Chapter 1151: Emerald Dream World!

“That... Lord Grom?”

In the emerald dream world, outside a small room with a jade-colored crystal building, Jenny was holding a fruit that had just been picked. She approached the room and carefully looked inside.

Brother Dog immediately showed a helpless expression. He tilted his huge head and asked, “What’s the matter?”

Jenny walked in shyly. She waved the basket made of plants in her hand and said softly, “There’s new fruit in the east. Do you want to try it?”

“No, you can eat it yourself...”brother dog sighed.

“It’s very delicious... You... you should try it...”Jenny mustered up her courage and said.

Brother Dog looked at the once arrogant noble lady. Her body was covered in prickly weeds and she looked rather pathetic. Apparently, she had just picked a fruit and came to look for him in excitement...

...

Compared to the past when she opened her mouth and stretched out her hand, she had obviously grown a lot... ..

Brother Dog believed that a person could become good, just like himself. He only needed some experience to do so.

However, it was two different things for him to accept the kindness of others and for others to change for the better. Of course, Brother Dog would not flirt with someone else’s girl while his sister’s life was in the balance.

Moreover, the two were fundamentally different. One admired and admired the hero, while the other got close to him when he was at his most ordinary. The feeling that the two gave people could not be compared...

Because heroes never lacked worship, and the warmth during ordinary times was the most precious thing in the world... ..

“Your mother has done a lot for you... When you have the time, you can take care of your family...”Brother Dog’s words were cold and hard.

Jenny curled her lips. “Mother, where do you have the time to talk to Me Now?”

Brother Dog was silent when he heard that. The gossip about the former Castellan’s wife falling in love with a knight in the army had been very popular yesterday, and he had heard it a little...

“Mother is looking forward... I’m very happy...”Jenny smiled sincerely. “What About You? Have you thought about it? Looking Forward?”

Brother Dog frowned when he heard this. Jenny's words sounded as if she had become history... ..

Just as he was about to find an excuse to chase her away, the surrounding environment suddenly changed. Brother Dog found himself on a huge crystal table, and Jenny had disappeared without a trace... ..

In the distance, Jenny, who had disappeared without a trace, pouted and muttered, "Leaving without saying anything, that's too rude..."

The little girl placed the fruit basket on the table and prepared to go back to her mother with a grievance. After returning to the temporary residence, the castellan's wife heard about her daughter's encounter and gently comforted her and gave her encouragement.

"This kind of thing that doesn't easily accept the kindness of the opposite sex is worth entrusting. The easier it is to obtain something, the more unreliable it is. You have to believe this..."

Her mother's comfort made Jenny feel much better. She also felt that it was quite reasonable. If she could easily make the orc forget sunny and fall in love with her, then one day, would the orc also easily forget her?

Thought of this suddenly also feel not so bad mood...

But why would my sister meet someone like that?

Both mother and daughter are now in the mood to talk about the opposite sex, apparently slowly recovering from the disaster, but little do they know that the crisis is not far away, and the greater terror is ready to crush the bubble at any moment. Crush everything that looks good to them now... ..

Brother Dog looked around blankly, it is a huge crystal platform, he saw countless pieces of debris circling, and the inside of the debris is extremely rich, as if hiding a world general!

"This... .. What is this?"The dog elder brother looks at the Ezra that transmits him to come.

"The world of the emerald dream..."Ysera floated beside him, looking at the floating crystal, he said in a low voice, "The emerald dream is formed by countless spaces. It's the greatest space barrier of the Dragon Clan. It uses a kind of fragment to form thousands of dreamlike worlds. Each fragment here is equivalent to a world, and the breadth of this world is almost infinite. It can be created according to spiritual power. Each world can create a new universe!"

"That awesome?"Brother Dog was stunned...

"Isn't it amazing?"Ysera smiled and said, "However, it's very difficult to develop. The structure of a world is extremely complicated, and it can't be formed just by some elements and some basic principles. Everything is relative, and it's impossible for it to appear out of thin air. To create a universe like the one outside, one needs a complex spiritual structure. The Dragon Race has developed the Emerald Dream for trillions of eras, yet they still can't create a normal cosmic worldview..." . "...". "..."

"Um... What's the abnormal worldview of the universe like?"Brother Dog asked curiously.

"It's like the world you've been in these past two days..."Ysera smiled and looked at Brother Dog. "Don't you feel that the place you've been staying in these past few days isn't normal?"

"Isn't It Normal?"

Brother Dog was stunned. He didn't have to worry about food and drink, and he didn't have to worry about anything. What was abnormal about this world?

HMM... Well, it seemed to be quite abnormal... ..

"You called me here to talk about this?"Brother Dog looked at Ysera in surprise. From what he remembered, Ysera didn't seem like a guy who was in a good mood.

"Oh, I just want to explain the principle to you..."Ysera said calmly, "The real reason I called you here is another..."

"What?"

"An enemy is coming..."

Brother Dog:" ..."

'speaking of which, shouldn't you be a little nervous when an enemy is coming for such an urgent matter? Isn't it not good to talk to me like this...'.

"The enemy is very dangerous... very dangerous..."Ysera looked at Brother Dog and said.

"UH... is that so..."brother dog was speechless. ...

"You don't seem to be nervous at all?"

Brother Dog:" ..."

Should I be freaking nervous? Isn't that my line? The enemy is in your territory. Why am I the one who is nervous?

"Oh, right... I forgot to show you the details..."Ysera tilted her head. She tapped on one of the thousands of fragments and the fragment flipped. Then, she saw a familiar face running crazily in the fragment, as if there was something terrifying chasing her from behind... ..

"Dog... Dog Egg?"Brother Dog was stunned. What was going on?

"You don't have much time to hesitate..."Ysera looked at brother dog with a meaningful look... ..

Brother Dog was stunned. He did not know what the other party meant, but for some reason, there seemed to be something in his body that resonated with the other party's words!

That feeling was very strange. It was as if the entire world around him was waiting for him to agree to something... ..

However, he was very resistant in his heart. It was as if if he agreed, he would lose something very precious! !

... ..

On the other side, Diana, who was controlling the emerald dream, looked at the intruders who had been swept into the spatial storm and scattered into different spatial fragments. Her face flashed, but it was not hatred towards the intruders. Instead, there was a hint of anticipation.

“Finally... has it begun?”

Chapter 1152: Shards Allocation (part one)

“Saab?”

In a dry world filled with sandstorms, villafa felt his surroundings despite the huge sandstorm. As a blood demon, his body instinctively disliked such a dry place under the scorching sun, those who were water-affinity preferred moist areas, where the water element was higher.

But...

There were almost no water molecules in this place...

The agitated environment and the loss of contact with Saab cast a shadow over Villafa’s heart.

The spatial storm was stronger than he had imagined. He had thought that with their physical qualities, they could at least stay together and not be blown away. He had not expected that his connection with Saab would be shattered by the storm almost instantly, he sensed that there was not a single blood tribe member nearby on the entire planet!

He wondered what was going on with SAB. His origin was now damaged. If he were to be dragged into such a place with dense fire elements like himself, it would be very dangerous if he encountered a strong enemy again... ..

Thinking of this, a trace of anxiety flashed through Vera’s heart. He began to expand his spiritual search... ..

This was actually very dangerous in an unfamiliar environment, but Vera’s mind was clearly in a mess at the moment...

With two bloodlines, her spiritual power growth and inheritance were not inferior to some pure spiritual races, and the expansion directly covered a million kilometers...

However, she still could not find any traces of the blood demon in the surroundings, and this fragment world was larger than she had imagined. Spreading out over an area of several million kilometers, she actually could not feel the energy of the two poles at all... Either this fragment world did not have two poles, or... .. This fragment world’s area was far beyond her detection range!

If it was the latter, and every space fragment was so large, it would be a little troublesome for her to find Saab... ..

Just as she was feeling anxious, she suddenly sensed a trace of life. It was very faint and somewhat familiar.

Villafa, who wanted to get information in an instant, did not hesitate at all. She immediately spread out her body and flew towards the place where she sensed the trace of life!

The elemental resistance of this world fragment was much higher than that of the previous planet. It was almost at the level of a grade-3 planet. Moreover, the entire planet was densely packed with fire elements. The friction load of flying at high speed was much higher than in the New World!

