Chapter 1181: Sky Demon!

“Eh?”

Facing this sudden scene, Goron quickly retreated. However, no matter how fast he was, he was still quickly swept into the Sea of fire by the explosive energy of the flames.

This time, the density of the fire elements was far higher than before. The entire space melted instantly. Under the formation of the new fire elements, the sky and earth turned into the color of lava. Every tiny spot had a temperature that was ten thousand times higher than the core of the Sun!

Within the fire elements, Ragnaros spread a pair of huge wings. Like a fish in water, his movements were extremely smooth. He quickly arrived a thousand kilometers away, where Goron was barely able to escape!

“You look much better now...”Ragnaros looked at Goron with a mocking smile on his face.

At this moment, Goron appeared to be in an extremely sorry state. His high-grade silk outer robe was burned to a thousand holes. The outer skin of his entire body was charred black. It was dry and cracked, and there was even blood faintly oozing out, it was obvious that the energy that erupted in an instant earlier had caused him considerable damage.

Goron raised his head and glanced at the other party. His eyes were as cold as a snake’s.

“Don’t look at me like that...”ragnaros chuckled and said, “I didn’t do anything petty. From the beginning to the end, what I did was the stupid method that you said, and it has never changed...”

Goron:”...”

“I know what you said...” . “...”. Ragnaros saw that the other party did not speak and continued to laugh. “We Demons also know, especially against us elemental demons. I heard that the various families of the federation, including the Academy, have developed tens of thousands of methods to counter those methods. Do you think that we haven’t studied those things? “After studying them, we discovered that those so-called methods are only useful under certain circumstances, and the easiest way to crack those methods is to increase our strength!”

“For example, this strange matrix of yours seems to be able to overcome US elemental demons, but if we want to crack it, don’t tell me that we elemental demons have to learn the knowledge of the matrix? “If we don’t use our own talents to compete with professional mages, do you think we’re Stupid?”

Gerald was silent for a few seconds, then he looked at him faintly. “So you used even more brute force to crack it?”

“Shouldn’t I?”Ragnaros laughed. “Let me answer the question at the beginning. Why do we demons rely so much on our talents? The answer is: because our talent is strong enough, it’s worth relying on! !”

As soon as he finished speaking, the surrounding flames soared into the sky. Under the dense concentration of fire elements, the quality of the flames that emerged was even higher, forming a liquid shape like magma. It was the highest grade flame of the Balrog, the flame of crimson refining!

And in the air, a huge sword of fire hung above his head, locking onto the miserable Goron.

When the central console, Diana, saw this scene, her body immediately froze. "Damorisk's sword!"

That was a combat technique that could be formed when the elements reached an extremely high level. It was a combat technique that was usually formed when the army concentrated their strength and used a high-precision matrix to fuse the strength of everyone. This guy could actually use it alone., he was practically a monster!

"Are you sure that the two of them have the same level of energy now?" Diana could not help but ask.

Ysera was slightly silent when he heard that. He could not help but sigh in his heart. The talents of the young people nowadays were really getting better and better. From the growth rings, this Balrog's age was only around one era at most, but the degree of accumulation of energy., it was almost comparable to many old star-level powerhouses who had lived for more than ten eras. Even if one had the talent of an elemental demon, this was a little too exaggerated!

However... .. The system of the Emerald Dream Realm would not be wrong... ..

That old fellow's age was probably an old monster that had been alive since the age of the natural disaster... ..

Boom! !

In the sky, a huge flaming sword descended from the sky and locked onto Geron. At that moment, Geron could only feel a strange aura sealing his surroundings. It was as if all the space was isolated by the intense fire element, unless he opened up a new path, he could only watch helplessly as that terrifying gigantic sword landed on his head!

Its speed was not fast, but it gave off a feeling of overwhelming helplessness!

Geron raised his head and looked at the gigantic sword that was getting closer and closer. The terrifying fire element was so dense that his vision had become blurry. The burning pain made him unable to open his eyes.

Unless it was a star-ranked spatial master, it would be very difficult to break through the fire element's seal.

He had been careless. This kind of move could not be used without an extremely high fire element density. This stupid big guy's incompetent and furious look earlier was obviously a disguise., it was obvious that he had already seen through his actions of laying down the refinement formation. He had played along and secretly prepared for a denser fire element space for himself!

This seemingly careless fellow was actually more cunning than he had imagined... ..

Goron chuckled and stood up with some difficulty. He looked faintly at Ragnaros opposite him and said in a hoarse voice, "Young people nowadays are really outstanding, so outstanding that... I can't even bear to destroy it..."

Ragnaros narrowed his eyes when he heard that. He was about to mock the other party for being stubborn when an inexplicable chill suddenly rose in his heart. He could not help but take a step back slightly.

What's wrong with this guy?

Ragnaros' heart was heavy, and his body instinctively sensed danger.

Goron looked at the other party with a smile, as if ignoring the huge sword that was falling from the sky and taking his life. The pitch-black skin on his body began to peel off rapidly, and his pair of dark blue eyes began to slowly change, first, a black dot appeared in the blue, and then the black dot rapidly expanded, like ink staining the water, rapidly spreading!

Finally, his pupils turned as black as the night!

"This is?" Ragnaros was shocked. He activated the bloodline in his body and retreated quickly!

Boom!

The Sword of Damorisk fell. The terrifying power seemed to be able to pierce through the entire world. However, the power that seemed to be able to cut through everything in the world stopped in a pale hand.

A pair of pale hands that were completely devoid of blood gripped the tip of the sword tightly, making it impossible for the Sword of fire to sink any further!

Under the giant sword, the old body quickly peeled off. Layers of skin that looked like tree bark fell off, revealing an extremely beautiful skin.

The body that was as white as jade was devoid of blood, but it carried a shocking beauty. The extremely aged face that was peeled off had also become exceptionally handsome, as if it had been completely reborn.

"You... you..." Ragnaros took a few steps back, his face filled with disbelief. "How is this possible!"

On the control console, Diana was also stunned when she saw the pale and bloodless youth. "This... what is this?"

Ysera rarely raised her dragon head and said faintly, "Sky Demon!"

Chapter 1182: Fall!

"What... What is that?"

Across a world, Diana felt an inexplicable chill. That pale youth's pair of pitch-black eyes were like an abyss. At a glance, she felt as if the entire world was being sucked in.

Diana searched through her memories, recalling the knowledge the elder had taught her. In the entire federation, this type of pupil seemed to only exist in one race, but it shouldn't be a blue spirit... ..

"Sky Demon..."

Ysera's eyes turned serious for once. She looked at Gerald and sighed, "As expected... to be able to live for so long, they aren't easy to deal with..."

"Sky Demon?" Diana instantly recalled this name under the other party's reminder. The reason why she recalled it in such a hurry was because the elder had been very vague when he was explaining the science, and he had not explained it in detail. Moreover, the Sky Demon was only an alias., the real name was Federtik!

The reason why she used an alias was because this name could not be mentioned easily. Otherwise, it was very likely that it would notice you, no matter how far away you were!

On the other side, ragnaros, who was preparing to launch an attack with an overwhelming aura, also felt that something was unusual. Looking at the black hole-like eyes of the other party, his face instantly stiffened!

As a demon of the abyss, he understood the meaning of these eyes too well!

"Heavenly Demon Body?" Ragnaros' Aura was abruptly halted, and he said in astonishment, "How could you..."

"You talk too much..." Gerald smiled slightly, a strange pattern began to appear on the transformed young body. The pattern was very beautiful, but it revealed an extremely strange coldness. When people looked at it, they would feel beautiful, but at the same time, they would also feel an inexplicable fear in their hearts.

It was as if that was a great and terrifying thing!

"The pattern of Federic..." after seeing the pattern that appeared, Ragnaros' expression became extremely grave. This could not be wrong. This was the heavenly demon body!

The Heavenly Demon was the oldest demon in the abyss. Its existence was older than any history in the abyss. It was darker than the night without stars. Long before the Abyss had opened a passage., this kind of creature had already begun to affect the material universe. Most People's fear of demons came from the Sky Demon!

