

A Bunch 1691

Chapter 1691: so this was the plan... ..

“Wow, it’s really spectacular...”

After entering the location of the buried city according to the map, the Rangers of the Zephyr Academy looked at the scene in front of them in shock. It was an underground city with an extremely complex structure, with countless roots of the iron tree extending underground..., forming an extremely complex energy line, with the nodes of the iron tree roots as the core, they built an extremely huge central city.

It was just like the other world in the underground core of a sci-fi movie. The most important thing was the iron tree on the ground. It was not an illusion that it was so lifelike. Although it was mechanized, it really imitated the functions of plants, it digested the energy in the space, processed and converted the energy through photosynthesis. The huge structure of the roots gathered countless energy nodes, forming the most natural energy transmission. Moreover, it could also be used for network construction.

Such a design was simply divine, and it stunned the Rangers...

The Wind Ranger could be said to be the most receptive to new knowledge in the entire universe. While the other elves were still conserving their ancient skills, the Wind Ranger had begun to actively accept all kinds of arcane knowledge and mechanical knowledge in the great cosmic era, he became the most comprehensive ranger.

Therefore, Wind Ranger had the most basic courses in almost all of the Ranger schools. He had to learn the courses of the Ranger Department. He also had to master mechanics, Arcane, psionic, and all kinds of weird energy studies of faith, such as Holy Light, Night Shade, new moon, and so on. ...

As an elite student, most of the Ranger mechanical knowledge was not bad. He could deeply understand how high the technical level of this structure was. He was also lucky that this place was in a shutdown state. Otherwise, this dense energy network formed by roots would have... They would probably have already entered the enemy’s encirclement of firepower the moment they stepped into this planet...

After walking for nearly half a week in the underground passage, the group finally found the city gates.

“What... Is This?”

When they reached the city gates, regardless of whether it was the Tyree Fason Academy or the Zephyr Academy, they were all staring blankly at this huge city, their faces filled with shock... ..

The city was clearly underground, and it was clearly restricted by the underground space. Yet, with a single glance, they couldn’t see the end of it. That’s right, the height, they couldn’t see the end of it!

This was a very strange thing, as the top of the city was covered by the ground. However, when it came to the city, the height of the city was so high that one couldn’t see the end of it. It was as if the city was endless, as if it wasn’t in the same space as the underground... ..

However, the countless steel roots in the surroundings were connected to this huge city...

“Oh, what do I See?”

An incomparably deep voice came from above. Everyone looked up and saw a huge puppet robot floating in the air. The puppet’s entire body was pitch-black, and it was glowing with a crystal-like light, emitting a terrifying energy, it moved its huge head and looked at everyone.

Everyone was stunned. Such a huge thing was approaching, yet they did not feel anything before the other party spoke?

“A group of rising sun... Ah, what a pleasant and lively aura... hahaha...”

The deep voice came from the puppet’s body, carrying obvious goodwill... ..

Yao Feng slowly walked to the front and bowed respectfully, “We are students who are here to participate in this trial. Greetings, Senior...”

“Oh, good, good, good!”The puppet slowly landed, and its entire body began to disintegrate. The structural parts began to shrink, and in the end, it actually turned into a bronze dwarf with bronze skin.

Everyone stared at the other party in a daze again, especially the two dog eggs. How did such a large robot shrink until it turned into a human? Ultraman?

“Hahaha...”the dwarf immediately laughed out loud and looked at the other party with kindness. “Not bad, young man. You’re knowledgeable...”

The Living Mech Technology was a concept proposed by some great mechanics in the last century. However, it had not been fully accepted by the whole force. Currently, only a few forces were trying to develop it.

Most of the scholars who proposed the concept had died during the last time in the Void Rift. As a result, most of the basic information of this technology had been lost and could not be quickly developed into a systematic technology.

The only survivor of that group of people was the former elder of the bronze royal family, the Silver Hammer family, Bernard!

It was said that after his companions died, this dwarf senior returned to the bronze family with the information and disappeared without a trace. Unexpectedly, he came to the gate of the ancient land to guard it...