Villafa could even vaguely feel a burning sensation on her skin. The flames of friction caused her to transform into a huge fireball. In mid-air, she looked like a falling meteor... ..

“Huh?”

As she got closer, Villafa could clearly see the target. It was a mech. From the looks of it, it seemed to be a mech from the VOGU faction. Moreover, it seemed to be a relatively low-end model...

Boom! !

Villafa landed directly on the ground. The huge force caused the ground to collapse. The low-level mech on the other side reacted immediately. It activated the buffer device slightly and jumped backwards at a 45-degree angle, it did not resist the impact of its landing too much. The mech instantly retreated along with the impact of the air current. Almost without activating the ion shield, it completely offset the impact, and he did not waste a single bit of energy.

It was a very brilliant micro-manipulation technique of the mech!

Vera FA narrowed his eyes slightly and thought to himself, the quality of the mecha operators in the VOGU faction is really not ordinary... ..

Facing the arrival of a character of his level, he was still able to deal with it so meticulously. Not to mention anything else, just his courage alone was not something that an ordinary person could do. Could it be that he was from a large family?

At this moment, inside the mecha, soap and his grandfather were so frightened that their faces turned pale... ..

My mother... why was it this ancestor?

When they were at the VOGU faction, they had seen the ferocity of this fellow. With just a casual knock, he could turn hundreds or even thousands of advanced mecha into powder. He was a master who could be unparalleled in the mecha group.., moreover, he was fighting that kind of advanced mecha. He was not even qualified to participate in the battle when he was operating this one?

“What should we do?”Grandpa asked soap with a trembling voice.

Soap: “How the Hell Should I know?”

Grandpa Lu: “Can you devour her with that talent of yours?”

SOAP: “Do you think that the players from the novice village can defeat the Dungeon Boss?”

“Yes, as long as we have enough money!”Grandpa hurriedly said, “Treasure Blade Slayer Dragon, one blade 999!”

“The key is that I don’t Have It!” Soap rolled his eyes and said!

“Why don’t you have it?” Grandpa hurriedly said, “Did you forget about our ultimate cheat?”

“Ultimate Cheat?” Soap was stunned and didn’t react for a moment.

“Think about how we escaped from that pile of monsters?” Grandpa Lu said anxiously.

“Oh...” soap instantly reacted, and hope appeared in his heart. Speaking of which, he didn’t seem to have operated anything just now, and this mech seemed to have moved on its own to counteract the impact... ..

Perhaps...

This AI was a big shot! !

Thinking of this, soap looked at the control panel with anticipation, and said directly, “Big Shot Ai, it’s all up to you! !”

As if wanting to respond to soap and his grandfather, the mecha took a small step forward under AI control, and in an instant, soap and his grandfather’s nerves were stretched to the limit!

Opposite Villafa is also a Leng, thought: this guy also want to fight with me?

“Spare my life!”

Just when the situation was on the verge of breaking out, the mech suddenly pounced on the ground with a standard dog crawl, and the intelligent hybrid voice very humbly buried its head in the sand...

Villafa: “...”

Soap: “...”

Grandpa: “Bulge!”

On the other side of the desert filled with fire elements, a blood-red light was moving quickly. It was the Saab that Villafa had been thinking about!

To Villafa’s surprise, Saab was not assigned to any of the other pieces, and the two were in the same piece, not even as far apart as she thought.

When villafa activated her spiritual detection, Sab had actually sensed the other party’s location at the first moment... ..

However, at this moment, he did not dare to meet Villafa at the first moment. Instead, he was running in the opposite direction!

Yes, he was running. Behind SAB, there was clearly a ball of dark green light. Something was like a maggot in his bones, closely following the fast-moving SAB!

“What the hell is that?” SAB sensed the green light behind him. He felt a chill all over his body. Every cell in his body was warning him to stay away from it!

Naturally, he did not dare to meet up with VILLAFA under such circumstances!

Moreover, he was also worried about villafa. This child was too reckless. He had just arrived at a new place. How could he expose his position so brazenly?

“This body is not bad. It can be used as a temporary...”

A faint voice sounded behind SAB, as if he had already treated sab as a piece of meat on a knife plate!

Sab was furious when he heard that, but he did not lose his cool and immediately turned around to face his opponent. Instead, he asked coldly, “Who are you?”

Chapter 1153: it’s been a long time since I’ve encountered such a species... ..

“Who exactly are you?”

Sab’s face was extremely gloomy as he ran. His opponent’s strength had completely exceeded his imagination!

He was different from Vera. When he was swept into this place by the spatial storm, he was not alone. He had the strongest blood demon squad in the army with him. There were a total of ten people, all of them at the level of a level 15 adjutant, he was even confident that he could take down an expert like Vaughn when they formed a battle formation!

However, that reliance was instantly melted. The magic array unique to the blood demons was broken by the other party, and ten high-level blood demons died instantly!

The other party was a deity overlord, and his strength was definitely not below Lord Bolton’s... “... !”! No, it was even higher, and he had a very good understanding of the blood demon clan’s alchemy array. The most important thing was that the other party had the royal blood demon’s eye!

The blood demon’s alchemy array relied on their most unique blood magic. The Magic System of the Abyss Demons was very different from that of the universe. The reason was that the Abyss did not belong to the physical plane, in theory, it was the same as the fairy race in the Immortal Palace. It belonged to the spirit race from the outer realm.

In fact, it was not easy for the deity overlord to target them. However, it would be different if the other party had the array eye. More than 90% of the blood demon’s spells came from eye-bloodline techniques. To build a large-scale blood magic array, the eye of the blood demon was needed as a medium, the core of the array used by his personal guards was the blood eye of Duke Sakra of the blood demon clan. However, it was completely defenseless against the blood eye of the other party!

This could only be done by the blood eye of the Royal Family!

Why was the blood eye of the blood demon royal family in the hands of an outsider? And it had fallen into the hands of a deity?

Sab recalled the scene of them being defeated at that time. Even now, he still found it unbelievable. The royal family... .. Now that the original blood of the blood clan was exhausted, every pure-blooded royal family was incomparably precious. After death, their organs would be preserved by the royal family. He had never heard of a leak... ..

This guy... who exactly was he?

Faced with SAB's question, the green light shadow did not answer. Instead, it pounced on SAB with extreme greed!

Facing the Light Shadow, SAB seemed to have no resistance at all. Physical attacks could not hit him. The blood magic unique to the blood demon clan seemed to be completely immune to it. In the end, he could only watch as the other party pounced on him. It stuck to his body like a maggot on his bones. No matter how he struggled, he could not shake off the other party... ..

A moment later, the light and shadow completely enveloped Saab, and finally drilled into Saab's pores... ..

After an unknown amount of time, Saab, who was stiff on the spot, moved like a puppet. His movements were extremely stiff, and a very strange smile appeared on his face.

"Blood demon..." that voice was as unpleasant as sandpaper grinding across the table. If Alice was here, she would definitely be able to recognize the owner of that voice.

It was the ox-headed spirit that had been lying in wait all this time...

"It really comes as it pleases..." Sab, who had been possessed, muttered in the voice of a spirit, "If it was another star-level powerhouse, it might have been a little troublesome, but it just had to be the blood demon..."

At this point, Saab raised his head and revealed that his scarlet pupils had turned emerald green as he stared at the sky. His gaze seemed to pierce through the sky as he looked behind the stars. "Was it intentional? Senior Ysera..."

At this moment, in the core platform of the Emerald Dream, Ysera was looking at one of the fragments. Inside the fragment was the desert world where Saab and the others were. At this moment, in the perspective of the fragment, the undead controlling Saab's body and Ysera were looking at each other.

"Did he see you?" Diana, the Moon Elf, asked curiously.

"Nonsense, of course not!" Ysera rolled his eyes.

"Then why did he act like that?" Diana was stunned.

Ysera: "To show off..."

Diana: "..."

"By the way... He seems to know you..." after sweating for a while, Diana asked again.

"You Believe me now when I say that I'm very famous, right?" Ysera grinned and said, revealing his crystal-like beautiful teeth.

