Chapter 1091: Antiques...

“Impossible!”

Without waiting for Ryan to speak, Sophia was the first to retort in disbelief!

“What do you mean by ‘impossible?’” The principal looked at her with a smile. “Does it mean that the blood demon couldn’t have stopped the blood sacrifice, or that it couldn’t have been injured by accident?”

Sophia was stunned by the question. Of course, she subconsciously wanted to say that SAB couldn’t have been injured, but she didn’t believe that SAB had stopped the blood sacrifice himself.

‘could it be...’.

BoxNovel.com

Sophia felt a little uneasy...

Ryan’s eyes flickered as he muttered, ‘something happened to Sab?’. ‘interesting...’

‘If Sab wasn’t here, some things could be discussed...’.

Just as Raine was thinking this, a faint smile appeared on the sleeping helmet in the distance. . .

On the fifth day of the March, Bill received the most reassuring news of all.

“My Lord, Lord Goron is here!”

“Take me there!”

At this time the injury has not yet healed Billy appears very excited, covered with bandages, she ignored the doctor to stop, quickly walked outside.

After leaving the tent, he saw a large group of people outside. In the middle was the reinforcement sent by the higher-ups: Gerald. Duran!

Seeing that familiar old face, Billy’s nervous mood immediately relaxed. Even his complexion was much better.

It was a kind of peace of mind, a kind of peace of mind brought by complete trust.

This short change in his mind made the adjutant beside him stunned. He did not understand why the usually strict sir would have such an obvious mental slackness.

Although Sir had cooperated with Lady Vienne to capture the blood demon Saab, he had been extremely nervous these days. It was obvious that he was worried about what would happen to the imprisoned Saab, at the same time, he was worried that Saab’s troops would launch an unexpected attack on the rescue team.

Although he appeared to trust Lady Vienne, the adjutant who knew Sir Billy knew that Sir still had doubts. Even with the powerful Lady Vienne in the team, sir was still very nervous.

However, this kind of nervousness disappeared without a trace after Sir Gerald arrived... ..

This made the adjutant even more curious.

As an intelligence adjutant, he had been in this faction for a million years, but he knew very little about Sir Gerald's situation. The only thing he knew was that Sir Gerald had lived for a very long time, an extremely long time.., it was as if he was an ancient person who had come alive during the era of the catastrophe era.

How Old was the era of the catastrophe? Perhaps his own family had yet to begin their enlightenment. That was the first time the undead from the death realm had invaded the living world. Before that, the entire universe federation was much more harmonious than it was now.., the Abyss, the death realm, and the evil god space basically only existed in the theories of the academic world. It had been countless trillions of eras since then.

Those who could come back to life from that time were all antique level characters.

The star level was indeed immortal, but things in the universe were not fixed. The rise of the strong was usually affected by many causes and effects. Very few people who reached the star level would be able to remain stable forever, Jun Bu saw that even the ten supreme sky gods had fallen, let alone ordinary star level powerhouses.

After countless eras, who knew how many interstellar powerhouses had fallen, those who were able to survive till now were definitely extremely rare.

From this point of view, this lord Ge Long was indeed a character.

But this didn't mean that he was necessarily powerful.

The older he got, the more powerful he became. This wasn't completely established in the universe, at least on Ge Long. Because if he was powerful enough, after so much time, he would have long stepped into the fate level and entered the imperial family's power.

He wasn't like now, with a rotten aura all over his body.

As for why an undying star level powerhouse would reveal such a serious rotten aura, the adjutant wasn't completely clear about it. He probably knew that this was a secret about star level powerhouses. Normally, it wouldn't be revealed to outsiders, even for people like them who specialized in intelligence, they basically couldn't find any information about this.

Although they didn't know the reason, it was a fact that this lord was very weak.

Yes, very weak. In the million years he had joined Lord Vogu's power, he hadn't met this Lord Goron more than five times. The rest of the time, this lord was in hibernation, and it was an extremely expensive freezing hibernation.

Every year, Lord Vogu needed a large amount of money to maintain Goron's hibernation, including super high-quality freezing technology and the hiring of all kinds of master-level nutritionists and shapeshifters, the amount of money spent was almost double the salary of hiring Lord Vienne!

In his opinion, this was an extremely uneconomic deal. Lord Vienne's salary was not low, but after coming to Vogu's faction, she had completed several missions perfectly, bringing huge benefits to the faction. Although many Rangers in the faction did not like her..., he had to admit that she was indeed worth that price.

But this grandfather...

In his opinion, he was really a grandfather. At least during the time he had joined the faction, he had never seen this grandfather make even a single contribution to the faction.

He really did not understand why the Lord would raise such a fellow. An old fellow who had been dormant in the freezer all year round, did he really have the ability to fight?

Thinking of this, the adjutant looked at Geron. Just like before, he still looked extremely old. To be honest, in this situation, he did not think it was strange for him to die in the next second... ..

"Long time no see, Lord Gerald..." Billy came forward and bowed respectfully.

"Oh, hehehe..." Gerald laughed like an old man next door. Then, he looked at Billy up and down and said, "You were beaten up pretty badly!"

"Haha..." Billy immediately scratched his head embarrassedly. "Sorry to make you laugh, Lord." He sounded like a junior.

"Actually, you don't have to fight so hard..." Gerald laughed. "Vien is stronger than you think. It's not necessary for you to use this trick."

Billy smiled bitterly. She only saw Vien's strength after the battle. It seemed that she didn't need to do anything unnecessary, but for some reason, she felt that... .. It seemed to have gone too smoothly.

But no matter what, with this lord here, she could be at ease... ..

Others might not know, but she knew very well that this lord was different.

"Oh right..." goron suddenly said, "How's Your Injury?"

Billy smiled. "Thank you for your concern, Lord Goron. It's not a big deal..."

"Be more specific..." goron quickly said, "I remember that the blood demons' energy is very destructive to cells. With your injury, you need to do at least three operations to regenerate and debride your blood and flesh, right?"

"Eh?" Billy was stunned, then he nodded. "It's like this..."

"When will the next operation be done? Why don't we do it now? I can let that little guy watch and observe..."

"Little guy?" Billy looked at him in surprise.

“Let me tell you...”Gerald leaned closer to Billy and whispered, “I just picked up a treasure!”

Billy:” ...”

Chapter 1092: he did it on purpose!

“Are you sure that your brother will contact that side?”In an extremely complicated independent space, the principal who had used up too much energy to restore the slime body asked seer curiously.

“Of course he will...”seer stretched lazily, the high-purity nutrient solution was indeed not something that he could digest quickly at his current level. The high energy caused his body to need more time to digest, making his brain drowsy. He really wanted to sleep more.

However, even if a large amount of blood entered his stomach to digest and his brain was deprived of oxygen, it did not prevent him from answering the principal’s question.

Because... He knew his cousin, and even his cousin’s family too well... ..

His mother had once had a very accurate evaluation of his uncle’s family. They were a bunch of short-sighted people.

BoxNovel.com

His uncle was very short-sighted. He was able to completely sell out the entire family’s interests for the sake of his family. That was why he had all sorts of designs that his parents’genes had been scammed into. However, he had never thought that the family itself would weaken.., even if you obtained the family’s power, it would still shrink.

At that time, Seer had gone out as a sky god. Rene’s position as the family’s heir was already set in stone. No one would come and compete with Rene for the position of the family’s heir. However, even so, for some unfounded concerns.., they had suppressed seer, whom the family had spent a large amount of resources to nurture, and suppressed Seer’s parents, who were rare in the Eldia family to become dragon-level powerhouses.

The chance for the Eldia family to become a noble had been forcefully destroyed!

His son, on the other hand, was even more outstanding. In order to obtain results in a short period of time and gain the recognition of his family members, he had no qualms about joining a pure demon force.

In the Federation, everyone knew that the worst thing to do than making a deal with a goblin was to make a deal with a demon. That was because a goblin would only make you lose money. There was a high probability that a demon would make you lose your life!

