Chapter 1491: the result of testing each other out (part one)

“You really dare to pretend to be a b –”

Under the starry night sky, the two figures, one big and one small, walked all the way to the periphery of the primeval forest. Only then did the short man dare to use the primary-color crystals that Ysera had prepared for them to have a special conversation.

Seer was silent for a few seconds before he finally said, “We have to make him a little apprehensive. After all, the situation that the little guy is in is really not good...”

After confirming the location and situation of the cabbages through Alice, he and Alice spent a lot of effort to study the situation of the high-ranking nobles of the star elves. They found that the environment that the cabbages were in could be said to be hell-like... ..

First of all, the biggest threat came from the royal family of the Star Elves. As an heir who had occupied the dragon vein of the former Elven dynasty, it was obvious that he would never want his former master to return... ..

Then there were the various influential families. In order to stabilize the situation, ILUWETA had supported the most promising clan of the starry skies elves from a very objective perspective. Within the starry skies elves, this old ancestor had an extremely high status., it was said that every elven emperor had to obtain his consent to inherit the throne. It was evident how prestigious he was. However, it was precisely because of this that Iluweta’s sky God faction and the starry skies elves were practically bound together!

Although his God power had tried its best to provide fairness to the other races, after so many years of supporting and being close to the space elves, three-quarters of the upper echelons of ILUWETA’s God power were still space elves.

Except for a few warriors and Rangers who hired the bronze race and the forest elves respectively, the other classes such as priest, Flower Spirit, and arcane were almost monopolized by the space elves!

In such an environment, it would be very sensitive to support little cabbage, because even Eluweta could not predict what would happen when he proposed to let a pure-blooded wood elf inherit the throne of Tydhill!

Perhaps the stability that had been formed for many years would fall apart in an instant!

The other party did not announce the imperial bloodline of little cabbage at the first moment, but chose to hide it and accept little cabbage into the space academy. Seer then knew., this legendary figure with unparalleled boldness in history did not display his boldness as usual this time.

Seer could understand this point. After all, he had taken on too many burdens and naturally valued the stability of the faction that he had painstakingly built up. However, understanding was one thing. Under different circumstances, seer would never agree!

The other party had concealed little cabbage's identity but did not choose to hide it. Instead, he had placed it in the year when the Crown Prince had entered the academy and stuffed it in. His intentions were very obvious.

It was obvious that he wanted to see for himself if little cabbage had the value that would allow him to completely overturn the current stable situation! ! !

If it did, Seer believed that the other party would definitely bring out the boldness from back then. Even if he had to destroy his own faction, he would still help little cabbage ascend to the throne. But what if he felt that it did not?

If he felt that little cabbages did not have such value, then the existence of little cabbages would instead become an unstable factor. Then, in order to maintain the current stable situation, what would he do?

Seer never thought that the big boss who could reach this stage would look as kind and elegant as he did... ..

So, he had to make a promise today! !

"Do you know?" Calamity looked at the unique beautiful sky of Teldrassil, he transmitted his voice faintly, "Although Iluweta is ranked fifth, no one has ever thought that he is really below the top four lords. After all, he is the first outsider to become a sky god. Cang Yue may be able to defeat Black Jue, but she may not be able to defeat him!"

"HMM... I've seen it in the history of Sky Gods..." seer nodded.

Back then, when the Elven dynasty collapsed, all the races in the universe were caught in a fierce battle. Then, there was the invasion of the void, and the head of the Sky Gods Academy appeared out of nowhere. and at that time, the reason why his sky gods system was promoted.., was because everyone saw a successful example!

That was the use of the mighty power of the sky gods to fight back the void and successfully seal the void rift at that time, Iluweta. Although he rarely made a move after that, no one had ever thought that this first outer race sky god who had not appeared for a long time would be... A weakling... ..

Furthermore, he was able to take on the responsibility of sealing all the entrances to the outer realm. This meant that the heavenly god Academy trusted Iluweta very much. Not only did they trust his personality, but they also trusted his strength!

"Then, you're so calm because the person behind your mask will definitely make a move once it falls apart, right?" Jie asked curiously.

"That... it's really not certain..." Xi ye revealed a guilty smile under the mask.

Cang Yue valued him because of his beauty. Xi Ye did not know how much strength his beauty could exert, especially against existences of the same level. Xi Ye did not have any confidence at all.

And most importantly... In terms of beauty, Iluweta seemed to... .. Not much worse than him... ..

"So you're just bluffing?" Jie stared at him blankly for a moment. She even felt that she was a very daring person. After all, when she ran into the Void Rift, she had directly skinned her own people.

But did not expect this more dare skin, I was still on their own strength and self-confidence, this little guy... . What are you gonna do when you can't get laid?

"Sort of..."seer also looked up at the sky. "Fortunately, it turned out to be..."

Mugging:"..."

"Here it is!"

On the other side, Iluweta just came out from the seal to see the tooth spirit of the murderous spirit, suddenly helpless wry smile.

The tooth spirit gritted her teeth and looked at the other party. "Where are they?"

"They ran away because they were afraid of running into you..."Iluweta said very honestly.

If he wasn't honest at this moment, with his many years of understanding of this fellow's temperament, he would most likely fall out with him!

"Afraid of Me?"The Tooth Spirit's excitement instantly dropped, and his aura instantly dissipated by a lot. "In other words, the other party hasn't completely recovered?"

Tooth Spirit's tone clearly carried a hint of disappointment, but thinking about it, it made sense. The pure fairy race consumed a lot of energy in the material universe, and almost every day, they would be nourished by the moon spring water. and among the many fairies, jade sword immortal consumed the most, if they wanted to make that fellow fully recover, it was likely that they wouldn't be able to do it even if they took out all the spring water in the fairy race's stock.

She should have thought that that guy was out to scare people... ..

But she still couldn't help but be impulsive. After all... .. She had wanted to fight that guy for a long time!

"Her spirit and energy looked really good at that time..."the tooth spirit sat to the side unwillingly. "I thought that she had some kind of fortuitous encounter, and she really recovered completely..."

"That may not be certain..."iluweta narrowed her eyes and said.

That fellow had indeed not fully recovered, but he was definitely not in a state of exhaustion. Although he was weak, as a flower spirit, he could feel the vigorous vitality in the other party's body!

"Oh right, is that fellow wearing the mask really the heavenly God overlord of a Cabbage?"The tooth spirit asked curiously.

"From the feeling of the contract... it should be..."

"Tsk..."the tooth spirit clicked his tongue. "Then did you see through his background?"

"No..."iluweta shook her head honestly.

"You can't even see through it?"The tooth spirit was instantly stunned!

“That mask... it really has something...”Iluweta narrowed her eyes and said, “It should be a divine artifact!”

“Hiss...”the tooth spirit’s originally disappointed and bored expression suddenly froze, and then it couldn’t help but take a deep breath... ..

Chapter 1492: the result of testing each other out (part two)

Divine artifacts were titles that could only be obtained when artifacts reached their limits. Even the most top-notch treasure masters in the Secret Treasure Master Association did not exist that could produce divine artifacts!

In history, divine artifacts were well-known. For example, the Frostmourne that could freeze the death realm passage in Arthas’hand, the eye of Sargeras that was made from the original form of the Sky Demon in the first demon God’s hand in the abyss., the unparalleled first liege that almost wiped out the entire dragon race, and the illusionary moon that could travel through the entire space of the universe in his Liege’s hand!

These things were all world-shaking existences. Sometimes, they could even change the situation of the universe. For such a thing to appear in the body of a small deity with low life, it was really... .. It doesn’t make any sense!

“Are you... Sure?”The tooth spirit’s eyes widened.

“No... <per_0> . Pretty sure... <per_0> . “Llewita shook her head. “But if it’s just an alchemical or holy artifact, it shouldn’t be able to block my spiritual power. Moreover, not only can it block my spiritual power, it can even help him block the aura of the outlands at the seal!”

“Is that so...”the tooth spirit rubbed his chin, he was curious. Even a Tianyuan expert would find it difficult to block the aura of the seal. No matter how mysterious a level 10 little lord’s background was, it shouldn’t be able to withstand it, if it was as his lordship said and he could still talk to him normally, it should be because he had borrowed external power. It was indeed possible for a divine weapon to do so...

“Then what did he say to you?”The tooth spirit asked curiously.

“He asked me to guarantee the safety of little cabbage, or else he would take her away...”Iluweta said honestly.

“You really dare to say that...”the tooth spirit slightly bared his teeth. “Then what did you say?”

“I was scared...”

The Tooth Spirit:” ...”

“You F * * king... . That’s it?”Tooth spirit shocked: “An artifact to scare you so much?”

"That woman is terrible... <per_0> . "LLEWITA shrugged. "Actually, I couldn't help but want to take off that Little Guy's mask many times just now to have a look, but the aura under that little guy's mask became sharp after sensing my thoughts, and it was extremely threatening. I felt that if I really dared to take off the mask, that woman would really jump out and draw her sword to slash me... "... "..."

