Chapter 1321: Getting out of control...

“Reborn beings... interesting stuff...”Lulu looked at Anya and said, “Won’t they find out?”

“No...”. Anya shook her head, “The secret technique of the immortal realm is extremely closed to the outside world. I remember that Andrew was assigned to the Psychic Secret Academy of majoxas. Later on, he was exiled to the chaos region, Raventes, because of his research on taboo. The Immortal realm is even more closed to the outside world than the fortress of order. It’s impossible for him to learn this. If he hadn’t learned about the reborn beings, he wouldn’t be able to tell. After all, it’s the foundation of the Immortal Realm!”

Lulu nodded. The death world was currently divided into six major factions, each led by six immortals. The Immortal realm that the other party mentioned was one of them, and was basically exclusive to the elves.

It was said that only the pure high-end elves were recruited. It was said that that was the only place in the death world that had color, and it was considered a heaven-grade place in the death world. It was said that the immortals of the immortal realm had a great relationship with the original Moon Elven queen, they only recognized creatures like elves. As the fairies were the Moon Elves’vassals, they were barely in the range of being recruited.

The Immortal realm was not only the only place of color in the death realm, it was also the only place where the death realm could be reincarnated.

That’s right, it was what you imagined, reincarnation...

The Dead Souls in the immortal realm could be reincarnated if they could contribute a certain amount of energy. Through special secret techniques, they could be transferred to the physical universe and achieve reincarnation!

However, they would be deprived of their memories. This was also one of the reasons why the Elves were able to maintain their strength.

Other than having newborn babies, there would also be high-quality elves reincarnated from the immortal world of the death realm from time to time. This system had caused the elves to maintain the situation of having many talents since countless eras. They had never stopped... ..

The reincarnated creatures were the prelude to the secret reincarnation technique. The dead bodies in the death realm would contribute most of the energy with magazines to the death realm, and they would only reserve less than one-tenth of the pure energy to incubate, they would try their best to meet the conditions of the physical universe.

This secret technique was envied by all the dead souls in the death realm, but only the dead souls in the fairy land could enjoy it. The dead souls in other areas could only watch as they drooled. Even a top-notch great lich would not be able to steal the secret technique of the Fairy Land.., after all, this secret technique had to borrow the laws of the immortal realm.

Although Andrew was at the level of the Great Lich, Anya did not believe that he had the ability to crack this thing that the entire world of death coveted... ..

“Even so, it’s still very difficult...”Lulu sighed as she swallowed a mouthful of wine.

Anya also fell into silence. It was just as she said, the situation was not optimistic... ..

Although she had successfully hidden herself from Andrew and the Yimo, in order to escape, she used the heavy spirit technique. She only had less than one-tenth of the energy left. The energy was very pure, but after all, her body had been reduced by too much.

Senior’s condition was not that good either. He was almost on the verge of falling into a deep sleep... ..

“I’ll give you the energy. Are you confident in killing Andrew?”Anya asked.

“Let’s see if there’s a chance...”Lulu took another gulp of wine and said, “If there’s a good chance, there’s a 30% chance...”

An Ya frowned when she heard that. She knew that her senior was telling the truth. At this time, she should also be telling the truth, but when she really heard the truth, she couldn’t help but frown...

If there’s a good chance, there’s only a 30% chance... .. This was really... .. It made people unable to relax...

“Maybe we should listen to her...”an ya finally sighed. “She used the passive plan...”

Lulu raised her eyebrows. The one an ya mentioned was the Yimo who contacted them previously... ..

“Are you sure?”Lulu rolled her eyes at him. “Why does her plan sound more unreliable?”

“Not necessarily...”. Anya smiled and said, “There’s one good thing about that guy. He abides by the traditions of his race and only believes in fate. Although he’s a little too old-fashioned, he’s never wrong about the fate of his race.””

“Is that so?”Lulu put down the wine flask and looked at Andrew’s Death Star across billions of stars. “But no matter what, it feels ridiculous to let a little guy play such a big role...”

On the Death Star, although the principal did not sign a contract with Andrew, he decisively handed over the spatial link.

He also knew that the other party could tolerate him delaying the time to sign the contract, but they would not tolerate him delaying the time for another group of people!

After taking the link, Andrew ignored everyone and directly rose up, flying toward the giant dragon in the sky.

The giant dragon took the link and opened the passage directly. His spiritual power penetrated into it without hesitation. Countless black ends densely extended through the passage to the other side!

In less than ten seconds, the giant dragon slowly opened its eyes. A trace of solemnity flashed in its eyes... ..

“How is it?”

Andrew quickly asked when he saw the situation.

“It’s on the other side...”the dragon said faintly, “It’s in an upright posture, not hiding at all...”

Andrew:”...”

It was not clear whether this situation was good or bad. It was said that they did not need to spend time to find the final hidden danger. After all, although they had a great advantage now, time was not on their side.

The price of infecting a Dragon King that was higher in level was extremely high. The longer they dragged it out, the greater the possibility that Ysera would break free. Once it broke free, the entire emerald dream would return to that fellow’s hands. It was almost equivalent to wasting all their previous efforts...

The other party did not hide. By appearing openly like this, it saved them a lot of unnecessary time... ..

But it felt like a trap...

After all, in Seer’s sealed situation, the best way for the mysterious parasitic Yimo to stall for time was to stall for time, but the other party did not. Instead, they arranged themselves in a formation., they were just about to give you the middle finger to provoke you and say, “Come over here! !”

In this situation... .. It felt like... .. Something was not right...

“It... Don’t tell me it has another card?”Andrew’s face became serious. He had calculated everything, there shouldn’t be any mistakes.

His little disciple Maya was still in the space, but with her?

In terms of combat strength, she might not be as good as the two mercenaries hired by vogu... ..

“I have to go with or without a card...”the dragon said faintly, “Only by eliminating it can we completely occupy the emerald dream, and also can completely suppress Ysera. If we delay any longer, the situation will be disadvantageous to us...”

“You’ll go alone?”Andrew frowned.

“Then what else?”The dragon rolled its eyes at him and said, “Once you leave this Death Star, you’ll be a spirit body. Any star-level assassin can send you back to the death world. Moreover, if you leave, who will guard that fellow?”

As it said that, it looked at seer who was sealed...

Andrew immediately fell silent...

From the looks of it, their plan could almost be said to be successful. The biggest hidden danger, Seer, had been successfully sealed, but because it was sealed, it was restricted here...

He could only watch as his allies went alone to deal with that unknown fellow outside... ..

A conspiracy! !

Andrew could not help but feel that something was out of his control... . .

Chapter 1322: so that's how it is!

"This feeling is quite scary..."

The group of players, led by Isabelle, were walking at a fast pace. Previously, when they had just exited the barrier, they were still carefully probing their surroundings.

However, after walking for a while, they discovered that there did not seem to be any other creatures in this world. Other than the color turning gray, the entire world was terrifyingly quiet.

Hence... .. They began to accelerate. After that, they began to run towards the west at high speeds.

However, the high-quality Death Star's gravity and elemental density were extremely high. Although a group of players could outrun a racing car on the D ball, they found it difficult to walk on this planet. After running for a short while, they felt that their stamina had dropped drastically... ..

Meanwhile, the surrounding worlds were still so quiet that there wasn't even a breeze. This caused a chill to rise in the hearts of the group of players.

"How long do we have to run for?" Wang Goudan and the others sat down on the ground, panting. The Titans who had initially charged in front were also exhausted.

Pu Yunchuan looked at brother dog, "Gouzi, why do I feel like you've become much stronger than us?"

Everyone looked over and only then did they notice that Brother Dog's physique and aura seemed to be one level higher than the Titans of the same generation. They were instantly curious.

"Cough..." brother dog coughed lightly, "A little chance, I overtook a car on the bend..."

"F * ck..." the Titan players instantly looked unhappy. Even the usually calm cold star frowned slightly.

If everyone relied on their hard work and talent, and each had their own strengths and weaknesses, no one would have anything to say. Relying on this chance gave people the feeling that they were cheating.

Especially since everyone was of the same age, there would always be a feeling of unbalance in their hearts... ..

However, they did not have much time to continue paying attention to this. Pu Yunchuan looked at the towering giant in the distance and said, "This doesn't look too far. If we run, we'll only realize that we won't be able to run for a month..."

