

A Bunch 1521

Chapter 1521: The Solution!

The father and son duo's words were more and more shocking today, especially Xi Ye. When she said that the two of them should make a choice, everyone's hearts tensed up... ..

At this moment, no one had expected such a sentence to come out...

Even the great elder gunsh was dumbfounded by this sentence. He stared blankly at Xi Ye, unable to guess what the other party was trying to do... ..

Long Jue also took a long time to recover. He looked at Xi Ye and asked, "You... what exactly do you mean?"

"I mean it literally, of course..." Xi Ye said slowly, "Father told me about Rennes's situation. I think it's indeed a rare opportunity. Lord Bolton is very famous in the circle of gods, and senior panda is known as the brightest star of this era. Moreover, judging from his background, senior Bolton's upper limit is even higher!"

"He is the spokesperson of the Abyss. He is the first god of the Abyss to attempt it. Once he succeeds, it will be of great significance. The other party has established the Tenth Army and hired Rennes as the commander. He is also sending a message to the outside world: even the descendants of non-abys demons can be placed in an important position. This opportunity can be said to be one in a billion. It is indeed very rare for Rennes to encounter it. If he succeeds, it is not impossible for him to soar into the sky!"

Everyone looked at each other with strange expressions on their faces. They had already told them about this when the house was promoting the house, so they were all familiar with it. However, it was very strange for the eldest son of the second house, Xi Ye, to say this... ..

"Do you really think so?" Long Jue looked at Xi Ye with a serious expression.

"Doesn't the old master think so?" Xi Ye replied with a smile.

This time, Gunsh did not say anything. His muscles tensed up as he waited for the old master's reply. He had never expected Xi ye to actually speak up for the house. At this time, he did not dare to speak up rashly... ..

"But it's very risky..." the old master looked at Xi Ye, who he could not understand at all. He decided to share his feelings with Gunsh for once and also decided to share his thoughts with gunsh.

"How could I not know that the chance that Ryan encountered was very rare... "But the Ardia family is too small to withstand the storm. If we make the wrong choice this time, we won't be able to bear it either "...". "Besides...". The old man lowered his voice and said, "If it really works, I don't think that Ryan can bear this weight!"

"Old Man! !" gunsh became anxious. "How can you say that? Ryan is..."

“Don’t be anxious...” the dragon Baron interrupted Gunsh’s anxious rebuttal and said slowly, “Rennes hasn’t broken through to level 14 yet, right?” Gunsh was stunned, then he gritted his teeth and said, “That’s only a matter of time...”

“But his bones are already 20,000 years old!” The dragon Baron said in a low voice, “A 20,000-year-old level 14 warrior, if placed in our family, would naturally be outstanding. However, if placed in a high-class family, he wouldn’t be qualified. Within Bolton’s power, the other nine legions are all direct descendants of the Abyss’s high-level demons. All of them are star level experts, and are even young star level experts who have stepped into the star level within three eras. Rennes is on the same level as them, do you think you can afford it?”

Gunsh: “...”

“For example, Bolton sincerely wants to accept the power of the Federation family and let Rene serve as a role model. But even if we succeed, what’s next?” The dragon Baron looked at Gunsh and said, “Have you thought about the competition in the future?” “No one is willing to accept the recruitment of the descendants of those high-ranking families because they are afraid that Bolton is a pure demon power and won’t be able to be put in an important position. But once it is proven that Bolton’s power can accept outsiders and is willing to give them huge benefits, the high-ranking families will certainly send out outstanding descendants. By then, Will Rene be able to compete with those people?”

“This...” Gunsh’s face flushed red, he knew that the old man was saying that Rennes didn’t have enough weight and couldn’t afford such an opportunity, but in the end, he said unwillingly, “Then the old man is saying that Rennes should give up this once-in-a-lifetime opportunity?”

Long Jue frowned. Before he could say anything, Seer added, “That’s not the case. The old man just doesn’t want to gamble too much... After all, the entire family is gambling, so naturally, we have to consider everything. Am I right, Old Man?”

Long Jue’s expression immediately softened. “That’s right!”

Gunshi said unwillingly, “But if our family doesn’t gamble and Lord Bolton doesn’t see sincerity, why should he give such a good opportunity to Rennes?”

Long Jue looked at Gunshi and revealed a hint of embarrassment. This was also the reason why he had been struggling for so long without giving a definite answer.

That was indeed the case. If he didn’t gamble everything and showed the greatest sincerity, with Bolton’s stature, why would he let a small character like Rennes become the commander?

What others wanted to show to the outside world was the feedback of sincerity received after the family defected. If it was just Rennes alone, then the other families could only send one or two people. After all, they could make a mistake... ..

The important thing was the family. They were bound together as a whole. That was what they wanted, and that was the purpose of the publicity!

“Uncle is right...” Seer said with a smile.

Gunsh's reddened face paused, and he looked at Xi Ye in surprise again. Apparently, he did not expect that Xi Ye would still stand on his side... ..

"Is it too much of a pity to give up on an opportunity? After all, most opportunities in the world rely on gambling. There's no such thing as a free lunch falling from the sky..." ... Xi Ye looked at Long Jue and said, "Isn't the old master unwilling to give up after hesitating for so long? In the end, even if Rennes couldn't compete with the later descendants of the family, as the first family to join the Bolton Force, he wouldn't be completely mistreated no matter what. There would definitely be a huge compensation, and... "...". "Rennes might not really lose, right? "How can there be a reason to admit defeat before everything has started?"

"Seer is absolutely right! !" Gunsh slapped his thigh and said.

The faces of the children of Eldia were strange. Even Zhu Xing and his wife looked at Xi Ye strangely, wondering if their son had taken the wrong medicine?

Who was he talking to?

Long Jue looked at Xi Ye in surprise, then said carefully, "So you're saying that the family should accept Rennes's suggestion and move there with the whole family?"

"There's no need for the whole family to move there..." Xi Ye smiled, "The right to stay on the glorious amethyst star is something the family has worked hard for generations. You've worked hard all your life to get it. It's not right to give it all up. Moreover, our family has a small network under the influence of Senior Yi Lu Weta. It's too big of a gamble to give it all up "...". "..."

"Then what do you mean?" Old Master Long Jue was also depressed... ..

"That's right!" Gunsh couldn't hold it in any longer. "You're a little faster. One moment, this moment, the next. What exactly do you want?"

Zhuxing, who was at the side, saw the other party's reaction and transmitted his voice to his wife in a low voice. "This is the first time I've seen boss so anxious..."

Ye Na smiled. She could roughly guess what her son wanted... ..

Her son... probably wanted to completely break off from the Big House! !

As expected, Xi Ye said in the next second, "I mean, let's split up!"

"Split up?" Everyone was shocked. The old man also stood up. "How can this be! ! !"

"Old Man, don't be anxious..." Xi Ye quickly comforted him. "Can you hear me out?"

Long Jue frowned as he looked at Xi Ye. In the end, he sat down. He could not see through this grandson of his at all. Moreover, he had the authority to let him patiently hear him out...

Xi Ye saw the old master sit down and continued, "This is the best solution. Bolton needs to be sincere, and the family will have to move in. However, the foundation of the old ancestor can not be completely cut off, so someone has to guard the business. It is most appropriate to use a branch family to solve this problem!"

“With the eldest and second branch as the leader, the eldest branch is willing to go to all the Aldia family members in Bolton Force. Those who are willing to stay, with the second branch as the leader, will continue to guard the foundation of the family. In this way, those who are willing to risk their lives and gamble for a big fortune will go with uncle and the others. Those who want to stay can stay. Moreover, because there are two groups of people, those who stay can enjoy more resources. Isn't this killing two birds with one stone?”

“This...”gunsh was stunned, and then he hesitated. “How can this be?”

Long Jue also frowned. “You're right. You want everything. Is this possible? Is Lord Bolton willing to accept it?”

“I think he's willing...” “...” “...”seer smiled. “Bolton has always asked us to join him. What he wants is the publicity effect. The family is divided into two factions, the conservative faction and the radical faction. This will certainly be the same in other families. In my opinion, it has more publicity value. The radical faction chose Bolton's faction and made a meteoric rise based on it, while the conservative faction chose to stick to the rules and guard the foundation. However, they can only be ordinary. What a good example of publicity? “Isn't it more dramatic than when the entire family defected to the past?”

“You sure know how to say that...”gunsh frowned. “Lord Bolton needs to admit that...”

Long Jue also looked at Xi Ye in amusement. If it was really possible, he would have done it long ago. If he could take both sides, why would he hesitate?

“I've met senior Bolton a few times...”Xi ye smiled. “How about... I talk to him?”

Everyone:”...”

Chapter 1522: Persistent Night Demons...

As a major planet, Tydhill naturally had many public service stations set up by the Federation. However, anyone who could live here could be considered a minor noble of the federation. Each of them would have their own family communication channels, public services were rarely used.

