged to the same sect.

Darryl sighed as he thought Donna was too kind.

Then, he looked around at the other Ryukin Gold Altar disciples around him. " Your Senior Sister has apologized. How about you guys?"

The Ryukin Gold Altar disciples looked at each other awkwardly.

The next second, one of the Ryukin Gold Altar disciples greeted Donna with his hands clasped together respectfully. " Senior Sister Donna!"

Thereafter, everyone else followed suit and greeted Donna in unison, " Senior Sister Donna!"

Those Ryukin Gold Altar disciples were very upset, but there was nothing they could do about it. Their Master had agreed to the condition and the entire Ryukin Gold Altar would become a joke if they did not keep their Word.

Donna stood there, perplexed. Her face turned red from shyness and her insides were in a flutter.

The Ryukin Gold Altar disciples had always been arrogant whenever they met Donna, but now they have laid down their dignity.

It had never crossed Donna's mind that she would experience something so incredible.

Donna did not respond, so Darryl stepped up, looked around and commented with a smile, " That's how you guys will address her in the future, got it?"

Tina and the other Ryukin Gold Altar disciples were very annoyed, but they dared not show it on their faces. They nodded feebly.

Darryl was satisfied and smiled at Donna, " Time is running out. Please take me to see the Empress."

Sara was waiting for Darryl at the foot of the mountain, so he had better be fast.

Donna responded and was about to leave with Darryl.

" Hold on!" Alan cried out suddenly and blocked Darryl's path. " You said Darryl sent you to pass a message to Empress Chang Er?"

Alan looked indifferent, but his eyes were glowing cunningly. " What's the message?"

He could not let Darryl off so easily. He had just made a fool out of the Ryukin Gold Altar.

Darryl frowned, then smiled and said, " Altar Master Alan, I have really important things to pass on to the Empress. I can only tell her when I see her."

Darryl knew Alan was deliberately trying to find something wrong with him. Alan would find a way to stop him from meeting Chang Er even if he explained the situation clearly. Darryl might as well not waste his time and effort trying to explain.

" You're Sandhurst, right? Although you saved me, you can't see the superior Empress as you please. Why don't you tell us what's going on and my Master can pass on the message for you," Tina said as she approached Darryl with a self-righteous expression.

Like Alan, Tina refused to let Darryl meet Chang Er as he wished because Darryl had just embarrassed the entire Ryukin Gold Altar.

Darryl frowned, annoyed. He had to think of something smart and quick to trick Alan and Tina. Suddenly, loud noises came from the mountain gate.

" Oh no!"

Then, a disciple rushed in, sweating profusely. " Altar Master Alan and Altar Máster Jet, there are many people at the foot of the mountain. The leader introduced himself as Zhang Jue."

Chapter 2705

What? " Jet and Alan were both stunned.

Who had not heard of Zhang Jue? A thousand years ago, he formed the Yellow Turban Rebellion and ran amok in the entire world. A few years ago, he helped Yang Jian on their conquest expeditions. With Zhang Jue's help, The Nine Continents almost fell.

Zhang Jue and the Holy Saint Sect had never been in touch before. Why would he bring his troop to the Holy Saint Sect?

Damn it!' Darryl was alarmed and disconcerted by the news. ' F * ck! I thought I was one step closer to meeting Chang Er, but now, Zhang Jue has arrived before I could see her!'

Jet reacted and told the disciples, "Quick! Get all the disciples to be on guard now!"

Alan added, " Send more disciples to guard the forbidden area. No one is allowed to go there, especially outsiders!"

Alan shot Darryl a look when he finished speaking. No one knew why Zhang Jue was visiting. For Empress Chang Er's safety, Alan would not let Darryl see Empress Chang Er.

" Yes!" The disciples dispersed immediately after getting their orders.

Jet and Alan led the other disciples towards the main hall.

Donna frowned as she did not know what to do.

Then, Donna told Darryl, " Let's go! I don't think you can see the Empress for the time being. Let's go have a look at what's going on out there first!"

