Chapter 1251: Distribution (Top)

"I see..."

Seer was stunned, because this feeling did not come from her, or even from anyone around her, but from some unfamiliar voices... ..

What was going on?

Lanaya's heart skipped a beat, and her muscles tensed up immediately. Although she had been saved, her many years of professional habits still did not let her guard down. She had been sensing the situation around her, but she did not sense anyone else nearby... ..

Where did this sudden sound come from?

And what made her even more vigilant was that this sound came from Vogu! !

Where was it?

Lanaya's expression did not change as she secretly searched for a location. Very quickly, she discovered that the source of this sound was right beside the principal, as if it came from another dimension.

"I say, that little fellow called Bolton gave me a rather strange feeling... "...". Vogu chuckled softly and said, "His career as a suzerain has been filled with countless fortuitous encounters, and this time, he coincidentally ran into our wave. The universe is so big, so no matter how you look at it, it's too much of a coincidence. It turns out that he was infected by that thing...". "...". "..."

The principal said, "I also had some guesses in the past, but I didn't dare to be sure. Now, it seems to be reasonable..."

Vogu said, "Then senior, you've contacted us. You must have a plan, right?"

Contacted? US?

Lanaya was stunned. There were other people beside Vogu?

Just as she was thinking, a more familiar voice sounded, "Fixed-point dimensional connection. To be able to do this in such an environment, senior is indeed a well-known space master. If senior can do this, can you do even more?"

Vivian?

Lanaya was completely stunned. Vivian and Vogu were together? It shouldn't be?

"I didn't expect to meet an old friend of yours in such a remote place. It's really fate..."

This voice made Lanaya even more surprised.

Andrew...

Lanaya looked at Maya in confusion.

Maya did not beat around the bush and said directly, "Fixed-point dimensional link, with fixed coordinates as the point, projective dimensional link, is a high-end spatial spell. It requires an extremely precise tool and a high-level spatial wizard to control it..."

She sighed in her heart, but the old man completed it with his bare hands. If not for the poor quality of his genes, the old man would have probably reached the sea of life level already, right?

It was already an unprecedented miracle that slime could reach the Sea of stars level. It was absolutely impossible to go any higher...

"Cough..."the principal coughed lightly, with a light tap of her finger, several blurry images appeared around her. Maya and Lanaya could clearly see that some of their old acquaintances had appeared on the virtual screen, and their positions were clearly different.

"Everyone... .. I believe you already know the current situation. The Yimo used some unknown method to infect the Emerald Dream and Dream Dragon King, which were much larger than itself. Moreover, it was desperately trying to speed up the infection of the core. Although they did not know how it did it, if it succeeded, none of us would be able to survive. No matter where you came from or what your purpose was... "... ". "..."

"Then what do you think, Senior?"It was Vivian who asked.

"Destroy them!"The principal said firmly, "There is obviously a reason why they are desperately accelerating. In the case of insufficient information, the only thing we can do is to go against them and try to slow them down as much as possible!"

"What do you want us to do?"Andrew's voice was hoarse.

"Work together in groups..."the principal said seriously. "Choose your most trusted companions and work together to destroy the core of these high-level demons' protection, so that the infection plan will fail!"

"It's simple..."Andrew said grimly. "Where do we find such trusted companions here?"

Everyone looked at each other and remained silent. Indeed, almost everyone had their own ulterior motives now. The thing that could not be said was the so-called trust...

"There's no other way..."the principal said calmly, "We're all fighting for ourselves now, and we can only wait for death!"

"Even if we can cooperate... .. There's still a problem, right?"Vogu also spoke up, "You said just now that the other party controlled the Emerald Dragon King, and that thing also guarded an area, right ? Who's going to take care of it ? Not to say take care of it, but at least hold it off, right?"

Everyone immediately turned to look at Andrew...

"Why are you looking at me?"Andrew said in a muffled voice, "Your bodies have been destroyed..."

Everyone:"..."

“Let me do it...”

A voice suddenly sounded from behind the principal and the others. Maya and Lanaya were shocked and quickly turned back to look. They did not know when, but the female knight, Ionelle, had walked behind them.

The moment this figure appeared, the two assassins instantly became nervous, especially Maya. At this distance, if the other party were to attack her, she would not even have the confidence to run!

“You came quite quickly...”the principal smiled and said.

“I rushed over as soon as I received your message...”Ionelle rubbed her shoulders, a large amount of elemental aura remained on her body, and her entire body was burning red like a lump of charcoal in a furnace. It was clear that she had jumped through a large amount of folded space at a rapid speed just now!

The principal nodded. Out of all the people present, this fellow was the only one who could ignore the rules of space and charge in recklessly. The Yimo probably would not dare to make a move against her easily!

“How confident are you in fighting against the Dragon King?”The principal asked.

“I’m not confident...”Eonar shook her head. “Ysera’s strength is the weakest of the five new generation Dragon Kings. Even so, I’m not a match for him when I was at my peak. Furthermore, my condition is because of someone, it’s not good...”

Maya: “Ahem...”

“But it’s not a big problem to hold him. You have to be quick. I’m going to die, and you can’t beat Ysera even if you join forces!”

“What do you say?”The principal looked at the others.

Seeing that someone was willing to take the initiative to fight the Dragon King, everyone’s faces looked much better, including the mean Andrew, who didn’t say anything else.

“If there’s no problem, then let’s split into groups. Name the opponents you can deal with and the teammates you want to cooperate with. I’ll teleport you to the corresponding positions in one go, but remember, once you choose, there’s no other choice. Here, I can only use my teleportation once!”

Hearing this, everyone immediately frowned.

“I’ll go with Vaughn...”Lanaya was the first to speak. “We’ll fight the Blood Demon Region!”

“What do you say?”The principal looked at Vaughn.

Vaughn nodded and did not refute.

The two hunters were both high-agility types. They would work together to fight a blood demon with astonishing recovery. The Wind Ranger would hold them back while the assassin would find an opportunity to kill them. It was obviously very suitable. Moreover, the two of them had worked together more than once in the VOGU faction. They had quite a good tacit understanding... ..

“I’ll go with you!”

A female voice said with a slight tremble.

“HMM?” The few of them looked at the person who spoke. It was the deputy commander of the Blood Demon Army, Vera... ..

“You can’t...” Lanaya frowned and said, “Your relationship with him is not suitable for this war...”

Vaughn also nodded. Back then, SAB was able to eat the blood crystal for this little blood demon, which showed the relationship between the two of them. If she was emotional at the critical moment, it would be troublesome... ..

“I want to go with you!” Villafa took a deep breath. His voice no longer trembled, but became incomparably firm... ..

Chapter 1252: Distribution (second part)

“I want to Go! !” Vera looked at Lanaya firmly!

Most of the blood demon’s eyes were bloodshot, but Vera’s eyes were different. Her eyes were like crimson glass beads, with a hint of silver that was unique to fallen angels. When the two were combined, they looked very clear... ..

It was precisely because of the clarity that the other party’s awareness was even more obvious. Lanaya could see that this blood demon had a great emotional fluctuation, but it also carried a great awareness, it was just like when she had entered the Gladiator Arena with the awareness to be her own sister’s opponent.

At that time, only one could live, and whoever lived would be the next important cultivator of the Templar clan. That time when she looked in the mirror, her eyes were also filled with the other party’s gaze... ..

“Okay...”

Almost out of the blue, Lanaya agreed...

On the other side, Vien frowned!

“Just the three of us!” Lanaya looked at the principal. “The three of us are in charge of taking down the blood demon region and destroying the core infection here!”

The principal was about to nod when a hoarse voice came in. “Add one more...”

Vivian frowned and turned around. The one who spoke was Andrew who was beside her... ..

“Isn’t it too much?” Vivian said faintly, “Shouldn’t it be more even at this time?”

The principal also nodded. As the most powerful lich on the surface, if Andrew worked with Vivian and the others, it would appear that their combat power was not evenly distributed. After all, there were several core members... ..

"I'm not talking about me..." Andrew smiled. "I'm talking about this little guy..."

As Andrew said that, he picked up a lump of meat that was curled up into a ball. Seer's eyelids twitched. That trembling lump of meat was the missing cabbage of the base... ..

