

Vroom!

The enticing sound of the engine roared and the Lamborghini stopped abruptly in the midst of falling leaves and strong winds.

The appearance of this vehicle had made the entire atmosphere freeze in that moment.

“T-T-This is... Lamborghini Reventon?”

It was difficult for everyone to hide their shocked expressions.

The scene in front of them was like a dream. When they had woken from that dream, everything would disappear.

Reventon, 18 million.

In the beginning, the luxurious car of the mysterious Young Master was also the limited edition of Reventon for 18 million.

Now, the exact same car had actually appeared!

This was like an urban legend which everyone had been looking forward to witnessing and thought that it would never come true.

But one day, this legend suddenly became real right in front of their eyes.

Young Master Lu had a shocked look etched on his face and was suddenly at a loss.

T-T-This is too fancy! Young Master Lu thought.

As he was getting away from the parking spot, Chen Hao walked down from his car.

All the girls screamed hysterically; some put their hands into their mouths while others even scratched their faces until their skin was torn.

It was too much of an impact!

“Wow! What’s your wechat, hottie?”

“Do you have any girlfriend?” the girls cooed as they surrounded Chen Hao.

“Young Master, we’ll leave this instant!

Some guys wanted to give their parking spot to Chen Hao instantly.

“Wait!” Chen Hao said in a loud voice, looking at them coldly.

Upon hearing his loud command, everyone jolted and stood rooted to the ground.

“Let me ask you guys—what’s the point of comparing to each other here?” Chen Hao asked stonily.

At that moment, a few guys lowered their head and became quiet.

“You’re rich, but there will be someone who will be even richer than you. When you think you’re richer than the others, there will be even more people who are a few times richer than you. Can you afford to keep on comparing? Why don’t you put these efforts in spending time with your family and your lover? Why come here to show off?” Chen Hao said coolly.

A few guys went red in an instant, and nodded heavily.

“Hear, hear! This Young Master is so much better! Young Master Lu and Young Master Yang could not even be compared to this Young Master!”

“Young Master, after meeting you only then I knew what maturity looks like! You’re so attractive! And what you said is so true!”

A few girls started getting closer to Chen Hao, and some of them even looked at Chen

Hao with tears in their eyes as they told him affectionately.

“And you guys too!”

Chen Hao pushed away a girl who was clinging to him, and pointed at them coldly.

“Look at what you’re wearing? Yes, I’m talking about you! You’re only wearing a t-shirt, and without any pants? As a young lady, don’t you feel embarrassed wearing skimpy clothes like these? And that girl over there! You’re even more overboard! What you’re wearing now are just ropes! Showing all you’ve got to everyone! Can’t you be more ladylike?”

Chen Hao was incredibly angry, especially looking at the young boys and girls like them who were so materialistic.

Chen Hao only wanted to tell them to treasure the people around them and everything that they had right now. When they lost everything, they would have nothing but regrets.

At that moment, Chen Hao didn’t care about anything and scolded the girls until some of them even burst into tears.

“All of you, get away from here!”

Chen Hao waved his hands, chasing the crowds away.

After he parked his car, he thought, What has happened to this world?

So what if you're rich?

If money can do anything, I don't have to spend so much time and effort to look for them.

Looking at the campus, Chen Hao needed to continue his search for people with extreme Yin body type. Hence, he walked to the campus.

The incident that happened just now was just a minor interlude.

Coming back to the campus after two years brought a lot of thoughts passing through Chen Hao's mind.

There was a saying that went 'life is a circle'. No matter rich or poor, one would always return back to the starting point after some twists and turns.

Everything had started from here—knowing that he was the Chen Family's first heir, and meeting the love of his life.

The bubble tea store at the entrance of the college was still there, and the owner of the store was still the same.

At that time, he met Su Tongxin because she forgot to bring her wallet while she was trying to buy a cup of bubble tea, and he paid for her. That was their first encounter.

His love story with Su Tongxin was very simple back then—there were no earth-shattering revelations, and no dramatic, heart-breaking events.

I like you, and you like me. I want to be together with you, as simple as that.

But the good times were all gone right now.

Chen Hao even had a different kind of dream—that he wasn't an heir of the Chen Family.

If only he was just a poor student, and Su Tongxin didn't care whether he was rich or not.

After getting together, they would find a job. And when they saved up enough money, they would open a bubble tea store, get married, have kids, and start a beautiful family. It would be perfect if everything was just like that.

Sigh!

Chen Hao smiled bitterly as he thought about that.

