Chapter 1111: Vera, who was in a desperate situation!

The one just now...

Lulu, who had been pulled away, was a little hesitant. As a fairy, her super strong perception always felt that the two meatballs were not ordinary. However, she did not stop to probe them even though the situation was urgent.

After all, not only was there that freak blood demon, there was also an old fellow that she hated so much. If he noticed them, it would be troublesome... ..

Thinking of this, she did not stop. She followed Xi Ye and quietly slipped out of the battlefield... ..

After Xi Ye and Lulu left, the battle situation in the sky underwent a huge change. Vera, who was originally arrogant and had the upper hand, was now facing a strong enemy. She could not even protect her arm. This greatly reduced the pressure that she was originally emitting, it also gave the group of dregs below a breathing space, and they began to try to escape from the battlefield.

As one of the dregs, Goudan and Bai Cai desperately twisted their bodies and crawled out like earthworms. It looked extremely comical, but the efficiency was not low, the two meat earthworms were crawling at an extremely fast speed. The people from the VOGU faction around saw this scene and hesitated for a few seconds before finally imitating it.

After all, their limbs were still numb and they couldn't move. This method seemed to be the most efficient way to move.

As the first meat earthworms to disregard their image, Goudan and little cabbage had already pulled away and crawled out of a range of more than 100 meters. Little Goudan was the first to try his best to twist his body. He seemed to be working extremely hard.

This made it difficult for little cabbage, who was not known for his physical strength, to chase after them. In the end, he couldn't help but say, "Wait for me, Goudan..."

"Hurry up, cabbage!" Goudan said as he crawled, "I heard the Liege's voice just now. We have to chase after him quickly!"

Little cabbage was stunned and immediately said, "Chase after him for what?"

Goudan said, "Let him take us with him. He must have run too fast just now and did not see US clearly. Sigh... I told you that I had gained weight recently. Even the Liege could not recognize me! !"

Cabbage: "..."

I don't know if this guy is naive or stupid, but the overlord obviously abandoned them and ran away... ..

The cabbages were sure of this, for the Lord had sent a secret message to another woman as he dragged her away.

It obviously recognized them both, but it couldn't be said to the dog because of the content of the sentence. ...

— — — —

“How did you determine the coordinates of this faction?”

On the other side, Xi Ye and Lulu had once again activated the space matrix after escaping from the battlefield, instantly pulling away tens of thousands of light years.

After confirming that this time, the space had not been forcefully opened by someone, Lulu heaved a sigh of relief. This time, she should be temporarily safe.

It had been a million years, being imprisoned by Burton for a million years. Although she had already planned it, but now that she had completely escaped the influence of Burton's influence, she could not help but heave a sigh of relief. Then, she looked at Xi Ye with interest, she asked this question.

Xi Ye had used this method to provoke a conflict between the two sides, and then used the chaos to escape. She had not thought of this because this kind of thing could not be done just because she wanted to. First, she had to confirm the spatial coordinates of the other faction, only then could the effect of the previous conflict be achieved.

Otherwise, as long as both sides were given a chance to calmly communicate, they would not have the chance to fish in troubled waters.

“This matter...” Xi ye smiled. “How could I possibly tell you?”

Lulu heard this and was so angry that her cheeks puffed up. She also knew that this should be the other party's secret method. They would definitely not tell her about this person that she had just met.

But she was just curious.

That force just now was not ordinary, and it seemed to be a top-tier mechanical force. Such a force should be very sensitive to spatial energy, logically speaking, this little overlord should not have the ability to leave a spatial mark in such a force, right?

Seer did not pay attention to the other party. Instead, he activated the matrix and searched for Sofia's location.

At this moment, under his mask, he revealed a slightly worried expression. To be honest, it would be a lie to say that he was completely at ease with those two children, little cabbage and Goudan, mixed in with such a force.

However, the current situation was something that he had no choice but to do...

After about 15 minutes, seer finally found Sofia's coordinates through the matrix. After sensing that Sofia's energy was still there and nothing unexpected had happened, he heaved a sigh of relief.

Lulu at the side saw the situation hurriedly said: "Is looking for the position of the embrace of death? Have you found it? If you have found it, hurry over, now time waits for no one!"

"No hurry..." seer relaxed after making sure Sofia was not in an accident, turning to look at Lulu: "Shouldn't we fulfill the contract first? Now you can say it, what is the secret of this world?"

Lulu: "..."

On the other side, the battle between Villafa and Goron was in full swing. After losing an arm, villafa became fiercer, but the situation became less and less optimistic.

Under Billy's command, the surrounding mechs gradually regained their composure, maintaining the battle formation and starting to deplete the terrifying blood demon.

Instead of fighting head-on, Goron stopped his opponents from escaping when they broke out, while several forces continued to deplete Villafa's stamina.

This tactic was obviously the most secure way. The higher-ups would control the battlefield, while the lower-end would be used as a drain. This could prevent the higher-ups from being replaced to the greatest extent!

But at this moment, Goron had changed his attitude. He was not as scary and cold as he was at the beginning. His aura seemed very amiable. There were a few times when he would try his best to protect the mecha operators who almost lost their lives, this made Billy feel that the Goron he saw just now was an illusion.

However, this was also good. Regardless of whether it was a disguise or not, as long as the other party was willing to help reduce the losses, it was always good... ..

Billy's side gradually relaxed as Geron changed, but villafa became more and more impatient. It had to be said that this mecha unit was an elite unit, and the Master of the mind that he almost killed just now was also a powerful commander.

The battle formation was extremely flexible, and she was able to neutralize her attacks a few times. With Goron on the side, she had almost no chance to break out of the encirclement, and her stamina consumption was getting more and more severe.

If this continued... .. She would probably be captured alive!

Captured alive...

When she thought of this word, some unbearable memories appeared in Vera's mind. In an instant, her scarlet eyes were filled with ruthlessness, and her fierce aura erupted once again. Obviously, she was quite rejecting this result!

When Gerald saw this scene, he retreated slightly. "It's time to go all out. Everyone, be careful!"

Billy hurriedly commanded his troops to form a shield formation to defend, but his heart was much more relaxed. The other party was already at the end of their rope. As long as they could withstand this wave, they should be able to take down the other party!

An expert of such a level would definitely be able to produce a lot of information. Even if they could not, having Bolton's forces lose such a terrifying amount of combat power in advance would still be beneficial to their chances of winning in the later stages of the battle.

Everything seemed to be going well...

But for some reason, Billy felt uneasy... ..

Chapter 1112: The Crazy Saab!

"What a terrifying fellow..."

At this moment, the advanced mecha operators who were engaged in an intense battle in the air were overwhelmed with shock. Over 10,000 advanced mecha operators were equipped with the latest battle formations of their forces. They were personally commanded by the top-notch spiritual commander, Sir Billy. The opponent was only a blood demon creature, yet it was so strenuous!

There were several times when they felt that the opponent had almost broken through their defensive line. As the opponent was a star-level powerhouse, once the opponent found the flaws in the battle formation and was unable to organize their collective strength to resist, none of the mecha present would be able to withstand a single blow from the opponent!

The perfect coordination had to be perfect, so perfect that there wasn't a single flaw... ..

Looking at Villafa who was gradually losing his strength, excitement flashed across the eyes of the mecha operators. This feeling was very exciting, as if they were dancing on the tip of a knife, using the tactics that they had learned their entire lives to gradually defeat such an expert., the feeling of experiencing was indeed not something that could be replaced on a normal day!

"Everyone Retreat, activate the Shield Formation! !" Billy commanded from behind using the telepathic transmission.

The tens of thousands of mecha operators immediately controlled their mechas to retreat. They quickly combined with their own team to form a powerful energy shield. They surrounded villafa from all directions, forming a defense and sealing off the opponent's breakthrough point.

