Chapter 1071: the collapsed Ryan!

“What did I see?”

At this moment, Kel ‘Thuzad looked at Guo Xiaoyun, who was panting on the ground in the virtual screen in a daze.

That little guy, that little guy could actually change the runes set by his master! !

At this moment, not only Kel ‘thuzad, Sandro and Maya, who saw this scene together, were also speechless. After a long time, Maya broke the silence, “It’s really...”

BoxNovel.com

Maya narrowed her eyes but did not refute his words. She did not feel that it was an exaggeration for a character like them to say the word ‘terrifying’.

A Level 6 developer killed a level 13 ranger. This kind of thing was not even written in some of the best-selling novels in the Federation. However, it happened in reality!

Of course, the other party had borrowed the other party’s strength. They had clearly seen the entire process. Seeing that the other party could not escape their pursuit, the little fellow had directly lured the other party to a heavily infected location and used spirit invasion to modify the infected sarcoma.., by making it go berserk, he had really killed the high-level ranger who was chasing after him!

To be honest, modifying the runic arrays of other people’s alchemy products without authorization was an extremely risky move. Even alchemists of the same level would not dare to do so.., only a mage who was a level higher than the opponent could directly destroy the opponent’s alchemy objects in such a crushing manner.

As a top-notch star-rank mage, she naturally knew how complicated the runes of the void mixture that Sandro had evolved were. A level-6 junior actually dared to manipulate such complicated runes.., and it actually succeeded!

Both Sandro and himself felt that this result was a little dreamy.

Sandro looked at Guo Xiaoyun on the screen with a complicated expression... ..

The other party was very bold and careful. As the owner of the runes, he was completely aware of the content that the other party had changed. After observing it for a very short period of time, he did not know if it was luck or if she really saw something.., she had chosen an extremely suitable node to change a particle-sized structural point.

If she made a mistake, her mental energy would be instantly devoured. However, she had chosen the right direction among the billions of energy nodes and succeeded in using the force to counter-kill someone of a higher level!

To be honest, when the other party was trying to do that, he had already noticed it. He had been treating it as a joke the entire time. In the end, when he saw it, he realized that he had become a joke.

He had studied things for dozens of eras, and the runes were so complicated that he felt his scalp go numb. However, it was able to let a junior see through the rules, even though he only saw an extremely small rule, but it still made him feel extremely incredulous.

This could no longer be described as ‘the younger generation is awesome’...

Then, Andrew’s finger gently slid, and a tiny energy output was attached to the dense neural network at the location. Countless nerves intersected, and a stream of energy was quickly transmitted to Guo Xiaoyun’s location.

The rotting flesh that had already absorbed Shakira’s energy and started to go berserk suddenly became obedient. Then, it slowly squirmed towards Guo Xiaoyun, wrapped her up, and quickly pulled her into the depths of the ground.

At this time, facing that disgusting rotting flesh, Guo Xiaoyun could only close her eyes tiredly. She no longer had the strength to resist.

Modifying such a huge runic system, even if it was just a tiny energy molecule, had completely exhausted her spiritual power. The current her..., if a Rat comes and shits in her face, she won’t have the strength to chase it away.

I can only pray that my guess is correct, that whoever controls this vast matrix will not let her die so easily... . .

“How did this happen?”

On the other side, Feel the blood sacrifice burst of Rennes a face suddenly kneel on the ground, looking at the body of the blood mark, his face ugly to see the extreme!

Seer is gloating on the side: “Oh my dear Big Brother, this is your very important to you the Lord? Tut Tut, it is really at the cost of good to you!”

“Shut up!”Rennes roared angrily. Then, he glared fiercely at death’s embrace and said with a gloomy expression, “Do you know about this?”

Death’s embrace shivered after being stared at by the other party’s Crazy Gaze. He hurriedly shook his head and said, “I don’t know, I really don’t know! !”

She wasn’t lying. Although she belonged to the pure demon faction in the faction and was very dissatisfied with Rennes, an outsider, being held in high regard, she really didn’t know that her boss would be so ruthless to her subordinates.

Moreover, it was to Ryan. Because from all the signs, it seemed that Ryan was going to be placed in an important position!

Seer looked at Ryan, who was on the verge of collapse, and thought for a moment. In the end, he did not continue to ridicule him. Although he really wanted to do so, the other party still had value at this time!

“Your Excellency, do you have a way to eliminate the blood sacrifice on this guy?”

Hearing this, Ryan, who was furious, was stunned for a moment and looked over.

After all, no one wanted to become the blood demon’s food. That was a cruel way to die without a chance of rebirth!

When the embrace of death heard that the blood sacrifice was going to be removed, he couldn’t help but say, “Maybe... it’s not that bad. It’s just to lock on to Ryan’s position?”

“Using this method?” Rennes sneered. “Are you trying to say that SAB will be polite enough to take me back when he comes over?”

The embrace of death was speechless. To be honest, even she couldn’t be thick-skinned enough to say this. The blood demon had a very high desire for the blood sacrifice. It was almost an addiction. SAB was also famous for being bloodthirsty. Even if she said that he would not make a move against Rennes, she would not believe it... ..

The principal looked at the mark, he shook his head. “I’m not good at demonology. Moreover, this is a blood sacrifice made by a high-level blood demon. Even if it’s a summoner who specializes in demonology, not many people have the ability to disarm this thing. This is the blood demon race’s natal technique!”

“Is that so...” seer’s expression darkened slightly, while Rennes’ face turned pale.

“Tell me, Big Brother, what’s the situation with that Saab?” Xi Ye asked with a smile.

“Saab...” Ryan hesitated for a moment, finally, he said: “It’s one of Lord Bolton’s five ancient devils. I heard that they are all old devils that have lived for more than ten eras, peak star level warriors, and also one of Lord Bolton’s most powerful subordinates!”

“Star level powerhouse...” Xi ye took a deep breath. He did not expect that the organization called Bolton to be so powerful. It was one thing for them to have star level powerhouses, but from his tone, it seemed like they had more than one under them. This guy had only risen to power for less than half an era, right? Was there such a powerful organization?

“Principal, are you confident in dealing with them?” Xi Ye raised her head and asked.

The principal shook his head when he heard this. “I’m an academic mage. Although I’ve come into contact with battles before, compared to these top-notch devils that specialize in battles, the chances of me being killed are higher...”

Seer:” ...”

Chapter 1072: The Descent of the blood demons!

“Lord Saab...”

On the other side, as the VOGU forces landed, the exploration forces led by Saab also landed at a stronghold in the northwest at about the same time.

Their position was relatively poor. In the northern plains, the main headquarters of the Blackrock tribe was in the Blackrock Plains. To head south, they had to pass through the Blackrock path and take the Gondolin route.

The troops that descended were completely different from the ones that Rennes had brought with him the last time. This time, they were almost all pure demon warriors with powerful auras. It was clear that they were the true elite force under Burton.

The leader, SAB, was wearing a gray cloak that covered his entire body. Under the cloak, one could barely see anything. One could only see a pair of scarlet eyes!

BoxNovel.com

“Lord Sab...” walking at the front., a slender woman with snake scales all over her body quickly walked back from afar, she reported respectfully, “Lord Sab, we have investigated the surroundings. The underground corrosion is serious, and the ecosystem has been severely damaged. However, this corrosive force does not seem to have completely controlled the core of this planet. In fact, many places are still healthy...” . “...”

“Oh?” Saab nodded slightly. His scarlet eyes under his hood flashed with a hint of surprise. Then, he looked around and took a deep breath, “It shouldn’t be...”

He had seen the battle before he came. Sandro’s strengthened army had astonishing combat strength. They were practically the fallen angel army that was suppressing his own side.

One had to know that the fallen angel activation star had always been the Lord’s Trump card!

In the past, when they had fought for the right to enter the Battle of Nimir, their opponent was an old lord that had lived for three eras. His sphere of influence was more than several times that of their own lord. However, with just that fallen angel activation star’s Angel Army., they had forcefully eliminated that Old Lord.

After all, not everyone had the power to resist the flames of hell.

An army that could prepare to resist the fallen angels, yet they could not even completely control the Gaia core of a level-7 planet?

This was clearly not right...

SAB placed his palm lightly on the ground and carefully felt it. He felt that there was an endless mountain of rotting flesh beneath the ground. Many places had almost replaced the soil, causing the entire ground to become diseased.