Isabelle nodded with an ugly expression. She did not expect this place to be like this. No wonder it was so peaceful on the way. Perhaps they did not care about them at all. They were too small... So small that they couldn't even run to their destination... ..

"Oh... poor little guys..."

Just when everyone, including Isabelle, was discouraged, a seductive female voice suddenly sounded!

Everyone was shocked. Goudan, who was sitting on the ground, jumped up and looked around nervously.

It was normal for people to have a big reaction. It was indeed quite scary to suddenly hear a voice in this ghost-like environment... ..

Li Goudan looked at Bai Cai's position. The voice seemed to be coming from her... ..

The other players' reactions were half a beat slower. After a few seconds, they looked over. Only then did they realize that a graceful figure had appeared behind Bai Cai, an extremely charming face was resting on Bai Cai's head with a smile as she looked at the crowd.

Bai Cai's beautiful and sharp chin made her cry pitifully... ..

Why was it always her...

Goudan immediately noticed the blood-red eye floating behind Bai Cai and narrowed his eyes. "It's that..."

The thing Alice asked Bai Cai to bring was the eye that could monitor the situation of others, right?

Was this guy working with Alice?

"Do you need my help, Little Guys?"

It was Maya, and she looked at the crowd with a smile... ..

It was just as that guy had said, almost every one of these little guys had unimaginable talent. At first, one or two of them could still be understood, but now, waves after waves of them appeared, it seemed that it was really what it had said... ..

Interesting...

Isabelle turned around and fixed her gaze on the other party. Then, she asked, "Where's Alice?"

"Alice?" Maya smiled. "That little native girl?"

Isabelle was stunned. It was the first time that she had heard her ancestor being called a little girl. She felt that... It was strange... ..

"She can't come..." Maya replied with a smile. "I'm the only one here..."

Isabelle asked, "What are you guys going to do?"

"Well..." Isabelle rubbed her chubby face and said with a smile, "I'm not sure yet. I'll bring you there first..."

Everyone:"..."

It sounded so casual...

However, Isabelle frowned.

The other party said that they were not sure yet, but they were going to bring them there together. In other words, the plan was actually related to them... ..

As expected... .. Was their group still in the calculations?

But what use could their size be?

“Stand firm!” Maya smiled and spread out her right hand. A purple mirror slowly rose up. It was the space artifact from before: the Phase Mirror!

... ..

“Oh?”

At this moment, Andrew, who was guarding the black rock domain, slowly opened his eyes and looked at the position of the Phase Bolton. He sneered, “I really didn’t expect it to come to this... as expected of my most outstanding disciple!”

“Teacher, you flatter me...”

Maya, who had brought a group of players to the outside of the domain, smiled when she saw Andrew and gave a respectful salute to Tirisfal as a student... ..

“I didn’t expect teacher to play so big. At that time, I only participated in this plan because I thought that the thing that you mysteriously planned was definitely a good thing. I didn’t expect it to be a huge thunder. If I had known earlier, I wouldn’t have participated. But now that I want to quit, teacher probably won’t allow it either...” . “...” . “...”

“You can choose to join us...” Andrew looked at Maya. “Although I’m not lacking in illusionists now, your potential will allow you to have a place with the Lord...”

“Tsk...” Maya laughed. “That won’t do. Teacher’s ship is too dark...”

“Is that so?” Andrew slowly stood up and looked at the purple mirror behind Maya. “Phase Mirror, aren’t you afraid that you won’t be able to send it over?”

Maya said, “I believe in teacher. Even if we are allies, we won’t let the other party infiltrate our own territory...”

Andrew smiled. “You are really the smartest student I have ever taught...”

The phase mirror could perform phase shift within any range of vision. It could ignore space and was a top-notch spatial artifact. It was extremely effective when paired with the eye of the blood demon.

But in the Emerald Dream, the Yimo had already seen it once, so theoretically, it could not be used again.

But if it was out of the range of the YIMO, then this problem would not exist.

So, it was planned from the beginning. He knew that he would not completely trust the YIMO, and would not let the Yimo touch his death star. So, he hid the eye of blood demon on this group of inconspicuous little guys first... ..

“As for the eye of the blood demon... so... That guy, Anya, is still alive, right?” Andrew sneered.

Sure enough, he had felt that... .. The opponent had lost too smoothly... ..

As soon as he said this, a sigh came from the phase mirror. A white spirit slowly walked out. It was Anya.

Anya looked at Andrew helplessly. “So, the most troublesome thing is to meet an opponent like you. It seems that I can’t hide anything from you...”

“The art of heavy spirits?” Andrew nodded. “And then? It can’t be that the YIMO followed you here, right?”

“Of course not...” Anya smiled. “If it comes, who will restrain your companion? It took a lot of effort to lure it away, okay?”

“Is that so?” Andrew tilted his head, he said coldly, “But what can you do if it’s just the two of you? Not to mention that you don’t have a body, and you only have less than one-tenth of your energy left, what can you do even if you have a body? Oh... Right, you have a companion from the fairy race, the Jade Sword Immortal, right “? Don’t you want to call her out?”

“This...” an ya smiled embarrassedly, “She’s not sure, so she didn’t dare to come...”

Andrew narrowed his eyes, “Oh?”

“So...” Anya’s figure flashed and instantly appeared behind Li Goudan. “We plan to use Plan B!”

As she said that, she put her hands on the dumbfounded Li Goudan’s shoulders, and a steady stream of pure energy flowed into Li Goudan’s body... ..

“I see...” Andrew straightened his body, and a hint of seriousness finally appeared in his eyes...

Chapter 1323: Your Luck is bad... ..

“Interesting...”

The yimo that occupied Ysera’s body arrived at the location of the teleportation link at its fastest speed. In order to ensure that nothing unexpected happened, it even chose to fly cautiously instead of directly using the teleportation channel... ..

However, it did not see any traps along the way. Even when it saw its opponent, it did not see any pre-set preparations... ..

The other party was very brazen, as if it was afraid that it did not know where they were. The blue fiber controlled the vast star field, like a net, waiting for it to go over... ..

This shape did not scare it. It even felt that the other party was bluffing... ..

Because of its perception, it only saw two people...

One was the female Titan, Ionelle, and the other was the Fairy Race’s Jade Sword Immortal... ..

This made it very confused...

This jade sword immortal was indeed a character worthy of vigilance. The exquisite sword skill that it had previously displayed had the ability to harm the Dragon King's body. However, in its mind, the other party's main combat strength should not be used against it. Instead, it should be used against Andrew...

It was not stupid. Naturally, it knew that the reason it had brazenly lured it over was to delay it so that it could deal with Andrew and liberate the seer...

It was precisely because of this that the most powerful character should not be here... ..

"Oh? Coming!" Lulu put down the wine flask and slowly stood up. She muttered to herself, "You better take it easy. I Can't make a single mistake in this situation..."

"It's alright... so long-winded..." the AI replied... ..

But the reply came from Lulu's mouth...

The Fairy Tulip's eyes had turned icy blue, it was obvious that it was possessed by the Yimo... ..

The dragon was silent, the look in its eyes became more and more confused...

Not only was Lonelle here, the Yimo and Jade Sword Immortal were also here. This should be the strongest combination on the other side, used to stall it... .. Then what would they use to deal with Andrew?

It did not make wild guesses, but directly asked... ..

Faced with the dragon's straightforward question, Ai did not keep it in suspense, but answered with a smile, "It seems that senior did not pay attention to the details, have you forgotten? There are five Sea of life levels in this incident! !"

The Dragon:"! !"

Andrew's grave expression was not a disguise, but a genuine one... . .

At that time, the death portal opened in the New World, which attracted a lot of undead bosses in the death world. Andrew was most afraid of two people, one was Anya, and the other was the guy on Li Goudan... . .

In a way, the fear of her is not lower than Anya, or even higher... ..

The reason why she had not targeted him was that she did not seem to have any intention of interfering in the whole matter. From the moment she possessed Goudan, she had fallen into a deep sleep... ..

Anya's pure energy was injected very quickly, giving Andrew almost no chance to stop her. In an instant, a powerful and heavy aura appeared on Goudan Li's body...

It was the symbol of the awakening of a powerful spirit body...

Wayne looked at Goudan with a stunned expression, while the principal's face revealed a pleasantly surprised expression!

He remembered that he had used the spatial barrier to test before. Among all the participants, there were five life sea level!