Therefore, even though there were quite a number of people here, these public service stations were usually very quiet and few people came. The civil servants working here were one of the most relaxed public jobs in the entire tydhill.

And today, the Elves who were originally on duty here unexpectedly found a big shot... ..

According to the Energy Station's display, the newcomer was a star-level Tianyuan Powerhouse!

After receiving the data, the originally leisurely elves hurriedly went out to welcome him, but when they saw that the newcomer was a night demon, they were even more stunned.

Night Demons and Sky Elves had always been at loggerheads. High-level night demons rarely came and went in tedar hill, not to mention using TEDAR Hill's public service station. After all, a night demon of this level definitely had a secret communication channel in the family., how did they end up using the public service station?

After looking at the other party suspiciously for a few seconds, he carefully stepped forward. "Is this guest going to use the communication service?"

"Can you hurry up?"

The person who had come was the Nayye family's fandy. At this moment, looking at the little elf who was still stalling for time, a wave of irritation rose in the depths of his heart!

Under normal circumstances, why would he need to deal with such a fellow? But now, he had to endure the scrutinizing gaze of such an ant-like fellow.

But there was nothing he could do. Even though he was an ant, it was impossible for him to crush the other party to death with a single word of disagreement... ..

The public service station was a public facility of the federation. The personnel working inside belonged to the official civil servants of the federation. If one were to be killed in public, even if one was a member of the royal family, they would be investigated!

"Guests, please come this way..." after carefully conducting their own tests, the ELF finally said nervously, "Guests, please observe order and not disturb the others..."

Vandy's eyelids twitched as he stared coldly at the other party. This place was as cold as a graveyard. Where else could there be other people?

After finally entering the communication station, Vandy, who had never used public facilities to communicate, had no choice but to call the other party over to ask for the usage method.

This made the Little Elf who was guarding the station look at him in a baffling manner. It was as if he was looking at a country bumpkin, causing Vandy to feel even angrier in his heart.

Finally... "...". After a series of superfluous operations, fan di finally opened the communication station and connected to the Federation's safe passage.

He did not doubt that there would be any problems with the federation's Communication Station. No matter how arrogant the star Elves were, they would not dare to reach out to the federation's official public facilities, especially in the area of communication.

After the communication was connected, fan di entered the other party's private passage. Very quickly, the familiar voice of his grandfather, Mo Xiu, came from the other side.

"Who is it?"

"It's me..."

'fan di?' Mo Xiu was stunned. "Why did you use the public channel?"

Fan Di quickly told him what had happened just now.

Mo Xiu was silent for a few seconds. He was also a little incredulous. "Are you sure?"

"The process is like this. Although I don't know how he did it..."

After saying that, the other side was silent again. Fan Di was also waiting patiently. Indeed, such a method of directly intercepting the secret channel was a little scary.

“Unorthodox! !” After a long while, Mo Xiu snorted coldly and finally spoke.

“Grandfather...” fan di quickly said, “That son of ye Na feels a little strange. How about... We should not provoke him?”

“He was scared just like that?”

“Grandfather...”

“HMPH!” The other party snorted coldly and said, “No matter how unbelievable his performance is, there is one thing that has not changed. That is, from the beginning to the end, he was deliberately trying to intimidate you. Didn’t you notice?”

“Of course I did...” Vandi said awkwardly, “But... his performance was too scary...”

He had a life sea-level guard, was treated with courtesy by the Proud Star Elves, spoke rudely to Lord Llewita, and was treated with courtesy again. In addition, he was able to intercept the content of his own exclusive channel just now.

Everything made Vandi feel that the other party was not simple!

“Have you ever thought about it?” Mo Xiu said in a low voice, “If he was really that powerful, why would he intentionally scare you? Is there a need for a true expert to do so?”

The moment these words were said, fan di felt as though he had been enlightened... ..

That’s right... ? ... If ye Na’s son had really reached a certain level, why would he intentionally scare him?

You Don’t have to. You have to be strong enough to touch it?

Kicked the iron plate, the family should make amends, should shrink back, what need so troublesome?

“Grandpa Is Right!”

“Go and tell him that if he is in a hurry, I can teleport here directly, in the evening of tedarhill, at the nearby Black Rock Star, and I will be there!”

“Yes! !”

“Father, perhaps... I should go...”

At the other end of the line, in a hall full of amethysts, beside Moxiu stood three tall, handsome night demons.

The first is Moxiu’s eldest son: Dieson!

Moxiu shook his head: “I said that, but the little guy is a little strange, this trip is not without risk...”

The three young night demons became anxious when they heard that. The leader, Dixon, said, "Then this is the more appropriate way for me to go!"

"The family can not be separated!" Mo Xiu looked at the other party seriously. "Among the middle generation, you and Le Ling are the backbone of our family in the future. The older generation has already been praised by you guys for too long. Don't tell me that we should wait for fan di and the others to grow up before we old fellows close our eyes?"

"Father..."

Disen wanted to say something but hesitated. In the end, he sighed and did not say anything else.

After the incident with Kyle that year, the prestige of the younger generation of his generation had been greatly damaged. The elders of the family had no choice but to force themselves to continue to be in charge of the family. Most of the younger generation were so ashamed that they did not come out to take up their positions.

He was one of them, but in the end, they were the middle power of the demon clan today. Sooner or later, they would have to come out to support the situation... ..

"I'm old... .. I should be the one to try and make mistakes ... .." Mo Xiu said indifferently, "Moreover, there's no need to worry. That child is probably just a cover. At most, there are people behind him that we can't afford to offend. At that time, if there really are people behind us that we can't afford to offend, it won't be too late for us to give in..." .. ..

"Father..." a night demon beside Dixon hesitated for a moment before finally saying, "Do we have to insist on ye Na's line?"

"If there's an alternative, why would I want to take the risk?" Mo Xiu rolled his eyes at the other party and said, "Right now, among the Crown Prince, Tyrande has unparalleled power. If that lass from the Helan family is unable to imitate Kyle from back then and regain her former face, I'm afraid that she will be suppressed by the starry sky clan for a generation. Such a thing must never happen!"

After a pause, he added, "And I'd like to see... who the hell is behind that Kid!"

On the other side, Seer opened her purple eyes alone in the room. A trace of helplessness flashed in her eyes. She murmured, "I've finally reached the most troublesome step..."

Chapter 1523: The Road to the future (first)

"Father, do you think... What Seer said today is true?"

In the room, Bernos asked his father carefully... ..

Gunsh looked at his son coldly and said, "If you continue to be so useless, even if you go to your Big Brother, you won't be able to cover the wall! !"

Facing his father's eyes that seemed to see through him, Bonos lowered his head guiltily!

During the day, he had lost so much face in front of so many people. When he got back, this matter would definitely spread. If he stayed in the glorious amethyst star, he would receive that kind of strange look every day.

Today, he had only accepted it for half a day, but he already felt like he was going to break down... ..

That was why he was especially excited when he heard Xi ye mention the proposal to split up the family!

Right now, the three of them seemed to have gotten lucky. If this continued, his grandfather's fervent proposal to move the entire family would probably be put on hold indefinitely.

But he could not wait for even a day!

When he thought of the strange looks these guys gave him during the day and the disgusting comments they secretly made about him, he wanted to gouge everyone's eyes out!

Only when his elder brother's proposal was successful and the entire clan moved to his elder brother's territory, and everyone relied on his breathing, would no one dare to mention anything about what happened today!

Otherwise, he simply could not imagine what kind of hellish life it would be under those strange gazes from now on!

Seeing his youngest son lower his head guiltily, Gunner snorted coldly and no longer looked at that shameful little bastard.

How could he not see through the other party's intentions? But as a man, what future could he have if he kept running away?

Compared to Rennes, his youngest son was far inferior!

Gunner sighed, and he began to carefully think about what happened during the day.

Although he did not know what Seer was planning, this proposal was indeed the best solution at the moment. Of course, he wanted the entire Ardia family to follow him, but he also knew in his heart.., under the circumstances where the children of the second branch were so outstanding, the old man, who was seeking stability in the situation, would most likely choose the second branch.

Under such circumstances, if Rennes could not even convince the family, he would definitely be looked down upon by Lord Bolton. Once he lost his important position, all his years of effort would be in vain!

However, if they split up, with the status of his eldest branch in the family over the years, as well as Rennes' prospects, he was confident that he could convince at least 80% of the branch families to leave Eldia with him!

When that time came, even if the old man stayed behind to guard the place, the remaining branch families would only be old and inflexible. They would not be of much use!

The Key was... ? ... would Seer really be able to convince Lord Bolton? Since when was he related to Lord Bolton?

When he thought of his ideal outcome, he still had to place his hopes on that bastard from the second branch. Gunsh immediately felt like a F * cker... ..