The security at the forbidden area was strengthened and it was impossible for Donna to get past the guards single handedly.

Darryl smiled bitterly and nodded. He followed Donna and everyone else to the main hall. When they arrived at the hall, the other Altar Masters were also there and a slim figure stood out amongst the crowd.

It was Diana, the Celestial Wood Altar Master.

Darryl could not take his eyes off Diana even though he was mentally prepared to meet her.

Diana was the only female Holy Saint Sect Altar Master. Her looks and temperament were goddess-like. She wore a deep purple dress, had bright eyes, white teeth and hair that enhanced her beauty. She exuded an elegant aura. No man would be able to resist Diana when they saw her.

Darryl finally retracted his gaze after staring at Diana for more than ten seconds. He stared into the distance at the opposite side!

Hiss!

Darryl gasped when he saw the scene on the other side!

The entrance of the mountain gate was densely packed with cultivators dressed in black with an imposing demeanor. The cultivators were above the Martial Saint level and were all elites from the Endless Sky Organization. A man stood in front of the elites, wearing a black robe. He had a powerful aura and a confident smile.

It was Zhang Jue! He had reached the Heaven Ascension level.

The people from the Holy Saint Sect felt an invisible sense of pressure when they sensed Zhang Jue's powerful aura.

Darryl was extremely furious to see his nemesis! He locked eyes with Zhang Jue, seething with anger.

He wanted to fire at him but held himself back.

In the next second, Darryl was stunned when he saw the person next to Zhang Jue! He saw the dark and gloomy man standing beside Zhang Jue looked exactly like he did three years ago.

Darryl was stunned

Where the hell did Zhang Jue find someone that looks exactly like me? " he wondered,

Chapter 2706

Darryl's brain was buzzing; he was completely dumbfounded.

If Darryl did not have three scars on his face, that man next to Zhang Jue would look exactly like him. They were like twins. It was hard to tell the real Darryl from the fake one!

While Darryl was shocked, everyone in the main hall had their eyes locked on the fake Darryl, especially Diana and Donna. They were delighted to see Darryl.

Finally, Zhang Jue looked around and said with a smile, " Everyone, please forgive me for this sudden visit. We're here because we have something important for Empress Chang Er to see!"

Diana, Alan and the other Altar Masters exchanged looks with each other.

Then, Alan took a step forward and said to Zhang Jue, " The Empress has long been devoted to cultivating in seclusion and is no longer involved in worldly affairs. Besides, you must first get the Sect Master's approval to see the Empress. We're sorry that our Sect Master is currently cultivating in seclusion!"

Zhang Jue had a hint of dissatisfaction on his face as he looked at Alan closely in an imposing manner. " From the way you're speaking, I'm guessing you're the Ryukin Gold Altar Master."

Zhang Jue's aura was too strong and Alan could not help taking a Deep breath as he held his hands together. " Yes, I am-"

Zhang Jue interrupted Alan before he could finish what he was saying. " In the past three years, the Raksasa Tribe appears to be calm, but in fact, they are secretly planning something and they have never given up on invading The Nine Continents."

Zhang Jue said slowly and solemnly, Moreover, many mysterious forces have emerged in The Nine Continents over the years which has complicated the situation. In this case, we need a reputable person to preside over The Nine Continents and maintain the peace we enjoy today. Chang Er is an ideal candidate!"

Everyone from the Holy Saint Sect fell silent.

A few seconds later, Diana recalled something and said, " The Elysium Gate Sect Master, Darryl, is also a rare talent. Everyone can see his outstanding strength. Wouldn't it be better for him to take over leadership?"

With that said, Diana glanced at the fake ' Darryl'admiringly.

Diana had always seen Darryl as her apprentice, so naturally, she would compliment him greatly. She did not know that the real Darryl was right behind her and the one standing next to Zhang Jue was a fake.

Zhang Jue smiled and explained, " I've discussed this matter with Sect Master Darby but he thinks that his ability is limited and it's difficult to shoulder such a huge responsibility."