Other than the Dragon King Ysera, the Titan Female Knight Ionelle, as well as the two undead, Anya and Andrew, there should be another one...

He had almost forgotten that there was an unfathomable existence on Li Goudan's body!

As the spirit body in Goudan's body woke up, everyone felt the coldness of the world of death quickly fade away, and a bright feeling lit up their surroundings. Although the range was not very large, when they got close to Li Goudan... They felt a rare breath of life... ..

When Goudan Li opened his eyes again, although he had not changed, his aura had changed drastically. Just by standing there, everyone felt that there was a natural chasm that forcefully isolated Andrew's power from the outside. An inexplicable sense of relief surged into their hearts... ..

"I really didn't bet on the wrong person..."

Maya stepped back slightly, and a complicated look appeared on her face...

This foreshadowing on Eggface was arranged by Anya a long time ago. In order to test its strength, she even deliberately tested it, but she almost lost her life in the end... ..

Speaking of talent, Maya never felt that she was weaker than the direct descendants of the big families, but compared to this one, she really felt a little ashamed of herself...

This was the youngest life-sea level elf in history. He had a growth ring that was about the same age as her, but he was already at the level that could compete with top-tier bosses!

"It's really exciting..." Goudan Li did not look at Andrew at the first moment. Instead, he looked at Anya and Maya and asked curiously, "When did you start the plan?"

"From the beginning..."

Anya, who was injected with energy, was now extremely weak. She did not waste time and explained directly, "It started when we suspected that there was someone behind Andrew..."

Hearing that, Li Goudan nodded. "So I was deliberately led into that Death Realm Passage?"

Anya: "Yes..."

The person in Li Goudan's body had a high status in the death realm. It should be said that her status in the immortal realm was not low. The Immortal of the immortal realm loved this extraordinary elf very much, even though she came to the immortal realm much later than Anya, however, she was able to take on the responsibilities of the court in the immortal realm and be in charge of the enchantment in the immortal realm!

It was not a coincidence that she came to the passage that Andrew had opened. Anya had lured her there step by step through a meticulous plan. She knew the regret in this Elf's heart. She was unwilling to give up her memories and reincarnate.

"But how can you be sure that I will come out of the realm of Death?" Li Goudan asked curiously.

Although she was not highly qualified, she held a high position in the immortal world. If she did not have a good opportunity, she would not give up the favor of the Lord in the immortal world and secretly run out... ..

Therefore, in the passage that Andrew opened, she had been quietly setting up her stall and had little contact with the outside world. She had also been hesitating...

Until she met Goudan Li...

Could it be that meeting Goudan was also arranged by them?

In the face of the other party's doubts, Anya shook her head. "That's not it. These talented children were outside of the plan at the beginning. I'm actually not sure if I can lure you out. I just prepared a move..."

"Prepared a move?" Goudan Li smiled and said, "Then it seems that your situation is not good. Now, you actually put all your hopes on me as a backup option..."

"I'm ashamed..." Anya smiled weakly... ..

"Don't be ashamed..." Li Goudan's face showed a hint of arrogance as he said indifferently, "You made the right choice! !"

After saying this, Li Goudan looked at Andrew as if he had just noticed his enemy...

Andrew immediately fell silent...

The opponent's name is very big, but under the same level, the god should have absolute advantage, and I also have a life sea level Death Star, I... .. It's the dominant...

But what is this uneasiness?

At this time, Li Goudan slowly looked at Andrew, the arrogant expression on his face did not change at all, his tone was still cold, and there was a hint of ridicule, "On the contrary... Your Luck is very bad..."

Andrew:"..."

Chapter 1324: The Power of reincarnation!

"On the contrary, your luck is not very good..."

His indifferent tone seemed to say something extremely ordinary. At this time, the more indifferent it was, the more arrogant it seemed.

Andrew was an old lich who had experienced many years, but he was still amused by this tone and looked at the other side coldly.

"Is that so?"

The cold rhetorical question carried an endless aura!

The entire world followed Andrew's emotional oppression. The darkness of the world of death turned invisible and instantly compressed the aura around eggface to the extreme.

In almost an instant, everyone felt as if they were drifting in the wind and rain... ..

"Eggface... can you do it?"

Standing behind Goudan, the group of players felt as if they were in the middle of the ocean, in a safe cabin. However, there was a raging storm outside. Although they had yet to feel the power of the storm, from the looks of it., the storm seemed to be able to tear the ship apart at any time!

There were more than one players who felt this way. Pu Yunchuan's careful questioning instantly caused the entire scene to fall into a strange silence... ..

Everyone held their breaths and looked at Li Goudan...

After all, she had been acting so arrogantly just now, so there must be something...

However, Li Goudan staggered back a few steps as if he couldn't stand properly. Vienne and Lanaya, who had sharp eyes, immediately stepped forward to support him. The moment their hands touched Li Goudan, their hearts sank... ..

Goudan's body was cold, and a large amount of sweat broke out on his back. According to their years of experience, this guy's situation was a basic physiological reaction caused by his spiritual power being at a disadvantage...

However, he had only tested him a little... ..

When the principal saw this scene, his heart sank to the bottom of the valley... ..

However, he felt that it was true. No matter how powerful this guy who possessed Li Goudan was, he was still just an undead. The requirement for an undead to display their strength was very high. How could a low-level wind demon like Li Goudan meet the requirements?

Andrew was able to suppress everyone because the Death Star Domain had provided him with a condition similar to an undead. Moreover, under the god domain, this condition would not be shared with an YA, who was also an undead, and that guy on Goudan... ..

"I don't know where you get your confidence from?" Andrew looked at the other party coldly. "Did the external evaluation of you cause you to have an illusion? The youngest elder of the elven parliament, the youngest Grand Court Division of Xianye, a genius secret treasure master that did not appear once in billions of eras. These halos have blurred your own eyes, right? But have you forgotten? "You're Not a God?"

Hearing this, the principal was stunned and a little dazed...

Only then did he realize that the guy in Li Goudan's body seemed to be... .. Indeed not a god... ..

Oh My God!

What are they doing?

Vivian and Lanaya also frowned. At first, when they saw Anya injecting energy into Goudan's body, they thought it was a trump card to reverse the situation, but now it seemed that it wasn't the case at all.

Even the people of the federation who did not have any common sense knew one thing — gods... "... !"! They were invincible when they were at the same level!

Everyone felt that there was no hope in front of them anymore...

This feeling became more and more obvious as the darkness outside descended!

The black color in the sky slowly flowed like ink. The precipitated black color dyed the gray-white space. A thick darkness quickly covered the surroundings, completely enveloping everyone...

The darkness that was as dark as ink was incomparably deep, making the dim light of Doggie and the others look even more fragile... ..

Just like the candlelight in the dark night, it could be extinguished at any time... ..

Everyone subconsciously leaned against Doggie, but their hearts were growing more and more guilty... ..

"Hey? This is your plan?" Lanaya could not help but glare at Maya.

Maya shrugged. "There's no other way. The final treasure is already on the line, so this is the only way. Don't panic, didn't they say so? This is the best choice..."

Lanaya:" ..."

This guy, could he be from the opposite side?

Eggface's face was pale as he slowly raised his head. It was obvious that he was pressured by Andrew's powerful mental strength. This made the principal and the others feel even more guilty... ..

However, Andrew was very cautious and did not directly make a move... ..

Although he was mocking the opposite party, the caution in his heart did not decrease at all...

Indeed, gods of the same level were invincible, but there was one class that could only turn the tables, and that was the secret treasure master.

There was a popular saying in the universe, you never knew what kind of strange thing the secret treasure master would take out from his pocket to turn the tide of the battle...

This saying was applicable to almost any battle...

A treasure master... .. was indeed such an existence. ...

He didn't think that Anya was crazy enough to inject the last bit of energy into a guy who had no chance of winning. Even though the other party seemed so fragile at the moment, he didn't act hastily, because he knew that... Many treasure masters had secret treasures that were triggered, and the more anxious they were, the easier it would be for the other party to set them up... ..

They couldn't be anxious, bit by bit... .. to reveal the other party's trump card. ...

“I was careless...” Li Goudan seemed to have recovered after a long time, and he said weakly, “You secret academy liches really don’t care about martial virtue, you don’t even greet each other when you fight...”

Andrew: “...”

“I almost capsized...” Li Goudan smiled, “But it’s a pity for you, you lost your last chance...”

