Chapter 1441: Who Is That?

The Last Examination Hall of the Magical Beast College was set up in a huge exhibition hall. All the students who entered the hall were shocked by the luxurious atmosphere of the hall, especially the exhibition stage in the exhibition hall, the crystal stage made of the entire piece of silver dragon crystal looked extremely gorgeous, but it also emitted a magical effect that made people feel calm.

This effect was not an illusion, but the silver dragon crystal itself, as a top-tier alchemy material, had the effect of calming one's mind power!

On the market, this material was even more expensive than the black crystal in the world of Souls. A piece the size of a fingernail was worth hundreds of millions of gold coins. Just a small piece, made into an accessory, had the magical effect of calming one's mind power.

As for such a large piece of natural crystal, not to mention its value, just its rarity was incredible. A natural silver dragon secret crystal that was the size of a fist was already sold for an astronomical price. A piece that was as big as a stage was definitely at the level of a treasure.

The group of academies that entered the exhibition hall began to discuss among themselves.

"Wow, this is a secret crystal, right? Oh My God, such a large piece, where did it come from?"

"Where else could it have come from? Of course it's from the ancient lands. Why? Are you planning to get one as well?"

"Hehe... I'm just lamenting that the school is so rich. But then again, it's a little exaggerated. It's just a place for exams. Is there a need for such ostentation?"

"Do you really think that this scene is prepared for us examinees?"

"No?" A Washaya Bluebird clan member looked curiously at the elf beside him.

Seeing this, the elf immediately looked as if he hadn't seen it before, he excitedly introduced, "This is the exhibition hall used for magical beast products. Every time the academy reaches the year of sale, it will gather many lord factions to watch the products produced by the Academy's Outstanding Magical Beast Masters. It belongs to the exhibition hall of the exhibition, and is only temporarily used for us to use."

"Is that so..."

A few foreign students heard this and came to a sudden realization.

The main income of a magical beast master was to sell Magical Beasts and cultivate outstanding magical beast breeds to sell to others. The Magical Beast Schools of various universities would organize such an exhibition to provide a channel for the instructors who came to work for the school to sell magical beasts.

Of course, they would also take a small percentage to maintain some of the expenses of the magical beast school... ..

“Brother, you know the situation here very well. Are you a Local?”The Man from the Bluebird tribe asked the Elf who had just given him some information out of curiosity.

“No, no... ..”the elf shook his head repeatedly. “The local people of Teldrassil are all nobles. We don’t have that kind of family background. I passed the test on the planet of Puxi next to it. My parents are guards over there and are close to this place. I need to know more about the situation here...”. “...”

“Oh, I see...”the young man from the Bluebird tribe instantly felt much more relaxed. If he was really a local, he wouldn’t be at ease. After all, he had heard that the people of the planet of Teldrassil were very xenophobic.

“For students of our level to use this kind of stage... isn’t it a little too extravagant?”The young man’s tone became much more casual after he relaxed.

The ELF also said in a friendly manner, “That’s because the school is trying to train the students’ courage. In addition to cultivating excellent magical beasts, a magical beast master also needs to learn how to promote their products and let people know the advantages of their magical beasts. Therefore, whether you can show the advantages of your magical beasts in a short period of time will be counted in the test scores. Choosing such a big stage is also a test of the students’endurance...”. “...”. “...”

“I see...”the young man from the Bluebird tribe smiled. “Thank you for the reminder, brother...”but before he could finish, he was pulled back by the other party. He was puzzled. “What’s wrong, brother?”

“Don’t go forward...”the elf lowered his voice and said, “Let’s just sit here...”

“Eh?”The young man from the Bluebird tribe was stunned. He had come so early because he wanted to take a better vantage point to see how others displayed their skills. After all, his account was very far back, so he could learn from others first. From the perspective, the position in front was obviously better... ..

But when he looked over in confusion, he immediately realized something was wrong.

In front of him, there were three youths sitting in a row with a good view. The three youths were together, and there was a vacuum belt at the side. Many people seemed to have deliberately avoided that area, as a result, that area seemed to have been reserved by the three people.

Looking at the exquisite clothes of those three people and the pure starry eyes of their bloodlines, the young man immediately understood something and stepped back. He asked in a low voice, “These three are?”

“From a big family!”The elf directly whispered through voice transmission, “Dinos from the moon god family, Damon from the sunstrider family, and Canaan from the Windwhisper family are all direct descendants who came to fight for a position in this family...”

The young man nodded in fear. It was a good thing that he didn’t go over, or it might have caused some awkward things... ..

Although the young man was a foreigner, he had more or less heard about the argument regarding the admission of the Crown Prince to the school, and he knew that these were big shots that he couldn't afford to offend.

After carefully sitting in the distance with the ELF, he asked in a low voice, "Aren't these people all admitted to the school without taking any exams? Why are they here?"

"They're here to see the Dark Horse..."the elf said with a hint of schadenfreude... ..

"Dark Horse?"The Green Bird was stunned. "There are still dark horses willing to come to the Starry Sky Academy this year?"

"Ordinary nobles naturally wouldn't dare... Top-tier nobles still dare..."the ELF smiled and pointed in a direction. "Over there..."

The green bird looked in the direction that the other party was pointing at and was instantly stunned.

It was a remote corner. If one didn't observe carefully, they wouldn't have noticed that location. However, the person sitting there made that remote location extremely attractive, if one looked carefully, one would notice that many people were looking at that location from time to time.

It was a night demon. One could tell that it was a demon with an extremely high bloodline, and on its shoulder lay an extremely beautiful black butterfly. It was so beautiful that the moment one's gaze touched it, it was as if a magnet had sucked it away... ..

The green bird was like this. Its eyes were fixed on it, and its body almost floated up unconsciously.

Suddenly, a thin white hand blocked the other party's vision, and the Green Bird came back to his senses.

"Brother, be careful, that thing can't be seen..."

After the green bird came back to his senses, he felt a lingering fear. He felt cold sweat on his back, and he said in a low voice, "That is... The Night Demon Butterfly?"

"Other than that thing, what else can have such power?"The ELF chuckled.

"Hiss..."the green bird heard this and sucked in a breath of cold air, anyone who was involved in the magical beast circle was extremely familiar with this kind of top-tier species. It was an extremely dangerous species that only existed in the ancient netherworld. In this world, it was said that only the pure shadow-type night demon imperial clan would dare to tame a top-tier magical beast...

"That girl is..."

To be able to possess such a butterfly, that girl's identity...

"The young daughter of the Night Demon Helan clan, Helan Nana. It is said that she is a genius magical beast master who tamed a night butterfly at the age of ten. This time, I heard that she came to the starry sky academy to experience the world..."

"I see..."the green bird immediately understood and nodded his head. The five great royal families had always been dissatisfied with each other. The Night Demon Clan's magical beast genius had come to the starry sky academy to enrol. Saying that he was experiencing the world was nonsense. It was obvious that he was here to provoke!

The Elf seemed to be gloating, but it was understandable. To ordinary students, whether it was the foreign nobles or the local nobles who monopolized the resources, they were all class enemies and did not have a good impression of them.

If both sides fought, they could still eat the melon...

However, there was one thing that the green bird was very concerned about. He looked at the elf beside him who was gloating and said in a low voice, "Then who is the one next to her?"

"The one beside her..." the corner of the elf's mouth twitched as he looked over.

If one looked carefully, they would discover that night demon was not the only one in that corner. There were two other people. One of them was dressed in blue leather and looked a little like a member of the Thunder clan. The other one did not seem to be too careful... ..

Because the other one was tied to a chair in all sorts of ways and was almost wrapped into a dumpling. He would twist and turn from time to time, making it impossible to tell what the hell that was... ..

"That..." the ELF's expression became a little strange...

Chapter 1442: Looks Like I won't be bored anymore... ..

"That's..."

Looking at the big dumpling, the Elf suddenly thought of the strange scene in the morning.

A petite and cute elf with a bun-like face, holding two large machetes, chasing after his magical pet everywhere... ..

He had never seen a flower spirit that could use machetes so skillfully, and the two intern guards who were maintaining order had been chopped down... ..

That was a fresh graduate from the Divine Guards Academy who specialized in chopping people...

"There's such a Thing?" The Green Bird was also stunned. It was not used to elf potions and had stayed in the summoning room for quite a long time. It did not know that such a thing had happened outside...

"But... the guard was injured... can he still continue to take the exam?" The green bird asked curiously.

Although the other party was tied up there, he was not thrown out or sent to the guard. Instead, he was tied up in the Magical Beast Exhibition Hall. The school's attitude was very clear, right?

Obviously, they allowed that guy to continue the exam... ..

"He has a background..." the elf curled his lips and said in a low voice, "I heard that that Guy's surname is muzir. He's probably the illegitimate daughter of that big stallion..."

"Oh... That Big Stallion?" The green bird nodded in realization... ..

That guy's reputation was known throughout the entire East Star region...

"Sitting in that corner, that guy is quite low-key, ..."

In the hall, in the empty space that was avoided by others, three young men who had been silent all this time finally opened their mouths. The one who spoke was a man with dazzling red hair and extremely pure starry eyes. He was from the SUNCHASER family: Damon!

