Chapter 1461: Complicated Forces (middle)

“His Highness only asked me to attend a small meeting and introduced Harson to me. He didn’t mention the little flower spirit at all...”

Leandra’s expression became much better when she heard this. Harson was the son of Meryl, the former finance minister of the Imperial Court. He was a new aristocrat promoted by the previous Elven Emperor and was also a loyal supporter of His Highness Tyrande, the current fourth princess.

The other party was willing to introduce this person to his son. It seemed that he did treat him as one of his own.

“You must maintain the relationship between His Highness the fourth!” Leandra urged. “His Highness Tyrande chose you over Canaan of the windwhisper family in the selection of the Magical Beast Master. This is a great opportunity. You must understand that His Highness Tyrande has a huge advantage. As long as there are no accidents, the other princes have no chance at all!”

“Yes, mother...” Tinos nodded.

“You don’t have to worry too much about that little flower spirit. An outstanding seedling doesn’t mean that it can grow up. Even if it does, choosing the wrong path will be a waste of effort. Your aunt is an example. She doesn’t want to have too much conflict with the Great Elder. In the end, the position of the head of the family will still be in my hands, right?”

“Mother is right...” dinos quickly said, “But mother doesn’t have to worry. Although that little fellow has some talent, I don’t think that I will lose to her. I will definitely shine on this point!”

“Silly! !” Leandra’s expression suddenly changed, “How do you want to prove it? Compete in public? This is the stupidest way! !”

Tinos was stunned and lowered his head.

“I’m not saying that you will definitely lose to her...” “...” Leandra took a breath and said gently, “But that’s meaningless, because your backgrounds are not the same. She is just an illegitimate daughter. If she loses to you, then she will lose. There is nothing to lose, but once you lose, do you know the consequences?”

“What do you want the elders to think of You? What do outsiders think of You? What about the fourth princess who thinks highly of you? What kind of identity do you have to be as aggressive and fierce as a common man?”

Hearing this, Dinos lowered his head even more. “Mother is right...”

“Remember, avoid her in public as much as possible. If it’s a public competition, avoid any direct conflict with her. In any case, you can’t directly clash with her. You Don’t have to worry that she’ll find trouble with you. Then the doll of the Helan family will naturally find her. You Don’t need to do such aggressive and fierce things...". "after a pause, he continued, "You did a good job in school that day when you didn't have the urge to fight with that doll from the Helan family. Remember, the courage of a man is a last resort. If you have to do everything yourself, what is the family going to do with it?"

"Mother is right..."Tinos bowed his head, a little numb to respond to Leandra's words...

"what did mother want to talk to me about?"Little cabbage showed a fawning smile. . .

"That's easy for you to say..."Ni Lan glanced at Bai Cai as she settled herself into her office chair, suddenly frowned, and then took out a handkerchief will be small cabbage corner of the mouth light wipe a: "Pay attention to the image, your native planet is barbaric civilization? Do not wipe your mouth?"

Despite saying that, Ni Lan's action of wiping the corner of little cabbage's mouth was extremely gentle, causing little cabbage to be slightly stunned.

In her mind, she vaguely recalled that when she was very, very young, a woman in white clothes also wiped the corner of her mouth like this...

However, when she was very young, she had never enjoyed it again.

Ni Lan did not notice little cabbage's strange behavior. As she wiped her mouth, she said, "Your mouth is filled with the smell of roasted meat. Why is a flower spirit like you so interested in meat? I remember that Aboriginal flower spirits only like to eat flower dew, right?"

"How can that stuff fill your stomach?"The little cabbage asked in surprise.

The corners of Ni Lan's mouth twitched. Could it be that this child was afraid of being hungry since young?

"Then if you want to eat so much, you can eat as much as you want in these few days, right? After you enter the Star class and have a professional life instructor, your recipe will have to be based on your situation..."

"Eh..."the little cabbage was stunned. "Can't you eat meat?"

"I'm not sure..."ni Lan smiled. "But there's a high probability that the meat in the recipe is very rare. Even if there is, it will be some light-fat white meat. Excessive energy and fat will cause the flower spirit's elemental sensitivity to deteriorate..."

"It won't affect it, it won't affect it at all!"Little cabbage shook her head repeatedly. "It won't affect it at all!"

Ni Lan:"..."

"We'll talk about it when the time comes..."ni Lan didn't know whether to laugh or cry, after wiping her mouth, she kept the handkerchief and continued, "I called you here to tell you about the situation on my side. I Can't just bring you over here and you still don't know anything about me..."

“Uh... oh...” little cabbage nodded. In her heart, she felt that the recipe was more important, but she reckoned that if she said that, the other party would change his face. ...

“Kyle said that you were brought back recently and didn’t spread the power of the starry clan to you. Let me tell you about my situation. My name is Ni Lan.” The Moon Goddess was the third daughter of the previous head of the Moon Goddess clan. She was now in a semi-detached state from the clan. The reason was very simple. The head of the clan... ... also known as my elder sister: Leandra and I are not on good terms. After I graduated from university, all my cultivation resources came from the secret help of other elders and the help of the head of the secret court. So if you want to have the resources of the Moon Goddess clan, I can only tell you that you will be disappointed

Little Cabbage:”...”

What he meant was, even though I bought you from your father, I am actually a poor B * stard. If you expect to get any benefits, you will be disappointed!

It doesn’t sound like a good thing...

“But... .. NI LAN continued, “Even if you follow me, I will not treat you unfairly. I am an official elder of the Magic Beast Chamber of Commerce. Furthermore, the Region I am in charge of, the White Orchid Star, is also a large commercial district. The benefits are abundant, so it is no problem for me to support you. I can also give you priority in obtaining the high-quality Magic Beast Master Products from the Magic Beast Chamber of Commerce. In the future, if you wish to enter the Magic Beast Chamber of Commerce, I will also have the right to recommend you. I even have the right to recommend you as an elder. Moreover, I am also a teacher of the Starry Sky Academy. Although it has not been announced, the next Dean of the Magic Beast Department will be me. During your studies, I will help you fight for all the resources!”

Bai Cai:”...”

“What do you think?” Ni Lan looked at him seriously. “I like your talent, so I’ll open my heart and tell you all this. If you don’t think it’s suitable or if you have a better place to go, you can reject me. I’ll send you back to Kyle’s place.”

Ni Lan said this very seriously, but she was also very serious in her heart. This was because she said that he was a stepchild, but in fact, she was taking in a closed-door disciple. This thing was used to retire, so they couldn’t have any estrangement in their hearts, otherwise, it would be very easy to raise an ingrate.

“Um...” little cabbage directly raised her head. “Mom, what are We Eating Tonight?”

Chapter 1462: Alice’s Secret Technique!

“Eat slowly. If you really like meat, I can ask the Chamber of commerce to bring in some high-quality fatty meat that is easy to absorb and doesn’t have too much energy mixed in. If you don’t digest this high-element meat, it will produce compound energy fats. Affecting your elemental perception is one of them. It will make the magical beast creatures not so close to you...” “...”

Ni Lan lowered her voice and said, "Magical Beasts will have defenses against any carnivorous creatures, including flower spirits. If you want Magical Beasts to have enough affinity with you, you can't let your body smell too much like a heavy carnivorous creature. You're still young, so it won't have much of an impact. Once you've grown to a certain level, it will have a great impact...". "..."

"Oh..." little cabbage nodded very seriously, and then she took a fierce bite of the leg meat in front of her!

Ni Lan: "..."

She was sure that this guy was a master who went in one ear and out the other...

Therefore, she dragged the meat plate in front of little cabbage away with a straight face. "Do you remember what I said just now?"

"Yes, yes, yes!" Little cabbage panicked when she saw the meat plate being dragged away, so she quickly nodded and said.

"Then, can you repeat what I said about the power situation?" Ni Lan said with an unfriendly expression.

"Oh..." little cabbage's eyes did not move as she looked at the plate that the other party had snatched over and said, "This time, when the crown prince enters the school, the other competitors of the royal family also enter the school. Therefore, there is a conflict between factions. We are neutral..."

Ni Lan naturally would not return the meat to her so easily. She continued to ask, "Neutral is neutral, but we also have to avoid conflicts with these factions, so we have to identify them. Tell me about the division of factions that I told you about just now..."

Little cabbage: "There are a total of nine royal princes and princesses, but there are only four people who are truly recognized as having the ability to compete. They are crown prince tyrande, First Prince iliboer, third Princess Xie Yue, and ninth Prince Polly!"

NI LAN: "Then what about the people who support them?"

Little cabbage: "The people who are betting on Crown Prince Tyrande are her mother's family, the Windwhisper family, the old force, the head of the star Whisperer family, the Warrior family, the Chenfeng family, the Wanderer family, the winier family, and the moon god family that your mother is from. The other contenders for the Crown Prince are supporting..." ..

