Chapter 1501: New Mission issued!

Polly was a violent and twisted person. He had been one since a long time ago. This was not a secret in the noble circle. In the past few years, he had done many things that were even more excessive than what he was doing now!

However, he was not reckless. On the contrary, he was very smart. He knew very well that he would not pay the price for stepping into that position.

For example, the little girl from the Fog Walker family. Although she was very favored at home, the Fog Walker family was not considered a first-rate family among the starry sky nobles. Although that little girl was a direct descendant, she was not the main target for the Fog Walker to nurture.

Therefore, if he killed her and exposed her, he would not have to pay much. No matter how much he pampered that little girl, the fog Walker family could only swallow his anger and take back the corpse that had already been reduced to a humanoid shape... ..

As for those passers-by hanging in the forest, he didn't need to worry about them. Who couldn't be offended by those who could rely on the invitation of their children to attend the ceremony?

Actually, he didn't plan to create too much trouble today. After all, it was Tyrande's priestly ceremony. Among the many people he couldn't offend, that guy was the most typical one.

But he didn't expect that he could actually kick an iron plate just because he wanted to vent his anger in a corner! !

That's right...

Boris put away his teasing smile and looked around with a serious expression. This was a very hard iron plate!

It was unknown when it began, but the ancient trees around them had come to life. Their thick and twisted trunks had gathered around them, and countless pairs of cold eyes were looking at him!

The activation technique was a common biological law among gods, but Boris had never seen anyone who could use it in teldrassir!

Because this was Lord Iluweta's domain! !

There were only two possible explanations. Either his domain was stronger than Lord Iluweta's, or Iluweta allowed him to kill him under his domain! ! !

No matter which possibility it was, Polly felt an unprecedented panic!

"I'm the Prince of the Starry Night Court!" Polly repeated his identity to the other party!

This was the first time in his life that he was so fierce on the outside but weak on the inside!

“A prince who won’t even attend the 100-day ceremony...”seer raised his head slightly. “Even if he dies... It’s not a big deal, right?”

“How dare you! !”Polly’s face was almost ferocious as he roared!

However, this threatening roar had no effect at all. The surrounding living trees instantly turned into countless spikes that blotted out the sky and covered the earth as they attacked Polly. Under the laws, there was no hesitation at all. All of them were filled with ice-cold and calm killing intent!

This time, Boris was truly certain that this deity before him actually dared to kill him! ! !

“Stop! !”

A stern voice came from afar. In an instant, the incomparably sharp blade brought along a dazzling light as it instantly shattered the wooden spikes that filled the sky!

Following that, a female knight in golden armor descended from the sky amidst the dazzling blade and stood firmly in front of Boris!

It was the female knight who was responsible for Polly’s safety!

“Why are you so late?”Polly instantly regained his blood color and pointed at seer crazily, “Kill him, quickly kill him! ! !”

“Shut up!”The female knight coldly shouted at the Crazy Polly, but in the next second, she could not help but cough out a mouthful of blood essence!

This scene caused the originally Crazy Polly to instantly freeze...

This guy... was injured?

“Didn’t I tell you to stop her?”Xi Ye looked at the female knight who was coughing up blood. Her tone was a little displeased, but it was obviously not directed at Polly and Xi Ye.

“The Burning Sun Secret Art of the Hui Yang family can activate the body to the extreme, and its speed will be dozens of times faster than usual!”

Behind the forest, a female knight who was also wearing armor slowly walked in and said coldly, “It’s more troublesome to stop her by force, unless we kill her!”

“Lord God...”the female knight took a deep breath and calmed the boiling blood in her chest. She slowly said, “How about we end it here?”

“End it here?”Seer looked at the badge on her shoulder, after a few seconds of silence, she said calmly, “I once heard that during the Battle of the Void Gate, the only thing that the queen of Blades’death god Legion did not break through was teldrassil, who was under the protection of the God Guard Legion. There were 797 million elves on the planet, 1,986,530,000 refugees, and not a single person was killed or injured! “From then on, the name of the god guard resounded throughout the universe and was acknowledged by all races. It means: the god-like Guard!”

After saying that, Seer looked at the corpses that hung all over the forest behind Polly once more. “Now, it seems that there really isn’t a single bit of glory left...”

This result instantly caused Polly's expression to become incomparably interesting!

"You see..."seer spread out her hands. "This lord isn't necessarily stronger than you. You've only been scared out of your wits from the start..."

Polly:"..."

For the first time in his life, Polly felt an unprecedented sense of humiliation! !

He had actually been frightened by a low-level deity lord?

But how could such a low-level deity use his laws in Teldar Hill?

"Good... very good! !!"Polly looked at Xi Ye with a slightly twisted expression, if it wasn't for the fact that Xi Ye had a top-tier expert who could injure a life sea level deity guard standing beside him, he would probably have crushed that hateful piece of metal into meat paste by now!

"You're here to observe the ceremony, right?"Polly sneered. "Do you have relatives and friends studying here? I advise you to take them with you and leave. Otherwise, what you saw today will probably be the gentlest way for him to die... .. Oh, right ! From the Thunder clan, right ? I'll Find Your Clan."

"And then?"Xi Ye looked at him indifferently. "Use the power behind you to do something?"

"How can that be?"Polly's smile became even cuter. "I'm an independent child. I rarely rely on my elders. Don't worry, I'll find him personally and solve the problem using the most primitive method of the strong and the weak..."

"Is that so?"Seer nodded slightly. "This lord has quite a number of juniors enrolled this year..."

"Is that so?"Polly clapped his hands happily. "That's great. are all the students from the starry skies?"

"Yes..." . "That's fine." . "It's fine. I can find other academies as well. After all, there's an interstellar fellowship..." . "Lord God, please rest assured. I'll find them one by one and treat them well." "...". "Oh..."

"Oh..."seer nodded. "That's good as well..."

He did not say anything else as he turned around and walked out of the forest... . .

— — — —

"Huh?"

At this time, the location of the School of Warcraft, was surrounded by the element of the great elves in the room, the instructors are struggling to find the reason, cabbage as usual, a look of concern for my fart collapsed on the sofa.

In her mind, this stupid pageant had better be ruined by accident, and I heard that it would take three days to stand on a certain stage!

When she thought about how she couldn't sleep in for three days, little cabbage felt her scalp go numb... ..

Just as the malicious prayer was getting more and more serious, there was a sudden ding dong in her mind, and a familiar voice made little cabbage jump up from the sofa!

“What’s Wrong?”

Chen Ye was startled by little cabbage’s sudden action and quickly asked.

“Uh... nothing, nothing...”

Little cabbage repeatedly shook his head, some suddenly touched his fat face... . . .

Did you just hear that? That Was...

Blue Spirit College:

“Oh?” is studying a certain extremely complex rune byte rain woman no melon suddenly lifted revealed, the expression is somewhat stunned: intelligence?

At Xandar College, a group of Green Titans, who had completely squeezed their bodies dry, were preparing to have a good rest in their dormitory and enjoy the techniques of a top-notch physiotherapist, one by one, they sprang from the massage table like springs and rushed out of the room without waiting for the physical therapist to arrive.

Several of the Green Titans shared a suite and ran into each other as soon as they left.

Pu Yunchuan: “Did you guys... hear that?”

Emperor liver: “Yeah... I thought I heard wrong...”

Leng Xing: “So... is this still a game?”

Spark Academy:

“Oh Oh! !” A fire-red bald chicken dashed out of a room, jumping up and down excitedly!

“It’s finally my Grandpa’s turn to accept the mission! ! !”

New Mission: witness of the strong!

Mission details: kill the ninth Prince of the Starry Sky Imperial Family, Boris, once, gain exclusive jurisdiction, permanently kill the ninth prince, Boris, gain exclusive jurisdiction (permanent) ! ! ! !

Chapter 1502: the delayed ceremony

The chaos on Seer’s side did not cause much of a stir to the entire ceremony. Most of the casualties were from the main branch of the starry elves, while a few passers-by quickly gritted their teeth and accepted the compensation under the secret agreement of the officials!

After all, the starry elves were generous and the compensation was considerable. Other than a few elders who cherished the lives of their juniors, most of the clans felt that they had profited.

After all, most of the children had gone out to serve the gods over the years, and the losses were actually not small. There were many instances where the gods' forces paid without receiving any compensation at all, now that they had lost so much money and received such a generous compensation in tedar hill, many families had died for a worthy cause.

Seeing the families signing compensation agreements in less than a few minutes, Ardia and the other juniors instantly felt a chill down their spines!

