Chapter 1591: Cold Star V S Night Demon Crown Prince (1) !

The battle on the stage had been going on for almost half an hour, but the audience of the younger generation below the stage couldn't take their eyes off it. Almost everyone held their breaths and watched very seriously.

It was obviously very exciting. Even the elders who were watching the battle rarely said anything. They all watched silently. A battle between juniors could attract the attention of all the elders, not just because of their identities., it was because these two juniors were indeed worthy of such attention!

"This child, Edgar, has improved quite a lot recently..."

In a corner below the stage, a slender figure wearing a black robe similar to Logan's looked at the stage with a tone of praise.

Beside him stood a tall and handsome night demon. Upon closer inspection, one would find that he was very similar to the young night demon who was dancing on the stage. He was one of the two great divine swords of the imperial clan of the night, Ye Xiu. Mo Si!

"HMPH..."the handsome man snorted lightly. "Improve on what? If I don't slack off, will I be used as a test stone by others like I am now?"

As a powerful swordsman of the Tianyuan level, he could naturally see the background of the two juniors on the stage at a glance. That Green Titan seemed to be on par with his own descendant, but in reality, it was not like this... ..

Through the subtle muscle reaction, he could clearly see that the junior was clearly trying to release his power... ..

Every time there was a change in Edgar's sword path, he would activate his attribute power when he was not in a hurry to react. He would use his super high physical ability to barely deal with it, and as long as he was familiar with the sword path, he would slowly adjust his various attributes., strength and speed. He strived to reduce his basic attributes while at the same time dealing with Edgar's exquisite techniques!

He... was using the other party to temper himself!

"You can't blame Little Edgar for this..." . "...". The high priest shook his head slightly and smiled. "The child opposite us clearly has overwhelming talent. The basic attributes of his body are probably several times higher than Edgar's. Edgar's life rating is obviously the same as his. The huge difference in basic attributes is not caused by his usual laziness..." . "..."

"Hmph..."Ye Xiu snorted coldly, but did not continue to retort. In fact, that was indeed the case... "...".

"These children brought by Xandar Academy are indeed a little exaggerated..."the high priest said faintly, "A single round of basic attributes is at least at the level of the crown prince..."

“Just in terms of basic attributes?” Ye Xiu’s lips curled slightly, but he did not say much. He was very clear that the other party was avoiding a reality, and that was that the little fellows that Xandar brought with him this time could compete against the crown prince for more than just basic attributes!

Take the child on the stage for example. Although this fellow’s battle techniques were crude, his control was extremely astonishing. Every time he got used to Edgar’s sword path, he would be able to reduce his attributes to the limit of being able to receive blows, thus tempering himself... ..

With this kind of talent, if he were to learn high-level battle techniques in time, his direct battle prowess would not lose to the crown princes of the various royal families at all... ..

No... perhaps now...

Just as he was thinking about this, the high priest beside him suddenly said, “Tsk... that child...”

“HMM?” Ye Xiu was stunned. He recovered from his thoughts and looked over. He immediately discovered that there was an additional person on the scene... ..

At this moment, an incomparably light figure entered the scene like a falling purple leaf in an extremely natural state. He ignored the sword Qi that filled the sky and the shadow of the spear that the Green Titan wielded, as if strolling in the courtyard, he suddenly interjected between the two.

His slender fingers lightly pressed against the sword shadow that filled the sky...

In an instant... .. Under that slender finger, the light shadow that was like a silver screen instantly stopped, turning into a slender black-purple longsword... ..

The drum music of the priests on the stage also stopped because of the third person’s intrusion...

“Your Highness?” The owner of the Sword Shadow was stunned and hurriedly withdrew his sword to bow.

The person who came smiled and glanced at another position. It was Leng Xing, who was fighting against Edgar...

The long spear in Leng Xing’s hand stopped three feet away from the opponent the moment the opponent appeared. There wasn’t even a blade... ..

“Good control...” the person looked at Leng Xing and smiled. It was the Third Highness of the Royal Night Demon clan, the Crown Prince of the current Royal Night Demon clan, Elvis!

Facing the praise, Leng Xing frowned slightly...

It was not a good thing to interrupt someone’s battle rashly. Moreover, the other party’s attitude was very arrogant!

When he landed, he completely ignored him, as if he was sure that he could control his strength to stop. Moreover, the expression in his eyes was as if he did not put his long spear in his eyes at all.

It was as if as long as he wanted, even if the long spear was only a hair’s breadth away, he could grasp the situation at any time and make his long spear disappear... ..

“Your Highness...” after saluting, Edgar raised his head and frowned. “What are you doing?”

“Oh...” Elvis lazily sucked in a yawn. “I’m a little sleepy from watching, so I came up to try my hand. You can go down...”

Edgar seemed to be very familiar with the other party’s style. After two seconds of silence, he didn’t say anything. He cupped his hands, bowed, and walked down the stage.

Below the stage, night elemental’s face darkened slightly when he saw this scene...

“This child...” the priest beside him shook his head as well.

The drum competition was a very heavy ceremony, and it was very rude for a third party to intrude. No matter how Edgar performed, he should not be the one to forcefully end it...

Priest Logan... Was too indulgent with that child. ...

“Heh...”

Just as Edgar was about to step down from the stage, Leng Xing, who had been silent the whole time, suddenly spoke, “What’s Your Name?”

Edgar’s body froze. He turned around and looked at Leng Xing with a frown.

“My name is Leng Xing, a first-year student of Xandar...”

Leng Xing solemnly registered himself first...

Edgar was stunned for a moment. After hesitating for two seconds, he cupped his hands and said, “Edgar Moss...”

“Edgar?” Leng Xing nodded. Then, he performed a common chest-hammering salute of Titan Warriors. “I’m very happy to fight with you. I hope there will be a chance to fight again in the future...”

The huge fist hammered on the broad chest like a muffled drum. Not only was it full of heroic spirit, it also gave people a feeling of incomparable sincerity.

Not only Edgar, almost everyone could see that the Titan was sincerely praising the other party... ..

In fact, Leng Xing was indeed sincere. The other party’s techniques were exquisite, completely different from the previous opponents he had met. Every time he attacked, he wished that he could slow down and watch it more than ten times.

If it weren’t for the fact that his opponent’s basic attributes were too inferior, he might not even be able to withstand a single move. In his opinion, fighting with such a person would benefit him greatly!

Edgar bit his lips slightly and returned a bow. “There will be a chance. I’m also looking forward to fighting with you next time...”

“Definitely!” Leng Xing grinned. His white teeth were particularly eye-catching under the purple light.

“Of course...” Edgar took a deep breath, bowed again, and walked off the stage at a faster pace. ...

He couldn’t wait to go back and improve himself, to try his best to improve himself... ..

When Ye Xiu saw this scene from afar, his cold expression softened a little. He took a deep look at Leng Xing who was smiling brightly on the stage...

After watching Edgar leave the stage, Leng Xing finally turned his gaze to the culprit who had ruined this competition... ..

Chapter 1592: Cold Star V S Night Demon Crown Prince (Part Two) !

“What? You want to ask my name too?” Elvis looked at him with a faint smile... ..

“No need...” cold star’s attitude quickly turned cold. “I don’t think you’re interested in talking about it...”

“Oh?” Elvis was stunned for a moment, then he smiled and said, “That’s true...” then he looked at the priests who were playing the drums. “What’s wrong? Don’t you want to continue?”

The priests looked at each other, and a hint of anger flashed in the eyes of the leader, Lorna. She bit her lips, and just as she was about to organize the drums to continue, Leng Xing spoke again... ..

“I think... There’s no need for that, right?”

Elderweiss’s smile paused slightly. “Why is that?”

Leng Xing said, “I’ve never seen such beautiful drum music. To be honest, I really enjoyed it just now. It’s such good drum music, so there’s no point in forcing it. You Don’t seem to be that enthusiastic about it, so I don’t think there’s a need to trouble you, right?”

Elderweiss was speechless

For some reason, the other party’s words were always very gentle, and they always hit the nail on the head. But for some reason, why did he feel so uncomfortable?

Leng Xing ignored ELDERWEISS and looked at the priestess of Rona’s group. He thumped his chest again and said, “Thank you very much for your blessings. I hope that I can see such beautiful sacrificial dances in the future when I have the chance...”

His words were straightforward and full of the forthright style of the Titan race. Coupled with his tall figure and his extremely masculine temperament, it made the heart of the leader, Rona, jump violently... ..

“You are too polite... then... hmm... you should be careful...” after saying this, everyone was stunned, including Rona who said this.

She didn’t think that she would say that out of nowhere. After all, she should be on Elvis’s side... ..

Looking at the sudden silence around her, Lorna felt her ears burning. She had always been arrogant, but now she was dodging. She just wanted to leave the stage as soon as possible. After hurriedly saluting, she... She left the stage with the priests as if she was escaping...

Elvis frowned slightly when he saw this scene. Rona really left just because of a few words from him. She actually didn't ask for his opinion at all...

Was this... Not Too Good?

