

A Bunch 1451

Chapter 1451: I... .. I'll listen to my father...

After uma gave up on escaping, her blurry figure also stopped in an instant. The many ancient tree spirits just now had not been able to make him touch even the slightest bit of the chaotic elements, which made Uma even more desperate.

She had long heard of the reputation of this number one ranger in the starry sky, but she had never thought that he would be so strong. In the ancient Forest's territory, the ancient tree spirits that had signed a contract with her were all plant spirits from the immemorial era. There was once a dragon king level red dragon who almost couldn't walk out of this place by mistake. However, when she met this one, she couldn't even stop him a little... ..

She had to admit that she was indeed worthy of her reputation!

"I'm sorry..."the tooth spirit looked at the other party with a complicated expression. "Actually, I don't really like bullying juniors, but there's nothing I can do..."

To be honest, among all the juniors, the child from the windwhisper family could be said to be one of her favorites. He was aloof from worldly affairs and had good aptitude, although he was a little lazy...

However, she was very supportive of this lifestyle. If it weren't for the fact that she guarded lluweta every day, she might even have become a good friend with this little fellow.

What a pity...

"My Lord..."uma said unwillingly, "Can you tell me the reason? At least I have to know why I have to die, right?"

The tooth spirit sighed and shook his head gently, "I'm sorry... I can't tell you..."

"Is that so?"Uma straightened its body and slowly closed its eyes. In an instant, a huge contract appeared in the air. As the contract appeared, the entire ancient forest buzzed with sorrowful cries. obviously.., these voices came from the ancient tree spirits.

The tooth spirit stood quietly, knowing that the other party was breaking the contract... ..

"Please let them go, my Lord..."Uma said with a bitter smile. "These guys won't do anything bad..."

The tooth spirit shook his head slightly.

Uma's face turned extremely pale as he said angrily, "Sir, do you have to be so ruthless?"

"What I mean is that you don't have to..."the tooth spirit slowly raised his left hand, a green origin energy appeared in his palm. "This forest naturally can't be destroyed, and it will be used to conceal your aura. But as a price, you will be a part of this forest from now on..."

Uma was stunned. Looking at the green light in his hand, his bitter smile became even stronger. "So... it was that Lord's idea..."

As a flower spirit, he was very familiar with that Lord's unique law power.

"I also said..."Uma said in a low voice, "If you kill me, the soul fragment that my family bound to me will react and attract the family's attention. Can you tell me what this thing will do to me?"

The tooth spirit sighed and said honestly, "It will turn you into a part of the tree spirit in this ancient forest. Your thoughts and soul will degenerate together and completely fuse with it. No one will be able to find a trace of you in the past!"

"Is that so?"Uma smiled when she heard that. "It doesn't sound so terrible... well, it's good that you don't have to worry about those messy things when you're a tree spirit. It's also good... It's just..."

"Is what?"Tooth spirit sighs to ask.

"It would be a pity not to have sex..."

"Uh?"Tooth Spirit Leng: "I thought you are not interested, your family is not to urge you for a long time?"

"Not that I'm not interested... . I'm just more picky... . Umma smiled. "When I was young, I saw Lord Illuvita's face, so it was hard for me to see other men. Now that I think about it, my family seems to be right. I'm still too idealistic... "...". "..."

The Tooth Spirit fell silent.

She could understand why a little girl admired her lord. Who asked her lord to be so good-looking. However, it was not a wonderful thing to ruin such a beautiful thing at the last moment. After all, no matter how much she admired him, when she learned that the person she admired wanted to harm her, she would probably be in a bad mood... "...".

"When I passed by, I saw a good-looking elven junior outside. He's a Ranger, and his body is well-trained. Do you want me to capture him and give him a try?"? "Actually, your looks are not as important as your figure. The Lord has been sleeping for so many years, and his figure has long been out of shape..." ". "..."

Uma was silent for two seconds, and finally said, "Forget it..."

"Is that so?"Tooth spirit nodded. "Do you have any other wishes?"

"I don't know why the Lord would make a move against the windwhisper family, but if... It's not necessary, I'd like to ask the Lord to leave a way out..."

"I understand...". The tooth spirit looked at the other party seriously and said, "First of all, I'll answer that you're not targeting the windwhisper family, but it's easier for it to block my Lord's plan now. As long as the plan is normal, the windwhisper family won't suffer too much damage." ... ..

"Is that so?"Hearing this, uma smiled and said, "That's good..."then she slowly closed her eyes... ..

The tooth spirit sighed and did not say anything else. The green light ball in her hand directly tapped into the other party's forehead. In the next second, the skin on the other party's body began to change rapidly, and the skin that was as white as milk began to change into tree bark, countless fine buds quickly merged into the ground from both feet. Under the conversion of vitality, they quickly became thick roots. In an instant, a huge tree spirit soared into the sky!

The forest was connected into one, and the entire forest emitted a buzzing sound as if it was welcoming a new partner to join it.

The tooth spirit looked at the rapidly forming tree spirit and sighed slightly. From this moment on, this master magical plant, who had the most spiritual energy and the most aptitude in the windwhisper family, no longer existed...

At this moment, little cabbage, who was far away in the starry sky academy, naturally did not know that because of her identity's concealment, a rather formidable figure had already fallen.

At this moment, she was being pulled around like two women were pulling a dough... ..

"Headmaster!" Ni Lan said coldly, "Since the examination has been temporarily suspended, there shouldn't be any problems, right? Why are you stopping us from going back?"

"I didn't stop you..." Dylan said lightly, "You want to walk around, this child has to stay..."

"This is my family's junior, is there a problem if I bring her back?" Ni Lan's voice was even colder.

"This is your brother-in-law's child, not yours..." Dylan didn't even blink his eyes as he firmly grabbed onto little cabbage and said, "Moreover, she is now a member of Our Magic Beast Academy's Star class, I have to bring her to go through the formalities..."

"Dean, this isn't in accordance with the rules, right?" Ni Lan glared and said, "Don't the class registration have to wait until all the students' results are out?"

"I'm the Dean, I can make an exception!"

Ni Lan: "..."

"Since you've already made an exception, why do you still need to register?" Ni Lan sneered and said, "The procedures can be settled with a single word from the dean, why do you need to go through so much trouble? I have some matters to attend to when I bring the child back, so I won't worry about the Dean. I'll send him back in the future..." "..."

"It'd be a wonder if he'll be sent back in the future!" Dylan mercilessly exposed the other party. "Don't think that I don't know what you're trying to do? Putting aside whether or not the Muzir clan will allow such a seedling to pass on to your moon god Clan, even if they agree to pass on, this child is still from the Magical Beast Academy. No one can snatch him away. I said it!"

"You! !" Ni Lan laughed in anger. "Doesn't the Dean feel that he's a little overbearing?"

"It's not that I'm overbearing..." "..." Dylan said indifferently. "This little fellow only got over 300 marks in his first exam. Originally, he couldn't even enter a second-rate university. It was that fellow Kyle who thickened his skin and sent him here through the back door. He tried to persuade me to agree, but now he wants to take him away without even saying a word "What do you think I have here?"

“This...” Ni Lan choked. For a moment, she didn’t know how to refute him. After all, what he said seemed to be the truth... ..

If she had to blame someone, she could only blame her weird brother-in-law. Why did he come to use the back door when he couldn’t properly nurture such a good seedling and walk the Righteous Path? It was fine if he used the back door, but what did he mean by using the Magical Beast Academy?

“What do you think, Child?” Dylan looked at little cabbage with a smile.

Ni Lan also looked at him. “Don’t be afraid, child. You’re delaying your future by staying here. Come with Aunty. Aunty is your family. She Won’t harm you...”

Dylan’s mouth twitched when she heard that. This “Aunty” was really easy to say. Her biological mother had nothing to do with you... ..

Little cabbage looked at the other relative who had appeared out of nowhere in a daze. For a moment, she did not know what to say. That Little Shorty called Tooth Spirit had not taught her what to do in such a situation... ..

In a moment of desperation, little cabbage finally thought of the usual way to shift the blame. “I . . . I’ll listen to my father...”

Chapter 1452: Specter of the Dead!

In the ancient forest of the star of Teldrasil, Iluweta stood silently beside a huge tree. The tree towered into the sky. In the planet’s atmosphere, one could even see its branches and leaves...

“You’re back?” Iluweta did not turn around. She seemed to have sensed the tooth spirit approaching from behind.

The tooth spirit raised her head to look at the huge tree trunk and fell silent. This was one of the few remaining ancient world trees on the star of Tedar Hill. It was rumored that it had survived since the time of the great elves until now. In the past, it was very comfortable to look at this tree, with half of his elf bloodline, he had always had a natural favorable impression of the world tree.

But now... “...”. Seeing this thing always made him feel a little uncomfortable.

The powerful flower spirit had the ability to turn people into plant spirits. How many ancient plants on this land were like that little girl, who was actually a guy who had been living well?

“You’re not in a good mood?” Seeing that the other party didn’t speak, Llewita asked without turning her head.

“How can I be in a good mood when I’m doing this?” The tooth spirit rolled her eyes.

“I’m sorry...” Ilewita sighed and said, “There’s no one more suitable than you...”

The tooth spirit was silent for a few seconds before he finally said, “Even the principal of the secret court couldn’t see through your seal. That child shouldn’t be able to see through it either, right?”