Ni Lan nodded slightly. Although the other party was eating, she still remembered what she said. However, the other party's spiritual power was of high quality, so it was possible that she had found it from her brain's memory.

"Then let me ask you, how many magical beast families have defected to Tyrande?"

"The old families have the star Whisperer and the moon god, and the new nobles have..."

Before she could finish, ni lan interrupted, "There's no need to say more about the new nobles. Let me ask you, among the direct nobles who entered the magical Beast Academy this time, Tyrande has clearly chosen a lot of partners among the magical Beast Masters. There's Suk from the Star Whisperer family. The star Whisperer family, as well as the descendant of her mother's external family, the wind whisperer family, Jia Nan. In terms of foundation, the star Whisperer family is the number one magic beast master family in the galaxy. Cooperating with Suk is the greatest synergy of resources. In terms of relationship, the Wind Whisperer family has been supporting Tyrande ever since Tyrande was born. Why would she choose a descendant of the moon god Family?"

When she asked this question, little cabbage was instantly dumbfounded...

Just like what Ni Lan had thought before, little cabbage was able to recite what the other party had said earlier because his mental strength was high enough. Even if he had been careless at the time, he would have been able to recall the things that he had hidden in his memory after stimulating his brain.

But now, it was completely different. How was this a recitation question? It was clearly a deduction question. How would I know what was going on with your messy power relations?

Perhaps it was because that person called Dinos was very handsome and just happened to be a gigolo?

Just as little cabbage was about to say such nonsense, she saw Ni Lan shrink her plate back. "If I say it wrong, the meat will be gone. Also, I will personally prepare a vegetarian recipe for you in the next ten days!"

"UH..." little cabbage's eyes instantly widened... ..

What a big threat! ! !

This wasn't possible. With this cheap mother's backdoor, she could eat meat of a higher quality than the ordinary cafeteria. If she answered wrong, not only would the meat be gone, even the meat dishes in the ordinary cafeteria would be far away from her... ..

Little cabbage didn't doubt that the other party could do this. After all, the other party had vowed that she would be the next dean. As the future boss, it wouldn't be a big problem to make things difficult for a student... ..

What should she do? What should she do?

Should she fall out with the other party or seek refuge with her scumbag father?

This obviously wouldn't work. That scumbag father who had sold her out for no reason seemed unreliable at first glance. Speaking of which, wasn't she just using her identity? Why could the other party use her identity to sell her for money?

Sigh... ! ... This wasn't important. What was important was that the meat couldn't be lost just like that! ! !

"You're getting more and more useless! !"

A cold voice suddenly sounded in little cabbage's mind, causing her pupils to constrict... ..

Alice! ! !

Why was she here?

No, no, the big boss in front of her was here. It was impossible for Alice to hide it. Alice wasn't nearby, this was... ! Right, this was what Alice had planted in her body: the secret art of the Yimo!

Little cabbage suddenly remembered. Back then, Alice had contacted the AI of the base, and after a round of cooperation, she had received recognition. She had inherited many secret techniques that Alice had taught her, and her body was one of them. Once it was activated, Alice would...

"Hey, Hey... What's wrong with you?"

Far away on the bronze race's Planet of nomorrigan, Feng Doudou, who had been chatting with Alice, suddenly panicked. Alice's eyes instantly went blank, and she sat on the spot like a puppet.

Feng Doudou hurriedly shook her, but he found that there was no reaction at all. It was as if she was dead.

However, upon closer inspection, he discovered that her body was functioning normally. Her heartbeat was normal, and her breathing was normal as well. Only her consciousness seemed to be missing... ..

"Lost her soul?" Feng Doudou frowned. She knew that Alice was an undead, but if an undead left the body, without mental control, the body wouldn't be able to function on its own, right?

What was going on?

Feng Doudou Thought for a moment, then finally took out his communicator and dialed rain girl's WUGUA channel signal.

This communicator was prepared by Ysera. It was a specially encrypted communication channel, but its energy was limited, so it couldn't be used all the time. Guo Xiaoyun had also told everyone not to use it unless it was extremely important.

"What's going on?" Guo Xiaoyun's calm voice came from the other end of the communicator as usual.

Feng Doudou quickly explained the situation.

"Oh, about that...". "...". Guo Xiaoyun heaved a sigh of relief. "Alice's secret technique. When a cabbage encounters a crisis, this secret technique will automatically activate. Alice will also become like this because of this secret technique. You Don't have to worry about it. Alice has a freezer in her space bag. Just take it out and freeze her body. If it's not a big problem, she should come back...". "..."

"Back?" Feng Doudou was stunned. "Where did she go?"

"Where else could she have gone?" Guo Xiaoyun rolled her eyes and said in a low voice, "Of course... it's little cabbage!"

"..."

On the other side, Ni Lan looked at little cabbage in shock. She realized... .. Little cabbage seemed to be... .. a little different. ...

Chapter 1463: Complicated Forces (Part Two)

This child...

Ni Lan curiously sized up the little guy in front of her.

Just a moment ago, she didn't know if it was an illusion, but there seemed to be some change in this child's temperament, but she couldn't tell exactly where the change was.

Little cabbage pursed her lips slightly and picked up a tissue to wipe the corner of her mouth. This action made Ni Lan stunned again... ..

This little girl actually knew how to wipe her mouth?

"I thought about it just now...". Bai Cai wiped her mouth and said, "Among the three magical beast clans, the Stargazer Clan has the deepest foundation and is a veteran magical beast clan. After operating for so many years, regardless of whether it is the external business world or the inner circle of the imperial court, they should have already occupied quite a number of high positions. It is said that in the magical Beast Master Chamber of Commerce, the Stargazer clan occupies a quarter of the elder seats and over a hundred thousand high-level members. Their deep-rooted rights and interests are extremely large. However, it is precisely because of this that the new emperor can give very little to their clan. Even if he promises to be the president of the Magical Beast Master Chamber of Commerce, to their clan, he is only a stepping stone

"On the contrary, the moon god clan is different. Although they are also a large clan of magical beast masters, they have not risen for long. Their history is less than ten epochs. In the two large organizations, the magical Beast Chamber of Commerce and the Secret Academy of Magical Beasts, there are less than ten elders in the moon god Clan. Not to mention the star speaker, even the sunstrider and Lan Feng, these old clans of the moon god Clan, are quite lacking. However, it is precisely because of this that it is easy to rope in such a clan. The clan has enough power, but what is lacking is the foundation, and they also need the help of the imperial clan. If they can become the dean of either of the two academies with the help of the new emperor, they can pave more seats for the clan. This is what the moon god Clan is desperate for... "..."

Little cabbage folded the napkin that was used to wipe the corner of her mouth and placed it into a small magnolia-colored cylinder beside her, she continued, "From the looks of each other's needs, it will be easier for the moon god family to obtain the corresponding returns, or even returns that exceed the benefits. This is what the new crown prince wants..."

Ni Lan was slightly stunned when she heard this. She looked at the other party with a strange expression. From the beginning, this girl had a silly look on her face. How did she analyze it so well?

And what was with her tone? The appraisal was frightening. The confidence that was buried deep in her bones and the calmness in her eyes were completely different from before!

Soul Detection Spell!

Ni Lan narrowed her eyes slightly. The divine light in her eyes was faint. She was secretly casting one of the secret spells of the moon god Family!

It was originally a secret spell that the family used to capture rare beast species in the ancient lands. Because in those strange places, sometimes strange things would appear, such as the ancient outer demons., void possession or some ancient undead, etc. .

These things would sometimes choose a magical beast body to possess and integrate into society through a magical Beast Master. After a long time, they would snatch the magical beast master's body to complete the replacement.

This kind of thing appeared quite often in the circle of Magical Beast Masters. Therefore, some high-level families had their own soul-discerning secret technique to prevent this from happening in the future.

But after activating the secret arts, at a glance, the soul body in the little girl's body was very normal. One was not missing, and two, there was no other messy existence in her body.

Could it be that there were two sides to her personality?

Ni Lan frowned. This kind of situation was not unheard of. Some people's personalities were very different. Sometimes they were naive and cute, and sometimes they were like scheming counselors. This kind of personality was commonly known in the medical world as having two personalities... ..

However, flower spirits were relatively rare. Flower spirits were people who had a relaxed nature. If their personalities were complicated, they would not transform into flower spirits. Of course, in the acquired environment after becoming a flower spirit, they would also have different personalities, for example, her and her two sisters had very different personalities.

Ni Lan put away her soul detection spell and asked without batting an eyelid, "Then do you think this is a good thing or a bad thing for the Moon Goddess Family?"