"Why did you drag a junior into this?" Vivian's voice was slightly cold.

Although her internal disciple was Li Goudan, she valued the talents of these Goudan's companions. By introducing them to a family that she was on good terms with, they could be exchanged for high friendship and conditions.

"Your companion's eyeballs have fallen off for a period of time. If you don't perform a reduction surgery, they might die. It's quite troublesome for an assassin, right? "This little fellow has learned some surgical techniques from someone for a period of time. Perhaps it can help you..." "..."

"You're joking, right?" Lanaya also frowned as she looked at little cabbage. Although it was very blurry through the spatial screen, she could still judge from the details that this little fellow was at most level nine... "..."

A level nine flower spirit performing a reduction surgery on a star-level powerhouse like her? What kind of joke was this?

"The difference in level is a little too big. If it was a tendon surgery, it definitely wouldn't work. However, a reduction surgery shouldn't be too much of a problem..." Andrew smiled.

"Even a reduction surgery won't work, right?" Vaughn said in a low voice, "Are the nerves in the eyes of a star level powerhouse on the same level as ordinary people?"

"She might be able to..." Andrew insisted, "Moreover, even if she fails, it won't be a big problem. In any case, she won't be far from necrosis. At most, she can just remove it..."

Everyone felt that this was a little ridiculous. Only the eyes of the undead god beside Vogu flashed with a hint of surprise.

Did Andrew Notice This?

The things that he had taught that little fellow...

"This..." Vaughn looked at Lanaya, who immediately fell silent.

As an assassin, losing an eye would have a huge impact. If they were to fight later, they would definitely have to cut off the eyeball and preserve it well in order to return to the Federation as a surgery to reconnect it.

However, once the optic nerve was cut off, even the best bio-doctors would be unable to perform the repair surgery with the best technology. Thus, it would not be a problem for her to regain her normal vision, however, there would definitely be some errors if she were to exceed the speed limit. This would have an extremely deep impact on her future battles. In fact, she might even need to spend a large amount of time getting used to the problem of the optic nerve weakening.

If she could have a doctor to help her restore her position at this time, of course, she would be willing. However, a level nine flower spirit... ..

“Why do you think she can do it?” Lanaya looked at Andrew and asked faintly.

“Her master is extraordinary...” Andrew smiled and said, “She has skills that ordinary people don’t have...”

Lanaya: “What Skills?”

Andrew: “Telekinesis!”

Everyone: “! !”

Little Cabbage: “? ? ?”

“You’re not joking, right?” Lanaya took a deep breath and asked again with a sharp gaze.

The principal also looked at seer suspiciously, while seer was dumbfounded. Of course, with the helmet, no one could see his stunned expression.

Telekinesis, the sacred secret technique of the Big Race of the universe, the BIRUSI race. This race was extremely ancient, and was once a private doctor in the Titan civilization who performed surgery on the royal family.

It was said that it was the only race in the world that could operate on dragons and top-tier Titans.

This secret technique was only passed down by the royal family. How could it appear on a flower spirit?

Not to mention that this secret technique was passed down by the royal family and could not be passed on, even if it was passed on, it could not be passed on to a flower spirit. The behemoth race had a great enmity with the elves, and even during the era of the elf civilization, they refused to submit...

While everyone was in disbelief, only the eyes of the undead God, who was shrouded in a strange fog like Andrew, were flickering.

This fellow actually knew...

How did he know about his origins?

“You know telepathy?” Lanaya’s eyes were burning as she looked at the shivering little cabbage.

Little Cabbage: “...”

I don’t know shit...

Andrew suddenly said something through voice transmission. Cabbage quivered, then nodded and promised, “I know! !”

Andrew immediately smiled and said, “See, I said she knows, right?”

Everyone: “...”

Wasn’t this too obvious?

Lanaya looked at Andrew deeply and finally nodded, "Well, let her try..."

Vivian frowned and looked at Lanaya. She wanted to say something, but she didn't say anything. As Andrew said, if she failed, she could just remove it. Anyway, the eyeball must be removed before the fight... ..

"Okay, let's do it this way..."the principal nodded. "What about the rest? How do we distribute them? Let me remind you, this old man's link won't last long..."

"I don't team up with anyone..."Maya took the lead and said, "As for the opponents... you guys pick first, I'll take care of the rest!"

"Girl, you talk big..."Andrew laughed.

"After all, they're your students..."Maya also smiled charmingly.

"Are you sure?"The principal frowned.

"I'm sure!"Maya smiled. "Hurry up and ask them... didn't you say that you don't have much time left?"

The principal nodded and looked at the others.

Vogu: "I'll be with my subordinate, in charge of rock demon bogus..."

The undead God's voice was hoarse. "I'll be with that little fairy, to deal with the most troublesome fallen angel..."

"Huh?"Lulu was stunned. "Who wants to go with you? I'm not familiar with you!"

The Undead God didn't say anything, and directly took out a purple crystal from the smoke. Lulu's pupils immediately constricted, and the crystal flashed before disappearing. The Undead God took back the crystal and looked at Lulu again. "How is it?"

Lulu was silent for two seconds before finally nodding. "Okay..."

The principal looked at Lulu in confusion. What did this guy see? Why was he willing to stay with that guy?

But time was of the essence, so he didn't ask in detail. He then looked at Andrew, who hadn't made a choice yet. "What About You?"

"I just want to be with her..."

Everyone was stunned, because the person Andrew was referring to was actually a junior. It seemed that his biological level was even lower than the flower spirit.

Goudan and Bai Cai were also stunned. The person Andrew was referring to was boss Raindrop!

Chapter 1253: Rainless Melon's Choice!

"Me?"

Rainless melon, who had been in a wait-and-see state, was stunned. She never thought that it would be her turn to do something of this level?

Everyone also looked at this former biggest enemy and frowned. They could not figure out what he was trying to do!

“What are you trying to do?” Wayne, who was closest to Andrew, turned cold and directly asked everyone’s questions.

First, he had a level-9 flower spirit perform surgery on a star-ranked assassin. Now, he had a level-6 developer go with him to face a star-ranked demon with a strengthened domain?

“Don’t be nervous, I don’t have any bad intentions...” Andrew smiled at Rainy Girl. “I just think that this child is very compatible with me...”

Everyone:”...”

A level-six child, how could he be compatible with you?

“How about this...” seeing everyone’s inexplicable expression, Andrew promised, “As long as this child is with me, I promise to take down the flame demon region!”

“Are you sure?”

The one who spoke was the principal.

Gods were very fragile before they had a body. They originally thought that Andrew would cooperate with a single person who was stronger or directly target Lord Vogu, but they didn’t expect that the other party would choose an insignificant junior... ..

“I’m sure...” Andrew said with a smile.

The people around him immediately became speechless. If the other party could guarantee to kill one of them, what did that Junior’s status have to do with them?

Even though Vivian frowned, she didn’t say much. Her main target of protection had always been Goudan. If other people had the opportunity to take her away, they could consider it, but if they couldn’t take her away, it wasn’t unacceptable..., compared to the life of this little developer, it was obviously more important to solve this crisis.

“I don’t agree...”

A faint voice sounded. Everyone looked over. It was the Lord Seer... ..

“Oh?”

Everyone looked over with interest. Everyone was quite curious about this little lord who was fishing. Now that they were directly facing Andrew, they could see what his confidence was.

Andrew glanced at seer and stopped his strange laughter. He lowered his voice and said, “I’ll try my best to ensure her safety!”

Everyone was stunned. They did not expect that Andrew would be the first one to give in... ..

Seer was unmoved. "Try? If you can guarantee her safety 100% , I can consider letting her go with you..."

"Of course not..." Andrew shook his head. "I can only guarantee that I'm alive..."

"Then what's the use of your guarantee?" Seer interrupted him coldly.

Everyone's expression became even weirder. This little guy's tone was very arrogant.

Rainy girl was also stunned. The powerhouses she had seen in the past two days had broken through their worldview, but she did not expect her lord to have such a strong position among the Saiyans?

"You should know that no one here can guarantee anyone's safety, but at least the chances of survival are higher if you follow me," he said in a low voice. "You should have felt it too. That thing in her body is not something a level six life form can possess!"

Seer: "..."