Lord Bolton was a pure demon force. More than half of his direct descendants were pure demons that were brought out of the abyss. Would he really value outsiders in such a force?

Even if he had a brain, he wouldn’t believe it.

But Rennes believed it. Of course, this didn’t mean that he was an idiot. It could only mean that he was easily willing to sacrifice something that he thought could be traded for short-term benefits.

Of course, he knew that Bolton would not really let him enter the core of the organization, but he did not care. In his plan, as long as he could become an interstellar marshal in Bolton's organization, with this resume, his future would naturally be brighter after he jumped ship, in order to achieve this goal, he was even willing to let his family join Bolton's organization. He was not worried about the consequences at all. It should be said that he was willing to take this risk.

Because he didn't care about his family. Just like his father, he only cared about himself.

This habit of pursuing immediate interests was lifelong, even if the incident happened to him.

Previously, he was determined not to contact the Bolton Force because Saab's blood sacrifice was a direct threat to himself. It was what he cared about the most!

However, when he learned that something had happened to Saab, his vigilance would slowly weaken. Instead, he would focus his attention on benefits.

Just like what Sofia, the embrace of death, had said, the information they had obtained this time was extremely valuable. If it had been a meritorious deed, it would have given Ryan a lot of things.

Therefore, after Saab's threat disappeared, Ryan would definitely have some thoughts in his mind.

Seer had even guessed what he was thinking. If Saab was in trouble and the most direct threat was gone, then it was not impossible for him to take back the betrayal.

In any case, he was not that loyal to Bolton.

There was a high probability that he would secretly contact Bolton's forces through a scroll to negotiate. He would even take out the matter of his blood sacrifice to negotiate, promising that he would not expose this matter in exchange for more benefits.

After listening to Seer's description of Ryan, the principal nodded, but then asked, "Then are you sure that this is a trap?"

Seer smiled and said, "I guess it is..."

"Oh? That's interesting..."

In Billy Base, the team that Goron had brought along, other than the soap disguised as Bernie and Jessica, naturally included the cabbages.

As soon as the Minotaur entered the camp, he noticed Saab who was locked up in the freezer.

"What's the situation?" Alice asked, still looking like a scholar.

"That's an extremely high-level blood demon. The purity of its bloodline is very high, probably at the noble level. This kind of pure-blooded demon is at the star level. It's rare to see it captured alive."

"Maybe the person who captured him is strong enough?" Alice smiled.

The Minotaur looked at the freezing device and shook his head slightly. "I don't think that's the case..."

“Is this the treasure you were talking about, sir?”

In the tent, Billy looked at the little guy that Gerald was carefully protecting with a strange expression on his face.

This expression, this action, seemed to be similar to a certain guy a few days ago... ..

But it was more obvious.

“This is a rare treasure...” Gerald rubbed his hands and said, “Wood elves, high purity blood, this kind of native explosive seed, many old guys will never see one in their entire lives!”

“High purity blood? How High?” Billy looked at the little guy who had some baby fat. The Little Guy was not afraid of strangers, after entering the tent, he looked around like a curious baby.

It was the cabbage that was brought here with the Minotaurs.

“Very high... we have to go back and test how high it is, but at least... It won't be lower than the royal level!” Gerald laughed.

“Royal Level?” Billy was stunned. Then, he looked at the cabbage carefully. It was a little unbelievable. The probability of a native's seed exploding to the king level was definitely less than one in a billion. Moreover, it was a wood elf?

Wait a minute...

Billy suddenly frowned. He thought of a question. What was the species of the little guy under Vaughn?

Vaughn was very well-protected. That day, he didn't take a closer look. Now that he thought about it, those jade-like pupils and those unique patterns, weren't they wood elves?

With Vaughn's almost falling out with him, she was probably at that level too, right?

This was a little strange...

If it was a pure-blooded wood elf, it would be understandable, because there would occasionally be one among the natives that was extremely compatible with these ancient genes. The probability was very small, so small that it was almost negligible, but it was not impossible.

That was why there would occasionally be those high-level Green Titans or wood elves in the universe. But because they used ancient genes, there was no decoding of the genes, so they could not reproduce or purify the genes, there was no way to create a family.

However, it was abnormal for two to appear at once...

Or was it because the little lord was too lucky?

After thinking for a while, he couldn't think of a reason. Billy shook his head and stopped thinking about it. After all, he had more urgent matters to consider.

“Let's not talk about this first, sir. I have something to ask you to confirm.”

“What is it?”

“Saab? The blood demon locked up outside?” Goron asked while yawning.

“Well...” Billy nodded. “I feel that it went too smoothly. There’s... There’s...”

“There’s a feeling that the other party did it on Purpose?” Goron said on Billy’s behalf.

“Yes!” Billy nodded.

“About that...” Goron smiled and said, “Your feeling is right, he did it on purpose!”

Billy was shocked and was about to say something when a figure flashed in from outside the tent. It was Billy’s adjutant, Bonn. Bonn looked flustered and said, “Sir, SAB... Sab ran away! !”

Billy: “! ! !”

Chapter 1093: Saab’s true purpose

“What’s the situation?”

Billy quickly walked out of the tent and asked with a livid face when he saw the mess on the scene.

She saw at a glance that the freezing device that was originally used to hold Saab had been twisted into pieces, and there was broken space everywhere. The black hole effect had caused the entire camp to fall into chaos, the engineering team took out tools one after another and began to repair the space around them.

“Sir...” the Ranger captain who was in charge of imprisoning Saab stepped forward with a defeated look, ready to be reprimanded.

Billy frowned and asked, “Didn’t I tell you to freeze every three hours?”

BoxNovel.com

“We did exactly as you said, sir...” the captain quickly said, “Moreover, the cell activity of Saab, which has been monitored 24 hours a day, has always shown a low activity state, but I didn’t expect...”

“What didn’t expect?”

“I didn’t expect it to break free from Lord Vaughn’s magic lock arrow in such a close to dormant state, and it has such a terrifying explosive force...”

Billy looked at the space region that had been smashed into pieces for almost a few kilometers, and he couldn’t help but swallow his saliva. The explosive force was indeed amazing, and he couldn’t help but ask, “Are you sure that he suddenly exploded while his cells were dormant?”

“I’m sure!” The captain quickly nodded. “Ever since the adults gave me Saab, my eyes have never left that data device.”

Billy could not help but take a breath and thought to himself, “How did he do that?”

Warriors had very strong explosive power, especially some berserkers who had secret skills. It was normal for them to suddenly explode with strength that was two to three times higher than their basic attributes after activating their bloodline. However, this required a process.

Even if a berserker was not a berserker, he still needed his blood essence to explode and stimulate the activity of his cells, causing a large amount of blood to rush into his muscles. Only then could he have the power to explode, just like how a car needed crude oil, he needed to burn the energy that he usually stored in order to function properly.

To directly explode from a dormant state, this was against the common sense of living creatures!

“Burning blood... “...” An old voice sounded behind Billy, “Blood demon secret art, usually only the noble blood demon family has this kind of inheritance. It can instantly burn blood essence to make your body in a state of full explosion, without any preparation time. It’s a very troublesome secret art. To be honest, if it weren’t for the fact that the blood demon’s talent in stealth isn’t that good, it could even replace the night elves as the top assassin race.”

“You Old Man, you’re still so annoying. Did the night elves provoke you?”

Before Billy could say anything, Vivian’s cold voice suddenly sounded.

“Hehe...” looking at the cold face of Vivian, Gerald laughed and said, “I’m just confirming the status of the night elves. You Little Girl, why can’t You Understand Me?”

Vivian: “Hehe...”

“Vivian?” Billy looked at Vivian behind him and quickly asked, “When did you come?”

“I’ve been in the camp...” Vivian said faintly.

“In the camp?” Billy was stunned. “Even you couldn’t stop him from escaping?”

Vivian was silent for a while, and finally said, “I didn’t stop him...”

Billy was stunned. “Why?”

“His speed was amazing. I wanted to try to stop him, so I rushed towards the little guy, forcing me to stay by the little guy’s side and not dare to act Rashly.”