“I’m looking forward to the human body and mechanical exchange activation technology proposed by the seniors...”Yao Feng smiled and said, “When do you plan to release the technology?”

“Haha, if you ask me, the people of the Northern Star Field still have an academic spirit...” . “...”. Bernard laughed and said, “The Eastern Star Field is too conservative. The place is filled with the aura of decay. If those so-called noble lords continue to be conservative, the technology center will definitely move northward in the future...” . “...”

These words caused Yao Feng's group to be stunned. It was extremely rare to hear the seniors of the Eastern Star Field belittle the Eastern Star Field and say that they admired the northern star field...

"As for the activation technology..." a complicated look flashed across Bernard's eyes, but he eventually shook his head and said, "There are some bugs that have yet to be solved. If we release them now, I'm afraid it will cause a very terrifying incident..."

"Terrifying incident?" A rare trace of curiosity appeared on Demon Edge's face... ..

"I can't tell you about this thing..." Bernard shook his head and smiled bitterly, then, he said, "Are you going to enter the city?" "Let me give you a hint first. This underground city has basically been shut down, and many of the equipment are almost useless due to aging. However, the mechanical technology of the ancient developers is very advanced, and even the federation is unable to replicate many of today's complex crafts. Therefore, there is a high possibility that some of the equipment might not be usable right now. Once there is an energy reaction, please do not act rashly..." "..."

"This kid naturally knows..." Yao Feng smiled and said, "Senior, please rest assured. We are all future pillars and cherish our lives very much. We won't act rashly..."

"Haha!" Bernard immediately laughed and said, "You have a future, Kid. Queen XI does know how to find talent... but that's also true. She has always been very good in this area..."

"Alright, step back a little..." as he spoke, Bernard gently raised his right hand, and his originally thick and short arm quickly transformed into a huge mechanical arm.

Following that, a huge rune appeared in the air, and the thick and heavy city gate let out a rumbling sound. After the incomparably complicated mechanical lock layers were removed, the huge city gate slowly opened.

It was very obvious that the mechanical lock here was extremely complex. It was likely that the senior of the bronze race had spent a great deal of effort just to crack this lock back then... ..

Just as the students of the Tirefarson Academy were still immersed in the complexity of the mechanical lock, in an instant, countless black shadows rushed into the western crack where the city gate was opened!

"Eh?"

The group of students was instantly stunned. Although those black shadows were fast, they weren't completely faster than their eyes. They allowed them to clearly see that they were the people from Gale Academy.

Without any hesitation, the group from Gale Academy rushed through the city gates...

"Follow them!" Yao Feng narrowed his eyes slightly and calmly commanded.

When the group heard Yao Xing's command, they hurriedly rushed in as well. Yao Xing stayed at the back and bowed to Bernard in embarrassment. "I'm sorry, senior. You've seen the situation. This brat will take his leave first..."

“Alright, Alright...” Bernard chuckled, but he thought to himself, this kid’s school emblem clearly shows that he’s still a junior student, but he’s able to command the entire team. He’s quite extraordinary...

However, what made him even more concerned was that there was a little girl in Gale Academy. For some reason, that girl seemed to have a very familiar feeling to him...

“Captain!”

After Yao Feng entered the city gates, he discovered that almost all the students were waiting for him at the entrance, while Gale Academy’s group had disappeared without a trace.

“What’s the situation?” Yao Feng asked with a slight frown.

“They...” Yao Xing narrowed his eyes and said with a smile, “They split up and ran away!”

“Split up and ran away?” Upon hearing that, Yao Xing immediately said with a smile, “So this is the plan...”

Chapter 1692: “Then your requirements are quite low...”

“Tsk... I thought we had some brilliant plan after a long discussion, so this is it?”

In the team, a green-haired siren yawned out of boredom. If one looked closely, they would find that her hair was wiggling like a living snake.