Why was this so? It was because they were the incarnations of fear. In the spiritual world, they symbolized fear. After they evolved into the material world, they were a group of demons that fed on fear!

No one would like them, including demons, because they were the most terrifying species. Not many people even dared to mention their names. The reason was because of the strangeness of their race. Once they were targeted., just like maggots in the tarsal bone, no matter how far away they were, they would find you and use the method you were most afraid of, cruelly torturing you until you died, even losing your soul consciousness!

Zizz Zizz...

A sound that made people's Goosebumps stand up rang out. The damorisk sword that Goron was holding began to show spider-web-like cracks. With this extremely uncomfortable sound, it turned into countless pieces, an army-level combat technique dissipated in front of the two of them just like that.

"Impossible..."Ragnaros shook his head and retreated. "You can't be a Sky Demon!"

Sky Demons were different from other races. They were extremely rare and had been a fixed number for countless eras. 999 individuals never increased or decreased. A sky demon that died would be born again, many people said that the one that was born was the one that had once died. What this race could not kill was the demonic seed that was born from the laws of the Abyss!

Therefore, they had become royalty with less than a thousand people. This made the countless huge demonic races not dare to look down on them. Back then, in order for this group of people to settle down in the Abyss, the Seven Great Demonic Gods had personally come out and negotiated an agreement.

Less than a thousand sky demons alone had the resources of a royal land, but they could not bring fear to the Abyss Continent Again!

When the demon disciples went out in the abyss, especially the high-ranking disciples, the elders in the family would give them a list of forbidden places. Those forbidden places were the places where Sky Demons had appeared, which were also equivalent to cursed places.., they told the demonic disciples not to get close to them in case they were affected. Therefore, the high-ranking demonic disciples knew where the skyfiends were active, and they would never set foot in them.

However, this guy was definitely not included in the list!

"Who exactly are you?"

"It's so obvious that you can't Tell?"Gerald looked at the other party with a smile. However, his smile at this moment had an extremely horrifying effect. His handsome face made people's blood turn cold!

"Impossible!"Ragnaros stepped back slightly and looked at him warily. "You're not on the list!"

"List?"Geron paused for a moment, then said with a strange smile, "Is that the Federic list that is circulated in your demon race?"

Federic... .. This name made Ragnaros inexplicably tremble. He had never seen a skyfiend before, but he had heard that only this race would call his name.

"You really are..."

"I'm not..."Goron interrupted him.

Ragnaros was stunned.

“But I’m not, and neither is your group in the Abyss. There’s only one Federtik!”Goron looked at him faintly. “Your Group in the Abyss is just...”he paused, something seemed to disturb him, and he laughed. “I forgot, the secret is unspeakable...”

Ragnaros:”...”

“But it doesn’t matter...”said Goron faintly. “Anyway... you’re dying, and it’s pointless for a dying man to know too much...”

“My Lord...”a black shadow quickly appeared behind Lord Bolton, in the end, he turned into the tall body of the rock demon bogus, and the rock demon abalone still looked silly, “Sir, Safilos and I have found four fragments, but we have not found any trace of the others. is your so-called equal distribution of strength wrong?”

At the side, the corner of Vera’s mouth twitched. Only this guy dared to question Bolton so easily, and this guy was usually very straightforward.

Bolton also twitched his face slightly, and then he looked at bogus. “What’s In Your Hand?”

“Oh, this. I picked it up on the road. There are so many. I stepped on a large piece of it and killed it, but I found it everywhere. I felt that it might be a native of this fragment world? So I brought one over for you to see...”

Bolton:”...”

Hearing that, Vera looked over curiously. When she saw the thing in bogus’hand, her body froze. Why was that Guy Here?

At this moment, the half-dead thing in bogus’hand was soap... ..

Bolton sighed. Just as he was about to take the jelly-like object over to take a look, he suddenly felt something, and his whole body froze.

“What is it, sir?”Bogus was instantly excited when he saw this. He pinched the soap in his hand and said, “Could it be that this is something extraordinary?”

Bolton’s expression was solemn. After a long while, he replied, “Ragnaros is dead! !”

Chapter 1183: looks like I have to reassess...

Ragnaros, Dead?

Beside Bolton, both the cold-faced Safilos and the honest-looking bogus were shocked!

Ragnaros was the grandson of the grand elder of the four elements clan, Boris. He was a direct descendant of the clan. His talent and potential were top-notch in the current generation of the four elements clan, many people felt that he had the qualifications to compete for the position of the next clan leader of the Balrog clan.

In terms of direct combat strength, apart from Safilos, almost everyone acknowledged that he was the strongest. Many people in the outside world had assessed that Ragnaros was the strongest general in Bolton's faction.

Such a general had disappeared after entering this place for less than half an hour?

Bogus, who had never taken danger seriously, fell silent at this moment. The atmosphere became rather strange.

"How many images of Ragnaros' death?" After a moment of silence, Safilos asked the most realistic question.

The bond between gods was very deep, especially among the higher-ups. For someone like Ragnaros, his contract with Bolton's God was deeply bound. The other party could bring Bolton a large number of laws to supplement it, Ragnaros could also enjoy the nourishment of the laws of power to reduce the consumption.

A high-level binding involved the soul. Even if a person died, the soul would not be able to immediately break the god contract for a short period of time. This was also the reason why the God could resurrect and revive others.

If a newly-promoted small organization, a god, wanted to compete with a large organization for talent, other than relying on more resources, there was also the god contract's quota. This item was limited, and not everyone could sign it, especially the great lord organizations, if one wanted to sign the deity contract, even if they wanted to join the army, they would have to at least reach the colonel level!

Ragnaros had signed the highest-level deity contract, and he enjoyed an extremely high quota of influence. In contrast, the degree of soul binding was very high, because he had to pay a corresponding amount to supplement the deity's law completion.

He was dead. Theoretically speaking, Burton could access Ragnaros's soul memories.

Bolton shook his head gravely at the question.

Safilos's face became more serious. "No image at all? How is that possible?"

"Consciousness is extremely vague... <per_0> . "Burton narrowed his eyes and said, "Before he died, he suffered a great mental stimulation. His soul was in a high state of panic, and he was basically unable to organize a clear transfer of consciousness. When I tried to comfort him, Ragnaros had already been purified... "..."

"Purification..."

Safilos narrowed his eyes and said, "Could it be Andrew?"

Purification was a priest's skill in many worlds, but the irony was that this skill originated from necromancers. They had developed the ability to summon the undead from the death realm, in order to prevent a backlash, they had also studied the ability to forcibly exorcise demons. These things were glorified in many civilizations as the so-called purification, and even became a positive energy skill that only holy classes possessed.

However, this thing had never been a proper skill...

“The possibility is not high...”. Bolton shook his head. “Although Ragnaros is strong, his body is definitely not at the level of Andrew. Andrew was the first person to spy on the secret of this secret realm, and he is also the person who is most familiar with the secret of this secret realm. The Master of this secret realm must have wanted to kill him first. If he wanted to exhaust Andrew, he would definitely gather more power, and not let Ragnaros face him alone. This is no different from giving his head away. You have to know that the other party is an undead. If Ragnaros dies, the other party can turn him into a zombie, and it will instead increase his combat strength!”

Safilos nodded, obviously agreeing with Bolton’s analysis.

“Could it be him?”

At the side, Vera, who had been silent all this time, suddenly muttered in a low voice.

“What Does Little Vera Know?” Bolton turned his head and asked gently.

Vera’s identity was very special. She had a deep relationship with the blood demons and fallen angels. Both forces didn’t agree with her, but they were reluctant to give up a special existence like her. In addition, SAB protected her., bolton finally decided to hire her as the vice leader. He did not expect that not only would she be joined by the blood demon clan, but Sab, an old demon who had been in the mercenary world for many years, would also join his faction.

He was actually very satisfied with the existence of villafa.

