Chapter 1081: Summon (1)

“Lieutenant Colonel Bonnier, please reply if you receive!”

“Lieutenant Colonel Bonnier, sir, please instruct!” Soap imitated Bonnier’s words and quickly replied.

“Lieutenant Colonel Bonnier, report your physical condition...” a voice came from the other side of the scroll.

“Yes, the injuries have been preliminarily treated to prevent the spread of the infection. However, the use of freezing treatment has resulted in the current body almost being unable to leave the mech, requiring the life supply system in the MECH!”

“What about major Jessica?”

BoxNovel.com

SOAP: “Major Jessica’s condition is a little better than mine, but she also needs the life supply system in the mech. Fortunately, the current energy reserves are still sufficient.”

“We need you to open the channel!”

“Open the channel?” Soap’s expression turned cold, but his tone was only slightly surprised. “Didn’t you say that the reinforcements have already come from other channels?”

“There’s a situation. We need to send more reinforcements. We need to commandeer your channel!”

“But in my current situation, opening the channel might be a little difficult. Moreover, the team here is separated, and there aren’t enough tributes to provide summoning energy.”

“You don’t have to worry about summoning energy. It will be borne by the person being summoned. You just need to open the channel!”

“Yes, sir. Please give me some time to prepare!”

“Please hurry up, Lieutenant Colonel Bonier!” After saying that, the white light on the scroll slowly dimmed. Grandpa Lu, who had been holding it in for a long time, finally dared to say, “What’s the situation?”

“It’s unexpected, but it’s still okay. With the addition of a high-end person, it can also restrain the mysterious Tauren on the side of little cabbage...”

“No... I mean the guy inside the scroll, will he be listening to us?” Grandpa Lu asked worriedly.

“No...”. Soap shook his head and said, “I’ve absorbed most of the memory of this scroll, and I’ve figured out how it works. This scroll belongs to an alchemy array of the summoning element, which is a low-cost spatial channel. Remember those magic movies where Wizards set up an Alchemy Array to summon Hell Demons and evil gods from the outside world? It was more or less the same thing. The so-called evil gods and demons were high-end lifeforms in the outside world. Through some infiltration methods, they contacted the local Aborigines so that they could hear their whispers and thus collect believers. These believers thought that they were being guided by God and were often tricked into doing extreme things. They even used live human sacrifices to summon the great god in their hearts, using this kind of thing. This kind of thing was similar to wechat and friends circle. It belonged to a contact that neither side knew whether the other was a human or a ghost. It was even worse than wechat, which could at least look at photos

Grandpa Lu: "That's a metaphor..."

Soap: "When the summoning starts, hide in Jessica's mecha and go outside. Stay with little cabbage. If something goes wrong and my side is seen through, I will control the mecha over there to directly fight with the Minotaur and create chaos. Then, I will take the opportunity to bring you and little cabbage away first!"

"Eh?" Grandpa Lu was stunned. "Are you really going to listen to her and summon her over?"

Soap: "The Character I'm playing is a subordinate. How can I not agree to the orders of a Superior?"

"Then..." grandpa lu said blankly, "Then... What do we do with the sacrifice you mentioned just now? Find... find two live chickens to try?"

Soap: "..."

Wasn't this guy paying attention to something a little strange?

Grandpa Lu: "Don't tell me we're really going to use live people? They'll get 404..."

Soap: "There's no fixed standard for sacrifices. As a living thing, people will only be exchanged for energy in the alchemy array. If other things have the same value, the effect will be the same in the alchemy exchange. The reason why the evil God let those believers make such an extreme sacrifice is because they don't know what's valuable on that planet that can be used as an energy exchange. Without spending more time to explore it, living things are the universal currency in the universe's alchemy energy. Just now, the other party said that we don't need to prepare the sacrifice, he will use his own energy..." . "..."

"Eh? You can offer sacrifices that you don't need?" Grandpa Lu asked curiously. "Then why don't those demons and evil gods just send them over directly? Is it a bad taste to cause so much trouble?"

"Because of the cost!" Soap explained. "The cost of transporting high-level life forms is huge. Using this summoning method to teleport through the spatial passage is even more expensive. It requires a huge amount of energy. And because the summoning matrix is one-way, if the other side wants to forcefully come over through this method, the amount of energy they have to pay is several times more than normal summoning. Moreover, unlike the variety of tributes that are being summoned, the reverse summoning side can only sacrifice their own life energy as the price. Many high-level life forms are unwilling to pay this cost. So even if at times, those high-level life forms need the lives of a local city or even a country to be sacrificed, it doesn't matter to them, because it's still more cost-effective than paying for their own life energy."

"F * ck..." Grandpa Lu felt an inexplicable emotion in his heart when he heard that. A high-level life form could exchange countless lives for it just because it could save on the cost of teleportation. It was really a saint who was heartless and treated all living things as dogs...

“Get Out...” at some point, Jessica’s mech flew into the cave and gently lifted Grandpa Lu Up. Her tone carried the unique gentleness of a woman.

Grandpa Lu’s body trembled slightly. His voice was very pleasant to hear, but when he remembered that the owner of this voice was also soap, Grandpa Lu’s emotions became very complicated.

“Be careful...” Jessica’s female voice said faintly to soap’s divination emperor personality, “If you die, you’ll be gone...”

“I know...” the divination emperor smiled slightly. There was still a hint of excitement in his eyes, as if he was looking forward to the things that he would face next.

Looking at the serious conversation between the two, Grandpa Lu’s expression became even more complicated. He really wanted to know what it felt like to have two personalities split into two. Especially when the two of them were talking, or even... .. If they were a little perverted, what would it feel like to have two bodies split into two and do something indescribable? What would it feel like?

Thinking about it... it was really exciting..

“Oh?” The Tauren who was sitting cross-legged outside suddenly turned his head and glanced at the cave, and a strange look flashed across his eyes.

“What’s Wrong?” Alice, who was resting with her eyes closed, opened her eyes and asked when she heard the noise.

“The summoning channel is opening inside. There should be reinforcements coming!”

“Oh?” Alice narrowed her eyes. “Should we interrupt them?”

“No need... just wait and see...” the Minotaur said lazily. “We can see just how strong these guys are who want to get Andrew’s attention.”

Chapter 1082: Summoning (Part Two)

“Reverse teleportation?”

Within the hall of the undead, through the control of the planet, even though they could not sense the specific scene, they could clearly sense the changes in space or energy, when they saw that someone had paid a huge price to use their own life energy to reverse-teleport over, even Maya was shocked.

In the universe, the summoning channel was a cheap good thing to travel through space, but if it was reverse, it was completely different. The more powerful the creature, the greater the price it would pay to teleport backward, especially for star-level powerhouses like them, a single reverse teleportation would even cause irreversible damage to their star cores.

Star-level powerhouses’ lives were immortal, but if their star cores were to collapse, star-level powerhouses would also die... ..

The star core was the foundation of every star-level powerhouse. Everyone was extremely protective of it. Once their foundation was damaged, there was no hope of stepping into the life-level. Therefore, when many powerhouses used this kind of tunnel., even if the energy was so high that they needed the life of that planet as a sacrifice, they would not be willing to let themselves be the energy provider.

BoxNovel.com

After all, if it was not the deity overlord, they would not feel the slightest bit of regret towards the planet's intelligent life form.

Therefore, this made her very curious. From the energy reaction, the strength of this descending fellow was not weak. He was at least at the star level, but he dared to use such a method of self-destruction to teleport over. What exactly was going on?

"Interesting..." sandro suddenly said faintly, "He actually managed to persuade that fellow. I really did not expect that."

"Teacher knows him?" Maya asked curiously.

"Sort of..." sandro laughed.

"Who is it?"

Sandru: "Just a dying fighter!"

The teleporter surprised soap. As far as he could remember, they had sent hundreds of thousands of troops, but they were still almost wiped out.

Theoretically, after this information is uploaded, there should be more support coming in than there was before. A few million dollars or a bunch of Ultraman wouldn't surprise him.

However, he did not expect that only one person came, and it was an old man... ..

There was almost no need to probe. Just by looking with his eyes, he could feel that this was an old man with half a foot in the coffin., the dying aura on his body made soap feel that it was extremely normal for him to be a dog in the next second.

