Chapter 1231: Sudden Change (Part 2)

It should be a nightmare...

Just now, while he was unconscious, Brother Dog had a nightmare that sent chills down his spine!

Initially, he had wrapped himself in a piece of crystal and scattered it into a vast ocean along with many other crystals. This vast ocean was boundless and boundless, like a universe that encompassed the starry sky.

Although it was vast and boundless, it did not have the loneliness of the real universe. On the contrary, in that ocean, Brother Dog felt very warm... ..

It was a wonderful feeling, like a baby being wrapped in an embryo. The invisible warmth calmed down all the fear in his heart. Not only that, in the vast ocean, the floating jade shards gave him a feeling as if they were connected by blood and flesh, the gentle consciousness that occasionally came into contact with each other was filled with a sense of kinship.

As an only child, Brother Dog had never experienced this feeling before, nor had he experienced it with his cousins. It was a kind of closeness that had not been communicated through language, but was purely flowing in his blood...

It was the first time in his life that he had experienced it...

That feeling made brother dog so addicted that he did not want to wake up, but the feeling did not last long.

Soon, a mysterious black fog swept over, and it was everywhere. The warm sea was dyed black by the mysterious black fog. The warm feeling disappeared, and what followed was a terrifying coldness, the jadeite crystals that were like brothers and sisters immediately let out a shrill cry after they were dyed black, which made brother dog's scalp go numb.

After that, the black color also slowly seeped into his body. The ink-like thing slowly approached him, but he was powerless to resist. He could only watch as that terrifying force got closer and closer to him. He desperately wanted to escape, wanted to escape.., but he was unable to move.

At the last moment, just as the black ink was about to devour him, a green light enveloped him. When he opened his eyes again, he was already inside the principal's complicated spatial matrix.

That Dream... .. It was very strange but very real. It made brother dog feel an inexplicable sense of unease.

"Child?"The principal looked at Brother Dog, who was in a daze. "Do you still have any doubts?"

Brother Dog paused when he heard that. In the end, he shook his head. He did not say anything about the dream. After taking a deep breath, he closed his eyes and began to try to contact the voice.

One second, two seconds, a few seconds passed, but there was no response. Just as Brother Dog was about to give up, that familiar feeling appeared again. In an instant, Brother Dog felt like he had grasped those things again.

However, at this moment, he felt a little strange. The authority was given to him, but the previous feeling of intimacy had disappeared.

Instead, it was replaced by an inexplicable unease...

“Hey, can you do it?” Lulu pouted at the side.

This classic man’s question caused brother dog to cast aside his hesitation. After rolling his eyes at the other party, he directly activated the authority. A teleportation light descended from the sky, ignoring the space folding in the principal’s matrix, and directly appeared in the center of the three people.

Looks like it can still be used...

Brother Dog’s heart slightly relaxed, but when he opened his eyes, he was instantly stunned on the spot... ..

Why... .. The teleportation light... .. It was black?

Lulu was also stunned. This was the first time she had seen a black teleportation light. Generally speaking, the light perception produced by spells was related to the attributes of the element itself. The fire element would usually be red, and the earth element would usually be yellow. This was the attribute of the element itself, which caused the light perception to be different. However, spatial spells were usually white...

The reason was that space-type spells had to eliminate the interference of other elements as much as possible to ensure the purity of the energy. This was also one of the reasons why space-type spells were difficult, because before using the energy, one had to filter it, this caused complicated space-type spells to have one more procedure than other spells, which naturally made them more complicated.

Space teleportation with color generally meant that the filtering procedure was not effective in the universe. This kind of teleportation was very easy to cause problems. It would usually appear in some inferior space-type teleportation stations or some small factions. However, they had never encountered black... ..

The elemental particles that were black in color were mostly shadow or darkness elements. They were not the four major elements of nature. They were complex elements that were formed after they were born. This type of element would be even more uncontrollable, logically speaking, it should not appear in a teleportation array that required precision.

And for some reason, Lulu felt that in her blurry memories, she seemed to have some impression of this black color. She could not remember the exact impression, but it did not seem to be anything good... ..

“What’s going on?” The principal looked at the black light with confusion. As a top-tier spatial warlock, he naturally knew the structure of the spatial matrix, the black light... .. It was obviously not logical.

And... .. This light gave him an inexplicable chill.

“Were you like this when you used teleportation in the past?”The principal looked at Brother Dog and asked.

Brother Dog was stunned for a moment, then quickly shook his head, “No!”

The principal’s pupils constricted when he heard that, and his heart was filled with vigilance. Seeing that the teleportation was about to be formed, he directly shouted, “Turn it off! !”

Compared to the threat behind him, this inexplicable black color made him even more fearful!

Brother Dog reacted after being yelled at for a moment, and hurriedly operated his permission to turn off the teleportation.

But this time, the entire Emerald Dream’s matrix did not respond to him!

Brother Dog was shocked. He tried again, but the result was still the same. He hurriedly tried to call out to the voice that gave him permission in his mind.

But there was only a cold gaze in his mind, but there was no response at all... ..

And that cold feeling made brother dog feel that it was very similar to the dream!

Something happened! !

The principal only took a glance at Brother Dog’s reaction and knew that something big must have happened. No matter what, he had to turn off the teleportation!

Seeing that brother dog could not turn it off, the principal decided to destroy it with his own hands!

It was not difficult for a top-notch spatial warlock to destroy a teleportation array. The principal did not delay. He used all his mental strength and took out a sky-blue crystal compass. With a light wave of his hand, the entire compass started to spin, then, a huge spatial array appeared above the three of them!

Mithril crystal?

Lulu’s eyes flashed and she nodded to herself. This old man was still very cautious!

The other party was a well-known spatial warlock. There were many ways to destroy a teleportation array. For example, injecting a stream of energy from the outside to directly destroy the structure, or directly changing the internal structure of the teleportation array through invasion, it was not difficult for a person like him.

However, he chose the most complicated one. Mithril crystal was an expensive magic material to seal a Warlock’s matrix. It was usually used by high-level warlocks to seal their spells in high-end containers, and the ones sealed were also large-scale matrix spells, it was convenient for emergency use. After all, when arcanists were traveling outside, they often encountered complicated and urgent situations, so they could not directly use large-scale matrix spells. Mithril crystal solved this problem.

However, although this thing could seal large-scale spells and cast them instantaneously, it was expensive. Even high-level wizards would not use it unless they had no other choice. It was a life-saving charm.

The old man used this thing to dismantle the teleportation circle. Obviously, he was taking the situation in front of him very seriously!

The moment the principal's spell was activated, a huge eye appeared above the teleportation circle, staring coldly at Brother Dog and the other two!

Chapter 1232: Yimo (I)

The pitch-black and cold eyes, which carried the coldness of a wild beast and the strangeness that did not belong to a wild beast, looked extremely terrifying.

The moment the eyes appeared, Brother Dog reacted and called out, "Dalong?"

However, he felt that something was wrong when he called out.

The unique shape of the eyes was very similar to that of a dalong. The shape of the pupils was so beautiful that one could not move their eyes away. However, the eyes of the Dalong were not black, but Jade, and they were not so cold.

The eyes of the dragon were noble and beautiful. They were like the most brilliant pearls in the world, but they carried a kind of warm light. It was a kind of vitality that came from life, a kind of affinity that made living creatures born with it.

However, this eye was completely different. Although it was the same beauty, it gave people an extremely cold feeling, as if they would fall into the abyss at a glance... ..

"You're not the dragon..." brother dog shook his head repeatedly. "Who are you?"

There was no reply, only a trace of ridicule in that eye... ..

Boom!

The principal beside him did not hesitate to activate the compass in his hand, and the spell that was spread out was instantly activated. In an instant, the energy that was already contained in the crystal turned into countless nerve endings that spread towards the teleportation array!

Looking at this energy entity that was as fine as the ends, Lulu's eyes lit up. To be able to handle the energy as delicately and nimbly as a biological nerve, it was obviously the level of a high-level energy sculptor. This old man was not only a space-type warlock., his attainments in energy sculpting were also extraordinary!