“Although the method is simple, it’s the most practical...” Yao Xing smiled. “With the difference in strength, this tactic is obviously the most likely. That Darden is still the same as before, pragmatic and steady...”

The surrounding people looked at Yao Xing, and they were slightly taken aback. Yao Xing had a temperamental personality, and he would often look down on others. It was rare to see him praising others...

However, thinking about it carefully, what he said wasn’t wrong...

From the moment they entered the city gates, they had used the secret art of daybreak to swiftly widen the distance between them and split up to escape. They didn’t even consider fighting head-on at all, and they had even given up on the group battle advantage that the Zephyr Academy excelled in.

However, after thinking about it carefully, it seemed to make sense. Almost all of Gale Academy’s top fighters had graduated last year, and none of the remaining students were eye-catching, captain Dutton had only been a mid-to-low level backup character in the previous batch, yet he had been pushed up to become the captain. It could be seen just how severely Gale Academy’s Combat Power had declined in the previous batch!

With such a level of quality, no matter how well a team worked together, it would be useless. Although group battles valued teamwork, it also emphasized basic abilities. No matter how well ten chickens worked together, they would not be able to defeat a single wolf... ..

“Yes, Captain!” Green Willow smiled charmingly. Her beautiful face coupled with her hair that was wiggling all over her head gave people a sense of demonic beauty.

In the next second, an even stranger thing happened. Green Willow’s hair suddenly spread out and grew rapidly as if it had a life of its own. In an instant, it grew more than ten meters. Its appearance was extremely demonic and strange!

Seeing this, Goudan, who had just woken up, widened his eyes. The two rookies beside him were also shocked. They could not help but say, “F * ck, this... why does it look like...”

“An evil god, right?”

The werewolf carrying Goudan said faintly.

The two rookies were stunned when they heard this. For a moment, they did not know what to say...

“Don’t worry, Lu Luo is not that stingy...” . “...” . The werewolf grinned and said, “You just came to the Northern Star area, so you don’t know much about it. Here, having the evil God’s bloodline is nothing. The Northern Star area is regarded as a heretic by the other three star areas, so it’s not just a saying...” . “...” . “...”

The two newcomers from the Templar clan swallowed their saliva and thought to themselves, “It really is an evil god?”?

Evil Gods mostly came from the mysterious spirit system universe, where there were all kinds of strange races. There were the fairy race, which was recognized by the Federation, and the Void, which made the entire federation’s expression change.

The Evil Gods belonged to the latter, and the reason why they were not listed as public enemies was mainly because they were relatively small in scale. However, most of the single evil gods possessed destructive power that was not weak compared to the void.

The evil gods in front of them were known as the sirens, Shivas. They originated from a certain sect of the ancient sea elves, causing some of the Naga race to turn dark and become a branch of the belief in the evil gods. There were even some holy maidens who would specially sacrifice them... That gives the evil gods a chance to contaminate the bloodlines directly...

These beings, which were forbidden in the federation...

The werewolf laughed and said, “In the northern star area, as long as we prove that we are not bewitched by the evil god, we can move freely and serve the lords of the Northern Star area. Because of the existence of the queen, we, who have the bloodline of the evil god but do not want to join the chaos faction, finally have a space... “...” . “...”

“US?”?

The two of them were stunned and looked at each other strangely. At this time, they realized that this werewolf seemed to be different from the ordinary shadow wolves, especially the teeth that were grinning. They were as black as ink and gave people an extremely dangerous feeling...

Could This guy also be...

The werewolf did not seem to realize it, he continued to introduce, "Lu Luo is the leader of our backup team, the number one trump card of the telepathic department. Your mission is to protect her. Without her, our team would be equivalent to losing our eyes!"

As soon as she finished her words, the two newcomers instantly felt a gentle surge of spiritual energy assaulting them. They had also come into contact with master of the mind before. After hesitating for a second or two, they finally accepted the spiritual energy... ..

In the next second, a few clear images were transmitted over. Instantly, they could see clearly that the group of students from Gale Academy was running in different directions with all their might. Their positions were clear, and their vision was even attentive enough to gather everything in their surroundings, this allowed them to even deduce the route that the other party was going to take later on.