However, the core of the underground was still emitting vigorous power, trying its best to resist the corrosive power.

This made the surprise in SAB’s eyes become even more serious.

Something was wrong. With Andrew's level, there was no reason that a level seven core could not be taken down now?

"We have to find Sophia first..." Sab withdrew his palm and looked at the sky where the battle was still ongoing. His voice was hoarse.

"Sophia?" The man was surprised and asked in surprise, "Is Sophia still alive?"

Sophia was the name of the embrace of death that came with her. The embrace of death was an extremely rare species in the abyss. There were only two pure-blooded members of the embrace of death under Lord Bolton. One of them was called Anna, she was the commander of the 4th Legion of the Bolton Force. Currently, she was in charge of the Nimir battlefield. The second one was Sophia.

She was a new junior, but due to the rarity of her bloodline, she was highly valued in the faction. Lord Bolton had previously arranged for her to study medicine under Lord Polo, and she had been transferred to Rennes as the general logistics officer.

The transfer of such a rare bloodline, the embrace of death, to Rennes had caused a lot of dissatisfaction among the commanders, especially among the pure demon commanders. One of them was SAB, who had even publicly caused trouble for Lord Bolton.

However, no one knew what the Liege had done to forcefully transfer Sofia under Rennes' command.

"Still alive..." Sab sneered. "That kid still knows who to protect... if we find Sofia, she should be able to tell us what secrets this planet's Gaia core holds!"

"Lord... The blood sacrifice has already been activated. Can you sense the location?"

On the grass, a group of mages were setting up a huge blood-colored magic array. All the mages in charge of the magic array had giant-like bodies, and there was only one huge eye on their entire face. Their pupils moved like flowing water, it looked extremely strange. Those familiar with the demon Atlas would definitely be able to recognize that these were pure-blooded frost giants. They were the most noble demon species in the fourth layer of the Ice Abyss!

The giant in the lead turned around and asked after releasing the radiation of the array to the maximum.

Sab heard this and closed his eyes. He activated his secret skill to sense the power of the blood sacrifice. Immediately after, a violent heartbeat sounded in the center of the array, as if a huge heart was beating.

As the sound rang out, the core of the array started to spurt out blood like a fountain. It quickly formed a huge blood pool. Then, under the power of the array, the blood pool began to flow back in space as if it was alive, it formed a dense, blood-red net that covered all directions.

About fifteen minutes later, Saab's heart stopped beating. He looked up in surprise, his scarlet eyes filled with confusion.

"What is it, Lord Saab?" The snake-scaled woman beside him asked, tilting her head.

"Someone cut off my blood line..." Saab's tone was somewhat grave.

"What? ?"

The surrounding demons who were familiar with SAB were stunned when they heard that. Blood line was a blood magic method used to track the blood sacrifice. It was a very special alchemical tracking method that could lock onto the specific coordinates of the target, it was basically difficult to cut off the blood line by physical means.

Unless... it was a spatial master!

“Are there any spatial mages in Rennes’ army?” SAB asked.

“There are...” the snake-scaled woman took out Rennes’ army file and reported, “In order to build a better spatial passage, the Liege has specially arranged a spatial team for Rennes, led by Bilis of the Sixth Army.”

The Sixth Army...

The Sixth Army was a team of mages. The leader of the team was Lord Mosen, who had half-demon blood and night demon blood. They were not on good terms with this group of pure demon-born people, but they had a good relationship with Rennes.

So Sab nodded. “What rank?”

“Bilis is a level-13 space-type mage. She’s leading a team of 15 space-type mages above Level-9!”

“Level-13?” Sab shook his head. “A level-13 space-type mage can’t cut off my blood line. Only someone who has mastered high-level spells like dimensional lock array or dimensional cut can do it.”

The surrounding people were stunned. This level was above level 16, and it was at least dragon-level space mage. As everyone knew, space mages were the most difficult to learn among the transformation mages. Space mages were rare talents to begin with..., there were only two in the entire Bolton Force. How could Rennes be qualified to equip them with that level?

“Interesting...” Sab revealed a sinister smile. “I told you that these outsiders were unreliable. Wouldn’t that be putting outsiders at risk?”

Chapter 1073: Sophia, who has sensed the truth!

“Is this the legendary blood magic?”

Seer looked at the blood line on the ground, which was squirming as if it was alive. Moreover, the blood flow came from Rennes himself. He could not help but listen to the commands of others, as if the elements had been activated. Most importantly... “...”. Outside the domain Lord’s rules!

Rennes’ face was gloomy. Until now, he was completely sure that the higher-ups seemed to have given up on him!

Seer gloated at Rennes, he smiled and said, “I don’t understand. There are so many domain lords in the universe, yet you don’t want to submit to them. Instead, you want to submit to a demon domain Lord. The demons in the abyss are famous for not agreeing with other races. I don’t understand why you think you’re different from the others and can make the demons look up to you.”

Hearing this, Ryan’s face turned even more livid, but he could not say a word for a long time.

BoxNovel.com

He was not looking at himself in a different light, but rather, he was impressed by Bolton's boldness. He thought that Bolton was not one of those narrow-minded demons in the abyss, but it seemed that he was wrong.

But... Why?

If he was just using him, why did he make such a gesture of valuing him? Since he had already made such a gesture, why did he suddenly act so ruthlessly towards her? How would the non-demon forces that came to seek refuge view him?

Sophia, the embrace of death, looked at the ashen-faced Rennes and opened her mouth, but in the end, she did not say anything. Even someone as eloquent as her could not find the slightest reason to explain the current situation.

Seer, on the other hand, did not care at all about her eldest cousin's skeptical attitude towards life. Instead, she stared at the blood veins on the ground with great interest, then, she said to the principal beside her, "Your Excellency, after the blood veins are cut off, will the other party be unable to track us?"

Ryan also looked at the principal when he heard that. Right now, he did not want to be tracked by Saab the most. He knew very well what a tragic end it would be if the blood sacrifice's people were caught by the blood demon!

"Not really..."the principal shook his head. "Cutting off the blood line is just to make it impossible for them to lock onto the most accurate coordinates. However, with the mark of the blood sacrifice, they can sense your approximate location."

"I see..."Xi ye poked the blood line that was still moving on the ground with interest. She smiled and said, "I heard that high-level blood demons can track people across several galaxies with blood magic. Is that true?"

"It's a little exaggerated..."the principal smiled and said, "But it's generally true. For high-level blood demons, as long as a mark is left on them, they will be tracked within a range of 100,000 light years!"

"So Powerful?"Xi Ye pinched the moving blood veins in her hand and watched as the blood veins wriggled like a living being, but all her elements could not do anything to it, a hint of envy flashed in his eyes. "It's good to have a background. There are so many good things for no reason!"

The power of a deity was formed from the forces under him. The so-called power of rules was also based on the forces. Only the forces within the forces would be included in the rules. If the forces themselves did not have it., a deity overlord could not create something out of nothing.

For example, the blood magic in front of him belonged to the blood demon clan. It was independent of ordinary elements. Under such a situation, if seer did not sign a contract with a high-level blood demon., the blood magic would be completely independent of SEER's domain rules!

The larger the overlord, the more he could accommodate. This was also why many deity overlords liked to take the composite route. Even if they were purely lords who focused on mechanics or biology., they would also recruit the descendants of some high-level big families in their factions. This way, they could enrich their own rules.

This also led to the fact that lords born in big families naturally had an advantage over ordinary sky god Lords. Some families, especially those with secret skills, were very difficult to obtain. They were all golden. Among demons like the blood demon in the abyss., ordinary lords were even harder to obtain.

Looking at Seer's somewhat excited gaze, Rennes was instantly baffled. He did not know why he was so excited when he saw the blood magic? Shouldn't he be even more afraid of something that was beyond his domain?

The principal understood what seer meant, so he said faintly, "You're quite bold. Are you trying to get your hands on this blood demon gene?"

"Why not?" Seer smiled. "Although blood demons are rare in the abyss, they aren't a big race, right? If you take away his gene, you won't get revenge, right?"

Take Away Sab's gene?

After hearing this, Rennes and Sofia were dumbfounded. Even Rennes, who hated sab to the bone, stared at him blankly.

Taking away genes? This guy really dared to say that!

Which deity Overlord did not yearn for the secret techniques of high-ranked races? Mastering the special secret techniques of more races was beneficial to the diversification of one's own faction's rules.

