

A Bunch 1551

Chapter 1551: What a good name!

Surprisingly, the meeting with Bolton was not held at the Aldia family. Gansh received the news from Rennes and asked all the members of the family to meet on Lord Bolton's transport ship.

Just like that, a group of people from Aldia, including rainy, who came to join in the fun, followed the instructions and went through the teleportation formation to the so-called transport ship... ..

It was called a transport ship, but it was basically a moving asteroid in the sky!

The people of Eldia who boarded the ship were deeply shocked by it.

The interior of the giant ship was decorated luxuriously. It was completely built according to a majestic steel city. Its size was about the size of a city on a level five planet. If the ship did not move quickly or travel through wormholes., it was as smooth as a normal city.

Guo Xiaoyun was also shocked in this luxurious giant ship. Entering the interior of the ship from the top of the giant ship, at a glance, it was almost the size of a majestic city. On D planet, it was at least the size of Sichuan province!

Moreover, the entire provincial capital was built according to the scale of the city. Even if there were 100 million people, they could live normally in this place. Moreover, it was most likely the space for everyone to live in a big villa!

"F * ck..."Guo Xiaoyun couldn't help but swear in her hometown, "This son of a B * Tch knows how to enjoy himself..."

She had heard from Grandpa Lu that soap had bought a super luxurious giant ship. Now she knew what the other party meant by "Luxurious". Suddenly, Guo Xiaoyun felt a bit sour in her heart.

I haven't even enjoyed such a luxurious life yet...

Compared to Guo Xiaoyun's sour feeling, most of the members of the Eldia family were excited... ..

Although the big family had been promoting their bright future after joining the Bolton Force, it was just a blueprint. It sounded like it. Didn't everyone feel a little guilty.

But now, seeing this, she felt relieved. With this scale and power, how could they not have a good life in the future?

The elders of the families who decided to stay in the glorious amethyst star looked around with complicated feelings.

The younger generation who couldn't go to the Tai da Xi'er, especially the grandson of the fifth elder, were walking in front of the group with their heads held high, they laughed and said, "Did you hear? I heard that Lord Bolton gave this ship to big brother Rennes to use to explore the star area from a distance..."

“Wow...”the juniors looked at their positioning and drooled. “Such a big ship to explore the star field? Isn’t the consumption too big?”

“Do you think this ship is just a Model?”Fifth Elder’s grandson, Belen, said proudly, “This ship is equipped with the best energy-saving engine and a powerful energy circulation system. One replenishment can allow it to drift in space for millions of years!”

“The ship is built according to the scale of the planet’s high-grade cities. The crew can basically enjoy a normal leisure life here, which is basically the same as on the planet. Lord Bolton is afraid that the process of our Eldia family’s exploration of the star field will be too boring, so he is considerate of us. It can be seen how much he values Big Brother Rennes!”

“But... isn’t the exploration of the star field done separately?”One of the juniors could not help but ask, “The star system is so big. Each family should explore more efficiently separately, right? is it appropriate to squeeze all of them into one spaceship?”

“You don’t understand, do you?”Bi Lun became more and more proud. “This spaceship is a mothership. The interface is so big, but it’s only the first level. The space on the second and third levels are loaded with tens of thousands of subships. Each subship is a miniaturized transport ship, which can also take a spaceship with a capacity of a million people. When the time comes, the surveyors will first scout out a general direction, and the main ship will move in the general direction. Every region they reach will have a subship left behind, and the subships will be responsible for the exploration of this area. Do you understand?”

“Wow!”The group of people were stunned and their eyes were filled with excitement. Every man had a star to explore the galaxy. When they heard this arrangement, they were so excited that their whole bodies became hot, they couldn’t wait to start the exploration project that the other party mentioned!

“That’s why...”Pielen glanced at a group of people on the other side who were obviously somewhat separated from them... ..

This group of people was the group of juniors who had gone to Taida Hill previously. As they were the seedlings of the KAISHANDAR academy, coupled with the blessing of the priest this time., these young disciples and elders had basically chosen to stay behind to manage the family business for them.

In other words, Mira and the other group were basically two factions among the young disciples... ..

Bilen looked at Mira, who had been silent the entire time, he smiled meaningfully and said, “Great-grandfather is right. Everything in the world has its pros and cons. Although we didn’t manage to go to Teldar Hill, it’s not necessarily a bad thing. Don’t you think so, Mira?”

The group of young disciples behind Mira curled their lips gloomily. Mira, on the other hand, looked at the other party with a calm expression. Then, she smiled and said, “You’re right, cousin Bilen...”

The other party’s reply was so straightforward that bi lun felt as if he had punched into cotton. He immediately felt disinterested, then, he turned to look at the group of people behind him and said, “Do you want me to bring you guys to tour the subterranean ships? I came earlier than you guys. Someone brought me there before, and I happen to remember the way...”

Nicole looked at him speechlessly. The more she looked at him, the more she despised him. “Why are you staring at Sister Mira?”

“Oh... Her name is Mira?”The figure’s eyes lit up when he heard that. He chuckled and said, “What a good name...”

Chapter 1552: Who Is that wretched fellow?

“Actually, when you think about it, you’ll know that there’s nothing to be envious of...”Mira looked at her unbalanced companions with amusement, she shook her head and said, “My father is such a shrewd person. If he was really better off with uncle and the others, how could he not follow them? You have to know that he used to follow them all the time...”

“Uh...”everyone was stunned, and then they nodded in realization.

That was true. Sister Mira’s father was once a standard lackey of gunsh. If he was really that good with gunsh, how could Mira’s father choose to stay. One had to know that among the elders of the branch family, Mira’s father was one of the few stewards who were highly valued by the great elder...

“But...”one of the juniors was still a little hesitant. “Listening to that bi lun, he does seem to be doing quite well...”

The people around nodded. Everyone had a dream of exploring the galaxy. They all wanted to graduate and become mercenaries to take a good look at the outside world. In the end, he didn’t have to work hard at anything, but he could do what he wanted to do...

“You guys...”Mira clearly understood everyone’s thoughts, mira laughed and said, “The universe is so big and there are countless sceneries. If you want to see more, don’t you have to live longer? If your life level can’t be raised, how many hundreds of years can you see?”

“What are we working hard for?”? “It’s to achieve the dream that grandfather couldn’t achieve one day. Grandfather even dreamed of advancing to dragon-level. He already has a special title, so why is he still thinking about this dream?”? “Isn’t it because of the huge difference in lifespan between dragon-level and non-dragon-level?”

Everyone was stunned when they heard this. After flipping through the explanations, their expressions instantly became clear. That’s right, only with a solid foundation can one live for a long time in the future. Only by living longer can one have more time to fulfill the dream that they yearned for when they were young... ..

That’s the reason...

Seeing that everyone had turned the corner, Mira nodded and smiled. “Look at this city. Although its architecture and scale are similar to A Level Five Star City, don’t you feel that there’s something missing?”

“What’s Missing?”The surrounding people were stunned.

“Energy!”Mira rolled her eyes at everyone. “Don’t you feel that although the energy here is dense, there’s still a big gap between the fluidity of this place and an ordinary planet?”

“Eh?”The group of people immediately felt that it was like that...

Mira said, “The energy here is not produced by Gaia, but artificial. Artificial energy needs to pass through the circulatory system, but the circulatory system itself needs to consume energy. Even if energy is conserved, this place will run out sooner or later. Therefore, in the process of exploring the galaxy, this place must try to conserve energy as much as possible...”. “...”

Everyone’s eyes lit up as they roughly understood what Mira was going to say... ..

“It seems like you all understand now...”. Mira smiled and said, “It’s true that we can maintain a normal city life here, but at most, it’s just a basic life. It’s absolutely impossible to guarantee everyone’s energy cultivation like on a normal planet. This is also why when mercenaries complete exploration missions, they often have to bring their own high-level supplies. This is because it’s very difficult to provide energy for cultivation during the long journey on the ship “...”. “...”

“Let me ask you. Those juniors are all in the golden period of their cultivation. If they spend this time on the ship, what will be the consequence? Even if they only spent a few years to find a life planet, it will still take some time to develop the life planet, right?”

Everybody nodded.

Mira said, “After the golden period, what’s the point of having more resources in the future? Moreover, how many resources can there be? The Glorious Amethyst Star is already a super star. The energy density and quality in it are second to none in the entire universe. Can they find a similar one? “Even if they can find one, with our family’s competence, are we qualified to develop it?”

That’s right!

Everybody reacted. Da Fang had been promoting how abundant the resources would be after they found a life star. However, it would take time to exploit the abundant resources. Could the young disciples afford to wait?

Moreover, exchanging low-grade resources for high-grade resources would also require channels, right. This process would require even more accumulation. Moreover, it would definitely be impossible to develop it to a high-grade star. This was because the strength of the Eldia family wouldn’t be able to conquer a high-grade star even if they discovered one... ..