But now... .. He could only pray that seer was not joking...

..

“Sister Mira? Are You Awake?”

The big silly man knocked on Mira’s door...

“Hulk, you’re here too?”

After opening the door, a tall figure that was almost as tall as him stood in front of him, causing the big silly man to be stunned... ..

Why was there a man in sister Mira’s room opening the door... ..

“Oh, Big Guy is here too?”

Other boys came out of the room, causing Big Guy Han to be even more stunned. There was more than one man... ..

“What are you waiting for?” Mira’s familiar voice came over, grabbing him and pulling him in. “Come in quickly...”

After the Big Guy was pulled in, he saw that the entire room was filled with people. After all, this was a place for entertaining guests. Everyone’s room was not big, and the Aldia family was big. The entire room was filled in an instant... ..

“Why are you... here too?”

The Big Guy was stunned.

“Of course, I’m here to discuss the matter during the day with sister Mira just like you...” a disciple next to him rolled his eyes at him, then, he saw the big guy’s dumbfounded face. “Aren’t you here because of this? Then why did you come to Mira so late?”

“Ahem!” The big guy immediately straightened his back. “Of course I’m the same!”

Mira rolled her eyes at him and said to the crowd, “Keep your voices down...”

“Sister Mira, do you think what cousin Seer said during the day is true?” Beside Mira., the thin man who often accompanied Mira asked curiously, “Can he really convince Rennes’ superior lord to agree to the separation?”

“I didn’t believe it before...” Mira’s expression was a little complicated. “But now...”

Everyone felt the same way. Before Yesterday, who would have thought that this fellow, who had been reviled by his family for ten thousand years, could receive such courtesy from the space elves and even be personally invited by Lord Iluweta?

Compared to this, it seemed... To convince Lord Bolton, a God who wasn't even a great lord... .. wasn't something unimaginable. ...

"Sister Mira feels that this matter is likely to succeed?"

"I feel that... the probability is... yes..." mira nodded honestly.

Everyone immediately took a deep breath. In the narrow room, the group of burly men fell silent for a moment.

After a long time, someone carefully said, "Sister Mira, if we really split up, which is the best place to go?"

"You talk as if you can make the decision..."Mira rolled her eyes at everyone. "Do you have a lot of power at home?"

"We can't say for sure now!"Some of the big men proudly puffed out their chests. Now that they had received the blessing, they felt that their bodily functions had almost doubled, they had an inexplicable sense of confidence that they could do what they couldn't do in the past.

Almost everyone felt that if they were to participate in the general exam this year, Xandar Academy would definitely win!

Those who were selected to participate in the grand ceremony were all pure warriors. If they were to be admitted into Xandar Academy, they would be in the regular warrior class. After graduation, they would be the generals that many lords would fight for. It wasn't something that a normal class could compare to... ..

Normally, after graduating from Xandar Academy, if they reached the standard, they would be at least level nine. Furthermore, their foundations were extremely good and their potential was extremely high. Once they graduated, many lords would be given military ranks at the regional colonel level.

As long as they did not die on the battlefield, when they grew up, most of them would be able to become a level seven planet commander. The better ones would even be able to become a level six or five star. In the side family, they were considered the pillar of support. Although they had not grown to that level yet, ... But their words carried some weight...

Looking at these arrogant fellows digging their butts, Mira shook her head with a smile. She took a deep breath and became serious.

Not only for the others, but also for herself. Her parents were the stewards of the glorious amethyst star. Usually, they relied on their big families. If her parents had to choose, they would most likely follow her uncle.

However, this wasn't what she wanted. Moreover, she thought that most of the people in the room didn't want this result... ..

"What do you think? Tell Us First!"Mira lowered her voice and said seriously!

Chapter 1524: The Road to the future (part two)

“What do you think?”

Mira’s question caused the room to fall into silence once again. Everyone looked at each other with hesitation in their eyes.

“Since you’re all asking me, it’s impossible for you to not have any thoughts at all, right?” Mira said with a straight face, “If you only want me to say it, then go back...”

“Don’t be angry, sister Mira...” a few of the disciples at the side hurriedly smiled and said, “It’s not a big deal. Some of the thoughts are immature, so I’m embarrassed to say it...”

Mira looked at them indifferently without saying anything. Seeing that they couldn’t be perfunctory, they immediately glared at each other and said, “What are you looking at? Sister Mira wants us to say it first. Why are you all pretending to be stupid?”

“You’re the one pretending to be stupid, aren’t you?” The skinny man rolled his eyes at him, then, he looked at Mira. “Sister Mira, I think so. My Uncle’s drawing is too big. He said that it’s the resources of a whole galaxy, but I think... .. It sounds too ideal. Compared to that, staying in the glorious amethyst star is safer. Moreover, after my uncle takes his people away, we will get more resources. You know that warriors like me who walk in the agility department have to eat high-level alchemy equipment. We need more stable resources ... “...”

“You say that as if no one needs it...”. “...”. “Your equipment problem is something you have to consider after you graduate. During the school period, the school has high-level equipment to try out. At least, we can use it to increase our proficiency. However, for warriors like me who cultivate the berserker system, we need more resources in our blood and Qi. If we don’t have enough resources during the golden period, we will have less potential to grow. People like us are the ones who lack stable resources...”. “...”

The other disciples looked at the two of them and interjected. After all, the warrior class required the most energy during the gold cultivation period. The other classes, especially the spirit class, grew their spiritual cores, even if they missed the gold cultivation period, the effects would not be fatal. As long as the conditions were sufficient, they could still make up for it in the later stages.

However, the warrior system was different. If they missed the golden period, unless they encountered a treasure that replenished their qi and blood, the upper limit would be affected.

This was the same for weapon warriors, agility warriors, and berserkers who needed resources the most. The people in the room were all disciples who were about to participate in the next general exam. The last thing they wanted was to have problems with their original resources!

Rennes had drawn a big picture. The commander of a Galaxy had a massive amount of resources to provide to his family. It was a beautiful blueprint to see the future.

However, it always gave people the feeling that they were weak. They didn’t know if they would rise to fame or not. However, if something happened to them, their entire lives would be ruined...

Seeing that everyone seemed to be interested in preserving the resources of the glorious amethyst star, Mira nodded slightly.

Most of the people who could come here were the juniors who had to rely on their own cultivation. They were different from the fourth elder's kid who only wanted to have a piece of pie falling from the sky.

Everybody knew that the promises made by outsiders weren't as reliable as their own. With the stable resources here, they could at least graduate from a high school. If they went there, they might not be able to... ..

Seeing that everyone had spoken out their innermost thoughts, Mira did not hide it anymore and spoke out her own analysis.

"My personal intentions are the same as most of you. I prefer to stay here. There are many reasons, I'll explain them one by one..."

Mira looked at everyone and said seriously, "First of all, there's the issue of the Big House's promise. I believe that if the first batch of people were to follow them, they would definitely be highly valued by Rennes. After all, he's currently lacking manpower. It can't be said that it's all a pie in the sky over there. It can only be said that the risk is very high!"

"There are too many unknown things. For example, where exactly is the galaxy allocated to cousin Rennes? Is it a high-resource area or a desolate area?" "I feel that although the Bolton faction is a very popular emerging faction, it's still a new faction after all. A Lord that rose to prominence in a short era, it's probably impossible to say that every galaxy under his control is a resource galaxy, right?"

"Lord Bolton is mainly relying on the abyssal faction. Although he has stated that he wants to accept foreign families, he will definitely not say that he has wronged his own trusted aides. The galaxy that cousin Rennes is in is most likely the weakest one among the factions. Then, the question is, how bad is it?"

"Is it possible that it is a desolate galaxy? The kind that does not see a single life planet even if it is millions of light years away?"

"Ugh..." everybody was surprised. "It's... Not that bad, is it?"

"It's hard to say..." "..." Mira smiled. "I think even if it's better, it won't be much better. At least, we need a lot of time to explore. The Galaxy we need to explore won't be a mature resource galaxy. It's not that there's no chance for such a galaxy. On the contrary, it's very likely that we will encounter a treasure. As long as we can find a high-grade star above level 3, it's enough for our Eldia family to eat the resources lying down!"

Hearing him, the others nodded. The resources that Eldia enjoyed now were just the rights of a resident in the glorious amethyst star. Compared to the resources of a level 3 star, of course, they were worlds apart!

"But exploration takes time..." "..." "If I were a dragon-level warrior, or even a high-level warrior whose bones and blood have fully developed, I might have tried to explore it. But it's different now. We are all warriors who are still growing. We Can't wait for this golden period. If we don't have enough resources in the past, we won't be able to level up in the future. Everything is just empty talk. Rennes has found a level 3 star. He can recruit more excellent warriors from the outside world, or he can continue to help his juniors. But what about us?"

