

A Bunch 1471

Chapter 1471: Quota (middle) !

“Amy, what are they...”

Some of the remaining disciples looked gloomy, while others looked confused. One of them was tall, the Big Guy looked at the girl who had started talking about the morning and night. “What’s wrong with them?” He asked

“What else?” Amy sneered. “They went back to their families and asked for help!”

99% of the people in the universe would never get the blessing of a top priestess of the royal family of the stars. They had to fight for this opportunity. Of course, they wanted to go back and ask their elders to help them get a place... ..

The rest of the unexpected or unmoved children were all transferred to the family because of their outstanding talent. Their families couldn’t say much in the host’s family...

“Sister Amy...” a thin, agile child walked by and whispered, “I’m afraid this time, this group of elders and children will take the blessing for themselves, right?”

Hearing him, the others didn’t look good, but they couldn’t do anything about it.

After all, they were from the last branch of the family. No one was in the upper echelon. The fact that they could come to the glorious amethyst star to grow up was enough to make their families work hard. How could their families compete for such a great opportunity?

“That’s not necessarily true...” Amy looked at the group of children who had left in a hurry, her face indifferent.

They were the ones who had bullied the second branch. Now that their children had entered the academy and wanted to benefit from it, how could it be so good?

Moreover, the one who made the decision in the family was long jue. She had met him several times because of his excellent aptitude. She knew this old man’s character better. He was an old man who put the honor and interests of the family first. Therefore, he would choose the talent slot instead of the relationship slot... ..

Besides, she even felt that the old master wouldn’t allow the Rennes sect to promote the relocation of the family... ..

“To be honest, I didn’t notice it before...” a disciple next to her changed the topic to ease the atmosphere. “That kid, Chen Ye, is actually a fierce character who can amaze the world!”

“That’s right...” the people around nodded. That skinny kid who had always been cold to the people around him didn’t see it.

“That’s because you didn’t pay attention to him...”Amy smiled. “He’s always been good since he was young...”

“But he’s not the number one star in the galaxy, right?”

“That’s right...”the people around also nodded, everyone knew that Chen Ye’s results weren’t bad, but the first place in the galaxy still shocked them. After all, the Glorious Purple Star was a super star, and the surrounding galaxies were all level one or two high-level galaxies. There were a lot of aristocrats, to be able to get the first place in this galaxy, it really surprised a lot of people!

“He’s hiding!”Amy smiled, looking at the group of elders and disciples who had disappeared. “If he doesn’t hide, won’t those guys target him even more miserably?”

“Damn, I didn’t know that this kid had such a scheme!”

“You’re just stupid...”Amy rolled her eyes at him, then looked up at the sky. She thought of that skinny guy, and a complicated look flashed across her eyes. ...

She had a good impression of her cousin. He didn’t talk much, but he was tough. He would fight back at any time when he was bullied, and he was very strong-willed, especially when her eldest brother, Seer, was scolded by others. He would always be the first to fight back!

At that time, she had asked this guy in private, “You and your sister Nicole are in such a difficult situation because of seer. Why are you so protective of him?”?

One had to know that he was thin and weak. Every time he got excited and fought with others, he would always be the one who was at a disadvantage.

The other party’s answer at that time was, “That’s my family’s business. My family and I can talk about him, but outsiders can’t!”!

At that time, she knew that this guy was a very good-looking man, and also a man who could stand up to the world, but she did not expect this guy not only good-looking, talent is so good, compared to Ryan. She thought it would be better if this guy could be a part of the family... . .

On the other side, as soon as Bilen got home, he asked his father where he was and ran to him. “Father, where is Grandpa? When Will Grandpa Come Back?”

A tall thunder clansman who was drinking tea in the main hall frowned and put down his teacup. He rolled his eyes at the other party. “Why are you so noisy? What do you look like? Get Out and come in properly!”

“Father, now is not the time to be calculative about this!”Bi Lun hurriedly walked in and said, “Father, you have also heard the news of entering the academy in the morning and night, right? As for the seats for the ceremony, we...”

“Heh... I knew it...”the middle-aged man glared at his son. “You were fooling around outside all day long. Why did you suddenly come back? So you smelled the benefits?”

“Dad...”bi lun anxiously grabbed his father’s hand and said, “We have to hurry and let Grandpa help us fight for it. So many people want it!”

“By the time you react, the dishes are already cold!”The middle-aged man slapped away the other party’s hand and rolled his eyes. “Your Grandpa rushed over as soon as he received the news...”

“Oh, oh... that’s good, that’s Good!”Bi Lun patted his chest and looked relieved.

“You!”The middle-aged man sighed. “You know, although external forces are important, having a strong enough body is the foundation. The family members will fight for the resources that can be obtained for you. You Don’t need to spend a day practicing those things. What you need to do now is to train well and build your own foundation. The children of the same generation as you have all been admitted to Xandar Academy. You’re the only one hanging around, and you’re still fooling around all day...” . “...”

“Father...”bi lun quickly said, “As long as I get the blessing this time, I will definitely get in!”

With the blessing of a top-tier royal priest, if he could not get in, he would eat SH * t while standing on his head!

“I hope you can keep your word...”

The father and son discussed like this, as if the quota was already in their hands. However, this was also normal. Although the fifth elder was ranked fifth, his status was not low, this was because the third elder and fourth elder, who were the strongest of the second branch in the past, had already left the family matters.

Therefore, although he was ranked fifth in name, the fifth elder was currently ranked just below the second elder.

Now that they had made the right bet, the chickens and dogs naturally rose to the sky. The family had reaped many benefits over the years. The eldest branch had a small population. Other than Rennes, there was also a young son. Although there were many children from the three branches and four branches, most of them had already taken up positions outside, there are still two or three juniors studying for the exam.

So in addition to the second elder’s son, the remaining quota as long as their own old man appeared, to a sure problem!

The fifth elder, who was waiting in the hall, thought the same. . .

At this time in the main hall, the fifth elder calmly drinking tea, and came with the second elder to chat about home, some of the other collateral who intended to come over to fight for a spot is a little nervous fingers.

There were at least forty collateral family members who had come over to ask for a spot, while the space elves had only given them a total of twenty spots!

Other than the family's old patriarch, Rennes, the first elder (Rennes' father) , and the second elder, there might even be the zhuxing couple. After all, their son had been admitted into the academy, in other words, there were actually less than fifteen spots left for the younger generation!

And with a few elders fighting for the spot for the direct grandson, there were probably less than ten spots left for them... ..

The competition was very fierce...

"Actually, I think that only one spot for the second brother and his wife is Enough!"The fourth elder drank his tea and said leisurely, "Leave more spots for the younger generation. It's enough for them to have a representative, isn't it?"

When the surrounding people heard that there could be more spots, they all nodded and said yes.

The second elder smiled when he heard this, but he did not say anything. He followed the principle of neutrality and never participated in the fight between his eldest brother and his second brother. He was not like fifth brother, who completely sided with his eldest brother... ..

The third elder, who was sitting opposite him, had an ugly expression on his face. This fifth brother's eating manners were not ordinary. It was one thing for the second branch to not spare any effort to trample on him all these years, but now that he wanted to bask in the glory of the second branch's disciple, he actually did not forget to step on him! What a disgusting old dog!

He snorted coldly and was just about to say a few words when a few heavy footsteps sounded from outside the hall. Everyone immediately stopped their discussion and looked over.

It was long jue who had brought the eldest brother and the second son over!

Chapter 1472: Quota (second)

The main character had arrived!

A group of people, whether they were the parents of the collateral line or the elders of the direct line, all stood up and made a welcoming and respectful gesture.

Back then, the Eldia family had fallen into decline. The direct line descendants of the same generation of the dragon rank had lost their lives one after another in a battle to seal the Void Rift. Although the officials had offered generous compensation, but unfortunately, the hearts of the people had already dispersed, the people of the same generation wanted to split the money and find another way to develop.

Only the dragon baron insisted on staying on the planet where the space crack had happened. He had led a few members of his clan to stay. Because of that, the dragon Baron had received an important position from the higher-ups. After he had joined the army, he had performed well and rose up, in the end, he had risen to the rank of the deputy commander of the local star system!

Because he had a weak foundation when he was young, he hadn't been able to step into the dragon level. His Qi and blood had started to decline, and because of many years of internal injuries, he had no choice but to retire. He hadn't been able to take a step closer...

However, the government still gave him ample benefits for retirement. One of them was the household registration of Long Jue's family on the Glorious Amethyst Star!

This gave the current generation of the eldia family a relatively high starting point. After that, many families had returned. Long Jue didn't care about what had happened in the past. Most of them had been recruited back. It could be said that the family business of the current generation of the Eldia family... was basically all single-handedly taken down by Old Master Long Jue!

This caused old master long Jue's prestige in the family to be extremely high. Even though Rennes was now in an extremely good position and had the momentum to soar to the sky, the great house still did not dare to go against Old Master Rennes' wishes. The fifth elder, who was attached to the family, naturally did not dare to have any disrespectful attitude, his welcoming posture was better than anyone else's.

Long Jue wore his most luxurious brocade clothes and strode into the inner hall. He glanced at his surroundings and said, "HMM... are all of you here?"

The people around were embarrassed. They didn't come here because they had received the news. They had come on their own accord. Before the old man had arrived, they had been waiting anxiously for the quota. However, when they arrived... None of them dared to open their mouths first...