“That’s Saab. You let him go just like that?” Billy was a little annoyed. “For a little native?”

“Ha...” Vivian sneered. “His life is not even as good as that little guy’s hair. Besides, if you didn’t have a mean mouth back then, would that guy have wanted to do that?”

Billy: “...”

She suddenly felt like slapping herself...

It was true that you didn’t say it. If he hadn’t revealed the information that Wayne valued that little aborigine when he captured Sab, Sab would definitely not have thought of this trick. Then, with Wayne and Gerald around.., even if he had a secret skill, he might not be able to escape so easily!

Wait a minute...

Billy suddenly remembered something and turned to Goron. "Sir, did you not notice the outside?"

According to her understanding of Goron, this Sir's spiritual power was almost at the threshold of the legendary level. He was very powerful. Even if the tent was isolated by a barrier, he shouldn't have been unresponsive to the big movements outside.

"Oh..."Gerald said faintly, "I noticed..."

"Then you..."

"Isn't it... like the Vienne girl, there's something to protect..."Gerald said with a smile.

"UH..."

Billy remembered the baby fat flower spirit in the tent.

These two guys...

Billy suddenly didn't know what to say. He had suffered such a serious injury, and the people he finally caught were gone just like that. These two masters looked like they had nothing to do with him, which made her feel more and more pain in her wounds.

"Don't be agitated..."Gerald's kind figure said, "It won't be good if the wounds jump..."

Billy:" ..."

"You don't have to worry too much..."Vivian also said, "His movements are too big, and there are many traces left behind. It Won't be difficult to track him down."

"What's the use of tracking him down?"Billy sighed. "The previous plan was to catch him at the lowest cost. After he suffered this time, he will definitely be more cautious than before. It will be a hundred times more difficult to catch him again. If we send people to catch him now, we might face a huge loss. It's not worth it."

"Not necessarily..."Gerald smiled. "Although it's a little troublesome, it's not worth it. It might be very worth it."

"HMM?"Billy glanced at Gerald. He obviously didn't expect him to say that. After a few seconds, he suddenly realized that old Gerald had told her in the tent that Saab was caught on purpose... ...

Thinking of this, Billy immediately calmed down and fell into deep thought... ...

On purpose...

If what he said was true, then there might be something going on. After all... ... The other party definitely didn't eat too much and deliberately wanted to be tortured and captured, right?

Billy quickly thought about the other party's motive.

Why did he do that?

The high-level brain was running like billions of smart computers, analyzing every possibility of data. In less than 0.1 seconds, Billy locked on the crux of the problem.

It was about the subordinate who was sacrificed! ! !

--

Three hours ago...

Looking at the mark on his arm, Ryan recalled the knowledge about the blood demon.

The blood sacrifice belonged to the contract blood essence released by the blood demon. Once activated, it would share some memories with the victim, especially some stimulating fragments, which could be easily captured.

As he felt the blood essence left in his body, he could vaguely see the entire process of Saab being captured. He was instantly delighted. It seemed that slime was right. Something had really happened to Saab...

Recalling the scene just now, Rennes was gloating in his heart. This guy had always been arrogant and didn't put anyone in his eyes. Now, he was doomed!

After thinking for a while, Ryan finally picked up the hidden scroll... ..

Chapter 1094: Negotiation!

At this moment, in the far north, a well-equipped and powerful black-armored army was carefully moving forward. Under the pitch-black armor, there were pairs of scarlet eyes, each of them exuding a powerful aura.

Those who were familiar with Bolton's forces would definitely be able to recognize that this was the elite team of the Blood Demon Army, one of the nine ace armies under Bolton. It was also the blood demon Saab's personal guard team!

Compared to Saab, who was flying in the air like a wave, this team appeared to be quite strict. The arrangements for scouting and the rotation of vigilance along the way were also very professional and orderly. It was like a highly efficient machine operating with precision.

"Master Evil..."

At the front of the team, a tall blood demon female slowly walked to the side of a pitch-black shadow that seemed to be standing up. "There's news from Rennes..."

BoxNovel.com

The black shadow named Sha Ji nodded slightly when he heard this. His hoarse voice slowly came from under his cloak. "How did he contact us?"

"Blood sacrifice..." the blood demoness officer lowered her head and replied with a slightly complicated expression.

"Heh..." sha ji let out a strange laugh. "Interesting..."

In the original situation, the laws here interfered, and the ordinary communicators were basically ineffective. It was difficult for them to lock on to Rennes' location. In order to seize the initiative, Lord Bolton chose to let them use the blood sacrifice hidden in Rennes' body.

In Bolton's eyes, after confirming that Rennes was not the lord of fate, his value was naturally not worth mentioning compared to seizing the opportunity of this mission.

However, neither Bolton nor Saab had expected that a thunder warrior who was not even level-16, an ant that was still a distance away from dragon-level, would actually have the ability to resist the blood sacrifice, no one would have thought that a high-level spatial warlock would appear to protect him.

According to Saab, this Space Warlock's methods were extremely brilliant. He used multiple overlapping space spells and mixed in the interference of unknown elements from the collected dimensional space, preventing him from locking onto Rennes' location through the blood sacrifice, even if they were to activate the blood sacrifice again, it would take at least ten days. This was obviously not in line with their strategy of seizing the initiative.

Moreover, the consumption on the battlefield above could not afford to waste more than a dozen days.

"Maintain the blood sacrifice connection... leave the rest to me..."

"Yes, Lord Shaji!" After the blood demon officer replied respectfully, he and the other three general-level blood demon officers stabbed their hands into their hearts at the same time. Their bodies turned dark red.

As the officers of Saab's direct line of troops, they all had the blood essence given by Saab. When necessary, they could be used as weapons. However, at this moment, they were used to strengthen the effect of the blood sacrifice.

At the same time, the shadow known as baleful became even more blurry. After a strange spell effect, the surrounding space became extremely strange. The river flowed backwards, the world turned upside down, it was as if all the laws were reversed.

If there were any high-end scholars who were proficient in the study of demons here, they would definitely be able to recognize that this was a secret technique unique to the advanced demons of the Abyss: The Nightmare Race!

At this moment, in an independent space, the corner of Ryan's mouth curled up slightly as he closed his eyes to recover his physical strength. Soon, he fell into a deep sleep.

Meanwhile, Sophia, who was standing guard by the side, had a complicated expression on her face. For a moment, she didn't know what to say.

In a chaotic space, Ryan's tall figure slowly walked into the layers of dense fog and approached the blurry shadow in the fog.

"Master Shaji..." Ryan walked nearly ten feet away and slightly bowed to a warrior. In the mist, the Black Shadow looked at Ryan, and a strange look flashed through his dark pupils.

Remember some time ago, this little guy learned the etiquette of the demon race very well, many pureblood demons did not do as well as him, as if determined to blend in with them, and at this time the other party's stance and etiquette. Was clearly a standard thunder warrior... ..

"Are you sure that I will definitely be there?" Baleful's hoarse voice carried traces of curiosity.

"I'm not very sure..." Rennes shrugged. "It's just a test. It's fine if I can't contact you. Perhaps there's a little less risk."

Baleful was silent for a moment when he heard that. Finally, he said, "If I say that the blood sacrifice on your body was Saab's private Act, do you believe that Lord Bolton doesn't know about it?"

"It doesn't matter whether I believe it or not..." Ryan smiled and spread his hands. "After this incident, even if I say that I trust Lord Bolton, Lord Bolton wouldn't trust me anymore, would he?"

"That's true..." Sha Ji nodded. "And then, you took the risk to meet me just to make your stance clear?"

"That's not it... I'm not that free..." Rennes grinned. "If the benevolence and righteousness don't work out, the business is still there..."

"Heh! !" Sha Ji sneered. "You're indeed a talent. It's a pity that the forces missed you..."