Although the fallen angel clan did not like her very much...

“This...”villafa hesitated for a moment, but in the end, she said, “My lord, do you remember that I reported that I met a very old blue spirit when I was fighting with Vogu’s forces?”

“Oh?”Safilos glanced at her. “The time when you recklessly broke into their headquarters and caused SAB to swallow the blood crystal?”

Vera heard the blood crystal, and her face immediately turned pale. She bit her lips tightly... ..

“Enough...”Bolton glared at the next generation of fallen angels with a headache, he felt helpless. This guy was usually very calm and decent, but when it came to the topic of Vera, he became like a child, making things difficult for him.

Is this the time to talk about this?

After scolding safilos, Bolton turned to look at Vera and said gently, “Tell me why you think so?”

Villafa nodded, with a look of reminiscence, he said, “When I was fighting with that Blue Spirit, his left arm was taken off in an instant. I saw clearly that he used physical skills to hurt me, not using arcane means. At that time, I thought that he might not be a blue spirit.”

Pausing for a moment, he continued, "I only reacted when I heard the lord say that Ragnaros' consciousness was in a state of panic. When I was taken off by that guy, I could have reacted, but my body could not keep up with the rhythm. The reason seems to be fear!"

"Fear?" Hearing this, Bolton frowned. He felt that this word was not quite right. Even if the person who just fought was far stronger than him, he should not be afraid, right? Demons lived in an environment where the strong preyed on the weak. When they encountered the strong, they would at most accept their fate. The word fear rarely appeared on demons.

"It's fear..." Vera nodded affirmatively. "That feeling is very familiar to me. The fear of losing control of one's body is very strange..."

"Is that so? Could it be a spiritual spell?" Burton frowned. "Is there anything else special about it?"

Villafa hesitated for a moment and finally said, "I don't know if I saw it wrong. For a moment, I saw his pupils as if they had turned black, pure black..."

As soon as he said this, not only Burton, but the other demons' expressions changed abruptly!

Could it be that?

But how could it be?

On the other side, the younger Goron slowly walked towards the black rock mountain fragment while carrying the head of Ragnaros. At this moment, there was a terrified expression on Ragnaros' huge head that was close to collapse... ..

Looking at this scene, the Green Dragon Ysera said with a faint look in his eyes, "Looks like we have to reassess this guy's level..."

Chapter 1184: Should we cooperate?

"Are You Afraid?"

In the central control station, Ysera looked at Diana, who was stiff all over, and asked with a smile.

"I'm not afraid!" Diana bit her lips and retorted, "I'm a pure-blooded descendant of the Moon Elves. The Abyss was only one of the spiritual passages we ruled over. No matter how terrifying skyfiends are, they're just one of the demons..."

"Skyfiends aren't demons..." Ysera shook her head.

"HMM?" Diana looked at Ysera.

"The history of that thing is earlier than you think. It may even be older than the history of our dragon race..."

"No Way?" Diana was stunned. "Is the Abyss that ancient?"

When the dragon race appeared, the material world seemed to be in chaos, right?

“The Sky Demons didn’t come from the Abyss, and those in the Abyss weren’t Sky Demons either... “...”. Ysera smiled. “It’s not suitable to tell you these things now. It’s a forbidden secret. If you live long enough, you can explore it yourself...”. “...”

Diana: “...”

This old guy was getting more and more indecent...

Diana ignored him and looked at the other group of fragments.

The distribution of the fragments was what she couldn’t understand the most.

There were only two people in the entire fragment, but in her eyes, they were the existences with the greatest disparity in strength.

Seeing that the other party was looking there, Ysera also looked over. The smile on her face gradually disappeared, and she asked, “Do you think that this place is very unreasonable?”

“Of course it’s illogical!” Diana frowned and said, “You said that the fragments are distributed according to the equal energy of each other. I had already accepted that Balrog and that strange old fellow just now, but what about this one now? “Let’s not talk about how this level-6 little deity can be equal to that star-ranked deity’s energy, right?”

The fragment that Diana was looking at was the one where seer and Vogu were!

She was in a third-party perspective, so she could see very clearly that in the entire world, there was only seer and that top-tier star-ranked God!

“Indeed, they are not equals!” Ysera said faintly, “This group is the only one that I control manually, and it is not distributed according to energy!”

“Damn...” Diana frowned when she heard that. “Do you have a grudge with that little god?”

“He is the contracted God of that Little Titan...” Ysera replied faintly.

“Oh... “. “...” Diana had a look of sudden realization. “So that’s how it is? “But even if you beat around the bush, it won’t change the fact that you participated in the murder of that little god, right? “Are you sure that the Titan won’t blame you when he finds out the truth?”

Ysera glanced at the other party. “You might have misunderstood something...”

Diana: “Hmm?”

“I never said that the little lord was the weak side!”

“Huh?” Diana’s face twitched when she heard that. “Look at what you said. could he be the strong side?”

“Yes...” Ysera nodded.

Diana: “You... There’s a limit to how shameless you are...”

"I'm not joking..."Ysera looked at seer in the shard with a strange expression. "According to the energy ratio, the group of people who invaded us all added together is not as high as this little lord's energy ratio!"

Diana:" ..."

Did this guy drink fake wine and talk nonsense here?

Higher than all of them added together?

Not to mention those star-level powerhouses, there was an ancient lich like Andrew here. The energy ratio was higher than Andrew? A level five or six little god Lord?

"Hello, Senior..."

At this time, Seer, who met Vogu in the fragment, appeared very helpless. He felt a little wronged. According to his size, shouldn't he be matched with some small fries or something?

For example... The logistics personnel under this lord in front of him. ...

The level of the logistics personnel was also higher than him...

No matter what, he shouldn't be matched with such a guy, right? Wasn't it the rhythm of ten consecutive kneels to defeat the King of the ranking competition?

"Seer Eldia?"Vogu sat quietly on the rock and looked at this little guy curiously.

"Yes..."seer quickly nodded and replied.

Vogu: "Are you with Andrew?"

"Not a gang..."seer honest way.

"Not a gang. Can you live that long in his field?"

"Some good luck..."Xi ye touched his iron helmet way.

"Instead of taking the opportunity to run away, he chose to stay behind and fish among so many powerful forces?"

"I don't want to... <per_0> . Seer said in distress, "For some reason, my main star is connected to this planet. I Can't hide from it even if I wanted to. You've read my intelligence, so you should know that I come from a poor background. My family doesn't even have the ability to get me a grade-9 planet. I've been drifting in the galaxy for 100,000 years before I found a place to develop. How could I bear to give it up so easily?"

Vogu narrowed his eyes as he looked at the other party. His mood became very subtle. When he met seer, he did not feel that the other party was the only existence of this fragment. Perhaps it was a product that some powerhouse had brought over, it was just like the little fellow that he had seen earlier.

But now, it seemed that something was not quite right...

This little deity seemed to be too calm when facing him... ..

No matter from his background or strength, this shouldn't be the case?

Was there someone hiding in the surroundings?

Vogu closed his eyes and tried to sense his surroundings again, but to his surprise, there was nothing.

He was different from ordinary deities. He had two lifetimes of experience. Although his body was gone in his previous life, his spiritual power was still preserved after his rebirth. Among deities of the same level, most of them had less than one-third of his spiritual power, thus, even if it was a top-notch assassin, Vogu was confident that he could detect it.

But when he looked around just now, there was indeed no one else around... ..

There was no one else, which meant that the other party was facing him alone, but he still maintained his composure... ..

On what basis?

Just as he was thinking about it, the little guy struggled out from the cloth bag on his waist. When he saw Xi Ye, he hurriedly called out, "Is it the Liege? I'm soap, Help Me Out!"

Xi Ye looked at him and strangely removed a jelly-like object from her bag. She asked in a daze, "What's the situation?"

"The Liege, don't bother about it!" Xi Ye quickly said with the soap in her hand, "Let's run away, this guy is not to be trifled with! !"