"I don't need anyone's protection..." Lu Luo sneered. "As long as they can take care of themselves..."

"UN, it seems like there aren't any other tricks up their sleeves. It's just a simple matter of fighting on their own..." Yao Xing rubbed his chin and smiled. "That's good too..."

"TSK, you talk as if they can still do something..." Lu Luo curled her lips.

With the strength of the Zephyr Academy being so weak on paper, it was inevitable that they would have to split up and fight separately. The team members would split up and rely on their luck to search for resources. If they were lucky, if they were not ambushed, they would be directly taken out of the East City Gate. It would not be a wasted trip... ..

After all, even though the Tyrelfson Academy was strong, the team was too focused on integrity. Other than the team's assistants., such as the Master of the mind in charge of communication, the healer or necromancer in charge of healing, the scout in charge of detection, the priest in charge of blessing, and the mechanic in charge of equipment adjustment and equipment adjustment, can Chase out of the main hand actually limited, as long as the scattered run fast enough, not the other side of the main force to catch up, there is a chance to escape.

"It's a little straightforward, but it works... "...". The werewolf laughed and said, "We only have six main players, and we can only snipe six at most. Once the rest of them run far away, we can't possibly waste our time searching for resources to chase after them, right? No matter what, they are still professional rangers... "..."

Lu Luo's mouth twitched slightly, but she did not continue to say anything. The werewolf was right. No matter how bad Gale Academy was, they were still all rangers. If they chased after them in time, they might be able to knock them down. But if they were able to chase after them once the distance between them was widened., then it could only be said that the opponent's level of professionalism was too low.

"The two of you can choose one first!" Yao Xing turned to look at the two newcomers. After the older generation graduated, the two main members who had just joined the group were the direct descendants of the Templar clan who had just joined Tiriverson.

In order to win over the Templar clan, the queen had given them generous treatment. Other than the Templar clan taking out a large portion of their secret arts to contribute to the academy, the direct descendants of the Templar clan naturally had to come out and serve as well.

The two of them looked at each other and nodded slightly. This battle was their pledge of allegiance. The two of them had performed well in the agility class, but that was just practice after all. The actual battle would be different... Many people would not be satisfied if they were directly promoted to the first team. If they could not show some battle results, their position would be very unstable...

“What about her?” One of the short men pointed at Goudan, who was still lazily sitting on the werewolf’s back...

“Her?” Yao Xing looked at the other party in amusement. “You guys are from the same family. Don’t you know what level she is at? She has already been recognized...”

The two of them looked at Goudan, who was making faces at them on the werewolf’s back, and curled their lips slightly. The short man chuckled. “Then your requirements are quite low...”

As soon as he said this, several people, including Yao Feng, looked over with extremely strange eyes... ..

Chapter 1693: pursue (first)

These... two fellows... are they serious?

Even the usually outgoing Lu Luo was stunned by the words of these two fellows. The entire scene instantly became extremely quiet.

The two fellows were stunned for a moment before they looked at their surroundings in puzzlement. What was going on?

“Cough...” Yao Feng coughed lightly and clapped his hands with a smile. “Very good. Our team needs outstanding experts like you guys. If you guys can perform well enough, the position of team leader can be taken by you guys at any time...”

The two were stunned, for a moment did not know why the other party would say so, hurriedly said: “Senior joking...”

“No kidding... .” Yao Feng smiled and said, “I’m not considered a senior, I’m just one term earlier than you guys. When I took down the captain, I was also a junior. Tíree Fasson is a team that purely looks at value. As long as you can display a higher value than me, the captain position will definitely be yours. Perform well, rookie...” . . .”

With that, he turned to look at Lu Luo. “Send them the details of those people from the Institute of Fashion...”

Green Luo heard a laugh: “Two little guys can be good, the first battle overturned face can not look good...”