The fifth elder looked at the first elder eagerly. Gunshi... ..

Gunshi's face twitched when the other looked at him like that. However, he still took the responsibility, after helping the old man sit down, he said, "Old man, if we take into account the time difference between our star and our star, we will arrive at the Outer Station of the star system at five in the afternoon at the latest. We don't have much time left. Should we set the quota first?"

"Yeah..."

The old man nodded. The fifth elder frowned. The other parents of the other branches were nervous. Who would get the ten or so quotas? It was going to be announced soon... ..

"Second son..." long jue turned to look at his second son, Zhuxing. "You are the direct parent of the child. You can decide who will get the spots this time..."

Everyone:" ..."

As soon as he said this, the whole hall fell silent. Everyone's eyes were wide open, and even the face of the first elder, gangshi, who was always good at disguising himself, turned gloomy.

"This... this..." the fifth elder stuttered, "Isn't it inappropriate?"

Just a moment ago, he had been giving advice in the hall, saying that it would have been fine if only the second couple had gone, but in the end, the right to choose the candidates had fallen into the hands of the other party. Wasn't this reversal a little too fast?

After all, he had just said that there were people coming from the outside. Although they were far away, the second couple had already reached the threshold of the dragon level a long time ago. There was a high probability that... .. It's audible... . .

"Inappropriate?" Long Jue's eyelids twitched. "The children who are admitted are from the second son's family. The invitation letter sent by the Academy is also sent directly to the second son. It is inappropriate for others to pick people. So, fifth son, why don't you tell me who is more appropriate to pick?"

"ER..." the fifth one is mute, for a time have no words to say, theoretically speaking is so, but... .. Wasn't he thinking that the old man would be unreasonable... ..

Long Jue couldn't be bothered with him anymore. He said to old two, "Old two, you can continue..."

Hearing that, Zhuxing nodded and slowly stood up. His not-so-strong body stood in the middle of the hall, but for a moment, it gave everyone a lot of pressure...

The people around were stunned. Many years had passed, and Zhuxing had obviously not given up on training. His Qi and blood had become more and more pure. Even without his genes, he still maintained his peak condition.

Suddenly, they thought about it. If not for the incident with Xi Ye, second brother would have broken through to the dragon rank and led his family into the ranks of the nobles, right?

A non-dragon rank life could only last for the new era. If a family did not have a dragon rank powerhouse that surpassed the management of the new era, it would be very difficult for them to step into the ranks of the nobles.

"There's not much time left. I'll directly announce the status of the quota..." Zhuxing straightened his back, after so many years, there was rarely a time when he was so confident. In the end, it was his son who fought for it, and it was no different from what he earned!

"First of all, there are the direct relatives and the family cards. I thought about it before I came. The elders of the family can go with just a few words. Of course, we have to give more opportunities to the young people. Therefore, I think the elders list only includes Old Master Long Jue and Big Brother Gangshi. My wife and I will bring a relative of the night demon family with us. There are a total of five people!"

"What?" Everyone was surprised and looked at each other.

The fifth elder was so angry that his eyes were wide open. They originally planned to send the top five elders, but in the end, they were left behind?

Although... .. The Qi and blood of the elders had begun to decline. With the blessing, it was impossible for them to break through to the next level. However, with the blessing, they would at least live longer. Who wouldn't want to live longer?

In the end, they just gave the young man an opportunity and dumped the elders. The fourth elder was so angry that his entire body trembled. He completely forgot that he had previously said that the second elder's wife would leave the opportunity to the young man...

The other elders also furrowed their brows tightly. Even the second elder, who had always been neutral, did not look too good.

“Second...”gunsh looked at the expressions of the surrounding elders, he smiled inwardly. His younger brother was still the same character as before. He would look down on himself whenever he had some achievements. It was obviously a good opportunity to rope in people, yet he insisted on doing something that offended people.

Therefore, he directly said, “Isn’t that not too good?” The elders usually did a lot for the family. Now that there was such an opportunity, it would always make people feel disappointed if they did not compensate the old man. Moreover... “...”. “The children of our Eldia family have earned face. Isn’t it not good for the younger siblings to take advantage of this opportunity?”

“That’s right!”The fifth elder also found the point of attack. “Second brother, I have nothing to say about you bringing your younger siblings. But to give such a precious quota to your younger siblings’ families? Isn’t that not too good?”

Zhuxing sneered. “Of course you have nothing to say about me bringing my wife. After all, my children earned the quota. Do I need your permission to bring my wife?”

“You...”the fifth elder choked.

“As for my wife’s mother’s spot...” Zhuxing said coldly, “All these years, the resources for her to study and grow up were all funded by her mother’s family. My son was able to nurture the shadow department’s Silent Tail because there was a specialist there to guide him. Now that my son has achieved something, what’s wrong with returning the favor “? All of you can come over and ask for a spot without spending a single cent. Why doesn’t he deserve a spot?”

Everyone:” ...”

Chapter 1473: Seer’s quota!

The atmosphere in the hall became awkward. Even the old man sitting at the head of the table couldn’t help but twitch his lips... ..

The second brother had been wasted for so many years, and his temper hadn’t changed at all... ..

Everyone, including the elders of the collateral families, also had awkward expressions on their faces. After all, they were also the ones who licked their faces.

“You...” . “...” . “How can you say that about second brother?”Fourth Elder pointed at the other party with a trembling finger. “Back then, for your son, Seer, how much did the clan pay? “Oh, now that you’ve achieved some results, you don’t recognize me anymore? “You’re still licking your face? I’ll tell you today! “Everyone here has the right to ask for a spot from you!”

These words immediately made everyone’s backs straighten a little. Thinking about it, it made sense. Back then, for the sake of second brother’s seer, the clan had been so frugal. Now that they wanted a spot, why were they licking their faces?

“Well... <per_0> . Zhuxing did not want to sell it at all. “Seer moving into the Empyrean God realm is a policy that everyone has agreed upon. The backdoor budget error should not be blamed on my family. After all, if Seer’s aptitude had been that of a warrior back then, it would have been much safer. You all have always felt that your family had been wronged, but my son had originally had a bright future and had taken a gamble with it. is he not wronged?”

“What’s more, after so many years, my husband and I have left our family affairs to work outside. For over a hundred thousand years, every bit of our savings has been handed over to our family. We even directly sold the genes that we condensed. Together, the sum is enough to pay off seer’s tuition fees back then. Even if we owe you, we have already paid it off. Don’t tell me that you are planning to use your old debt to eat my family for the rest of your life?”

“You...”the fifth elder was so angry that his face turned red, and the faces of the people around him also turned ugly.

However, for a moment, he could not say anything because what the other party said was right. The debts of the second branch had actually been paid back a long time ago. The reason why the old debts were still being talked about all these years was mainly because there were people behind it, and the younger generation did not know., the older generation was very clear in their hearts.

Fifth Elder was about to continue when the other party waved his hand and said, “Fifth Elder, you don’t have to say anymore. You said that the heaven-cleaving quota is the same. If you don’t like it, you can just leave!”

Fifth Elder’s entire body froze on the spot!

The other party’s threat was extremely direct, leaving him speechless... ..

It was not just him. The others also quieted down. To put it bluntly, everyone was here to ask for the quota, but they were not in the mood to offend the main character like fifth elder.

“Since no one has any objections, I’ll announce the rules of the quota...”second brother swept his gaze across the crowd. He placed his hands behind his back and straightened his back.

In this day and age, people with confidence were indeed tough when they spoke. After being bullied for so many years, he could finally ask for some interest... ..

Facing such a tough zhuxing, fifth brother could only look at his boss as if he was asking for help. Boss gangshi opened his mouth but didn’t say anything in the end. After all, his lineage also wanted the quota. After all... “...”. Rennes was not the only child in his family.

“I haven’t been back for a long time...”zhuxing said lazily, “I’m not familiar with everyone, so I’ll just follow the rules. Children with high aptitude and good grades will be given priority...”

When these words came out, everyone’s faces were shocked. Some showed excitement, while others had extremely gloomy expressions!

Zhuxing ignored the changes in the crowd, he said straightforwardly, “I’m not very familiar with the younger generation, so I’ll talk directly about the data of the family. At present, among the younger generation, Amy has the best data. Her bone structure is the best, and it's the rare bone structure of a Golden Thunder Warrior. She has been studying martial arts at Lieutenant Colonel Zichuan these years, and her results are good. Whether it's her basic points or her combat points, her performance in the same year is also quite excellent. She should be qualified to get a spot...". "..."

His words made a skinny, middle-aged thunder warrior in the crowd tremble with excitement. He used to be a branch of the side family who had abandoned his grandfather. After he had returned, he had worked hard for many years, however, he still had a different identity, which was why he didn't get many resources.

He had worked hard all his life. Plus, his daughter was very talented, which was why his grandfather had approved her to enter the glorious amethyst star. Among the people who came to ask for a place this time, he was one of those who didn't have much confidence, he only hoped that his master would give his daughter a chance because of her outstanding aptitude. After all, it would be a pity if Amy's aptitude was wasted.

When the man from the second branch said that they would choose the quotas based on her grades and aptitude, his whole body tensed up. His heart was beating so fast that it was in his throat. He didn't expect that the man would do as he said and fill every cell in his body with excitement. It made him so excited that he could not even say the words of gratitude in a choked voice for a moment... ..