"Let's see what you think..." "..."little cabbage said calmly, "From the perspective of opportunity, it's natural to benefit. Facing the foundation of other families, it's a chance to break through the path of Ascension and rely on the position of the new emperor. However, mother just said that the other party took the initiative to find US and not the moon god family. This means that the other party already has a plan to use the moon god family. It's hard to say to what extent, but the probability is quite bad "...".

"Oh?" Ni Lan raised her eyebrows. "Why do you say that?"

"The younger generation doesn't compete..." "..."little cabbage smiled and said, "The peers around us seem to have too much tacit understanding. I asked around. In the evaluation of the younger generation of the magical beast master family, the son and nephew of Lord Mother has the best evaluation. He has a vague impression of being the number one person in the younger generation. However, this evaluation seems a little strange to me because according to what I heard, that son and nephew of Lord Mother has never competed with any outstanding peers in public. Then, the question is, how did he, the number one person in his generation, come about?"

Ni Lan smiled slightly. "There are many ways to evaluate it, such as spiritual aptitude, magical beast quality, and so on..."

"But there are also quite a few people who are similar to him in this aspect...". "Whether it's the first son of the lunar speaker family, the first son of the sunchaser family, or even the windwhisper family's Jia Nan, from the comprehensive evaluation data, they are not inferior to him. Why is he the first person?"

NI LAN: "Why do you think so?"

Bai Cai chuckled. "If they don't have solid battle results, then they are just creating hype. If I'm not wrong, the one creating hype should be the moon god family. This kind of method is naturally to gain fame and gain status for themselves. In my opinion, it's rather stupid, but the key is that someone really fell into the trap. That fourth Princess Tyrande, as the Crown Prince with the greatest popularity and the most stable data at the moment, really chose him, and even took the initiative to approach him. The surrounding younger generation doesn't seem to be unconvinced, and they tacitly avoided a direct confrontation with our cousin. After so many years, there hasn't been a public comparison...". "..."

"No matter how powerful our family head is, it's impossible for him to completely avoid it, right? This means that the people around him are really taciturn and giving way to this so-called number one person of the same generation. What does this mean? This means that these big families probably all know that this is a trap!"

Ni Lan's eyelids twitched. This little fellow's analytical ability was far beyond her imagination. Just a little bit of information was actually able to deduce the matter to the point of being almost accurate... She originally thought that this child was extremely talented, but he was too naive, so she planned to correct him in this area in the future. But now, it seemed that there was no need...

Thinking of this, she whispered, "What do you think this trap will do?"

"I'll have to find a seer to analyze this..." Xiao Bai Cai shrugged. "If I can analyze so little information, I'll have to rely on metaphysics. Mother, it's just a piece of meat. Don't tell me you want me to know that?"

As he spoke, he looked at the pile of meat in front of him and begged, "It won't taste good if it's cold..."

Ni Lan rolled her eyes and pushed the meat back. Little cabbage immediately chuckled and started eating again. The puppy that wanted the meat and the confident look that he had when he analyzed the meat earlier switched very naturally, it instantly turned into the little guy who seemed to have everything as long as there was meat. Ni Lan found it funny. This guy said that he was smart and smart, but why was he so useless?

It seemed that it was not some external soul invasion, nor was there anything else in his body. It was just the contrast in the child's personality. It was quite interesting.

Ni Lan sighed and closed her eyes.

Big sister, even a child could deduce that it was a trap, a very dangerous trap. You usually like to play small tricks, so why do you always seem so childish in big matters?

Chapter 1464: Alice's Warning!

“Bad person, bad person, Big Bad Alice! !”

On the way back, in little cabbage’s mind, there was a certain person who was in a bad mood, and he looked like he was about to throw a tantrum.

Alice, who was actually in control of little cabbage’s body, had a helpless look on her face.

“Be quiet...”Alice sighed mentally. “The other party might even be spying on us. If they find out, we’ll be in trouble...”

“HMPH, is this the reason why you ate all my meat in front of me?”

Little cabbage said angrily. There were several varieties of meat in that pile of meat that she had never eaten before. Just the fragrance of the meat was intoxicating. She had originally planned to keep it as a last resort, but in the end, she didn’t even get to taste it., and it was all eaten by Alice!

She even pretended to be herself and ate it so savagely!

“That’s enough...”Alice couldn’t help but cover her head. Why did she come all the way here for... ? It’s all because of you, you trouble-making guy, but you look like an enemy when you eat, you little ingrate.

...

“Not enough, hurry up and return my body, I’m not full yet...”

“You’ll be full after you switch...”Alice rolled her eyes.

“You still have the nerve to say that! !”Little cabbage became even angrier.

“Of course I have the nerve to say that...” Alice said calmly, “This secret spell was activated when you encountered a crisis, but the judgment of the crisis came from you. In the end, I came over, and you activated the sense of crisis just because your meat was almost confiscated. When do you think you’ll be able to do something good?”

Little Cabbage:”...”

It sounded like... .. It did sound like a good-for-nothing... ..

“But are you okay like this?”Little cabbage planned to use normal logic to find the other party’s mistakes. “Your style has changed so much. I’m not that smart. If you change your style in front of others like Conan, won’t others be suspicious?”

“Now you’re worried about being suspected?”Alice rolled her eyes. “Who was the one who desperately told me to save my meat just now?”

“Hmph, I’m not sensible. Why Can’t you tell the severity of the situation!”Little cabbage said matter-of-factly!

Alice:”...”

She couldn’t be bothered with this guy. He was becoming more and more difficult to serve... ..

However, the reason why she had changed so drastically back then instead of running away after a simple analysis was to pave the way for the future. After digesting the recent memories of little cabbage, Alice instantly understood that the current situation around little cabbage was not optimistic!

Putting aside the big shot's idea of bringing little cabbage over to attend the same school as the crown prince, the situation around her was not quite right just by concealing her identity. The fight between the crown prince and the Helan family had provoked the moon goddess family later on., little cabbage would probably encounter a lot of trouble in the future in such a vortex.

If she suddenly changed her style after activating the secret technique, it was very likely that others would suspect her. Therefore, she had to first stabilize the most reliable pillar of support.

From the looks of it, teacher ni Lan, who was willing to take over little cabbage, was little cabbage's only thigh for the time being. Whether it was the competition for resources or the need to cover up for her shortcomings when she encountered trouble, she would probably have to rely on that woman.

Under such circumstances, she had to take precautions and let that woman approve of little cabbage's double-sided style. Although it was risky just now, it was a necessary attempt. Only when the other party approved of this style., in certain emergency situations in the future, she would not be suspected even more by the other party.

"Let's get down to business!" Alice interrupted the other party's incessant chatter, she said in a low voice, "The first thing is the use of the secret technique. After that, you better take it easy. My level is not high and my spiritual power is not enough. Every time I use this secret technique, it will take me at least a week to recover! "If I am called here again for eating meat, I will make sure that you won't be able to eat meat for a year!"

"Ah?" Little cabbage was shocked by this threat and said honestly, "You didn't say it before... But, your body is not affected, right?"

"Humph..."

Alice narrowed her eyes and didn't answer. However, she felt a little better in her heart. At least the little ingrate had some conscience.

However, it was hard to say whether he really had a conscience or was scared out of it...

"Pay attention to the situation. Feng Doudou and I are on Planet Nomorrigan next door. Although we are close, we can't help you in an emergency unless you use a secret skill. The other players, including Guo Xiaoyun, who is slightly more reliable, are so far away from your star field that they can't help you. So, you must try your best to avoid trouble...". "..."

"AH... they're all so far away..." little cabbage suddenly felt wronged. "Didn't the base organize a mission to save me?"

Alice rolled her eyes and said unhappily, "Your mission is too boring. If you keep saving little cabbage, aren't you afraid of being treated as an NPC in the future?"

"Hehe..." little cabbage chuckled and said, "Actually, I think it's good to be an NPC..."

This damn salted fish! !

Alice didn't know what to say...

"In short, we have to avoid trouble as much as possible, but there are some problems that we have to deal with. We have to let that Ni Lan take notice of us. You have to be firm in her stance, and you don't have to provoke other unnecessary troubles if you can!"

"Eh?" Little cabbage said in a daze, "Can you be more specific?"

Alice choked for a moment. Of the two juniors that she had raised with great care, one had once oppressed her too much. Although she had raised her to be very smart, in the end, she had fallen out with her. The other one, on the other hand, had relied on her quite a lot, but she had raised her to be very simple-minded... ..

In terms of education, she might indeed be a shortcoming...

"Ni Lan's status in the moon god family is complicated. There are many people who support her, but she doesn't get along with the family head. So when you need to help her fight for face, you have to do your best. As for the other families, especially that Jia Nan of the so-called wind family, you have to avoid him a little, and you have to be very careful of him!"

"Jia Nan..." little cabbage bit her thumb and tried hard to recall.

She used her mental strength to stimulate the hidden memories in her brain and finally remembered that she was one of the descendants of the so-called three great families in the exam hall yesterday.