“There’s a high probability that he can’t see through it...”llewita said indifferently, “But that child is too outstanding. It’s highly likely that he has the talent of the nature’s heart to sign a contract with the ancient tree spirit. Such talent... it’s hard to say...”

The Tooth Spirit fell silent again.

The heart of nature was a talent that magical plants masters dreamed of. If that child really had it, he might become the most outstanding magical plant master in the Wind Whisper family in the future. His future would be incomparably bright... ..

“How is that little girl?”Yiluweta asked.

“Everything is in the plan...” . ... The tooth spirit replied, “The night demon Helan family’s little girl used the magical seed night nether butterfly to provoke them as expected. The little girl’s telepathic talent has been exposed. With Dylan’s character, he will definitely force her to stay in the Magical Beast Academy!”

“What about the moon god Clan?”

“They should be preparing to go to the Muzir clan. I think they are trying to convince their elder sister to let the Little Guy Inherit the moon god Clan. Moreover, I think they are trying to inherit her name. It’s almost as expected...”

lluweta nodded.

“But... Venos will still suspect, right?”The tooth spirit said in a low voice.

Venos had always been managing the resources of ILUWETA’S internal forces. The Lord had not handled them for many years. If they wanted to secretly nurture little cabbages, it would be easy for them to give themselves away. Moreover, Venos had already suspected it for a long time.

It was the most reasonable way for the little guy to obtain the resources through the academy. However, it was impossible for a pure-blooded ancient wood elf flower spirit to rise without attracting Vinos’attention... ..

The reason was very simple. Vinos had seen a batch of top-notch geniuses at the school fair, and among those top-notch geniuses, most of them had ancient bloodlines. At the same time, another one had appeared at the Starry Sky Academy, even with the name of Muzir’s illegitimate child, it was impossible for him not to suspect it.

It was impossible for him to keep a low profile and only seal the talent of little cabbages. After all, he had come to the academy to snatch resources, so why would he keep a low profile and send it over? Why not find a native planet to slowly develop?

Therefore, little cabbages needed a reasonable identity, a power identity that Venos did not dare to act rashly. Regardless of whether it was the Muzir family or the moon god family, they both had a lot of weight. It was best for both families to guarantee it together, even if Venos had doubts, at least he did not dare to directly make a move!

Of course... .. The prerequisite was that she did not know little cabbage’s true talent. If she knew... ..

With ILUWETA's understanding of her for many years, she would definitely make a move!

Sighing, Iluweta said to the tooth spirit, "Give it to me..."

The tooth spirit glanced at the other party and finally took out a green crystal... ..

Iluweta gently waved her hand, and the green crystal slowly fell into his hand. Then, the crystal turned into countless dust, and under the runic array drawn by ILUWETA, it quickly began to shape... ..

A few seconds later, a beautiful flower spirit dressed in green appeared in front of the tooth spirit.

"Lord Tooth Spirit..." the flower spirit smiled and bowed to the tooth spirit. Her expression, actions, smile, and voice were exactly the same, which made the tooth spirit come to a sudden realization.

Myriad phenomena!

It was one of Lord Iluweta's secret arts, and very few people knew about it. At least Venos did not know about it, and this was the first time even the tooth spirit had seen it.

Not only did it have the same appearance, even the energy and aura of its body were exactly the same. The tooth spirit even suspected if the other party could fully utilize all of Uma's talents...

"Go..." Iluweta waved her hand at Uma, who seemed to have appeared out of thin air. The other party smiled and bowed, and then disappeared in front of the two of them happily.

Tooth Spirit looked at each other disappeared figure for a long time without a word.

"You don't look very well. Are you frightened?" Sighed Llewita.

"Not so much to be frightened... ." the tooth spirit frowned. "But it's kind of creepy to think that this little thing has turned into a tree spirit and stayed there forever, and there's this weird guy who's taking her place in her life. "... Sir, how many times have you done this?"

"I've done it a few times during the Elf era..." Llewita looked at the sky. "I haven't used it since the end of the Elf era..."

"No wonder... There's no one who can use it..." the tooth spirit nodded.

If sir had used this secret technique a long time ago, the space elves would probably have many such strange puppets. How could they be reduced to a state where no one could use it?

"Can that little guy recover?" Tooth Spirit finally could not help but ask.

"Under normal circumstances... it is impossible..."

"Really?"

The two of them continued to be silent, the breeze blowing gently, in the surrounding space set off ripples, the atmosphere inexplicably depressed up... ..

— — — — —

At this time, Ni Lan is a face of anxiety toward the MUZIR family territory to rush over.

In the end, she was still unable to bring the little guy out from Dylan's place. Originally, she had planned to kill him first before reporting it to the Moon God clan and then bring him to the moon god Clan before discussing it with her brother-in-law. Now that Dylan was protecting him there, if she wanted to snatch the little guy, she could only rely on her sister's support... ..

If she acted quickly, the news of the little guy possessing telepathic talent would probably spread throughout the secret court very quickly. This matter had to be settled as soon as possible, otherwise, things might change!

Just as she was hurriedly walking out of the academy, she saw a familiar figure in front of her.

"Headmaster Uma!" Ni Lan politely bowed when she saw who it was.

"Where are you going in such a hurry?" Uma asked with a smile.

Her usual lazy and sweet smile made people feel happy.

"There's something..." ni Lan replied with a smile, but she was secretly on guard.

Other people might have the same idea as her. This guy in front of her was a strong competitor. After all, the conditions that the whisper family could offer were sometimes easier to make the MUZIR family compromise... ..

"What is it? Do you need help?"

"No need, no need..." how could ni lan dare to ask for help? If she helped, the person would probably be someone else's. She hurriedly said, "Oh right, the president seems to be looking for you!"

The principal was referring to the principal of the secret court.

"Ah?" Uma immediately covered her head. "I'm going to be nagged again. I just went on a long trip. Do you have to..."

"You... as the principal, you even missed the school opening test. You still have the cheek to say that?" Ni Lan couldn't help but laugh at this guy. He was a top-notch talent, but he was a notoriously lazy guy...

"Forget it, forget it... Then I'll head over first..." uma hurriedly waved his hand and slipped in.

That careful and secretive manner made ni Lan feel amused. She shook her head and hurriedly left the academy.

After saying goodbye to Ni Lan, Uma walked quickly into the academy. People who passed by greeted her, and she responded with a smile as well. She was as popular as usual.

However, when she walked into the empty hall, Uma's sweet smile slowly disappeared and became a little stiff. Deep in her pupils, a dark green light that belonged to undead flashed past.

"Teldrasil... heh... what a long time no see..."

Chapter 1453: the reality of the nobles...

"Yo, what brings you here?"

On a high-class plot of land with the World Tree Enchantment, a magnificent palace was floating above the forest. On the land of Taida Hill, where every inch of land was worth gold, there was a separate world tree enchantment, these were all top-class families of the Star Elves, which was the land of the MUZIR family. Ni Lan had not been to this place for hundreds of thousands of years.

The Beautiful Elf who was teasing her was ni Lan's biological sister, Reishi. The moon god!

Ni Lan smiled guiltily at her biological sister's teasing.

She was usually busy with academic research. If it weren't for the fact that she was recommended by the Magical Beast Chamber of Commerce to be a teacher in the secret court, she might not have returned home for a million years, not to mention visiting her biological sister who had already married out... ..

The female elf across from her was obviously very familiar with her sister's habits. After rolling her eyes at her, she directly led her through the hall of the palace and arrived at her own bedroom at the back.

Ni Lan looked around. This place had changed a lot since the last time she was here. Many new fashionable decorative elements had been added to it, making it look even more beautiful and exquisite. She could not help but sigh in her heart. Her sister was becoming more and more obsessed with the enjoyment of resources... ..

Her elder sister's aptitude was average. Although she was born as a purebred priestess, she was limited in this aspect. She was even older than herself. A few hundred thousand years ago, she was only at level 14. She had already completely pulled away from her brothers and sisters in the family, although she married well and became the wife of the head of the MUZIR family, this kind of prosperity was still short-lived.

One could not live past the epoch without reaching the star-level. This was the iron law of the universe. Even the wastya spirit turtle family, which had the longest lifespan, could not avoid it. As for her sister, she could not even reach the dragon-level, so her lifespan was even shorter. It had only been a few hundred thousand years since they last met., ni Lan could see that her sister had aged a lot. Even though she had used the best makeup materials and maintenance products, she still could not escape the most primitive laws of nature.

In this way, it was very understandable that she was obsessed with superficial material enjoyment. In fact, most of the popular artistic pursuits among the nobles were the playthings of those who had been abandoned, things like sculpture, painting, music, architecture, clothing design, and so on were mostly the pursuits of the nobles who could not grow up. Those who were truly nurtured as the main force of the family simply did not have the time to do these things.

Just like himself, as a star-ranked magical beast master, other than meditating to improve his origin, he also had to do academic research, thesis writing, and various miscellaneous things in the magical Beast Chamber of Commerce, moreover, from time to time, he would go to the ancient lands to dig for new excellent magical beast species. Almost every bit of time was used up cleanly, and he would only feel that he did not have enough time every day. How would he have the time to cultivate any artistic hobbies?

The place where she lived was the same for tens of thousands of years. She would never be like her sister, who changed her appearance after more than ten years...