If just now... .. If they were not saved and were twisted like those unfortunate people, would they not be able to get away with it just because of a single compensation?

Mira looked at those family elders who appeared to be very sad on the surface, but in fact, there was a trace of joy in their eyes. For a moment, her heart was incomparably cold.

Compared to those pitiful children, her group of people were really lucky... ..

At the thought of this, Mira stole a glance at seer who had been silent in the distance. Ever since the incident, it had been her uncle who had been consoling the younger generation's frightened emotions. Seer had not said a single word since she brought them back, it felt rather unreasonable.

It was the same for seer's parents as well. Not only did they not console them, they even reprimanded the younger generation a few times, making the younger generation even more afraid to move closer.

Mira could not help but sigh in her heart when she saw this. No wonder second uncle was chased away back then... ..

That Seer's cousin and second uncle were similar in temperament. As expected, they were father and son... ..

However, Mira knew that she would never forget that dull metal lump that gave her a mountain-like sense of security at the most desperate moment in her life just now! !

"A few big men are so scared!" Zhuxing could not help but frown and said, "All of you, stand firm for this father. Don't lose face for the family when you accept the blessing later! !"

The juniors hurriedly lowered their heads in fear and answered, and they could only swallow their grievances.

"Second brother, don't say too much..." gunsh hurriedly said, "It's also the first time the children have experienced such a scene. It's understandable..."

"How do you understand?" Zhuxing glared at the juniors impatiently. "Most of you will have to go to the battlefield in the future, and you will encounter more cruel things every day. If you only have this little bit of success, go back to your hometown as soon as possible, and don't waste the family's resources!"

"Second brother..."

Long Jue shook his head in amusement as he watched from afar. Second Brother's character had suffered so much, but he didn't know how to change. Even if he was a little more flexible, he wouldn't be so unlikable to the younger generation. Even his eldest daughter had fallen out with him. It was also a headache... ..

Just as he was thinking, a slender white figure walked over from the crowd.

Long Jue quickly went forward and bowed. "Lord Priest!"

The person who had come was Ron. He didn't look very well at the moment, however, he still managed to squeeze out a smile. "Everyone, sorry to have kept you waiting. I'll arrange for you to enter now. The grand ceremony hasn't started yet due to some accidents, and you're not late either. You Won't miss the blessing..."

Long Jue's face lit up when he heard that. He quickly said, "I really have to trouble you, Sir..."

"You're welcome..." Ron and long jue exchanged a few more polite words before they walked to Xi Ye's side. "Sir, come with me. This place can register the exclusive zone of the gods for you and your family members."

Xi Ye nodded when she heard that and left with the other party.

"How is the girl?" On the way, after a moment of silence, Seer took the initiative to ask.

Ron stopped in his tracks, he sighed and said, "Not very well. Although her physical body has recovered, her spirit has been greatly damaged. She has already hired a high-level spiritual master, but that girl is still in her golden age. If she doesn't recover in time, it will have a great impact on her future..." "..."

"She's also a student this year?" Seer looked up and asked.

"Well... it's actually quite a coincidence. My younger sister has the talent of a magical beast master since she was young. She's in the same class as your younger brother, Chen Ye..."

"Is that so?" Seer nodded. "That ninth prince often does this kind of thing?"

A hint of gloom flashed in Ron's eyes when he mentioned that person, he nodded and said, "He's actually very talented. He has the qualifications to compete for the crown prince, but for some reason, he has developed such a twisted personality since he was young. I'm really sorry to have disturbed your junior this time..."

"No need to apologize..." seer replied faintly, "Sorry won't be less than the price he should pay..."

Ron frowned. "Sir, it's better if you don't act recklessly. After all, you're a descendant of the royal family of the starry skies..."

"I have a lot of things to do, but I don't have the time to care about such a character..." seer said calmly, "It's better for me to settle the matters between juniors myself..."

"Eh?" Ron was stunned. He felt that he could not understand the other party for a moment. was he cowardly or did he really want Polly to pay the price?

In fact, he had been looking forward to the other party getting rid of Polly. After all, the other party could use his domain at Teldar Hill. If the other party was ruthless, he might be able to get rid of Polly permanently!

Everyone knew that under the heavenly god domain, there was no way to be reborn!

This was also the reason why Polly was so frightened at the first moment. After all, that Kid was still afraid of death... ..

However, the other party did not make a move at the first moment. Instead, he said that he would let the junior solve it. It sounded a little ridiculous... ..

This lord looked like he was only a few tens of thousands of years old, right? How Old was the junior? What could he accomplish?

And he said that the junior would not be that morning night, right?

Ron had investigated morning night after seer entered the primeval forest. From a commoner's point of view, that kid could be considered quite talented, but to ask him to make Polly pay the price...

While he was puzzled, Seer did not seem to have any intention of talking about this topic. He directly asked about another matter. "By the way, why is the ceremony delayed? I remember that priests are very concerned about the time, right?"

Ron hesitated for a moment when he heard that, but in the end, he still told the truth about the accident that had happened.

"The elemental elves were attracted by other things?" Seer looked up at the elemental elves in the sky. He was familiar with runic town, so he could indeed see clearly that on the huge starry disc in the Sky., there was indeed a corner of the elemental elves that was much rarer.

"To the east..." seer looked over. "That place is the School of Warcraft, right?"

"Yes..." Ron was stunned when he heard that. He then looked at Seer. "Does Sir Know Something?"

The delay this time was still very affected. After all, this grand ceremony was crown prince Tyrande's coming-of-age ceremony. It would be very unlucky if they missed the time. It would naturally be best if they could quickly find the reason...

"Oh, I don't know..." the seer quickly withdrew his gaze. "Just asking..."

And at the same time, the ceremony of the right angle: Tyrande is quickly rushed to the scene!

Chapter 1503: Getting Closer to the truth?

Most of the spectators who were not aware of the situation did not have much emotion, but at this moment, the oracles were as anxious as ants on a hot pan!

"Lord Fario!"

In the oracles'shop, after Fario, who was wearing the Royal High Priest Robe, entered the main hall, a group of high-ranking oracles quickly went up to him!

Looking at the anxious faces of the oracles..., fario showed a comforting smile on his face. "Don't worry, it's not a big deal. There's nothing wrong with the tranquility this time. The number of awakened Elemental Elves is unprecedented. It's just that something in the east has attracted them. Lord Venos has already gone over to deal with it personally...". "...". "..."

"Oh..."

Hearing that, the many priests immediately heaved a sigh of relief. When they heard that Lord Venos had gone over personally, they immediately felt very relieved.

"But we can't relax either...". "...". Fario continued, "We've delayed some time, and many of the steps of the ceremony have to be eliminated. Ask the sacrificial officer to quickly take a look and see which steps can be omitted as much as possible. Don't delay the coming of age ceremony of the crown prince later...". "..."

Everyone: "Yes..."

After arranging everyone, Fario looked towards the east, and a hint of thoughtfulness flashed across his eyes...

East: School of Warcraft location...

Compared with the priests who were relieved in the chief priest's hall, the priests who were responsible for welcoming them here were under a lot of pressure!

After all, they don't know why a pack of elemental spirits are here like dogs looking at bones. When Lord Venos arrived, he asked questions they couldn't answer.

"In the recent regional inspection, are there any signs of the birth of heavenly treasures nearby?"

"ER... there shouldn't be..."

"Then, are there any dimensional fluctuations? Or are there signs of the ancient seal loosening?"

"Er... before the ceremony, we did a strict and careful inspection every day. Logically speaking, there shouldn't be any..."

The priest in charge of the eastern region carefully answered Lord Venos'question. Looking at the increasingly ugly expressions of the adults around them, the eastern region priests felt a headache coming on.

Of course, they knew that their answers were no different from Bullsh * T... ..

What should... .. probably.. ... Perhaps the words shouldn't have appeared in the mouths of the strict priests!

But they couldn't do anything about it. Before the ceremony, they had indeed carefully checked every area. After all, this grand ceremony, the several great priest families all wanted to create momentum for tyrande. The priests in charge of the grand ceremony naturally didn't dare to be the slightest bit negligent... ..

But an accident still happened, and they couldn't find the reason at all. How could they answer this?

"Oh, that's really strange..."

A lazy voice rang out, causing the priests in the eastern district to feel even more troubled... ..

Lord Venos and His Highness Tyrande's personal appearance was already enough to cause a great deal of pressure. In the end, there were even some who joined in the fun, but the identity of those who joined in the fun was also very impressive...

The one who spoke just now was the third princess: months of demons!