If a high-ranked pureblood demon was so easily taken away, the lords on the market would have long done so!

If one wanted to take away a person's pureblood genes, not only did they have to capture the other party alive, they also had to use high-end equipment to extract the other party's gene bloodline. This required top-notch biological alchemists and professional equipment to purify it.

Putting aside how difficult it was to capture a star-level blood demon alive, how could one guarantee that such a high-level blood demon would not resist during the research operation?

Taking a step back, so what if you obtained the gene? Who Would you give the gene to?

If one wanted to grasp the blood demon's rules, one would have to at least recruit or nurture a dragon-level blood demon, right? Just relying on a high-purity gene? I'm afraid I'm Dreaming!

However, the principal understood what Xi Ye was thinking. If it was any other power, the principal would definitely follow Rennes and scold this domain Lord Retard. However, things were different now...
∴ Those fellows on D ball, if they could directly use such high quality genes, as long as they didn't die prematurely, nurturing a dragon level might not even take 10,000 years!

"This doesn't conflict with you right?" Xi Ye looked at Rennes and smiled, "By scheming against that blood demon, aren't we also giving you a chance to survive?"

Rennes: "Hehe..."

Seer didn't say much. Not only was he interested in that blood demon, he was also interested in the entire Bolton faction. In the entire universe federation, only Bolton had so many pure-blooded demons under him, right?

If he could wipe out all the demons under Bolton, that would be a huge harvest... ..

Of course, this was indeed a little over-thinking...

"Your Excellency Principal..." seer asked, "If that SAB were to chase after you, how confident are you in avoiding him?"

The principal replied, "There are some methods that we can try, but there's no guarantee of success. After all, the blood demon is an expert at traveling through space. However, we can still stall for time..."

Seer said, "If that's the case, that's good..."

A trace of anxiety flashed across Sofia's eyes when she heard that. She knew that this slime was not lying. As one of the top spatial masters in the federation, she might not be able to avoid Lord Saab's pursuit, but to say that she could stall for time.., it should not be a big statement!

However, if that was the case, it would be extremely fatal to their entire mission!

As the embrace of death, she had already sensed that there was a big secret on this planet. Along the way, she had not mentioned it to Ryan. Other than the fact that she did not trust outsiders, it was also because this secret was too important!

She had to convey this matter to the higher-ups as soon as possible. She had to tell Lord Bolton as soon as possible. They did not have much time left!

Chapter 1074: Vaughn's reputation!

In the New Territories, the various major factions that had descended began to take action in secret. In the starry skies, the battle that had already entered a state of Crossfire had also entered a stalemate.

"The consumption is greater than I imagined..."

In the central control station, a slender and extremely handsome man looked at the battle screen with a grave expression. Compared to the pure-blooded demons around him, this demon was more like a half-breed. Its appearance and body size were more similar to a humanoid creature.

However, the surrounding high-level pure-blooded demons were extremely respectful towards this man. Even the chief intelligence officer could only stand by his side.

If some high-level scholars who were proficient in demon knowledge were here, they would definitely be able to recognize that this fellow who seemed to have half-demon blood was actually an extremely noble pure-blooded fallen angel of the demon element!

BoxNovel.com

However, scholars who were familiar with the Abyss would definitely be very puzzled. This was because ever since the blazing star era's abyss self-sealed, the upper four levels' noble demons basically did not step outside the abyss, occasionally, there would be some who would sneak out while doing some inexplicable things. As for the third level's ruling royal family, the fallen angels, they had not appeared in the Federation for three eras.

When many schools taught demon-type knowledge, they could only use the teaching materials from three eras ago. This was because not a single person was seen, and there were indeed no new knowledge points recorded.

Who would have thought that not only did Bolton have a fallen angel's activation star, but he also had a fallen angel with such a high purity bloodline serving under his banner.

Although Bolton was a god, his bloodline was only that of a Dylan demon. It was hard to imagine that a fallen angel with such a high status would serve him.

The intelligence officer looked at the man silently, a hint of admiration flashing in his eyes.

This fallen angel was the commander-in-chief of the Intergalactic Army of the Bolton Force, Lord Garo!

At this moment, Garo's gray and elegant pupils were staring at the screen. There was a hint of worry in his eyes as he said calmly, "In just half a day, one-fourth of the size of the activation star has disappeared. This consumption has indeed exceeded our expectations..."

Some of the low-ranking officers who did not know the situation looked at the activation star and realized that the large activation star had indeed shrunk a lot since some time ago.

A few of the high-level officers around also nodded solemnly. This was the first time that the consumption of star No. 3 had been so huge since it was built. The key point was that this was just a test battle.

On the other hand, there was almost no loss on the other side. The group of dragon-armored soldiers seemed to never know fatigue. The piles of fallen angel corpses piled up into a mountain, but the group of dragon-armored soldiers still stood tall.

The VOGU faction on the other side had already been requested to exclude the unmanned mecha from participating in the battle. Their side had also begun to send out large numbers of Biochemical Beasts to replenish their manpower. Although both sides had yet to send out their main armies... But not being able to try out anything at all still made people feel a little discouraged...

"By the way, are those guys' Energy Unlimited?" A tall rock demon military officer beside him said in a muffled voice.

There were at least tens of millions of fallen angels that split from the stars. With the help of external firepower and biochemical beasts, even if they did not cause any damage, they would at least cause energy consumption, right?

In the end, after fighting for a long time, the other soldiers did not change. It was still the first batch!

"There should be an energy supply..." Jialuo looked at the armor on the soldiers on the screen. "That is not bone armor, it is a living armor. According to the data from Vogu, the raw materials of Andrew's soldiers are only the natives of that planet. Their basic abilities are extremely weak. To be able to display such powerful combat strength, they should have an extremely sophisticated array that can provide an endless supply of energy!"

“This planet’s level is at most level six, right?” A black shadow beside him suddenly said, “This army is actually made by the natives of this planet? Are you kidding?”

The people around also had looks of suspicion. On A level six planet, a titan-level creature was at most level nine. The average creature’s level should be at level one. Without any foreign forces stationed there, the ceiling of the top powerhouses should be around level three, level four at most!

Moreover, most of the bloodlines were weak. The combat strength of a level three creature was usually at the same level as a regular citizen of the federation. How could such a foundation create such a powerful army? Was It a BUG?

This question made even Jialuo slightly silent. To be honest, although the fallen angels had not been in contact with the outside world for a long time, they had basic common sense. The situation of the other party had indeed exceeded the logic of the basic biological strength!

“Sir, what should we do now?” The chief intelligence officer asked.

“Let’s just stay like this for now...” Jialuo’s eyes flashed with a hint of pain, but he quickly decided, “The enemy’s situation is too strange. If we rashly join the regular army, the losses will be even greater...”

As he spoke, he looked at the intelligence officer. “Pay close attention to Saab’s side. If possible, try to urge him. Every second he wastes there is money!”

The intelligence officer’s lips twitched slightly when he heard this. His Excellency’s words and actions did not seem like a traditional fallen angel.

However, the other party was also right. The reason why they were in a deadlock was to cover up for Saab’s side to collect useful specimens so that they could make the next step of their plan. The more time the other party wasted.., the more time they spent on this side.

Just as he was thinking, the intelligence officer’s communicator suddenly flashed. The intelligence officer, who was covered in snake scales, revealed a hint of surprise on his face.

“What’s the situation?” Kyara noticed her expression and asked with a frown.

“What information?”

“In the VOGU faction, four thousand years ago, they recruited a group of top-notch lone rangers, including wandering mage Ricky, Templar assassin Birus, and Demon Hunter Ranger Vaughn!”

“Vaughn?” The last name made Jialuo’s face slightly unnatural, and the atmosphere became somewhat solemn... ..

“Who’s Vaughn? Why do I feel that everyone is quite serious...”

In the intelligence officer team, a newcomer asked curiously.

An old man beside her whispered to her, “You don’t Know Demon Hunter Ranger Vaughn? That’s a top-notch demon hunter. He hunts in the Abyss all year round, and his reputation is very big in our place!”

The faces of some of the veteran demons trembled when they heard this name.

There were often top demon hunters roaming in the Abyss. The Abyss Demons had always been rude to these guys. On the surface, it was said that they were demons that committed crimes in the federation, but in fact, they often hunted some private jobs.