In fact, he had never cared much about what others thought of him, so he always did things his own way. However, one day, when others didn't seem to care much about his opinion, he felt inexplicably uncomfortable... ..

"You do know how to behave..." Elvis couldn't think of an excuse after thinking for a long time, so he could only say this...

Hearing this, Leng Xing looked at the other party with puzzlement. "Isn't knowing how to behave basic? You're not a child anymore..."

Elvis: "..."

PFFT...

Below the stage, a group of young people, especially Lorna, who had just stepped down from the stage, couldn't help but burst out laughing. If it weren't for the fact that the situation wasn't quite right, they would probably have burst out laughing...

Logan frowned as he looked at the group of young people who were trying to hold back their laughter. At this moment, he suddenly felt that there was something missing from Elvis's teachings...

"Phew..." Elvis forcefully suppressed the inexplicable depression in his heart and raised his hand. "Let's begin..."

Leng xing sized him up and asked doubtfully again, "Don't you have a Weapon?"

A hint of impatience flashed in Elvis's eyes. "There's no need for that..."

"Is that so?" Leng Xing nodded, but he didn't say anything else. He slowly raised the long spear in his hand.

Seeing this, a cold smile flashed in Elvis's eyes. He thought that this guy would be so magnanimous that he would be more polite when he said he didn't have a weapon.

In the end, when it came to matters, he was still very calculative...

Unfortunately... He had miscalculated one thing. No matter how much he tried to put on a facade, there were some things that could not be changed. For example, strength... ..

Bang!

A silver cold light instantly arrived. Almost before the group of young people could react, the cold light stopped at Elvis's throat, forming a silver long spear... ..

The spearhead had a sharp edge that could cut through the air, and it stopped just a hair's breadth away from the opponent's throat!

The entire venue instantly became frighteningly quiet. All the disciples of the younger generation held their breaths and looked at this scene in astonishment, because almost everyone had not reacted to how this scene had happened...

Of course, this included Elvis on the stage!

When he was on the stage for 0.1 seconds, he was still secretly mocking the other party's actions. However, he did not expect that in the next instant, the fellow who was still ten meters away from him would appear in front of him as if he had jumped through time...

What... was going on?

The spear that was only a millimeter away from his throat was emitting traces of a cold light. The goosebumps all over his body constantly reminded him that this was not an illusion.

Before he could even raise his hand, the enemy had already arrived at the city... .. And according to the rules of the martial arts competition..! ... He had already lost!

Realizing this, Elvis was completely stunned...

He... had actually lost just like that?

The people below the stage were also staring at him in a daze, clearly unable to react at all...

"Progenitor..."

Below the stage, Ai Ge, who had already left the stage, stood on the stage in a daze. He asked ye Xiu beside him, "What... secret skill is this? Speed... is it so exaggerated?"

"It's not a secret skill..."Ye Xiu shook his head slightly. "It's just a simple straight stab, the basic move of the Federation's Basic Martial Arts. I used it so many times when I was fighting you just now. Can't you see it?"

"Basic skills? That's... . How is that possible?"Edgar said.

"Nothing is impossible..."Ye Xiu narrowed his eyes and said: "As long as there is enough high explosive power and control, plus... . Tempered!"

"Tempered?"

"Yes... . I've been through a lot... . "Ye Xiu narrowed his eyes. "This straight stab, which is so smooth that it doesn't have any unnecessary movements, is naturally obtained after countless practice. A million times, a million times, and not bothering to practice it tirelessly. When this move becomes a part of the body, it will have the same effect as before... "..."

"Just like this... you can defeat the Crown Prince?"Edgar was clearly in disbelief...

"Why can't I?"Ye Xiu snorted coldly. "A guy who only treats battle as a mission and can only be perfunctory for a day, do you really think he's invincible in the world?"

Edgar:"..."

"I've told him long ago..."Ye Xiu looked at Elvis who was in a daze on the stage and sneered. ...

“Thank you...” looking at Elvis who was still in a daze, Leng Xing had no intention of paying any attention to him. He put away his long spear and bowed coldly. Then, he carried the long spear and walked down the stage.

Elvis stared blankly at Leng Xing’s tall back. He recalled what his sword instructor, Ye Xiu, had once said to him... ..

“Do you know? You’re wasting your talent...”

“What’s The Big Deal?” At that time, his tone was still as lazy as before. “Your talent is too high. If you go all out, your subordinates won’t be able to catch up. If you waste a little of your subordinates, they won’t be able to catch up. If that’s the case, why do you have to walk a path that’s difficult for you?”

“What if someone with a similar talent as you appears? Believe me, with your attitude towards battle, you might not even be able to take a single move...”

“Huh? Is there such a person?”

“Do you think that there is no existence in the entire universe with a higher talent than you?”

“Who? Tyrande? I’ve seen him before. He’s not as powerful as you say...”

“You might not meet him...” Ye Xiu looked coldly at his disciple who seemed to never wake up. “But you won’t become a powerhouse in the end...”

“Hey! !”

When he woke up from his memories, Elvis saw that Leng Xing was about to leave the stage, so he hurriedly called out to him.

Leng Xing’s figure froze. He turned his head around helplessly and looked at himself... ..

Elvis was stunned. He was very familiar with that expression. That was the expression that he always had when he was perfunctory with others... ..

So this expression looked... .. Was so dazzling...

“Is there anything else, Your Highness?”

“When... Let’s have another match...” Elderweiss took a deep breath and invited him sincerely.

He really could not say that he did not count just now. He really could not say that he would have another match now. No matter how careless he was just now, he had lost... .. He had lost. However, as long as he had another match, he would be more cautious the next time...

“I’m sorry...” Leng Xing shook his head. “I’m not interested in the weak...”

Chapter 1593: failure that refuses to admit defeat

The next day, the entire upper echelon of Night Demon was shocked by this news!

“What? Elvis lost?”

The first person to receive the news was the imperial family. The Night Demon Emperor, who had already entered a state of exhaustion, widened his eyes and looked at the priest who came to report the situation!

“Uh...” Logan glanced at the Night Demon Emperor and comforted him gently, “Your Majesty, Please Don’t be agitated...”

“Cough cough cough...” the night demon emperor coughed a few times and only coughed until his face turned red. Logan quickly cast a high-level divine art to alleviate his weakness... ..

“I told you not to be agitated...” Logan sighed and looked at him with a complicated expression...

A century ago, this dying old man in front of him was still a high-spirited youth. He was also the most outstanding prince of his generation back then. The scene of him becoming his disciple and cultivating divine arts was still vivid in his mind.

In just a short period of time, he had become like this... ..

A member of the royal family... It was really hard to say whether it was a blessing from the heavens or a cursed bloodline. ...

“He... how did he lose?” Night Demon Emperor took a long time to catch his breath with the help of the other party’s divine arts. He asked weakly, “How did he lose?”

The corner of Logan’s mouth twitched. He wanted to roll his eyes and say, “How could he lose?”. He just lost like that...

However, seeing that his disciple was about to die, he couldn’t say anything. He smiled and sighed, “He was too careless. This child has never suffered any setbacks since he was young. He didn’t take the heroes of the world seriously. He was careless and fell into the trap. He deserved it...”

“This bastard! !” Night Demon Emperor slammed the table beside him when he heard that. He seemed to be very angry... ..

However, priest Logan, who was familiar with the other party’s personality, knew very well that the other party was clearly relieved and had an expression on his face... ..

He knew very well that the entire night demon royal family had great expectations for elderweiss. There were only ten years left until the year of the crown prince. At this juncture, even the slightest mistake by elderweiss would be magnified infinitely. Not to mention losing directly to his peers...

“Teacher, quickly tell me, how did that bastard lose so carelessly to others?”

The word ‘carelessly’ was emphasized heavily, causing Logan to sigh slightly in his heart. He knew that in the other party’s heart, losing carelessly was much more acceptable than losing seriously.

Thus, he began to slowly recount what happened that night. During this period, he tried his best to find a reason for Elderweiss’ defeat...

“That Titan’s physical fitness of Xandar Academy is very exaggerated. At the same level, he has the basic attributes that are not inferior to elderweiss at all. Moreover, he is extremely good at controlling his own body. Elderweiss doesn’t take him seriously at all, but he doesn’t give him a chance to get back at him later...” . . .

“Serves him right! !”The Night Demon Emperor coughed a few more times. “Seeing that he is still so carefree in the future, does he really think that all the people in the world are clay chickens and dogs?”

He paused for a moment and said, “In that case, it might not be a bad thing for him...”

Logan nodded when he heard that. This was the truth...

This kid had long needed to be taught a lesson like this. However, in his opinion, the other party was still too gentle. If it was according to his opinion, he should have pressed him to the ground and given him a good beating...

In his opinion, that Titan Kid had this ability. The speed of his explosive power in that instant was almost four times faster than Elvis, and there seemed to be some left over... ..