Diana's eyes twitched slightly, recalling the words that the elder who passed on the genes to her had said before his death.

He said that Ysera was the least serious ancient dragon, and that was indeed true... ..

"Then if this person knows you, you should also know him, right?"

"What logic?" Ysera rolled her eyes. "If he knows me, then I must know him? There are billions of people in the universe who know my name, Ysera. Do I have to know them all?"

"So you don't know him?" Diana frowned.

Ysera: "I know him!"

Diana: "I..."

If it wasn't because she really couldn't beat him, she might have directly made a move. If she were to talk to this guy, she would really be angered to death one day!

Taking a deep breath, she forcefully suppressed the desire to attack in her heart, Diana tried her best to calm down and said with a gloomy tone, "Then, can you spread the word to the ignorant me? which big shot is this that actually caught senior Ysera's Eye?"

"I can't say that he's a big shot..." "..." Ysera curled his lips. "But he's indeed a bold and reckless kid. He's clearly a sky god Lord with a boundless future, yet he likes to go crazy and court death. He's either researching such taboos or those kinds of taboos. Back then, when the Abyss and the Sky God Alliance were fighting against the Void, he went to help the blood demon's princess dismember her alive. Heh ... almost made the blood demons betray us!"

"That's a crazy person!"

Diana's eyes turned cold. The Void was the enemy of the entire universe, yet the enemy almost destroyed the Alliance for selfish reasons. This meant that this guy was completely self-centered, yet he was also very capable.., this kind of person was very troublesome.

"It's quite crazy..." Ysera nodded in agreement.

"Then why are you helping him on Purpose?" Diana was immediately confused.

The other party was obviously an undead God. Without a powerful body, it was very easy to be sent back to the undead world when facing a star-level powerhouse. However, Ysera had picked the easiest one for the other party!

With the eye of the blood demon, he was almost immune to blood magic. Without any elemental attacks, he could only rely on physical attacks to use pure mental mimicry to avoid it. It was practically a heavenly strike. wasn't this equivalent to giving the other party a top-tier blood demon body?

"I can't help it..." Ysera sighed and became serious. "After all, among these guys, it's the only one who can fight against Andrew Alone!"

Diana was silent. Gods... In this spirit-based world, it was very advantageous. Even an ancient dragon like Ysera did not have the confidence to face it head-on.

But could it really be possible?

The people who came were all shrews. Would they let them reap the benefits by exhausting each other as they wished?

“But to be honest, compared to that undead, I care more about that guy...”

Diana was stunned for a moment when she heard that. She followed Ysera’s gaze and looked over. It was still the desert fragment world where SAB was. However, she changed her perspective and came to Vera’s side.

Meanwhile, Diana saw that Ysera’s gaze was not on the rare fallen angel blood demon hybrid, but on another strange creature.

“What is that?” Diana looked at soap and her grandfather, the two strange-looking things. She felt that the aura was somewhat familiar, a little like... “...”. Elves?

“It’s been a long time since I’ve encountered such a species...” Ysera narrowed his eyes. “I thought I would never encounter such a species in my lifetime...”

Chapter 1154: inflated soap...

“What is that thing?”

Diana looked at the two strange-shaped things and frowned. The universe was so big that there were all kinds of strange things. All Kinds of creatures could appear...

“That thing... is very strange... In our era, it was called unnamable...” Ysera said faintly.

“Unnamable?” Diana’s eyelids twitched. She felt that the name was really straightforward. wasn’t that thing called unnamable?

“Is this unnamable very rare? Isn’t it an alien?” Diana asked in puzzlement.

“This is not an ordinary alien...” “...”. Ysera smiled and said, “But it’s a top-grade alien. It’s a terrifying form. It’s different from the flower spirits that nurture all living things. When that thing grows up, it relies on devouring all living things for a living. In ancient times, when it’s discovered in the early stages, it would be best to kill it before it grows up...” “... “..

Diana:” ...”

“Why haven’t I heard of it?”

Ysera: “You haven’t heard of it because this act of genocide was originally against the teachings of the elves. However, this kind of thing just doesn’t fit with the teachings of the elves that all living things coexist. Therefore, in order for the teachings of the Elves to not be affected, this kind of dark history is usually only known to the law enforcement elders... “...”. “...”

“Is that so?” Hearing this, Diana looked at soap and the others. Her emotions were a little complicated. For a moment, she didn’t know how to feel about this kind of history.., after sighing, she asked, “Is there no pattern to this kind of indescribable appearance? How did you guys judge it?”

“No, isn’t it just the appearance you saw? That’s the indescribable appearance...”

“But the two look different...” Diana frowned.

“You mean that meatball?”

“Isn’t That?” Diana was stunned.

“Of course not...” Ysera tilted her head and said, “That’s a Phoenix...”

“Phoenix...” Diana almost couldn’t catch her breath... ..

That thing that clearly looks like a creature’s anus, you’re telling me that’s a Phoenix? The most beautiful elven creature in the universe, the Phoenix?

“HM... It’s still a very pure-blooded Phoenix...” Ysera nodded and said seriously, “It’s been a long time since I’ve seen such a pure Phoenix...”

“Uh... is that so?” Diana was stunned.

She felt that the other party was serious... .. She was too embarrassed to refute...

Or could it be that the Phoenix illustrated handbook that the Elder had shown her was actually a pirated copy?

“That... Big Boss, where are we going now? Do you want to go inside the mech to sit down? There’s an air conditioner inside...”

A very pure Phoenix was now very eager to flatter Vera.

“We’ll follow along...” Vera replied coldly.

“But...” grandpa twisted his body in embarrassment. In the desert, his meatball was jumping up and down, occasionally emitting the fragrance of eggs. He felt very uneasy... ..

Especially the lecherous look in soap’s eyes...

Grandpa carefully glanced at soap. At this time, soap was like melting ice cream, soft and flowing on the ground. But from time to time, he looked at himself with a very strange look...

Naturally, Vera did not have the time to care about Grandpa’s current mood, because her mood was even worse now. Just now, she clearly felt an uneasiness in her heart, an unexplainable uneasiness.

The last time she felt this uneasiness was when her mother died!

That feeling was both distant and familiar...

Suddenly, Vera suddenly sensed something. Her body stiffened for a moment, and then she instantly turned into a streak of blood light and flew into the distance... ..

Seeing this scene, Grandpa was stunned at first. Although he did not understand why the other party would directly abandon them and run forward, this was really a chance to run! He was instantly pleasantly surprised. "F * ck, soap, quick, get on the mech, turn on the air conditioner, and run! !"

However, soap acted as if he did not hear his words. He rolled on the ground and ran forward, but the direction he ran was the same as Vera, as if he was chasing after the other party.

Seeing this, Grandpa was stunned. "Why would I wipe you?"

Soap acted as if it did not hear him and continued to run forward with all its might. A puddle of mud-shaped soap ran at an unbelievable speed. The mecha behind it also ran with all its might, without any intention of bringing Grandpa along.

"F * ck..."Grandpa immediately cursed, but he did not dare to leave the two of them. In this damned place, without that mecha, it would sooner or later be turned into a real roasted egg... ..

Thus, he could only try his best to catch up from behind.

After running for about half an hour, grandpa and soap finally caught up to villafa, who had left first. At this moment, Villafa was standing there in a daze, staring blankly at something.

Grandpa looked up and saw that the other party had commented on a huge pool of blood. The blood was red and sticky, and it was bubbling under the high temperature, exuding an extremely strong smell of blood...

"What the Hell Is This?"

Grandpa subconsciously took a few steps back when he saw such a strange scene on such a hot day.

Because he kept feeling that the blood was alive...

At this time, Vera FA stared blankly at the pool of blood. After a long time, she slowly walked over, her hand gently reaching into the blood pool... ..

As a high level blood demon, she naturally knew what this was, it was the blood demon's blood essence... ..

After death, the blood demon's body would turn into blood essence, in the Universe Federation, this was a very high quality alchemy material, in the demon world, these were also very delicious nutrients.

Many bounty hunters were collecting this, and such a large amount of blood essence, it was at least a quantity that only star level warriors could have... ..

This time in the army, only she and Saab were star level...