The old man's muddle-headed eyes glanced at soap and laughed, "Young man, your aura is not good..."

Soap's mouth twitched. This old man still had the mood to care about others?

"Greetings, Lord Goron!" Soap called out the old man's name according to his vague memory.

This memory was very vague. Obviously, Bernie did not come into contact with him often. According to the information dug deep into his memory, the person in front of him was very old in the faction. Almost everyone who saw him would use the honorific title.

However, few people knew his specific background and identity. At least, Bernie did not know.

This seemed to be good. The mysterious identity meant that the other party did not come into contact with him, who was a low-level military officer. It was not easy for him to be exposed since he was not familiar with him.

But what was the meaning of sending such an old fellow?

“Let me see your injuries.”

The old man’s tone was gentle as he smiled at Bernie. His words were so ordinary that he really looked like an old man who cared about him. However, soap did not dare to be careless. He hurriedly said respectfully, “Yes, Lord Gerald.”

As he spoke, soap opened the mech, revealing Bernie’s frozen body.

At this moment, it and Bernie were in a parasitic state. They were almost completely compatible with each other. Whether or not they could be discovered was up to fate.

“The surgery was done well... especially this purification method...”the old man’s turbid eyes lit up slightly as he approached. “It’s a very pure purification energy, exclusive to High Elves. Is there such a person in your army?”

“Not in the army, it’s a local aborigine...”Bernie replied according to Jessica’s memories.

“Oh?”The old man’s interest was immediately piqued. “Tell me...”

“Reverse Summoning?”Outside the cave, the Tauren who felt the energy inside had a hint of surprise on his face. He looked curiously into the cave and considered it for a moment, but did not activate his eye of the blood demon.

“What’s reverse summoning?”Alice asked curiously.

The Tauren gave a brief explanation upon hearing that.

Alice’s interest was immediately piqued after hearing the explanation. So the person inside was actually a powerhouse who had disregarded his own foundation and sent him here. What kind of person was he?

Out of curiosity, she saw a silver-gray mech walk out of the cave first. Behind it was an old man in a gray robe.

This person looked more like a human. His physique was not considered slender, and he was not even comparable to the adult man in the north of her planet. His wrinkled face looked like the dried bark of a tree that had not been nourished by water all year round, a pair of pure white pupils with a trace of yellowish turbid.

“White Spirit?”Tauren slightly squint, but the next second seems to remember what Leng Way: “Is he? He is actually still alive?”

“Your Lordship?”Alice asked curiously.

“Not really... I’ve only heard of it...”the Minotaur laughed. “Interesting, Sandru’s disciple was actually able to let that guy join his own faction. He does have something...”

“Don’t be distracted. Keep Breathing. Just keep walking like this...”

On the small path to the south, Li Goudan was walking unsteadily under Vaughn’s urging. At this moment, from an outsider’s point of view, Goudan’s walking posture was extremely strange. It was extremely similar to walking on a tightrope. She looked like she was trembling with fear, and at this moment, the place she was standing on was the most stable avenue.

“Faster!” Vaughn’s cold voice sounded from behind.

Goudan immediately put on a bitter face. “I can’t go any faster. If I go any faster, I’m going to die!”

What kind of breathing technique was this? Fast?

Ever since he was forced to use this breathing technique, Goudan felt like he was about to collapse.

When this breathing technique was activated, it felt like his entire chest was on fire. Then, all the elements around him became visible. They were densely packed, and one could not see the end of them. They were everywhere.

The key was that after using this breathing technique, one could only walk by stepping on fire elemental particles. Once one encountered other elemental bodies, one would instantly experience an unforgettable sour feeling, especially when it was the first time one did not know the situation. When she stepped on ice elemental particles and thunder elemental particles in one go, the sour feeling made her almost fly up on the spot... ..

After that, she concentrated on avoiding the other particles. The speed of those particles was not fast, but there were too many of them. How should she put it? They were like little bees playing an old arcade game, the difficulty of hell., bullets flew toward you. The full screen was filled with bullets. Presumably, many people who had played that game had experienced this kind of despair.

Which pervert created this training method? He should be pulled out and shot!

Goudan Li complained in his heart.

“Faster...” Vaughn’s voice was a little gentle.

“I’m not fast anymore. I Can’t be faster. If I’m faster, I’ll definitely step on a mine!” Goudan’s tone sounded like he was crying.

“You said the same thing the last two times. Didn’t you step on a mine too?” Vaughn said calmly.

“I held back the first two times. This time, I really did my best. You have to believe me. I really can’t do it...”

“I don’t believe it...” Vaughn tilted her head. “I think you can still go faster...”

“Wow! !” Eggface sat down on the ground. “I quit! !”

Chapter 1083: Shadow Stream Technique!

“You want to give up on me?” Vaughn sneered. With a flick of her wrist, a silver light flew towards Goudan. Li Goudan was stunned. He felt something stab his butt, in the next second, an unprecedented feeling of sourness spread throughout his body. It felt like a red-hot embroidery needle stabbing into his butt with electric current, and then the needle was smeared with wind essence.

In an instant, Goudan felt as if his entire skull was connected. He jumped up with a whooshing sound, but his breathing did not stop. As soon as he jumped up, various other elements were added to his body, and in an instant, his body was once again hit by various elements, he truly experienced what the nine heavens of ice and fire was like.

“Lord Vaughn!”

Just as Goudan was experiencing the climax, an outsider’s voice suddenly appeared beside him in a very discordant manner. A pitch-black figure had unknowingly appeared beside Vaughn.

BoxNovel.com

“Sir Billy requests that you quickly meet up. He says that he has something important to discuss with you.”

Vaughn immediately frowned. “Why does she have so much shit to discuss?”

The newcomer frowned. He felt that this fellow was indeed a little too disrespectful to Sir Billy.

“Tell her that I’m busy here. If there’s anything, just say it!”

When the person heard this, his expression became even uglier. Busy with what? Busy teasing a native?

At this thought, he looked at Li Goudan. At this moment, Li Goudan had been tormented. His expression was emotional, as if he had experienced the vicissitudes of his entire life. However, to outsiders, it had only been a few seconds, therefore, the vicissitudes of his entire life’s expression appeared on his face in a few seconds. It gave people the feeling that it was the ultimate Sichuan dramatic face change. It looked extremely comical.

After about ten seconds, Goudan, who had woken up from the torture, cried out and ran forward. His breathing technique did not stop, but it was as if he had turned on the ultimate cheat, his body was extremely agile as he shuttled through the little bee version of the elements. He quickly ran into the distance!

Vaughn’s expression was stunned. She had never thought that it would be this kind of effect. However, when she saw Goudan’s astonishing movement technique, her eyes flashed with a trace of excitement. “Good Kid!”

Then, she directly followed him. The two of them quickly disappeared in front of the blue spirit who came to report.

The person was stunned for a while, then his expression turned extremely gloomy. However, he didn’t say anything and directly returned to the main group.

The main group was about 300 kilometers away from Vaughn and the others. However, on this low-magic planet, for experts like them who had a life form that was over level 10, this distance wasn’t a problem, if they did not consider the task of gathering information on the terrain along the way, it would take at most ten minutes to go back and forth in a straight line.

“Sir...”

After the report came back, he bowed respectfully to Billy. His attitude was completely different from when he faced Wayne.

At this time, Billy was sitting on a folding chair, looking at the specimen information collected by his subordinates. When he raised his head and saw that there was only one person, he frowned slightly. “Sir Wayne didn’t come back with you?”

“She said that she was very busy and asked you to speak directly. Considering that the ground was corroded and could be monitored, I didn’t dare to tell her the information about Lord Gerald without her presence.”

“Well...” Billy pondered for a while and then said, “What is she busy with?”

“It seems that... she is busy teasing that little native...”

“Little native?” Billy squinted his eyes and thought of the little elf that Vivian had been holding in her hand. He was a little curious. “Tell me what you saw.”

Hearing that, his subordinates not only sighed in their hearts. The Lord’s temper was really too good. Vivian was obviously looking for an excuse to not cooperate, but the Lord was still trying to find an excuse for her.

Thus, he told them what he had seen. During this period of time, he did not exaggerate anything. With the status of the two lords, he did not dare to do anything to provoke them. He was really courting death.