"Thank... Thank you, second master..." after a long while, the middle-aged man finally stammered out a few words... ..

Zhuxing glanced at the middle-aged man, he said coldly, "There's nothing to thank. I'm only acting in accordance with the interests of the family. Your daughter was chosen only because of her own excellence. If she were to fail the family's nurturing in the future, I will be the first to take back what she owes us!"

"Yes, yes, yes!" The other party trembled as he held onto his waist. He still replied with great gratitude, "Second master, don't worry. Mila will definitely not let the family down!"

"I hope so..." zhuxing replied coldly and continued to read out the names of the remaining people.

One by one, the names were read out. In the crowd, there were people who were as excited as the middle-aged man from before. There were also people who had extremely gloomy expressions... ..

And this group of people who did not look good were the Guanxi faction led by the fifth elder. It just so happened that most of their own children were good-for-nothings. In the end, they did not seem to have any intention of giving their children quotas, this caused the faces of the group of people to turn frighteningly dark.

Of course, other than this group of people, in fact, most of the people in the crowd, even if their names were not read out, had better expressions than they had imagined. After all, this kind of round-robin selection was more convincing than Guanxi selection. On the contrary, most of the people had a lot of ideas... ..

When the nineteenth spot was read out, zhuxing put away the booklet in his hand, he stopped. "That's the general situation. If you have any more questions, you can ask them now. It's getting late. If you have nothing to do, could you please inform your juniors to gather at the teleportation station? We'll set off in an hour at most!"

The group of collateral family parents who had received the quota immediately wanted to run away. This was like having money in one's pocket. At this time, they did not want any more mishaps to happen, so they quickly went home to inform their children!

"Wait a minute!" Old five finally could not hold it in any longer and spoke!

"Oh?" Zhuxing looked at the other party lazily. "Old Five, do you have anything else to say? Please hurry, time is of the essence..."

"Second brother..." old five took a deep breath, he lowered his voice and said, "I won't say anything if we elders can't go. After all, just like what you said, we should give young people some opportunities. It would be a waste for us old fellows to go and take the spots. But after all, we elders are old men who have done our best for the clan. Now that we have such an opportunity, are we really not going to show you any respect?"

Zhuxing chuckled. "Fifth brother, your words are a little ridiculous. If you're talking about the family's feelings, could it be that you think the family owes you something? You've worked for the family for so many years. Did the family mistreat you? Didn't give you the corresponding treatment? Did your family enjoy less resources?"

"That's not what I meant!" Fifth Brother said quickly.

"Then who are you talking about feelings with? me?" Zhuxing laughed even more happily. "Then it's even easier to answer you. You and I don't have any feelings!"

"Cough..."

In the hall, everyone could not help but choke. They gritted their teeth and held back the urge to laugh. Their faces were red from holding it in. They looked extremely comical.

"You..." old five was flustered. "If you weren't lenient, why did you keep me here just now?"

"I kept you?" Zhuxing revealed an expression of reminiscence, a few seconds later, he suddenly came to a realization. "Oh, you mean just now? "I said that if you have any objections, you can leave. I didn't say that if you don't have any objections, you can have a spot if you stay. Wasn't the rules announced earlier very clear? "We judge people according to their aptitude and results. Don't you know whether that idiot grandson of yours can get a spot or not? "I've been very curious just now. What are you waiting for in the hall like a Fool?"

"PFFT! !"

This time, a few people couldn't help but burst out laughing. Among them were the third elder and the fourth elder.

After so many years, they had finally seen fifth elder suffer. If not for the presence of the old man, the two of them would have wanted to record a video and go back to enjoy it... ..

“You... you...” fifth elder was so angry that his entire body was trembling. Finally, he looked at Boss Gunsh. “Big Brother, look at second elder!”

Gunsh frowned and said, “Second brother, you’re right. If you don’t want to give him a spot, then don’t. Why are you wasting old five...”

“I don’t have the time to waste him...” Zhuxing rolled his eyes and said, “He directly came up to be slapped in the face. No one with face would ask for a spot for their idiot grandson like him. What do you think, Big Brother?”

“Watch Your Words!” Gunsh said with a straight face, “The grandson of the fifth family is a little lacking in talent. You are an elder of a grandfather’s generation, yet you speak like an idiot and shut your mouth. What do you think?”

The fifth brother looked at his big brother in a daze. His big brother seemed to be speaking up for him, but... .. He did not have any intention of fighting for a spot for him. On the contrary... .. there was a feeling of acquiescence. ...

GUNSH obviously felt fifth brother’s resentful gaze, but he could only brace himself and pretend not to see it.

The reason was very simple. In public, second brother would directly play the card of selecting a scholar based on talent. This method was naturally the most recognized by the public. If fifth brother wanted to openly cut the queue based on his connections, how could he show it in public...

The children that the second brother announced just now were the ones with the best aptitude and results among the younger generation in the family. If he openly asked for a spot for the fifth brother, then would the other people who were with him also fight for a spot? Wouldn’t the results announced earlier be completely disrupted under such chaos?

Putting aside whether or not it could change the result, even if it could, he had directly offended these collateral family members who had already obtained a spot. One had to know that being chosen by the second brother meant that their descendants’ aptitude was indeed the best among the younger generation in the family. Don’t bully the young and poor. It was not a good thing to openly offend so many outstanding juniors... ..

Avoiding fifth brother’s gaze, Gunsh directly changed the topic. “Second brother, didn’t you just say that there was one less spot? weren’t there twenty spots?”

When Zhuxing heard this, he did not even lift his eyelids and said indifferently, “The last spot, naturally, I have to leave it for my son Xi Ye First! !”

Chapter 1474: Xi Ye’s bodyguard selection!

In the Jade Star area, Xi Ye, who had been digesting the fruits of the recent increase in the strength of his forces, slowly opened his eyes.

Beside him, Rennes, who was imprisoned, looked at Xi Ye, who was gradually stabilizing his aura. A blank expression appeared on his face once again, followed by endless jealousy and hatred!

Level 11!

He remembered that ten thousand years ago, this fellow had barely graduated from the deity academy despite the scolding of his entire clan. His innate talent was much higher than his, but he was merely a level 5 ant, he was on the same level as a normal high school graduate.

At that time, he was almost at the end of his rope. His father zhuxing had been chased out of his position as the clan leader, and even the clan affairs had been removed. His mother had also been forced to return to her parents' house to engage in the most dangerous job of raising Shadow Beasts to pay off her debts, the couple's genes had even been forced to be sold under the pressure of the clan's public opinion.

Seer's last chance to turn things around had been cut off. A fellow who did not have any funds to start a war, a deity who did not even have a grade-9 planet, had joined the mighty deity army.

On the other hand, he had already stepped into grade-10 ten thousand years ago, and had been highly valued by Lord Bolton. He had risen all the way up, reaching the general rank at such a young age. Coupled with the fact that Bolton's forces were developing rapidly and had great potential, his future prospects were bright, compared to Seer, who was like a prodigal dog at that time, Seer was like heaven and earth.

10,000 years later, there was no news from seer. He had always thought that this fellow had a high probability of dying alone in the drifting universe, just like many poor students of the deity realm, the way he died alone, where even his bones could not return to his hometown, was like an insignificant speck of dust, disappearing from his life forever.

But he didn't expect that the situation would be completely reversed now!

He couldn't understand at all that a fellow who was at the end of his rope could still turn things around. Moreover, to be able to turn things around to such an extent, even such a powerful Lord Bolton actually fell on him!

Although he didn't personally kill Lord Bolton, in the later stages of the legendary-level Battle of the Overlord, there were many people involved that he couldn't even imagine. This fellow actually had the qualifications to participate... And he actually had the last laugh...

These days, Rennes had always felt that this wasn't a nightmare, but every time he woke up, the Cold Reality made his heart freeze to the extreme!

"Rennes..." seer sighed. "Aren't you tired of staring at me like that?"

"Why are you just like that? !" Rennes gritted his teeth and said, "Why are you still able to disrupt my life at that level? Can't you just accept your fate and die outside? !"

"Accept Your Fate?" Seer looked at Rennes speechlessly. "Did you write your fate? "You've been locked up for a few days, but you're still talking incoherently. What do you mean by 'I'm disturbing your life'? "You didn't instigate Burton to track me here? "I've tried my best to avoid you and your son, but you're still able to instigate your lord to chase me from so far away. To be honest, you really think highly of me, a down and out little deity... “...”

Rennes gritted his teeth. A down and out little god? A Guy who survived until the end in such a situation was a down and out little god? Just what kind of dumb luck did this guy have? Why did the heavens favor him so much?

“Also... “... “...”seer laughed. “Didn’t your later experiences prove it? That Burton didn’t intend to truly nurture you from the beginning to the end. Otherwise, would he have let Saab plant a blood curse on you? Are you out of your mind or something? Without Me, you might have died an unknown death one day.”

Ryan took a deep breath. “You mean you won’t kill me?”

“Oh, dear Big Brother...”seer sneered. “You’re my blood relative. We’re blood-related. Why would I do something that’s worse than a pig or a dog, right, Big Brother?”

Rennes:”...”

This time, he didn’t refute. If he could survive, he would be worse than a pig or a dog...

“HMM?”Xi Ye suddenly stood up slowly. Under the mask, a trace of joy flashed in her eyes!