"Dog Thief! !" The soap in Vogu's hand immediately cursed angrily, "You want to sell me? You will die a horrible death! !"

Xi Ye: "..."

What the F * ck... is this thing?

"Oh?" Vogu was not surprised by this scene. He looked at Xi Ye and asked, "How many pieces have you collected?"

"Three pieces..." Xi ye answered honestly.

Vogu: "Didn't you see anyone else?"

"Other than it... There's only you..." Xi ye raised the soap in her hand and said.

"Is That So?" Vogu looked at the other party. His gaze changed for a while before he finally smiled and said, "Why don't we cooperate for a while?"

"Sure..." seer replied very directly.

After this 'sure' ended, Vogu's pupils constricted slightly because he realized that after the other party agreed to cooperate, that inexplicable sense of threat disappeared...

So this sense of threat was not an illusion?

But what is the situation?

Chapter 1185: Big Soap, little soap...

Seer and Vogu's process of collecting the fragments was very smooth, because there really was no one else in the entire world, except for the occasional soap that was scattered in the wild... ..

This made Vogu's heart even more solemn. At first, it was just a suspicion, but now it was basically confirmed. The mastermind behind the scenes really felt that this little guy was of the same size as him... ..

But why?

If it was that Junior Bolton who was assigned to him, he would be able to think a little better. Although that Little Devil was a junior two eras younger than him, he couldn't bear the fact that he had a big background.., it wasn't incomprehensible that he had grown up faster than him. It was already very strange for such a graduate-level little fellow to be matched to him by an order of magnitude.

This could only mean that this kid had a card that no one had expected. The weight of this card made the controller of the Emerald Dream think that it could even be on par with him... ..

To be honest, compared to someone like Burton who had the same level of strength as him, he did not want to meet someone like seer, because he did not know what his card was, and it was very likely that he would fail... ..

"Senior..." at this time, the two of them had reached the center of the world, after getting the last core fragment, Seer finished assembling the core and looked at Vogu. "Although it's still early, I feel that senior should be quite busy. Why don't we go to the core and teleport out of this place first?"

Vogu looked at the guy who did not show any nervousness from the beginning to the end... ..

Ugh... .. It wasn't that he didn't show it. The main reason was that he couldn't see through the heavy armor. That guy's helmet was a bit strange. He couldn't see through it with his spiritual power...

After hesitating for a while, Vogu didn't choose to make a move. He nodded slightly and said, "You're right. We're both quite busy. It's better not to waste each other's time..."

After activating the core, the shattering of the entire world was instantly forced to stop, and a teleportation beam descended from the sky... ..

"Senior..." seer suddenly looked at him.

"What?" Vogu raised his head and became vigilant. This kind of guy with a secret card was the easiest to launch a sudden attack.

"That..." seer pointed at the soap in the other party's arms and said, "You should return it to me after you've played with it enough..."

SOAP: "Blood! !"

Vogu:"..."

After a few seconds of silence, Vogu simply threw the soap to seer, who grabbed it and put it into her space bag.

"This is a rare talent..."Vogu said suddenly. "Cultivate it well and don't waste it..."

"Eh?"Xi Ye raised her head and looked at the other party in puzzlement. She did not know why the other party would care so much about such a freak like soap.

After thinking for a moment, Xi ye smiled and said, "Senior, you really have good taste. This fellow is one of the most important people in my faction to nurture. In the future, I'll rely on it to make a fortune!"

Hearing this, Voku was slightly stunned. Then, he looked at the other party very seriously, but he still could not see anything. Damn it, what material was this fellow's helmet made of?

There was no expression, no physical reaction, and even no spiritual fluctuation... ..

There wasn't a single dragon-tier warrior clan, so there shouldn't be such an alchemy tool, right?

In the end, Vogu completely gave up on spying on seer. He nodded and said, "If it's really as you say, trust me. It's a wise decision..."

Seer narrowed his eyes when he heard that. He felt... .. This lord senior seemed to treat soap very differently. "...". 'what's the reason?'

"..."

Inside the dimensional pocket, the two soap clones were staring at each other. Looking at their compatriots who were ten times thicker than them, little soap shrank back slightly. "By the way... Why Are You... So Big?"

"Born!"The other party took a step closer.

"Nonsense!"Little Soap continued to retreat. "Everyone is the same when they split. Do you think I don't Know?"

The other party was silent for a few seconds before he finally said honestly, "That Lord did it. Every time he picked up his compatriots, he would directly fuse us together. I fused a few hundred of them, and now we're like this..."

"Then... then why are you walking towards me? You're not thinking of fusing with me, are you?"Little soap quickly retreated, her tone sounding like she was crying.

"Weren't you jumping up and down just now? And you even asked the Lord to abandon me?"Big Soap sneered.

"That was a tactic. The more I said that, the more the Lord would not back down. Why would I abandon a Comrade?"Little soap hurriedly explained.

"I don't Believe You!" Big Soap rolled his eyes at him and sat down on the spot. He stared at the top of the dimensional pocket in a daze. No one knew what he was thinking.

"What's wrong with you?" Little Soap looked at his declining appearance and asked curiously.

"We will merge sooner or later..." big soap said faintly, "You should know..."

Little soap: "Don't talk about such a sad topic. By the way, what does it feel like to fuse?"

"It's quite strange..." big soap's eyes were complicated. "When the memories fuse together, it feels like we're actually the same person from start to finish..."

Little soap: "You're not trying to trick me into fusing, right? No, I need to waste some more time!"

Big Soap: "..."

After a few seconds of silence, big soap suddenly asked, "Do you think what the Lord said just now was true?"

"Which part?" Little Soap asked in a daze.

"He said... I am the trump card. In the future, he will rely on me to make a fortune..."

"Watch Your Words, my fellow countryman! The Lord is talking about us..."

"That's not important..." big soap waved his hand. "What's important is whether he's just putting on a show or just thinking about it?"

This is very important, alright? Little soap slandered in her heart, but in the end, she did not continue to delve into the wording. She sighed and said, "Of course it's just putting on a show. Do you feel that we're being valued in the base?"

"Is that so..." big soap immediately fell silent upon hearing that.

"This little xenogeneic is quite interesting, huh?" Diana looked at the image of the two soaps arguing with each other and suddenly felt strange. It was the first time that she had seen a splitter with its own main mind.

"There are many interesting things about this thing..." ysera smiled and said, "You'll know in the future..."

"In the future?" Diana's smile slowly faded when she heard that, and a hint of confusion flashed in her eyes. Could they still have a future?

This was the 1,700 th prophecy experiment. If it failed again, Gaia's consciousness in the emerald dream would be completely unable to suppress it. Such an awakening of the core of a large world would definitely attract the attention of the federation..., the Secret of the Moon Elves was about to be revealed.

No one could say for sure what the outcome would be, but it was most likely not a good one. They could only place their hopes on this last prophecy of the elders...

“Eh?” Suddenly, Ysera exclaimed in surprise and looked at a world fragment beside her and the others.

“What’s Wrong?” Diana asked curiously as she returned to her senses.

“We ran into each other...” Ysera said faintly.

Diana looked over. It was the world fragment that Demon Lord Bolton and the others were in.

A top-tier star Lord with three star demons. Such a lineup was practically the strongest combination in the split group on paper, and this combination was used to deal with the person they were most worried about...

Chapter 1186: The One I didn’t want to meet the most!

“My Lord, it’s the fourth fragment...”

Vera hurried back and handed in the fourth fragment. At this point, almost all the core fragments left in the corner of the fragment world had been collected. They only needed to gather at the central core.

Everything... .. It was smoother than expected. The progress of this world’s destruction had not even reached one-third. There was still a lot of time... ..

Burton frowned as he looked into the distance. Finally, he stopped and released his powerful spiritual energy, spreading to the entire world!

This action stunned Vera. For a moment, she did not understand why her lord would take such a risk.

This was equivalent to directly exposing his position...

Safilos, who was beside him, also frowned slightly. However, he did not say anything in the end. On the other hand, Bogus was rubbing his hands in excitement.

