

A Beauty With Multiple Masks Chapter 1861

Hearing that instantly had Harvey making up his mind.

However, before he could even voice his thoughts, he heard Arielle saying, "Then you should abort it."

At that, he pushed the door open and entered the room, unable to hold himself back anymore. "Sonia, let's get married..."

He had heard Arielle mention Sonia's name before, and he thought it was a nice name.

Sonia gaped at him, unable to speak properly. "G-Get married?"

Gazing at her, he promised seriously, "Yes. Let's get married. I won't let you regret marrying me."

I won't let her regret her decision if she agrees to marry me.

When he finished his sentence, he stared at Sonia patiently while waiting for her response.

At last, Sonia finally spoke, "Arielle once told me I should marry someone I like. Likewise, the man has to love me wholeheartedly. Otherwise, I'll be the one suffering in the future. This is the first time we're meeting each other officially. Not only do we not know each other well, but we hardly have any feelings for each other. Don't you think it's too hasty for us to get married now?"

After listening to her, he realized her words made sense.

Though he had a good impression of her, he did not really have feelings for her.

Nonetheless, he did not think it was right for him to give up just like that.

"Why don't we try dating each other for some time? We can get married if we actually develop feelings for each other. Is that okay?" Harvey suggested softly while gazing into Sonia's eyes, worried she would reject his suggestion.

After a moment of silence, Sonia said, "One month. Let's try it for a month. If we still don't have feelings for each other and have no intention to proceed to the next step by then, I'll abort the child..."

Sonia did not want to marry Harvey straightaway, but accepting the suggestion was a good sign.

As long as she was willing to give him a chance, he would do his best to make her fall in love with him.

With that, they decided to put the abortion on hold. Arielle let Harvey send Sonia back to her class, a task which he gladly accepted.

Along the way, he found out Sonia had morning sickness, so he purposely bought some dried fruits to help her cope with it.

Though she said nothing, he could tell that she was pleased with his gesture.

Not long after, he dropped her off at the campus, and they parted ways. He then called Arielle to ask what a pregnant woman could eat if she was experiencing morning sickness.

Hearing that, Arielle could not help but tease him and let him wait. Eventually, though, she sent him a list of food suitable for pregnant women. Harvey went straight to the supermarket and bought two large bags of food.

However, as soon as he arrived at the campus entrance, he saw a woman tugging at Sonia, which infuriated him.

He stormed over and glared at the woman pulling on Sonia.

Sternly, he ordered, "Let her go!"

"Who are you? This is my daughter. Surely how I treat her has nothing to do with you?"

Harvey was flabbergasted. It never occurred to him that the woman in front of him could be Sonia's mother, his future mother-in-law.

Ugh! Why am I so unlucky?

I can't believe I offended my future mother-in-law on the first day we met!

Nevertheless, his heart ached when he saw the pained look in Sonia's eyes.

So what if she's Sonia's mother? That doesn't mean she can treat Sonia so roughly.

A Beauty With Multiple Masks Chapter 1862

"I'm her friend!" Harvey tamped down his emotions and stared at Kelly seriously.

"Mrs. Wynter, Sonia might be your daughter, but she is a separate entity with the ability to make her own decisions. You're making her upset with your actions. Do you want her to grow apart from you?"

“Friend? What friend? I never knew she had a friend like you.” Kelly stared at him icily. “No matter what kind of friend you are, stay away from my daughter. She is not someone that you should have designs on.”

Huh? Is my intention that obvious?

Harvey stole a look at Kelly’s gaze and facial expression. After ensuring that she only said that spontaneously, he heaved a sigh of relief inwardly.

He then looked at Kelly and emphasized sincerely, “I’m really her friend. I have to say that the way you treat her is a bit too harsh.”

Harvey could never not have designs on Sonia. Deep down, he had made up his mind. As long as Sonia was willing to accept him, he would never part with her.

Nevertheless, he took note of his future mother-in-law’s demeanor and reminded himself not to aggravate the situation by provoking her.

“This is between me and Sonia. It’s none of your business, so stop meddling in our affairs!” Kelly snapped impatiently.

“Mother, please don’t be mean,” Sonia declared in an angry and ashamed tone before Harvey could say anything.

“Remember what I said. Come home tonight.”

Having said that, Kelly left. Harvey gazed at Kelly’s back, not knowing what her final words meant.

Turning around, he felt his heart ache at the sight of Sonia’s reddened eyes.

Pulling her into his arms, he patted her head and comforted her, “It’s okay. I got your back no matter what happens...”

“You should go. I’ll go to school now.”

Harvey felt a little lost suddenly when she stepped out of his embrace. He gazed at her intently as an inexplicable feeling rose in his heart.

“I bought some food for you. Bring them with you so you can fill your tummy when you don’t have an appetite.” He opened his car door and offered the stuff he bought to Sonia.

As Sonia refused to accept them, he thought she was worried that the food wasn’t good for her child and added, “Don’t worry. I got a list of food that can be safely consumed by pregnant women from Arielle.”

