

A Bunch 1141

Chapter 1141: Reversal!

“Everyone, hurry up and keep up!” The person in charge of commanding shouted towards the back, “Don’t fall behind, don’t look to the sides, just walk forward!”

At this moment, the huge logistics team was orderly retreating towards the port under the command of the commander. Doggie and little cabbage were swaying in the crowd, but they did not listen to the warning from the person in front and looked around like thieves.

However, they regretted it after they saw it. After the city was demechanized, there was no magnetic field. The mecha in front switched to close combat mode to block the local army, but it was clearly not enough to block all the monsters outside, from time to time, some very strange things would appear and enter the rear.

As far as the eye could see, the sky was filled with strange things. The Rangers in the surroundings were covering their retreat. However, the number of Rangers was limited, so it was obvious that they could not protect everyone at all times. From time to time, there would be fish that would slip through the net and rush into the defensive line to kill a bunch of people.

Under such circumstances, the Rangers outside would only take the time to use weapons from afar to kill the monsters before ordering them to continue moving forward. Meanwhile, the members of the logistics team did not even dare to look at the dead ones as they buried their heads and continued on their way.

Upon seeing this scene, little cabbage shivered and said with a sobbing tone, “What are Grandpa and the others doing? Why aren’t they coming to save us...”

Eggface rolled his eyes when he heard that. To be honest, with monsters flying everywhere, these powerful Rangers were obviously more reliable than Grandpa and the others, okay?

I really hope that those two guys can safely bring us away. What are you thinking about?

But aren’t they dying too randomly?

Eggface frowned as he rushed forward while looking at the situation around him. Every time a monster was missed, a group of people would be smacked to death. Whether they could survive depended entirely on their faces... ..

Eggface did not think that he could avoid the monster’s attack. Although the people around him were from the logistics department and did not have any combat ability, that was only relative. Compared to scum like her and little cabbage, they were still very strong, okay. If they could be killed by a single slap, he would definitely be the same...

He did not know if he could survive with this dog luck...

Just as she was thinking, she suddenly felt a sense of alarm in her heart. Dog Egg’s entire body instantly tensed up. In a split second, he reacted instinctively without any hesitation!

The meditation technique that Vaughn had taught her was instantly activated. Everything in front of her turned into elemental particles. Then, she flew towards the direction of the cyan elemental particles at a speed that she usually did not dare to use!

Meanwhile, at the periphery, the others saw eggface turn into a beam of green light and disappear into the distance. He had almost crossed a hundred meters in an instant!

At the same time, at the place where eggface originally was, a giant python suddenly emerged from the ground and swallowed the person in that position!

The Rangers at the periphery reacted quickly. They picked up their long-range weapons and were about to shoot. However, the snake drilled into the ground again with incomparable agility!

One of the Rangers turned into a swift shadow and grabbed the dog egg who had turned into a green light and was still desperately running away!

After the green light was caught, it quickly turned into the shape of dog egg. However, it was still desperately running like a dog while being held by the ranger... ..

“Stop!”The ranger shouted coldly.

Dog Egg instantly calmed down after being shouted at, but his hands and feet were still crawling like a dog... ..

Looking at this little guy who couldn't even control her body completely, the high-level ranger who caught her had a complicated look in his eyes. This little guy could actually master master master Vivian's secret skill so quickly?

No Wonder Master Vivian was like a treasure...

“It's okay... calm down...”the ranger comforted her gently.

“Oh, oh...”Goudan nodded repeatedly with a frightened look on his face. That attack just now was too scary. Fortunately, this Goudan reacted quickly, or else he would have died, Haha. ... .. that little cabbage must have reacted. ... ? ... Eh?

Little Cabbage! !

Goudan suddenly looked in the direction where he was just now, but there was only a black hole-like deep pit in front of his eyes.

“Don't look, your companion has been swallowed by the snake...”the Ranger said faintly!

“Swallowed... By the snake?”Eggface widened his eyes and repeated the ranger's words with a dull expression.

The ranger frowned. He knew that the other party might have dealt a heavy blow, but he didn't say anything. He directly tied Eggface with a rope on his back and rushed toward another monster-intensive area. He didn't have the time to comfort this little guy now, he had wasted a few seconds, and a large number of people had already died!

Meanwhile, Dogball was completely in a daze, his head buzzing... ..

The cabbage was swallowed...

That guy... did he just take dogball like that?

It shouldn't be...

That guy was a lucky star in the base. Every time he was kidnapped, he was the chosen one who reaped a lot of benefits!

That's right... . The guy's gonna be fine. wasn't she abducted by a snake the first time? And? He's out there being a tribal chief!

That guy's a badass. He's obviously God's daughter. He'll be fine.

I'm sure it'll be fine...

"Damn it! !"

Alice saw the back of the cabbage was swallowed by the giant snake, green eyes suddenly turned red, suddenly accelerated to rush over, but was next to the bull head to catch.

"What are you doing?"The Minotaur asked coldly.

"Save her! !"Alice said anxiously.

"How?"The minotaur squinted his eyes and said, "Andrew modified the giant snake. Its creature level is at least level 15 and above. How are you going to save it?"

"Why didn't you do anything?"Alice asked.

"If I do anything now, I will be exposed..."the Minotaur said straightforwardly.

"But..."Alice looked at the other party's calm gaze and asked doubtfully, "Didn't you value her very much before?"

The minotaur said, "She has very high aptitude, but I don't have that much intention to train students. Of course it's good, but if it conflicts with our goal, it's not a big deal..."

Alice:"..."

"But you don't have to worry..." . "...". The minotaur laughed and said, "The surrounding biochemical beasts may look like irrational monsters, but they are all under Andrew's control. Andrew isn't crazy. That Elven girl has the Royal Green Elf bloodline, he wouldn't be so crazy as to destroy her!"

"Is that so?"Alice looked deeply at the Minotaur and didn't say anything in the end... ..

The minotaur smiled. No one knew what he was thinking, so the two of them continued to hide in the logistics team and rushed toward the port.

On the other side, cabbage, who had been swallowed by the giant snake in one gulp, shrank into a ball of meat and shivered. She didn't even have the courage to look up... ..

Sob, sob, why does it always have to be like this? What sins have I committed...

Little cabbage wanted to cry in her heart, but the strange thing was that she didn't feel like she was in the stomach of a snake... ..

"You are still so useless..."

Suddenly, a cold voice sounded, causing the trembling meatball to freeze. A few seconds later, little cabbage suddenly raised her head and looked at the person who had spoken!

"Why are you here??"

Chapter 1142: Andrew's monologue... ..

"Why are you here?"

Bai Cai looked at that person in a daze. She had never expected that this person would appear here... There was no sign at all. ...

"Boss Rainie? You were also abducted by a snake?"

"Do you think I'm as embarrassed as you?" Guo Xiaoyun rolled her eyes. "Abducted at will?"

Although... she seemed to have been abducted as well...

"Then... Why are you here?" Bai Cai asked blankly.

"Of course, I'm here to save you..." Guo Xiaoyun said seriously, "You got lost and everyone was so worried. Goudan and I came out to look for you at the first moment. Didn't Goudan tell you?"

"Ugh..." Bai Cai's eyes turned red. "Why... are you all so good to me..."

First, it was Grandpa and soap, then dog egg. He didn't expect that even Big Boss Rainie would take the risk to come. He was really too worrying... ..

"It's okay, it's okay... .. Don't Cry... .. "You're an adult now, aren't you ugly?" Guo Xiaoyun touched Bai Cai's dog head. "If you're grateful, then come up with something real. For example, you can give me a waiver of the rental fees for the few shops that I opened in your territory, and also the materials fees on my credit... "..."..."

Cabbage started to cry. "The rent is okay, but the cost of the materials is so high that you can exempt Alice from hitting me..."

"Oh?" Cabbage's eyes flashed. "Alice..."

"Oh right, boss, how did you..." cabbage pointed at the huge snake next to her. Apparently, the snake had already listened to Raina's command.

This made her a little confused. Although she was usually simple-minded, she was still familiar with the job's characteristics. Wasn't the flower spirit the only one who could control large-scale creatures? Since when did developers become capable?