Rainmaiden Wugua's pupils constricted. She immediately looked at Andrew. Did he know about the thing in her body?

Seer lowered her head in silence...

What the hell am I feeling? What's going on? There's an extra thing in that girl's body?

Wouldn't it be embarrassing if she said it on such a serious occasion?

"What do you think?" Seer looked up at Rainless Melon... ..

"Me?" Rainless Melon looked at the Lord in a daze.

Seer said, "Your current situation is very special. I can't say what your fate will be after you choose. As your lord, I can only guarantee that no one can force you at this time. Your choice is up to you!"

Everyone: "..."

Doggie poked Brother Dog at the side. "F * ck, our Lord is so domineering..."

Brother Dog also nodded excitedly. "Mm..."

The others looked at Seer with some uncertainty. This guy... ? He really had that much confidence... ? The key was that Andrew did not refute. ...

This little lord might not have a simple background...

"Lord, can you solve that thing in my body?"

Seer did not show off anymore and said pragmatically, "There's no way for now, but after we leave here, there should be a way..."

Then she added in her heart, although I don't even know what that thing is... ..

As expected... .. Is the background powerful? The surrounding people thought silently.

Rain girl, Wu Gua: "That is to say, the Lord has no way to deal with it here, right?"

Seer hesitated for two seconds and finally nodded. Some people could act tough, but some people couldn't act tough... ..

Rain Girl, Wu Gua, took a deep breath and turned to look at Andrew. "What About You? How confident are you that you can get rid of that thing in my body here?"

She had a feeling that she would not be able to hold on until everyone left this place together... "...". Her body was getting closer and closer to the edge of losing control.

"50% confidence!" Andrew laughed. "If it were someone else, it might only be 10-20% . If it were you, there should be a 50-50 chance..."

"What if it fails?"

Andrew: "It will die!"

The others looked at Rainless curiously and began to guess what was in her body.

Vaughn, on the other hand, frowned. She had seen it with her own eyes. If she was not mistaken, that thing... .. Should Be... .. A Sky Demon, right?

"Alright, I'll go with you!" Rainy girl did not hesitate for more than two seconds before she made her decision.

Xi Ye's pupils constricted. She wanted to say something, but for a moment, she did not know what to say. For the first time... .. She felt powerless... ..

Sometimes, she had to admit that she... .. Was still too weak. So weak that she could not even protect her subjects... ..

"My Liege..." Raingirl Wugua bowed solemnly at Xi Ye. "If... I don't make it back, please take care of me..."

"I'm not free!"

Xi Ye coldly interrupted Raingirl Wugua's request, causing her to pause.

"I'm very busy, I don't have time to care about your bullshit..." "...". Xi Ye said and looked deeply at him, "You're the most talented seedling under me. Don't say these useless words. I don't know what method that guy used on you, but I know that he clearly underestimated your potential. I'm very sure that you have a 100% chance of success!" "!"

Andrew:"..."

Rainless was stunned for a moment and looked at seer in a daze. After a few breaths, she took a deep breath and a confident smile that only existed in the base appeared on her face. "The Lord is Right!"

When the people around saw the smile on the little developer's face, an indescribable complicated feeling rose in their hearts. This little lord was so pretentious that even his subordinates were not aware of it?

They could clearly sense that the little guy's vigorous confidence was not faked.

“Then let’s begin!” Seeing that the matter had been settled, the principal did not waste any more time and directly activated the teleportation!

Chapter 1254: The Fourth Life Sea Level! !

“Phew...”

The principal let out a long sigh of relief after turning off the teleportation device. It was quite difficult for him to use the spatial device alone. In addition, he had to teleport high-level people. This wave had almost consumed 80% of his spiritual power. It would be difficult for him to recover even if he used alchemy potions in a short period of time. In other words, it would be very difficult for him to provide much help after this wave... ..

Xi Ye looked at the people who had teleported over. Other than dealing with Wayne from the blood demon region, the rest of the juniors had also been sent over.

After all, these juniors were too fragile to enter the domain. It was difficult to guarantee that nothing would happen to them outside. Therefore, they tacitly agreed to let them come to the principal’s side and let him, who had overused his spiritual power, take care of them.

Xi Ye heaved a sigh of relief. They had finally found all the missing people. The worst-case scenario would be for them to immediately leave with them and abandon the two planets when they returned to Mars.

However, the only flaw was that rainy had decided to stay by Andrew’s side. If there was an emergency, she could only give up on her... ..

However, she could still accept it. After so many things had happened, none of these little fellows had met with any mishaps. Seer was already very gratified in her heart... ..

“Principal... How is it?”

Seer asked directly.

Naturally, she was asking about the information.

This time, in addition to rationally distributing the combat strength and tying everyone together to deal with this mysterious Yimo, the other purpose of the teleportation was to test the background of this group of people. After all, the energy used during the teleportation could not be faked, the Space Warlocks who were responsible for the teleportation could roughly estimate the size of the group.

Not far away, Vaughn and Lanaya looked over. Their eyes were a little surprised because seer had deliberately avoided them.

The principal also looked at seer in surprise.

Seer’s tone did not change. “It’s okay. Everyone here is on the same rope...”

Vaughn heard this and said with a half-smile, “Does this lord know that we are on the same boat?”

Xi Ye nodded. "You are different from the others. You are mercenaries. You should know that the employer of your mystical realm is no longer reliable. Both of you are top-notch mercenaries with rich experience. I don't think you will hand your fate to the hiring Lord, right?"

After a pause, seer continued, "And the division just now was already your last chance. You Didn't choose to be with senior VOGU, so you've already lost your last chance to cooperate, right?"

Vaughn looked at seer indifferently and did not say a word.

The other party was a young lord with good knowledge. Indeed, she and Lanaya had been unable to trust each other with Vogu ever since they entered the arcane realm. There was a slight chance just now, but Lanaya rejected it, because even if this situation seemed to require everyone to work together, it was possible that Vogu would suddenly attack them during the teleportation.

In contrast, vogu clearly did not dare to take the risk to spread the news to where the two of them were. Vaughn dared to spread the news here because Lanaya was here. With her guarding, whether it was this spacetime master or this mysterious lord... At least, they did not dare to act rashly... ..

Now that they had safely landed on the ground, there was indeed a possibility for them to cooperate... ..

"Let's make a contract..."seer said directly, "No matter what, the few of us can not attack each other. Let's Make a god's contract!"

As soon as he said that, a pale purple contract floated between them. The contract was simple and clear. As long as the blood essence handprint was covered, the contract that consumed the power of a God would be completed...

Vien and Lanaya both glanced at the contract. After glancing at the content of the contract, she looked at Seer. "No Matter When? Do you want to sign a permanent contract?"

"Of course..."seer said straightforwardly, "You obviously want to take away my excellent people, Wang Goudan, along the way. If you don't sign the contract, do you want to kill me and Rob Me?"

"Haha..."Vien laughed. "How can you be so unreasonable..."

In fact, that was what she meant in her heart...

If possible, she certainly did not want her last disciple to be locked under the banner of a Lord, and it was such a low-level lord... ..

Seer said, "Li Goudan is the most outstanding wind demon in my faction, but I still have a few outstanding ranger seedlings. If it's possible, I think we can deepen our cooperation..."

"Oh?"Vien's eyes lit up. "Are they all of this quality?"

In the Gale family, her lineage was practically a one-way street. It would be best if she could have a few more substitute disciples. After all, a person's growth might not be smooth sailing. If Goudan were to bring him along, he would at least have a substitute, right?

Even if Goudan successfully grew up and supported his own lineage, it would be great to have a few companions with similar qualities to strengthen his own lineage... ..

Not only Vienne, Lanaya also looked over. When she had looked at Goudan's potential, she was very envious of Vienne. If Goudan was not a wind demon, she might have directly snatched him away.

After all, compared to the Gale family, the decline of their Templar family was even more serious!

"Are there any promising assassins?" Lanaya could not help but ask.

"There are two..." Seer did not say anything this time, but the principal spoke up. "I remember that there are two excellent potential assassins in the base. They are both pure wood elf human-shaped assassins, and their aptitudes are not inferior to this little wind demon..."