With such explosive power, if he were to fully utilize his attributes and fight head-on, even if Elderweiss’ battle techniques were exquisite, he did not think that elderweiss would be able to win. After all... There was a limit to using clever methods to break the foundation of strength. When that limit was broken, any technique would be a gimmick... ..

“Oh right, teacher...” night demon emperor suddenly said, “I heard from you just now that Xandar Academy is here to join the Alliance?”

“Yes...”

“Then the child who used a trick to defeat Elvis might be a good card... perhaps he can make the space elves suffer a great loss...”

“That is only limited to the royal children...” . Logan said with a bitter smile, “Your Majesty should also know how powerful the ancient lands are to you. In ten years, no matter how talented the child is, he will at most be at level ten. At this level, it is impossible to make the royal children at that time suffer a loss.” “...” . “...”

“I know that too...”the old night demon Emperor said with a smile, “But it’s not bad to be able to foreshadow the other disciples of Starry Sky Academy. At the very least, it would have some effect, right?”

“HMM... that’s true...”

“Right...”the old night demon suddenly thought of something. “What about that B * Stard?”

“I gave him a day off...”Logan said with a smile, “Didn’t he say that his holiday was ruined yesterday? I asked him to delay the training mission for another day and let him have a good rest for a day...”

“Well... can he rest?”

“now... indeed should be unable to rest...”Logan said with a laugh. . .

At this moment, in a remote woodland of Night Academy, Elvis was lying on the same unremarkable tree as yesterday...

But... Today and yesterday's mood is completely different. ...

The tree that allowed him to relax instantly seemed to have completely lost its magical effect. Just as High Priest Logan had said, the current him... .. Could not rest... ..

At this moment, his mind was filled with that fellow's last sentence... ..

"I'm not interested in the weak..."

The weak... they really dared to say it! !

A hint of frustration flashed across Elderweiss'eyes as he turned around once more...

A fellow who took advantage of his carelessness to win by a fluke actually refused to fight after gaining a fluke?

Of course, he understood what the other party was thinking. It wasn't easy for him to win against the crown prince, so he naturally couldn't take any more risks. If he were to brag about this battle record for the rest of his life... ..

He originally didn't really care about such a despicable person, and he didn't really care about the reputation of the crown prince either. However, after being stepped on by such a despicable person, he still felt that he was at a disadvantage... ..

After thinking for a long time, he finally could not help but sit up!

No, it could not be like this...

In the end, elderweiss jumped down from the tree and turned into a black lightning bolt, rushing in a certain direction!

Not far away, a black-robed priest who was secretly observing was smiling as he watched the other party's figure disappear into the distance. That figure, which was completely different from the previous leisurely figure, clearly indicated that his highness was anxious this time... ..

"Sir Logan..."the priestess connected to Logan's spiritual channel.

"Did he still go?"

"Yes..."

"Get Someone to prepare a barrier. No one else is allowed to be present in the outcome of this battle!"

"The students of Xandar Academy defeated Elvis of the Night Demon Race?"

At this moment, Sylvanas who had just returned to the Northern Star Field was slightly stunned when she received this news. She looked at the logistics officer who was reporting the news and asked with a strange expression, "Are you sure?"

She had met that child once. He had an extremely exaggerated talent. It was really unexpected that he lost to the students of Xandar Academy... ..

"This matter... shouldn't be fake... After all, sir, you know how much the Night Demon clan values this year's crown prince..."

"That's true..." Sylvanas nodded with a smile when she heard that. "That's good too. Let's go and watch the show..."

At this moment, the few of them didn't notice that Wang Goudan, who was snoring on the sofa not far away, had his ears twitching when he heard about Xandar Academy... ..

Chapter 1594: Classmate... .. Excuse me... .

"Elvis lost to the freshmen of Xandar?"

At this moment, not only the major families were paying attention to this matter, the younger generation on campus were also talking about it. This news was as shocking as a magnitude 15 interstellar earthquake!

When most people heard this news, they were in disbelief at once. After all, the Crown Prince's halo was as heavy as Tyrande's halo in the Night Demon clan. Almost all the younger generation thought that.., this generation's crown prince was undefeatable!

"Is this for real?"

"Why would I lie to You?"

At this moment, somewhere in the Serene Night Academy, amongst the thousands of students who were discussing, a group of young men dressed as priestesses dressed in black were also discussing this matter. and the priestess who was in charge of drumming at that time was walking at the front: Lorna!

The Night Priestess Academy was the Academy with the highest status in the Serene Night Academy. Lorna was a direct descendant of the night priestess of the Logan clan. Her aptitude and results were excellent, and the people she came into contact with were naturally celebrities.

The one who asked the question was the direct descendant of the Nanye clan's current priestess: Violet Orchid...

And the remaining one was also the direct descendant of one of the royal families, the Ye Ning clan: Reese... ..

"The few of us were on the stage at that time and saw it with our own eyes..." Reese said exaggeratedly, "Elvis was beaten up badly..."

“Ah?” Violet Orchid was stunned when she heard that, and her face was obviously pale. “It can’t be...”

“Don’t listen to her nonsense...” the leader, Rona, frowned and interrupted the noisy guy. “So many unreliable versions have been spread out, not this guy! !”

“Slightly slightly...” the exaggerating Richie made a funny face. “Who asked that guy to act so cocky normally? Now that he’s finally fallen, of course he has to make up a good story...”

“Oh... so it’s just a rumor...” violet orchid heaved a sigh of relief. Then, she frowned and looked at the other party. “What’s So Cocky about your highness? It’s just that he’s a little lonely under too much pressure...”

“Tch, who’s not under a lot of pressure?” Reese pouted. “He’s under so much pressure and enjoys so many resources. Other people dream of enjoying him. The first prince was originally so talented, but because he had the nine serenity eyes, he immediately made way for him. He even acted as if he was wronged...” . “ ...”

“And do you really think he’s a free and easy person? Hehe, I think he just hasn’t been beaten up...”

The more violet orchid listened, the more she frowned. Lorna, who was about to refute, finally spoke up, “Alright... Elvis is the face of our night demon clan. This defeat is not a good thing after all. Don’t gloat over his misfortune...”

Violet orchid paused when she heard that and said in a daze, “In other words, we really lost?”

“Then who do you think would dare to create something out of nothing for Our Genius?”

“Reese...” Lorna could not help but glare at him... ..

“Tsk...” the priestess named Reese curled her lips, but in the end, she did not say anything to continue provoking violet orchid... ..

Many people knew that Zi Lan had a crush on that guy. In fact, there were many people who had a crush on this genius crown prince, but most of them were infatuated girls who could not come into contact with Elderweiss, by relying on his imagination, he had created an image of a proud and aloof prince. In fact, those who had come into contact with that guy knew that he was a person who deserved a beating.

They really did not know what Zi Lan valued about him. Other than the talent he had inherited from his mother’s womb, what else was there?

Moreover, being a consort was destined to be a widow. Most of the direct descendants would avoid her...

“Rona...” violet orchid looked at Rona nervously. “Your Highness... Did you really lose?”

Rona looked at the place and sighed slightly. “Your Highness was careless. You underestimated your opponent too much. You were robbed of a move...”

Robbed of a move? Ricky’s eyelids twitched. Rona really knew how to use words. The whole process was just one move, okay?

“Is that so?” Violet orchid bit her lips. “Then what did the people of Xandar Academy Do?”

Rona frowned when she heard that. She thought of the Titan who was full of heroic spirit. Her voice turned slightly cold. “A loss is a loss. It’s not the style of US night demons to label others as scheming!”

“Uh...” violet orchid was obviously stunned. She did not understand why Lorna, who had always been tolerant towards others, would suddenly be so strict!

But before she could say anything, a faint voice sounded from behind, “Well said...”

The few of them were stunned. Before they turned around, their expressions became strange because they recognized this voice. It was one of the main characters of the topic just now...

“Your Highness Elvis?” Violet Orchid was the first to call out in surprise.

“Your Highness, what a coincidence...” after regaining her senses, Lorna’s brows furrowed even more tightly. “Eavesdropping behind my back isn’t gentlemanly...”

Elvis glanced at her indifferently. “It’s not intentional. When I passed by, I heard someone saying that I was pressed to the ground and beaten, so I was curious to hear the rest...”

Hearing that, Lorna paused for a moment and didn’t know how to refute him. Compared to eavesdropping, it was indeed more unreasonable to speak ill of others behind their backs. Moreover, since he was listening to her bad words... .. It was also a legitimate reason... ..

“It’s our fault... We shouldn’t have talked behind our backs...” Lorna apologized decisively. ...

“It’s fine. Anyway, you guys aren’t the only ones who talked behind our backs...” elderweiss replied calmly.

Hearing this, Lorna choked. The other party’s unreasonable attitude made her feel a little depressed, but she couldn’t say anything. After all... .. she was in the wrong. Of course, the most important thing was that the other party’s identity was different... ..

But beside her, Rishi was instantly enraged, she, who was feeling a little guilty at first, immediately retorted after hearing the other party’s mocking words, “Am I right? You lost to the other party in one move. Shouldn’t you have been pressed to the ground and beaten up in a fight based on common sense?”