As soon as he finished speaking, the white light under his feet suddenly twisted and spun. Andrew was stunned and carefully observed the other party’s situation, but then he found a very strange point...

The other party’s white light had the power of shadows...

But that was normal. The other party was also an undead, so it was normal for him to have the power of Shadows, but...? ... that white light should be a type of life energy, right? Wouldn’t it repel the shadow power if it was mixed into it?

Wait a minute! !

Suddenly... “...”. Andrew’s expression changed instantly. “Could it be?”

As soon as he finished speaking, the spinning white light under the other party’s feet began to expand. It was like a whirlpool in the water, twisting Andrew’s shadow power and starting to rotate!

However, the strange thing was that the total amount had never changed!

The total amount was the total amount of black and white. The power rotating under Li Goudan’s feet represented the white of life and the shadow of death. However, after the whirlpool expanded and sucked in the energy of the death realm in his domain..., it was still the same!

The total amount of black that represented the power of death had never changed, but the overall power of the whirlpool was expanding rapidly. It was devouring the energy on Andrew’s Death Star at an exaggerated speed!

“This is... the power of reincarnation?” Andrew became extremely ugly, and he kept retreating to avoid the range of the vortex.

“Oh? It seems that you know...” Li Goudan smiled and said, “Seeing your slow reaction just now, I thought you didn’t know? That’s not right. You used to be a lich of the secret academy, how could you not know the power of reincarnation?”

Andrew quickly retreated, his face extremely gloomy...

Of course he knew the power of reincarnation, it was a power unique to the immortal realm, a top-level law that could turn life and death. The Lich from the secret order had studied it for countless eras, they were all trying to figure out the secret of that power. But that power came from the law of the immortal realm, it was simply impossible to study it...

But... ... The question is, why does this power work?

Chapter 1325: Doomsday (Part 1)

Among the six immortals, the immortal from the immortal realm had the deepest connection with the material universe. No one knew how she mastered the first law that spanned two worlds, but this thing existed... ..

The endless shadow power was constantly being sucked into the bigger and bigger whirlpool under Li Goudan's feet, constantly changing!

Yes, it was changing. Andrew could clearly see that the power on his death star was being converted by this law into the basic power of the living world!

It couldn't be wrong... ! ... This was the unique law of reincarnation in the immortal realm!

"How could you?"

Andrew took a deep breath and looked at the other party with a face full of disbelief...

"Oh?" Li Goudan looked at the other party. "It seems that you don't know..."

Looking at each other's funny expressions, Andrew suddenly realized that he had missed something important...

By the way...

This guy is very popular in the immortal of the immortal of the immortal of the immortal of the immortal of the immortal of the immortal of the immortal of the immortal of the immortal?

Could it be...

An idea came to him, an idea that gave Andrew a chill he hadn't felt in a long time... ..

"It seems that you really don't know..." Li Goudan looked at him curiously, "It shouldn't be..."

"Rebirth state, one of the 24 court divisions, the new name of the departed soul: Weaving Blue!"

Andrew remembered that in the immortal land, the Court Division had more than a thousand people who were in charge of different enchantments. Some of them were in charge of the reincarnation of the family for the convenience of management, the Immortal gave the power of law to the 24 court divisions in charge of reincarnation realm!

The one in front of him was one of them!

"Oh? It seems like you know it too..." Li Goudan frowned and looked at him. "Are You Old? Why do you look like you just remembered it?"

Andrew stood there in a daze with a puzzled look on his face... ..

Yes, why did he only remember such a fatal piece of information?

Something was wrong...

Suddenly, Andrew looked at Anya...

He suddenly understood. It wasn't that he didn't notice this, but he forgot...

He forgot that the guy who possessed Li Goudan was the key information of the Reincarnation Realm Court Division! !

Otherwise, he wouldn't have been completely unprepared...

And the only person who could achieve this effect was the fairy race who had once approached him!

Damn it! !

How could he forget that the most powerful ability of the fairy race was not the inheritance of the Jade Sword Immortal, nor was it their ability to predict, but their ability to change the memory of living creatures! !

"When did you do it?" Andrew looked at an YA unwillingly... ..

Anya smiled, "At the beginning, of course..."

This was not the first time Andrew heard this word, but it made him feel extremely aggrieved, "You've been waiting until now?"

"Of course not... .." Anya smiled, "But since I wanted to arrange for her to come here, I naturally couldn't let you be completely prepared. Of course, I had to delete your information and memory about her. I just didn't expect that the preparation at the last moment would play a crucial role..." "..."

Wayne and the others were dumbstruck when they heard that. It took a long time for them to turn around after the principal secretly explained to them through voice transmission... "...".

It turned out that the preparations had been made from the beginning. When that guy on Li Goudan stepped into Andrew's passage, an YA had deleted some of Andrew's memories, making him ignore the identity information of the other party's Court Division!

"But... isn't the fairy tribe unable to tamper with the memories of the Gods?" Wayne was stunned.

"It's not that they can't... .. It's that it's easy to be noticed..." The principal explained, "The memories of the gods are very complicated. All the technological achievements and arcane structures in the forces can be fused into the memories of the gods, and the memories of these technological structures often come from the people in the forces. After all, the forces of the gods are huge, and everyone in the forces is a part of the forces, and they are all made up of the forces of the laws of the gods. If the fairy tribe changes these memories, it's very easy to make the laws of the gods become missing, and then he will be able to react . . ."

"The law is the number one power among all powers. When the deity realizes that the law is missing, the power of the law will immediately feed back to the deity, allowing the deity to regain control of the missing memories and instantly realize that his memories have been tampered with. This is the reason why the deity is not afraid of the fairy tribe, but... ."

The principal paused, then lowered his voice. "If we can make sure that the altered memories don't involve the laws of the gods, then it won't matter..."

With that said, Wayne suddenly came to a realization...

This was very easy to understand. The memories of the gods were huge. If they were to design any change in the faction, they would receive feedback from the laws. For example, if someone told seer to forget about the cabbages... Seer would forget many things that the cabbages had developed together. This would cause the laws to be lost, and it would also cause seer to react in an instant... ..

Another example would be to make him forget about immortal wine panda. However, the panda and seer had a large number of transactions, which involved the increment of power within the faction. Incomplete information would also cause the laws to be lost and seer would be able to react.

However, if he were to forget someone who had little to do with his faction and did not have much contact with them, and this memory did not involve laws, then the problem would not be too big. For example, making seer forget Burton...

It was the same logic. The person on Eggface did not have any contact with Andrew. All the information was only told to him by others. If this kind of information was tampered with, it would not affect Andrew's own memory of constructing the law. He would naturally not be able to notice it... ..

After figuring out the ins and outs, Wayne and Lanaya instantly felt a chill. These guys were scheming step by step. It was to the point of perversion. In the past, they thought that this kind of conspiracy was not related to the big picture, but now it seemed... .. Maybe it was because they were too young... ..

"But this... isn't the death zone! !" Andrew stared at Li Goudan, his eyes filled with the last bit of struggle... ..

It could be said that he was lucky. The power of reincarnation used by the other party came from the law of the undying in the death zone, but this was the material universe, and there was an emerald dream realm between them. To borrow the power of the law of the death zone here... It should be very difficult... ..

It was possible that he didn't have the power to reincarnate the entire Death Star!

After all, his Death Star was a sea of life level alchemy object!

"Is that so?" Li Goudan looked at him and shook his head in amusement, "Then I might have to disappoint you..."

As he said that, a crystal blue crystal slowly floated up. As the blue crystal floated up, the power of the vortex under Li Goudan's feet increased and almost instantly expanded to the entire ground!

The entire Death Star visibly changed. The grayish-white hue actually began to have color. A wave of vitality that did not belong to it was slowly rising!

"Enchantment Stone?" Andrew stared at the crystal, his face showing an expression that was close to despair. "How could you bring this with you? It should not be allowed in the immortal realm, right?"

Li Goudan was even more amused, "I came out of your tunnel on the spur of the moment. Could it be that I would return the boundary stone first under that kind of situation?"

As soon as he said that, Andrew completely lost all thoughts. He gave up on the thought that the boundary stone might be fake and turned into a puff of black smoke as he quickly fled the planet!