Rennes's smile faded slightly. When he thought of how he had devoted himself to serving for so many years, yet he had obtained such a result, it was impossible for him not to have some thoughts in his heart, he said coldly, "Isn't it meaningless to say these things now? My Lord, please tell me some conditions that can move my heart."

"If you want me to give you conditions, you must at least have something to offer, right?" Evil laughed.

"Sofia is still alive..." "..." "..." Ryan said lightly, "She has detected a very important piece of information that is related to this planet. Why is a level seven planet Andrew still unable to grasp it until now? It might have a lot to do with this information!"

"Oh?" Extreme evil smiled. "Your news is really explosive, but it sounds a little too empty, right? "How do you prove that Sophia is alive now?"? "And you also said that this information might only be related to Andrew's secret. What if it's just a misunderstanding?"

"Then there's no other way..." Ryan shrugged nonchalantly. "If you don't believe me, then so be it..."

As he spoke, he took a step back, as though he was about to leave the dream world.

"Wait a minute..." ultimate baleful did not continue to press him. He called out to Rennes, "What do you want?"

"Blood Essence Stones!" Rennes directly stated his conditions.

"You really dare to ask..." ultimate baleful's voice became a little gloomy.

Blood essence stones were equivalent to the spark of their planet's activation technology. It was the highest technological crystallization in the Bolton faction. The faction had spent hundreds of millions of years to research it, yet the other party really opened his mouth to ask for it.

If the other party were to get their hands on this thing, it could be sold to any biological lord for a sky-high price!

Rennes sneered, "At this point, why should I keep a low profile?"

"I can't make the decision on this thing..." Sha Ji said in a low voice.

"Then that's it..."

"Kid, don't Go Too Far!"

"My Lord, is there any point in wasting your breath like this?"

After a moment of silence, he finally replied in a low voice, "How do we trade?"

Rennes immediately smiled...

Chapter 1095: Cruel Choice

"Lord Luke... based on the current consumption, the rations in the troop can only last for four days at most..."

In the distant troop of Kate City, David, who had been promoted to logistics quartermaster, reported with a solemn expression.

In the tent, the other generals' faces became solemn after hearing the news. In an army troop, rations represented the last bit of confidence. Once this thing was gone, the hearts of the people that had been painstakingly gathered might very well fall apart.

After all, the current situation was so desperate that it was difficult for people to breathe. If the provisions were gone again, it was really hard to imagine what those numb-faced soldiers would do.

The key was that they did not even know where to find supplies... ..

BoxNovel.com

The vegetation visible to the naked eye along the way was infected. It was very obvious that the situation was exactly the same as the one in Kate City. Not to mention replenishing food, even replenishing water was extremely difficult.

The team was barely able to maintain order because of the shelter the orc had mentioned. The group of people held on desperately as if they were looking for a plum to quench their thirst. Even though the orc could not even tell them the exact location of the shelter..., however, the human instinct to survive made them feel like they had grasped onto the last straw and chose to believe him.

However, this kind of persistence was not without a bottom line. Every day's hardships were wearing down everyone's patience. The huge camel was now only one straw away from collapsing, and the news that the food supply was bottoming out..., it was very likely to be this last straw.

The tent fell into silence. The decision makers in the tent, including Luke and Bundy, were all silent. It was obvious that even they could not digest this news.

After a long time, Luke finally managed to come back to his senses. He smiled bitterly and said, "How many people know about this news?"

"The ones in charge of the grain are your trusted aides. They are very strict. They should not leak it..." David quickly said.

Luke sighed and nodded. This Old Knight of Bundy was indeed very meticulous. He seemed to have anticipated this situation a long time ago. He requested for his personal guards to help with the supervision and distribution of the grain, from the looks of it now, it was indeed a wise move.

However, this was only a slight delay because things would not disappear just because they were well hidden. In the end, the truth could not be kept secret.

"Cut the quota..." Luke sighed and said. The current situation could only be like this. As long as it could be more than one day, it would be another day.

David was stunned. He wanted to say that the quota for most people was already very little. After all, everyone did not rest every day. Their daily schedule would exceed sixteen hours. With the little food they had now., it was already relying on amazing perseverance to be able to persist.

Of course, he could not refute it, because other than cutting the quota, he could not think of any good ideas.

Since the quota had been cut, they had to discuss which part of the quota to cut.

"Grom can't cut..." Bundy said first.

When he said this, no one in the tent refuted him. Although the orc's appetite was astonishing, and a person's appetite was equivalent to the rations of thousands of people, no one refuted him.

Not to mention that the orc was their only hope, just based on the contribution they had made along the way, no one was qualified to reduce his quota.

As the route was towards the south coast, they had encountered many mutated creatures during their journey through several big cities. Every time they encountered such a terrifying monster, it was basically this orc who stood up and killed them, now, he was the basic safety guarantee of the team. One person felt more effective than their entire army.

Many civilians even felt that their soldiers were unnecessary because they could not get involved in many battles.

The ORC quota could not be reduced, and neither could the officer's quota.

Their generals had already been reduced to the point that they could not be reduced any further. Their daily consumption was similar to that of ordinary officers, and it did not seem appropriate to reduce them to the same level as civilians.

They could not whittle the soldiers either. The mental pressure on the soldiers was extremely high, and they had to face the accusations of injustice from the civilians. They had already endured to the limit. If they were to whittle the military rations any further, it would probably lead to a mutiny.

After thinking about it, they could only whittle the civilians...

Luke thought for a moment and finally said, "If the quotas for women and children are not changed, and only the quotas for ordinary civilian men are reduced, how many more days can they last?"

These words made David, who was born a commoner, feel a little complicated, but he also knew that this was a measure of helplessness.

From a moral point of view, giving priority to women and children to a certain extent would make people more reasonable, especially the heads of the families. As the pillars of the family, it was probably acceptable for them to suffer a little and let their wives and children eat a little more.

Thinking of this, David Sighed and finally answered honestly, "If we cut the rations for all the ordinary men, we can save about three days' worth of rations."

"Only three days?" Luke frowned and was not satisfied with this number.

"Three days is barely enough..." David said with a bitter smile.

"What if we cut it to one-third?"

David was stunned. He felt that this was too ruthless. At least there had to be a process... .. Directly cutting it by one-third. With the current intensity of the journey, many people might not be able to last more than two days before they fell.

"That should be five days..."

"It's decided then!" Luke didn't wait for David to react and made the decision.

"This..." David looked around and wanted to ask for help from others, but he was surprised to find that everyone in the tent, including his old boss, Duke Bondi, had tacitly agreed to this decision.

He was puzzled. Before he could say anything, Bondi suddenly said, "Sometimes you have to give up when you should. It's good for many soldiers who are single and have lost their families to have fewer men."

"Eh?" This inexplicable sentence made David dumbfounded. However, he was also a smart person. After a few seconds of being stunned, he understood.

The adults wanted to completely give up on civilian men!

After coming to this conclusion, everything could be explained.

Most of the soldiers in the team either did not have a family, or their families had died in the chaos. 100,000 soldiers were all single men.

It must be known that from the current intelligence, these people were very likely the last people on the continent. From this, it seemed that the women in Kate City were also the last women on the continent.

By giving up on the civilian men, the women in their families could be freed up. In order to survive, the women needed to find a strong man to support their families, and the soldiers also needed a family to rely on, only then would they have a goal to strive for.

Kill two birds with one stone!

At the thought of this, David's heart suddenly felt cold. Although he knew that this decision was for the hope of the entire team's survival, but this... .. Wasn't this a little too much?

"No Need!"

Just when David didn't know how to reply, a mellow voice came from the entrance of the tent. Then, a huge and burly figure bent down and entered the tent.

David's spirits were lifted. The person who came was Brother Dog.

"Mr. Grom..." Luke saw that the orc had barged in to object, he frowned at first, but he still replied in a gentle tone, "This is also a helpless move. After all, we need more time to find the sanctuary that you mentioned. We have no choice but to give up some people because of this..."

"Tomorrow..." brother dog directly interrupted him.

"Ah?" Luke was stunned.

"Tomorrow, we will reach the destination!" Brother Dog said faintly.