“Reese, what nonsense are you talking about?” Violet Orchid said angrily.

Rona looked at him coldly and did not say anything. She did not stop Reese’s impulse as usual. Obviously, she was not very comfortable with Elvis... ..

“Whether it’s true or not, we’ll know after the fight...” Elvis replied calmly.

“What?” Reese, who was originally mocking her, was stunned when he heard this. “You still want to fight?”

Lorna frowned as well. “Your Highness, I’m a guest. Aren’t you being a little rude?”

Elvis replied, “It’s a normal spar. Where’s the rudeness coming from?”

“Oh, you’re obviously not convinced!” Reese taunted, “But I might not pick you up. Have you forgotten what I said yesterday? I’m not interested in the weak! !”

As soon as he said that, his words were like a needle piercing into Elvis’s heart. His unchanging relaxed gaze instantly turned extremely cold, causing the provocative Rishi’s body to instantly stiffen. The rest of his words were stuck in his throat, and he did not dare to say another word!

Due to the overly sharp aura, even Rona, who wanted to mediate, felt a little breathless. Rona found it difficult to speak at this moment, and she was immediately annoyed. Even if Rishi had gone overboard with his words, wasn’t your reaction a little too big?

He wouldn’t really want to make a move, right?

Elvis stared coldly at Rishi. His aura didn’t decrease, but instead increased. The three of them only felt a mountain-like pressure enveloping their entire bodies!

Violet Orchid was the first to not resist. She directly knelt on the ground, while the remaining two struggled to hold on!

This fellow! !

Lorna stared coldly at him. Just as she was about to retaliate, a voice that seemed to have not woken up suddenly sounded, “That... student? May I ask... where is the temporary residence of Xandar Academy?”

Chapter 1595:

The owner of the voice was a very strange guy. He was wearing a thick leather jacket that wrapped his entire body tightly. When he walked, he looked like a big ball, in addition, this voice that was not awake had a hint of naivety in it. It gave off a silly and cute feeling.

But at this moment, this guy who suddenly appeared in Elvis’ Aura gave off an extremely strange feeling...

Lorna and the other two were still fine. They had been focusing all their energy on resisting Elvis’s aura, so it was normal for outsiders to not notice it. At most, they would only wonder how this guy managed to get close to them.

Elvis couldn’t understand...

This guy in front of him... what was going on?

This guy who was wrapped like a rubber ball had even half of his face wrapped up, so no one could see his face clearly. However, that pair of pitch-black pupils seemed to be burning with flames. He had never seen pupils like this before, and that year ring... ... was clearly younger than him.

The key was... ... ! He did not react at all when he leaned over!

Just as he activated his aura to force Lorna and the others, this little guy walked straight behind him. If it was not for the other party poking him with his finger., he probably would not have known that such a strange little guy was approaching him!

If this was in the wild...

Thinking of this, Elvis tensed up. After taking a deep breath, he cautiously looked at the person who had come... ..

The fellow opposite him was clearly stunned. A trace of irritation flashed in his eyes, but he still suppressed it and said in a low voice, "Can't you understand the federation language?"

In order to learn the federation language these few days, she had put in a lot of effort. She had lost two hours of sleep a day. Although her pronunciation was still a little off, it was not to the extent of not being able to understand it, right?

The person who had come was Wang Goudan, who had come with Sylvanas...

When Goudan heard that Xandar Academy had brought their students here, he wanted to go over and find out about Leng Xing and the others... ..

It had been a long time since he had seen Leng Xing. He really missed him. He wondered if that fellow had missed him... ..

In fact, his original plan was to bring him into Xandar Academy after his master brought him to join the Templar clan. However, he did not expect that someone would step in and directly kidnap him halfway to the Northern Star Field. If he wanted to see Leng Xing and the others, he could wait for that so-called friendship... ..

Ten Years...

On Planet D, the two places had been separated for ten years. Even if you found the other party's child, you would just be a bystander!

"Who are you?" Elvis said coldly.

Wang Goudan was stunned again. Why was the other party so unfriendly? Wasn't he quite polite?

Could it be because he did not bow. Sigh... It was really troublesome... ..

This federation liked to perform racial etiquette wherever they talked, making it so complicated. Oh, right... .. How could elf etiquette work?

Doggie tried his best to recall the scene of him training in etiquette. As one of the worst players in the entire base's etiquette class, wearing this thick leather jacket made his etiquette even more comical, like a bear performing acrobatics...

Seeing this, Lorna and the other two felt strange. If not for the strange atmosphere of the other party's appearance, they might have thought that this fellow was here to make a joke... ..

"Tyree Fasson Academy's first year student, Wang Xiaojia, has met the senior and senior of Nethernight Academy..." Doggie tried his best to speak more gently. Recently, his temper had been a little hot-tempered. He had made quite a lot of purchases. This time, he wanted to meet an acquaintance, so of course, he didn't want the acquaintance to see his hot-tempered side... ..

"Tyree Fasson?" Lorna, who was opposite him, looked at him curiously and thought to herself, 'no wonder he's so unfamiliar...'. ...

Under that ridiculous leather jacket of the other party, it was obvious that he was exuding vigorous vitality. Based on her assessment as a professional priestess, the density of life energy in a single round was likely that this fellow was at least level ten above the group of Green Titans from yesterday. With such a growth ring and this level of guy, if it was in Night Shade Academy, she would definitely know about it...

"First-year freshman..." Elvis's pupils narrowed, he said coldly, "Tyree Fasson is really full of talents. You're from the Assassin clan, right? Didn't your elders tell you that it's very impolite to recklessly sneak up on someone else?"

Sneak Attack?

Eggface's eyes narrowed like peas...

"I... Didn't do it, right?" Eggface scratched her head and said uncertainly. She remembered that when she was in the dragon form, she couldn't use the sneak attack footwork that her Master taught her, right?

Could it be that she had made a breakthrough?

"Oh?" Elvis's voice became colder. "Are you trying to say that you don't need the sneak attack footwork to get close to me?"

As he spoke, Elvis's body tensed up, and his breathing was adjusted to the best condition. He was ready to fight at any time.

This guy wasn't simple. His life energy was obviously higher than his. He was dressed so clumsily, and he could get close to him without him knowing. His background wasn't simple. He was probably from one of the top assassin families in the universe...

It was said that Queen XI had gone to the east star area to recruit top families. Perhaps this guy was a direct descendant of one of the top assassin families in the East Star area. Was he from the ghost family or the illusionary spirit family?

However, no matter which family he was from, he didn't put the Royal Night Hades clan in his eyes!

If Lorna knew what Elvis was thinking, she would have thought it was strange. In her memory, this guy had never cared about the so-called honor of the night Hades clan... ..

Faced with such an aggressive stance, Eggface's eyes became even rounder. He looked like two big copper beans. Obviously, he was suspicious of himself... ..

Did Eggface really go into stealth just now? Did he really break through?

That's not right. Didn't Ysera say that he couldn't. But the other party looked very serious. It seemed like he had really offended the other party... ..

Emmmm.....-...

"I'm sorry, I'm sorry..." in the end, Eggface chose to apologize repeatedly. After bowing a few times, he staggered backwards. His movements were extremely clumsy, but his speed was unsatisfied. In the blink of an eye, he had disappeared... ..

Seeing this, they all had strange expressions. This time, even Elvis was a little confused. He did not know what the other party was trying to do?

Could it be that the other party was testing him?

Thinking of this, Elvis smiled coldly. How boring...

Then, he turned back to look at Rona and the others...

Rona had just helped up the pale-faced violet orchid. Seeing that the other party was looking at her again, Rona immediately released her spiritual power to protect violet orchid vigilantly. She said coldly, "What? Your Highness can't get over this hurdle today?"

Elvis ignored him and looked at Richie, who was also trembling under the pressure of the aura beside violet orchid. Looking at the other party who couldn't even stand properly, Elvis snorted coldly, "Do you think you're qualified to talk about the weak?"

"You..." Richie's face instantly turned red. Lorna, who was beside him, also frowned. This guy... "...". Did he do that just to mock rishi? When did he become so narrow-minded?

No... "...". Perhaps this person had always had this kind of personality. It was just that he had stood too high in the past, so many people could not come into contact with this side of him...

"You bastard..." Rishi was so angry that he did not know what to say. Beside him, Lorna hurriedly prepared to pull him back. Elvis was so narrow-minded. If rishi continued to curse at him, who knew what would happen...

But just as she was about to stop Reese from losing control of his emotions, Reese, whose face was originally red, suddenly froze. He looked behind Elvis as if he had seen a ghost!

Rona looked over in confusion, and then her eyes widened!

Elvis saw the expressions of the two people and his heart tightened. Before he could react, a fair and fat finger suddenly appeared beside him and poked his face... ..

Chapter 1596: nine Serenities Eye!

"I told you... It's not me..."

The voice that appeared once again almost made Elvis jump up in fright! !