Not only her, the first prince, ELIBOR, who had always been steady, actually joined in the fun. This made the reporting staff feel extremely pressured.

Because it was easy to guess that these two fellows were definitely here to add fuel to the fire... ..

As expected, Nefarious moon lazily stretched and said, "This makes this boring priestess ceremony a little more interesting..."

"Third sister, do you think it's very interesting?"

Tyrande slowly raised his head and looked at Xie Yue, who was slightly taller. Her pair of bright starlight eyes were still dazzling under the light of the thousands of elemental elves around her, this made the high-level priestesses of Tyrande unable to help but avoid their eyes.

Sometimes, bloodlines were really unreasonable. The suppression of bloodlines could make several star-level priestesses unable to look directly at Tyrande, a level-12 priestess with seven-colored starry eyes!

On the other hand, Nefarious moon was calmly looking at Tyrande's twin tube. Her eyes, which had been praised by her elders since birth, felt somewhat strained under Tyrande's extremely bright and beautiful starry eyes...

Many times, she had to sigh. Being born... "...". Was far more important than later efforts!

"Of course it's interesting..." nefarious moon smiled and said, "If fourth sister's ceremony is the same as the previous grand ceremony, won't it seem very boring? Different people always have to be different, right?"

Tyrande revealed a peaceful smile. "Third sister is right..."

"Alright..." the first prince, ilibor, walked over, he glared at wicked moon and said, "Don't make sarcastic remarks at this time. Today is a big day. If we lose face, the entire royal family will lose face. It's not the time to destroy the stage..." Then, he looked at Venos. "Sir, do you see the reason?"

Venos glanced at ilibor, who was also a descendant of the wind family, and a hint of gentleness flashed across his face.

To be honest, at the very beginning, she had raised this child, Ilibor, as the crown prince. Regardless of whether it was his natural talent or his character, he was extremely suitable to become an outstanding elven emperor.

Unfortunately...

Tyrande's talent was something that only existed in history, and she was also shouldering an even greater significance! ! !

Venos' mother, who was also the previous generation's patriarch of the Windwhisper family, Egwen, had used the last star force before her fall to predict that in the near future, a true elven emperor would appear in Teldrasil!

Currently, only he, the tooth spirit, and Lord Iluweta knew about this prophecy!

Therefore, in the years after her mother's death, Lord Llewita would forcefully wake up from her deep slumber to take a look at the latest heir.

Obviously, in the following years, there was no one who appeared in the prophecy.

But this time, the windwhisper family appeared. They had gathered the body of Starlight, the pupil of Star and Moon, the heart of Canaan, and other top-notch features in history, and they were even of the royal bloodline!

From the moment that child was born, Venos was so excited that he thought that perhaps the true elven emperor that his mother had predicted was this child!

And so... "...". She did not hesitate to give up on Ilibor, and it was also because of her decisive decision to give up. Most of the families that had supported Ilibor in the past had also decisively given up on him, causing the first prince, who had the highest hopes of becoming the crown prince, to... A moment from the altar hit down, lost to a full-term baby... . .

But all these years, in the eyes of Venos, the child is still very solid efforts, as far as possible to enrich themselves, as little as possible to regain the trust of the people around.

Even now, with the crown on the table, there is still plenty of support for Ilibor.

Venos was actually very satisfied with this child, but he could only sigh at his bad luck... ..

"The reason is still unclear for now..." Venos looked at the great elves that filled the sky, and his gaze turned slightly cold. "But... it's probably... inside!"

As he spoke, he pointed ahead.

ELIBOR looked over. That was the office of the School of Warcraft...

Ilibor looked at Venos with some confusion. He felt that Lord Venos was a little different today. This attitude... .: He was more cautious than he had imagined. It was as if he was about to face an extremely huge matter!

Chapter 1504: getting closer to the truth (Part Two) ?

“Do you think... Lord Venos is hiding something?”

Venos was the only one who went to the School of Warcraft. Whether it was to assist the priest, Tyrande, Evil Moon, and the other princes and princesses, they were all left behind.

The reason was very reasonable. There might be something dangerous inside, and for their safety, they were not allowed to go in together.

This statement seemed to hold up, but evil moon still felt that something was wrong...

“Stop your groundless speculation, Evil Moon!” Elibor looked at Evil Moon sternly. “Even if Lord Venos is hiding something, it’s for the overall situation!”

“For the overall situation?” Evil Moon looked at him with a smile that was not a smile. “Including abandoning you back then?”

Illyburton paused and looked at months of demons with an extremely solemn gaze. “Yes! That includes it too!”

“Oh?” Months of demons smiled even more happily. She looked at Tyrande, who seemed to have nothing to do with her, and said, “Aren’t you going to say something?”

“Big Brother is right. What else do you need me to add?” Tyrande did not even know how to turn his head, his face was still as calm as before. “When I was not around, Big Brother was the most outstanding. Lord Venos tried his best to nurture big brother and did not hide anything. After I was born, I was the most outstanding. Lord Venos chose me, of course, because of the overall situation!”

As she said that, she turned to look at Xie Yue. “Isn’t it natural for the strongest person to become the Emperor?”

“It doesn’t sound wrong...”. Hearing that, Xie Yue looked at the sky above the magical Beast Academy with a smile. “But has fourth sister ever thought that maybe.. ... “One day, there will be an existence more powerful than you. At that time, can you be as straightforward as Big Brother?”

“First of all... Big Brother has never given in to me. He agrees with Lord Venos’ actions, but he has never admitted defeat. Otherwise, there wouldn’t be so many people who support him...”

Elibor was expressionless. He did not agree or deny... ..

“Second...” tyrande turned around. The peaceful smile on his face disappeared. He looked at Wicked Moon solemnly and enunciated each word. “No one more powerful than me will appear!”

Evil Moon: “Is That So?”

Tyrande: “Yes!”

After a few seconds of confrontation, Evil Moon snorted coldly and looked at the Elemental Elf in the sky, not saying another word... ..

She didn't like Tyrande, and she also didn't like her big brother whom she couldn't see through. In fact, she didn't like the royal family at all. The suffocation here made her very uncomfortable, but fate had bound her to the royal family, so it was impossible for her to escape., even though the crown prince is booked, he still has to go to school with these two obnoxious guys.

I don't know when I'm gonna be able to get away from this suffocating atmosphere.

Please...

The months of demons looked at the elves in the sky and prayed to themselves: at least, something interesting would happen, something slightly different from the boring and suffocating academy life. . .

"Lord Venos!"

Warcraft Academy Gate, Warcraft Dean Dylan with a group of teachers respectfully at the gate to welcome.

"No need for formalities..."Venus patted the elemental remnants on her body and smiled gently. "Time is of the essence. If we delay any longer, the priests in charge of the ritual might call for help..."

"You're right, my Lord..."Dylan quickly responded, and then he said, "Since you're here, do you have any clues?"

"Not yet..."Venus looked at the growing number of elves in the sky. "Did you find anything?"

"I'm sorry..." Dylan shook his head with a wry smile. "I didn't find anything. Since the elves gathered here, I've organized the Arcanists of the secret court to conduct a thorough search. I didn't find the birth of the analogy heavenly treasure, nor did I find any spatial fluctuations." "...". "..."

"I see..."Venus nodded calmly. "Since you didn't find anything, then it seems like there's nothing left..."

"Um..."Dylan was stunned. He felt that Venus was a bit too casual? Did he trust them so much?

"Then, my Lord, do you think it's something else?"

"I don't know..."Venus looked at the sky as if he was carefully observing the elemental elves. Suddenly, he said casually, "Do you think... It's because of humans?"

"This..."

Dylan's heart skipped a beat. He recalled the meeting held a few days ago. The president of the Secret Court, Senior Fario, had said that!

What Lord Iluweta wanted to avoid... .. It was the wind family!

"Lord, you must be joking, right?"

"Joking?"Venus suddenly retracted his gaze and looked at Dylan. "Why Are You So Nervous?"

"Of course I'm nervous..."Dylan smiled bitterly. "Your Excellency's words are so frightening, as if this situation is man-made. How can I Not Be Nervous?"

“Haha...”Venos smiled and knocked on Dylan’s head. “Don’t be nervous, Girl. I’m just casually saying...”
Dylan:” ...”

“Oh right... with this kind of thing happening here, are the students of Your Academy Alright?”

“ERM... . I’ve already sent my teacher to take a look just now, and there wasn’t anything unusual with any of the students. Thank you for your concern, my Lord!”Dylan hurriedly replied.

There was a look of gratitude on Dylan’s face for Venos’ concern for the students, but her heart suddenly sank.