With that said, Zhang Jue hinted at the fake Darryl. The fake Darryl was Zhang Jue's follower in disguise. His real name was Harold Lionel and he was Zhang Jue's most trusted follower.

He saw Fang Mao's transfiguration technique in Green Cloud Sect's prison cell and was deeply inspired, so he asked Harold to dress up as Darryl and go with him to the Holy Saint Sect to trick Chang Er.

Although he did not have Fang Mao's A Thousand Faces Tricks, he was a knowledgeable man. He made a fake mask for Harold through his own research, which made him look almost exactly the same as Darryl.

Harold stepped out after he got the hint. He first looked around and then said to Diana, " Thank you, Master, for your love and trust. Although I have gained a reputation over the years in The Nine Continents, I know my ability is limited. I think only Empress Chang Er can stabilize the situation in The Nine Continents now. "

Harold was well prepared before he went to the Holy Saint Sect, so he knew that Darryl was Diana's apprentice.

Diana was pondering after she Heard the fake Darryl.

Everyone from the Holy Saint Sect behind Diana was whispering," It seems that the situation in The Nine Continents is really bad. "

" I think so. Otherwise, Darryl and Zhang Jue would not be here together to see Empress Chang Er.

Chapter 2707

Darryl frowned as he glared at Harold. F * ck, I don't care who you are. You must pay the price if you dare to pretend to be me.

Just as Darryl was scolding Harold secretly in his heart, Donna tilted her head to look at Darryl and whispered, "If Darryl was planning to come in person then why would he send you here in advance?"

Donna, like everyone else, did not notice that the ' Darryl' beside Zhang Jiao was fake.

Darryl felt helpless at Donna's question. Had he known that Zhang Jue would bring a fake Darryl, he would not have hidden his identity.

The next second, Darryl's mind was spinning quickly and he whispered to Donna, " Senior Sister Donna, can we go somewhere to talk?"

With that, Darryl looked around and took Donna's hand. They walked towards the back of the hall. Donna was a little resistant to being held by Darryl, but she did not break free when she noticed his solemn expression.

Everyone from the Holy Saint Sect had their attention on Zhang Jue and Harold; they did not notice that Darryl and Donna had quietly slipped away.

Soon, they reached a secluded corner behind the hall. Then, Darryl released Donna's hand and looked at her earnestly. " Senior Sister Donna, I'll tell you a secret but please don't panic and shout, alright?"

Donna furrowed her eyebrows. " You're so mysterious. What are you doing exactly?"

'Sandhurst is Darryl's follower but when he saw Darryl earlier at the main hall, he didn't greet him. Instead, he took my hand and left the hall,' she thought,

Darryl could sense Donna's doubt, so he took a deep breath and said, " Senior Sister, I am actually Darryl!"

Darryl's face was calm when he said that his emotions were revealed in his eyes.

'What? ' Donna trembled in shock.

She stared at Darryl blankly, unable to speak for quite some time.' Isn't he Sandhurst? Why is he Darryl? If he's Darryl, then who was the guy in the main hall? What happened to the three scars on his face?

Donna had so many questions; she was confused.

She looked at the person in front of her carefully and soon she discovered that the person in front of her looked exactly the same as Darryl had when he had no scars on his face. She had not paid much attention to him before noticing that.

" You ... Are you really Junior Brother?" Donna finally asked.

Darryl smiled bitterly and nodded. "I'm Darryl. When I first arrived at the mountain gate, I saw that you couldn't recognize me, so I went along with it to conceal my identity. I didn't expect Zhang Jue would get someone to pretend to be me to trick all of you!"

Darryl was becoming more anxious. "Zhang Jue must be trying to deceive Empress Chang Er by getting someone to pretend to be me! This person is sinister and cunning; he must not be allowed to succeed."

Donna was all out of sorts, but she chose to believe in Darryl. After all, this guy saved Tina in front of her and only the real Darryl could have such superb medical skills.

"Then what should I do next?" Donna asked, biting her lip nervously.