Villafa's entire body stiffened. It took a lot of effort for her to reach her finger into the blood pool... ..

The moment she touched it, a huge amount of information entered her mind. Villafa instantly heaved a sigh of relief and collapsed to the ground as if she had lost all her strength... ..

It wasn't Saab!

It was the personal guards! !

Saab's personal guards had ten dragon-level powerhouses!

If they had died together in one place, this amount of blood essence would indeed have reached such a level... ..

After knowing that the one who died wasn't Saab, Vera's tensed nerves finally relaxed, but her heart was still gloomy because she felt traces of Saab nearby, which meant that Saab and the personal guards should have been together before.

But now that the personal guards were dead, Saab's situation was probably terrible.

Thinking of this, Vera slapped her face and prepared to look for traces of Saab. At this moment, Saab needed her!

But just as she was about to get up, she suddenly saw a black shadow jump into the blood pool!

Villafa was stunned. She saw clearly that it was that strange-looking guy...

What was it doing?

Just as she was about to smell the fragrance of eggs, Villafa turned around and saw her grandfather hiding behind her, shivering.

"Big... Big Boss..."her grandfather looked very nervous. He pointed forward and said, "What... What's the situation?"

Villafa turned around and looked at the blood pool again. He saw a balloon-shaped object and was stunned for a moment before he realized that it was the soap that he had just jumped into.

After the other party entered the blood pool, his body expanded at an exaggerated speed. In just a few seconds, his body expanded to the size of a small hill!

"How dare you! !"Villafa's face turned cold. This guy actually absorbed the blood essence of the blood demons in front of him! !

Chapter 1155: The Gap!

"How dare you! !"

Villafa's face was cold, but he didn't stop him. He just looked on with a cold smile.

Everyone knew that the blood essence of the blood demon was a top-tier tonic, but could that thing be easily absorbed?

For a dragon-level lifeform to absorb a drop of blood essence, it had to be diluted into hundreds of millions of portions. It also had to be equipped with all kinds of integrated elements to be absorbed in stages, and it also had to consider the components of digestion.

Absorb it directly? Even if they were of the same level, their bodies would explode and die, not to mention this little thing that was only of a few levels. Where did it get the courage to do so?

“Big Boss... What’s wrong with soap?” Grandpa asked worriedly.

Villafa stared coldly at the expanding soap and said with a sneer, “He’s about to die...”

“Big Boss!” Grandpa immediately panicked. “Save him, okay?”

Villafa rolled his eyes as if he didn’t hear, not to mention that this guy came up to devour his companion’s blood essence, he didn’t personally kill him is not bad also save him?

The point is, even if you want to save it, how?

By the time he reacted, he did not know how much blood essence absorbed, and it seems to continue to absorb, now there is no second ending except body explosion... Wait a minute... ..

Eh... Something’s Not Right?

After hesitating for a few seconds and looking at the soap that had expanded to the size of a small hill, Vera suddenly felt that something wasn’t right... ..

The principle of the other party’s body expansion was very simple. When a large amount of energy was poured into his body, the fibers in his body would be stretched to the point that they would expand. However, there was a limit to this expansion. After all, the strength of a living creature’s constitution was there... When the fibers were stretched to a certain extent, they would naturally explode...

However, this soap seemed to be different...

When he was expanding, the color of his body did not become transparent. Instead, it became darker and darker... ..

One had to know that under normal circumstances, when his body was stretched, the color of his muscles would definitely become lighter and lighter as they were pulled. After all, they were being stretched thin.

However, it did not look like that at this moment. It felt like the skin of this guy was actually getting thicker as he expanded?

Vera was stunned for a moment before she directly opened her blood eye, wanting to see what was going on... ..

With her bloodline activated, she quickly saw the operation of every tiny molecule and instantly saw an extremely strange scene.

After the blood essence turned into blood molecules, it quickly stabilized in the soap’s body, directly accumulating into the fat around the soap and quickly dissolving other energy. The color that villafa saw darkened because the fat accumulated thicker and thicker, resulting in a flesh color...

Seeing this scene, Villafa was completely stunned!

How was this possible?

The blood essence of the blood demon was a biological liquid that forcibly compressed the energy through the special constitution of the blood demon. The energy density was very high, and it was actually extremely unstable. Without the special constitution of the blood demon., it was very easy to form an energy explosion outside.

This was also why the blood essence was not easy to absorb. The energy was dense and unstable. Forcefully absorbing it would easily cause the body to explode. Under normal circumstances, the blood molecules should be in a frenzy and quickly explode the opponent.

However, after these blood molecules reached the guy's body, they actually quickly stabilized, as if they had returned to their home. They quickly precipitated into fat. This kind of absorption speed was simply comparable to an efficient energy shaping machine!

Even a biochemical weapon that specialized in collecting energy might not have this kind of efficiency. Just what kind of background did this guy have?

Vera FA looked at the rapidly expanding soap with incomparable surprise, and for a moment, his expression was uncertain!

This guy is a little strange. Let's get rid of him first...

Vera Fa's eyes turned from surprise to coldness. A light flashed in his hand, and just as he was about to make a move, a hoarse voice suddenly sounded from behind him.

"Oh? There's actually such a thing..."

"Who?"

Vera's heart jolted, and he directly threw a punch behind him. However, when the fist arrived in front of his opponent, it forcibly stopped. The storm formed by the huge fist force directly exploded like an air explosion with the two of them at the center!

The soap that had already expanded to the size of a hill was directly sent flying, and Grandpa Lu, who was at the side, was grabbed by a hand to protect him!

Oh My God... I'm going to die! !

Although he was protected, the huge explosion still frightened Grandpa Lu. He couldn't help but think to himself, where did these gods come from? If this punch hit him, wouldn't the mountain be sent flying?

However, his imagination was still a little low. If he had really seen the scene of his opponent's punch hitting him, he wouldn't have described him as a god, but a Saiyan... ..

But at this moment, Vera Farr, who had forcefully retracted his punch, was stunned... ..

Because the person standing behind her was obviously the Saab that she had been thinking about!

"No!"

In the next second, an extremely terrifying cold light flashed in Vera Farr's eyes. "You're not Saab! ! !"

“TSK TSK... good luck...” at this moment, Saab, who had been possessed, used the law of gravity to stabilize the soap that had been sent flying, he made it stay in mid-air, he looked at Villafa with a smile. “A high-purity blood demon is already a pleasant surprise. There’s actually a body like yours, a combination of a fallen angel and a blood demon. Did that Guy’s experiment succeed?”

“Get out of his body! !” Villafa roared angrily. He turned his fist into a claw and grabbed SAB’s throat, lifting him up.

In the next second, a terrifying gray flame gushed out and instantly burned the surrounding space until it split open. It was obviously the extremely powerful Hell Flame!

Facing such a terrifying flame, the undead did not show any signs of panic on his face. He appeared extremely calm as he continued to look at the other party with a smile.

“He’s too young after all. His bluff is too obvious...” the undead allowed the other party to grab him by the throat, she tapped her fingers lightly on the other party’s arm. “He’s clearly afraid that his body will be harmed in the slightest, yet he’s acting like he wants to destroy everything. He’s exaggerating. His acting skills...”

“You! !” Vera’s aura froze, and her expression became even gloomier.

Indeed, she did not want Sab’s body to be damaged in the slightest. Now that SAB’s origin was damaged, he could no longer afford another body reconstruction. If this body was damaged too severely, it was very likely that he would immediately transform into a star.

However, this was not a solution. In this kind of possession situation, the longer it dragged on, the more dangerous it would be. Now was not the time to hesitate!

Thinking of this, Vera decided to make her move in the end!

Just as she was about to make her move, she heard the other party say calmly, “It’s too late...”

As soon as she finished speaking, Vera’s hand that was locked on to the other party suddenly twisted like a twist. Vera was shocked and hurriedly withdrew her hand and retreated!

However, the force that twisted her arm after she withdrew her hand did not disappear. Instead, it flowed through her arm and into her entire body. In an instant, Vera’s entire body was twisted into a fried dough twist just like her arm!

Immediately, a shrill scream sounded! !

This scene gave her grandfather goosebumps...

Where the hell did this big shot come from? Wasn’t the Gap Too Big?