It was the second time. It wasn't that he wasn't prepared after the other party left, but when he was prepared, the other party still walked to his side without him realizing it, he even poked himself with his finger once more before he could react.

And this time, he poked his face directly...

This time, even Rona and the others had shocked expressions on their faces... ..

This guy... What the hell?

"Classmate..." Eggface's voice sounded again. "I'm now very sure to tell you that I'm not in stealth..."

Elderweiss slowly turned his head stiffly and stared at him with widened eyes. "You... What do you mean?"

"What I mean is..." Wang Eggface's two fingers walked naturally as he said, "I walked over directly like this and didn't go into stealth. You didn't realize that I'm not the reason, but your own reason..."

"What reason?" Elderweiss asked almost subconsciously.

Wang Goudan looked at him very seriously. After a few seconds, he said slowly, "You're too weak..."

Everyone:"..."

This extremely serious expression did not have any hint of mockery. The other party had very considerably experimented once more before he carefully came up with this result. However, it had to be said that it had the greatest mocking effect!

With a bang, the energy around Elderweiss' body exploded. Behind him, Lorna and the others were forced back by the energy field that was released. They thought to themselves, 'this is bad!'

Elderweiss' eyes in the night suddenly began to show layers of double shadows. One layer at a time, and in the end, they actually overlapped nine times. The nine times of double pupils gave people an incomparably beautiful feeling as well as an extremely terrifying oppressive force!

Once the pupils were formed, the terrifying pressure made it difficult for the three top night priestesses of the same generation to even stand properly even before they were facing Rona and the others.

Rishi's face was pale. He wanted to withdraw, but he was held back by Rona...

"Don't move!" Rona transmitted her voice. "Elderweiss will not be able to maintain his consciousness after activating the ninth underworld pupil. It's very dangerous. If you move recklessly, it will only agitate him. Hold on First!"

Hearing this, Reshi's face turned pale and he nodded repeatedly. Beside him, Zi Lan couldn't even stand up... ..

Lorna looked ahead with a solemn expression. She was extremely depressed...

She was just taking a walk with her friend. What was going on?

What was the background of that strange guy? How dare he provoke Elvis like this. Didn't Queen XI tell her about Elvis's ninth underworld eye?

The nine Nether pupils were the Orthodox standard of the ancient night Hades imperial clan, and also the top pupil form of the night Hades bloodline. It was both pupil form and pupil technique. Once it was activated, one's spiritual power would be stimulated to an extremely exaggerated degree, not only could one use the many strange secret techniques that only the night Hades imperial clan had, but it could also allow one's body's energy to be suddenly increased by ten times with the increase of spiritual power!

Of course... .. there were side effects as well.., it was said that once this pupil technique was activated, it would cause him to fall into a berserk state and it would be extremely difficult for him to control his mind. It was said that the night Hades imperial clan had been cultivating a spiritual technique in the lotus land since they were young, and it was used to calm their hearts.., and as the night demon imperial clan that had never had any experience in practicing pupil techniques, they had always been in the exploratory stage of training Elvis.

At least until now, Elvis had been unable to maintain his basic rationality when he activated his eye-bloodline technique!

This was also the reason why she had tried her best to stop Elvis when she heard that he was going to look for cold star, because she was afraid that he would kill someone if they fought... ..

Elvis had a dark history. In the past, there was a red lotus royalty who was torn into pieces when he came here to communicate!

"Listen to me..."Lorna transmitted her voice with a very serious expression. "When Elvis makes his move later, we will retreat bit by bit. We must not attract his attention. We will retreat a kilometer away and then use the pager to inform the elders to come over and help!"

"Then... What about the child on the other side?"Reese bit her lips and asked.

"Do you need to worry about that child?"Lorna rolled her eyes at her. "Do you know how Elvis was forced to use his nine serene eyes?"

Honestly speaking, this was the first time she had seen Elvis being forced to use his eye-bloodline technique in such a manner. After all, the other party had not even made a move yet. Hopefully, other than that terrifying stealth ability, the other qualities of that strange girl would be able to keep up, otherwise, if she was killed in an instant, it would be very dangerous for her and the others to be so close to her!

Now, she actually hoped that the silly-looking girl's true level would be as powerful as her mouth... ..

"Hey?"

In front, Eggface was obviously shocked by Elvis's sudden outburst. He tilted his head and said, "Don't misunderstand, I... I just came to ask for directions..."

Rona:"..."

Isn't it too late for you to give in now?

“Weakling?” Elvis imitated her by tilting his head stiffly. His overlapping nine pairs of eyes were filled with cold killing intent, and his voice became as piercing as metal... ..

“Uh...” Eggface scratched his head and suddenly realized that he had gone a little too far earlier...

“That... No, no, I... was just making an analogy...”

This pale explanation made Lorna and the other two roll their eyes. Was there anyone who could make such an analogy?

“Eclipse! !”

Elderweiss did not respond to Eggface’s words again. At this moment, it was obvious that Elderweiss could not respond to his opponent either. The moment he activated his ocular skill, Elderweiss only had the instinct to fight... ..

With the sound of the eclipse of the moon, the surroundings instantly darkened. Countless sources of light instantly faded away, as if the entire sky had been covered in darkness. In an instant, the surroundings became so dark that there wasn’t a single bit of light!

There was no sun in the land of the Serene Night Lotus, but under the attraction of the ink crystal, the surrounding stars were bright. There were quite a few sources of light, which could make thousands of stars dim. It was truly shocking!

In fact, it was naturally impossible. Even if there was such a forbidden spell in the world, it was not something that a level 10 little guy could use... ..

What blocked the light source was only within the range of the domain. If there were people outside looking in, they would be able to see very clearly. It was a black curtain that covered an area of 500 meters with Elvis at the Center... ..

However, those within the range would have the illusion that even the stars in the world were covered!

This time, Rona did not even send a voice transmission. Her face turned extremely pale! !

The two female priestesses beside her stared at each other in a daze. Clearly, they did not expect Rona, who had always been calm, to say something like this... ..

However, Rona was no longer in the mood to care about the other two... ..

Eclipse...

It was one of the Five Forbidden Arts Elvis had mastered after activating his ninth serene eye, and this was the only forbidden art that could cause indiscriminate damage!

Even if the other party had activated any of the other four forbidden arts, Lorna was confident that she could avoid it, but the one before her had no hope at all!

“Bastard...” Lorna could no longer remain calm. She collapsed to the ground, and her eyes were red as she glared hatefully at Elvis!

She was also a member of the royal family and only had a lifespan of one era. If she missed this year's year of the crown prince, she would basically be wasted for the rest of her life!

At this moment, Wang Goudan, who caused all of this, squeezed his pair of beady eyes and looked around. He said in a daze, "Wow... This move..."

So Cool...

Chapter 1597: The surprising result...

Damn it...

Why... Why did this happen to me?

Feeling the cold air around her, Lorna used all her strength to support her spiritual power and activated the divine protection...

However, just as she had predicted, her divine protection could not resonate in the dark domain!

The power of Eclipse Moon's domain was not only deprived of the light source, but also all the elements. In this place, all the elements were emptied, leaving only endless darkness and despair...

As she felt the extremely cold darkness slowly engulf her body, as if her throat was stuck, and she could barely catch her breath, the usually calm Lorna finally collapsed... ..

She softly sat on the ground and looked at Elderweiss with eyes filled with unwillingness and hatred!

She was a descendant of the royal family and was also the direct descendant of High Priest Logan. Her status was noble. However, while the royal family like them obtained a large amount of resources and noble status, they also lost a power that even the most ordinary Aborigines had. Yet, it was also the most precious power... ..

That was the lifespan that was equal to the life level...

No member of the royal family could live past a single era. This was like a curse. and with such a short lifespan, if they wanted to obtain the resources of a member of the royal family, they had to display their value!

After all... .. Not all princes could inherit the throne, so what was the value of the remaining princes and princesses?

The crown prince had decided that the results would usually come out very early in his youth. Then, after deciding on the Crown Prince, why would the remaining princes and princesses still obtain such high resources?

After all, they could only live for one era. Their value-for-money ratio was clearly not as high as the normal children in their families. After a large family spent countless resources to nurture a star level expert or even a life sea expert., the reward was the service of hundreds or even tens of thousands of eras' worth of experts.

However, if a royal family member took out a precious ancient land quota and gave it to him, he could only live for one era. His lifespan was almost the same as a life form that hadn't broken through to the dragon level. Even if he was born into a life sea, what was the meaning of it?

Therefore... .. Many people should have thought that within the royal family... .. Actually, it wasn't that wonderful. On the contrary..! ... It was extremely cruel!

In reality, there were quite a few members of the royal family born every year. They were far from the few people who were publicly exposed. After all, even the Red Lotus clan, which had the least number of marriage alliance seats, had over a hundred noble families residing in the royal family. As for Night Demon, as an isolated member of the royal family, in order to expand their population, almost all of the top noble families had participated in the royal family's marriage alliance...

After the Crown Prince ascended to the throne, the first thing he had to do was to try his best to give birth to as many children as possible, so that each family would at least have a share.