If developers had the ability to control creatures, what was the meaning of the flower spirit's profession? Spiritual power growth could not compete with it, and spiritual power control could not compete with it. As a mage class, the flower spirit's only strength was elemental affinity. With elemental affinity, the flower spirit could walk the path of a magical beast master and a magic plant master. However, if these two classes were also occupied by developers, she felt that her class would be of little use... ..

As expected, developers were the real children?

Guo Xiaoyun looked at little cabbage. Almost instantly, she could tell what the other party was thinking from her fat face that did not know how to hide. She said calmly, "Don't worry, this is just a special case..."

"Oh... What special case is it?" Little cabbage asked shamelessly.

Guo Xiaoyun frowned. She didn't want to expose the fact that she had been kidnapped. She didn't want to be labeled as a mascot. Little cabbage was enough for the base!

"You're so generous..."

On the other side, in a secret place in the outskirts of South Sea city, Vaughn was lying in a pile of rotten meat, looking at Andrew indifferently.

At this time, Vivian's body was resting on the rotten meat, but there was an extremely pure life energy surrounding her. The wounds on her body were beginning to recover, and even her skeleton was being reconstructed by the energy. All of this required a top-notch surgeon to do, but Andrew could do it with only runes. This allowed Vivian to witness the so-called power of a great lord's domain once again... ..

Facing Vaughn's question, Andrew smiled and said gently, "A bet must be a bet... I'm still a person, how can I deceive a Junior?"

Hearing this, Vaughn was slightly stunned. Since when did this guy care about reputation? Or was it in such a place that no one knew about? He just went back on his word. Who Knew?

The key was that the thing he lost in the bet was not an ordinary thing... ..

Vivian knew about the bet. Andrew had designed an alchemy matrix in his field. There were thirty runic links in the matrix, and each of the runic links was very complicated, but the computational structure used was the most primitive basic knowledge.

It was equivalent to a very complicated problem, but the core knowledge of the design was the knowledge of D Ball junior high school, but its complexity could make any math professor doubt his life...

As a Ranger who was proficient in magic breaking techniques, Vivian had studied runes. In some aspects of structure breaking, she was even comparable to some professional arcanists.

But even she was dizzy when she saw Andrew setting the problem. The structure of the algorithm was too complicated. The energy links in the runes were as thin as human hair, and each link played a crucial role, moreover, every link was a one-way thread. A slight mistake in the sequence would cause the later algorithm to become a mess. They would have to start all over again!

However, it was forcefully solved by that little guy!

To be honest, Vaughn still could not believe that the little guy could solve the runic matrix in just a few days... ..

The other party's brain was like the top intelligence of the federation. It was as if it could not make a mistake at all. The memory of every link seemed to be carved into the brain. It was solved with patience and efficiency bit by bit. He smoothly opened up the runes one after another and finally obtained the energy core, controlling the alchemy dragon... ..

That's right!

That wasn't a snake, it was a dragon! !

Andrew's experiment back then wasn't completely fake. It could be considered as real. and according to Vaughn, that New Alchemy Dragon was Andrew's latest research achievement, the structure of its body was even better than the one coiling around the planet.

It was just that it had not been catalyzed yet. In other words, a top-tier biological weapon with dragon genes, an alchemy product with huge potential and development space, had cost Andrew the core fruits of hundreds of eras, at this time, he had lost to a junior developer!

No matter how he thought about it, it felt like a conspiracy...

Looking at Vaughn's undisguised doubt, Andrew coughed lightly. "Maybe he's old... when he sees such outstanding juniors, he can't help but regard them as his sustenance..."

Vivian twitched the corner of her mouth. "How many people do you think believe the words of an immortal undead?"

Andrew glanced at her. "You were born in a big family. Don't you know that immortality doesn't exist at all?"

Vivian:"..."

"I'm different from you. I didn't know these secrets at the beginning..." Andrew looked at the starry sky that was now dazzling due to the flames of war, he said faintly, "At that time, I was working hard every day and every second towards the legendary immortal realm. But every time I reached a new realm, my peers told me that the next realm is eternal life..."

"Time, time, time, time... I almost used up all my time and tried my best to move forward, but the footsteps of death always followed me like a shadow..." Andrew sighed faintly. "I don't have much time left..."

Vivian looked at him with a complicated expression. As a member of a big family, she understood what he said. Even if they were undead, their consciousness would not exist forever, even if they were a top-notch undead like Andrew.

All the gifts in the world were not given for no reason. The world of death was also the same. It was not an eternal paradise. Powerful Undead would eventually become a part of the world of death, dissipating their consciousness and entering reincarnation... ..

“If I don’t succeed this time... .. I’m almost done... ..” Andrew smiled. “I’m ranked last among the ten great undead, but I’m indeed the oldest one. This is my last chance. If it turns out to be something given to that junior, then it’s nothing. If it doesn’t work, then there’s no one left anyway. No matter how precious those things are, what’s there to be reluctant about?”

Chapter 1143: Saab’s entanglement and turning point

The entire situation had entered a white-hot stage. And in the New Territories, there was another force that was currently hovering on the edge, which was the blood demon army led by Saab... ..

To be honest, as a force that was only second to Vogu’s vanguard team on paper, it was quite a pity that they didn’t even enter the battlefield at this moment.

After all, even the female knight who was schemed against by the Outsiders had barely entered with Brother Dog. Meanwhile, Sab and the others who came to explore Andrew’s secrets didn’t even have the chance to enter, if Sab knew that so many outsiders had entered but he still didn’t have a ticket outside, who knew how he would feel.

“Boss...”

At this moment, on the south side of the port, seeing the large group of monsters charging at him, the adjutant of the Blood Demon Army quickly went to SAB and asked, “What do we do now?”

SAB looked at the bio-monsters that filled the sky and the human-shaped army with the Apocalypse Sword in front of him. For the first time, he showed hesitation!

Those behind him were his direct troops, which were his main support in the Burton faction. The formation of the Burton faction was very complicated, and there were many big shots behind it. He actually represented the interests of one of the big shots.

Over the years, under his leadership, the status of the blood demon clan gradually rose in the Burton faction. Many of the disciples, especially the pure-blooded demons, were treated very well because of him when they joined the Burton faction, they were almost second only to the fallen angels, the Dylan Demon clan, and the Balrog tribe.

Even the Shadow Demon clan in the fourth dimension had been at a disadvantage in the recent competition for resources with the blood demon clan. This was partly because of Saab’s military exploits, which had indeed brought a lot of benefits to the faction, it was also because of Saab’s appeal that he was able to recruit enough pureblood demon descendants in his hometown!

However, if all these direct descendants were to fall in this wave, SAB's position under Bolton might be finished...

The big shots who represented the interests of the blood demons would also consider changing their agents. After all, no family would want their descendants to be sent off in one wave by incompetent agents... ..

However, if he directly gave up the mission to retreat in order to protect the interests of the blood demons and let Lord Bolton completely lose the initiative after entering the planet, even if he wasn't directly blamed, ... He would definitely be pushed out of the center of supreme power in the future...

One had to know that Bolton had mobilized almost all the forces for this trip with a wave of determination. At this time, you gave up the opportunity to fight because of the interests of the blood clan's disciples.., what do you think the boss will think of You?

"Sir?" The Adjutant asked again. His eyes were filled with anxiety, and he was clearly a little nervous... ..

As the adjutant, he did not dare to take the blame. This decision could only be made by his current agent, Saab!

Fight or retreat?

Saab's brain started to think crazily. To be honest, it was not that he had never fought a big fight before, but that was at least basic information. In this situation, he did not even know where the entrance was.., from the fact that Vogu and Andrew's forces had already become strong, he knew that the other party must have found the key clue, which was why they were willing to be strong.

But he did not have it. Wouldn't it be a waste to rush forward without thinking? If you went to talk about cooperation with Vogu's forces now, would they be willing to share it with you?

Only an idiot would give it to you at this time. Of course, he could make a wave of bad moves and destroy the rear of Vogu's forces... ..

But this didn't mean much, because Andrew wouldn't share anything with Vogu's forces just because you destroyed them. The only useful thing was to threaten Vogu's forces while they were struggling to defend, let them be forced to share their share.