“Strange footwork? Expression?” Billy’s eyes narrowed slightly. “Did you notice the Little Guy’s breathing?”

“Breathing?” The subordinate was stunned, and then he carefully recalled it. To be honest, at that time, his first thoughts were on Lord Vaughn, and he did not pay much attention to the little guy, although he was attracted by the little guy’s strange sichuan-style drastic change of expression, he didn’t pay much attention to the breathing technique of a level six or seven little guy.

But when he heard the lord mention it, the subordinate suddenly felt that something wasn’t right.

Something wasn’t right...

Theoretically speaking, when a person of his level faced a native creature that was half his level, it should be impossible for the other party to hide anything from him.

Just like the breathing technique that his lord had mentioned, under normal circumstances, he should have been able to accurately determine Dogball’s life level from the moment he arrived, but in reality, he had not noticed the other party’s breathing from the beginning to the end. If his lord had not suddenly mentioned it, he would have almost forgotten about it...

Now that he thought about it, he suddenly felt a little strange. He actually could not detect the breathing of a level-five elf?

Seeing the confused expression on his subordinate's face, Billy immediately got the answer in his heart. He muttered, "I see. Vivian is actually willing to teach that person out. Is she cultivating a successor?"

"Sir... you're right..." an elf who seemed to be much more experienced heard the conversation and his expression turned serious. "Is it that breathing technique?"

"It should be..." Billy nodded.

"Sir... What are you talking about?" The subordinate who had just reported could not help but ask when he saw the two of them talking in riddles.

Facing the curiosity of his subordinate, Billy did not put on airs, instead, he patiently explained, "Among the high-ranking nobles of the night elves, regardless of whether they are walking in the direction of assassins or the direction of Wind Wanderers, there is a family's secret breathing technique known as shadow stream. You should have heard of your name, right?"

"I have heard of it..." "...". His subordinate frowned. "It is rumored that the reason why the assassins of the night elves can become the nightmares of mages is because they can see the trajectories of elements, thus avoiding spells. Some of the rules even rely on the legendary shadow stream technique. However, many experts have also come out to refute the rumors, saying that such a thing does not exist. It is just a gimmick that the night elves deliberately created to make themselves famous, right?"

"It's not a gimmick..." Billy shook his head. "It's true. The top dark night clan does have this breathing technique, and only the direct descendants can inherit it. Vaughn has a nickname in the Abyss, Angel Hunter Witch. Countless high-level fallen angels have died at her hands, and there are even royal heads. You have to know that the fallen angels are good at strange forbidden spells and are the most troublesome battle spellcasters. However, Vaughn has never failed once. What do you think she relied on?"

"There's really such a thing?" One of his men asked curiously, "What's the rumored shadow stream technique? It's So Mysterious."

"It's a very troublesome thing!" Billy squinted his eyes and said, "It's rumored that this technique can allow people to open up another perspective and see that others can't see the world, and that world has the secret of their blade dancing!"

Chapter 1084: traces of simplicity and confusion!

"My Lord... There's something up ahead..."

It took almost two days to gather all the information, and Billy's team had just arrived at the location of Kate City based on the traces of Ryan.

For such a star-ranked reconnaissance team, crossing a few hundred kilometers in two days was not considered efficient, especially in the current situation where every second was being seized.

However, Billy knew that such matters could not be rushed. Along the way, from environmental specimens to terrain surveys, she had her subordinates try to be as detailed as possible. Even if there was some delay, she would not allow some things to be skipped, especially when it came to the collection of data on different infected specimens on the planet.

However, after two days without much gain, the intelligence officers under them all seemed to be a little impatient. Before coming, Sir Phippen had revealed to them the current consumption, almost every minute was the energy storage of a planet for hundreds of years.

BoxNovel.com

The Great War was not just a talk.

“What did you find?” Billy put down the tranquilizer tea in his hand and asked. She was not relaxed. This mission was very stressful. Whether it was a rash failure or not ensuring that her troops’ intelligence was ahead of Bolton’s side.., it would cause her forces to fall into a passive position.

“Suspected corpses of Andrew’s army and some very important traces of battle!”

“Oh?” Billy’s expression brightened. “Bring me over to take a look...”

With his subordinates leading the way, the few of them quickly arrived at the gates of Kate City. At this time, the personnel responsible for the terrain and the sample collection had already protected the entire terrain, meanwhile, the person in charge of sampling was carefully commanding the mecha to start handling the corpses.

“What’s the situation?” Billy took a step forward and asked hurriedly.

“Sir, it’s a very good discovery!” The leader in charge of sampling said excitedly. “According to our observations, the corpses placed here should be the strengthened troops under Sandro’s command. It seems like the prototype of the Fallen Angel Army that fought against the Fallen Angel Army in the outer space previously. Similarly, there are also living biological armors that are linked together and the Heaven’s wrath sword that are of considerable value. The corpses are still intact, and even the living armor has not been damaged. It’s a very valuable prototype specimen!”

“Prototype specimen?” Billy curiously took a closer look. Upon closer inspection, this model was indeed very similar to the Knight Legion that fought in the starry sky. Of course, in terms of energy level, it was obviously inferior.

“Have you found out the cause of death of these people?”

“The initial investigation should be that their vital organs were damaged by someone from the inside. It is considered a sonic attack.”

“Is that so?” Billy muttered to himself. The intelligence officer beside him asked curiously, “To be able to kill an enemy with a sonic attack means that the gap between the two sides is huge. Who could it be? Is it one of Bolton’s Men?”

“I don’t think so...” Billy shook his head. “Bolton’s men are the same as us. They’re all scouting troops here to collect information. If they discover these corpses, there’s no reason not to retrieve them for investigation. This is especially so for the equipment. It’s not cheap. Although that force seems to be very rich, it shouldn’t be so extravagant as to turn a blind eye to the Heaven’s wrath sword!”

“That’s true...”the intelligence officers nodded. The Heaven’s wrath sword could be sold for hundreds of millions of star dollars on the black market, and there was no market for it. Not to mention Bolton’s forces, even great lords wouldn’t pretend not to see it.

One of the intelligence officers analyzed, “It’s a bit like a solo mercenary, a very high-level one. After seeing something more valuable, I didn’t try to retrieve it.”

Billy nodded. The Heaven’s wrath sword was very valuable, but if there wasn’t a technological team to support it, it was very likely that the original owner of the weapon would track it down, in order to complete some individual missions, some mercenaries were cautious about these spoils of war.

It was different on their side. As a power team, they had come in to collect specimens with great fanfare. They had a well-developed backyard technological team and anti-tracking team, what items might have markings on them could be quickly detected through the equipment. Naturally, they could retrieve these items without any pressure.

“Could it be those two guys who suddenly invaded the tunnel?”Another intelligence officer muttered softly.

Billy nodded slightly, clearly agreeing with this point of view. Before the first tunnel opened, they had indeed detected that someone had used the tunnel they had set up on this planet in advance. From the energy feedback, they were top-notch star level powerhouses!

If it was a lone ranger of that level, they might not have taken this heaven’s wrath sword seriously.

“What other traces are there at the scene?”Billy asked.

“There are many traces...” The investigator in charge of tracking the first group hurriedly reported, “According to the investigation, there were traces of a large number of creatures migrating here ten days ago. From the traces, it should be a mass migration. There are many heavy vehicles, along the way, there are occasional signs of campfires and cooking. It should be a primitive force on this planet.”

“Primitive forces?”This time, even Billy was stunned. There were actually primitive forces that could survive under the scourge of Andrew?

“Yes, and the traces of migration are very consistent with the time of death of Andrew’s soldiers. It should be the same day...”

“This is interesting...”billy laughed when he heard that, “Could it be that the local Aborigines killed these enhanced soldiers?”

She looked at the data just now. Although these soldiers were not as good as the fallen angels, they were at least level seven. The leader was at least level nine. How could the natives kill such a level? The level of this planet was only level nine even for Titan Creatures, right? To kill a biochemical warrior with a set of high-quality equipment?

It was obviously not realistic.

“What else have you found?”Billy continued to ask.

