

A Bunch 1351

Chapter 1351: the most capable city Lord song

Song Zaiyi always gave people the feeling that he was a pragmatist. All his choices were made in the most appropriate and efficient way, including the choice of race... ..

He was the only one among the six City lords who chose the developer's bloodline...

Everyone knew that developers were actually the most suitable to be managers. However, even though that was the case, very few people chose this bloodline when they chose their second life.

There were many reasons, but there were probably two main ones. One was that other than the increase in the computational ability of the brain, this bloodline did not have much improvement in other aspects. When it came to choosing a new life.., everyone preferred a genetic body with enhanced physical strength. wasn't the steady elder long also the last to choose Titan?

The second reason was that it was very difficult to upgrade this bloodline. The requirements for talent were very high!

Moreover, there was a huge difference in the performance of talented and untalented people in this bloodline. According to the investigation, the strongest developer who had joined Galaxy in the first batch, rain girl, had already evolved to level 6, while the least efficient one... There were even some who had no hope of upgrading to a level 1 lifeform... ..

This ratio was not small. According to the data provided by galaxy, among the 1,361 developers in the early stages, over 700 had advanced to level 2, while only over 130 had advanced to level 3, currently, only a few had advanced to level 4. These people were either the leaders in charge of the scientific field in the main base or the ACE researchers under the great Lord Players.

Among them, more than 400 were still stuck at level 1!

One had to know that these were all players from central China. They were known to have the highest acceptance rate among the special-class gene users!

How long had song Xinyi been here? One had to know that the first batch of players who had been here the longest had already been here for almost three years. Even if Song Yi had performed the surgery at the first moment, it had only been half a year, right?

Elizabeth put away her previous lazy attitude and narrowed her eyes slightly... ..

As a newbie who had rushed to level 3 in a short period of time, she was well aware of how difficult it was. She had created the Garden of Eden, which implied that it was paradise, but in reality, it was an Asura training ground, every day, she constantly stimulated her potential in that dangerous environment. She had lived and died countless times. In addition to her original Knight bloodline, she had reached level 3 half a year ago!

What did song care about?

Talent?

Elizabeth carefully observed the other party. The other party looked extremely tired, but his spiritual power was very stable. This was obviously not the performance of someone who had just reached level 3... ..

He... should have arrived earlier than her!

“City Lord song, you still have the image of a model worker as always...” elder long said jokingly, “Did you come early in the morning?”

“AH... Sorry to have embarrassed you, elder long...” song zaiyi clearly had a friendly attitude towards elder long, he smiled and said, “I originally wanted to come earlier to see if I could get to know the new manager of the main base better. I didn’t expect that I would be told that Lord Lei Xue was busy with other matters outside. If I had known earlier, I would have slept more. I wouldn’t have been in such a sorry state...”

“Haha...” the people around immediately laughed. While Elder Long was amused, a strange feeling arose in his heart. He had seen that girl from the Lei family since she was a child. Now, when Song zaiyi, a politician of the same level, addressed her as ‘Sir’, he really felt strange...

“It’s rumored that city Lord song did most of the work himself due to the small number of people in the management team. Now it seems that the rumors are indeed just rumors...”

Song zaiyi paused for a moment and looked at the voice. It was Elizabeth who said this... ..

“Why did city Lord Elizabeth say that?” Elder long asked with a frown.

“Elder Long, why do you have to pretend to be stupid...” Elizabeth smiled and said, “If you really spend a lot of time on government affairs as the rumor says, how could you be at your current level?”

“Elder Long is not playing dumb...”. Song Zaiyi directly interrupted Elizabeth’s words and said, “The developer is the only gene that can multitask. Meditating while doing government affairs does not delay. This is also the reason why I chose this gene. It seems that city Lord Elizabeth does not understand it, but next time, please understand the situation and define others. It is very impolite!”

Elizabeth:”...”

The other party seemed to be very unfriendly to her. That was not the main point. The main point was... “...”. Did the other party really surpass her in terms of cultivation while handling government affairs?

“City Lord song, you have to take care of your health...” elder long said with concern, “It’s very easy for you to tire yourself out by overdoing everything.”

“I want to relax a little...” song Zaiyi said with a wry smile, “There’s no one...”

Elder long smiled as if he understood what song Zaiyi meant...

He knew about song Zaiyi’s situation in the city. Because he had been framed by the politicians of his own country and was sent to prison, he was very uninterested in the politicians of his country who had already turned black-hearted, although many of the political bigwigs had volunteered to work in the third city, they were all rejected by him.

Currently, the third city's team was basically Song Zaiyi's old staff team. There were only 39 people. How could 39 people manage such a big city?

Perhaps some people would ask why they didn't promote city management civil servants from the players? Was the pay not high enough?

In fact, it was the exact opposite. The pay for city civil servants in the third city was very high. It was even higher than the first city, which had the best benefits for civil servants.

However, very few people responded...

The reason was simple. The people admitted to the third city were all civilian players with clean backgrounds. However, civilian players were not very interested in taking the path of the system, especially when there was a better choice.

If they went to the new territories, they could live the free and adventurous life that only movies had. They could also colonize the population, land, and be a territorial lord. This kind of life was probably the life of most men in the world... Oh, no, most people wanted to live!

Especially the numb workers who had been beaten up by Society for many years. They had even less thoughts about the so-called civil servants... ..

The other five big cities had corresponding countermeasures for this. The fifth city used the children of capitalists as civil servants. Since Mister had given so many benefits, the capital families naturally had to return the favor by sending the children of Elites to help manage the city, as for the fourth city's Elizabeth, there was no need to mention her. She already had the support of quite a number of nobles, and the city management team was all political elites that the nobles had raised from a young age.

The first city and the second city relied on the aristocratic families. Although Huaxia City resisted the aristocratic families, they had a large number of military children who were very dedicated, so they did not lack city management personnel.

Only in the third city, Song Zaiyi rejected the aristocratic families. He did not have the special conditions of Huaxia City, so he could only think of forcing ordinary players to serve for half a year to temporarily ease the pressure of management.

However, he did not dare to arrange many detailed matters for those temporary players who had not received any training. He could only do it himself, which made him the most capable among the city lords. According to what elder Long knew, Song Zaiyi only slept two hours a day... ..

The surrounding city lords frowned slightly as they watched the conversation between the two of them. It seemed that the relationship between the third city and Huaxia City wasn't as close as it seemed. There were probably a lot of contacts between them... ..

"Oh, is everyone here?"

While the city lords were thinking about it, a faint voice sounded. Everyone looked over. It was the new manager who had just arrived from the main base: Lei Xue... ..

“Hello, Elder Long, you look good...” Lei Xue greeted elder long first.

“Good, good, good... Don’t use words like ‘look good’ to describe me in the future. Am I Very Old?” Elder long replied with a smile. His heart relaxed slightly. After elder Li returned, he told him that Lei Xue might not be completely on their side like before, but now it seemed that she was at least willing to give them face on the surface...

The other city lords frowned deeply. For some reason, this alien civilization had handed over the management of the base to the Chinese twice. This was not a good thing...

“Elder Long is right...”. Lei Xue smiled and said, “Then, City Lords, please follow me to the meeting hall. This time, the New World has reopened a space zone at the same time. There are many things that will be involved during this period, and tomorrow is the press conference. We have to settle things today. Thank you for your hard work”

“No, no...”

The few city lords smiled politely. In their hearts, they were secretly curious. What was the situation with this so-called new Starfield. From the looks of it, the benefits were not small... ..

Chapter 1352: New Rules!

This was almost the third meeting of the city council...

The first was to plan the authority of the Five City Lords, and the second was to introduce the model of civilization... ..

Both meetings were supportive, but this was not done by the mysterious alien power. Instead, it was entrusted to a Huazhong... ..

This made the city lords feel uncomfortable. They did not expect the new manager to be a Huazhong. Now that they thought about it, all the employees in this so-called base seemed to be Huazhong, would this area be monopolized by the Huazhong people from now on?

If that was the case, there would be a lot of things to adjust the strategy in the future... ..

However, the most important thing now was not this, but the so-called new star field that the other party was talking about...

At this moment, in the middle of the conference hall, a huge illusory three-dimensional image stood in the middle. The image was filled with dazzling stars, making people feel relaxed and happy.

Lei Xue stood at the head of the conference room, controlling the star map, she explained, “This is the newly discovered star field of the Liege. It’s a land of treasures with a diameter of about 1.1 million light years and a thickness of about 90,000 light years. According to preliminary estimates, there are more than 900 billion stars, and there are countless planets. It’s extremely rich in resources. According to the current incomplete exploration, there are about 9,000 stars with a living environment in this star field. There are over a million stars with high-quality minerals, and there are also hundreds of thousands of stars that are suitable to be energy stars...” “...”

A piece of basic data appeared, causing the city lords to hold their breaths... ..