The tooth spirit looked at the other party for a long time. After realizing that the other party was not joking, he said with some difficulty, "Then why did you still want to remove his mask when you felt it?"

"About that..."Llewita looked at the sky. "I heard that... that woman sealed him because she liked his beauty..."

Tooth spirit: "So?"

"I'm just curious how beautiful he is..."

Tooth Spirit:"..."

"The next time you get constipated under your skin, I'll make you wish you were dead!"

"Ahem... I'm just kidding..."Llewita quickly coughed and said, "The reason is that I feel that the situation is a little different..."

"What do you mean?"The tooth spirit looked at the other party with a warning look. If this guy continued to talk nonsense, she swore that she would take off her shoes and slap his face!

"That little guy is not alone..."Llewita narrowed her eyes and said, "She has a very mysterious force behind her. Maybe she has the power to complete that thing..."

"That thing?"The tooth spirit frowned. "Your real goal is this. In the end, you still won't Give Up!"

Hearing that, Llewita looked up at the sky. Her eyes were full of vicissitudes of time, but there was a hint of expectation in the vicissitudes of time. Her tone became gloomy along with this hint of expectation.

"How could you... Give Up?"

"Is what you said true?"

Outside the primeval forest, in an extremely remote and open area, a slender figure covered in a cloak was using a pitch-black crystal as if communicating with someone.

This figure was the Night Demon Nanye family's Fandi Nanye!

At this moment, he was using his family's top spatial alchemy sacred artifact to report on the situation today.

After walking out of the primeval forest and confirming that there were no signs of a domain around him, he opened this absolutely sealed spatial passageway.

On the other side of the spatial passageway was a night demon who looked almost identical to him. However, the lines on his face were softer and the growth rings in his eyes were much thicker than Fandi's!

It was the third elder of the Na Ye Clan: Mo Xiu na Ye!

At this moment, Fan Di's haughty expression had completely disappeared, and what was left was respect and solemnity. After hearing the other party's question, he bowed in fear and said, "Your grandson would never dare to make such a joke..."

The other party nodded slightly upon hearing this. Although what his own child said was a little ridiculous, it was just as the other party had said, he would never make such a joke.

But How was this possible?

Aldia, a small clan that did not even have a dragon-rank, actually had a junior sky god that could be related to Iluweta?

"The probability of bluffing is high..." Mo Xiu rubbed his chin and hesitated for a few seconds before making a decision.

"Even if it's bluffing, it's still very scary..." fan di said with a bitter smile, "Even if it's bluffing, it still requires capital, especially that Lord's Tiger Skin. How can it be so easy to Bluff?"

"That's true..." Mo Xiu nodded. "You're really thoughtful. Even if the other party did use some method to pull that Lord's banner, it might be possible to pull it off. I'm afraid that it's still a considerable amount of energy..."

"Then what about Ye Na's side?" Fan di asked carefully.

"We can't give up easily..." Mo Xiu shook his head and said.

Fan di immediately smiled bitterly when he heard that.

He had a high probability of knowing that this would be the answer, but he still felt a little helpless when he heard it from his grandfather. To be honest, he was most afraid of encountering that kind of illogical strangeness when doing things, because in this kind of strangeness, sometimes the cause and effect could be big or small. Perhaps nothing would happen, but it might also be a price that he could not bear!

However, he also knew that it was impossible to make the higher-ups easily give up on the mission.

Back then, the humiliation that Kyle of the Muzir clan had left behind in the Serene Night Academy had affected almost a generation of people. Now that the Helan clan had finally produced a genius that was not inferior to Kyle at all, the higher-ups would naturally want to get back at him.

However, it just so happened that the Muzir clan was like a natural nemesis of their night demons. An illegitimate child that had appeared out of nowhere was actually able to contend against the top-notch genius of the Helan clan that had not appeared once in a trillion eras!

What if they didn't manage to get their revenge and instead fell into the hands of the younger generation of the Muzir clan? That would be a huge joke! !

This was a matter of national pride, so they naturally couldn't easily retreat.

However, it just so happened that the heavens seemed to be toying with them. It wasn't easy for them to find a point that they could use, but now, such a strange variable had appeared, causing them to feel a little depressed.

"We can't let ye Na Go!" Mo Xiu lowered his voice and said, "Originally, that girl from the Helan family was alone. If we cut off this line, the Helan family wouldn't be able to help her at all. Tomorrow at the priest ceremony, you can test her again!"

Hearing this, fan di took a deep breath and bowed respectfully, "Yes!"

Chapter 1493: the extravagant opening ceremony (part one)

The priestly ceremony was held on the second day as scheduled...

As usual, the Royal Priestly Hall, the Royal Secret Court, the Secret Institute of Magical Beasts, the Secret Institute of Magical Plants, the Secret Institute of Arcana, the Nine Royal Families, and the sixty-nine Duke families all sent their most representative figures!

The royal chief priest was in charge of the entire priestly ceremony, the Secret Institute of Arcana was in charge of the arcane magic array, and the royal chief commander, Kyle. Muzir personally led the God's Guard Legion to take charge of the security of the entire priestly assembly.

The grand ceremony was so grand that the Outsiders who came for the first time were shocked by the heavy atmosphere.

Especially for a small family like Ardia, everything in front of them was indescribably grand. The arcane array of the entire starry university was fully activated, and complex and mysterious runes were flashing everywhere, the energy created by the spell woke up countless top-tier elemental elves, who floated in the air and wiggled happily.

It was rare to see such top-tier elemental elves even on the Glorious Amethyst Star. It would take at least hundreds of thousands of years to nurture a dragon-level flower spirit to produce one or two of them. They would be treated as treasures in the noble families, including the old dragon count, he had only seen them occasionally in the homes of a few officers. It was the first time he had ever seen such a magnificent sight.

As the runes were activated, the elemental spirits became active. The elemental values in the entire area reached an extremely high point, but they did not form an unbearable concentration. Instead, they were absorbed efficiently by the rune array in the sky, then, after the first bell rang, countless flower spirits floated in the air. A jade-colored drizzle began to drift out from the huge elemental rune array!

The drizzle that was as fine as jade silk fell on everyone's bodies, making them feel an indescribable sense of comfort.

"This is..."

The slightly cool drizzle fell on their bodies, but it did not wet their clothes like normal raindrops. Instead, it ignored the clothes on their bodies that carried traces of coolness that seeped into their skin and deep into their bones!

In an instant, everyone felt that their entire bodies were in an extremely comfortable state. The muscles in their bodies were relaxed like never before, and they felt as if they were floating in the air...

The rain of Tranquility! !

Gunsh could not help but cry out!

The juniors who were immersed in this comfortable feeling were startled by gunsh's voice. They looked at each other in a daze. Clearly, half of their minds were still immersed in that indescribable comfortable feeling.

A few elders, including Long Jue and the zhuxing couple, were also shocked by this exaggerated scene.

As high-level warriors who had lived in the universe for many years, they were well aware of how precious the rain of Tranquility was. Whether it was cultivation or fighting against enemies, the degree of physical damage suffered by the warrior class was almost the highest among all classes, they often needed to spend a large amount of money on body maintenance. Medicinal Baths, internal tonics, top-notch massage and physiotherapy were the major expenses of high-level warriors.

Among the most expensive maintenance services, the rain of tranquility was well-known!

As a secret technique exclusive to high-level flower spirits, dragon-level warriors were often reluctant to enjoy the internal nurturing technique. In the entire Eldia family, only gunsh and zhuxing had enjoyed it once.

That was when the dragon Baron and gunsh were at a critical age. In order to build a solid foundation, the old man sent the two children to a famous hell training trial class.

That time, gunshi had given up halfway and returned with serious injuries. Zhuxing had persevered until the end and successfully broke through to level 14 at his prime age. He had once again strengthened his qi and blood to pass through the period of Qi and blood decline that the warrior department feared the most.

It was also at that time that Long Jue had decided that his second son would be the next head of the family!

At that time, in order to help the two children recover, Long Jue had endured the pain and paid a large sum of money to hire a dragon-level flower spirit to perform the rain of Tranquility for the children.

He had never enjoyed such luxurious maintenance in his entire life. He did not expect to be able to enjoy such a level of maintenance when he was about to be buried in a coffin.

Long Jue looked at the sky and could not help but open his hands. He closed his eyes and enjoyed the rare luxury.

The slightly cool feeling seeped into his bone marrow. The internal injuries that he had suffered for many years were fully nourished by this coolness. It was so comfortable that he almost could not help but moan.

Gunsh could not help but imitate the old man. He opened his hands and tried his best to let every part of his body be touched by this magnificent gift!

It was indeed peaceful. In this lifetime, he would never forget this indescribable sense of comfort and satisfaction. After that incident back then, he could not enjoy it a second time!