Rennes was immediately annoyed. “Why? is the lord so happy to see me in such a dire situation?”

Seer rolled her eyes at Rennes, as if she wasn’t interested in keeping Rennes in suspense. She immediately activated her spiritual link to communicate with the master of this Starfield.

A few seconds later, the space around them shook, and a green light descended. Then, a beautiful woman wearing a jade gauze dress walked out from the green light. It was the master of the Emerald Starfield, Ysera!

“I need to go out for a while!”Seer said straightforwardly.

Ysera frowned. Seer had kept her promise these days. There was no reason for her to suddenly go out for an adventure at this time.

“Reason?”

“My brother has been admitted to the Starry Sky Academy. The academy invites family members to attend the ceremony!”Seer’s tone was full of joy.

Ryan, who was sitting on the ground next to him, was stunned.

The Starry Sky Academy? That top-tier High School? Could that skinny little man get admitted to such an academy?

Rennes’gaze became more and more confused. Ever since that little guy was born, he had been paying attention to him. He had been constantly on guard against seer from the second branch. That little guy had indeed worked hard, but in his memory,. His results should not have been at the level of being able to get into such a top-tier school... ...

Unless... he was hiding something!

It was impossible for him to cheat in the national examination, and it was even more impossible for him to cheat in the Star Sky Academy's School Examination. Then, the only possibility was that the little guy was hiding something... ..

Thinking of this, Rennes' confused eyes gradually turned cold. He was so young, but he was actually as terrifying as a hidden viper. He had endured for so many years. What a terrifying character. He shouldn't have listened to his father.., the second branch was a scourge that shouldn't be left behind!

"A warrior family was admitted into the Star Sky Academy?" Ysera was a little stunned. She knew about this academy. She remembered that the Warrior Department of the Star Sky Academy was not open to the public, right?

Seer seemed to see through the other party's doubts and smiled. "They were admitted into the Secret Law Academy, The Magical Beast Academy!"

Ysera:" ..."

"It's rare for a thunder warrior clan to produce a magical beast master..."

"So What?" Seer smiled and said, "The Thunder Warrior clan even produced such an outstanding deity like me..."

"Hehe..." Ysera did not reply.

The deity Academy was an academy that relied on money to spend. She could not even be bothered to ridicule it. However, for this fellow to be able to make it this far, his luck was heaven-defying. In comparison, the younger brother of the other party was able to enter the Starry Sky Academy's Magical Beast Academy by relying on his strength, during this period of time, regardless of whether it was talent, hard work, or luck, one had to say that this generation of this small clan was really lucky. Even the younger generation was so outstanding.

"Okay..." Ysera nodded and agreed without much consideration.

He hadn't known seer for long, but he knew very well that this guy had his own principles. Even if he said he wanted to go, he couldn't stop him.

"But someone has to protect your safety..." Ysera said faintly.

"Protect me?" Seer was stunned. "Who is it? You?"

"I don't have time..." Ysera rolled his eyes. With so many things happening in the Emerald Starfield, it was easy for him, who had nothing to do all day, to say something like that.

"Then who else?" Xi Ye frowned. "If Anya is an undead, she's probably not very popular over there. Can she get in?"

"Of course she can't..." Ysera said calmly.

"Then who else?" Seer tilted her head. "Maya?"

That guy was really powerful. However, that guy was a little strange. Ysera probably wouldn't dare to let her out, right?

"Lulu will go with you..." Ysera said calmly.

"Who?" Seer's eyes suddenly became strange. "Are you sure?"

Chapter 1475: Flip the table!

Seer's eyelids twitched. He had never thought that the other party would name this person as a bodyguard candidate... ..

Among the several star-ranked bigwigs working together, the most reliable one was naturally vien. Be it her personality or her many years of mercenary experience, she was outstanding. However, this time, she was in charge of escorting that group of Little Fellows.

Among the remaining candidates, although Anya and Maya had their own inconveniences, from their own point of view, they were very powerful and reliable. They were both extremely calculative and had extremely strong individual abilities.

Seer had never expected that the other party would say that fellow Lulu... .. This made seer feel that something strange had mixed into a serious topic... ..

After the major incident, Ysera regained consciousness and took out the long-lost essence of the Moon well: the Moon Stone.

With the help of many high-quality Moon Stones, Lulu's lost origin was restored. However, due to the excessive amount of energy, the ancient memories were once again sealed, resulting in her current personality being that of a reincarnated child... ..

Her personality before she reincarnated was that of a lazy person who only knew how to drink. From Seer's perspective, her personality after she reincarnated was that of a problematic child... .. The extremely unreliable type.

She seemed to have felt Seer's shock.., ysera coughed lightly and explained, "It's for your own good. According to the information that your family's little developer returned, the little cabbage was most likely kidnapped by Lulu. Lulu is from the fairy race, and the fairy race has a special contract with Lulu. They should be able to help you negotiate amicably."

Seer nodded when he heard that. The reason for going to Starry Sky Academy this time was to attend his younger brother's school opening ceremony, and the second reason was to take a look at little cabbage's condition.

When they first let little cabbage out, he and Ysera had been worried. After all, the shock caused by the exposure of the imperial bloodline was a little too exaggerated. However, it would be a waste of little cabbage's potential to stay here with such good aptitude.

Little Cabbage's ideal academy was actually the Starry Sky Academy!

They had been worried at that time because even if the incident at the Academy did not happen, little cabbage would most likely be discovered if she went to the Starry Sky Academy...

This time, Iluweta had secretly kidnapped little cabbage because she must have used more powerful protective measures than Ysera. As a Lord, he had to take a look at the situation she was in now.

In other words, on this trip, it was very likely that he would face that person who was at the top of the pyramid in the universe!

Ysera paused for a moment and said, "Let Ionelle accompany you..."

When seer heard this name, her brows immediately relaxed. She finally heard a more reliable name. However, she asked curiously, "Can she leave this place?"

Brother Dog was learning to communicate with the original Gaia consciousness of the emerald star area, and the only one with a high concentration of blood, Ionelle, was in charge of guiding brother dog to learn the inherited skills in his genes, now that the Emerald Star area had just escaped from the control of the YIMO, it was very unstable and needed brother dog to control and appease it. Under such circumstances, Could Ionelle leave?

"She has been much more stable these few days..."Ysera said calmly. "It's fine for her to leave for a while. Little Titan can also take a break. He has taken on too much at his age, so he should relax a little."

"Oh..."Xi ye nodded. The Emerald Dragon King was more considerate towards his juniors than he had imagined.

However, if Iona could come along, Xi Ye would feel much more at ease. Right now, the most stable combat power in the Emerald Starfield, apart from Ysera, was her. The life sea level Titan still had some weight!

"But... There's only one spot to go to Teldar Hill Star..."seer frowned. Why did she bring the two of them with her?

"No worries..."Ysera said softly, "The relationship between the fairy tribe and the starry clan is very good. You just need to tell me when it's time. You Don't have to worry..."

"I see..."seer reluctantly nodded to this arrangement.

Ryan, who saw everything from the side, had an extremely rich expression on his face.

Whether it was Vienne, Maya, or that unreliable Lulu that seer mentioned, they were all top-notch big shots that he could not come into contact with on normal days. But now, they were going to be Seer's bodyguards, and seer was being picky... ..

And that Ionelle, as a student of the warrior department, he had naturally heard of the name of the former commander of the Dawn Corps. Such a top-notch character, even his own former Lord might not have the qualifications to come into contact with, now it's Seer's turn to be her bodyguard?

And he said... .. This must be a nightmare...

On the other side, after the Aldia family had allocated the quotas, the old dragon count took the lead and went to the city guards to apply for a special teleportation channel. Zhuxing also followed and saw that the main person had left, everyone is also in groups of 30-50 one after another to leave, get the quota quickly run, for fear of making a variable again.

Third Elder and fourth elder left the hall. As soon as they left the hall, they saw fifth elder and a group of elders gathered there discussing something. A few elders from the collateral family who were originally planning to run away were also inside, at this moment, their faces were clearly filled with bitterness. Clearly, they had been forced to stay there.

Third Elder and fourth elder looked at each other and immediately planned to change directions. However, before they could even take a step, the sharp-eyed fifth elder said from afar, "Third brother, fourth brother, don't be in a hurry to leave. This way..."

The corners of the two elders' mouths twitched. They had not heard fifth elder call them so affectionately for many years, but they did not want this kind of intimacy now.

Shaking their heads helplessly, the two of them slowly walked over.

"What are you doing?" Third Elder took the lead and said, "The old man said just now that time is of the essence. If you delay them here, what will happen if those juniors can't make it in time?"

As soon as the third elder said this, the few collateral relatives who had gotten the spots immediately revealed expressions of gratitude. At this moment, they did not have the time to listen to the fifth Elder's words. If it was not for the huge difference in status, they would have already left with their faces flushed!

"Third brother, fourth brother..." the fifth elder said with a serious expression, "Whether or not junior can make it in time for this blessing is a small matter. The second brother's actions just now and the old man's attitude are the big matters. Why Can't you clear it up?"

Fourth Elder smiled coldly. "What attitude is a big matter again? Even the Starry Sky Academy's blessing has become a small matter?"

Fifth Elder said in a deep voice, "Don't you see the situation clearly? Second Brother wants to invite seer over!"