However, she would never say anything. Everyone had their own way of living. Her sister had a huge amount of resources, but she chose to be a noblewoman. That was her choice. Even her parents could not control it. What could a sister like her say?

“Speak...”after walking for nearly half an hour, she finally arrived at her bedroom, after passing through at least four halls and two gardens, they finally arrived at her bedroom. After driving away the maids in the surrounding clothes, ni Lan’s elder sister casually sat on a soft, flowery sofa and asked with a smile.

Ni Lan looked at the other party and also sat at the side. “Elder sister doesn’t seem to be as particular about her sitting posture as before...”

“I’m old... I can’t pretend anymore...”reixi sighed in a self-deprecating tone.

“How is Sister Old? She’s So Pretty!”Ni Lan smiled. “She used to be the number one beauty of our moon god family, and she’s not a nobody...”

“TSK... Now You know how to suck up to me?”Reixi rolled her eyes at him. “I don’t know what I look like? If I didn’t rely on those nourishing samples, I would be almost the same as the female butler outside...”

As she spoke, she looked at her delicate and fair hands. At this moment, they looked extremely delicate, like a work of art made of Crystal, but that was just the appearance. She had already lived for more than half a century., her Qi and blood had already begun to decline irreversibly without reaching dragon-level. No matter how good the nourishing products were, they could not go against the iron law of nature.

Her husband had not touched her for many years...

No matter how good-looking the skin was, the vitality in the body had declined. It was not attractive enough for a high-level life form. The hetero-power of a living creature came from the skin on one hand and the instinct to reproduce on the other, the vitality was strong enough, and the body structure was more perfect. The attraction to the opposite sex was the most primitive, because genes would stimulate you to reproduce with excellent life forms.

Although her husband was strong enough at the beginning of their marriage, the gap between them was not big at that time. She was in her prime, and with the excellent bloodline and beautiful appearance bestowed by her family, she successfully attracted Kyle, the favored son of heaven. But now, she... ... had completely lost her attraction to a strong husband.

Many people knew that her husband was a romantic, but in fact, he was not a romantic in the past...

Looking at her younger sister now, Reishi came to a sudden realization. The other party’s appearance had been fixed since a long time ago. No matter if they hadn’t seen each other for hundreds of thousands of years or millions of years, when they saw each other again, they would always look like what she remembered... ...

How Nice...

She suddenly felt a little regretful...

“Tell me, what’s the matter?”

Ni Lan was silent for a moment. She actually wanted to say that she just wanted to see her, but she knew that she couldn’t say that. There was a purpose... .. There was a purpose. That little fellow couldn’t afford to drag it out...

“Today... a genius appeared during the exam...” ni Lan thought of a relatively peaceful opening line.

“Oh?” Reishi was stunned, then, she reacted and smiled. “That’s right. You’ve been transferred to the Academy as the head professor. Time really flies. In the blink of an eye, that muddle-headed little girl who can’t even take care of herself is actually going to be a teacher in our star Sky First Academy...” “...”

“Actually... I don’t think I’m very suitable to be a teacher. Being a pure academic magical beast master is more suitable...”

“I think so too...” “...” “But who told you to be so amazing?” Raxi said with a smile, “There aren’t many half-century star level geniuses. In your generation, the only one who can stand shoulder to shoulder with you is either Kyle or that TIA from the Zephyr Academy, right? “If not for father’s favoritism, you should be the head of the family...” “...”

“I’ve never been interested in that position...” ni Lan shook her head and said, “You know the reason why I hate that guy...”

Raxi nodded and didn’t talk about that person anymore. She casually picked up a glass of moon god Dew that the maid had prepared long ago. After a slight pause, she changed the topic and said, “So, what does meeting a genius have to do with you coming to me?”

“That genius... his surname is muzir!”

“Oh?” The glass in Raxi’s hand trembled slightly, but her expression didn’t change much, she continued to laugh, “When did our family have a promising magical beast master that caught your eye? How come I didn’t know? Could it be the youngest son of the fourth Dixiu? I did know that he seemed to have chosen the magical beast master route, but he wasn’t old enough to take the general exam yet? Could it be that he had secretly gone to take the examination behind his family’s back? Or perhaps... “...”

Ni Lan looked at the chattering person. Her sister was a very smart person. In fact, she should have guessed it, but she just didn’t want to admit it... ..

However, time was of the essence, so ni Lan had no choice but to bite the bullet and interrupt the other party. “It’s Kyle’s illegitimate daughter...”

As soon as she said that, Raishi stopped talking, and her smile faded from her face... ..

Chapter 1454: this pot really came at the right time... ..

“Is that so?”

After an unknown amount of time, Reishi finally recovered from her stiff expression. She lowered her head and took a sip of the Moon Dew... ..

“Sis?” Ni Lan carefully glanced at the other party.

“It’s fine...” reishi forced a smile. “You don’t have to be nervous. I’m already used to this kind of thing. Over the years, I’ve brought back over a hundred illegitimate children. As long as they have some talent, the Muzir clan can afford to raise them!”

Ni Lan paused for a moment. She opened her mouth to say something, but for a moment, she didn’t know how to open her mouth.

The vitality of a warrior class was vigorous. This was one of the reasons why Kyle was so popular. But the more important reason was Kyle’s obsession with outstanding descendants.

After his sister married into the family, she gave birth to a total of five children. All of them had average talent. Only the third child, Leng Yue, had slightly better talent and was admitted into the Starry Sky Academy. However, she entered the secret court and couldn’t inherit Kyle’s inheritance.

Although Kyle was the head of the family, he did not use the genes of the previous head of the family. He had relied on his own talent to become a dark horse. However, even so, if his own children did not have suitable existences, then the genes that he had obtained after becoming an astral being., would allow him to inherit the bloodlines that were suitable for his other brothers. This was the rule of a large family.

Not only that, the connections that Kyle had accumulated in the Divine Guard Academy and the Imperial Guard commander had to be transferred to his outstanding nieces and nephews. Although this was the rule of the aristocratic children, if it was anyone else, when it was their turn to do such a thing., they would probably be unwilling to accept it.

Her elder sister had not even broken through level 15 yet, and her qi and blood had already declined and aged. The possibility of conceiving was very low. In addition, her Qi and blood had aged, and her attraction to the opposite sex had decreased. Now, she could continue to dominate the position of the mistress of the Muzir clan. It was only because she was born into a noble family... ..

“Tell me... What’s the situation with the genius that you mentioned?” After putting down the cup, the expression on Rishi’s face became calm, but the cordial smile at the beginning had clearly disappeared... ..

Ni Lan sighed in her heart, and then explained the situation with the cabbage in detail.

“Wood Elf?” Rishi smiled coldly. “That thing can only be produced in the Aborigines, right? He’s so thirsty now that he won’t let go of the Aborigines?”

Ni Lan:” ...”

“What Aborigines?”

A mellow voice came from outside the bedchamber. Ni Lan immediately looked over and soon saw a familiar tall figure.

It had been more than 100,000 years since they last met, but this guy was still the same as before. The handsome appearance of a top-tier elf coupled with the sunshine unique to warriors made him look strong. It had to be said that regardless of his appearance or temperament., her brother-in-law was an existence that easily attracted people.

In comparison, her sister, whose qi and blood had already declined, was like a flower that had begun to wither. Compared to the bright sun, she looked even more declining... ..

“Outsiders said that sister-in-law is coming over. I thought they were mistaken...” Kyle’s handsome face revealed a bright smile. “Why did you think of coming here?”

“There are some things that I have to trouble brother-in-law with...” Ni Lan stood up and bowed properly.

“Is that so?” Kyle looked at her with a very strong smile. There was a look of scrutiny, and there was also an inexplicable feeling.

Actually, the correct choice was to marry this girl. This was what his father had said to him back then. However, at that time, he was young and impetuous. How could he give up the number one beauty of the moon god family and pursue this stiff girl?

However, the facts proved that the elders’ words were often right...

Rishi was indeed charming, but that charm was only temporary. In the laws of the starry sky, only the strong and the strong could be paired. This was an unchanging law. At that time, he also thought that he could overcome it, that he could be different from other nobles for the sake of love, the truth proved that he just felt that he was different.

“We’re talking about your new illegitimate daughter!” Rishi’s cold voice made Kyle look back at his official wife...

“I. . .” Kyle was stunned. He was about to say where did he get his illegitimate daughter from. But he suddenly remembered the threat of that damn dwarf. ... He suddenly became obedient... ..

“You broke your promise again...” Rishi’s voice was filled with fatigue. “I thought I could control that promise for a longer period of time, but I can’t resist the temptation of a native?”

Kyle:” ...”

In his silent mind, he recalled what Rishi had told him not long ago...

“You once said that you would stay by my side for the rest of your life...”

At that time, he was silent...

In fact, when he first pursued her, he did think so, but he just couldn’t do it... ..

"I won't live much longer..." Kyle remembered his wife telling him that at that time. "You should know that I won't live much longer. In my last bit of time, can you persevere with what you said to me back then?"

Kyle remembered that he had been silent for a very long time, and then he solemnly swore that he would stay by her side for the rest of her life.

Actually, it was better to draw a good full stop like this. Reishi was able to live until now by relying on the family's moon god Dew, but her lifeblood had already begun to wither irreversibly. At most, in a million years, she would be like a lamp running out of oil... ..