The two of them looked at each other, and after making sure that the other was not mocking them, a hint of eagerness flashed across their eyes. The taller night elf smiled and said, "Thank you for your guidance, senior. We won't let you down..."

As newcomers, they naturally wanted to quickly gain a foothold. They didn't have any hope of becoming a captain for the time being, but at the very least, they had to occupy a good position as the main force.

After all, participating in the competition on behalf of the Academy enjoyed resources that ordinary students couldn't compare to. First of all, the most high-quality ancient lands would be opened to them immediately. If the academy obtained good results, there would be generous rewards and shares., not to mention, participating in the academy's first-line team was a great opportunity to make a name for themselves in the universe!

One should not underestimate the reputation of the academy. Anyone who could participate in the academy's first-line team would be invited by the various major powers. The treatment they received was also not something that ordinary students could compare to!

The Templar clan had not had any disciples who could participate in the first-line team of the top ten academies for at least an era. If they could have this record, not only would their reputation be able to make a name for themselves in the outside world, they would also be highly respected in the clan, they would be even more highly regarded by the elders of the Elder Council!

At the thought of this, the two of them were filled with motivation. The bastard that the young patriarch had brought back had already been recognized. If their performance couldn't be any worse, of course!

The details of their gazes were clearly seen by Yao Feng. Following which, a trace of coldness flashed across their gentle eyes.

It seemed that the internal affairs of the Templar clan were not harmonious. How could a person like Gou Dan, who was a direct descendant of the Templar clan, not know about it at all... It seemed like the rumors that their young clan leader was not on good terms with the clan elders were true. ...

At the thought of this, Yao Feng made a decision in his heart. He had no interest in the internal affairs of the Templar clan. He was a pragmatist, Gou Dan would definitely be the trump card in their team, if these two guys could not show enough value, in order to ensure the harmony of the team, he would not hesitate to kick them out!

The two disciples of the Templar clan were completely unaware that half of their feet had been moved out of the team. They were still eagerly looking at the intelligence report.

According to the intelligence report, there was a total of eleven people from the Zephyr team. The core figures were all students under the command of the leader of the Zephyr Academy's Bright Day faction, Tia. There was a total of four people!

Other than the newly recruited Aborigines, the remaining four people all had detailed records. Moreover, they were all attached with their escape routes and appearances.

After a quick selection, the taller one said, "I'll chase after Dutton. Although we're separated, he's still the captain. If we take him down, we can try our best to prevent him from organizing the students behind us..."

“Oh?”

The few of them raised their eyebrows and looked at the other party. Yao Xing also said with a faint smile, “Sure, you dare to challenge the captain of the other party right from the start. Are You Confident?”

“It shouldn’t be a big problem...”the tall man smiled and said, “After all, he is the captain of the temporary team...”

“That’s the captain... .” Yao Xing looked at him meaningfully. “Even though he joined us at the last minute, he is after all an experienced old student. Moreover, he was chosen as the team leader by senior TIA. He must have his strengths. Have you thought about it?”

“Senior is right, I will be careful...”the tall man smiled. Although his tone seemed to be very modest, but from his eyes, it could be seen that the other party did not care!

“Okay!” Yao Xing clapped his hands. “I like this kind of bull who is not afraid of Tigers. Fine, as long as you can take him down, when we go back, I guarantee that you will become the main force of our team!”

“Thank you, senior! !”

“What About You?” Yao Feng smiled and looked at the other one.

The other short man was one step slower, and a trace of annoyance flashed in his eyes. Then, he sighed and said, “Then I will choose that one called Bi Lan...”

In the information, Bi Lan came from a famous family, and he was from the same family as the leader of the Ming Zhou faction, Tia. He was the main force of the team. Last year, he was ranked in the top 200 at least. Even a small mosquito was considered meat... ..

“Bi Lan?” The smile on Yao Xing’s face became more meaningful. “Well, she’s quite picky. That guy is also quite powerful. If you can take me down, I can guarantee you!”

The short man’s eyes lit up when he heard that. He quickly said, “Thank you, Senior!”