But this method had to have a certain amount of information as a foundation, otherwise, it would be very easy for the other party to backtrack!

For example... ? The other party appeared to compromise and agreed to give you a wave. However, they gave you an unknown piece of information and asked you to help defend Andrew's attack. Do you agree or not?

Saab was 100% sure that as long as the other party found out that he did not have any information, they would definitely give him false information. Moreover, it would be the kind of information that he could not tell... ..

At that time, he would definitely suffer a double loss!

With no information at all, this risk... .. He really couldn't take it... ..

After thinking it through, Sab finally closed his eyes and sighed. "Prepare to retreat..."

As soon as he said this, the surrounding commanders immediately let out a long sigh of relief...

Once he said this, it meant that SAB would take all the blame on behalf of their blood clan disciples. The responsibility of retreating at the last minute and causing the faction to lose the initiative would definitely be taken care of by the commander-in-chief.

Although the blood demon disciples would definitely fall after Sab fell, it wasn't fatal. Those who knew about Bolton faction knew that the big boss behind them would find someone to replace SAB at the first opportunity... ..

Of course, the blood demons looked at SAB with gratitude because the other party had chosen the latter between the interests of the lords and the interests of the races...

Looking at the gratitude in the eyes of the Blood Demons' disciples, Sab revealed a bitter smile... ..

He now understood that there would be so many conflicts between the overlord and the big families in the federation. Sometimes, the situation could really make the families that were originally loyal to the Overlord take other actions... ..

However, if he were to be replaced, he might not be able to take care of that Little Fellow, villafa. Without him, the attitude of the other guardian sent by the higher-ups and how they would treat her would have nothing to do with him... ..

"SAB..." Vera seemed to have realized something. She pulled SAB's sleeve, and a trace of anxiety appeared in her eyes. ...

She was obviously very worried...

"It's okay, child..." Sab took a breath, she tried her best to keep her expression calm. "I will fight for the last wave for you and try my best to let that guy, Dida LA, replace me. I have taken on such a big burden this time, so the higher-ups will always give me face!"

"But..." villafa bit his lips and revealed a child-like aggrieved expression. ... .. He looked like he wanted to say something but hesitated.

Diala was a direct descendant of the Libertley family of the blood demon clan. He had a good relationship with Saab and his attitude towards him was basically the same as Saab's. However, there was only one Saab. No matter how good Diala was, he could not replace Saab... ..

SAB looked at the attachment in Vera's eyes, and a trace of gentleness flashed through his heart, but in the end, he hardened his heart... ..

Little Rafa's strength had already surpassed his, and she was no longer a child. Actually, he should let her temper herself by herself. After all... .. He couldn't accompany her forever, and his time limit was limited ... There was not much left to begin with... ..

"Sir, there's a situation! !"

Just as he was about to announce the retreat order, an excited voice suddenly came from his heart!

Bolton was stunned. That voice belonged to his other adjutant, Giza. He was in charge of the battle preparations at the outer perimeter. Could it be that there was already a battle coming from the outside?

It shouldn't be. Andrew's Biochemical Corps should be under control, right? There was no need to continue to create enemies for him, right?

While he was puzzled, Burton quickly responded with a secret spell, "Speak!"

"Sir Sophia is back!"

"What? ? ?"

Chapter 1144: The Turning Point brought by Sofia

"Sofia is back?"

This news stunned the higher-ups of the blood demon garrison. SAB also had a look of surprise on his face... ..

To be honest, he had already given up on the mission of finding Sofia after he and Vera were injured!

He was already prepared to be replaced by Bolton, but he did not expect the turning point to come so quickly?

SAB was not surprised at first, but alert. He knew that Sophia alone would not be able to escape from the hands of a top-tier spatial master... ..

"Stay Alert!" Sab ordered immediately.

A few high-level blood demons nodded solemnly, turning into blood shadows and flying in all directions, maintaining a defensive formation!

Sab took a deep breath and walked out with Villafa.

Sophia was the only one outside the defensive formation. The blood demons who received SAB's instructions blocked Sophia out with cold faces. Sophia's face was gloomy. She looked at the Monster Horde behind her with some worry, her allies refused to let her into the defensive formation!

However, she couldn't do anything about it. The highest commander on the ground was SAB, and he was the only one she could find!

After about ten seconds, Sab arrived outside quickly and stared at Sophia who was outside the defensive formation with a serious face.

"How did you come back?" Sab didn't waste any time and asked the key question straightforwardly on the spot.

Sophia's heart sank. As a subordinate who suffered in her own family, she was not cared about but questioned after she returned safely. No one felt very good. However, she could understand. If it was her, she would definitely be suspicious first... ..

Suppressing the uncomfortable emotions in her heart, Sophia replied very professionally, "Sir, I did not escape, but they let me out on their own!"

Hearing this, Sab nodded slightly. Thinking about it, there were only two possibilities. One was that Sophia was being controlled, similar to a spiritual hypnotist, and had completely pulled her out. This possibility was not unheard of, after all., the Fairy Lulu was with the Little Lord. That guy could even affect the memories of star-level powerhouses, not to mention a low-level life form like Sophia.

The second situation was that the other party intentionally let her back, obviously with a purpose. To be honest, the second situation was obviously better than the first one. Compared to the overt scheme, the one he couldn't afford to try right now was actually a conspiracy... ..

Thinking of this, Sab directly opened the eye of blood demon and scanned Sophia's entire body.

Sophia closed her eyes and wholeheartedly accepted the scan. That kind of naked perspective made her very uncomfortable, but she could only endure it patiently.

No spatial markings, no advanced arcane markings... . .

After scanning a circle, Saab slightly let down his guard, as long as there is no space mark, he is not afraid of the other party like the Dark Villafa to trick them again.

"Come in first..."Saab finally softened his voice.

"Thank you, my Lord..."Sophia breathed a sigh of relief and hurried into the defensive line.

Familiar with the demon energy package, so that Sophia has a sense of home security, the heart for many days of anxiety finally put down some, even a kind of want to have a good rest of the comfort.

"Tell me..."Saab asked directly as he led her into the center. "What's going on?"

Sophia did not dare to delay, after all, this information is important, so hurriedly will all the situation report again.

After finishing the report, all the high-level blood demons in the surroundings, including Saab, were deeply shocked... ..

Moon elf inheritance? Spirit path password?

Oh My God! ! !

Those who had some historical knowledge knew what this meant. Strictly speaking, their abyss world was once a spirit-based world under the Moon Elf Civilization!

They were well aware of what those spirit channel codes represented... ..

It was an infinite amount of resources! ! !

SAB's jaw dropped in shock as well...

The higher-ups had passed down information that Andrew was truly concerned about the secrets of the planet. This planet's secrets might be extraordinary. Even if he had made preparations, SAB had never thought that this secret would be so extraordinary!

This was simply a wave of people who could become gods!

Once the Bolton Force could obtain these things, it would be a huge breakthrough for the Demon God project. Without a doubt, Lord Bolton would become the first great demon lord in history in the future, and it was very likely that he would challenge the ten great lords!

At the thought of this, Sab's breathing became rapid!

He stared at Sofia, wanting to see if everything was real or fake from her eyes, but he couldn't do it because his logic was too meticulous. Fairy Lulu had been deliberately captured by Lord Sab from the start, just to come here.., to find the Master of the former Moon Elves, to give them a new hope for the immortal palace that was about to dry up.

Andrew had spent a lot of effort to give up everything, and only such a secret could make a character like him give up everything!

Thinking of this, Saab had already believed 70-80% of it!

"Then why did they let you go?" Vera was the first to calm down and ask the key question.

Theoretically speaking, such a big cake should be given to fewer people. Why did they let Sofia out to increase the competition?

"Because the VOGU faction's cards are too powerful...". "...". Sofia hurriedly said, "The VOGU faction has advanced anti-space technology and has already sent reinforcements. Currently, their Vanguard team already has five star level experts, including not only the powerful spatial master Plato, but also the famous Templar assassin Lanaya!"

Lanaya? ?

SAB's question pupils shrunk!

As a blood demon, SAB had been in the world of assassins when he was still in the federation. Naturally, he had heard of the Templar clan, a large clan of assassins with a deep foundation, he had even fought with this genius assassin of the Templar clan during a mission!