But suddenly, little cabbage felt a little strange. She realized that although she remembered, she couldn't quite remember what the other party looked like... ..

This was a little illogical...

Ever since she learned how to use mental stimulation to stimulate the brain, the hidden memory in the brain was like a time recording, it could be extracted at any time, and there was basically no omission. It was impossible for her to say that she couldn't remember this saying.

The only explanation was that she herself didn't see the other party's appearance clearly at that time.

But little cabbage remembered that those three guys were quite high-profile at that time. They were sitting in the VIP seats, and the surroundings were cleared out. She remembered clearly the appearance of the other two guys, and they didn't need to deliberately stimulate the brain... However, when it was that guy named Canaan's turn, why did she... ? ... have no impression of him?

"Why did you say that you need to deliberately pay attention to that guy?" Little cabbage asked curiously.

"Because that guy might be more dangerous to you..." Alice narrowed her eyes and said!

Chapter 1465: Ardia's family matters (part one)

"F * ck... You're back so soon?"

Alice, who had just returned, opened her eyes and saw that she was buried in the freezer. Next to her, Feng Doudou covered her with ice layer by layer, and her expression instantly froze... ..

Because the expression on his face was as if she had turned into a corpse... ..

To be honest, ever since she had become an undead, she hated it when people used such expressions on her... ..

She slowly climbed out of the pile of ice and shook the ice. "Is there anything strange about my body?"

"No..." Feng Doudou quickly shook his head. "Other than the dead fish eyes, there's nothing strange at all!"

Alice took a deep breath and directly ignored the other party. She walked to the outside of the room and turned on the virtual computer. "Give me the Authority!"

"Oh, OH, oh!" Feng Doudou quickly gave up the authority.

After the incident in the Emerald Starfield, Feng Doudou understood that the person in front of him was a big shot!

Although his talent was not as good as the people of Planet D, and his leveling speed was far slower, Yun Ji Mu, who was the slowest in the special environment of the Starfield, had already reached level 7. However, the person in front of him was still only a level 4 undead.

However, Feng Doudou didn't dare to underestimate her at all.

One had to know that while his group was just a passerby, she had already reached the bottom level from being a native. She was able to set up a trap for Andrew with the Lord... ..

Compared to those city lords who were still thinking about how to fight for power in the base, the person in front of him was a truly awesome person.

Alice turned on the virtual computer and opened the information about ILUWETA again. Looking at the information, she frowned deeply.

She did not remember wrongly. The information about ILUWETA's power was made public. The chief executive officer was called Venos. Wind, wind was a small surname. It was different from a big surname like wind whisperer. It was a family monopoly surname.

Furthermore, Venos' information also showed that he was the first elder of the wind whisperer family. He was also the actual person in power, and he was also the Grand Elder of the Elven Royal Priestess and Elders Association!

He held many positions and had a high status. He was one of the top figures in the entire star elves. Furthermore, this guy was able to become Iluweta's head butler. Logically speaking, he should be trusted.

She had specially searched for the position of logistics chief executive officer. It was the same position as when she was under little cabbage. She was in charge of almost all the logistics resources and was a trusted aide.

But with such a position, why... .. Little Cabbage's identity as an illegitimate daughter was installed in that so-called muzir family?

Theoretically speaking, the Zephyr family was more powerful and had more relatives and children. It was best to arrange for unknown people like little cabbage. With Venosli's cooperation, it was easier to leave no traces.

But why did they leave the Zephyr family?

Previously, with their status, they wanted to secretly kidnap cabbages. They did not openly try to take Alice, so they could infer what Iluweta was afraid of. But now, it seemed that.., the Zephyr family and this Venosse family were very important!

Because Venosse was not only the chief executive officer of ILUWETA, but also the Chief High Priest of the royal family. Moreover, the Zephyr family had had direct descendants serving the royal family in the priesthood for generations. Then, the question came.., was he more pro-royal or more pro-iluweta?

And if it was the weight of the royal family that could make Iluweta, the ancient fifth suzerain, feel some fear, then it was somewhat reasonable... ..

The royal family, the whisper family, little cabbages... .. ! The imperial bloodline in his body!

Alice took a deep breath. Even Guo Xiaoyun had not realized what the so-called imperial bloodline meant, but Alice had learned it from Andrew and Anya.

Cabbages of telepathy is also learned in Anya, according to her, cabbages of the blood if some people know, it will set off a storm!

Alice had been skeptical before, but now she was somewhat convinced. She couldn't help but exclaim that the little fellow she had chosen this time was quite remarkable... ..

"Woo..."

On the other side, small cabbage back, face before the remaining half of the hot meat tears, did not eat two bites touched his own round belly choked two times.

"You... . What's wrong with you?"The morning night could not help asking.

"I... . I am just sad... ."Little cabbage flat mouth way: "Looking at a pile of good things... . . Can not eat... ."

Chen Ye smiled bitterly. "Did teacher ni Lan treat you to a meal? It's fine, don't force yourself if you can't eat it..."

"I'm not forcing myself, I'm hungry..."little cabbage whimpered.

“Hungry?” Chen Ye looked at little cabbage’s round belly and twitched the corner of his mouth... ..

“I’m really hungry...” little cabbage was even sadder. He wasn’t satisfied with his appetite, but the feeling of being physically full was too unbearable. He had to be careful next time. He couldn’t activate that secret skill while eating.

“Don’t force yourself...” Chen Ye smiled bitterly and comforted him. “Tomorrow is the opening ceremony. The priests from the royal family will come to host it personally. There will definitely be a lot of delicious food. You can save your stomach for tomorrow...”

“Really?” Little Cabbage’s eyes suddenly lit up.

“Really!” Chen Ye quickly nodded and said, “This is a grand meeting. It is said that the royal secret chef will come to host it personally!”

“Royal Secret Chef?” Small cabbage allowed the finger, Hehe with saliva, watching the morning and night eyelid a twitch, this guy, in fantasy what? How can you eat so much and still fantasize about food and drool? I don’t think this is the reincarnation of a demon?

“By the way... .” Chen Ye suddenly asked, “The admission quota was set before the opening ceremony. According to the rules of Starry Sky College, the first semester of cultivation starts from 100 years. During this period, you are not allowed to leave the school. Do you want to write a letter to your family or something like that?”

Xiao Bai Cai was stunned. She suddenly muttered, “A hundred years...”

She did not know if the person who gave birth to her had entered the galaxy and become one of the players. If not, she would probably never see her again after a hundred years, right?

If she could not see her, then so be it... Anyway, she could not remember the other party’s appearance for many years.

Little cabbage pursed her lips. There were some memories hidden in her brain that she would never want to touch... ..

“What’s Wrong?” Not knowing if it was an illusion, Chen Ye suddenly felt that he was a little sad.

But how could such a heartless Guy be sad?

But she still asked with concern, “Are you okay?”

“Oh, I’m fine...” little cabbage shook his head. “I don’t have any family outside. That scumbag father sold me to instructor Ni Lan in the Academy...”

Chen Ye:” ...”

This information was so huge... “...”. For a moment, he didn’t know how to comfort her.

“Don’t worry about me. What about you? Did you write to your family after you entered a famous school?” Little cabbage asked with a smile.

“Oh, I did write...” Chen Ye scratched his head. Although it was a little inappropriate, the corners of his mouth couldn’t help but curl up.

After years of hard work, under the circumstances where his mother pulled a long face and went to his parents’ house to beg for resources, he finally earned some money. The reason why he took the risk to enter the starry sky academy was so that he could earn some face for his family.

Moreover, he had heard that during the opening ceremony of the Starry Sky Academy, the relatives of the new students would be able to attend the ceremony, so he would definitely come... ..

He just didn’t know if the others would come...

But thinking about it, it should be impossible. His big brother was far away in his territory, so he might not even know about his news...

..

On this day, the news of the morning and night being recorded into the Star class of the school of Magical Beasts of the starry sky university spread to the mail of the Ardia family and the Heavenly God Lord Seer respectively. The school invited the family representatives to attend the ceremony!

Chapter 1466: family matters of Eldia (middle)

The invitation for the opening ceremony of the Starry Sky Academy was still on the way, but at this moment, the Eldia family was immersed in another joyous event, and that was the eldest grandson of the eldest son, Rennes. Eldia had officially become the commander of the Tenth Legion established by the Bolton faction. It was confirmed that he had been heavily groomed by the Bolton faction!

This was a joyous occasion!

Those who were familiar with the Bolton faction knew that his trump card was the nine legions, but they were all the direct descendants of demons. Although Rennes’ previous position was also an interstellar marshal, he was only in the earth barren star system of the Bolton faction, his resources were very ordinary, and he did not have any administrative power. Regardless of his status or actual wealth, he was completely different from the commanders of other star systems!