“The premise is that we can take them down!” Yao Xing said with a faint smile, “Let’s hurry up and set off. That’s a ranger. The longer we stay here, the harder it will be to track them down. After all, this is an ancient land. Our green radish tracking range is limited...”

“Senior, please rest assured. We are also good at tracking them down. We won’t let them get away!” The tall man smiled, but he wasn’t overconfident, after saying that, he bowed and sped up with his short brother towards the route that Lu Luo had given them.

Looking at the backs of the two, Yao Xing curled the corners of his mouth and said in a low voice, “No wonder they declined...”

“Alright... Where are the others? Do you have any ideas?” Yao Feng interrupted Yao Xing’s taunting and asked his other teammates.

There were still four main players in the team. Other than ravenous wolf, who had to stay behind to keep watch, the remaining three had to go out and give chase. They had to eliminate the main force of Gale Academy to prevent the other party from secretly dragging them down and causing trouble in the future... ..

"I'll choose Miller..." one of the spirits shrouded in smoke said faintly. "She should be a scout in the team. Eliminating her will also prevent us from being tracked down from behind..."

"Alright, try your best to be careful..." Yao Feng looked at the other party. Clearly, his tone was much more sincere than before. He was a person who was cold on the outside but warm on the inside. Once he acknowledged his teammates, he would sincerely scheme for them.

The undead bowed and turned into a wisp of smoke before mysteriously disappearing on the spot.

The Banshee in the team smiled and said, "I'm quite interested in that new little native. Do you want me to come?"

Yao Feng looked at the other party and said in a low voice, "That Native's skills are not ordinary. Are you sure you want to go look for her?"

"It's more interesting if she's not ordinary..." the banshee stretched her body, revealing her beautiful figure.

"Alright..." Yao Feng nodded.

As soon as he said that, the demoness excitedly disappeared from her spot.

Yao Feng paused for a moment before turning his head to look at Goudan, who was lying on the werewolf's back.

At this moment, she was rubbing the werewolf's fur beautifully, looking like she was stroking a dog. This made the werewolf feel helpless...

Suddenly feeling Yao Feng's gaze, Goudan raised his head and looked at him weakly. "Captain... Why are you looking at me like that? I'm not going to chase after him, I'm so tired..."

Everyone: "..."

Yao Feng curled his lips, but he immediately said, "Do you know that Wind Demon from Gale Academy?"

Goudan: "..."

Chapter 1694: Pursuit (Part Two)

"Where have?" The dog egg suddenly stared at eye to see opposite party, try to pull a long face way: "Where do you see from?"

I'm trying so hard to pretend I don't know you, okay?

"Really?" Yao Feng touched his chin. "It's just that you two have similar names and styles. I'm just asking..."

Doggy: "..."

“Captain...” at this time, Miller is running voice transmission: “Soon beyond the scope of our voice network, what else to say?”

“Gentlemen!” Soon, captain Dutton’s voice came through. “After a minute, we can only rely on the symbols to communicate with each other. Remember to try to regroup with your teammates when you’re safe. We’re scattered so that we can leave as many survivors as possible. So when we can’t shake off the pursuit, remember not to drag others down!”

“Second, if you are caught, try your best to escape, don’t worry about missing, the whole process is watched by the elders, there will be no accidents.”

“Thirdly, there is a very powerful telepathic master in the team. She has the bloodline of the evil God and has a very strong psychic tracking ability. The range is around 20 kilometers under this energy concentration. Therefore, before you escape from the range of 20 kilometers, don’t think about how to clear your tracks. All your actions are seen by others. Just run as fast as you can. Once you are out of the range, think about how to clear your tracks. We are all Rangers. As long as we pull apart the distance, the chances of us being tracked again are very small. Everyone, try your best to protect yourselves. This time, you are unlucky to have met the Tirefarson Academy. But even so, don’t give up on this opportunity. We are not here to be eliminated!”

The team’s voice transmission started to become blurry, but there were still some people who tried their best to reply.

“Hu...”