Darryl did not hesitate and said quickly, "The best thing to do now is to quickly take me to see Empress Chang Er. We must get there before Zhang Jue does."

Darryl had thought about it. It would be the dumbest thing to do if he went to the main hall to confront the fake Darryl because the fake one was too similar to himself. He would be in serious trouble if the Holy Saint Sect disciples did not believe him.

Donna bit her lip, nodded, and then led Darryl to take a shortcut to where Chang Er was spending her seclusion.

However, neither Donna nor Darryl noticed that a figure was quietly following behind them. The figure wore a pink dress, had a graceful figure and exquisite features, but there was a hint of something menacing between the eyebrows.

It was Tina, who Darryl had rescued earlier.

Chapter 2708

Earlier, Tina noticed when Darryl pulled Donna away from the hall. She had always been suspicious of Darryl's identity. She was doubtful when someone, who claimed to be Darryl's follower, did not go to greet Zhang Jue and the fake Darryl.

Her doubts deepened when she saw Donna leading Darryl into the forbidden area quietly.

Meanwhile, Darryl and Donna were so anxious to see Chang Er; they did not realize someone was following them.

The Holy Saint Sect was really huge, especially the forbidden area behind the mountain. There were many people patrolling the area. Fortunately, Donna was very familiar with the place and she guided Darryl to avoid the patrolling disciples.

After a while, they saw a quiet courtyard not far in front of them. The small courtyard was full of exotic flowers and plants, making the environment beautiful.

"Empress Chang Er is in the front yard. She should be cultivating! You go in and visit her; I'll stay outside!" Donna said.

Darryl nodded and was about to walk over when suddenly he heard an angry sound!

" I knew something was wrong!" A woman, holding a sword, charged at him from behind.

It was Tina!

* F * ck, why did this woman come with us? ' Darryl was shocked and a little annoyed on the inside!

Donna shuddered and looked a little stressed. She did not expect that Tina would follow them!

" Donna, isn't this person Darryl's follower? Darryl is in the hall, so why didn't he go to greet Darryl? " Tina asked. Then she stared coldly at Darryl, " Perhaps, he isn't Darryl's follower. Why did you help him enter the forbidden area? You must have an ulterior motive? "

" I ... " Donna bit her lip tight, not knowing how to answer.

She knew that the man in front of her was the real Darryl, but could she tell Tina about it? If Tina knew the truth, she would definitely take advantage of it.

Tina wore a smug look when Donna did not know how to reply. " I have nothing to say!"

Darryl exhaled a long breath. He replied, " Tina, I have an urgent matter to discuss with Empress Chang Er. I hope you don't cause any trouble. Besides, you would have died if I did not help you earlier, so don't bite the hands that feed you!"

Bite the hands to feed you? ' Tina's expression changed when she heard Darryl's remark.

Darryl had just brought up her pain point. She was annoyed. If it were not for Darryl, she would not have to apologize to Donna in public.

I can't be bothered with who this person is. I would never let the person who embarrassed me go easily no matter what! ' Tina thought to herself and she looked at Darryl, her eyebrows were tightly furrowed and the long sword in her hand was buzzing!

" Donna, you brought people into the forbidden area and violated the sect's rules. Today, no matter what, you will be arrested for your crimes. If you know what's good for you, you better surrender yourself! " Tina said in an icy tone, followed by summoning her internal energy to stab her sword across at Darryl!

Tina went full force in her sword attack. Wherever her long sword passed, the air around it would become distorted.

Darryl frowned and was about to greet the attack!

" Let me do it!" Donna suddenly yelled and stood in front of Darryl. " You go see Empress Chang Er first, I'll block her. Go!"

Donna drew her sword and fought fiercely with Tina.

Clang! Clang! Clang!

Tina and Donna's long swords collided with each other, producing loud clanging noises, Darryl was dazzled by the sword movement! Both of them were Holy Saint Sect disciples, One was the Ryukin Gold Altar Senior Sister, while the other was the Celestial Wood Altar Senior Sister; they were well matched in strength.