Of course, it was also related to Rennes’ own strength. The nine commanders under Burton’s banner were all star-ranked, and it was said that they were all outstanding direct descendants of the Abyss tribe. Naturally, they could not be compared to a foreign tribe like Rennes, who was born in a small family.

Therefore, there were some people who did not think highly of Rennes. Because Burton’s force was obviously a family force, outsiders would most likely be ostracized. It was fine if they were just working, but if they wanted to squeeze into the core of the force.., many people felt that the possibility wasn’t high, including the head of the Eldia family, the Dragon Baron.

Therefore, Rennes had always wanted to agree to move the entire Eldia family in, but the dragon baron had never allowed it. Because he knew that if Rennes couldn’t rise to the core of the upper echelons of the Bolton Force in the future., then the entire family would be restricted after moving there, and the gains wouldn't make up for the losses.

After all, the quality of the planet that the Aldia family was on was extremely high. It had been earned through countless generations of hard work. They were willing to move just because they said so. If they moved to the highest level 4 planet under Rennes' banner, the Earth Barren star system, if they didn't succeed in their bet, the entire family's several generations of management would really be wasted... ..

But the situation was different now...

Although the Tenth Army's resources definitely hadn't been matched with the previous nine armies, and Rennes, who hadn't even reached dragon-level, was still very far away from becoming the leader of the First Army, once this title was established, at least the sincerity was brought out., at this moment, the Eldia family was in jubilation, and this matter was being spread everywhere!

There were even rumors that the family would soon move to Rennes' Big Brother's power galaxy!

Of course... .. There was no announcement from the person who could make the decision. At this moment, in the family hall, Ryan's father, gunsh... Eldia was having an intense conversation with the family head, Dragon Baron.

"Father! !"In the hall, gunsh paced back and forth with an anxious expression. "What are you hesitating for?"

Beside him, another tall thunder warrior man frowned. It was the former head of the Eldi family, Seer's father, zhuxing. Eldia!

He silently looked at his big brother who was in high spirits. His aura even seemed to overpower his father!

All these years, although his big brother's family had been suppressing his family quite severely, their attitude towards his father had always been very humble and never went against him. When Rennes was promoted to interstellar marshal and wanted the Eldia family to move., their father had rejected them with a single sentence. The eldest brother and his son did not dare to bring it up again.

But now... ! ... this attitude was clearly putting pressure on their father!

"Father... This is a rare opportunity!"GUNSH continued, "Now that Lord Bolton is willing to do this, he's obviously very sincere. If we still don't know what's good for us at this time, then we've really offended him!"

Hearing this, Long Jue's face immediately darkened. "So what if we have offended him? Can he still fight his way here?"

"Father, what are you talking about in anger?"gunsh said anxiously, "Is this a question of whether we can fight him or not?"? Now, Rennes was the commander of the Tenth Legion of Bolton Force. Obviously, he was regarded as a signature figure in the force to accept outsiders. This is a great opportunity. If we miss it, our Eldia family may never have such a good opportunity again!"

Hearing that, Long Jue frowned, but he didn't refute for a while. The entire hall fell silent in the heavy atmosphere!

Long Jue's heart was extremely complicated...

The great forces that the Eldia family had joined for generations were all the forces of the official suzerain of the east star area, Iluweta!

The ten great suzerains were the official forces that maintained the order of the five star areas. Joining the great suzerains' banner had the benefits of being under the great suzerain's banner. First of all, it was safer. They didn't have to worry about the destruction of their forces and their families. Of course..., the third feudal lord was an accident.

Then, there was the issue of welfare. The fact that the Eldia family could stay on a top-tier planet like the glorious amethyst planet was one of the benefits. If it was any other small force, even if it was a great feudal lord., they wouldn't let their entire family stay on a top-tier planet like this!

Top-tier planets enjoyed a lot of things. Not only did they enjoy a high-quality elemental environment, but their software facilities were also great benefits, for example, the preferential trade, high-quality education, and the benefits enjoyed by the descendants of various forces were all things that many small families dreamed of, these things directly gave the descendants of the Eldia family a higher starting point!

However, the disadvantages were also very obvious. Class was fixed, and the path to rise was relatively narrow. Most of the positions of the ILUWETA force were occupied by the high-tier families of the space elves. It was difficult for outsiders to squeeze in, especially the new forces, for a low-class family like Ardia, who didn't even have a dragon rank, it was almost impossible for them to soar to the sky.

The Dragon Lord was a practical person. From his name, it could be seen that his lifelong dream was to become a dragon rank expert and get a noble title, which would allow his family to rise to the next level.

Thus, the original plan to train Raine was to let him go out to explore, gain some experience, and then return to the glorious amethyst star to join Lord Llewita's force and continue to accumulate military merits for his family, from the beginning, he didn't plan to let him stay outside for long.

However, Raine thought that the great lord's force was stable and mature, with a fixed class and a narrow path to rise. It wasn't as aggressive as the new force like Bolton's force.

The young man had the drive and ambition of a young man. Dragon Baron didn't stop him at that time. He thought that his child would be pushed to the wall. When he knew how it felt to be ostracized, he would know how to turn back. However, he didn't expect that this kid would be given an important position for no reason, Bolton seemed to want to use the label of him being a member of a foreign clan to nurture him.

This gave Long Jue a headache. He could only watch as his grandson, whom he had appointed as the head of the family, grew up in Bolton's forces step by step and became an interstellar marshal.

It was originally a good thing for Rennes to have this opportunity. A stable development of a family was one way, and gambling on a big opportunity was another way. Although a small lord did not have a top-tier planet, if he could make it to the upper echelons.., the resources he obtained naturally could not be compared to being a small soldier under a large lord.

But Bolton... was too complicated!

Chapter 1467: the Aldia Family Affair (part two) !

Those who were familiar with the Bolton faction knew that the Bolton faction was well-known for its complexity. It was the first Abyssal Demon Sky God Lord, the first pure demon faction, and it was also the first Sky God faction founded by a demon who was not a direct descendant of a demon!

This identity filled the path of this faction with uncertainty...

First of all, would Bolton, who was not a direct descendant of the demons, be able to obtain the Abyss's support? What did the demons think of the deity faction? Would the deity Academy target the abyss after allowing it to obtain a deity spot?

After all, the Abyss was not the first race to obtain a deity spot. Back then, the fairy race had already obtained a deity spot long before the war of natural disasters. However, other than the fallen Anya, how could there be a second fairy race deity in the world?

Whether the abyss demons could squeeze into the deity circle was a complicated political matter that many people paid attention to.

This was a matter that could be described as large or small. The faction that Bolton represented the interests of the abyss demons was bound to be biased toward the Abyss faction. This could be seen from the fact that the nine armies were all demons.

When Rennes had chosen this faction, Long Jue had thought that he would definitely run into a wall from the start. However, he had not expected such an outcome...

This caused Long Jue to be somewhat confused. Could it be that his grandson was really so outstanding? or could it be that he was the son of Fate? could he really be able to create a world of his own in such a pure demon faction?

Just like what his son had said, this was indeed a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity!

If Bolton wanted to become big and integrate into the federation, he definitely could not allow his faction to become a pure demon faction. This could be seen from the undead faction. Currently, half of the Northern Star region was not an undead god Lord, even the undead faction overlords had more than half of the federation's people integrated into their faction. This was also the reason why the Sylvanas faction was able to gain a foothold.

If Bolton wanted to establish himself and integrate into the 10,000 races, it was a path that he had to take. If that demon overlord really had such ambitions, and his grandson, Rennes, was really chosen to become the benchmark for this signal.., that would indeed be a great opportunity for the Eldia family!

But was it really so?

Long Jue narrowed his eyes and recalled the first time he met Bolton.

He was indeed an ambitious Lord. Whether it was talent, luck, or skill, he was first-class. Otherwise, it would be impossible for him to grow to such a scale in such a short period of time!

However, he felt that there was something wrong with that man... .. although he looked generous on the surface, Long Jue, who was experienced in accidents, could still sense that this man was a malicious character.

This kind of person... .. He didn't feel that he was a leader.

Now, he had to give up the territory of the glorious amethyst star that he had pledged his loyalty to the feudal lord for many generations. He had to move his entire family to the Bolton force for his use. Long Jue still felt a little guilty... ..

If he wasn't careful... The entire family would have to pay for it... ..

"Let me think about it..." long jue finally said.

"Father!" Gunshi frowned. He was about to say something when long jue raised his hand to stop him, he said in a low voice, "I've said that we need to consider the situation. This is a big matter for the entire family. It's not a market to buy vegetables. At the very least, we need to call for a meeting with the other families, right?" "Furthermore, Rennes will be back tomorrow. Can't we discuss it after he explains the specific situation?"