Having already familiarized themselves with the civilization model, they had a very clear understanding of this kind of volume of resources. How was this a land of treasures? It was clearly a land of dreams!

Those who had some common knowledge of celestial bodies knew how much chance it took for a life star to be born. Back then, they had used all means to probe the Milky Way, but the D Sphere Federation's Celestial Body Research Center had been established for a hundred years, not a single so-called life star had been found, yet there were actually more than 9,000 of them here?

Although they had long known that with these civilization models, they would definitely be able to go to the stars and conquer the Sea of stars, but they had not expected this day to come so quickly!

"This... how do we allocate them?"

After a long silence, song Zaiyi asked the question that everyone was most concerned about!

That's right. With such a huge amount of resources, everyone knew what it meant to occupy them. However, the key question was, who would it belong to. This was a very serious question... ..

"Those who are capable will be rewarded!" ! ! Lei Xue smiled as she looked at the city lords. "The new starfield will be open to all players. It will adopt the same model as the new world. Players can take risks on their own and occupy their own territories according to their abilities to develop their powers!"

"Is that so..." the city lords' eyes lit up, especially Mister's. His eyes flickered continuously. It was clear that he was scheming something.

Lei Xue saw the City Lords' gazes and sneered in her heart. However, she did not say anything as she waited for them to slowly digest this joy... ..

"Respected general agent..." . "...". "...". "..." mister smiled as he asked, "Then how will the benefits between the city lords' powers and the players be distributed? "After all, the outside world is so big. If many players are lucky enough to go out, they don't even need the support of the city. Does that mean that they can completely leave the city?"

"Of course not..." . "As I said before, the city's system is to better train players. The resources and size required by new players need to be led by old players. That is to say, the city is responsible for training players to grow past the initial stage. After players have made some achievements in the galaxy, they must give back to the city. This is reflected in three points. The first is the tax. Whether it is lord-tier players or individual players adventuring outside, they must truthfully repay their earnings and pay taxes. The money returned will allow the city to recruit better instructors, build a better environment, and train more new players. This is the original intention of the Galaxy faction when they created the city system!"

"The second is scientific research sharing. Things like civilization models need to be practiced. The role of cities is to observe what problems players will encounter when they use different civilization models to develop. The final development will be recorded in the cities. Cities will use players' examples to constantly optimize and upgrade, providing better templates for the latecomers so that the latecomers will take fewer detours. Of course, the latecomers will have to pay a certain price to use the improved models of their predecessors. This is the second win-win point."

“The third is the right to recruit. Under certain circumstances, for example, in the future, when the star Ocean faction discovers other civilizations outside, if there is a need for punitive expedition, the city can organize multiple player alliances to carry out a collective punitive expedition. Of course, the outcome of the punitive expedition will be discussed and distributed between the city and the players. This is the third win-win point...”. “...”

After saying this, the few city lords immediately nodded their heads repeatedly, especially Mistral. He was already fiddling with his fingers, and his eyes were flickering non-stop. Clearly, he was already thinking about how to use the rules to benefit his family...

Currently, the majority of the fifth city’s resources were in his and the few large clans’ hands. When the New World opened up, he would be able to restrict the normal players to the greatest extent, especially the players from central China, when that time came, he would let his clan take the initiative. When that time came, even if the next city lord was not him, he would be able to stand firm in the Sea of stars.

As for the next one to take the stage? Heh, he was most likely one of his allies. Before he took the stage, he put on a show and appeared to be determined to reform. When he became the city Lord, everything would go as usual and he would continue to monopolize the city. In just a few years, it would be very difficult for him to break through the ranks.

The former family was still a family in the Sea of stars!

Did these stupid people really think that they could soar to the sky just by changing the environment? There were only a few elites who could stand at the peak of the world. This was a principle that had never changed since ancient times!

“But...”

Just as the city lords were thinking about their plans, song Zaiyi suddenly said, “Although they are very big, there are still cases of them bumping into each other outside, right? If the players encounter a dispute outside, how do we solve it?”

As soon as he said this, everyone was stunned. Yes, they seemed to have forgotten about this because they were too excited just now.

However, it was not a big problem. With such a huge body, if they could distribute it in advance, the possibility of bumping into each other should not be high... ..

“How do we solve it?” Lei Xue looked at everyone calmly. “Didn’t I say just now that we should get resources based on Strength?”

Everyone: “...”

“Wait a minute...” elder long was the first to react and quickly said, “Based on our strength? Are we supporting the players’ Civil War?”

“Why not?” Lei Xue replied with a smile.

“This...” all the city lords stared at Lei Xue in a daze. After a long while, meister finally spoke up, “This isn’t appropriate, right?”

Lei Xue: "This is a rule set by the higher-ups. If City Lord Meister thinks that it's not appropriate, I can submit your objections. Of course, most of them will not be accepted. Moreover, I don't think there's anything inappropriate about it. All of you are the city lords, so you have the right to restrict the city players. You can make your own rules, such as not to kill each other during disputes. Of course..." "..." "..." Whether you listen or not will depend on your city lord's prestige... "..." "..."

City Lord's prestige?

The faces of the city lords twitched when they heard this, especially Mister's. His expression could be said to be quite interesting... ..

"That's not right..." song zai frowned and said, "Even if the city lords can restrain their citizens, they can only restrain their own citizens, right? What if the players from different cities meet?"

"This... of course it's..." Lei Xue looked at the crowd with a smile that was not a smile, "It depends on your ability!"

The City Lords:"!!!"

Chapter 1353: The Authority of Lei Xue!

Based on their own abilities?

The moment these words were spoken, the group of City Lords instantly lost their composure!

In an instant, the entire meeting room descended into an extremely oppressive atmosphere. The few City Lords looked at each other, and their minds were filled with thoughts. The implications of this new rule were truly incredible... ..

Allowing civil war seemed to be the intention of encouraging players to compete with each other between cities. If that was the case, it was likely that many strategies would have to be adjusted. This was especially so for Mister of the fifth city, as he felt extremely uncomfortable... ..

What kind of joke was this? Allowing a civil war? And allowing cities to compete with each other? Then why was he still playing ducks!

The reason why Mister Dared to burn bridges after crossing the river, allowing the white players to bully the players from other countries, to unscrupulously suppress the players from central China, and even brazenly blackmailing the resources of the fifth city to enrich the strength of the capitalist families... Was because the other players couldn't do anything to him... ..

Because the previous rules of galaxy clearly stated that no civil war was allowed between players... ..

And based on the previous players' exploration and conquest of the population in the New Territories, the people in the New Territories were all ancient civilizations with backward technology, and there was a dimensional gap between them and the civilizations in galaxy, when the players went there, it was simply equivalent to their ancestors stepping into the northern rice continent for the first time, and facing that Aborigine on the continent, they could completely crush the invasion.

Therefore, he had thought from the very beginning that while he was in the position of City Lord, he would crazily amass money, continuously squeeze resources and loans for himself and the cooperating families, and try his best to suppress the players in the city. When the descendants of these families had the advantage in the outside world, the moment the hierarchy was formed, the fifth city would become the monopoly of their capitalists... ..

However, all of this was under the premise that the city players had no resistance. If they did... .. Then the nature of the situation would be very different...

For example, the players from central China were currently being bullied in the fifth city. Once they left, they would definitely hate their families to the bone. When that time came, they would directly gather together to mess with them and even harass their family's development, what was there to play?

This was not even counting the competition from the other cities...

The other four cities would definitely not allow themselves to use the resources of their cities to expand. If they met them, they would most likely not get along well with them, especially the people from Huaxia City... ..

"Isn't... isn't this hindering development?" Mister's face was dark as he protested, "With so many resources and such a big star map, it's completely possible to achieve a win-win situation. Why do we need to use a confrontational method? What's the point of increasing internal friction?"

You F * cking know about a win-win situation now?

Elder Long, who knew what Mister had done in the city, sneered. In fact, the policy reform did not benefit him too much. As a result, the city had to give more preferential treatment to high lord ranked players. However, this was still alright.., for the time being, the balance between Huaxia City and the players was not bad. The government's reputation was not bad.

Although many of the planned plans had to be changed, it was not a big deal. As for Mister. Hehe, I'll see you on the battlefield. I've been unhappy with him for a long time... ..

Thinking back to the time when Mister was the president of North America, elder long suddenly felt a sense of anticipation...

"I'm sorry..." lei xue said calmly, "The resources are not enough for a win-win situation!"

"Ah?" The city lords were stunned. It must be fake. With the star map just now, it was more than enough to take all seven billion players from D BALL!

"I forgot to tell you the details just now..." Lei Xue said slowly, "Something happened in the new world, which caused the population to decrease greatly. Even in the overseas area, only a small number of people survived. Moreover, a large amount of land in that area has been infected, so there is not much space left for infrastructure development there "...". "..."

The City Lords:"..."

"But... didn't they discover a new galaxy?" Mister was stunned... "...".