For example, some alchemists secretly paid for the specimens of certain demons. These demon hunters basically did not refuse to accept these jobs. There was no federation supervision in the Abyss, so as long as there was not enough evidence.., the Federation would not intervene.

This led to the Rangers frequently killing high-level demons in the Abyss region.

And among the many hunters, Vaughn was definitely a famous existence!

However, Lord Jialuo's expression made the intelligence officer somewhat surprised. He could not help but think to himself, 'could it be that Lord Jialuo has faced this fellow in the Abyss before?'

Chapter 1075: Another channel

"Can we send the information to SAB?" Jialuo asked with a bad look on his face.

"No..." the intelligence officer shook his head. "The domain is isolated... unless the Vogu faction opens the passage again, but I don't think they will agree..."

'No Way...'

"Sir, did you touch that Ranger?" The black shadow beside him asked in puzzlement.

"Yes..." Kyara said coldly, "Many people in my family died at her hands!"

BoxNovel.com

Everyone:"..."

Vivian had actually gone to the upper four levels and even killed Lord Kyara's relatives?

The Abyss was now open to outsiders to the lower three levels. Under the rules of the Federation, at least on the surface, they would not attack the regular outsiders of the Federation. At least in some public areas, they were not allowed to use force.

However, the upper four levels were different. The blockade of the federation had been warned beforehand. Anyone who entered would be considered a stowaway. Demons could be killed with legitimate reasons. In other words, anyone who dared to enter the upper four levels could be attacked by all the people there, and the probability was extremely high.

Generally, people who were not very worried would not dare to go there. Only some people who were crazy about money would take the risk. Of course, there were also such people.

After all, ever since the Abyss had sealed off the outside world, the rare species of demons on the upper four levels had become the materials that many alchemists yearned for. These alchemists had always been very generous with their bids.

However, even so, there were very few rangers who could successfully walk out of the upper four levels, especially the third level. It was said that something extremely terrifying had happened there. Not to mention outsiders, even the demons on the other levels were forbidden from entering, for an outsider Ranger to survive there, the difficulty was definitely hell-level, not to mention hunting a high-level fallen angel inside.

Lord Jialuo was not an ordinary fallen angel. Some of the elders in his family and influence were clear that he belonged to the top noble circle. It was a little exaggerated that he could safely run back after hunting a noble fallen angel!

When some of the old demons heard this, they suddenly remembered Vaughn's nickname in the Abyss: Angel Hunter Demoness... ..

Many people thought that this was a demon wearing an elf's skin. Her methods were so cruel that she did not look like an elegant elf at all.

"It might not be her leading the team, right?" Someone could not help but ask.

The surrounding demons sneered. For such a mission to seize the opportunity, everyone sent the best fighters among the forces. Otherwise, Lord Bolton would not have sent that Madman Saab.

Among the nine great army commanders, Saab was unquestionably the strongest in terms of individual strength. However, if they were to face Vaughn, many people would not be able to figure it out... ..

"This variable is a little troublesome..." Jialuo looked ahead with an ugly expression, in terms of consumption, their faction's consumption was definitely stronger than Vogu's. Although Vogu had sent so much high-quality energy, compared to the loss of their activation star, that energy could not even make up a fraction!

He had agreed to let Sab go because SAB was decisive and efficient. However, if they met that guy, not to mention Sab would definitely lose, at the very least, it would delay a lot of time...

On the other side, Vogu's power was also analyzing the situation on Bolton's side.

Pippen was currently in the meeting room, displaying the information about Bolton's exposed power.

"Bolton's star level Army has nine main forces, their respective commanders are all dragon level and above, of which there are five star level commanders!"

The moment these words were said, the expressions of the Volgu Army's officers turned cold. Star levels were not cabbages, they were all considered undying powerhouses in the universe federation. At this level, even under the banner of a great leader., they were all at the level of the chief administrative officer or commander of a star system. Under the banner of a small lord, they were truly existences at the level of a prince.

Some old God lords who had lived for several eras might not even have a star rank powerhouse under them. This Bolton had only risen for half a century, yet he actually had five star rank powerhouses under him?

And this was only on the surface. No one could be sure if there were other hidden people in the dark. The speed of his rise was truly astonishing!

Seeing everyone's confusion, Phippen explained, "The power behind Bolton is unknown. It is suspected that there are high-level demon forces supporting him from behind. Back then, after graduating from the Heavenly God Academy, there was already a mature demon army under his command. Moreover, out of the five star level experts, four of them were pure demons from the Abyss."

Hearing this, everyone understood a little. If they had a background, it would make sense. However, this was not necessarily a good thing. This was because if they had a background, it meant that the other party might still have cards that they did not know about.

Phippen continued to introduce, "The nine legions are mostly composed of pure demons. They are the trump cards of Bolton's direct line of descent. The first Legion's Commander, Keanu, is an ancient balrog. The army under him is a Balrog Legion of the same color. Their explosive power is astonishing. Ever since they formed their legion, they have never lost a battle. The second Legion's Commander, Nevyn Moore, is a pure-blooded noble shadow demon. The Shadow Demon Legions under him are all high-level assassins, especially his direct line of descent. It is said that they are all top assassins above level-thirteen!"

"The commander of the Third Corps, Pero, is an ancient rock demon. He is also very famous in the first level of the abyss. He is an old monster who has lived for more than ten eras. However, the rock demon clan has a long lifespan. Most of the time, it takes them millions of years to sleep. Their growth cycle is also slow. They have the same rock demon corps under them. Their direct line of troops are all adult rock demons who have lived for more than fifty million years. Each of them has the strength of level-10 and above. They are the most powerful force under Burton!"

"Last but not least, commander of the 5th Legion: SAB!"

Phippen's face was gloomy as he said, "Blood Demon Sab, he was the infamous ancient blood demon in the 2nd level of the Abyss when he was under Bolton's command. He was already a star-level powerhouse more than ten eras ago, and his strength is unfathomable. In the battle for the battlefield spot, he single-handedly killed four star-level powerhouses under an old lord, including the well-known powerhouse in the Holy Knight Alliance: Joseph. "Cliff!"

Many of the intelligence officers were shocked. There were some professional organizations in the Universe Federation, and those who could get in were all top-tier leaders who had a certain threshold of strength. For example, the elven parliament and the Tirie Judicial Parliament were both such organizations, the former only accepted top-tier elves with noble bloodlines whose strength was close to the fate realm, while the latter only accepted top-tier arcane mages.

The Holy Knight Alliance was not considered the top-tier among the many organizations, but it was also a top-tier organization recognized by the Federation. It represented the highest threshold for the Holy Knight position.

The Holy Knights who could enter it were at least at the star level, and all of them had to have a certain level of experience. Joseph was an old member, and such a strong person was killed in a four-on-one situation. It was a very clear indication of the strength of the opponent!

“Didn’t Sir Say earlier that there were five star level experts? Why did he skip the 4th Legion?” Someone asked doubtfully.

Pippen: “4th Legion Commander: Anna isn’t a pure demon, she’s a master level night demon that’s proficient in space. Right now, she’s far away in the Nimir battlefield and is in charge of the entire battlefield command, it’s not within the scope of consideration this time.”

Everyone nodded when they heard this, which meant that this time, it was very likely that the opponent had brought along four star level commanders!

Pippen: “According to the intelligence, the one who was tracking Bolton’s men has been released as a blood sacrifice. The person leading the team this time is very likely to be the commander of the Fifth Legion, Saab!”

“But if Lord Vivian is leading the team, even if it’s against Saab, he should still have the strength to fight, right?” The officer representing the Ranger team frowned. Moreover, in his heart, even if it was that blood demon Saab.., he might not be a match for Lord Vivian. After all, Lord Vivian had made a name for herself in the Abyss!

“Saab alone might not be a problem...” Pippen said as he pointed at a black shadow on the screen. “But if this guy is also in the team, even if it’s Vivian, it’s possible for her to fail.”

Everyone looked over. The other party was talking about the second commander of the Corps, Shadow Demon Nevyn Moore. A top-tier assassin with an ancient blood demon was indeed possible for Lord Vivian to fail.

“Sending out two commanders in one go for the exploratory mission? Isn’t that too much?” Someone questioned.

“That’s not necessarily...” An intelligence officer beside him shook his head and said, “It’s not a secret that Lord Wayne joined our faction. Intelligence officers with connections can easily obtain this information. If they had guessed that Lord Wayne was leading the army, it’s not impossible for them to choose to send two armies together.” “...”. “...”