As a temporary teammate, he was reliable!

However, this feeling of relief did not last long. The moment the elemental entity came into contact with the teleportation array, the originally azure nerve endings quickly shrunk, as if they were stained with ink, rapidly darkening.

The dense nerve endings turned half black in less than a few seconds. As the elemental entity turned black, a strange and cold feeling spread all around!

The principal's expression changed drastically. As the operator of the tactic, he could feel the energy changes above the surface the most. That feeling was extremely strange. The energy that originally belonged to him had instantly escaped from his control, however, the feeling of being involved did not disappear.

It was like a kite pulling strings. Even though the strings were clearly still pulling, the kite had lost control. Moreover, it had dived back from mid-air without control, bringing with it incomparable malice!

What was this thing?

The principal decisively cut off his spiritual power. Countless nerves were instantly broken. However, those nerves that had their energy supply cut off seemed to have been reborn. After being broken, they struggled in mid-air for a while before actually regrowing their ends, they continued to spread in all directions, and the entire space was quickly covered by those black ends that were constantly regenerating. The densely packed black ends made Brother Dog and Lulu's Goosebumps Stand Up, and they hurriedly retreated.

"Old Man, what is this?" Lulu asked as she retreated.

The principal's expression was unsightly as he looked at those black things, and his eyes were filled with confusion.

This kind of infectious energy was similar to the corrosive power of the death realm or the void, but it was even more overbearing and exaggerated. It gave people the feeling that... "...". It was more like some kind of virus.

Buzz! Buzz!

While they were still in shock, something even more unexpected happened. At the location of the teleportation formation, at the location of the huge eyeball, two huge claws stretched out and forcefully tore the space apart, the entire space started to crack like a spiderweb due to a huge force!

The principal took a deep breath. As expected, Brother Dog didn't activate the teleportation array from the start, it was a summoning array! !

"Run!"

The principal grabbed Lulu and Brother Dog and quickly activated the array technique. He immediately wanted to bring the two of them away from the strange scene in front of him.

He had a feeling that the thing that was teleported over was something even more terrifying than Andrew!

Even if it had fallen into the hands of those gods of unknown origin, it was still safer than facing this fellow in front of him...

However, the moment the thought of escaping arose, there was already no chance. The principal desperately activated the tactic, but the gears of the entire matrix seemed to have been stuck by something. No matter how hard he tried, there was no movement!

The principal hurriedly looked around and only then did he realize that at some point in time, the surrounding runes had also begun to show a faint black color. The structure of the runes had not changed, and the Matrix was still the same as before.., however, after being dyed black, he could no longer touch the energy inside!

It turned out that his initial unease was not an illusion. The matrix had really been infected by something just now...

What should he do now?

Unable to activate the matrix and the space being controlled by the other party, a top-notch spatial warlock like him was no different from a super soldier...

TSS TSS!

The huge space was forcefully torn apart by the Black Claw, and the owner of the eyeball finally revealed a ferocious look!

It was the face of a huge beast, a face unique to the dragon race!

“Dragon...”

Brother Dog stared blankly at the monster that tore apart the space. The shape of the head was almost identical to Ysera’s, the only difference being the color.

The Emerald Green that was full of vitality had turned pitch-black, a kind of black that made people despair... ..

Brother Dog’s call did not move the cold eyes at all. Its huge claws clawed at the three of them without hesitation. In an instant, the three of them were smashed into pieces!

... ..

“This...”

Sab and the others who had just arrived at the outer perimeter were stunned on the spot. At this moment, they looked at the strange space that was filled with black nerve endings and looked at each other.

What was this?

Vera could not help but shrink back. Those densely packed and squirming nerves made the overlapping spatial array look as dangerous as a devil’s Den. She subconsciously wanted to leave this place.

Lanaya, who was hiding in the dark in the distance, also secretly frowned. As an assassin, her instincts told her that these black things were very dangerous. The degree of danger was not inferior to that Lord Vogu at all.

“Sab... what should we do?”Vera asked.

SAB frowned. To be honest, he did not want to enter recklessly in such a situation. However, if they were to delay for a while, what would happen if the Titan youth who could activate the teleportation ran away?

Maya, who had been following behind them and did not get close, approached them. She rushed into the matrix with a decisiveness that no one had expected, leaving SAB and the others stunned.

They had naturally sensed Maya and the mysterious undead following behind them. However, the other party controlled the distance, so everyone was safe and sound. They did not expect that they, who had been so cautious just a moment ago, would suddenly charge in like this!

They charged straight in, completely ignoring them. To put it bluntly, what if they had reacted just now and suddenly attacked the two of them?

Especially that undead, who had almost brushed past the shadow demon Neyfal. Neyfal felt that if he had reacted quickly and given him a dagger, with his wide-open appearance, he would most likely have succeeded!

“What exactly is going on?” Neyfal could not help but ask.

“What’s going on?” Maya, who had charged into the matrix at that moment, could not help but ask, “Taking such a big risk to barge in? “If that shadow demon attacked you at the entrance of the matrix just now, I wouldn’t even be able to protect you, let alone that Holy Church assassin who was hiding in the dark.”

“There’s nothing we can do about it...” the specter said faintly, “We must hurry in, or else we will all die later. Hurry up and find the position of that Little Fellow. We must not let it fall into the hands of these things, or we will really be finished!”

Hearing that, Maya was stunned. She looked at the strange black ends around her and couldn’t help but ask, “Do you know what these things are?”

“A little...” the undead replied in a low voice, “I just didn’t expect that these things would actually exist in this world!”

Chapter 1233: Yimo (middle)

“I didn’t expect these things to still exist...”

The low voice of the undead carried a hint of bafflement, causing Maya’s eyes to light up.

“Do you know what these are?”

Unknown things were often troublesome and dangerous. Maya had inherited the cautious nature of the assassin family, and she would often act only after making a decision. Merciless assassination was the stupidest business, and this was the creed of her family.

At this moment, she was forced to face such an inexplicable thing head-on. She was very reluctant to do so, and it would be best if she had enough information.

“I know a little...”the expression of the undead in the black fog could not be seen clearly, and she said in a low and hurried tone, “But time is of the essence, and I don’t have time to explain so much to you. You just need to remember three things...”

Maya was stunned when she heard that. The tone of the undead... .. It sounded a little like the exhortation he gave before he left... ..

“Number one: From now on, Don’t be surprised if you see anything. These things are much older than you think. The things that can be done are unimaginable. You must remain calm at all times..

“Number Two: in their domain, try to use all the used arrays, items, and equipment in one go. If you see them turn black, throw them away immediately if you use them repeatedly

“Third: Don’t use the same spell in front of them. No matter how good the effect is, don’t use the same spell in front of them. Don’t do it even once!”

Maya:” ...”

So what are they?

Just as she was about to ask again, Maya was surprised to find that the undead had disappeared!

They had disappeared into thin air without any signs, which made her heart jump!

This fellow was indeed hiding something!

After taking a deep breath, Maya quickly calmed herself down. Other than a trace of fear and vigilance, she did not feel too much emotion. The identity of this undead was mysterious, and it was probably an ancient undead of the same level as her teacher.., it was not unusual for her to have any trump cards. She would not belittle her opponent just because he was being chased by a shadeling.

After firmly memorizing the three hints from her opponent, Maya did not delay and quickly took a look at the huge spatial matrix structure around her.

The structure was exquisite...

Just by looking at it, Maya could tell that the matrix in front of her was meticulously crafted by a master-level character over many years. The structure was complex and exquisite. The layers of space were like a vast sea of stars, and each layer had a mysterious connection. If she were to use brute force to crack it, it was very likely that she would be brought into the maze abyss by this complex structure, moving further and further away...

This kind of structure was definitely not something that could be completed in a short period of time. It would probably take at least tens of millions of years to build, and it would be more than enough to be used as a space weapon in the interstellar battlefield... ..

Since she could not crack it in a short period of time, she would first take a look at the location... ..