Gunsh paused for a moment and then sighed. "Alright... just as father said, this is indeed a major event. We should consider it carefully."

Zhuxing frowned even more. This negotiation seemed to have been decided by his father, but in reality, his father's tone had softened a lot. It was completely different from his previous tough and resolute attitude. It was very obvious... "...". His father had loosened up!

This wasn't a good thing...

To be honest, zhuxing didn't have a good impression of that so-called Bolton Fellow at all. He always felt that his nephew was being used. To put it bluntly, even if he wanted to set a benchmark, it wasn't his nephew's turn.

The commanders under Bolton were all star ranks, and they were all direct descendants of demons. If he wanted to set a benchmark and send a signal that his forces were willing to treat the other races equally, he had to at least find an example with weight. Did Rennes have such weight?

According to normal logic, recruiting a direct descendant of an old family, it would be best to directly become a star rank powerhouse. Rennes? Putting aside whether or not he had the chance to become a star rank with his aptitude, even if he did, how long would he have to wait?

Under normal circumstances, being able to let him become a deputy commander or logistics administrative officer was already giving him a lot of face. Commander?

To be honest, if he hadn't registered with the federation, he wouldn't have been able to believe it...

In his opinion, there must be something fishy going on. There must be a problem. At a time like this, he really didn't want the old man to bring his family and Rennes to step into this pit... ..

Just as he was thinking if he should persuade the old man later, the system prompted an email, causing Zhuxing's expression to instantly brighten up. His furrowed brows instantly relaxed, and he looked like he was beaming with joy.

This obvious change in expression caused the old man in the lead, Long Jue, to frown. He glared at his second son. He was still troubled, yet this heartless person was still smiling happily?

"What's so good about it? Why Are You So Happy?" Long Jue asked unhappily.

"Eh?" Zhuxing was stunned. He immediately scratched his head in embarrassment and said in a low voice, "This... ahem, I've received an email from Starry Sky Academy inviting us to attend the ceremony tomorrow!"

"Oh??" Long Jue stood up immediately and asked excitedly, "Starry Sky Academy? Could it be that child from Chen Ye..."

"Eh..." Zhuxing smiled so much that his eyes narrowed into a line. "The child was lucky enough to pass the exam..."

"Good, good, good! !!"

Long Jue immediately clapped his hands and laughed loudly. He was so excited that he paced back and forth in the hall.

"Congratulations, second brother! !" Gunsh, who was standing at the side, also quickly congratulated him with a smile.

"Hehe, same here, same here!" Zhuxing also smiled and said, "Speaking of which, Rennes is more promising. He can only get into a school in the morning and night. It's not a big deal, but it can still be considered as double happiness."

"Hehe, what are you saying, second brother..." Gunsh looked at him with a smile. However, a trace of coldness flashed in the depths of his eyes.

"Not bad, not bad!" Old Master Long Jue was obviously still immersed in joy and did not notice the dissatisfaction in the depths of his eldest son's heart. He paced back and forth for a few rounds before he rubbed his hands and asked, "Does your wife know about this?"

"She just sent an email. I don't think she knows..." Zhuxing smiled and said, "I'll inform her later..."

"Hey, hurry up and inform her!" Long Jue hurried him. "Tell her to come back as soon as possible. What does it look like if she stays at her mother's house all the time? How can the parents of the children not attend the Star Academy's ceremony?" "Go and get ready. I'll go and change my clothes too. We'll gather at the teleportation hall of the city guards in an hour. We have to book the teleportation ticket to the star of Tydhill early or we'll miss tomorrow's event!"

He patted Zhuxing's shoulder. "What are you smiling at? Hurry up and Go!"

“Oh, okay, okay, okay!” Zhuxing did not delay and quickly trotted out.

Long Jue smiled and turned to look at his eldest son. “Go and get ready too. Call third and fourth, all of you. Pick a few outstanding juniors to go and have a look. There’s a large-scale blessing in the priestly ceremony of the royal family of the starry sky. Don’t waste it!”

“Yes!” Gunn replied with a smile.

Long Jue nodded and strode out of the main door of the hall with a smile. After the old man left, the smile on Gunn’s face slowly disappeared, and then slowly turned into an extremely cold expression... ..

Rennes had achieved such a great achievement, and the old man looked as if he was in trouble. In the end, a little kid from the second son’s family was admitted to an advanced academy, and he was already so excited!

In the end, the old man was from the second family!

Chapter 1468: Malice from The Boogeyman clan (Part One)

Long Jue returned to his residence with light steps, intending to take out his most expensive ceremonial dress and iron it. Attending the Star Academy’s ceremony was a matter of great honor, not only with the blessing of a top priest, but also with the blessing of a high priest. Still have the opportunity to get to know some upper-class families, but a careless thing, the image above can not be shabby...

Compared to the unbelievable results of his eldest grandson, Ryan, the good news of the second son was much more reassuring... ..

Eldia had always been a family under the influence of Iluweta. From the first generation of ancestors who named the Eldia family, they had been serving until now. After so many generations of accumulation, the family finally had a solid foundation, it also made the older generation of eldia have a strong sense of belonging to this force.

The juniors who grew up in the environment of the Glorious Amethyst Star didn’t know how precious they had now. It was the result of the unremitting efforts of many generations of their ancestors. Compared to going out and taking risks., it was what he was willing to see if he could make some achievements in this achievement.

The Starry Sky Academy was the number one high school of the starry elves. Generations of aristocrats had come from the starry sky courtyard. It was a principle that everyone in Iluweta’s force knew.

Although morning night was not a warrior department, the army still needed a large number of outstanding magical Beast Masters to form the Magical Beast Army and the magical beast training of the Starry Sky Cavalry. The status of Magical Beast Masters in the army was not low, only second to the flower spirits and priests!

Morning night was admitted to the Starry Sky Academy. With the recommendation of this school, after graduation, the army under Lord Iluweta’s banner would generally be highly valued. In addition to the foundation that the Eldia family had built in the army for many years.., they could at least nurture a dragon-rank magical beast master!

If the opportunity was good enough, it was even possible for the family to directly step into the threshold of a true upper-class noble!

Compared to Rennes' path, this kind of solid path was what the Dragon Baron Wanted!

To be honest, the children of the second son's family were really more promising than the last. Seer, a commoner god, was actually able to find resources and gain a firm foothold by traveling in poverty. Even though it was just the beginning.., but it's also a very big deal.

The child in the morning and night in the parents of high-level genes can not pass down the situation, to find another way to walk the path of Warcraft, but also forcibly walked out, it seems to be able to take on a great responsibility in adversity seedlings ah!

On the way to change his clothes, long jue had many thoughts in his eyes and slowly made some decisions in his heart.

— — — —

The North Star Field Bright evening star is the Night Demon clan territory one super-class star, the Night Demon King clan one Na Ye clan is this star's first family.

Meanwhile, in a remote manor in the depths of the Nayet fortress, a beautiful woman was helping to cultivate night silkworms in her family.

It's a dangerous job, because the night silkworm comes from the ancient land of the night butterfly's bloodline, the family has been trying to use the breed's bloodline to mix with the more fertile snow butterfly.

However, this kind of mixed blood was extremely easy to cause mutations, especially for the night monarch butterfly, a shadow-type magical beast from the ancient lands. Its bloodline was very violent, and it was extremely easy to cause mutations or zombies.

As a result, if one was not careful when cultivating the magical silkworm, it could be injured or even kill.

Originally, this kind of job was not for the descendants of the royal family, even the descendants of the collateral family. However, it just so happened that the higher the bloodline of the Night Demon, the higher the success rate of this kind of job.

Therefore, the family had set a rule that if any descendant was willing to do this kind of work, the remuneration would be extremely high.

Of course, even so, those who were willing to do this kind of work were few and far between. However, those who were willing to do it had a reason that they had no choice. For example, this woman in front of them... ..

After tiring herself for the entire morning, she exited the dark room and sighed slightly. She looked at the never-changing moonlight in the sky.

The woman was extremely beautiful. Even among the night demons, she was considered one of the top ones. At this moment, she looked sad and tired, but it was still mesmerizing.

“Sister, why did you only come out?” Just as she came out of the room., the woman entered the lounge and saw a night demon who was slightly younger than her looking at her with concern. “Sister, although we are all doing this for the sake of our children, we can’t fight so hard for them. If they are gone, who can we count on for our children? A useless husband?”

The woman smiled. “It’s Alright, I know the severity of the situation...” as she spoke, she found a chair and sat down. She took a sip of the spirit concentration tea prepared by the family and took a long breath.

“Sister, the results of the national examinations have all been released in recent days. Is there any news about your child?” The woman asked with concern.

The woman glanced at the other party when she heard that and shook her head in amusement.

The two of them were in the same boat. They were both dragged down by their children and had to take this job. They usually supported each other and got along well with each other.