With the other party’s status, under such an emergency, he actually had the mood to show concern for the students of her magical Beast Academy. This itself was very abnormal.

Could it be... that she really came for that?

Just as she was thinking about it, Vinos’ faint voice was heard. “Call the students out. Let me take a look...”.

“Sir... This...”Dylan gulped. “Could it be that Sir suspects that the current situation is related to the students?”

“A little suspicious...”Vinos said bluntly.

“How is this possible?”Dylan smiled bitterly.

Venos did not continue speaking. Instead, he stared straight at her.

Dylan’s scalp went numb from the stare. He hurriedly did not dare to say anything more. He instructed the instructor beside him, “Inform the other instructors and call the students over!”

“Yes!”

“Call the students over?”

In the practice room, ni Lan frowned when she heard the person’s report. “Did he say what the reason was?”

“I don’t know...”the instructor shook his head and said with some difficulty, “But I feel that the atmosphere is not right. Lord Venus, she...”

“What’s Wrong?”Ni Lan looked at the other party’s troubled expression and asked curiously, “If you have something to say, just say it directly...”

The other party lowered his voice when he heard that and said, “I feel that Lord Venus seems to be... coming for the students?”

“Are you drunk?”Ni Lan rolled her eyes. “With her status, is there a need for her to come for any students?”

In the entire starry clan, the most popular person was probably Lord Tooth Spirit, but the one with the highest prestige and status was Lord Venos, the chief priest... ..

“Really...” the instructor narrowed his eyes and said, “I was at the scene just now. I really feel that Lord Venos seems to be coming for the students of Our Magical Beast Academy. Who knows what’s going on?”

“Tsk...” ni lan frowned when she heard that. She looked at little cabbage, who was sleeping soundly on the sofa, and a sense of unease flashed through her heart... ..

To be honest, she didn’t really believe that little cabbage could attract the attention of that Lord, even though this child’s aptitude was astonishing!

But...

Among the students of the magical beast department, besides little cabbage, who else could attract attention?

Chapter 1505: this aunt... :. Wants to kill me?

“Mm...” venos nodded slightly, and then looked at the students who were called over.

All the students were very honest, whether it was the outsiders or the nobles of the starry clan, including The Prodigy of the Night Demon Family: Helana!

The Night Demon clan and the starry elves had never been on good terms with each other, but that did not mean that Helan Nana could offend anyone. The one in front of her was obviously someone she could not afford to offend.

An old monster who had survived the battle at the Void Gate and was also the chief consul of the ILUWETA faction. Not to mention herself, even the emperor of the Night Demon clan would not offend this person... ..

“The little girl from the Helan family is indeed talented...” Venos looked at the nervous little girl with a gentle tone.

“Thank you for your praise, Senior...” Helan Nana bowed obediently.

Venos nodded slightly, and then looked at the few apprentices of the Beastmasters who were born from the noble families.

“You guys have to work hard. That Little Night Demon Girl is not simple...” Venos’ beautiful face had a kind smile of an elder.

“Don’t worry, Sir!” A few noble children, Denos, Damon, and Canaan, hurriedly returned the greeting. Their faces were filled with excitement as they said, “I won’t let you down!”

Lord Venos was a legendary figure. They didn't expect her to pay so much attention to the matters of the Magical Beast Academy.

It seemed that the elders didn't want the Night Demon family to act atrociously here. If they could successfully suppress that girl's prestige, perhaps... .. they would really be noticed by these top-tier elders.

"You're very energetic..." Venos smiled even more warmly. "Not bad, not bad..."

Dylan was full of doubts. He did not understand what Lord Venos was trying to do? It was not a big deal to show concern for the younger generation when they were passing by. After all, it was obvious that Helana had come to the starry sky academy to provoke them. It was indeed worthy of the attention of the higher-ups.

But now was obviously not the time to be concerned about that, right?

Wasn't the most important matter the grand ceremony?

"Oh right..." just as Dylan was puzzled, Venos looked around again and said, "I heard that there is a genius who knows how to use telepathy in the magical Beast Academy, and she is also the illegitimate daughter of the Muzir clan. Which one is she?"

She's Here! !

Dylan's heart jumped again. Venos... "...". Was he really here for that little guy?

"My Lord..." before Dylan could say anything, instructor Ni Lan slowly walked out from the crowd, carrying the sleeping cabbage in her arms. "Is she the child you're talking about?"

Venos followed the voice and looked over. He saw the sleeping cabbage in Ni Lan's arms.

Venos' expression did not change. He still smiled gently and said, "What's wrong with this little girl? How can she sleep at a time like this?"

"Sir, you don't know that this lazy girl..." Ni Lan smiled bitterly. "If no one teaches her, she can sleep for several days after eating her fill!"

"Oh?" Venos looked at the little cabbage gently and laughed. "Let me see..."

Ni Lan's eyelids twitched slightly. She raised her head and said with a smile, "My lord, she just learned the etiquette yesterday and didn't sleep well. Let her rest for a while."

As soon as she finished her words, she lowered her head and found that the cabbage was no longer in her hand!

Ni Lan suddenly raised her head. She didn't know when, but the cabbage had already appeared in Venos' hand!

Dylan's eyelids also jumped!

She did not see how the other party did it. It should be some kind of space arcane technique. More than half of the priests in this world were proficient in arcane spells, and the president of the Secret Court of Star Academy, Fario, was a top-notch priest!

Now it was almost certain that the other party was coming for the cabbage!

“Sir?” Ni Lan took a step forward, her face a little stiff...

“Ni Lan!” Dylan hurriedly shouted, “Don’t be rude! !”

“Why Are You So Nervous?” Venos looked at the girl in his arms with a smile. “The child can’t be as spoiled as you, it’s easy for him to grow crooked...”

Ni Lan’s footsteps paused, but in the end, she didn’t act rashly. She slightly saluted back and said, “Sir is right.”

Venos then looked at little cabbage gently, his incomparably beautiful face emitting a gentle light, looking very much like a mother holding her child.

“Eh?” Little cabbage seemed to be startled. Her face, which was sleeping soundly, was wrinkled. She opened her eyes unwillingly and looked at Venos.

A pair of jade eyes unique to wood elves made Venos pause slightly.

“Who are you, Auntie? Do you know how to hug people? How can I Sleep With You hugging me like this?”

Everyone:”...”

Venos was slightly stunned. She was rarely so speechless when asked... ..

The corners of Ni Lan and Dylan’s mouths twitched slightly, and they did not know what to say for a moment... ..

Venos looked at the cabbage, and a hint of thought flashed through his eyes...

The bloodline was indeed rare and pure, but it was still a little lacking compared to those freaks he saw at the school fair!

Most of the body was characteristic of a wood elf, but the corners of the eyes and the joints of the fingers had crystals unique to star elves. It was very obvious that they had the characteristics of a star Elf bloodline.

Moreover, these star elves, which were crystallized from the thumb and the thumb of a tiger, were mostly the characteristics of knight families.

Judging from their appearance, it was likely that they were the illegitimate daughter of that prodigal son of the Muzir family, just like the intelligence... ..

But was that really the case?

Venos looked at the dissatisfied little cabbage. Whether it was her eyes or her spiritual fluctuations, it was obvious that she did not know him.

Such a young child would not be able to lie in front of him... ..

In other words, perhaps he was thinking too much?

But wasn't this too much of a coincidence?

A group of freaks with ancient bloodlines had just appeared at the school fair, and the Muzir family had an illegitimate daughter of a wood elf. No matter how one looked at it, it was easy to suspect... ..

And the great elves that filled the sky...

Venos looked at the sky. There were many reasons for the great elemental elves to be attracted. Other than the birth of heavenly treasures and the energy fluctuations in the alternate dimension, there was another possibility, which was that they had met an emperor-level flower spirit!

Such a thing had only happened in the annals of history, and there were rumors... .. In the era of the elf civilization, every time a flower spirit with the bloodline of an Emperor was born on Teldar Hill, it would trigger the resonance of all spirits!

The elemental elves who had been asleep for a long time would be attracted one after another!

But this could not happen!

The Wood Elf's bloodline of an emperor had been severed by the will of the universe!

It was absolutely impossible for it to be born again!

But if... If...

Venos stared at little cabbage. If the tooth spirit and Lord Iluweta really went to great lengths to hide something from him, then there was only one possibility! !

Venos slowly moved his hand to little cabbage's forehead, and a trace of struggle and coldness flashed in the depths of his eyes!

Little cabbage suddenly widened his eyes and stared at the other party in shock!

This aunt seems to... want to kill me?

Chapter 1506: The Water Lord is born!