Mila continued, “Even if the Bolton Force has always kept their promise and let cousin Ryan become the commander, that galaxy will always be under the management of our Eldia family. Then, after a few generations, dozens of generations, or even hundreds of generations, there might be generous returns. However, this generation is obviously filling in the holes... “...”. “The best outcome for them is to spend a few years to find a life planet, then spend the majority of their lives slowly exploiting and expanding resources, finding a partner, and passing down the things they have accumulated for half their lives. As for themselves...”. “I’m afraid that in a few hundred years, they will be so old that they won’t even be able to eat meat. Is this the life you all want?”

Everyone shook their heads!

“That’s right...”mira smiled and said, “Today, we’ll just treat it as a novelty. When we go back, we’ll work hard to train. Preparing for the next general exam will be our path of Sunshine!”

“Sister Mira is right...”the young disciples next to her immediately patted their heads in annoyance. “We almost let that B * Stard Pyron get in...”

Although they looked annoyed, the confident smile on their faces returned, and the sourness in their hearts disappeared without a trace... ..

At this moment, in a corner not far away, a tall figure smiled at Mira and the others. “Look, how well did she say it?”

Nicole looked at him strangely, not knowing what to say for a moment...

“I said...”Guo Xiaoyun couldn’t help but ask, “Can you understand what she said?”

Mira was speaking in the star Elf language, and she had never learned the divine words spell. How could he understand what others were saying?

The tall figure in front of him was soap, who had turned into Burton!

“I don’t understand...”soap nodded obediently, but then he said, “But I know that she must be very good when I see the silly people around her!”

Guo Xiaoyun:“...”

Nicole rolled her eyes. Before she could say anything, a cold voice suddenly came, “Sir, what are you doing here?”

“Um...”soap suddenly tensed up and turned to look at the person, smiling guiltily.

Nicole quickly looked over and saw a pair of eyes as bright as rubies. She was stunned and couldn’t help but think, how beautiful... ..

“Sir, they are waiting for you to host the ceremony...”

“Right away!”Soap smiled and said to Nicole and Guo Xiaoyun, “I’ll go now. See you later, see you later...”

Then, he left with them sneakily.

Nicole stared at them for a long time before she said, “Sir? Who is that wretched guy?”

“Ha...”Guo Xiaoyun rolled her eyes and chuckled. “You’ll know later...”

Chapter 1553: rather cute...

The banquet was held in the largest dining hall in the spaceship. It was a high-end dining hall made of all-inky crystals. It looked extremely luxurious. In order to show their friendliness, the people who participated were naturally not only the members of the Eldia family, there were also the demon army under Bolton's banner.

Therefore, the members of the Eldia family were able to see all kinds of demon clans in this banquet.

There were the flame demons with dark red skin and faint flames in them, the rock demons that looked very similar to the elven stone spirits, the blood demons that were handsome and had ruby-like eyes.., there were also the fallen angels that had a temperament comparable to that of the sky elves.

The hall was filled with fine wine and delicacies according to the buffet mode. The members of the Eldia family were chatting with each other in the hall. The atmosphere was quite lively.

At first, the members of the Eldia family were a little stiff, but it was clear that those demons were extremely friendly. From time to time, they would ask for some common knowledge from the universe federation, and very quickly.., most of the members of the Eldia family were chatting passionately with these demons, at least on the surface, the atmosphere seemed to be very good.

The group of juniors were also curiously sizing up their surroundings, especially the group that was following MILA.

"Sister Mira..."the big and simple-minded person that followed Mira all year round curiously looked around. "These are the Abyss Demons, right? They don't seem as scary as the rumors say..."

In the Bards'book, almost all the abyss demons were treacherous and vicious, like savage beasts that ate people without spitting out their bones. In many stories, they were villains.

But now, it seemed that they were no different from the normal races in the federation. In terms of appearances, the 10,000 races in the federation were much more exaggerated than this. Moreover, most of the demons had good appearances and temperaments. Especially the blood demons and fallen angels. They were no worse than the High Elves. They were completely different from the malevolent appearances in the storybook... ..

"The storybook of the Bards was originally an exaggerated novel..."Mira laughed. "You believe that?"

Mira's words represented the current mood of most of the Eldia people, especially those who were about to join the Burton faction. Everyone had been very nervous before coming here because the reputation of the abyss demons wasn't very good.

Now that they had come into contact with them, they felt that they weren't much different from the 10,000 races of the Federation. On the contrary, some of the demons were very enthusiastic, causing many of the Eldia people to heave a sigh of relief.

"That might not be the case..."

Just as Mira was commenting, a deep and magnetic voice sounded from the side...

Mira was instantly stunned. She looked at the person who had come. It was a tall, blue-gray-skinned demon. According to the demon illustrations that she was familiar with, the person in front of her should be a Dylan demon... ..

It seemed to be different from an ordinary Dylan demon. The pupils of the Dylan Demon were gray, but the pupils of the Dylan Demon in front of her were purple, with an inexplicable sense of nobility... ..

“Hello...”Mira hurriedly greeted politely... ..

When she and the Big Guy entered the venue, they deliberately found a remote corner, but they did not expect that someone would take the initiative to strike up a conversation, and the person who struck up a conversation was actually an abyss demon...

In fact, she didn't really want to deal with these demons. Although most of the Bards' words were fictional and exaggerated, the Abyss Demon didn't have a good reputation in the entire universe federation, so it wouldn't come out of nowhere.

Moreover, she could clearly see that although the demons in the hall appeared to be very warm to the people from the Eldia family, if she looked carefully, she would find that there was a trace of indifference in the depths of their eyes. It was just like how she and the others usually looked at the bugs on the ground... ..

“Hello, Little Beauty...”the other party raised his wine glass. “May I know your name?”

Mira was stunned. She didn't expect the other party to speak in such a frivolous tone. It was completely different from the others who were greeting her.

“ER... Mira Eldia...”

“AH... Mira? You mean the star of Mira's brilliance?”The other party very unceremoniously moved over, actually squeezing past the big and simple guy beside him... ..

The star of Mira was the southern Pearl Star, it was very famous in the entire universe federation... ..

Mira was somewhat unable to understand the intentions of this fellow before her, she forced a smile and said, “That's not it, mother's name doesn't have such a big meaning, the name Mira is very common in the federation, it's a common name...”

“Oh, is that so?”The other smiled. “But I think it's just like her name. A beautiful woman is as dazzling as the star of Mira...”

Mira's breathing stopped...

Was He... teasing her?

To be honest, as a diligent warrior student, Mira didn't have much experience in this field. Whether it was on the branch planet or after entering the glorious amethyst star, her daily training took up most of her time, the younger generation didn't have the time to talk about friends of the opposite sex.

Moreover, as a member of the Thunder Warriors, although Mira's facial features weren't bad, she was still a warrior with great strength. Of course, she couldn't compare with those beautiful races in the academy, throughout the year, no one would flirt with her in this field.

After all... .. Who would like a woman with bigger muscles than you?

It was not that there were no admirers. Mila had a neat appearance and a good profile. Martial artists were energetic and valiant. There were also some who liked this style.

However, most of those who liked this type were not the kind of people who spoke flowery words... ..

At the very least, Mila had never met one. The usually Smart Mila was stunned for a moment and did not know how to reply... ..

Soap, who was sitting across from him, looked at the stunned Mila and immediately felt nervous. He had asked Grandpa Lu before coming here, and Grandpa Lu was the one who had taught him this set of reasoning.

He had even taught him a complete set of coping skills, such as how to respond to a person who liked his teasing, how to respond to it, how to respond to a person who did not like his teasing and cold rejection, and how to respond to it...

But... how was he supposed to respond when the other party was in a Daze?

Soap, as a lone wolf, did not know what to do for a moment. He just stared blankly at the other party... ..

This silly look formed a stark contrast with the teasing tone he used previously, causing Mira to burst out laughing... ..

“Cough cough...” soap immediately coughed a few times in embarrassment.

Soap’s face stiffened. This apology was better than nothing...

“Um... Umm... I remembered that I still have something to do over there. Please excuse me for a moment...” soap was so embarrassed that he didn’t know how to continue. He planned to find a quiet place and ask Grandpa Lu from afar first. ...

After saying that, he didn’t wait for the other party’s reply and directly left, leaving the silly and big fellow beside him stunned... ..

Why did this fellow who was starting to squeeze past him feel like... .. He looked like he was running away?

“Sister Mira? What... What’s going on?”

Mira smiled. “He’s the same as you, a silly big fellow...”

“UH...”

Mira looked at the other party’s retreating figure and could not help but purse her lips and let out a chuckle once more... ..

The federation’s rumors about Dylan Demons were almost one of the species that the abyss demons needed to be wary of the most, but this fellow looked... .. Rather cute...

Chapter 1554: the role of adaptation

"You mean, she was in a daze, so you were in a Daze?" Grandpa Lu asked in a daze on the other end of the call.

"Yeah..." soap answered honestly, "You didn't say what to do in such a situation before."

"I. . ." Grandpa Lu couldn't catch his breath. He couldn't help but complain, "Do you want me to teach you everything? Do you want me to guide you when you have sex later?"

"I don't need that..." soap chuckled, "It's a tutorial for the three T's in the system..."

Grandpa Lu: "..."

"By the way, Kid... I didn't see you being so passionate about this before. Those elven girls in our base didn't see you falling for anyone either."