Maya narrowed her eyes and waved her hand lightly, and a blood-red eye floated in mid-air!

It was the top-tier secret treasure of the undead God from before: The Eye of the blood demon!

Sharing the eye of the blood demon was one of the conditions that she and the undead had when they joined forces!

After all, if she did not share this top-tier surveillance artifact, the other party might not even know when the mark was placed on her body. An ally that could completely monitor her and she did not know what the other party was doing was too dangerous... ..

The ruby-like eye contracted slightly. Soon, Maya saw the person she wanted to see through the eye of blood demon. A blood-red eye quietly opened on Brother Dog's body... ..

At this moment, brother dog naturally did not notice this small detail. The Eye of Blood Demon was a top-tier surveillance artifact. If they did not take precautions beforehand, even the powerhouses of life sea would have difficulty discovering its existence, not to mention brother dog now.

And in this situation, even if they knew that they were being monitored, they probably wouldn't have any big thoughts right now... ..

"Hey, Old Man, are you still not done?" Lulu screamed.

At this moment, the principal's expression was extremely ugly. The spatial array couldn't be activated!

This was his greatest reliance right now. This spatial array was a new product that he had developed together with many space department scholars. The spatial technology within was extremely complex, during the military exercise test, he had collaborated with the wine god Lord's army to conduct a test.

Wine god Lord's ten armies were trapped inside, unable to break through no matter how hard they tried. They had not even finished testing one-third of the changes in the matrix, and the army's energy inside had already been exhausted.

It could already be confirmed to be an S-grade military matrix!

Wine god Lord had already pestered him many times to buy out this technology of his at a high price. This was also the reason why he did not panic when facing so many star-level powerhouses just now.

Even a god like Andrew felt that he could rely on this masterpiece of his to contend for a long time.

However, he did not expect that the moment he took it out to use, there would be a problem!

What was the situation when he completely lost contact and could not use it?

For the first time, the principal revealed an ugly expression. Not only could he not use it, but when he wanted to use it just now, an extremely terrifying feeling enveloped his entire body. He almost reflexively cut off the connection with the spatial matrix!

That feeling was very strange. It was as if if he dared to continue using the matrix, a very terrifying thing would happen... ..

But if he was unable to use the matrix, what would happen to the situation in front of him?

The principal raised his head to look at the space in front of him that had been torn apart. A huge head emerged from the crack that had been forcefully torn open, with an incomparably sinister and cruel smile.

A feeling of powerlessness instantly surged into the principal's heart.

With just a single glance, he knew what that thing was...

A huge dragon, an ancient purebred dragon, and one at the level of a Dragon King! !

When such a thing with malicious intent existed, there was probably not a single person in the entire federation who would not feel despair!

Bang!

The huge dragon claws seemed to be pressing down on the sky. The terrifying pressure made people feel as if everything would be annihilated in front of this force!

It's over!

At this moment, regardless of whether it was the principal or the Fairy Lulu, both of them had this thought in their hearts. They were like lambs waiting to be slaughtered as they watched the destruction approach!

Bang!

The terrifying power caused the entire world within their field of vision to instantly turn into fragments. Layers upon layers of space were shattered one after another. Visually, it was as if tens of thousands of worlds had been instantly destroyed.

The direct and violent method caused the three of them to be stunned in the distance.

However, the strange thing was that they were at the center of this terrifying power one second ago, and in the next second, they were a bystander, seeing that destructive power through a blood-red eye!

"Tsk... it really was a close call..." Maya took a deep breath and looked at the three people who were stimulated like puppets...

"Oh?" In the eye of the blood demon, the huge dragon head was slightly stunned and moved its huge dragon claws. The huge power turned the surrounding world into nothingness. However, the thing that she really wanted to destroy was not destroyed, but disappeared into thin air... ..

"What... What's going on?"

Brother Dog looked at the scene in the eye of the blood demon in a daze, then looked at Maya who was beside him and asked...

Chapter 1234: Yimo -Partpart 2)

What... What's going on?

Brother Dog was dumbfounded. He was still in the midst of the horror just now, but why did it turn into a scene on the screen in the next second?

It felt like you were experiencing something extremely exciting, only to realize in the next second that this extremely exciting thing was actually just a realistic movie...

At this time, not to mention brother dog, who had not seen much of the world, even the principal and Lulu did not come back to their senses for a long time.

“How much longer are you guys going to be in a Daze?” Maya’s clear and cold voice slowly sounded, interrupting the three people who were in a daze... ..

The principal came back to his senses at the first moment, looking at the person who came and was instantly stunned. “It’s You?”

“Long time no see, teacher Timon...” Maya bowed slightly.

“You Know Him?” Lulu asked hurriedly. It was the principal who looked at the young Maya with mixed feelings.

Timon was his family name. As a slime, he rarely mentioned his family name. All he knew were the students who were close to him.

Maya was an exchange student who came to White Dragon Sacred Academy from Tiris Law School. Her research project was a large-scale project of the illusion department and the Space Department. As a student recommended by Andrew., he had a deep impression of her when they first met.

She was the most talented student he had ever seen.

At that time, he had imparted a lot of experience to her without holding anything back. They had a very good teacher-student relationship. Even after the project ended, the two of them still maintained a certain degree of contact, he had even written the recommendation letter when she had gone to work for Evelyn’s forces.

She didn’t expect to meet him here...

“Long time no see, child...” the principal revealed a gentle smile... ..

As a slime, her smile was rather naive. Maya looked at this familiar yet distant smile and paused for a moment.

As a star-level powerhouse and a dual-cultivation powerhouse, she had worshiped many teachers in her life. There weren’t many who truly cared about her without any impurities. The one in front of her was one of them, and it was also a bit of warmth in her memories.

“Were you the one who saved us?” The principal said with a smile.

“Sort of...” Maya withdrew the complicated look in her eyes and returned to her polite smile.

“How did you do it?” The principal was a little curious. In that situation just now, it was obvious that the other party had used a spatial spell to save them. However, he was very clear about how complicated his spatial matrix was. To be able to use a space spell to save people in his matrix was a little unbelievable...

Maya was very talented, but her attainments in space were definitely not at the level of a master. In such a complex space structure matrix, not to mention her, even he was unlikely to be able to use a space spell.., didn't you see that when they were almost killed, he couldn't even use a short-distance arcane transition?

"Teacher, why don't You Guess?" Maya didn't want to reveal her trump card, so she smiled and probed.

The principal didn't think too much about it. He looked at the floating eye and paused. "Eye of the blood demon? Tsk... you actually have this thing, no wonder it can lock onto our position..."

After a pause, he shook his head. "But it's not right, this thing can only lock onto our position..." the principal lowered his head and thought for a few seconds, and then he suddenly reacted. "Did Evelyn Give That Thing to you?"

Evelyn was a top-tier great lord of the Arcana Department in the Southern Star Field. She had a lot of things that the principal was jealous of, and one of them seemed to be able to do the same thing as before...

"What's That Thing?" Lulu asked curiously.

The principal said, "The mirror of refraction..."

"Damn... isn't that Evelyn's Treasure?" Lulu suddenly realized something.

The mirror of refraction, a top-tier space treasure. It could use the projection method to shift the target's phase. It only needed to have the other party's coordinates. It was one of the few top-tier alchemical weapons that could forcibly transfer living things.

This thing was very famous in the entire federation's Secret Treasure World. As a high-level seer, Lulu had been walking among the federation's nobles all year round, so she had heard of this top-tier divine weapon... ..

"I still can't hide it from teacher..." having been guessed, Maya did not refute. She also knew that facing a top-tier scholar like the principal, it was very difficult to hide it. Moreover, it was meaningless to hide it from the current situation... ..

Maya sighed and took out an amber-colored crystal mirror. Her face revealed an extremely pained expression, "The lord trusted me and lent this thing to me. This time, I don't know how to explain it when I go back..."

The principal and Lulu were instantly stunned. They could clearly see that the emerald-colored mirror was now covered with black threads, just like the nerve endings of living creatures... ..