It Can't be...

I'm so hot and cute, but there's actually someone who wants to kill me?

Little cabbage was stunned in Venos' arms. Her body became a little stiff. To be honest, this was the first time she had encountered such a crisis!

Don't look at how she was always being kidnapped. Even the first time, the big snake never had any killing intent towards her. It just wanted to kidnap her and escape.

In the subsequent incidents, she met countless big shots, whether it was the lich Andrew or the undead God Anya. Although they looked very scary on the surface, no matter who it was, from the moment they met, little cabbage knew that... The other party wouldn't do anything to her... ..

Only this time, although the cold killing intent was weak, it was real! ! !

"Oh?" Venos glanced at the little cabbage whose muscles were a little stiff. His five-colored starry eyes narrowed slightly as he thought to himself: this little guy is quite sensitive!

He controlled his killing intent very well. So many star-ranked instructors around him couldn't sense it, but this little guy could sense it. The purity of his bloodline is really high... ..

Venos narrowed his eyes as he looked around. He didn't find any other powerful auras. At the very least, the tooth spirit shouldn't be nearby.

Lord Iluweta was not in a deep sleep. The entire Teldrasil was still within his domain. It seemed that the Lord had no intention of coming over after such a thing had happened here.

Was he able to keep his cool or was he just overthinking things?

After hesitating for a few seconds, a hint of determination flashed across Venos' eyes...

He would rather kill the wrong person than let him go! ! !

With this determination, little cabbage instantly felt as if his entire body had fallen into an ice cellar. An unprecedented chill seeped deep into his bones.

For the first time... .. Little cabbage felt fear, the fear that his life was about to pass away!

Buzz! !

Just as Venos was determined, the sky rumbled. Everyone, including Venos, looked over at the first moment.

The billions of water elements in the sky resonated at the same time. The tremendous energy formed by the resonance caused the entire sky above Teldar Hill to tremble!

This movement instantly caused the people of Teldar Hill to look at the sky!

Then, they saw an extremely spectacular scene!

The water molecules of the entire Teldar Hill seemed to come alive, causing the sky to sink into a liquid state. It was as if the entire Teldar Hill would be enveloped by the water world in the next second!

"This is..."

Dylan looked at the sky and took a deep breath. "Elemental resonance? Could it be?"

This scene even moved the experienced and knowledgeable Venos. He looked up with a face full of surprise. He did not even pay attention to the cabbage in his hand. How could the cabbage miss this opportunity, he quickly broke free from Venos' embrace and rushed towards Ni Lan in a flash!

Ni Lan quickly took the cabbage and hugged it tightly in her arms. Then, she looked at the sky!

“What... Is This?”

A group of juniors looked at the sky in a daze. In their lifetime, this was the first time they had seen such a spectacular elemental scene in the sky of Teldrasil!

“Elemental Resonance!” Ni Lan comforted the cabbage that was hugging her tightly, at the same time, she explained to the students, “It’s usually caused by the resonance of a large number of elements of the same attribute in a unified channel. This kind of situation can only happen on a high-level planet...”

“What kind of situation?” A group of students could not help but ask.

NI LAN: “Titan Creature Activity!”

Everyone was stunned when they heard that. They naturally knew about Titan creatures. Usually, when the consciousness of planet Gaia had just awakened, it would use the most primitive energy of the planet to create some powerful Titan creatures, these were the prototypes of many primitive gods on indigenous planets!

However, when Gaia’s consciousness slowly matured, these things would gradually weaken them or even use calamities to kill them, allowing their energy to return to the origin of the planet. From there, they would slowly cultivate creatures that they could control.

The birth of a civilization was mostly due to the indigenous creatures that Gaia had nurtured that exceeded its expectations. Only by conquering it would it be able to walk out of the planet and face the Sea of stars.

Therefore, the higher the level of the planet, the harder it was to walk out. However, after walking out, the foundation was usually extremely solid, and it was not something that a civilization born from a low-level planet could compare to.

Teldar Hill had existed for countless eras, and it had even experienced a large civilization like the elven empire that radiated across the entire universe. How could there still be Titan Creatures?

Ni Lan understood the doubts of many students. Looking at the gradually liquefied sky, ni Lan also appeared very excited.

That was because she knew that there were Titan Hill creatures!

The reason why it could be preserved for so long was related to the elven civilization back then.

The Elven civilization of the Wood Elves was a natural civilization led by the flower spirits, and the elven natural civilization was one of the few civilizations that could coexist with the Titan creatures and grow together.

Therefore, in that great era, the Titan creatures on the Titan Hill planet were not destroyed by Gaia. Instead, through symbiotic cooperation with the flower spirits, they slowly grew to a point where Gaia’s consciousness could not suppress them, after the establishment of the dynasty, these Titan creatures followed the first generation of ancient flower spirits out of Tidakhil and conquered the entire starry sky!

And this scene in front of their eyes could only be achieved by Lord Water Lord, who represented the four basic elements of Tidakhil — Earth, fire, water, and wind!

Boom!

The liquid sky was like seawater flowing backwards. The entire sky seemed to reflect an ocean. Under the shocked gazes of countless people, a figure that was completely ice-blue and the size of an elven horse leaped out from the seawater that was flowing backwards!

Compared to the ocean that reflected the sky, that figure was so tiny that it could not even be considered as a speck of dust. However, it was just this tiny figure that, at the instant it appeared, caused the entire starry sky of Teldrisil to darken... ..

“This is...”

On the mountain peak outside of the Magical Beast Academy, a few elven royal family disciples stared blankly at the Majestic Divine Beast, momentarily forgetting to react.

“Lord Water Lord?”

The first prince, who had always been steady, began to tremble with excitement. It turned out that the one who had attracted the attention of so many great elemental elves was actually Lord Water Lord!

“So that’s how it is! !”

Within the Beast College, Venos was also looking at the sky with incomparable excitement. This was the second time he had seen Lord Water Lord, and the first time was when he was young, when he was guarding Tydar Hill during the Battle of the Void Gate, he had the honor of seeing the four elemental lords awaken!

Those four were existences that Lord Iluweta had to address respectfully as seniors!

No wonder so many elemental elves gathered in the east, the east... “...”. Wasn’t it where Lord Water Lord was resting?

Thinking of this, he no longer paid attention to the Little Wood Elf who only knew how to hide in the arms of his elders. With a flash, he appeared in front of Tyrande who was still in a daze outside the college!

“Lord Venos, this...” Tyrande came back to his senses. His expression was still extremely shocked, and he even began to speak incoherently.

“Shh...” Venos softly hissed and said in an incomparably grave tone, “Gather your emotions and prepare to receive Lord Water Lord’s Blessings!”

“Uh...” Tyrande was instantly stunned. “Blessings?”

“Seize this opportunity, child!” Venos held Tyrande’s hand in excitement and looked at the sky. He said in a low voice, “You will be the first emperor in the history of the Star Elves to receive Lord Water Lord’s blessing! !”

Chapter 1507: Not Bad...

Water Lord's blessing?

Tyrande's mind went blank for a moment before it exploded with a loud bang!

That's right!

He had only been shocked by the appearance of this legendary existence, but he had forgotten what day it was today!

Today was the grand ceremony of the Starry Sky Academy, and it was also his coming of age ceremony. and on the day of his coming of age ceremony, Water Lord was born, and the elements resonated. What did this mean?

Throughout the history of the Starry Sky Royal Family, who had ever had such a situation!

"Is it me?"

It was the first time Tyrande had asked such a question without confidence. This was the first time since she was born that she had such an emotion!

From the moment she was born, she had felt that everything she had gained was within reason. Whether it was the crown prince of the late emperor, Lord Venos' unhesitating support for her after abandoning her elder brother, or the countless nobles' firm belief in her., she had taken everything for granted because she knew that she could bear all these things!

And this time, for the first time, she felt a little illusory...

"Of course it's You!" Venos looked at the sky excitedly. She knew that from the day Tyrande was born, she knew that this child was the Elf who had created the history of the starry sky!

There was no mistake. Tyrande was the emperor that her mother had predicted!

"Come with me, child..." Venos held Tyrande's hand and slowly walked into the sky.

Tyrande felt Venos' trembling hand. Only then did he understand that he was not the only one who was excited, and all of this... "...". It was definitely not an illusion. It was real!

Phew...

Tyrande let out a long breath and gently closed his eyes. When he opened his eyes again, his unique rainbow-colored starry eyes flickered with an incomparably dazzling light. As usual, he was a favored child of the heavens! !