And a million years was nothing to a star-grade lifeform that hadn't even reached the end of an era. Kyle felt that he should fulfill this request and give her an explanation.

But that damned dwarf...

Once he thought of the tooth spirit, that damned dwarf's threat, Kyle silently withdrew the words that he wanted to refute... ..

This pot... .. F * cking came at the right time...

Seeing that her husband had no intention to refute, Reishi closed her eyes in disappointment and stood up. "You guys can talk. I don't want to be involved in these things. I'm tired..."

Reishi stood up and walked toward the crystal stairs. Kyle silently watched her figure until she disappeared in front of him. He sighed and looked at his cold-faced sister-in-law. "Let's talk outside?"

"Okay..." ni Lan replied faintly.

"You're here for little cabbage?" After walking to the garden outside, Kyle asked straightforwardly.

"Yes..." ni Lan nodded when she saw his straightforwardness. "That little guy is very talented. I want him to be under my name!"

"You want him to be under your name?" Kyle smiled. "Do you really plan to stay single?"

"This has nothing to do with brother-in-law, right?" Ni Lan said coldly.

She actually wanted to play the favor card, but when she looked at her sister's lonely figure, she suddenly lost the mood.

"That's true..." Kyle cowered for a moment and said with a smile, "But you've also seen that child's aptitude. Even if I'm willing to pass to you on account of your sister, the family won't allow it..."

"I thought brother-in-law you had been hiding it from the family..." ni lan frowned. She thought if the muzirs had known about the cabbage, they would have picked her up, and her sister would have known about it.

“Well... .” Kyle scratched his head. “Trying to hide it from your sister, too? It was an accident with that Aborigine. He didn’t expect that he would actually get pregnant. It was fine if he got pregnant, but the child he gave birth to was terrifyingly pure... “...”. “I didn’t expect it either...”. “...”

“Oh?” Ni Lan sneered when she heard that. “Then it’s really hard on brother-in-law...”

“Ahem...” Kyle lowered his head guiltily. He was actually not good at lying, but he didn’t expect that this excuse would be believed by the other party so quickly. It seemed that the excuse that the tooth spirit had made up for him was very suitable for his character... ..

“Since you have been hiding it, how did the Muzir family find out?”

“Isn’t it because your exam is too noisy?” Kyle said with a helpless expression. “The family Elder Council has already sent me many messages. My father, who has been traveling outside, has sent me a call and scolded me fiercely. I am also very helpless... .. “...”

Ni Lan’s frown deepened when she heard that. The message had spread so fast?

“So...” Kyle looked at him. “You have to be careful. Later on, it won’t just be your moon god who will compete for the little cabbage!”

Ni Lan:”...”

Chapter 1455: the value of telepathy!

By the time Ni Lan arrived at the hall again, there were already quite a number of people in the hall, and each and every one of them was of great importance!

The first elder of the sunstrider family: Dusrema; the second elder of the windwhisper family, Mira; the head of the Yuesen family: Tarion; and the head of her moon god Family: Leandra!

Just as Kyle said, the moon god family wasn’t the only one competing for the cabbages this time. But unexpectedly, her eldest sister reacted so quickly... ..

It was Dinos who went back to report the news, wasn’t it?

Ni Lan glanced at Dinos who was behind her eldest sister, and Dinos politely returned her bow before taking a step back towards his mother.

Leandra raised her eyebrows slightly as she looked at her biological sister. However, she did not even bother to greet her and averted her gaze.

The attitude of the mother and son made ni Lan sneer in her heart. This was the reason why she did not like Dinos.

It was not because this child was born from the eldest sister that she hated. It was because he, who was extremely talented, had inherited his mother’s petty style.

Before she came, she had specially inquired about the whereabouts of her eldest sister. This sister of hers was clearly tens of millions of light years away on Planet Pendragon to discuss a business deal. If no one had specially told her, she would not have rushed back like this, it was easy to guess who the messenger was.

Then the question came. Even though she had clearly stated that she wanted to inherit the cabbage, why did Dinos still call her mother back?

The reason was simple. Either he wanted to ruin this matter, or he wanted to take the cabbage under his mother's name and destroy this competitor... ..

And according to her understanding of the mother and son's personalities, the latter was the bigger one...

She could have walked the right path, but she always calculated some sinister tricks and wasted her excellent talent. This was the reason why she had always despised her nephew. She even hated her nephew more than her eldest sister... Big Sister's personality was because her talent was indeed mediocre. She could only rely on some means to snatch some things, but he was not...

He had good talent, but whenever he met a powerful opponent, he would think of tricks. Such a person... .. How far could he go?

"Everyone is quite early..." Kyle chuckled and led Ni Lan into the hall. Kyle naturally sat at the head while Ni Lan casually found a seat and sat down. She did not have any intention of getting close to her big sister.

The people around also didn't find it strange. After all, it hadn't been a day or two since the two sisters had been at loggerheads... ..

"There's no need for formalities..." the first elder of the sunchaser family, Vasilema, said straightforwardly, "Kyle, you know our goal. Name your conditions!"

"You..." Kyle had a helpless expression. "You make it sound like I'm selling my daughter..."

A few elders of the Muzir clan who had rushed over also nodded and said, "Elder Dusrema might have misunderstood. This child, little cabbage, is an important successor that the clan will nurture in the future. There's no need to talk about the succession..."

"Stop it!" Dusrema waved his hand and said, "Your Muzir clan is nurturing a flower spirit as the successor? Who doesn't know that it was an accident? There's so much to say. How about this, if you agree to take over, the position of Silver Moon Planet's chief executive will be given to your fourth elder! !"

Hearing this, all the High Elves who came here were shocked. Even the few elders of the Muzir family who came to put on a front sucked in a breath of cold air.

This move... was really big!

Silver Moon Star was one of the rare superstars in the sphere of influence of the starry sky imperial court. It was rich in resources. According to the rule that the chief executive could take 30% of the planet's financial profits, it was a super fat job, which was very beneficial to the family!

The larger the noble, the greater the consumption of resources. This kind of top-tier fat job was naturally watched by many families. However, according to the rule, the previous chief executive had the right to recommend the next successor. In a situation where they were evenly matched., the right to recommend was like a feather pressing on the scales. One could imagine how important it was.

In many eras, this top-tier star had always been controlled by the sunstrider family. This time, they were actually willing to give it up. It was a little exaggerated... ..

Even if this planet had already been set up by the sunstrider family to spread out their family businesses, even if they were to give it up for an era and the other party would be able to take it back, having a top-tier star for an era., that was still a huge amount of resources that could be pocketed.

It wasn't just the others, even da Si Lei Ma's grandson, Damon, was dumbstruck. He said in a low voice, "Uh... grandfather... You're joking, right?"

"What do you know!" Da Si Lei Ma rolled his eyes at his grandson who was the messenger. "Obediently lie down on the side..."

Damon: "..."

Daxrema couldn't be bothered with the resentful expression of his own grandson. It was a good thing that he had asked about the academy's examination. Otherwise, this retribution brat might not have reported it!

The Wood Elf, who had the gift of telepathy, was almost fooled by this brat!

To a top-tier magical beast clan, this was a huge treasure!

Every top-tier magical beast clan had fed the ancient heavenly yuan-tier magical beasts. These magical beasts had savage personalities, and at the very least, they consumed a lot of resources. Every time they woke up, they needed to feed the clan with a large amount of resources. Otherwise, the consequences would be very serious, if they wanted these top-tier magical beasts to do things, they would even need to sacrifice some things.

But this was because of the lack of elf secret arts. There were records in ancient times that a consonant spirit could pacify all living things!

In ancient times, the wood elf flower spirit that possessed a consonant spirit could pacify those top-tier ferocious beasts. The ancient book said that an outstanding flower spirit could use a consonant spirit to extend the sleep of a top-tier magical beast by four to five times, and could sleep for as long as an era, it could save a lot of resources!

Another key was the consonant spirit arts. Those who grasped the talent of consonant spirit might be able to cultivate the consonant spirit arts. The ancient Treasury had records on this aspect. Although it was incomplete, what if it was trained?

Once it was trained, it would be even more amazing. What was the most frightening thing for the family to spend a lot of money to raise these top-tier magical beasts? The most frightening thing was to get injured or sick. Once they were injured and could not recover by themselves, they would need surgery to solve it., the family that was completely unable to perform surgery on top-tier magical beasts could only watch as the magical beasts that they had spent countless resources to raise fell. For many families that only had one top-tier magical beast, this kind of loss was disastrous.

However, there was no other way. There were very few surgeons in the world that could operate on top-tier magical beasts. The fees were frighteningly expensive every time. However, this kind of surgical secret technique was kept secret by some foreign families. It was considered a top-tier secret technique. However, Daxrema knew that., in the past, his elven family also had this kind of ability. It was the flower spirit that knew the telepathic technique!

Once they were able to successfully nurture this kind of fellow, forget about other things, just the cost of the surgery alone could be worth ten silver moon stars. That was not even considered other values!

“How is it?” Dusrema didn’t give the crowd a chance to recover from their shock as he hurriedly asked, “Everyone knows me. I’ve always been straightforward. This is also the best condition that our family can offer. Whether it works or not, just say the word!”

The few elders were stunned by this imposing manner and immediately looked at family head Kyle with eager eyes.