"Are you sure she's keeping a low profile?" Beside him was a head of green hair, the extremely handsome young man raised his eyes slightly. "She came here to keep a high profile. She's probably sitting there because she's interested in that illegitimate daughter of the woods family, right?"

In the end, a black-haired elven youth who had remained silent all this while frowned slightly. He was a direct descendant of the moon god family. Although Kyle's reputation was in tatters, he was still related to their family by marriage, the two of them speaking of the term 'illegitimate daughter' without any scruples still made him feel a little uncomfortable.

Of course, having such a relative was rather embarrassing.

"Speaking of which, what has the Divine Guards Academy been up to all these years? Is it that anyone can enter the academy or that anyone can graduate? The new intern was injured by a flower spirit. When I heard about it this morning, I almost choked to death..."

"Who knows..." the youth from the Wind Whisper family smiled and said, "Maybe he was careless... but it's indeed a little outrageous..."

The black-haired youth from the moon god family's face twitched slightly. This matter was indeed a little ridiculous. Regardless of whether it was carelessness or not, the Divine Guards Academy had lost all its face this time. Those two new students probably wouldn't be able to stay in Teldar Hill any longer... ..

With this thought in mind, he looked over there. That lump of rice dumpling that was tied up was twisting and turning. Coupled with that steamed bun face that had its mouth shut and its face flushed red, it looked as stupid as it could be...

Forget it, why are you looking at her?

Dinos twitched his mouth slightly and retracted his gaze. He swept his gaze over to the fellow who was the most worthy of attention not far away.

Helan Nana, the granddaughter of the current head of the Night Demon Helan family. It was rumored that she had tamed ye Youdie at the age of ten. She was a top-notch genius that was rarely seen in billions of eras in the family's history. He had long wanted to meet her... ..

On the other side, the night demon who had been watching the cabbages with interest seemed to have noticed Dinos' gaze. He turned around and looked over. Dinos did not have any intention of avoiding his gaze. Their gazes collided in mid-air just like that.

If there was any substantial spiritual power that suddenly collided in mid-air just like that, it would form ripples. Dinos' pupils constricted, and with a slight grunt, he took the lead to avoid his gaze!

When they had looked at each other just now, the other party's deep pupils had almost sucked his entire gaze in, giving him the feeling of being electrocuted!

Dinos' actions naturally attracted the attention of the two people beside him.

"You suffered a loss?" Damon asked very directly.

The youth from the Windwhisper family looked at him with a smile that was not a smile.

Dinos' expression was unsightly, and he said coldly, "You can go and try it yourself..."

"Then it seems that you have suffered a loss..." the youth from the windwhisper family laughed.

"Level eight!" Dinos said coldly, "Isn't it normal for me to suffer a loss?"

"Level eight?" Damon and Canaan were slightly stunned before they immediately narrowed their eyes.

"According to the information, that guy seems to be less than 70 years old, right?" Damon touched his chin. "Are you serious? Is this the level of an ordinary crown prince?"

"It seems that he is indeed here to be high-profile!" Canaan sneered.

On the other side, Night Demon, who had retracted her gaze, continued to look at the dumpling beside her with interest. To be honest, she was more interested in the little guy in front of her than the so-called direct descendants of the three great families.

She was at the scene when the little guy was chopping people up. She could clearly see that the two guards were not careless, they were just not as skilled as the others...

In one move, the tendons on the hands of the two elven knights, who were not weak at all, had been cut off. They had not even been able to hold their weapons properly. If it had not been for the Grand Knight who was in charge of leading the team, this fellow would probably still be chasing her dog around with a machete...

Speaking of which, what was the background of this little fellow? A flower spirit's skill was actually better than a knight trained by the Divine Guard Academy?

"Wu Wu!"

Little cabbage stared at her fiercely, as if she was going to pounce on her and bite her at any moment...

...

"Cabbage!" Chen Ye hurriedly grabbed this restless dumpling. "Stop causing trouble, if you continue like this, you'll really be chased out..."

Little cabbage: "Wu Wu..."

Little cabbage whimpered at Chen Ye with a wronged expression. Chen Ye was helpless as he looked at night demon. "Classmate, my friend told you not to keep sizing her up, saying that your gaze is like looking at a monkey..."

“You can understand what she’s saying?” Night Demon looked at Chen Ye curiously.

This was because this little fellow’s spiritual power was obviously sealed, so she could not send voice transmissions... ..

“I can roughly understand...” Chen ye smiled politely, and his tone was very kind... ..

This night demon in front of him seemed to be very impressive in terms of bearing. He was probably a descendant of a big family. This was also the reason why he pulled Bai Cai along so that she would not offend him.

Night Demon smiled. “No, I just feel that... Your Friend... is quite interesting...”

Bai Cai: “SOB SOB SOB SOB SOB! !”

“What did she say again?” Night Demon asked curiously.

Chen Ye:” ...”

Did he even need to ask? ... It could be seen from his expression that he was obviously saying that she was F * cking interesting...

“Interesting guy...” night demon smiled, his pair of pure night demon eyes narrowing slightly.

From the beginning, she had felt that this little flower spirit’s level was the same as hers. Her growth rings were also about the same, and the quality of her spirit... ..

Night Demon once again sized up the huffing and puffing cabbage. The other party’s eyes were bulging when facing her night vision eyes. Although the other party’s spirit energy was sealed and could not directly collide with her..., his spiritual energy was unable to make the other party avoid his gaze.

This could only mean that... ! ... the other party’s spiritual quality was not inferior to his!

His mother had once said that the starry sky academy had always had crouching tigers and hidden dragons. He had never thought that the moment he arrived, he would be able to witness one. It seemed that this place would not be as boring as the night vision academy...

Chapter 1443: Good Knife Skills!

“Yo, why is great instructor Lan Chen so free to come here?”

In the proofreading room at the back of the Magic Beast Academy’s Exhibition Hall, instructor Ni Lan, who was presiding over the behind-the-scenes work of the examination, asked the person who had come with a rather mocking tone.

The person who had come was wearing a dark blue windbreaker that was unique to divine guards. A pair of pure starry eyes symbolized his noble identity. He was walking with his head held high, appearing elegant yet giving off a tough aura that ordinary nobles did not have.

It was a style that only a soldier had...

The newcomer was the current actual head of the Cain family, the Chief Instructor of the Divine Guards branch of the Watchmen Academy, Lan Chen. Cain!

In the face of ridicule, the newcomer's determined face smiled slightly and replied cheerfully, "The little brat below has lost a lot of face. It's only natural for the Lord to come over and take a look, right? We can't pretend that we don't know, right?"

This unpretentious self-ridicule made the few instructors unable to help but laugh. Ni Lan's face also revealed a rare gentle smile as she said, "You still know that you've lost a lot of face..."

Watchman Academy was divided into three large courtyards. They were the Divine Policy Academy, the Divine Guard Academy, and the Divine Might Academy. Among them, the divine policy academy mainly trained military talents, and the divine might academy corresponded to the warrior academies of the martial schools in the outside world, the academy trained elven warriors with extremely high individual combat abilities.

And the Divine Guard Academy specialized in guarding!

Guarding wasn't a major recognized by the federation. After all, the dream of many warrior students wasn't to be a guard. To most people, they would either be an outstanding warrior or an outstanding general, very few people would aspire to be an outstanding guard.

However, in reality, the requirements for the major of protection were extremely high!

Not only did a guard need to have extremely outstanding individual combat abilities, they also needed to be proficient in various specialties such as anti-infiltration, anti-detection, anti-secret arts, anti-assassin, etc. . It was a high-quality and balanced major that was even more complex than a ranger's. In reality, the major of protection was very popular in the entire federation, at least in terms of employment...

And in the entire federation's Protection Major, the Divine Guard Academy was one of the top two existences. After all, the elven divine guards that were trained to serve the imperial court oracles or top elven nobles, and the requirements for graduation were extremely harsh, it was rated as the academy that was the hardest to graduate from!

Especially in this batch, the graduating guard had just been praised by the Dean as the most outstanding batch in the history of the academy. In the end, they were slapped in the face the next day. There was news that the new batch of new students had been killed by a flower spirit when they were helping to maintain order in the magical Beast Academy... ..

To the Divine Guard Academy, this was a great humiliation. Currently, the entire starry sky university's higher-ups were discussing the matter of teasing them. Lan Chen was also helpless. He had already been called over by the Dean early in the morning to investigate the situation... ..

"I can be considered to have been roasted on a fire rack today. I don't know how many reporters will make things difficult for me when I go back. Please don't make things difficult for me. Hurry up and tell me which genius did this?"

Lan Chen had always had a good reputation. Even the tricky ni Lan didn't feel good to continue poking at his wound. She smiled and opened the virtual screen next to her and said, "Here... It's the one that's tied up..."

Lan Chen looked over when he heard that. His beautiful starry eyes narrowed slightly. "It really is the flower spirit..."

Before he came here, he had thought that it was a fluke. For example, the other party had a special dual-elf system, which had the characteristics of a Ranger or an assassin... ..

"This bone structure... is a little different from an ordinary flower spirit..." Lan Chen said curiously.

"The wood spirit's bone structure is naturally a little different..." Ni Lan smiled.

"Wood Elf?" Lan Chen was taken aback. He turned around and carefully observed her. Only then did he react. He had said that the base lines of the wood elf looked a little strange. It turned out that it was an ancient species...