The dazzling light and the shocking scene in the sky stunned the first prince who was standing behind Tyrande and Venos. His usually calm expression had now turned somewhat pale...

"It's really dazzling... just like when she was born..." the first prince muttered in a daze, "Is she really... blessed by the Heavens Like This?"

“I thought Big Brother wouldn’t be jealous?”

Beside the first prince, Xie Yue looked at the sky with a complicated expression and smiled. “It’s really getting more and more exaggerated. Do you think that one day we won’t even have the right to see her back?”

“If that’s really the case... it’s the blessing of the starry sky...”the first prince took a deep breath and turned to walk down the mountain. His back, which was always straight, was now clearly in a state of decline.

Xie Yue looked at the other party’s bloody hands. It was obvious that she had clenched her fists and scratched them. The corners of her mouth twitched slightly, she shook her head. “None of the brothers and sisters around here are normal. The boss is a cunt, the ninth is a pervert, and the fourth is...”

Xie Yue looked at the sky. Her expression was incomparably arrogant, as if everything in the world was rightfully hers. She could not help but twitch the corners of her mouth. “Boring...”

Without hesitation, he jumped off the mountain and disappeared into the forest.

No. 4 doesn’t seem to have any excessive emotions at the moment, it’s just plain annoying, but this annoying person seems to be cheating. You obviously don’t like her, but you can’t do anything about it. This kind of situation is the most boring...

Months have always been a free and easy person, since they can not let their breath, then hide a little bit, out of sight, out of mind, can not afford to provoke... ? Could it be that he couldn’t hide?

“Look! !”

In the crowd, the sky elves with excellent eyesight saw two figures slowly walking toward the legendary existence in the sky.

The crowd immediately cheered!

Many nobles looked up at the sky with astonished faces. This child of the Wind Whisperer family was really amazing!

This is the first time in the history of the stars?

All the elders of the Whisper family were even more excited. Nothing could shake the momentum more than this scene!

I believe after today, there will be no further objection to the fact that Tyrande is the brightest crown prince in the history of the Stars!

The night looks up at the sky and murmuring...

“Yes!” Ron was also looking at the sky. “This is the first time I’ve seen the water lord since I was born. Prince Tyrande is indeed the chosen one...”

“ER... is it?” Seer looked up at the sky. “But you don’t sound very happy...”

“Of course I’m not happy...” Ron said lightly, “The Stormwind family supports his highness the first prince...”

“Oh... is that so?” Seer nodded. “Then let’s cut our support and stop the losses...”

“Sir, you’re really something...” Ron’s mouth twitched. “There’s no difference if we stop the losses and stop the losses. Even if we join His Highness Tyrande, the Stormwind family will not surpass her mother’s family and become the first priestess family.”

“This...” Seer meaningful glance at the sky, did not continue this topic, but muttered: “Whisper Family?”

“Huh?”

In the sky, the whole body of ice-blue water stand between the sky and the water, looking at step by step to their own tyrande, slightly tilted his head.

This spirit breath is very comfortable in front of the person, obviously has extremely pure blood.

However, this was not to alarm his existence.

He was alarmed by a very honest and familiar aura.

When he was in the chaos, it was also this incomparably warm aura that led him out of the chaos. Along the way, it brought him out of this land that restricted him. He stepped onto the stars and saw countless sceneries.

That was its master’s power! !

A very long time... ... A very long time ago, its master’s power had disappeared...

It could not remember how long it had been, so long that it had completely forgotten its master’s voice and appearance. The only thing it could still remember was that incomparably warm power... ...

It was not this little fellow in front of it...

Water lord slightly nodded and snorted, but it did not drive it away.

Elemental spirits had a sense of closeness to elves, and water lord was no exception. It did not dislike elves with extremely high purity, but it was disappointed.

Could it be that it missed its master so much that it was mistaken?

“Lord Water Lord!”

Tyrande and Venos bowed almost step by step as they approached the legendary existence in an extremely solemn manner. When they approached, Tyrande took a breath, and his sparkling starry eyes were full of vigor!

“Tyrande Whisperwind, please bless me, my Lord! !”

Bless?

Water Lord was stunned. Did this little fellow know what he was talking about?

Right now, he had to rely on his infinite slumber to barely maintain his form. She actually wanted him to bless her?

What was going on?

In an instant, water lord’s sense of closeness to the other party disappeared completely, leaving behind only disgust!

He was very familiar with the aura of these star elves. Back then, when they couldn’t defend Tydar Hill, he had already expended all his strength to help them. At that time, he had helped them because they wanted to protect the place where their master was born.., thus, even at the risk of dissipating, he was willing to lend a hand.

But now... Why?

This piece of land belonged to their master, and these trees that provided nutrients also belonged to their master. You live in their master’s territory and enjoy all the resources, yet you’re still not satisfied? You actually have your own plans?

Water Lord’s gaze turned cold. Just as he was about to sneeze away these two brainless fellows, a ray of light suddenly descended from the sky. Amidst the faint starlight, a peerless figure slowly walked out.

Tyrande could not help but tremble when he saw that figure. His incomparably confident expression once again became apprehensive. “Lord Iluweta!”

Venos hurriedly bowed as well.

In such a situation, it would be abnormal if his lordship didn’t come.

Moreover, Venos was pleasantly surprised to discover that ILUWETA’s gaze towards Tyrande this time was clearly different from the previous time. Previously, her gaze was so cold that there was almost no emotional fluctuation, and there was even an obvious disappointment.

But this time... there was a hint of gentleness.

“Not bad...”Iluweta looked at Tyrande and nodded slightly.

Chapter 1508: There’s no mistake!

“Not bad...”

In the water, Iluweta was still as graceful as ever. Her previously gentle expression was now gentler, completely different from the last time she saw Tyrande... ..

It wasn't completely different. In fact, to outsiders, it was just a little gentler and more appreciative than the last time.

But to Tyrande, it was like lighting up his own starry sky!

"Thank... Sir..." Tyrande instantly felt that his breathing was a little tense, and it became extremely difficult for him to speak.

Venos frowned slightly at the side. Tyrande, this child, had always had the arrogance of an emperor since she was young. She was able to quickly stabilize her emotions in the face of anything, including this time with Lord Water Lord., she was able to face it calmly at the first moment.

However, every time she faced Lord Iluweta, she seemed to be absent-minded... ..

Iluweta nodded slightly. Her gaze did not linger on Tyrande for long as it turned to the Divine Beast Water Lord.

"Long time no see, senior..."

Iluweta displayed the salutation that a space elf should have when facing a royal divine beast... ..

Water Lord raised his blue amber-like head slightly and looked at Iluweta. His icy blue pupils, which seemed to be condensed from the essence of water in the world, shrank slightly. "It's you, little guy..."

Tyrande raised his head and almost subconsciously wanted to say: Don't be rude!

But he was instantly suppressed by reason...

Indeed, in terms of seniority, Iluweta was indeed a little guy to that Lord... ..

"You... come forward!"

Water Lord only glanced at Iluweta before turning to Tyrande!

Venos was overjoyed. The only doubt he had was completely dispelled this time. He hurriedly looked at Tyrande. "Your Highness, Quick! !"

Tyrande also took a deep breath. She understood very well what this meant. And this time, in front of Lord Iluweta, she had obtained such an achievement. presumably...

Tensing up her body, she did not dare to make the slightest mistake. In the last few steps, she still maintained her best form of etiquette. Every step she took was beautiful and elegant to the extreme... ..

Water Lord stood in place and yawned. It was unknown whether it was because she was bored or because she was really tired.

"Please bless me, Lord Water Lord!" After about fifteen minutes, Tyrande finally walked up to her and put on the posture of a star priest asking for a gift.

Weng!

A clear sound rang across the entire sky and land, but it did not sound deafening to every living creature. Even Tyrande, who was close by, heard the same sound as the creatures at the edge of the planet.

An extremely heavy and long-lasting sense of settling caused all the creatures on Tydhill to sink into it!

In the sky, the reflected ocean turned into a long drizzle with the clear cry. Starlight fell from the sky. In an instant, the entire Teldar Hill was in a quiet water world!

“Blessing! !”

Venos occupied the high sky and performed the ritual of the high priest. The astrolabe in the sky rotated along with it. Only then did countless priests realize that they had opened their secret seals one after another. The ceremony was carried out without any foreshadowing, it went straight to the climax of the blessing stage.

However, no one, including the old priests who valued the most rules in the priesthood, had any objections.

This was the first time in the history of the starry sky that the Water Lord had given his blessing. It came from the heavenly rain of the ancient water element. At this time, what rules did he care about? He must be out of his mind!