It was exactly the same as the things that were spreading in the surrounding space!

"Damn..." Lulu was instantly anxious. "What the hell is this thing?"

Brother Dog's expression also changed when he saw the black nerve endings at the side. From the dream until now, it seemed like they couldn't get rid of this thing... ..

"I don't know what this thing is..." Maya looked at the black nerve endings on the crystal warily and said seriously, "But I'm very sure that this mirror can't be used, or the consequences will be very serious..."

"You're right..." the principal nodded and recalled the terrifying feeling when he wanted to activate the matrix just now. ...

"Teacher, you're very knowledgeable. Do you know what this thing is?" Maya asked humbly.

At this moment, the undead God had mysteriously disappeared. The former principal of the White Dragon Sacred Academy was the person most likely to answer the question... ..

"I can roughly guess..." the principal nodded with a solemn expression and said something that made Maya heave a sigh of relief.

It was good that she knew. Although the other party's expression was certainly very troublesome, it was better to have information than to face a completely unfamiliar thing.

"What is it?" Lulu asked curiously.

"Yimo..." the principal said one word... ..

As soon as the word was said, Maya's pupils immediately constricted.

Most of the students of the Arcana Department had studied the history of civilizations. After all, many civilization ruins would have knowledge that arcanists needed... ..

Among all civilizations, the elven civilization had always been a major test of history. After all, that plane was almost the longest civilization in the universe, and it was also the most wonderful civilization recorded in history

In the history of the Elven civilization, there were records of three new worlds, which all came from the exploration of the spiritual universe. Back then, the Moon Elves had explored a large number of spiritual channel worlds, and there were three most famous ones.

The first was an abyss at the edge of the spiritual universe and the physical universe, where spiritual bodies and physical elements were integrated into one. There was a group of demons that looked the most similar to the creatures in the physical universe, but were also the most ridiculous.

The second was a spiritual dreamland that transcended time and space. A group of creatures that could transcend the time and space of the physical universe were the fairies that could predict the future and change memories, the Federation's prophecy system came from this space.

The third was the most controversial one. Many people did not believe that there was such a place. The Moon Elves' records called it an unspeakable place, and the creatures inside were given many names.

The biological forces called them viruses, the arcane forces called them Yimo, and the mechanical forces called them bug.... ..

Chapter 1235: The phylactery

The three otherworlds were very special existences in the ancient elf civilization. Back then, the Wood Elves and the Moon Elves ruled the universe, the Moon Elves ruled the outer borders, and the wood elves ensured the ecology of the physical universe, the two seemingly huge forces were completely separated due to their respective spheres of influence. They were like a well that did not interfere with each other.

However, there were exceptions.

The three other worlds were one of the cooperation projects between the two large factions.

The Abyss had demons with powerful talents. The Seven Great Demon Gods all worshiped the Moon Elves and were terrifying experts comparable to the void watchers. Even after the federation became the world of the sky gods, they were still rather fearful of the seven great demon gods, the Sky Gods Academy, in the end, the seven great demon gods used the door to the void as a condition to allow the abyss to merge with the Federation and become a special open area for the Federation. One could see just how powerful their factions were!

The second faction was the Immortal Palace faction. As a pure spiritual race, they had an extremely miraculous talent. They could see through the future and change memories, making the Immortal Palace faction a base point for the cooperation between the Wood Elves and the Moon Elves, and the Immortal Palace faction had been used by the elf civilization to ease the pressure between the civilizations for a long time.

After all, they could change memories, and some grudges could disappear and become invisible.

Their strange talents and BUG-like abilities made the immortal palace race extremely respected even without the protection of the Moon Elves. The members of the Immortal Palace race were guests wherever they went, and even the most ferocious interstellar pirates did not dare to provoke them.

However, when it came to abilities, the most incredible thing was the third Otherworld!

The laws of the spiritual world and the physical world were completely different. It was an incomparably vast existence that was not inferior to the physical universe in terms of size. There were also all sorts of strange races in it, and there were many innate abilities that were unheard of, but even so, there was no one that could be more terrifying than the third Otherworld!

“Teacher, there are very few records of this Yimo race, and I have only heard a little about it...” Maya hurriedly said, “You are very knowledgeable, and I believe that you know more than I do. Can you tell me about it?”

The principal took a deep breath and shook his head. “I don’t know much either. After all, unlike the Abyss and the Asgard, the deity alliance is unprecedentedly determined to ban the third world!”

Maya’s eyes narrowed slightly. After the great chaos era, the deity race rose to power and established the Universe Federation, which was now known as the Best Alliance system. The special talent of the deity race made them extremely tolerant, whether it was the calamity race, which was forbidden to resurrect from the dead world, the Immortal Palace, which possessed strange abilities, or the abyss, which was powerful and entangled with the void, the deity alliance had shown unprecedented tolerance.

Although the federation had some complaints about these strange foreign races, they did indeed accept them as a whole.

But if they could even tolerate the undead, why couldn't they tolerate the so-called Yimo Race?

What was the reason?

Naturally, it was the judgement of the God Alliance. This YIMO was even more dangerous than the undead that had risen from the dead realm. It was so dangerous that even the gods would not dare to tolerate it!

At the thought of this, Maya's expression became grave. This unknown and dangerous thing was the most troublesome!

"Teacher, do you know the specific abilities of this thing?"

"A little... but it's not comprehensive..." the principal narrowed his eyes and said, "According to some remnant records, this race's talent is called Decipher..."

"Decipher?" Maya was stunned. "Decipher what?"

"Laws..."

Maya: "!!!!"

"You really dare to use it..."

At this moment, at the entrance of the spatial matrix, the last person to arrive was Vayne, who had rescued Bai Cai and Goudan.

At this moment, the scene outside of fear was horrifying. It was densely covered with black twisted ends. From Afar, it looked like countless insect repellents, making people feel physically uncomfortable.

It was not strange for Vayne to be here. After all, from the beginning, she did not think that she could escape from the edge of the water. The secrets here were shocking enough. No matter who got it, they would not leave anyone alive!

However, the strange thing was that she would actually bring the three of them with her... ..

In such a dangerous situation, it was obviously not appropriate to bring these three fragile little fellows with her. However, looking at her appearance, she even intended to bring the three little fellows in directly.

And what was even more strange was the fourth person beside her!

A pair of green eyes that were shrouded in a layer of black fog made her look particularly familiar. Obviously, this was the symbol of a high-level undead without a body!

The huge amount of spiritual power was not inferior to the undead God beside Maya. If Maya was here, she would definitely be able to recognize that this new undead god was Andrew!

No one expected that Andrew, who had been killed by the female Titan, would appear here at this moment. Ysera's puzzling questions had now been answered.

If Andrew wanted to return to this game, he would have to rely on his phylactery. However, he had no idea where the phylactery was hidden. He did not expect it to be on the hands of this enemy faction's Lord!

Perhaps even Vogu would not have thought that Vivian, whom he had hired, would cooperate with Andrew and hide a phylactery for him.

That was the life gate of a lich. Any Lich would be extremely cautious with a phylactery. That was the Lich's last trump card. Once the phylactery was killed when it was reborn, it would be greatly weakened when it returned to the world of death... It might even completely disappear and become a part of the world of death...

If such a life gate was placed on an outsider, or a mercenary from a hostile force, it had to be said that Andrew's Gamble was quite big!

In fact, Vaughn was also very shocked when she received the cooperation invitation. She did not expect that the other party would cooperate with her, but it did convince her later on!

Andrew told her the secrets of this world frankly and let her choose. She immediately knew that once she entered the emerald dream, her identity as a mercenary would become extremely awkward, unlike Andrew who met her at her most vulnerable moment, Vogu would definitely not meet her in person.

He did not dare... she did not dare!

After hearing the truth of this project, Vaughn immediately understood that if she wanted to survive this incident, she could only rely on Andrew to have a chance of survival!

And after meeting the successor of Goudan, Vaughn's desire to live was very heavy!

Without much hesitation, she agreed to cooperate with Andrew. However, she did not expect that two strangers working together, and with such an awkward identity, would actually give her such an important task!