This was somewhat understandable. The initial species of the ancient elves were not as detailed as the later ones. The flower spirit was actually a very comprehensive skeleton at the beginning. It was not the weak type that the public now knew. In fact, at the beginning, the flower spirit was a combat type... ..

The reason was very simple. Because of the flower spirit's high elemental affinity, it was either protected by the surrounding magical beasts or coveted by the surrounding magical beasts. There were also quite a number of magical beasts that wanted to devour the flower spirit to protect themselves. The flower spirit naturally evolved a skeleton that was suitable for battle. The early flower spirits were all battle masters, but after the civilization was established and the division of labor was established, these flower spirits that specialized in nurturing gradually began to degenerate... ..

The other party's skeleton seemed to be the most primitive type... ..

And the purity of this bloodline...

Lan Chen was a little curious. Even through the screen, he could feel that the purity of this little flower spirit's bloodline was extremely high. A 70-year-old growth ring already had a life level of level eight. It was sealed with spiritual power, yet it could still look into the eyes of that little child from the Night Demon Helan family. The quality of this spiritual power was probably at the level of the royal family...

"Kyle's illegitimate daughter has such a top-notch seedling? Why haven't I heard of it?"

Ni Lan pouted. She really wanted to say that she had never heard of it either... ..

"But..." Lan Chen stroked his sexy chin and said in puzzlement, "Even if it's an ancient species, isn't it a little too fake to have killed two of my students?"

"That's true, Your Excellency, the head instructor..." Ni Lan pointed behind him as she said, "You can ask your knight officer who's leading the team about the specific situation..."

Lan Chen turned around, and just then, a person wearing a dark blue cloak walked over with his head held high.

"Sir Lan Chen!" The person walked in and gave a military salute... ..

Lan Chen looked at the person. This person was called miser, and he was the divine guard officer in charge of the Order of the Magical Beast Academy this time. He was also the instructor in charge of leading the interns to practice the guard work.

“What’s the situation, miser...”Lan Chen looked at the other party with a smile. He looked very friendly, but those who were familiar with Lord Lan Chen’s character knew that he was actually quite angry.

Miser was also very helpless. He had led the team for many years and had never revealed anything. He had never thought that he would be overthrown by a new student here. What was the point of being angry at himself? That student was taught by you, right. I was only in charge of leading the team and letting them familiarize themselves with the guard work. I’ve never done anything like this before. “...”. You should be blamed for this, right?

But he naturally couldn’t say such words, he could only lower his head and honestly explain the situation. “At that time, for some unknown reason, that little flower spirit suddenly took out a dangerous weapon and chased his magical beast everywhere. The two students naturally had to follow the rules to stop it...”

“Dangerous Weapon?”Lan Chen frowned slightly.

“Mm...”miser quickly took out the two blades that he had seized... ..

“Dragon Bone Steel? ?”Lan Chen took a deep breath. “That Guy Kyle is really willing to part with it...”

The top-grade steel-making materials made from the bones of dragons were extremely destructive. The physical strength of warriors below the dragon rank could not even achieve defense. One of them could be sold at an astronomical price in the black market. This little guy actually had two of them?

“And then?”Lan Chen frowned and said, “Was it because he didn’t recognize the danger of this knife that he got careless and got injured?”

It was not impossible for this situation to happen. The dragon bone steel could cut the best star steel like cutting vegetables. If one was not careful, he or she could be suddenly injured.

However, this could not be forgiven. After all, the guardian major of the Divine Guards was not a pure warrior. Identifying dangerous weapons was also one of the professional requirements. Losing on this was not an excuse!

“It’s not that...”miser shook his head and said in a complicated tone, “It’s just that you’re not as good as people...”

Lan Chen:”...”

As miser spoke, he tapped on the virtual screen and released the security footage he had sealed, he pointed at the video and explained, “The students taught by the adults are very professional. They recognized the dragonbone steel in the little guy’s hand almost immediately. It’s a dangerous weapon, so the first strategy they adopted was to avoid the opponent’s blade and disarm the opponent’s weapon... . But... .”

Lan Chen’s mouth slightly twitches, this teaching profession this expression, at this time it seems not appropriate to use it... .

Suppressing his displeasure, he looked carefully at the video, which was showing two interns diving to the left and right side of the cabbage ready to seize each other's blades.

It can be said that both the position selection and the timing of the attack are very good, even Lan Chen such a harsh instructor can not find fault, but the key lies in the reaction of the little flower spirit.

The sudden attack on little cabbage almost reflexively began to defend with a knife. In a flash, the tendons of the hands of the two divine guard interns were cut off, and the blades in their hands were disarmed!

The entire process was extremely fast. In less than a few seconds, but the showdown that was displayed made Lan Chen unable to help but sigh. "Good knife skills!"

Chapter 1444: Star class

There was no lack of techniques in any academy. As the exclusive martial arts school of the Starry Sky Academy, the Guarding Academy had a huge collection of combat techniques. Many instructors couldn't even memorize the techniques of many famous masters. Lan Chen, as the head instructor, couldn't... His knowledge was even more extraordinary. There weren't many saber techniques that he could say were good...

"But I've never seen this style of saber technique..." Lan Chen rubbed his chin and looked at the divine guard officer beside him. "Your Bi Lan family is a family that specializes in collecting techniques. Have you seen it before?"

Miser shook his head. His expression became even more complicated as he quietly rubbed his left hand.

No one saw this small action. If one looked carefully, they would discover that there was a slight saber scar on the palm of his left hand. It was obvious that it was imbued with the dragon acid attribute and had not healed for a long time...

Yes, the cut had been made when he had captured the little flower spirit alive. At that time, two academies had been injured. In a moment of desperation, as the divine guard in charge of leading the team, he naturally had to make a move. It was just that he had not expected the other party's saber techniques to be so sharp.

At that time, when he had used his clan's movement technique to cut in and was prepared to quickly take down the other party, the other party's figure had dodged him lightly like a feather. The dragonbone saber in his hand had stabbed at him from an extremely tricky angle, at that time, he subconsciously deflected with the weapon in his hand. After all, a head-on collision might injure the opponent, but it was also easy for the high-quality dragon bone saber in the opponent's hand to damage his weapon.

However, he did not expect that the opponent's saber would not be deflected after being deflected by him. Instead, it was extremely exquisite as it absorbed a portion of his strength. Following that, it coiled around his saber like a spirit snake and used the runic patterns on the surface of his saber as its energy to charge forward, in an instant, it dove into his palm!

That move had come too exquisitely and too quickly, causing him to be unable to help but be stunned for a moment. Immediately after, he was injured by his opponent's small blade in his palm.

At that time, he had subconsciously used his Qi force to blast his opponent away. The difference in their sizes was too great, and the little flower spirit was directly sent flying, fainting on the ground. However, the palm of his hand had also left a wound... ..

He didn't tell anyone about this. He even secretly deleted the video... ..

As a level-15 divine guard, he was only half a step away from dragon-level. He was forced to use his qi force by a level-8 little flower spirit. If he told others about it, he wouldn't need to stay in the circle anymore... ..

"It's a little interesting..." Lan Chen watched the video a few times, and his eyes became brighter and brighter. "Do you want this little flower spirit? Don't give it to me. I think she's quite suitable for the Divine Guard Academy. I'll talk to Kyle..."

"You can think of a flower spirit to be a divine guard..." Ni Lan naturally wouldn't allow it, so she directly refused.

What a joke. As a relative, she didn't really want her niece to be a magical beast master with such good aptitude, but she was also going to the Elemental Master Academy, so how could she be a gatekeeper. Then she might as well be a magical beast master... ..

The family didn't have any need for guards. On the contrary, regardless of whether it was the position of elemental envoy or some position of Magical Beast Master, the family was determined to get it...

"Is that so..." Lan Chen stroked his chin, he was a little embarrassed. If it were someone else, he would have been able to speak up. But this person in front of him was hard to say. After all, they were relatives. If it were him, he wouldn't let such a good junior like him praise his profession and let others get it.

But if that was the case, why did he have to train such a good skill from a young age? Was Kyle Sick? Not only did he train a flower spirit to be so good at fighting, but he also made her lose face. He even made her become a magic beast master, a career with no future. What was the meaning of this? Was he deliberately trying to disgust her?

At this thought, she looked at the little cabbage tied up in the exhibition hall. She immediately noticed the big yellow dog lying next to him... ..

"That yellow-haired pig is her magical pet?"

The faces of the instructors twitched when they heard that. Dylan also twitched his mouth slightly and said with a cold face, "Sir Instructor, don't talk nonsense without common sense. How does it look like a pig?"

"How does it not look like a pig?" Lan Chen laughed coldly. "Other than the dog's face, it has all the characteristics of a pig, okay? And it's obvious that it's a hybrid. Is this how the Muzir family trains excellent magical Beast Masters?"

Ni Lan: "..."

“This has nothing to do with the instructor, right?”

“I saw that such a good junior was wasted. If the Muzir clan has no intention of grooming him, why don't you give it to me cheaply? I happen to have no descendants, so I'll take in a goddaughter to retire...”

“The instructor must be joking, right?” Ni Lan narrowed her eyes and said.