The entire shield formation took less than 0.1 seconds to form. Its efficiency broke through the sky, causing villafa, who was prepared to attack, to feel a chill in her heart. The quality of this mecha team was so high that she felt despair. It looked like... She was afraid that she would really have to die here... ..

This hint of despair was very clearly captured by Billy at the back. A hint of excitement flashed through Billy's heart. It looked like the other party did not have any more trump cards. It should end here...

But why... did he feel so uneasy?

For some reason, seeing that the victory was already in sight, Billy felt an extremely ominous premonition in his heart. It made her frown. As a spiritual commander, most of them had cultivated a certain degree of prophecy to deal with unexpected situations on the battlefield.

However, there was too little information available to analyze the current situation. She really could not deduce where the unease came from. After all, why this blood demon suddenly attacked them was a problem.

Wait a minute...

Could it be because of this reason?

Billy suddenly thought of something. Because Vera's performance just now was too strong, she had momentarily forgotten that when the space shattered, the first person to appear was not that silver-haired blood demon, instead, it was two guys with ordinary life energy. One of them seemed to be a god Lord.

Could it have something to do with him?

Just as he was thinking, an extremely terrifying premonition of danger came. It felt as if a great disaster was approaching. Goron, who was in charge of controlling the field, seemed to have sensed it as well. Without any hesitation, he retreated rapidly.

Billy was just about to react when he was suddenly pulled backwards by a force!

That force came from a figure that had suddenly appeared. Its movements were extremely fast, causing his body to have almost no time to react. Just as he was about to counterattack, he was stunned when he discovered the person who had come.

"Vien?"

Vien did not say anything. Instead, with a cold expression, she increased her speed and pushed Billy's mecha away from the center of Villafa's position. In the next second, a terrifying red light appeared, bringing with it an enormous sharpness! In just an instant, it had crushed the tens of thousands of advanced mecha warriors who had formed the shield formation!

Seeing this scene with his own eyes, Billy's eyes almost popped out. What the hell was that?

The mechanical debris that filled the sky mixed with flesh and blood floated in the space that had been torn apart. The scene was extremely tragic. Billy bit his lip hard!

"Don't be rash..."Vaughn's voice came from beside his ear, carrying a gentleness that he had never had before...

"What's That?"Billy asked, gritting his teeth.

"Saab!"Vien coughed lightly and said...

"Saab?"Billy was instantly stunned. That terrifying power just now was made by Saab? How was that possible? With such power, he and Vien had already died when they first set him up, alright?

Just as he was questioning, he saw Vien bring her entire mech to beside Gerald. At this moment, Gerald had his hands behind his back, looking up faintly and sighing. "Young people nowadays are all quite ruthless..."

Billy also looked over. He saw a scarlet figure floating in mid-air. His entire body seemed to be completely energized, making it impossible to see his face clearly. However, that aura was indeed very familiar., it seemed to be Saab.

"Cough..."Vaughn coughed lightly, appearing extremely weak. Billy turned around to look. It was only then that he saw clearly the bone-deep wound on the armor on Vaughn's chest!

"You're injured?"Billy asked in surprise.

"It's okay..."Vaughn coughed again. The wound had touched her lungs, and to be honest, it was not easy.

"That Guy hid it so well?"Billy asked in surprise.

"He didn't hide it at all..."Vaughn spat, but then because of the pain in her lungs, she took a breath.

"Then who is he?"Billy quickly asked.

"He swallowed the Blood Essence Stone!"Vaughn said coldly.

"Blood Essence Stone?"Billy was stunned, and then he stuttered, "That... that... that thing can be swallowed?"

Although it was not in the service of a biological force, she was not unfamiliar with things like blood essence stones. Top-tier blood essence crystals were often used as the core of large biological weapons in the big biological forces. It was a very cutting-edge technology.

Although they did have terrifying energy, they were industrial products after all. How could they be directly devoured?

For ordinary people, even if they were star-level, one percent of the energy in them would probably cause them to explode, right?

"Other people might not be able to, but the blood demon clan has a chance..."beside them, Gerald slowly took over the topic, he looked up solemnly. "However, the side effects are still very big. It's equivalent to burning life. Even if you can survive, you will still reach that step because of the star nucleus depletion!"

That step...

Billy was stunned. They were both star levels, so she knew what that step was all about.

Star level immortality, however, was not the true immortality that outsiders knew. Otherwise, the federation would have been filled with star levels for billions of eras. How could there still be so few of them?

At this moment, Saab slowly took a step forward in the sky. The entire space shook because of this step, and its aura was as if the sky was pressing down. However, the person Saab was targeting was neither Vaughn nor Billy, who was in charge of commanding, instead, it was Geron, who had an aged aura.

Geron's expression immediately changed. He did not understand why the other party was targeting him. He was so shocked that he took a few steps back.

"Give him your hand!" Vaughn said coldly.

"Huh?" Geron was stunned. He immediately reacted and looked at the broken arm in his hand. It was the broken arm of the silver-haired blood demon.

"It's because of this? Is this guy crazy?" Geron was in disbelief at first, but in the next second, he seemed to have thought of something.

If it was really because of that blood demon junior, maybe he could use this to exhaust the energy of his star core.

While he was thinking, Vivian suddenly looked at him coldly. "You'd better not do that!"

Chapter 1113: the final destination of a star...

"You'd better not do that!"

Vaughn looked at Geron coldly, her aura extremely cold.

Billy was stunned when he saw this. He did not know why Vaughn would suddenly turn her attention towards his own people?

She could guess what was on Geron's face and what he was thinking. It was just that Saab seemed to care about that silver-haired blood demon. If he directed his firepower towards that guy, Saab would have no choice but to divert his attention to protect him. The opponent's extraordinary combat strength could not last long. This tactic was very feasible in her eyes... ..

Why did Vaughn oppose it?

Gorn also looked at Vaughn coldly. He was very dissatisfied with this young man who dared to show hostility to him. However, the other party did not waver at all. Instead, his aura became fiercer!

"Return your arm within five seconds. Otherwise, I will cooperate with him to kill you in the shortest time possible!"

"Viane! !" Billy was immediately shocked and furious. "What are you trying to do?"

Viane ignored Billy and stared at Geron. Time passed second by second.

Geron's face was extremely livid, but he did not turn hostile. He was very clear about Viane's combat strength. Unlike the little guy who only knew how to use brute force, Viane was a top-notch master of techniques, in a life-and-death battle, he did not think that he would be able to win against his opponent.

If SAB was in a special state at the moment, killing him in the shortest time was not a bluff!

Finally, at the third second, Geron snorted coldly and finally threw his arm into the sky.

SAB's expression brightened when he saw this. His body turned into a blood shadow and ended up with his arm. He controlled the strength of his arm very gently. After taking the arm, he immediately checked its completeness.

Many people thought that the loss of a limb was not a big deal to a top-tier battle expert. They could just use cell cloning to regenerate it.

However, that was not the case. There were two ways to treat a broken limb in the biology department. One was to use your biological cells to clone an arm and attach it to you. However, this kind of arm would have a big problem in terms of compatibility, as the level increased, this kind of compatibility problem would become more and more serious. It would greatly affect the accuracy of your strength and cause your combat strength to drop.

The second method was to use your own blood essence to stimulate the growth and directly regrow the severed arm. This method did not have any side effects of compatibility. However, as a large number of creatures did not have the biological function of regrowing severed limbs., this kind of forced regrowth would cause a large amount of blood essence to be consumed, which would have a certain impact on the origin.

It might not be a big deal at a low level, but the higher the level, the higher the cost of regrowing a severed limb. Vera was a high-end blood demon and a mixed-blood, so her blood essence was extremely precious, if the origin was consumed, it was very likely that the exhaustion would come earlier!

After confirming that his arm was not damaged, Saab was slightly relieved. He turned around and returned the arm to Vera.

Villafa stared blankly at SAB, who was now like a bloody shadow, and her eyes reddened. "What's Wrong?"

"Nothing..." Sab smiled, but his smile now looked a little sinister.