The undead carried Grandpa and looked at villafa, who was twisted into a ball of meat. “If you attack first, you might have a chance...”

Chapter 1156: Gifted Soap!

“The power of the gods isn’t just for show...”

In the jade core, Diana's expression became extremely complicated.

Vera's bloodline and talent were both first-rate. With such a young star-level, even if she had the inheritance, she would still be weak. Yet, such a person didn't have the slightest bit of resistance in front of the Gods... ..

No wonder the gods were able to rise among the ten thousand races in that chaotic situation back then. Other than the federation, which was more scientific than the elf civilization, the terrifying strength of the gods was also the key to sustaining the federation!

"Can he defeat Andrew?" Diana asked doubtfully.

Although he did seem to be quite strong...

"It's hard to say... Ysera shook his head. "In a battle between gods of the same level, the competition is about the accumulation of information and each other's intelligence. In terms of accumulation, both of them are ancient gods who once had a top-tier power civilization. The richness of the laws should be about the same level. In terms of intelligence, both of them belong to different eras, so they should not have any information about each other. They are really competing." was to improvise ..

"Andrew should have the advantage, right?" Diana frowned, "He has a life-level corpse. If he could possess it, wouldn't Andrew's body be stronger?"

"Not necessarily..." "..." "..." Ysera said in a low voice, "Gods at their level compete with the power of laws. Things like containers are enough. Star-level and life-level are about the same to them. Unless both of them have exhausted their spiritual power and need to use their physical bodies to decide the winner, the difference is not big..." "..." If it really can reach that level, then it would be a great thing for us... "..." "..."

Diana nodded. If the spiritual power of the two gods could be exhausted in a confrontation, then it would be the most perfect ending for them as fishermen.

But unfortunately, both of them were ancient-level old monsters. would it really be so easy to follow their script?

Just when she was thinking, she suddenly heard Ysera exclaim, obviously a little surprised. Diana looked over curiously, following the other person's eyes, and saw the fragment where the undead God was.

At this point the already stable situation seems to have a bit of a twist...

— — — —

Wow... That's kind of sad?

Listening to Villafa's shrill screams, Grandpa's goosebumps rose and he shrank into a ball of fear.

It was too cruel... .. It was obvious that she was not a kind person...

If possible, Grandpa still hoped that the young lady could win. Although it was a little cold, it did not hurt him and soap. Moreover, she was a beauty. No matter what, she was still better than this person who possessed others.., wasn't she better than that person who twisted people into a twist?

Just as he was thinking, Vera's shrill scream seemed to resonate with something. Grandpa subconsciously raised his head when he heard the sound. He was stunned for a moment. Unknowingly, that guy in the sky, soap, seemed to have grown bigger...

It almost covered the sky, almost covering the entire sky...

What was going on?

Grandpa's breathing suddenly stopped. Soap was going to be in the Sky?

Huh?

Suddenly, he saw many distorted faces appearing on soap's huge body, facing him... .. Oh No, it should be an angry roar at the guy who was carrying him.

In the next second, sharp meat spikes bulged out of the huge body and shot toward them like raindrops!

Grandpa was instantly stunned and thought to himself, this guy is really inflated. He actually dares to make a move on this grandpa?

The undead God frowned. Some kind of spatial law instantly distorted the meat spikes, but in the next second, the meat spikes became bigger and bigger, and in an instant, they broke through the space that restricted them, after the distorted space was shattered, the larger twisted meat mass once again turned into more meat spikes that shot towards them.

"F * ck..."

Grandpa couldn't help but curse, thinking to himself, "This skill is a little awesome. By the way, just how many innate skills does that guy soap have?"?

The undead God looked at the meat spikes in the sky with interest. With a casual wave of his hand, all the newly split meat spikes were once again distorted by the spatial law, but the result was the same as before. They expanded again, squeezed through space, and then split again.

The undead God did not tire of using the spatial laws to control them. He wanted to see if this fellow was endlessly multiplying and splitting!

After almost half an hour of stalemate, the entire space was filled with meat spikes. The scene looked extremely strange, and Grandpa Lu, who was in mid-air, became even larger, almost completely covering the entire sky!

This scene stunned Diana, who was watching the show from the Jade Core...

Because from their point of view, soap's body seemed to be completely filled with the fragments...

And if it continued to expand like this, the fragments seemed to burst...

Was this the rare abnormal that Lord Ysera had mentioned? Wasn't this talent too exaggerated?

“Isn’t this thing a little too out of the ordinary?” Diana could not help but retort, “What level is this guy at? is he able to absorb energy of that level so quickly to this extent?”

Even those fast-forming biological mutated weapons would not go so far, right? Everything had to be based on the law of Conservation of energy. You, an elf who had not fully transformed, could actually completely absorb the energy of dragon-level blood essence. This was a F * cking BUG, right?

“Not under normal circumstances...” Ysera looked seriously at the soap, which was expanding to the point of bursting, squinting his eyes, he said, “Its physique is also considered special in an indescribable way. Its body environment can almost stabilize any energy instantly, but it’s only stable. Although it’s incredible, this energy is his fat. According to his level, if he wants to absorb it for his own use, it will take at least billions of years... “...” . “...”

“Then this is...” Diana was confused.

“It should be the remnant consciousness of the blood essence itself...” . “...” . Ysera analyzed, “The blood demon’s purification is in the blood essence. Although it died, most of the spiritual power left in the blood essence should have some remnant consciousness. When the fallen angel girl screamed, it obviously triggered the remaining spiritual power, causing them to bounce back. This is why there is such a primitive attack scene...” . “...”

“I see... Eh?” Diana nodded. Just as she was about to say something, she suddenly saw that the soap body inside was starting to glow.

“This is?”

“I can’t hold on any longer...” Ysera smiled. “It seems like it’s the limit. It’s going to explode soon...”

Diana curled her lips when she heard that. “I thought it would really explode...”

However, these little fellows were really talented. If they had inherited the genes of the Moon Elves and not the wood elves, perhaps their bloodline would have a chance... ..

Eh? Wait...

Thinking of this, Diana suddenly felt something...

She had a feeling that the prophecy seemed to be related to this.

Just as she was thinking, she suddenly heard Ysera call out, “Shit! !”

“What’s Wrong?” Diana who was interrupted immediately frowned.

“I’m afraid something bad is going to happen to that guy...” Ysera frowned and looked into the fragment!

Diana was stunned when she heard that and looked into the fragment with confusion... ..

Chapter 1157: What a big lump of mud! !

Diana looked over curiously. She didn’t realize who Ysera was referring to at the first moment. Was it that strange alien? It didn’t seem like it. Previously, when this fellow said that the other party was going to explode, he was obviously gloating.

Who was he referring to?

Following Ysera's gaze, Diana quickly realized that he was actually worried about the undead God that possessed Saab.

"Why are you worried about him?" Diana was puzzled.

"If he's gone, who's going to consume Andrew?" Ysera asked in return.

"That's true... but will he get into trouble because of something like this?" Diana looked at the soap that was about to explode... It was obvious that she did not believe that a god of this level would get into trouble because of that strange thing, even if that thing was a little strange...

"Normally, it wouldn't be like this..." Ysera looked inside and said faintly, "But now, the situation is uncertain..."

"Oh?" Diana looked over curiously when she heard that...

At this moment, just as Ysera said, the undead God was in an abnormal state!

"You really can hold it in!!"

The undead said sinisterly, and Grandpa, who was being held in his hand, looked at him in astonishment.

Who is this guy talking to? me?

If it weren't for you guys, would I have to hold my pee for so long? You actually mocked me, are you a big shot?

If I can't hold it in, I can't hold it in!

Grandpa was about to open the floodgates to show that he was free, but he saw another voice coming out of the undead God's mouth, "Let Her Go..."

His grandfather was stunned. He looked at SAB in a daze and thought to himself, 'what's going on?'

'Sab?'

At this moment, Vera, who had been twisted into a mess on the other side, was instantly delighted when she heard this voice. She struggled to open her blood-red eyes...

However, just as she opened her blood-red eyes, they exploded with a bang and let out another miserable cry. SAB's expression became extremely gloomy, "Stop!"