“The second trace came from an unusual creature. This creature did not follow the main group, but walked towards the south. From the footprints and traces of the creature, it seems to be a canid creature, and its genes are somewhat strange...” “...”

“How Strange?” Billy frowned and asked.

“There is a high-level password lock. Ordinary instruments can not be unlocked. I’m afraid a professional genetic engineer will be needed to unlock it!”

Billy frowned, feeling somewhat strange. From the reports of his subordinates, that creature had not participated in the battle with the Andrew soldiers, but it should not be in the same group as this native, the key was that it had actually separated from the main group after the battle. What was going on?

If it was a third force, shouldn’t they continue tracking it?

“What else?”

“There should be traces of Bolton force. It’s the first group of people who used our passage to descend. This mission requires them to capture the target immediately.”

“HMM...” billy nodded. They had followed the traces of the target all the way here, so he asked, “What’s his situation like?”

“It’s also very strange...” “...”. His subordinate said with a strange face, “At the beginning of the trail, there were only two people, but after they arrived here, some force took the two survivors and used an extremely advanced space spell to evacuate this place!”

Even Billy, who was good at analyzing the situation, could not help but feel a headache. Why was it so complicated?

Chapter 1085: A sudden attack

This time, the inspection team they brought with them was the first-line inspection team of the force. The leading tracking master, Elson, was a top-notch dragon-level tracking master, and his position in the force was extremely high.

From what he said, the high-profile space spell meant that the caster was at least a dragon-level. A dragon-level space master was a treasure-level existence in a force like theirs, and he had to be responsible for the operation of the entire force’s space station, naturally, it was impossible for him to follow them to the front line.

And if such an existence appeared here, it would be very troublesome.

A dragon-level spatial spellcaster would greatly increase their tracking costs. It might even cause them to fail the mission of capturing Raine!

“Could it be that the people from Bolton Force received them?” One of his subordinates asked doubtfully.

BoxNovel.com

“That’s not possible...”. One of the intelligence officers analyzed, “Spatial masters above the dragon rank are extremely rare “? Even if there are a few in the faction, they wouldn’t take the risk to place them at the front line. Even if the Bolton faction had spent a lot of money to send a high-end spatial master over, they shouldn’t have arrived here so quickly.”

The intelligence officers nodded. The second batch of Bolton’s forces were still using their channels. Although the second batch was very strong and quickly eliminated the tracking they had set up in the channel., but their landing location had been exposed to their side.

According to the coordinates, the second batch of Bolton’s forces had landed at least tens of thousands of kilometers north. Although this distance wasn’t a problem for a high-level spatial master, this wasn’t an ordinary place., this was a territory controlled by Sandro using the law. It belonged to another Lord’s territory!

How dare you use a space spell to travel tens of thousands of kilometers in such a place without investigating? That was really courting death!

Didn’t they see that their troops had only traveled hundreds of kilometers in two days?

“But if it’s not Bolton Force, then who is it? Andrew Force? or that third-party powerhouse who barged in?”

Billy sighed. “No matter who it is, this is going to be a lot more complicated...”

“Then sir, what should we do now?”The person next to him quickly asked.

Billy Thought for a moment and said, “Bolton’s men, who were kidnapped by the spatial wizard, sent Vivian alone to track them down. We will follow the traces left by the natives on the map to see. That team might have a big secret.”

“Why do you say that?”The adjutant frowned and asked.

“This planet is almost covered by Sandro’s territory. It’s impossible that he doesn’t know that his subordinate was killed by the Aborigines. However, from the trail of the corpse, it seems that Sandro didn’t make a move. He didn’t even move to retrieve the soldiers’equipment. This is either because he felt that this matter wasn’t something that he could be bothered to send people to deal with, or...”. “...”. “He’s the one who sensed something and was prepared to let the Aborigines leave freely!”

After a pause, he continued, “I personally think that the latter is more likely...”

The Adjutant’s expression turned cold when he heard that. Something that could make Sandro pay attention to must be something extremely valuable. Combined with the fact that this Grade-7 planet had not been completely controlled by Sandro until now, it could be seen that., this planet had secrets!

“But sir, Sir Wayne is the main combat force sent by the higher-ups. If we let her track someone else, once our team meets the top combat force, how can we guarantee our safety?”

“You don’t have to worry about that...”. Billy smiled and said, “According to our analysis of Andrew for many years, after he came back from the death realm, although he has many trump cards, what he needs the most should be the top combat force. After all, the death realm is the place where it is the most difficult to organize his own forces, unless he is prepared in advance and uses that thing “...”. “...”

“That thing?”

“You will know after that. But don’t worry now. That thing will not be activated easily unless it is necessary. Once it is activated, the noise will be huge. As long as we are careful, we can avoid it in advance. The only top-tier combat power that we need to worry about is the two powerhouses from the third party and Saab that Bolton sent this time.”

“The origins of those two powerhouses are unknown. As long as they are not prepared by Sandro, they will not easily make enemies with us if they are not familiar with us. After all, no one came here to cause trouble. As for SAB...”. Billy smiled and said, “The landing point is tens of thousands of kilometers away from here. Even if we rush in, it will take at least four to five days to get here. By that time, we should have already met up with Lord Geron, and our safety will be guaranteed.”

Lord Geron...

Some intelligence officers looked at each other when they heard that. Could that old man, who was always emitting a rotten aura, really guarantee the safety of the team? Or, could he really be regarded as a top-tier combat force?

Of course, they could not say such words. After all, that Lord had a very high seniority in the force. It was said that Lord Vogu had already pledged his loyalty to him when Lord Vogu had just become a god.

He could be considered as Lord Vogu’s closest subordinate.

“Oh?”

Suddenly, just as everyone’s thoughts were being brought to that old man, a hoarse voice that clearly did not belong to the faction suddenly appeared beside Billy.

“That fellow Viane is actually in your faction?”

The moment this voice sounded, everyone, including Billy, immediately felt their hairs stand on end. An extremely terrifying sense of danger surged into their hearts. Billy did not hesitate to activate the protective energy shield of his mecha!

However, it was already too late. A blood-red light flashed past, and the deformed sharp claws forcefully broke through the protective shield in an extremely strange way. They swiftly twisted Billy’s gigantic mecha into a twisted shape!

Following that, a series of miserable screams rang out. Everyone saw that the deformed claws had pierced through Sir Billy’s mecha like it was a skewer!

“Protect Sir! !”

The Adjutant hurriedly issued an order!

However, when he turned around to look, his entire body instantly froze. This was because when he turned around, he saw that the mechanical rangers around him who were supposed to protect Sir Billy had unknowingly been twisted into a twisted shape. Fresh blood seeped out from the distorted mech. It was obvious that there was no longer any sound...

The adjutant immediately sucked in a breath of cold air. The Rangers surrounding Sir Billy just now were all advanced Rangers. They were all true dragon-level experts, yet they did not even know when they were killed. Just how weak were their abilities?

Just as he was in shock, the strange figure laughed mockingly and brought Billy away in a streak of blood-red light. Only then did the adjutant react and immediately roared, "Stop him! !"

Several mechas instantly turned into countless silver lights and chased after him. Under the circumstances of a low-level resistance like a Level 7 planet, the speed of these mechas had almost surpassed the speed of light, however, compared to the speed of the blood-red light that had taken Billy away, it was not just a little bit slower.

Everyone could only watch as Sir Billy was taken away, leaving behind a wave of mocking laughter that could not keep up with their speed.

"It's over!" The adjutant said with a dejected expression!

Chapter 1086: setting up a trap (part one)

"How did this happen?"

After about ten seconds of chaos, the mecha troops guarding the outer perimeter quickly arrived. They quickly formed a 360 degree layered defensive formation to protect the Adjutant and the others inside, waiting for the ambush, however, this efficient reaction could not hide the result of their commander being kidnapped.

The intelligence officers in the soldiers' defensive formation finally regained their senses. They inhaled a breath of cold air in fear. Usually, these intelligence officers would analyze the strength of top-tier experts, on paper, they had even analyzed the strength of fate-tier experts. However, those things were only a pile of data on normal days. Only after witnessing it with their own eyes would they be able to understand how terrifying it was!