Billy was anxious when he saw this. He did not understand why Vaughn wanted to force Lord Gerald to return his arm. What if the other party ran away?

The scene of the other party slaughtering his own troops was still fresh in his mind. He wished that he could tear Saab into pieces!

At this moment, Saab turned around and looked at Vaughn. Then, he looked in another direction. That direction was about ten kilometers away. A group of low-level life forms were crawling quietly on the ground, they were trying to escape from the battlefield to avoid being affected.

The two elves at the front were the fastest ones... ..

"I advise you to stop playing tricks!" Vivian said coldly, "If you really want to risk your life, I promise you that neither of you can escape! !"

Saab paused for a moment and nodded at Vivian. Then, he pulled Vera and disappeared.

After the two disappeared, Billy looked at the little ones crawling in the distance and realized that it was true.

SAB was in a berserk state. Even if he used tactics to pin them down, he would not be able to control the destructive power of the other party. This made it easy for the little ones below level 10 to be caught in the crossfire.

And among those little ones, there was someone that Vaughn cared about the most... ..

At the thought of this, Billy's heart became complicated. He could not help but say, "For your personal benefit, you let the enemy go. If this gets out, you won't be able to take any jobs in the future!"

"It's okay..." Vaughn said faintly, "After this matter, I should retire. I've saved up enough money over the years..."

"You..." Billy was suddenly angry. He really wanted to scold the other party for having no professional ethics, but the other party acted like he had no professional ethics, which made her feel helpless.

When the other party didn't care about this, he really couldn't do anything to the other party.

"And I'm doing this for your own good..." "Sab is ready to risk his life. Do you really think that dirty tactics can drag him to death?" Vivian said coldly "You've seen the strength of the energy. If we're not careful, we'll all be wiped out in an instant. Don't forget what your mission is. Is it to fight to the death with Sab?"

"I. . ." Billy choked, but he couldn't refute her for a moment. In the end, he could only sigh silently and stare at the pieces of flesh floating in the sky in a daze...

War... was really cruel...

"How are you?"

On the other side, Vera, who had pulled away for tens of thousands of kilometers, looked at Sab carefully and asked.

At this time, SAB had returned to his usual state, but his face was extremely pale, and he looked like he was extremely weak.

As a blood demon, it was almost a sign of exhaustion for him to be weak!

"Luckily..." Saab shook his head, saying in a low voice, "Wayne that guy is still calm, he didn't let me fight the last battle, otherwise today might be the day of my astral body transformation."

Villafa:"! !"

Astral body transformation, the return journey of a star level warrior after exhaustion, only the star level warrior insiders knew the truth!

The universe never did business at a loss, a star level warrior had absorbed a huge amount of universe resources, reaching the pinnacle of an individual's life, his lifespan was almost limitless, but this wasn't for free, when a certain number of years had passed, when the star core was exhausted., it would automatically turn into an astral form, eventually returning to the origin under the laws of the universe, undergoing decomposition and remodeling.

However, after remodeling, you would no longer be you, but would directly turn into a planet with life force!

This was the fundamental reason why life was endless in the trillion eras of the universe. All life was a cycle, falling leaves sinking into the earth, ocean whales falling, everything in the world could not escape the cycle of life, even powerful star level warriors., otherwise, how could the universe function for billions of years?

“No! !”Vera was currently like a young girl hugging Saab tightly, her expression extremely nervous, as though she was about to lose everything.

Saab was stunned, a rare human gentleness appeared on his butcher-like savage face, gently stroking Vera’s beautiful silver hair...

“Don’t cry, there are still some days... I’ll arrange it for you...”Sab said gently... ...

Chapter 1114: Hainan City...

The first clash between the two forces came to an end when Saab desperately gave in to Vienne. On the other side, Brother Dog’s journey had also come to the day he had been looking forward to the most.

The plan was for everyone to replenish their energy. Other than a few people who were on night duty, everyone else slept for eight hours.

However, from General Luke to the commoner women, even after eating their fill and drinking hot wine, they were still so excited that they could not sleep. By the next day, many people’s eyes were bloodshot.

The soldiers also had dark circles under their eyes, but when it was time to gather, even some of the children who hadn’t grown up were in high spirits!

Luke didn’t stop all of this because he himself was so excited that he didn’t fall asleep. In his mind, this crucial night didn’t have much meaning.

If he went to Hell Tomorrow, then there would be plenty of time to sleep in the future. If he went to Heaven Tomorrow, then in the future... ... He would also have plenty of time to sleep.

He didn’t even ask David to clear the supplies when they were married.

Because the food had been eaten clean yesterday. If they couldn’t find the place that the orc said they could shelter in today, then their journey in life would end here. There was no need to worry about anything else, whether it was a blessing or a curse, it would be this wave.

To be honest, yesterday he was still skeptical and had some insomnia. But when it was time to set off, he was very relaxed.

Because no matter what the result was, he could finally rest... ...

Many people had such thoughts. Not only Luke, but also many soldiers and civilians. Even the countess, who had been taking care of Jenny, was much more relaxed today.

She was usually heavy and light-footed. No matter what, there would be a result today, whether it was good or bad.

If it was good, then he would naturally thank God. If it was bad, he would accompany his daughter and be completely free. It was not a big deal. After all, he had been prepared to do the worst.

After gathering, Luke simply asked his men to count the people. After making sure that no one was left behind, he turned to look at Brother Dog. "Mr. Grom, do you have anything else to say?"

As he said this, everyone looked at the tall orc. At the most desperate moment, the orc had promised them their hope.

They also wanted to know what the ORC would say to them.

Brother Dog looked at everyone. Looking at the pairs of eager eyes, his emotions became a little complicated. Suddenly, he began to worry about gains and losses.

A few days ago, he did not care about these people at all. However, things like people would always develop feelings when they came into contact with them. These days, he saw soldiers who remembered their wives and daughters and chose to move forward bravely, he saw the parents who gave their children their scarce rations. He saw the countess who went to great lengths every day to comfort her crippled daughter and instil hope in her.

All of this made him truly realize that these... .. Were all living people... ..

At this moment, he was actually a little afraid. What if... .. What if he didn't bring them hope in the end. What if... ? What if he brought them to the Abyss?

Would Sunny... Forgive me?

While he was lost, a broad hand patted his waist. Grom turned around and looked, but it was David who had approached him.

"Why do you look like that?" David asked.

Brother Dog was silent for a few seconds and suddenly said, "Haven't you ever thought that the sanctuary might not exist?"

The moment he said that, the entire place fell silent. No one had expected brother dog to say something like that.

Luke also frowned. He felt that what he said was inappropriate. Just as he was about to say something to remedy the situation, David spoke first.

"So what if it doesn't exist..."

Brother Dog looked at him in shock.

David smiled and said, "Anyway, there's no other way out. What else can we do other than follow you?"

In the darkness, David's smile was very bright. Everyone seemed to have been infected by it. They smiled the same way and jeered, "Yeah, even if it's a trap, we can only jump into it with you!"

Brother Dog silently looked at this group of people and smiled for the first time in more than ten days...

"I don't have so many people in my trap!" Brother Dog smiled and looked at everyone. "Follow me closely. No matter what happens, please remember my words!"

Everyone's expression was stunned again, for a moment, a strange feeling rose in their hearts. Looking at this tall figure, they felt as solid as a mountain, making them feel incomparably at ease... .

Nanghai city, once one of the most prosperous cities of the steel arms empire, as the only port linking the western 100-nation alliance, many times in the eyes of many businessmen, its status is higher than the imperial capital.

There were all kinds of legends that circulated here. Many people became rich overnight, and many people went from sailors to legendary crocodiles. The stories here were no less than those in the northern battlefield, in fact, many times, they were even more exciting.

This was because most of the northern knights were still heroes among the nobles. However, the stories that circulated in Nanghai City were more about the rise of the commoners and the changing of fortunes. It was easier for them to spread among the masses.