“I'm not joking...” Lan Chen smiled as he looked at the monitor in the hall. The little cabbage, who had been glaring at the He Lan clan's trolls, was baring its teeth like a puppy. The more he looked at it, the more he liked it... .

Ni Lan's heart skipped a beat when she saw this...

Lan Chen was the actual head of the Cain family. He had not had any offspring all these years. The word “Retirement” had great meaning. However, the other party had always been calm. Such indiscreet words were rarely said. . .

I'm afraid... .. I really like the little flower spirit... . .

I Can't do that... .. She had other plans for the doll. ... It seemed like she had to go to her sister's place early after the exam to settle the matter, or else... .. It would be troublesome if someone beat her to it.

Later, she would ask someone to seal off the news and not spread it around, lest it would attract the attention of a guy like Lan Chen... ..

“During the exam, it's better for the head instructor not to cause trouble...” ni Lan said coldly.

“Alright...” Lan Chen smiled. “Then after the exam, tell me. I can also take a look. This little guy is so good at his subject, how is his major...”

Ni Lan's face instantly turned cold, but she naturally couldn't directly chase him away. She could only instruct the people around her to start the student assessment this time... ..

“The assessment is about to begin. Now, let me explain the rules...”

On the display stage, a woman in a purple dress, the beautiful elven instructor held up a form and said to all the students in the audience seats below, “According to the first selection, there are a total of 431 students who have passed the basic qualifications. The number of students admitted by the academy this time is 220... .”

A lot of students heard the sudden jump in the heart, some nervous, before the students have thousands of people, the result of the first round of so many left, and now even to eliminate half...

However, the 2:1 acceptance rate now sounded like... .. It wasn't that scary anymore... ..

The teacher continued, “The 220 students who are accepted will be divided into three classes. The Star class will have 30 students, the heaven class will have 80 students, and the Earth class will have 110 students. The academy will decide which class you will enter based on your final results. Please note that there is a difference in the allocation of resources among the three classes. After the decision is made, there will be an opportunity to adjust once a year. However, I still advise you to be able to enter the ideal class in one go... .”

As soon as these words came out, the eyes of some students who were very confident in themselves lit up. Before they came, they had already heard that there were three classes in the School of Warcraft, the Star class, the Heaven Class, and the Earth class, the geography, resources, and teachers assigned to each class are quite different.

The Star class is taught by Dean Dylan, who monopolizes a world tree forest in tedarhill. Not only does tedarhill have the opportunity to obtain high-quality daemons,. Also can let oneself grow up from the magic pet in the world tree enchantment get the most abundant nutrients, the other two classes can not have this treatment... .

For them... .. The Star class is ideal, but... .. The quota is very small, say 30 people, but after deducting the exemption quota: ... There should only be about ten places... .

Ten...

At the thought of this number, most of the examinees looked at each other in their hearts, their eyes flashing with passion... ..

“Each student will be shown on stage for five minutes. Please try your best to wash and express the advantages and commercial value of your magical pet within five minutes. Although three-quarters of the points are due to the quality of your magical beast, if you don’t think that the quality of your magical pet can crush the competitors around you, you should still try your best to express your points. After all... . There aren’t many seats available. Next, number one, Keith. Please come on stage... .”

Chapter 1445: Finally, there’s someone to watch... ..

Behind the scenes, Lan Chen sat beside Dean Dylan. After watching the magical beast display of nearly thirty students, Lan Chen gave a very direct evaluation.

Dylan’s eyelids twitched for a moment, but he didn’t reply. Ni Lan, who was at the side, replied, “Does the instructor mean that the students of the Divine Guard Academy this year are very good?”

“Ahem... I didn’t mean that...”Lan Chen apologized sincerely.

In the year of the Crown Prince, the Divine Guard Academy had many descendants of the direct line of descent of the nobles. They had specially chosen to compete with the crown prince for the position of the Crown Prince’s bodyguard or the vassal king’s bodyguard. The number of good students did not decrease, but instead increased., it was completely different from the cold situation of the other academies.

“What I mean is... It’s worse than I imagined...”Lan Chen thought for a moment, but he still said bluntly.

These words made ni Lan roll her eyes. She didn’t know how to respond to this straight man. Dylan’s face was even darker than before.

However, what the other party said was true. The quality this year was exceptionally poor. It was much worse than the previous years of the Crown Prince. One had to know that the students on stage had all been screened. A few thousand people had been screened to over 400 people. In the end, the quality of the first 30 people on stage was still so unsightly. ... They hadn't even reached the standard of the initial test... ..

This indeed made people's mood not very good, but there was a big straight man next to them who liked to tell the truth...

"Uh..." Lan Chen saw that Dylan's face was gloomy, he also knew that he seemed to be poking at his heart, he scratched his head and comforted him, "Actually... "...". Perhaps it was due to the adverse effect. This year, the quality of the crown prince was too high. Fate had bestowed us with a better quality of the royal family, so naturally, they would take away some things from us in other places. This might have resulted in this...". "..."

Dylan rolled his eyes at him. "You sure know how to comfort people. Then why did it have to be our Beast College? I just went over to take a look at the Elementalist College next door, and the quality was still pleasing to the eye..."

"Maybe... maybe..." Lan Chen thought for a long time before he finally explained, "Maybe it's because the Beast College usually earns too much from the outside world, so..."

"So you got your retribution?" Dylan looked at Lan Chen coldly.

"UH... ahem... that's not what I meant..."

"That's exactly what you meant!" Dylan sneered. "Sir Instructor, don't forget that most of the money the Beast College earns from the outside world is used to subsidize your watchmen college. You Can't just eat the benefits and say that we will take the retribution, right?"

"Dean Dylan, what are you saying? I've never meant to..."

Ni Lan found it funny watching from the side. Lan Chen was a straightforward person, while Dean Dylan was a difficult person. When the two of them were together, it was really... ..

Just as she was thinking about it, a notification suddenly appeared in the hall. Candidate number 33: Morning, Night:. Ardia went up on stage to demonstrate... ..

Whether it was instructor Ni Lan or dean Dylan, both of them were somewhat familiar with this name. They subconsciously looked over.

They just happened to see the tall, thunder-like night demon... ..

"Oh... it's him..." Dylan's expression softened slightly. He had seen the other party's initial form before, and he was pretty good in all aspects. If the quality of the magic beast that the other party had nurtured was not bad, not to mention the Star class, the Heaven class could at least take up a spot. ...

In the exhibition hall:

After Chen Ye heard his name, he took a deep breath to calm himself down and stood up.

Little cabbage: "Sob, sob, sob..."

Chen Ye turned around when he heard that and squeezed out a smile on his slightly stiff face. "Mm... I'll do my best..."

Little cabbage: "Sob, SOB, SOB, sob!"

Chen Ye: "There's really no more meat patties. The piece that your Big Huang snatched from you is the last piece. After the exam, I'll treat you to some delicious food..."

Little cabbage: "Wu Wu Wu Wu Wu Wu!"

Chen Ye smiled bitterly and said, "Don't do anything rash. You only have rhubarb as your pet now. If you stew it, it will be completely eliminated. When you go on stage later, calm rhubarb down and let it cooperate well... . I like rhubarb. It's so agile... ."

Morning and night think of the scene in the morning, small cabbage two knives so sharp, two maintenance order of the first two were cut down, rhubarb can be hunted down by small cabbage for so long, and can swallow the moon rabbit. It shouldn't be an ordinary running dog... ..

Little Cabbage:"..."

"What did she say again?" Helan Nana couldn't help but ask.

Chen Ye covered his head. "I didn't hear it clearly this time..."

Helan Nana was stunned. She thought that this was a special way of communication, but it turned out that the other party really relied on hearing to get information. That Little Flower Spirit was a weirdo, and this guy was also a talent... ..

"Student Chenye?"

"Ahem... I'm Here! !" Chenye quickly answered, then patted little cabbage's shoulder. "I'll go up first, don't do anything rash when I'm not here..."

Little cabbage: "Woo Woo..."

"Hello, teachers..." Chenye first bowed to the teachers who were grading... ..

The teachers nodded slightly. Teacher ni Lan, who was in charge, said to the loudspeaker on the crystal screen, "Let's begin..."

Chen Ye's appearance on the stage piqued the interest of the three noble children who were sitting in the VIP area.

"This is the first time I've seen a magical beast master from the Thunder Clan..." Damon from the sunstrider clan said curiously.

"Idiot... look carefully, he's from the Night Demon clan..." Dinos from the moon god Clan said coldly.

“Do I Need You to Remind Me?” Damon rolled his eyes and said, “I want to say... This guy is so poor that he can’t even bear to transform his body after purifying his bloodline. How can he be so familiar with that doll from the Helan Clan?”

“Meeting a fellow countryman in a foreign land...” Canaan from the Wind Whisper Clan said with a smile, “It’s very normal...”

While they were chatting, morning and night on the display platform showed their magical pets.

“Yo, silent tail, and it’s a Night Shade Magical Beast?” Damon was slightly interested.

Silent Tail was a relatively common fox magical beast, but that didn’t mean that it was easy to raise. On the contrary, it was very difficult for silent tail to raise its attributes!

Originally, it was a magical beast that favored pets, but a long time ago, a magical beast master suddenly discovered the unique evolution characteristics of silent tail. It was actually a special species that could evolve in a short period of time through the nourishment of high-level elements.