After hearing this, Lanaya immediately took a deep breath, and her eyes became a little heated. She believed in the integrity of the former White Dragon Sacred Academy's seniors as a guarantee... ..

"Alright, let's work together..." Lanaya did not hesitate and immediately put her hand on the seal!

Vien glanced at Lanaya and finally did not hesitate anymore. She put her hand on the seal... ..

Seer finally looked at Vera...

Vera was stunned. She did not expect the contract to include her?

However, she suddenly understood in the next second. She looked at Seer gratefully. She took the initiative to ask for help in dealing with the blood demon region. It was impossible for the other two to completely trust her, however, if she had the deity's contract as a guarantee, her level of trust would greatly increase.

In the end, after the three people had all put their handprints on, Xi Ye turned around and looked at the principal. "Let's continue with the topic just now..."

At this moment, everyone looked at the principal. The topic that the other party was talking about was naturally the volume information that the principal had obtained through teleportation!

"Four sea of life levels!" The principal took a deep breath and said with a serious expression.

Everyone: "!!!"

"How is that possible?" Lanaya was the first to ask, "Andrew is one, the female knight of the Titan Army is one, and the mysterious undead that broke the sky at most is also one, how could there be a fourth one?"

Seer and Vaughn also turned to look at the principal. After all, in the current situation, the two largest sea of life level experts were still undead. Although their levels were high, because they did not have a suitable body, they could not unleash their power at all., in theory, the only pure life-sea level master should be the general of the glory of dawn.

However, judging from her willingness to fight against the Dragon King, she should not be a gloomy person. Perhaps there was a chance for them to cooperate. Even in the worst case scenario, she would be the final opponent. However, she had fought against Andrew First and then the Dragon King, she should only have half of her life left, so it was not completely impossible for her to win.

And now they're telling them there's a fourth?

Who's the fourth?

Chapter 1255: Surgery

"The fourth?"

A group of people frowned as they gathered together. Their expressions were solemn, but at the same time, they were filled with doubt...

After the Bolton force had been completely wiped out, there weren't many people left. Vogu had entered alone and didn't bring the remaining two star level warriors into the base. The only one who had a slight chance of stepping into the life sea level was the old Geron... ..

However, in the previous battle against Andrew, the result had already been proven. The seemingly powerful Geron was just a withered life that relied on the omen armor to survive.

The fourth life sea champion that was brought in at this time?

"Could it be Senior Vogu?" Seer asked.

"Impossible...". Vaughn shook her head and denied, "The strength of the sky gods is the easiest to judge. The quality of the territory they occupy and the scale of the Lord's forces are all the basis of their strength. These things are very difficult to hide in the federation's system. After all, hiding them too high is suspected of tax evasion. This is something that the federation will never tolerate. Therefore, even if they hide it, the extent of it will not be very big. At least, it can't be strong enough to suppress it by one level!"

Lanaya also said in a low voice, "Sea of life-level sky gods are basically candidates for great lord. There aren't many in the entire federation. How Big Is Vogu's growth ring? is that possible?"

"Then who is it?" Xi Ye frowned. He really couldn't think of a second person...

"What about that illusionist?"

Lanaya said, "I've fought with her before. I believe that she has some reservations, but it's impossible to say that she's a sea of life-level..."

"So You're mistaken?" Xi Ye turned to look at the principal.

The principal curled his lips and said unhappily, "This old man doesn't have to be so blind..."

"That's interesting..."

Xi Ye narrowed his eyes. He kept thinking that he might have missed something?

However, he couldn't recall it at that moment...

“No matter what, let’s solve the problem at hand first...” Lanaya was silent for a few seconds before she said, “Where’s the doctor that the Old Lich prepared for me just now?”

“Doctor?” Seer and the principal were stunned for a moment before they came back to their senses. They looked at Goudan and the others who were just playing along.

When little cabbage heard the word ‘doctor’, his body immediately shrank... ..

“Little guy...” Lanaya leaned over and smiled with her bloody eyes. “You promised...”

“UH...” little cabbage’s face immediately turned bitter.

“Hey...” Goudan poked little cabbage behind him. “Can you do it?”

“Yes... I can...” little cabbage said guiltily.

Goudan’s eyelids twitched when he heard that. He felt that it was so close... ..

“Then let’s begin...” Lanaya did not say much. She stood up straight and said, “We can’t delay it for too long. If you’re not sure, just tell me and we’ll cut it out directly...”

She actually did not have much hope in her heart. After all, it was even more unreliable for a level-9 flower spirit doctor to rely on her to restore her position than grasping at straws in the water.

Seeing that the other party was so easy to talk to, little cabbage immediately heaved a sigh of relief and nodded repeatedly. “I’ll do my best...”

“Mm...” Lanaya replied softly and did not say anything else... ..

Losing an eye had a huge impact on an assassin. However, the burden of the family was almost entirely on her... ..

When little cabbage saw this, he did not waste any more time. He immediately took out his surgical equipment from his spatial bag... ..

Little Cabbage’s surgical room was the best in seer base. After all, Seer had initially planned for little cabbage to become a flower spirit doctor.

However, she did not expect that she would end up being the best lord player in her base.

However, it was the best equipment in seer base. It was different at Vaughn’s level.

The moment she saw the surgery, even though Lanaya was already prepared, her eyelids could not help but twitch. “Such outdated equipment?”

The equipment that little cabbage took out was obviously a complete set of physical steel equipment. It was neither a bio-fiber warehouse nor a high-level mechanical mimicry warehouse.

As a mercenary who had been in the federation for many years, she naturally recognized that this kind of surgical equipment was obviously a semi-automatic operating room that was distributed at the bottom level of the federation for the use of low-level Aboriginal creatures!

Seeing this thing, Lanaya, who did not have much hope, could not help but ask, “You plan to use this to perform surgery on me?”

Little cabbage felt a little guilty under the other party’s inexplicable gaze. “Is... is there a problem?”

There was a big problem! Lanaya’s remaining eye rolled. She even doubted whether there was an electromagnetic knife that could cut off the strength of her fibers with this kind of novice equipment!

“Okay...” Vaughn sighed softly. “It’s already good enough to have a doctor perform surgery on you in such a place, and you’re still so picky...”

Lanaya:” ...”

Was this a question of being picky?

“Forget it...” Lanaya sighed and directly lay down in the equipment. She said faintly, “If you can’t perform the resection, just say it. Don’t use the scalpel to cut...”

Everyone:” ...”

“Do the restoration first. If you can’t do it, then do the resection...” little cabbage insisted.

“Okay, then you can see if you can do the restoration first...” Lanaya was too lazy to argue, so she directly said, “Let’s start...”

Little cabbage nodded and walked over. Now that the smart chain was broken, she could only slowly observe it through the equipment to check the device.

About half an hour later., little cabbage said, “From the wound situation, it looks like the skin of your face was scratched by the sharp claws of a beast and your eyeballs were taken out together. But it’s strange that your eyeballs were not damaged by such a large scratch...”

Lanaya said, “Didn’t your mentor teach you that advanced lifeforms, especially agile lifeforms, would use their eyeballs as the first part of their evolution in order to prevent the fragile parts of their eyes from being corroded by viruses in complex environments?”

This was also why the Federation looked at strength based on their pupils. Regardless of the strength of their bloodlines, growth rings, or the purity of the lifeforms’ energy, they were all best reflected in their eyeballs. Therefore, basic advanced lifeforms... The eyeballs were actually the hardest part of the body...

Little cabbage scratched her head. “My teacher... probably doesn’t understand these things...”

The teacher who taught her medicine was a phd student teacher from the Traffic Academy in Shanghai. He was highly respected and skilled in surgery, but he probably didn’t understand these universe theories... ..

Lanaya:” ...”

She felt that this surgery wasn’t very reliable...

“I’ll debride first to see if the fibers and nerves are damaged...” little cabbage took out the disinfectant and said.

Lanaya hesitated for a moment but didn’t refuse in the end. It was just that debriding the wound shouldn’t cause any harm to herself.

The next second, the thick and pungent disinfectant made Lanaya frown. But then, a warm and peaceful energy came from the other party’s hand that was filled with disinfectant. In an instant, the discomfort caused by the disinfectant disappeared, her nerves were actually relaxed to the extreme!

This is...