Everyone: "!!!"

Chapter 1096 How Can I fish if I don't mess up?

"Tomorrow?"

The sudden words made everyone excited, including David, who had been spending time with Grom these days.

"Are... Are you sure?" Luke and Bundy immediately went forward and held brother dog's hand excitedly.

Brother Dog slapped their hands away in disgust and said lightly, "It should be a day's journey from here to South Sea city, right? David said so."

"South Sea City?" Luke was stunned. "The... The sanctuary is in South Sea City?"

BoxNovel.com

"Is there a problem?" Brother Dog said coldly.

"This..." Luke's expression became a little serious for a moment. The surrounding generals, including Bondi, looked puzzled. Apparently, they were not very convinced by this answer.

"Mr. Grom... are you talking about near South Sea city or inside South Sea City?" Luke confirmed again.

"Of course, inside. What's Near South Sea City? Gobi?" Brother Dog rolled his eyes at him.

"But South Sea city is a heavily mutated disaster area!" Luke said in confusion.

When the catastrophe came, although the powerhouses of the families in the king's city couldn't escape, the news of the fall of the imperial city was spread. Therefore, the nobles everywhere fell into chaos, and the northern nobles fled to the south one after another, they were stationed in White

Dragon City, Skye City, and other large cities in the south. As for the former Pearl of the southeast, South Sea city, it was naturally the first choice of the fleeing nobles.

But later on, these nobles discovered that south sea city might be even more dangerous than the imperial capital. Not only were there mutated creatures on land, but there were also terrifying beasts in the sea that had escaped the restrictions and walked onto land, the ferocity was more than ten times that of the land. Duke Kirsten's entire Black Dragon Army, who had gone to seize the opportunity, had all fallen there.

Bob, who was in their team, was one of the survivors who had returned from the South Sea trip. According to him, that place was simply hell. Now, it had become the place of protection that the Orcs had mentioned?

"Impossible, that place is definitely not a place of protection! !" Bob said excitedly in the tent, "There are only sharks that can run on land and sea snakes that are even bigger than the palace!"

As someone who had been to South Sea city personally, Bob knew how terrifying that place was. Endless Sea creatures climbed onto the shore and grew four limbs that were as terrifying as insects. They were like top-notch killing weapons that were crazily harvesting people's lives, as the strongest black dragon army in the north, that group of monsters was instantly submerged without a single bubble appearing. If he was not far away at that time, he would not even be able to escape.

Therefore, when they were getting closer and closer to the South Sea, Bob had been in a tense state for the past few days. When Brother Dog said that this was a place of protection, Bob couldn't help but explode.

He was almost sure that this orc was a liar, a complete liar! !

"Mr. Glom..." Luke said with a gloomy face, "According to our intelligence..."

"Your intelligence has nothing to do with me...". Brother dog interrupted him impatiently, "If you don't believe me, you can take your troops and leave, but those civilians have to stay. I promised them that I would bring them to a place of shelter. I, the orc man, never break my promise!"

"This..." Luke suddenly choked and looked around. Several generals, including Bundy, looked at each other, not knowing what to say. Brother Dog's expression was too confident, so confident that they began to doubt the intelligence.

What do we do?

Are We really going to leave with the soldiers? . But out here, they... ? . And Go Where?

All of a sudden, even Luke was lost... . .

At the same time, far away in the sea, isolated from the corrosive power of the absolute sea space, the Green Dragon's huge pupils opened again, full of life force of the eyes as if loaded with the whole world's vitality.

"Is he here?" The Green Dragon asked faintly.

“He’s here...”in the space, the voice in the void slowly responded to the green dragon.

“Are you sure you don’t need to pick him up?”The Green Dragon asked doubtfully. “The mutated things on the shore aren’t low-level...”

“If he’s the person in the prophecy, those things on the shore won’t be a problem for him. If he’s not, then there’s no need to pick him up... not to mention...”as he spoke, the voice in the void paused for a moment, with an inexplicable chill: “He has other guests behind him...”

“True...”the green dragon smiled. “After spending so much time in your shithole, I can finally see some excitement tomorrow...”

— — — —

“This position... . Is South Sea City?”Xi Ye looked at the traces of large troops on the road, the helmet under the frown.

“Is there a problem?”Rennes asked.

“That’s the sea...”. Seer gave a rare serious reply to Rennes. “Previously, the energy of the map of the Black Goat covered that area. Since the mutated creatures in the sea were even more troublesome, I had the players evacuate that area. Moreover, those aborigines should understand how dangerous the sea is now.”

“Oh?”Ryan was curious. “If that’s the case, why would they go there?”

“If you ask me, who should I ASK?”Seer rolled her eyes at him.

Ryan:“...”

After they walked for a while, Ryan turned around and looked at Sophia with a puzzled look. According to Seer, the South Sea should be the first area covered by the map of the Black Goat, it was highly likely that it was Andrew’s important biological weapons factory, but Sofia had previously said that there was an energy there resisting Andrew’s erosion?

Sofia gently shook her head at him, obviously still insisting on her own opinion.

Ryan did not say anything in the end. He was actually not very concerned about whether that place was really the situation that Sofia had mentioned, because in the contract with extreme certainty., he did not guarantee that the place was definitely the secret place hidden on the planet. That was just what Sophia had said.

Moreover, in the contract, there was a clear guarantee that no matter what the result was, Extremis could not attack Ryan, and he had to pay the blood essence stone first!

At this moment, Ryan was more concerned about when the blood essence stone would arrive and how to leave the place safely afterwards.

On the other side, Seer, who was walking in front, seemed to have not noticed Raine and Sophia’s small actions at all. However, she was secretly communicating with the principal through voice transmission.

“How is it?”Seer asked the principal quietly.

“As you said...” The principal narrowed his eyes slightly and said, “That kid is indeed secretly contacting his own forces. His methods are quite brilliant. He strengthened the effect of the blood sacrifice and made the other party use the secret techniques of the nightmare clan to secretly contact him. If I hadn’t studied the secret techniques of the nightmare clan, I would have been fooled. Your cousin is really bold and meticulous.”

“That’s true...” Xi ye sneered. “He’s bold and meticulous. Other than being a little stupid, my cousin has almost no flaws.”

The Principal:”...”

“Are you ready for tomorrow’s Game?” The principal finally said, “It might be more chaotic than you think.”

“It’s better if it’s chaotic...” xi ye said slowly, “How can I fish if it’s not chaotic?”

Chapter 1097: Plan

“There’s no problem with Ryan’s first wave of intelligence...”

The Blood Demon Army, who had arrived at the outskirts of Kate City, verified the traces in Ryan’s intelligence, he reported to baleful, “The traces of the battle here and traces of large-scale migration are all the same as what he said. Although the prototype of the few Andrew soldiers that Ryan mentioned has disappeared, the biological traces left behind have not disappeared. It should be the same as what he said.”

“But the bad news is that from the traces, another force is collecting large-scale biological collection here. If I’m not wrong, it should be the VOGU Force’s troops.”

Extremus nodded slightly. He looked at a tall silver-haired blood demon among all the high-level blood demons and asked, “The blood essence stone of the sixth battle star is in your hands, isn’t it?”

Everyone also looked at the silver-haired blood demon. She looked very young, but she was the deputy commander of the Fifth Legion. She was also the most powerful officer in the Blood Demon Legion, other than Saab: Vera. Mija

Vera looked at everyone’s eyes, and her exquisite facial features slightly frowned. After hesitating for a moment, she looked at Sha Ji and asked, “Sir, are you really going to trade the blood essence stone with that traitor?”

“What can we do?” Sha Ji said in a low voice, “That kid is very sneaky. The contract is this. If you can’t take it out, he won’t show up, and we won’t be able to get Sofia. In the current situation, Sofia’s role is very important. You just said that Vogu’s forces are already ahead of us. Without Sofia, what makes you think that we can find the secret first?”

“But...”