"So What?" Fourth Elder yawned. "The child is doing well. To put it bluntly, the quota belongs to second brother's family. It's already very good to be able to share it with the family. Why Don't you let them give one to their own son?"

"Is that a problem?" Fifth Elder sighed. "If that's all there is to it, why would I make a big deal out of it and stop a group of people from coming here?"

Wasn't it just making a big deal out of nothing?

Everyone ridiculed in their hearts...

"These past few years, the tone of the future of the family has been set. Rennes is the main one. A few days ago, many outstanding children of the family were sent to the Bolton Force. It was also the old man who nodded, right?" Fifth Elder said in a deep voice. "But now? "Second brother called seer back just to give him a spot? "Obviously, he's here to fight for power!"

"All these years, with the efforts of Rennes, the family has obviously improved. Now, second brother's family wants to pick peaches. If it causes a fight again, it will be a disaster!"

"Then, fifth brother, what do you think?" Third Brother said coldly.

"We must stop this!" Fifth said righteously, "I think we should join hands to boycott. For the sake of the family's stability in the future, we must stop second from doing this!"

As soon as these words were said, the faces of third elder and fourth elder immediately darkened. They thought that fifth would make a big fuss over nothing, but they did not expect that the topic would be so sensitive. This old dog, his own child could not get a spot, but he planned to completely flip the table!

So many years had passed, but his personality had not changed at all...

Chapter 1476: My views on Ryan... ..

"Fifth brother, how do you want us to stop him?" Fourth brother said gloomily, "Ask everyone to give up the quota and completely boycott second brother?"

"I know that everyone is very reluctant to give up this quota..." Fifth Elder had a look of understanding. "This quota is a good thing. Everyone's life's work is also for the sake of their children. However, you have to understand that the stability of the family is the cornerstone. Once there is chaos, all the benefits of the present are fleeting. If second brother were to start another family dispute over a quota, it would be a small loss "!"

As soon as he said this, the reaction was split into two levels. The person who received the quota had a gloomy expression on his face as he thought to himself, "You're F * cking single without a quota, yet you speak so righteously. Didn't you dare to object when the old man was around at the last moment? Now You're pulling US along? Isn't it just me who feels that my words are lacking in confidence?"

Meanwhile, those who didn't receive a quota were gloating over the misfortune of others. They couldn't wait for old five to make a fuss, while there were also some who maintained their calmness and watched coldly from the sidelines.

Third Elder, who had always been hot-tempered, finally couldn't help but say, "Enough!"

"Third brother..." old five still wanted to say something, but old three rudely interrupted him, "So many years have passed, but your shameless style hasn't changed at all!"

This simple and crude disdain instantly made old five freeze on the spot!

"Let's not talk about whether second brother has that intention first. Even if he does, is that a problem that you should consider?" Old Three said darkly, "The general direction of the family has always been guarded by the old master. The old master didn't say anything, are you planning to help the old master speak up?"

"I. . ." Fifth Elder immediately choked and mumbled, "I didn't mean that..."

"Then what do you mean?" Third Elder said coldly, "Fifth Elder, there are some things that I still have to make clear to you. Back then, you were wholeheartedly on boss's side, and we were on second brother's side. We were originally on different sides, but we're still from the same clan after all. We never thought that the clan would really start an internal conflict. So even though that child, Xi Ye, was innocent to begin with, sending Xi Ye to the Heavenly Deity Academy was the clan's overall decision-making mistake. In the end, when the old patriarch asked second brother to resign from the clan's patriarch position to quell public anger, we never had the slightest objection!"

"That's not because we're disappointed in second brother. What happened back then was never second brother's fault. We all know that the reason why we agreed to this decision was firstly for the stability of the family. Secondly, it was also because this decision was made by the old master. This family was single-handedly taken over by the old master. No matter what decision he makes, whether it's us biological sons or those side branches, no one will oppose it. It was the same in the past, and it's still the same now!"

As he spoke, the third elder looked at the fifth elder coldly and said, "Letting second brother decide on the quota was the old man's decision. If you don't accept it and want to act like a demon, or even threaten the old man with other people, you can try. I don't know how the old man will treat you, but I...". "...". "I'll definitely be the first to kill you! "!"

"You..." the fifth Elder's face was ashen from the rebuke and he pointed at the other party with a trembling finger.

"All of you, go back! !" The fourth elder looked at the people from the other branches and said coldly, "Do what you have to do. Fifth Elder wants to drag all of you to rebel. Why? Are you going to accept this matter?"

No one dared to accept this wok. They all waved their hands and took their leave, especially those from the other branches. Immediately, they felt the wind beneath their feet. After bowing and taking their leave, they disappeared without a trace, afraid that they would be stopped by the fifth elder again!

"Fourth Elder!" Fifth Elder was exasperated. "What are you shouting for?"

"Oh?" Fourth Elder raised his eyebrows. "So Fifth Elder, didn't you mean to rebel? But from what you said just now, didn't you want to drag everyone to the Palace?"

"You... When did I say that? I only said that I was against second brother, I didn't say that I was against the old man..."

"The old man is the one who gave the choice to second brother!" Fourth brother said coldly, "Fifth brother, why do you have to pretend to be stupid? If you really have the guts, why don't you say it yourself in the living room? It's amazing that you came out to make things difficult for others and even wanted to pull US along. Are you really stupid or do you take us as Fools?"

Fifth Elder: "..."

After saying that, the two of them no longer paid attention to fifth elder and strode out. After all, the children of their two families were not as useless as fifth brother. They still had their spots, so they had to hurry back and inform their grandchildren to gather, where would they find the time to listen to this idiot's chatter?

"The two of you..."the fifth elder pointed at the back of the two of them, after trembling for a long time, he was so angry that his face turned red. In the end, he didn't dare to curse loudly for fear of attracting the attention of the old man. Now that he was gone, he didn't have the guts to face the old man directly.

In the midst of his fury, he heard a series of deep footsteps. He quickly turned around and saw that it was his elder brother gunshi!

"Big Brother, you look at them..."the fifth elder as if met the Savior, hurriedly complained up.

"Shut up!"Gunsh face livid way: "This time, you add what Chaos?"

With that, he waved his hand and strode out, leaving Lao Wu standing there with an embarrassed look on his face. . .

Looking at Gunsh's back, his face turned green and white. . .

"Three elder brothers... ..."walking on the road, old four hesitated for a while, finally asked: "You Think, second elder brother... .. is to want to come back to fight for a time?"

"I don't think it's likely..."third brother sighed and said, "Second brother has always been a free and easy person. When he became the head of the family, it was because he was too talented that the old man forced him to become the head of the family. In the end, when something happened later, he made second brother take over. In the end, it was the old man who was unkind. Now, it's actually the same. It wasn't second brother who wanted to stand up at all. It was the old man who had an idea "...".

"Old Master?"Fourth was stunned. "You mean... old master doesn't think highly of Rennes?"

"It shouldn't be that he doesn't think highly of Rennes..." "...". Third shook his head and said, "He just feels that it's too risky. Back then, Old Master firmly defended the void scar in his hometown. Many people would think that old master is a person who dares to take risks and is decisive. However, in reality, he isn't. Back then, it was great-grandmother who made this decision. Old Master has always been a person who seeks stability. This is also the reason why he chose to let those collateral descendants who had once betrayed the family return after he became the head of the family."

"Right now, Bolton thinks highly of Rennes. He has been appointed as the Marshal of the Tenth Legion. It might seem like he has the potential to soar into the sky, but this matter is extremely risky. After all, Bolton has always been a demonic force. Rennes becoming the commander of the tenth Legion represents a foreign force. In that case, in the future, he will have to face the traditional direct-line demons in the competition for resources. He will definitely be targeted by the traditional forces. If he can endure it, he will naturally soar into the sky. But to be honest..." "...the third elder lowered his voice and said, "Both I and the old man don't really think that Rennes would be able to take on such a big role "... "..."

The fourth elder nodded. They had watched Rennes grow up since he was young. He was talented, but he had a sharp mind... "...". To be honest, he wasn't even as good as his father. Although the boss hated him, he was at least a smiling tiger and was very scheming. On the other hand, Rennes was neither a pure schemer nor a pure warrior. On the contrary, he didn't look like one. To be honest, it was a little strange that he could be valued by Bolton. ...

Chapter 1477: The Mysterious Night Demon

"You mean to say that the old man doesn't intend to agree to Rennes' relocation proposal?" Fourth also lowered his voice.

"It's too risky... ... Not the old man's style." ... Third Elder shook his head. "If there's no better choice, then it's naturally the best. But now it's different. Seer registered the Milky Way's deity lord a few days ago and received approval. The basic requirements for a galactic deity are three seven stars and ten resource stars. Even if it's the lowest standard, it means that seer actually has a firm foothold in the development of deity!"

"This is probably better than what the old patriarch had expected. For a small family like ours to produce a deity in just a little over 10,000 years, this kind of result is rare in many big families. It's just that Seer's territory is too far away, and it's said that it's in the Northern Star Field. The old patriarch has suppressed the news and hasn't announced it yet, so it hasn't caught everyone's attention yet. However, in reality, if it were a normal family, Seer's situation would already be like a hero in the family...". "...". "..."

Fourth nodded his head...