The phylactery. A Lich had given the phylactery to her. She had never expected it!

But this move was indeed ingenious. No one would have thought that the phylactery would be on her body, and even less would they have thought that he would really dare to use it!

When she saw Andrew turn directly in front of her through the phylactery, Vaughn almost killed him without thinking!

Chapter 1236: Can I have an additional audience?

"Are we really going in?"

At the entrance of the spatial matrix, little cabbage looked at the black ends from afar. Her expression was unsightly, and her body could not help but tremble.

Little Cabbage, who had curled up into a ball, looked extremely pitiful. Rainy, who had just woken up, subconsciously rubbed her head, and a desire to protect her arose in her heart.

Not only did she recall the records regarding the flower spirit, this species was born to stimulate the protectiveness of other creatures. This was also one of the main reasons why little cabbage could become a big shot in the outside world.

“It feels a little scary...” dog egg hugged his arms, which were full of goosebumps. He frowned and said, “Why didn’t Master let me wait for her in a safe place?”

“Because there’s no safe place here...” rainy girl, Wu Gua, looked around. Her spiritual power had been stimulated by the heavenly demon mech, so she was now extremely sensitive to the surrounding qi dynamics.

She could clearly feel that this world was being invaded by some kind of inexplicable malice. It was just that the space in front of them, which was full of black ends, was more obvious.

In other words, the entire world was dangerous. It was just that the strange space in front of them was even more dangerous. However, it was the same for the three of them.

It was actually the same for the fellows who had left the beginner village. Whether they had accidentally entered an epic or a legendary dungeon, they would have been instantly killed anyway... ..

Rather than that, it would be better to bring them along. Instead, they could protect them as much as they could.

Rainless melon quickly guessed Vaughn’s plan... ..

But the things inside were indeed very dangerous...

Although rainless melon did not know what they were, she could still sense them very sensitively. But strangely, these things gave her an extremely dangerous feeling while at the same time giving her a sense of familiarity.

This made her inexplicably confused, but for a moment, she could not remember where this familiar feeling came from...

Shaking her head, she quietly moved closer to Wayne and the others. Wayne, the strange guy shrouded in the Black Fog, did not deliberately lower his voice, so she could almost hear him clearly from a distance.

Although she might not understand, she still wanted to know more information, in case... .. What if it was useful at the critical moment?

With Rain Girl’s level, if she deliberately approached Wayne and Andrew, she would naturally be discovered. However, neither of them paid attention to it, and just like rain girl, they did not deliberately lower their voices.

Instead, they continued to chat.

“When did you discover the existence of that thing?”

The one who asked was Wayne. This was also the question she was most confused about.

After Andrew Controlled Bolton, his combat strength had reached a very ideal state. Bolton, who had many activated stars, could be said to be a perfect star-level God template. Andrew should have treasured this thing., but he gave it up so easily.

Indeed, that female Titan was very strong. She was indeed worthy of being the former commander of the glory of Dawn. However, even if Andrew was no match for her, it should not be a big problem for her to escape, right. That kind of desperate fighting stance obviously didn't give him a way out... ..

What was she trying to escape from?

When she felt that thing approaching, Vaughn instantly understood... ..

The timing was extremely consistent. Almost at the moment when that thing came, Andrew chose to give up Bolton's body and hide in the dark!

When Andrew Heard Vaughn's question, he paused slightly and looked at her with interest. “You actually know about this thing?”

Vaughn said, “I was lucky to encounter it once...”

“That's really lucky...” Andrew said faintly, “I actually survived from this thing!”

“That thing is very tricky...” Vaughn said coldly, “But it's not unsolvable. Otherwise, this universe wouldn't be the world of the gods, right?”

Andrew smiled when he heard that. “That's true...”

Vaughn said, “Since we're allies, we shouldn't avoid my question...”

Andrew was silent for a while, then he looked up and said, “When I got the body of that little demon lord...”

Vaughn said, “From the memory?”

“Yes...” Andrew's green eyes in the black fog flickered slightly. “It's a very prominent memory. That Little Demon's wealth was all because of that thing. Almost in an instant, I understood what I would have to face later...”

Vivian said, “You're a famous big shot after all, a top-tier god. Why are you standing like this? Haven't you even started yet and even lost your body?”

“There was no need to do that, at least not so fast...” . . .” Andrew sighed slightly. “It's just that I didn't expect to meet people from the Titan army. This kind of pure warrior-type powerhouse is the most difficult to deal with. If I wanted to defeat her, I had to use all my trump cards. It was obviously impossible in that situation at that time . . . and . . .”

Andrew looked up. "This environment, it fits that thing perfectly. You've seen it before, you know what's scary about it. This... is clearly a battlefield for it!"

When Vaughn heard this, she immediately fell silent. She recalled the near-death experience. The other party was right. The current environment was indeed tailor-made for the other party. Moreover, since the other party had made a move, they were probably almost done with their preparations!

This time... It was really dangerous whether they could return alive... ..

"Let's Go..." Andrew took the lead and walked toward the spatial matrix. "That thing is getting stronger and stronger as we drag it out. There's no way to retreat now. If we let it continue to develop, we'll all die here!"

..

"Sab... how's your body?"

Inside the space matrix, SAB's group finally walked in. Villafa looked worriedly at SAB, who was shining with Starlight, and could not help but ask.

"It's still holding on..." Sab looked at Villafa's worried look, and his eyes softened slightly.

"Sab..." shadow demon Nefal looked at the gathering black ends around him and said gloomily, "These things give me a familiar feeling. Have we seen them somewhere before?"

"In the base!" Saab gave a direct answer!

"Do you feel the same way?" Said Nevar with a shudder.

"Well..." Saab looked around gloomily and said in a low voice, "A long time ago, I felt that there was something around the Lord, a very dangerous thing..."

Nefer: Is It the same thing

"Not necessarily... . "Saab shook his head. . But it doesn't have to be the same lord, and that thing around him has always been so hidden that it can only be felt once in a while, and this... . It's high-profile. If it's the same one, it's even more troubling. It means the other person thinks they don't have to hide anymore!"

Nefer: you are very close to the Baron. Do you know what it is Saab narrowed his eyes. Just as he was about to say something else, a foreign voice suddenly sounded!

"Can I have an additional audience?"

The voice was very friendly, but it surprised everyone, especially Vera. When she saw who it was, her expression became extremely strange.

"It's You? ? ?"

The person was wearing heavy armor and a huge helmet. He was dressed extremely foolishly, but no one could see his face clearly. It was seer!

Chapter 1237: it's an intelligence...

Why is he here?

Everyone looked at the little lord, their expressions complicated... ..

Especially SAB and Vera, the way they looked at seer was especially strange. Their Bolton force had suffered heavy casualties in this storm, the Balrog Ragnaros, the rock demon bogus, and the first Legion Commander Safilos had been killed one after another, up until now, even Lord Bolton had not been able to survive, yet this fellow who had been fishing in the water was actually able to survive until now?

It was one thing for an inexplicable little fellow to have been fishing until now, but he actually dared to enter such an obviously dangerous situation? Did he really think that he would be able to fish until the end?

Facing everyone's scrutinizing gazes, Seer stood numbly on the spot. The cover of the heavy helmet made it impossible to see what he was thinking. This kind of low-level lord that could not be seen through actually made it impossible for people to have any thoughts of acting rashly.

"Suzerain! !"

While the atmosphere was silent, a cry of grievance suddenly sounded. Grandpa, who was hiding in Vera's space bag, suddenly came out and flapped his little wings at Seer.

Vera grabbed her grandpa with an expressionless face and looked at seer with an unfriendly expression.

Back when she was seriously injured by Geron, it was all because of this guy that Saab had to forcefully consume the blood essence stone to save her. At this moment, Seer did not know what was going on, so she did not make the first move impulsively. However, she pressed her grandpa to prevent him from going back to Seer's place, she also wanted to see his reaction. It seemed like she was trying to probe him.