The bards spread these stories throughout the land. Many young people who were unwilling to stay in the countryside as farmers all left their hometown and came to this dream-chasing land.

As a small city in the south, Kate City also had many dream-chasing young people who left every year. Although there were few who returned home in glory, there was an endless stream of impulsive young people every year.

At this time, when the people of Kate City came here, their emotions were extremely complicated when they faced this city.

Many of the middle-aged and strong people here had the idea of coming to explore the world at their most passionate age. However, because of their parents, because of their relatives, because of their younger brothers and sisters who needed to provide for them, a series of realistic problems prevented them from doing as they wished. In the end, they became farmers, herdsmen, blacksmiths, carpenters, or small shop owners just like their parents...

They lived a dull and numb life day after day...

However, they never thought that they would have the chance to come here one day, and they came here full of hope.

Luke and the others drew their swords vigilantly. The entrance of South Sea city was quieter than they had imagined, but they didn't let their guard down because it was very likely that the moment they stepped through the city gate, the monsters would rush over.., they were the sea-like monsters that Bob had mentioned.

Although they had thought that even if they died today, it would be a relief, but as warriors, if the worst came to the worst, they still hoped to fight until the moment they were exhausted, at least there would be a way for a warrior to die, if they didn't even pull out their swords, and their heads were bitten off by the monsters, it would be too ugly.

Just like that, with all kinds of complicated thoughts, the group followed the tall orc figure in front of them and slowly stepped into Hainan City!

Chapter 1115: The World in the Sea -Partpart 1) !

"Why is it so quiet here?"

After entering South Sea City, Bob was the first to ask an unbelievable question.

He remembered that once, when he and the Black Dragon Duke stepped into this place, the moment they entered, they were faced with a swarm of terrifying monsters. At that time, he was in charge of guarding the rear of the city gate, this was a thankless job, but he had saved his life because of it!

He remembered that at that time, he was commanding the troops at the periphery and was preparing to rescue the Duke. However, when he saw that the tide of monsters had instantly drowned the main force inside, he was so scared that he immediately fled with his troops!

It was a shame for a knight to flee without fighting. However, how could he remember the honor of a knight in that situation?

Now that he was back here, Bob did not plan to run away again. Even if he had to face that terrible scene again, he still planned to adhere to the Knight's Creed and face Death Head-on!

However, he did not expect that it would be such a scene.

It had been almost an hour since they entered the city. Even if there were hundreds of thousands of people in the team, they would not have been completely undisturbed even if they did not deliberately make any noise when they walked, right?

Or could it be that the monsters that had once occupied this place had disappeared?

Just like that, with a nervous and excited mood, the team followed Brother Dog and slowly moved forward. They crossed the center of the city and arrived at the rear port...

And even when they arrived at the nearest port to the sea, they did not see a single monster attack them!

For the first time... .. Bob began to believe the ORC's words... ..

Perhaps... There really was a sanctuary here?

Luke, Bundy, and the others, who were walking at the front of the group, were getting more and more excited. The scene around them seemed to be completely different from the terrifying scene that Bob had described. The more it was like this, the more it meant that the orc might not be making things up!

However, they had already reached the harbor, and the ORC had not stopped. Could the so-called sanctuary be overseas?

Just as everyone was feeling nervous and confused, someone suddenly screamed, "Look ahead! !"

Everyone looked over and saw that the front of the darkness suddenly lit up. A greenish-green light allowed everyone to see the surface of the sea clearly. Perhaps it had been a long time since they had seen such a large-scale light, so everyone was stunned on the spot, their eyes became a little blurry, and they even looked a little greedy.

However, in the next second, this infatuation disappeared and was replaced by a kind of fear. Under the light, a huge wave came with that wave of light. The huge wave of light was so huge that it gave people the feeling that it could drown the entire city, the people who had encountered this kind of heavenly power for the first time all screamed!

They wanted to escape, but their legs were tired from the long journey and this was the first time they had encountered such a terrifying scene. They were so scared that their legs went soft and they sat on the ground.

Luke and the others also looked forward with pale faces.

As generals, their vision was even deeper. The ordinary people only saw the huge wave, but they saw the terrifying python hidden in the huge wave!

Judging from its size, they would believe that the huge wave was caused by the python. How could such a terrifying existence have appeared in this world?

No wonder all the monsters here had disappeared. With such an existence, how could other monsters dare to take over?

Facing such a thing, he couldn't even muster up the slightest thought of resisting... ..

His heart was filled with despair...

As expected... it was just a lie?

Brother Dog, who was standing at the front, was also shocked. However, for some reason, he did not feel the slightest fear in the face of that astonishingly large green python. On the contrary, he felt an inexplicable sense of affinity...

Just as everyone was thinking about it, the huge wave suddenly stopped!

Yes, it stopped, as if it was fixed. The huge wave stood in front of the harbor, and the python in the wave slowly stretched out its head.

This horrifying scene scared a bunch of women and children into crying loudly, and they desperately retreated. Luke and the other generals also held their swords and retreated. Their faces were pale, and even their hands that held their swords were trembling.

Only Brother Dog did not feel any fear. He slowly stepped forward and felt the friendly energy emitted by the giant python.

What was going on? Why was its aura so friendly?

Brother Dog could not understand for a moment. The giant Python looked at Brother Dog. Its huge eyes were filled with gentleness.

“Hu...”

The giant Python came over and its huge tongue gently tapped brother dog. It looked affectionate like a spoiled puppy. Luke and the others were stunned when they saw it.

Before they could react, the giant python pulled away again and turned around to return to the sea. This time, as it returned, the huge waves on the surface of the sea flowed back and actually separated the entire sea surface, opening up a path!

This magical scene instantly stunned everyone!

“Let’s Go!” Brother Dog took a deep breath and turned around to look at everyone. “The sanctuary is just ahead...”

At this moment, everyone seemed to have recovered their strength. They struggled to get up from the ground and helped their wives and daughters up. They were like people who were dying of thirst in the desert. When they heard that there was a river ahead, they revealed extreme desire!

“Is... is there really... actually...” David looked ahead in a daze. “A place of protection...”

Brother Dog, who was walking in front, felt his face twitch when he heard that. So this old fellow did not believe in him... .. To think that he spoke so freely yesterday. People’s hearts...

This magical scene was matched with Brother Dog’s confident figure. Everyone’s hearts were filled with anticipation once again. They followed behind, their eyes shining with hope!

Just like that, a group of people followed Brother Dog on the main road. This road was longer than they had imagined. After walking for more than half a day, they still couldn’t see the end. However, none of them were anxious, and the light in their eyes didn’t dim at all, seeing hope, they could only wait patiently. After all, despair had enveloped them for too long.

Finally, after walking for almost an entire day, the group stopped. At the very front was a huge water surface. It was filled with light, and it was actually a huge forest. On the water surface, it was as beautiful as a fairy tale. It was also like a dream... ..

It made people feel that it was a little unreal...

“Hiss...” on the surface of the water., the huge green snake popped its head out and softly called out to Brother Dog. Then, it returned to the surface of the water. Everyone saw that the huge snake in the forest actually became smaller than an ordinary snake as it burrowed into the forest, very quickly, it disappeared.

Brother Dog looked ahead and took a deep breath before saying again, “Let’s Go...”

Everyone was stunned. Luke took the lead and said, “But... that...”

Before he could finish speaking, Brother Dog took the lead and stepped into the forest. Then, everyone saw that the Tall Beastman figure also slowly stepped into the forest from the surface of the water. Soon, it also disappeared.

Everyone fell silent. For a moment, they were at a loss and didn't know what to do.

Was it really a place of protection in front of them, or was it an illusion reflected on the surface of the water?

After all... ? How could there be a forest in this world that was in the sea?

Chapter 1116: The World in the Sea -Partpart 2) !

"It's a scam! It must be a scam! !"The count pointed at the water and screamed!