Hence, the fire spirit silent tail, the ice spirit silent tail, the forest silent tail, and other species were born.

However, although this species had a unique ability to absorb elements, the probability of success after absorption was very small. Moreover, the process of cultivation had to be very careful. The more unstable the element, the easier it was to cause the silent tail to evolve and mutate, thus, it would become a zombie beast.

Among the many elements, the most unstable ones were the light-day spatial element and the shadow-night Nether element. After all, these two elements were the two most difficult subjects in the energy shaping department.

Even the descendants of professional magical beast families would not easily touch this project. The energy of Magical Beast Masters below Level-10 was limited. Very few people would cultivate many magical beasts, and most of them only had one or two breeding seeds.

This led to the limited ability of the magical beast apprentices to make trial and error. If they chose to cultivate such a difficult species, it was very likely that their decades of hard work would be for naught, resulting in them not having any outstanding samples to take the exam later on, instead, there were no outstanding samples to take the exam.

“Interesting...”

On the other side, the few instructors in the backstage hall nodded when they saw the samples. Clearly, they were very impressed that the other party dared to cultivate such a difficult species. Even Dean Dylan, who had always had a gloomy face, suddenly had a much more relaxed expression.

Finally, there was someone to watch...

Chapter 1446: Morning and night’s demonstration...

“Greetings, mentors...”

Morning and night bowed respectfully and did not waste any time. They quickly began their introduction. After all, each student's demonstration time was only five minutes. Within the limited time, they had to quickly let the mentors see the advantages of their own magical beasts... ..

"My quiet night moon-studded quiet tail is a rare product among quiet tails, and it fully demonstrates the advantages of quiet tails' attributes. As everyone knows, quiet tails is a light and agile fox-type magical beast. In terms of physical attack, be it its explosive force or its size, it is very weak. Even if it used an evolution stone, it would still be considered low-end among magical beasts of the same level. If you want to make up for its shortcomings, the dark night attributes are definitely one of the best attributes!"

"Static tail's high agility is one of the best among magical beasts of the same level. Equipped with shadow attributes that can be stacked and compressed, it can greatly increase static tail's explosive power. An excellent trainer can target and train multiple attack methods..."

As he spoke, he made a hand gesture. The magical beasts that he had trained since young quickly understood what his master meant. First, he lightly stepped on the ground and dived into the shadows on the spot. Then, he suddenly appeared in another corner., the sharp claws that were filled with shadow attributes suddenly clawed at the space. The special energy space in the surroundings was instantly clawed out with a deep scratch, like a terrifying blade!

The judges and instructors all nodded when they saw this.

This little quiet tail was level 7, but the attack power that it could unleash with the shadow attribute was even comparable to a level 8 moon cat. Moreover, its attribute ratio was very well controlled, it did not give up its agility advantage because it relied too much on its shadow attributes. The agility displayed by the little silent tail was definitely an excellent level 7 agility daemon.

Not to mention other things, its grade could be at least eight points!

Chen Ye was also relieved when he saw the performance of his pet. This little daemon of his usually had a poor adaptability to unfamiliar environments, it was also because he did not have much money to bring it to different places for outdoor training.

Recently, when the exam was approaching, Big Brother sent some money over to give him some training conditions. However, the time was short, so he was not sure if the effect of the training before the exam could be shown in the exam.

Now, it seemed that his little bright moon was still in line with expectations... ..

"I believe that everyone has seen that the shadow attribute does not conflict with static tail's agility attribute. As long as there is no problem with the control ratio, it will make static tail's agility advantage even more obvious..."

"My Mi..."

When Little Bright Moon heard his master's praise, he happily ran on the display platform. He also used the shadow attribute to shuttle around like he was showing off his skills. His movements were extremely smooth. Those who were lower in level could only see his afterimage clearly...

"Alright, Mingyue..." Chen Ye waved at her. Mingyue obediently ran back to Chen Ye's feet and rubbed against it, like an obedient kitten... ..

"Not bad..."

Ni Lan, who was in charge of the magical beast grade control points, had a much better expression. She nodded and said softly to the instructors around her, "The magical Beast's skeleton, fur, and element bonus rate are all very peaceful and perfect, and..."

As she said that, she looked at Chen Ye and asked, "Classmate, you just introduced your magical pet as night shade with a quiet tail, and its hair also has a bright orange color. Did you add other elemental ratios?"

"Yes..." Chen ye quickly replied, "The radiant moon attribute with mixed ratios..."

The surrounding instructors were immediately interested. The Radiant Moon attribute was an industrial attribute, not a natural elemental attribute. It was usually used to make alchemy industrial products. There were not many juniors who dared to use such a mixed proportion of industrial elements to train magic beasts... ..

Because the mixing of industrial elements was complicated, the possibility of incompatibility was greater. Usually, the younger generation of Magic Beasts would choose to use natural element magic beasts... ..

"Why did you add the radiant moon attribute?" Ni Lan asked with a smile.

"Because it can balance the negative effects of the shadow attribute's shadow transformation..." "..."
"... "Chen ye said honestly, "The pure night darkness element can easily cause the pet to turn into a shadow, turning it into a pure shadow creature. This will greatly reduce quiet tail's own advantages. Moreover, pure shadow creatures are not likable. The beautiful hair of the fine tail and the cute appearance of the Fox element are a big selling point. If it is completely abandoned, it is not in line with the original intention of raising quiet tail..." "..."

"Very good!" Ni Lan had a look of admiration on her face. The worst thing a magical beast could do was to forget the advantages of a magical beast in order to strengthen it. Not many people understood this principle at such a young age.

"But you also have to know that the radiant moon attribute is an industrial attribute. Even if you carefully adjust the ratio at the beginning, the probability of losing control midway and causing your quality to drop drastically is still very high, especially when you are still a child at level six or seven. Your decades of hard work may very well be destroyed in an instant, causing your score to drop drastically in the national examination. Why did you choose such a risky route?"

Chen Ye hesitated for two seconds, in the end, he still bowed and said honestly, "I have prepared a backup magical beast. Of course, I also know that if bright moon fails to nurture a backup magical beast, the points that I can earn will be far lower than my own points. However, I know my own aptitude and family environment. If I don't choose to take a risk, it will be very difficult for me to get into a top-tier school like your school..." "..."

As soon as these words were said, the few instructors all revealed smiles. The image of a humble student who had always wanted to be admitted into their starry sky academy was instantly raised. It also made them have a better impression of this little night devil who had the appearance of a thunder clan...

"Not bad... "... "..." Ni Lan expressed her admiration for the second time. "You're very suitable for the job of a magical beast master. The meaning of a magical beast master is to constantly test out the possibilities of new species. If you don't have the courage to take risks since you were young, then it will be very difficult for you to achieve anything in the future. You're very good, work hard. I believe that you will become an excellent magical beast master..." "..."

Chen Ye was elated when she heard this. She immediately bowed and said, "Thank you, teacher! !"

In the gallery, most of the students revealed looks of envy. Since teacher Ni Lan had personally said so, it meant that the other party would definitely be accepted. After all, from the start of the assessment until now, the other party had said so much. This fellow was the first... ..

The descendants of the three great clans were expressionless. This level of skill was not worth their attention.

Helan Nana revealed a smile and thought to herself, 'as expected, the bloodline of our night demon family is much stronger than those puppies...'. ...

Only little cabbage was dumbfounded...

So... .. There were so many things to pay attention to when raising magic beasts? Weren't they just in charge of eating, drinking, and defecating?

Ni Lan smiled and signaled for the other party to step down. Then, she communicated with the teachers around her and marked the remarks on the other party's remarks: The remarks of the star-class candidate... ..

Originally, with the other party's bloodline and the purity of his spiritual power, the heaven class was already the limit. However, Ni Lan was very optimistic about the other party's meticulous thoughts and courage. After all, things like a magical beast master..., always relied on nurturing magical beasts for a living. Although one's own attributes were important, nurturing the habits of magical beasts was also very important.

This was a seedling that was worth nurturing...

Even if the Star class was full later and he couldn't be used as an alternative, Ni Lan would get the other instructors to pay more attention to this child in the Heaven Class... ..

However, after a few hours, Ni Lan felt that she was overthinking things... ..

It wasn't that there weren't enough spots for the Star class this year, it was just that there were too many... .. After all, after leaving the stage in the morning and night, the hundreds of examinees who came later were all too mediocre. Almost none of them could make her eyes light up.

If this continued, this year's Star class would probably be overrated... ..

Just like that, after worrying for an entire afternoon, the sound of a notification for the next student to go on stage came from the broadcast.

"Number 139, Helan Nana, please come on Stage!"

The moment this broadcast came out, all the teachers' spirits were jolted, including the disciples from the three great families who were about to fall asleep.

The main event came...

Chapter 1447: it's already too late...

"They're here!"

Once this name was announced, everyone in the exhibition hall who had a bit of knowledge perked up. However, the difference was that most people only wanted to watch the show, while the instructors and the juniors of the three great clans wanted to observe the enemy's situation...

The term 'enemy's situation' was not overused, but it was a fact. This was because the outstanding juniors of the Night Demon clan had openly come to the starry sky academy. Not only were they here to provoke and snatch resources, but they were also here to attack their magical Beast Academy...