After hanging up the Internet, Dutton let out a long breath and looked behind him.

“Why did you stop?”

The East City Gate seemed to be a residential area with many buildings. The faint voice echoed in the surroundings, making it impossible to tell where it came from... ..

“Tired?”

The voice was sometimes far and sometimes close, giving off a strange feeling, as if it was right next to your ear, but also very far away from you. For a moment, one could not grasp the distance between them, but it also made one feel very nervous.

However, Dutton seemed to be very experienced in dealing with this kind of method. His muscles were still relaxed, and his spirit was also very good. He was not scared at all.

He even raised his head to look at Dutton. “Running 30 kilometers in such a place with such high energy density, of course I’m tired... aren’t you recovering your stamina?”

“Heh...” ...”a cold laughter sounded faintly. “According to the information, you were born as a commoner. From the looks of it, that’s indeed the case. Your basic attributes are very ordinary, and even your basic stamina is so weak. It seems like the Zephyr Academy has declined ... “ ...”

Hearing that, a cold glint flashed across Darden’s eyes. Just as his emotions were being stirred up, a cold ray of light shot out from a blind spot on the left. Without any warning, it was as if a person had appeared out of thin air.

However, Darden seemed to have expected this and swiftly dodged that cold ray of light. In the next instant, a powerful icy energy rose from the ground, instantly freezing the surrounding area of ten meters. Even the air around the area quickly froze, it was like a ball of ice!

The strong ice element instantly made the surrounding mist rise. However, in the next second, an agile figure quickly retreated from the exploding ice. It was Dutton...

With his agile movement, he nimbly withdrew from the energy range and quickly took out the two spears behind his equipment...

“Ice Trap...”the faint voice was like a maggot that could not be escaped no matter how hard he tried, sticking close to Dutton.

“It’s said that Rangers are a costly class, and it’s true. But I’m curious, for a commoner like you, do you really dare to choose this class?”

The equipment requirements of Rangers were the highest among all classes. In addition to basic equipment, there were also many arcane equipment and mechanical equipment. In addition to firepower and ammunition, the largest consumption was all kinds of traps...

Whether it was a high-level arcane trap, mechanical trap, or a comprehensive product, the production cost would not be low. Every battle was equivalent to throwing money.

“That just now, to be able to freeze such a thick energy space, it must have cost a lot of money, right? “It is indeed very effective. Unfortunately, every assassin knows that to deal with Rangers, all you need to do is follow him, because the one who is most familiar with how to escape the trap is himself!”

As he spoke, a slender, white and tender hand suddenly locked onto Dutton’s throat!

Dutton’s face did not show any signs of panic after being locked, instead, he sighed helplessly. “I’ve discovered that many of the disciples from the clans are talkative. Moreover, they like to show off their common sense. You’ve also said just now that every assassin knows about this. Could it be that the Ranger himself doesn’t know about this?”

His words stunned the disciples of the Templar clan who were chasing after him. They quickly stopped nagging and decided to subdue the other party first.

However, just as they exerted strength with their fingers, they felt as if they were pinching cotton. He was immediately shocked and wanted to turn to the side to retreat. However, when he wanted to retreat, he realized that he could not retract his hand. It was as if his hand was stuck to something and he could not shake it off no matter how hard he tried!

When he raised his head, he realized that there was no sign of Dutton in front of him! It was clearly a huge spider web!

What was going on?

He quickly used his left hand to grab the dagger on his back, intending to cut off the spider silk that was stuck to his right hand. However, when he reached out to touch it, he realized that the dagger was soft and the feeling was exactly the same as the spider silk in front of him. He was shocked, he withdrew his hand as if he was electrocuted.

However, it was too late. The sticky spider silk had already locked onto his left hand. The moment he touched it, it stuck firmly to him!

“Don’t struggle anymore...”

A faint voice was heard. He raised his head and looked up. He did not know when Dutton was already ten meters away from him. He was holding a platinum pistol in his hand, and his expression was extremely cold!

“An illusion trap?” He asked angrily.