"This is different..." Soap shook her head, "I thought it was a game, so I always thought that those beautiful elven players might have something behind them. What if it's a hunk who's older than you?"
"... I don't believe in online dating." "...". "..."

"In the end, even though I'm sure it's about the DNA, but..." "...". The deep-rooted thoughts of the past have already been seared into my heart. Every time I see those elven players, I hypnotize myself. They're fake, they're fake. They're hunks, they're hunks... "..."

Grandpa Lu: "..."

"In addition, it's not like you don't know what status you and I have in the base. We've always been treated like monkeys. How can we like each other?"

"Uh..." Grandpa Lu was instantly furious. "That's You? When was I treated like a Monkey?"

"Heh..." soap sneered when he heard that. "Your entire evolution from poop to braised egg has always been the record of the most played alien player on the Forum. If you're not a monkey, then what are you?"

"That's called popularity. What do you know!"

"Whatever you say..." soap yawned. "Anyway, I'm not interested in my compatriots in the base. I feel like everyone is wearing a layer of skin, and they're all fakes..."

"What about after that?" Grandpa Lu asked curiously. "After that, when you were the local emperor in Bolton Force, I didn't see you have any feelings for anyone. Some demon girls are very beautiful..."

"Didn't you say at the beginning that you should hide your identity and keep a distance?" Soap rolled his eyes. "In order to keep a distance, my lord only uses the corner of his eye to look at all the demons. Moreover, no matter how beautiful they are, they are not as beautiful as yours. It doesn't mean much..." ". . ."

“Well... Well, that’s... “Grandpa Lu smiled smugly. “In terms of looks, our Villafana is nothing to be ashamed of “...”. “... but what do you mean by that?” “? You mean that the little girl that you value now can be compared to our villa’s?”

“Uh... that’s not it...” soap was slightly silent.

He did not understand why he had taken a liking to her at a glance. To be honest, in terms of looks, figure, and life attractiveness, the Succubus, blood demon, and other demon-type girls in the base were much better than that Mila.

However, it was that neat and clean temperament that attracted him in an instant. He thought back to the time when he was bullied in school, and the same neat and clean girl he met... ..

However, at that time, he was almost in the negative shadow of being bullied by others. He only dared to watch from afar. Until now, he did not dare to ask about the situation of the person who had once moved his heart... ..

According to his age, he should have given birth to three children...

Seeing Soap’s silence, Grandpa Lu paused for a moment and said, “Alright, seeing that you’re so pitiful, this grandpa will teach you a few more moves. Remember well...”

As soon as he said that, a cold voice suddenly sounded, “Are you very good at it?”

“UH...”

The Grandpa opposite him suddenly had goosebumps. He instantly recognized that it was Vera’s voice... ..

“That... of course, that’s not very good!” Grandpa Lu quickly said, “Your Liege is just trying to make a last resort. He found me, and I was also helpless...”

“Did you hear that, Liege?” Vera looked at soap coldly. “He is not good at it, so please don’t waste Lord Ysera’s channel energy. This is very precious! !”

As he spoke, he closed the passage manually. Soap shrunk his head when he saw this, not daring to make a sound...

“Can’t you do something serious?” Villafa looked at soap helplessly. “No matter how much you hide, you’ll still have to face it. The banquet speech is about to start, quickly pack up and go over!”

“Alright, Alright... I’ll go pack up now...” soap immediately ran away when he heard this. He did not even open the door and directly used his innate ability to slip out from the crack in the door... ..

Seeing this, Villafa couldn’t help but cover his head. He wondered if this guy could really stabilize Bolton’s forces?

One had to know that this mission wasn’t just to enjoy Lord Bolton’s forces and resources. The most important thing was to balance the forces of the Abyss so that they wouldn’t be suspicious... ..

As for what he would do to further rope in some of the races of the Abyss, Villafa didn’t think that this guy could take on such a heavy responsibility at all... ..

Sigh... .. Just muddle along...

On the other side, Grand Elder gunsh finally met his beloved son, Ryan. Along the way, Ryan told gunsh about the distribution of resources in a serious manner...

... "Father..." . . ."

"Well... . "gunsh nodded with satisfaction. "You've done well. Although Lord Bolton is setting an example to the outside world this time, seeing that you've caught an opportunity, it's rare for you to seize such a great opportunity. It's not in vain that your family has nurtured you for so many years... .."

"All of a sudden, I'm feeling a little guilty... "..." . "Father, we have to make preparations. If there are more powerful families joining our forces in the future, Lord Bolton will definitely dilute our power. While we still have power, we have to find as many life stars as possible. Lord Bolton has already promised me that anything that our Eldia family finds will always be under our family's management in the future!"

Gunsh nodded and revealed a gratified expression on his face. "To be able to be vigilant in times of peace after achieving such great results, considering the future situation, you have indeed grown quite a bit..."

"Father, you flatter me..."Ryan lowered his head and smiled.

"You're right..." . Gunsh nodded and said, "When we want to use our power in our hands, we must do our best to obtain as many resources as possible for our family. We must use the power of the branch family in the early stages. First, we must promise huge benefits and try our best to seize time. Only when the resources are confirmed in the future will we take back what we need from the branch family."

This old bastard...

Soap pursed his lips in his heart and said with a smile on his face, "Father is right..."

"Let's go. There are too many people here and there are too many eyes. Let's not talk too much. Where is Lord Bolton? I have to go and see him first..."

"Uh... Okay, I will bring you there now..."

Chapter 1555: Look, it's a big idiot! !

"Old Master, it looks pretty good..."

On the other side, zhuxing, who had rushed onto the ship, followed behind Old Master Long Jue and said with a smile.

Old Master Long Jue looked at the configuration of this luxurious giant ship and nodded. Although this giant ship could not replace the role of a planet, the disciples of the families who were responsible for exploring the galaxy would still be delayed in their cultivation. But at least they had shown their attitude... ..

Third Elder and fourth elder, who were also following behind him, looked at second brother helplessly. This guy was really not worried at all and was happy. However, they did not know that because of the current situation... Many of the clansmen who had originally agreed to stay behind had already begun to regret... ..

Long Jue seemed to have seen through their thoughts, he said in a low voice, "If you change your mind at the last minute, don't stop even if you want to go with them. There's no point in forcefully keeping them. Those who stay behind to guard the clan will have to shrink their influence. If they truly believe in the younger generation, they won't be confused by the scene in front of them..." .."

Third elder nodded slightly when he heard this. It was obvious that he agreed with the old man's words... ..

Those who were left behind were basically the branch families that had very outstanding children in this generation. All the resources and hope were placed on the growth of the next generation. Naturally, they had to have confidence in the next generation. If the children of the next generation could become dragon-level powerhouses., it was better than anything to fight for a noble title in the forces of ILUWETA.

They would not be confused by these flashy things in front of them... ..

"By the way, second brother..." Long Jue suddenly turned to look at Zhuxing. "Has that girl Sansa communicated with you?"

Hearing this name, the third and fourth elders behind him laughed in their hearts and did not say anything else. Meanwhile, Zhuxing and his wife looked a little depressed.

Zhuxing sighed and shook his head. "I've tried calling her several times, but she hasn't replied. It's obvious that she doesn't want to talk to me, her father..."

"This child..." long jue sighed slightly.

He had watched Sansa grow up along the way, so he knew her personality very well. This time, Nicole and Chenye were both admitted to top universities. As their elder sister, she would not be happy for them. Instead, she would blame her parents even more... ..

Now... .. She had most likely placed all her future hopes on the big house. ...

He was really too foolish. Not to mention that GUNSH was not a truly charitable elder, even if he was, how could outsiders be more reliable than his parents?

"Second..." Long Jue said in a low voice, "If... that girl Sansa decides to leave with boss and the others, what would you say?"

Ye Na's body trembled when she heard this, and she held her husband's hand tightly!

Zhuxing had a complicated expression on his face. He looked at his nervous wife and patted her hand to comfort her. He sighed and said, "Then let her do what she wants!"

"Are you sure?" Long Jue frowned as he looked at Zhuxing...

Third Elder and fourth elder also frowned. Ye Na, who was beside him, bit her lips tightly. The couple had already discussed this last night, and she was extremely unwilling to do so.

However, her husband was very firm in his principles. When the child was older, an adult should be responsible for his own choices!

"Second..." Long Jue looked at Zhuxing very seriously. "Do you know that if Boss wants to take Sansa away, he won't really treat Sansa well? You should know his purpose..."

"How could I not know?" Zhuxing smiled bitterly. "Isn't it just a backup plan? But what can I do? Children are debts. What should come will come. It's not necessarily a bad thing. If Sansa can understand something on this trip, I will think of a way to make up for it when I come back...". "..."

Hearing this, Long Jue instantly fell silent...

But there were some things... .. That could not be made up for... ..

Exploring the galaxy was a big plan. Any branch family that went to Bolton force would not use their resources to nurture the younger generation. They would definitely invest all of their resources in the exploration. With the mentality of a gambler, they would try their best to reap as many benefits as possible.