Who would have thought that Sir Billy, who was so astute and protected by so many cutting-edge equipment, would actually be so easily taken away? and the two ace Ranger bodyguards who were responsible for protecting him did not even manage to give him a warning!

"Call the medical team over and see if they can still save him!" The Adjutant was the first to react as he ordered.

BoxNovel.com

Very soon, the medical team rushed over upon hearing the news, but when they saw the mecha that had been twisted into a twist, they were all stunned on the spot, after a few seconds, the doctor leading the team said in a low voice, "The mecha is in such a state. We have to get the professionals to help us dismantle it. They are all dragon-class Mechanical Rangers. If the energy within the mecha explodes, this planet could be blown up!"

After the engineering team came over after asking questions, they looked at the twisted mecha and felt troubled. "From the looks of it, the people inside the HP Bar are probably all twisted together with the mecha. If they were to dismantle it normally, they would probably not be able to save the people. If they were to dismantle it at all costs, it would be difficult for them to repair the mecha...”. “...”

It was obvious that the engineering team knew very well how advanced the mecha these Rangers were equipped with. With this kind of appearance, the people inside would most likely not be able to survive. If they could preserve the mecha, they could at least save some money. However, these words could not be said by them. They had to let the higher-ups make the decision. Otherwise, the Rangers might hold a grudge against their maintenance department... ..

“Uh...”hearing this, the adjutant immediately had a headache. Of course, he wanted to protect the mecha, but this could not be said in this way. In the end, he could only say, “Use the freezing technology to preserve it first. Find an opportunity to transport it back. If you can protect it, try to protect it!”

Hearing this, the maintenance department’s people hurriedly nodded. However, they did not dare to say that the freezing of the mecha would cause more trouble for the later parts of the mecha to be dismantled. At that time, the survival rate of the people inside would be even lower.

Of course, these things could be seen through without being seen through. That was all.

Following that, a few dragon-level rangers who were in charge of scouting the surroundings rushed over. When they saw the miserable state of their two companions, their expressions became extremely unsightly.

Seeing that the few of them had returned safely, the adjutant heaved a sigh of relief. This at least proved that the enemy should only be trying to abduct Sir Billy, and not attack their entire army.

Based on the traces of blood magic left on the scene, a few high-ranking intelligence officers deduced the situation.

Saab, who had originally landed tens of thousands of kilometers away, did not take the safe route as they had predicted. Instead, he unexpectedly chose an extremely risky surprise attack route.

“Inform Sir Wayne to come over immediately!”The Adjutant glanced at the Ranger Army that had arrived and sighed. “The current situation is not something we can handle!”

The few dragon-level Rangers were stunned when they heard this, but this time, no one refuted.

Before this, these top rangers were extremely dissatisfied with Wayne’s arrogant attitude. Similarly, they did not think that their group would be any worse than Wayne’s. After all, they were all top rangers that had half a foot in the star level.

But now, they realized that there was really a dimensional difference between a half-foot in the star level and a true star level powerhouse. Not to mention whether it was Saab or Wayne, they were both famous powerhouses in the star level circle for a long time!

At this time, thousands of miles away, a streak of blood-red color brought Billy along as they flew rapidly towards the north. Although their speed was very fast, they still maintained their vigilance. Moreover, they were very meticulous in confirming every single blood-red mark that they had left behind when they arrived.

At this time, Billy, who was covered in blood, looked weakly at the guy who was carrying him and said in a low voice, "To actually be able to trouble Lord Saab to take such a risk, I'm really honored..."

She was now very sure that Sab had left her main force alone to launch a surprise attack!

It had to be said that it was really crazy!

According to normal logic, in order to ensure the safety of the team, the other party would definitely not dare to rush forward rashly. Billy was not wrong about this, but he did not expect that this crazy person would actually leave his troops and come to abduct him alone!

One had to know that although the top-tier combat strength was powerful, it was not invincible. If the troops he brought formed a battle formation, even ten saabs would not be able to abduct him. Moreover, there was a high chance that he would be left behind.

This fellow was an immortal star-level life form, yet his style of doing things was so radical. He was simply a madman!

"I'm really lucky..." Saab's hoarse voice carried a hint of excitement. "Master of the Mind Billy and Demon Hunter Ranger Wayne, your faction really thinks highly of me. If I had known that it was you two that teamed up, I wouldn't have dared to make this trip. It's really thanks to the blood ancestor's blessing that I managed to break into a situation where the two of you were separated, Ha!"

Billy suddenly fell silent. This couldn't be blamed on her and Wayne's carelessness. Who would have thought that this guy would be so crazy.

"You actually ran away. It seems that the spatial master who took your faction's members is not with you, right?"

If there was a spatial master cooperating, Sab believed that he would not be willing to walk. After all, the other party had heard of Vaughn's reputation and should know that Vaughn was a top-notch ranger. It was very likely that she would be able to catch up with him through traces.

"I also wish..." Sab sneered. "A spatial master is such a precious thing. Even if I wanted it, the higher-ups would not be willing to give it to me..."

A space-type master that could cut off his blood sacrifice was at least a star-ranked master. Even a star-ranked space-type master or a great lord might not have one. Their current forces couldn't afford it... ..

"Let's chat when we have time?" Sab slowed down and smiled.

"What do you want to talk about?" Billy smiled.

"Of course we want to talk about intelligence. We're allies, right? Isn't it better to share intelligence?" SAB laughed hoarsely, "It's better to talk about it now."

"What do you want to know?" Billy asked.

"I want to know a little more. HMM... let me think. Oh right, didn't you tell your men before that Sandro was originally difficult to obtain top-tier combat strength unless he used that thing? What do you mean by that thing?"

“Sorry... This is special intelligence...”billy smiled and said, “It can’t be shared.”

“You’d better tell me now...”sab smiled and said, “Or I’ll bring you back later and let another guy interrogate you. Believe me, you’ll regret it...”

“Who are you referring to?”Billy asked with a smile.

“You’ll know when you go...”blood demon also smiled.

“Really...”Billy shook his head with a regretful look, “Then I may not know for the time being...”

“It won’t be long...”blood devil smiled at first, but then his smile froze. Then he looked at Billy with a funny look. “With that tone of yours, you don’t think that someone can save you before, do you?”

Billy also looked at him with a funny look. “With that tone of yours, you don’t really think that you can take me away, do you?”

“Huh?”SAB was amused. “Interesting. Do you think that Vaughn can still catch up at this time?”

“Can’t I?”A cold voice suddenly sounded behind Saab, causing his pupils to constrict!

Chapter 1087: setting up a trap (part two) !

“Can’t I?”

This cold reply only made SAB jump in shock, because the distance of the voice was almost close to his ears!

Without hesitation, SAB’s muscles all over his body expanded, and his heart suddenly contracted. The blood essence condensed in his heart was instantly squeezed and dispersed, instantly turning into countless golden plasma that surged into his body. As the golden blood surged into his body., sab’s unique blood demon body began to expand rapidly. The tendons in his limbs instantly expanded by three times, and even his skeleton began to expand as if it was hot or cold.

The rapid expansion of his body was also inconceivable. In an instant, SAB’s speed increased by several times, and he directly turned into a streak of blood light as he dashed forward!

Due to his speed, the surrounding space was directly shattered, forming a large area of vacuum belt. Subsequently, countless black holes formed in the traces of his passing and began to absorb the surrounding elements to reorganize themselves.

BoxNovel.com

Saab himself had paid a price for shattering the space. His flesh and blood had turned red due to the intense friction, and there were also various elemental damage to his body. Fortunately, this was only a level-7 planet, and the strength of the elements was not high, if he was on a high magic planet, his skin would have fallen a layer if he rushed forward without any techniques!

However, he still had to do this, because this was the only way he could shake off Vivian behind him and increase the distance between them!

Facing a top-tier ranger like Vaughn, if she chose to turn around when she was close to his back, she would definitely die without a trace. His rich combat experience told him that in such a situation, there was no turning back. He had to move forward to increase the distance between them, only then would there be a chance of survival!

“He’s quite decisive...”

SAB:“? ? ?”

He actually couldn’t get rid of her?

He had used his blood essence in order to increase the distance between them. He didn’t even care about the cost of his body’s damage, but he couldn’t even increase the distance between them? What kind of joke was this?