“Time is of the essence...” she interrupted him impatiently, “In order to buy time, Lord Bolton has already used the fallen angel star to consume it. In comparison, is the blood essence stone of Your Blood Demon Star Worth hesitating about?”

Vera was stunned for a moment, but in the end, she replied, “You’re right, my Lord...”

“HMM...” seeing that the other party did not object, Sha nodded in satisfaction. Then, she softened her tone and said, “Don’t worry, this is only temporary. It’s impossible for Ryan to leave this place alive with the Blood Essence Stone!”

“Understood...” vera nodded and said, “To open the password box of the blood essence stone, three general-level officers and the authorization are required. Please wait a moment, sir.”

“Well...” she nodded in an undetectable manner.

Vera bowed elegantly and then slowly left with the blood demon officers.

“Sir Vera...” a group of officers walked to the back of the team. Among them, Vera’s adjutant asked in a low voice, “Is there something on your mind?”

As Vera’s adjutant, he was very familiar with his superior. This superior was very powerful, but she was not a very thoughtful person. Nothing could be hidden from those who were familiar with her.

“Well...” Vera’s exquisite face showed a hint of doubt. “In my impression, no one has ever been so rude to me...”

The officers were stunned when they heard that. They knew that the other party was talking about how Lord Shaji had interrupted her, and they immediately felt ashamed.

Lord Vilafa had a special status in the blood demon army. Even Sab would not give her any face on a daily basis. Therefore, the external officers, even the commanders who were on the same level as SAB, were usually very humble to her.

“Lord...” the adjutant smiled bitterly and said, “This Lord Shaji should be anxious. After all, it is a special situation. You Don’t have to take it to heart.”

“Anxious...” villafa nodded seriously, as if he had been persuaded. But then he suddenly asked, “What kind of person is shaji-sama usually?”

“Eh?” This question stunned everyone. The adjutant subconsciously said, “Doesn’t sir often interact with Shaji-sama? Why would he ask us?”

“Is that so?” Villafa frowned. It seemed to be so in his memory, but..? . Why do I feel like there’s something wrong... ? As If Something’s missing...

After unsealing the blood essence stone, the blood demon Army began to make the plan on the spot.

“According to Lord Shaji, the trading method chosen by the other party is extremely sneaky. First, the other party will provide a coordinate point for Lord Shaji. At the coordinate point, there will be a federation and a contract password box. The box requires the presence of Lord Shaji and all officers above level-13 of our direct line army. Only after the blood mark authentication can it be opened. According to the contract, there is Sophia’s blood essence in it, which will allow us to lock onto Sophia’s coordinates. On the other hand, the other party requires us to place the blood essence stone at another coordinate point that he has specified!”

As soon as these words came out, everyone immediately understood the other party’s plan. Rennes was a level-15 thunder warrior, and he had the top-tier equipment given by Lord Bolton. If they wanted to pose a threat to him.., they needed at least 30 level-13 blood demons to form a special battle formation to encircle and annihilate him. The other party had kidnapped all the officers above level-13 to the password box just to make sure that they were absolutely safe when they took the blood essence stones.

“It’s indeed quite sneaky...” everyone thought to themselves.

“Can the technical department unlock the password box without US being present?” Villafa asked with a frown.

“No...” the blood demon in charge of the technical department shook his head and said, “The federation and the contract password box were issued by the Divine God Academy. There’s no way to unlock it on the market, so we can only follow the contents of the contract.”

“Then can we move it before we open it?” Villafa asked.

“No...” the other party shook his head. “It is protected by the contract of the Divine God. Outsiders can not move it. We can only open it on the spot according to the requirements of the contract.”

“In other words... If we want to get Sofia’s blood essence, we have to have everyone present?” Villafa frowned.

“Yes...” the person in charge of the technical department lowered his head in embarrassment. Clearly, he felt a little guilty that he was unable to help.

“That is to say, want to take back blood essence stone can only let Saab Lord to go personally!” The adjutant beside Mumbles Way.

All the officers around smiled. “It’s a good thing Lord Saab set up such a trap, or else that cunning boy might have succeeded...”

In a good situation, Villafa is not happy, always feel a little contrary to... . .

“Well, I see...” on the other side, saab was running at high speed. He was not in good health at the moment, and the cost of using the secret art was not small, not to mention that he had been pierced in the spine by Viane’s magic sealing arrow, and now he was running at an overload, it’s a lot of work.

“You don’t have to worry about the blood crystal. Ryan won’t be able to take it away. As long as I get close enough, even if the space warlock is right beside him, he won’t be able to escape. The key is on your side. You have to get Sophia’s blood essence!”

“HMM... I understand...”villafa replied softly.

“What are your concerns?”Sab, who knew villafa very well, soon heard some questions from Villafa.

Villafa was silent for a while, and finally said, “My lord, how much do you know about Master Shaji?”

Chapter 1098: this guy is much more ordinary.

“Evil?”

SAB was stunned. He didn’t expect Vera to ask about this... ..

“He’s not bad...”sab recalled and concluded, “Although his personality is a little strange and not easy to get in touch with, as a teammate, his ability and brain are very reliable.”

“Is that so...”

“Do you think there’s something wrong with him?”SAB asked with a frown.

BoxNovel.com

“Yes!”

Facing Sab, villafa’s shy personality seemed to be much more open-minded.

Hearing this, Sab frowned even more, and after hesitating for a few seconds, he finally said, “The priority is to get Sofia’s genes. If there are any excessive actions during this process, I will allow you to do anything according to the situation!”

After receiving this reply, Villafa’s expression clearly brightened. “Alright!”

Then, without waiting for SAB to continue speaking, he directly shut off the connection, causing SAB to choke. After a long while, he could not help but shake his head and say, “This girl...”

However, this guy Rennes was as sneaky as usual... “...”. A cold smile appeared on Sab’s face. “Blood essence stones, this kid’s appetite is not small...”

As he said that, he looked at the team that was following him at a moderate pace, and the corners of his mouth curled into a mocking smile.

At this moment, the team that was following behind SAB was naturally vogu’s force.

“How’s the situation?”

Seeing that Vaughn had returned, Billy quickly asked.

“I’ve already tried my best to hide the traces, but I can still track it down...”Vaughn replied coldly.

“Could it be intentional?” Billy narrowed his eyes and asked, “After all, the blood demons are all top-notch tracking masters. They won’t leave any traces easily.”

“That’s hard to say...”. “I can guarantee that I can track a normal blood demon. After all, Sab is a blood demon of this level. It’s not impossible for him to completely hide his tracks so that I can’t track him, so I can’t tell whether he did it on purpose or not.”

Billy:” ...”

Such an indifferent attitude really gave him a headache. You Don’t have to be responsible for the failure of the mission, right... ..

“The key now is how to choose...” Wayne looked at the Dark Sky. “This place is about to split up. Sab’s escape location is not the same direction as the Aboriginal troops. Where do you choose to go?”

Billy hesitated. There must be a reason why such a large number of aborigines could survive in Andrew’s territory. There might be important information, but he could not be sure. What if there was no valuable information.., it would be a loss to let Sab go.

After all, Lord Goron had reminded her that SAB was deliberately captured this time. It was obvious that he wanted to trick his subordinate who was sacrificed in blood to let down his guard and expose his location. and SAB was risking his life.., it was obvious that he was sure that the subordinate who had been sacrificed was of great value.

However, if they went to SAB’s side, it would be troublesome if the Aborigines missed out on a crucial piece of information.

The multiple choice question was so difficult...

“Why don’t we split up...” seeing Billy’s conflicted look, Vaughn couldn’t stand it anymore. “I’ll go after SAB. You and that old Geezer Geron continue to follow the traces of those aborigines.”

“This...” Billy hesitated. “What if it’s a trap?”

It wasn’t impossible. What if Saab was putting on a show to trick them into splitting up and attacking them.

“It’s possible...” Vaughn nodded. “So I’ll go alone...”

“How can that be! !” Billy immediately objected.

“Why not?” Vaughn said coldly, “What if it’s a trap, and it’s inconvenient for me to escape? What if I Die there with a bunch of burdens? What If you blame me?”