This was the case for other branch families. Gunsh, the boss, was naturally the same. Long Jue believed that he would not even leave his youngest son's cultivation resources there, not to mention an outsider like Sansa... ..

Sansa was no longer young. If this continued, she would completely miss the opportunity to participate in the national examination. Once she completely missed out on higher education, her life... .. It would be the end of her life.

Even if she realized it later and regretted it... .. It would be too late...

Long Jue looked at his second brother in a daze. He did not expect his second brother to be so heartless!

Looking at his grandfather's gaze, Zhuxing smiled wryly. "Grandfather... I don't only have one child..."

Long Jue was stunned. He suddenly realized...

That's right, Zhuxing did not only have one child. He had an entire family to take care of. He would not let Sansa drag the others down instead. If he were in her shoes... .. He would probably harden his heart... ..

Ye Na turned her head to the side. Tears could not stop flowing from her eyes.

She remembered how much they liked their daughter when Sansa was young. She had the body of a thunder clan member but had the elegant temperament of a night demon. She would definitely grow up to be a handsome lady... ..

The child did grow up to be a lady as expected, but it was not what they wanted to see... ..

When did she become like this. When did her daughter become so unfamiliar that they did not recognize her... ..

Just as the atmosphere was a little sad, a light cough suddenly sounded in the middle of the hall. It was obviously a loudspeaker, which immediately attracted everyone's attention.

That was because the voice came from the podium in the middle of the hall, and there should only be one person who had the right to use that position...

"Is that Lord Bolton?"

Zhuxing looked at the podium from a distance and narrowed his eyes slightly. "He looks quite easy-going..."

"Easy-going?" Long Jue shook his head and said telepathically, "How could he be an easy-going person to be able to get to this stage from a half-blood Dylan demon who was not valued in the Abyss?"

"That's true..." Zhuxing touched his chin. "Then let's go over first. Maybe we'll let you go on stage later..."

"HMM..." Long Jue nodded and led the crowd to the stage quickly.

"Oh... someone's on stage!" Nicole said excitedly with a piece of exquisitely made pastry in her mouth.

Rainy glared at her. "Don't drop it. Why Do You Sound Like Doggie?"

"Who's Doggie?" Nicole was stunned.

Rainy said, "You'll meet him in the future..."

"What?" Nicole was stunned when she saw the person on the podium. "It's that wretched guy!"

Rainy: "..."

"Is he the sidekick of the God?" Nicole asked curiously.

Rain woman looked up at the sky, did not answer directly...

"no way..." Nicole was stunned, an unbelievable thought rushed into her mind... ..

"Sister Mira, Sister Mira!"

"What's Wrong?" Mira was enjoying a delicious piece of seafood, next to the silly big did not even swallow the meat of seniority pointed to the podium excited blush thick neck!

"That... that... that..."

"Swallow the Thing First!" Mira rolled his eyes and looked in the direction of the man's finger. However, when he looked over, his entire body froze on the spot... ..

“It’s that big and Simple Man! !”The Big and simple man quickly said after swallowing the meat.

His voice was so loud that the surrounding demons looked at him in a daze.

Mira quickly took a piece of meat and stuffed it into his mouth. She glared at him and said, “Don’t talk nonsense! !”

“Wu Wu...”

The silly big guy’s face turned red from being stuffed with a piece of meat...

Mira quickly pulled him to a remote corner where no one was around. She was afraid that he would cause trouble if he talked nonsense again... ..

Although he was calm in handling matters, he was not calm at all in his heart... . .

Really? That guy...

Chapter 1556: the sensitive Sansa

“Woo Woo...”

Being dragged to a remote corner, the red-faced and thick-necked big guy wasted a long time before swallowing the meat that was forced into his mouth. He looked at sister Mira with a depressed expression... ..

“Lower Your Voice!”

Mira glared at the big guy, then looked around carefully. At this time, the surrounding demons were all cheering enthusiastically because of Bolton’s speech on stage. The Big Guy’s inexplicable words just now did not cause too much of a stir., she immediately let out a sigh of relief.

“Don’t tell anyone about that later, do you hear me?”Mira quickly warned in a low voice.

“Uh... which thing?”The Big Guy said foolishly.

“US? Really?”The Big Guy was stunned. He was clearly talking to you, when did it become us? He completely ignored me, alright. He directly pushed me away... ..

Looking at the big guy’s expression, Mira’s face turned slightly red. Her eyes were filled with anger as she glared at him. “In any case, you’re not allowed to speak carelessly. Do You Hear Me?”

“Oh...”

Seeing that the big guy had agreed, Mira sighed in exhaustion. Then, she looked towards the podium. At this moment, the performance of the tall and Big Dylan demon on stage was completely different from the one she had just struck up a conversation with.

He spoke with great assurance and had an excellent aura. He could stand out among the crowd of high-level demons. Moreover, the high-level demons around him reacted very warmly. It was obvious that this demon god Lord had an extremely high popularity and authority among the demon subordinates of his own faction, it was obvious that he had an extremely high popularity and authority!

She observed carefully. Those upper-class demons who had elegant and noble manners, such as the fallen angels, blood demons, and succubus children, now had a fanaticism in their eyes that they had never had before. This was clearly a kind of worship that came from the bottom of their hearts... ..

Mira's heart immediately became complicated...

She had inquired about Bolton's history of his rise out of curiosity. There were also bards who had sung about it. It was obvious that he was an ambitious character, a mixed-blood who had been ostracized by the upper-class Dylan demons., he had received the support of many upper-class demon clans led by the fallen angels and became a god. In just two short eras, he had become a famous figure in the Eastern Star Field. Such a legendary experience was like a distance for people like them who only wanted to get into a good academy., it was a distance that was as far away as a moth looking up at the stars in the sky.

But it was impossible to reach...

However, when she thought that the silly guy just now was the famous Lord Bolton, it was fake for Mira to say in her heart that she was not affected at all. Although she was a mature and steady character... However, she was still a junior who had just been preparing for the general exam. It was inevitable that she would have mixed feelings when faced with such a situation... ..

However, she also knew the severity of the situation. She knew that the matter just now could not be spread randomly...

Bolton's speech on the stage was very natural. Every move he made had the air of a big shot. It was as if he was a different person from before. After that, he introduced a few core members of the Eldia family... He also expressed his importance to the Eldia family in front of everyone. He had a good grasp of the rhythm of the atmosphere and the control of the venue. Mira, who was watching from afar, was stunned.

It was hard to believe that this guy was the same person who had struck up a conversation with her just now...

After the explanation, Lord Bolton even personally led the Eldia family to tour the entire huge ship to show his importance to the Eldia family.

On the way, Lord Bolton and the old dragon count walked side by side, taking the old dragon count on a tour of the sub-ship on the third floor of the ship... ..

"The sub-ship of this ship is equipped with the same configuration as the mothership. It has a complete infrastructure, and the internal circulation system is also very complete. It's enough to drift outside for 100,000 years..."

The old dragon count was a little flattered as he nodded and said, "Thank you for your concern, Lord..."

"It's a small matter..." Burton smiled. "Your family isn't big, and you have to be responsible for the exploration of the entire galaxy. The initial requirements aren't small, and the sufficient preparation is to give a good demonstration to the outside world..."

Not only the old man, but Zhuxing and his wife were also stunned. They didn't expect Lord Burton to be so direct... ..

Bolton smiled faintly. "Actually, you should have guessed the situation. Rennes' rank and the size of the nobles weren't enough to control a galaxy. Even if they were strong enough for you, it would still be difficult for you to maintain..."

All the members of the Eldia tribe were slightly stunned. The other party's words were very obvious. Even if it was given to you, you wouldn't be able to swallow it... ..

Immediately, the faces of the people who were preparing to move with Gunsh as the leader turned stiff...

Burton continued, "We've already communicated with many families of the federation. Now, the families that we've basically contacted are all hesitating. Obviously, they're holding a wait-and-see attitude. Therefore, the results that your family can achieve in the early stages are very important..."

"Your lordship is right..." grandfather dragon count nodded slightly and thought to himself, 'that's more like it!'

If the other party were to come up with all sorts of nonsense, he would actually feel that it was abnormal... ..

"I heard from Rennes that the life planets that our clan explored in the early stages will be permanently under the management of the Eldia family, right?" The old man asked honestly.

"Of course..." Burton nodded. "I can't possibly let you guys work for nothing, right? But this rule is not only for the development of your Aldia family, but also for all the other families that will join in later. So you have to make good use of the good time to develop alone in the early stage. This is for the sake of our publicity and also for the future of your family. What do you think?"

"Your lordship is Right!" Grandfather Dragon count nodded repeatedly... ..

Some of the branch leaders behind him also nodded to themselves. This statement was obviously more realistic than Gunsh's previous propaganda. However, most of them were also very satisfied. At least they had clearly stated that.., 'you have a period of priority. The planets found during the priority period are all owned by your family.

'this is already a very good treatment. After all, that is the foundation of generations!'

However, not everyone in the crowd was so satisfied. For example, Sansa, who was following the large group, felt her heart skip a beat. She bit her lips slightly and thought to herself, so the entire galaxy doesn't belong to Big Brother Rennes. It's just temporary...