The Sweyne family that Lorna belonged to had six royal children, all of whom were born from her mother's concubine. and the only one who could obtain the genes passed down from the previous generation of the royal family was her!

With the genes, even if she was not the crown prince, the family would give her the best resources to grow as much as possible, so that she could strengthen her genes. And as a reward for strengthening her genes, after the current generation of the Emperor succeeded to the throne, she would then be given a territory. She would be able to choose an outstanding young man that she liked. She would also be able to leave behind a valuable fortune and future for her children.

Although she only had a lifespan of one era, she would be able to live very well in this era. She would also be able to let her descendants live even better!

However, she was the only one...

That's right, the various great nobles would not allow any unnecessary resources to be wasted on some of the descendants of the royal family that could not be used. For example, her brothers and sisters from the same mother... ..

What was their fate?

Those who did not receive the genetic inheritance would be eliminated. Even if they were at the peak of excellence among their peers right now, they were of no value due to their limited lifespan. They would be cut off from the abundant resources they had when they were young!

Moreover, those who did not enter the ancient lands would have their lifespan limited very quickly. Most of the time, they would be extremely old after a thousand years or so. They would die like trash without attracting any attention...

Lorna had once seen those royal descendants who were deemed to be worthless live in the depths of the palace awkwardly. Even the lowest servants secretly looked down on them, living like numb zombies... ..

And if she were to be destroyed now, after being reborn, the royal genes that had been passed down through countless generations would be distributed to her younger sister, Roya, who was only slightly less talented than her... ..

And she... would be completely given up!

Even if she was doted on by High Priest Logan, it was impossible for the Swein family to give another spot in the ancient lands to a princess who had missed the year of the crown prince... ..

Without the spot in the ancient lands, she would be just like those zombies in the harem...

All her dignity and dignity would be far away from her. She might not even have the right to be reborn. Her family might not even waste resources to resurrect a worthless descendant like her... ..

As the crown prince, Elvis, who had destroyed all of this, would not give anything. He would still be the emperor of the Night Demon clan and the hope of the entire clan. In the next era, he would hold the highest authority in the Night Demon clan...

And his death would not affect anything...

Damn it, damn it, damn it!!!

Lorna wanted to go crazy at this moment, but she had already lost all her strength after being eroded by the darkness. She could only helplessly kneel on the ground and wait for the most desperate outcome.

Sounds of crying came from the side. It was obviously violet-blue's voice. Lorna was so frustrated that she wanted to slap the other party to death!

Cry? Cry for what. I want to cry, you two... ∴ After being reborn, I can still start over, but what about me. I have nothing, nothing...

Rona, who was filled with evil energy, used her last bit of strength to slap the other side. However, in the next second, her palm seemed to have hit something extremely hard, causing her to grimace in pain!

However, subconsciously, she grabbed the thing in front of her... "...". It was very thick, as hard as metal, but it carried an incomparable heat. That heat that could dispel the cold made her subconsciously grab that inexplicable thing, and her entire body was stuck to it!

After hugging it, the cold feeling all over her body instantly dissipated. It was so comfortable that she almost moaned...

What was this? It was still moving?

After the cold and negative emotions brought about by the forbidden lunar eclipse spell dissipated, Lorna slowly regained her senses. However, she still did not dare to open her eyes to look. She was afraid to see that the thing she was hugging was actually a very scary thing... ..

"That..."

A slightly childish voice sounded once again. "Can you not hug my place? I feel weird..."

Huh?

That sound... it's that guy! ! !

Rona instantly hear, is that provoke Elvis to use the nine Nether pupil of that Guy!

Lorna opened her eyes suddenly, and the bright light made her squint her eyes. . .

But she could still see clearly that a black monster with dragon scales all over his body was staring at her with eyes that seemed to burn everything. ...

And what she was hugging... Was precisely the monster's... ...

Tail? ?

This guy was actually a dragon. No, that wasn't important. What was important was... ... She was actually fine? What about Elvis?

Lorna carefully poked her head out and immediately saw an unbelievable scene. Although the other party was looking back at her, it was obvious that there was someone on her dragon claws... ...

Upon closer inspection, she saw that the other party was holding on to a person who was covered in the purple blood of the Night Demon Race and was almost beaten to a pulp... ... Wasn't it Elvis?

Chapter 1598: Crazy Lorna!

"Hey... how long are you going to hug my tail?"

Doggie wagged his tail helplessly...

She was already annoyed by the fact that she had grown a tail. In order to not attract too much attention, she could only wrap her tail around her waist and wear a large leather jacket to cover it up, but she looked very silly...

Now that her clothes were gone, she had to go back and change into another set... ... In the end, the Fellow on her tail was wasting her time again... ...

"I'm... I'm sorry..."

Lorna snapped back to her senses and hurriedly apologized...

This mysterious fellow was actually able to beat Elvis, who had activated his ninth serene eye, into such a state. Although she did not know how she did it, it was still better for her to be polite to such a vicious person...

As she spoke, she unwillingly let go of Elvis's tail and moved down... ...

Although it sounded a little embarrassing, it was indeed very comfortable to hold Elvis's tail. That warm energy had almost completely eliminated the cold and gloomy feeling that Elvis brought about by the eclipse of the Moon. It was clearly a very positive energy.

On the other hand, her other two companions were currently affected by the eclipse of the Moon. Their skin had turned purplish-black, and they were curled up on the ground, shivering... ..

"That..."Lorna hesitated for a moment, but she still asked carefully, "Is Elvis Palace... Alright?"

She asked so gently, but in her heart, she really wanted the other party to say, "Oh... !!" "It's hopeless. Then, I'll crush that Darn Guy's Head!"!!!

This guy with scales all over his body was obviously a very violent existence. From the boiling energy on his body, she could feel... ..

"His Highness Elvis?"Hearing that, dog egg was stunned. "Who is it?"Seeing that the other party was looking at the guy in his hand, he immediately looked over and pinched it. "This guy is also a Highness?"

After saying that, he quickly let go of the other party, and Elvis fell to the ground like a pile of mud...

"You have to testify that he was the one who made the first move! !!"

Rona:"..."

This guy... doesn't he know that this is His Highness Elvis?

When Doggie heard that the other party was some sort of highness, he immediately had a headache... ..

The last time on that dwarf planet, it was also some sort of highness. He was clearly the one who sneakily ran into the place where he was sleeping. As a weak girl, it was normal for Doggie to overreact, right?

She admitted that she was a little harsh, but waking up in anger was something that many people had, wasn't it. Being disturbed while sleeping was indeed something that should be angry about... ..

If this was in the beautiful country, one could shoot at a private residence with a bed... ..

In the end, she was punished and not allowed to attend the banquet. I heard that the meat thief at the banquet was delicious...

What an unfair power society, it was too much... ..

In the end, he did not die. He only asked for directions. Why was it a Prince? Were there princes everywhere now?

Dogball stared at Lorna with his Beady Eyes...

Lorna was stunned. Then, she nodded repeatedly. "I testify that he attacked first..."

"That's right!"Dogball suddenly patted Lorna's head with the expression of a good brother. "I told you, most people are fair. It was indeed him who was wrong just now, wasn't it? "I just asked for directions, and he was so weird. I didn't do anything, and he was so anxious to make a move. Young people nowadays... "Why are they so irritable "... "Can't they be as gentle as me?"

Lorna glanced at Elvis who was on the ground. She really didn't think that this guy in front of her had anything to do with being gentle... ..

However, under the threat of Elvis touching her head with his big claws, she nodded obediently and said, "Yes, that's right!" But she still asked carefully, "He's not dead, right?"

"How can that be?" Dog Egg picked up Elvis and carefully listened to him on his chest. Then, he said righteously, "Is this dog egg the kind of person who doesn't know his limits?"

Lorna: "..."

"Um... about that..." Eggface looked at Elvis' miserable look, it was indeed a little unreasonable, then, he explained guiltily, "After he opened that cosmetic contact lens, he became a little tricky. He's not as weak as before, so I just..." "...". It's not easy to control him. He definitely didn't do it on purpose... ... but no matter what, it's his fault that he made the first move. Even if he's a prince, it's still wrong, don't you think?"

"Yes..." Rona nodded immediately!

"Mm..." eggface nodded in satisfaction. "I like you, a child who understands right and wrong. Then that's it. Remember to testify for me later. I'll go back and change first..."

After saying that, he threw Elvis onto Rona, spread the wings on his back, and flew in the direction he came from with a bang!

The huge gust of wind that was left behind messed up Rona's hair completely. The two priestesses on the ground also fainted due to the influence of the eclipse. In the chaotic wind, only Rona and her crown prince were left... ..

Rona did not pay attention to her messy hair. Instead, she tilted her head and looked at Elvis carefully. After looking at him quietly for almost 15 minutes, Rona said faintly, "Since your highness is awake, why do you have to pretend to be dead?"

Elvis: "..."

"What do you want to Do?"