Xi Ye nodded slightly. Under the heavy helmet, a pair of supreme purple God's eyes looked over indifferently. When she looked at her grandfather, there was clearly a hint of gentleness. "It's good that you're okay..."

Her grandfather was instantly agitated. "Is the liege here specifically to save me?"

Xi Ye was silent for two seconds before she finally said honestly, "No, I was just passing by..."

Grandpa:"..."

"Does this god want to come with us?"

The one who spoke was shadow demon nefal. He had limited information about this little lord. He had only heard a few words from Vera, but a level-six little lord was safe and sound under Andrew's hands, there must be something unusual about him. This guy obviously had a secret. In this situation, it was obviously not suitable for him to take the initiative to make enemies.

"HMM..."seer nodded slightly. "It's more dangerous now. It's always good to have more people..."

Upon hearing that, Nevar carefully sized up seer and stared at the only pair of eyes that were exposed in the other party's helmet. His expression was calm, and he did not seem to have any malicious intent.

However, for many well-trained people, they really could not see anything through their eyes.

After pausing for a few seconds, neyfal nodded. "In the current situation, it's better to have more people..."

"You have the scent of Vogu..."

Just as Neyfal opened his mouth and was about to accept seer, a cold voice suddenly sounded behind seer!

This voice appeared so suddenly that even Neyfal, who was born as an assassin, did not have any warning, let alone seer. However, everyone knew who the voice came from.

It was the Templar assassin Lanaya, who had formed an alliance with SAB and the others... ..

Seer did not turn around, but his muscles were extremely tense. However, under the special armor, no one could see it. Moreover, the dead fish eyes that he had trained for years could not see the fluctuations in his eyes.

"HMM... I was with senior Vogu before..."seer replied obediently. He did not have any intention of moving his body. The voice that asked the question was very close, like a ghost. It was obvious that it was an assassin-type job.

To be honest, Seer was quite weak, because many times, this kind of person could make him not even have time to show his trump card... ..

"Where is he?"Lanaya asked faintly. Her voice did not seem to have any fluctuations.

"I don't know..."seer shook his head. "He disappeared when he came in. You also know that I'm a low-level small lord. It's very difficult for me to detect senior's movements..."

"Is that so?"Lanaya narrowed her eyes and took a step forward. This step was exactly the same distance she had taken when she tried to assassinate Andrew. It was a very sensitive position, the people in the distance also clearly felt a killing intent!

Was she trying to test him?

SAB and the others became serious, but they did not stop her. It was naturally the best if there was an outsider to help test this mysterious little guy.

Lanaya took a step forward, and seer instantly felt a terrifying killing intent. In an instant, he even felt that his breathing had stopped. Facing an assassin of this level, he probably would not even have the chance to lift a finger!

But in an instant, the defense mechanism that someone had placed on him was activated!

Lanaya, who had a calm expression, suddenly narrowed her eyes. Without hesitation, she retreated, instantly pulling away by dozens of feet!

Seer stood still and did not move. Sab and the others who were not far away were also baffled. In their eyes, Seer did not seem to have done anything, on the other hand, Lanaya's sudden move of approaching and retreating like a cat with its fur blown up was very comical!

SAB and the others were baffled, but Lanaya, who had stepped back, looked at seer with an extremely grave expression!

Just now... She really intended to make a move...

The person she was most afraid of was vogu, the guy who had an inexplicable connection with Vogu. Even if they had just made contact, they could not rule out the possibility that the other party might have Vogu's trap on him. It was naturally good to wipe it out.

But just now, when her killing intent moved, she instantly felt a monstrous killing intent coming straight at her!

That feeling was unprecedented. It was as if she was facing a sharp blade that could cut open the universe!

Lanaya's usually cold expression could not help but reveal a look of shock. Ever since she was born, she had never encountered such a killing intent. She had never even seen it on the strongest ancestor of the Templar family... ..

What was hidden on this little guy's body?

Seer's eyes were closed and he did not move recklessly. The thing on his body could not be awakened at will. After all, his body was too weak. If he was not careful, he might be the first to suffer.

However, his motionless posture gave people an unfathomable feeling... ..

Sab took a deep look at seer and thought to himself, this kid... ..

The scene fell into an inexplicable silence.

After an unknown amount of time, Xi Ye, who felt the atmosphere calm down, slowly opened her eyes and looked at the group of star-ranked big shots with different expressions.

Xi Ye took a deep breath and said in a gentle tone, "If there's nothing else, can I continue to ask about the topic just now?"

The topic just now?

Everyone was stunned. In the end, SAB excused himself and asked, "What are you referring to, sir?"

Seer said, "You just said that you found a very dangerous thing beside senior Bolton. Can you ask what it is?"

After saying that, Nevar looked at SAB. In fact, if seer had not suddenly appeared, he would have asked the same question.

Saab hesitated for a few seconds and looked at the black ends that were getting denser and denser around him. Finally, he replied, "I'm not very sure either. It seems like... It's an intelligence..."

Seer: "..."

Chapter 1238: probing!

At this moment, on Mars, the main base was operating peacefully as usual.

After the players withdrew, most of the Lord players started to get used to it. Although there were no new territories and new channels for people to enter, they had more time to start researching their own civilization technology.

After all, everyone believed that the new world would eventually open up. When that time came, whoever had better technological accumulation would be able to gain an advantage in the new world. Even if the New World could not open up, they could still continue to study civilization technology, it would also allow them to break through the restrictions of Mars and go to the outer planets to expand their territory.

Moreover, they did not have nothing to do at the moment...

These days, the city lords of the five major cities began to take action. They began to take the initiative to contact the lord-tier players, and the purpose of the contact was to target the idle population in the hands of the lord-tier players...

That's right, the idle population. Most of the Outsiders who had returned from the New World were now idle. Other than a few orcs with shaman talent who would be hired to participate in agricultural construction and elemental training, most of the strengthened population had nothing to do at the moment.

Perhaps some people would ask why these idle people were not allowed to mine?

This had to do with the system of public ownership of the mining industry. According to the city law of Galaxy, private players currently did not have the right to mine energy mines. The five major cities had the right to mine, but they had to hand over 80% of it, there were strict restrictions on the development of mining sites. Every mining site had to apply to the higher-ups for permission before they could establish an energy plant to develop.

As a result, the number of mines was actually limited. With the number of Mines Limited, there was actually no need for so many people to mine. As one of the important jobs for novice players to accumulate points, mining and moving bricks was one of the most important jobs, naturally, it could not be snatched away by the foreign colonists.

As a result, all the cities had issued protection policies one after another, restricting the low-end foreign population from participating in mining sites. Each player could not hire more than ten people to mine!

This caused the players who previously relied on the ogres and Tauren to earn a large amount of mining wages to curse. This also caused a large number of people in the new territories to become idle.

In the beginning, a large number of lord players were very unhappy. With their mining jobs restricted, a large number of people under them could not do anything. However, their consumption remained the same every day, every day, they had to spend a large number of points to buy food grown in the cities. The more they passed, the harder it was.

Compared to the old players, the new players naturally supported the mine protection policy. After all, a Lord player had thousands or even tens of thousands of people under his command, with limited mines, if Lord players could use their subordinates to mine without restraint, the wealth gap between the ordinary players and them would definitely widen.

As a result, the conflict between the old players, the city, and the new players became deeper and deeper.

However, this conflict had started to ease up recently...

The reason was that someone was interested in the value of these idle people. This person was the city lord of the first city, Angor... ..

She was the first one to contact the idle lord players in Huaxia City and hired their people to do construction projects. Not only did she offer a good price for the points, but she also promised to give priority to the development of shops in the new city, this attracted a lot of lord players.

After all, those people had nothing to do for the time being. It was better to do construction projects instead of idling. Most of them did not come from the engineering background, but they still had the strength to be stupid after being strengthened.

In less than a few days, Angor signed dozens of great lord players.

On this day, Pu Yunchuan found Isabel in high spirits.

“Angor just contacted me. He wants to hire some of my men to build the infrastructure in their northwest district. Take a look at the points he offered. Is it a good deal?”