Just as she was thinking about this, Sansa suddenly saw some figures flashing by in the dark corner. When she opened her eyes, she realized that it was five Zhang's grandson, Belen, and the others.

“What are you doing over there?” Sansa happened to be feeling depressed, so she raised her head and asked.

This action immediately alerted the elders who were talking. The elders, led by the old man, secretly glared at Sansa.

The lowest rank in this group was the elder rank, above the level-13 warrior, not to mention a high-level deity overlord like Lord Bolton. A group of children were hiding in the dark, so how could they not notice?

They just didn't want to be embarrassed and deliberately ignore it. Lord Bolton was obviously very cooperative, but it just so happened that you, the girl, would cause trouble!

Bilen and the others immediately obediently came out of the corner and carefully lowered their heads, feeling annoyed that Sansa was meddling in their affairs!

Seeing that everyone had come out, Long Jue and the others naturally could not pretend to be deaf and dumb, so they also asked, “Why aren't you in the Banquet Hall?”

At the mention of the banquet, the stomachs of many of Bi Lun's disciples immediately rumbled...

Long Jue frowned. It seemed that these little fellows had forgotten to attend the banquet...

“We... got lost here...” bi lun finally confessed honestly... ..

The area was the size of a city, and the underground facilities were a bit like a maze. Without guidance, it was indeed easy to get lost.

The group of juniors following Bi Lun also secretly complained. They had wanted to leave a long time ago. After all, the ingredients in the banquet must be high-quality goods. However, they did not dare to come out when they saw Old Master Long Jue and the others just now, for fear that they would be blamed by the adults.

“You're really promising!” Long Jue glared at the group of juniors and was about to say something else, but Burton, who was beside him, raised his hand slightly. “Hey, the children are hungry too. They have almost finished shopping. Just bring them back. It's also a good time to arrange a place for you to stay. I heard from Ryan that you just came back. Obviously, we need time to discuss about the separation of the family, right?”

Old Duke Longjue said gratefully, “Thank you for your understanding, sir...” then he said to Bilen and the other juniors with a straight face, “Why don't you follow them from behind?”

The juniors quickly lowered their heads and moved to the back of the group.

Everything seemed to be going smoothly, but Sansa, who had started the trouble, suddenly realized that this Lord Bolton... .. Just now... .. Was he looking for something?

Was it his imagination?

“By the way...” Bolton stopped and suddenly said, “Are these children coming with their elders?”

“Ah...” Long Jue glanced at the juniors behind Bilan and then nodded. “Yes, they basically have to go with their elders...”

“Oh...” Burton nodded, then said in a casual tone, “I saw some talented children in the banquet hall just now. What about them?”

“Those children?” Long Jue smiled and said, “Those should stay...”

“Oh...”

Burton nodded slightly and didn't say anything else, but a hint of disappointment appeared in his eyes. The others didn't pay much attention to this expression, but Sansa, who had been paying attention to Lord Burton just now, suddenly noticed it... ..

She suddenly felt... .. This lord was indeed looking for something!

Chapter 1557: Mira?

“How troublesome...”

On the other side, in an office on the spaceship, Vera looked at some information. A hint of worry flashed in her bright ruby eyes, and her beautiful eyebrows furrowed slightly.

At this moment, the AI notified that the customer had arrived, and she hurriedly gave permission for people to enter.

With a flash of light, a teleportation array appeared in the office, and a thin and pale figure appeared in Vera's eyes.

“What's going on? Why are you frowning?” The person had a smile on his face, and his tone was gentle, but his black, light-absorbing pupils made Villafa avoid his eyes uncomfortably.

The person was none other than Rain Woman without a Melon...

“Didn't Lord Ysera say that before you mature your strength, don't use that...” Villafa was very displeased with the power of the Sky Demon Armor in Guo Xiaoyun's body, after all, a certain guy had used that power to cause Saab to be seriously injured and run out of fuel later on!

“We have to test it...” Guo Xiaoyun smiled and said, “Don't worry, I've controlled my body size and will recover in two days...”

“You and I aren't worried...” Villafa sighed slightly, in the entire base, the most suitable person to assist in the soap should be Rainy Girl without Melon, or the one called Alice. However, neither of them seemed to be interested in this place, and in the end, they actually threw the task on themselves!

Guo Xiaoyun walked over naturally and looked at the information in the other party's hands. She narrowed her eyes slightly.

“The results of the Dylan Devils' side came out so quickly?”

“Mm...”Vera sighed. “We are too naive to think that such a little trick would cause the Dylan Devils to fight among themselves...”

Previously, she had deliberately said that the two juniors of the Dylan Devils would fight for the position of Commander and chief executive. Unexpectedly, the results came out in less than a day. The granddaughter of the great elder of Dylan Devil had instead chosen the position of chief executive, giving the position of general to the descendant of the chief’s bloodline... ..

Seeing this news, Vera hadn’t expected that the woman was so ambitious that she would give in so quickly. It couldn’t be denied that the great elder of Dylan Devil was really a big shot!

“I’m afraid that the Great Elder of the Dylan Devils is a bit troublesome...”Guo Xiaoyun also said, “Tell soap to be careful when facing this force in the future...”

“I know...”Vera nodded, but then she said, “I wonder how long this guy can last? Are you really not considering coming over to help?”

“I have to improve...”Guo Xiaoyun smiled and said, “Although there are a lot of resources here, the systematic education is obviously more suitable for me, who doesn’t know anything, right? Don’t worry, it won’t take long...”

“En...”Vera nodded. She actually didn’t want to meddle in too many things. If it weren’t for Saab’s advice to take care of the blood demon army that followed him before it turned into a star, she wouldn’t have even bothered to return to the Bolton Force... ..

“What about the other forces? What’s the situation?”Guo Xiaoyun asked.

“The nine armies are basically divided according to the original division. Later on, if they want to join a new race, they are still in negotiations. There are many forces that can not be refused, such as the Earth Demon clan in the upper three levels. As the ancient demon faction in the second level whose position is only that of the sky demon clan, it’s impossible for them to not give up their position if they want to join us here...”. “...”. “...”

“Then, the ice demon clan, the shadeling clan, and the Dragon Demon clan, which are as famous as the flame demon clan, and the fallen angel clan, are all forces that we can not refuse. Now, they have taken the initiative to communicate with us, so we must give them a response...”. “...”. “...”

“Well... Let’s delay this for now, as long as we can...”Guo Xiaoyun looked at the other information and asked, “Are these the waiting lists for the demonic forces that have already joined?”

“Yes...”vera nodded and said, “The previous nine Legion leaders were basically all wiped out, so they naturally need to be replaced. Each clan has given us the waiting lists, but these lists are not what we want...”

Guo Xiaoyun nodded. In the original plan, the candidates for the new Legion leader would be the proud sons of concubines or side families who were extremely talented but not well-liked in the clan!

This way, they could rope in and divide the forces of the Abyss to the greatest extent. Moreover, this method was similar to what Bolton had done before. Even if it was a little obvious, it would not arouse suspicion from the other side.

"I've already collected the information on the list of the expected candidates..." Vera said softly, "After that, I'll let soap lie in the Abyss and visit each clan one by one. Then, I'll take the opportunity to rope in the expected juniors. I'm a little worried about this mission..."

"Don't Worry..." Guo Xiaoyun smiled and said, "That guy will be more capable than you think..."

"Is that so?" Vera pursed her lips slightly and looked very disapproving.

"At least there hasn't been any mistake so far, right?" Guo Xiaoyun smiled and said.

Vera rolled her eyes when she heard that...

So far, there hadn't been any mistake because that guy's talent was too strong!

Unnamable could simulate an organism that had absorbed genes, but it wasn't 100%. There would be more or less some errors, but soap's simulation talent was too exaggerated. For a character like Bolton..., regardless of their level and experience, there was a huge difference between soap and himself. It wouldn't be an exaggeration to say that they were ants and stars.

However, soap was able to perform Bolton perfectly when she entered the state. If she hadn't known the truth long ago, to be honest, she wouldn't have been able to tell many times... ..

Sometimes, she even wondered if soap had imitated him, or if Bolton had used soap's body to come back to life... ..

"By the way, where's that guy?" Guo Xiaoyun suddenly asked.

"He's entertaining the Eldia family... he's very enthusiastic..." villafa pursed his lips slightly.

Guo Xiaoyun immediately frowned. "Isn't it enough to let him show his goodwill?"

"AH..." villafa heard the sneer: "Of course there is a secret private purposes..."

Guo Xiaoyun: "..."

Oh, no?

Guo Xiaoyun forehead suddenly out some black lines, think of before and Nicole see him secretly follow the fool look, that guy really like that kind of muscle girl?

"Then... since Lord Bolton is here, let us settle the matter once and for all..." in the hall where they were staying, long Jue looked at Aldia and the others and said, "This old man is completely at your mercy this time. You can choose your own path. Whether it's the main family or the branch family's side family, you can choose your future path. Even if all of you choose Lord Bolton's side, this old man won't have any objections. Now... "...". Let's begin... "..."