At the same level, the blood demon’s explosive power was definitely among the top of the billions of races in the universe. After all, their explosive blood talent was countless times better than many berserkers. It was a unique race talent, the instantaneous explosive attribute could double the distance between them!

Under such circumstances, he never expected to be caught up with SAB. Even if he walked in a straight line and was hit by the opponent’s long-range weapon, he would still be able to accept it, moreover, if that was the case, he would even rely on the impact of the opponent’s weapon to increase the distance between them.

Although doing so would cause serious injuries, as long as he was not killed in one wave, he would still have a chance of survival. However, he never thought that the opponent would be able to catch up to him directly by relying on speed!

How did she do it?

After making sure that he could not pull away from her, sab immediately turned around and grabbed at her. The angle of the instant turn was extremely perfect, using almost all of his momentum to twist his body into an attack.

Of course, even if his technique was exquisite, the sudden turn of this huge force caused some of his muscles to be torn apart. However, the huge force also caused his attack to be extremely swift and fierce, directly cutting open the space behind him!

However, this shocking claw did not have any effect. The moment he turned around, SAB only felt a shadow flash before his eyes. Before he could react, he felt an empty space in his embrace. SAB’s entire body went cold, he did not even need to react to know that the billy that he had taken hostage had been taken away. With no more hostages left, he should be about to attack him!

Sure enough, after one-thousandth of a second, his back tightened, and a powerful penetrating force pierced through his bulging back muscles, straight into his heart. The terrifying penetrating force carried his entire body, which was burning red, flying out, it turned into a red arc and was nailed to a huge tree!

The piercing pain almost made SAB pass out, but his powerful battle instinct still made him react at the first moment. He directly clawed at the nailed tree. The material strength of this world was average. As long as he could break the tree.., he would not be directly controlled.

But in the next second, he suddenly realized that the opponent's crossbow bolt was so powerful. How could the tree withstand this force?

Just as he was thinking, his sharp claws felt a tearing pain. His claws clawed at the tree, but only a layer of sparks was created. Not even the skin fell off. He almost broke his fingernails... ..

F * ck, what kind of tree is this?

When he lifted his head and opened it, he recognized that this tree was extremely familiar. It was the evil oak tree in the third level of the Abyss, one of the strongest tree species in the abyss!

He had heard that high-end Rangers would collect seeds from various worlds to make traps. However, he did not expect that the other party could set traps while chasing after him?

Sab felt that something was not right...

Before he had time to think carefully, the four arrows pierced through his body with a silver light, sealing the position of the blood demon's four collarbones!

This time, his body's strength point was completely sealed. At this moment, Sab knew that he had no room to resist anymore!

Sab turned his neck with difficulty and looked behind him. This was the first time he faced this legendary demon ranger. Previously, on the battlefield, he had tricked the other party, causing the other party to suffer a small loss.., however, this was the first time that the two of them had officially exchanged blows.

Just like an Ordinary Night Elf, Vaughn had a slim figure. She was only about 1.6 meters tall. Her body size was far below the average of the races in the universe, but her figure was light.., wearing the bamboo hat, she was as ethereal as a standing shadow.

What was most unbelievable to SAB was that her body was not damaged at all. Even her clothes were not damaged at all!

What was going on?

Under high-speed sprinting, high-end agility experts could use techniques to avoid the friction of space, but that would reduce their explosive power. He did not believe that his opponent could still maintain that kind of technique under his speed, at least he should not be completely undamaged.

"Can you put me down? I feel like I Can't Breathe..." a gentle voice sounded. It was Billy, who was being carried like a kitten by Vienne.

Billy was covered in blood and his injuries were not light. At first, his heart and lungs were pierced by the Saab. Earlier, when the Saab exploded, it did not deliberately protect him, causing more than half of Billy's outer skin to be damaged by the friction, after all, he was not a warrior. Although his body was as strong as a level 20 warrior, his skin and muscles had suffered a lot of damage.

“I told you there was no need to make things so complicated. I could have caught him directly, but I had to put myself in danger. Now do you know how painful it is?” Vaughn sneered.

Billy smiled bitterly when he heard that. This guy was still so sarcastic. wasn't it for the sake of safety? If he hadn't planted an evil oak here in advance, how could he have captured him alive so easily? This was the blood demon Saab!

However, she didn't expect Vaughn's speed to be so exaggerated. It was one thing for her to be able to keep up with Saab, but even her clothes were intact. Even though she knew that the other party's defensive equipment was made of top-notch materials.., however, it was impossible for a defensive equipment as good as Saab's to be completely undamaged.

This could only mean that Vaughn didn't suffer any spatial friction just now!

Chapter 1088: Capture Saab!

Was it the legendary shadow stream technique?

Billy sat on the ground and looked at the cold-faced Vivian.

It was rumored that the popular breathing technique of the night elf nobles allowed them to see another pure elemental world. They could elementalize their bodies according to the conditions of the surrounding elements, avoiding other elemental passages, and travel along the river, the advanced one did not even need to elementalize, completely avoiding all the elements and achieving a spatial leap. It gave people the feeling that a shadow had directly ignored the physical rules and passed through, therefore, it was also known as the shadow stream technique by the outside world.

Outsiders did not know its real name.

This secret technique was the top secret technique of the night elf nobles. Only the Night Elf families with the inheritance of a second-class duke or above had the inheritance, and the inheritance was extremely strict. It was not passed down to anyone who was not a direct descendant.

Now that they had seen it, it was really a close-combat killing weapon. They had originally thought that this thing was more suitable for assassins to fight. Now that they thought about it, if a ranger who also ate agile food had such a ghostly movement technique, wouldn't it be a nightmarish existence?

“Did you plan this all along?” Sab, who was nailed to the tree, asked while panting heavily.

The evil oak that was prepared in advance obviously didn't grow at the last minute. In other words, the other party had already predicted that he would take this risk and take this wave?

“I was just trying to prepare...”. Billy smiled and said, “According to the information, you're good at surprise attacks and often don't follow the rules. I only prepared one wave in advance, but I didn't really think that you would come. On the contrary, I think that there's a high probability that you won't come.”

... ..

“Is that so...” sab sneered. “You're so cautious because of a small probability?”

“Then do you think this is a game?” Billy laughed. “This kind of scout mission can kill you if you’re not careful. It can’t be too much to prepare, right?”

Sab paused for a moment and then nodded. “That makes sense.”

Then he looked at Vivian. “What’s with your speed? Is it a secret technique?”

Vivian ignored him. She took out her dagger and went forward, directly breaking Sab’s limbs and bones. Then, she used the demon-sealing arrow to firmly nail a few special blood creation points on the blood demon’s body, in the end, she even used the demon sealing line to completely penetrate and seal the spine, not giving him the chance to split it.

Saab felt the material that nailed his own bones. It was bone-piercing cold. Just a slight sense of it was as painful as being scraped. Obviously, it was a high-grade ice elemental tool that was designed to counter a demon with powerful blood creation ability like him!

It was F * cking professional! !

“It’s about time...”. After doing everything, Vaughn stood up and clapped her hands. “Get your men to use the mechanical lock again. Remember to do a wave of cell freezing every three hours, and you should be able to completely control it. However, according to what I have to say, we should just kill it directly. There are a lot of old blood demon secret arts like this. Who knows, it might run away at a chance. If anything happens, I won’t be responsible!”

Billy smiled weakly. “Aren’t you here? What’s there to be afraid of?”

“I’ve been quite busy these few days. I might not be able to take care of you all the time.”

“Busy with what?” Billy smiled. “Busy training your little disciple?”

Vaughn’s body paused for a moment when she heard this. Then, she looked at Billy, and her eyes became colder. “Even though we’re familiar with each other, it’s best not to ask around if you shouldn’t!”

The cold eyes made Billy, who was already hurt, tremble. He curled his lips and said, “If you don’t want to ask, then don’t ask. Why Are You So Fierce?”

Vivian stared at her coldly, but didn’t say anything. She disappeared in a flash. Billy let out a sigh of relief and thought, what happened to this guy just now. He looked like he was going to attack me... ..

However, she could also understand that she had indeed said something wrong just now.

She was also from a large family. She was well aware of the infighting between the direct descendants in order to obtain resources and inheritance rights. There were countless underhanded tricks that they secretly used against each other.