The academy had to be open to all clans. This was a federal rule. Although schools like the Starry Sky Academy and the Divine Arcana Academy were biased towards their own clans, and there would even be vicious incidents of bullying and oppressing geniuses from other clans that would be exposed..., but that would depend on the identity of the other party.

If the other party's identity was of the same level, even if it was the Divine Arcana Academy, which completely favored their own direct line of descent, they would not have the guts to go too far.

And if the other party dared to send their most outstanding direct line of descent over, they could only use their outstanding juniors to retaliate. If they used other methods, then the face of a large clan would really be lost...

Dean Dylan sat up straight and silently watched the direct line of descent of the Helan clan walk up to the stage with satisfaction, step by step.

It wasn't that there weren't situations where other royal powers sent their outstanding disciples to compete with the other powers' academies to establish their might. In the previous year, their starry clan's Muzir clan had done this sort of thing... ..

That's right, it was that big stallion that was despised by his compatriots: Kyle... Muzir... ..

As a disciple of the warrior department, he directly ran to the Night Demon Clan's Royal Academy: The Night Demon Academy's Warrior Department for reference. He also stole the limelight in that year, trampling all the disciples of the Night Demon Department under his feet., he had fought for the Starry Night Elves for a great amount of fame.

At that time, Kyle was a national hero. Wherever he went, thousands of people would follow him. He even had many supporters in the Night Demon clan. It was said that he even helped a royal daughter of the Night Demon clan to get pregnant and came back... ..

However, leaving aside the romantic affairs, Kyle was indeed the Outstanding Warrior Department of the Space Elves. Because of him, all the Knights of the space elves felt that they were superior to the warriors of the Night Demon clan all these years.

'I've not imagined that it was Kyle's turn to cause trouble...'. ...

Dylan observed Kyle seriously. However, Kyle chose the Demon Beast Academy. If what Kyle did in the Night Demon Academy could be repeated here, the Demon Beast Academy might have to take the blame this time... ..

After Kyle became famous, the members of the Night Demon clan scolded that batch of warrior students like dogs. Some news even said that that batch of warrior students was the most useless generation in the history!

In reality, the members of the inner circle all knew that the descendants of the Night Demon Warrior department in that batch were not bad. Some of the direct descendants of the large clans had very considerable latent talent, and had once been classified as a seed of dangerous potential by the evaluation group.

Even if Kyle's latent talent was extremely outstanding, it was impossible to say that he was much higher than those direct descendants. However, he had just happened to be the strongest, and had defeated all of them. This had caused the direct descendants of that batch to directly die in the society... ..

Kyle was now the Grand Commander of the Starry Sky Imperial Family. Meanwhile, those direct descendants who had contended with him in the night serene academy had directly hidden themselves from the public's view and obediently became internal elders in the clan, the type that usually did not go out much.

This caused that generation to not be able to take on many important warrior positions. Many of the important warrior positions of the Night Demon clan were held by the older generation. One could imagine how serious Kyle's influence was during that time!

If the same thing were to happen in the Starry Sky Academy...

Dylan didn't even dare to imagine how the Demon Beast Academy would be scolded in the future. But... .. This little girl had the ability!

Da Da... Da Da da...

The other party was wearing the night demon race's unique Crystal High Heels, emitting a clear and melodious sound on the stage crystal. Coupled with her beautiful appearance, it made people unconsciously follow her rhythm.

And the most eye-catching thing was the night demon butterfly that was gently flapping its wings on the other party's shoulder... ..

All the instructors cautiously narrowed their eyes.

The night demon butterfly was a high-level species that only existed in the ancient night land. It was one of the ten most dangerous species in the night land. In the outside world, this butterfly was also known as the Hell Butterfly...

Even the flower spirit of the starry sky imperial family had never heard of anyone who dared to touch the existence of such an ancient species when they were young... ..

Ancient... .. represented the laws of the universe in the past., it was extremely incompatible with the present. It was a terrifying species that could defy the universe and live until now with its pure strength. Any species that carried the words 'ancient' were symbols of strength and danger. For example, the dragon race... For example, some ancient yimo...

Compared to the solemn expressions on the faces of the teachers, Helan Nana appeared exceptionally relaxed. It was as if she was walking in her own backyard. She wore a long black dress and her entire person was like a dancing black butterfly... ..

"Helan Nana greets all the teachers..." the little girl walked up to the stage with a beautiful smile. However, the more natural she was, the more the teachers frowned.

The confidence that the other party exuded from the beginning to the end made them feel a little uneasy...

In the VIP seats, the expressions of Damon, Dinos, and Jia Nan from the three great clans were ice-cold. The other party's playful attitude seemed to not take them seriously at all. It was a little too arrogant!

"The one you want to show off is the night butterfly on your shoulder?" Instructor ni Lan asked straightforwardly.

"That's right..." Helan Nana answered politely.

"It's rumored that you tamed this night butterfly at the age of ten. Haven't you tried to give me any surprises over the years? For example, taming a yin-yang fish or something?"

"Instructor, you must be joking..." "... Helan Nana said with a smile, "I'm still young. Taming a night butterfly is good luck. How can I continue to take risks without knowing what's good for me?" "? What's more, how could I dare to touch a thing like the yin-yang fish without a star rank?"

"Then it seems that you still have self-awareness..." ni lan said coldly, "Then let us see how the spirit butterfly that was tamed by you at the age of ten has grown..."

"Yes..." Helan Nana was not annoyed by her words and continued to bow with a smile. Then, she stood up and gently tapped the spirit butterfly on her shoulder with her hand!

The originally quiet spirit butterfly raised her head slightly. Suddenly, an extremely cold aura spread out from her small body. Then, in the next second, the entire exhibition hall suddenly felt a magnetic pressure that was similar to gravity!

All the students in the audience seats instantly felt an extremely terrifying pressure. That pressure was not purely gravitational, but came from their minds!

"SH * t! !"

Ni Lan and the rest of the instructors instantly reacted. This netherworld butterfly was actually a rare magical beast!

The magical beast apprentices who came to take the reference turned pale under that pressure. Even moving was extremely difficult, as if they could not breathe. However, they did not notice that the one who suffered the most was their own magical pets.

The magical pets beside those apprentices all lay on the ground, their bodies shaking like chaff. Their pupils immediately dilated, becoming sluggish! !

Ni Lan stood up and was about to stop them when she was pressed on her shoulders by two hands.

She turned around and saw Dean Dylan and head instructor Lan Chen with solemn expressions.

“Dean?” NI LAN said anxiously, “If this goes on...”

“It’s too late...” Dylan narrowed his eyes and said coldly... ..

Chapter 1448: Telepathy!

It was already too late...

The dean’s seemingly indifferent tone was actually so cold that Lan Chen, who was standing right next to him, couldn’t help but tremble... ..

However, Lan Chen could also understand. After all, that little girl had really gone too far... ..

A demonic seed wasn’t the meaning of a demonic beast seed, a demon... .. It referred to a different category, a group of dark, strange, and mysterious species with unknown and mysterious powers in the universe.

It was said that the night butterfly could travel through the heavenly devil realm. A small portion of the spirit butterflies would devour the remaining spiritual energy of the Heavenly Devil and transform into a terrifying demonic seed.

The terrifying spiritual talent of the heavenly devil, when digested by the other party’s body, would turn into a terrifying spiritual pressure on the same type of demonic beast. A serious... .. It was a spiritual attack that could cause the demonic beast to collapse!

Even Dylan did not expect that this little girl from the Helan family had tamed not only the extremely dangerous night serene butterfly, but also this kind of dangerous magical beast!

When that spirit butterfly released its pressure, she initially thought that the little girl was just trying to demonstrate her power against the descendants of the three great noble families. Although this kind of provocation was a little high-profile, after all, she was here to provoke them. So what if she was a little high-profile., back then, that Guy Kyle was even more high-profile in their academy.

But she did not expect that she was thinking too lightly...

The pressure of the Sky Demon's spirit attribute spread throughout the entire place. All the students' Magical Beasts were instantly occupied by the fear, and they had almost no ability to resist at all.

Judging from their dull eyes, most of the Magical Beasts' Spirit had already collapsed. Even if they stopped it now, these magical beasts that were infected by the fear would also be crippled... ..

Lan Chen narrowed his eyes as he looked at the smiling little girl. He sighed in his heart. At such a young age, his methods were really vicious!

As he thought about this, he looked at the descendants of the three great clans.

After all, compared to ordinary students, the loss of the academy could still be compensated. However, if the magical beasts that the descendants of the three great clans had nurtured were also crippled, then this competition for the position of crown prince would have nothing to do with them at all.

After all, no matter which crown prince it was, he would not choose to accept such a piece of trash who had lost face...

Just like Lan Chen, Ni Lan also looked at the three juniors. Her priority was to look at the juniors of her family's moon god Clan: Dinos!

Although she and the family head were not on good terms, he was still an outstanding junior of her family. If news of his magical beast being crippled by someone like this spread, his future would be almost ruined... ..

At this moment, the disciples of the three families, Dinos, Damon, and Canaan, all had solemn expressions on their faces. It was clear that they were highly focused on resisting the pressure, and it was not as easy as it was at the beginning.

And the magical beasts around the three disciples were even more like they were facing a great enemy!