Everyone nodded repeatedly. They only felt that it wasn't very stable. After listening to Mila's detailed analysis, they suddenly felt that it was too unstable!

"On the other hand, cousin Seer's side..." when Mila mentioned cousin seer, everyone's expression didn't change. They acted as if it was a matter of course. Mila smiled in her heart.

It seemed that it wasn't just her own power. Everyone was like this. These few days, the benefits were real. Almost no one had mentioned that the family had once been a disaster. It was very easy to call cousin seer... ..

"On cousin Seer's side, as a god, he has already established his footing. Although his influence is definitely not as wide as Lord Bolton's, the future is within his grasp. After all, he has the final say in the entire influence. Unlike eldest cousin's side, where there are too many variables and fate is placed in the hands of outsiders, when cousin Seer's influence develops, the Ardia family should at least be able to enjoy preferential treatment, right?"

"And then there are the two youngest sons of the second branch. Cousin Chen Ye and cousin Nicole have amazing aptitude. They are both in the top ten schools. Second Uncle also said that they will definitely come back and join the fifth Legion of the Glorious Amethyst Star. Whether it's a magical beast master or a master of the mind, they are both jobs that are not easy to lose. Moreover, they are Lord Iluweta's troops. They are safer and more stable. If nothing unexpected happens, our Eldia family's status on the glorious amethyst star will rise steadily. We might even have a chance to become a small noble. At that time, our resources will be more abundant. Although it won't be as profitable as Rennes's, it's more reliable..." . "..."

"Then there's what you guys just said. After uncle took away a portion of the people, the resources left behind by everyone will be increased. This is especially important for those of us who are about to be admitted to school!"

Everyone nodded their heads repeatedly. Mira's every sentence had hit the nail on the head. Now that everyone was a student who was about to take the exam, the most important thing was naturally to provide resources after entering the university, how could they have the energy to wait for Rennes to slowly mine for interstellar resources?

Milan saw everyone nod and smiled. "I'll stay anyway. I'll forcefully dissuade my parents from going to Rennes. As for you guys, it's up to you..."

Everyone looked at each other and fell silent for a moment. Although they had said that their voices were higher now, it was hard to say if they could dissuade their parents... ..

But the future had to be in their own hands... ..

Chapter 1525: Third Maternal ancestor...

It was not a peaceful day, not only for the Ardia family, but even more so for the outsider, Fan Di...

Seer set off after breakfast. He told the Ardia family that he was going to meet the demon lord Bolton. Fan Di did not know if that was true. But he knew the first person he was going to see wouldn't be that demon lord... .

Kuroshiite is a mineral star located at the boundary between the bronze and starry families. It is rich in kuroshiite, but it is rare that this valuable mineral star does not belong to either side.

The reason is that this location is very sensitive to the boundary line, either side occupy this line of mineral star will cause the other side dissatisfaction, in order not to cause a dispute, the boundary line on the belt has become a neutral planet.

Obviously, any place like this would generally become a place for underground pirates, a third market, and some private and shady businesses of the families. There were all sorts of people mixed in.

Due to the rich mineral resources on the black mineral planet, the forces that mixed in were extremely complicated. There were aristocrats from the upper levels of the starry sky and bronze, pirates who were in charge of buying and selling black industries, and black-hearted gnomes who were in charge of the market. It seemed to be a remote place, in fact, it was a rather prosperous place.

But today, this originally bustling black industry planet had become a little quiet. Many markets that were originally in the center had been set up with barriers and were closed for business, the originally bustling black market was surprisingly not functioning normally today.

The reason was very simple. One of the big shots among them, a pirate force that had Night Demon's backing, was the first to greet them. Their family had private matters to deal with here. As a big shot, they still had some face, although many factions had different interests, they basically wouldn't refute the other party's request.

But what was very curious was who had offended the night demon clan?

The person that the Night Demon clan had sent this time, some knowledgeable people were very familiar with him. He was one of the top noble families of the Night Demon clan, the third elder of the Na Ye family: Mo Xiu!

He was also one of the secret swords of the Night Demon clan!

The Night Demon clan was a high-level race that placed great importance on the inheritance of secret techniques. Secret techniques were considered an honorable title in the clan. Possessing secret techniques meant that the clan had a good foundation, and the secret sword was the title of the night demon clan's strongest swordmaster.

Currently, there were nine surviving secret swords in the Night Demon clan, and the Na Ye clan's Mo Xiu was ranked fifth!

Such a figure could be considered a top-notch figure in the universe. With him personally making a move, then who was the person standing in front of them this time?

Many people were very curious, because looking at the Na Ye clan's stance, it didn't seem like they were here to discuss business!

Just like that, under this oppressive atmosphere, the mineral star's air, which originally didn't have a very good quality, became even more oppressive. Many people waited patiently in a depressed mood, feeling as if every minute and second was exceptionally long.

Finally... .. After about three more weeks, a figure that was much smaller than they had imagined slowly approached.

To say that he was small did not refer to his physique. To be honest, his physique was much larger. Compared to night demon's slender figure, the person opposite him was tall and big. He was also wearing a thick and mighty armor, making him appear even more burly.

However, his physique could not conceal his small aura. Compared to the aura of the Nye clan, he was like an ant staring at the vast sky, giving off an extremely asymmetrical feeling!

"He's a deity..."

In the faction that was secretly observing, a lady from the Red Lotus clan, who was also one of the kelp factions behind the large clans, looked at the elder beside her and said cautiously.

"Interesting..." at the side.., a red lotus man who looked young and handsome, but actually had several epochs of growth rings, smoked a stick of tobacco and said with a smile, "Judging from his aura, that little grand lord is only around level ten. The guard behind him is rather interesting..."

"Guard?" The junior beside him looked behind the little deity. Indeed, there was a tall guard behind him. His aura was as heavy as a mountain, instantly giving people the feeling that he was of that level... ..

"Are you sure that's a guard?" The junior was a little puzzled. As an outstanding junior of the current generation of the Red Lotus clan, she was also an expert who had one foot in the star level. With just a glance, she could clearly see that the armored warrior behind the little deity.., had a profound aura. He was at least at the fate sea level!

"So, isn't this interesting?" Elder Red Lotus shook the pipe in his hand, with a smile on his face, he said, "There are only a handful of families that can afford to use a sea of life level guard. I don't have to tell you everything, but I know most of it. This is the first time I've seen someone covered in armor like this."

"Uncle, you can't see through that armor either?"

This junior was a little surprised. His uncle was the sword instructor of the Red Lotus Imperial Family and also a guardian-level Tianyuan powerhouse, but he still couldn't see through that Little Deity's armor?

"It seems... There will be a good show to watch today..." that person put away his pipe and looked at the knight behind Xi Ye with a smile. His eyes narrowed slightly. If he wasn't mistaken, that Knight was a Titan, right?

It was rare to see a Tianyuan expert of a Golden Titan. How come he had never heard of it before?

"Senior, you've waited for a long time..."

After Xi ye landed, he looked at the group of high-level night demons who were waiting in formation. His gaze didn't change at all. He led the female knight behind him and slowly walked forward, bowing to Old Man Mo Xiu who was waiting in the middle.

Mo Xiu, who was sitting on the ground, slowly opened his eyes. The Night Demon clan's unique night vision eyes blossomed with a strange and beautiful black lotus. He carefully looked at the little deity who dared to come to the appointment.

Just like the intelligence report, the armor and mask on the little deity's body were extraordinary. Even someone of his level could not see through it at all.

Moreover, it should not only be used for concealment, but it should also be used to isolate his aura. He did not conceal his aura at all. It was the same for the warriors of the surrounding clans. With the other party's level., logically speaking, under such an aura, he should not even be able to get close to this planet.

However, he was able to walk in front of him unscathed. His gaze was extremely calm as he bowed, as if his group of people did not exist... ..

"It is indeed something..." Mo Xiu smiled as he looked at Xi Ye.

"Senior, you flatter me..." Xi ye bowed slightly.

"Your mother is a descendant of mine by blood. Based on our relationship, you should call me third maternal ancestor!"

"Third maternal ancestor..." Xi Ye did not argue and directly followed Mo Xiu's words. ...

"Since we're family... There's no need to beat around the bush on some things..." Mo Xiu placed a black longsword on the ground, a strange clear sound rang out, and the area that spanned over a thousand square kilometers with the two of them at the center was instantly separated by a purple-black sword aura.

The moment it was cut open, it was as if this area had nothing to do with the entire planet, completely isolating the people watching from the side. Everything., be it sound, light, or even the planet's own law domain, everything was isolated!

"Oh Ho..." the elder of the Red Lotus clan lit up the cigarette again in disappointment. "We won't be able to see the fun anymore..."

In the completely isolated sword domain, Seer looked at night demon in front of him. His gaze remained unchanged, but the atmosphere between them had clearly become tense.