He did not dare to stop. His ability to suppress everyone was because this Death Star allowed him to unleash the power of the Tianyuan level. However, if... ! ... This Death Star was turned into a normal planet, then he would be an undead without a body. Not to mention the other party taking action personally, even the junior assassin beside him could kill him!

However, it was a pity that he realized this. Wayne and Lanaya's reactions were not slow either. Almost instantly, they turned into two black shadows and followed closely behind him!

Chapter 1326: End Of The Road (Part Two)

Andrew retreated very quickly. Vaughn and Lanaya also chased very quickly, but they still maintained a distance... ..

The entire planet became bright under Li Goudan's law of reincarnation. From a Death Star, it miraculously began to be filled with vitality. It was not as exaggerated as saying that this vitality was the revival of all things and the growth of vegetation, the overall structure did not change much, but a life force that was different from the Death Star was spreading across the planet.

While Vaughn and Lanaya were chasing Andrew, they carefully hid their figures in the life force and avoided the inexplicable gray color beside Andrew from a distance...

Andrew, who was fleeing in front, saw this and his face immediately darkened... ..

Previously, because of their size, he did not put these two outstanding children of the big families in his eyes. But now, the quality of the other party had become the last straw that crushed the camel!

As soon as Li Goudan's law was released, he knew that he had no chance. The Death Star was his biggest trump card. Without this thing, he was just an undead without a body, let alone a star-level powerhouse.., a life form above level 15 could pose a threat to him!

Therefore, he chose to retreat without hesitation...

And at this time, if he wanted to retreat safely, these two fellows, whom he did not care about before, had become the biggest obstacle!

An assassin and a Ranger were both experts in pursuit. Once he left this planet, they could instantly finish him off!

The only way was to find an opportunity to get rid of these two troubles while the Death Star Domain was still around!

But at this time, the opponent's cautious and excellent qualities became the biggest fatal point... ..

Both Vienne and Lanaya did not lose their minds because of the sudden opportunity to win. Although they knew at the first moment that this was the best time to get rid of Andrew, they still knew that the more this time, the calmer they had to be...

Therefore, although they immediately followed Andrew who was running away, they kept a relatively safe distance and waited for the opportunity!

Good professionalism made Andrew's heart go cold. As he looked at the sky that was getting closer and closer, a sense of powerlessness appeared in his heart for the first time!

He knew that when it flew out of the planet, it would be his death... ..

What should he do? What should he do?

Andrew's nerves tensed up as he crazily calculated. One plan after another combined with the remaining things on his body to form a temporary plan. Tens of thousands of plans were eliminated, and tens of thousands of plans emerged.

However, after a huge amount of calculations, he still could not find a stable method.

After all, in his situation, if the other party did not advance rashly, it would indeed be very difficult to have a chance... ..

Then it was time to leave the planet...

Andrew's heart sank. The most risky plan came to his mind. This plan required extremely high operating requirements. If he was not careful, he might lose it...

Thinking of this, he secretly wrapped himself in a layer of black fog. That was the standard walking tool of the undead.

In the Black Fog, a layer of pitch-black cloak quietly covered his entire body... ..

The Blood Duke...

If there was an expert secret treasure master here, he would definitely be able to recognize that the cloak Andrew was wearing was an extremely strange top-grade alchemical item, and it was also a forbidden item.

It was an alchemical item made by a necromancer using the skin of the Grand Duke of the blood clan. It was rumored that it was a terrifying item that could suck the life sea-level titan into dried meat. It was one of the forbidden items of darkness!

However, this item did not differentiate between friend and foe. Once it was activated, any living creature with strong lifeblood would be the target. Therefore, in history, some necromancers had possessed it... ..

However, according to historical records, the necromancers who had used it did not have a good ending... ..

Within the range of the blood duke, it was the priority to attack creatures with strong lifeblood. However, once there were no other living creatures, it would also attack the undead. It would even suck the spiritual power of the undead dry, causing it to die completely!

Its function was very powerful, but it would be very time-consuming to use it. However... .. most of the people who used this thing were necromancers, but their grasp of timing was far inferior to normal melee classes. ...

After Andrew obtained this thing, he never thought that he would use it one day... ..

But at this time, there was no room for criticism... ..

Taking a deep breath, Andrew accelerated and rushed out of the planet. The Blood Duke had been activated, so he had to hurry up and lure them over, or else... .. He would be the one who would be sucked dry into a human!

..

“Something’s wrong! !”

Vaughan and Lanaya, who were closely following Andrew, saw the other party accelerate, but they did not catch up immediately. Instead, they hesitated and stopped... ..

Because they knew that Andrew, who had left the planet, would be extremely weak. At this time, he actually chose to speed up his retreat. Was it because he didn’t want to die fast enough?

This was obviously impossible...

“What should we do?”

Lanaya looked at Vivian. It might be dangerous to chase after him at this time, but if they watched him escape, they would obviously miss the best opportunity to kill Andrew. This kind of opportunity didn’t come every time.

If that guy did not die, who knew what would happen next?

Vaughn frowned, raised his hand, and released a magic bolt!

The bolt brought with it a hurricane that distorted space and headed straight for Andrew. But something strange happened. The bolt passed through Andrew’s Black Fog, like the shadow of the Moon in the water. After shaking for a while, I Can’t believe it went right through... . .

And that Andrew is like the shadow of the Moon, after the fluctuations by the original... . .

“This...”

Lanaya and Winn’s faces darkened at the sight. It was obvious that the opponent had used some means to evade the long-range attack. It was not unusual for a high-level necromancer to have such means. However, if they could not detect the depth of the attack from a long-range attack and get close to it...

“The older the ginger, the spicier it is...”

In the distance, the principal could not help but sigh when he saw this scene. “He managed to escape just like that?”

“How is that possible?” Maya, who was at the side, suddenly laughed. “I have offended the teacher thoroughly this time. If he really ran away, I’m afraid that I won’t be able to sleep in the future...”

“Oh?”The principal heard this and looked at her. “Don’t tell me you have a backup plan?”

Maya didn’t answer. Instead, she looked at Rainmaiden Wugua. “Little girl, aren’t you going to take it out?”

Everyone:“! !”

Rainmaiden Wugua:“...”

The principal also looked at Guo Xiaoyun in shock. This situation had nothing to do with her?

Rainmaiden Wugua was stunned for a moment. Then, she looked straight at the other party. “How did you know?”

“I’ve been watching...”Maya smiled innocently. “Weren’t I with You When you were researching the array formation in the teacher’s Field?”

Rainless melon:“...”

Indeed, when she fell into Andrew’s hands back then, she was allowed to research Andrew’s array formation for no reason when she was in the hall of the Dead Souls. And this guy knew about it... ..

“What’s the situation?”The principal asked in a daze.

Everyone also looked at raingirl without melon curiously.

Raingirl without melon looked at Maya. “I’m just a kid, I’m just playing around. That Old Lich didn’t even care about it, but you do care about it...”

“You’re very special...”Maya looked at him with a smile. “So I paid more attention...”

“What did she study?”The principal asked curiously.

“The teacher’s space rune...”Maya answered with a smile.

“F * ck...”a few players were confused and said, “The boss is awesome...”

“Awesome my ass!”The principal rolled his eyes at the players who were making a fuss and looked at Maya again. “So What?”

Maya said, “Andrew thought highly of her and even gave her a space rune. There’s an alchemy creature with great potential in the rune...”

“So What?”The principal was still speechless.

Maya said, “That’s a space rune directly under Andrew. It has a connection with his own space domain. High-end developers can use this to crack the rune circuit and send some things to his space bag in reverse. As long as she activates this reverse teleportation, I can test out the last life-saving means of the teacher!”

“Huh?”The principal suddenly laughed. “You also said that she is a high-level developer. If this little girl grows up for another one or two eras and becomes a star-level developer, she might be able to do what you said. The current her, what does she have...”

Suddenly, the principal's smile froze on his face. He suddenly realized a problem... ..

"It seems that you have reacted?" Maya said with a smile, "Just now, in a certain period of time, wasn't she a star-level developer?"

The Principal:"..."

"Andrew probably wouldn't even dream about it..." Maya looked at Rainless melon, "His last chance of survival will be ruined by this little guy, right?"

Rainless melon:"..."

Chapter: Smart People

So... .. Was this the difference between a big shot and a mortal?

The group of players stared blankly...

After listening for a long time, they finally understood what was going on...