Everyone was stunned. They immediately looked at each other carefully. The branch families that had previously chosen Bolton's force naturally did not move. However, some of the people who had stayed behind to guard the place had become restless due to their hesitation.

"Wait a minute..." Bolton suddenly opened his mouth and interrupted the old man.

“Lord, do you have any orders?” There was no anger on the face of the old man who had been interrupted. After all, although the old man was polite to him, there was a huge difference in status between him and the old man!

“Call the rest of the younger generation as well...” Bolton smiled and said, “Even the children can’t deprive them of the right to participate, right?”

The dragon count was stunned for a moment before he smiled and said, “Sir, you have a point...”

Burton hurriedly waved his hand and had his subordinates call for people.

In less than fifteen minutes, his subordinates brought over the other eldia juniors who were still lingering in the banquet hall.

Mira followed behind the blood breed’s guard and dawdled. She stood at the last position with her head lowered and shrank in.

However, Burton still found her in the crowd with one look. A hint of a smile flashed across his eyes!

Due to Burton’s noble status, neither the demons of the headquarters nor the Dragon Baron would observe Lord Burton for no reason. After all, this was a very impolite behavior.

However, Sansa did not have such concerns in the distance. Her eyes were fixed on Burton. In that second, she noticed the change in Burton’s expression.

Following his gaze, Sansa locked onto the person he was looking for...

Mira?

Chapter 1558: the unrestrained Mira...

Mira?

Why?

Sansa clutched the corner of her skirt tightly and stared at Mira...

When Mira dodged Bolton’s gaze, she also saw Sansa staring at her like a wolf. She was instantly baffled... ..

She had always kept a respectful distance from the strange eldest daughter of the second branch... ..

At that time, many people had targeted the second branch. They had been more or less isolated and cold-blooded towards the other juniors of the second branch. Other than the children of a few direct line elders, the others did not dare to be hot-blooded, but they were basically ostracized.

For example, morning and night had never interacted with the other children in the family since they were young. Nico, on the other hand, had slipped out directly. When she came back, she usually went to play with the fourth elder, who loved her the most, she rarely interacted with the other children.

Only Sansa was different from the others. She had forcefully blended into the circle of the Big House's forces... ..

Many people did not expect Sansa to be closer to her uncle since she was young. Moreover, Ryan was also very good to Sansa in public. This caused many juniors to slowly change their attitudes toward Sansa. At least, no one dared to target her on the surface, there were even many people who flattered her.

However, Mira did not take a liking to this fellow. Even when she was very young, she did not take a liking to her second wife. Even if her second wife was not liked by others, it was still your own home. You jumped out to express your goodwill to others, but you hated your parents. You were even more indifferent to the cold and violent morning nights. This made Mira feel that this girl was very brainless... ..

However, if she didn't like him, Mira wouldn't offend him. They didn't have much interaction. In Mira's memory, she couldn't even talk to him all year round. What was going on today? Did she steal her rice?

Mira... MIRA...

Sansa whispered his name, her face more and more confused... ..

She didn't care about this excellent backer who was praised by many people. No matter how talented he was, what could he do? Wasn't it because of the blood of the family. No matter how much Old Master Long Jue valued you, the family wouldn't give her the basic things. In the future, he would leave the glorious amethyst star and run around to deliver blood to the family head's family... ..

But how could lord Bolton notice such a person with such a low status and bloodline?

What attracted Lord Bolton?

"These juniors are not bad..." Bolton nodded slightly and smiled. "Their bone structure and Qi and blood are very good. If they can enter a famous school to train them, there is hope for them to become extraordinary..."

In the federation, extraordinary was the level of breaking away from mortal blood and becoming a dragon to become a saint. It was also a way of breaking away from the lifespan limit of ordinary people and stepping into the dragon-level realm.

Hearing this, the old man revealed a smiling expression... ..

A powerful life form was the cornerstone of the family, which was the same in the entire Galactic Federation. The family needed time to accumulate its foundation, but there was a huge difference between a generation and a generation, and it was easy to break the gap. And a supernatural powerhouse could solve this problem to a large extent, because he had a long period of time to constantly nurture his descendants and strengthen the fault tolerance rate... ..

After receiving the blessing of the priest, Mira's generation would definitely be the most outstanding generation in the family. It was not impossible for several dragon-level powerhouses to appear in this generation. For the old man, this was the most stable path for the family's future.

"Sir, you flatter me..."

“Are these children planning to stay behind?” Burton asked with a smile.

“Most of them are...” Long Jue looked at some of the parents who were about to stir up trouble and nodded.

Bolton nodded as if he understood. “It’s indeed a pity that they didn’t prepare for the college entrance exam since their aptitude is so good...”

As soon as he said this, the faces of the young disciples who had been proud of their choice instantly stiffened... ..

In fact, many of the young disciples knew in their hearts that taking the entrance exam to a famous school was the only way to achieve success. However, what could they do if their aptitude was not good? The resources in their families were limited. Of course, the better their grades were, the more resources they had. The worse their performance was, the worse their resources would be. The worse their resources were, the worse their training effects would be. It was an endless cycle.

In this world, especially for young people, no one would think that they were really bad. They always felt that their performance at the crucial moment was not good enough. If they were to do it again, it would definitely not be the same result.

Therefore, they wanted to change. They wanted to take a gamble. They wanted to join Bolton’s faction and participate in the exploration of the galaxy. After obtaining a large amount of resources, they would quickly catch up. This was what most of the young disciples were thinking right now.

However, at this moment, Bolton’s words made their hearts tremble. They had no choice but to recognize themselves... .. They were actually a group of people who had been eliminated... ..

Even Sansa was holding onto her skirt tightly.

Cousin Ryan’s position as the commander of the army was not permanent. The Big House’s family would definitely take advantage of the advantageous period to accumulate their foundation as quickly as possible. The major families would also be the same. As for an outsider like him... “...”. Under such circumstances, would uncle be concerned about me?

Even if cousin Ryan took care of me, there must be a limit, right?

Perhaps... I should stay?

Just as she was thinking about this, she suddenly heard Bolton’s words... “...”.

“Who is this child?”

Sansa suddenly raised her head and looked at Bolton. At this moment, Bolton turned his gaze to Mira, who was hiding at the back... ..

Long Jue smiled. “This child is called Mira. She is one of the most outstanding ones in the younger generation of the Ardia family. I have high expectations for her...”

“Mira, haven’t you met the Lord?” Long Jue frowned!

This child used to be graceful and generous. What happened today. He was still standing there in a daze even after he had called the roll...

Mira gritted her teeth and walked forward. She lowered her head and said, "Greetings, Lord God of Heaven!"

"HMM... not bad, not bad!" Burton looked at the other party with a serious expression. He even walked over and touched the other party's shoulder. Then, he touched the other party's shoulder from top to bottom. "Good bone structure. It's indeed not bad! !"

"You flatter me, sir!" The old man stroked his beard with a smile in his eyes.

Mira's body stiffened. She resisted the urge to kick the old man away!

In fact, if it were not for the previous incident, she would not have had such a big reaction when Bolton touched the old man's bones like this. After all, Lord Bolton's real age was already in another era. In his eyes, the old man was only a junior among the younger generation...

But... .. After the incident before that, she always felt that Bolton wasn't being serious when he touched her bones like that...

Although her thoughts were a little unbelievable, she felt that he was taking advantage of her. In the end, she couldn't help but glare fiercely at Bolton!

Bolton was glared at by the other party's fierce eyes. He immediately smiled brightly and withdrew his hands. He put his hands behind his back and nodded with a serious expression. "It's indeed not bad. If nothing unexpected happens, the dragon-level is stable, and there's even a chance for him to form a star..."

"Sir, you must be joking..." the smile on Long Jue's face grew even wider. "To be able to break through to the transcendence realm is already the greatest hope. I don't even dare to think about things like ascending to the stars... Haha..."

Mira was also stunned...

Ascending to the stars? Her?

To be honest, she had never thought about it...

This fellow must be spouting nonsense for Kaoyou, right?

That's not right... .. How could a person with such a status intentionally block the oil of a junior like her. Impossible, impossible... ..

But...

Mira was extremely conflicted and didn't know what to do for a moment. After all, who would have thought that a famous deity Overlord was an old hooligan?

The one who had the same thoughts as Mira was Sansa!

Perhaps no one would have thought that a deity like Lord Bolton would have any thoughts towards a young girl like Mira, but at this moment, Sansa had the same thoughts as Mira...

Because she could clearly see that when Bolton touched the bone, his eyes clearly had a hint of vulgarity... ..

“That... ahem...” Bolton coughed lightly and said, “HMM... I came in a rush and didn’t prepare any gifts for the younger generation. This is it, don’t mind it...”

As he spoke, he took out an exquisitely decorated box and placed it in Mira’s hand!

The surrounding people were also stunned. That box was made of top-grade jadeite secret crystals. It looked extremely high-end and was obviously prepared in advance!

“This... this is too expensive... sir, please take it back!” Long Jue’s expression changed the moment he saw the box and quickly said respectfully.

The jade secret crystal was a top-grade material made from World Tree Amber. A piece as big as that box would cost at least ten billion. Moreover, it was basically impossible to buy it...