That fight had completely changed his arrogance. It was also that time that he realized the importance of techniques. He had started to focus on training in assassin techniques instead of completely relying on the blood demon's powerful bloodline!

"What does the Little Lord Mean?" Sab narrowed his eyes and asked.

Sofia said, "What that fellow means is to temporarily cooperate and balance each other. At the last moment, we'll rely on our own abilities! !"

"Hehe..." Sab laughed when he heard that. "He actually dares to say that... what a big tone..."

A level six or seven little lord, taking advantage of so many top-tier forces in troubled waters, he really did not know whether to say that he was confident or arrogant... ..

“Sir... then... What should we do now?”The adjutant beside him hurriedly asked. The high-level blood demons around him also widened their eyes and looked at SAB expectantly.

Sab took a deep breath and fell into deep thought.

He wasn’t willing to give up an opportunity of this level, even without Bolton’s blame. That kind of resource might even help him reach a higher level.

After all... if he could live, who would want to turn into a star?

Thinking of this, Saab activated the blood demon secret skill and informed all the blood demons!

Chapter 1145: What are you going to do when you get to the end?

“Attention, all my compatriots!”

SAB activated his blood demon secret skill, connecting all the blood demon disciples... ..

“We have now encountered a great opportunity, but it is also an extremely dangerous mission. This mission may very well lead to our complete annihilation...”

When all the blood demons heard this, they immediately fell silent.

“As the main commander of this mission, I will not force you to participate. If you are unwilling to participate, I will give you a mission to stay behind in the name of the commander of the Fifth Legion. I will not let you carry the name of a deserter. I, SAAB, am a man of my word!”

When all the blood demons heard this, they were stunned. In their hearts, they heaved a sigh of relief. At the very least, there was a way out... ..

“But if anyone is willing to participate in the mission, I will make the decision. I will directly reward them with third-grade battle merits. Those who die in battle will receive 50 million federation coins as compensation, and they will have relatives and children to nurture. Those who are above level 15 and are willing to participate in the mission, I will make the decision to reward them with first-grade battle merits. Those who die in battle will receive one billion federation coins as compensation!”

The addition of the rewards at the back instantly made many blood demons who had the intention to retreat waver. It was difficult for them not to be moved by such a generous reward. After all, which of the people who came to join the army did not have the intention to risk their lives for wealth?

“There is not much time. Please give your answer within three minutes. If it is out of date, you will be disqualified from participating in the task...”

“Again, quitters are not deserters!”

On the other side, the headmaster and Plato have reached the critical moment in breaking the enchantment. The basic breaking technique is ready, just waiting for the energy from the rear to be sent, and then it can be opened!

Vien, Lanaya, Goron, and the other experts were surrounding the outside, guarding the barrier entrance in a tight formation!

However, at the critical moment, a blood-red light shrouded the sky. Vien and the others were looking at the sky vigilantly!

“What’s the situation?”

Plato, who was preparing the technique, clearly felt threatened and hurriedly asked the outside.

“What are they doing here at this time?” A trace of doubt flashed in Plato’s eyes, and then he stopped what he was doing. Without knowing the intention of the blood demons, rashly preparing the spell might cause the energy to collapse... ..

After a few seconds, a blood-red light descended and turned into thousands of blood demons wearing scarlet cloaks. Each of them had a powerful aura, and they were obviously high-level blood demons above level-12!

Sab and villafa, who were in the lead, had an even more astonishing aura!

Everyone, including Goron, who had crushed villafa previously, became vigilant. This time was different from the last time. He had brought an army here. The Blood Demon Army that formed a battle formation and the head general coming alone were not the same thing... ..

At this time, their main force was fighting against Andrew’s biochemical army at the periphery...

The situation was not looking good...

“Respected ally...” Goron was the first to step forward with a smile. “May I know why you’re here?”

SAB glanced at the old man who had wanted to kill them before, but now he kept calling them allies, he sneered. “Since we’re allies, we’re naturally here to help you. We Can’t Let You Face Andrew’s army alone, can we?”

“Your faction is so generous that we are ashamed. On behalf of Lord Vogu, I sincerely thank you!” Goron bowed with a serious face.

Everyone, including the VOGU faction, rolled their eyes. Should they say that they were indeed old and shrewd. They really could say it... ..

“There’s no need to thank me...” Sab was impatient and continued to waste time arguing with them.

“Just don’t keep the benefits for yourself. Please take out the spatial coordinates of the Emerald Dream!”

As soon as he said this, the faces of Vogu’s group darkened!

It was obvious that SAB knew about the core information...

"No problem, no problem!" Gerald still smiled and said, "Plato, Hurry up, divide the coordinates into allies..."

Plato's eyes flashed. Just as he was about to speak, sab interrupted, "Don't try to fool us. We can tell whether the coordinates are real or fake..."

As he spoke, Sophia slowly walked forward from behind.

When they saw that guy, Plato and the others' expressions changed!

They had seen this little guy before. After all, the principal and Plato had relied on this little guy to lock onto the core position when they broke the barrier!

The death embrace, which was under the principal's control, had appeared in Saab's team. It was obvious what was going on!

Plato looked at seer with a gloomy face. "Seer, this is a little unfair!"

Seer laughed. "Well, I also think that having more people means more power..."

Everyone:"..."

Gerald looked at seer with trembling eyes. He felt that he had met his opponent... ..

Plato said with a gloomy face, "Sir, since we are working together, shouldn't we be more sincere? It's hard for me not to wonder what tricks you will play when you break the enchantment..."

Seer looked at Plato and said lazily, "I'm also worried about that. What if you attack me directly after breaking the enchantment? I'm also very uneasy..."

"You..."

"Haven't you thought about it?" Seer tilted her head and looked at the other party. "That's probably because I'm a petty person. Sorry for making a fool of myself..."

These words made the VOGU faction members choke with anger...

But to be honest, they had indeed thought about it. No... "...". It should be said that this was the plan. The moment the barrier was broken, they planned to let Lanaya try it out and see if she could directly kill seer and the others!

If she didn't succeed, at most she would be dragged into the spatial storm and then make a fuss. After all, once they were inside, they would have to face each other!

However, the situation was different now. With Saab's intervention, along with the headmaster and the fairy clan, the other party had four star level powerhouses. Moreover, that little overlord was not as simple as it seemed. It was obviously extremely risky to directly make a move at the barrier's entrance...

"Interesting little fellow..." Gerald looked at Xi Ye with a sinister expression. "I really want to know, you've been taking advantage of the situation to fish in troubled waters. Have you ever thought that in the end, you'll always have to see the truth! !"

Xi Ye slightly bowed towards Gerald. "Senior, don't worry. This lord is very crafty. If you don't have the chance to fish in the end, just slip away. You Won't be so careless..."

Goron:"..."

SAB also looked at seer with a complicated expression. He had a weird feeling about this little lord who was so crafty!

"Sir, the energy block is here!"

While the atmosphere was weird, someone reported hurriedly from outside, "Sir Billy is in a hurry. He said he can last five minutes at most. Please open the enchantment as soon as possible!"

Plato took a deep breath when he heard that. It was obvious that he had no time to continue pestering. In the end, he could only nod his head as if he had accepted his fate. He looked at the principal who had been smiling and not saying a word. "Then let's begin, senior..."

Chapter 1146: Strange Intelligence (Top)

"What's the situation at the rear? Is it not ready yet?"

Billy's side was in a state of impatience. At this moment, most of the mecha squads at the front line had already started to crack. Without enough energy to support them, many of their mecha bodies were in a state of exhaustion... ..

If this continued, they would soon collapse...

"Sir... Sir Plato said that we need to hold on for at least another ten minutes!"

On the other side, the adjutant gave a reply.

"What?" Billy was instantly flustered. "What kind of joke is this?"

The current battle situation, ten minutes? She was already prepared to have people start retreating. Hold on for F * CK's sake!

Even if she called Sir Phippen down, he would not be able to hold on for ten minutes. No matter how much he held on, the lack of energy was still a hard injury. Without Energy, what was the difference between that group of mecha and scrap metal? Even the divine commander could not change the situation!

"Sir, don't be impatient. Reinforcements are on the way!" The adjutant immediately replied.