“Uh... that’s not what you said...”

“That’s what I said...” Vaughn interrupted him impatiently. “What if something happens to me, isn’t it the most cost-effective? After all, I’m just an employee, right?”

Billy:” ...”

She was a little embarrassed to say such a realistic thing.

“Don’t worry...”Vivian said faintly, “I’m not a person with integrity. It’s a matter of mission or life. What I know is more important. If there’s a problem, I’ll slip away faster than you think.”

“1. . .”

“Alright, it’s decided then...”Vivian waved her hand and disappeared in a flash. She was obviously heading toward the dog egg’s tent behind them.

“Wuwu, Bai Cai, I was so worried about you. Tell me, why do you keep getting kidnapped! !”

In the tent, Goudan hugged Bai Cai and cried loudly. It was a sad sight. Bai Cai was stunned. She and Goudan... .. Was their relationship that good?

“You Said... You and boss Rainie took the risk to leave the base and come to the New World to look for me?”Bai Cai looked at him suspiciously.

“Yes, that’s right! !”Eggface replied confidently.

Of course, she wouldn’t tell him that she had sleepwalked away from raindrop and melon-less... ..

“That’s really... loyal...”little cabbage thought for a long time and concluded.

“It’s good that you know! !”Eggface pretended to be relieved, then, he said, “Let me tell you, just this time, you owe me a big favor. After that, you’re not allowed to collect taxes when I open a restaurant in your territory, and you have to provide us with the best store for free!”

Little Cabbage:”...”

“I’m afraid that won’t do...”Alice said quietly at the side.

“Shut up!”Dog Egg jumped up and pointed at Alice’s nose. “You traitor, you don’t have the right to speak! !”

Alice:”...”

“What do you mean by traitor?”A sinister voice suddenly sounded behind him. When Dog Egg heard this voice, he jumped up reflexively. He wanted to escape, but he was grabbed by the other party.

“What are you doing, you pervert? Didn’t we agree to rest for half an hour? It’s only been less than ten minutes!”Doggie immediately protested!

Vivian rolled her eyes and then looked at Alice. When Alice saw that the other party was looking at her, she hurriedly stood up and returned a slight bow.

This guy isn’t simple...

Vivian looked at him with a meaningful gaze. She was also a high-level life form that had lived for hundreds of millions of years. She had seen countless people in the universe, and among them, there were natives like him. Even though their aptitude and body strength were not that great, they gave people an extraordinary feeling. And if such people did not die young, they would have extraordinary achievements...

Then, Vivian looked at little cabbage. Dark Night's eyes narrowed slightly, and he was not only praising in his heart, "What an astonishing talent of the flower spirit."

She was only a level nine life form, but she felt exceptionally comfortable being close to a star-level life form. This was the flower spirit's attraction to all living things. It was considered a talent, but it could work on a life form like her., it could be seen that the purity of its bloodline was probably not below that of a dog's egg.

For two such high-purity wood elves to appear at once, that little lord was probably a little abnormal.

Finally, Vaughn's gaze turned to the corner of the tent, where the Minotaur had a silly smile on his face.

This fellow looked much more ordinary...

Chapter 1099: Who is the Evil One?

Vaughn's gaze quickly swept past the ox head. The silly ox head smiled kindly, as if he did not mind being ignored like this.

Little cabbage was stunned for a moment. She wanted to say something, but in the end, she held it in.

She was in a dilemma now...

When she met Jessica previously, the powerful mecha ability that she had displayed had given her a glimmer of hope. After she had saved the other party, she seemed to have a good impression of herself, at that time, little cabbage also had the thought of asking for help.

But in the end, she did not, because Jessica could not see the depth of the Minotaur.

BoxNovel.com

After that, she met even more powerful existences, such as the old Geezer Goron who was now very optimistic about her, and this woman whose life force was exploding.

Little cabbage swore that she had never seen such a powerful life form. She felt that its vitality was more powerful than the entire planet combined.

Asking for help from her or Gerald seemed to be more reliable than soap and Grandpa's Mecha Escape Plan.

However, whether it was the woman in front of her or the unfathomable Gerald, they still could not tell whether the Tauren was real or fake. This made little cabbage feel a sense of despair.

However, if even such a powerful woman could not save her, would she really have a chance to escape from the Tauren's grasp?

"I'm going on a mission and will be away for a while..." at this time, Vaughan didn't notice the unusual behavior of little cabbage, but focused on the heartless dog egg.

"Is that so?" Dog Egg's expression brightened. "That's great... ahem... I mean, it's such a pity. I was thinking of training with you this afternoon..."

“Training is a must...” . “I’ve already sent your training plan to Gerald. He’ll take me to supervise you. Don’t slack off. If I hear that you haven’t completed your training plan when I come back, you know what the consequences will be.””

Eggface looked at the training plan that Vivian took out and immediately put on a sad face. “Why does it look like the task is heavier than before...”

“The purpose of training is to improve. How can you improve if you keep it the same?” Vaughn said with a straight face.

“I... I’m still a child...”

Vaughn said, “I know. When you’re ready, there will be adult-style training methods.”

“I. . .” Dogball suddenly choked and hugged little cabbage sadly. “Cabbage, I miss the Lord...”

Little Cabbage:”...”

“If you have a good relationship with him, try to be with her these days. Don’t get separated...” Vaughn looked at little cabbage and reminded her.

“Uh... oh...” Goudan replied honestly.

Little cabbage was slightly stunned. She suddenly understood. As a flower spirit, she was very sensitive to emotions. This cold woman seemed to care about Goudan very much.

After walking out of the tent, vaughn looked at Goron, who had arrived at the tent’s entrance at some point in time. “You better protect me. If both of them fail to protect me, I won’t say anything. But if yours is gone in mine, believe me, I will definitely make yours disappear as well!”

Hearing that, Goron rolled his eyes at her. “Be nice to the elderly. How can you threaten them so easily? If you do this... Even if your body is cured, you won’t be able to find a partner!”

“There’s a future. There’s no point in finding a partner...” Vaughn replied coldly and disappeared.

Gerald was stunned for a moment. Looking at the place where Vaughn had disappeared, he muttered, “This guy really thinks highly of that girl...”

As he spoke, he looked at Doggie, who was playing with little cabbage in the tent, and narrowed his eyes slightly.

Heh...

At this moment, in the far corner, the Minotaur who neither Vayne nor Goron had noticed flashed a hint of a sneer. ‘this old fart, he’s up to something bad again...’.

In the starry sky, the Bolton Force...

At this moment, as the fallen angel war star's consumption was getting more and more severe, the entire energy department and Technology Department seemed to be very busy.

What they needed to do was to calculate how to maintain more time with the least amount of energy consumption. Many backup plans were constantly put on the agenda, but they still could not prevent the fallen angel war star from rapidly declining.

"Sir..." at the main control desk, the person in charge of the overall energy reported very seriously, "The consumption of the war star is far beyond our imagination. If this continues, at most 72 stars, the Fallen Angel War star will completely decline. I think we should consider temporarily retreating or replenishing the second batch of combat power to replace the war star's plan."

"What about the enemy?" Burton knocked on the counter out of habit and asked in a calm voice, "Has nothing happened to the Black Armored Army that resisted the Angels?"

"No..." the person in charge shook his head. "It seems like they can't use up all their energy. That army is so strange that I can't see any pattern..."

"Is that so..." Burton frowned slightly. He had thought that the fallen angel war star might not be effective against the enemy, but he didn't expect that they wouldn't be able to detect anything at all.

"Fortunately, Vogu faction sent a large batch of high-quality energy over!" The director of the energy department quickly said, "As long as we can remove the war star in time, with that batch of high-purity energy, we can at least guarantee that the origin of the war star will not be damaged..."

"This sounds like a reliable alliance..." Burton smiled and then looked at the intelligence department. "Is the information still unable to be transmitted?"