"What is third maternal ancestor trying to do?"

Chapter 1526: "If you die, will there be another one?"?

"What is third maternal ancestor trying to do?" Xi Ye asked calmly.

Mo Xiu narrowed his eyes as he looked at this junior who seemed like nothing could scare him. The surrounding warriors who were accompanying him secretly raised their auras. Although their bodies did not move at all., however, the muscles on their bodies were still stretched to the extreme. With just one command, they could instantly turn into a sharp sword and cut everything in their sight into pieces!

“It’s naturally inconvenient for outsiders to listen in when we’re talking as a family, isn’t it?” Mo Xiu said with a smile.

“What third maternal ancestor said makes sense...” Xi ye usually looked at him. “Now that the Outsiders are gone, what does third maternal ancestor want to say to me as a Family?”

“Since you’re here, you must have a general idea...” Mo Xiu sat on the ground and rubbed his fingers gently. He said with a smile, “There is no substitute for the mission your mother brought, and this mission must be carried out!”

“How much must it be?” Xi Ye said with a smile, “You want to risk the lives of my family members?”

“Of course, we will ensure the safety of the Eldia Family!” Mo Xiu smiled. “On the first day of the mission, we will send sea-level experts to protect the Eldia family. If the situation isn’t right, we will bring the in-laws to the North Star area immediately. I also promise that no matter if the mission is successful or not, the Eldia family will enjoy the position of Earl in the Night Demon clan. They will have a fixed land and permanent residence in Purple Dark Star!”

Xi Ye nodded slightly. Zi You Planet was one of the nine super stars of Night Demon clan. Moreover, it was the largest trading planet of the Night Demon clan. Its geographical location and the resources enjoyed by its residents were even higher than that of Zi Yao Planet, many families had worked hard for several eras, but they still couldn’t get a legal account on this planet!

The conditions were generous. If they were talking about the benefits of their families, they wouldn’t hesitate to sign the agreement with the risk of a descendant of the second branch.

Unfortunately, the person in front of him was obviously not...

Mo Xiu could see that the other party was not interested...

As expected, the next second, he heard the other party say, “These things are not the reason for my biological brother to take the risk, nor is it the reason for this Lord’s mother to force her child to take the risk!”

“So... You’re not willing?” Mo Xiu sighed and slowly stood up. He picked up the sword beside him that had divided the entire space... ..

The gazes of the surrounding experts were as quick as lightning. The instant they looked at Xi Ye, it was as if the entire starry sky was gathering lightning, as if they were about to tear Xi ye apart in the next second!

Bang!

At the same time, the tall figure behind Xi ye slowly stepped forward. With just a single step, the incomparably thick aura of the experts instantly shattered the killing intent of the experts. It was as if a sharp blade had met an incomparably solid city wall, the difference in size made these blades look incomparably small. Before they were even brandished, one could already tell that they were not injured in the slightest!

“Is this the expert that fan di spoke of?” Mo Xiu looked at the other party. “Golden Titan, Tianyuan Sea of life. I didn’t think that after the dark lord passed away, the Titan lineage would still have such a rising talent. With your growth rings, to be able to reach this step, you are a top-notch talent!”

These words were spoken in the manner of an elder to a junior!

However, it was also true. Mo Xiu was a powerhouse that had survived for more than a hundred eras. He was naturally on a different level from a young Titan junior like Ionelle.

Ionelle’s gaze did not move. She slowly pulled out her long sword!

“The radiance of Dawn?” Mo Xiu immediately laughed. “Interesting, so it’s you... . Didn’t you work for the Great Lord Eve? Why did you switch to this place?”

Then, he looked at seer. “So that’s what’s behind you?”

Lord Eve was one of the great lords and one of the guardian gods of the Night Demon clan. Her status was on par with the royal family, so she was quite important.

Moxiu laughed. “As expected of a family. Since that’s the case, you should support this mission even more. This mission is related to the glory of the Night Demon clan. Even Lord Eve wouldn’t refuse, right?”

“As for safety, you can rest assured. I can promise you that whatever level of Protection Helana has, your brother Chenye will have the same level. If something happens, we will protect your brother with the highest level!”

“Highest level?” Seer took a step forward and raised her right hand slightly. It was as if there was a black hole in her palm, and everything in her line of sight was distorted by that inexplicable black...

“What does your highest level mean in Teldrassil? “If something really happened to Helana, she’s a noble from another family. At least she won’t attack me on the surface. You have a positive reason to protect her, but Chen Ye is a traitor. Do you have no reason to protect her in secret? “Can your people protect a junior who’s not even level 10 in Teldrassil in secret? “Does third maternal ancestor really think that I’m a Child?”

Mo Xiu looked at Xi Ye, and for the first time, a trace of solemnity appeared in his eyes. No matter how illogical the other party’s previous actions were, it was nothing in his eyes. At most, he did not know the reason. The other party’s true size.., he actually did not believe that it was that big.

But now, that thing in the other party’s hand gave him a real sense of threat... ..

It was definitely not a bluff, because the warning of the threat came from himself!

“Risks are often equal to benefits. Everything in the world is relative!” Mo Xiu said indifferently, “Your brother is taking risks, but there are also huge opportunities. As long as he can help Nana complete the mission, we will promise him to enter the Royal Magical Beast Secret Academy and receive the best training. You should also know that if you want to succeed, you have to take some risks...”. “...”. “...”

“That’s a voluntary situation...” seer said coldly, “I’ve never heard of anyone who succeeded by pressing someone else’s head. They’re just using their power to bully others. Third maternal ancestor feels that you’re powerful, so you’re forcing them, that’s all...”

“Then what do you mean?” The other party directly shed all pretense of cordiality, and Mo Xiu did not waste any more words. “Are you trying to prove that you’re not someone we can bully with our power? On what basis? On the basis of Lord Eve behind you?”

“First of all...” Xi ye raised his right hand, and the black vortex in his hand slowly enlarged. “The Lord Eve you mentioned has nothing to do with me...”

“Is that so?” Mo Xiu’s pupils constricted, and his muscles tensed up.

“I’ve asked a question, shouldn’t you answer me as well?”

Mo Xiu: “You Say...”

“If third maternal ancestor dies, will there be another one to test you?”

“No!” Mo Xiu laughed, the sword in his hand pointed straight at the other party. “If you can eat me, it proves that you have the ability to reject our forceful request. Regardless of whether it’s the Na ye family or the night demon nobles, there will be no further tests. The prerequisite is that you can do it. My good maternal great-grandson, stop pretending to be mysterious. If you can do it, then come!”

Chapter 1527: Trump Card (I) !

Apart from being a sword master, Mo Xiu’s more realistic identity was that of a hunter who helped his family search for darkness-type creatures in the ancient lands. As a hunter, he deeply believed in one principle: creatures that could really bite people... Usually, they wouldn’t bluff and Roar... ..

There was only one use for the roars of primitive creatures, and that was to intimidate!

And usually, the reason for the intimidation was because they did not know the other party’s background, otherwise... A normal carnivore would usually choose to lurk beside the other party instead of making useless roars to alert the enemy.

Many of the laws of the jungle were actually the same in reality. For example, this young man in front of him seemed to have many points that people feared, but his bluff actually revealed his own characteristics of a guilty conscience.

He had been wielding a sword all his life and had lived for a long time. He had seen more storms than many young people had heard of. Of course, he would not be scared by a creature that only knew how to roar, even if this guy’s roar was unusually fierce!

“Come on, Great-grandson!” The moment Mo Xiu picked up the sword, he was a heroic swordsman. Even if the other side was an intergalactic army, he would not waver in the slightest with a single sword. After so many years.., when he picked up his sword, he had never flinched!

“I’m Sorry!” Xi Ye nodded slightly and raised her right hand gently. Instantly, the black hole in her hand enlarged. Without any warning, everyone felt that the mysterious black hole had covered them!

The group of experts stood up in shock. They looked around vigilantly and adjusted their breathing to check their bodies!

Their vision wasn’t wrong at that instant. The obviously dangerous object in the other party’s hand had covered them, causing their powerful neural reactions to be completely useless. Just like that, they were instantly covered... ..

But the most important thing was... After being covered, it seemed as though nothing had happened, and they didn’t receive any injuries either. ...

What was going on? Could it be an illusion?

While everyone was puzzled and wary of the other party, they stealthily looked at the leader, Mo Xiu...

The long sword in Mo Xiu’s hand stood upright, his aura unchanged, but there was a trace of surprise in his heart!

The swordsmen he brought were all star-ranked experts, so their reactions to laws were slower, so they hadn’t completely felt it yet. However, he had felt it, the instant the thing in the other party’s hand enveloped them, he had felt it.., the other party had stripped away the laws in the surroundings!