This sudden voice made everyone hesitate. Although everyone had said that they would jump into a pit before coming here, they were still hesitant at this point...

Reality proved that many people did not have the courage...

Luke and Bundy looked at the pig-like count coldly. If it was not for the fact that the count was sunny's father, the orc might not have wanted him to die. The two of them might have directly chopped him up!

This pig did not even think about it. If it was really designed by them, what was it for? There were so many large monsters along the way. Each time, they could cause extreme losses to the entire team. But who was the first to solve the crisis?

Such a huge wave and that terrifying Python could have directly killed them at the port. Why did they have to do such a thing and then persecute them?

For what?

It wasn't that there wouldn't be any problems, but they had already reached this point. The way back might have already turned into seawater. Were you trying to make a fool out of yourself by doing this now?

"Ahem..."finally, Luke coughed and raised his voice. "Quiet, listen to me!"

As the highest commander who had led the team all the way here, he still held a lot of weight in the eyes of both the army and the civilians. Hence, they all quieted down and looked at each other.

"It's the last step. I know that many people are terrified. They are afraid that all the hope that they have been hoping for is just a bubble, a lie... I understand, I really understand!"Luke took a deep breath, his voice became softer and softer. "To be honest, I'm not sure what's on the other side of the water. Maybe it really is the beautiful world shown on the mirror. Maybe... "...". "Once we enter, what awaits us is that terrifying Python's bloody mouth!"

"But so what? Look behind you. Do We Still Have a way out? Can we still go back on Our Words?"Luke asked.

Everyone turned back to look. It was a parallel line that stretched as far as the eye could see. The seawater on both sides stood up magically. Who knew when it would collapse and completely drown them at the bottom of the sea.

If they went back on their words now, could this road hold them back until they returned?

Lord Luke was right. They... .. indeed had no chance to regret. ...

“Since we can’t regret, what’s the point of scaring ourselves?” Luke smiled and said, “I’m willing to take this trip, even if the outcome is bad. As for what you guys do... .. I now declare that everyone is free. Whether you’re willing to go forward or retreat, it’s up to you. Anyway, there’s nothing left in my team, whether it’s food or fresh water...”. “...”

After saying that, Luke ignored the crowd and stepped into the mirror, followed by Bundy, Bob, David, and other high-ranking military officers.

The rest of the people stood rooted to the ground, recalling Luke’s words...

While everyone was silent, a commotion suddenly came from the back of the crowd. With a squeeze, everyone moved aside. Only then did they realize that the one who had been squeezing forward was the pitiful countess who comforted her crippled daughter every day.

“You... What are you doing?” The count looked at the Countess who was carrying his daughter on her back and took two steps back.

The countess glanced at the other party coldly. Her eyes were filled with disgust and resentment. “Get lost!”

“You...” the count was instantly enraged. However, at the same time, he saw the dagger in the other party’s hand and eventually retreated. This crazy woman had almost killed his existence last time.

Who knew what she would do if she got excited?

Seeing the other party retreat in the end, the countess sneered. She could not help but secretly hate herself for being too stubborn. Otherwise, how could she let this thing harm her beloved daughter to this extent?

She did not care what this dog said. There was hope to save her daughter in it. Even if it was only one in ten thousand, she still wanted to go through this! !

After the count was forced to retreat, she carried her daughter on her back and quickly stepped inside.

Everyone was silent for a while, but as the Countess stepped in, more and more people chose to walk forward. After all, Sir Luke was right. They had already come this far. What was the point of regretting?

Seeing more and more people enter, the count could not help but scold them for being stupid. In fact, he was also hesitating if he should go in. However, he was the first to jump out and say that just now. It would be too quick to slap his face if he went in now, he could not bring himself to lose face.

In the end, he still felt that he should let these people enter first and observe the situation first... ..

Just like that, the count stood by the mirror and watched hundreds of thousands of people enter in a grand manner. In the end, even his personal guards had entered. The count finally moved his feet.

Clearly, he was not strong enough to walk back alone.

However, the moment he wanted to step into the mirror, a strange thing happened.

The mirror suddenly disappeared like a bubble with a bang... ..

“What... What’s going on?”The count was stunned. He desperately tried to grab the place where the mirror disappeared, but there was nothing. It was as if everything was an illusion.

“It’s really... it’s really a trap, right? What did I say? A bunch of idiots! !”The count roared loudly.

After this roar, the green light on the surrounding sea began to gradually dim and eventually disappeared. The entire world fell into darkness once again.

In an instant, the count was dumbfounded. He looked around in fear, but he was already used to the light, so he could not see anything. There was only darkness in front of him.

The light was once again deprived, and an icy cold fear instantly surged into the count’s heart. He stood up while trembling. He continued to search the position of the mirror, trying to find some traces, but there was nothing.

He did not manage to touch the count, but he tried to touch other places. His hands quickly touched the water on both sides. The water that had lost its light was bone-chilling, as cold as the silent night. One could not feel any warmth at all.

And suddenly, he seemed to have touched something slippery...

In an instant, the count’s hands retracted as if they had been electrocuted. He fell to the ground and looked at the spot where he had searched in horror.

What was that?

But he could not see it. He did not know what was in the water just now... ..

What could it be?

A Python? An Octopus? Or some other monster?

In the darkness, a person’s imagination for terror was endless. Some terrifying thoughts could not be stopped from appearing in his mind, causing the count to be on the verge of collapse, he did not even know when the seawater on both sides would collapse directly!

“I was wrong...”

At last the crumbling count fell to his knees, his voice beseeching and despairing.

“I’m sorry, Please, don’t... Don’t let me... alone...”

No one else could hear the count's desperate plea in the dark, and even if they did, no one would pay any attention to him, for they were deeply drawn to the strange and beautiful world before them!

Chapter 1117: "It's really a place of protection!"!

"It actually... really exists..."

After 40 days of darkness, 20 days of leaving their homes, and until the last bit of food and water was eaten clean yesterday, they once again welcomed the light...

Was this... The place of protection?

Everyone greedily breathed in the clear and sweet air, looking at the wisps of peaceful green and vigorous vitality in front of them. Most importantly, it was the sunlight that was not available in the outside world.

That kind of long-lost warmth made many people unable to hold back their tears... ..

Luke and Bundy, who were at the front, stared blankly ahead, appearing to be in a daze. These days, they had seen a dark and lightless world, twisted and deformed tree trunks, and rotten and stinky soil, everywhere was emitting that disgusting smell of rotten meat.

After so many days of that scene, it always gave people the feeling that the world had turned into Hell. Now that they saw this scene again, they felt like they had entered heaven...

"This... is water drinkable?"

A man next to them licked his dry lips and asked carefully.

Everyone looked at the water. It was so clear that just looking at it made people feel cool all over. They couldn't help but lick their lips.

Before they set off yesterday, everyone had already eaten all the food and water. Today, they had traveled for an entire day, and no one had eaten a drop of water...

Hearing this, Luke hesitated. In the past, when danger lurked everywhere, he had acted decisively. Now that they were in such a peaceful place, he was a little afraid... ..

Just as he was hesitating, a tremor suddenly came from the forest ahead, as if something was coming.

Luke subconsciously took a step back and placed his hand on the sword by his waist. His first reaction was to wonder if it was that terrifying giant snake... ..

A few seconds later, the thing that shook the forest appeared. It was a group of floating yellow fur balls. If the dogs were here, they would definitely recognize that these guys looked very similar to the elves that had yet to take form, just that their colors were different.

A group of elves came out of the forest with cheerful voices. Their cute shapes and their moaning voices made people feel that they were harmless.

"Be on guard!" Although Luke also felt that they were harmless, he still reminded the soldiers carefully.

The soldiers' expressions tensed when they heard this. They all placed their hands on the weapons on their waists.

"Moaning..." a group of elves slowly approached with kitten-like moans. Their faces were filled with smiles, making the soldiers unable to harden their hearts and pull out their swords.