“Oh...”. “...”. There was a threshold for that... “...”. “...” lei xue said calmly, “Most of the 9,000 or so life stars in the Jade Galaxy are high-level stars, and the lowest-level life stars are at least level 4. There are even level 15 and above life stars, which are not suitable for many players to go there to develop. We have already selected three life stars with the lowest level, but the minimum requirement for civilization level is level 4. If we want to develop alone, we have set the threshold at level 5...” . “...”

The City Lords:”...”

“Lord Lei Xue, you mean...” song zaiyi continued, “Before players reach level 5, they can’t enter the new galaxy, so they can only look for opportunities in the New World?”

“That’s what I mean...” Lei Xue looked at song Zaiyi, a strange light flashing in his eyes.

This guy called him ‘lord’ so easily, he didn’t even have time to react... ..

“If you have a population and forces, it is recommended that the civilization reach level 4, and your people’s life level should be at least level 2 and above. Otherwise, you won’t be able to adapt to gravity and elemental density...”

“Isn’t this policy a little too biased towards high-level players?” Mister frowned and said, “This way, the new players will be able to seize the resources first. Won’t the gap between the players be even greater?”

“City Lord Mister should be glad that the group of high-level players left first...” snow thunder looked at Mister with a faint smile. “If they all stayed in the New World, I’m afraid you won’t be able to sleep!”

Mister:”...”

What he said was true...

The first group of players were basically central China players. If Civil War was allowed, the things he did in the city would probably be targeted to death... ..

Once his family could not develop outside, the consequences would be very serious. When that time came, he would step down... ..

Mister broke out in cold sweat. There were some scenes that he did not even dare to imagine... ..

Lei Xue did not look at Mister’s unsightly expression, she continued, “In view of the expansion of the star map, I suggest that the city lords speed up the recruitment of the population. Our main base will also relax the loan limit so that you can have more funds to expand the city...”

Other than mister, the other city lords nodded repeatedly. Under the current situation, it was naturally necessary to expand the population. Even if the main base did not lend them money, they would grit their teeth and lend them some money to expand the city’s scale... ..

“Next, let’s discuss the new mission planning for the players in the New World and the passage mission for the Jade Star World...”. Lei Xue turned the star map and said, “It is very necessary for the players to go to the new world to gain experience after two levels. The authority for the New World Mission points has been given to me, and I have full authority to decide on the new mission points “... “..

This authority... is really big...

The eyelids of the few city lords twitched. The New World Mission formulation basically had a large amount of authority to decide on the points, and the rules on how to get points in the special zone were set. This authority was actually given to this little girl in front of them?

Elder Long also looked deeply at Lei Xue. What was the situation with that girl Xue. Not only was she not blamed for leaking the information, but her authority was actually getting higher and higher. She even had the authority to set up the mission... ..

This was equivalent to having the authority of the early stage players to earn money outside. It was a little exaggerated!

“Lord Lei Xue, how do you plan to arrange the new mission?” After a moment of silence, Song Zaiyi was the first to ask.

Chapter 1354: Causing Trouble (Part One)

“How does Lord Lei Xue Plan to arrange the mission?”

All the City Lords turned to look at Lei Xue, especially the Second City’s Abe Qingming and the fourth city’s Elizabeth, who were the most concerned.

According to what the other party had just said, there were basically no survivors in the new territories steel weapon continent, which meant that the previous grassland route and city route were completely meaningless... ..

This was quite a blow to the characteristics of their two cities... ..

The second city was the sacrificial civilization, and it was still a small-scale peasant economy. Most of the players learned from this model. According to the principle of sharing technology, it was best for the players to follow the direction of the city civilization.

However, the agricultural civilization that relied on strengthening elements in the early days of the elf civilization was more suitable for the grassland route. After all, they could simply find a piece of land with a population and rely on improving the land, but now that the grassland had no population... This was very awkward... ..

The general situation in the fourth city was the same. It was a civilization that was purely biological. Elizabeth’s initial plan for her people was to go to those mutated forests, but now... ..

Snow thunder: “The current situation in the new territories is mainly based on overseas missions. The players’ first priority is to explore the overseas pure lands. Look at the overseas areas that are not infected and the land of survivors. If they discover a new location and mark the coordinates, they will receive a lot of points. The specific points will be announced later.”

“The second one is the overseas population colonization. Currently, we can not rule out the possibility that there are still survivor countries in the new territories overseas. There might be more complete magical countries. It is very difficult for newbie players to directly conquer them, but if they can gain a foothold in the overseas countries, they will receive corresponding points and rewards. There are no restrictions on the ways to build a force. Conquering by force, establishing trade relations, directly infiltrating the upper echelons of the indigenous countries, or even developing religious beliefs can all be done. As long as they reach a certain scale, the base will give out corresponding rewards to the players. According to the scale, the reward funds will also fluctuate. I will announce the specific amount at the press conference later...". "..."

"But how do we get there?" Elizabeth frowned and asked, "According to the information from the New World, there is only one safe port, and it has been encircled as a territory by a high lord ranked player. The remaining port seems to be very dangerous...". "..."

"HMM... there is already a preliminary solution to this problem..." snow thunder rotated the star map, she opened the new territories terrain and said, "East Sea port is currently player Bingguo's territory. Her civilization is mainly sea elves, and she already has pretty good shipbuilding technology. I've discussed with her before. Most of her population will be relocated to the Emerald Galaxy for development. Only a small portion of the population will be left in the city. Originally, many jobs in the city would be provided to players."

"A reliable player can choose to work in his faction to earn points and buy a ship. There are fixed merchant ships that regularly recruit sailors, city restaurants, shipyard manufacturing, fishing industry, and seabed harvesting. They are very short of people. With a certain amount of points and credibility, they can even rent his ships...". "..."

Once these words were said, song Zai's Eyes Lit Up!

His city was the main Naga civilization. Most of the people in his city were very cheap in the seabed harvesting industry. Moreover, in the future, if their home ground was at sea, they would have a considerable advantage.

The remaining players did not choose the Naga Elf bloodline, but in his city system, players had to master two gathering skills or one manufacturing skill before they could go to the new world.

Most of the first batch of players who were accepted met his standards. This quest line was tailor-made for the players in his city... ..

However, the other city lords frowned. Angor from the first city asked, "Isn't this route unfair to some civilization models?"

"It can't be fair to everything...". "...". "Today's policies benefit those people, and tomorrow's policies benefit those people. It all depends on the situation. Some people will get bonuses, and some people will lose out. All the people here are elite politicians who used to rule the country. Do you understand that?"

"But..."

Angor frowned. This would be too much of a loss for her first city, especially for her native West Germans. She promised her people not to fight for a Lord, and the system of foreign players acting as lords helped her win a lot of votes, but now, she was going to go back on her words.

The Master of Mind Civilization system was a very good model of a civilization with spirit-class players as the leaders. Her Own West Germans could also go out and explore the world, as long as they found a foreign partner.

But now, the problem was serious. If they worked in the East Sea port, the low-level spirit class players obviously could not make money as fast as the strength class players.

Others could do coolies, gather, and quickly earn points to rent ships, but the people of their own race, the Maines, were at a disadvantage in this aspect...

"This is not the only route...". "The South Sea port has been cleared out. Many cities there have access to the sea. If you want to build your own port, you can try it. The main base will also give you rewards!"

Angor's eyes brightened up when he heard this. He frowned. His own city was a mechanical civilization. Building ships was not difficult, but manual labor was a problem... ..

It seemed that he had to make a proper plan...

"Well, Xue... ahem, Lei Xue, you mentioned that there's a new mission in the Emerald Galaxy. It was created by that place. Can you tell me more about it?"

"That's a bit too much...". Lei Xue Glanced at elder dragon and said, "It's random. Every mission will be notified to all the players by the AI. It's a new bloodline mission. If you pass the test, you can perform a second surgery and change your bloodline. The new bloodline will improve your level. In most cases, you'll be qualified to participate in the Emerald Interstellar Mission!"

"The second surgery?"

Elder Long was stunned for a moment. "Didn't you say that the surgery can't be changed?"

"The genes from before can't..."Lei Xue nodded. "It's different now. The purity of the genes from the second surgery is very high. After the surgery, the genes from before can be completely covered. You Don't have to worry about mixing them..."

"Will the genes from the second surgery be of a higher quality than the ones we're using now?"Elizabeth asked with great interest.

Snow thunder shook her head, "Not necessarily. The purity of the new genes is very high, but it does not necessarily mean that it will improve for many players. Therefore, we need to test whether it is suitable or not. However, if we can successfully pass the test, we can indeed make a qualitative leap in a short period of time...". "...". "..."

"Then..."just as Elizabeth was about to ask again, a series of intelligent warnings suddenly sounded in the meeting room, interrupting the meeting.

"Warning, warning, a large number of Titan players are revolting outside the main base. Please head over to understand the situation and deal with the uprising. Warning, warning..."

"Uprising?"The city lords immediately frowned...