How could such an expensive material be an ordinary item? How could a junior like Mira afford it?

“Mira... Hurry up and return it to the Lord!” Mira’s father also urged with rapid breathing.

He also saw the value of the box, and his heart skipped a beat. With the box in hand, Mira would probably not have to worry about the resources of the entire university... ..

But at this time, he had no choice but to be polite...

“Since I’ve already given it away, how can I take it back?” Burton looked at the Dragon Jue with a serious expression. “Since we’re working together, we’re a family. Do you have any concerns?”

“This...” Long Jue was stunned. He hesitated for a few seconds before saying, “You’re right, my Lord. Thank you for Your Love...”

Then, he hurriedly said to Mira, “Why aren’t you thanking me?”

“Uh...” since the elders were like this, Mira naturally didn’t dare to be tactful. She quickly picked up the box and said respectfully, “Thank you, my Lord...”

“Mm...” Burton nodded his head in satisfaction and approached Mira. “Work hard. Don’t disappoint the elders who value you...”

Mira was stunned and her expression immediately became extremely strange...

This was because although there was nothing wrong with the other party’s words in front of everyone, he had secretly sent a voice transmission. The content of the voice transmission was completely different from how he was acting right now... ..

“Damn girl, you must not reveal what happened in the banquet hall today. Otherwise, the consequences will be very serious. HMPH! !”

Looking at the serious Bolton and the extremely contrasting voice transmission, Mira's extremely strange face finally could not hold it in anymore. She burst out laughing! !

Chapter 1559: Distribution of property

This sudden burst of laughter stunned everyone. The entire hall instantly fell silent as they stared blankly at Mira...

The atmosphere suddenly became extremely strange...

Mira also felt that something was wrong after laughing. She quickly lowered her head but when she heard that there was no sound around her, she knew that she could not hide from this as an ostrich... ..

Suddenly, she felt angry. It was all his fault!

"Ahem... Mira?" The strange silence lasted for dozens of seconds. Finally, old master Long Jue coughed lightly and said, "Why Are You So Rude?"

"Yes..." Mira quickly said, "It's my fault. I... I suddenly remembered something funny just now. I couldn't help it. I'm really sorry..."

The surrounding people were stunned. Under such circumstances, what funny thing could they remember? Was it necessary?

Anyway, they wouldn't be able to laugh no matter what...

"Eh... Don't mind it..." Burton waved his hand and pinched Mira's face with a smile. "The little girl is quite cute. I like her very much!"

The elders of Eldia immediately heaved a sigh of relief. Long Jue also smiled and said, "The girl is inexperienced and has been spoiled since she was young. I'm sorry to have made a fool out of you, Sir..."

Meanwhile, Mira looked at him angrily. This fellow... .. He's getting more and more overboard. He's already used to moving his hands and feet... ..

Moreover, why did the elders around him look like they couldn't see him?

"Mira!" Long Jue's heart jumped when he saw Mira's grimacing face. "Aren't you going to apologize?"

He couldn't help but think to himself, 'what's wrong with this girl today?'? 'isn't she usually very steady?'?

"I..." Mira gritted her teeth and finally had no choice but to say stiffly, "I haven't seen the world and am a little insensible. Please forgive me, Lord God of Heaven!"

"Eh... not at all..." Soap felt his heart itch even more when he saw Mira's angry expression that couldn't do anything to him...

Was this the feeling of being powerful. Not bad at all...

Everyone was secretly sweating for Mira, and they were envious of Mira's luck. After all, despite being so rude, she was still able to get the favor of the God of heaven. That gift was obviously very valuable, and the most important thing was... Lord Bolton didn't seem to have any intention of giving anything to the other juniors... ..

However, Sansa was the only one who kept blinking her eyes. She was now very sure that Mira... .. ! Something must have happened between Mira and the God!

After a brief meeting, Bolton took his leave. After he left, the old Duke started to discuss the details of the division of the family.

The first thing was the distribution of the existing funds. The business of the Ardia family was relatively simple. They made money from the raw materials produced in the alien territory in exchange for military credits, it rarely involved complicated technology, Arcana, and specialty product export industries.

In the current environment of the great exploration of the universe, due to the rise and fall of the gods, the demand for raw materials was still very large. Therefore, although it was not a very profitable industry, it was safe and not prone to accidents.

Since less than one-tenth of the family members stayed behind, the distribution of the properties that the individual families had to accept would be more complicated.

In the face of such a situation, the old master directly handed it over to zhuxing!

This made everyone, including gunshi, feel uncomfortable, but there was nothing they could do. The second branch was now the head of the family that stayed behind. The few children had worked together, and as long as nothing unexpected happened, the heavenly god Lord had risen to power and was a top-notch school., the next generation would definitely be the future mainstay of the family. If gunshi didn't leave, it would be very difficult for him to take advantage of the momentum of the second branch, let alone split up the family.

It was indeed reasonable to let the second master distribute the remaining assets!

"Cough..."he coughed lightly, zhuxing didn't stand on ceremony after the old man announced it, he said his plan in a carefree manner, "Firstly, cash flow. Other than the basic funds required by the main branch for a year, most of the cash flow will go to the previous management of the estate. After all, expanding the galaxy consumes a lot of money..."

These words made all the branch families who were about to leave heave a sigh of relief. They had followed the eldest branch for many years to target the second branch. Now that the old master had suddenly left the resources of the family to the second master, they were a little afraid that they would be targeted.

Fortunately, the other party did not have any intention in this regard...

"But... after a large number of people leave, how will the remaining assets be distributed?"These words were brought up by Mila's father.

All the remaining branch families stretched their necks. This was also the focus of their attention. One of the reasons for the remaining branch families was for the outstanding offspring that they were nurturing. The second reason was also because they had a conservative mindset, they felt that the risk of staying behind and owning a secure business was much lower than exploring the galaxy!

However, the key was that a secure business also needed talent. After so many people left, how should the remaining branches be distributed?

“As for this... I’ve decided on a plan...” Zhuxing took out a blueprint out of nowhere, it was wrinkled, and the drawing on it was extremely sloppy. Everyone could not understand it at first glance, so they could only wait for the other party to explain.

Fortunately, Zhuxing understood it himself. He pointed at the map and said, “Most of the businesses left by the branches are not the main businesses of the families. Other than the businesses of the main branch, most of the families that stayed behind occupied the most important mineral stars...”

The few families that stayed behind lowered their heads and did not say anything. This was also the truth. Other than their outstanding children, being reluctant to part with those businesses was also one of the reasons why they stayed behind.

“In other words, most of the families that stayed behind had experience in managing important businesses. If they wanted to expand their businesses, most of the families that stayed behind should have no problems in terms of their abilities...”

The people who stayed behind were immediately shocked when they heard this. It seemed that the second master did not plan to take this opportunity to take back a large number of properties for the second branch... .. Suddenly, they began to look forward to it!

“I’ve looked at the recent earnings records of the branch businesses. The management ability of the branch businesses and the ability to develop business channels are about the same, so I can’t tell the good from the bad. In addition, the environment is different and the channels are different, so it’s difficult to tell the good from the bad in terms of performance ability. In addition, I haven’t been in charge of the family for a long time. I don’t know which one of you is stronger and which one is weaker, so I don’t plan to distribute them according to performance ability...” . “...”

The sudden self-declaration made everyone’s face turn black. Old Master Long Jue also covered his face. He was still as vulgar as ever... ..

“I’ve decided to freely negotiate the distribution!”

“Ah?” Everyone was stunned. What the hell was free negotiation?

Zhuxing saw that everyone was puzzled and said faintly, “All the branch families who have left can freely choose the family that will inherit your business. As for how to choose, you can do it according to your own circumstances. You can do it according to your close relationship or according to your interests. For example, you can hand over these businesses and ask the other party how many resources they will continue to provide to you for the next few years. You can discuss this yourself!”

“This...”

As soon as these words were said, the branch family that was about to leave immediately had a joyful expression on their faces. Not only would they be able to take away their cash flow, but they would also be able to make a fortune from their previous businesses?

They had never expected that they would be so generous when they were about to leave. Immediately, they looked at zhuxing with gratitude in their eyes.

As for the branch family that was left behind, they were dumbfounded. In the end, they still had to give money after taking down the businesses?

Looking at the expression of the remaining branch families., zhuxing frowned and said, "Don't tell me that you think that these additional properties will be given to you for no reason? Other people have worked hard for several generations. Even if they don't have any merits, they still have to work hard. The family can't just send them away just because they chose to leave. And you guys are the same. You want to take over other people's property. Don't you want to pay a little?"

"This..."

Chapter 1560: those who dare to think...

Long Jue looked at his second son with a bitter smile. According to the calculation of benefits, it was the most appropriate to rope in the branch families that stayed behind. Those who were about to leave, regardless of whether they would have a good or bad life with Gunshi in the future... Their relationship with him would not be very big...

Even if they had a good life, they would most likely not be grateful for this little favor now. After all, exploring the galaxy was likely to take several generations. So much time had passed, and the big families had plenty of time to erase this little favor of yours.