The next second, a strange smile appeared on his face, and he said grimly, "To be able to hide so well after being possessed by me, to choose this time to attack, you're quite a character..."

"Let Her Go..." sab struggled, "I'll give you my body!"

"I'm sorry..." the undead tilted his head, "I have a good habit of never being threatened by others!"

As soon as he finished his sentence, he clenched his fist, and Villafa's body instantly exploded into a pool of blood!

"You're courting death! !" SAB roared, and he controlled his hand to stab into his heart, instantly crushing it!

What the F * ck was going on?

Grandpa saw this guy talking about self-harm, and he was completely dumbfounded. The next second, soap in the sky suddenly sent a voice transmission, "Brother... run, I can't hold on anymore..."

Grandpa:"..."

At this moment, in another world, Lanaya looked at the sky as if she sensed something. Beside her, Eggface carefully stopped behind her.

She didn't know why she was with this guy...

But it was also good. Compared to that guy who pretended to be her teacher, although this guy was a little colder, he didn't seem like a bad person.

"Why are you called Goudan?"

Just as Goudan was thinking about this, Lanaya suddenly asked.

"Ah?" Goudan was stunned for a moment, feeling that this guy's mind was jumping.

"Why are you called Goudan?" Lanaya looked at him. "I feel that this name is so strange..."

"Uh... it's popular in our hometown. The lower the name, the better the life..." Goudan said seriously.

Of course, she couldn't admit that she had eaten too much...

"Really?" Lanaya was slightly stunned when she heard that. Then, she smiled and said, "It sounds like the people in your hometown are quite honest..."

"Right... hahahaha..." Goudan laughed.

"Your body is really good-looking..." Lanaya looked at Goudan carefully, and a regretful look appeared in her eyes. "It's a pity that you're a wind demon. Otherwise, if you joined our Templar family, with your talent, you could even be trained as a direct descendant..."

The Templar clan was currently in dire need of people. They searched everywhere for talented assassins. Their Templar clan was different from other bloodlines. They mainly passed down the skills of assassins and did not restrict bloodlines very much, basically, all bloodlines were groomed.

After the patriarch went missing, the clan was pressured by some factions and was forced to hand over many things. Among them was the high-end bloodline genes that the clan had groomed for countless eras.

However, the only bottom line was that they did not hand over the secret skill unique to the Templar family!

After all, bloodlines could be slowly nurtured. If the secret skill was lost, the Templar family would no longer exist... ..

This guy had an extremely healthy body and a very pure bloodline. If it was not for the fact that his bloodline was a wood elf that could not be deciphered, he would probably be qualified to be the next generation's trump card direct descendant.

Vaughn was really lucky to have picked up such a treasure...

Just as she was thinking, the sky suddenly darkened. Lanaya subconsciously looked up and instantly saw the sky darken as if something was pressing down... ..

"What the Hell Is This?" Lanaya was stunned.

"Wow..." Eggface looked at the sky and the rapidly falling thing. He couldn't help but say in shock, "What a big pool of smelly mud..."

Lanaya: "..."

This description... was quite appropriate...

Lanaya didn't dare to be negligent while ridiculing eggface. She scooped him up and quickly fled into the distance. This mud-like thing seemed to be alive. Perhaps it was some biological weapon that couldn't be removed after being contaminated for a while... it would be troublesome if the location was locked.

On the battlefield, many biological lords would often use such large-scale weapons to clear out the assassin scouts. They would use relatively complex and large-scale alchemy materials to create such biological weapons that had high life endurance.

It did not have any offensive power, but it was unusually difficult to kill. It stuck to the body like a dog ignoring a plaster, constantly warning the user of the large distance. A great assassin whose location was locked on would lose at least half of its lethality!

F * ck...

Lanaya drove at full speed and instantly ran over 10,000 kilometers!

As a top assassin, Lanaya's skill was obviously on a whole level higher than Vera's. They were on the same large planet, and their speed was almost the same. There wasn't even a spark on Lanaya's clothes, and she perfectly avoided the friction, she also protected Goudan, making Goudan exclaim that she was awesome!

Although his vision could not even see a blurry shadow, his opponent was able to make him unable to feel the wind at such a high speed. This kind of movement technique was simply ten thousand streets ahead of the instructors in the base!

As expected, they were all big shots...

Wait a minute...

Why did it feel like the sky was still dark?

Goudan looked at the sky curiously. Under the high speed, her vision was basically blurry, but the light perception had not completely disappeared. With one look, she realized that the sky was still filled with shadows.

Lanaya was also angry. What the F * ck... .. How big was a lump of mud?

She did not have time to Dodge Big Lanaya's attack. She stomped her foot and raised her hand to chop off a knife light. She wanted to cut the mud into pieces to create a gap so that she could use her movement technique to dodge it.

However, when the knife light hit the mud, a shrill scream immediately resounded through the entire sky.

Hearing this scream, Big Dog Egg was stunned...

Why did this sound... .. It sounded a little familiar...

Chapter 1158: What the Hell Is this thing?

The strength of a creature's body is lower than expected...

Lanaya did not use too much strength when she attacked, because she knew that many biological weapons had the ability to absorb energy. If she did not identify the weak point of the creature, her brute force would be used instead.

However, she did not expect that such a large lump of mud was more fragile than she had imagined. It was instantly cut into countless pieces, accompanied by a shrill scream...

With doubts in her heart, Lanaya did not let her guard down. She carried dogball and weaved through the air attack of the mud rain. Her exquisite footwork did not leave a single mark on her body, visually, she gave people the feeling that she was a fairy who ran in the rain but did not touch the rain.

The footwork is so beautiful that the dog egg is envious, but she is more concerned about the voice just now.

That voice... Did you hear that right?

Was the soap hidden in the mud? By chance? How Bad is it?

But isn't this guy a little loud? . Why do I feel like I'm hearing it everywhere. ... Uh... <per_0> . Everywhere?

Goudan was stunned for a moment. He immediately reacted and looked around. Strangely, he discovered that the shrill scream came from the sky at first, but later on, it seemed to have started to disperse. He felt that the fellow's moans could be heard from all directions. What was going on?

Lanaya seemed to have noticed this as well, and her brows immediately furrowed...

She looked carefully, and there seemed to be moans coming from within the cut-up lump of mud, giving off an extremely strange feeling...

A moment later, the whole lump of mud fell to the ground. A lot of mud quickly rolled on the ground and formed a ball-shaped object. It quickly ran in all directions as if the mud had turned into a spirit. ...

Lanaya narrowed her eyes. She felt that this thing did not look like a biological weapon. She casually grabbed one... ...

After the lump of mud was grabbed, it quickly dehydrated. Like a deflated balloon, it instantly turned into dry sand and flowed down from Lanaya's hand.

Lanaya narrowed her eyes slightly. The unique double pupils of the Templar clan flickered with a golden light. She could clearly see that the moment she caught the lump of mud, the energy on the mud had rapidly disintegrated and disappeared!

What was going on?

Lanaya activated her eye technique. After taking a closer look, she immediately discovered that although the lumps of mud that were scattered on the ground looked like they were running in all directions, they were actually connected to a string. There was a connection between them... ...

The energy that had disappeared earlier was quickly dispersed to the other small mud balls through these connections...

"This is interesting..." Lanaya tilted her head as a look of interest flashed across her eyes.

On the other hand, Goudan was stunned. This was because before the mud balls had turned into sand, a voice had been transmitted into his mind.

"Goudan, run! There's something very scary nearby! !"

Goudan:"..."

It really was that guy with the soap...

This guy was getting more and more strange. Sometimes it was soap, sometimes it was slugs, and now it could actually turn into such a big puddle of smelly mud. By the way, what the hell did this guy transform into?

Wait a minute... ? ... what did he mean when he warned of something terrible?

———

At this time, on the other side of the world, a red meteor fell to the ground with soap and mud. When it landed, the mud quickly condensed into a ball and wrapped around the Red Meteor, and then the sound of a pig being slaughtered.

But as the mud wrapped, the ball of fire red thing fell without making any sound, like a pile of clay falling from the sky, silent.

After a long time, the large pile of plasticine separated and quickly turned into sand. The energy dispersed in all directions.