In the next second, Lanaya’s other eye looked curiously at little cabbage. At this moment, little cabbage’s entire body was emitting a pale green light, and an affinity that she could not resist came from the other party.

Tranquility?

With just a little recognition, Lanaya understood the spell that the other party had cast, but as for why it needed to be recognized, it was not confirmed with just a glance. It was because this kind of pure tranquility blossomed on the body of a level nine flower spirit was truly inconceivable...

Even some of the top flower spirit masters in the federation might not have this kind of purity...

Chapter 1256: Telepathy

What was going on?

Lanaya’s remaining eye could vaguely see some light green rain slowly falling beside the cabbage. However, the rain was not water droplets condensed from water elements. There was no physical reaction when it fell on the ground. It gave people the feeling that it was an illusion. However, Lanaya, who was in it, could clearly feel that the rain was real... ..

Like the gentlest flowing water on the wilted earth, Lanaya felt that every pore of her body was enjoying the nectar of life, and her whole body was extremely relaxed!

She didn’t even remember how many years it had been since she had enjoyed such a degree of relaxation... ..

Ever since she was chosen to become a seeded player of the Templar family, she had been training in hell every day. Of course, in order to ensure that her body didn’t have too much load, the family’s instructor would also ensure that her body had enough rest.

However, that extreme training and the cruel competition between her peers had never allowed her tensed nerves to relax. Moreover, not letting her guard down at all times had always been a basic lesson in assassin training. As a top assassin, even the slightest movement during deep dormancy had to immediately trigger her body’s conditioned reflexes to activate her entire body and prepare for defense... ..

This had indeed trained their extremely strong neural responses, but as a price, they were already unable to truly relax their nerves... ..

Naturally, she wasn't the only one who had such a situation. In fact, most of the descendants of large families that were born as assassins or rangers had this sort of trouble. Therefore, within the federation.., flower Spirits, who possessed the talent for tranquility, could frequently rely on this to earn money.

The last time she enjoyed tranquility was more than 70,000 years ago. If not for this surgery, she might have forgotten that her body was already so tired... ..

However, there was nothing she could do. Unlike other ordinary children, she was very short of money... ..

Most of the money earned by being a mercenary had to be used to subsidize the family. The family had spent a large amount of money to nurture her, and they had used the family's reputation to give her a good platform in the federation. An assassin with the same ability, because she was born in the Templar family.., was able to be looked up to by others!

Naturally, she had to pay a price to enjoy these benefits. The situation of her family's headquarters wasn't good, and she also needed a large amount of funds to train the next generation of juniors, and a large portion of these funds came from the younger generation who had already grown up and were working hard to earn money.

After the subsidies, the remaining money was basically only enough for her to update her equipment and normal nutrition expenses. Therefore, although she was already a famous star-ranked mercenary in the federation, she rarely did high-level maintenance like peaceful.

70,000 years ago, she remembered that she had completed a very high-quality commission and earned quite a sum of commission. After transferring 80% of the money to her family, she had even exchanged for a whole set of brand-new equipment for herself. It was also a rare luxury for her.., she went to find a flower spirit master and had a moment of tranquility.

That feeling was something that she had not forgotten for tens of thousands of years. After all, to them, the feeling of completely relaxing was simply too blissful... ..

They had never thought that one day they would be able to enjoy it again in such a remote place on the body of a junior elf. Moreover, they didn't know if it was an illusion, but the quality of the feeling of tranquility this time was even higher than the last time... ..

It should be an illusion, right?

One had to know that the one who had given them tranquility the last time was the star Elf clan's Master Lanning, a top-notch dragon-level flower spirit. Usually, some high-level mercenaries would need to make an appointment a year in advance to go to her place, how could she be compared to a junior?

While she was thinking, little cabbage's gentle voice interrupted her train of thought... ..

“HMM...”. ... The wound was not complicated. Although her eyeballs were forcibly taken down, the fiber lines did not seem to have been damaged. Although the nerve lines were more complicated, as long as they were not damaged, they should be able to be restored

Lanaya was stunned. When she came back to her senses, she found that her face was covered with disinfectant and the blood had been washed clean. She asked in surprise, “Has the wound been debrided?”

Little cabbage was stunned, and then she nodded carefully. “Yes...”

Lanaya asked, “So fast? Shouldn’t you be more careful?”

“It’s not that fast, right?” Vaughn frowned and said fairly, “Almost half an hour has passed. I’ve been watching from the side. He debrided very carefully, okay?”

Lanaya:” ...”

This is... ? Half an hour has passed... ? Damn ... Time passed so quickly?

She really wanted to say that she had not enjoyed it enough, but because of her face, she was too embarrassed to say it... ..

After a moment of silence, Lanaya finally said reluctantly, “How do you plan to recover? The shedding is so serious. Even if your nerves are not messed up, you can’t just stuff it back in place, right?”

Obviously, as a mercenary who was often injured, Lanaya still had some medical knowledge... ..

“Well...” little cabbage nodded. “The shedding is more serious, so we need to operate on the corner of the eye to restore it normally...”

“Operate on the corner of the eye?” Lanaya looked at him. “What do you plan to use?”

Little cabbage timidly took out a small knife...

Lanaya’s eyelids twitched when she saw the small knife. “You’re not joking, right?”

An electromagnetic knife made of low-level metal? At most, it could operate on creatures below level seven, right. If it was a creature above level ten, it would not even be qualified to be scraped, not to mention a creature of her level. If her eyelashes fluttered, the electromagnetic knife would probably be shattered into pieces...

“It can be done...” little cabbage summoned up her courage and said, “Your skin is quite hard, but it can be cut open with a special method...”

Lanaya was silent for a moment. It was a strange feeling to be called hard by others.

“Special method? Is it the technique that Andrew said he learned from?”

“I guess so?” Little cabbage scratched her head and said embarrassedly. After all, she should not be considered as a disciple yet... ..

“Then you can try...” Lanaya finally said.

“Okay...” little cabbage nodded, took a deep breath, and closed his eyes. When he opened his eyes again, a pair of emerald-colored pupils shone brightly!

The incomparably beautiful color of the pupils made Lanaya stunned. Unlike the strange green color of the undead, the green color of the wood elves carried a natural beauty of life, sparkling and translucent. Meanwhile, the color of the eyes of the little cabbage was even more like the most noble imperial jade...

Just by looking at Lanaya, she could tell that the purity of her bloodline was extremely high. It was probably at least of the royal family... .. or perhaps even higher. ...

Just as she was shocked, the scalpel in the other party's hand was already close to her. The seemingly weak little guy was very agile when he performed the surgery. His technique was very experienced. It was obvious that he was a professional doctor...

However, what shocked her even more was that the other party actually cut open her eyelid!

In an instant, Lanaya almost could not help but make a move subconsciously. However, the muscle relaxation brought by the tranquility made her unable to reflexively react for a moment.

The slight pain stimulated her eyelid, but the tensed muscles quickly relaxed under the tranquility of the other party... ..

Beside her, Vivian was also shocked. This little guy... “...”. He actually used an electromagnetic knife to cut open Lanaya's eyelids?

“It really is telepathy! !”

The principal came over, his big cartoon eyes filled with a scorching light!

Chapter 1257: Come with me to get back at them!

“I've heard of telepathy, but what exactly does it do?”

Seer could not help but ask.

The principal watched the casting process intently, he explained, “In ancient times, when the universe was still ruled by Titans, dragons, and other creatures, the entire universe had a strong physical body as the standard for racial talent. It was not like the current situation, especially the Titans at that time. Their blood was very pure and their bodies were very strong. Some mechanical civilization and arcane civilization were almost suffocated by these creatures

“However, these creatures with strong bodies have a weakness. It's because their bodies are too strong and their recovery abilities are too strong. This makes it difficult for their bodies to carry out normal surgery...”

The principal lowered his voice and said, “Under normal circumstances, creatures with strong bodies have strong self-healing abilities. Most injuries can be recovered by relying on their immunity and recovery abilities. However, there will always be special cases, such as severe injuries, broken bones or broken joints, internal diseases, or some high-level tumor diseases...” . “...”

Seer nodded. He had learned a lot about these creatures. He was born into a warrior family, so the cost of a high-level operation was much higher than that of other races, the reason was the toughness of their bodies.