As a Ranger, Vivian had started her career as a ranger. Compared to her cousin who was an assassin, she was more recognized by the elders of the Anna family. However, because she was unable to give birth, recently, the majority of the attention was still on her cousin Andoine.

There was a reason why Vayne did not give birth. Previously, Vayne had been married to the first-born son of the Blue Spirit family, the Nuys family. The blue spirit's unique spiritual talent coupled with Vayne's high-purity night Elf bloodline., the offspring that she gave birth to was once favored.

However, she did not expect to be attacked by pirates during a trip. The husband who attacked Vayne died from an assassination. Vayne fought her way out but the baby in her arms was miscarried. It was also after that that she lost the ability to continue giving birth.

The heir who was once favored slowly lost the ability to compete.

After that incident, Vaughn became a demon Hunter Ranger. She was independent from the family and became a mercenary. It was said that the attack was related to demons, but Billy, who was well aware of the family's malice, knew that, this matter could not be separated from Vaughn's brother, andoine!

Although Vivian had been independent for many years, Billy, who was mainly in charge of intelligence, could feel that the Anna family was constantly paying attention to Vivian's movements. Obviously, Andoine was still worried about Vivian's existence.

If he knew that Vivian had accepted a disciple in advance, the next round of assassination would probably come again!

Thinking of this, Billy shook his head with a bitter smile. It seemed that he was too proud of himself for having captured SAB.

When Saab, who was nailed to a tree, heard the news, his eyes rolled as if he was thinking about something. . .

"My Lord, you are back?"

In the distance, in the camp, looking at the return of Vivian, a group of gray-robed Rangers hurried to meet up.

I have received the signal from Lord Billy. I didn't expect Lord Wayne to save Lord Billy. Not only did he save Lord Billy, but he also captured blood demon Saab Alive!

When they thought of the blood-red figure that had instantly twisted the Ranger Legion leaders and their mechas into a mess, they could not help but shiver.

Lord Vivian could actually capture such an existence alive? She really lived up to the name of the Angel Witch Hunter.

"Mm..."Vivian nodded slightly. "Has the medical team been sent over? Billy's injuries are not light..."

"Ah, I've sent them over. At Sir Billy's request, I've also brought the engineering team and the rapid freezing equipment!"

"Ask your men to be careful when fixing the Saab. You must keep it frozen every three hours and monitor the activity of the Saab cells 24 hours a day. If there's anything abnormal, report it to me and Billy immediately!"

“Yes, Sir Vien!”

The Ranger Officer replied in a very serious manner. His attitude was completely different from before. Obviously, after he felt the true strength of this lord, his arrogant thoughts disappeared without a trace.

Of course, Vaughn actually didn't care about this. She actually didn't have a strong sense of belonging to Vogu's faction. If it wasn't for Vogu promising to repair her body, she wouldn't have pledged her loyalty to such a small-to-medium-sized faction.

And she was more concerned about another matter.

“Where's the little guy I told you to watch over?”

“Uh... that Native Elf?” A ranger beside her replied with a strange expression on his face.

Chapter 1089: Can you still have a beautiful girl's heart?

“Well, my lord, it's over there...”

As her subordinate led the way, Vaughn quickly found the temporary tent where Li Goudan was. On a temporary air mattress, the Little Wind Demon was sleeping in a standard large sleeping position. She was snoring very soundly.

The corner of Vaughn's mouth twitched slightly. After checking for a while, she frowned and asked, “What's going on? Why is his stamina so exhausted?”

She remembered that Little Eggface had stopped training for two hours before she came here. She had even drunk a high-level nutrient solution that replenished her energy. She shouldn't be so tired.

Her subordinate immediately sighed. “After you left, she tried to escape several times. We've caught her back and forth more than ten times...”

BoxNovel.com

“I've only been out for a few hours? Even if I was escaping, my energy consumption was so great?” Vivian continued to ask.

She was very concerned about the little elf's health. If there were any hidden dangers, she would have to prepare in advance.

“Well... I'm not sure...” the ranger in charge of the report scratched his head in embarrassment. “Maybe he used some secret technique...”

“Oh?” Vivian raised her eyebrows. “Tell me...”

Seeing that Vivian, who was usually quiet, asked so carefully this time, the ranger in charge of the report didn't dare to be negligent, he quickly said, “I was in charge of catching her before she escaped. I almost lost her once. It was also that time that I found out that this little wind demon might have mastered some unknown secret technique.”

“A level-13 ranger like you almost got lost by a level-5 Little Wind Demon?” Vivian looked at him with a faint smile.

The Man's face turned red, apparently, he also felt a little embarrassed. "Sir, this little wind demon is a little special. Although she looks like a level-5 tree ring level ranger, her explosive power is definitely on the level of an Ordinary Level-7 Ranger. The most important thing is that strange secret technique. Once, I followed her to a cave, and she directly went through the wall and left. The strange thing is that she didn't leave any space traces. I couldn't find the coordinates for a moment, and I really thought that she took them off!"

"She went through the wall?" Vaughn's eyes lit up. "Are you sure?"

"I'm sure!" The ranger quickly said, "She went in through the rock wall. If it was a normal space jump, we could lock onto the coordinates to track her, but that was definitely not the case. How should I put it? "Her body became a little strange at that time, as if she suddenly merged with the rock."

"What happened after that? How did you catch her?"

"Later, I wasn't in a hurry to leave that place. After searching carefully, I found her stuck in the mountain rock in a corner. I was stunned when I saw her..."

Vivian: "..."

"I understand. You can leave now..."

"Yes, my Lord!"

Seeing that Vivian had let him go, the ranger heaved a sigh of relief and retreated from the tent.

After the Ranger left, Vivian quickly stepped forward and touched Eggface's bones. Eggface was woken up by her touch. He looked at Vivian in a daze and felt wronged. "You pervert, what are you doing now?"

Vivian rolled her eyes and patted Eggface's head. "Go to sleep!"

The Pat was gentle, but Eggface was stunned for a moment before he really fell asleep again.

After carefully groping around, Vaughn heaved a sigh of relief and muttered, "The bones are intact, there's no deformation after elemental transformation..." "..." This little girl was quite bold.

According to the Ranger's description, she understood the situation. It should be that Eggface had used the breathing technique to elementalize himself in order to get out of the rock wall. However, because he had just learned it, there was a mistake in his operation., in addition, the person who was chasing her did not fall for the trap and leave immediately. As a result, she had stayed in the rock for a longer period of time and could not continue to persist. As a result, her elementalization was canceled and she was stuck inside.

However, even if she did not succeed completely, it was already far beyond Vaughn's expectations that she could do this. According to her previous calculations, this little girl would need at least three months to learn elementalization. It would take her at least half a year to become proficient!

She also needed special equipment to conduct tutoring, but she did not expect to be able to do this in such a harsh environment with just the basic things she taught. This little girl... ..

“SNORE... damn pervert...” Li Goudan muttered while snoring.

The corners of Vivian’s eyes twitched slightly. She could not help but pinch the other party’s face, but she did not dare to use too much force. She felt helpless.

However, she thought that any teacher who met such a seedling would feel the same way?

His skeleton and physique were all top-notch standards. He was already a very rare seedling. Now, it seemed that his learning aptitude was also top-notch. Vien had once taught at the Gale Academy and had seen many direct descendants of large families. To be honest, the gap between him and Goudan was not just a little. The successor of the current generation of the number one family in the dark night, the shadow song family, did not have Goudan’s performance when he was learning the breathing technique.

This girl... was not at the level of the Royal Family?

Vaughn narrowed her eyes, but then she shook her head in amusement. She sighed inwardly at her own greed. It was already the heavens giving her face to have a descendant of a top-notch noble family. What was she thinking...

The royal family. In the entire elven family, only the starry elves, who were rich in sacrifices, and the stormwind family, who were rich in druids, could be considered the royal family. Moreover, they were all accumulated over hundreds of millions of eras. Even if the ordinary aborigines occasionally had their seeds explode..., it would still be impossible for them to reach that level.

However, even so, they could still be considered immortals. If they were properly nurtured, it was not impossible for them to compete with Andoine’s children!