After another quarter of an hour, small, densely packed mud balls came running from the surroundings of the forest one after another and surrounded the fiery red thing.

Upon closer inspection, one would discover that the fiery red thing was a bird-like creature. Its entire body was covered with crystal feathers that were as red as agate. It looked extremely magnificent. At this moment, the incomparably beautiful bird was wrapped together... As if it was protecting something... ..

“Grandpa?”

Within the lump of mud, a small lump of mud called out tentatively.

The bird moved slightly, and the wrapped wings slowly spread out, revealing its entire body... ..

In an instant, all the lump of mud was stunned on the spot, staring blankly at the bird that had spread its wings.

If one were to look at the magnificence of the feathers, even though it was stunning, to the extent that it would not cause one to be lost, but at this moment, its form was completely spread out, coupled with that incomparably perfect form, it gave off an extremely beautiful visual feeling., it instantly filled soap’s heart!

Soap swore that this was definitely the most beautiful bird he had ever seen...

It was also the most beautiful thing he had ever seen.

It was so beautiful that soap could not take his eyes off it...

“Don’t continue to stare at it...”

Just as all the mud fell, an aged voice came from under the bird’s wings.

“The soul will be lost...”

The old voice was like a warning bell that pulled soap out of its amazement. It came back to its senses and looked at the owner of the voice with vigilance.

The one who spoke was an old humanoid creature. Its snow-white hair matched with the skin of Ku tree bark. It was almost impossible to recognize its previous form, but soap knew who it was...

It was the mighty blood demon Saab from the Vogu faction!

At this moment, the old Saab was carefully holding the unconscious Vera while the incomparably beautiful bird seemed to be unconsciously protecting the two of them... ..

“What did you do to Grandpa? How did he become like this!”All the mud blobs questioned him.

Sab was stunned for a moment and looked up at the mud balls. Although these mud balls asked the same question, they gave people the feeling that they were being questioned by different people, and even their emotions were different.

If one looked carefully, they would even find that the eyes of these small mud balls were not quite the same. Some mud balls were more vigilant against themselves, some mud balls seemed to be more concerned about the phoenix behind them, and some mud balls looked at the phoenix with a strange expression... ..

This fellow...

Sab narrowed his eyes slightly and thought to himself, it's not just a simple split. They are clearly so deeply connected to each other, but their consciousness isn't unified. What's going on?

"Hey!"The mud blobs were immediately dissatisfied when they saw that SAB did not reply. "I'm asking you a question! !"

Sab came back to his senses and looked at these mud blobs with a strange expression. Then, he asked curiously, "You can fuse, right? Why Don't You Fuse and talk?"

"Fuse?"The mud balls were obviously stunned. Then, they moved closer as if they had thought of something. Then, with a sudden jump, the mud balls that were close to them fused together and turned into a big mud ball.

Then, the big mud ball looked behind him. The small mud balls around him retreated when they saw this scene, as if they were afraid of being fused. This made SAB's eyelids twitch... ..

"What's the point of merging?"One of the small blobs of mud said angrily, "Are you going to kill me with one slap after merging? Don't you know that eggs can't be placed in the same basket?"

"That's right, that's right! !"The blobs of mud echoed one after another!

The Big Blob of mud that had just merged was stunned for a moment. Then, he looked at Saab as if he had been persuaded. He also revealed an expression of 'you brat, you have ulterior motives'.

The corners of Saab's eyes twitched, and he thought to himself, what the Hell Is This?

Chapter 1159: high-grade Phoenix Seed!

Sab had personally witnessed the mutation of the fellow before him.

From absorbing a large amount of blood demon essence blood, to forcefully turning those energies that were beyond his body's endurance into fat, to his body expanding and exploding that world fragment for no reason, all the way until he split into countless individuals.

It was fine if he split, after all, there were quite a number of creatures in this world that could split, but to maintain an energy connection after splitting and still be able to maintain independent thinking was simply nonsense!

It was even stranger than those mutated demons in the ninth level of the abyss.

He had never seen such a strange thing in his entire life... ..

However, it was precisely because of this strange thing that he was barely able to save Vera...

“Hey, Hey, don’t change the topic!”

Just as SAB was deep in thought, the big lump of mud that was the leader said angrily, “What did you do to Grandpa? Why did it become like this?”

“Yes, that’s right. He was just as Ugly as me, how did he become like this now?” A group of lump of mud at the side echoed!

Sab was silent for a few seconds and looked at them strangely. “Didn’t you guys cause him to become like this?”

“Bullsh * T!” The lump of mud immediately said in unison, “It’s none of my business! !”

“Have you forgotten what happened before?” SAB asked faintly.

“Eh?” The mud balls were stunned when they heard that, and for a moment, they fell into a daze... ..

What happened before?

Oh, right... It seemed to have drunk something, and then its stomach became more and more bloated. Moreover, the things it drank seemed to be out of its control, and then it seemed to have... .. exploded... ..

But what did this have to do with Grandpa becoming so beautiful?

SAB looked at the mud balls with a complicated expression, then at the birds carefully protecting them, his heart filled with mixed feelings.

He never thought that he would actually be saved by these two juniors... ..

Sab recalled what had happened in the previous world fragment... ..

The Undead God was unwilling to compromise, forcing him to burn his blood essence to weaken his body. When this fellow exploded, that God had no choice but to leave his body and escape... ..

Under such circumstances, his blood essence burning and his body weakening, while Vera’s body was in the process of remodeling, were both very weak. Forcefully taking on the force of the energy explosion, the outcome of both of them would be terrible.

Vera was still young. At most, he could remodel his body again and use up a bit of his origin source. As for himself... .. Even if he didn’t immediately turn into a star, he would almost be exhausted.

However, he didn’t expect that at the critical moment, the meat egg in his hand would actually protect the two of them... ..

He had made a mistake. This ugly meat egg was actually a phoenix...

While he was lamenting, his grandpa suddenly let out a long cry. Then, his body began to shrink rapidly. The feathers on his body curled up into a ball, and his body also began to shrink rapidly. In a few seconds, he had shrunk into a golden spiral-shaped object... ..

Soap was stunned for a moment. He came closer and poked Grandpa Lu. It was soft like a puddle of mud, and he immediately said in amusement, "Aren't you only handsome for a few seconds? How did you become like this again?"

When the group of mud balls behind Grandpa Lu saw Grandpa Lu's current appearance, they immediately nodded as if it was a matter of course.

That's more like it. If Grandpa Lu had become handsome, wouldn't he be the ugliest one in the base?

His grandfather rolled his eyes, but as if he didn't have the strength to reply, he collapsed weakly on the ground with a tired look on his face...

"What's wrong with him?" Mud Ball stared at SAB and asked.

"Nirvana..." Sab looked at Grandpa Lu with a complicated expression.

This little guy was not only a phoenix seed, but also a high-end species among phoenix seeds!

Phoenix seeds were the high-end species of elves, but high-end species were also divided into high-end and low-end species. The high-end level of a phoenix seed was judged by its Nirvana ability.

The higher the energy required for Nirvana, the higher the quality after transformation. Although the little guy did not absorb all the energy from the explosion just now, they were at the core of the explosion, so the amount of energy absorbed by the Little Guy was not low! But even so, it had not completed its transformation!

This phoenix seed was probably of higher quality than the few that the royal family of the Space Elves had raised. It was probably not the best of the best!

Including the Elves, developers, and Titans that he had seen before, and now with this top-grade Phoenix and this strange creature, they seemed to be the subordinates of that little lord named Seer, right?

Where did that guy collect these seedlings from?

But why would this guy protect them?

Sab hesitated for a moment, and finally asked the question in his heart.

"Why did you save me?"

Grandpa opened his eyes reluctantly when he heard the question. He looked at the sleeping Villafa in SAB's arms, and his expression became a little confused.

He didn't know why, but at that time, he was shivering, but when this ruthless man stabbed his heart with his hand, and that guy in the sky was about to explode.

The girl who had been squeezed into a pool of blood cried out in despair.

Her voice was filled with helplessness, like a child who was about to lose everything!

In an instant, it reminded Grandpa of that time in South Africa, that similarly helpless black girl...