And this time, this level was clearly even higher than back then!

As for those juniors who had enjoyed this thing for the first time in their lives, they were even more obsessed with it. Although their bodies were still in the prime of their lives, and their internal injuries didn't have much effect on their daily lives, it wasn't that they weren't., it was just that they didn't feel as intense as the old warriors.

And now that they had been nourished by this top-tier method, the sense of satisfaction could be imagined. In an instant, they all had the expression of entering heaven. Almost everyone was thinking that it would be great if they could stay in this moment forever!

Of course, not everyone in the Ardia clan was like this. At the very least, Seer was not like this. In the dense rain of tranquility, Seer quietly stood there, quietly watching the expressions of his elders and juniors enjoying themselves in the rain, he did not say anything to disturb them, nor did he sink into them.

Under the mask, the pair of supreme purple eyes that were unique to sky gods seemed as if they would never be able to stir up any waves.

Not far away, Fan Di was secretly observing everything. As a direct descendant of one of the top night demon clans, he had naturally witnessed this grand scene before him. Although the opening ceremony of the Serene Night Academy was not as extravagant as that of the space elves., it was not too bad either. Naturally, he would not lose his composure like the people around him.

It was not just him. Those who came out of the primeval forest were all of the noble rank. Although they also had a look of enjoyment on their faces, they would definitely not lose their composure like this small clan in front of them.

From the looks of it, from the head of the Eldia family, the Dragon Baron, to the juniors, they should be almost the same as the intelligence reports. Their behavior was very compatible with their own identities.

Only that little deity...

Looking at Seer's incomparably calm twin tube, Fan Di's heart sank slightly.

There were some things that could not be faked. The comfort brought by the rain of tranquility was not only the physical body but also the top-notch enjoyment of the spirit. Even he himself could not do it without any ripples. However, this little fellow., it was as if he had been bathing in tranquility every day. He seemed to have become numb to all of this.

In reality, Seer was indeed numb to all of this. Previously, in order to train little cabbage's flower spirit secret technique, Ysera had repeatedly allowed little cabbage to use the wood elf's original tranquility technique.

Since he had already used it, he naturally could not waste it. Seer, rain girl, and the other players were often responsible for the experiencers... ..

Although the cabbages were not at the right level and the level of the rain of tranquility was not high, the effect of the imperial bloodline was extremely pure. The healing effect might not be as good as the high-level flower spirit's tranquility, but from the feeling., the massive scale of tranquility in front of seer was much worse than the cabbages' pure rain of wood elves.

After soaking in the tranquility for several months, seer really did not feel anything at all... ..

But speaking of cabbages, seer suddenly thought of something... ..

Cabbages had the bloodline of an emperor, and they had a fatal attraction to elemental spirits. The situation before her... ..

The top-tier elemental spirits in the Seer King's sky were suddenly a little worried... ..

Was She... Alright?

Chapter 1494: The Allure of the Imperial bloodline!

While the people of the Eldia family were immersed in the shock of this grand ceremony, as the morning and night that brought this honor to the family, they were not able to enjoy the benefits of being the first to attend the ceremony, at this moment, he was trembling with fear as he followed the etiquette teacher to practice the school etiquette countless times.

The star Elves had always valued etiquette. Such a grand external etiquette naturally did not allow for any loss of etiquette. Therefore, the new students had to practice the simple school etiquette strictly. At the very least, they could not drag the students down too much.

The school etiquette was actually not complicated. It was not too difficult for ordinary people. However, morning night was different. His tall frame and the gentle and beautiful etiquette of the Elves were extremely incompatible. No matter how hard he tried, it would appear a little strange and comical.

Chen Ye happened to be a member of the Star class of the School of Warcraft. According to his status, he would appear in a very conspicuous position. Not only was his position conspicuous, but he also had the right to receive the personal one-on-one blessing of the royal priestess, there were a few minutes where he went on stage alone.

This caused him to be especially conspicuous if his etiquette was not in place!

This forced the etiquette instructor to specially design a more masculine school ceremony according to his special physical condition.

This was not a difficult task for high-end etiquette instructors. With their professional abilities, they could make up a very good etiquette posture on the spot, but Chen Ye did not have much talent in this aspect.

As a warrior, Chen Ye appeared very thin and weak. He could not make the masculine knight or warrior ceremony into a pleasing sight. As a mage, he also lacked that kind of noble air. The few etiquette designs that were arranged seemed to be rudimentary... ..

It gave the etiquette instructor a huge headache. In the end, he spent almost half a night's effort and hired the best makeup artist to draw a more comprehensive image for morning and night. It could not only reflect the masculine beauty of a tall skeleton, but it could also bring out the bearing of an elven noble.

Unfortunately... .. The moment he moved, he would be exposed. He taught him hand-in-hand for an entire night before he was barely able to read it. However, the two etiquette instructors were exhausted... ..

Why did they say two?

Because there was another one who was exhausting them...

That legendary illegitimate daughter of the Muzir family... At this moment, she was like a fat cat that had given up on itself. She was curled up on the sofa, unwilling to move no matter what they said. She was completely lying flat like the two of them were doing whatever they wanted. ...

Teacher Feir swore that he had never encountered such a difficult situation before!

Compared to Chen Ye, who was not in a good condition but was willing to work hard to overcome it, this little fellow in front of him clearly had excellent talent and conditions, but he was like a stinky salted fish that would not turn over no matter what.

It was not nonsense to say that the other party had good etiquette. From the moment he and the other etiquette teacher, Faye, saw this little fellow, they were very sure that this little fellow had an invisible temperament that many nobles dreamed of!

It was a kind of nobility that was hidden in the bones. The temperament in his every move was comparable to that of a pure-blooded royal family member. It was rumored that this illegitimate daughter of the Muzir family had an astonishing purity of wood elf bloodline, now, it seemed that the rumors were not false at all.

That kind of noble temperament in the bones was definitely not something that could be produced by relying on drugs or other things. It was a nobility that came from the genes!

However, the opposite of excellent talent was this salted fish's extreme personality. If he didn't eat the carrot and stick, he would just lie flat on his back. His attitude made the two of them feel that this task was more difficult than teaching a royal son a lesson.

"Miss Bai Cai..." Phil rubbed his head and tried his best to use a gentle tone to discuss, "Can we rehearse one last time?"

“No!” Bai Cai rolled over, he didn’t buy it at all. “You’ve said this a few times already. I Won’t do it a fourth time... uh, no, it’s the fifth time. I swear, if you trick me off the sofa again, I’ll be called Xiao Hei Cai from now on! !”

Everyone:” ...”

“Teacher...” Chen Ye, who had recovered from the shock, said carefully, “Actually, she’s already done very well. She should be able to handle the ceremony, right?”

He wasn’t being biased towards little cabbage, but he was speaking the truth. When the other party had taught little cabbage the etiquette of starting a fight, little cabbage had learned it in one go. She was many times better than the crooked Chen Ye at that time.

Moreover, little cabbage’s posture was extremely good. She didn’t feel inferior to any aristocrat that he had seen before. She even felt that she looked more like an aristocrat when she raised her hands. But why were the teachers dissatisfied over and over again?

“What do you know?” The instructor glared at the other party impatiently.

Of course, he knew that the little cabbage was already very good, but it was precisely because of this that the requirements were even higher. The two instructors knew that even if the other party practiced for another year, she would only be at a passing level, it was already extremely rare for her to be able to do so without being a hindrance.

But this little girl from the MUZIR family was different. They only needed to teach her once to know that she could reach the level of a direct descendant of the Royal Family!

It might even be even better!

This was just like an exam. If one’s aptitude was dull and could pass the test, the teacher would not ask too much. In fact, they would even feel a little gratified. After all, diligence could make up for one’s clumsiness... ..

But those who were born with 100 marks, even if they considered 99.9, would still be unforgivable!

Those who learned etiquette would more or less suffer from obsessive-compulsive disorder. This kind of unpolished jade, if not carved to perfection, how could they bear to let her appear in such a hurry?

So, just like that, over and over again, they patiently made little cabbage repeat every detail. How could little cabbage be subjected to this kind of torture? She immediately activated salted fish to lie down, refusing to comply no matter what!

Judging from his determined look, he probably could not be fooled anymore... ..

Feier frowned. However, he was clearly just one step away from perfection. If he could practice it twice more, his performance on the priest’s platform would be even better. It would not even lose out to those direct descendants of the royal family...

At the thought of this, he was about to try to persuade them when a heavy bell suddenly rang from outside, breaking the deadlock in the room.

“The bell is ringing...”teacher Foy looked outside and muttered.

“Why is it so fast?”Feier frowned. Time passed faster than he had imagined. According to the rules, he should have brought the two little fellows into the room with makeup, but... He was indeed just a little bit away. ...

How is it fast?