High-strength muscles required very high-level equipment to be cut properly, especially for large-scale bone-shaping operations. One operation was more than a hundred times more expensive than a spirit-type creature of the same level.

This was also the reason why the Titan Arena consumed so much energy. Titan was often injured in competitions all year round in that place, so any surgery would cost a lot of money.

The principal saw that seer understood and continued, "During the period of Titan and the Dragons, the holy wind of the physical body was very strong. Normal technological civilizations were suppressed, and arcane magic was even regarded as an evil way. At that time, it was even more difficult to perform surgery on Titan and the Dragons with purer bloodlines, especially for high-level dragons. Your ordinary equipment couldn't even break the scales... "...". "At that time, a spiritual race invented a top-notch secret technique, which made them the only spiritual race that was respected by the giant dragons and the Titans."

"The Behemoth Race?" Seer asked curiously.

"Yes...". The principal nodded. "At that time, the Behemoth race created a magical secret technique. They used an extremely concentrated spiritual power to observe and guide, and could directly cut open high-strength flesh with a small knife. The top-notch Behemoth race could even perform surgery on a dragon king-level creature!"

"Dragon King Level?" Seer immediately took a deep breath. The skin of that creature was probably something that even interstellar weapons could not crack open. Its recovery ability was probably also top-notch. Under normal circumstances, even if it was cut open, it would immediately recover...

"It's rumored that this secret technique can guide the body's nerves to hypnotize, relax, and cooperate, thus forming a special surgical environment..."

The principal carefully looked at the cabbage. At this moment, her gaze was incomparably focused. When she quietly activated it, an extremely low-level electromagnetic knife cut through Lanaya's eyelid like it was cutting tofu. It was an extremely tiny opening... Moreover, it was at a sensitive eyelid position, but Lanaya's entire person was abnormally relaxed. She did not have any intention of reflexes at all...

After all, this was a surgery without anesthetics... ..

In fact, in ancient times, the Birussi clan faced the same dilemma when they performed surgery on Titans and dragons. It was almost impossible for high-level Titans and dragons to be effective with drugs, and even the highest level of anesthetics could not anesthetize that kind of body.., therefore, the surgery was basically completed under the conscious mind of the other party.

However, the requirements for nerve guidance were extremely high. If one was not careful, a rebound would probably cause the person who performed the surgery to be in trouble, including the person with the knife.

“I didn’t expect the flower spirit’s serenity to be so compatible with the telepathic skill...”. The principal took a deep breath and said, “Actually, someone had mentioned this idea before, but the behemoth race and the elf race were mortal enemies. For so many years, this combination idea had only been a theory. I didn’t expect that it would be realized on this little guy one day.” “... “Oh right, where did this little guy learn this secret technique?”

The corners of Seer’s mouth curled up as he thought to himself, ‘how the Hell Should I know?’?

This kind of high-level secret technique definitely did not come from the aboriginal initiation course given to him by the Federation as a new lord, nor should it be taught by the instructors in the base. After all, he did not even have a proper doctor instructor in the base yet... ..

“The restoration is complete... We will begin the recovery of the corner of the eye now. It will be a little itchy when we promote the recovery. Please bear with it for a while...” Bai Cai’s gentle voice sounded again, interrupting seer’s awkward silence.

Lanaya’s right eye blinked slightly, indicating that she understood.

Bai Cai took a deep breath, and his fair and tender palm gently caressed Lanaya’s injured eye. A faint light enveloped her, and under the quiet drizzle, the scene looked extremely beautiful.

Lanaya only felt that the other party’s hands were as gentle as water. They gently caressed her wound, and it was slightly cold. Under the other party’s guidance, her relaxed muscles slowly began to heal the wound, and her entire body became extremely relaxed, the slight itch on her face made her feel so comfortable that she almost moaned.

But in the end, she held it in... .. So that it wouldn’t be too embarrassing.

But she didn’t notice that her ears kept shaking, and her feet tightened and pressed down. It was very much like a cat’s physiological reaction when it was tickled to the point of itchiness. Vaughn, who was watching from the side, had a strange expression on her face.

After thinking for a moment... .. She decided not to tell the other party, in case she got angry from embarrassment...

“Okay...”

After about 15 minutes, Xiao Baicai withdrew her palm with a pale face. She quietly closed her palm and said gently, “Open your eyes and try...”

Lanaya obediently opened her injured eyes and was momentarily stunned.

She knew that the effect wouldn’t be bad, but she didn’t expect it to be so good. Her vision had almost completely recovered. She rotated her eyeball and found that there was almost no pain at all. Obviously, the recovery was done very well. There wasn’t even a common visual congestion... ..

Lanaya took a breath and slowly sat up. She looked around carefully. Her visual angle was almost 360 degrees. Finally, she looked at little cabbage. “You... What’s Your Name?”

“Little cabbage...” little cabbage grinned.

“Your name is so casual...” Lanaya frowned.

Little Cabbage: “...”

“No matter what... I owe you a favor, little guy...” Lanaya revealed a rare smile. She couldn’t help but pinch little cabbage’s baby fat face. ...

She meant what she said. After all, if an assassin’s eyeball was cut here, it would have a great impact on the future...

“Hehe...” the little cabbage giggled in response. ...

“Let’s go...” Lanaya touched the scabs on her face and said to Vaughn, “Come with me to get the place back!”

Chapter 1258: Victory Rate!

“Can they win?”

After Vivian and the others left, Seer looked at the two of them and asked worriedly.

Due to the incident with the YIMO, the group had barely managed to work together. However, once the crisis was resolved, there would definitely be another chaotic battle. The two allies that Seer was most likely to win over were these two!

The rest, whether it was the mysterious undead God or the Volgu Lord who had come to track down Andrew, were obviously not going to be together with her, the reason why she did not make a move was because she had yet to figure out her own background.

As for Andrew... “...”. It could be said that they would not rest until one of them was dead. Even Lulu of the fairy race did not give her a clear sense of purpose as compared to the two in front of her.

Although the little fairy was acting cute, she gave Seer a feeling that she was no less dangerous than Andrew and the others.

Eh... Wait a minute...

Seer suddenly paused. Could the fourth life sea level be this guy?

Speaking of which, it was not impossible. The surviving members of the fairy tribe were actually old monsters who had reincarnated. The only difference was that some people had awakened their memories and some people did not. If they had awakened their memories, then... It was not impossible to use some special methods to reach the life sea level. After all, these old monsters might have been life sea level powerhouses countless times before they reincarnated... ...

The principal was slightly silent. He clearly understood what Xi Ye meant. Out of so many groups, the other groups hoped that both of them would suffer heavy injuries or even die at the hands of the Yimo. and the ones who hoped to return unscathed were the two in front of him.

“Judging from their configuration, they have the highest chance of winning against the blood demon region...”. “...”. The principal thought for a moment and said, “A top-notch assassin working together with a top-notch Ranger has a very high chance of winning against a blood demon that relies on its recovery ability to fight. Even if they can’t win, it’s not a big problem for them to escape unscathed. Moreover, they brought along a blood demon of the same level. The other party has also signed a divine contract. The YIMO has used the power of the original divine God to duplicate the domain, which also gave that little fellow a chance to use it. If she’s really sincere in helping us, with her exhausting her energy to test us, and with Vienne and Lanaya looking for a chance to find a weakness, I think the chance of winning is at least 50% !”

“Only 50% ?” Seer was stunned.

Seer had heard a lot of good points from the other party, but he did not expect the conclusion to be so low. He had thought that the other party was going to say 80%

“What do you think a domain is?” The principal rolled his eyes and said, “This Yimo used the spiritual power gained from infecting the emerald dream to open a domain. It has almost completely utilized the blood demon planet. The quality is so high that it can be used to strengthen an entire blood demon army in the interstellar community. With the addition of such high-quality blood demon molecules, do you really think that the other party is made of mud?” “SAB is infamous in the mercenary world. He used to be no weaker than Vaughn. With the bonus from the blood magic region, even 10 Vaughn wouldn’t be a match for him under normal circumstances. Now, the only way to estimate a 50% chance of victory is to rely on that little fallen angel girl to give her all!”