Moreover, they saw that behind them, many elves were each carrying something similar to a fruit.

"Is This... For Me?"

Seeing the elves approach and hand over the fruit, a burly man swallowed his saliva and asked.

The sparkling and translucent fruit gave off an alluring fragrance, causing him, who had long been thirsty, to reveal a look of anticipation.

"Wu Wu Wu..." the elves slowly floated in front of him and handed the fruit a little higher... ..

"Thank you... Thank you! !"

Many soldiers and civilians took the fruit and took a bite. The sweet juice flowed out. It was obvious that the fruit was a high-grade crop. The delicious taste made everyone want to swallow their tongues.

When Luke saw that everyone swallowed the fruit unprepared, he wanted to stop them, but in the end, he didn't do so... ..

If this was really a place of protection, then these things should be harmless. If they were too guarded, it might cause the owner of this land to be dissatisfied.

If this was not a place of protection, but a trap, they would not have much strength to resist now.

Thinking of this, Luke looked at the Elf who was smiling at him. Finally, he moved his hands away from the weapon and put his palms together to thank him.

After taking the fruit, Luke and Bundy looked at each other. Finally, they looked at each other and smiled. Then, they took a bite.

"Wow, this taste!" Bundy couldn't help but exclaim, "It's so delicious. I've never eaten such a good fruit!"

Luke nodded in agreement. If this fruit was really poisonous, it could be considered a better way to die... ..

"You... What are you doing?"

Just as everyone was immersed in the fresh and sweet fruit, a woman's scream suddenly came from behind. Luke frowned. That voice seemed to belong to that somewhat extreme countess.

What happened? Luke quickly walked over.

After walking over, Luke saw the situation clearly. It turned out that these yellow fur balls had suddenly surrounded the daughter of that noblewoman, the little girl who had been crippled by her father.

At this moment, a few of the Elves had suddenly turned into a golden liquid, enveloping the entire body of the girl, leaving only her head outside.

This sudden scene obviously caused this mother to panic.

“Madam, please don’t be agitated...” Luke saw the mother holding a dagger and questioning the terrifying appearance of the Elves, and hurriedly went forward to comfort her. “They shouldn’t have any ill intentions, this is a place of protection...”

“But... But...” hearing Luke’s comforting words, the lady’s eyes revealed a trace of confusion, but more than that, she was still uneasy.

“It’s Alright, my lady...” Luke came closer and gently held her hand that was holding the dagger. His tone was gentle as he said, “Take a closer look at your daughter. Her expression doesn’t look like she’s in pain. She shouldn’t have been hurt!”

The madam heard him and quickly looked over. Only then did she see clearly that her daughter’s face had a peaceful smile. That expression was as if she was enjoying something.

Ever since her daughter was crippled, she had been suffering from the pain of twisted joints and festering wounds every day. It had been a long time since she had seen her daughter show such an expression... ..

Thinking of this, she slowly put down the dagger in her hand. Her eyes were filled with anticipation.

Because she remembered that the orc had said that this place of protection could save her daughter.

Could it be that he was talking about these little guys?

Looking at the woman’s worried expression, Luke’s expression was complicated. He was slightly sympathetic towards the woman’s suffering. Towards the fat count who had beaten his own daughter to this state in order to shift the blame., he also looked down on him!

Speaking of which, why didn’t he see that guy?

Just as he was thinking, the people around him suddenly exclaimed, “It’s moving, it’s moving!”

Luke came back to his senses and quickly looked over. He saw that the liquid on the little girl’s body began to slowly squirm, then slowly spread out and turned into a yellow ball of fur.

“Your child’s wound...” Luke immediately discovered the magical part.

The countess rushed forward and touched her daughter’s wound with trembling hands. The wound that had been festering earlier had completely disappeared, leaving only pink flesh marks, obviously, she was already recovering.

Seeing this scene, the Countess could not stop her tears from flowing. She asked her daughter carefully, “How do you feel, Jenny?”

“Me?” A tired smile appeared on Jenny’s face. “I feel very good, mother. It’s been a long time since I had such a good time...”

“But...”the countess touched the child’s deformed skeleton and said in confusion, “Why are these still like this? He clearly said that they could be cured.”

“Her joints and bones are seriously damaged. Even if she has completely transformed, the little elf alone can not recover. She needs to undergo bone-shaping surgery...”

Just as a shadow rose in the Countess’heart, a gentle female voice slowly sounded.

Everyone quickly looked over and saw an extremely beautiful woman in a white dress.

That kind of beauty was suffocating...

“You don’t have to worry...”the woman smiled gently at the Countess. “There will be the best doctors to help your daughter recover...”

The countess froze and tears welled up in her eyes again. She knelt down and bowed. “Thank you... Thank You!”

“May I ask this lady, who are you?”Luke quickly asked when he came back to his senses.

The woman smiled gently, and everyone’s heart wavered because of this smile... ...

“My name is Ysera, welcome to the land of Refuge!”

Looking at that country-toppling smile and the beautiful fairytale-like scenery around them, everyone finally could not help but cheer!

So, the land of refuge really existed...

Chapter 1118: The Truth of the world (Part One)

“You said... I feel like I’m Dreaming. Is this true?”

Luke sat by the Clear River and asked while eating fruit.

“How would I know?”Bundy said while holding a pile of fruit. “Who cares? If It’s true, just eat more. If it’s fake, you can think about it...”

“Yes, yes!”Bob echoed.

“You two old guys...”Luke couldn’t help but curse, but then he smiled and let out a sigh of relief. Yes, in this situation, there was nothing to regret. Even if a monster suddenly appeared and ate them all, it was still better than starving to death in that dark place, in the end, the corpses were absorbed by the rotten meat.

“David, why haven’t you said anything?”Bundy suddenly picked up a fruit and threw it at David, who was staring blankly at the opposite side.

David was hit by the fruit and reacted. He said with some emotion, “If only... Miss Sunny could hold on until here.”

These words caused the originally cheerful atmosphere to suddenly freeze. Bundy's smile also froze slightly.

Thinking of his only granddaughter, he sighed. Although they had only interacted for a few days, he could see that she was a kind and good child. She should have enjoyed everything she had now.

"Didn't the orc say that my granddaughter is still alive?" Bundy suddenly asked.

"He did say..." hearing this, David's spirits were lifted. Previously, he had half-believed his words, but now, that guy had actually led everyone to the so-called sanctuary.

Perhaps... .. The words about Miss Sunny being alive were also true...

At the thought of this, David suddenly became a little excited. At this moment, he really wanted to find brother dog and ask him about the situation.

But suddenly, he found a problem...

"Oh right, where is he?"

These words made the few of them stunned. They knew very well who David was talking about. In an instant, they were stunned...

That's right... where is he?

The ORC was the first to step in, but he was attracted by the scene in front of him just now. Everyone was immersed in the joy of surviving the calamity, but they forgot about the orc who had brought them all the way here... ..

Where did he go?

At this moment, brother dog naturally didn't know that he had almost been forgotten. After entering this forest, he could feel that the voice calling out to him was even clearer.

Following the green snake that had already shrunk, he walked step by step towards the center of the forest.

He really wanted to know, what exactly was it that could make him believe it unconditionally the moment he heard the voice?

Finally...

After a long walk, he arrived at his destination and saw the existence that was calling him!

It was a creature that was crystal clear like a green agate. It was incomparably magnificent and beautiful. After seeing this shape, all the creatures in the world would recognize the creature's name from their genes.

"Dragon?"

Obviously, it was a giant emerald-green dragon. Although its shape was very different from the western or eastern dragons in D ball, Brother Dog still recognized it at the first moment. It was a dragon, the true form of a dragon should have been like this.

“My name is Ysera! !”

The Green Dragon looked at Brother Dog Gently. A gentle female voice came out of its mouth, like a source of life. It was intoxicating to listen to.