Why would there be a uprising all of a sudden?

Lei Xue was expressionless. A strange light flashed across her eyes, and a faint smile flashed across the corner of her mouth... ..

“Ah, long, didn’t you say that Huaxia City is the most Democratic and stable city?” Mister gloated, “How could this happen?”

Elder Long was baffled. Everything was fine. What was going on? Could it be that those aristocratic families wanted to make a fool of Huaxia City during this time?

If that was the case, then they were really united...

“Let’s go out and take a look...” Lei Xue stood up and said.

“That’s fine too...” mi site stood up with a smile on his face, looking like he was just watching a show. The pile of policies just now had made him extremely disgusted. Now that it was someone else’s turn to be disgusted, he couldn’t help but gloat over their misfortune... ..

Elder Long’s face darkened. No matter how well he dealt with this mess later, it was still a proper scandal. After all, it wasn’t just the other city lords who had come today. There were also the media reporters from the D ball countries!

Chapter 1355: Causing Trouble (Part Two)

“What’s going on?”

Outside the main base, Huaxia city was originally a cheerful scene.

After all, the main base was in Huaxia City. After all, the re-opening of the New World was a world-wide event. Such a major event would have a great impact on the publicity of Huaxia City.

This thing was definitely not less cost-effective than the Olympics...

After all, it was almost the 22nd century, and the attention attracted by sports events was far less than before. In many cases, the traffic was not even as large as that of video games, but Galaxy’s project was definitely the focus of global attention!

Don’t look at the reporters from before who were all trying to smear Huaxia City, but when it came time to apply for Huaxia City’s project interview, they were more active than anyone else. They secretly paid an unknown amount of diplomatic price in order to snatch the spot...

At the very least, elder long knew how much of an exaggeration it was for Huaxia City’s neighbors, the three countries, to be able to send their own reporters here to broadcast live...

Of course, the only condition was that Huaxia city was not allowed to make it public...

The external data had to be changed... Hehe, what a magical country... ..

However, no one had expected that such a thing would happen in such an event that was so beneficial to Huaxia City!

At this moment, outside the main base, elder Li, who was in charge of managing the scene of the city security team, had a gloomy expression on his face. There were so many reporters present, and there were also many high-level players from Huaxia City. Forcefully driving them away at this time would have a huge negative impact! Especially if the situation became chaotic and caused casualties, then Huaxia City's reputation would be completely ruined!

God damn it, what was going on? Where did these Titans come from? Why did they do such a thing?

What did Huaxia City Do to the new players?

Speaking of benefits, Huaxia City was definitely the best among the six major cities. No matter if it was the teacher's strength, the player's subsidy, the level of work credits, or the new territories policy, they were all above the other five major cities, right?

Yes, military players had special subsidies, but this subsidy came at a price. They had to serve the government, and they also had to spend time to maintain the city's public order and some trivial matters. Compared to ordinary players, they had less time to train, therefore, the government gave them a special subsidy and the priority to make an appointment with a tutor.

Wasn't this too much?

Was it necessary to go to the extent of a mass demonstration to cause trouble? And they still chose this time?

Elder Li took a deep breath and tried his best to calm his mood. He commanded the city guards to protect the foreign guests. These people did not have galaxy's rebirth technology. If they were accidentally killed, it would be... .. Really Dead... ..

At this time, a group of players at the periphery also began to discuss... ..

"What's going on? You're quite brave, causing trouble at this time?"

"By the way, did something happen recently? These brothers are a little tough, causing trouble at this time."

"Tough my ass. So many outsiders are watching. Didn't you purposely come to cause trouble at this time to lose face? These idiots look so unfamiliar. Where did they come from?"

"That's right... can't we talk about everything properly? Is there a need to be like this?"

Of course, other than the rational ones, there were also the radical ones.

"It should be like this. It must be that group of dog officials who have done something completely heartless. Otherwise, why would they be forced to such an extent?"

"You Only Know?"

"Is there a need to say that? Didn't they eat too much?"

"But I haven't heard of anything recently?"

“What do you know about hammers? It’s not the first time that our government has concealed the truth. All kinds of scandals are made light of the big issues and small matters. If no one erupts, how many people would be secretly persecuted by that group of dog second generation and die without even knowing it!”

“Are you serious?”

“HMPH, there are many things that you don’t know...”

Compared to the domestic players, the foreign reporters who were invited appeared to be in high spirits... ..

Especially the reporters who represented the three countries of North America, Western Europe, or Ah. Their eyes were filled with anticipation, as if they could not wait for a fight to break out.

After all, in the past, they could always use headlines to exaggerate things, or they could deliberately fabricate things to make things dark. However, that kind of making things dark without substantial evidence would always be empty talk. It was fine to fool some retards on the Internet, but for some people who were slightly more rational, it wouldn’t be very convincing.

However, it was different now. With the established facts, the persuasiveness wouldn’t be on the same level. This was a great opportunity!

“Mr. Price, something unexpected has happened here. Please follow us to a safe place...”

At this time, elder Li’s guards quickly arrived in front of the reporters, wanting to escort them away first.

However, as soon as they arrived, the group of reporters stepped back like a bunch of angry roosters. “What are you doing? Are you trying to chase us away? Are you trying to forcefully cover up the scandal?”

“Please come out and explain the situation to your country’s officials. Huaxia city is not privately owned by Huaxia City. It is a precious treasure that belongs to all mankind. All citizens of the world have the right to know. Please officially state the current situation and give a full report to the citizens of the world who are looking forward to this miracle city!”

When the members of the guards saw this group of reporters, their expressions instantly turned extremely ugly. However, in this situation, they definitely could not forcefully chase them away. Elder Li had previously instructed them to dissuade them from leaving... ..

But they could f * cking dissuade them from leaving...

There were even some reporters who had begun to openly speak in the dark...

“This is the New York Star News. I’m reporter Mei Li. Now, we are live broadcasting the first scene of this press conference. Right now, Huaxia city has gathered to protest due to citizens’ dissatisfaction with the management, forcefully blocking the press conference. Meanwhile, Huaxia city officials are trying to get the army to expel the reporters to cover up the darkness hidden within Huaxia City. As free citizens, we firmly support this group of people who have bravely stood out in Huaxia City, and we resolutely oppose the atrocities committed by the management team in Huaxia City...”. “...”

The group of guards gritted their teeth in anger. What atrocity have we committed? Is it really just a rumor?

Now they finally understood why many people hated unscrupulous reporters. When this profession became unscrupulous, they really wanted people to hammer them to death... ..

“Elder Li...”

The captain of the new city’s guards, Lei Ming, walked in front of elder Li, he reported in a low voice, “Elder Li, that group of foreign reporters has a very strong attitude. They are determined not to leave. If we get a little closer to them, we will say a bunch of nonsense to the live broadcast. The situation is very difficult now. If we don’t forcibly expel them, I’m afraid we won’t be able to drive them away... .”

Old Li rolled his eyes, I can force the hell out of the need to wait until now?

Forcefully expelling him now was equivalent to admitting that everything was in the dark!

Elder Li’s face was ashen as he looked at the scene. At this moment, the over one thousand Titans were standing like statues in front of the main gate of the main base. They didn’t do anything too extreme, but with this number, if there was a riot... It was very easy for casualties to appear on the scene...

“Feng Doudou isn’t back yet?”

Previously, Lei Xue had said that Feng Doudou would be back in a few days, but now there was no news at all. If she was here, the chances of securing the scene would be higher...

“Go and ask instructor Duke and the others to explain the situation. Ask them to help maintain order...”

“Yes! !”

After receiving the order, Lei Ming quickly walked out. After leaving the hall, he immediately rushed out. As for elder Li, his gaze returned to the square outside the main base, and his brows were tightly furrowed... ..

Could it be that these people were secretly organized by those aristocratic families? They chose to cause trouble today, just how far did they want to go?

Chapter 1356: Can’t laugh anymore?

“Eh, what’s the situation?”

Among the crowd of onlookers, a girl with a tiger-like head scurried to the middle. She looked curiously at the protesting players standing at the entrance of the main base and asked curiously.

“What’s the situation?”

The surrounding Green Titan players looked at the Petite and Petite Girl with a bun-like face in astonishment. Their faces were filled with astonishment... ..

The crowd was divided into two groups. The first group was a group of foreign reporters that were guarded by the city guards. As they were afraid that the players would accidentally hurt them, they had clearly demarcated the boundaries. The players at the venue where the reporters were located were not allowed to get close.

The other group was the local players who were watching the show.

The players who were watching the show were divided into a few more layers. The players who were squeezed at the front were all Titan players with strong bodies. At this moment, the advantage of having a strength-based body was fully displayed. The inner, third, and outer layers were almost filled with green figures, meanwhile, some agile elf players barely managed to watch from some corners through some gaps.

Meanwhile, some players who chose other races were blocked outside by a group of Big Green men who were cursing and swearing... ..