“Tsk...” Seer frowned under his helmet. “It sounds like this cooperation is very risky. What will happen if they fail?”

“It’s very serious!” The principal said solemnly, “At least half of it has to be won. Destroying the three cores is the most basic thing. Otherwise, once the opponent infects enough cores, the stability of the control over the Dragon King will be greatly increased. If it completely controls Dragon King Ysera, I’m afraid that a life sea-level Titan alone won’t even be able to stall for time!”

“But... you just said that we have the highest chance of winning, and it’s only 50% . Then the others...” Seer had a bad feeling.

“Yes...” the principal looked at the closed teleportation device. “The situation is actually not optimistic...”

Seer: “Is it really that pessimistic?”

The principal was silent for a moment, in the end, he analyzed sincerely, “In the remaining four groups, Vogus is a complete sky god Lord, and he has the cooperation of the exclusive blue spirit master’s subordinates. If there’s a mecha formation and a high-quality mechanical domain, the chances of winning against the defense-oriented rock demon, bogus, are about 50% ... “...”. “...”

“It’s not like the fallen angel’s group doesn’t have a chance of winning. That mysterious undead God and Andrew are of the same size. For someone to have a divine weapon like the space-time spear, he must have many trump cards. In addition to the similarly mysterious fairy race, it’s not impossible for them to take down the fallen angel wind demon’s domain, which has the highest combat power. It’s just that without specific information, the odds of winning are somewhat uncertain.”

“If we can win all three of them, it will give us a lot of breathing space.”

“Eh?” Xi Ye was stunned. “We won all three of them just to gain breathing space?”

“Then what do you think?” The principal sighed. “Once the YIMO start to infect, they won’t stop. Once they destroy it, they will think of a way to make a comeback. And it has plenty of ways to control half of the emerald space. You have to know that the emerald dream has existed for many years. It is impossible that there is nothing in it. If there are some high-level creatures, they can also form a great combat force!”

“Hiss...” seer took a deep breath. “It sounds troublesome. How do we avoid this situation? Win all five of them?”

“If we win all five of them...”. “...”. The principal nodded and said, “It will put the opponent in an extremely passive situation. No matter what method we use to infect someone of a higher level, there will definitely be side effects. Once we fail, the side effects will probably erupt on the spot. Not to mention directly getting killed, at least we will be greatly weakened. However, the possibility of winning all five of them is not high...”. “...”. “Especially the last two groups...”. “...”

“The last two groups?” Seer frowned. “You mean that illusionist? It’s indeed a little exaggerated for her to fight alone in one field, but the other group is Andrew. Do you think she can’t win?”

“It’s the exact opposite...” the principal sighed. “In the remaining two groups, I have a little confidence in Little Maya’s side...”

Seer: “Eh?”

The principal: “That little fellow is very cunning. She dares to fight a domain by herself, so she naturally has something. Moreover, she used to work under the great Lord Evelyn, so she’s very trustworthy. The other party even gave her a divine artifact, so she might have other cards up her sleeve. After all, she was able to plot against a life sea-level Titan in the beginning, so she still has some tricks up her sleeve...”. “...”. “And among the five domains, the shadow devil domain should be the weakest...”. “...”

The Shadow Devil Domain was the weakest?

Before seer could ask, the principal brought up the last topic, “On the contrary, Andrew’s side...”

Seer asked, “What do you mean?”

“He is indeed very strong. As one of the top ten liches under Empress XI, if he was at his peak, he would have a high chance of winning even if he were to face the Dragon King head-on. But now...”

The principal paused for a moment and said faintly, “No matter how strong an existence is, they can’t escape from the Basic Law. Without a body, undead can’t exert the corresponding power in the material plane. This is the iron law of the plane. No matter how powerful you are, you can’t change it! “And the flame demon domain is the most effective against the power of undead. Unless he has a hidden body, it’s almost impossible for him to win this battle!”

On the other side, Andrew, who the principal mentioned, had just arrived at the flame demon's domain with rainy melon. Rainy melon looked at the monstrous flames and gulped, "You... you want me to go in and fight alone?"

Chapter 1259: seed of the devil (I)

Among the few domains, the one that most people didn't want to get close to was probably the domain where the Balrog, ragnaros, was located.

The sky was filled with raging flames, and the entire world was burning red. It was like a burning hell in a mythical novel. Any living creature would probably not want to get close to it when they saw such a situation. Moreover, Ragnaros was floating in the middle of the sky. His whole body was burning with flames, and he looked down at the earth like the king of demons in purgatory. He looked like a BOSS... ..

Rainmaiden wugua swallowed her saliva and stood outside the domain to feel the heat wave. She felt that if it were not for the strange black mist on the body of the person next to her, the heat wave alone would have melted her...

But the other party actually wanted her to go in and fight alone?

Rainwoman Wugua always thought that she was only here to observe. At most, she would just be a support and complete some assistance that she could do. She never thought that she would be pushed out to fight head-on.

"What kind of joke is this?"

Even the usually calm and composed her could not help but jump up and look at Andrew with an expression that said, "You must be kidding me!"

In the Black Fog, Andrew stared at Guo Xiaoyun with a pair of strange green eyes. "I'm a serious scholar. Under normal circumstances, people like us don't joke..."

Guo Xiaoyun:"..."

This serious look made her heart inexplicably cold. She suddenly felt that she had been a little too sure... ..

Why did she think that the other party was trying to help her and not maliciously mean her?

Maybe it's because of what happened to bok choy, or maybe it's because of what happened to doggie-doggie and his friends, and they all went out for a walk, no matter how much trouble they were in, or how good they were. Will be different for them because of their own qualifications...

But the world is not always the same, there are people who cherish seedlings, there are a lot of things filled with malicious people...

A monster who came out of the world of the dead should belong to the latter most of the time... ..

For the first time... Guo Xiaoyun felt a little flustered in her heart, however, she still managed to calm herself down because she knew that no matter what terrible situation she was in, flustered would not help her. Only by being calm and extremely calm could she find a slim chance of survival!

“What About You?” After calming herself down, Guo Xiaoyun blinked her eyes and asked, “Are you watching from the side?”

“I can’t go in...” Andrew looked at the Inferno in front of him, he said very naturally, “Undead creatures appearing in the living world will be repelled by the universe’s positive ion energy. The fire element is an extremely high concentration of positive ion energy. Moreover, this is one of the fire seeds with the strongest energy density in the universe. Even for an undead creature of my level, if I enter that domain, I’m afraid that it would be difficult for me to even stabilize my body and not disperse, let alone fight...”.

These words made Guo Xiaoyun’s heart skip a beat, but her expression remained calm as she said with a smile, “Then how are you going to help me? After all, you can’t expect me to defeat that Big Guy alone, right?”

Although the other party seemed to want her to charge forward, Guo Xiaoyun knew that with her body size, she wouldn’t be able to hurt the other party even if she faced that kind of monster. She might even be reduced to ashes in a breath., the difference was like the difference between a mountain patrol demon and a tathagata of the west.

Oh... .. It might be more than that. According to the terrifying strength of these guys that she had witnessed recently, it was probably the world’s number one martial arts tournament in the Seven Dragon Balls, Satan, against the Rabbit God that could destroy the solar system with a casual wave...

Andrew stared straight at Guo Xiaoyun. In the Black Fog, a smile appeared on his pale face that others could not see.

The little girl thought that her performance was very good, and her expression was calm. However, in front of a top-tier spirit-type life form like him, a physical performance could not show the emotions in her heart, the difference between them caused the other party to not be able to escape from his eyes any spiritual fluctuations. With these fluctuations, it was very easy to guess the true emotions in her heart.

But it was also not bad... “...”. It was already very rare for such a native to be able to forcefully remain calm in the face of a figure of her size. She had lived for countless eras and seen countless people. As long as the luck of a little girl was not bad, she would be able to have a good situation, just like that Alice...

And compared to Alice, this child was more suitable...

“I can’t go in, but I can use your body to go in...”

As soon as she said this, Guo Xiaoyun could no longer hold back her expression, and her entire face instantly turned pale!

If not for her remaining rationality letting her know that escaping was useless, she might have subconsciously wanted to run away!

Back in the New World, in the imperial city, the undead incident had nearly killed her and the first batch of players. Back in the base, she had learned some knowledge about the undead through her intelligence and some instructors.