The head of the intelligence department shook his head. "Since yesterday, the power of the laws around that planet has increased by at least ten times. It has become extremely difficult to transmit information. We have tried many methods, but we are unable to transmit information directly. We can't even transmit information through the Blood Demon Army's main headquarters using the blood essence of Saab."

Burton narrowed his eyes. "To suddenly activate the strength of the domain at this time is probably not simple. Perhaps... something happened on that planet that he doesn't want us to know about."

"This..." the intelligence officer was shocked. He quickly said, "Then... sir, should we send more reinforcements?"

"If Zeng Bing alone could be useful, why would I wait until now?" Bolton said helplessly. "You have to know what we're aiming at. It's one of the most powerful liches in the ancient era. It's at least on the same level as the prison lord in the Square Abyss!"

"Then... Sir, we..."

"We can only wait for the news from Sab..." Burton sighed.

"Oh right..." Burton said and looked behind the intelligence officer. The senior blood demon officer who was responsible for contacting SAB said, "Did you sense that SAB was injured?"

“Yes...”the blood demon officer quickly said, “But it is not a big problem. SAB’s vitality is still strong. I think he is out of danger.”

Bolton nodded. “It seems that at least he didn’t get killed by that Demon Hunter Ranger...”

“You’re joking, Sir...”. The officer smiled and said, “Although your intelligence said that the Demon Hunter Ranger is powerful and equipped with a top-level spirit officer, we also have Lord Shaji in our team. With his support, our strength is not inferior to the other party “...”. “...”

“Who are you talking about?”Bolton was stunned.

The people around also looked at him in surprise.

The blood demon officer was stunned when he heard that. He looked at the strange eyes around him and said in puzzlement, “Master Shaji...”

“What do you mean by... Master Shaji?”Bolton looked at him strangely. “Is there such a person in our force?”

Chapter 1100: You Don’t believe me?

“Does it take that long?”

In the New Territories, near South Sea city, seer frowned as she looked at the embrace of death in front of her...

Sophia said with a numb expression, “Bone replacement surgery is one of the most difficult surgeries to perform in surgery, especially for warriors. Ten Stars is a very conservative time.”

Seer nodded and then looked at Ryan. “Are you sure you still dare to let her perform the surgery on you?”

“Are you worried about me? My dear brother...”Ryan smiled.

“Of course I’m worried about you...”seer replied without hesitation, “After all, we are connected by blood...”

“I’m really ashamed of you...”. Ryan rubbed his head and smiled. “Don’t worry. Demons are never creatures who die for loyalty, let alone cunning creatures like the embrace of death. She won’t dare to do anything to me. Besides, it would be meaningless to her even if she kills me.”

“That’s true...”seer nodded. “Then, I wish you a smooth operation, Big Brother.”

“Thank you for your kind words, my dear little brother...”

Watching the two of them slowly walk into the enclosed operating room, Seer turned to look at the principal who was yawning out of boredom. “Don’t be a bystander. The real show is about to begin!”

“It’s really troublesome...”the principal stretched his body and then looked at Xi Ye. “I’m leaving. Are You Okay?”

“Don’t worry... I’ll be fine...” Xi ye lowered his head and said.

“Are you sure?” The principal looked at Xi ye curiously, trying to see what the young guy was thinking through the thick helmet.

But no matter how hard he tried, his eyes could not see through the ordinary-looking black helmet.

What on Earth was this thing made of?

The principal was a little curious, but in the end, he shook his head. “Forget it, since you’ve thought it through, the old man won’t say anything. Don’t die. If you die, the old man will immediately take over your people...”

Eh. From the looks of it... .. It seemed like a good deal... ..

At the thought of this, a hint of malice flashed through the principal’s heart.

“Hey, hey, have some integrity, asshole!” Seer glared at the principal.

“You know what I’m Thinking?”

“Your stupid expression is so obvious. Who Can’t Tell?”

“Cough... you have to believe that slime is a harmless creature. Malice is just a thought...”

Seer: “Hehe...”

While the two of them were fooling around, Ryan in the operating room had already begun his big move. He took out a strangely-shaped purple dagger from his spatial bag and cut his own wrist, causing a large amount of blood to gush out, however, not a single drop was left.

Sophia’s face turned gloomy when she saw that thing.

Kohler’s dagger could directly ignore the rules of the domain and cut through space to jump. It was a top-tier space-type alchemy weapon. In Bolton Force, only the nine commanders could equip such high-level equipment, however, Lord Bolton also gave Rennes a dagger!

And now, this person was using the Lord’s reward to betray the Lord!

“Don’t look at me like that...” Ryan sneered. “This result is already considered good, isn’t it “? I didn’t lie to them. I did leave your blood essence at the designated coordinates. They could use this to find you and obtain information. I just asked for some compensation, didn’t I?”

“Hehe...”

“What the F * ck? After such a thing happened, do you expect me to work for free? Do you think you can live until now without me?”

Sophia was speechless. Indeed, when she was facing that terrifying monster, if Rennes hadn’t brought her with him when he used the Kohler Dagger, she wouldn’t have survived. Moreover, she could still be so safe now..., it was all thanks to the god’s cousin.

“If you understand, then you can stall for time for me!” Rennes glared at her and said, “After this deal is done, we can part on good terms!”

As he said that, the dagger in his hand sucked enough blood. With a flash of purple light, Rennes disappeared from where he was.

There were no spatial ripples during the disappearance process. It was as if he had disappeared into thin air without leaving a trace. In such a situation, even the top spatial warlocks wouldn't be able to find a way to track him down.

But outside the operating theater, the moment Rennes disappeared, the principal smiled and disappeared on the same spot.

In less than a second, Rennes appeared at the southwest coordinate point thousands of kilometers away. After arriving at the coordinate point, Rennes first checked his surroundings, after confirming that it was the forest he had been to before, he nodded his head in satisfaction.

The place he was at was still more than a hundred kilometers away from the place where he had asked the other party to bury the blood crystal. Of course, he would not directly transmit his destination. What if he was ambushed?

He had to confirm that those guys had arrived at the place where Sofia's blood essence was buried before he would go and retrieve the blood crystal. Before that, he would not even get too close to that place.

As for whether or not Shaji could track down Sophia who was imprisoned by a top spatial master after he got the blood essence, he did not care. Of course, in his heart, he was more inclined to think that if Shaji could track down Sophia, it would be best to kill seer along the way!

On the other side, Brother Dog and the others who were close to South Sea city had set up camp for the last time. This day was different from usual, and the rations given out during the maintenance were several times more than usual, they even took out the canned meat that they had previously treasured in the army and cooked the meat soup. Although it was not fresh, it made the civilians and soldiers who had eaten poor quality dry rations for more than ten days very satisfied. The cooked meat was constantly chewed in their mouths. They could not bear to swallow it for a long time... ..

The camp was filled with a kind of liveliness that had not been seen before. Whether it was the soldiers or the civilians, at this moment, a smile that had not been seen for a long time appeared on their faces. It was completely different from the numb expression from before.

Even the countess, who had once wanted to take revenge on everyone because of her daughter's disability, was now glowing red. The entire team was filled with a long-lost vitality.

All of this was naturally not just because of the extra rations given out today. It was because Lord Luke had announced that tomorrow, they would arrive at the place of refuge that Mr. Gloomb had mentioned!

Tomorrow, they would end this journey filled with anxiety and embrace a new life!

This news was like a shot of the strongest stimulant, motivating everyone, including Luke himself!

If they were not afraid that monsters might attack at night, they might have just crazily held a drunken party!

At this time, at the outermost part of the team, Brother Dog and David were sitting on a huge granite rock, drinking the secret wine that Bundy had secretly given them.

It was a kind of sweet fruit wine. To Brother Dog, who was used to drinking white wine, this kind of wine was no different from a drink, but it was better than nothing.

David was drinking happily. He had not drunk this kind of sweet wine for a long time.

“By the way, is the sanctuary really in South Sea City?”

David licked the last drop of liquid in the kettle and smacked his lips as he asked casually.

“You don’t believe me?”