Isabel looked at the contract that Pu Yunchuan took with great interest, her eyes narrowed slightly.

To be honest, Angor’s offer was not bad, especially the right to buy the shop in the new city. It was very attractive because no matter how the lord-tier players developed, the entire galaxy would still be based on the main base, this location would only become more and more expensive in the future. It was definitely a good thing to get the priority in the early stage!

However, Isabelle looked a bit confused when she saw the contract.

“What’s Wrong?” Pu Yunchuan was familiar with Isabelle’s expression now. She was not happy, but she was worried...

“Why do you think Angor hired Lord Players?” Isabelle asked instead of answering.

Pu Yunchuan was stunned for a moment before he answered, “It should be because of the cost. After all, it’s not worth it to hire players to build the infrastructure...”

Although it sounded like a colony, it was the truth. The players recorded from Ball D were expensive to hire. Even if they were newbies who knew nothing, hiring them to work for a day.., they had to earn 20 points a day. Otherwise, they would rather mine energy ores in the main base in exchange for payment.

If such a price was used to do some low-end construction work, it was obviously not worth it. Moreover, most of the cities were in the state of loans, so they could not afford to pay such a huge salary for a group of players to do city construction work.

Under such circumstances, it was obviously more cost-effective to hire the idle people under the Lord tier players. Although the conditions they offered to Pu Yunchuan were not bad, if the same number of players were to work for them, the price they would have to pay would be at least 100 times higher...

“Then why didn’t the other cities respond?” Isabelle asked with a smile.

Pu Yunchuan was stunned when he heard this question. That’s right, why didn’t the other cities respond?

Forget about the other cities, the main point was that even Huaxia City did not respond!

That did not make sense...

Pu Yunchuan immediately fell into deep thought. Huaxia city itself was well-built. While the other four cities were still in the process of building their infrastructure, Huaxia City had already formed a large scale. With better conditions to open up to the outside world, under such circumstances.., why didn’t the Huaxia city officials find the Lord players to cooperate with them?

They were closer to the water tower...

After all, most of the old players were living in Huaxia City Now...

Did they not realize what was going on?

Pu Yunchuan threw this idea to the back of his mind as soon as it popped up. He had met the leaders of Huaxia City before, and unlike the NNT town leaders in his hometown, they were not so stupid... ..

Besides, even if they did not realize it right away, Angor had been making a lot of moves these days. They should have learned it by now, right?

But why was there no movement at all?

Pu Yunchuan suddenly realized that it was not that simple. He looked at Isabelle and smiled foolishly. “I can’t think of anything. Tell me...”

Again...

Isabelle rolled her eyes. Every time she wanted to test him, this guy would pretend to be silly.

However, he had improved a lot recently, so she did not make things difficult for him.

Isabelle sighed and answered, “The others didn’t move because they knew Angor was testing them!”

“Testing?” Pu Yunchuan was surprised. “Testing what?”

Isabelle sneered. "The owner of this place, of course!"

Chapter 1239: Angor's thoughts

The owner of this place? What's there to test?

Pu Yunchuan was stunned for a few seconds before he realized what Isabelle meant...

That's right. Unlike the veteran Lord players, the new castellans had something else behind them. They were always coveting this alien lord... ..

"But why test it now?" Pu Yunchuan asked curiously.

After all, it had been almost half a year since the election. The pace of this half year was relatively calm. They didn't test it when they first came, so why test it now? Was it too comfortable?

Isabelle: "Now is a good time to test it."

Pu Yunchuan: "What do you mean?"

Isabelle: "Firstly, a large number of lord tier players were forced to retreat a month ago, giving them a signal that something had happened within the alien faction. Furthermore, it has been a long time since the Lord tier seer had appeared. There has been no response from the higher-ups regarding the disappearance of a few key figures, including Guo Xiaoyun. All of this indicates that the higher-ups might have lost control of the situation. Of course, they have to test it out..." "..."

Pu Yunchuan frowned when he heard that. He was actually on the side of the Overlord. The other party had given the d-ball such a huge platform, not to mention all kinds of technology and resources, that gene alone had solved many problems related to the diseases and longevity of the d-ball people. The other party had always been kind, at least for the time being, they did not show any malice. In the end, whenever something happened to the other party, they would think of something. It made him feel a little uncomfortable... ..

As if she could see through Pu Yunchuan's thoughts, Isabelle secretly curled her lips. In fact, if she did not know this guy's personality, she might not have been able to resist probing him.

She understood Pu Yunchuan's thoughts very well, but as a former superior, she understood one thing very well: never put your fate in the hands of others. When you have the chance to take the initiative, you must take it, this had nothing to do with being ungrateful. Once you have the initiative, you can choose to be ungrateful again, right?

Of course, she did not say that out loud. The most important thing between two people was that they did not see eye to eye with each other. She did not want this to affect their growing relationship.

Pu Yunchuan said, "So Angor is a big-hearted guy. Aren't you afraid that he'll test you out?"

Isabelle pretended that she did not hear Pu Yunchuan's dissatisfaction. She smiled and replied, "Angor is a smart man."

"Tsk..." Pu Yunchuan pursed his lips.

Isabelle smiled and said, "Look, a lot of people are idle now that the Lord players are back. Due to the civilization in his own city, Angor tried to open a new mine several times, but he did not get any response. It's normal for him to try. ... and also, it's a good opportunity to pick out a conflict point in the future, right?"

"Conflict Point?" Pu Yunchuan frowned. "What Conflict Point?"

"A territorial dispute!" Isabelle smiled. "The five cities were divided in advance. Regardless of their size and distribution of resources, the City Lords didn't have a choice at first. It couldn't be helped. In that case, they were lucky enough to get a city. Of course, they wouldn't care about the differences. But now, it's different after they get a city. Judging from the development, Mars will be the temporary center of the Federation in the future. It will be more advantageous to have more resources in this place in the future. But from the planning of the cities, the Lord has never mentioned the specific division of the five cities on Mars!"

After a brief pause, he continued, "As the civilization leveled up, all the castellans learned about the function of energy mines. I'm sure they contacted the forces on Planet D to see if there were any similar energy mines on the surface of planet d. the result is probably the same as ours. Most likely, there are no such energy mines. This makes this planet full of energy mines even more valuable. Now that we don't have a detailed map of each city, it's only natural for us to earn more for our own cities, right?"

"That's true..." Pu Yunchuan pursed his lips and asked again, "But why is Angor the only one trying?"

"Because he only needs to show himself..." "...". Isabelle smiled. "The castellan has the right to develop new cities. This right was given to him by the higher-ups. In theory, it should be fine to contact others to develop new cities. If there's a problem, the higher-ups should stop him. Since Angor showed himself, the others should just wait and see. If the higher-ups don't stop him, there'll be a large-scale territorial war. If they stop him, Angor will leave a bad impression on the higher-ups, won't he?"

"So these castellans also care about what the higher-ups think?" Pu Yunchuan pursed his lips.

"Of course..." Isabelle rolled her eyes. "After all, the higher-ups need half of the votes in the castellan election..."

Pu Yunchuan asked, "Angor isn't stupid, is he? If he knew that he might offend the higher-ups, why did he take the risk?"

"Maybe it's because of civilization..." Isabelle sighed. "The pure mechanical civilization needs more energy, and the more high-quality energy they have, the faster they can give their people an advantage..."

"People?"

"Did you forget?" Angor's West Germans were all maffins under her policy. Most of them were master of mind and mechanic. They had high energy requirements in the beginning, and the government stored more high-quality energy. She could also help the maffins to become a lord. This would help the MAFFINS improve their social status in the future. For the sake of her people, she was willing to fight for them... "..."

Pu Yunchuan fell silent.

His displeasure towards Angor disappeared. After all, a man who risked his own political future to fight for his own people was not someone he could hate. "...".

Isabelle let out a sigh of relief when Pu Yunchuan stopped frowning. In the future, the city lords would become more and more important. There would be many benefits for the Lord players to cooperate with them. Among the city lords., isabelle favored Angor, who was full of effort and pioneering spirit, and Song Yi, the third castellan!