To be honest, this condition had completely exceeded their expectations. After all, just like what the other party said, the MUZIR family’s management field was different. They wouldn’t spend huge resources to nurture a flower spirit.

“That... Kyle, I think... Old Rema is still very sincere...”

Kyle immediately rolled his eyes. These few boneless people had swallowed their words so quickly. They didn’t even insist on it. How could he raise the price so easily?

“Cough...” Kyle coughed lightly, he looked at the others. “That...”. “...”. Since senior da Si Lei Ma had already made a price, I won’t be unreasonable. I’m quite satisfied with this price. If no one here can make a better offer, then this matter will be settled... “...”

“Wait a moment!” Just as da si lei Ma was laughing maniacally in his heart, a faint voice was heard. Da Si Lei Ma’s heart instantly tightened, and he frowned as he looked over.

When he saw the person who spoke, he felt even more depressed. It was the wind whisperer family’s Mira!

Honestly speaking, if it was the moon god family or the Moon Forest family, these two traditional magical beast master families, they would still be able to understand. Why did the Wind Whisperer family come to join in the fun?

Although the wind whisperer family operated in many ways, in the end, the main direction of the family was still in the direction of the priests. Why did they come to join in the fun?

Chapter 1456: astonishing conditions!

It wasn’t just Vasilema who was curious. The members of the other families were also looking curiously at Mila of the Wind Whisper family. If the other party had come here with the intention of trying, everyone would understand.

However, with Vasilema offering such a price, even the members of the traditional magical beast families were still hesitating. It would be ridiculous for him to step forward and bid first.

Could it be that the Wind Whisper family was also planning to spend a large sum of money on this little flower spirit?

Was a family without a top-tier magical beast willing to take such a risk? One had to know that the other party was just a seedling. Whether or not he could be nurtured was another matter.

Mira was expressionless in the face of many doubtful gazes, but she was also very depressed in her heart.

The Wind Whisper family was an old-fashioned noble family with a long history. They had a much deeper foundation than the sunstrider family. However, just as the other party had thought, the Wind Whisper family was after all a family that mainly relied on priests, most of the family's power relations, businesses, and positions in the royal family were in the field of priests. Although there were occasionally outstanding juniors who had developed in other fields, they were still in the minority. The main direction was still the priests.

It was originally impossible to spend such a huge price to fight for a flower spirit... .. But... ..

This was what the great elder Vinos had instructed...

Venos usually did not care about the family business because he was also the chief service officer of the fifth Lord, Lord Iluweta's influence. He was in charge of managing Lord Iluweta's influence funds, this position had to be separated from the family business.

Thus, Mila and the family head, Shantis, were in charge of most of the family business. However, this did not mean that Venos did not have a say in the family. On the contrary, Venos' right to speak was extremely important in the family because he had Lord Iluweta's backing, even the current crown prince's mother, Qin Wei... Whisper had to respectfully bow and address the high priest as Lord... ..

Therefore, he did not make a sound on a daily basis. However, once there was an order, no one in the Whisper family would disobey it, even if this order seemed a little ridiculous to Mira.

However, since Lord wanted this child, then even if he had to stake some of his family's assets, he had to take it down!

Kyle looked at the other party, rubbed his hands and smiled. "Senior Mira is also interested? Then what are the conditions offered by your Whisperwind Family?" His expression was as if he had caught a fat sheep, which made Mira feel depressed.

"We can guarantee Nightingale's entry into the cabinet of the priestess' Courtyard!"

As soon as he said this, all the elders of the MUZIR family's eyelids jumped!

The other party really dared to make conditions!

Muzir was a big family in the starry sky. The family was rich in excellent warriors, divine guards, and military talents. Their main businesses were the military and imperial guards.

But in recent years, they had also developed in the field of priests, and the nightingale that the other party mentioned was the most outstanding descendant of the priests of their generation!

There were four direct descendants of the MUZIR family in this generation. The first one was the eldest, Horton. Muzir! After graduating from the Divine Policy Academy, his results were the best in the same year. Although he did not bet correctly on the crown prince, he relied on his outstanding military talent. After joining the army, he obtained many battle achievements. In the end, he was disregarded by the previous elven emperor, he was now one of the commanders of the nine great armies in the starry sky, the Marshal of the Sixth Corps!

There was no need to mention the second, Kyle. Because he did not want to participate in the troublesome power struggle for the crown prince, he said that he needed to use his strength on other races. Thus, he went directly to the highest academy in the Northern Star Field, Night Demon Academy: Night Nether Academy! There, he defeated all the direct descendants of the night demon nobles. At that time, the entire Upper Circle's news focus was on this aspect. It almost covered up the limelight of the Crown Prince's fight for the throne, he was praised by the media as the strongest divine guard in Muzir's generation. Now, he was the commander of the Imperial Court's Imperial Guards!

Fourth Brother, Dixiu. Muzir was the deputy commander of the Sixth Legion. In recent years, his performance was excellent and his military achievements were outstanding. After the new emperor ascended to the throne, he would be promoted through military achievements. According to the rules, a family could not be the commander of two legions at the same time. Dixiu would most likely be transferred back to serve as the chief executive of a high-ranking planet or the guidance of the academy.

Just now, the condition given by Vasrema was to recommend his fourth son to become the chief executive of silvermoon!

And the nightingale that he mentioned was the seventh son of Kyle's generation: Nightingale. Muzir!

Nightingale had been following the path of the starry priestess since she was young, and she was extremely talented. She was the top genius of the MUZIR family who had reached the threshold of star-level in only half a century after Kyle.

She was currently an elder of the outer court of the starry priestess temple. Although she was near the end of the ranking, she had a bright future because of her young age... ..

However, because she was too inexperienced, even if Nightingale had broken through to star-level, she would not be able to be ranked as an elder of the cabinet within three eras.

However, it would be different if the windwhisper family was willing to raise their hand. After all, the Windwhisper family was a large priestess family. The only ones who could compete with them in the priestess realm were the Stormwind family and the star Whisperer family. They were the top of the royal family in the starry sky!

Once Nightingale could become an elder in the priestess Temple's cabinet, the Muzir family's priestess line could be considered as a step up. After all, the priestess Temple's elders had great power...

“Kyle... Kyle?”

Several elders looked at Kyle with trembling voices.

They had never expected that Kyle’s illegitimate daughter would be able to gain such great benefits for the family. At this moment, they even wished that they could rush up and press Kyle’s head to agree to this matter.

Kyle also revealed an excited look as he rubbed his hands, his eyes smiling into a slit...

But in fact, his heart was filled with a chill... ...

This situation was exactly the same as what the short man had said!

Venos had really asked the members of the windwhisper family to come and get him, and even offered an incredible price!

This was obviously a test...

Previously, he did not understand why Lord iluvita wanted to avoid Venos when he was grooming a junior. Now, Venos’actions made him even more afraid.

What was he trying to do?

Kyle had a feeling that something big was going to happen!

“Lady Mira has already offered a pretty good condition...” Kyle rubbed his hands together and looked at everyone with a smile. “Does anyone else have any other bids?”

That insatiable expression made everyone roll their eyes. Even the elders were secretly stunned. When did their family head become so sensible?

Not Bad, not bad!

“The moon god family is willing to recommend Sir Dixiu as the chief executive of the Purple Spirit Planet!”

A faint voice sounded, causing Kyle to look over. The surrounding people were also stunned, especially the other magical beast families!

The purple spirit planet was one of the moon god family’s top-tier stars. It was known for its high-quality purple spirit crystals. The purple spirit crystal was not only a top-tier energy crystal used to nurture special magical beasts, it was also an extremely high-grade alchemy material.

Even if the chief executive could only split thirty percent of the profits, the value of this planet was definitely more than double the value of the Silver Moon planet that the sunstrider family had previously proposed!

“Sister-in-law is so bold!” Kyle looked at her with a smile.

But in his heart, he laughed coldly. This child could not be given to the windwhisper family, much less to this woman!

Chapter 1457: minor surname...

This woman... is really crazy! !

Ni Lan's face was expressionless, but her heart was extremely cold.

The amethyst planet was a super-grade star with great strategic significance in the family faction. This crazy woman was planning to hand it over just to clear the obstacles for her son?

If it was the same as other family clans, it could be considered a risky strategic investment if it was to nurture a wood spirit with telepathy, but what about her? Just to eliminate her enemies?

In the face of her sister's cold gaze, Leandra was expressionless, as if she didn't care at all about her sister's gaze. She was the head of the moon god family, and even if the Elder Council admired her sister, the head of the family was still her!

Besides, what was the point of wasting an amethyst star? Her son was the most outstanding magical Beast Master of this generation, and he had defected to the most popular fourth prince. As long as nothing unexpected happened, the next President of the Magical Beast Chamber of Commerce would be her son, wasn't this many times more profitable than the profits brought about by an amethyst star?

And the sudden appearance of that little kid from the MUZIR family was an accident! ! ! !

"What do you think, Sir Kyle? If it's possible, how about we establish a contract and conclude the transaction?" Leandra said calmly.

She did not have a very good impression of this brother-in-law either. He was just a vulgar person who only knew how to look at the skin!

Back then, when he had returned from the Serene Night Academy, he had been extremely glorious. He had been highly regarded by the new emperor who had just taken office not long ago. After a few promotions, he had reached the position of deputy commander. Almost everyone knew that after the old Zhuyue clan's Lord Ke Zaba had left office., the next commander of the Imperial Army would definitely be him. For a time, he had been in the limelight among his peers. All the great clans wanted to marry him.