Little cabbage turned over and looked at the other party with dissatisfaction. Under the dueling of these two fellows, it was obvious that every second was like a year, okay?

“Eh? This Is?”Bai Cai suddenly felt a chill run down his spine. He looked up and realized that it had been drizzling in the house for some time...

“It’s leaking?”Bai Cai stared blankly at the sky. “I told you that the quality of your house isn’t that good...”

Feier rolled his eyes. “What quality isn’t Good? This is the rain of Tranquility!”

“Tranquility?”The morning and night who felt comfortable from the sudden raindrops widened their eyes. No wonder they felt more comfortable than the best physical massage. They thought it was an illusion, but it turned out to be the rain of Tranquility?

“Tranquility?”Little cabbage frowned and forgot about the sky. “How Can Tranquility Be Like This?”

“What do you think tranquility should be like?”Phil glared at the lazy girl. “This is the tranquility that the royal flower spirit of the secret court used the academy’s top-level arcane magic array to cast. It’s different from the low-level tranquility that you usually see!”

“Ugh... Like This?”Little cabbage said in a daze.

But why did she feel that... ? ... It was obviously lower?

“Phil! !”

Suddenly, teacher Foy’s expression changed as she walked to the windowsill. “Come over and take a look! !”

Phil looked at her in shock. As a etiquette teacher, the most important thing was one’s emotions. One had to remain calm in all sorts of situations. Foy was an excellent etiquette teacher, and it was rare to see her lose her composure like this.

With doubt, fair walked quickly to the window and looked out through the barrier glass. He was instantly stunned on the spot.

“How... How did this happen?”

He saw countless top-tier elemental great elves floating outside, almost covering the entire sky!

Chapter 1495: Accidents (Part One) !

“This... how could this be?”

Feier looked outside in astonishment. The great elves that filled the sky were like a layer of clouds, pressing down on the surroundings until it was pitch black. He wondered why the light was so weak even when the bell was ringing. It turned out that it was blocked by the group of people outside...

But what were these people doing here?

It was not FEL's first time participating in the grand opening ceremony. He swore that it was definitely his first time seeing so many great elves gathered together!

The Starry Sky Academy stood beside the primeval forest. The soil that nurtured the ancient world tree made the quality of the elements in this area extremely high. Over the long years, there were naturally many top-tier elemental elves.

However, under most circumstances, these top-tier elemental elves would fall into a state of slumber. Only when the large-scale rain of Tranquility Fell during the opening ceremony would these great elemental elves hidden in the depths awaken and move about.

Therefore, the large-scale tranquility was not just for show. It was also to wake up these great elves and create a more prosperous scene!

And under the influence of the rain of tranquility, the great elves scattered across the four parts of the campus would follow the guidance and slowly be guided to the location of the opening ceremony's main venue. Together with the runic array, they would form the most spectacular elemental scene, this was also the characteristic of every ceremony.

However, the main venue was obviously not here. After these guys were awakened, they didn't drift toward the royal flower spirit team. What were they doing here?

Could it be that the royal flower spirit team was passing by?

It shouldn't be...

According to the Order of etiquette, the flower spirit team should arrange the necessary things at the venue of the ceremony in the evening... ..

"Phil..." Faye looked at the sky with a serious expression and said, "I'm afraid there will be trouble!"

Phil nodded with a serious expression.

The Royal Flower Spirit team had used such a large-scale rain of tranquility to attract these great elves to the ceremony venue. Now that so many of them had come here, the number of the four-star formation would be severely insufficient!

We must inform the high priests that they are!

At the same time, the ceremony has been in the divine guard under the auspices of the orderly beginning to attract people into the arena, as in previous years, order under the Order of everything seems only orderly.

After the priests prayed, the mountain giants rang the ancient morning bell, and the star array was officially activated by the royal priesthood when the first rays of sunlight shone in. Under the influence of the star array, starlight with high-quality elements filled the sky with the array, waking up the sleeping land!

The Royal Arcanists team followed closely behind, activating the arcane array to convert the gathered elements into the purest elemental energy.

Then, the flower spirit team used this energy to cast a large-scale rain of tranquility!

As the grand rain of tranquility covered the sky of the entire Starry Sky Academy, the top-tier starry sky nobles began to enter the venue one after another... ..

The big families of the priests: the Windwhisper family, the Stormwind family, the starry whisperer family, and the Chensi family, were the first to enter the venue.

Then came the flower spirit family, the Knight family, and so on, followed by the arcanists, the magical beasts, and other big families.

This year was the year of the crown prince, and the significance of the ceremony was even greater than before. Except for a few warrior families who held important positions in the military and could not return, most of the nobles who came to watch the ceremony were the family head and the elders themselves!

Of course, there were also the important direct descendants that the various families had groomed this generation... ..

And at this time, the most eye-catching people were naturally the children of the royal families who represented the interests of the various royal families!

This generation of royal children was called the most resplendent generation by the priests and elders. Several of the princes and princesses had qualities that were not inferior to that of the previous elven emperor!

For example, the first prince, Elibor, who was born with the heart of Canaan, had a clear and exquisite heart of Canaan, causing Elibor to directly transform into a bone like a perfect priest the moment he was born!

His pure and transparent heart allowed him to communicate with the spirits of heaven and earth as naturally as if he was eating and drinking. In the past elven imperial bells, there were only four people who had the heart of Canaan, and each of them had made a huge breakthrough in the inheritance of the priestesses of the space elves during their reign. They had passed down top-tier secret techniques and made a huge contribution to the foundation of the Space Race.

Of course, there was naturally more than one person who had top-tier talent.

The third princess, Xie Yue, had an extremely rare star moon eye. She could easily see through the complex patterns of runes from a young age. She could even see into the future in a short period of time... ..

Talent determined talent. In history, no elven Emperor had a star Moon Eye. However, in the history of the Star Elves, there was a top-tier star priest who had this talent.

That was the grandmother of Venos, who was currently in power in the Windwhisper family. At that time, she was the number one priestess of the Star Elves: Egwen!

That priestess was known as the most powerful priestess in the history of the starry skies. Her sudden appearance had allowed the windwhisper family to surpass the first priestess family: The Stormwind family. She was the Chief High Priestess under Iluvita!

During the Battle of death and the Void Gate, she was ranked within the federation's Heroic Tower and was worshipped by millions of people in the universe!

Up until now, the legacy she left behind for the Windwhisper family still allowed the windwhisper family to sit firmly on the throne of the first priestess family.

And the third princess, who had the same pair of starry moon eyes as Egwen, received the support of a large number of families within a few days of her birth!

Until the fourth Princess Tyrande appeared out of nowhere, she had the voice of being extremely high in the ranks of the crown prince!

Of course, speaking of the princes and princesses, one had to mention the person who was now firmly sitting on the throne: Tyrande!

The body of Starlight, the eye of the Stars and Moon, the heart of Canaan, and the heavenly blessing of the spirit of the stars and Moon. When all the top-notch talents were combined into one, this person would naturally receive the greatest recognition!

No matter how well Ilpol and the months of demons did previously, all the suspense had been settled on the first day of Tyrande's birth!

That day was the brightest day in Tydhill. The Elven emperor, who was already extremely weak, personally came to the windwhisper family. When he saw his most outstanding child, he was so happy that he cried!

The previous elven emperor believed that this child, who was born with the blessing of a god, would definitely have the aptitude to meet Lord Iluvita's expectations. He would definitely become the true emperor of the space elves!

At this moment, the princes and princesses entered the arena according to the order of age. The last one to enter was the last child of the previous Elven Emperor: The Ninth Prince, Boris!

Boris was also a descendant with excellent aptitude. He was born with the starry bone that shone with dazzling starlight. There was once an emperor who was born with an indestructible star body in the elven emperor, he once single-handedly fought against the three Great Terror Demon Kings of the calamity and perished together!

He was known as the bravest emperor of all generations!

Boris was born to the Hui Yang family, the number one knight in the starry skies. Regardless of whether it was his family's backing or his own talent, he had the ability to compete for the position of crown prince. Unfortunately... He was born a little late. With the Tyrande Pearl and Jade in front of him, when Boris was born, the elven emperor was unable to participate in his 100-day baptism because he was not feeling well... ..

He became the most worthless astral body prince in history...

At that time, he was even treated as a joke by many outsiders, and it also cultivated Polly's gloomy character since he was young... ..

After the nobles appeared, the doors of the four halls should have been opened to welcome the parents of all the students into the hall to watch the ceremony...

But at this time, the smooth rhythm suddenly stopped, causing the nobles present to frown...

Because the priests had sent someone to inform the ceremony... .. ! To be delayed!

Chapter 1496: Accidents (Part Two)

It was extremely rare for the ceremony to be delayed!

The star Elves were a priestly-based civilization, and they had an extraordinary obsession with certain auspicious times. Many times, in order to perfect the timing of the ceremony, they would rehearse countless times before the ceremony, they would strive to ensure that every point in the entire process corresponded to a good time!