Ni Lan looked at the magical pet of Dinos, who was a junior of her family. It was a lion that seemed to be dyed in gold. At this moment, its golden fur stood up like metal spikes, emitting a dangerous glow. It was clear that it was extremely nervous!

NI LAN heaved a sigh of relief when she saw this.

It was good that it had the will to resist. If it lost its focus like the other students, then there was no way to remedy it... ..

"Dinos, this little girl is a little troublesome!" Damon's muscles tensed up as he said in a low voice.

"Nonsense..." Dinos' face was cold, he couldn't even be bothered to roll his eyes. Of course, he didn't have the energy at this moment. The pressure from the magic butterfly was extremely great. Even if its fear towards non-magical beasts had weakened, it was still no small matter.., if he was not careful, he would probably fall.

Moreover, he would have to share his spiritual energy with his own magic beast...

Dinos glanced at his own Sakra Dragon Master from the corner of his eyes. This was a high-end mixed dragon species that the elders of his family had given him. Its bloodline was extremely powerful, and it had its own dragon might.

However, under the pressure of the magic butterfly, he could not even retaliate. He could only passively defend.

Even though he looked like he was about to explode, Dinos, who was familiar with the habits of his magical pet, knew very well that this was a bluff. If the pressure was just a little bit higher, this fellow would immediately run away!

If this happened, he would probably be too ashamed to stay in the magical Beast Academy in the future!

However, now that he was completely suppressed, it would probably be a disgrace if it were to spread out later... ..

At the thought of this, he looked at the two people beside him.

Other than Sook who did not come. The Star Whisperer, the most powerful direct descendants of this batch of magical beasts had basically arrived. Damon and Canaan were both his competitors, but their situation was not much better at the moment.

Damon, who was the highest level, looked slightly better, but the situation of his magical beast, the Golden Griffin, was the worst at the moment. Damon had no choice but to use more than half of his spiritual energy to bear the burden of his magical pet. At the moment, he looked even more exhausted than them.

Canaan and his ice bird were not much better.

This scene made Dinos feel a lot better. When someone was unlucky, he would always feel relieved when someone was unlucky with him... ..

After all, he had encountered a magical seed, so there was nothing he could do about it... ..

While he was comforting himself, Dinos' eyes inadvertently drifted, and he suddenly saw an incredible scene.

It was in an inconspicuous corner... That's right, it was where the Helan Girl was. ...

A big dog that was as fat as a yellow-furred pig was leisurely crawling on a few chairs. Its expression was lazy like a homebody dog that had just eaten its fill and was basking in the sun.

To be honest, if it wasn't for the fact that his pores were about to turn red from the pressure, he would have thought that the other party was really on vacation on a beach... ..

What was going on?

This abnormal situation was obviously not noticed by Dinos alone.

On the stage, Helana, who was watching everyone's reaction with a smile, also noticed it...

When her gaze swept over the Big Yellow Dog, the originally perfect smile on her face slightly twitched...

As expected... it wasn't a simple dog...

She had noticed this before!

She was very close to the little flower spirit that was tied up like a dumpling, and the Big Yellow Dog was lying on the ground obediently. It looked honest at that time, but in her eyes, it was abnormal.

After all, her spirit butterfly was on her shoulder. Although she had deliberately suppressed her magic attribute, if she was too close to it, she would still have some reaction.

Just like the silent tail of his own kind, it had long shrunk to a corner and stayed far away from him. On the other hand, the big yellow dog did not seem to care about it at all from the beginning...

If he could still hide it with his big nerves before, now he could only say that this dog was indeed not simple... ..

Interesting!

Helan nana smiled coldly. Just as she was about to stimulate the spirit butterfly to increase the fear in her mind, an extremely calm spiritual power suddenly enveloped the surroundings from the side of big yellow.

The spiritual power spread out extremely delicately, like a drizzle falling from the sky, dripping onto the hearts of every student and every magical beast!

Helan Nana was stunned. Even the spirit butterfly who climbed up from her shoulder was stunned as she looked at her surroundings.

The spiritual power that was like a drizzle spread across the square, moist and silent. However, the faces of all the magical pets that were initially stunned became peaceful under this spiritual power drizzle.

Fear... was being driven away by this gentle power! !

"This is..." Helan Nana widened her eyes and looked around.

In the backstage room, Lan Chen was also stunned. He asked, "This is... Silence?"

"No!" Dean Dylan took a deep breath and looked around. "This is telepathy! !"

Chapter 1449: Confrontation!

Telepathy...

This word stunned Lan Chen...

Tranquility was an exclusive skill of the high-level flower spirit. It could cure physical fatigue and allow the mind to enjoy tranquility to a certain extent, hence its name.

Telepathy was different...

It was an exclusive skill of the general flower spirit, which also allowed the mind to descend like a drizzle. However, telepathy was a pure mind-pacifying skill. It was said that the ancient wood elf flower spirit was used to pacify the violent emotions of some of its subjects, a spiritual rain that pacified the soul!

The powerful wood elf flower spirits were even used to pacify some special Titan species that had extremely violent personalities, such as the terrifying ferocious beasts that were sealed in the ancient lands or drifting in some spatial domains, those terrifying existences that would destroy everything in their surroundings once they woke up from their sleep could be pacified by telepathy.

Telepathy was the legendary divine skill of the flower spirit. Until now, no other branch elves could inherit it!

Even the space elves, who claimed to be the descendants of the Wood Elf royal family, couldn't do it!

In other words...

"This is... telepathy?"

Lan Chen looked at the scene in shock, but upon closer inspection, he realized that this shouldn't be tranquility...

Previously, Lan Chen had also observed clearly that the damage caused by those dull-eyed magical pets was purely due to mental stimulation. It was definitely not something that tranquility could repair... ..

If they wanted to repair it, they could only hire a specialized psychiatrist to treat them one by one after the examination.

However, the price of a psychic-type treatment was expensive. The cost would probably be higher than the value of many student magical beasts, and it might not be able to cure them... ..

If tranquility was effective, the instructors in the backstage room were all top-tier flower spirits. Anyone could use them. They had done it long ago. It was clear that the one in front of them was not...

Under the drizzle, all the magical beasts seemed to have been greatly comforted. Their expressions, which had almost collapsed due to the stimulation of fear, were extremely calm, including all the students, who had been struggling with pale faces just now. At this moment, under the drizzle, their faces revealed an extremely calm expression. In an instant, no one seemed to want to break this scene... ..

This couldn't be wrong. This kind of group spiritual treatment, this kind of divine skill that could directly soothe the mind and dispel the negative mental effects, was only the legendary telepathy!

"Hiss... this..." Lan Chen opened his mouth, not knowing what to say.

"To be able to return to the ancestral level to this level..." Dylan stood up and said, "I've lived for so long, but this is the first time I've seen it!"

Ni Lan, who was beside him, was so shocked that her hands could not help but tremble. She carefully placed her hands behind her back, and in her heart, she even had the urge to quickly fly over to her sister.

This little fellow had to think of a way to get into the moon god Clan!

“Sir Instructor...” Dylan said in a low voice, “I’m afraid that your idea of taking in this child to retire is no longer possible!”

His words were very soft, but his tone was extremely firm, causing Lan Chen to be stunned for a moment before he immediately smiled bitterly...

If he were to go to the divine guard academy for this kind of flower spirit that could return to its roots, he was afraid that the teachers of the secret court would go all out against him!

“Dean Dylan...” Lan Chen said with a smile, “I’m afraid that Your Magical Beast Academy won’t be able to eat this child’s talent...”

“That’s not what the instructor is worried about...” Dylan said coldly, “You’ve been loitering here for long enough. It’s time to leave, right?”

Lan Chen: “...”

Was he f * cking preparing to chase her away?

This was too much...

As they were speaking, a strange spiritual energy came from the display platform. The few of them immediately looked over... ..

On the stage, Helan Nana’s eyes were filled with excitement that she had never felt before... ..

This was the first time she had seen someone who could directly cure her magic butterfly’s terrifying spiritual power...

At this moment, the rope on little cabbage’s body had been bitten off by rhubarb. Little cabbage stood at the front row of the stage and looked at Helan Nana through the air.

A never-before-seen serious expression was displayed on Bai Cai’s face.

“You are indeed not simple! !” Helan Nana looked at little cabbage with excitement on her face!

Since she was very young, she had no opponents...

Whether it was her direct line of descent brothers and sisters or the direct line of descent of the other noble families, none of them were willing to communicate with her because she was too talented!

The Devil Seed, Ye You Die, had the heavenly demon fear attribute, which was very likely to cause irreversible fear damage to people. Ever since she tamed that butterfly, she had become a dangerous bomb among her peers... The people around her did not want to, nor did they dare to approach her..! ... including the Crown Prince of the Royal Family!

It was not that the crown princes were not her match, but that she might hurt the crown prince. And no one below the crown prince dared to approach her.

As a teenager, she had already experienced a feeling of being too talented, a feeling of loneliness.

Half of the reason she came to starry university was because of the higher-ups. With her heaven-defying talent, she wanted to recover the humiliation Muzir had left behind in the night demon race. The other half was because of her own will.

Ever since she was young, her peers had always stayed away from her, avoiding her like snakes and scorpions. She couldn't even find a single person to practice on. It was also a good opportunity for her to come to the starry sky academy to see the so-called number one royal family of the universe, the starry sky elves., was there anything among her peers that was worth her taking a look at.