Not long ago, when seer had used the space-time law to allow everyone to temporarily become star-level powerhouses, Guo Xiaoyun... ! In other words, rain girl had taken advantage of the short three minutes to analyze the space runes that Andrew had given her in reverse!

So, what were we doing in those three minutes?

The players thought in confusion...

Pu Yunchuan wanted to punch the ground to see if he could break through the surface, while Gou Dan wanted to see if he could activate the breathing technique taught by Miss Vienne to see if he could run three laps around the planet...

Anyway, it was all very boring...

Almost none of them tried to do anything they could after the Lord said that they could not participate in the battle... ..

But rainy girl did it quietly... .. And accomplished such a great thing... ..

For a moment, all the players looked at Rainy Girl in a daze, wondering what was going on in her mind?

Guo Xiaoyun seemed to understand the thoughts of all the players. She took out the rune, she said lightly, "I just feel that Andrew's alliance with us is temporary. After that, it's very likely that they will still be enemies. In this kind of situation, if you can do something, do something. That's all... But You..."

Guo Xiaoyun looked at Maya very seriously. "Are you so sure that I will take advantage of those three minutes to do this kind of thing?"

"I'm sure..." Maya moved closer to Guo Xiaoyun and smiled. "I've only been in contact with you for a few days at my teacher's place, but I'm sure that you and I... are the same kind of people!"

Guo Xiaoyun:"..."

“Give it to me...” Maya smiled and reached out her hand.

However, Guo Xiaoyun stepped back slightly and looked at Xi Ye. “Why hasn’t the Lord recovered yet?”

As soon as she said that, the entire situation became tense... ..

Isabelle frowned and became vigilant. The surrounding players felt that the atmosphere was not right, so they stood silently behind Guo Xiaoyun... ..

“You have to ask your compatriots...” Maya smiled and said, “After all, I’m not the one taking over this place now...”

As soon as she said that, everyone turned to look at Goudan Li..

Goudan, who was controlling the law of reincarnation, had a cold expression on his face...

To be honest, if it was possible, she didn’t want to let Goudan Li bind this little lord. She even planned to return to the Elven council and inform the elders to take over this planet... ..

But now, she didn’t think so...

The guy behind this little lord might not be someone the Elven Council could afford to provoke... ..

And... .. If they were to pay attention here, the elven council would not only face the people behind seer, but also the people behind Andrew. The implications were too great...

Sighing, Li Goudan looked at Guo Xiaoyun. “Give her the rune. In the end, this matter will still have to be settled by your Lord... We won’t do anything to him...”

“Eh?” Guo Xiaoyun was stunned. In the end?

Could it be that there was something else?

Right, that giant dragon?

After hesitating for a few seconds, Guo Xiaoyun finally handed over the rune.

She didn’t know whether what the other party said was true or not, but there was nothing she could do. The spatial rune in her hand had already been analyzed. With the other party’s speed, she could definitely snatch it before she destroyed it.

In other words, asking her to take the initiative to hand it over was giving her face. If she really wanted to snatch it, there was nothing she could do...

Or... she was too weak...

Rainmaiden wugua bit her lip and slowly handed the rune over...

“Don’t be depressed...” Maya seemed to see Guo Xiaoyun’s unwillingness, and there was a rare hint of comfort in her voice. “Everyone has moments like this. If you want to have fewer things like this in the future, then work hard to become stronger...”

Guo Xiaoyun’s drooping eyelashes slightly trembled, and he said indifferently, “You’re right...”

It was really unpleasant to meet such a powerful and smart person. It was as if he had been stripped naked... ..

“Okay...” Maya smiled as she held the rune and tilted her head. “Finally, it’s the last time, teacher...”

As soon as she finished speaking, a huge scarlet refining array suddenly appeared in the sky. Maya grabbed it with her hand and directly threw the array into the rune!

Seeing this scene, Li Goudan had a strange expression on his face. In the end, he said, “You’re really something else...”

The principal at the side also shook his head with a bitter smile.

This fellow, Maya, came from an Assassin’s family, but she had walked the path of a mage. She had retained the strength of an assassin, and at the same time, she was able to become a top-notch illusionist. This was already very inconceivable. Who would have thought that.., this guy was actually a top-notch summoner!

That matrix just now, I didn’t see wrongly, it should belong to one of the twelve palaces of the Scarlet Moon, right? To be able to grasp the summoning secret skill there, he could even become a summoning professor in a top-notch university!

He really had the talent to be willful...

“This is?”

At this time, Andrew’s expression suddenly changed while he was in outer space!

Originally, his situation was not completely hopeless. Although he had activated the blood Duke’s last stand, Vivian and Vaughn seemed to have cautiously moved away, giving him enough space to retreat. When the Blood Duke was activated... As long as he moved away, it was not impossible for him to escape... ..

But he had clearly not used the space-type law. Why was there a fluctuation in his space-type law?

In the next second, a scarlet light came out from the space bag, and then a distorted space-time power appeared on Andrew’s body. In an instant, Andrew understood that he had been locked on to the space and was transported backward!

How could it be?

Andrew’s face changed greatly. The structure of his space bag was newly built, and it had not been leaked at all. Even Queen XI who controlled his contract should not have his own space coordinates... ..

Wait...

Suddenly, Andrew thought of something...

That’s right... .. His own dimensional rune seemed to have been leaked... ..

To that little guy...

Could it have been snatched away by someone?

That's not right. He was directly bound to the little guy at that time. If someone had snatched it away, he should have been able to sense it. He would not have fallen into a passive state like this. The only possibility was.., the Little Guy had analyzed the space rune and locked onto him!

But that shouldn't be...

Could it be...

As a Top-notch Lich, Andrew was also a man of many schemes. The next moment, his brain frantically memorized the three minutes of Seer's space-time law... ..

"It can't be..."

Thinking that the little guy had done such a thing in just three minutes, Andrew couldn't help but smile bitterly...

There was no time for him to think about it carefully. The Scarlet Light expanded greatly. In an instant, countless blood-red tentacles burst out from the distorted space. Powerful Qi and blood surged. In just a few seconds, countless tentacles extended out, they were actually about the size of a planet!

And judging from the degree of distortion in the space, only half of the body seemed to have come out!

Such a powerful creature instantly activated the blood duke on Andrew's body. A shrill scream rang out. Hearing this voice, Andrew felt his scalp go numb!

Chapter 1328: The Big Boss behind the scenes (Part One)

"What... Is This?"

Vivian and Lanaya looked ahead in shock. They had thought of many things, but they had never expected such a strange situation.

Countless blood-red tentacles suddenly rushed out of Andrew's body. It was obviously a powerful scarlet-type summoned creature. This was nothing, as a top-tier lich.., at this time, it was normal for the other party to leave a summoned creature behind.

The key was that what happened later was a little strange...

Before the summoned creature could do anything, a black cloak suddenly wrapped around the incomparably huge tentacles. It was like a living human skin that was tightly attached and rapidly expanded. In just a few breaths'time.., the thing that looked like human skin became as big as a tentacle. An incomparably shrill scream broke through the vacuum domain of the emerald universe, and it made one's hair stand on end!

Obviously...

That enormous black skin should be some kind of dangerous alchemy item... ..

“Blood Duke! !”The experienced and knowledgeable Vaughn instantly recognized that thing, and her face immediately revealed a lingering fear!

Fortunately, the two of them were cautious at that time and didn’t get close. Otherwise, if their lifeblood was locked by that thing, even with her skills, she wasn’t sure if she could hold it off!

After all, once this thing targeted a creature, it wouldn’t stop until one of them died. It was rumored that it had the ability to travel through space!

Thinking of being wrapped by that thing and having her flesh and blood devoured, Vaughn couldn’t help but suck in a breath of cold air... ..

“How insidious...”Lanaya also sucked in a breath, but then she said, “Then, it seems that the one who summoned the creature should not be Andrew himself!”

Vivian nodded. Andrew was not stupid. The Blood Duke was famous for being a dangerous contraband. Summoning a creature within its range was as stupid as lighting a fire in the gunpowder storeroom. Such a stupid thing., andrew would not do it!

Sure enough, with a twist of space, Andrew staggered hundreds of thousands of feet out of the starry sky. It was obvious that he had used phase shift to fly out at the last minute... ..

And in order not to attract the blood duke’s attention, he even took off the layer of black fog... ..