Although they were a little picky, this had always been the style of the astral elves.

If there was a delay, it could only mean that there was an accident that had to delay the ceremony.

But at this time, what kind of accident could cause the priestess to take the initiative to notify the delayed ceremony?

The chief commander in charge of the safety of the entire venue, Kyle. After receiving the notice, Muzir looked at the other party with a grave expression and could not help but ask about the reason.

As the person in charge of the Order of the entire venue, he naturally had the right to ask about such an accident.

After all, this was not a small matter.

According to Kyle's understanding of the behavior of those priests, even if there were some accidents, they would choose to hide it and not delay the ceremony. Since they chose to delay it, it meant that they could not avoid the reason for the delay... ..

"Please, Ambassador..." Kyle asked the high priest in a low voice. "What is the reason for the delay? What do you need me to do?"

The messenger was one of the six high priests in charge of the ceremony. He was the chief priest of the star Speaker family, Magwyn. Star speaker!

Magwyn hesitated for a moment in the face of Kyle's question. This incident was too strange, but it hadn't reached the point of making a big fuss yet. It seemed too loud for Kyle to go there with his people... ..

"I also want to know what happened..."

A faint voice sounded. It was as soft and hazy as the moonlight. Kyle and Mag Wen frowned and turned around. They saw an elegant elven woman in a silver priest robe.

"Your Highness!"

Kyle and Mag Wen turned around and bowed, but they didn't look well.

"Your Highness!" After bowing, Mag Gwen spoke first. "It's not appropriate for you to come out at this time!"

The royal children were the focus of everyone's attention at this grand ceremony. As the Crown Prince appointed by the previous elven emperor, the fourth Princess Tyrande received the most attention!

At this time, the grand ceremony was delayed, and the priests all wanted to keep a low profile. Once Tyrande came out, it was impossible to keep a low profile... ..

"Your Highness, if there's nothing else, you should return to the main hall first..." Kyle also said coldly.

As the chief commander of the Royal Family, Kyle was highly regarded by the previous elven emperor. He took up the position of chief commander at a young age, but he was not very interested in the crown prince appointed by the Elven emperor.

The specific reason was not clear, but he was not very happy...

Tyrande, who was like the incarnation of the moon god, was not dissatisfied with Kyle's cold tone. He smiled calmly, he returned the bow gracefully and said faintly, "It is impossible to hide the fact that the ceremony is delayed. This ceremony is very important to me. I think I should have the right to know the reason for the delay!"

When he said this, both Kyle and Mag Wen frowned, but they did not refute him for a moment.

There was nothing unreasonable in his words... ..

The ceremony of the Crown Prince's year was more grand than usual. It was both a grand ceremony of the academy and a coming-of-age ceremony for the crown prince!

The delay of the ceremony was regarded as bad luck in the ceremony of priests. It was indeed very important to the master!

Magwen looked at him. He was hesitating whether he should tell him the truth, when a vague but familiar voice suddenly sounded. "The reason for the delay is that an accident happened to the elemental array..."

The three quickly looked toward the voice. Under the faint starlight, a graceful white figure slowly walked out. Tyrande saw the person and quickly went forward to greet him. "Lord Venos!"

The person was the first elder of the wind family, the Chief High Priest of the royal family, and the chief consul of the forces of Illuweta: Venos. Wind!

"Your Highness, the fourth Princess!" Venos bowed humbly in return. He didn't treat Tyrande as a junior at all.

Kyle pursed his lips slightly when he saw this.

Venos had praised Tyrande on many occasions. With his status in Illuweta, even the elven emperor himself respected him greatly. There was no need for him to treat a crown prince with such respect. But in fact, Venos had always respected Tyrande in front of outsiders. He treated Tyrande as an elven emperor... ..

This could be said to be a salute, but it could also be said that she was taking sides. After all, for someone of her status to make her stance so obvious, it would also make many people from other factions take sides... ..

In Kyle's opinion, someone of her status should not have been involved in the dispute over the crown prince.

"The situation this time is rather special. We didn't mean to hide it from your highness..." Venos still spoke respectfully, "The reason for delaying the grand ceremony is that the elemental array can not be activated normally, so it has to be delayed!"

Tyrande was immediately moved when he heard this, and his tone became solemn. "But there's a problem with the array itself?"

If this was really the case, it would be troublesome. The ceremony would probably be delayed indefinitely, but today was her coming of age ceremony. After today..! ... this meaning was no longer there!

In history, there had never been a situation where the coming of age ceremony of the crown prince had been postponed...

"Your Highness, there's no need to be anxious..." Venos said in a gentle voice, "There's nothing wrong with the formation itself. The reason why it can't be activated normally is that there's a serious shortage of great elves who provide pure elemental energy..."

"A shortage?" Kyle was stunned for a moment. He looked at the tranquil scale in the sky and immediately asked in puzzlement, "This scale... how can it be?"

He knew that in order to create momentum for Tyrande, the Wind Whisper family had invited many hidden flower spirits to make a move in order to create the most magnificent scene today.

Logically speaking, there should only be more elemental spirits at this scale of tranquility than usual. How could there be a serious shortage?

Tyrande was also a little surprised by this answer. For this ceremony, the family had secretly paid a lot of resources and favors. The one who presided over the tranquility ceremony was the Chief Elemental Master of the three dynasties: Lady Tianhui.

And judging from the performance at the scene, the other party was worthy of her name. The scale of the rain of tranquility was absolutely unprecedented!

Could it be that an accident had happened to the sleeping elemental elves themselves?

Kyle immediately became serious. This was probably a big deal!

"It's not as bad as you think!" Venos seemed to have seen through Kyle's thoughts, he glanced at Kyle indifferently and said, "The number of elemental elves awakened is absolutely unprecedented. The reason why there are so few of them is because a large portion of the elemental elves are attracted by something else!"

Kyle immediately heaved a sigh of relief. If that was the case, the situation seemed to be under control, but he was also quite curious, what was more attractive to the elemental elves than the serenity displayed by these top-tier flower spirits?

"Sir?" Tyrande was also a little curious. "May I ask what attracted those elemental elves..."

"I don't know yet..." Venos looked to the east, and a hint of coldness appeared in the depths of his calm eyes. He said faintly, "Perhaps... it's something that shouldn't exist!"

'HMM?'

Kyle followed the other party's gaze and looked over. When he saw the direction clearly, his heart skipped a beat!

That location... Was the Beastmaster Academy.

Chapter 1497: the Ninth Prince, Polly!

"Eh? It's rare to see a sacrificial ceremony delayed..."

The main seats of the sacrificial ceremony were scattered and divided very carefully. As the main character of today's sacrificial ceremony, Tyrande was arranged to be the main star of the huge star array.

This would be her first public sacrificial ceremony as a priest!

Although the other princes were of equal status, they were only here to participate in the ceremony. They did not arrange any special star positions. Instead, they all followed their mother's side.

The youngest ninth Prince stood at the exclusive seat of the Huiyang family and curiously looked at the altar. His childish face was filled with the excitement of a child...

"I saw fourth sister go out just now. Why don't we go out and take a look too?" The child suggested.

The person who suggested was an elven knight in Golden Armor!

The Knight was fully armed and had a glass-colored flower printed on his shoulder. Those who were familiar with the star knights system would know that it was the symbol of the twelve divine guards of the imperial court. The five-colored glass was the rank of vice-captain, they were all held by powerful life sea-level powerhouses.

Facing the child-like expression of ninth Prince Polly, the Knight was unmoved, a cold and stiff voice came from the armor, "Father said that you are an adult and can decide to do anything on your own, but as an adult, you have to bear the responsibility of an adult regardless of whether it is good or bad!"

Hearing this, a bright and sunny smile spread across Polly's tender face, "What sister means is that I can't be like before, accidentally tearing my cousin apart and pushing the responsibility to myself?"

Under the Knight's heavy helmet, a pair of dark golden starry eyes stared straight at the other party, and the ice-cold Gaze became even colder!

"Sister's appearance... seems like she wants to tear me apart..." Polly's smile became even happier... ..

Looking at this little fellow who was smiling innocently, the female Knight's heart could not resonate at all. If she had not seen too many cruel things, she would not have been able to resist tearing this fellow apart.

Yes, the literal meaning was just like the other party a long time ago, tearing her own sister who was like a soft rice ball into countless pieces like tearing a piece of cloth... ..

"I think it's better for sister to follow me...". Polly tilted his head with a smile. "Although I held a coming-of-age ceremony, it was to go to school with my royal brothers and sisters. You See, Cheng Bu's coming-of-age is up to us. How can it really be a restriction?"

As he spoke, he stepped back with a smile. Suddenly, his entire body turned into a hazy mist and dissipated in front of the female Knight's eyes!