She knew that if the undead wanted to survive in the world, they needed a physical body of the universe, just like the ghost possession in central China mythology, which replaced their existence!

Most of the content of the first chapter of the time-traveling novel was like this. Guo Xiaoyun had enjoyed reading this kind of novel for a period of time, but when the object of possession turned into her, the plot was obviously not good... ..

Andrew acted as if he did not see the Pale Guo Xiaoyun. He took out a black fruit-shaped object from his black smoke, lowered it, and said in a low voice, "Eat it!"

Guo Xiaoyun took a step back and looked at the thing. It looked like a large apple, but the color was black, and... .. If he did not see wrongly, it seemed to be still beating...

If she wore some blood membrane, she might think that it was a heart... ..

Taking a breath, Guo Xiaoyun started to contact the strange existence in her body in her mind... ..

"I advise you not to do this..." Andrew said faintly, "The sky demon armor is not used like that. It's a miracle that you could use it successfully with your size last time. If you use it again, your weak body will be swallowed by the thing in an instant. You should be able to feel it yourself "? That thing isn't a good thing!"

"Then what?" Guo Xiaoyun sneered, "Wait for death obediently? I think it's better to take a gamble. What if it succeeds? To be on the chopping board without even struggling, what's the difference between this and a chicken raised in a farm?"

Looking at the little girl who threatened him with her last trump card, Andrew smiled. She had done everything she could. Her performance should be enough, at least... There was no suitable person around... ..

"It's not possession..." Andrew handed the jumping black fruit forward. "This is a seed, a seed of power. Eat it, and you will gain my power!"

Guo Xiaoyun:"..."

Chapter 1260: seed of the Devil -PartpTwo two)

"What's That?"

Guo Xiaoyun looked at the strange fruit with a dumbfounded expression.

"Eat it..." Andrew's tone was bewitching. "You will gain power beyond your imagination..."

Looking at the guy who bewitched her, Guo Xiaoyun's eyelids twitched. The CG of a certain game appeared in her mind. A black-bellied shaman seemed to have used this tone to trick hell into roaring.

"Drink it, Doggie... drink it, and you'll gain unimaginable power..."

This scene and tone made Guo Xiaoyun subconsciously reply, "What's the price... for that?"

Andrew: "Everything..."

Guo Xiaoyun:"..."

F * CK, the lines are all the same! !

"Cough..." Andrew saw the strange expression on the other party's face and coughed lightly. He also felt that there was something wrong with his tone. This tone was the tone that they usually used to pretend to be gods to fool the Aborigines, and the other party was not the kind of aborigines that were easy to fool.

"This is the power that comes from my body... .. I'll lend it to you ... Andrew's tone became serious as he said, "Previously, you almost mastered the sky demon armor with an extremely weak power. This is not only because of your developer's pure bloodline, but also because of your excellent talent. The only difference between you and that thing in your body is the size of each other. If you use my power to complete the size, you can completely master it in a certain amount of time "Complete control?"

Complete Control?

Guo Xiaoyun was stunned for a moment. She recalled the first time she used that thing. That thing was very terrifying, giving her a feeling that it would strip her of everything. However, when she used it, in that instant.., she had a feeling that she was omnipotent. She knew very well in her heart what kind of terrifying power it was to completely control that thing!

"What's The Price?" Guo Xiaoyun asked for the second time. This time, she asked very carefully. Since the other party spoke in such a tone, he must be planning to tell her something... ..

"Because it's my power, every time you use it, your body will be infected by a little of my power..." Andrew narrowed his eyes and said, "The more you use it, the more it will be infected. If you are completely infected, you... will be the next me!"

With that said, Guo Xiaoyun instantly understood. This thing of hers was a bit like the heart of the devil in novels, and also a bit like the taboo of demons in manga. If it was used, it could greatly increase one's strength. However, once used, it would be corroded again and again until it was completely corroded, becoming the incarnation of a demon... ..

This setting was a bit old. Now, no one wrote it...

Guo Xiaoyun raised her head and looked at the other party. She had some doubts in her heart. It sounded quite realistic. The other party had told her about the side effects directly. It was a bit realistic, but the key was... .. Would this amount be hidden? Would she be infected if she used it too much, or would she be infected if she used it?

There was a big difference between the two...

"Why didn't you just possess it directly? Wouldn't that be more convenient?" Guo Xiaoyun asked the question that she wanted to ask the most in her heart.

“Not good...” Andrew looked ahead and said, “Directly possessing it means that I will go on the field myself. If I go in without fighting, I will have to die in there. It’s too risky...”

Guo Xiaoyun: “...”

This answer... .. It was really F * cking practical...

After a moment of silence, Guo Xiaoyun finally took the fruit. Looking at the dark fruit, Guo Xiaoyun pursed her lips and said, “If I eat it, how many times will I be completely infected?”

“Who knows...” Andrew said faintly, “It depends on how much you use it. Maybe just this one time, if I use it too much, I might be directly infected.”

Guo Xiaoyun asked, “Can I feel it?”

Andrew said, “Probably...”

Guo Xiaoyun said, “Then if... I’m lucky this time and I’m not completely infected, do I have a way to take this thing out of my body?”

“Yes...” Andrew smiled and said, “The universe is very big, and there’s nothing that can’t be done. It’s just a matter of whether you have the ability to find such a person...”

Having said that, Andrew was still very confident in his own technology. Even among the top ten liches of the same level, only the Chief Lich of Queen XI’s force, Angel, could not be seen through by him. The remaining few..., he did not think that they could crack his technology, at least not in the short term!

Guo Xiaoyun: “Last Question...”

Andrew: “Speak!”

“Can you heat it up?” Guo Xiaoyun took a breath and said, “I don’t like to eat raw...”

Andrew: “...”

Should I F * cking put some cumin on you?

“It’s not meat, it’s special alchemy. It tastes good!”

“UH... is it?”

About a quarter of an hour later, Andrew looked at Guo Xiaoyun, who had turned purple all over and was slowly walking into the flame demon realm. He muttered, “She’s decisive. She didn’t waste too much time. Otherwise, it would be quite troublesome...”

It’s a parasite that I’ve been working on for a long time, and it’s very special, and it needs the complete cooperation of the host, otherwise, if the host has a mental repulsion, it will cause a physical repulsion, causing the seed energy to be incompatible with the body’s energy.

With the other party’s body size of around level seven, once the body was incompatible with his seed, it would instantly be blown to pieces by the powerful energy!

However, this also made Andrew even more satisfied with Guo Xiaoyun as a candidate. Under such circumstances, even though he knew that he had been schemed against, he could still calmly accept the parasitic seed without any reaction of repulsion. It was clear that he had an excellent mentality. This kind of person... .. Did have the right to inherit his own... ..

“I really didn’t expect... that you would give this power to an outsider!”

A faint voice suddenly sounded. Andrew paused for a moment and did not turn around, as if he knew who it was. And this person, if brother dog was here, he would definitely cry out in surprise.

It was the second master of the Emerald Dream, the descendant of the Moon Elves: Diana!

If seer and the others knew the identity of this person, they would probably be shocked too. They wouldn’t have imagined that the Master of the Emerald Dream would mix with the intruders!

“Do you know what that is?” Andrew smiled and said.

“The seed of Angola...” Diana said coldly, “The parasitic seed researched by the previous Moon Elves, the Angola family. It’s a special alchemy seed used to invade the Spirit System Universe!”

“Looks like... the inheritance is quite complete...” Andrew laughed, “Even the Angora family knows about it.”

“I’m the one who wanted to say...” Diana looked at him coldly, “Your research on the Moon Elves is more powerful than I thought, to be able to reproduce the technology of the past. Ysera is right, you’re really a powerful fellow!”

“Senior said that?” Andrew laughed even more happily. “Then it’s really an honor...”

Diana did not continue this topic, instead, she continued the previous topic. “Since you can restore this technology, you should know that this thing has a lot of side effects!” Diana said coldly, “Don’t forget how the Void invaded the Elf Civilization!”

“She’s not the void...” Andrew sneered, “She doesn’t have that ability...”

“Is that so?” Diana’s eyes said faintly, “If she wins... you might not think so...”