“I can only take two. I need to keep my pregnancy a secret. They are medical students, so I’m afraid they will discover the truth,” Sonia explained.

Harvey wasn’t overthinking, but he was strangely pleased to hear Sonia’s explanation.

His lips curled as he said, “Mm, take two, then. You have my phone number. If you have a craving for something, just give me a call anytime. I’ll buy the food and deliver it to you.”

Seeing Sonia’s surprised reaction, he chuckled lightly.

Did she forget about what we agreed upon earlier?

Flashing a grin, he told her softly, “Did you forget we are friends? We’re currently in a relationship. Moreover, you’re pregnant with my child. It’s normal for me to treat you well. Don’t feel stressed out and just summon me whenever you want.”

“I know. I’ll contact you if the need arises.”

Harvey watched as Sonia entered the campus. When her figure disappeared from sight, he drove away. Throughout the journey back, he couldn’t stop a smile from playing on his lips.

That night, he called Sonia. After a brief chat, Sonia said she had to hang up as it wasn’t a good time for them to chat. Left with no choice, Harvey had to agree.

He was about to hang up when she asked, “Do you want to meet up?”

A Beauty With Multiple Masks Chapter 1863

Naturally, Harvey agreed ecstatically.

He bought a bouquet and waited for her at the spot they agreed to meet, but she didn’t show up even a long time later. He then sent Sonia a text.

A while later, Sonia still hadn’t replied to any of his texts, so he started wondering if something had happened. After pondering briefly, he called Sonia’s phone, but it rang for a long while without getting answered. Realizing something was wrong, he knew it was time to get Arielle’s help.

Vinson was the one who answered Arielle’s phone, so he told Vinson that Sonia was missing. After the call ended, Vinson immediately went over to his house. Harvey had already called the police, so the police officer was asking him questions.

He was fretting ever since he realized Sonia had gone missing. Despite using his connections, he still failed to locate her.

Worried sick, he decided to head out to search for Sonia himself. Nevertheless, his phone rang as he was about to step out of the door. It was an unknown number, but he answered it nonetheless.

Sonia's voice rang out. "Harvey..."

Hearing Sonia's weak voice, Harvey felt his heart sink to the bottom of his stomach.

He quickly asked, "Sonia, where are you?!"

After Sonia told him her location, he grabbed his jacket and ran out.

Right before he left the house, he remembered Vinson and rushed back to say, "Vin, I found Sonia. She's hurt, so I need to pick her up immediately."

They soon arrived at the location where Sonia was.

Harvey's heart clenched in pain when he saw Sonia lying on the ground. He squatted down and carefully picked her up before checking if she was hurt.

"Harvey, we need to send her to the hospital now," Vinson reminded him.

Snapping back to reality, Harvey brought Sonia to the car and put his jacket over her body. He then hugged her tightly. When they arrived at the hospital, he arranged for her to get checked without further delay.

When the examination ended, he led her to the ward so she could rest. He didn't forget to tell Vinson to head back as Arielle was still in the apartment.

After Vinson left, Harvey remained in the ward and watched Sonia in bed. Holding Sonia's hand tightly, he gazed at her without a word. His heart felt as if it had been stabbed by a dagger when he realized he had been that close to losing her.

Harvey initially assumed his feelings for Sonia were just a sense of responsibility. After all, he took her virginity and got her pregnant.

After what happened, he finally discovered that he was truly, deeply in love with her. Responsibility aside, he had no idea when he fell in love with her.

He gave her an apologetic look.

It was all my fault. I didn't find you soon enough, so you got hurt.

"Who exactly are you?" A roar suddenly sounded at the door.

Turning at his shoulder, Harvey saw Kelly jabbing an accusing finger in his direction angrily.

He quickly tucked Sonia in and got to his feet to greet Kelly politely, "Mrs. Wynter."

"Who the h*ll are you? How are you related to Sonia? Are you the father of the child she is pregnant with?" Kelly demanded furiously.

Harvey took a look at her reaction and knew it was impossible to hide the truth from her anymore. She would be against their marriage in the future, so he decided it was time to be honest with her now.

With that thought in mind, he introduced himself, "Mrs. Wynter, my name is Harvey Jupiter. I'm Sonia's boyfriend and the father of the child she's pregnant with."

A Beauty With Multiple Masks Chapter 1864

Harvey thought Kelly would agree to their relationship as Sonia was pregnant with his child, but to his surprise, Kelly stated her disapproval vehemently. She even offered to pay him to leave Sonia.

He immediately asked her how much money was enough to make her acknowledge their relationship.

Since Kelly mentioned money, it was obvious that money was important to her. Harvey was willing to give up everything he owned as long as she allowed him to be with Sonia.

Alas, Kelly wasn't tempted at all. She claimed she would never allow them to be together even if he offered her ten billion. She also said she would abort Sonia's baby so he wouldn't pester her anymore.

Harvey was fine with Sonia not wanting the child, but he refused to accept the fact that her parents were making decisions on her behalf by forcing her to abort the baby.