"Reinforcements?" Billy was stunned when he heard that.

Where did they get reinforcements? Could it be that the higher-ups had opened the reverse space passage to send reinforcements down?

That was not right. Wasn't the authority to open the reverse space passage in his hands?

Just as he was wondering, a large patch of bloody light suddenly appeared behind him. Following a sharp sound of air being torn apart, a large number of monsters in the sky were cleared out. Soon.., the bloody light turned into high-level blood demons wearing scarlet cloaks and landed in the center of the city!

“Blood Demons?”

Billy was stunned. Support actually referred to blood demons?

“Sir Billy, is it?”The leading high-level blood demon quickly stepped forward and bowed to Billy. “We have been instructed by Sir Saab to assist you in supporting the front line. Please command the battle line!”

What was going on?

Billy was dumbfounded, but it was obviously too late to think about it. After hesitating for about a second, Billy activated the spiritual link in the face of the invitation of these blood demons!

All the blood demons immediately opened their spiritual power to accept the other party’s link. In an instant, Billy obtained the life information of all the blood demons!

This army...

Billy was shocked. Although he could vaguely feel that these blood demons were all elites, he could not help but be surprised after receiving all the information. There were actually more than a hundred blood demons above level 15!

Such a scale of blood demon army was probably the only one in the entire universe. If Sab had not come alone and brought this army over, she was not even confident that she could rely on her own mecha force to fight against these guys!

Billy: “My Mecha Force can no longer maintain the battle. We have to shrink inward. You guys are responsible for taking over the outer line and covering for them to retreat to the inner line!”

The few high-ranking blood demon officers’ faces darkened when they heard this. weren’t these words telling them to cover the rear?

What kind of joke was this? Although they had indicated that they would give her the command, she was not the one who had really attacked them. How could she say such words?

Seeing this, Billy hurriedly explained, “Most of the forces’ energy has been used to open the barrier at the rear. The mecha unit doesn’t have enough energy to operate and is no different from scrap metal. It Won’t be of much use if they stay. You guys don’t have to worry about me scheming against you. I and the blue spirit above level 14 will stay here and retreat with you guys. What do you think?”

Hearing this, the blood demons’ expressions softened slightly. If they only wanted to retreat from the low-end mecha operators who were about to run out of energy, it would make sense. Leaving the high-level blue spirit on the spot and retreating together would at least show their attitude.

At this thought, the blood demon adjutant nodded reluctantly. “Then please give the command, sir. What should we do?”

“All mecha operators, follow my instructions and shrink towards the designated battle line. Remember, maintain your formation and don’t Panic!”

Billy’s orders were transmitted to the minds of almost every mecha operator through telepathy. Everyone instantly heaved a sigh of relief. They were clearly aware that their mecha’s power supply was insufficient. Just as they were feeling nervous, they finally received the order to retreat!

Although the compensation after death was generous enough, that was under circumstances where they had no other choice. Under normal circumstances, who would want to receive that money?

“Team 64, begin to shrink. Retreat towards XX coordinates. Maintain Formation!”

At the southwest corner, the leader of a mecha team received Billy’s order and began to command.

“Yes, Captain!”

The members of Team 64 replied excitedly.

Just as they were about to carry out the order, someone suddenly said, “Watch out for the enemy attack ahead!”

“Wait... It’s not the enemy, it’s our people!”

The captain stopped the attack of his subordinates and looked at the Black Shadow charging over with a frown. Through the high-speed image capture, he quickly confirmed that it was a mecha from his own faction.

“Black Martial fourth-generation mecha?” The captain frowned. “Isn’t this the people from the second line of Defense?”

The surrounding teammates were also dumbfounded when they heard this. The so-called second line was the second layer of the outer defense line that had been set up in the beginning. It belonged to the cannon fodder line. The highest level was led by a level-13 mecha operator. Most of them were mid-to low-end mecha models below level-11, at this point in the battle, the fourth layer of the outer defense line had long been swallowed up. There were actually survivors?

Billy, who was controlling everyone to retreat, had also noticed the situation over there at this moment. A hint of shock flashed across his heart.

He subconsciously paid attention to it.

Mecha 1172 number...

Through her brain’s instantaneous search, she found information about the other party. Bernie, the leader of the first detection team, was a level-13 mecha operator. He was piloting a relatively low-end black weapon model, he had been sent to the cannon fodder line on the second floor.

At that time, she remembered that during the fourth wave of attacks, the other party’s team was almost completely wiped out. At that time, in order to save her spiritual energy, she had directly cut off the connection to that team, he had not expected that this little fellow would actually be able to escape in such an environment?

Moreover, the collapse of the second layer of defense seemed to have happened 20 minutes ago, right?

This little fellow had been hanging around the outer perimeter for so long, yet he was still fine?

“A.I. notification, mecha 1172 number has applied to join the team and retreat together!”

Team 64 very quickly received the other party’s request.

Just as they were hesitating, Billy immediately gave an order. “Accept the invitation!”

“Yes, Sir!”The squad leader immediately replied. At this time, he was not willing to let him bring a burden to retreat, but since the order was given, there was nothing he could do.

Billy did not care about this. No matter how the little guy survived, it was not easy for him to hold on until now. He had no choice but to let these people be cannon fodder, he did not really want them to die outside.

To be able to survive was naturally the best...

“Join the team!”The team leader quickly replied, “Stand behind Mecha 7734 and support the defense!”

“Yes!”A reply came from the other end of the mecha.

After the mecha joined the team, the surrounding teammates could not help but ask, “Brother, awesome. How did you run back?”

That kind of Beast Tide was at the second layer of defense. Logically speaking, it should have been completely dead by now... ..

“This...”

Faced with everyone’s questions, the soap inside the mecha didn’t know how to explain it... ..

Actually, the entire process really had nothing to do with them...

Speaking of which, the reason why he and his grandfather were able to escape alive in that kind of situation was all because of that strange intelligence inside the mecha...

Chapter 1147: Strange Intelligence -PartpTwo two)

When the second layer of defense was destroyed, soap’s team was the first to collapse... ..

The reason was very simple, because soap did not know how to operate a mecha at all. Not to mention that soap was unable to completely devour Bernie’s memories, even if he did, he would not be able to become a mecha expert in a short period of time. After all, he had spent tens of thousands of years of hard work. From learning basic knowledge to timing drills, he had spent a huge amount of effort. This was not a racial talent that could be obtained in just a few days... ..

Things like battle formations required seamless coordination. There was a huge disparity in military strength. The number of people that Billy assigned to each team was the limit. The basic requirement was for the mecha operators to perform to their usual limits. But clearly, soap could not meet this requirement.

So almost at the first moment, his teammates were killed by him...

Just when Grandpa and soap thought that they were about to give up, a strange thing happened... ..

The mecha's AI actually directly replaced their manual operation, personally operating the mecha. In an instant, the comical mecha became a battle master.

Moving through countless monsters, the mecha quickly retreated to the edge of another team to join them, and reinforced their details. The mecha operated by the AI could help that team hold on for a long time every time it arrived at a team, and every time that team could not hold on, the mecha would abandon the team at the most suitable time and retreat to the next layer of defense to apply for the team to join.

Just like that, he retreated all the way to the seventh layer of defense, and he was active all the way until now...

Grandpa and soap felt like they were watching a CG movie the entire time. They were nervous and excited, and in the end, they actually managed to sneak back to the main force to retreat. Not to mention Billy, the commander-in-chief, who did not expect this, they did not even think about it themselves.

Of course, soap would definitely not say anything about the intelligent mecha operating system... ..

What a joke. If the AI had such a level of mecha operating skills, why would it need a mecha operator? Even a normal person would understand that this AI was weird, alright?

"I'm a little lucky..." soap replied humbly to the curiosity of the surrounding people.

The surrounding mecha operators were stunned. Their hearts were complicated. To be able to run all the way back from the second layer of defense, this was definitely not a little lucky... ..

"Everyone, be quiet and focus on retreating. Don't talk about useless things..."

The captain ordered seriously.

Although he wanted to know the details, it was obvious that this wasn't the time to listen to a story... ..