The female Knight's ice-cold pupils constricted slightly. Her hand suddenly grabbed forward at an unimaginable speed, and the surrounding space was distorted by her grasp into a ball!

However, she still did not catch anything. The hazy mist dispersed, and Polly's figure was long gone from his original position!

"Rosy Mist?" The female knight narrowed her eyes slightly, and her ice-cold face under the helmet became a little ugly. "This is troublesome!"

Among all the princes, the ninth Prince Polly was the most violent and cruel. Moreover, his methods were radical, and he never cared about the situation. In her eyes, he was a monster with a twisted mind.

She did not know why the elders still supported this cousin...

But no matter what, he was the one in charge of his safety today. If anything went wrong, he would be the one in charge later on!

As for what happened when he became an adult, he would take responsibility for it? Even if he said it himself, he wouldn't believe it. The Federation didn't have any minor protection laws, because many races in the universe were much more dangerous when they were young than when they were adults, to enforce the law protecting minors in the 10,000 races was the greatest injustice to the 10,000 races!

Polly was a living example. A descendant of an astonishingly talented high-level race had the lethality that many races did not have when they were young, the things he had done since he was young, according to the Federation's law, would be at least 10,000 times over!

But now, he was still living the most comfortable life of an aristocrat. In the end, what protected him was never the minor that his elders had shirked, but his identity!

Whoosh...

Like a wisp of green smoke, the female knight also disappeared on the spot. The terrifying explosive force did not stir up even a little breeze under the astonishing control skills. She quietly fled outside without the awareness of many people.

She had to find that guy as soon as possible. There were so many guests today. If that guy did something shocking, it would be troublesome... ..

Thinking of the worst possible outcome, the female Knight's face turned extremely ugly under her helmet. She didn't expect that he had the top-tier alchemy equipment unique to the FOGWALKER family. Now that she thought about it., the missing little eve of the Fogwalker family last month was most likely related to this guy!

Hopefully, she could make it in time...

"Wow... It's so beautiful..."

After coming out of the primeval forest, the group of people from the Ardia family appeared to be very curious along the way. The group of newcomers did not show how curious they were about this place at all.

The old Duke did not stop the children from making a ruckus. In his opinion, this group of mischievous children in the family had always been like this. Forcefully restraining them instead looked awkward, so he simply let them go, in any case, to the star elves, more than 90% of the nobles who came from outside were country bumpkins. There was no point in pretending to be reserved.

Moreover, he did not have the time to care about that group of naughty children now...

At this time, the old man had more important things to do, and that was to make use of this time to get to know more people.

On the way, many nobles took the initiative to strike up a conversation with them when they saw them coming out of the primeval forest. The old man did not reject any of them, and almost all of the people who came up to chat with them had much more weight than the Aldia family.

Some of them were far away, and after a few polite words, they went their separate ways. Some of them were closer, and they chatted enthusiastically as if they were old friends at first sight.

For example, right now, Long Jue was chatting happily with the patriarch of a family called the Stanny family... ..

This family was established in the Red Glory Star of the five-colored star in the Eastern Star Field. It was also a warrior family that focused on the bloodline of Thunder Warriors, and they had a lot of common topics to talk about with the old man.

Of course, as for why a person who had a star-level powerhouse in his family had so many common topics to talk about with someone like Long Jue who had not even crossed the threshold of being a noble.., the reason was still the white-robed high priest who was far behind the Eldia family: Ron!

“Huh?”

Suddenly, Ron, who had been walking at the back with Seer, suddenly raised his head. A hint of difference flashed in his eyes.

The action is too obvious, so that next to the original just want to pass the ceremony Xi Ye had to ask politely: “What Happened?”

“Oh, nothing...” Ron quickly bowed respectfully to Seer. “It just feels... like a familiar junior is passing by...”

“Is it?” Seer nodded. “The high priestess is very concerned about the younger generation...”

“Haha...” . “...” . Ron smiled and said, “It’s one of my friend’s younger generation. She has been missing for a few months. I didn’t expect that she would come to join the celebration. That little girl is very naughty. I’ll leave a mark for my friend to come over and bring this little brat back so as not to disturb the guests...” . “...”

“Oh?” Seer looked up at the sky. She did not see anything, only a faint layer of clear fog... ..

“That’s the Sunset Mist...” Ron quickly explained, “It’s a special alchemy item of the Fog Walker family. Its effect is very magical, and the little girl also used it to avoid her elders...”

“Interesting...” Seer nodded.

Chapter 1498: benefits that you can’t catch up to... ..

"You're quite bold, little brother. Unlike me, the elders have accumulated for so many generations, but when it's my turn to be the head of the family, I don't have any thoughts in this regard..."

"No, no, no..." upon hearing this, Long Jue immediately smiled politely and said, "It's also because I don't have enough experience and knowledge. At that time, I made a rash decision and almost pushed the family that had accumulated for dozens of generations back to its original state..."

"You're being modest, little brother. From the results, it seems that you were very wise in your adventure back then..."the burly man who was taller than Long Jue said, he looked younger than Zhuxing and the others, but calling long Jue 'Little Brother'at his age was considered a demotion.

"He was lucky..."long Jue smiled and said, "The child is more capable. Actually, the family didn't help him much. I'm a little ashamed to say it..."

Gunsh couldn't help rolling his eyes. What did he mean by he didn't help him much? The family almost went bankrupt because of him?

"I heard that you have a grandson who works for Bolton?"A similarly tall warrior beside the head of the Steiner family asked curiously.

"Eh..."Long Jue smiled when he heard the other party mention his other grandson. Gunsh also stuck out his chest unnaturally. . .

"My Brother's kids are so brave... <per_0> . "the big man sighed. "The Demon Lord Bolton is controversial. Few mature families dare to let their children fight there, but the situation seems to be good... .."

"Where... Long Jue quickly smiled and said, "I have a headache over these two children. They are both unconventional types of people. One of them wants to travel in poverty, while the other wants to find such a special deity overlord to work for. Back then, they gave me quite a scare. Fortunately, these two devilish children are quite lucky . . ."

"That's why we always say don't bully the poor..."the big man laughed. "Miracles are often created by young people..."

"I don't expect them to have great ability, can steady on the line..."long Jue mouth is not the heart of the Smile Way.

"Lucky for you... <per_0> . "the head of the Stannis family rubbed his chin and smiled. "One of our family members is already on his way, a general who has established himself in a powerful organization and has a bright future ahead of him. Now, he has a grandson who has passed the entrance examination of the Starry Sky Academy. His rise is expected... "..."

"You're overpraising me, Old Brothers. I've just started..."long Jue quickly waved his hand, but he could not stop the smile on his face.

Although the eldest son and the second son of his family were not on good terms with each other, as a whole, they were indeed thriving!

"This can't be considered as overpraising..."the head of the Steiner family lowered his voice and said, "It's really amazing that your Lord Empyrean God can build a good relationship with the high priest of the Starry Sky Academy. By the way, how did you meet him?"

This was something he had wanted to ask for a long time. The Big Man beside him also pricked up his ears when he heard this.

In fact, the two old fellows had been curious for a long time. They worked for the ILUWETA faction in the Eastern Star region, so they had a relatively good understanding of the noble sky elf priests.

The high priests who could wear the white robes of the Holy Moon on this occasion were all star-ranked high priests. Moreover, the emblems of the other party's family clearly indicated that they were members of one of the big families among the Sky Elves: The Stormwind Family!

Judging from their age, they were probably not the direct descendants of the Stormwind family. To these small families, they belonged to the horizon. It was very difficult for them to understand why a deity from a small family was able to come into contact with them?

Moreover, judging from the fact that they were able to enter the primeval forest, the relationship between the little deity and the high priest was not shallow... ..

"This..."long jue smiled inscrutably. "I'm not too sure either. The child has grown up, so he doesn't tell us old people a lot of things..."

"Haha... That's right, that's right. All promising children have their own opinions..."the head of the Stannis family laughed heroically, he seemed to not care at all. "Brother, after we enter the venue, how about we find a good seat and watch the ceremony together?"

"At your command, brother..."Long Jue laughed.

"Haha... Alright then, I know a good seat. It used to be..."

Gunsh followed behind him. When he heard all of this, he felt a strange feeling in his heart. The other party had taken the initiative to get in touch with the old man because of Xiye. The old man had already gotten to know quite a few groups of people because of Xiye today!

The attitudes of the surrounding juniors toward seer seemed to be getting more and more different. If this continued... ..

Just as he was thinking, a group of juniors who were playing around behind him suddenly came over, mila took the lead and walked in front of the old patriarch. "Old Patriarch, just now, the eldest brother of the Stannis family said that there's a blue phoenix in the forest nearby. It's not far from here. We want to go and take a look..."

As soon as she finished speaking, the head of the Stannis family glared at his grandson in the distance. "You Useless Brat. You can go and take a look if you want to. Let a little girl take the blame!"