How good it was to be so straightforward. It was to tell others that if they wanted to fight, they could fight!

Why did they have to play hide-and-seek?

In his heart, they had not even found the four fragments, so the other party must be hiding in the dark...

...

Bogus had already labeled the other party as hiding his head and tail.

But after a few seconds, Bolton withdrew his spiritual power, and his face became even more serious.

“What’s Wrong?” Safilos asked directly.

As the most favored young man in the Fallen Angels’ Generation, his status was far higher than Burton’s in the eyes of the elders. Although he had signed a contract with Burton, his status in the faction was basically equal, and his questions were more casual.

After Bolton withdrew his spiritual power, he took a deep breath with a grave tone. “In the center of the core...”

Hearing that, everyone was stunned. Then, they immediately understood what Bolton meant. The guy who matched with them did not hide himself. Instead, he was waiting for them in the most conspicuous place...

As long as they took the fragment, they would eventually go to the center of the core and wait for them there. This posture was very casual and also very confident!

“Interesting...” Safilos was stunned before revealing a cold smile, “I’d like to see who it is!”

The four of them were all peak star level warriors. It didn’t take long for them to reach their destination from the northernmost part of the world. Very quickly, they saw that arrogant fellow.

At this time, the creature Bolton sensed was sitting calmly on a large rock, its silhouette lonely... ..

The four of them looked at each other carefully...

It was a tall humanoid creature with gray skin. Its skeleton was very big, and it looked like a wasthaya yuan type creature. Its brown pupils also had the style of the Wasthaya clan.

After careful identification, one would find that it indeed looked like the Wasthaya clan’s Srui Ape clan.

Wasthaya was a large tribe in the universe, and it was the general name of the orcs. Many humanoid creatures with other obvious biological characteristics were collectively called the Wasthaya clan, such as the flying feather clan with bird characteristics, for example, the amphibians with scales, but they all had the basic characteristics of humanoid creatures. They were collectively known as the Wastya clan.

This was the largest clan in the universe, but it was also a relatively ordinary clan. The strengths and weaknesses of the clan were obvious. The Srui Ape clan was obviously not a high-level species of the Wastya clan. Compared to the illusionary Fox clan, Blue Luan clan, and White Deer Clan.., of these top wastya species, the Srui Ape clan was considered to be below average. Their body and bones had not even fully evolved into the best human form, and they had many disadvantages. For example, their arms were too long... Their waist muscles were not developed, and other natural disadvantages... ..

However, the guy in front of him had a very strong aura. This aura was able to make even the battle-loving bogus not act rashly. Clearly, the other party was a top-tier star level powerhouse.

Bolton walked in slightly, looking around in confusion. According to his senses, he seemed to be the only one in the surroundings... ..

A wastya race member who had not entered the fate level?

“Friend, where did you come from?” Bolton asked in WA Staya.

He remembered that in the intelligence reports of his subordinates, there seemed to be no mention of a powerful s-ranked ape. This race had an ordinary bloodline and very few star level experts appeared. Bolton, who had read the intelligence reports of the race, seemed to remember.., there was only one star level expert in this generation of the s-ranked ape race, right?

It was said that it had been nineteen epochs and was on the verge of becoming a star. It had been forced to use all kinds of resources by its people to hang on to its life. The reason was that during these nineteen epochs, the Sre Ape tribe had never been able to nurture a second star-level powerhouse... ..

But this... .. He looks young, and he doesn't have the tail of a simian... . .

Wait, no tail?

Burton narrowed his eyes, his mind quickly recalling the information he had before. After his brain was working quickly, he quickly pulled up a piece of historical information he had read about the Sirius when he was studying in the academy.

The information came from about two eras ago. The Sirius seemed to have produced a very good seedling. He graduated from Xandar Academy and studied under the then deputy dean of the Golden Titan clan, Gao Gonais. He was highly regarded.., he even obtained a very good ranking for Xandar Academy during the interstellar exercise. He received a large number of academy scholarships and teachers'training. He quickly advanced to the dragon-level, he became the most promising seedling of the s-ranked ape clan for more than ten eras.

Many reports even said that he would be the next leader of the s-ranked ape clan.

However, the good times did not last long. During another expedition organized by the academy, he disappeared together with a few teachers. There was no more news!

And the seedling that had the highest chance of becoming the clan leader at that time seemed to have a very big characteristic, which was that he did not have a tail. In the report, he had once said that he had cut off his own tail. The reason was because many of the techniques in the academy were targeted at the body size of normal humanoid creatures. The tail greatly affected his sense of balance when cultivating techniques... ..

This interview had caused a great wave within the Sre Ape tribe at that time, causing him to suffer the criticism of many of his own kind, thinking that he had trampled on his own bloodline.

At that time, he had also paid attention to this fellow because of this reason. In fact, the many years of experience of the Federation had already proven that humanoid lifeforms were the most suitable form for combat, and high-level lifeforms were all evolving in this direction, other than a few races that stubbornly refused to give up on their beast talents, the majority of the races were close to humanoid form.

Over 80% of the martial arts techniques in the federation's Martial Arts School were also developed based on the human form. This was something that Bolton was very much in agreement with. Even within the depths of the abyss, they were all demons that advanced in human form, and the higher their level was.

However, there were indeed many demons in the abyss who were obsessed with their own bloodline and were unwilling to lower their heads. This greatly hindered his path of popularizing the federation's Martial Arts techniques. At that time, he remembered the experience of this little ape and wanted to use it as a teaching material for the younger generation of demons. He wanted to let them know that obsession and bloodline were foolish... ..

But why was that fellow here?

Furthermore, the other party had disappeared for two eras. Why was there basically no difference between his appearance and before he disappeared?

Burton took a closer look at the other party and found that it was exactly the same as the 5-d photo in the information.

After the ape heard Burton's question, it lazily looked at Burton. The gray color in its eyes quickly changed, dyeing it with the unique green color of the undead... ..

Everyone quickly took a step back when they saw this, and their expressions became extremely grave.

They finally understood who this guy was!

Burton's face also became extremely gloomy...

The situation was really bad. To be honest, among all of them, the last person he wanted to meet was this guy... ..

Chapter 1187: against Andrew (I)

"It might not be Andrew, right?" Vera was the first to suspect... ..

The undead that she and Sab met in that space was also a powerful undead, but the other party was obviously not Andrew. Although she did not understand why there would be an outsider among this group of people, ... But if one could blend in, then the other could blend in...

Safilos, who always liked to pick on villafa, also agreed with her, which was rare, he nodded and said through voice transmission, "Villafa also said before that Andrew brought a lot of life-level bodies into the arcane realm. Although I don't know how he got them, but with that condition, he should not have chosen a s-ranked ape as a body..."

The honest rock demon bogus also nodded. A creature like the s-ranked ape, even if it was a star-level powerhouse, was still at a disadvantage in terms of body shape compared to many high-level races, not to mention that Andrew was an arcanist...

Burton did not respond to the crowd's doubts. Instead, he stepped forward slightly and asked directly, "Senior Andrew?"

In the federal magazine, there was information about famous figures in the federation. As the top ten liches were ancient-level figures and the most important undead lords in the Northern Star Field, they were naturally treated accordingly.

Burton remembered that according to the information about Andrew, Andrew's original body was different from the other nine ancient ones. He did not come from a high-level background. The other nine undead were either of ancient noble bloodlines., or they were from a well-known arcanist family. Only Andrew was an ordinary member of the Wasty tribe, and his original body was the s-ranked ape in front of him!

Bolton did not have any undead in his force, but he knew clearly that souls had a physical form. Soul Energy would subconsciously shape itself according to the characteristics of its own body. High-class undead would not easily change the shape of their souls, this was because this form was the base for familiarizing themselves with the flow of energy over a long period of time. Once they changed it, they would have to familiarize themselves with the flow of energy, and it would change the habits of many years or even several eras. There was no need for that at all.