The astrolabe town was opened. The starry sky reflected the ocean in the sky like the stars pouring back, making the entire Tydar Hill enter the gorgeous stars!

“Grandpa? This is?”

Inside the grand ceremony hall, a group of Teldar Hill’s juniors felt the starry rain in the sky. Their faces were filled with shock and surprise.

Unlike the calm rain that washed their bodies previously, the starry rain in the sky clearly carried an extremely pure and massive energy. Although it was absorbed by the starry town above before it landed in the hall, they, who were just a short distance away..., just by feeling it for a moment, he felt that his body’s vitality was quickly replenished, reaching an unprecedented state of excitement!

Facing the questions of his grandchildren, Long Jue did not say anything because he did not know what to say. In his lifetime, he had never seen such a scene!

At this time, the arcanists who were in charge of gathering energy in the starry disk all had surprised and complicated expressions on their faces.

The surprise was that the energy given by Lord Water Lord was indeed pure. Such pure water element energy was probably hard to find in the world.

The complicated part was that such precious and pure energy would soon be turned into a blessing seal by the priests and given to the Outsiders!

This kind of blessing was probably not enjoyed by many space nobles. Now that it was given to the Outsiders, it was really... ..

But now that things had come to this, it couldn't be said that Lord Tyrande had attracted the birth of the water lord, and the starry sky royal family had chased away those who were attending the ceremony, right. This kind of face the starry sky royal family couldn't afford to lose...

They could only sigh... .. These people... .. They were really lucky...

But it was also fortunate that more than 70% of the Starry Sky Academy's Academies were still the disciples of the Starry Sky Elves' main branch, and the Outsiders were still a minority!

Wu...

In the sky, water lord, who had cleared his throat, was visibly fatigued and took a step back.

Iluweta took a step forward and circulated her nomological power. Large amounts of water elements gathered around her, enveloping her.

Water Lord slowly glanced at her.

"Thank you for your hard work, senior..." Iluweta bowed respectfully once more.

Venos and Tyrande also bowed.

Water Lord looked at Iluweta without moving, as if he was waiting for something.

This made Tyrande and Venos somewhat puzzled.

Iluweta smiled. "You're tired, so you can't act willfully. The current Tydar Hill can't leave Senior's..."

"Wu..." water lord let out a clear cry, as if a child was protesting, causing Tyrande to purse his lips slightly.

So this legendary divine beast had such a childish character?

It seemed that beasts... were still beasts after all...

Venos shook his head in amusement. So Lord Water Lord wanted to go out. This wouldn't do... ..

"Lord, rest in peace..." Iluweta waved her hand gently, and the enormous water elemental energy brought water lord down slowly.

Water Lord seemed to be unable to resist some sort of law, and the spirit it forced itself to fight grew weaker and weaker, and its eyelids seemed to grow heavier and heavier.

But when its body fell with the water elemental energy, it still endured all sorts of fatigue and tried its best to open its eyes, as if searching for something.

Finally...

In the entire Tydar Hill, among the ten billion creatures, it saw what it wanted to see... ..

A little fellow that had shrunk into a lump of meat in someone else's arms.

The Jade Eye that seemed to have just woken up also looked at itself.

However, it only took one look at itself before it looked away in annoyance. It slowly closed its eyes and found a more comfortable position to lie in someone else's arms, sleeping soundly!

Water Lord's ice-blue eye of essence paused slightly...

It was her...

A long, long time ago, before there were so many chaotic civilizations and constructions on this land, everything was still so primitive. There were towering trees that that guy had irresponsibly planted everywhere.

It was also at that time that guy always liked to hang on to the four of them. He would sleep for more than ten years and would not even bother to move even if the sky collapsed...

It couldn't be wrong...

The corners of water lord's mouth curled up into a smile as he closed his eyes in satisfaction. Following the water element of Iluweta, they fell into the star core together... ..

Chapter 1509: Recognition!

"My Lord... seems to be dissatisfied with me..."

The watery light in the sky dispersed, and Iluweta disappeared along with it. Tyrande could not help but mutter to himself without even waiting for a warning.

Venos watched Tyrande's dejected expression and found it a little funny.

Most of the past emperors of the starry skies were female. After all, in the probability of elves transforming, the delicate female elves were more likely to transform into flower spirits and priestesses.

In the face of a nearly perfect man like Ilovita, there were very few girls who were unmoved. Ever since he took over the position of high priest, he had seen too many, even a child with unprecedented talent like tyrande could not avoid it.

However, this was not a big deal. People would grow up eventually. How could a young man and young woman not have experienced something like being in love?

Moreover... .. In Venos'opinion, if Tyrande was really the person in the prophecy, there was nothing impossible about her longing...

"Your Highness..."Venos came closer and chuckled. "You are the main character today. You Can't have such an expression..."

"My lord is right..."tyrande put away his disappointment and his face was filled with confidence once again. "I will prove it. For things like today, I will prove countless times that I am worthy of my title as the child of the Stars!"

Venos nodded in relief.

She believed that this incomparably proud child would be the beginning of the history of the starry sky!

The birth of the water lord and his willingness to bless Tyrande had already proved that this child was definitely the person predicted by her mother!

She understood the unwillingness in Lord Iluweta's heart. Her lord was someone who had survived the ancient elven civilization and had seen the former elven emperor!

She had also heard of the former emperor. At the beginning of his birth, the four spirits of Earth, fire, water, and wind congratulated him!

Tyrande had only managed to achieve a small part today. This might not be able to compare to the glory of the past for the time being, but Lord Iluweta was clearly starting to loosen up. Although her praise for Tyrande was only slight, she, who was familiar with her lord, knew that.., some of that adult stubbornness is starting to loosen up!

One more step...

Venos looked at Tyrande, whose whole body sparkled with stars, and thought to himself, one more step and it will be all right!

At the same time, at the core of Teldahir, Iluwata was the first to arrive.

Looking at the four elements representing the core of the water element is obviously a lot of dim, slightly sighed.

"Boss, you're good!"

A familiar voice sounded. In the air, the tooth spirit hung upside down and looked at Ilewita with a smile. "I didn't realize that you could act so well in the past."

Ilewita:" ..."

"TSK TSK..." "..." The tooth spirit jumped down from his upside down state. "You have a good grasp of your standards. As usual, you are cold to tyrande. This time, you have loosened up a little. TSK TSK tsk, even that old Fox Vinos was fooled by you. As expected, sir is more experienced and shrewd!"

Looking at this fellow who was gloating over his misfortune, Iluweta could not be bothered to look at him.

It was not a simple task to hide from Venos. If one was not careful, it would easily leak out. After experiencing the school meeting, even if her identity as a cabbage was natural, Iluweta knew that the other party would definitely suspect her.

This was because she was one of the few people in the world who knew about the prophecy!

The only way to dispel her doubts was not how well little cabbage hid it, but to make her believe that Tyrande was the one who was the prophet. Therefore, everything that happened today was very necessary!

“But I’m very curious...”tooth spirit tilted his head and said, “Are you so sure that the little guy can mobilize Lord Water Lord? I saw it just now. Venos was about to kill someone!”

At that time, in order to not attract Venos’attention, the tooth spirit and Iluweta were both in the sealed area. They could only rely on their domain senses to observe the situation at that time.

Because if Venos found out that either of them were nearby, the identity of little cabbage would be determined by the other party.

This was a kind of test, a dangerous test!

The advantage of a test was that it could make Venos not dare to directly confirm, but the danger was that it could not stop her from doing something that would rather kill the wrong person than let it go!

In fact, tooth spirit, who had been with Venos for many years, knew that this fellow would most likely do the same. Therefore, if little cabbage couldn’t wake up water lord, she would definitely die! !

“I’m not sure...”Yiluweta shook her head.

“Uh...”tooth spirit was stunned and looked at her blankly. “But you... only agreed to that little deity to ensure her safety...”

“He doesn’t know, does he?”

“Aren’t you afraid that if something really happened, she would turn hostile?”

“If something really happened, then my hope would be destroyed...”Yiluweta looked at the weakening star core and sighed faintly. “At that time, even if Cang Yue came to kill me with her saber, it would be meaningless...”

The Tooth Spirit:”...”

This was the first time he realized... .. Her Own Lord was such a bachelor... ..

“I say...”tooth spirit swallowed for a while and said with some difficulty, “What about little cabbage? You also said that she is your only hope now. Aren’t you afraid that something will really happen?”

“If hope is so fragile... if something happens, so be it!”Yiluweta sighed faintly. “You also saw that child. With her character, if she doesn’t change, she won’t be able to shoulder the heavy responsibility...”