Third elder: "And it's not just seer who's doing well. That little kid from second's family has another unexpected surprise! The Magical Beast Master of the Starry Sky Academy is born with a high value. If nothing else happens, our family will have a dragon-level magical beast master, which will greatly improve our family's position in the circle of the Glorious Amethyst Star. This sounds more reliable than Rennes, who is full of risks. The old man is a reliable person. Does it even need to be said what he will choose now?"

"That's true..." old four nodded again. "We're just making things difficult for second brother. He stood up for the old man, and once he came out, he even offended a large group of people..."

"Hasn't second brother always had this personality?" Old Three smiled. "Isn't it because of his personality that we were able to stand up to him back then? Regardless of whether it was in the past or now, I'm not happy with eldest brother's personality of hiding a knife in his smile..."

"Haha, it's the same, the same!"

"Alright, let's not talk about it anymore. Quickly go back and inform the younger generation. No matter what, this priest blessing is a good thing. That little grandson of mine is a little forced. He'll probably be a level-15 warrior when he goes online in the future. Your grandson is different. With this blessing, he'll have a great chance to enter the top class of Xandar Academy. He might even have a chance to take that step...". "..."

When fourth elder heard this, he immediately beamed with joy. He waved his hand and said humbly, "It's nothing. That Brat is just like his father. He won't change sides. His future is hard to predict..."

However, he was still very happy in his heart. His grandson's talent could be considered the best of his three generations. Back then, he quit the housework and went out to work in the army. The family's oil and water naturally can not compare to the eldest dog licking fifth family, but this child still has a good result, this time was originally prepared to pull the old face to beg second brother, now that the quota has been obtained, it is naturally happy...

In this way, the whole Eldia family, some people are happy, some people are sad, some people are exasperated, but no matter what, the result has not changed, the children who were chosen by zhuxing were informed by their elders, come to the meeting place early in high spirits!

"Sister Mira, you're here too?"

Outside the portal, the big, silly man who had been following Mira had his head in his hands, and his face was full of surprise.

Next to him, a lean, agile-looking fellow patted him on the head and said, "You don't need to talk nonsense. If someone as simple as you can be selected, do you think sister Mira will be selected?"

The big man smiled embarrassedly.

Mira, who was walking over, couldn't help but burst into laughter.

The three of them were the descendants of the branch families. They were the closest to each other, and their talents were outstanding. When they were young, the old man had pointed them out to the main family of the glorious amethyst star. The old man had taught them all the time, although they were from the branch family, they were valued. Mira wasn't surprised that she could get a spot.

However, she did not expect her two companions to be able to go. This made Mira happy from the bottom of her heart.

After all, the spots were scarce. Besides those elders from the main family who had to drag their way over, there were also a bunch of shameless old men who had to waste the spots. There were not many spots left for their side family members... ..

She was a little surprised that her two companions could be chosen.

Thinking of this, Mira looked around and a hint of surprise flashed across her eyes.

She had received the news relatively late and was almost the last to arrive. At a glance, she realized that more than half of them were collateral line disciples. Occasionally, there would be two direct line disciples, who were also direct line disciples with relatively high aptitude and power. For example, the grandson of the fourth elder's family, Di Yun, and the grandson of the third elder's family, Unke. Of course... .. including the youngest son of the first elder's family, Bonos. ...

Mira's eyes lit up when she saw this. It seemed that the old man's choice was exactly what she had thought. He had completely chosen to select scholars based on their talents. Even the Karma Cub of the fifth elder's family had been eliminated. It was really a happy thing... .. cough cough ... What a surprise...

Just as she was thinking, heavy footsteps came from afar. A group of juniors hurriedly looked over. It was the Eldia Elder, who was led by the old man!

"Greetings, great-grandfather!"

The group of juniors quickly bowed respectfully!

"Good, good, good!" Long Jue nodded with a smile and looked at the group of children with satisfaction.

The ones who were selected for this round of selection were all the children with the best aptitude and results. At a glance, everyone's bone structure was very good and their bodies were also well-trained. They all had more foundation than when they were young., as long as these young seedlings could grow up safe and sound, they would be the Eldia family's towering tree in the future!

Now that morning and night had brought another top-notch priest's blessing to everyone, the Eldia family would certainly rise to a higher level in the future!

At the thought of this, the old man's smile became even happier.

Mira quietly sized up the people behind the old man. There were a total of five people. Apart from the old man and the Great Elder, there were also morning and night's parents. The last one was wearing a purple night cloak, under the cloak was an extremely handsome night demon. Obviously, he was not from the Eldia family.

Mira looked at him curiously. The other party also noticed this bold little girl and smiled. "There are many outstanding juniors in your family in this generation..."

"You must be joking..." Long Jue first glared at Mira, then turned around and smiled politely. "This girl has no manners. It's my fault for not disciplining her properly..."

"You don't have to be so polite." The Night Demon smiled. "We're in-laws. We're a family. Why are there so many rules?"

His tone was gentle, making people feel as if they were bathed in the spring breeze. Old Master Long Jue smiled and quickly agreed, but his heart was heavy.

The guy his daughter-in-law brought was not simple. His aura was deep. Although he had deliberately hidden it, Long Jue's sharp instincts, which had been on the battlefield for many years, could still sense that this guy was an extremely powerful existence, he was probably on the same level as his old friend in Xandar Academy!

He always felt that something was not quite right for such a figure to be willing to show his face and attend his daughter-in-law's child's ceremony.

"Great-grandfather..." mira suddenly said, "Is... everyone here?"

She had counted just now. Including the Night Demon who had appeared unexpectedly, there were only nineteen people. The teleportation was about to be activated at this time. Was there still anyone who was late?

Who could it be? The second elder? It couldn't be the fifth elder, right?

"Everyone is here..." the old man smiled and said, "There's still one who will meet us at Teldrasil..."

"Who is it?" Mira asked curiously.

The old man smiled when he heard that. "It's the only God in our family, your seer cousin!"

Chapter 1478: confirmed name

After passing through the teleportation array, Eldia's family boarded the exclusive interstellar train to Teldrasil. This was also the reason why the old man urged everyone to hurry. Teldrasil galaxy was the top galaxy in the Eastern Star Field, moreover, it was the main star field of the elven royal family and the bronze royal family. The outside world was not allowed to be teleported in directly.

They could only teleport to the neighboring Stansall Galaxy to take the interstellar train. At this time, the Eldi descendants who had booked a carriage finally began to discuss the topic.

Previously, because of the old man's presence, no one dared to talk about Seer's topic. Now that they were in another carriage, the group of people finally let go of the topic.

"Sister Mira... What's going on? Why... is that person also included in the list?"

The one who spoke was the Skinny Thunder Warrior.

Mira rolled her eyes at him and said calmly, "Why are you so nervous? And that person? Is that name a demon? That's the eldest son of the second master's family. His younger brother has been admitted to the Starry Sky Academy. What's wrong with him coming to watch the ceremony?"

The surrounding people fell silent upon hearing that. It was not that they were wrong, but they could not figure it out.

With the help of the Big Branch family, Seer had become the main culprit behind the decline of the family for tens of thousands of years!

However, this group of juniors did not feel very big. In fact, just as Zhuxing had said, the couple had long used their thousands of years of working life to pay off their debts to the family, therefore, Mila and the juniors of this generation were not affected at all. They had been enjoying the resources that they should enjoy. On the contrary, because the second branch had returned the money, the resources were concentrated on their generation, as a result, the children of this generation enjoyed more things.

However, because the children of the previous generation had suffered greatly, and because the eldest branch had been secretly adding fuel to the fire, the reputation of the second branch and the family had always been very bad. Seer, the culprit, had always been spurned.

However, the situation today was different. Everyone was going to bask in the glory of the second branch. It did not seem very appropriate to look down on seer at this time... ..

After all, most people still had some dignity. The fifth elder, who could eat cheap food and still say in public that the second wife should not go, was still a minority... ..

“HMPH!”

A cold voice was heard as they were speaking, “That family already owes the family. Just a little favor and you’re All Gagged?”

Everyone was stunned. Mira looked up as well. The person who spoke was the eldest son of the first elder’s family, Bonos.

When the eldest son opened his mouth, everyone shut their mouths. Mira was the only one who did not buy it. She said indifferently, “You can tell that to the second master. See if he will throw you out!”

Bonos looked at her with a sinister face and said coldly, “Do you think I don’t Dare?”

“You don’t dare...”Mira replied with a smile.

Bonos snorted coldly and did not say anything else. Although Mira was a collateral branch, she had excellent talent. Whether it was her bone structure or her learning ability, she was an existence that could crush her peers. She was highly valued by the old man, even though his status was important., however, the other party did not lie to him. Naturally, he did not dare to offend second uncle openly, but he also could not vent his anger on the other party because the other party would not dare to fight back because of his status!

With sister Mira coming out to fight head-on, the other collateral disciples behind also slowly began to dare to whisper. The big, silly man could not help but ask, “Sister Mira, what kind of person is that seer?”

“How would I know?”Mira rolled her eyes at the big, silly man. “That Guy ran away ten thousand years ago. I was not even born yet, how would I know what kind of person he is?”

“Oh...”the big guy nodded. “But everyone in the family said that he’s not a good person...”

“Whether he’s a good person or not, won’t we know after seeing him?”Mira smiled and said.

She didn’t think so. Although the elders in her family had said the same thing to her when she was young, including her big brother who didn’t get into the academy, she also cursed at the second branch’s family all day long.