However, the little guy in front of them, who knew what race he chose, rampaged all the way and forcefully squeezed a line to the front. Some of the players who were pushed aside were about to get angry, but when they saw that it was a Loli who squeezed past them... They were all stunned... ..

For such a petite figure to be able to force her way through, it was either because she was of a special race, or because her level was too high. Perhaps she was a big shot... ..

“Hey, I’m asking you a question...”the bun-faced girl looked at him with a frown.

Her voice was not loud, but there was an inexplicable pressure spreading out. In an instant, all the Titan players within a hundred-meter radius subconsciously fell to the ground. The scene was very strong!

“Ah...”the girl looked at the pale-faced person who had fallen to the ground in embarrassment. “I’m sorry, Brother. This new body is not used to it. I can’t control it...”

The guards who heard the commotion rushed over and looked at the girl with a serious expression. Their instincts told them that this girl was very terrifying. Their group of people would probably be killed with a single slap!

Could this be the person behind this incident?

For a moment, the guards looked at each other, not knowing what to do... ..

Just as they were feeling anxious, elder Li personally walked over. He also looked at this girl with a serious expression. However, when he saw her face clearly, he was stunned and asked with uncertainty, “Xiao Jia?”

“Hey? Elder Li?”The person who came immediately rubbed his head and laughed foolishly. “You’re here too?”

What a dog egg...

Her appearance had changed quite a bit...

Elder Li looked at the other party in shock. She did not have the delicate and pretty appearance of an elf, but she had a thick and noble aura. Moreover, she had a faint violent energy...

This was very incompatible with her comical bun face...

The color of her pupils had also changed. The whites of her eyes had become as black as ink, but there was a luxurious golden color in her eyes!

Wang Xiaojia giggled and then curiously craned her neck to look at the entrance of the main base. "Elder Li, what's going on?"

Elder Li rolled his eyes. If he knew, he wouldn't have such a big headache now.

"Is she a high-level player?" Elder Li's secretary whispered to elder Li, "Do you want this player to help maintain the security?"

Elder Li gave his secretary a strange look. Are You Out of your mind? Look at the situation around him. Do you dare to ask her to maintain the security?

After explaining the situation, Wang Goudan rubbed his fists and said, "Elder Li, do you want me to help you kill those reporters?"

Everyone: "..."

It seemed that elder Li was right not to answer the secretary's words... ..

While they were talking, there was a sudden uproar outside, and the commotion became louder. Elder Li looked back and immediately saw the main base's door open. The leader was the new base's manager, Lei Xue, and the city lords of the six major cities were following them side by side!

Seeing this, elder Li hurriedly prepared to go over. His footsteps paused for a moment before he finally turned back and said to Gou dan, "Xiao Jia, be quiet and don't cause trouble... Sigh, forget it, you'd better come along..."

Goudan: "Hehe (* ^ ? ^ *) ..."

"Ah, it's quite a show?" Abe Qingming covered his mouth with a beautifully crafted fan and laughed.

Mister immediately joined in the jeering: "Elder Long, the situation here doesn't seem to be suitable for a press conference. If you really can't guarantee order, you can move the press conference to another city. I happen to have an empty seat over there, why don't you come over to My Place?"

Elder Long: "..."

"Oh, my friend, don't look so bad. I'm doing this for everyone's sake. The situation right now is very serious. What if there's a riot later on? What about the safety of these reporters? There are US American citizens among the reporters. I'm responsible for their safety...""

At this moment, Mister was getting more and more smug as he spoke. He had no intention of stopping at all. The key point was that Elder Long didn't know how to refute his words for a moment.

Of course, the so-called protection of the safety of the American citizens was nonsense. He could not wait for a riot to happen right now, and a large number of reporters would be killed or injured. When that happened, Huaxia City's reputation in the world would be completely tarnished!

"Elder Li?"

While she was feeling excited, Lei Xue asked elder Li who had rushed over.

Elder Li came closer and briefly explained the situation. Lei Xue nodded slightly.

Elder Li looked at Lei Xue anxiously. In this situation, only lei xue could possibly solve it. If she was still biased towards Huaxia city...

"Do you need help?" Wang Goudan came closer and looked very excited.

"When did senior Goudan come back?" Lei Xue looked at him with a smile.

"He just came back!" Goudan grinned and said, "Uh, Pu Yunchuan is also back. He went to report to his mother that he's safe. I just greeted my father and came over to join in the fun..."

"Senior, did you have a second surgery?" Lei Xue looked at him curiously.

"Yes..." eggface nodded. "But I can't choose for myself. I actually wanted to become a moon priest, but I was assessed as suitable for the Black Dragon Clan. I wonder what is wrong with me?"

Lei Xue: "..."

"The Black Dragon Clan?" Elizabeth looked at Eggface with a burning gaze. The energy that appeared on Eggface's body from time to time was extremely shocking. It made every cell in her body filled with excitement, but there was also a hint of fear... ..

The manager said that the new bloodline in the Emerald Starfield was of a very high level. It seemed like he wasn't spouting nonsense. She even felt that this little girl was stronger than the instructors in the base!

"Lord Lei Xue..." song Zaiyi interrupted the conversation between the two of them. "Let's settle the matter in front of US first. If this continues, if there really is a riot, the consequences will be too serious..."

Lei Xue nodded. "Senior, let's chat later. I'll go over and take a look."

"Alright, Alright, Alright!" Gou Dan waved his hand. "If you want to help, you can call me anytime..."

Elder Li's face twitched. He thought to himself, 'only if my head hurts Will I call you to help. Where's dogdad?? 'Why aren't you taking this unlucky girl away?'

At this moment, at the entrance of the base, the captain of the Guards' Second Brigade, Li Hui, was trying his best to persuade them gently. However, the other party was unmoved. There was only one sentence: We want to see the base manager!

All the people who were protesting remained motionless like statues. They did not say a word and only let the leader, Yang Rui, speak.

This was the agreement made at the beginning. They could not reveal their identities as citizens of the fifth city in advance. Otherwise, once they were exposed, the guards would immediately chase them out. This plan would be completely ruined... ..

Just as Li Hui was feeling anxious, the gate of the base opened and the leader, Lei Xue, slowly walked to the square.

"I am Lei Xue, the current manager of the base. Why are you all gathered here to cause trouble?" Lei Xue looked at them sternly. "There are strict rules in the city administration. You are not allowed to cross the border without permission. You are citizens of the fifth city, and you do not have the crossing seal of Huaxia City on you. This is a violation of the basic management law of Galaxy. If there are no special reasons, you will be stripped of your status as citizens of Galaxy!" "!"

Wow! ! !

As soon as these words were said, the entire scene instantly went into an uproar!

Many questions popped up in everyone's mind!

First was the Basic Law. Damn it, the punishment for crossing the border illegally was so severe. It seemed like they had to read the basic law carefully when they went back. Otherwise, if they were struck by lightning one day, starsea dream would really end... ..

The second question was: did these B * stars actually cross the border illegally?

The third question was: F * ck, these B * stars were actually people from the fifth city?

At this moment, Meister, who was originally standing at the entrance of the main base and laughing so hard that his big teeth were all exposed, suddenly froze on the spot... ..

"Ha..." elder long, who had been keeping his head down and not saying anything, suddenly laughed. ...

Chapter 1357: Storm (1)

"Oh... I was wondering where these guys came from..."

The surrounding crowd suddenly understood!

Huaxia city was the largest of the six cities, but the number of people admitted was the smallest among the six cities. There were less than 200,000 people, and 100,000 of them were from the army. The civilian players even had to remove some of the aristocratic families and connections, the total number was less than 100,000, and the population of a county city was more than that!

Moreover, most of the new players gathered in the fourth ring's dormitory area. Normally, everyone would go to work, train, and wander around. They had more or less seen each other, but now, more than 1,000 unfamiliar faces suddenly appeared. Something felt wrong... ..

Moreover, although there were many trolls in the country, pointing fingers at the country on their keyboards, and criticizing the government for not doing their job well, it was not enough to say that there were too many people who were dissatisfied. Many people knew that., at least, Huaxia City was still quite good to the players. They had a free choice of jobs, a broad racial line, and all sorts of benefits. Their environment was even better than the other cities, no matter what, it couldn't be that bad?

Now that they heard about it from Lei Xue, everyone suddenly realized that it was the foreigners who had come to cause trouble... ..

A group of Huaxia City players immediately started discussing.

"The F * cking people from the fifth city have come here to cause trouble? Are they looking down on us?"

"What do you know? I've heard about it. Meester's side has all sorts of tricks, openly and secretly helping the white players squeeze people from other countries. The players from Huaxia City heard that they were bullied the most, so they probably couldn't take it anymore...". "..."

"Serves them right. A bunch of smart people. weren't they very good at licking before? How Democratic and how free are the Americans? They even gave us villas and jobs, ridiculing us for choosing the iron head of Huaxia City. Now you regret it?"