"What can I do to You?" Rona sneered at Elvis who was in her hand and said indifferently, "Your Highness, you can completely disregard our lives and open the ninth underworld because you know that even if you kill us by mistake, you won't pay any price yourself. But I'm different. If I kill you and you tell on me, I'm afraid I won't be able to bear the responsibility..." "..."

Elvis fell silent for a long while before saying, "I... I didn't mean to hurt you..."

"Is that so?" Lorna tilted her head and looked at him coldly.

At this moment, Elvis could only let her stare at him as if he was a monkey. No matter how unhappy he was, he couldn't do anything...

Furthermore, he did not dare to do anything. The other party had said so calmly that she would not do anything to him. However, it was a fact that he had almost destroyed her just now. If she were to get a little emotional and do something that could not be undone...

"I really did not want to hurt you!" Elvis, who had always been self-centered, softened his tone and explained for the second time...

Lorna stared at him for a few more seconds before she burst into laughter. "So... Your Highness, you are also very sensible when it comes to the critical moment..."

"I..." A hint of anger flashed across Elvis's eyes, but he did not say anything in the end. He forced himself to endure the humiliation... ..

Lorna did not look at him anymore. Instead, she looked at the sky, recalling the helpless despair just now... ..

"What do you want?"

The other party dragged him into silence for a long time. She did not make a move, nor did she save him. She did not even inform her elders. What was she trying to do? Humiliate herself like this?

"I'm thinking..." Rona's tone became colder and colder. "What were you thinking when you first woke up?"

ELVIS: "Huh?"

"Maybe you didn't lose consciousness at all..."

Elvis: "..."

"Am I right?" Lorna sneered at him. "You didn't lose consciousness, you just chose to play dead after being beaten up by your opponent..."

"What are you trying to say?" Elvis's eyes were filled with anger.

"You lost to Xandar's student yesterday, and Grandpa said that it's a good thing, that it can stimulate the hidden pride in your heart..." "..." "I feel that they don't understand you at all. What Pride do you have in your heart? "Oh, no, maybe there is. Otherwise, you wouldn't be in a hurry to get back at them. But when you are facing the true power that will crush you, your pride is worthless. You See, you don't have the shame and anger that you should have when you lose. Instead, you are worried about what I will do at the first moment. You See... "... Where did your pride come from?"

"Shut up!" Elvis was completely embarrassed. "Do you think you're good? Weren't you like a maggot just now? You only know how to vent your last bit of strength on your friend? If you had any backbone, shouldn't you have stood up and faced the enemy head-on?"

Lorna was stunned by the Roar, and then she buried her head. No one knew what she was thinking about, but when she thought about it, it took another 15 minutes...

But for some reason, a depressing atmosphere suddenly surged into Elvis's heart. He regretted it after cursing, especially now, he had a feeling that there was something wrong with this guy's condition...

"You're right..." after a long time.., lorna slowly raised her head. "We... are almost the same, neither of us is a good-looking person, but we are both soft-hearted people, why can you take everything from me at any time? Ah, right..."Lorna came closer, she was so close to Elvis that she almost died. "Is it because of your eyes?"

Elvis:" ..."

"You... What do you want?"

Elvis looked at her in extreme horror. His flesh was badly mutilated, and his hair stood on end! !

Compared to the guy who was so powerful that he almost crushed her, Rona in front of him gave him an even more terrifying feeling. He was now... .. Extremely regretful for his impulsiveness just now...

"Listen, Lorna..."Elvis hurriedly said, "I'm very sorry for almost injuring you guys by accident just now, but you have to believe me, I'm really not..."

"Shh..."

Lorna's slender fingers gently pressed on Elvis's mouth. Her movements seemed very gentle, but a force completely stopped Elvis from making the sound he wanted to make!

At this moment, the fear in Elvis's body exploded to the extreme. He knew that the other party had already made up her mind to do something!

Was she crazy? Did she really dare to make a move on him?

Chi! !

A streak of blood flashed past. The blood that spurted out had a thick purplish-black color. It was obviously from a purebred night demon, but it was not from Elvis, but Lorna!

Elvis stared at her in a daze. The fear in his heart rose once again, because he saw that she had forcefully dug out his eyes!

He finally knew what she was trying to do!

She had really gone mad! ! !

Chapter 1599: Bad News!

"This time, I'll have to trouble you to travel around..."

In the Imperial Palace of Night Hades, the frail and old night Hades Emperor personally received Lord Sylvanas in the royal back garden... ..

Next to him was the first high priest of the royal family, Logan, while Sylvanas followed the second lich, Lord Monica... ..

After returning to the Northern Star region, Sylvanas had temporarily summoned the second lich over. The reason was simple. The Second Lich, Lady Monica, was the strongest biological alchemy overlord among the ten great liches. In the entire federation., monica's influence was ranked 27th, the Overlord was ranked 49th, and the Biological Alchemist was ranked 3rd!

She had made a revolutionary development in many fields related to genetics. In the entire Northern Star region, she was considered one of the top genetic engineering experts.

The main reason why he brought her along was to ensure that Goudan's characteristics would change. The other party was also very interested in Goudan, a strange individual who had two bloodlines and could switch between them. After receiving the notification, he directly handed over all the power and trifling matters to the general administrative officer and ran to the Land of darkness... ..

At this moment, in the back garden, High Priest Logan was personally brewing a fragrant tea unique to night demon. The few of them chatted about their trip to the eastern star field as if they were talking about their daily lives...

"Sir, not only did you manage to recruit thirteen top-tier families to move into the Northern Star Field in one go, you even signed with two famous universities. The overall strength of the Northern Star Field has once again risen to another level..."

"Let's do it bit by bit..." Sylvanas took a sip of the fragrant tea and lay down on the chair in a relaxed manner. "After all, it hasn't been one or two days since the Northern Star Field was isolated by others. It's not that easy to change the situation..."

Ye Youhuang nodded. "You're right, sir. However, the harvest this time is quite bountiful. Not only are the top 50 Dorun Academy and the Crimson Moon Academy stationed in the Northern Star Field, even an old school like Xandar Academy is willing to come to the Alliance..." . ..."

"Yes... <per_0> . Logan also smiled and said, "The families we recruited this time are also very valuable. Although the Templar family and the Nightwalker family have declined, they have a long history and a rich heritage. The most important thing is that our northern star area has always been lacking in the field of Rangers and assassins. It's very important for two top families like these to move in... "... "..."

Sylvanas smiled and changed the topic, "I heard that Xandar Academy caused quite a stir yesterday?"

As soon as she said this, Emperor Youye and Logan both smiled bitterly and shook their heads, "I'm sorry, my Lord..."

In the year of the Crown Prince, the five royal families competed. The Night Demon Royal Family was originally isolated and ostracized. Now, the crown prince who was trying to build momentum was actually defeated by an ordinary disciple from a foreign school. Although he had been comforting himself that it would be good if he fell down..., in reality, the negative impact was actually even greater.

At the very least, it would be a great blow to the morale of the ordinary citizens!

Upon seeing the two of them in such a state, Sylvanas instantly had an idea in her heart. It seemed that they weren't exaggerating the rumors. Instead, it seemed like the rumors were true, and her interest was immediately piqued...

As a traditional martial arts school with a side branch, Xandar Academy's overall ranking was able to squeeze into the top 100. Its quality was actually not bad. In her opinion, it belonged to an academy with an extremely high cost-effectiveness ratio in the Eastern Star region. If it was a warrior born...

Xandar Academy's score was extremely friendly. It was the academy that had the lowest threshold for entering the top 100. However, in terms of actual teachers, foundation, teaching standards, and the training of warriors, it was at least able to squeeze into the top 50 in the entire federation... ..

However, the overall standard was truly too poor, causing the ranking to be pulled down by quite a bit. It was almost squeezed out of the top 100. Perhaps some higher education academies would look down on Xandar Academy, queen Xi had treated it as an extremely cost-effective school to rope in Xandar.

However, it was only a cost-effective school. She did not expect that there would be such an inexplicable surprise in addition to the cost-effective school...

To be able to defeat the new student of the Night Demon Crown Prince? If this was used well, it might be able to help Xandar jump a lot of rankings. If the Night Demon Royal Family took special care of him, he might even be able to squeeze into the top 50 or even the top 30. Regardless of whether he would be able to keep his position in the future... At the very least, he would be able to bring quite a number of resources to the Northern Star region in the coming period... ..

"Tell me the specific situation..."

The Night Demon Emperor and Logan looked at each other and did not hesitate for long before Logan told them the details of the situation that day.

During this period, they did not hide anything because they knew that Queen Xi was not asking this question purely for the sake of eating melons, but to determine the value of Xandar.

After all, Xandar had not decided to move into the Northern Star Field. It was a question that needed to be carefully considered, and the other party's sudden surprise could clearly increase Xandar's bargaining chip...

After listening to the entire process, Queen Xi narrowed her eyes slightly and said in surprise, "You mean, even if he was not careless, Elvis's chances of winning are not high?"