“So... Today is a test?”Tooth Spirit asked suspiciously.

“Yes and no...” A smile flashed across Llewita’s face. “If she really is the one in the prophecy, I don’t have the right to test her. But now that I can’t be sure, I can indeed test whether she is that person or not. After all, she has to show me something that I believe in to shoulder the heavy responsibility.” “...”

As she spoke, Iluweta looked at the water elemental core, and her expression became even gentler. “In the end, although her personality is a little lazy, her bloodline is genuine...”

Outsiders might not be able to see it, but the tooth spirit could clearly see that the performance of the little cabbage today was definitely not limited to the excellence of her bloodline!

The moment Venos released his killing intent, the little fellow sensed it. In that instant, she activated her potential and summoned water lord!

Many people had potential, but whether or not they could display it at the critical moment was the factor that determined their fate. It was very obvious that she had displayed this ability!

From the Little Fellow's state, it was obvious that she had rarely experienced a real crisis. No... No... Judging from the character of that dead salted fish, it was probably not a first time! But this was the only time she had experienced it, and she had perfectly displayed her bloodline!

And it was not just her bloodline, but her temperament as well!

Through the law of Iluweta, the tooth spirit completely took in the expression of little cabbage.

After escaping from Venos' murderous intent, she had performed extremely perfectly. She was completely like a frightened child, clinging tightly to Ni Lan's arms.

However, Ni Lan, who was hugging the little guy, did not notice the flash of coldness in little cabbage's eyes!

The calmness and coldness displayed in that instant was like an experienced hunter. In front of an extremely dangerous prey, she displayed an extremely experienced experience of enduring.

The key was that her aura was restrained. If she had not seen it from her god's perspective, even if she was at the scene, she might not have noticed it. Even a top hunter family might not be able to cultivate such a psychological quality!

This instant change changed her impression of little cabbage greatly. She felt that the other party was like a different person!

"This little guy..."the tooth spirit recalled the expression of little cabbage many times and grinned, "It is indeed a little interesting!"

Chapter 1510: After the grand ceremony (Part One)

The grand ceremony proceeded exceptionally smoothly. Although the birth of Water Lord had disrupted the original order of the grand ceremony, and even forced the final grand finale, the blessing, to be carried out at the very first step.

However, regardless of whether it was the well-disciplined starry elves or the spectators of the external ceremony, no one had any objections. All that was left was pleasant surprise.

For the Tedarhill Royal Family, all their goals had been achieved. Whether it was to display the foundation of the royal family to the outside world or to create momentum for His Highness Tyrande., the top-grade water blessing that the water lord had triggered had perfectly reached its expiration date.

Originally, the early death of the elven emperor had caused this grand gathering to lose some of its color and the step of the emperor's blessing to be reduced. However, the appearance of the water lord had perfectly compensated for this and made the effect even more effective!

As for the foreign audience, they did not have any objections. Most of the audience had come for the effect of the priest's blessing. This time, the blessing of the ancient water spirit was the first time in the entire history of the starry sky, and its significance was unprecedented, the effect was naturally incomparably perfect!

The children who received the blessing all felt endless benefits, and the effect was several times higher than expected!

It could be said that the guests and hosts enjoyed themselves to their heart's content!

The complicated etiquette steps that followed did not have much meaning either. It was directly arranged to become a carnival feast. The unique singing and dancing performances of the Elves, as well as the appearance of various foreign families on stage, made the entire feast lively and joyous, it was not until the wee hours of the morning that everyone left with a lingering desire.

And it was also on this day that the news of the birth of the Star Elves' future new emperor, Tyrande the water diversion lord, instantly spread throughout the universe. The scene of water and light filling the sky was spread countless times on numerous news platforms in the federation, for a time, the Star Elf's favorite was top of the list.

Many people were envious of the lucky ones who were able to participate in the grand ceremony. This kind of ancient water spirit's blessing, perhaps some star level powerhouses had never enjoyed it in their entire lives. Those foreign young disciples who were fortunate enough to participate in the grand ceremony, I'm afraid the future of life will be upgraded to a level!

In fact, this is also so, at this time all the foreign children are still immersed in the huge benefits, the body of energy every digestion, can clearly feel the endless benefits.

The essence of water is almost the most compatible of the basic elements, especially the warrior. At this time, the children of the Eldia family are all in the arranged resting place, desperately absorbing the benefits of this blessing.

The blessing of the priest was one of the divine spells. It was a spell with the power of faith and perfectly matched with the energy of Heaven and earth. There were many divine spells in the universe. For example, the Holy Light Spell of the Holy Light sect was famous, even the most advanced Arcana Academy could not fully explain the effect of using the faith of holy light to treat external injuries, let alone simulation.

Among the many divine spells, the blessing of the priest, which could bless the human body, was the most difficult to explain.

Under the blessing, the huge amount of energy would be directly converted into the components needed for the growth of the human body. The effect was even more buggy than directly supplementing the energy structure of living beings in the biology department!

Because the blessing was not like biological surgery, the blessing basically had no negative effects, and it would not affect your genes at all. Instead, it would be 100% along with the evolution of your genes, a primary upgrade!

It could be said that it was very unreasonable. This was also why the priestess department was the most expensive department in all the universities in the universe, and it was also the most fragrant profession in the universe.

“All of you, concentrate!” Long Jue’s eyes widened, he stared at each of the children who participated in the blessing with extreme seriousness. “The mark of the blessing has a recessive and explicit nature. The recessive blessing will be implanted into the body, and it will nourish the body for a long time. It will even improve your luck in the future, but the premise is that you can better absorb the explicit energy!”

“Even if the body is a container, the bigger the container, the more things you can accept. At this time, the more dominant energy you can accept, the more the recessive mark will store. In other words, besides the enhancement of dominant energy, it is also modifying and expanding the origin of your body. How much you can achieve in the future depends on how long you can hold on Now!” “!”

Long Jue’s stern voice was like a thunderclap, causing the drowsy juniors to forcefully raise their spirits and continue to endure the body modifications!

It was indeed unbearable. At first, the invasion of energy was gentle and comfortable, but as time passed, the expansion of the body gradually became painful, especially the proliferation of bones..., the unprecedented pain caused many of the disciples’ faces to distort.

If they did not know that this would bring great benefits, many of the disciples would have already been unable to bear it.

Looking at the children who were still holding on despite two weeks had passed, Long Jue revealed a satisfied expression. Being able to hold on until now was already a sign of very strong willpower. Of course, there were also exceptions... ..

At the thought of this, long jue looked at the few children who had fainted, his expression somewhat unfriendly.

Most of the people who had fainted were direct descendants, including the eldest gunsh’s youngest son, Bonos, the third’s grandson, BEA, as well as some collateral descendants who had a relatively close relationship with the main family’s academy.

On the contrary, most of the people who were able to hold on were the collateral descendants who had been transferred from the branch families. Although the old man had always expressed the view that Aldia was a family, he still felt close and distant in his heart, who wouldn’t want their direct line to be more promising?

Unfortunately, the situation in front of them was very realistic. Other than the grandson of the fourth family, who was still holding on forcefully with Mira and the others, almost all the descendants of the direct line were like Bonos, lying on the ground and twitching... ..

At this moment, Gunsh looked at his youngest son with some embarrassment. Deep in his heart, he was full of disappointment. It had to be said that his youngest son was far inferior to his eldest brother, Ryan!

While he was lamenting, the voice of the priest came from outside.

“May I ask if Lord Long Jue is in? Your son, Chenye Eldia, from the Academy has requested to meet...”

These words made the originally stern Long Jue’s face obviously happy. He quickly responded and strode outside.

The few grandchildren of the direct line were not very good, but Chenye still gave face to the direct line. After all, everyone who could enjoy all of this had to depend on him!

Gunsh’s expression froze slightly, and his face darkened as he saw his young son convulsing on the ground. . .

———

“Hey, son! !”

The old man has not just walked out, heard outside the living room position of the second son of the voice of stars, suddenly face a twitch.

Walked over to see Zhuxing directly picked up the thin morning night lifted a kiss.

“Put me down, Dad!” Chen Ye’s expression was furious. He looked so embarrassed that he wanted to find a hole to hide in.

The corners of Long Jue’s mouth twitched slightly, but he was also a little curious. After all, second brother had always been like this, and it was not the first time. Why did this child have such a big reaction this time? His face was so red that it looked like it was flushed with blood.

However, he soon found the reason.

Not far away from where he had been lifted in the morning, there stood an exceptionally beautiful little elf...