As the eldest daughter of the moon god family, he was very talented, so he should be the best candidate. However, he didn't expect that this guy, who was obsessed with sperm, took a fancy to his pretty second sister just because of his skin.

What happened in the end?

At that time, this guy was so confident that he fell in love with her. He thought that he would be a devoted, childish, and laughable man...

"Sister-in-law, don't be anxious..." Kyle smiled and said, "There are still so many seniors who haven't bid..."

Everyone: "..."

"You are greedy..."leandra smiled and said, "But my price is already the peak, right? Even if the others are higher than me, how high can it be? We are in-laws, can't you take care of us?"

"Sister-in-law, what you said is true. Even a mother and brother have to settle the score, right? Besides, you're not the only in-law..."Kyle looked at Ni Lan who had been silent all this while with a smile. "What did sister-in-law say?"

These words stunned everyone. Although everyone in the circle knew that the two sisters of the Moon Goddess family were not on good terms, wouldn't it be too much to directly count them as two families?

On the other hand, Leandra sneered. Although her third brother did not like her, he had never embarrassed her in front of outsiders. If Kyle wanted to see them as a joke, he must have made a mistake...

"The elder of the Magical Beast Chamber of Commerce recommended..."ni Lan said calmly.

Leandra was stunned... She looked at the other party in surprise. She did not expect that the other party would really take up this matter. ...

The people around also didn't expect it. They looked at the two of them with interest... ..

"Don't mess around!"Leandra glared at him. "What are you trying to do with him?"

Neela was expressionless and ignored her elder sister.

Leandra's face turned gloomy and she sneered at him.

What did he mean? was he trying to stop her?

After Dinos returned, he had indeed told him that his aunt had the intention of succeeding the child. Of course, she would not allow such a thing to happen... ..

Ni Lan had not had the intention of marrying out for many years. Now, this fellow had advanced courageously. In less than half a century, he had already entered the star-grade. He had even become one of the genuine elders of the magical Beast Chamber of Commerce. Now, he had been invited by the Starry Sky Academy to become a professor.

Other than not having the title of the head of the moon god family, all the other factions outside were not weaker than her. Especially now that she had entered the starry sky academy, the amount of nurturing she had done for the network was extremely great. It was already a threat enough..., how could she still allow her to inherit such a powerful doll?

"Lord Kyle wouldn't be interested in this, right?"Leandra looked at Kyle with a smile.

If you want to stop me, you have to see your own strength. No matter how capable you are, how can you compete with the Patriarch of the Moon God family for resources?

The elder of the Chamber of Commerce recommended this condition. If it were any other situation, it would be a huge favor, but if it were placed here, it would be nothing.

The recommendation did not necessarily mean that the other party would be promoted to an elder. This was completely different from the domineering words of the Windwhisper family that could make the third elder of the Muzir family become an elder.

Moreover, the MUZIR family did not have any need for the magical Beast Chamber of Commerce. The other family had never developed in this area. As long as they had some connections, why would they choose to sell such a good seedling?

Kyle nodded and looked at Ni Lan. "That's it?"

Ni Lan was silent for a few seconds before she nodded. "This is the only thing I can offer..."

Actually, what she really wanted to exchange was her newly raised Heavenly Dragon Griffon. She intended to use this new species as the exclusive magical beast of the MUZIR family as a condition, however, this condition was a little lacking compared to the people around her.

This was also the reason why she wanted to quickly settle this matter before everyone else. However, she did not expect the others to arrive so quickly. She also did not expect Kyle to have the intention of auctioning off the cabbages long ago... .

If there is no other way to go to Dylan, no matter what the first thing to save the baby, such a good seedling she did not want to be destroyed by his eldest sister... .

"Well..." on the other side, Kyle faced Ni Lan's answer and rubbed his chin, revealing an embarrassed expression. . .

On the other side, cabbages that have no idea they are being auctioned are happily taking two meal cards to the canteen to get food.

The meal card is given by the college and every admitted student has it. They can go to the campus to get a very high-quality meal at meal time. If there is a nutritional list issued by a dietitian, they can also prepare special ingredients for the students.

Of course, school had yet to start, and the class allocation was not complete yet. Every student's dietitian and physical instructor quota had yet to be enjoyed, and the card they received was also a common meal card, it was not divided according to the class allocation.

However, this was already very satisfying to the little cabbage. She felt that the canteen here was simply heaven. Any random food was much better than the dog egg restaurant. F * ck, it was even free., now that she thought about it, how dark was the dog egg restaurant?

"Auntie, I want this, this, this, this, this! !"

The Elven chef in charge of food distribution had a face full of black lines. Looking at this lump of steamed bun, he thought to himself, "This kind of gluttonous country bumpkin can actually enter the Academy?"

"Why do you have two cards?"

“My Friend is injured and hasn’t been able to get out of bed yet. I’ll send it over to him...” little cabbage had an expression that said, “I’m a very loyal person.”

“How can your friend eat so much when he’s injured?” The chef frowned. “What kind of injury? Can he eat it? Although it’s free rations, it can’t be wasted.”

“Mental trauma... my friend can eat a lot. Aunty, don’t Worry!” Little cabbage sighed. “Actually, I want so much for him. Look at my small size, how can I eat so much...”

“That’s true...” the chef nodded. Although this little bun looked like a foodie, he was still a petite and cute little flower spirit. How much could he eat?

The chef took the card and looked at it. He asked curiously, “Chenye Eldia? This family can actually get into the Starry Sky Academy? And The Secret Court?”

“HMM?” Little cabbage tilted her head curiously. “What Family?”

“Oh...” the cook said casually, “A small family that is not worth mentioning. I have heard of it by chance...”

“Why does it have to be that family?” Little cabbage was even more curious. “Can’t we have the same surname?”

“This Aldia surname...” the Auntie smiled.

“What do you mean by a surname?” Little cabbage asked in confusion.

“You’ve been locked up since you were young, right?” The Cook rolled her eyes. “You don’t even know this bit of common sense?” “Surname is a common surname. Usually, it’s a surname registered by a small family in order to clear their name. Once it’s successfully registered in the federation, other citizens of the federation can not have the same surname...” “...”

“Eh?” Bai Cai was instantly stunned. “In other words... People named Aldia... are all family?”

Chapter 1458: that unlucky thing is your cousin?

“How is it? Does it suit your appetite?”

In the independent dormitory, little cabbage carefully looked at Chen Ye. “If it doesn’t suit your appetite, I can help you eat some...”

Chen Ye looked at the small half of a bowl of fruit porridge on his plate and was stunned. Then, he looked at the pile of meat on the other party’s Plate. After a while, he said in a daze, “You can still eat?”

Chen Ye: “...”

“Actually, it’s not that I don’t want you to eat it...” “...”. “The main thing is that you can’t eat too much in your current condition. What you’re suffering from is a fear-type mental attack. Not only will you suffer from mental trauma, but your body will also have serious physiological abnormalities. Your intestines and stomach will become very weak and you can't eat food that has too much energy. This bowl of bhikkuti fruit porridge was specially chosen by me. It's very suitable for your current situation. Why Don't you try it?"

"Eh?" Chen Ye tilted his head out of curiosity. When did this heartless guy become so considerate? Was it nonsense or was it true?

However, what the other party said about psychological attacks causing physical reactions was true. Right now, he felt extremely uncomfortable in his internal organs. When he saw the pile of meat on the cabbage plate, he felt so stifled that he wanted to vomit.

This was impossible in the past. One had to know that the thunder fighters were naturally carnivorous...

With a skeptical attitude, Chen Ye gently scooped half a spoonful of porridge into his mouth. In the next second, a strange fragrance filled his mouth, allowing him to naturally slide the porridge with a slightly sweet and soft texture into his throat.

In an instant, a warm feeling spread from his throat to his stomach. The cold feeling instantly became much better, and the remaining fragrance in his mouth made the dull feeling in his heart feel a little more relaxed... ..

Chen Ye couldn't help but scoop another spoonful into his mouth. In a trance, he ate half a bowl of porridge.

After coming to a realization for a few seconds, Chen Ye put down the spoon and stared blankly at the cabbage opposite him. The feeling of a long-withered grass encountering sweet dew welled up in his heart.

"How is it?" The cabbage asked carefully.

To be honest, the universal pharmacology was something that Ysera had trained for him. She had never seen many samples before, and the effects were only recorded in Ysera's ancient books. There were doubts in her heart as to whether the effect was really effective.

After all... .. As a traditional Western medicine practitioner, she did not really believe in herbs, food treatments, and so on... ..

"It's indeed not bad..." Chen Ye nodded honestly, and then asked curiously, "You also know pharmacology?"

"A little..." little cabbage's tone seemed modest, but her nose was raised high.

After being memorized by Bai Cai for a month, she could finally use it to show off... ..

"You know a lot of things..." Chen Ye couldn't help but exclaim, "A flower spirit that knows knife skills and medicine!"

"It's like this at home. I like to instil some nonsense..." bai cai raised her nose even higher

Chen Ye silently looked at her and thought to herself, is this a noble?

“Speaking of which, Chen Ye, you’re also a descendant of an aristocratic family, right?” Bai Cai took a bite of the fire crystal rat meat. The smooth and delicate texture made her squint her eyes comfortably.