"Exactly. Do you really think that foreigners'houses are easy to get? They're all made by themselves..."

"By the way, why are they dissatisfied with Mister coming here? Won't he cause trouble in his own city?"

"What do you know about hammers? Is it useful to cause a ruckus in your own city? It's only possible to cause a ruckus by borrowing the exposure of our Huaxia City event..."

"By the way, how did they get here? I remember that our Huaxia city is quite far from the fifth city, right?"

"Uh... I don't know about that. It seems to be tens of thousands of kilometers away. Did they come here on foot?"

The group of players discussed animatedly and did not try to hide their voices. Most of them reached the front of the square. The faces of the players from the fifth city in front of the square instantly turned pale... ..

It was not a good feeling to be criticized by others, especially when the surrounding audience had an unfriendly attitude... ..

Some of the thin-skinned players, especially, blushed when they heard the sarcastic remarks. A few of them who had bad tempers glared at the players who were mocking them.

"Hey!"The players from Huaxia City were instantly amused. "What's the matter? Do you still want to fight?"

Putting aside the fact that there were many people here, just based on the quality, the players from the fifth city looked like they were malnourished. The players all felt that they could fight at least three of them at once!

“Don’t be Rash!” Yang Rui quickly stopped his impulsive compatriots. “If you don’t really want to be kicked out!”

“But they’re too much. Listen to what they’re saying.”

Yang Rui rolled his eyes. Isn’t it normal for people to mock you. Other than a small number of chinese-american players, most of the players from central China in the fifth city had been temporarily attracted to this place. At that time, they had done a lot of things to belittle their country on the internet... ..

They had felt so good when they were mocking others, but now they couldn’t take it anymore?

Yang Rui sighed and ignored those guys. He walked out and bowed respectfully to lei xue, “Sir, the situation is like this...”

Yang Rui was a law student. Before he was transferred to the police station, he had even gone to the Public Prosecution Department of the Procuratorate. He was very eloquent. After adjusting his emotions, he described the current situation of the players from central China in the fifth city, the various details of being bullied, isolated, and exploited were well described. Many of the central China players who were originally gloating became silent, and they actually began to have a trace of sympathy.

After all, they were on the same side. Although they hated it a little, when they thought about how they were bullied by outsiders, they still felt a little angry.

After that, Yang Rui even berated the fifth city officials for all sorts of secret exploitation. How they were racist, how they were blatantly populist, and how the officials were using capital as an excuse to monopolize resources and so on... ..

All of a sudden, it caused an uproar in the surroundings!

The originally excited reporters’ expressions instantly changed, and they all put away their cameras. After all, they were reprimanding all white human players.

Of course, the reporters from the East Asian circle all pointed their cameras at mister, and sharp questions instantly popped up... ..

“May I ask, Mr. Mister, is what this player from Central China said true? The fifth city has already fallen to such a State?”

“Mr. Mister, the other party said that you lent all the city loans to the clan forces. Do you accept this statement?”

“Mr. Mister, regarding what that player said, is it true that you will further exploit the channels of the players from Central China?”

When Mister heard that this group of players from his own city had come to cause trouble, he immediately felt bad. However, after all, he was a well-known thick-skinned politician, so he quickly calmed down, he made a hand gesture like he used to play the accordion and explained with a smile, "Please ask questions one by one. You have so many questions. Which one should I answer first?"

"Mr. Mister, I am a reporter from Xinhua Media. Do you admit to everything that this player from central China accused just now?" A reporter from central China asked bluntly.

"Of course not!" Mister smiled and said, "You also said that this accusation is made against Huazhong players. How much credibility can his words have? "Most of it is slander. Even if this group of people are from my fifth city, it's hard to say, isn't it? "Maybe they are actors hired by Huaxia City?"

The group of Huazhong players were instantly dumbfounded. They did not expect this damn fatty to lie to such an extent!

Elder long chuckled from the side, he rudely interrupted Mister's speech, "Mr. Mister is quite natural in throwing the blame, but doesn't the identity of the player have an intelligent record?" As he spoke, he looked at lei xue, "Sir Manager, May I ask if you can announce the player's information?"

Lei Xue nodded. With a gentle wave of her hand, a huge virtual screen appeared in the plaza. The screen began to rotate the information of the thousands of Titans.

Yang Rui: Citizen of the fifth city, race: Green Titan, Level 2, current route: Weapons Master... ..

Guo Ruijie: Citizen of the fifth city...

A group of information-comparing photos were displayed to everyone in a three-dimensional manner!

"City Lord Meister, do you have anything else to say?" Elder long asked with a smile!

Meister:"..."

Chapter 1358: Mister's sophistry!

The scene instantly turned cold. The players looked at Mister Unkindly. The reporters from all over the world, especially those from the western camp, were holding the live broadcast camera with an awkward look on their faces. Let's not shoot it. It had always been in the live broadcast state, suddenly turning off the live broadcast when Mister was mentioned seemed to be too biased and too fake.

Over the years, the credibility of the Western media had been getting worse and worse. If they were to openly protect Mister Now, perhaps no one would believe them anymore.

Most importantly, this was not their live broadcast. Other than the media from the western camp, the East Asian camp, and the four major news agencies from central China were all here. If you did not broadcast live, there would be people broadcasting live. Sooner or later, these videos would be spread out, by then, they would be even more passive.

However, if they asked questions like normal reporters and Mistral fell, wouldn't all their flattery be slapped in the face?

Out of the six major cities, there were three eastern faces. Angor and the other three were not on good terms with ordinary capitalists. Elizabeth, the fourth castellan, might be a traditional white person, but she was a noble herself, the capitalists outside could not understand the benefits of the nobles. The fifth city where Mistral was located was the one with the biggest interest.

All the major media outlets had a secret agreement with Mistral. Once he fell, their hopes of getting special treatment in the fifth city would be ruined!

The western reporters were generally silent. The East Asian reporters, especially those from Huazhong, all watched on coldly. The castellans beside Mistral, especially elder dragon, could barely hide his cold smile after so many years.

Meister slowly closed his eyes. At this moment, all the evidence was before his eyes. Even if he was a master of sophistry, it was impossible for him to argue forcefully. Finally, after hesitating for a few seconds, he took a deep breath and opened his eyes. He looked at Lei Xue...

"This... um, little lord..." Meister said with a provocative smile, "I remember that in the STARSEA treaty at the beginning, it was clearly stated that our city lord has the right to manage things independently, right?"

The address of young master clearly had a provocative meaning, which made the Huazhong players look at Mister Even colder.

Lei Xue, on the other hand, nodded indifferently and said, "Yes..."

"The right to manage things independently means absolute, right? At least before the next castellan?" Mister continued to ask, "Can the main base interfere?"

Lei Xue shook her head. "No..."

When she said this, the expressions of all the players became a little ugly, including Yang Rui. This was a little different from what he had previously thought. The authority of the city lord was much greater than he had imagined...

Hearing this, mister laughed, "Every city lord's political philosophy is different. Our country has always followed the elite politics. I believe that the vast majority of the world thinks this way. I will focus my limited resources on the more reliable elites, so that they will be more competitive in the later era. Only by competing for more benefits for the fifth city will we be able to squeeze out space to complement the fifth city. This philosophy is reasonable, right? "He didn't violate the city Lord's rights and interests, right?"

Lei Xue looked at the other party indifferently, "Indeed, he didn't..."

As soon as these words were said, many players immediately burst into an uproar!

Yang Rui hurriedly said, "He was simply using the excuse of fighting for the interests of his own clan and the other alliance clans. Using the city lord to create a class, it was clearly..."

"Do you have evidence?"

A cold voice interrupted Yang Rui.

Yang Rui was slightly stunned. The rest of his words were stuck in his throat for a long time. Because the person who interrupted him was not mister, but Lei Xue...

The other party was expressionless, and her expression was so cold that it was emotionless. This made Yang Rui's heart turn cold. In this minute, he immediately understood that this young girl who had the blood of central China and occupied a high position in front of him... ..

Once he understood this meaning, Yang Rui instantly felt a chill run down his spine... ..

He had brought everyone here to cause a ruckus. Most of the time, he had bet that elder long and this base manager in front of him would stand up for them, but it seemed like... .. It didn't seem like that... ..

"He's obviously targeting US intentionally!" One of the players quickly retorted, "Otherwise, why would he issue a race-balanced quota system to restrict us?"

The policy that the players were referring to was the new territories policy that the fifth city had just issued. All races would be assigned a fixed quota, and each nation's race would only have a fixed quota to go to the new territories.

This greatly limited the advantage of the players from central China.

Faced with responsibility, Mister appeared even more fearless, he smiled and said, "It's just a difference in concept. We in America have always pursued racial equality, and the rights and interests of each race should be equal. Just like our college entrance examination system, which is also for the sake of understanding the weak, such a system to support the weak should logically be a reflection of humanity, but in your words, it has become unfair. Yes, it has indeed violated your rights, but if you see yourself as a member of the fifth city, you shouldn't have such narrow-minded thoughts. Isn't this the same reason as collecting taxes?"