In other words, it was not enough for the undead to choose a high-level body. The most important thing was that it was suitable. Just like wearing clothes, being beautiful and fashionable was a point of choice. However, the more important thing was whether it would fit, and if the size was not right., no matter how beautiful it was, what was the use of a hammer?

For a top-tier undead to choose a s-ranked ape as a body, to be honest, it was very much in line with Andrew's characteristics... ..

As expected, the ape looked at Bolton with a smile. Finally, it said with a smile, "It's the first time I've heard of an abyssal demon becoming a god. In the years that I wasn't around, did something big happen again?"

Bolton's eyelids twitched when he heard that. It was really him! !

"Senior..." Bolton suppressed his emotions and waved the core fragment in his hand. He smiled and said, "Why don't we leave together?"

The ape looked around and then stood up. With this stand, the demons behind Bolton were on high alert.

"It's still early. There's still plenty of time..." Andrew smiled and said, "It should be enough to get rid of all of you..."

The Demons: "!!!"

Burton was slightly calmer and did not immediately show any overreaction. Instead, he asked calmly, "Why, senior? This is not good for us, right?"

"How can it not be good?" Andrew shrugged and said, "Although this body is very similar to my main body and soul, it is still very awkward for a god...". As he said that, he looked at Bolton faintly. "A demon-type Empyrean God, what a perfect body. If you miss this opportunity, you might not get it later!"

As soon as these words were said, Bolton's face immediately darkened. He knew that he could not avoid today's battle!

"You really dare to say it, an old fellow who has been dead for so long!"

The first to speak up was naturally the most straightforward bogus. His pitch-black face was filled with a malevolent smile as he walked forward step by step, as if he was a newborn calf that was not afraid of tigers!

Regarding his actions, neither Bolton nor Safilos stopped him.

Since it was already impossible to avoid conflict, defeating his opponent was the only way. The Rock Demon was the demon with the strongest defense against the four elements magic, and its vitality was also top-notch in the entire abyssal circle. It was a very suitable choice for him to be the vanguard!

“Come!” Bogus walked to the front and took a step forward. The entire Earth was being pulled by him. With a provocative look, he said, “Let me see what level the so-called ten great undead are!”

Andrew looked at the other party calmly, but he did not stand on ceremony. He extended his hand and pointed. An extremely complicated spell was instantly formed. Bogus’ huge body instantly twisted into a ball, as if he was a shadow in a Haha Mirror, he was instantly distorted by the light and shadow.

The few demons behind him saw this and were puzzled. It was a very clever spatial spell, but its strength was very ordinary!

“Just this?” Bogus smiled maliciously. The muscles all over his body jumped and instantly shattered the distorted space into pieces. Then, bogus stepped forward, and powerful energy poured into the ground. In an instant, the quality of the earth elements in the surroundings skyrocketed, this was the traditional combat method of the elemental demons!

The ability of the shop was slightly inferior to that of the Balrog ragnaros, but the quality of the elements was much higher. Obviously, although the expansion ability of the earth elements was not as good as that of the fire elements, it was stronger in its cohesion!

The entire land began to distort and transform under the combination of the high-quality earth elements. In an instant, it turned into countless sharp spikes that blotted out the sky and covered the earth towards Andrew!

Under the fusion of the high-quality earth elements, the density of these sharp thorns revealed a few dimensions. They were even sharper than the hardest steel. Moreover, the gravity around them increased rapidly due to the increase of the earth elements!

Four times, eight times, sixteen times. In just a few seconds, they had rushed towards the gravity that was 10,000 times stronger. Even the few spectators behind them were affected. They had no choice but to adjust their muscles to adapt to the new gravity.

Seeing this, Andrew was not in a hurry. He continued to use the spells from earlier to defend himself. The rock spikes that blotted out the sky and covered the earth began to twist and turn under the distortion of space. Gravity also changed direction under this space, and the precise operation allowed gravity to collide., it also allowed the rock spikes to collide with each other and eventually become invisible!

The exquisite operation showed the proficiency of a top-notch arcane wizard’s spells!

Bolton and the other two could clearly see that in just a few seconds, the opponent had used tens of thousands of spells and mobilized hundreds of thousands of spatial matrices. The strength of each matrix was not high, but under the exquisiteness of the operation., layer by layer, bogus’ energy burst was disintegrated. One matrix corresponded to a part of the energy, and under the coordination of no errors, multiple low-strength matrices were used to withstand bogus’ powerful burst!

How sophisticated was the operation of the spell to be able to do this? Burton thought that he could not do this. As an arcanist, the opponent’s performance was very strong. Whether in the Abyss or in the Federation, Burton had never encountered such a powerful spell.

But he was not nervous because the opponent was a god, but his performance was very ordinary!

Chapter 1188: fighting against Andrew (Part Two)

The spell strength of a god was completely different from that of an ordinary wizard!

The alchemy matrix of an ordinary arcanist needed to be set up in advance, so an ordinary arcanist was not suitable for a fight. No matter how strong a wizard was, it was impossible for him to set up a medium-high intensity alchemy matrix in a few seconds of a fight, the more complicated it was, the more time it would take. In the army, with the cover of the troops and the alchemy components carried by each soldier, large-scale arrays could be assembled and released quickly by the arcanists. However, when it was just one person.., the arcanists' combat power would be reduced by at least half.

The gods were different. The power of the gods came from their forces. As long as they were not too far away, the whole force was almost his armed force, and so was the alchemy array. As long as there was a ready-made high-level array on the force planet.., the gods could be moved here and used directly!

However, the way Andrew was fighting right now was very similar to an ordinary arcanist. He was using a low-level array and relying on the exquisite operation of the refining array to fight. However, he did not show the strength that a great lord should have!

Seeing this, Bolton smiled!

The power of the gods came from the strength of the force. Andrew was a top-tier undead God, but he was now a wandering God who did not have any force!

The planet that Andrew occupied was only at Level-7 strength. The other party had only been out for a short period of time, so it was impossible for him to form a large-scale power. It seemed that it was not that the other party did not want to use a high-strength matrix, but that he could not use it at all. This planet.., the enhancement that could give him the strength of an Empyrean God was obviously very limited!

Thinking of this, Bolton did not wait any longer. He opened his hands, and an extremely strong matrix appeared in the sky. Its strength was close to level-20. Under the cover of the huge matrix, the earth elements within a radius of ten thousand miles quickly became restless!

Originally, the sharp rock spikes and the distorted space caused them to lose the impact force. However, under the influence of Bolton's huge matrix, the distorted spikes quickly began to dissolve and began to liquefy, under the control of the distorted space, the collision was equivalent to two streams of water merging together. The scale became even larger, and the interior seemed to have been activated. The proliferation and splitting of the earth elements actually began to appear!

In less than a few seconds, the earth currents that were trapped by space rapidly expanded under the condition of proliferating and splitting, causing the distorted small spaces to expand like piles of earth mounds, rapidly surrounding Andrew!

Andrew frowned. These earth mounds represented extremely pure earth elements. Once they exploded out of the space, the surrounding earth elements would quickly reach a peak, and the Rock Demon's combat strength would probably double in an instant!

Thinking of this, Andrew did not hesitate at all. His body retreated rapidly, and the surrounding space began to distort layer by layer. It was obvious that the other party had prepared a high-level space phase magic array!

“Little Fa! !” Andrew hurriedly shouted.

Beside him, villafa also did not hesitate at all. The Flames of Hell on his entire body expanded explosively, turning into a pale blue light that charged straight towards the phase space. The terrifying explosive force instantly broke through the phase lock, shattering the layers of spatial distortions!

Bogus let out a sharp laugh. Bringing along the powerful earth elements around him, he swiftly charged through the passageway that Villafa had broken through, charging straight towards Andrew who was escaping!

“Why are you running? Weren’t you very good at acting just now?”

Bogus, whose entire body had turned red from the friction of the dimensional space, was now like a piece of red hot pig iron. However, he did not care at all. Instead, he pounced towards Andrew with extreme excitement!