Chen Ye scratched her head embarrassedly when she heard that. “My family isn’t an aristocratic family at all. It’s just a small family in a foreign land. It Can’t be compared to you real aristocrats...”

“Oh, then does your Eldia family have any powerful figures?” Xiao Bai Cai asked as she ate.

“What do you mean by powerful?” Chen ye frowned. “The most powerful figure?” “It should be grandpa. Back then, Grandpa was only half a step away from the dragon-level. He was the descendant of the Ardia family who was the closest to the dragon-level. He almost brought the family to a new height. However, in your Muzir family, he shouldn’t even be qualified to be a butler...”. “...”. “...”

“So Miserable?” Little cabbage was stunned.

Chen Ye looked at little cabbage, whose mouth was full of oil and whose face was full of innocence. For some reason, it seemed that he couldn’t be disliked at all when he was obviously asking for a beating.

“That’s right... It’s just that miserable...” Chen Ye smiled. “It’s a disgrace to have a friend like me, isn’t it?”

“That’s right...” the cabbage grinned. “It’s awesome! !”

He was going to go back and announce that the Lord’s relatives had become his underlings, Haha... ... ! It would definitely be recorded in the annals of the forces!

But what was the relationship between this guy and the Lord? Nephew? Grandson? Or younger brother?

“Then who is the second most powerful person in your family?”

Chen Ye was stunned. There was such a question? Speaking of which, why did the other party ask this?

“The second most powerful person... depends on what it refers to. If it refers to the life level, it should be uncle. If it refers to the future and the combined forces, it should be eldest cousin, Ryan...”

When he mentioned this name, Chenye could not help but frown. Before he set off to participate in the national examination, he had heard that Ryan had been promoted for some reason. It seemed that he was going to hold another celebration party at home... ...

Fortunately, he and his sister Nicole did not have to participate in the national examination. His mother was at Night Demon’s house, so he did not have to suffer. His father was nowhere to be found. The only one who would go to his house would be his eldest sister, right?

However... ... It didn’t seem to be a big deal. His eldest sister seemed to be eager to participate...

“Ryan?” Little cabbage was stunned. This name... ... It sounded a little familiar...

Did I hear it somewhere before?

Seeing that little cabbage seemed to be very interested, even if he didn’t want to mention that person..., chen ye patiently explained, “That’s the child of my uncle’s family, and he’s also the next appointed head of our family. He's doing very well now, becoming an interstellar marshal under the banner of a high-level deity overlord. He's doing very well..."

"Which high-level deity?" Bai Cai asked.

"Bolton..."

"Bolton..." Bai Cai's expression immediately became strange.

"You've heard of Him?" Rennes was a little curious, but it was normal when he thought about it. Bolton was a young deity overlord who had been in the limelight in recent years. His background was very special, and there were many people who had heard of him in the East Star Field, it was normal for little cabbage to know.

"I've heard of some..." little cabbage chuckled guiltily.

I was wondering why it sounded so familiar. So it was that cameo!

Little cabbage clearly remembered that soap was undergoing a tearing training during that period of time. The training content was to imitate many figures in Burton's faction.

Among them, there were three most important ones. One was blood demon Saab, one was Lord Burton himself, and the other... .. It seemed to be an unlucky guy named Ryan...

Ah... .. So that unlucky guy... ? ... was it his eldest cousin?

That was really... .. A sad thing... .. Bai Cai covered his face as he thought.

"What's Wrong?" Ryan couldn't help but ask curiously when he saw the strange expression on the other party's face.

"Ah... I, I'm thinking..." just as he was thinking of how to fool the other party, the school Ai's notification suddenly sounded.

"Student number FG2081, little cabbage muzir, the Dean has something to ask you. Is it convenient?"

"Convenient, convenient! !" Little cabbage stuffed a few lumps of meat into her mouth that she could not recognize, she picked up a huge meat leg and waved it at Chen Ye. "I have something to do. I'll go over first. Talk to you next time. Save the meat for me. I'll eat it when I come back!"

As he said that, he ran outside.

Chen Ye was speechless...

"What a weird guy..." Chen Ye smiled and shook his head. He stood up weakly and used his space bag to pack up the food that the cabbage had brought back. This was to prevent the other party from not being able to eat the hot food when he came back. Many of the meat in here would lose its texture after being heated up a second time... ..

This should be the first friend that he had made since he was sensible, right. Chen Ye thought to himself, although it's a little weird... .. But it seems to be not bad...

Chapter 1459: From today onwards, I will change my address!

Little cabbage followed the intelligent prompt and eagerly searched for the way. After walking for a while, she suddenly had a bitter expression on her face. A few teleportation arrays had circled around her eyes, causing her eyes to hurt!

Ever since she was young, she had always been a road idiot. In the past, she had to walk a few streets more than ten times before she could barely find the way. But now, an academy seemed to be bigger than the entire city of Shanghai in sphere D. More than a hundred kilometers of roads had been set up with a teleportation array. Little cabbage felt that she had probably walked through four or five teleportation arrays along the way...

What the hell was this concept? Wasn't it crossing provinces? Fortunately, she had brought rhubarb with her. She should be able to find it back, right?

Little cabbage looked at rhubarb beside her. Rhubarb rolled its eyes and revealed an evil smile... ..

Heh... .. Eating alone was quite enjoyable. You didn't even throw me two bones. I'll find an opportunity to throw you back and eat the meat on the table later... ! ... You'll sleep on the street tonight, dead! ! !

Just like that, little cabbage finally went around to the so-called faculty advisor... ..

"Wow..." little cabbage looked up at the so-called faculty advisor that was like a fortress. All kinds of luxurious materials that he had never seen before were laid out so beautifully, causing little cabbage, who had just eaten his fill, to drool... ..

'I will also build such a big house in the future! !'

While little cabbage was secretly making up her mind, a gentle voice that was like water sounded from the side, "Classmate? Classmate?"

"Gulp..." little cabbage quickly sucked in the saliva at the corner of her mouth and turned around, "Eh?"

The one who asked was an extremely beautiful flower spirit. She smiled and looked at the silly little cabbage, "Classmate is a freshman, right? What brings you here?"

"Oh, oh... Ai said teacher Ni Lan is looking for me..."

"Teacher ni Lan?" The flower spirit's eyes lit up. "Student, What's Your Name?"

"Little Cabbage Muzir!" Little cabbage placed her hands on her hips proudly. She realized that ever since she had a surname, the name little cabbage sounded even more awe-inspiring...

"Muzir?" The flower spirit immediately narrowed her eyes. "You're that child..."

When she came to the school early in the morning to report, she had already heard of a few large melons. The first large melons were the night demon clan's he Lan clan's girl who had come knocking on their door, wanting to imitate how Kyle had suppressed his peers when he went to the night Serene Academy back then!

It was said that this He Lan clan's girl was extremely incredible. Not only did she tame your father when she was only a teenager, she had also tamed a devil seed, nearly crippling the entire examination hall's students! !

Moreover, the incident happened so suddenly that even the principal did not have the time to stop it. If this really happened, the Starry Sky Academy would probably lose face, and it would be equivalent to having their underwear ripped off...

The second big melon was that in the scene at that time, an amazing person had appeared among the students who were originally pulling their hips. He had directly resisted the He Lan family's doll's attack. Not only had he resisted the demonic butterfly, he also possessed an extremely ancient telepathic talent, he brought the entire deadlock to life, instantly preventing the academy from falling into an awkward state of being stripped of its underwear.

Moreover, the key point was that this student who guarded the academy's bottom line was from the MUZIR family, and was also Lord Kyle's illegitimate daughter. This time, there were many things to discuss!

Many people said that Kyle was indeed the nemesis of the night demons. Even getting an illegitimate daughter from outside was such a nemesis of the night demons. Who would have thought that this romantic seed outside could actually get an ancient wood elf to come back, moreover, he also happened to have the telepathic talent to counter the Sky Demons.

It was simply amazing!

She somewhat regretted not participating in the new student assessment this time. However, how could she have expected that the crown prince realm, which had been shunned by countless nobles, would produce so many melons?

"That... Senior?" Little cabbage looked at the other party cautiously.

The way the other party looked at her... Why did it feel so complicated? It felt like there was a lot of drama going on!

"Ahem..." the instructor smiled and said, "Little cabbage, right? First of all, Congratulations on entering our magical Beast Academy's Star class. I Am Your Star class's magical beast assistant instructor: Annie Sunstrider."

"Oh, Hello, instructor!" Little cabbage immediately showed a fawning smile.

Before she came, she had already heard about it from morning and night. A class had a master teacher, an assistant teacher, a life teacher, and a priest who specialized in blessing. The star-shaped class they were in was the best class, the master teacher was the Dean of the Magical Beast Institute, Dylan. However, the dean was only responsible for some of the large classes that would be held in the ancient lands after that. The small classes that had accumulated the foundation before were basically all taken up by assistant teachers.

And the assistant instructor was said to be the eldest princess of the Zhuriu family, Annie. Behind her was the Zhuriu family of the Beast College. If he could be valued by Annie, not to mention that it would be very good for his future prospects, just his identity alone would allow him to grasp a lot of high-level secret arts, learning one would mean profiting from it!

Little cabbage had some ideas about learning the so-called high-level secret arts. After all, it was not a good thing to be constantly kidnapped because of the weak and small. He always had to trouble other players to look for him.