Before he could say anything, Sonia's weak but determined voice rang out. "Mother, the child is mine. I will keep him!"

Harvey's determination grew when he heard her firm voice.

Sonia's father showed up a while later. After learning about Sonia's pregnancy and the identity of the child's father, he asked to talk to Harvey. They chatted briefly, and he promptly agreed to their relationship.

Kelly was still against their relationship, but after some time, she slowly caved in. She even brought them back to the Wynter residence so they could stay with her.

It was soon time for Sonia to give birth to her child. Harvey got a huge fright as Sonia had an accident during her childbirth and decided to have protected sex with her after that.

Vinson and Arielle were getting engaged, so he brought Sonia and their son back from Turlen to attend their engagement party.

A few months later, they themselves got married. Sonia was soon pregnant again.

Harvey could barely hide his shock, for he had made sure they had protected sex every time. He wondered what went wrong.

Amidst his confusion, he received news from Vinson that Sonia had poked holes in the condoms. Naturally, she got pregnant.

Despite his fear, he didn't stop Sonia from getting pregnant as that was what she wanted. When she gave birth, he invited Arielle over to deliver Sonia's child.

This time, Sonia's wish finally came true, and she gave birth to a daughter.

Harvey was grateful that he first fell in love with Arielle and followed Vinson to Turlen. He was also thankful that he slept with Sonia after getting drunk.

"And that's why you two must love and protect Mommy like me, okay? I spent a lot of effort to get Mommy for you," he said.

Sonia's gaze landed on Harvey as the warm sunshine shone on their little family of four. She was blessed to be Harvey's wife. He kept his promise and made sure she didn't regret marrying him.

"Daddy, Mommy, we will love and protect Mommy forever!" The kids stood up from Harvey's lap and went to Sonia to kiss her cheeks.

Harrison teared up when he saw the heartwarming scene.

Oh, this is great! I'm glad to see their family happy together. Half of my wish has come true, and the other half depends on the brat who is holding me now.

"Brat, when will you get me a granddaughter-in-law?" Harrison demanded as he used his cane to whack Jared's leg.

A Beauty With Multiple Masks Chapter 1865

Jared felt helpless.

Why is he urging me all of a sudden?

“Grandpa, I need to get back to work. Goodbye!” he answered hastily and released his grip on Harrison to flee the scene.

Seeing that, Harrison felt a jolt of anger.

He roared, “Brat, you always escape when I ask you to get married. If you’re capable enough, don’t come back home for five years straight!”

Hearing his grandfather’s energetic bellow, Jared responded from afar, “No problem!”

“Hey! You!”

“Grandpa, you shouldn’t force Jared against his wishes. He’ll take action when he finds the love of his life without needing you to remind him,” Harvey said.

He went to Harrison and helped the latter to a rocking chair nearby.

That Harrison knew. However, he was old and might not live for long. Hence, he wanted to see his youngest grandson getting married when he could still walk. That way, he would be able to reunite with his wife and children proudly in the afterworld.

Jared was driving when he received a call from Henry.

“What is it?” Jared asked.

“Let’s meet up. I’ve been busy with work all day and want to relax,” Henry invited. It wasn’t easy to be an heir.

Jared was free, so he agreed and drove straight to the bar.

After parking his car, he entered the bar.

“Hey, over here!” Henry stood up and waved when he spotted Jared.

Jared waved back and walked over to his table.

“You’re a busy man, right? Why do you have time tonight?” Jared punched Henry lightly and sat down beside him.

He then got a bottle of beer and took a few sips.

“I’m going to go crazy if I continue to stay indoors,” Henry complained.

Suddenly, something flashed across his eyes as he rested his arm on Jared’s shoulder.

Arching a brow, he commented, "I can't believe Trisha looks so stunning when she dresses up. If she had dressed this way back in Maxwell University, a handsome student would've snapped her up quickly..."

Hearing that, Jared shot a discreet glance in the direction Henry was looking and spotted Trisha clad in a sexy black minidress with her long hair cascading down her shoulders. She was swaying along to the music on the dance floor. The sight caused his brows to snap together.

Why is she here? She shouldn't be here!

With that thought in mind, he was about to get up to drag her out of the bar when something occurred to him.

What right do I have to bring her away? We aren't even friends anymore.

A few years ago, after he heard Arielle's analysis and learned that Trisha was in love with him, he had no idea what to do. After all, he wasn't planning to be in a romantic relationship at the time.

He did feel uncomfortable when Arielle told him to imagine Trisha getting a boyfriend, but in the end, he decided to only be good friends with her, nothing else. He didn't have any intention to date and wanted to focus on his studies.

Later, he stopped Trisha and told her about his thoughts. Her eyes turned red after hearing his explanation, and she ran away.

They never talked again after that. Even when they bumped into each other later on, she acted as though he was a stranger to her.

Back then, he assumed Trisha didn't want to talk to him for the time being as his words had been too harsh.

He wanted to apologize to her, but whenever he tried to offer his apology, a male student would come and cut their conversation short. He later discovered that the student was one of Trisha's admirers.