A pale body appeared naked under the starry sky. Vivian and Lanaya stared at him in a sorry state.

At this moment, he looked no different from a little lamb... ..

The distance between the two sides did not seem close, but Andrew knew in an instant that he had no chance to escape... ..

A star-level agile lifeform. At this distance, he did not even need half a breath... ..

It was really... self-inflicted...

Andrew could not help but laugh at himself.

“Self-inflicted?”

A faint female voice soon appeared not far from Andrew. Andrew looked over and it was Lanaya. Just as he thought, in less than half a breath’s time, the other party had already crossed this distance, she quietly appeared behind him.

If it was not for the fact that she was still in the probing stage, the other party could have killed him just now... ..

In the distance, Vaughn was holding a huge crossbow and staring at him attentively. Apparently, she was ready to support him at any time... ..

He... had no chance...

Andrew closed his eyes with a pale face...

"It's nothing, I just sighed..." Andrew said with a bitter smile, "Sometimes life is destined to be good..."

Who would have thought that just because he thought highly of a junior, a casual little thing would end up being the key to his last life?

Actually, it was not the first time. Maya was also his student. It was also because of the other party's excellent talent that he took care of her a little more. In the end, she was targeted by the other party... .

It seems to me that a talented young man... .. It's poisonous... . .

"Huh?"

In the distance, Winn was suddenly startled and immediately sent a telepathic message: "Retreat!"

Winn reacted, Lanaya natural reaction is not slow, in terms of skill, she is even above Winn!

Quickly aware of the crisis, Lanaya figure ghostly retreat, the next second, a huge dragon claw fell from the sky, a moment before she was in the starry sky grab a smash!

Lanaya felt a lingering fear, but she was unusually calm as she caught the air shock formed by the huge force and retreated rapidly... ..

"Not bad..."

A faint voice sounded. Lanaya only felt something supporting her from behind. Her entire body stiffened, but when she heard the source of the voice, she instantly relaxed.

The person who was supporting her was Lulu of the fairy tribe, and beside her was the Majestic Titan Knight in Golden Armor: Ionale!

"There's actually such an outstanding person among the younger generation of the Templar family. It's really enviable..." Lulu held Lanaya with one hand and took another mouthful of wine with the other hand.

"Thank you, senior..." Vaughn, who had rushed over from afar, said to Lulu.

"Be serious..." Ionelle held her greatsword in her hand and stepped to the front. She looked at the dragon and said calmly, "It's not over yet!"

"Why isn't it over?" Lulu continued to drink as if she didn't care. "It's already very hard for me to hold on until now, okay? The rest is up to them..."

Ionelle frowned. Before she could say anything, a white light from the teleportation lit up. Soon, a few figures quickly emerged from the white light. They were Maya and the others...

And along with them was seer, who was holding onto her helmet!

Ionelle frowned even more when she saw this. "There's no need for that, right?"

Actually, according to her idea, it was best to let the Little Lord continue to be trapped in the law of time. Then, they could split up the heaven-defying people behind the little lord after the event... ..

She had already thought of how to split it up. She only wanted the little guy from the Titan system. The rest could belong to others. She could even give up everything in the Emerald Dream Realm!

However, if she were to let this little overlord escape, it would be very troublesome. With the power in his body, it would be impossible to trap him perfectly again...

"There's no other way..." Maya who came out shrugged. "I didn't want to, but... the guy behind teacher, we can't deal with him alone..."

"That guy behind teacher?" Ionelle was stunned. Was he talking about that Yimo? Right now, their group had a high chance of winning, right?

But before she could ask in detail, a terrifying pressure suddenly attacked!

In an instant, Ionelle felt as if she had returned to the Void Gate, the feeling she had when she faced that top-tier void King. That pressure, just its aura, made her, who was already at the star level at that time, unable to breathe.

And now, this feeling was exactly the same as before. However, she was no longer the same as before. Even if she faced the void King again, it shouldn't be like this. What was it?

"Is it here?"

Lulu put away the wine flask, and her expression became solemn for the first time as she looked across.

"Oh?" Li Goudan, who had followed her, also had a solemn expression. "Interesting. I didn't expect to see this big shot in my lifetime..."

At this moment, a huge vortex appeared behind Andrew and the Dragon. Outside the vortex, there was an endless aura of death. The grayish-white color was incompatible with the space of the Emerald Dream.

In the passage that was connected to the two, a strange ice directly froze the passage. A shadow slowly walked out from the passage!

Chapter 1329: the mastermind behind the scenes (Part Two)

The Universe Federation was an incomparably huge power group. Within this power group, there was a history of countless civilizations rising and falling. Every day, there would be an epic-level exciting story, but because it was too huge., therefore, unless it was too brilliant, there were very few people that the entire federation would remember for a long time.

However, few... .. did not mean that there were none. Arthas was one of them. ...

A madman who broke the boundary between life and death and almost reached the pinnacle of the federation, a legendary figure who relied on a handful of Frostmournes to almost kill a group of Sky Gods.

Although he was a negative character, an evil character recorded in history, history was like that. Only the best and the worst could be remembered... ..

And today, this person who was remembered by all the citizens of the federation was about to appear in front of them. Even Maya, who had always been calm, could not help but have her heart beat faster. She placed her trembling hands behind her back. She held her breath... ..

“It seems that there’s no mistake...” Anya’s voice was also trembling slightly. “This power that can freeze the passage between the worlds of life and death, there won’t be a second one in the entire universe. He... is really still alive! !”

When the principal heard that, he looked over. Even though he had never died before, from the vast gray-white shadow power on the other side, that side was clearly the rumored world of death... ..

And just as an YA had said, in this world... .. There was only one person who could freeze the passageway between the worlds of life and death. There wouldn’t be a second one... .. At least since ancient times... ..

At the thought of that person walking out of the passage, the principal felt his blood surge... ..

“Did you know that it would end up like this?”

“How is that possible?” Facing the principal’s question, Maya directly rolled her eyes. “If I had known earlier, I would have run away, alright? How could I not know what I am worth? Am I qualified to be in the skin of such a person?”

“Then now...”

“There’s no other way now...” Anya stared at the distorted passage in front of her. “We’ve already come this far. Whether we can succeed or not depends on whether the person behind the little lord is that tough!”

As soon as these words came out, the female Titan, Ionelle, who had initially raised the question, instantly understood why they were willing to let seer break free from the shackles of the law... ..

She understands Anya’s choices, and if it’s really that person, no one here has the right to resist, but... ..

Ionelle looked at the night with some trepidation. Even if the man behind the little lord was not simple, could he stand up to that guy?

After all... That’s a myth...

“You’re crazy...”

Andrew looked weakly at the dragon behind him and smiled bitterly. “Do you know the consequences?”

“At least it can’t be worse...” the dragon looked ahead. “You see, they’ve already made their choice. What can they do except summon that guy?”

Andrew was silent...

Up ahead, the little lord was still bound by the laws of time, but it was clear that the binding was slowly unraveling, and the seal hidden under the other's helmet was about to be activated... ..

And that power, he was very clear that even if he was at his peak, he would not be able to resist it... ..
He could not even protect himself...

He could feel this, and the fellow behind him could also... ..

"And we've already lost..."the giant dragon used its dragon claw to gently stroke the bone-deep wound on its chest...

It was left behind by that Jade Sword Immortal. His own race had used the space-time laws that they had forcibly seized to continuously recover the strength of the fairy race. A jade sword immortal who could strike at any time was very effective against it, and with Lonelle's restraint., it was unable to take down the other three basic laws for the time being.

As time passed, the struggle of Ysera's dragon soul became more and more obvious. After being accidentally struck by a sword, it knew that it was on the verge of collapse. In order not to completely lose control of the Emerald Dream realm... It could only use that rune... ..

That rune that could summon that Lord! !

Andrew took a deep breath, closed his eyes, and did not speak anymore... ..

If he could not completely control the emerald dream and had to rely on that guy to solve it, then his position in the whole matter was completely different. That Lord from Purgatory was a very realistic guy... ..

The runes were passive. Without their summoning, even that fellow wouldn't dare to appear so easily. It didn't even dare to let others know that it was still alive.

Because once the news spread, the Queen of the Northern Star Field would use all her strength to pursue him to the end. And this would be extremely fatal to the entire plan.

Therefore, theoretically speaking, if there were no accidents before, the emerald dream could be completely controlled by the two of them. The existence of the death realm wouldn't be able to hold them back.