What surprised Brother Dog the most was that the dragon was speaking in Huazhong language on the D Ball...

Why?

“Young man, in your place, someone said his name. Shouldn’t you return the favor?”Ysera’s gentle voice interrupted Brother Dog’s question.

“Oh... Hello, my name is dog... ahem... uh, my name is Liu Shiyu!”Brother Dog quickly said.

“Liu Shiyu?”Ysera’s huge emerald eyes narrowed slightly. “Can you write it down?”

Liu Shiyu was stunned, but he still nodded obediently and wrote down his name on the ground with his finger.

As a once-standard playboy, it was really difficult for a dog to crawl, but it was still okay. People could barely recognize it... ... Right...

“This word...”Ysera’s eyes flashed with excitement!

That’s right, it was this word, exactly the same as the prophecy!

“What’s Wrong?”Brother Dog looked at the excited expression on Ysera’s face and asked immediately.

Brother Dog’s face immediately turned ugly. Why are you so excited?

“Young man...”after reading brother dog’s words, Ysera looked at brother dog with a gentler gaze. “Do you want to ask something?”

“About that...”brother dog hesitated for a moment, in the end, he still asked, “Why do I feel that your voice is so friendly? Er... I mean, why do I feel that you are trustworthy the first time I Hear Your Voice? Is it some kind of magic?”

Ysera’s face was full of smiles when he heard that. “It’s not some magic child, but the trust generated by the genes in your bones!”

“Genes in your bones?”Seer was stunned when he heard that.

Ysera said, “The Green Titan is a very ancient bloodline. Before the Titan civilization flourished, the Green Titan and Our Green Dragon race were a symbiotic relationship in the ancient times. The Green Titan that was born on every planet would receive the care of the Green Dragon, and the Titan that grew up would use the power of the world to fight back against the dragon race. In Guda, the pentashade Titan and the pentashade dragon race were in such a trusting relationship."

"Ancient bloodline?"

Brother Dog's eyes lit up, muttering, "The dog leader said that the genes he gave us were all high quality goods, we were initially suspicious, but now it seems like it's true... We misunderstood the leader..."

"Er... No..." Ysera, who was familiar with the universe federation, froze, "You didn't misunderstand, that leader of yours is indeed a real dog..."

Brother Dog: "???"

Ysera smiled, he sniffed brother dog's body, "How miraculous, if I didn't know what happened, I wouldn't have believed that a pure bloodline like yours would actually be a grafting seed, even the true royal descendants of the ancient Green Titan wouldn't have such a pure bloodline like yours!"

Brother dog was stunned, "Are you saying... That I'm very powerful?"

"Yes..." Ysera smiled again and asked, "Is your race as powerful as you after receiving these cheap genes?"

Brother Dog's mouth twitched. "Of course not. I'm one of the best!"

"You Mean You're the best?"

"Uh... that's not..." brother dog was honest, if Pu Yunchuan was here, he might be able to shamelessly admit it, but he couldn't. In the end, he said honestly, "The Titans are not much better than me. There are only two or three of them. As for the Elves..."

"Elves?" Ysera's eyes lit up. "How about Elves?"

"The Elves are a little better than me..." brother dog said with a bitter face, "There might be more than ten of them..."

"Really?" The light in Ysera's eyes became brighter and brighter... ..

Chapter 1119: The Truth of the world (middle)

"Tell me..."

Ysera seemed to be very interested in the elf that brother dog was talking about.

When Brother Dog faced Ysera's request, for some reason, he just could not refuse it. Therefore, he did not guard against it and started talking about the things that happened in the base.

"When I talk about elves, I'm full of anger. At the beginning, it was such a strange hairy ball, but after it evolved, it turned out to be a handsome man and a beautiful woman. If I had known earlier, I would not have chosen this lump of meat. You say that this lump of meat is not as good-looking as others, or if it can beat them, but in fact, when it fights, most of the Titans can not beat the elves..." . "..."

"Is there anything that you can't Beat?" Ysera had an interested expression on his face, as if he was a classmate who was listening to a child's description of how his grades were better than his.

“Actually, there aren’t many...”. “...”. “First of all, it’s that Doudou. She’s just a pervert with a race skill. Her natural ability to block light seems to be able to distort all attacks. No matter how good your weapon skills are, you can’t hit her at all. I really don’t know how such a BUG race exists in the world. If it were a game, this guy would be like the blade girl in LOL. If he wanted to hit her hard, it would be too much of a BUG.”

“Then there’s Xu Xian, that guy. That guy usually looks like a rock, but when he fights, he’s really not a slouch. He’s the number one shooter in our base. If he’s not a long-ranged major, I think even Leng Xing’s operating monster might not be able to beat him.”

“You’re asking who Leng Xing is? He’s Our Green Titan’s trump card. He’s the only Green Titan that can be ranked in the top five of the Combat Power Rankings.”

“There’s also Li Goudan. D * MN, such a careless fellow. He entered galaxy at least half a year later than me and forcefully surpassed this young master. Several times in PK, this young master was pressed to the ground and beaten by that stinky girl. This is simply... .. I seriously feel that our Titan should be strengthened Alright, this doesn’t seem to be a game

Ysera, on the other hand, was all smiles, quietly listening to each other chatter, listening to each other complain about their genes, ysera smiled and said, “Agility-based life forms will have an advantage in early close combat, but that advantage will get smaller and smaller. Titan is the strongest close combat race in the world. You have to believe that...”

“Really?” Brother Dog was immediately excited when he heard this. Did this mean that they were actually in the late stages?

This was a good relationship. He should have said so earlier. So those dog elves were in the early stages of their glory!

When he thought of this, Brother Dog suddenly felt that his future was bright...

“Nonsense!”

Just as Brother Dog was so happy, a cold voice interrupted Brother Dog’s excitement.

Brother Dog heard the voice and looked over. He was instantly stunned on the spot.

To be honest, brother dog felt that he was already somewhat immune to his beautiful appearance. After all, the elves in the base were all incomparably beautiful. They were several times more beautiful than the celebrities who had their filters turned on.

There should be no existence in this world that was more beautiful than them. However, after seeing the woman in front of him, Brother Dog felt that he was wrong.

It was true that each mountain was taller than the other...

It was a figure with a silver-gray light. She was covered in a light gauze that looked like a silver moonlight. Her graceful figure reflected the word ‘beauty’ vividly, he felt that the entire beautiful scenery around him was centered around her.

“You’re finally willing to come out?” Ysera said with a smile.

“HMPH...” the woman snorted and slowly walked toward brother dog.

“Stand up straight and raise your head!”

Brother Dog was stunned, but he still subconsciously did as he was told. Although the other party was a little cold, for some reason, he did not really want to reject her order.

However, the other party did not have the affinity of a green dragon.

Why was he so obedient?

Could it be that he was also licking a dog?

No Way?

Just as he was thinking, he saw two fair hands stretched out from the silver-gray shadow gauze, gently pressing on Brother Dog’s shoulders, and quickly groping.

“You... What are you doing?” Brother Dog was so scared that he wanted to retreat. What was the situation with this woman! ? She started groping and messing around, I’m not that kind of person!

Can’t you see that there’s someone watching by the side?

“Don’t move!”

The woman glared at Brother Dog. A powerful pressure instantly made brother dog become obedient.

After groping for a while, the woman stepped back slightly and looked at brother dog carefully. She muttered, “Unbelievable...”

“Isn’t it?” Ysera smiled and said, “I didn’t quite believe it at the beginning. A grafting seed, whether it’s the skeleton or the purity of the bloodline, is actually purer than the genuine descendants of the royal family. It seems that the old guy didn’t lie to us. Such an existence really exists in this world...”. “...”

“It seems so...” the woman narrowed her eyes and carefully sensed the aura on brother dog’s body. She nodded slightly. The Aura on this person was indeed the same as those royal descendants, and it was even purer!