Right... .. It wasn’t control, but deprivation. The chaotic magnetic field and clearly changing laws made him understand that the other party had done an incredible thing!

He had changed the original laws within this black mineral planet!

“With your size, you shouldn’t be able to do it...” Mo Xiu narrowed his eyes as he looked at the other party, he had displayed a heroic demeanor just now, but he did not make a move immediately. Although he was a swordsman, he had the mentality of a hunter. The fighting style of a hunter was more suitable for observing and finding opportunities. He would not be affected by the aura of an ordinary warrior, and would not charge forward courageously... ..

What had he done?

The surrounding experts looked at the other party in shock. It was clear that they were not mistaken just now. And from Mo Xiu’s attitude, it seemed that the other party had done something extraordinary... ..

Mo Xiu looked at the weak deity that seemed to be able to shatter with just a touch, gripping the hilt of his sword solemnly... ..

He had chosen the familiar black mineral planet because he did not want the other party to do anything to the region. The laws of this planet belonged to the chaotic constitution. If a deity were to use his domain here, he would be greatly hindered. It would even cause the domain of many factions to erode...

With the other party's level 10 deity domain standard, if he were to release his domain, theoretically speaking, there would not even be a single bubble in this chaotic region...

However, the other party had almost instantly eroded the surroundings. Yes, the word was not wrong, it was erosion. It was like facing a huge and complicated system. The other party had released a virus, instantly infecting this complex system and controlling this place!

This wasn't a domain! !

Mo Xiu's dark eyes flashed. He pointed the longsword in his hand, and a sword Qi that seemed to be able to pierce through the heavens soared into the sky. In an instant, the surrounding scene shattered like glass, the powerful sword aura instantly caused the unstable space in the surroundings to completely shatter!

However, after the shattering, what was hidden in the ordinary space was a scene that caused one's hair to stand on end!

After the normal space had shattered, it should have been a vacuum. However, when the space had shattered, there were dense threads within, ice blue threads!

These threads were like the blood vessels of living beings, covering the entire space, as though they had entered the body of a monster!

What was this?

The group of star level experts stared at the ice blue threads around them, looking at those squirming things, a strong sense of uneasiness rose within their hearts!

"Yimo? ?" Mo Xiu took a deep breath and stared fixedly at the other party. "You actually dare to explain yourself to this thing? Do you know what you're doing?"

"Why must the third maternal ancestor act like this?" Xi Ye laughed coldly. "The Night Demon clan was originally a mix of the abyss. During the Elf era, their status was low. However, during the chaotic period, they suddenly rose up and became one of the five great imperial clans. Did they really rely on themselves? "Could it be that they didn't rely on this thing as well?"

What?

The group of Night Demon's high ranked swordmasters were stunned when they heard this. They looked at the other party in shock. What was he saying?

The Yimo was a taboo, a taboo that was wanted by the god Federation. This little god actually said that the night demon had started from this thing?

What nonsense was this little bastard spouting?

The group of star-ranked juniors were about to rebuke the other party when they were surprised to discover that their Lord Mo Xiu did not have any intention of refuting. Their hearts immediately jumped...

Could it be...

"Looks like... The thing that's haunting you isn't simple..." Mo Xiu looked at Xi ye: "To be able to know such a secret, it must be at least an ancient level!"

Everyone:"!!!"

Their lord... admitted it!

"But so what?" Mo Xiu's expression was ice cold as he looked at Xi ye: "Even if its origin isn't simple, even if it's an ancient existence that came alive during the Elf era, so what? "Yimo... "It doesn't have any combat ability. You Don't need me to teach you this, right?"

"Under normal circumstances..." Seer took a step forward, and fine frost began to appear beneath his feet. ...

"But if there are enough things for it to devour, as its foundation, it can have endless combat ability!"

"Enough things?" Mo Xiu chuckled coldly. "With just you? A Level 10 sky god, how many things can you provide it with? If you were a high-level lord that completely controlled more than 10 galaxies, I might have been scared by you. The current you, Hehe...". "..."

Xi Ye did not reply. Instead, he said to the female knight who had just protected him, "Ionelle, Retreat!"

Ionelle nodded and slowly retreated behind Xi Ye. After she retreated, Xi Ye took a step forward. Instantly, the blue silk threads that filled the sky emitted a strange light. In the next instant..., an incomparably powerful pressure descended from the sky!

Bang Bang Bang!

A strange scene appeared. The experts of the Na Ye clan actually knelt to the ground under Xi Ye's Stomp!!!

Chapter 1528: Trump Card (below) !

What was going on?

The group of night demons who were lying on the ground were greatly shocked. They felt as though their backs were bearing the weight of the entire planet, causing them to be unable to even lift their heads. They could only bitterly use their hands to support themselves!

At this moment, Mo Xiu's muscles were also tensed up as he felt the pressure. This was not an illusion, nor was it some kind of deviant path. Instead, it was a pure energy pressure. His physiological reaction would not be wrong. This heavy energy... ! ... was a real energy!

Mo Xiu looked at Xi Ye in shock. At this moment, countless things that looked like snow and frost fell from the sky around Xi Ye. These seemingly soft snow and frost carried boundless energy. Space that could be seen with the naked eye condensed in front of his eyes, it was condensed by that enormous energy!

“How is this possible?” Mo Xiu was clearly in disbelief. This energy was clearly brought by the Yimo. However, this level of energy, this high-level energy, was at least at the level of a special-class star? In other words, only the resources of at least ten star systems in a high-resource star could mobilize this level of energy.

How could a level 10 little lord like him possess such resources?

If he did, he shouldn't be such a low-level little lord right now. The power of a Sky God came from his own power. If his power was really that big, he should be at least a great lord now, right?

The situation before him seemed to have exceeded his expectations!

“I'm sorry, third maternal ancestor!” Xi Ye took a step forward. His tone was as cold as frost, giving off a bone-chilling feeling.

“Even if you've made up your mind to send you on your way, before you really do it, the things you want to know will still not be revealed to you...”

Mo Xiu looked at the other party in shock. The other party's tone and eyes were filled with an incomparably resolute and icy-cold killing intent. From the start, the other party had not intended to talk about it... ..

However, it was also true. To be able to reveal the foundation of a YIMO, it was obvious that he was not here to talk about matters!

Before coming here, he had already thought that he might encounter a life and death danger. However, it was not the critical moment yet. In his heart, there was a high probability that he still did not believe that a yellow-mouthed child could really threaten him.

However, from the looks of it now, it seemed that he had seen wrongly!

Buzz! ! !

Mo Xiu took a deep breath. The longsword in his hand rumbled and an endless stream of sword qi soared into the sky. In an instant, the space that was about to be frozen was instantly crushed into pieces by this powerful sword intent!

Not far away, Lonelle's pupils constricted slightly, and her eyes were filled with solemnity!

As expected of an expert who had been famous for a long time, the secret sword of the Night Demon Imperial clan. In terms of strength, it was probably on the same level as the ten great liches. She, who had just become a heaven's origin expert, had absolutely no chance of winning if she were to really fight with the other party!

This was not fear before a battle, but a clear understanding. For such an expert, perhaps only the tooth spirit that she had seen yesterday would dare to say that she could firmly suppress the other party!

However, she was not worried, because the origin of the power that Xi Ye was trying out was even more terrifying!

There was only one chance!

This time, Mo Xiu completely withdrew his previous contempt, treating the little deity in front of him as a true opponent, and a formidable one at that!

His battle instincts, which had been battling for many years, told him that in this situation, he would only have one chance to make a move!

Sure enough, in less than half a second, the sharp sword intent that he had just released was quickly frozen. The power that seemed to be able to freeze anything shocked Mo Xiu!

Without any hesitation, Mo Xiu mustered all his strength and charged at his opponent with incomparably sharp sword qi!

The Sword Qi that filled the sky was quickly retracted, turning into stars and the tip of the sword. The power of the star core around his body was completely poured in. The full power of the life sea and Heavenly Yuan was enough to destroy a Milky Way galaxy, however, at this moment, it was concentrated in a space that was less than a millimeter!

However, those who were familiar with Mo Xiu knew that this was his trump card, the secret sword: White Star!

It was rumored that there was a strange type of star in the universe. It was a pure white crystal star that was produced under extremely harsh conditions. Its entire body was crystal clear, but it was also incomparably magical. This was because after the star formed, it would instantly collapse all of its energy, not a single bit of it would remain in the space that was the size of a grain of rice. At that instant, the tiny stardust that formed would be even more dazzling than the sun. In the end, it would bring all of its energy to the star region that would allow it to grow even more!

This was the birth process of some star devouring beasts. The grain of rice that formed was also the egg of the star beast. It was known as the White Star!

Mo Xiu's secret technique came from this. It was a secret technique that he had created after witnessing the process of the white star when he was heavily injured and on the verge of death. It had already been kept by the Night Demon Imperial family as one of the top secret techniques!