"Yes...". Logan nodded, "Elvis was trained by me. I know his level very well. If he doesn't open his nine serenity eyes, he really doesn't have a high chance of winning. The physical fitness of those Titans in Xandar Academy is too exaggerated. The first few are still okay and they are familiar with high-end techniques. Maybe they have a chance, but that one called cold star is different. Although his techniques are also crude, his control is abnormally exaggerated. It's almost comparable to a high-agility lifeform of the same level. Moreover, his fighting talent is excellent. He can quickly adapt and dodge many high-level techniques. It's very exaggerated!"

"There's more than one such student?" Queen Xi was stunned, clearly a little surprised...

Although the other party was praising the last one called Leng Xing, it also proved that the other few were only slightly inferior in terms of battle performance. In other words, there were actually quite a few people who could stand shoulder to shoulder with the crown prince?

This was a little exaggerated! !

"Do you know which family he's from?"

“He’s not from a big family...” Logan shook his head, “He’s all of the ancient Green Titan’s bloodline, and his techniques are very crude, so there’s a high chance that he’s a native who can accommodate a higher green!”

“Native?”

This word caused the usually calm queen Xi’s eyelids to twitch slightly...

Because in her own team, there was also a native who didn’t lose at all... No, a bloodline that transcends royalty entirely, perhaps the true awakening of royalty in the universe... ..

Could it be...

“Do you know the origin?” Queen Xi asked faintly.

“I heard that it was sent by a cooperative god Lord, a free candidate of Xandar...” Logan sighed. “It can only be said that Xandar’s luck is really too good, such a good thing can let them meet...”

Sometimes, there would be some natives under the deity overlord who had a high tolerance rate. However, they were rare. Usually, there would be less than one in a billion. For several of them to appear at once, it could only be said that they had hit the jackpot!

“Cooperative deity Overlord?” Queen Xi narrowed her eyes slightly. “Do you know which deity it is?”

“Why would he reveal it?” Logan smiled bitterly.

Queen Xi seemed to want to ask more questions, but Logan’s expression suddenly changed. He stood up with a bang, and as if he was too emotional, energy overflowed, instantly setting off a storm around him...

Queen Xi Gently raised her hand. With a flash of purple light, the storm that had just been set off instantly returned to calm, as if nothing had happened.

“What happened?”

Monica looked at him curiously. She and Logan had known each other for hundreds of eras, and she knew that he was an extremely stable priestess. For him to lose control like this, it was probably not an ordinary major event!

“Phew...” even under Monica’s question, Logan had to spend a great deal of effort to calm down slightly, and his originally modest face turned extremely ugly!

“Elvis... is dead! ! !”

Everyone: “! ! ! !”

Chapter 1600: the suspected queen... ..

Elvis instantly received a warning from the intelligence of the Imperial Palace of the Night Demon and sent the news to the Imperial Secret Service staff!

The elders who were always in charge of the imperial secret service were instantly shocked by the news from the intelligence!

Even the elder who lived the longest was said to be a big shot who had been serving the imperial family since the first emperor. However, he almost fainted when he received the news!

The Night Demon clan had always been a top clan. During the chaotic period of the Northern Star Field, they had the inheritance of night shade. They were almost the top overlord of the Northern Star Field. After Sylvanas entered the Northern Star Field, in order to get support and recognition..., the Night Demon clan had supported the entire clan. Ever since they had confirmed the qualification of the imperial family, they had always been the number one clan in the Northern Star Field!

With such a size and background, under normal circumstances, no one would offend them. There would not be any terrifying incidents of assassinating the crown prince!

At the very least, he had never seen anything like this. From the first generation of the Crown Prince until now, he had experienced many eras and could use omens. However, as one of the oldest living beings in the night demon race, he had never encountered anything like this!

Not to mention that this time, the crown prince had the expectations of the entire night demon race!

Who Was It? which faction? Was it crazy?

All the secret elder confirmed that in the entire universe, even the starry sky imperial family did not have the courage to do so. This was because this would directly incite a war between the two races. The Sky God Federation would directly intervene. If the starry sky elves dared to do this..., the consequences would be extremely severe!

After a short period of shock, the secret elder Denzel immediately announced that the Netherworld realm had entered an emergency state!

The Crown Prince had died in the Netherworld Academy. There was a high possibility that an assassin from the tianyuan-level Sea of life had infiltrated. After all, the entire Netherworld realm's defensive system was at the top of the universe. Even if it was a tianyuan-level assassin from the Sea of life, if they wanted to infiltrate..., they would also need an extremely large amount of support. Otherwise, it would be impossible for a single person to break in.

This was very likely to be a premeditated invasion!

The think tank instantly calculated the forces that could do such a thing. Other than the other great royal families, even Lord Sylvanas had been added to the list!

When the few elders saw this name from the think tank, they were not surprised. It was clearly within their expectations.

This was because Queen XI had this motive. The Night Demon clan was self-controlled. Although they paid taxes every year, many of the administrative systems were not unified. They did not allow the Queen's influence to interfere, in the past, it was because their influence was unstable that they wanted to rope in a large clan like the Night Demon clan. However, although the Northern Star region was still isolated from the outside world, its internal affairs had already been completely controlled by Sylvanas!

Based on the situation, the Night Demon clan should have already known how to make concessions and voluntarily hand over some things. For example, letting Queen Xi's power enter the royal council and obtain a certain amount of voting rights, or the distribution of resources, military requisition, etc. , they should have made some concessions.

However, as the northern star field became more mature and complete, the higher-ups of the Night Demon clan were reluctant to part with that little bit of profit. They pretended to be deaf and dumb. The elders had already tried to persuade them many times.

Although the possibility of directly taking action was very small, it was not impossible... ..

Because Queen Xi was currently in the Land of darkness. She had the ability to deploy the plan to devour the night demons!

After the emergency status was issued, the defense system of the Land of darkness was instantly activated. It isolated Queen Xi's fleet that was docked outside and even monitored them!

However, the other side did not react too much. Instead, they immediately chose to communicate with the first lich stationed in the fleet. Through their conversation, the secret elder temporarily ruled out the possibility of the queen.

The other side also cooperated and temporarily withdrew from the docking site. They did not forcefully break through the blockade and try to notify Sylvanas in the planet at the first moment!

This behavior made many elders let out a sigh of relief and began to carry out other investigations.

In order to not let Queen Xi in the palace think too much, the first thing the secret elder did was to send the news of the Crown Prince's death!

Moreover, he personally brought the other two elders to the palace to report this matter!

-----

"What's the specific situation?"

After patiently waiting for the secret elder to rush over, the Frail Night Demon Emperor immediately asked!

The secret elder bowed slightly, and then glanced at Sylvanas who was sipping her tea beside him.

The other party was very cooperative. After learning of the Crown Prince's death, she had no intention of intervening at all. She quietly waited on the spot without doing anything. It was clear that she was trying to reassure them.

However...

After learning some new information, the Queen's current posture that should have reassured them did not have any effect. The few elders' faces were still extremely grave. They were secretly guarding against the other party's sudden attack... ..

“Reporting to your Majesty!” Denzel said solemnly. “Crown Prince Elvis has been confirmed to be dead. He died at the hands of someone else!”

Hearing this, Night Demon Emperor gasped and almost fainted, Logan quickly added, “Have you found the body? Do you know who the murderer is? His Majesty has activated level one according to your instructions. The planet’s protective shield has also been activated. Have you found any traces of the invaders?”

Queen XI also looked at him. “There are direct troops brought by Monica in the fleet. If they need help, they can act immediately...”

“Thank you, my Lord...” Denzel immediately bowed, but his tone was cold, as if he was still on guard. ...

Night Demon Emperor and Logan instantly sensed the atmosphere and their eyelids twitched...

Logan took a deep breath and looked at Queen XI and then at Denzel, feeling a little uneasy.

Denzel was more supportive of the faction that was close to the queen. He had even taken the initiative to ask the royal family to transfer the Power of Parliament to Queen XI’s faction a few times.

In the past, when he met the queen, Denzel had also been very enthusiastic, but today’s attitude...

It Can’t be...

If this matter was really related to Sylvanas, then it was probably the worst outcome!

Queen XI clearly felt the other party’s indifference, and her brows furrowed slightly...

Of course, she had thought of slowly pressuring the night demon race to understand the situation and hand over the things they should hand over, but she wouldn’t be so violent. After all, the Night Demon race was the first top race in the Northern Star Field to pledge allegiance, if she were to directly attack, she would lose a lot of credibility!

However, the other party’s cold attitude wasn’t fake. There must be some reason behind all this. Even if the other party suspected that she had done it, logically speaking, she shouldn’t have such an attitude before there was no evidence...

Since there was, then there must be some evidence against her...

Thinking of this, Queen XI narrowed her eyes and asked directly, “Is there something on the corpse?”

Denzel looked at the other party. The other party’s frank question actually made his nervous heart relax a little. He hesitated for a moment, in the end, he still nodded and said, “There are many burn marks on the crown prince’s body. According to the expert’s identification, the burned flames should be pure dragon flames!”

Sylvanas:” ...”