However, all creatures liked to compare, even among their relatives and friends. The other person was naturally the same. Yesterday, her child’s results had been released. It was said that he was admitted to the top twenty Bright Night Academy in the Federation!

It was the top school in the royal family of Night Demons, ranked second only to the Academy of Night Darkness. It was said that he had entered the heavenly class of the Shadow Department’s arcanists. This result was already considered very outstanding for a collateral branch student, not to mention that the other party had married a child from a small family, just like him.

If the child was outstanding, if he wanted to show off in this dark place, he would be the best target... ..

However, the person who was being flaunted was not in a good mood...

She sighed, the woman shook her head tiredly. “There’s still no news. The little girl, with a big heart, originally wanted to enter the Divine Arcana Academy. However, there was a scandal in the Divine Arcana Academy recently, so she listened to my suggestion to enter Spark Academy. That child’s results are usually not bad, but speaking of which, she still has a 20-30% chance...” “...” “...”

“Spark Academy...” the night demon at the side nodded. “It’s a good academy. If she can pass the entrance exam... eh? Doesn’t sister have another child who will also take the entrance exam this year?”

“About that...” the woman shook her head with a bitter smile. “That child is a little arrogant. He applied for the Starry Sky Academy, but he didn’t tell us before. He didn’t even have the chance to persuade us...”

“Ah, is that so?” The female night demon immediately wanted to laugh, she immediately held back her laughter and said, “Children nowadays are getting more and more insensible. It’s fine for us adults to suffer for a few more years, but it would be a pity if their good years are wasted...”

The woman nodded with a wry smile. These words had spoken to the depths of her heart. That child of hers had been despised and despised by the children around him since he was young. He worked hard and knew how to improve. For him, it was fine for her to suffer a little, however, she was afraid that she would delay him.

The bigger the growth ring, the lower the aptitude rating would be. Once some golden age passed, it would really be impossible to find it back.

Just as she was about to say something, there was suddenly a knock on the door from outside her waist.

The two women looked up and saw that it was a tall night demon man.

“Eldest cousin brother?”

The two night demon women shouted at the same time, their eyes filled with surprise.

In a place like the dark room, people of this status would not normally come.

“Ye na...”the man nodded slightly and said to the extremely beautiful night demon lady, “I’ll congratulate you first!”

“Oh?”The lady called Ning Ye’s pupils constricted as she had a guess in her heart.

“Just now, your husband sent a message saying that the Starry Sky Academy invites you to attend the ceremony tomorrow!”

The Night Demon woman immediately stood up excitedly when she heard that! !

Chapter 1469: Malice from the Night Demon Clan (Part Two)

Star Sky Academy’s ceremony?

The Night Demon Girl couldn’t help but be stunned. Everyone in the upper circles knew that Star Sky Academy would invite the Royal Priestess to hold a grand ceremony every opening ceremony, and would also request the relatives of the new students to attend the ceremony!

That child... really passed the entrance examination?

The girl’s expression immediately became complicated. She suddenly felt a little embarrassed when she thought of the flaunting just now. Her heart felt a little sour. There was no malice in it, but she just felt that they were in the same situation, moreover, the man she married was slightly better off than the other party. Her son was also hardworking, but he was not as good as the other party’s child. She would more or less feel a little uncomfortable in her heart.

The woman named Ye Na was obviously a quiet person. Even when she heard the good news, she did not lose her composure too much. Although her eyes were filled with joy, she did not forget to return a polite bow. “Thank you for coming to inform me, Big Brother...”

Other than the tone of gratitude, there was also a hint of estrangement in her tone.

The man smiled slightly, but he was not surprised. Originally, in the aristocracy, the lineal descendants and people from the side branches were from two different worlds. If he suddenly became so attentive, anyone with a bit of brain would feel that there was something wrong with him.

And the other party's behavior was obviously a woman with half a brain!

It seemed that this child wasn't completely useless apart from her rumored beauty... ..

"Father wants to talk to you about something..."

Ye Na's heart suddenly jumped. The other party's father was the head of the Nye family, Lord Tian Ge!

Even if it was a family, such a person should not be related to her life trajectory, she had never seen it since childhood, after all, as a member of the last of the collateral family. I didn't even get a chance to go to the ceremony... ..

A man like that would never think highly of himself just because his son got into a Star Academy... ..

I'm afraid it's not a good thing!

Like the Elves, the Night Demon is a race that pursues material comforts. It is well-known in the universe for its architectural extravagance, and Ye's main hall of the luxuriant degree of the building is also an outsider to see once on the shock incomparable visual enjoyment.

Compared with the bright and warm style of the elves, the architecture style of the night demons is more eccentric, and will have a kind of extreme beauty, at first glance even more characteristic.

Although Ye Na was a member of the Night Demon clan, she did not really like this dark and gloomy tone. On the contrary, she preferred the majestic style of Titan's cultural power, this was also one of the reasons why she was able to be pursued by the Star Chaser of the Warrior Department.

There were more people in the hall than expected. The original first seat was directly removed, and a few people sat directly opposite each other. For a time, it was even impossible to tell who was the master.

However, this atmosphere made Ye Na even more nervous.

The Night Demon clan was extremely particular about the rules of etiquette. They usually sat according to their status. Under the circumstances of the same level of status, it was reasonable to say that they would not remove the seat of honor that the master should have, but if they did.., then it meant that among the people who came, there was someone with a higher status than the Nye clan's Patriarch!

"You're here?"

A voice that sounded like a whisper but carried an inexplicable heaviness rang out. The one who spoke was a night demon man dressed in a purple robe. That unique pattern made Ye Na instantly know that it was the master of their Na ye family.

"Greetings, master, Greetings, everyone!" Ye Na gave a standard bow.

“En...”after the man placed his bet on the ink-like tea in front of him, he directly said, “I have something to tell you...”

“Clan head, feel free to instruct me...”ye na respectfully gestured for him to listen respectfully.

The man nodded slightly, “First of all, Congratulations to your child for being admitted into the Starry Sky Academy...”

Was it really related to her own child?

Ye Na’s heart tightened, but she did not dare to reveal the slightest bit of emotion on her face, she still lowered her head and said gently, “Thank you for your praise, sir. It’s also thanks to Wolf’s clan’s support that the child was able to get into a good school. Otherwise, no matter how talented he is, he would not have had the chance. The clan’s kindness has always been engraved in my heart. Sir, if you have anything to say, feel free to instruct me. I will not decline!”

These words were very direct, but it made the originally expressionless man nod slightly, revealing a slightly satisfied expression!

Previously, she had heard that this child was a rebellious master. She did not listen to the arrangements of the elders and insisted on marrying a child from a small family. Moreover, her parents were actually indulging in such behavior.

She had originally thought that she was an insensible master, but now it seemed that she still knew the severity of the situation... ..

Ye Na lowered her head. Although she appeared respectful on the surface, she was extremely nervous in her heart. However, she did not dare to refute. This was different from when she was getting married. The nonsense of a junior from a branch would not attract the attention of someone of this level, however, if she dared to cause trouble today, the nature of the matter was also not on the same level. Regardless of whether it was herself, her parents, or even the children from the starry sky academy, they might all pay a heavy price. The person in front of him definitely had the ability to do so, and it was as easy as flicking away a speck of dust...

“This is the Jialan clan’s Jialan Mingyue!”The clan leader extended his hand and introduced.

The Jialan clan...

Ye Na hurriedly greeted them respectfully, her heart sinking even deeper.

The Jialan clan was the number one magical beast clan of the Night Demon clan, one of the royal clans. Their status was on par with the Nye clan. and regardless of whether it was the clan leader or this so-called Jialan Mingyue, both of them were currently sitting in the second position, the left and right positions were occupied by someone else.

Who were those two clans?

Ye Na didn’t dare to ask, nor did she want to ask. She could only pray continuously, not wanting her child to do anything dangerous... ..

“You don’t have to be nervous...” clan leader Tian Ge glanced at her indifferently, his tone much gentler. With his current level, no matter how well ye Na hid her emotions, the nervousness in his heart couldn’t be hidden from the other party.

However, he did not mind. Seeing that she was a smart child, she had obviously guessed something. Even though she was afraid, she still chose to comply. This kind of attitude was the truest and most satisfying to him.

“I’m not asking your child to do anything extremely dangerous...”

“Thank you for your magnanimity, master...” ye na clearly heaved a sigh of relief, but the tensed nerves in her heart were completely relaxed. It was not extremely dangerous, but it meant that she was in danger. ...

“The child of the Helan family has gone to the Starry Sky Academy...” Tian Ge took a sip of tea and continued, “You should have also heard of this matter...”

“Yes, my Lord!” Ye na replied respectfully, “I’ve long heard of Lord Helan Na’s genius title!”