“I say...” brother dog finally couldn’t hold it in anymore. “Shouldn’t you explain what’s going on?”

A bunch of words out of the blue, and a woman came out of nowhere to touch him randomly, trying to muddle through? Did she really think he was something?

“That’s true...”. Ysera nodded. “There are some things that I should tell you. After all, although there are many people with this kind of physique, there aren’t many royal bloodlines nowadays. Not everyone is as lucky as you.”

“Royal Bloodline?” Brother Dog was stunned. What was going on?

“Let me introduce you first...”Ysera’s voice became serious. “My name is Ysera. I’m the last guardian of the Emerald Dream realm of the Green Dragon Clan, and the one next to me is Diana, the last survivor of the Moon Elf Royal Family...”

“Moon Elf?”

At this moment, in a valley thousands of miles away, amidst layers of space-folding arrays, seer looked at Lulu in astonishment. “There are Moon Elves in this world?”

Anyone who had studied ethnology should know that there were three great ancient species of elves!

The wood elves that represented life, the elves that represented time and space, and the Moon Elves that represented spirit!

Those were the true royal family of elves. They were the three great ancient species that had once created the era of the brilliant elven civilization in the universe. But now, other than the wood elves that had spread the essence of life, there were still a large number of genes left, the remaining two species seemed to have disappeared.

If not for the historical records of the Elven civilization, many people would not have known that there were two other species. Many historians even questioned these records, they thought that the space elves made it up to raise the elves’ historical status.

Because indeed, countless archaeologists in the universe federation could not find even a trace of the other two species.

But this was also normal. Compared to the wood elves who spread their life force, the power controlled by the other two elven royalty sounded too incredible. In the eyes of many historians,. Those two existences were more like myths that the elven race had fabricated themselves...

Chapter 1120: Secrets of the world (Part Two) !

The main reason why it was called a myth was that the things the other two elven royalty possessed were too incredible.

Of the three great elves, the Wood Elves represented life. There was nothing wrong with this. Elves were very coincidental crystals of life at the beginning of many worlds, using their vigorous vitality to attract powerful creatures to coexist and grow together was the beginning of most elves. Even though the saying that the wood elves could represent the entire life system of the physical plane was exaggerated by many scholars., but there was still some explanation.

The other two were more ridiculous.

Among them, the Elf Elves represented space-time. It was rumored that after the royal family developed, the elves of this race could freely travel through space-time and control the space-time channel of the universe!

The Space Passage was one thing. After all, many of the current space technology came from the former fairy civilization. However, things like the time passage were a little ridiculous. Time retrogression was only a fallacy in science fiction, at the very least, until now, no one in the universe, including the Heavenly Gods Academy, had said that anyone could control space-time technology.

After all, if one could control that kind of thing, how could the fairy civilization become extinct? After all, the past could be changed indefinitely, right?

Then there were the Moon Elves...

Compared to the more absurd elf elves, there were some scholars who supported the existence of the Moon Elves.

It was rumored that this race was another elven civilization that rose up because they controlled the indigenous beliefs. It was completely opposite to the wood elves who grew up with powerful creatures and strengthened elements, materials, and even living things, they relied on the beliefs of the indigenous people to build the magic net and form a powerful spiritual body, which was the prototype of the current arcane civilization.

There were a lot of theories about the construction of the arcane magic net in the ancient elven civilization, which were very advanced even now. Many scholars thought that the ancient elven race had a branch of the pure spiritual civilization, however, they were still skeptical about the description of the Royal Moon Elves.

Because the elven civilization's records were too exaggerated.

In the records, the huge magic net created by the Moon elf civilization had more than ten times the coverage of the star bodies of the current Universe Federation. It had already developed the arcane civilization to an extreme.

Through this powerful magic net, the Moon Elves opened an independent spiritual plane outside of the universe, and used the spiritual power obtained from the powerful magic net built in the universe to rule countless outer space spiritual worlds!

In the end, the Moon Elves and the Wood Elves came to an agreement. The wood elves controlled the real world, the Moon Elves controlled the spiritual world, and the elf elves guarded space and time, merging into the three royal elven families.

In this period of history, the internal elves, especially the space elves, insisted on this saying, but the outsiders, especially the new scholars, mostly believed that the elves were raising their ancestors, exaggerating the so-called elven civilization era.

Seer also believed in the latter from the beginning...

"There really is such a thing as the Moon Elves?" Seer looked at Lulu and asked curiously.

"Of course there is..." Lulu rolled her eyes at Seer. "We outsiders were the only beings that appeared here in the Spirit Universe. The concept of the spirit universe also exists. Why Don't you believe in the existence of the Moon Elves?"

“UH...” Seer was stunned for a moment and could not help but say, “But according to official history, didn’t you existences find the passage here because the void tore two universe barriers, causing the boundaries of the two universes to overlap?”

“The void tear increased the degree of overlap between the two universes...” “...” Lulu said faintly, “The history of that group of stupid alchemists studying the alternate dimension leading to the invasion of the Void is indeed the main culprit of the current frequent overlap. However, the Void was not the first time they brought it here. A long time ago, the Lords of the Moon Elves had provoked those terrifying fellows!”

Lord Moon Elf...

Seer narrowed his eyes slightly when he heard this. It was rare to hear the fairy race address a race with such respect because he had the impression that they were very arrogant. Even when facing the god race, they appeared to be disdainful. However, he did not expect that this group of people would address a race like this...

Lord... ? ... could it be that the saying that the moon elves once ruled over a myriad of Worlds was true?

“The Void was summoned by the Moon Elves?”

“Yes...”. Lulu nodded. “At that time, the Lords of the Moon Elves were constantly developing new pathways to the spiritual world, just like how you little gods were opening up new pathways. It was just that the domains they opened up were different. They were conquering another world, but the spiritual world was after all an existence of the same size as the physical universe. There would always be some huge existences that you could not deal with every single time “... “...”

Seer immediately understood what he meant. In other words, as they were developing, they stepped on thunder. In an old saying in the middle of the D sphere, it meant that they would often walk along the shore. How could they not get their shoes wet!

“What happened after that?” Seer was instantly curious. If it was said that it had appeared in the void during the Elf era, then why was it not recorded in the current history of the Federation?

Lulu: “It was a disaster. It was also the first time for the Moon Elves to encounter such a large-scale spiritual world. and the race of that world was extremely aggressive. That time, the three great elven royal families were heavily injured and spent a great price to barely seal the void world. In order to prevent anyone from using this passage, the royal family destroyed all records about the Void!”

Xi Ye: “...”

He was a little surprised to hear that. The space elves loved to boast about the power of the ancient elven civilization, but never did he expect it to be so powerful that it could seal the void world with the power of one race?

After all, the Sky God alliance had gathered the power of billions of races in the universe, but until now, they had not been able to completely seal the void world. It could be seen from the void cracks that appeared from time to time.

“If the elven civilization was so powerful, why did it disappear after that?” Seer asked curiously.

“Powerful disintegration usually comes from within...” . “...” . Lulu said faintly, “Many elves saw the terror of the void back then, but there were also some who saw the power of the void. Their thirst for power could always breed some abnormal human hearts. In this world, the most terrifying thing has always been the human heart...” . “...”

Seer asked, “Can you explain it more clearly?”

“No...”Lulu shook her head. “This part of history can not be said now, and I can not mention the names of certain people. If I mention it, the consequences will be very serious.”

“Alright...”seer shrugged, then she said, “Then what is the secret of this world? There are remnants of the legendary Moon Elves? If that’s all, it wouldn’t be so risky for Andrew, right? Could it be that he wants to study the Moon Elf Bloodline?”

“It’s not just the Moon Elves!”Lulu narrowed her eyes and said, “The secret code of the magic net that the Moon Elf royal family once mastered, as well as some of the passageways of the previous spirit system worlds, are very likely in the hands of the last surviving Moon Elves!”

“Hiss! !”