However, the family that stayed behind was different. As a dependent family, they had to deal with each other at all times. If they were to show goodwill now, it would be better for the family's operation in the future, and they would be more recognized.

However, second brother still chose another path...

He knew that this was not second brother being stupid, but second brother's personality had always been like this. He thought that this was fairer, so he did this, completely ignoring the benefits... ..

After so many trials and tribulations, his second brother's character was still like this... .. He really did not know whether it was good or bad...

But if you said it was bad, it seemed to be... .. It did not make sense... ..

In his second brother's family, other than the eccentric Sansa, the other children were all top-notch talents. If there was really something wrong with his second brother's mind, why did his family keep releasing money one after another? One of them could be said to be an accident, but two or three of them could not be, right?

Long Jue did not believe that a child could achieve results just because he was talented. He had lived for so long and had seen many talented people who eventually became ordinary.

For example, if it were not for the perseverance and hard work in morning and night, as well as the choice of his profession, he would not have achieved what he did today. The correct choices were all due to the second brother's upbringing... ..

Sometimes, his second brother's worldview and way of handling things would make people feel that they could not turn the corner. However, now, Long Jue felt that it might not be a bad thing to stick to certain things.

For example, right now, many families who stayed behind might be dissatisfied with his second brother for a short period of time. However, in the long run, the advantages would outweigh the disadvantages. A fair attitude would cause the family to focus on business instead of taking shortcuts. This was actually a good thing for the whole family... ..

In the past few years when their eldest brother was in charge of the family, although his EQ was very high and all kinds of accommodations and favors were moving around, the overall atmosphere of the family had become not very good. Everyone was trying their best to curry favor with the eldest brother, and the business ability had instead become a secondary existence, in less than 10,000 years, Long Jue had already felt that the atmosphere of the entire family had not changed much. The atmosphere was becoming more and more heavy with favors and relationships as the main focus. However, the heavier the favor, the more often it meant that the fairness was getting lower and lower, in order to walk away from the relationship, a large number of resources were used for private purposes. Corruption grew, and the entire atmosphere became worse and worse.

Now that they were going to split up the family, it was time for them to put in a lot of effort to rectify the situation. The second son's character might be able to give the family a new direction.

"Second master..." "..." Mira's father was the first to speak. "You're right. The family that left should at least compensate for giving up so many properties at once. However, isn't it not good to let them freely state their price? "What if they ask for sky-high prices?"

The remaining members nodded their heads one after another. With free distribution, those who wanted to leave could naturally wait for the price to be sold. They would wait for everyone to offer their prices, and the highest bidder would get it. In serious cases, they could even do nothing, they would forcefully take the resources of the previous industries for many years.

And in order to seize the industries, there was no guarantee that many families would also accept sky-high prices. This seemed to be unfair to them... ..

"This has been taken into consideration... .." zhuxing directly nodded and said, "The reason for the free price is that the unified valuation will not be fair to the various industries. After all, it is a very complicated process. Although the resources of some of the branches are average, their channels are well managed and their income is not lower than other branches. Although some of the family businesses are currently making average profits, their potential in the later stage is not small. and other factors will affect the inaccurate valuation and affect the fairness. So, I decided to let them negotiate freely. Because I have been managing the industry for many years, I should know how much my property is worth in my heart... “...”

“As for the sky-high price, we will not tolerate it. The free trading period is 30 days. If there is no trading after 30 days, I will personally investigate the reason. If it is because the price is too outrageous, then I will directly confiscate the property and not give any additional subsidies. What do you think?”

“This...” everyone looked at each other. With the maximum period set by the second division and personal supervision, there was a guarantee of fairness... ..

In the end, everyone slowly nodded and accepted this explanation... ..

After big head finished speaking, the family division registration went smoothly. Before midnight, everyone was satisfied with getting what they wanted. The entire family meeting was smoother than they had imagined, this caused big chief gunsh and the fifth elder to be unable to find any faults at the moment. The main reason was that the second branch was too fair. He did not even intend to take the property of the Big House for himself. Instead, it was the same as the other family divisions that were about to leave. He wanted to let him, who was interested in managing the big house property, negotiate the price... ..

Who could find fault with him if he gave up the biggest profit? If he raised an objection, he would probably be hated to death by the people around him!

For a moment, he could not see whether the second elder was stupid or had hidden it deeply...

After the smooth end of the meeting, the branches that had left returned to their dorms with satisfaction. Mira and her parents also went out for a walk with great interest...

“Father...” Mira said curiously, “It seems that the second master is a fair person today...”

“He has always been like this...” Mira’s father was an old man from the same period as zhuxing, at this moment, hearing his daughter talking about him., a complicated look appeared on his face. “In fact, when he was in charge of the family in the past, the atmosphere in the family was very good. There were very few chaotic situations where people used favors to get resources. Moreover, the days of the branch families were actually very good at that time...”

Mira was stunned. It was hard for her to imagine that her father would say this because in everyone’s impression, her father seemed to be a lackey of the Big House!

Seeing her daughter looking at him like this, Mira’s father smiled bitterly and said, “Do you think that I like to curry favor with others? who would be willing to kneel when I can stand to earn money?”

Mira was silent for a few seconds when she heard this. Then, she raised her head and smiled. “Father, don’t worry. I will definitely not let father kneel to earn money in the future...”

“Haha... Good!” Her parents laughed happily.

The husband and wife married late, so Mira was an old woman. Her wife was injured during a mission, so she couldn't get pregnant anymore. Mira was a girl, so it was difficult for a girl to be valued in the warrior clan.

But fortunately, her daughter was good...

"Right..." Mira's mother suddenly said, "What's the situation between you and that... that Lord?"

"Uh..." Mira was stunned, and a trace of panic flashed in her eyes. She forced herself to remain calm and said, "Lord Mother, what are you talking about? I . . . What situation could there be between me and that Lord?"

"Is that so?" Mira's mother looked at her daughter suspiciously. "But your behavior today is very strange..."

Her daughter had always been steady. In the face of an adult of that status, a child who was not very sensible would probably be well-behaved. For example, the son of the fifth elder and the first elder today, even if he was jealous of the gift in Mira's hand., he would not dare to show it in public.

On the contrary, Mira was acting strange today. Forget about the rude laughter, she could clearly see that this little daughter had been baring her teeth and glaring at the God of heaven several times!

This was not her usual style...

And that Lord's behavior was also quite weird. Among so many juniors, he seemed to be a little too biased, right. Giving such a good gift to Mira, but the other juniors did not show it at all. It was indeed a little weird... ..

"I What's wrong with my behavior?" Mira said with a guilty conscience, "My behavior is very normal, then. . . . That Lord is so good to me for no reason, he must be up to something . . . Just now . . . Acting like that . . . Well, yeah, that's it . . ."

"Have designs on you?" The father burst out laughing. "Are you serious?"

"I . . ." Mira blushed and lowered her head. "I . . . I was just thinking about it. After all, the gift came too suddenly..."

"Haha!" Her father laughed. "So our daughter also has princess fantasies... did she secretly read those bards' books behind our backs? That kind of... Domineering CEO joke?"

"No way! !" Mira was so embarrassed by the joke that she couldn't help but shout, "Father, don't talk nonsense..."

"Okay, you... Naughty Old Thing!" Mira's mother glared at her husband and looked at her shy daughter in amusement. "It's good that you thought wrongly... don't think wrongly all the time!"

"How can it be..." Mira pouted. "Am I such an unrealistic person?"

"Of course not my daughter..." Mira's mother gently rubbed her daughter's head, a trace of pride flashed in her eyes. Among the younger generation of Ardia, besides those from the second branch, who else could be compared to her daughter?

But when it came to the second branch...

Mila's mother immediately smiled and said, "That eldest girl from the second branch is probably such an unrealistic person..."

"Mother..." mila smiled and said, "Isn't it bad to speak ill of others behind their backs?"

"I'm not interested in talking about her..." her mother curled her lips. "If she didn't stare at you for no reason today, I wouldn't even bother with that kind of person..."

"Stared at me?" Mira was stunned. "Did she?"

Mira's father was also stunned. "There's such a Thing?"

"Isn't That So?" Mira's mother sneered. "She's been staring at you and that God... I reckon... HMPH, perhaps she's the one who dares to think of the things we don't dare to think of..."

"Are you sure you want to go with your uncle and the others?"

The second bedroom was not as carefree as Mira's family, because there was still a very important matter to be dealt with, which was the issue of whether their eldest daughter would live or die.

In the dormitory room, zhuxing had long expected the answer of the eldest girl, Sansa, but when he heard it, he was still very disappointed... ..

Yena, who was standing at the side, couldn't help but feel sad when she heard this. She held her skirt tightly while Nicole hugged her mother and buried her head in her mother's arms... ..

Sansa sneered in her heart when she saw this scene.

It was really a mother-daughter filial piety. What a pity... .. This warmth would never reach her... ..

Actually, after hearing that the identity of the commander of the Rennes army wasn't permanent, she had the intention to stay, but... .. After seeing how the God of Heaven treated Mira in such a special way...

A bold thought couldn't help but arise in her mind...