How do I know the worries back then?

“Hey! Handsome lad, you’ve been zoning out for five minutes. Are you alright?”

Chen Hao was deep in his thoughts, so he had no idea since when a girl in a ponytail came in front of him.

She waved in front of Chen Hao’s eyes and asked him teasingly.

“Hmph? What’s up?”

Chen Hao turned and looked at her.

“Ha-ha!”

The girl in a ponytail couldn’t hold it in and burst out laughing.

This person looks so silly! I see him zoning out from afar. What is he thinking, in the middle of the day?

The girl said, “Our flatmates want to take some pictures by the lake, so we need a photographer. Do you have some time, handsome boy? Come take a few pictures for us!"

The girl picked him as he looked quite decent and good-looking.

"Alright, no problem!"

As the girl was speaking, she already passed the camera to him.

Chen Hao didn't reject her because it wasn't anything difficult.

"Alrighty! Be careful when you're holding it; it's very expensive. By the way, do you know how to use it?"

Looking at Chen Hao who was wearing normal clothes, the girl was worried that he didn't know how to use the camera and broke it.

"Yeah!" Chen Hao nodded.

At the lakeside, around five-six girls were teasing each other happily.

As the weather was great today, they had promised each other to take a few photos outdoors. As they were entering year two of college soon, they wanted to leave some good memories of year one behind them.

Even though there were other people near them, there were mostly couples spending time walking together by the lake. Some were even hugging and kissing each other.

Hence, they were quite embarrassed to find the couples to take pictures for them.

“What’s wrong with Yuanyuan? She’s already found someone. Why didn’t she bring him here?”

“They’re coming now! Looks like she found someone who is pretty good looking!” A girl giggled.

“Meh, I don’t see anything good looking in him. He’s just average!” Some of the girls shook their heads.

“Come on, what are you guys thinking? He’s here to help us take some pictures. Be more polite!”

The girl in the middle—who had long hair and looked like the leader of the group—smiled and told them cheerfully.

After Chen Hao walked to them, the girls thanked Chen Hao for helping them to take pictures.

After returning to Jin Ling College, this place brought back a lot of his memories.

Hence, he was quite distracted.

"Are you guys ready? I'm shooting now," Chen Hao asked.

"Yeah, we're ready!"

The girls smiled and posed while Chen Hao held the camera and adjusted the angles.

"One, two, three, f*ck!"

Suddenly, Chen Hao jolted. He was too agitated, so he accidentally let the camera fall to the ground after swearing.

With a clink, the lens of the camera broke into halves.

When Chen Hao focused on them just now, he felt the jade amulet and his soul forming a weird feeling which was exactly the same when he met Su Chuchū.

When he looked back to the group of girls, he was beyond exhilarated to detect the energy of the long haired girl in the middle of them.

Because he had found the second girl with the extreme Yin body type.

It was exactly like Master Ghost had predicted—Yin and Yang attracted each other. As long as they were close enough, they would definitely cross paths.

Just like that, he had finally found the right place.

Seems like the other girl is right at Jin Ling College!

Chen Hao couldn't help breathing a long sigh.

However, the six girls opened their mouths widely; they couldn't believe what they were seeing.

This camera costs around fifty thousand! I- It... It was smashed by this guy just like this?

"Aah!"

Yao Yuanyuan was the first to react.

She felt the world spinning around her, and the entire sky became dark around her, because she was the one who rented the camera. If it was broken, she would definitely have to pay for it.

"You bastard! You actually threw our camera just like this?"

Yao Yuanyuan rushed toward him angrily and shoved him.

The rest of the girls were pissed off as well.

Well, they had already dressed up and posed for the picture. It was originally a happy event for them, but an accident like this made everyone feel bad.

"Can't you do such a simple thing right? Yuanyuan, why did you find a guy like this? Seriously!" The girls rolled their eyes at Chen Hao exasperatedly.

And Yao Yuanyuan was so nervous that tears almost streamed down her face.

"Still, it should be working. A camera like this will have a protective gear for each part. Let me have a look!"

The long-haired girl slightly brushed her hair behind her ears and checked the parts of the camera before putting them back together again.

“However, the lens hood is scratched after the crash. At least a few thousand will be required as compensation,” she said.

“Hmph! I’m so pissed right now! We’re so unlucky! Why did God let me meet him? There are so many people on the streets—why did I find him instead? If it were not for him, we would probably finish shooting by now!” Yao Yuanyuan was so angry that she almost threw a fit there.