Soap didn't say anything. He followed the mecha team and retreated. With the blood demon army behind them, their fate of being left behind had changed. They wouldn't stay any longer., all of them hurriedly retreated.

After soap and his grandfather saw the overwhelming beast tide, they gave up on the idea of escaping.

They felt that it was safer to follow these mecha operators...

"Where are doggie and the others?" His grandfather asked softly in the mecha.

Soap shook his head. He looked worried because he realized that his spiritual connection with little cabbage had broken from the start... . .

I hope nothing bad will happen to her in such a dramatic scene. . .

“What are you looking for?”

As the battle mecha forces shrank, a large number of biochemical beasts rushed into Nanhai city. The outer area was instantly emptied, and at the outer area, a large snake was circling outside. On top of it, a fat baby girl was looking down with eager eyes.

Rain woman no melon standing behind, looking at the little cabbage that way some doubt.

“I’m Looking for Grandpa and the others...” little cabbage looked at the mecha fragments on the ground with a worried expression.

“Who?” Guo Xiaoyun was stunned.

“Grandpa...” little cabbage looked at Guo Xiaoyun. “Aren’t Big Brother and Grandpa Familiar?”

“I’m not familiar with that weird thing...” Guo Xiaoyun pursed his lips, but then he said strangely, “He’s here too? On what basis?”

Little cabbage told Guo Xiaoyun what had happened, and Guo Xiaoyun was stunned.

She suddenly felt that those guys in the base were really talented. Brother Dog had given up on returning for a native girl. In the end, she heard that the undead old man had awakened some kind of imperial bloodline and was summoned into the enchantment by the consciousness of this world, dog Egg went out to sea, brought back a super big shot, and even abducted himself to the New World. was even soap so outstanding now? It was one thing for him to seek death outside, but he could actually get a mecha to play with?

Compared to these guys, Guo Xiaoyun suddenly felt that she was a normal person?

“Wow... why does it feel like Grandpa and the others’ mecha are everywhere!” Xiao Baicai said with a sobbing tone.

Guo Xiaoyun: “...”

She had watched the entire process from outside. Those black mecha seemed to have been placed at the periphery as cannon fodder... ..

Although that guy soap had stolen the mecha, his actual mecha piloting ability should be average. Guo Xiaoyun was still quite certain about this. Even if soap really had the talent to absorb the memories of others... However, the control requirements for mecha were very precise. She had learned mecha before and was very clear about it. Even if she had learned the principles, it would take a long time to truly control it. There was no shortcut to this...

Under normal circumstances, soap and the others were not proficient in the control of mecha and were arranged to be cannon fodder. They should be the ones who died the fastest... ..

At the thought of this, Guo Xiaoyun immediately fell silent. Andrew had warned her that this was his territory. If she died, it was impossible for her to be reborn at her liege's place... ..

Although she did not like those two guys very much, she still felt a little uncomfortable when she thought about how her fellow countrymen might really have brought dogs to this land...

"Eh?"

Suddenly, little cabbage, who was crying beside him, jumped up and smiled with tears on his face. "You guys are okay!"

Guo Xiaoyun was stunned. He glanced at little cabbage and found that he was in a spiritual link state. He was talking to someone... ..

Then, he looked at the Beast Tide that had charged into Nanhai city. He immediately understood that the magnetic field of the surrounding creatures had weakened, and little cabbage's spiritual link had returned to normal.

"Is it Grandpa and the others?" Guo Xiaoyun asked curiously.

"Yes..." little cabbage nodded repeatedly.

"Ask them where they are!" Guo Xiaoyun also heaved a sigh of relief. Although she did not know how they survived, as long as they were still alive, it was good. Now, she would bring them back to the base first... ..

Little cabbage: "They said that they were at the rear and were forced to retreat to the port..."

"What?" Guo Xiaoyun was stunned. She had never thought that her grandfather and the others would retreat to the rear. She had thought that the two of them had abandoned their mecha and hid in a certain card to avoid a calamity, in the end, they had actually used their mecha to escape?

How did they do that?

In such a situation, it shouldn't be possible to escape from the cannon fodder line, right?

Guo Xiaoyun said, "Then... There's no other way. Let's go back first..."

"Let's go save them!" Bai Cai interrupted Guo Xiaoyun.

Guo Xiaoyun looked at her blankly. "Save them?"

Is this girl stupid? How can you save them?

"We have to be loyal!" Bai Cai said matter-of-factly!

Guo Xiaoyun: "..."

Just as she was planning how to knock this guy out and bring him back, a faint voice suddenly sounded, "Well, not bad. We have to be loyal..."

Guo Xiaoyun: "! !"

Chapter 1148: There's a mole!

“It’s You?”

Raingirl looked at him warily. She knew this guy very well. He was the one who took Goudan, and she had even killed her subordinate... ..

“Master Vien?” Little cabbage looked at him, rubbed his head, and smiled. “Why are you here?”

Guo Xiaoyun choked and looked at little cabbage strangely. Why did this guy feel like he was so familiar with everyone?

Vien looked at the cabbage with a sincere smile and a trace of gentleness flashed in her eyes. This little guy was indeed suitable to be a flower spirit. His mind was very pure... ..

But the other guy...

Vien looked at this guy who could win such a big thing from Andrew...

“Ahem...” Guo Xiaoyun took a step back and thought, this guy isn’t going to settle the score, right?

“Do you want to go?” Vien looked at Guo Xiaoyun and asked.

Guo Xiaoyun was stunned. She didn’t expect that the other party would ask her this question... ..

By the way, why would I go to a place where a bunch of big shots are fighting? To be cannon fodder?

However, looking at the little cabbage beside her, Guo Xiaoyun frowned. Seeing that the other party was going to bring little cabbage with him, she was naturally worried about letting the silly little cabbage run around with this unknown guy.

“Go!” In the end, Guo Xiaoyun raised her head and smiled. “Who asked me to be loyal!”

“Really?” Vien looked at the other party deeply and nodded. “Then let’s Go...”

After a pause, she suddenly pointed at the snake under her feet and said, “It’s better to let this thing hide itself. It’s not good for you to bring it over...”

“Good Big Brother!” Guo Xiaoyun very tactful promised down.

The other party appeared on the back of the snake without any pressure, and the snake did not react at all. It could be seen that this thing was no different from a doll to the person in front of it. If the big boss in there was at her level, it’s not much use bringing it with you except to attract attention!

At the same time, the seaport has reached a critical moment in breaking the emerald dream boundary.

Under the control of two top space masters, the huge energy impacted the entrance of the space barrier. Soon, the exquisite structure of the space barrier began to deform under the impact of the huge energy!

And from the visual point of view, the port position is directly forced out of a similar black hole-like thing, and that black hole is getting bigger and bigger!

Plato tightened his mental strength and warned his adjutant, "Tell Billy and the others to retreat quickly. The barrier is about to be opened!"

The adjutant immediately sent Billy a signal to retreat.

In this minute, the three forces held their breaths and didn't act rashly.

Sab looked behind him and immediately used a secret technique to make the blood demon army retreat. Billy didn't hesitate and led the remaining advanced mecha operators and the blood demon army to retreat quickly.

The ones who stayed behind were all advanced level-13 and above. There were even some level-15 and even dragon-level experts. They retreated very quickly. In the blink of an eye, the troops that stayed behind had retreated to the port.

However, what followed was an overwhelming beast tide that surged towards them!

"Everyone, stand inside! !"

Billy ordered everyone, including the low-level life forms in the logistics team... ..

It would be very dangerous for these people to be dragged into the emerald dream, but there was nothing they could do. No matter how dangerous it was, it was better than waiting outside to die... ..

In the team, Goudan Li was shivering. He looked at the huge black hole in front of him and felt that it was not a good thing to stand inside... ..

"Little guy... Stand here with me..." Maya, who was pretending to be Vaughn, waved at Goudan Li.

Goudan: "Blood... Blood..."

Lanaya, the assassin from the Templar's court, stood aside and looked at Li Goudan, who had a bitter expression on his face. A hint of surprise flashed across her eyes as she thought to herself, "Is this the little guy that Billy mentioned that Vivian treated as her treasure?"?

This skeleton looked really good!

As a top assassin, she could almost see Li Goudan's well-proportioned skeleton structure at a glance. Almost every detail was just right. This body shape was probably inferior to the juniors in her family... ..