Once they succeeded, their status would be a cooperative model...

This was the most ideal and the most beneficial model... ..

But if...

That guy took over this place, the nature would be completely different...

Thinking of this, Andrew could only smile bitterly...

He gave up the superior life in the life realm, the honor of the ten great liches, and even his own huge Lord's influence. Such an expensive price to hide in the death realm for so many years, meticulously planned, what he wanted was not a life where he was killed by others...

If he was simply killed by others, wouldn't Queen XI be more reliable than that guy?

But things had come to this point, and it was no longer something he could control... ..

"Looks like... things aren't going too well?"

A gentle voice that was like the spring breeze gradually became clearer as the figure in the passage slowly sounded... ..

The voice was gentle, but it gave people a bone-chilling chill. This chill was in the physical sense... ..

The entire space was quickly affected by the chill because of the arrival of this voice. Whether it was the elements, space, or time, they all began to slowly freeze in that second and rapidly spread out!

This unimaginable freezing power made Andrew and the YIMO's bodies freeze!

"It's not going too well indeed..."

The one who spoke was the Yimo that possessed a dragon. Its tone seemed a little lonely when facing that figure, but it was not low... ..

After all, it was once an existence that could stand on equal footing with a great lord. Although it was in the dark, the honor it once had allowed it to not be unable to even raise its head in front of this legendary figure... ..

"Is it because of him?" The blurry figure in the passageway asked curiously before turning his gaze towards the other side...

"More or less..." the YIMO replied weakly.

"Interesting... I don't think I've seen this power before. After I left, did the God of Heaven Alliance produce some Big Shot?"

As he said that, the blurry figure pointed at seer from afar.

Instantly, a terrifying chill surged crazily. In an instant, everything in the world was condensed by this power wherever it passed.

Seer, who had just escaped the shackles of the laws, did not have the time to figure out what had happened. In the face of this terrifying chill, she took off her helmet without hesitation!

Chapter 1330: Purgatory!

No one could describe what the collision of forces was like. They could only say that the scene they saw could not be described with any words. At that moment, everyone was like ants in a storm, watching the great power of Heaven and earth, they could not even dodge it.

Whether they could survive depended on luck...

As for why it was called Luck, it was because everyone present knew that in terms of individuals, they did not even have the qualifications to attract the attention of the masters of these two powers... ..

In an instant, everyone felt so powerless... ..

“So... It’s her...”

Among the crowd, only Lulu widened her eyes and saw the entire scene of the collision. As the peak of the fairy tribe’s combat strength, she was also once one of the top experts. Although her strength was no longer there., but the spirit is still much stronger than those around the junior.

She saw the whole collision from beginning to end.

But he was also deeply shocked by it...

The Man on the other side needless to say, everyone knows who that guy is, but the man behind this seer is another legend...

Both are ruthless, but they are not famous legends of the same era. Many people have wondered what would happen if these two guys collided in the same era.

Lulu never thought that one day she would see...

Purgatory:

As a banished place in the realm of death, this place has gathered the most ferocious evil spirits in the material universe since countless eras. The dead spirits that come here, no matter how strong or small, are all extremely evil people who have committed heinous crimes in each other’s worlds!

And in this place, is really the most typical of the law of the jungle, you do not kill others, others will kill you crazy place, all the dead here every day in the hunting or hunting environment numb life, . Or... They lived in excitement. ... Compared to other places in the world of death, life here was definitely much more exciting.

And this place was also divided into levels. The sealed immortals knew the nature of living creatures. Plundering was to make their lives better. Meaningless plundering was meaningless... ... So even though this place was filled with killing, it didn’t mean that the undead here didn’t have a good life ... On the contrary, powerful undead would have a very good life here!

When a newborn undead first entered this place, they would be well protected. You heard it right, it was protection. A newborn undead would be accurately evaluated by the guards that entered this place for their entire lives, they would be evaluated based on the level of the world they were in, their own abilities, and the events they had experienced. After that, they would be thrown into an area that was suitable for them, and that area would guarantee that they would definitely have a chance of killing their way out!

Not only that, when a newbie entered purgatory, they would be considerate enough to give you a month’s protection period. During the protection period, you would not be attacked, and you could carefully observe the surrounding environment to find a suitable start for yourself.

After the newbie period, you would receive a corresponding amount of points for every undead you killed. Points could be exchanged for many things here, such as weapons, inheritances, skills, or many other things to enjoy, for example, some spiritual stimulants made by liches.

And when your points reached a certain level, you could apply to change regions and go to a place with a relatively higher quality, there were stronger undead, better energy, more points, and more things that could be enjoyed!

Layer by layer, like a pyramid, was the current ecology of Purgatory!

At first, the other five great undyings treated everything here as a pastime for the sealed guy. However, when Arthas opened the passage, they realized that the other party was using this primitive method to raise Gu to raise an army!

Although the method was primitive, the effect was excellent. The undead that followed Arthas out back were all enemies of ten thousand people. There was almost no opponent at the same level, and the god Federation almost collapsed!

If not for the number one hitman in Purgatory, Sylvanas, withdrawing and rebelling, there might have been a chance that the material universe would have been overturned by that man... ..

And now, at the highest level, the legendary top level that only Queen XI could be at, eight powerful undead covered in black fog gathered together, silently waiting for something...

Suddenly, a ray of light lit up in this dark gray space, followed by a shocking sword intent!

The sword intent flashed and disappeared as if it was an illusion, but the power that seemed to be able to split this place into two did not dissipate for a long time. The center of the hall was clearly split into two pieces, and in the middle of the split, a purple corrosive power was constantly surging. In this dark and deathly silent space of the dead souls, it was exceptionally eye-catching... ..

“Oh?” The group of figures did not seem to have expected this scene. They, who were originally like statues, all let out a clicking sound of surprise... ..

Very soon, a tall and straight figure slowly walked out from within the white light. Step by step, he slowly walked into the interior of the hall. In the middle of the hall, he respectfully bowed towards the void. “Father...”

“It seems... not going well?”

In the air, an indistinct and deep voice came down, carrying a faint questioning tone... ..

“Yes...” the tall figure straightened his body slightly, half of his face was revealed under the cloak. Although only his chin was revealed, it made people feel that he was exceptionally beautiful. Almost anyone who saw that chin would not hesitate to confirm that the face under the cloak.., was definitely an incomparably beautiful face!

“HMM... Let’s return to our positions first...”

An ethereal voice sounded. The figure nodded slightly and very obediently retreated to the left side of the hall, standing side by side with the four black-robed figures on the left.

At this moment, if one looked carefully, they would discover that there was a thick rune on the top of his head where he was standing... ..

This was a rune that represented only a title. On it was written very clearly: First Prince Arthas!

Upon closer inspection, one would discover that every figure here would have a title above their head, but only the position opposite Alsace was empty...

Above that position was also a title that read: First Princess Sylvanas!

Yes, every undead in Purgatory knew what this title represented. In purgatory, when one was strong enough, one would eventually reach the top of the dark pyramid, and there would be ten powerhouses standing at the top.., they would be given the title of the son of the immortal, and they would also have the right to live forever!

Of course, these ten people were not fixed. As long as you were strong enough, you could challenge the people on the throne and become the new Immortal Son!

Many eras ago, Arthas was just a newcomer, but now, he was the head of the Prince!

“What’s stopping you?”

In the void, the voice began to ask after Arthas took his position... ..

“That power is very strange. It carries the energy of the void, but it also has the attributes of a god. If I’m not wrong, it should be the new third Lord: Cang Yue, who is called the god of War!”

“God of War? That name is arrogant enough. Its head must be very valuable to collect...”

The voice of the person who spoke was muffled and muffled. It was the third prince, Argus, who was standing below Arthas!

“There’s a high probability that your head will be cut off...”Arthas said with a faint smile. ...

“Is it very strong?”The voice in the void sounded again.

“Very strong...”arthas nodded...

“Is she as strong as my lovely princess?”

As soon as he said this, everyone looked at the empty seat opposite Arthas... ..

It was hard to imagine that such a seat was still empty!

“It’s hard to say. I Won’t know until I meet her... but I’m more concerned about another thing...”Arthas said faintly.

“Oh? My Son, did anything else catch your attention?”

“I saw a little guy who was even prettier than me...”

Everyone:” ...”