The so-called secret sword was a title that could only be obtained by creating a secret skill that was worthy of being kept in the imperial family's collection. The essence of Mo Xiu's entire life was above this move!

He had relied on this move to become famous. And now that he was in a life and death situation, he believed in this move that he had created himself and not any other secret skill that he had cultivated in the imperial family!

It was truly wonderful!

Xi Ye's pupils constricted. As he was familiar with the laws, he instantly understood the principles behind the other party's secret skill. However, it was precisely because he understood it that he was surprised.

This skill that could compress energy to the extreme was indeed worthy of being called the secret skill of the imperial family of the Night Demon!

No longer dare to have the slightest carelessness, seer completely will be the largest power hidden by the Yimo released!

A moment, the entire space is ice blue, Xi ye behind a huge door opened, behind the huge door, is a gray!

Is carrying boundless sword intent to kill to Xi Ye Mo Xiu pupil constriction, see Xi ye behind the huge door in an instant all over the body muscles are stiff down!

This is...

The distant gray-white world, exclusive with a world to let the world fear of the strong, at this time sitting on the frozen throne slowly opened his eyes.

The eyes of eternal ice are the eerie green of the dead... . .

“My Lord?”

Next to him, the lich in charge of waiting was suddenly startled awake by the adults, hurriedly saluted and asked: “But what happened?”

His Lordship had been recovering from his injuries all these years. The last time he went out, he had even delayed his recovery. Under normal circumstances, if it wasn't necessary, his lordship shouldn't have woken up so early... ..

“HM... something interesting indeed happened...”

The Lich was stunned, and then he was shocked to discover that the god weapon beside his lordship, the god weapon that had almost changed the material universe world, was actually in a state of activation...

“His lordship, this is...”

“Don't be nervous...”the white haired prince on the throne smiled, “It's just a resonance after feeling the same power...”

“The same power?”The Lich was stunned, “How can there be the same power as his lordship in this world?”

“There is...”the prince raised his head slightly, looking at the unchanging grey sky, “I just didn't think he would dare to use it!”

“Look, someone is coming out! !”

On the black mineral star, the people who were watching outside the barrier immediately became alert. It was obvious that someone had walked out from the space that was cut off by the powerful sword qi...

...

The people hurriedly raised their eyes and looked over. The Red Lotus expert who had been smoking tobacco in the southeast direction, who seemed to be very calm all this time, raised his head and looked over. Then, his face slightly froze... ..

Because the one who had walked out was the little deity with his guards!

The Red Lotus tribe expert frowned and slowly stood up. His pair of Red Lotus eyes flickered with divine light as if he wanted to see through the barrier behind the other party!

However, in the next second, he realized that there was no need to do so. A gust of light wind blew past. The sharp sword Qi that had originally cut off the space was blown away by the light wind like clouds. The isolated space also appeared in front of everyone after the sword Qi dissipated.

Immediately after, waves of gasps of cold air were heard throughout the surroundings...

Everyone could clearly see that after the cloud of smoke dissipated, there were ice sculptures that were frozen inside. and the person in the lead was Mo Xiu, who was raising his sword!

“This...”the red lotus expert’s pupils constricted. As an expert of the same level, he immediately noticed the tip of Mo Xiu’s sword. It contained an extremely terrifying amount of energy. Clearly, it was the opponent’s famous secret skill!

This old fellow’s secret technique... had been frozen?

Bang...

Just as he was still in shock, a clear sound rang out. All the ice sculptures, including Mo Xiu, instantly shattered, turning into dust that drifted in the wind.

The energy that had gathered at the tip of the sword was like an illusion. There was nothing at all as it dissipated in front of everyone’s eyes... ..

And the mysterious Heavenly God who had caused all of this had left the planet without even turning his head around in the midst of the crowd whose breathing had stagnated... ..

Chapter 1529: Chance Encounter!

“Uncle... This Is...”

On the black mineral star, the entire place was frighteningly quiet. It was as if the air had frozen.

The junior of the Red Lotus clan only dared to speak telepathically, afraid that he would break some sort of balance... ..

“Hiss...”the expert of the Red Lotus clan who was called Uncle stood up and put away the pipe in his hand. He took a deep breath and said, “Something big has happened...”

The Red Lotus clan was also one of the five great imperial clans. Their relationship with the Night Demon clan was far better than that with the space elves. Speaking of which, other than the Divine Ao clan, the other members of the five great imperial clans like bronze, Red Lotus, and Night Demon did not have much interest in the space elves, the Red Lotus and bronze clans had a long-term alliance.

Although they could not be considered as allies with the Night Demon clan, they had cooperated with each other many times. As a result, they had more or less had contact with each other's higher-ups.

This man from the Red Lotus clan was called Gu. He was the second elder of the Red Lotus Peak Divine Feathers clan. He was also one of the four great sword sects of the Red Lotus clan. This time, he was mainly here to represent the imperial family and the bronze imperial family to discuss the collaboration in the future, it just so happened that he came to this black mineral planet because the clan had an important business deal. He was also here to take charge of the overall situation.

He did not expect to encounter such a scene!

Mo Xiu...

Gu looked solemnly at the place where Mo Xiu had disappeared. Until now, he still felt a little incredulous!

He had dealt with Mo Xiu many times, and had also fought with him many times. Although they were all superficial, he was very clear about his opponent's swordsmanship attainments.

There were not many Tianyuan powerhouses in the federation to begin with, and they were all at the level of a clan's guardian. Moreover, most of them were not very good at fighting, such as Arcanists and fortune-tellers who were not of the transformation element.

Therefore, warriors, especially life Sea Tianyuan masters who were swordsmen, were even rarer. In terms of overall combat strength, Mo Xiu was definitely one of the above-average Tianyuan Masters.

But today, he was defeated by a little god who looked like he was only a level-10?

The key was not only his strength, but also Mo Xiu's background. He was a master of the royal family, so what was his background?

"Uncle... Do you want to investigate the other party's background?"The woman beside him asked.

"I definitely want to investigate..."gu replied in a low voice, "But be careful, don't alarm or provoke him. The other party is likely to be able to kill Mo Xiu as well as me!"

"Even if he has the ability, he wouldn't dare to casually make a move, right?"The woman frowned.

"Then do you think that night demon is weaker than us?"Gu glared at the woman. "I'm warning you, don't cause trouble for the clan. If you provoke such a person, I Can Rip Off Your Head and apologize to him!"

The woman shrank back and said with a bright smile, "How would I dare..."

"It's for the best if you don't dare. Later, just casually ask someone to inquire about it. Don't delve too deeply into this problem. After all, it has nothing to do with us. Just do this task well..."

"I understand, uncle..."the woman lowered her bright head and said in a low voice, "Uncle, it's still ten years away from the fellowship. Isn't it a little..."

“Do you think the starry clan is slow?” Gu Bai said to the junior who walked out of his house for the first time, “We have information. Long before the sacrificial ceremony, the starry clan sent someone to invite people from the Divine Ao clan to watch the ceremony. This time, it’s one of the two divine craftsmen of the Divine Ao clan, Augustus!”

“Why haven’t I heard about it?” The woman was stunned...

“The information was previously confidential...”

“Then uncle, how did you know? Is it a secret information?”

“Of course I saw it!” Gu knocked his silly niece speechlessly.

The woman immediately reacted. That’s right, her uncle was also one of the guests attending the ceremony... ..

“Ahem...” the woman smiled embarrassedly and said, “Uncle, I heard that Tyrande is in the limelight this time...”

“How could they not be in the limelight after attracting the appearance of the Water Lord?” Gu sneered and said, “Those long-eared elves are really lucky this time. I’m afraid that the strongest heir of the royal family in the past generations is not a bluff. To be able to trigger such an ancient spirit by relying on his bloodline, the bloodline of Tyrande is probably infinitely close to that of the ancient elves in the past!”

“So powerful...” the woman lowered her head and said, “But our third prince is not bad either... Oh right, isn’t the third prince also in the audience team? When the time comes, shall we go to Nomorrigan Together?”

Speaking of the third prince, Gu raised his head slightly and looked at the place where the little god had left. If the direction was right, it should be heading towards Teldrassir... .

Thinking of this he frowned: “Today’s matter to inform the third prince, let her pay attention to that mysterious God, do not provoke!”

“Oh... .” The woman nods repeatedly.

The Guardian of the third prince was one of the sword sect, Lord Jian. In terms of swordsmanship and experience, he was far above himself. However, the deity who could easily kill Mo Xiu was too strange. If there was a conflict, something might happen... .

At this time, in the primeval forest, some specially invited senior guests are taking a walk in the forest after the telepathy. After the complicated ceremony, some people have a rare chance to enjoy the oldest forest in the universe.