Thinking of this, she gently folded the dog egg’s wings that were exposed on the outside to her back. Then, she tidied up her ugly sleeping posture before slowly standing up and leaving the tent.

After this mission was over, she had to contact the old professor in the Zephyr Academy and prepare a school record for her. The Zephyr Academy had the best ranger training equipment and professional body sculpting instructors, allowing her to receive the best training.

This little girl was under a low-level lord, relying on some amateur body sculpting masters... ... There might not even be such a thing as a body sculpting master. It was truly fortunate that her skeleton was able to grow so well.

However, this matter could not continue like this forever. After he took over, he had to find a top-notch body sculpting master to meticulously arrange for her growth. He absolutely could not let her grow crooked.

However, the problem now was the Lord’s contract on the other party. The God’s contract could not be removed externally, and the contract on Goudan clearly did not disappear. This proved that her lord was still alive. If she wanted to take Goudan away, she had to find him first... ..

Thinking of this, Vivian looked at the dark sky and thought to herself, “It’s interesting to be able to survive under Andrew’s hands. Moreover, he even trained a native like Goudan. I wonder what kind of person he is.”.

At this moment, Seer, who was thousands of kilometers away, suddenly sneezed. Then, she looked around inexplicably and frowned. She seemed to have this reaction every time she was being remembered. Which one was it this time?

“What are you doing?” Ryan glanced at Seer, who was looking around blindly.

“There should be a beauty thinking about me again!” Seer said seriously.

“You use the word ‘again’ very well!” Rennes sneered, “How can a beauty miss you after you bring such a thing?”

“Ha...” seer sneered and didn’t say anything. The reason why she brought this thing was because she was being missed by a terrifying beauty, okay?

Chapter 1090: Repentant Ryan? (part one)

What should they do now?

In Seer’s group, Sophia, who had been standing at the back of the group, looked calm, but she was getting more and more anxious.

Especially when she saw Ryan and his cousin, who he had framed, talking and laughing, she couldn’t help but feel anxious.

If she had known that the higher-ups had secretly offered Rennes a blood sacrifice and that they would come over so quickly, she would never have agreed to let Rennes work with this strange little god.

As a result, she had been forced to stay by Rennes’s side and was unable to transmit the latest information. The most important thing was that this information was extremely important!

Seer and Rennes were currently following the main group of human survivors. and the more they followed that direction, the more Sofia felt an incredible energy.

It was obvious that the direction the survivors were heading towards was the secret of this planet, a secret as to why Andrew would use a grade 7 planet as his base of operations, a secret that could make Andrew unable to completely control the planet!

This information was extremely important, and they had to inform the higher-ups as soon as possible. However, there was little hope of getting this information out.

Originally... ... If the higher-ups hadn’t given Rennes a blood sacrifice, they would have had a chance... ...

“Where’s your subordinate? Why Can’t I See Him?” Rennes sat on the ground to recuperate, he drank the top-notch nutrient solution in his spatial bag to recover his physical strength. Seer, on the other hand, unceremoniously took out a bottle of nutrient solution from Rennes. He turned around, opened the small device on his helmet, and exposed his mouth..., she gulped down the nutrient solution.

Rennes rolled his eyes when he saw this and thought to himself, "Is this kid disfigured or something?"? He even hid it when he was eating!

As seer drank the nutrient solution, she could not help but sigh in her heart. It was so good to be rich!

The nutrient solution in her base was the crude version of the official version. The taste was average and the nutrient content was not comprehensive. It was unlike the high-grade product that the other party used. Not only was the energy replenishment technology extremely fine, but the burden on the body was also small, the taste was also first-class and powerful. After one mouthful, the body and mind felt extremely comfortable.

Of course, the corresponding price was also extremely expensive. At the very least, Seer knew that the high-grade nutrient fluids in front of her seemed to cost a million per bottle... ..

"The principal? Oh, he went to set up a spatial barrier..."Seer was a little higher up and put the remaining half of the nutrient fluid into her space bag, then, he directly took a few bottles from Rennes. Rennes felt so poor that his eyes twitched.

"Set up a space enchantment?"

"Yeah, do you think it's easy to hide from your colleague?"Seer yawned and said, "That's the blood demon, the top tracker in the abyss. For your safety, cousin, I have to put in a lot of effort."

As he said that, he actually found a place to take a nap. His relaxed and relaxed attitude made Ryan's expression even more strange.

Seeing this, Sophia moved slightly closer to Ryan and gave him a look.

Seeing this, Ryan silently took a step back and ignored him.

Seeing this, Sophia became anxious and finally transmitted her voice, "What are you thinking about? It's the best opportunity to kidnap him at this time!"

"Why would I kidnap him?"Ryan replied lazily, "He's my biological younger brother. They're connected by blood!"

Sophia's mouth twitched when she heard his extortion tone. This guy is talking about blood connection with me now? Wasn't it quite convenient to sell your cousin before?

Of course, she also knew that the situation was different now. After all, they were the ones who were unfair to Ryan, so it was natural for him to raise the price.

"What conditions do you want?"Sophia asked directly.

"I won't do anything now..."Rene said lightly, "Do you think my cousin is stupid? He is so unguarded in front of us? He is sure that I can only rely on him now."

"Listen!"Sophia said anxiously, "I found an extremely important piece of information. This information is very likely to give us the initiative to control this planet. Once it is verified, it will be a great contribution, and it is possible for you to be promoted to star Commander!"

“Star Commander?” Ryan sneered. “Before I came here, there was a rumor that I was the one who was most likely to become the youngest star commander under Lord Bolton. What was the result?”

Sophia: “...”

“I can guarantee that Lord Sab will not lay a hand on you!”

“What guarantee do you have!”

“You...”

“Enough...” Ryan waved his hand impatiently. He looked a little tired and said, “Stop wasting your breath. Some things just happen. I will not trust your Bolton Force Anymore!”

As soon as he said this, Sophia’s heart instantly turned cold. This kid was going to draw a line between himself and Lord Bolton!

“Think it through!”

“Of course I think it through...” Ryan said tiredly. “After this matter is over, I will go to the federation and apply for the cancellation of the God’s contract.”

“Lord Bolton will not let you off easily!”

“Even if he doesn’t let you off, he has to. I have evidence of you persecuting your employees. The federation has a basic protection law. Is it really because the god’s overlord can do whatever he wants?” Ryan sneered. “Only you bumpkins who ran out of the Abyss would do such a thing. Don’t worry. Once this matter is over and spread, all the families will completely ban that Lord Bolton of yours!”

“You...”

Sofia’s face immediately turned gloomy as she coldly stared at the other party.

Truthfully speaking, she didn’t understand why her lord would do such a thing. Just like what Rennes had said, once this matter was leaked out, Bolton would be completely ostracized by the Federation family. This was a major matter that would harm his foundation!

“Young man, you seem to have thought things through...” an aged voice sounded out, the two of them were shocked. When they turned around, they found that a golden jelly-like object had suddenly appeared beside them and was looking at them with a smile.

It was the principal.

“Senior, isn’t it not good to eavesdrop like this?” Ryan narrowed his eyes and asked.

“What do you mean by eavesdropping?” The principal smiled and said, “I’m just standing here. You were too engrossed in your conversation and didn’t notice me...”

The two of them rolled their eyes. They were using voice transmission. If you didn’t eavesdrop, how would you know what they were talking about?

“Didn’t senior go to set up the Enchantment?” Sophia asked with a smile. “You came back so soon?”

“Ah, don’t mention it!”The principal stretched out his jelly-like hand and hammered his waist. “I worked hard for half a day, but it turned out to be a waste of effort!”

“Why do you say that?”Sophia asked hurriedly. Ryan was also nervous. He was relying on this big shot to avoid Saab’s pursuit. If he couldn’t do it., he definitely couldn’t survive from Saab!

“Don’t you feel it?”The principal looked at Ryan and said with a smile, “The strange feeling has disappeared?”

“HMM?”Rennes was stunned when he heard that. Then, he looked at himself and realized that the runes of the blood sacrifice on his body had become dimmer and showed signs of fading.

“What’s the situation?”

“There are only two situations!”The principal said faintly, “Either the blood demon has given up on the blood sacrifice to you, or... The blood demon is dead!”