If an ancient undead could die at his hands, how many years would he be able to pretend to have achieved this feat?

A searing pressure came crashing down like a mountain. Andrew, who was running, had a calm expression on his face. He turned his body slightly and avoided the arm that was grabbing his neck at an extremely exquisite angle. His movements were extremely gentle as he blocked and pulled.., bogus’ entire body’s inertia force was used by him under the opponent’s exquisite close combat techniques. Under the exquisite turn, bogus directly fell to the ground!

The people behind him who saw this scene immediately narrowed their eyes. What a sharp technique!

Bolton also recognized that the opponent was using a soft fist technique that was used by a few warriors. This kind of close combat technique was very suitable for a species with long arms and short waists like the Srei Ape

Bang!

Moreover, Andrew took advantage of the opportunity when bogus lost his inertia to gain the upper hand. His nimble fingers grabbed onto bogus’ spine and wanted to disassemble it. With a grab, the hard rock skin behind bogus was instantly torn apart, the pain made him grimace, and he quickly tightened his muscles to resist!

His opponent’s close combat skills were astonishingly skilled. Wasn’t this guy a creature-type undead Lord?

This finger force and technique was completely like a veteran warrior who was extremely proficient in close combat!

“Tsk...” seeing bogus rapidly tighten his muscles. Andrew clicked his tongue. The idea of breaking his opponent’s spine was basically a failure. After all, he was a rock demon with astonishing defensive power. It would not be so easy for him to break through the defense.

Seeing that Burton and the others had arrived quickly, Andrew did not hesitate at all. He gave up this seemingly good opportunity and quickly retreated!

After Vera and Safilos rushed over, they directly jumped over bogus who was lying on the ground and rushed toward Andrew. They did not give the opponent any space to breathe. When Burton rushed over, he helped bogus up.

“Are you okay?”

“I’m fine...” bogus shook his head immediately, obviously embarrassed. He scratched his head and said, “I was careless. I didn’t expect an undead from an academic civilization to be so sharp in close combat!”

“The gods are omnipotent...”. Bolton smiled and said, “After signing the contract with the gods and enjoying the resources of the gods, they naturally have to pay a price. The powerhouses in the high-level contract can master most of the secret skills of the gods. Moreover, the other party was born in the s-ranked ape family, so it’s normal for him to master high-purity soft fist techniques!”

“That’s Tricky!”

Bogus frowned and looked ahead. Villafa and Safilos had caught up with Andrew, but the two top fallen angels could not take advantage of him.

Not only that, every time the other party encountered a crisis, he would use the surrounding phase matrix to shift his position. Like a loach passing through space, he could not catch it no matter how hard he tried, making Villafa and Safilos fight with great difficulty!

“It’s alright... If that’s all he has...” Burton’s eyes were gloomy as he said, “Then I’m afraid he’ll have to die here today!”

As soon as he finished speaking, the purple light in Burton’s eyes soared, and powerful law energy rapidly gathered in the surroundings. A terrifying power was rapidly being transmitted over here through the law passage unique to deities.

Bogus quickly dodged to the side. He could clearly see that what was continuously being transmitted through the divine law passage was the Hell’s flame unique to fallen angels, and this power far exceeded that of a single individual. Bogus knew that.., this was clearly from that thing!

At this moment, outside the Emerald Dream Realm, the fallen angel star floating outside the planet rapidly began to disintegrate, turning into a dust-like shape and flowing towards an unknown passage!

Pippen, who was in charge of the general control of the army, saw this and narrowed his eyes slightly. He muttered, “Has it started?”?

Chapter 1189: The Power of a God!

“What... What is this?”

In the control center, the Moon Elf Diana stared at the terrifying energy that Bolton was controlling and stood rooted to the ground. That enormous energy was definitely not something that an individual could possess. It was like a machine.., it was continuously extracting energy from a certain location.

Looking at Diana's dazed expression, Ysera sighed slightly, she said faintly, "From ancient times until now, our dragon race has never been convinced by other races. Regardless of whether it was the once powerful Titan or the elves, although they created a brilliant civilization, in the eyes of our dragon race, they still only relied on numbers to occupy the universe. The reason why our dragon race withdrew from the stage was because our reproductive ability was too weak. However, only the gods... "... "

Ysera looked at Bolton in the fragment with a complicated expression and said, "Only the gods have extinguished the ambitions of our dragon race!"

Diana stared at him blankly. This was the first time she had heard Ysera speak in such a desolate tone since she was born.

Was it necessary?

Looking at Diana's expression, Ysera smiled with a complicated expression. "You'll know soon enough..."

Hearing that, Diana frowned as she looked at the fragment. Over the countless years, she had heard many stories about gods from the elder's grandfather, as well as the current system of the Federation. She was both familiar with and unfamiliar with the word 'god'.

However, she knew that they had such a huge amount of resources and secrets, yet they were still hiding until now. The biggest reason was because of gods. According to the elder, if there were no problems within the god Alliance... All those lurking in the world today have no chance at all... . .

With this in mind, Diana looked solemnly at the battlefield, she had to see for herself, what kind of power, whether the elders or Ysera, so convinced... . .

— — — —

Inside the fragment, the invisible divine path completely ignored the space blockade of the Emerald Dream, and a steady stream of power poured into Bolton's law. This was the first strong point of the divine path, no matter how complicated your environment was, it could not affect the use of the divine path. At least until now, other than the death realm, there was no place that could stop the divine path!

The powerful flames of Hell shot up into the sky, almost lighting up the entire sky. The earth turned pale blue, and an endless stream of fire power rapidly surged towards Safilos and Vera!

The entire planet was instantly filled with the power of fallen angels. The two fallen angels were like fish in water in this endless flame. Their movements were extremely smooth, and they controlled this enormous incredible power with ease, a huge angel projection formed behind each other!

The Colossus that was condensed with powerful hellfire energy was like two powerful colossi. The Colossus behind Safilos was tall and elegant, holding a hundred-meter-long Heaven's punishment sword in both hands, its appearance was very similar to the angel of judgment in the fallen angel mythology.

The Colossus behind Vera held a long spear and shield. It was the guardian angel in the fallen angel mythology. The power of the two Colossus was so shocking that even Andrew cautiously pulled away from them.

He could clearly see that this was the materialization of a star-grade weapon. It was completely separated from personal force and belonged to the military force!

This was the point of the god of scoundrels. No matter how powerful your cultivation was, you were still an individual. The strength of the god of scoundrels was the entire force!

As if to prove this point, Burton did not stop what he was doing and continued to open the third energy channel.

In an instant, an extremely large amount of earth elements surged into the space. The amount of energy was clearly at the level of a high-quality planet, and the source of this huge amount of earth elements came from the activation star created by the Rock Demon Race!

The powerful earth elements had a unique black color. They were condensed elements from the essence of the rock demons. They were special elements in the Abyss, and they were also elements that only the rock demons could control!

Countless black particles were like magnets that were attached to the body of rock demon bogus. If there were energy experts here, they would definitely be shocked by the purity of these abyssal elements, the energy contained in each molecule could be used to walk a high-quality star-grade bomb. If it were to completely explode, it could almost form an energy storm of a galaxy.

Under the support of this energy, bogus' body grew larger and larger. Under the support of the high-quality molecules, his body expanded by nearly a hundred times, and he truly became a rock demon giant!

Behind him, an even larger energy projection materialized. It was incomparably huge, and just half of its body seemed to cover the entire world fragment. It looked down at all things, as if with a light pinch..., it was as if it could crush the entire huge world!

Seeing this scene, Diana instantly understood why the elders were so despairing towards the power of gods. This was completely different from ordinary species!

No matter how strong an individual was, how could they compare to a massive force that had been meticulously developed for hundreds of millions of years? How could an individual be able to resist the power of a god that could be mobilized and accumulated at any time, including the accumulated energy?

It was completely on a different level!

It was no wonder that in countless eras, there had never been an internal conflict in the god Federation. It was no wonder that all races would completely compromise with the federation because of the God bloodline.