“How much do I need to pay you back? I’ll pay you back, every single cent of it!” Chen Hao said hurriedly.

“Hmph! You promise? Then pay us fifty thousand!” Yao Yuanyuan said angrily.

“Fifty thousand? It’s be a miracle if he could take even two thousand from his pocket. We’re so unlucky!” the girls said.

“Alright, I’ll pay you back!”

Upon speaking, Chen Hao wanted to take his phone out and transfer fifty thousand to her.

However, something embarrassing happened—Chen Hao searched all over himself and realized that his phone was not with him.

He suddenly realized that he left his phone in his car after going out to reprimand the people who were comparing to each other.

Hence, he didn't bring anything along with him after that.

After scavenging through his pockets, he only found around seven-eight hundred worth of cash on him which he had no idea when he put them in. After all, Chen Hao had no concept of money for a long time.

"Hmph! I thought you were somebody! What the h*ll!" Yao Yuanyuan said disdainfully.

"Alright, alright, let's stop shooting first. Let's settle the problem with the camera first before eating at Texas Chicken," the girl with long hair shook her head and said.

"How can we let him go like this? He would at least have to pay us back!" Yao Yuanyuan said relentlessly.

"Forget it!"

As more people surrounded them, the long-haired girl felt embarrassed being looked at by so many people, hence she pulled her friends away.

"Wait, young lady! W-What's your contact?"

Leave a form of contact for me, then I shall transfer the money to you later," Chen Hao said, looking at the long-haired girl.

Yao Yuanyuan and the rest were stunned.

What the hell? He broke our camera and yet asked for Shen Nan's contact?

What type of guy is this?

Everyone then understood that he deliberately did that because he thought Shen Nan was pretty and wanted her number.

There were no girls without any jealousy in them, hence they immediately looked at Chen Hao in disdain and anger.

Shen Nan didn't want to hold it against him, and she didn't want to be the center of attention of the crowd, hence she pulled her friends away.

"D*mn, bro! Shen Nan is the prettiest girl in her course. Great choice there, but many rich Young Masters have failed in picking her up, and you actually went straight for her contact number?"

"Yeah! She's already given you a chance to help her take pictures, but who knows your performance is so lousy? You can only wallow in regrets now!" a few guys who were watching the entire scenario said sarcastically.

Ignoring them, Chen Hao just shook his head and smiled bitterly.

It must be the attraction of extreme Yin and Yang that distracted my thoughts.

It was like when I met Su Chuchu before. Suddenly, I couldn't control my emotions and acted so impolitely. This is the same as then.

I'm the one who broke the camera of the girl in the ponytail, yet I asked for the contact of the long-haired girl?

Anyone would think that I'm annoying!

Sigh!

Chen Hao patted his own head.

I'm too impatient!

Even though there was a minor misunderstanding, Chen Hao was quite happy.

After all, the person with the extreme Yin body was found, and he was steps away from finding the Sky Stone.

The middle of the month was arriving soon, but his efforts were not in vain!

At that instant, looking at Shen Nan and her flatmates silhouette, Chen Hao chased after them.

As for Shen Nan and her flatmates, even though they were only in their first year of university—not even reaching a full year—they had seen all sorts of different guys.

In their course, no matter their coursemates or their seniors, those who courted or confessed their love to Shen Nan were simply too many.

Some people irked Shen Nan off, hence she never agreed to their requests.

Just like that man just now for instance—he couldn't do his job well, yet he asked for her contact number blatantly.

She hated people like him the most.

Shen Nan and her friends settled their problem with the camera, and Shen Nan was the one who paid for everything.

After that, they went to Texas Chicken on their campus to have lunch. Looking at the beautiful mountains around their campus, they also found a professional photographer to take pictures for them.

Chen Hao followed them as he wanted to apologize to them, because they had got the wrong idea of him—he wasn't who they imagined to be.

"It's him again! He's so annoying!"

Looking at Chen Hao, a few girls were exasperated.

It was fair to say that all the girls didn't have a good impression of him.

Burst!

As Chen Hao prepared himself to explain to them, several pink flower petals suddenly burst, flying everywhere. A romantic atmosphere fell on the entire restaurant, and everyone in the restaurant was moved by the atmosphere.

Shortly after that, a handsome young man who wore a suit, with a bouquet of flowers in his hands, bypassed Chen Hao and walked toward Shen Nan.

“Shen Nan, I specially prepared this for you. Do you like it?” the man asked, kneeling down on one knee while holding the flowers in both hands.

It was a romantic confession session!