The two had similar styles, but there were some differences. Song Yi did not have too many nationalistic thoughts, but he would be tired of his ignorant clansmen. This was completely different from Angor.

Angor had a bigger weakness, so he could use this to cooperate with her...

Just as she was thinking, Pu Yunchuan suddenly stopped her with his huge hand and put up a defensive stance... ..

"What's Wrong?"Isabelle was surprised. She looked at Pu Yunchuan who suddenly turned serious and looked around cautiously.

The two were walking on the grassland outside Huaxia City. The night was dark and the stars were high. There were only a few elves grazing around. There did not seem to be anything.

"Something is coming from there..."Pu Yunchuan pointed at the endless darkness in front of them.

Hearing that, Isabelle's expression tensed up. Pu Yunchuan was pointing at the space link between Mars and the New World!

Chapter 1240: The TRUTH -Partpart 1) !

The New World Link was now a restricted area!

After the disappearance of the famous veteran players like little cabbage and Guo Xiaoyun, even Grandpa Lu and soap had disappeared from the spatial link a few days ago. For a time, everyone in Huaxia City was panicking.

After all, the link was not far from the entrance of Huaxia City.

In order to prevent similar incidents from happening again, the city lord of Huaxia City had ordered that the area within 100 kilometers of the link be sealed off. Players were not allowed to get close to the area, and he had even personally asked the instructors of the high school to set up a barrier there!

Normally, no one would get close to that area, and those who came from that area at this time were most likely not people from the base!

At the thought of this, Isabelle's muscles tensed up. Pu Yunchuan, who was at the side, gave Isabelle a comforting look and told her to retreat behind him. Isabelle did not hesitate, she obediently walked behind Pu Yunchuan's broad figure and hid.

It was not that she was afraid, but she knew her own limits. Pu Yunchuan had not carried any training these days, and his results had improved by leaps and bounds recently. He had already advanced to a level six Titan, and for some unknown reason.., his Qi and blood had strengthened very quickly, and was even at a level higher than cold star and the others. Not only that, Pu Yunchuan's body had also inexplicably awakened the power of the Thunder element, which had increased his muscle activity by a level, and his explosive power had become extremely high!

Currently, in his usual training, Pu Yunchuan's battle record against Cold Star had already reached 50/50, and his ranking on the ranking board had also reached the third place. He was only second to Feng Dou and cold star, and was currently the number one berserker in the base... ..

As he had been handling political affairs all year round, and his bloodline was not as good as Pu Yunchuan and the others, he was only a level four lifeform. His combat strength was completely different from the other dimensions. If they were to really fight, he would probably have to find an opportunity to distance himself.., he did not want to Drag Pu Yunchuan down.

After comforting Isabelle, Pu Yunchuan tensed up his muscles and took out a silver spear from his space bag. In the darkness, the silver spear flickered with blue electric sparks!

Ever since the power of lightning appeared in his body, the instructor had prepared an empty rune weapon for himself to accumulate the mysterious power in his body and see if it could be channeled out.

As for how to train this power, the instructor had no idea. After all, they had never heard of the Green Titan giving birth to the power of lightning in its body!

However, with this power, his combat strength had indeed improved by leaps and bounds, especially in terms of explosive power. This power could activate his skin and make it so that there was almost no resistance when he moved in the air.., even if he used his full strength, he did not have to worry about his body being damaged. It was extremely exaggerated. Now that they were fighting, even someone as skilled as Leng Xing would find it extremely difficult to face him. In his recent battle results, he had not won against him in three consecutive rounds!

At this moment, facing the mysterious outsider, Pu Yunchuan, who had taken out his long spear, felt his blood boiling. Recently, his strength had skyrocketed, and he was actually very eager to fight. Usually, he would hold back when sparring, but now that an outsider had suddenly appeared... He wasn't nervous at first, but rather excited... ..

After all... .. Titan's bloodline was filled with warmongering factors!

The Black Shadow in the distance was closing in very quickly, but judging from its speed... .. Pu Yunchuan didn't feel like it was very powerful... ..

The main reason was that the opponents he had fought recently were either people like Leng Xing, that pervert Feng Doudou, or those few elves who were ranked in the top ten. Their speed was so fast that even his own eyes couldn't catch up to them. The guy who had suddenly appeared wasn't slow either, but compared to him, it was like watching a soap opera at 05 times the speed. It made him quite anxious... ..

"Be careful, there seems to be a problem with the communicator! !"Isabelle's expression became nervous.

From the moment Pu Yunchuan became alert, Isabelle had immediately picked up the communicator and planned to contact the city's reinforcements. However, for some reason, there was no response from the other end of the communicator, not even from Ai... ..

"It's fine. I should be able to handle a guy of this level!" Pu Yunchuan was full of confidence!

In front of Isabelle, the only advantage he could bring out was his own combat strength. How could he back down now that he could perform well? Without waiting for Isabelle to say anything else, Pu Yunchuan raised the long spear in his hand and took the initiative to charge over!

This was not because he was arrogant, but because he followed the instructor's teachings. When it came to fighting, the most taboo thing was to hesitate on the spot. You either fight or retreat. Don't be wishy-washy. When you decide to fight, don't be passive! Titan's fighting had always been directed at others!

These words were very heroic, and Pu Yunchuan also agreed. He shouted excitedly, and the blood in his body boiled to the extreme!

The soaring combat strength made him yearn for an opponent, and this mysterious enemy from the new world clearly could stimulate the warlike factor in his body!

Under his full strength, Pu Yunchuan unleashed his full strength. His body was like a bolt of lightning in the dark night, and his momentum was astonishing. Even Isabel, who was behind him, was slightly stunned...

She had always heard from her subordinates that Pu Yunchuan had become very strong, but she did not have a clear sense of him. Now that she saw him, she knew that this man of hers was indeed very strong... ..

Boom! !

The bolt of lightning arrived in the blink of an eye. The black shadow that was hundreds of feet away was instantly leaped over. The black shadow that was rushing over stopped in its tracks. It looked at the aggressive Pu Yunchuan, but did not retaliate.., it stood there in a daze as if it had not reacted at all!

This action stunned Pu Yunchuan. He retracted the spear in his hand, and the tip of the spear stopped right in front of the other party. A terrifying force spread in all directions, forcefully tearing the other party's ordinary-quality cloak into pieces! It revealed a face that Pu Yunchuan had not expected at all!

Isabel, who had seen the true face of that person from afar, was also stunned. Her expression immediately turned ugly. "Why is it you?"

"Long time no see, grandson-in-law!"

The man ignored the spear in front of him and looked at Pu Yunchuan with a smile.

Grandson-in-law...

This name made Pu Yunchuan's face Twitch, but he couldn't refute it because the man was Isabel's grandmother, Alice! !

“Why are you here?” Isabel didn’t approach him, but looked at him warily and asked from afar.

She had always been on guard against Alice!

“I don’t have time to explain...” Alice shook her head. “Take me to the main base. I need to report something...”

“Report?” Pu Yunchuan frowned. “What? The Lord isn’t Here!”

He wanted to slap himself. Why did he say that?

“I know...” Alice quickly followed up with Pu Yunchuan’s words. “The Liege is not coming back now. The situation over there is very critical...”

“Critical?” Pu Yunchuan’s expression suddenly tensed up as he thought to himself, did something really happen?

“Don’t waste time. The situation over there is becoming more and more dangerous every second. I have to return to the main base immediately!” Alice said anxiously.

“Where is little cabbage?” Pu Yunchuan didn’t move in the face of Alice’s anxiety. He looked at her coldly and pointed the tip of the spear at her throat.

“She is safe!” Alice said seriously, “But the time for safety is limited. Neither the Lord nor the people protecting her can hold on for too long!”

Pu Yunchuan: “...”

“Even if it’s as you said, the situation over there is very critical. What’s the use of you coming back? If the Lord isn’t here, who will you report to?” Isabel asked from afar with a cold face.