"Why should the taxes of the rich continue to increase? A salary tax of one million must be paid in half? And because the income of the poor is low, not only do they not collect taxes, they even receive various subsidies sometimes? Is this fair to the rich? Of course it is unfair, but it is because of the unfair trade-offs of the elites that the future of the entire society has been achieved. You who once enjoyed the subsistence allowance did not lament about the unfairness, but now when you are asked to contribute to the society, do you know how unfair it is?"

Mister's words instantly made the Titan player who spoke turn red. He could not come up with a single word after holding it in for a long time. He was so angry that he pounded his chest!

The few city lords behind him rolled their eyes at the same time. They were all politicians, so they naturally knew that Mister's words were just sophistry. However, this was indeed something that could not be refuted openly. All of a sudden, the entire scene fell into a strange silence.

The group of northern rice reporters immediately nodded their heads with a look of admiration. They had even thought of how to defame this group of selfish and selfish players from Huazhong to defame the fifth city.

They were even trying to defame the overall quality of the Huazhong players. Ah... It was too perfect... ..

“As expected of the sophistry master, the world knows the king...” yang rui sneered, “But if this is the case, what about your own family’s involvement? As far as I know, most of the loans in the city went into the pockets of your family’s children. What about this?”

“Of course, it’s because my family is outstanding!” Mister didn’t care and continued, “Elite politics is about strength. My family is blessed with talent in business and has played a huge role on the stage of the New World. It can better create benefits for the city. It’s impossible for my family’s potential to be limited just because I’m the City Lord, right? “Moreover, you also know that it’s a loan. The loan has to be repaid, and the interest has to be repaid. Won’t this kind of income eventually go to the fifth city’s finance? “Wouldn’t the profits from the loan go back to you as Citizens?”

Yang Rui:” ...”

In the past, it wasn’t that he hadn’t seen how shameless this fellow was in the media, but when he really faced him, he knew what kind of uncomfortable feeling it was!

Chapter 1359: Mad Dog Egg (I)

At this moment... The fifth city was in a frenzy. ...

The streets and alleys were filled with cheering white players. Each and every one of them watched as Mister spoke with assurance and assurance on the screen, especially after the young manager expressed that it was the authority that the city lord should have. The group of white players immediately began to dance in excitement... ..

“Go to Hell, yellow-skinned monkeys!”

In the square, a white player stood on the tallest building in the center of the square and raised his middle finger!

The white players below immediately became even more excited and clenched their fists. The entire square was filled with ridicule towards the players from central China. Slowly, malice spread!

They were as excited as if they had taken stimulants. At this moment, it was as if the world had been trampled under their feet!

In fact, if they were to go deep into the white players, they would know why they were so malicious towards the players from central China, and why they were so excited at this moment!

In a white country that was free, democratic, and had an equal civilization, it was actually based on the theory of superiority of bloodlines. Not to say that 100% of people despised people of color in their hearts, but they were extremely proud of their white skin.

White people were the highest quality race in the world, the most noble bloodline. This was the belief in the hearts of most people in the west... ..

Despite the rise of many successful people of other skin colors in the world, they still could not change their thoughts until the appearance of galaxy!

The rules of galaxy clearly told everyone which people's bloodlines would be more outstanding!

Gene acceptance rate, this was a clear data level similar to the game system. There was no excuse, no sophistry could cover up the actual data.

It was equivalent to having first class or second class written on the surface...

As for their proud white bloodline, in the galaxy system, they couldn't even be a second class. Many Red Sun and universe countries had higher levels than them, this destroyed all their confidence!

After entering the galaxy, the advantage of this blood was even more obvious. With the same genetic body and the same training, the growth speed of the Huazhong players was obviously faster than theirs. This inherent advantage made them feel even more indignant!

Therefore, when the city was obviously biased towards them, they treated the Huazhong players more aggressively!

At this moment, the entire city was filled with the smell of inferior beer. It was obvious that the atmosphere of this carnival was getting more and more lively. Many Huazhong players could only carefully hide in the restaurants and factories where they worked.

However, the white players, who could usually restrain themselves a little, were now completely wiped off the last bit of caution and fear in everyone's hearts after Mister openly said that he treated them differently, but no one did anything to him... ..

In the restaurant, a group of players laughed as they pulled out the players from Huazhong who were hiding in the corner. They were dragged through the streets like criminals. All kinds of vegetables, fruits, beer bottles, and rats were thrown at them. There were even some who directly urinated in public... ..

There were even some who went overboard and directly smashed the profit-making shops set up by the Lord Players in the fifth city into pieces!

For example, the dog egg restaurant, the tailor shop, the blacksmith shop, and some of the craft shops set up by the Lord Players... ..

These were the few places in the fifth city that could protect the central China players. Here, facing the care of their compatriots, they could receive a normal salary and have the last bit of breathing space.

Although not everyone could enjoy it, after all, there was a limit to the number of people they could take care of. However, to many central China players, that was already the last bit of sunlight in the city... ..

But now, the only place that could make these f * cking guys restrain themselves was smashed to pieces!

The faces of the group of players in Huazhong City turned pale!

Not only did this destroy some of their jobs, it also meant that their days in the future would be as fragmented as this smashed shop!

Because these guys no longer had any last scruples!

Suddenly, some players began to complain, complaining about the players who went to protest!

They clearly said that it was useless and insisted on causing trouble. Now that it was fine, how were they going to live in the future?

In contrast to the city's carnival was the despair in the hearts of many Huazhong players...

On the other side, Yang Rui and the others looked at Lei Xue's cold attitude, and their hearts almost sank to the bottom of the valley... ..

They all knew that if the main base did not stand up for them today, what would be the consequences when they returned? The entire fifth city would no longer have a place for the central China players!

Courage was something that often did not get a response, so the speed at which it was extinguished was very fast!

"You... really don't care anymore, Sir?" Yang Rui did not explain to mister. He knew that this was completely useless. With the last glimmer of hope, he asked Lei Xue straightforwardly. ...

Not going to do anything?

These words were almost a direct expression of his meaning...

"I'm sorry..." Lei Xue looked at the other party indifferently. "The things you mentioned are not within my jurisdiction..."

These words were very soft, but they were like a heavy hammer that smashed into Yang Rui's heart. He staggered back a few steps and closed his eyes in despair.

He knew that once the other party said this, the players of central China in the fifth city would probably not be able to stand out anymore. After today, the situation would probably be even worse!

Elder huo coughed softly behind him and then looked at elder long behind Lei Xue... ..

Elder Long was stunned for a moment and revealed a difficult expression. In the end, he still stood up and said, "City Lord Myst, you are blatantly discriminating against the players of central China. If you don't give us an explanation, the Huaxia City will not let this matter rest!"

These words... could already be considered very firm...

It made the hearts of the players behind Yang Rui Jolt...

"Does Huaxia City still want to interfere in the internal affairs of other cities?" After mister had detected the bottom line of the managers, how could he care about Elder Long's threat, he smiled and said, "Suppressing the players of Huazhong City is not the same. Which City doesn't have it? "This is also to protect the rights and interests of the disadvantaged groups. This is the embodiment of our Western values of human rights. is Mr. Long's blatant threat a form of hegemonism?"

Elder Long:"..."

Seeing the ugly expression on elder Long's face, Mister Smiled nonchalantly and walked towards Lei Xue. It was not that he was not afraid of elder Long, but he could imagine how much pressure elder Long would give him after the cities allowed each other to compete.

However, he and Huazhong had already reached such a stage. There was no way out for him if he admitted defeat now. He might as well go all the way to the dark side!

In any case, those high-level players had already gone to the Emerald Starfield first. If they did not take action, elder Long's advantage would be limited. As long as they operated well, they might not necessarily lose to the other party in the competition for resources in the New World... ..

"Sir Manager..." "I want to apply for a pardon for this group of players who crossed the border without permission. Although they disrupted the order of the press conference, most of the responsibility is on me. It was my failure to do my job that caused this farce to happen. I hope that Sir can give me a chance. After all, it is not easy to get a spot here. It is too heavy of a punishment to deprive them just like that..." . "..."

As soon as these words were said, the western reporters started clapping. They had even thought of the content of the news that would be published in a while. The first half of the article was about how the players in Huazhong were narrow-minded and scheming, they wanted to use this press conference to bring darkness to Mister and the fifth city.

The second half of the article praised Mister for his responsibility and tolerance as the city lord. The image of each other formed a strong contrast. It was like the contrast between a great man and a clown. It was simply too perfect!

On the other side, the Huazhong players behind Yang Rui had pale faces and terrified expressions. The Huaxia players who were watching the show also had ugly expressions, as if they were holding in their anger... ..

Just as the atmosphere was strange, the AI suddenly prompted: attention, there is a riot in the fifth city. Please send out troops from the headquarters to assist in the management!