Instinctively... completely out of instinct, he moved!

He did not know that he could do this, and at that moment, his mind was filled with one thought: Please... "...". He could actually do such a cool thing? He was too cool!

Just like that, his grandfather fell into a deep sleep again with a smug smile on his face...

Sab looked at his grandfather's expression with a strange expression...

Soap, who was at the side, also stared blankly at Grandpa Lu, who had fainted. For a moment, he was a little speechless. He thought that his grandfather was being controlled to save them, but he didn't expect that it was actually voluntary... ..

By the way, why was he smiling so wretchedly? Could it be that he had taken a liking to that white-haired girl?

Soap took a look at the sleeping villa and couldn't help but curl his lips. His taste is quite high... He dared to take a liking to that kind of girl. She was a female Saiyan after all. ...

"Sigh, I don't care..." soap snorted and said, "Let's Find a place to hide first. Otherwise, we'll be in trouble if that guy finds us!"

That guy?

Saab stared blankly, then immediately realized who the other party was referring to, hurriedly asked: "Do you know where it is?"

"I don't know..." soap shook his head. "But it can't be very far. When I fell from the sky, I obviously felt it. I just don't know where it fell..."

SAB frowned and struggled to pick up villafa. That guy had the royal eye, which was the nemesis of blood demons. If he met him again, he might never have a chance to escape... ..

"Who?"

At this time, in the distance a wood position, with the dog egg is chasing those mud ball Lanaya suddenly stopped, alert to a direction of the woods.

"I was lucky to be blown into the same shard..." a faint voice sounded and a black figure slowly walked out. Lanaya looked up and narrowed her eyes. It was Vivian.

"Is the little guy okay?" Vien looked at Goudan and smiled with relief. She reached out her hand to Goudan.

Goudan was confused. Before he could speak, Lanaya had protected her behind him.

"What do you mean?" Vien's face darkened.

Chapter 1160: I Don't know, someone knows... ..

"What do you mean?" Vien looked at Lanaya coldly.

"I owe you a favor..." Lanaya said faintly, "So the little guy she likes can't be taken away by you..."

Vien: "..."

Hearing that, Goudan's eyes lit up, and he quickly hid behind Lanaya. His thigh, he actually saw through it!

"When did you see through it?" Vaughn's face became blurry, and after a few changes, it turned into a faceless face, which looked extremely strange.

"When I first saw you..." Lanaya said faintly, "You imitated her footsteps very well, but you couldn't hide the Assassin's aura on your body. I'm very sensitive to my peers, and there are very few situations where I can't recognize you." "... "

She wasn't lying. The younger generation of the Templar clan had been targeted by many assassin clans, especially the same batch of young disciples.

Many people weren't convinced of the reputation of the Templar clan. In the past, the Templar clan was strong, so some people didn't dare to provoke them openly. But now, it was different. The Templar clan didn't have any elders, some young assassins who wanted to prove themselves did not have any scruples.

After all, if they had the experience of killing a Templar's disciple, it would definitely be the best assassin's resume...

Since her debut, Lanaya did not remember how many young assassins she had encountered. Her brothers and sisters had all died accidentally. The only reason she was able to survive was because of her talent and strength. It was also because of her high sensitivity and vigilance.

"Is that so?" Maya said with a smile, "Then why did you directly expose it? As an assassin, shouldn't you make use of this information gap to do something? Don't tell me you have to learn from those warriors and be open and aboveboard?"

"I'm used to it..." Lanaya replied faintly.

"Used to it?" Maya was stunned when she heard that.

"A normal assassin should indeed be like what you said..." Lanaya looked at him expressionlessly. "But I'm different. The purpose of our generation's young people coming out of the mountains is to restore the family's reputation. They do everything in a big way. They're afraid that others won't know. They come out in the open to kill whoever they want. They can't wait for the other party to be fully prepared. That's why I've always felt that what I've learned all these years is the open killing technique... "

Maya: "..."

"Interesting..."

"Interesting?" Lanaya drew the knife from her waist and stepped forward slowly. "So... Are You Ready?"

This guy...

Maya looked cold and saw the flash of heat in each other's eyes. She realized that she had met a battle maniac... . .

"Well... are you sure they can't get to us?"

Not far from the woods where the two top star assassins fought, there were two hidden spies, one young and one old, and the little one was a lump of mud. . .

The old one is the old antique in the power of Voodoo: Goron!

"How can I be sure of such a battle?" Goron said in a low voice. "It depends on their mood..."

Soap was silent for a while, but in the end, he still asked, "Then can you protect me? Why do I feel that the wind around those two people can blow me into pieces?"

"Be More Confident, child..." Gerald said faintly, "Remove the feeling. In that kind of battle, the surrounding wind elements are not weaker than high-grade plastic energy weapons. Not to mention you, I can even be cut into pieces in the past..."

Soap was stunned, and then he looked at Gerald. "Old Man... I always thought that you were on the same level as them!"

"Of course I am!" Gerald frowned at this unlucky child. "Cough... but old people can't do it with their bones and muscles..."

Soap: "..."

"Is that dog egg okay?"

To be honest, soap had been wandering around the area, trying to find an opportunity to save dog egg, but after seeing the skills of those two people, he completely gave up on this idea.

"By the way, why are you so afraid of Death?" Gerald looked at soap curiously. "Your body is just one of the fission bodies, right? After you die, your consciousness will return to the main body."

"Nonsense!" Soap was instantly agitated. "What Main Body? Who is the main body? I am the main body. Why should I Return?"

Gerald: "..."

"What a personality splitter. Is this the legendary indescribable? I wonder if some people have the same characteristics as you..."

"Indescribable?" Soap was stunned. "You know what I am?"

Goron smiled. "I know a little..."

"Really? ?"

Soap was excited. In the base, no one knew what it was. Tutor Virien didn't know, the Lord didn't know, and the teachers of the Advanced Academy didn't know either... ..

Being a mutant actually did not feel good, especially after knowing that this was not a game... ..

He was very envious of those Titan players. Each and every one of them repaired their muscles in the base every day. He was even more envious of the elf players of the same period. They were so handsome. He was really envious...

No matter who it was, no one would like to be treated as a mutant. Damn it, who would be willing to become a piece of soap?

Many people in the base ridiculed their grandfather, but his grandfather was very optimistic because instructor virion had said that he was a phoenix. After transforming, he was the most beautiful species among the elves. Although his grandfather lived a hard life, he had a beautiful future, but what about himself?

There was nothing. He had no idea what he was in the future...

This feeling of having a hard life and having no direction in the future really drove him crazy... ..

Otherwise, he wouldn't have come to the new world. If he had a bright future, who wouldn't want to live?

"What exactly am I?" Soap couldn't help but ask excitedly.

Gerald: "A species of Elf, academic name: Indescribable..."

"Indescribable? Indescribable..." soap kept repeating the name, as if he wanted to engrave the name in his heart, so that after he disappeared, this memory would be transmitted to the main body... ..

"Then... then... then what will I look like after I transform?" Soap quickly asked.

"Well..." Gerald smiled. "I'm not sure..."

"What?" Soap was stunned when he heard that. He felt extremely aggrieved and said with red eyes, "But you said you knew just now!"

Gerald: "I said I knew some..."

"You Damn Old Man, are you playing word games with me?" Soap felt that he had been played, and his eyes were bloodshot like he had drunk fake wine. "Do you believe that I will fight you to the death?"

"You?" Gerald laughed. "On what basis?"

Wasn't he acting too benevolent. Even such a small mud dared to threaten him... ..

"I can expose your position! !" Soap said coldly, "This world has split into billions of me, I am everywhere. I can follow you at any time, expose your position at any time, you will definitely be killed!"

"Oh?" Gerald was stunned for a moment and narrowed his eyes slightly.

This little guy actually knew how to use his advantage... .. Not Stupid... ..

“Alright, Alright...”Gerald readily made a surrender gesture. At the moment, he really didn’t want his position to be exposed. He knew that among the people who came in, there were top-tier gods like Andrew.

“But I really don’t know what you will become after transforming...”

“You F * ck! !”

“Don’t get excited...”Gerald smiled. “I don’t know, but someone knows...”

“Who?”