“What do you mean, sir?” Someone asked doubtfully.

“I’ve decided to send an expert over to support...” Pippen said in a low voice.

“That’s not good...” someone frowned and said, “In order to show sincerity, the channel that Lady Vivian entered is shared with the other party. If we open the channel without permission, the other party will definitely notice it.”

“Don’t we have another channel?” Pippen smiled and said.

“Another channel?” Everyone was stunned, and then they immediately remembered that in the first batch of troops, the officer with the scroll survived!

Chapter 1076: What Happened to our friendship of more than 100,000 years?

“How’s Your Situation?”

Within the New Territories, Jessica was walking side by side with the mecha that her grandparents were in. Jessica was slightly in front, using a detector to carefully probe the situation around her, after confirming that the energy that had flown over earlier did not cause anyone to track her, she heaved a sigh of relief. However, she immediately looked at Grandpa Lu and the others behind her with concern.

She remembered clearly that on the grassland, when facing the mutated army, Bernie had been directly cut in half by the first wave of Sword Qi. To be honest, it was beyond her expectations that he could survive such a situation.

“It’s not that good...”. Soap imitated Bernie’s weak voice and said, “The area in the middle that was cut off was severely corroded. Although it was forcefully sewn up, the flesh and blood tissues were constantly mutating. I had to control the mutation and maintain the function of that area to continuously supply energy. Once the energy was supplied, the mutated tissues would accelerate their growth. I feel that they won’t be able to hold on for long”

Soap’s words were based on Bernie’s last strong memory. At that time, Bernie was in a life-and-death struggle, so this memory of his body was particularly strong, it was also the first-hand information soap obtained after absorbing the other party.

BoxNovel.com

“How infected is it?” Jessica asked in detail.

Soap looked at Bernie’s body and said roughly, “About two percent...”

“That’s already very serious...”. Jessica took a deep breath and said, “But don’t worry. Although that native elf’s level isn’t high, his purification ability is very strong. There’s a high chance that he can cure you. Even if he can’t completely cure you, it’s not a problem for you to stall for some time.”

“Is that so...” soap’s voice revealed traces of excitement, it was as if a cancer patient had heard the rumor that a village miracle doctor had cured cancer, with hope, he said, “I hope it’s as you said. The higher-ups have just contacted me and said that reinforcements have arrived. They told us to hide our position and be ready to receive contact at any time.”

“Oh?” Jessica was stunned. “Did the higher-ups contact you? Did they say who was leading the team? Did you report the information you collected?”

“Everything that needs to be reported has been reported... but it’s probably of limited use...” soap said in a low voice, “After all, we were defeated too quickly, and a lot of the data is superficial.”

“We were careless...” Jessica sighed. “If we had spread out at the first moment instead of choosing a head-on collision, we would have gotten more data, and perhaps there would be more survivors.”

“Yeah...” soap replied.

The conversation between the two made Grandpa Lu, who was in the cockpit, stunned. If he had not known that the guy next to him was a deadpan, he would have thought that the other party was really that Bernie. This conversation was natural... ..

There was something. This deadpan...

“We’re here...” Jessica pointed at the mountain in front of them and said.

Soap heard this and quickly used the image of his mech to look over. At the hill more than ten kilometers away, he could clearly see the little cabbages at the entrance of the cave.

“It feels a little different...” soap’s eyes narrowed into slits.

“What’s different?” Grandpa Lu asked hurriedly.

“Do you feel that the cabbages are more beautiful than before? especially... in terms of body shape, they’re more... standard?”

Grandpa Lu nodded in agreement. “They’re a little plump...”

SOAP: “Dirty, what are you looking at?”

Grandpa Lu: “...” suddenly... Just as Grandpa Lu was about to retort, the entire cabin shook violently, as if it had hit something heavy. Grandpa Lu, who was not fixed by the cabin seat, was sent flying out, bouncing back and forth in the cabin like a rubber ball...

A red alert instantly sounded in the cabin: warning, the body of the aircraft has been hit by a heavy energy attack. The energy shield has been broken. Please evacuate quickly, please evacuate quickly!

“What’s the situation?” Grandpa Lu, who was in a daze from the collision, asked in a daze after he was finally grabbed by the mechanical arm inside the body of the aircraft controlled by soap.

“We’ve been discovered! !” Soap said in a serious voice!

Grandpa Lu’s body jolted when he heard that. He looked at the screen and saw that Jessica, who had been chatting and laughing with soap just now, was controlling the various plastic energy cannons of her mech to aim at them!

“What are you doing, Jessica?” Soap made a final effort.

“You’re acting quite well...” on the other side.., Jessica controlled her mech to levitate in the air and stared coldly at the other party. At this moment, the mech that Grandpa Lu was in was being enveloped by an alloy net that had suddenly appeared. Meanwhile, two gigantic mechanical arms had unknowingly appeared on the ground that was originally in the wilderness.., they had pinned him down there.

It was very obvious that this was a trap that had been prepared long ago!

“I’m very curious about what you are...” Jessica, who was levitating in the air, said coldly, “Your spiritual power and spiritual frequency are almost exactly the same as Bernie’s. You can even use Bernie’s genes to unlock the rights to the mech. Are you a mutant?”

“Are you crazy? I am Bernie!” Soap said coldly.

“Aren’t you...” Jessica said coldly, “If it was a team member who wasn’t that familiar with you, you might have been able to fool him. But I am different from Bernie. We have been partners for more than 100,000 years. I know the color of his underwear. How could I be fooled by you?”

As she said that, the plastic energy cannons all over Jessica's body instantly gathered a large amount of energy. The entire surface of the mech was burned red by that energy. Before it was even fired, the huge burning energy caused the surrounding material to start melting visibly, seeing the surrounding trees melting like wax statues, soap and his grandfather instantly broke out in cold sweat.

"Can you at least confirm it?" Soap said calmly, "How about this, I'll open the mech and let you confirm it. If you still think I'm fake, then what do you think?"

"Nothing much!" Jessica didn't get close to him when she heard that. Instead, she increased the distance between them. "For Bernie to fall in your hands, it proves that you definitely have some means to threaten us. I Won't take this risk!"

F * ck... ∴ Soap's expression was extremely ugly when she heard that. This woman had discovered them early on and didn't make a move. First, she lured them to a trap. Even when they were being controlled, she still chose to maintain her distance. She was really despicable to the extreme! She did not give them a chance at all!

Thinking of this, soap no longer hesitated. She directly opened the cabin, revealing herself and Bernie in the cabin!

The moment soap opened the cabin, she pointed at Bernie and said, "Woman, I admit that I lost, but your friend is not dead. How about this, let's make a deal. I'll let your friend Go, and you'll let us go?"

Jessica used the detector to probe and found that Bernie really had signs of life.

"There are indeed signs of life..." Jessica said coldly, "I'm sorry, Bernie!" As she said that, she activated the plastic energy cannon and fired at soap and the others.

Watching the light that was even brighter than the sun coming at them, soap was completely dumbfounded.

What the hell? Even if he didn't agree to it, he should have at least discussed it? What happened to their friendship that lasted for hundreds of thousands of years? Plastic Friendship?

Chapter 1077: conflict?

"SOB, sob, what's going on? Is there an earthquake?"

Little Cabbage, who was half asleep, was jolted awake by a shake. He opened his eyes and glanced at Alice, who was hugging him. Then, he pushed her away, jumped down, and ran out of the cave.

Alice looked at her hands, then looked at little cabbage, who had run away without even looking at her. A strange look flashed in her eyes, and she quickly followed him.

After they left the cave, everyone saw an extremely spectacular scene. A huge light covered the entire hill more than ten kilometers away. Little cabbage used his super strong vision to forcefully resist the burning light to see clearly, the entire hill and the soil were evaporating, including the surrounding space molecules and atoms. Under the light, they evaporated and disappeared. Even the sense of space in that area was distorted!

“What is this?” Little cabbage was stunned. “Is it the Armstrong rotary accelerated jet Armstrong Laser Cannon?”

Alice, who had just come out of the cave, heard little cabbage’s words and the corner of her eyes twitched. She flashed forward and covered little cabbage’s eyes. “Don’t keep staring at it. You’ll Hurt Your Eyes...”

Little cabbage wanted to nod subconsciously, but an inexplicable anger rose in his heart. He slapped little cabbage’s hand away and said coldly, “Don’t worry...”