This was simply a cheating bloodline...

“What pure abyssal Elemental Energy!” Andrew stood in the distorted space and looked at the three terrifying energy dharma idols, he narrowed his eyes slightly. “Such an animated star, it must at least require the blood essence of your abyss royal family to be able to produce it, right? It seems that after so many years, the Abyss’s bunch of stubborn fellows have finally figured out how to enter the God System?”

Obviously, it was impossible to obtain so much blood essence of the royal family without the support of a huge abyss demon background. This little guy in front of him should be the spokesperson of the current generation of the Abyss.

Interesting...

Andrew’s face showed a hint of a smile, and he looked at Bolton with more and more satisfaction... ..

But this gaze made Bolton uncomfortable, because the other party’s gaze was sizing him up as if he was sizing up an item. The satisfied gaze seemed to be affirming the quality of an item!

It gave the feeling that he... .. ! As if he had it in his pocket!

This old fellow! ! !

Bolton’s expression instantly darkened. As if sensing the Lord’s fury, the Rock Demon Bogus took the initiative to attack. With a furious roar, it stomped fiercely, and a massive elemental power instantly exploded, causing the entire land to rapidly collapse, under the massive impact, Andrew’s tens of thousands of distorted spatial arrays instantly collapsed!

A typical method of using force to break a spell, but Andrew was helpless.

This difference in size was no longer something that could be made up for with techniques... ..

Andrew’s figure skillfully shuttled through the tremendous impact energy. Looking at the two fallen angels who had yet to make a move, as well as Bolton who was coldly staring at him, Andrew Sighed, and the green color in his eyes began to transform, it turned into the supreme purple that was unique to gods!

A tremendous power of law began to gather!

Bolton’s pupils constricted when he saw this. Was it finally going to be serious?

Chapter 1190: Fierce Battle (I)

Burton was very curious. What exactly was the other party’s confidence?

Before entering the planet, he had already asked Pippin to carefully understand the information about Andrew. Under Sylvanas’ public arrest warrant, countless undead lords began to scramble to steal Andrew’s past achievements.

Not only the undead, even the mercenaries and some other forces were involved. It could basically be confirmed that under such intense fighting, after a few eras., it was impossible for Andrew to leave behind any faction in the material plane that hadn’t been discovered. After all, to many top-tier mercenaries, tracking down the traces of a faction was a top-notch skill, not to mention that many factions had trained top-tier seers.

The other party was able to operate remotely in the death realm, keep so many life-level corpses, and even use the meteor method to operate a biological matrix over. It was already considered a very fine operation, but to say that he could hide even more things... Burton did not believe it in his heart... ..

According to Vera's intelligence, the life-level zombies that the other party brought should be the other party's last trump card, and this trump card was specially split by the person behind the scenes in the Emerald Dream.

Obviously, the person behind the scenes did not want Andrew to live, and from the estimation of their strength, they were the ones with the most chance to kill Andrew.

The people behind the scenes thought so, and Bolton also thought so, but the other party did not seem to think so... ..

Facing the elemental power of the three activated stars, Andrew did not have the intention to retreat at all. Instead, he directly activated the power of law exclusive to the gods!

This made Bolton and the others' hearts jump. Could This guy really have a trump card?

Seeing that Andrew activated the power of law, Bolton still cautiously transmitted his voice to the three people to retreat and defend, especially bogus. As the rock demon with the strongest defense, he was the first to react, using the powerful earth elements in the Rock Demon Planet, he quickly built a black shield that was as big as a mountain!

In the next second, a strange power enveloped the space. It was obvious that Andrew was not bluffing. Under the power of law, the entire world suddenly became pitch-black, as if it was covered in ink, burton and the demons were surprised to find that their vision and spiritual power were being forced to narrow. In the end, they could only see a range of dozens of meters with the flames of Hell on Vera's body!

The few demons were shocked when they saw this. They hurriedly circulated their spiritual power, but to their astonishment, they discovered that even though they had used their spiritual power to the limit, they could only see a view of less than a hundred meters, an impenetrable black curtain enveloped them tightly. They could not break through it at all!

Vellafa was the first to be troubled. He activated the powerful flames of Hell on his body. He wanted to directly use the power of his attributes to break through the strange black curtain around him. However, he discovered that after the power was unleashed, it was as if a huge force had struck into cotton, it became silent. As the power erupted, they realized that the black curtain was getting thicker and their vision was getting narrower!

"Don't move!" Safilos stopped villafa from unleashing his power recklessly, he said calmly, "This thing is very similar to the alchemy material outside the planet. It is a living body that can absorb energy. Moreover, its compatibility is extremely strong. It can almost ignore the special characteristics of the abyssal elements. It's very troublesome!"

Hearing that, Bolton immediately frowned. He had experienced how difficult it was to deal with that layer of special material outside the planet. He had used almost all of the firepower of the VOGU forces to barely break in, in the end, they did not even know what the structure of that layer of special material was.

And now, Andrew's level of use was clearly even higher!

Bolton narrowed his eyes slightly and recalled Pippen's previous advice. Before she had attacked at the first moment, she had suggested that the research department at the rear should first do a biological analysis on the remaining specimens, pippen seemed to be very concerned about that layer of strange living creatures. If the quantity was larger, she felt that with the firepower of the two forces alone, they might not be able to break in.

If Andrew still had some reservations, it would be very troublesome!

This suggestion was not a problem, but Bolton did not take it. In order to quickly support Saab and not lose the initiative, Bolton immediately brought a few legion leaders and Vogu into the arcane realm.

After all, the temptation of the spirit passage was too great, so great that he did not want to lose the initiative.

But clearly, Pippen's guess was correct. Andrew did have reservations, and the scale was even larger than the one he had set up outside the planet!

Dong Dong...

As the black curtain enveloped the surroundings, Bolton and the others could clearly hear the beating of the heart. The high frequency of the heartbeat showed the vigorous vitality of the species. Obviously, this black curtain was not a pure alchemy object, it was a living alchemy creature!

"What is this thing?"

Rock demon bogus frowned as he looked around. He could feel that the black creeping things around him were gradually devouring everything, including the powerful Earth elemental power in his body!

"We can't go on like this..."safilos frowned as he looked around, he could also clearly sense that the creeping black curtain around them was constantly devouring their power. They were not afraid of anything. Even the most overbearing hellfire could not avoid the fate of being absorbed!

With this thought in mind, he did not hesitate. He formed a seal with both hands and used the seal unique to fallen gods. The powerful flames around his body quickly began to gather at a point, forming extremely dense fire elemental particles. Clearly, Safilos wanted to gather his power., to break through this black curtain.

The black curtain covered such a large area. It was impossible for every part of it to withstand the impact of high-intensity power. As long as he found the right location, it should not be difficult to break through!

"This kid from the fallen angel family is not bad...". Ysera praised, "It is rare for a demon to be able to remain calm in such a situation. After all, most demons prefer to rely on their own talent. It is rare for a demon to be able to think calmly, but it is a pity."

“What’s a pity?” Diana was stunned. She also felt that the fallen angel was very decisive. If it were her, she would not be able to react so quickly.

“It’s a pity that he met not only a god, but also a top-tier arcanist who has lived for countless eras!” Ysera said faintly.

“Oh?” Diana looked over curiously. She did not understand the meaning of Ysera’s words, but the next second, she understood.

The seal of Safilos collapsed in the next second. The gathered energy of the Hellfire also collapsed because of the seal. The energy quickly spread out, like a flood that was out of control!

“This is?” Diana was shocked.

“The top arcanists are good at both constructing and destroying arrays. The seal formed by the fallen angels is a racial talent, but in the end, it is also a way to shape energy. It is no different from the actual formation of arrays. As long as we disrupt the circuit of the structure, we can break it!”

Ysera said quietly, “Perhaps ordinary wizards can’t do this, but Andrew can. He is a lich who has lived since ancient times. Any energy structure is no different from paper in front of him!”