However, she knew that her eldest brother had not been able to get into the academy not because he did not have enough resources, but because she could not do it... ..

In fact, she had investigated before. The generation that was most affected by seer was the generation that seer had been studying for the past 10,000 years. Simply put, it was the generation that was about the same age as Ryan.

After Seer graduated, the huge deficit in the family had stopped. As Seer's eldest brother resigned from his position as the head of the family to work outside, his annual allowance had caused the resources enjoyed by the descendants of the family to not be affected at all, at least, her eldest brother's generation would definitely not be affected.

To put it bluntly, she had to find a vent for her incompetence... ..

The first elder was a person who knew how to make use of People's hearts. She deliberately added fuel to the fire in the dark, allowing many people who were depressed to find this vent. It also caused Xi Ye to leave for ten thousand years, but the family still cursed at her.

She really looked down on the methods of the great house, and also looked down on those cowards who had come up with excuses for her. However, she did not stand up and say anything fair, so even though she looked down on them, she did not have much confidence, at the very least, she felt quite guilty about taking this spot.

That skinny little guy who had been bullied by the people around him since he was young. In order to protect himself, she had never stood up and said a single word for him. This was the only guy who had worked hard in secret, and he had finally gotten to where he was today. Yet, he still wanted to bask in his glory...

Thinking about it... .. He suddenly felt a little ashamed...

Mira sighed. Her mind was filled with that skinny figure. She suddenly felt a little curious. What kind of person was seer, who this guy had been protecting with all his might?

"Achoo! !"

In Starry Sky Academy, the weather was still sunny, but Chen Ye sneezed a few times. Little cabbage rolled her eyes at him. "Don't sneeze on my meat!"

"I'm sorry..."Chen Ye hurriedly apologized.

"Do you have a cold?"Little cabbage tilted his head and asked.

In the face of concern, Chen Ye hurriedly shook his head. "How is that possible? The child of our Eldia family has the bloodline of a warrior. How can something like a cold happen?"

"Then who are you?"

"Someone must be saying bad things about me!"Chen Ye said very confidently.

"Who said bad things about you?"Little cabbage asked curiously.

"There are a lot of them..."Chen Ye thought of those ugly fellows in his family and said with a look of disdain, "There's never a shortage of people who say bad things about me..."

"Then it seems that you're not welcome..."little cabbage gnawed on the meat leg. Steamed Bun's face was full of doubt as he said, "But why? You're clearly such a good person, and you know how to cook. Your cooking is also delicious. How could you not be welcome?"

Chen Ye's heart jumped when he heard this. He looked at the other party and said softly, "Do you think a person like me should be popular?"

"Of course!" Little cabbage smiled and said, "You're beautiful and can cook. In Our Place, you're definitely the most popular!"

"You only know how to suck up when you lie to eat..." Chen Ye curled his lips and tilted his head to the side. However, his heart felt warm.

"Eh? You really don't have a cold? Why is your face so Red?"

"Who's blushing?" Chen Ye glared at the other party. Looking at the other party's big eyes, he immediately felt guilty. He coughed lightly and changed the topic. "Ahem... speaking of which, who came to your house to invite your family members to the ceremony this time?"

"My House?" Little cabbage placed the bones on the table, he picked up a piece of meat and took a bite. "I was just sold by my father and have a new mother. But the Muzir family has nothing to do with me. My biological mother is now a teacher of the academy... I think she's the only one?"

"Uh..." Chen Ye was stunned. He felt like he had opened up a bad topic... ..

Bai Cai did not seem to mind. His oily face came closer and said, "What About You? What about you? who came to the house?"

"You Rascal, don't take the opportunity to rub oil on me again!" Chen Ye, who was familiar with Bai Cai's personality, glared at him. However, seeing how excited he was, he did not have the heart to reject his question, he pulled out the name list on the void screen.

"My family is relatively useless. The school gave twenty spots, and they used up all twenty spots..." looking at some of the names on the screen, Chen Ye curled his lips and thought to himself, 'how can these guys have the face to come?'

Little cabbage stared at one of the names!

Seer Eldia!

Chapter 1479: a powerful guy is coming... ..

"Wow... is this Teldrasil?"

In the interstellar train, after the train arrived at the station, a group of children from the Eldia family looked out of the window curiously. They were all shocked by the magnificent scenery.

Due to the efforts of the Dragon Baron, the children of the Eldia family had seen much. After all, the Glorious Amethyst Star was a super high-level planet. However, even in the super high-level planet, there were different levels, the Teldrasil Galaxy was the royal family's land that had been passed down since the ancient elven civilization. The First World Tree in the universe had been produced here. Under the nurturing of countless generations of flower spirits and the blessings of the priests, even now, this star field..., was also the place with the most vitality in the entire universe. Even the planets in the outer regions were at least level two stars.

Closer to the core, there were all level one planets. On each planet, there was a huge world tree entrenched in the clouds of the planet. The Sea of stars formed the largest green forest in the universe, every tree was the green of life that was born from top-tier planets. Such majestic vitality shocked the children of the Eldia family even though they were separated by the car window, even bernos, who had been putting on a straight face, could not hold back his expression.

This was the number one galaxy in the Eastern Star Field: Tydar Hill!

“Sister Mira... these... these... are the world trees?” Beside Mira, the skinny fellow stammered as he asked, his face filled with curiosity and excitement.

“Yes...” Mira was also immersed in this incomparable magnificence, her face was filled with excitement as she said, “Now, the only one who can cultivate the world tree’s soil is teldrasil. Only the soil in this starfield can cultivate such a huge world tree. It is rumored that the elves in ancient times cultivated this soil bit by bit through the top-tier flower spirits’ elemental cultivation and the priest’s blessing. Every gram is worth 10,000 gold coins. The elves who live here enjoy life energy that is more than ten times stronger than ordinary grade-1 stars from birth. It is also an important reason why the space elves have never declined throughout the generations!”

“Hiss...” hearing Mira’s introduction, the group couldn’t help but take in a breath of cold air. A gram of soil was worth ten thousand gold? Then wouldn’t they be rich if they came here to dig the soil?

They seemed to have sensed the thoughts in everyone’s hearts, Mira smiled and said, “Teldrasil strictly forbids smuggling of soil, and the punishment is extremely severe. If the inner clan is found out, they will directly deprive Teldrasil of its resident rights. If the outer clan commits a crime, they will be directly executed. There are very few outlaws who dare to come here to sell soil...”

Everyone was stunned when they heard this. This punishment was indeed very severe. If the outer race were to be directly executed, then the fact proved that the starry sky clan was indeed suspected of being xenophobic. Of course... “...”. Even if it was the inner race’s punishment, it was still very severe. Canceling the resident rights was equivalent to themselves and their descendants being permanently expelled from this high-quality land. The punishment was also quite severe.

“Sister Mira, you know so much!” The silly big guy beside Mira rubbed his head and laughed.

“Some travelers read in their travel logs...” Mira laughed, “I don’t really know much, mainly because I’m interested. In the future, I want to be like the main characters in those logs, earning money while traveling the universe...”

“Sister Mira, do you want to become a mercenary in the future?” A fellow countryman asked curiously.

“HM...” Mira nodded, “Compared to joining the army, I want to become a professional mercenary. I want to go out and explore the world...”

“Hehe... I want to too...” that big and simple looking man shook his head and said.

“Then work hard!” Mira patted his strong arm, “After receiving the blessing, go back and work hard to train. Don’t waste this opportunity. When the time comes, get into a good school and graduate, we’ll team up and go outside to take a look!”

“Okay!” The smile on the Big Guy’s face became more honest, and his eyes were full of expectation.

Some of the other disciples looked at the Magnificent Sea of stars in the forest and felt a sense of novelty in the world. They suddenly felt that if one day, they could travel through the entire universe like Mira said... They could see all the wonders in the world, and in this lifetime... .. Perhaps there would be no regrets?

“HMPH!”

In the corner, looking at the high-spirited Mila, Bernos snorted lightly. However, this time, he did not go looking for trouble. A trace of joy flashed in his eyes.

So this girl’s dream was to be a mercenary?

She was really useless. However, that was fine too. In the past, in large families, there had been many descendants who went out to be mercenaries to earn money. The other party’s dream was very compatible with her identity as a descendant of the side family. She was also self-aware!

As for herself?

Naturally, after receiving the blessing, she would be admitted to a top-tier academy that was even better than Xandar. After graduating, she would go to her big brother’s territory to work hard and become the top figure of Bolton’s tenth legion, even surpassing her big brother, becoming the commander of the Eleventh Legion was the ambition that a man should have!

Just like that, everyone carried their own thoughts in their hearts. In the beautiful scenery, they soon heard the sound of the arrival of the station.

In a state of reluctance, everyone followed the order of the broadcast and got off the train one by one... ..

Tedar Hill’s trains were all gathered at the central transfer station. As many academies had started their classes, there was a huge flow of people now. A group of large-sized thunder warriors were squeezed to death in the vast sea of people, after a long while, they finally squeezed to the place designated by Old Master Long Jue in a sorry state.

When the juniors squeezed their way over, Old Master Long Jue and the others were already waiting for them. Mira and the others quickly followed them and waited there.

“Sister Mira, are we waiting for that person again?” A messenger at the side asked carefully.

Mira nodded slightly. The place where the old master and the others were standing was the central station of the Northern Star Field. In the entire Eldia family, other than the second master’s wife’s family in the Northern Star Field, only the legendary God of heaven in the family was in the Northern Star Field... ..