Alice:”...”

“This energy is very pure...” the Minotaur slowly walked out and looked at the light in the sky. He said in a low voice, “This faction’s achievements in molding energy are not low. There should be a master level figure in it...”

Alice was slightly stunned when she heard that. She asked curiously, “How can you tell?”

“Just by looking at the concentration of the energy mass...” The minotaur said softly, “For example, some small technological forces that have just started their research on the stability of the firepower loading energy are very ordinary. After touching an object, the energy can easily leak out uncontrollably. The places that they want to hit are not hit in the right place, but the places that they don’t want to hit radiate a lot of unnecessary energy. The destructive power seems to be strong, but in fact, it’s just average. The energy strength that you see now, if it’s based on your current technological level, you can destroy a city if you spread it. However, she can concentrate it in such a small area to carry out precise attacks. That’s the advantage of having high energy purity.”

“I see...” Alice nodded and instantly understood. It was the other party who compressed the ability that could destroy a city, increasing the quality of a single target’s lethality and reducing the range.

This made her curious. Did that blue-skinned woman encounter an enemy? Such a big battle?

“Let’s hide far away first...” the Minotaur said to Alice. “The battle situation is unclear, so it’s very likely to expand the scale. It Won’t be good if we’re accidentally injured later. My body can’t withstand such an energy cannon...”

“Is that so?” Alice glanced at the other party’s rock-like muscles and didn’t say anything. Instead, she came to Hoult’s side and said seriously, “You’ve seen the situation, shouldn’t we retreat a little further?”

As soon as these words were said, the orcs of the Gale Division looked at Hoult with eager eyes.

Hoult frowned when he heard this and said in a low voice, “Sir Jessica said that we should wait here!”

“You don’t look like a person who sticks to the rules, do you?” Alice looked at Hodel indifferently. “Are you sure that your master can control the current situation? “If you are not careful, do you want to make yourself and your tribesmen pay for what she said?”

Hodel hesitated. He glanced at the eager-eyed members of the Gale tribe behind him and felt conflicted. There were less than 1,000 members of the Gale tribe behind him. He was the last seedling of the Gale tribe, the death of tens of thousands of people in the grassland proved that the lord of that force was not completely reliable. At least, he had not fulfilled his promise to protect them.

If this situation continued, how could he face the elders after he lost the bet?

After hesitating for a while, Hodel finally nodded. "Alright, leave a signal and we'll retreat outside!"

Seeing that the other party had been persuaded so quickly, Alice nodded slightly. She had heard of the leader of the Gale Division before. To be able to develop the Gale Division, which had the worst resources among the five great tribes, so well.., to be able to decisively attack Molundo while the magnetic field was in trouble, he was indeed a person who could make good decisions.

He was indeed a talent.

"Let's Go!"

After making their decision, the group of people did not waste time. They all increased their speed and fled in the opposite direction. That light seemed to be extremely powerful. Who knew if it would directly attack them in the next second.

After running for about half an hour, the group of people quickly jumped over a few mountains and forests, successfully avoiding a few tens of kilometers away. The ones who survived the gale division were all physically strong, even if there were a few elders.., because they had good disciples when they were young, they were still able to endure the exhaustion at this time.

Hoult looked at the light in the distance and then looked ahead. He then looked at some elders who were already panting and said, "Let's Rest for a few minutes and see how the situation is before we leave."

Alice looked at the fire in the distance. Just as she was about to nod her head, a strange scene suddenly happened. The huge light just now suddenly disappeared, and the originally bright red sky instantly returned to its dark silence, Alice was completely stunned.

The fire had stopped?

But even if it had stopped, wasn't the disappearance too sudden?

Just like how the Flames just now were an illusion.

The Minotaur also looked into the distance, and a strange look flashed in his eyes as he thought to himself, 'Energy Recovery?'

But that mecha was only equipped with a mid-to low-end mecha with a level-13 life form. Even if it had the ability to recover energy, it wouldn't be so efficient, right? Although that energy was sufficiently pure and stable, and it would be much more convenient to recover, it wouldn't be so convenient, right?

Just as he was thinking, a black dot in the distance suddenly began to rapidly draw closer. Before everyone could react, that black dot had transformed into a gigantic mecha and arrived in front of everyone!

“Sir Jessica! !” Hoult’s face lit up when he saw who had arrived, and he hurriedly went forward to greet them.

He naturally hoped that Jessica was safe, because only she could contact that force. Now that the planet was in such a state, only that force could save their gale force tribe.

“En...” Jessica replied indifferently, and then looked directly at little cabbage, “You, come with me!”

“Eh?” Little cabbage raised her fat face and asked in a daze, “Where to?”

“Sir...” Alice, who was at the side, immediately frowned. “You’d better explain clearly what you want to do. Otherwise, even if you’re strong enough, we won’t let you take her away!”

“Yes...” the minotaur smiled and said, “Sir, you’d better explain clearly...”

Jessica lifted her hand slightly when she heard that. The hand mech instantly transformed, and a huge cannon barrel was aimed at the other party!

Chapter 1078: Brother Soap’s second talent (I) !

“My Lord?”

This sudden action stunned Hodel and he looked at his lord carefully.

“My lord, what do you mean?” Alice looked at the cold barrel and asked with a cold tone.

“My Lord...” the Minotaur stepped forward and spread his wide palm. He smiled with a simple and honest face. “Why did it come to this? No matter what, our doctor saved you once, didn’t he?”

Jessica paused for a moment when she heard that. She put down the gun barrel and said coldly, “I need her to perform another surgery.”

BoxNovel.com

“It’s not a big deal.” The minotaur smiled. “It’s our honor to be of service to you, my Lord. However, we hope to ensure your safety. At least, we can keep her in our sight. What do you think?”

“If you want to follow us, then follow us...” Jessica paused for a few seconds and replied coldly. Then, she took the lead and flew to the other side.

The minotaur chuckled as he looked at the Minotaur’s back. Then, he said to Bai Cai, “Shall We Go?”

Bai Cai looked at the Minotaur in a daze. Then, he looked at Alice, who was speechless. Then, he curled his lips and floated over. Alice followed closely behind him.

“Sir, are you two together or... ?” The Tauren looked at Hoult leisurely and asked.

“Of course I’m with Sir Jessica...” Hoult looked at the Tauren coldly. “I hope you won’t do anything that you’ll regret...”

Hearing this, the Tauren laughed and said, “Sir, you must be joking. That power just now was done by you, right? Under that power, what can we do?”

Hoult looked deeply at the other party. “It’s good that you know...”

The other party's words were not wrong. The power of Sir Jessica and the others was on a completely different level from his own people. Although this Tauren looked very powerful, compared to Sir Jessica and the others, he should be even weaker than an ant, he should not be worried.

But for some reason, he always had an uneasy feeling in his heart.

"We're here..." Jessica stopped in the forest next to the hill that had just evaporated, pointing at a cave entrance, she said, "It's inside. After you enter, you'll find a mecha just like mine. There's an injured person inside who can't get out of the protection of the mecha for the time being. You need to perform purification surgery inside the Mecha!"

"Oh..." little cabbage nodded when he heard that and floated over without any warning.

Alice frowned. Just as she was about to follow, she was stopped outside by Jessica.

"This Lord?" Alice looked at him in puzzlement.

"I can only wait here..." Jessica replied coldly, "This is my bottom line..."

Alice: "..."

"Moses?" Little cabbage gently poked into the cave entrance and asked carefully, "May I ask who ordered the door-to-door service?"

"You use the word 'tiger and Wolf'..." a very familiar voice suddenly sounded in the cave, "Why didn't you say full set or fast food?"

"You..." little cabbage froze when she heard this voice, and then she said in surprise, "You're Grandpa?"

Little cabbage moved closer. When she saw the little rascal-like grandpa, she couldn't help but poke him and said, "Why did you change your appearance again? What is it this time? Phoenix Nirvana 3.0?"

"Hey... you poked a sore spot right after we met, didn't you?" The Grandpa couldn't help but glare at him.

"Why are you here?" Little cabbage asked curiously after her surprise.

"I heard that you were kidnapped, so I came to save you. Are you touched?"

"Really..." Bai Cai moved closer in surprise, then, he looked at the other mech curiously. "What's the situation? Hey, wait... isn't that soap? Grandpa, You Brought Brother Soap?"