Everyone was stunned. Lei Xue Gently waved her hand, and the virtual screen in the middle of the square immediately switched to the situation inside the fifth city!

The group of people could clearly see that in the video, it had already become a crazy paradise for white players. Countless shops had been smashed, and countless Huazhong players had been forcefully dragged onto the streets to be humiliated, the extremely barbaric actions caused the anger of many players to surge in their hearts!

Although they hated the dog-licking actions of this group of smart people, they were still family members after all. They could not bear to watch others humiliate them like this!

The western reporters quietly moved their cameras away, trying to avoid those barbaric scenes.

Elder Long's face was also ashen. "City Lord Mister, is this your so-called human rights and Freedom?"

“Oh, no, no, no...” mister hurriedly waved his hand. “I absolutely don’t want to see this kind of result. Although I understand the anger in their hearts, violence is definitely not the right way to resolve conflicts...”

Everyone:” ...”

These words sounded as if the players in central China had brought this upon themselves... ..

Elder Long was so angry that his entire body was trembling. If it was not because the situation did not allow it, he would even have the impulse to crush this damn fatty!

“Sir Manager...” Mister Smiled as he walked over and said, “There’s no need for the peacekeeping force that was just notified by the intelligence system. I’ll immediately rush back to handle it personally. I believe that I can solve the problem very quickly...”

Elder long also looked at Lei Xue. At this time, he did not have the authority to do anything. Could it be that Lei Xue was really indifferent?

Lei Xue looked at the smiling mister, but she did not answer immediately. Instead, she looked at the position behind them. “Senior Goudan?”

Everyone was stunned. They followed him and found that Wang Goudan seemed to be about to leave at some point.

However, the next second, they felt puzzled, especially elder long. Why did he bother with Goudan at this time?

“What?” Wang Goudan turned around and curled his lips.

“Are you leaving just like that?” Lei Xue asked with a smile.

“Nothing much. I’m going back to sleep...” Goudan said with a bored look.

“Aren’t you going to take a look?” Lei Xue asked with narrowed eyes.

“What’s there to see?” Eggface rolled his eyes. “Didn’t you say just now that they chose this city by themselves? A bunch of guys who brought this on themselves. What has it got to do with me, Eggface?” As he said that, he turned around and left. He didn’t have the intention of being sloppy at all...

“Is that so?” Lei Xue nodded. She didn’t have any intention of stopping him. She only said indifferently, “I think I saw your shop being smashed in the video just now...”

As soon as she said this, Doggie, who had already walked to the outer circle, froze and turned around stiffly, “What... Did you say?”

Chapter 1360: Mad Dog Eggs (below)

“F * ck, what happened? Is there an earthquake?”

The players in the back row were confused. They stood on their tiptoes to check the situation inside. There was nothing they could do. Those Dog Titans were too strong, and the food provided by Huaxia City was good. The normal ones were at least five meters tall. They stood in front like F * cking tanks... ..

“F * ck... What is that?”

Some players who were far away from the back were stunned when they reached the top. At the entrance of the main base, there was a 1.6-meter tall short man with a pair of wings that were at least ten meters long spread out on his back!

Those pure black metal wings were very eye-catching. Moreover, there was a layer of black and red flames on the wings... ..

“What the... is this a piece of equipment? It’s so cool, when can we have it?”

“There’s meat, that’s obviously a piece of meat. What kind of equipment? Can’t you see that the clothes on his back are torn?”

Of course, the players in the front row who saw what happened were dumbfounded, staring at Wang Goudan... ..

What the hell are these wings? Could Elves have such a violent breed? F * ck, wasn’t Wang Goudan an assassin. Assassins nowadays... ? Were they all so high-profile?

“Who did it?”

Wang Goudan’s golden pupils were as dazzling as a bright lamp in the dark in broad daylight. The terrifying pressure almost made the city lords lose their balance... ..

Especially mister, who was a level one life form who did not train all year round. He fell to the ground with a dumbfounded look on his face... ..

“You... What are you doing?” Mister asked with a trembling voice... ..

“I’m asking you who did it? ?” Wang Goudan stared at his golden pupils, the voice was actually filled with a heavy metallic sound, as if it was made of polished steel. It made people feel that the moment his skin was torn open, he would immediately turn into a man-eating beast!

The powerful aura directly made Mister Stutter and unable to speak... ..

He told himself to be calm very rationally in his heart. The other party did not dare to do anything to him in public, but the aura in front of him made his rationality lose all courage. Every cell in his body was telling him that he was about to be eaten...

“I feel that city Lord Mister probably doesn’t know...”. At this time, Lei Xue, who had started the trouble, slowly said, “This needs to be specially investigated in the fifth city. Senior, why don’t you wait patiently? After the press conference is over, City Lord Meester will personally investigate. I believe he will give you a satisfactory answer. Don’t you think so, City Lord Meester?”

At this time, how would meester dare to disagree? Unable to speak, he hurriedly nodded!

“Wait!” Wang Goudan tilted his head slightly and grabbed Mister, who had peed his pants, and pulled him up from the ground with a bang!

The powerful force caused the ground within a radius of 100 meters to collapse into a huge pit. The huge metal wings brought along a terrifying gust of wind as they tore through the air. In a few seconds, they turned into a black dot and disappeared into the blue sky! The scene was left in a mess, leaving the players dumbfounded!

“That... What is that? A fire... Rocket?”

“F * ck... F * cking Superman, is this a high-end player?”

“This is too much, this...”

The few city lords who were closest to them saw the most clearly. From the moment the opponent grabbed Mister and flew into the sky, the explosive force was so terrifying that they almost thought that they would be shocked to death on the spot.

And that speed...

As a level 3 agility player, Elizabeth narrowed her eyes as she looked at the terrifying thing that had already turned into a black dot and disappeared. Not only that, she thought to herself, “This speed... What the hell is this? I’m afraid that the rocket can’t compare to it...”

Just as everyone was shocked by the scene just now, an even more terrifying scene quickly appeared... ..

On the virtual screen of the fifth city’s carnival, a black dot descended from the sky, bringing with it a terrifying hurricane as it directly stopped the carnival in the city!

The terrifying pressure caused the white players who were originally in the midst of the carnival to quieten down. They looked up in shock. At this moment, Wang Goudan’s entire body was covered in metal scales. Although his body was still so petite..., but his appearance was completely different from before. He looked just like a ferocious beast!

“Is... is this the person from before?”

Elizabeth asked in shock.

She was even more shocked. It had only been two minutes! ? ! How far was the fifth city from here?

Elder Long also took a breath. The terrifying pressure from the screen made him feel apprehensive. Had All the advanced players reached this stage?

“Did they teleport there?” Song Zai asked the key question.

Huaxia city was tens of thousands of kilometers away from the fifth city. It was impossible for the other party to fly there in just a few minutes?

But... ? ... wasn’t the city teleportation point located at the main base?

Or was it using a teleportation scroll. He was a developer, and he followed the path of an arcanist. He knew about teleportation scrolls... ..

“It should be flying over...”snow pointed at Goudan Wang’s right hand, “Otherwise, the city lord of Meester wouldn’t have become like that...”

Everyone looked over and their eyelids twitched...

Was that Meester?

It was a dark lump, obviously a burnt pot...

“Find out who did it for me, Goudan Wang!”

At this moment, in the sky above the fifth city, Wang Goudan said coldly. Suddenly, he realized that there was no response. He frowned slightly and looked at his right hand. Then, he was stunned... ..

“F * ck...”

Goudan threw the burnt lump of meat in his hand out in disgust. The black lump of meat turned into an arc and fell to the ground. It was directly smashed into pieces... ..

The group of white players stared blankly at the black object that flew down. They could not tell what it was, but they could only smell the smell of charred meat... ..

“Lei Xue... What’s This?”Elder long swallowed his saliva and asked.

“Well...”Lei Xue nodded. “It flew too fast. The high-speed friction burned itself. Senior Goudan is now a level 10 life form after the surgery. His body can naturally withstand it, but city Lord Meester is different...”

Looking at Lei Xue’s serious face, the city lords had strange expressions on their faces. Was this the main point?

He flew tens of thousands of kilometers in just two minutes?

And... ? ... could a city lord not be so calm?

“Ai...”Lei Xue ignored the strange expressions on the city lords’faces and the group of players who did not react at all, she directly ordered, “Wake up city Lord Mister in the rebirth chamber and tell him to hurry to the fifth city to take charge of the situation. If he doesn’t go, something big will happen!”

Everyone turned to look at the video when they heard that. They saw Goudan slowly descending from the sky onto the square. His imposing manner almost instantly caused the entire fifth city square to become quiet.

“Who did this?”Goudan pointed at the dog egg restaurant that had been smashed into pieces and asked with a murderous aura!

Seeing this, the city lords’eyelids jumped wildly. With this situation, it would probably be a big problem if Meester went, right?