As they were speaking, the central station notified them of the arrival of the train. Everyone looked over eagerly, including the juniors.

Most of the people who came were descendants of the branch families. Although they had grown up listening to Seer's bad reputation, to them, seer was actually very far away from their lives. It was not because of the resentment they had been exposed by the people around them since they were young, instead, they were mostly curious.

What exactly did this cousin who was once said to be even more talented than Ryan, the first deity of the family, look like?

The elders also had different expressions. There was a hint of complexity in the expression of the old lord of the dragon count. On the other hand, grand elder gunsh had a gentle smile on his face, but the depths of his eyes were filled with coldness.

The zhuxing couple from the second branch naturally had looks of anticipation on their faces, especially ye Na. She had not seen seer for ten thousand years. The child who was born to be the most like her, and the child who was the closest to her, she did not know either... "...". How had she been living these past few years wandering outside?

In the group of people from the Eldia family, the night demon who was covered in a shadow cloak had a bored expression on his face.

A deity nurtured by a small family, even if he had a bit of luck, was no different from an ant to a large family like theirs. He actually had to wait for him here. It was truly a magical journey... ..

Just as he was thinking about this, a thick and heavy aura suddenly came from afar, causing him, who had been drowsy, to suddenly raise his head and look towards the exit of the train... ..

This aura...

Night Demon narrowed his eyes slightly. A formidable fellow was about to arrive... ..

Chapter 1480: Powerful!

His name was fan di. Na Ye was the youngest elder of the current generation of the clan, a star level Tianyuan level expert. This time, he had accompanied ye na from the side branch to take advantage of her son's qualifications to observe the situation of the little kid from the Helan clan.

Of course, he was also in charge of supervising ye Na's attitude towards the mission!

The reason why he was willing to deign to be a guest at the Aldia family with his status was also because of the coincidence of ye Na's child being admitted into the Starry Sky Academy.

Not only was he admitted into the starry sky academy, but according to the news that Helan Na had sent back, Ye Na's child seemed to have a very good relationship with the Wood Elf of the Muzir family!

It had to be said that it was a very big coincidence, but it was also a good opportunity. If used well, it might be able to help na na obtain a crucial role!

Of course, he had also investigated the Aldia family before coming here. There was no chance for them to resist the Na ye family at all. The strongest family head, the old patriarch, was only a level-15 warrior, and he was named Dragon Baron, his lifelong wish was to be a dragon-level. It was really a humble and laughable wish.

As long as they were willing, such a family could be destroyed like a speck of dust in an instant. Although it was illegal for the federation to kill citizens indiscriminately, even if they were nobles, to deal with such a speck of dust, both in the open and in the dark... They also had countless ways to make this family disappear...

Originally, there wasn't much of a problem. However, after fan di arrived, he discovered a small problem. It was only after he arrived that he found out that the Eldia family had actually nurtured a deity!

This would be slightly troublesome. The federation strongly encouraged families to nurture deity. The families that nurtured deity were also under the care of the Federation's Deity Academy. If one were to discover that someone had touched a direct descendant of a deity family, it would be a huge taboo!

After all, Sky Gods could colonize the outside world indefinitely. Seizing Resources was the foundation for the Federation to expand their territory and empty their jobs. They were also the pillars of the entire federation. If the safety of their family members could not be guaranteed.., then the sky god system would have long been monopolized by the various large families.

This caused the matter to become slightly troublesome. However, he still did not believe that ye Na would dare to go against her family just because she had a small sky god in her family. It was true that the federation was protecting the sky gods, but it did not mean that there were no loopholes.., for a small deity like her who had just started out, wouldn't she die if she met a random wave of interstellar pirates?

That smart junior of his would definitely understand this logic... ..

However, the current situation... .. Did not seem to be right... ..

Although the flow of people at the North Star Field Station was not as large as the east star field station, it was still a top-tier galaxy after all. The daily flow of trade was an exaggerated number, so there was naturally quite a lot of people coming and going.

However, in the vast sea of people, van der Sar still found the so-called little god of the Eldia family at a glance... ..

The characteristics and intelligence reports were exactly the same. Koi was wearing a heavy armor and a heavy helmet, which made him appear particularly eye-catching and comical in the crowd.

However, this was not the reason why van der Sar could find him at a glance. The people in the universe were dressed in all kinds of strange clothes. Although this little God's dress was a little silly, it was not too out of the ordinary. There were many more eye-catching things than him.., it was not to the extent where he would be able to attract everyone's attention in the huge crowd.

The reason why he was able to notice the other party at the first glance was because of other reasons!

Fan Di stared fixedly at the little deity in the crowd. It seemed that there was nothing abnormal from afar. However, if one took a closer look, one would discover that something was very wrong.

In the huge crowd, many high-level warriors were squeezed into a sorry state. However, this little deity was not affected at all. If one took a closer look, one would discover that there seemed to be an invisible wall of air within a one meter radius of him, all the people who were close to him would subconsciously avoid him. Even if they would be squeezed into more trouble if they avoided him, they would still do so. Moreover, it was a subconscious reaction, the kind that would completely pay attention to him.

This led to a very strange phenomenon. Even though Seer's side was so special, no one in the crowd seemed to have noticed such a strange thing... ..

However, van der Sar knew what was going on. The reason why the people around him did not notice it was because the vacuum within a one-meter radius was neither an arcane technique nor a divine domain technique, but a purely physiological reaction of everyone.

A very powerful master had very cleverly controlled his own lifeblood, so that people who were close to him would subconsciously avoid him due to physiological reaction after entering a certain range, and because it was a conditioned reflex., therefore, many people did not notice it in the crowded environment!

Moreover, this control method was extremely exquisite. Regardless of the range or intensity, it was just right. He was a top-notch expert!

This expert was naturally not the little deity himself, but the one behind him!

Fan Di looked over. It was a woman wearing a silver-gray cloak. Under the special alchemy cloak, one could not see her appearance clearly, and it also made it difficult to guess the aura within...

The woman seemed to have noticed fan di. She slightly raised her head and looked at him. Instantly, their eyes met in the air. In just a moment, fan di felt like a puppy that had crashed into an endless mountain!

With a boom, his entire divine sense was shaken to the point that he lost consciousness. He sank into a kind of unconscious chaos. Night Demon purplish-red blood flowed out of his seven orifices, and his eyes fell into an unconscious stupor!

At this moment, the surrounding members of the Eldia family all turned their gazes towards seer, who was walking towards them. They didn't pay attention to the status of this distinguished guest of the Night Demon family. At this moment, if the other party took off his cloak., they would find that every joint of his body and the area between his thumb and forefinger had burst open. His function had completely sunk into a state of serious injury from that collision of spiritual senses!

This... was that seer?

The group of children from the Ardia family looked at the silly-looking lump of iron with a dumbfounded expression. They felt that... "...". It was strange.

Xi Ye strode forward and walked all the way from the crowd to the front of the old patriarch. He approached and stood in front of the old patriarch. After two seconds, Xi Ye hammered his chest and performed the standard Thunder warrior etiquette, she said in a low voice, "Old master, long time no see!"

Long Jue's usually calm expression finally changed this time. There was obvious joy on his face. He stepped forward and grabbed Xi Ye's shoulder. He nodded repeatedly. "Good, good, good. You've become much stronger!"

Gunshi's face twitched behind him. This body of iron was wrapped tightly. How could you tell that he was much stronger?

Xi Ye smiled and hugged the old man. She patted the old man's back and said, "The old man has become much thinner. It seems that he is indeed old..."

Long Jue's body stiffened after he was hugged. He could not help but Pat Xi Ye's helmet when he heard the old man's words. "You Little Brat, you are just like your father. You have no manners!"

Mira was slightly stunned. She had never heard the old man rebuke his juniors like this. It seemed like he was reprimanding the old man, but she could tell that he was very familiar with the old man. The old man really liked this grandson... ..

"Mother, I miss you so much..." after hugging the old man, Xi Ye walked over to her parents and looked at her mother who was clearly showing signs of aging. Xi Ye's tone softened completely.

"I miss your child too..." Yena immediately hugged Xi Ye. This brat who had disappeared without a trace for ten thousand years had secretly gone on a trip alone and had almost scared her to death... ..

Initially, they had wanted to teach him a lesson when they met, but now, they could not say anything hard.

Most of the surrounding disciples were stunned as they watched this scene. The scene was much more heartwarming than they had imagined. Most of the collateral disciples had left their homes and it was rare for them to go back to see their parents.., when they saw this scene this time, a wave of sympathy rose in most of them.

Mila also looked at him curiously. She felt that this legendary second cousin of hers might not be as bad as outsiders described him to be.

At the very least, how could a child that the old man and his parents liked so much be a good-for-nothing prodigal?

Of course, there were also some who were smiling. For example, Gunsh's youngest son and his supporters were all watching this scene coldly from the sidelines.

However, no matter who it was, they obviously did not notice the Night Demon, Vandi, who had been standing stiffly behind them.

After a few minutes, fan di finally managed to wake up from his dazed state. The injuries all over his body caused him to suck in a cold breath of air in pain.

However, what shocked him even more was not his injuries, but the person who had caused him to be injured. The person who had caused him such serious injuries with just a glance was now like a guard standing behind the little deity!