“That child’s ability is comparable to that of the crown prince, and to a certain extent, she’s even more threatening than the crown prince...” The head of the Helan family, Mingyue, opened his mouth to speak. “That’s why we chose to let her go to the Starry Sky Academy. We want to take back the humiliation that Kyle had suffered in the night Serene Academy!”

Ye Na lowered her head to listen. She did not dare to reply rashly, even if it was to flatter him. This was because there was no benefit in speaking at this time. It was highly likely that something bad would happen if she said the wrong thing... ...

Mingyue also nodded slightly. She was a calm child... ...

“For this matter, we have specially investigated the younger generation of the starry clan. Other than the crown prince, we predict that there should be no opponents for Lina!”

Ye Na continued to lower her head. She could not help but sigh in her heart. Fortunately, she did not flatter him just now. Since the other party said that there should be no opponents, then the current situation probably meant that they had met an opponent.

As expected, the next second, she heard the other party say, “But things have developed beyond our expectations. During the Secret Court examination, a dark horse appeared!”

The Muzir Clan? Ye Na could not help but ask, “A magical beast master?”

“A magical Beast Master!” The other party nodded and said, “In Nana’s reply, she said that her aptitude is extremely high. If she were to face him head-on, she would not have absolute confidence in winning!”

At this point, Nalan Mingyue’s eyes narrowed slightly...

Nana was personally groomed and brought up by her. Only she knew how good this child’s aptitude was. In addition to the special magical seed, Ye Youdie, even if she were to meet the crown prince, she would still have the strength to fight him. However, she replied that she didn’t have absolute confidence in winning!

That illegitimate child who suddenly appeared... ? ... what background did he have?

Chapter 1470: Quota (Top)

“Have you heard? Have you heard? The youngest son of the second branch has been admitted to the Starry Sky Academy. They have sent out an invitation for his family members to attend the ceremony!”

After the old man, Long Jue, had issued the notice, all the children at home started to talk about it!

“That short guy?” Some people who were familiar with morning and night were surprised. “He can get admitted to the Starry Sky Academy?”

Because of the hard work of their ancestors, the Eldia family was born with good conditions. As long as they weren't remote and didn't want to go to another branch, they could grow up on the glorious amethyst star and enjoy the abundant energy and abundant educational resources here!

Thus, as long as they were willing to work hard, most of the children of the Eldia family had good academic abilities. It wasn't a big problem for them to get into the top 500 academies. If there were outstanding students, they could get into the top 100 academies.

For example, the Xandar Academy was their Cooperative Academy!

However, it was still far from the level of the Starry Sky Academy. This academy didn't have many spots for external recruitment. It seemed that there were only about ten spots in tens of thousands of galaxies in many regions. Those who could get into this kind of academy.., were usually the top aristocrats on this planet.

“You're looking down on him?” A woman next to him chuckled. “He's the top scorer in our glorious purple star exam. Can't he get into the Starry Sky Academy?”

“Yes, my ass!” A big man interrupted him. “Do you think you can get into that academy just because you have a high score in the exam? Do you know how few spots the Starry Sky Academy has?”

The people around nodded. Although the results of the morning and night exam had given them a fright, and not many people dared to ridicule him, no one had ever thought that he could get into the top ten universities. In the universe, he could get into the top ten universities.., they were all elites amongst elites. As long as they didn't die halfway, a dragon level life form was stable, and it was the star Sky Academy that was relatively harsh towards outsiders within the top ten universities!

“But he did pass the examination?” The woman chuckled, “Why? Don't tell me you still suspect him of cheating?”

The man instantly fell silent. These words couldn't be said carelessly. The Federation emphasized on the law of who brought forth the evidence, and false accusations carried criminal responsibility. And for the majority of the Eldia disciples who wanted to join the army, if they had criminal records.., it would have a great impact on them in the future!

After being silent for a long time, the man mumbled, “That Kid's luck is pretty good...”

The surrounding people instantly rolled their eyes. Try Your Luck...

However, everyone knew what was going on. The guy in front of them was the grandson of the fifth elder of the family, Bi Lun. He was a firm member of the Rennes faction. He often ridiculed and bullied the second branch family, especially in the silent morning and night.

Now that he had been admitted to Starry Sky Academy in one wave, the family would definitely focus on nurturing him. On the other hand, he had failed to get admitted to Sandar Academy in three waves. Although he was the grandson of the elder, his position in the future would probably be vastly different from that of the other party...

“But so what if he got admitted?” Seeing that no one was answering him, Bi Lun felt a little embarrassed, he continued, “Compared to Big Brother Rennes’ current results, what does this count as? Even if he gets admitted to a high school, will he be very powerful in the future? The focus of the family will definitely be on Big Brother Rennes!”

Everybody looked at him silently. Some agreed with him, but some stayed silent.

To be honest, not everyone didn’t know how to cherish their current environment, especially those from the side branches. Because of their excellent aptitude, they were recommended by their families to the main family, they all knew that the environment of the glorious amethyst star was very different from the outside world.

This time, Rennes wanted the entire family to move. After they moved there, would they be able to enjoy better resources?

Some people were frightened. After all, many people could come to the main family because of the efforts of their parents and the hard work they had put in since they were young...

Move the entire family there? What galaxy was that? What was the highest administrative star level? What was the educational environment like in primary and middle schools? It couldn’t be compared to this place.

The only advantage was that Rennes, who was highly valued, could get the resources of a big galaxy and could give priority to his family.

However, putting aside whether these resources could replace the environment of the glorious amethyst star or not, how would they be allocated? Would they be allocated according to their aptitude? Or would they be allocated according to their connections? Many people weren’t sure.

Bi Lun was a typical guy who didn’t have the aptitude and didn’t work hard. He only wanted to rely on his connections. If they were distributed according to their connections, this guy’s family would be the firm supporters of Rennes. They would receive even more resources. However, it wasn’t fair to the other disciples... ..

Of course, if they had enough resources to get them into the ideal academy, it wouldn’t be a bad thing. It was just that there were some possibilities... ..

For a moment, some people agreed, while others remained silent. The situation was rather strange...

The woman who spoke at the beginning suddenly smiled and said, "Big Brother Rennes' situation is rather special. In the end, what the family will do is the decision of the elders. We can't control it, so rather than looking forward to it, why don't we look at the benefits now...".

"Now?" Some people are stunned: "Now what good?"

"Don't you know?" The woman immediately lowered her voice and said, "The ceremony of the Starry Sky Academy is blessed by the High Priest. All the relatives who go to the ceremony can receive the blessing. I heard that they can also receive the blessings given by the high priest. It's a rare opportunity! !"

Blessed by the priests?

The group of people immediately became excited!

The blessing of the High Priest was a good thing. It could improve the mental state, heal the internal injuries of the body, and allow the body to reach a perfect meditative state under the state of spiritual and physical unity. If one was lucky, it could directly improve the physique, moreover, it was said to be helpful in the aspect of luck!

This was an extremely powerful existence for the life forms of the warrior system!

Many large families had dedicated priestesses to help their juniors improve their mental state. However, priestesses were a high-level luxury subject, and the threshold was extremely high. The priestesses that could bestow blessings were all dragon-level and above, and the cost of a single blessing was not small, moreover, the position of the priestesses was extremely high. There were very few priestesses that simply received money to bestow blessings. Therefore, blessings were extremely rare for ordinary families!

Seeing that everyone was interested, the woman smiled and said, "The royal priestess team of the Starry clan is publicly acknowledged as the number one priestess team in the universe. The effects of their blessings can be imagined. I wonder who will be called to attend the ceremony later..."

"This... is it up to us juniors?" Someone could not help but ask.

"If it's up to Old Master Long Jue..." there's a high probability that he'll pick more juniors to go!" The woman smiled and said, "The blessing is better for young lifeforms to begin with. Most of the elders in the family have already settled down, so the meaning of the blessing isn't big. If nothing goes wrong, other than big brother Rennes and a few representative figures, the rest of the quotas should be given to us juniors. However, the quotas are definitely limited. It's just that we don't know who's luckier "...

Everyone was stunned for a moment before they realized what was going on. The group of people led by Bi Lun had a stunned expression on their faces as their eyeballs rolled around. They quickly said, "I remembered that I still have something to do, so I'll take my leave first. You guys have a good chat!"

As they spoke, they hurriedly ran outside. When they reached the door, they immediately sped up and ran towards their own homes!

"UM, I remember that I also have some matters that I haven't settled yet. I'll take my leave first..."

“Ah, right, I haven’t finished my homework yet. Aiya, Aiya, Aiya, I lost track of time while chatting. I’ll take my leave first, we’ll chat again next time!”

Just like that, a large number of juniors who had gathered in the courtyard to chat instantly withdrew by more than half... ..

When the woman saw this, she immediately sneered...