"Ahem..."a tall man from the Thunder clan in the distance scratched his head embarrassedly. He lowered his head and did not look at anyone.

Old Master Long Jue smiled when he saw this. Among the few groups of people that he had come into contact with, Stannis seemed to be the person who was most willing to have a close relationship with. He directly let the juniors on both sides come into contact with him, therefore, he said gently, "It's fine, it's fine. Aren't girls used to act coquettishly to their elders? Boys are thick-skinned and have been beaten down since they were young. How would they dare to come close to their elders usually?"

"Haha!"Patriarch stanny laughed and said, "You really know how to find excuses for that brat."

Long Jue smiled and looked at Mira. "Go and ask your cousin seer. Bring them along..."

Hearing this, Patriarch Stanny and the other thunder warrior beside him were delighted. This young man named Long Jue was quite smart. He didn't mean to be careless. If they confirmed that he was related to the one from the Stormwind family... It was worth a deep friendship... ..

Mira glanced at her grandfather and understood what he meant. She smiled and agreed. She brought Stanny and the other juniors to seer, who was walking at the back of the team.

"Cousin Seer..."

Mira smiled sweetly and called out. Her originally valiant aura was especially bright when she smiled. Seer's mood improved slightly when she saw this excellent junior.

He had heard his father mention this child, Mira, before. She was a very clear-headed junior. This time, she had agreed to the old man's words. It was obvious that she was here to comply with the old man's wishes. To build a good relationship with the younger generation of the Stanny family...

Seer did not stand on ceremony when he thought of this. He turned to look at the priest beside him, Ron. "The younger generation has all come with their heads held high. Would you like to reward them?"

Ron's smiling eyes twitched slightly. He felt that this guy was really impolite!

The younger generation obviously did not expect seer to be so direct. However, they still looked at him with eager eyes. According to his grandfather, this was a big shot. He should not be too shabby, right?

Ron shook his head in amusement and took out a pile of jade-colored jades from his bag.

As soon as the jades were taken out, the soft light made the beautiful scenery around them pale slightly, and it directly attracted people's eyes. Obviously, it was an excellent quality!

"What Kind of jade is this?"The Big Guy next to Stanny took a deep breath and asked.

The Life Energy in the Jade was even purer than the surrounding tranquility!

"That's not jade..."the head of the Stanny family lowered his voice and said, "That's World Tree Amber. Usually, only ancient world trees produce it, and the yield is very small. An ancient tree only produces one or two drops..."

Each piece of jade that the other party took out was as big as a fingernail. The value of this piece was extraordinary. Each piece was estimated to be worth at least a grade-7 planet. The key was that it could not be bought with money!

He really wanted to say that the gift was too expensive and that the younger generation could not accept it. However, the space elves were arrogant. If the other party really took back what you said, he would regret it in his heart...

After hesitating for a few seconds, he finally swallowed his humble words and said to long jue, "Thanks to you, brother. We'll remember this favor!"

"Ahem... you're too kind..."long jue swallowed his saliva and only managed to squeeze out a polite sentence after a long while.

He had never thought that the other party would be so generous. He thought that he could just give him some face and give him some blessings. Such generosity... "...". As expected of a noble, huh?

"Wow..."

The eyes of the group of juniors lit up like cats. Although they had no experience, they could feel from their biological instincts that the thing that the other party took out was definitely a top-notch good thing!

The group of people looked at seer nervously.

Seer looked at the eager-looking juniors and looked at the other party. "You took such an expensive thing. If I meet your juniors in the future, I won't be able to pay you back..."

"There's no rush..." Ron smiled gently. "It's still early for me to get married and have children. Your Lordship has plenty of time to save money..."

Seer glanced at him. It was obvious that they were going to be friends... ..

"Alright..."

Ron's eyes lit up when he received the reply, and his smile became even more gentle. He handed the Emerald Amber to each of the juniors who came forward.

From the looks of it, this mysterious God was not difficult to deal with...

But this scene made gunsh, who was watching from afar, extremely anxious!

Because his youngest son could not stand the might of seer, he deliberately lost contact with the team and wandered around in an unknown place. If he did not rush over now, he might not be able to take advantage of this great opportunity!

Chapter 1499: Demon!

"Thank you, Big Brother!"

Mira took the gift and took the lead to thank him!

Unlike the space elves who paid attention to etiquette, the Thunder Warrior's thank-you gift came very quickly. Of course... .. He also received the gift very quickly... ..

Although Ron was in a high position, he rarely walked out of Teldrisil. He was not used to this kind of straightforward style and felt that it was somewhat new.

"This guy is much older than the old man..." seer said faintly, "You can call him Big Brother!"

Mira stuck out her tongue in embarrassment. "But... he looks like a big brother..."

The smile on Ron's face grew wider. He felt that these words... .. Sounded not bad... ..

“Cousin seer...” Mira carefully looked at the unfamiliar elder and asked softly, “Then... can we go over and take a look?”

Seer heard this and looked at Ron. Ron smiled and said, “It’s alright. The Blue Phoenix is a gentle elemental elf. Don’t disturb it too much and it won’t bother you.”

“Just take a look and hurry back. Don’t fall behind...” seer instructed in a rigid manner.

“Thank you, Big Brother, thank you, cousin Seer!” Mira smiled sweetly when she heard this. She quickly waved at the juniors behind her. The group of juniors ran off with the good stuff in their hands... ..

Gunsh saw that everyone was holding an amber in their hands. His eyes were red as he stared straight into the distance. He wished that his youngest son would quickly descend from the sky.

Unfortunately, when Ron put the rest of the amber into his arms, his youngest son was also nowhere to be seen... ..

Gunsh gritted his teeth. He could only hope that after meeting his youngest son in the grand ceremony, he would remember to add another piece... ..

“Sir, these juniors are really lively and cute...” Ron laughed.

“You didn’t feel that way when you were being naughty...” seer shook his head slightly, however, he suddenly thought of something and looked at the sky again. He looked at the layer of mist that had long dispersed and said calmly, “You just said that there’s a junior on your side who’s very rash?”

“Don’t worry, Sir...” Ron quickly smiled and said, “Although my friend’s child is naughty, he has a child who knows his limits. Even if he bumped into him, he wouldn’t bully the guest...”

“Is that so?” Seer paused for a moment and looked at the place where the juniors had left... ..

“What’s Wrong?” Ron stopped and looked at Seer.

Seer looked up into the distance and didn’t say anything. He didn’t know if it was an illusion... He could faintly smell the scent of blood. ...

After buying the Mutts from the base and being tamed by the flower spirits, he felt that his sense of smell was becoming more and more vivid. Sometimes, he could even smell some sensitive smells through the enchantment.

However, he was not sure to what extent. After all, this was the Holy Land of the Sky Elves, and today was a large-scale ceremony, there must be heavy security, safety, and so on, should not worry about it...

..

“Sister Mira... that cousin seer seems easy to talk to...”

Heading into the forest, a group of Eldia Juniors, led by Mira, including a few Steiner Juniors, were all like this. After all, they had all been blessed by each other just now to get such good things!

“Eh?” One of the younger members of the Stanny family was stunned. “Is seer the god in Armor? What do you mean he’s easy to talk to? Don’t you guys know each other?”

“We don’t know each other very well...” beside Mira, a simple and honest man who followed her all year round touched his head and said very honestly, “Actually, this is the first time we’ve seen him. When he went out to explore, we weren’t even born yet...”

“Yeah...” the people from Ardia nodded.

“Then he’s pretty good to you guys!” The child from the Steyne family immediately laughed.

Hearing that, the juniors from Arnia were stunned, and for a moment, their expressions were complicated...

“He’s pretty good...” Mira also had a complicated expression on her face...

Although seer seemed to be very old-fashioned and did not like to take the initiative to talk to them, this group of juniors... .. But from what they had seen so far, in just a short day, the people in the family had enjoyed a lot of benefits.

The special passage, the treatment of the primeval forest, and now... ..

Mira looked at the amber in her hand, her gaze becoming even more complicated... ..

It was obvious that this item was not cheap. This could be seen from her uncle’s red eyes. It was definitely a treasure. When Seer asked for these things for them, she had promised the other party, which meant that she had given them a favor., she had really given them benefits!

Seer seemed to be completely different from his eldest cousin, Ryan. Ryan liked to be close to the younger generation. He spoke to everyone gently and was extremely patient. He was also very good at making chicken soup. However, Mira had observed for many years. She realized that she had never received any actual benefits from cousin Ryan ever since she was young... ..

Perhaps...

While he was lamenting, a scream suddenly came from the front!

The Scream was extremely shrill, and it made people’s hair stand on end. The group of Thunder Warriors instantly had goosebumps, and their muscles tensed up as they became vigilant... ..

“What’s the situation?” Mira’s expression changed, and she put away the amber in her hand and took a step back.