Now it seemed that... There was!

"What's Your Name?"

"Don't you know it?" Little cabbage frowned!

"Don't come with that kind of perfunctory name, right?" Helan nana smiled and said, "I want to know your real name..."

"This is my real name!" Bai Cai straightened her chest and said, "I, Bai Cai, this name will definitely be heard all over the world! !"

Everyone: "..."

"Alright..." Helan Nana smiled and looked at her. "Are you standing out now to answer this?"

Bai Cai, on the other hand, tilted her face and said coldly, "You're making it sound like you avoided me when you attacked everyone just now!"

Not only did she not avoid her, even her new friend, Chen Ye, did not avoid her either. If she did not make a move, Chen Ye's silent tail would probably be crippled, right. One had to know that this woman was just chatting and laughing with Chen Ye just now, yet her attacks were so ruthless... ..

She was very familiar with the opponent's spiritual power. Boss Rainie's mecha had it. Although the opponent was not on the same level as boss Rainie, she was very clear about the terrifying effects that this kind of spiritual attack would cause... ..

This guy... was a bad person! !

"So you're saying this for yourself?" He Lan laughed. "But you saved everyone..."

Xiao Bai Cai's nose twitched. "I'm willing! !"

As soon as he said that, two waves of spiritual power instantly collided in the air. They were both level 8, but the spiritual power that seemed to have substance was like a level 10 spiritual storm, causing sparks to crackle and crackle throughout the entire venue!

The spirit butterfly on he lan Nana's shoulder slowly floated up and looked down from above. A dark power that seemed to have substance spread out, casting a layer of shadow over the entire stage!

Below, the originally lazy big yellow slowly got down from its chair and walked in front of little cabbage. It raised its head and looked at the spirit butterfly...

Just like that, the two companions met each other's line of sight. The spirit butterfly flew slightly higher. It felt a hint of threat from this ordinary-looking big yellow dog.

Big yellow narrowed its eyes and looked at the other party. It thought to itself, "This thing should taste pretty good..." . . .

Chapter 1450: the flower spirit that was being chased

"Enough! !"

The two opposing spiritual powers were about to erupt at any moment, but a cold voice broke the situation. In an instant, the two opposing spiritual powers shattered like glass and instantly drifted away with the wind. The oppressive atmosphere in the entire hall was swept away...

He LAN instantly withdrew his gaze from little cabbage and looked at the person who had spoken.

It was the Dean of the Magical Beast Department, Dylan.

"Senior Dylan..." he lan elegantly performed an authentic night demon ritual, looking very pleasing to the eye.

Dylan looked at him coldly. "What do you think this place is?"

"This junior naturally knows..." . . ." he lan smiled and said, "The highest academy in the Eastern Star Field. This junior originally thought that there were many talented people, but I didn't expect that Little Ling only displayed her talent and caused such serious consequences. This junior didn't think things through properly. How about this, this junior will compensate for all the losses caused today. If there are any sequelae, feel free to look for me. This junior will definitely give a satisfactory answer ... ..

Dylan:" ..."

"It's all thanks to this student..." Helan smiled and looked at little cabbage. "If it weren't for you, I would have gotten into big trouble today..."

Little Cabbage:"..."

"By the way... What kind of secret art is this?" Helan looked at all the magical beasts that had obviously recovered in the exhibition hall behind them and asked little cabbage curiously.

Little cabbage: "None of Your Business..."

"The people of the Muzir family are really like what mother said, so vulgar that they don't look like elves..." . . ." he lan looked at Dylan with a smile. "Senior, this junior is deeply afraid of the influence that has been created today. Even if senior decides that I'm eliminated because of this, this junior is fully convinced!"

"Don't use those self-righteous goading tricks..." he Ian looked at Dylan coldly. "If you want to come to the Starry Sky Academy, Feel Free to come. Don't regret it!"

"Then thank you very much, senior..." he Ian smiled and bowed. Then, he brought the flying butterfly and slowly walked down from the display stage.

The night butterfly flew very high from the beginning to the end. She looked at the big yellow dog with extreme vigilance. For some reason, she felt that the way the big yellow dog looked at her was a little like a dog looking at a piece of meat... ..

After Helan left, the many students in the exhibition hall revealed exhausted expressions. Dinos, Damon, and Jia Nan had gloomy expressions because they could clearly see that girl from the Helan family, from the beginning to the end... She didn't even look at them...

"Dean!" Damon was the first to speak. "Do we really want to keep her?"

Dylan rolled his eyes when he heard that. "Are you afraid of being beaten up?"

"You must be joking!" Damon snorted coldly. "Although that night butterfly of hers is special, she might not necessarily be able to gain any advantage from me!"

"Oh Hehe, is that so? Then I'm really looking forward to you bringing back face for our academy later on..." Dylan rolled his eyes and said.

"Dean, I'm serious. Do you not believe me?"

"I believe you. Hurry up and scram. I'll see if your eyes are deceiving you..."

"Oh..."

The aggressive Damon immediately responded and ran off with his little lion. When little cabbage saw this, she was stunned and thought to herself, this brother... .. is really human. ...

Just as she was sighing, she suddenly felt a strange gaze. Little cabbage immediately frowned and looked over. Then, she saw Dinos, who had been sizing her up... ..

Why is this guy looking at me like that? Could it be that he was shocked by this little cabbage's astonishing looks?

"Are you uncle Kyle's illegitimate daughter?" Dinos said coldly.

Little cabbage's expression instantly turned awkward. Well, he was actually the eldest cousin of a cheapskate... ..

However, his tone didn't seem very friendly. How could he directly ask whether the other party was an illegitimate daughter? Of course, as a disgraceful impersonator, little cabbage was still very well-mannered. She immediately displayed the anger she should have when her identity as an illegitimate daughter was exposed, and her expression became a little ugly as she tried her best.

HMM... .. It was as ugly as rhubarb snatching her meat pie... ..

“What you said is...”Canaan, who was beside her, said with a smile, “Lord Kyle is a womanizer. Don’t you know all the illegitimate children who are wandering outside by the hundreds of Millions?”

Little Cabbage:”...”

By the hundreds of millions? What the F * ck, what is a real stallion. Those scumbag authors at qidian should learn well. Their descendants could directly build an island and build a country together... ..

“They are wandering outside...”dinos said coldly, “It’s impossible for such a powerful person to be wandering outside!”

Canaan also looked at the other party curiously. Indeed, no matter how talented a junior was, he still needed to be nurtured. The other party’s pure spiritual power and life level must have been carefully nurtured and guided by someone, a wild 70-year-old level eight life form? Who would believe it if it was said?

The corner of little cabbage’s mouth twitched. This cabbage was so powerful, but wasn’t he abducted and sold every day by a group of Strange Fellows?

Now, he had inexplicably become an illegitimate daughter. I haven’t even ridiculed him yet!

“What does your uncle’s family affairs have to do with you?”

An ice-cold voice sounded at once. The originally arrogant Dinos’ expression stiffened. He turned his head to look at the person who had come, and his attitude immediately softened. He bowed and said, “Aunt Ni Lan...”

Ni Lan glanced coldly at this junior of her own family, and that face that was 80% similar to her father’s became even more eye-piercing!

“You’re very free...”ni lan said coldly, “You came here to watch the show out of your self-awareness? You Don’t have to work hard anymore? If it wasn’t for this little fellow today, the face of the starry sky academy would have been completely thrown away by all of you!”

Hearing that, Dinos pursed his lips. “If you go all out, the one who loses might not be me!”

“You didn’t dare to fight just now, so don’t be stubborn afterward!”Ni Lan couldn’t be bothered to look at the other party. “Go Back!”

Dinos took a deep breath. This aunt hadn’t been very friendly to him since he was young, and her position in the family was very high. His mother usually gave in to her, so he naturally didn’t dare to talk back to this elder. After bowing., he quickly left.

Seeing that the other two had left one after another, Canaan also tactfully said, “Then headmaster, if there’s nothing else, I’ll Leave?”

Dylan glanced at Canaan and nodded. “School is about to start. Go back and tell your aunt that if she still strolls outside before the opening ceremony, there’s no need for her to come back!”

“About aunt... it’s hard to contact her...”Canaan had a distressed look on his face.

The aunt that Dylan mentioned was Umma, the Dean of the Magic Plant Department. Whisper was a manager who often threw in the towel. As the Dean of the Magic Plant Department, he couldn't be seen in the academy all year round. He had been despised by the other deans of the Secret Court for a long time... ..

The family couldn't do anything to his aunt, but who asked her to have high qualifications?

..

At this time, in the ancient Forest of eternity in the block, a green-clothed, beautiful flower sprite running quickly, the surrounding ancient tree spirits are in her strong affinity to cover her escape.

But a figure is like a maggot in the tarsal bone, has been close to her, even those in the forest since the ancient times of the existence of the tree spirit can not stop.

At this moment, if Canaan could recognize that the flower spirit that was running away was his aunt, Uma. Whisper... ..

Finally, the flower spirit stopped after running to an open space. She turned around and looked at the figure that she could not escape from. She gritted her teeth and said, "Senior tooth spirit, what do you mean?"