It was the same this time...

For Big Huang to be able to come through the passage, it was probably because his teammates had found the nearby area. Otherwise, if they were too far away, Big Huang would not be able to connect to his spirit channel, right?

However, his teammates were really amazing. Even though he was kidnapped so far away, they were still able to find him so quickly. Was it boss rain or... ..

Thinking of another possibility, the smile on little cabbage's face became even wider. That guy, she did not come when he asked her to come. He looked like he despised her. Since she was kidnapped, it was better for her to come looking for him... .. hehe... ..

"Teacher Ni Lan's office building in the Flower District. Let me bring you there..."

"Thank you, teacher. You're So Kind!" Little cabbage continued to curry favor with her.

It was really easy to come here just by leading the way. When Annie saw the other party's undisguised attempt to curry favor, she immediately smiled. This little girl was quite similar to Kyle... ..

Just like that, Annie brought little cabbage all the way to the flower district of the faculty faculty faculty. This was the district closest to the dean. The implication of arranging a new teacher to work here was very obvious... ..

Ni Lan was probably going to be supported as the next dean of Magical Beasts...

Annie didn't care about this. She knew herself well. Her aptitude was good, but it wasn't considered top-notch. The future pressure of her family was all on her little brother, Damon. Although she didn't have much support from her family, she could still live a more relaxed life. In any case, she was quite enjoying her current life...

Having already broken through to the star level, she had a lot of life to slowly squander... ..

Soon, under the guidance of the other party, little cabbage entered the office building made of huge petals and a bunch of pink crystals. Once again, she looked at her surroundings with envy.

This environment was much better than her doghouse in the New World... ..

"You're here?"

Just as she was immersed in the magnificent architectural style, a familiar cold voice interrupted her. Little cabbage shivered and hurriedly looked up. Immediately, she saw that beautiful face that was always cold.

To be honest, as a flower spirit, ni Lan's facial lines were too strong. Although she was extremely handsome, she lacked the flexibility of a flower spirit. Instead, she looked more like a wanderer... ..

"Ahem... Nice to meet you, instructor ni Lan!" Little cabbage quickly greeted her respectfully.

This was a big shot that shouldn't be provoked... She didn't know why he was looking for her. It was probably nothing good. ...

"Um..." Ni Lan looked at little cabbage, whose eyes were darting around, and nodded slightly. Then, she said lightly, "From today on, you have to change the way you address me..."

"Eh?" Little cabbage was stunned. Change the way he addressed me? What did she mean? Did she get promoted? Did she have to call him deputy director or something?

Even so, wasn't it too obvious that she was showing off?

Besides, what does it have to do with me. I'm just a student, Hey, Hey... ..

"Call... call her what?" Little cabbage cooperated.

"Call her mother!"

Little Cabbage:"..."

Chapter 1460: Complicated Forces (Part One)

What the hell was that? ?

Little cabbage was stunned. Although she knew that she was using the identity of an illegitimate daughter, she still couldn't understand why someone would suddenly appear and ask her to call her mother... ..

Moreover, in the image that the damned dwarf gave her, her mother wasn't this person... ..

Annie's eyes were wide open and she looked like she was eating a melon.

Here it comes!

It was about the third melon!

It was about the child snatching incident in the MUZIR family yesterday!

As everyone knew, the Muzir family did not follow the flower spirit path. Such an outstanding child in the MUZIR family would not be able to pave the way or carry the burden. It was extremely wasteful.

As a result, many magical beast families had the idea of inheriting the family. In any case, she was an illegitimate daughter, and she was still young. It would be just right for her to be nurtured. But for the Muzir family., it would be more cost-effective to exchange a child that could not be nurtured for a considerable amount of resources to pave the way for the younger generation that their main family wanted to nurture.

Just like that, yesterday, they heard that several large families had sent important figures to the MUZIR family, especially the moon god family. Even the family head had gone there personally.

However, when it came to the moon god family, one had to pay attention to another melon.

Back then, the moon god family's most outstanding person was naturally the genius magical beast master Ni Lan. Whether it was the moon god family's Elder Council or the outside world, almost everyone thought that Ni Lan would not be the next head of the moon god family.

However, they did not expect that the position of the head of the family would fall into the hands of the eldest sister, Leandra. At that time, she broke the glasses of the surrounding Melon Eaters.

Everyone knew that in the end, the two sisters were very discordant... ..

And yesterday, when they were competing for the flower spirit, there was a situation where the two sisters were competing for it. This was rare in the same family.

However, it was also very understandable. Although Leandra had become the head of the family, there were many people who were dissatisfied with her. In addition, Ni Lan had recently broken through to the star level and became the successor of the Muzir family's Kyle and the Windwalker family's Dylan, a top-notch genius who had entered the star level in the third and a half era was very popular in the moon god family's Elder Council.

If the other party succeeded in suppressing the limelight of Leandra's son, Dinos, by following the descendant of a top-notch genius, then her position would be even more unstable.

However, she did not expect that the guy in front of her would really snatch her away yesterday!

A single-handedly guy had actually snatched her away from the moon god family's head. Such a good show. She deeply regretted not going to the Muzir family's house with her grandfather yesterday to watch the show... ..

She could only follow the little guy over to eat some leftover melon seeds... ..

Seeing the dumbfounded look on the little cabbage's face, ni Lan felt awkward. Although she had lived for so long, this was her first time being a mother. She originally wanted to use a cold attitude to hide her awkwardness... However, the dumbfounded little Bun's face in front of her instantly made her feel a little overwhelmed...

"Cough..." ni lan coughed lightly and said in a tone that she felt was rather amiable, "Kyle passed you over to me, and it cost me a lot..."

When little cabbage heard this, she was even more dumbfounded...

What did she mean? She was sold by that scumbag father whom she had never met?

He was indeed a scumbag father! !

"How much did he sell?" Little cabbage asked eagerly.

She wanted to know her own market price...

Ni Lan immediately frowned. "Why would a child ask these things?"

Little Cabbage:"..."

What the F * ck... "...". You guys buy and sell me so naturally, why can't I ask how much I was sold?

"Then mother asked me to... recognize the door?" Little cabbage tilted her head and said.

Ni Lan was stunned. She didn't expect the other party to adapt so quickly and call her mother. Beside her, Annie's face twitched as well. This child... "...". He was indeed smart and had a bright future!

Ni Lan was silent for a few seconds before she finally said, "Come with me. I have something to say to you alone..."

"Oh..." little cabbage nodded obediently and followed behind the other party. He was so obedient that he really looked like the other party's child.

Meanwhile, Annie and the few teachers behind her who pretended to be busy and paid attention to the situation revealed a look of regret. It seemed that they wouldn't be able to eat the melons at the scene.

— — — —

"Bang! !"

In a manor in the moon goddess' base, Leandra smashed an exquisite amethyst sculpture into pieces in anger!

The broken amethyst turned into countless particles and scattered all over the place, forming a strong mixed reaction with the surrounding elements!

The guards outside all lowered their heads and did not dare to breathe heavily. However, when they saw such a huge amethyst sculpture being wasted like this, they could not help but sigh in their hearts at how capricious the nobles were... ..

"You can go down..."

At the door, Tinos, who was dressed in a silver-gray gown, walked over and whispered to the guards.

"Yes, Young Master!" The guards immediately lowered their heads and left the scene as if they had been pardoned.

"Mother..."

Dinos walked into the house and looked at the chaotic energy brought by the amethysts around him. He frowned and said, "Mother, there's no need to be angry. It's my fault. I shouldn't have let mother worry about such a small matter..."

Leandra's back was facing her son. She closed her eyes and took a deep breath to calm herself down. Her voice suddenly became extremely gentle. "It's none of your business, child. I'm angry at your aunt who can't see the situation clearly!"

She immediately added in her heart. Of course, there was also Kyle who didn't know what was good for him!

The best condition she had offered was that the guy actually passed the little flower spirit to Ni Lan. The reason was that her daughter would receive better training under Ni Lan's hands, he even said that the MUZIR family wouldn't be reduced to selling their daughter for money.

The reason why he took action was because he wanted his child to have a better development!

Ptui!!

Do you know how many illegitimate children Kyle has out there? He left those who were not talented to fend for themselves out there?

He was obviously a member of a force, but now he acted like a responsible person. who was he trying to show off to? ?

Dinos was silent for a moment and said hesitantly, "I can foresee aunt's attitude. After all, she has always been like that. However, I didn't expect master Kyle's decision."

"What's there to be surprised about?" Leandra sneered, "Have you forgotten about your second aunt?"

Dinos was stunned, "Second aunt has this kind of weight in the Muzir Family?"

He had always thought that his second aunt's current situation was very ordinary. After all, she was just a vase. In a real noble family, one would not be able to hold any position without strength.

"Of course your second aunt doesn't... but Kyle does. Although Kyle is young, his prestige in the Muzir family is very high. As long as your second aunt makes him give in, she will be able to stabilize this matter..."

"In other words..." Dinos frowned. "Aunt has a say in Lord Kyle?"

"Well..." the sneer on Leander's face deepened. "A little. After all, I made a vow of eternal love in the past. Now I feel a little guilty. I still have to give face to him." As he spoke, he looked at his son. "Did you just go to the fourth Prince's Place? What did he say?"