“There’s the smell of blood!” The face of the child who was the leader of the Stannis family changed, and his pupils suddenly looked forward. A flash of lightning flashed in his eyes, and a golden light lit up!

Congeaing the sun! !

The Big Guy did not hesitate to activate his secret technique. Powerful Qi and blood gathered in his eyes, and his vision instantly looked through the dense fog in the forest into the distance!

However, in the next second, the big guy who was surging with Qi and blood all over his body suddenly quivered and retreated repeatedly. His face instantly became extremely pale!

Mira reacted and was the first to step forward to stabilize the other party. "What's Wrong?"

"Let's Go!" The Big Man from the Steyne family snapped out of his shock and quickly whispered, afraid that he would alarm something!

However, it was already too late. A chill came from the thick fog, and everyone felt a chilling chill seep into their bones!

"Oh? World tree amber, good stuff..."

A childish voice came from the thick fog. In the blink of an eye, Mira saw an extremely beautiful face appear in front of her...

After coming to Tydar Hill, Mira had already seen countless high-level elves and beautiful faces, but she was still stunned by this beautiful face.

However, what was shocking was the extremely terrifying chill!

Mira froze on the spot, staring blankly at the other party. With a somewhat childish, angelic face, she was doing something like a demon!

In his right hand, he was holding a space elf. One could not tell his age, size, or even gender, because the Space Elf had been twisted into a horrifying twist. If it were not for the almost exploding starry eyes, Mira would not have recognized that twist-like thing as a noble space elf... ..

Although he was trembling slightly as if he was still alive, Mira felt that he was more desperate than death!

"The mark of the Stormwind clan..." the boy's voice was gentle and tender, completely different from the scene in front of him. "Ron is the only priest of the Stormwind clan participating in this ceremony. Did Lord Ron Give It to you?"

"Yes! !" Mira immediately bit the root of her tongue and replied.

Although she didn't know the background of this pervert, she could only hope that he would be afraid of that high priest!

"What is your relationship with Lord Ron?" The face that seemed to be younger than the youngest child in the group asked with a smile.

The surrounding children all trembled and did not dare to speak. Mira swallowed her saliva and said, "We are with Lord Ron..." her voice had just reached this point when she was stuck... ..

Because she saw that the elf who had been twisted into a twist had a badge that was exactly the same as the one on high priest Ron... ..

Mira had asked Grandpa Long Jue yesterday that it was the badge of the Stormwind family...

"What's wrong? Why aren't you speaking?" The Elf Boy smiled as he moved closer... ..

As the little boy moved closer, an inexplicable cold wind blew away the thick fog behind her, and Mira's entire body turned cold!

She and everyone else saw that in the thick fog, the entire forest was covered with dough twist-like corpses!

Chapter 1500: This guy... ? Has He gone mad?

How could... Such a thing happen... .

Mira stood rooted to the ground. She was so full of blood and energy that she couldn't even stand firmly. Her entire body was so cold that she couldn't even muster the slightest bit of courage!

Although the people here were all young warriors who had been training hard since young, they had never experienced real bloodshed. Facing such a despairing scene of Asura, for a moment, they couldn't even muster the courage to resist!

Although the bodies hanging on the trees were distorted beyond recognition, one could still recognize that many of the victims were not elves. There were all kinds of people of all ages, obviously, they were just passing by to watch the ceremony.

This guy... ... The target he chose did not have any specific purpose. This guy... ... It was just pure killing...
...

No... ... This could not even be called killing anymore. It was called trampling!

Mila, who was drenched in cold, resisted the urge to soften her body to the ground. She forced herself to look at that incomparably handsome and seemingly harmless face. She used all her strength to restore her muscles.

This was because she knew that this person in front of her would obviously not let her off. Even if she was an insignificant bug, he would not let her off!

He would pick up the Bug and carefully pull out its legs, wings, and body parts one by one, just to see the creature's twisted and struggling appearance... ..

It was as boring as when she tortured those little bugs for fun when she was a child, but when the target was you, it would be very scary, because this kind of behavior would not have the slightest mercy...

"Oh?" The young face moved closer, seemingly very interested in Mira's desperate attempt to restore muscle vitality.

This bug that should have been waiting to die actually wanted to resist?

The smile on Polly's face suddenly became even more brilliant. He did not hate people who wanted to resist. When torturing bugs, the more fiercely the bug struggled, the more it felt. Otherwise, the thing it wanted to trample on would just lie flat, what was the point of that?

However, if that was the case, it seemed like he had to be more careful. The quality of this little girl was too poor. If he was not careful, she might die. Moreover, it was not the familiar elven structure. It was the Thunder warrior that he had never played with before, the structure of her body was somewhat unfamiliar. He had to be more careful when he attacked.

That gaze, which was like that of a high-level chef scrutinizing where high-level meat should be cut, almost caused the courage that Mila had just mustered up to be completely removed!

However, the toughness that she had developed over the years still caused her qi and blood to burst out in an instant!

Due to the strong conflict between her will and her body's instincts, when Mira's Qi and blood burst out, blood seeped out from all the pores on her body, and then directly exploded. Immediately, her flesh and blood became a bloody mess, looking extremely tragic!

However, such a tragic price had brought about a certain degree of initiative. Mira felt that... "...". Her body could move!

Without any hesitation, Mira punched the other party's face!

"How Beautiful! !" When Polly saw this tragic scene, his fingers began to tremble slightly. It was rare to see such a bloodthirsty insect. This was even more interesting than torturing that girl from the Fogwalker family.

That girl would only beg like a puppy and cry until her death. How boring, right... ... No matter how weak an insect was, it had to at least learn how to bare its teeth!

Polly retreated slightly. With a slight movement of his fingers, countless ways to deal with the situation flashed through his mind. Of course, he wasn't referring to the other party's soft punch, but how to deal with the excellent ingredients in front of him.

How about flaying the skin? As long as the technique was good, it wouldn't cause a large amount of blood nor would it affect the other party's bones and tendons. Other than the intense pain... ...

'after I skin him, I'll extract the fine veins one by one according to the opponent's resistance. The veins and bones of a thunder warrior are very beautiful. I've never collected them before. Although this lowly girl is despicable...'. 'but based on her character of baring her teeth, she can barely be considered as my first collection...'. ...

Just like that, after making up his mind, Polly couldn't hold it in any longer. With a face full of excitement, he went forward and prepared to grab the fist that the opponent dared to throw out. He would start from there and peel off the skin, or he could also extract the tendons of his hand...

However, just as he was about to start cooking the ingredients, a giant metal hand grabbed the bloody fist!

Polly was stunned. He raised his head and looked up, but it was as if he saw an incomparably thick mountain peak!

At this moment, Mira was also hugged by the giant figure. Mira subconsciously shrunk completely on the Iron Man's armor!

The hard armor should have been particularly disgusting, but at this moment, Mira had an incomparable sense of stability. The ice-cold metal gave her a sense of safety and warmth that she hadn't had since she was born.

"Oh?" Polly looked at her curiously. "God?"

The appearance of the giant metal giant caused the juniors who were shocked by the abnormal coldness around them to recover from their shock and look at the person who had just arrived.

Mira, who was in her arms, also stared at the tall figure who was hugging her in a Daze!

She did not realize when she saw it yesterday that this silly armor was actually... ! ... So Handsome!

"Well done!" The metal giant lifted Mira up, allowing her to have better contact with the tranquility in the sky. Under the rain of Tranquility, Mira's exploded flesh and blood received timely nourishment... ..

"Don... brother?" Mira looked at him with some difficulty, trying her best to say something.

This was because she realized that her cousin had his back to that monster. The Federation forbade people from assassinating gods, but that madman was clearly not someone that the federation could control!

"Rest in peace..." Seer's metallic hand rubbed Mira's head. "You've done well. You're a blood-thirsty Eldia Warrior!"

Mira was stunned when she heard that. Her words of worry instantly turned into endless bitterness. If it were not for the fact that the conditions did not allow it, she would have hugged this lump of metal in front of her and cried out loud!

Only God knew how terrifying she had been. Only God knew how she had mustered up the courage to punch out. Perhaps her resistance had been laughable in the eyes of that little demon?

However, some people knew that she had used her greatest courage in her life just now... ..

"Hey!" Polly's slightly childish voice rang out. "Where are you from?"

Seer did not reply. Instead, she slowly carried Mira and walked to a lush green tree. She gently put Mira Down.

During this process, the usually violent Polly did not make a move against this god who ignored him!

Polly was violent, but he was not stupid. From the moment this strangely dressed God appeared, Polly felt a warning from his genes... ..

This god... was very dangerous! ! !

"Ninth Prince Polly Huiyang?"

Seer gently put down Mira and asked in a calm tone... ..

But this calm tone made Polly take a step back even more cautiously...

The other party recognized him, but he still had a very determined killing intent!

This guy... was he crazy?