Goudan looked towards Xi Ye for help...

Xi Ye tilted his head and pretended not to see him...

Goudan instantly felt even more despair. He thought to himself, 'this dog overlord is indeed unreliable!'

Xi Ye looked at the Pitiful Goudan and was speechless in his heart. However, he had no choice. According to the principal, after opening the space, everyone would be sucked into the shattered space fragments, at this time, it was best to avoid those star level powerhouses. Otherwise, if they were accidentally assigned to the same fragment, it would be troublesome.

This was especially so for the person beside dog egg called Vaughn. The principal had said that that guy was very strong. If he was assigned to the same fragment with such a sensitive star level powerhouse, even a space master like him would find it difficult to protect himself.

Their only advantage was that brother dog, who had been guided here, might be able to find brother dog in the Emerald Dream and gain a part of the upper hand!

“Are you still not done?” Billy, who was at the periphery, saw the overwhelming beast horde surging over and hurriedly urged.

“Open!”

Plato tightened his spiritual power, and all the energy instantly exploded. The black hole in front of him instantly stopped the whirlpool and was in a static state. Inside the black hole, there were countless floating worlds, like glass shards!

“Go! ! !”

No one knew who shouted, but all the powerhouses instantly turned into shadows and rushed into the black hole!

Dogball wanted to slip away, but was grabbed by Maya, turning into a black shadow and flying into the black hole!

SAB and Vera looked at each other, and with their subordinates, they also turned into streaks of blood light and flew into the black hole.

“After entering, don’t act rashly. Just wait for Rescue!” Billy instructed the logistics team. He also controlled his mech to fly into the black hole.

“Let’s Go...” in the logistics department, the Tauren who had been hiding smiled at Alice.

Alice nodded. She followed the logistics team who were feeling uneasy and quickly entered the black hole.

At this time, the entire black hole seemed to be frozen. Everyone was drawn inside and looked at the world of fragments in the sky. It was quite a novelty.

Alice looked at the entrance of the hole curiously because she realized that the two mages responsible for the entrance of the space seemed to have not entered yet.

What were they waiting for outside?

Alice was puzzled, but before she could say anything, the minotaur beside her seemed to see through her thoughts. He smiled and said, “Of course they want to stop Andrew from coming in!”

As soon as he said that, the two of them worked together to activate a matrix. In the next second, the entire South Sea Harbor seemed to be cut off from the world by a knife, completely isolated from the outside world!

The location of the black hole also began to shrink rapidly under the influence of the matrix of the two of them. It was obvious that they wanted to completely block Andrew's army outside, so that the other party would be completely eliminated!

"Can it be done?"

Alice asked curiously.

"Huh?" The minotaur laughed. "Of course not! !"

As soon as he finished speaking, countless purple runes suddenly appeared in the space that was originally isolated. Following that, beams of teleportation light shone down, and many black holes appeared in the isolated space.

At the entrance of the holes, pitch-black figures crawled out like demons from the abyss. They carried an incomparably terrifying and powerful aura, causing Lanaya and the group of experts to have a solemn expression on their faces!

They were undead!

Alice sensed for a moment and felt a very familiar feeling. She had traveled with this Minotaur in the death realm for a very long time and had seen many powerful undead. All of them had this kind of aura on them... ..

At the entrance of the barrier, the principal and Plato looked at each other, their eyes filled with doubt. Following which, the principal spoke first, "There's a mole! !"

Chapter 1149: Andrew's Trump Card (Top) !

"There's a mole! !"

Almost at the first moment, the two top space masters came up with the reason for this accident!

The space barrier of the Emerald Dream had never been opened by Andrew. Otherwise, his corrosive power would have invaded the inner part of the barrier long ago. The elements in the newly opened space were extremely pure and did not have the slightest feeling of being corroded.

And the moment they opened it, they cut off the connection with the outside. The entire process was not disturbed at all. It was impossible for Andrew to appear out of thin air... ..

Then there was only one possibility. Someone from the inside had brought Andrew's spatial coordinates in.

And this person was definitely a high-end mage!

After all, to be able to bring in a spatial coordinate under the eyes of the two top-level spatial mages, and it was a spatial coordinate that could contain such a powerful energy transmission, an ordinary warrior-type powerhouse would not be able to do it!

Who could it be?

The principal and Plato immediately looked at each other. It was obvious that the first person they suspected was the other party!

At this moment, out of the two factions, the one with the greatest ability to bring in such a coordinate was the other party... ..

However, when their eyes met, they saw the suspicion in each other's eyes and were instantly stunned!

To be honest, from the motive, it seemed that neither of them should have done such a thing. They believed that unless it was completely Andrew's people, they should not be willing to let a character like Andrew enter the trap!

"What should we do?"

The people from the several forces looked at the purple runes in the sky and revealed a surprised look. Apparently, they did not know what to do for the time being.

"What should we do?" A cold voice sounded, "Of course we should act!"

A petite figure slowly walked to the front. Her aura was cold as she directly locked onto the location of the teleportation array with the most energy in the teleportation rune!

This action stunned everyone. Looking Up, it was the Templar clan's Lanaya!

The fake Vienne Maya's eyes flashed, and she thought to herself, this is really the style of the Templar assassin clan... ..

This was Andrew, an ancient lich. He hadn't even figured out the situation yet, and he was already planning to make a move. Perhaps only this ambitious one...

"Lord Lanaya..." Billy frowned in the distance, apparently trying to keep the other side quiet. . .

"I don't know what you're hesitating about... . Lanaya coldly pulled out the dagger at her waist. "An exiled Lich is at its most vulnerable when it doesn't have a suitable body. Moreover, the new space isn't under the control of his God's law yet. If he doesn't take action now, should he wait until he finds a suitable body and adapts to the law here before taking action?"

Hearing this, everyone was shocked, including Saab from the Blood Demon's side. They looked at Lanaya with complicated eyes... ..

Everyone was shocked by Andrew's name, but they ignored it. No matter how strong Andrew was or how famous he was, he was just a lich. The weakness of a lich was its body. As long as the body was destroyed., no matter how strong one's mental strength was, it would be forcefully pulled back by the rules of the death realm!

"As expected of a professional..." Sab took a deep breath and quietly leaned over.

He had once suffered a loss in the Templar assassin family. In the later days, he had devoted himself to training in high-end assassin techniques. He was also a famous shadow expert in the blood demon world.

However, he was ultimately not an assassin. At the very least, he did not develop the mindset of an assassin. The basic lesson of an assassin was to analyze their weaknesses, no matter who the target was!

“Oh Hehehe... killing an ancient lich by hand sounds pretty good...”an old voice echoed in Lanaya’s ears. It was the old Geron.

Following that, more and more experts came over and stared at the teleportation formation!

“What’s going on?”

At the back, Grandpa, who was hiding in his mech, looked at the nervous atmosphere that could almost permeate the mech and could not help but swallow his saliva.

“It seems like something big is going to happen...”soap also swallowed his saliva and replied.

Even Doggie, who did not understand why these people were so nervous, held his breath and looked ahead nervously. For a moment, the entire space seemed to have been frozen by time and space.

This atmosphere lasted for a long time, giving people the feeling that it was as long as a century. However, it did not last for long because the entire teleportation process only took a few seconds.

Dong!

The moment the teleportation beam disappeared, Lanaya took the initiative to attack!

The timing was perfect. Almost at the moment the energy of the teleportation beam dissipated, Lanaya’s blade connected seamlessly like flowing water, directly cutting through the target that was being teleported over!

This energy grasp was comparable to that of a top-notch mage, making SAB and Maya, who had been following them for the first time, feel their hearts tighten!

Both of them were conceited that their techniques were not inferior to the world’s top assassins, but they were still half a beat slower than the other party. It was very clear that in terms of timing, they were still inferior to an assassin like Lanaya!

The mages who were preparing to support the rear, including the principal, all sucked in a breath of cold air. This stream of light that was almost seamlessly connected to the speed of light was simply too stunning. This was an assassination that had almost perfectly timed itself., would she be able to dodge it?