"HMPH! !" Soap stood proudly on a rock.

He wasn't brought here by his grandfather, he just wanted to come. Besides, he was the one who suggested to save him. This dog, Lu Xiaowei, was scared out of his wits at the beginning, but he still put on airs.

“How did you two get here?” Little cabbage floated to soap’s side, poked at soap and couldn’t help but ask.

Soap’s face turned red from the poking, and he slipped into the rock, grandpa Lu explained, “Didn’t you go missing that day? I was worried about you... Uh, okay, soap and I were worried about you, so we decided to come out and take a look. In the end, we really did find you.”

Looking at soap’s resentful gaze, Grandpa Lu finally did not dare to take all the credit on himself this time.

“But the key is... how did the two of you do it?”

Little cabbage looked curiously at the mecha that had been opened. Inside the mecha, it was Bonier, who had been sealed by the mucus. Outside the door, that fellow called Jessica was guarding the door for them.

“Well...” Grandpa Lu, who was good at telling stories, was suddenly in a mood. He told the story of the two of them vividly, all the way until the scene when Jessica was preparing to destroy them.

The whole process made little cabbage stunned, and then he looked at soap. “Is what Grandpa said true, Soap? Are you two so awesome?”

Soap was silent for a few seconds, and then he replied calmly, “It’s a little exaggerated, especially about Grandpa’s description of himself, but the general plot is right...”

Grandpa immediately glared at SOAP, and soap also glared back at him.

“What happened after that?” Cabbage quickly asked, “Since that Jessica saw through you, why is she guarding the door for You Now?”

She saw the huge beam of light just now. From the plot, the other party should have attacked directly. How did Grandpa and the others escape from such a huge energy?

Why was Jessica, who had decided to attack, guarding the door for them now?

Outside the cave...

“What’s Wrong?” The Minotaur, who had come a step later, looked at Alice and smiled. “Why are you staring at her?” “Something feels wrong...” Alice frowned and looked at Jessica, who was as still as a statue in the distance.

“What’s Wrong?” The Minotaur asked with a smile.

Hearing this, Alice looked into the distance and said in a low voice, “She looks like a different person...”

——

Inside the cave...

“You say... . Outside that is not Jessica? Who Is It?” Little cabbage stared at Grandpa Lu in astonishment: “Could it be that there are other people in the base also followed?”

“You can pull it...” Grandpa Lu rolled his eyes. “Let’s not talk about whether you have the face or not. Even if you do, do you think that other than us, who else in the base can operate this mecha?”

“Boss Raindrop!” Little cabbage said decisively.

“Bah!” Grandpa Lu and soap spat at the same time!

“Then what’s the situation?” Little cabbage asked in puzzlement. “Both of you are here. There must be someone in Jessica’s Mecha, Right?”

Moreover, she had clearly heard Jessica’s voice coming from the mecha just now.

Grandpa Lu smiled mysteriously when he heard that. “That mecha is also your brother soap! !”

Little cabbage: “Huh? ?”

Chapter 1079: Brother Soap’s talent (Part Two)

“The one outside... is also your brother soap! !”

Little cabbage was stunned. Looking at the proud brother soap sitting on the rock, his mind was a little confused. What did he mean by the one outside was also brother Soap? Then which one was inside?

“You are the player who has the most contact with soap besides me in the base. Sometimes, have you noticed that soap’s personality changes a lot?” Grandpa said faintly.

“Eh?” Xiao Baicai was stunned again. Was there any inevitable cause and effect?

However, as he said, soap’s personality had indeed changed a lot. Sometimes, she was different from day to day. Sometimes, she was very cold. Sometimes, she was a chatterbox. Sometimes, her logic was very touching. She analyzed the situation one by one, most of Grandpa Lu’s guides on the post were actually analyzed by soap. Only she and Grandpa Lu knew this in the entire base.

BoxNovel.com

“What’s going on?” Little cabbage asked quickly.

“Well...” Grandpa Lu paused for a moment and then began to tell the story of how they were trapped in the trap... ..

..

“Damn it, what’s wrong with this big shot? He’s already been controlled, why does he have to kill us all? Even if he wants to kill us all, is there a need to use such a big move against small fries like us? Won’t he give us a chance at all?”

Grandpa Lu hugged his head and cried bitterly. Was he really going to delete his account and start all over again. It would be good if there was a chance to start all over again. If it was as soap predicted and he couldn’t start all over again, then he would really be a ghost...

“I don’t think so...”

Just as Grandpa Lu was hugging his dog's head and preparing to welcome the first wave of deleting his account and starting all over again, a familiar voice sounded beside him...

"F * ck, Prophet, why are you only online now?" Hearing this special voice, Grandpa suddenly turned his head to look at soap. His tone was as if he was talking to another person.

At this moment, Soap's temperament had also changed greatly. His pea-sized eyes were filled with a calm light. In the face of such a situation, there was not a trace of disorder. It was as if everything was under control, it gave people an inexplicable sense of peace.

In the entire base, very few people knew that soap... Had multiple personalities. This was also the reason why soap did not want to interact with most people. This kind of eccentric mental patient basically refused to interact with outsiders.

Among soap's many personalities, this person called the prophet Emperor was the character that his grandfather liked to curry favor with the most. This was because the prophecy posts that he was praised to the heavens by everyone were basically all from him!

Thinking about it, it made sense. Lu Xiaowei came from an aristocratic family of game streamers. Since his grandfather's 50-50 split, there had been many generations. Not a single one of them had passed the university entrance examination, including himself. In terms of analysis of the future market..., how could his analysis be accurate? And he was right every single time?

On his grandfather's post, almost all of his arguments actually came from soap. It was just that he did not like to be in the limelight. It should be said that his personality... Did not like to be in the limelight.

Grandpa looked at the prophet who had just appeared, and his expression was extremely complicated. He had been with soap for many years, and he knew very well that the intelligence and logic displayed by the prophet was definitely on the level of a monster. If soap's main personality was this one..., perhaps he would have noticed that they had been seen through on the way, and perhaps he would not have fallen into this trap. Perhaps at least there would be a glimmer of hope.

Looking at his grandfather's hopeless and complicated expression, soap, who had changed into a different person, said calmly, "Don't act like this. If you want to survive, we'll have to rely on you later!"

"Eh?" Grandpa Lu was stunned when he heard that.

"If she had only used conventional attacks, I think there would have been no chance of survival this time. Just as you said, if she had chosen to use a big move against an existence like us, there might have been a chance of survival..."

"What do you mean?" Grandpa Lu quickly asked.

"The opponent is so cautious that even her teammates are unwilling to try to save her. This proves that she might not have the wrong opportunity to try. In other words, she is most likely the same as this guy named Bernie. Her physical condition is not very good. According to Bernie's memory, the team they brought was severely injured, which caused the team to be separated. Since Bernie looks like this, the opponent is probably not much better."

“Your body isn’t in good condition? You can use such a powerful move?” Grandpa Lu pointed at the light in the sky that was about to melt everything and asked in astonishment.

“It’s precisely because our body isn’t in good condition that we have to use all our strength. As long as we can withstand this wave, the opportunity to counterattack will come...”

“Who can withstand this?” Grandpa Lu widened his eyes. That light was definitely at the level of a vitality bomb!

“It’s up to you!” Soap looked at him solemnly.

“Up to me? You Don’t have a fever, right?”

“Didn’t you say that you caught a missile during a mission?”

“Cough cough...” Grandpa Lu coughed awkwardly. “That was an accident. Moreover, the water content was very heavy. Is it on the same level as this one? Moreover, I don’t even know how I did it back then, okay?”

“That wasn’t an accident, and the water content wasn’t heavy either...”. Soap said faintly, “I’ve looked into your matter. In order to eliminate the extraordinary people suspected to be from the Huazhong Dragon Group, the USA used the Death Wind No. 7 missile and added chemical agents. It was a total of 1,700 kilograms, and the blast radius was about 0.92 kilometers, which was equivalent to 920 meters, but you completely caught it!”

“F * * K, where did you get this data?” The grandfather was suddenly stupefied.

“That’s not what you care about right now, all you have to do is think back to that day and think about why you did it as a level 0!”

“And then? Did you do it?” Little cabbage heard the wonderful, hurriedly asked.

“Um...” Grandpa Lu hesitated for a moment and finally said, “Judging from the results, I should have done it...”