And a group of distinguished guests in the most interesting than on behalf of the Red Lotus clan of the three princesses: Ming!

“You really live up to your reputation...” Ming led two guards, walking in the forest in a somewhat comfortable manner, a pair of red lotus dual pupils that were unique to the red lotus looked like two overlapping scarlet rubies. Coupled with her beautiful figure and fiery red hair, she looked incomparably gorgeous!

“This is the first time I’ve seen so many worlds stacked together. It really is a place of origin...” as she spoke, she stared at the sky with her scarlet eyes wide open, looking at the unique heavenly forest reflected in the starry sky and combining it with the distant forest, it was as if a sea of forests had overlapped together. It looked magnificent and magnificent!

“Tsk... it is indeed more beautiful than our red lotus land!”

“Third Prince, you can’t say this when you go back. Otherwise, you will be reprimanded by His Majesty...” a man with the same red hair and a cold expression said from the side.

His handsome face was extremely cold. His fiery red eyes and hair gave people the feeling that he was like a piece of ice that could not melt!

“HMM?” Suddenly, the red-haired beauty looked in a direction because she heard a noise in the originally beautiful and peaceful forest... ..

She immediately frowned and was slightly stunned when she saw the person over there.

She knew one of them. It was the ninth Prince of the Starry Sky Imperial Family, Boris!

Didn’t she hear that this guy was grounded? Why did he run out again?

Ming frowned and looked at the other side. There were three people standing in front of Boris. One was a gentle-looking female night demon with a good temperament, and the other was a thin and delicate member of the Thunder clan. Then... .. there was one. ...

Ming was slightly stunned. She had seen quite a number of handsome elves, but there were very few who couldn’t take their eyes off her. At first glance, she didn’t look stunning at all. But if she took a little longer, she would find that her gaze was like a magnet, and it was hard for her to shift her gaze away for a moment... ..

Chapter 1530: Cabbage vs Polly (Part One)

“Let’s go and take a look...”

Ming slightly raised her eyebrows and said to the guard beside her.

Although she was an outsider, she had long heard of the ninth Prince of the starry sky imperial family, who had a bad record. It was probably not a good thing for him to stop that cute little elf... ..

“Your Highness...” the man with a cold and hard temperament said faintly, “It’s better not to stir up trouble in other people’s territory...”

“We can’t just ignore it when we meet...” ming smiled and said, “That little girl looks quite pitiful...”

“She is quite beautiful, right?” The man said coldly.

“Ha...”Ming smiled and didn’t deny it. He walked toward the other side straightforwardly.

The two guards behind him looked at the man carefully. The man sighed slightly and finally nodded.

His Highness the underworld was good in everything. His aptitude and character were almost the most outstanding among the crown princes he had ever met. Moreover, he had a quick mind and was able to learn swordsmanship with half the effort. The only problem was that his gender preferences were a little troublesome...

One had to know that the Empress had to be responsible for the descendants when she became the empress. Moreover, in order to balance the family, she had to choose male concubines from at least four families. The Red Lotus clan did not approve of artificially groomed descendants!

Moreover, the most important thing was... .. This time, she might not even be able to do as her Highness wished... ..

The Man took a slight glance at the other side. The ninth Prince of the starry sky imperial family still had that look of looking at people as if they were prey. This was not the first time he had seen this little pervert. He was already used to it. However, the most important thing was that the other side... ..

The Night Demon and the thin and weak thunder warrior were acting normally. Their expressions were tense and full of vigilance.

However, the female Elf that His Highness had taken a fancy to was different... ..

Her eyes were like a dog seeing a bone!

..

“Your Highness, why are you stopping us?”Chen Ye stood at the front, his eyes solemn and vigilant.

When he came back, he heard that the ninth Prince had almost hurt his cousins. Moreover, his methods were extremely cruel. Many of his peers had not completely walked out of the shadow.

However, he did not expect to meet him when he was out strolling with his mother!

He had heard of this perverted Prince’s reputation before. This immediately cast a shadow over Chen Ye’s heart!

“Don’t be nervous...”the ninth Prince looked at the other party with a smile. It was not easy for him to sneak out from the grounded guards. He was just about to have some fun, but he did not expect to find the person he was looking for so quickly... ..

The extremely thin and weak thunder warrior had the school emblem of the Magical Beast Academy. He should not have found the wrong person, right?

When he escaped, he saw through the border record that the evil little god had already gone out. When he came back and saw his little brother’s head hanging at the door of his dormitory, he wondered what kind of wonderful expression he would have?

“Tsk...”just thinking about it made him excited... ..

“The ninth Prince?” Beside him, little cabbage seemed to be a little excited. He lowered his voice and asked Chen Ye, “Chen Chen, how many ninth princes are here?”

“What about an unexpected surprise?” Boris looked at the chubby little elf, and the smile on his face grew wider.

This little elf should not be a relative, but that perfect and pure expression really made his heart itch to the extreme. When he thought of the painful and twisted expression behind this innocent face, he was so excited that he trembled... ..

It seemed that he could not be kind anymore...

Chen Ye looked at her excited expression and his expression instantly turned extremely ugly. He had encountered such a pervert in school before. After all, he was born into a noble family. If he was a good-for-nothing, it would be very easy for him to breed such a perverted person. This was not the first time he had seen such a person...

“Mother... Please bring Bai Cai and call for help immediately!”

“Silly child...” ye na walked to the front and blocked Chen Ye behind her. “Why would a parent let a child block the front?”

Ye Na walked to the front and her entire body erupted with battle spirit. A pair of black iron boxing gloves had unknowingly been put on her hands. After tying her hair, she now looked extremely valiant!

When Boris heard these words, his face was shocked!

A parent?

This woman was the mother of that little god?

Instantly, Boris was so excited that he almost had a climax!

What kind of luck was this! !

It was too wonderful! !

“Go! !”

Looking at her opponent’s extremely perverted expression, ye Na felt a wave of disgust in her heart. She pulled Chen Ye behind her, and she leaned forward, punching towards her opponent’s head without any hesitation!

Intense battle spirit exploded in the air. The explosive power of a level-13 warrior was displayed perfectly. Although she had been raising silkworms in her clan all these years, she did not lose her ability as a fighter!

Boom!

The energy exploded, but the feeling in ye Na’s hand was empty!

So Fast!

Ye Na's pupils constricted. In front of her eyes, she could only see an afterimage. The entire front had lost the figure of her opponent!

"TSK TSK, the body of a fighter is still the best..."the ninth Prince's voice came faintly from behind ye Na. "I like it the most. This back muscle... it's really well trained. It's really worth a good exchange..."

Ye Na's entire body stiffened. In an instant, she knew that the two were not on the same level!

The opponent's energy level was only at level 10. As a level-13 warrior, she was actually so much slower than the opponent. Should she say that she was indeed worthy of being of royal blood?

In his heart, he could only pray that Chen Ye and the others were lucky enough to find help as soon as possible. If not for him, he might not even be able to stall for time... ..

"Heh..."polly smiled. He was just thinking about how to humiliate and tease the other party in order to make a good start on this perfect hunt?

But suddenly, Polly felt a faint heat blowing by his ear...

"Um... What's your name?"

Polly's pupils contracted, and he jumped out of his current position, rolling on the ground several times to pull himself away!

The moment he stood up, he took out his sword and looked at his previous position vigilantly...

And the one standing there was the little elf who excited him... ..

This guy! !

In the distance... .. Ming, who had rushed over and was about to make a move, was suddenly stunned. He stared blankly at the Little Elf who had suddenly appeared behind Boris.

This speed...

"Hello?"Little Bai Cai tilted his head with a smile and looked at the somewhat frightened Boris. "What's Your Name?"

"Bai Cai, be careful! !"Chen Ye looked at Little Bai Cai nervously, he had seen Bai Cai's knife skills and knew that in terms of strength, he was probably stronger than his mother. However, he still warned him worriedly, "That person is the ninth Prince of the Starry Sky Imperial Family, Boris. He's a pervert. Be careful..."

"Oh... It's really you!"Bai Cai laughed even more happily. His expression was just like a dog seeing a bone... ..

However, that expression instantly stung Boris. A hint of malevolence flashed across his face. A purple light flashed across the longsword in Boris'hand. Following that, a star atlas spread out behind him instantly!

“Star-moon diagram?” In the distance, the Red Lotus man who had rushed over with his highness narrowed his eyes slightly. “Although this prince of the starry sky clan has a worrisome character, his aptitude is indeed outstanding. He can actually use such a secret technique at such a young age!”

The Prince of the dead also stopped and looked over curiously. Facing the royal secret art of the starry sky clan, the little flower spirit seemed to be able to stay up all night. ...

Where did this little guy come from. It was ignorance... ... Or did he really have something?

Just as he was puzzled, he saw the seemingly harmless little flower spirit pull out two huge dual blades! !