Everyone was amazed by Lanaya’s technique, but at this moment, Lanaya’s concentration was at its peak. Her body movements were at their peak, and her mind was working at its peak. She was trying to sense her opponent and determine his next move!

She was thinking whether the opponent would directly prepare a defensive matrix or use some biological weapon to block her assassination, or perhaps an even more bizarre law method... ..

She had to immediately determine the other party’s method and counterattack. For a top-notch undead lich like Andrew, she had to not let the other party have the opportunity to pull away from her!

And she was also very curious, how would this legendary lich deal with her assassination?

The answer was soon revealed...

The flowing blade suddenly stopped, as if the flowing water was directly cut off, and at the end of the cut off flowing water was a pair of delicate white and tender fingers... ..

This caused the experts behind who had been prepared to provide support to stop their cars and look in front of them in surprise.

Someone... had caught Lanaya's blade with his bare hands!

From the perspective of biological strength, this shouldn't have happened...

Lanaya was a top-tier star-level powerhouse and a high-agility assassin. Her explosive power was astonishing. Based on the energy of that Blade, a planet could be cut open!

There shouldn't be such a creature-level counterpart on Andrew's side... ..

If the magic method used was still understandable, but did it really rely on a pair of hands?

Could it be that Andrew had already prepared a star-level body for himself?

While everyone was puzzled, the energy smoke dispersed, and everyone clearly saw the person who had caught the blade... ..

It was a tall woman. Her skin was strangely white, and her biological characteristics were clearly a humanoid creature. Moreover, that form was very familiar. If one looked carefully, many people would find that she was very similar to Lanaya...

And as the person who had directly clashed at the front, Lanaya's eyes, which had always been as cold as a machine, revealed emotions at this moment... ..

That emotion was a trace of disbelief...

"Clan leader?"

Chapter 1150: Andrew's Trump Card (Part Two)

The Templar family was an assassin family with a long history in the universe. Its history could even be traced back to the era of the elven civilization. It had a long history and was prosperous for tens of thousands of eras.

The assassin world was famous. Many of the people of the federation who did not understand the assassin world had also heard of this family. In the era of the gods, it was a golden name. As long as it was born in this family..., regardless of whether it was the school or the deity faction, they were all fighting to recruit them.

However, in the recent era, the reputation of the Templar family clan had weakened. The reason for this was due to a huge change!

The seven elders of the family clan had been assassinated. The current patriarch of the Templar family clan, Santa Anna, had disappeared!

The high-level experts of the entire Templar family clan had suddenly been cut off, leaving behind only a group of central region disciples who had yet to officially hand over their duties. In an instant, regardless of whether it was reputation or power on paper, the Templar family clan had suffered a huge blow!

After all, they were a top assassin clan, yet an elder-level figure was assassinated by someone else. Even the clan leader who represented the clan's face was nowhere to be seen. It was a huge blow to their reputation!

It was also from then on that the Templar clan kept a low profile. It was only in the past million years that some of the younger generation of the Templar clan, led by Lanaya, slowly began to show themselves... ..

The most difficult period for the Templar clan had been deeply remembered by the younger generation, especially Lanaya, who had been given high hopes by the elders. She had watched the clan swallow their anger and quietly gave up the resources. She had kept the flame... ..

And all of this was because the person in front of her had suddenly disappeared... ..

If she was still around, even if the seven elders were in trouble, as long as this top-notch life-level assassin was still around...

The family would not have fallen to the fate of almost being swallowed up by someone...

Song of Shadows: Santa Anna! !

What kind of joke was this? ?

The few elders led by the principal took in a breath of cold air and retreated repeatedly. Even the calm Maya could not help but pull back a distance!

At this distance, the life-level assassin only needed the blink of an eye to kill everyone!

"Don't be nervous..."

While everyone was panicking, Gerald's old voice slowly rose, "They're just zombies..."

Zombies?

Everyone was stunned and looked up. At this moment, the woman who was tightly holding Lanaya's blade had a numb expression. Although her eyes had the unique double moon pupils of the Templar clan, she looked extremely dull... ..

"Don't you think about it..."geron sneered. "If he really had a life-level assassin working for him, why would he need to expend so much effort? Including our Lord, he would have been killed long ago when the spaceship approached!"

Everyone recovered from their shock and subconsciously nodded their heads.

Indeed, there were very few life-level assassins in the entire federation. They were the strongest experts in the world. If a great lord had not reached the level of a great lord in his own domain, he would probably not have been able to last more than a few seconds., not to mention Vogu or Bolton, who had not reached the level of a great lord.

A powerful army would not be able to protect them under the hands of such experts. If Andrew really had such a card, why would he need to go through so much trouble now?

“It’s really a big deal...”Gerald slowly walked forward, he looked at the other figures standing beside an old man behind Saint Anna, he said faintly, “Song of Shadows: Santa Anna, Beast King: Lexa, Hand of Heaven: Mark, and the previous guardian of the Tide Lord: Saru, where did you get their corpses?”

Every time Gerald said a name, the eyes of the people around them could not help but twitch, because every name he said was a famous powerhouse of the Federation!

Saint Anna was the previous generation leader of the Templar family, one of the top assassins in the universe. The Beast King Reyksa was the previous generation guardian of the WASTYA family, a top-notch life-level expert that had been alive since the era of the undead. Towering hand mark was the former deputy commander of the three armies of the federation’s official forces, the strongest shield warrior of the federation’s official forces, the previous owner of the divine weapon, the dome of the heavens, and SARU was the previous generation leader of the royal family of the tidal clan!

Any one of these people was an existence that could protect the clan, a terrifying powerhouse that could make even a great lord give in!

It was hard to imagine that Andrew, a lich, could have them!

Goron narrowed his eyes and looked at the other party, saying in a gloomy voice, “Or... are these people’s deaths actually your design?”

Hiss...

These words made Saab and the others suck in a breath of cold air. The principal’s face was full of disbelief. Lanaya, who was holding the blade, trembled slightly, and her eyes became extremely cold!

“Don’t frame things without evidence, old man...”behind a few figures with terrifying auras, the frail-looking old man looked at Gerald with a smile. “I don’t have that ability...”

Everyone looked at the old man. It seemed that this old man was Andrew’s real body... ..

Andrew looked very weak at this moment. He had to pant for a long time before he could say a word. Obviously, the strength of his body was limited. It was very difficult to maintain it in this broken space.

“I just live longer and know more...”. Andrew looked at Gerald with a smile, “I just happened to know how these people died and where their bodies were hidden, so I just borrowed them for a while, that’s all.” ... ..

Everyone:” ...”

“You’re courting death! !”Lanaya’s voice was cold, and her eyes were full of killing intent when she looked at Andrew! !

In the face of the anger of her juniors, Santa Anna nimbly retreated to the front of Andrew and took a defensive stance... ..

This action made Lanaya's gaze even colder!

However, she did not act rashly. Zombies were a secret spell with the characteristics of necromancers, and could retain a large amount of the body's functions when it was alive, even if the consciousness in these corpses did not possess the ability to control it., however, the body's functions were extremely powerful. They could still pose a fatal threat to them!

As the purple runic light around them dissipated, even more bodies with powerful auras appeared in this space. Each of them was covered in a black cloak. Their auras were all above star-level. There were actually over a hundred of them!

This terrifying zombie lineup made everyone suck in a breath of cold air. Just how many of them had Andrew collected?

In the universe, the corpses of every star-level powerhouse were properly preserved by their own family's descendants. The number of corpses that were left outside was extremely few. After all, that thing had finally turned into a star. It was a top-grade life planet, it was the family's privatized resources!

Andrew had collected so many. It definitely couldn't be done in a short period of time. This process was probably prepared for over a hundred eras!

In an instant, no one dared to act rashly. This lineup was a little too exaggerated...

During the stalemate, the space around them that had stopped suddenly began to slowly rotate. Obviously, the frozen matrix could no longer withstand the pressure of the space and was about to enter the storm stage!

Looking at the impending space storm, Andrew elegantly saluted to everyone and said with a smile, "Everyone, no matter why you are here, it is considered an opportunity. As for how much you can get, it will depend on your own ability from now on..."

After saying that, he did not hesitate to lead all the zombies and turned into a ray of light, rushing towards the space storm that was sweeping over!