“You don’t know whether I did it or not?” Xiao Baicai was stunned again.

Grandpa Lu smiled awkwardly. To be honest, he was also speechless. Why was it always easy for him to lose his memory when he was in the spotlight? It was the same last time. Gou Dan said that when he transformed into a Phoenix and caught the missile, he looked extremely handsome. However, he didn’t have any impression of such a handsome himself!

It was the same this time. Soap said that he was awesome, and that it was rare for him to be so awesome in his life, so why didn’t he have any impression of it? This was even more unpleasant than the day before when he was drunk and had to take responsibility for it the next day, but he had no impression of it at all!

“Alright then...” little cabbage was also a little speechless, so she said, “Then skip this part. Even if you caught that big move, how did you control that woman later?”

"I'm not very clear about the specific situation..." Grandpa Lu shook his head and said, "According to soap, after the big move, that woman's spirit fell into a state of exhaustion, and then her split body took advantage of it and entered."

"Split body?" Little cabbage felt that she had grasped the main point.

"Yes...". Grandpa Lu said faintly, "I didn't even realize that this guy could split. Remember that we elves transform according to our own characteristics, right?" "This guy perfectly embodies his own characteristics. Multiple personalities allow him to split into different soaps and hunt for different gene templates. According to the number of split personalities, he can save seven at a time "!"

Little Cabbage:"..."

This was really... awesome!

Chapter 1080: Witty Soap.

"He's out..."

After about four hours, they finally saw little cabbage slowly floating out from the cave. He looked exhausted. After he came out, he said a few words to Jessica, who was standing guard at the door. Jessica then operated her mech and walked into the cave, meanwhile, little cabbage slowly floated out.

Alice looked at it from afar with a hint of doubt in her eyes. The Minotaur was smiling as he looked at little cabbage who walked out. "What's the condition of the injured?"

"It's more troublesome than the last one..." ... "..." little cabbage answered honestly, "His entire body was cut into two halves, but he used biological means to forcibly suture the wound. The wound was sewn with precision and could basically guarantee the functioning of the wound. However, the wound was seriously corroded, and the mutation of the local infection began to spread to the surrounding area as the function operated. Because the overall function was weak, energy was needed to maintain life. However, once the energy was injected into the infected area, it would become more active due to the energy injection, and the rate of infection would increase. However, if the energy was not replenished, the supply of the cut-off area would be slow, causing the body's function to run slowly, increasing the possibility of death, and falling into a dead cycle."

"HMM... it's a troublesome example..." the Minotaur smiled. "Then how did you solve it? Forced Purification?"

Little cabbage shook her head. "Forcing purification on the other party's body will cause a backlash. With the current condition of the other party's body, there's an 80% chance that the other party won't be able to hold on..."

The minotaur: "That makes sense. Then What's Your Plan?"

Little cabbage said, "Use freezing technology to hibernate cells, reduce energy consumption, and then reduce energy supply. When the body stabilizes, then carry out the split-type purification..."

“That’s a good plan...”the Minotaur nodded in satisfaction, and the gaze he used to look at little cabbage became even gentler.

A strange look flashed across Alice’s eyes.

Ever since little cabbage’s talent had been revealed, this fellow seemed to have treated little cabbage as a treasure. He would teach little cabbage some new knowledge every day, and his attitude was so amiable that it was like a private tutor one-on-one.

This was understandable. For young people with great talent, many of the elders would have this kind of caring heart, but why was he teaching medicine alone?

In Alice’s opinion, since they were training her, shouldn’t they teach her some core things?

Previously, she had described little cabbage’s talent in front of her, but she only wanted to train such a talented seedling into a doctor?

After the Tauren asked for a while, he gave a few more suggestions. Finally, he let little cabbage go to rest. Little cabbage ran to the corner like she was about to be pardoned and fell asleep. She was still as heartless as before.

Alice looked at little cabbage and then looked at the hole, a rare hint of hesitation in her eyes.

“How is it?”

After the Tauren came over, Alice asked.

“It shouldn’t be made up...”the Tauren smiled and said, “The patient’s situation is very detailed. With her personality, she shouldn’t be able to make it up.”

“Is that so...”Alice frowned slightly.

“You still think there’s a problem?”The Minotaur looked at Alice and asked.

“I can’t explain it clearly...”Alice shook her head, there were some things that she really couldn’t figure out, but just as the Minotaur said, with little cabbage’s personality, she wouldn’t be able to make up such a detailed lie, especially in front of this great expert. It was highly unlikely that she would want a medical example to lie.

Perhaps... he was overthinking it?

On the other side, cabbage, who had closed his eyes and was in a daze, couldn’t help but think to himself, I should... ? I should be able to muddle through, right?

Immediately, he recalled the conversation soap had with him before he walked out.

--

“What’s the situation on your side? It shouldn’t be that Jessica who lured you out, right?”Soap asked in detail.

Jessica wasn’t a high-level hypnotist. Otherwise, she wouldn’t have used such methods to deal with them.

Little cabbage shook his head.

“Who is that?”

Little cabbage was silent.

“Is it Alice?” Soap suddenly asked.

Little cabbage was stunned. He was a little surprised that soap could guess so accurately.

Soap explained, “There is an analysis in the base. After you disappeared, Alice also disappeared immediately. From the surveillance footage, it seems that she was looking for traces of you and tracked you to the New World. But logically speaking, it doesn’t make sense because Alice has always been a very rational person. After confirming that you were kidnapped, you shouldn’t have chosen to act alone. The best way would have been to report it to the base and seek help from the lord or other higher-ups, but she didn’t. And coincidentally, she was the one who organized the party at that time. It’s hard not to suspect that she had something to do with you being kidnapped...”. “...”

Little cabbage looked at the guy in front of him and sighed with emotion. People with split personalities were really scary. Sometimes they were as simple as an idiot, and sometimes they were as powerful as Kudou Shinichi.

“Your abandoned appearance should be like this...” soap concluded.

“Is it that obvious?” Little cabbage was stunned for a moment.

Little Cabbage: “...”

“Alice probably doesn’t have the ability to hypnotize you. After all, you’re the highest-level flower spirit in the base. Alice herself is only level four. She should have an accomplice. Is it that Tauren?”

“Yes...” little cabbage nodded.

“That Tauren is very powerful, right?” Soap continued to ask.

“How did you know?” Little cabbage looked at him in surprise and thought, this conan-kun is a little sharp.

Soap: “I tried him just now. When he faced Jessica’s weapon threat, although he sounded like he was admitting defeat, I could feel that he wasn’t nervous at all. Even Alice appeared very calm when she faced Jessica’s threat. She was fearless. This is very strange. According to the memories I obtained, Jessica is a level 13 high-end creature. The power theory that she displayed should be able to completely intimidate Alice. This can only mean that Alice is obviously more confident in facing Jessica and that Tauren!”

Bai Cai: “You’re so good at fighting with those dead dogs in the base in one day. What a waste of talent...”

If she had known that this guy was so reliable, she would have hired him long ago... ..

“Then what should we do now?” Grandpa Lu asked curiously, “Let your clone stop them, and we’ll take Bai Cai and run away?”

“No...”. “...” soap shook his head. “Now that the other party’s abilities are unknown, they still have nothing to fear when facing the real Jessica. Even if we two imposters can operate the mecha, there’s a high probability that we won’t be able to threaten them. If we run away rashly, the risk is too great. I think we should first stabilize our hands and wait for an opportunity.”

“Then... I’ll go out first and continue playing dumb?” Little cabbage understood.

“You have to play dumb to play dumb...” soap said faintly, “If I told you to come in, the skill is to save people. In order to ensure that there are no loopholes, you’d better really do a surgery to try...” as he said that, he pointed at the dying Bernier... ..

“Fortunately, soap has a stable hand...” little cabbage, who had closed his eyes, sighed in his heart. If he did not really have a surgery experience, there was a high probability that he would have been exposed just now. ...

However, when soap said to wait for an opportunity, what did he mean by an opportunity?

In the cave, Grandpa Lu also asked the question in little cabbage’s heart, “It’s not a good idea for us to continue pretending like this. After a long time, we might be recognized. What exactly is the opportunity you are talking about?”

While he was talking, the scroll next to Bernier suddenly emitted a faint light. A familiar female voice sounded, “Lieutenant Colonel Bernier, please reply if you receive it!”

“You see...” soap smiled and said, “Isn’t the opportunity here?”