“You just realized it?” Dutton curled his lips and said, “Is this the level of the disciples of the Templar clan?”

“You... know me?” He looked at Dutton in surprise.

“Aisi Templar, right?” Dutton looked at him in amusement. “Do you think only you guys know how to collect information about your opponents?”

“When did your illusion trap start?” Although Aisi’s heart turned cold, she still asked unwillingly. She wanted to know where she had lost.

She had been observing her opponent the whole time. In fact, she had seen his actions when he put down the ice trap. It was impossible for him to put down the illusion trap without her knowing. After all, his opponent was not a real illusionist. To cast an illusion... He had to rely on equipment... ..

“Of course it’s the beginning...” Dalton sneered...

Chapter 1695 No. 1764: the first person to be eliminated

At the beginning?

Aisi. The Templar was stunned. He could not understand. When did the other party mean at the beginning? Could it be the first time they met? Had they started their calculations at that time?

He knew that there were some hallucinogens that could be prepared in advance as long as the time was long enough.

But under the eyes of so many people, how could he do such a thing? Furthermore, the elders had tested him before entering the city gates. If they had done such a thing in advance, logically speaking, he should have already been eliminated!

So what the other party said at the start should not have been before entering the city. In other words, it should have been after entering the city?

But when?

Looking at the still confused Aisi, Dutton shook his head slightly. "I remember that in the intelligence report, you were the first-in-line successor, right? And you were also the grandson of the current Grand Elder. Yet, this is the end of it? Looks like the Saint Hall clan has indeed declined..."

"You..." Ai Si's face immediately darkened, just a moment ago, she was still mocking the decline of the Zephyr Academy. Who would have thought that in a short period of time, she would be completely slapped back in the face? However, as a loser, at this moment, she could not even say a single word.

"What I said at the beginning was naturally the beginning of your pursuit of me..." as Darton spoke, a transparent spider slowly crawled out from behind him. After returning to its original color, Ai si could clearly see that the back of this human-sized spider was filled with eyes!

"Phantom Spider?"

He recognized this thing. It was a darkness-type creature in the demonic abyss. It was a type of insect that was relatively difficult to cultivate. The venom it secreted had a hallucinogenic effect.

But the key point was, how did the other party use the venom on him? The phantom spider was huge and bloated. It was not an agile creature, nor did it have any lurking ability. It should not be able to hallucinate him without him realizing it.

Dutton took out a transparent bottle of potion and said, "You only know that Rangers are a useless class, but you don't know that Rangers are all-rounded masters?"

Ash looked up at the bottle in Dutton's hand. Obviously, it was a bottle of homemade poison.

Rangers were all-rounded masters, especially the Wind Rangers. Not only were they proficient in the traditional skills of ancient Rangers, but they were also proficient in Arcana, machinery, and trap making. They were also masters of herbalism... They were proficient in making poisons and all kinds of emergency medicine, and they knew almost everything...

After all, most Rangers were mercenaries who fought alone... ..

Dutton said, "This is the venom extracted from the magic spider's Venom. It's diluted by tens of thousands of times, and it can only cause a slight hallucination, but it can be superimposed..."

As soon as he said this, Aisi suddenly understood...

"So... on the road..."

"Finally some sense came to me... . "Dutton shook his head and said, "Your team has a top-notch spiritual master. According to my understanding of her, she can track me directly for at least 20 kilometers. Under the condition that she can completely know my location, you naturally don't need to judge my position bit by bit through my traces. You just need to quickly catch up with me according to the direction that the other party has indicated.”

“In order to catch up with me faster, it’s not wrong to use the information you know to close the distance. However, it’s also your fault for not looking at the environment at all. As an assassin, you’re too careless. If it were the direct descendants of the ghost clan, they would at least notice that something was wrong on the way. They would never be like you, who didn’t even feel it when you were hallucinating... “...” “...”

Aisi:”...”

“You made me waste my time preparing so much...”Dutton scratched his head in boredom and began to retrieve some hidden traps.

After seeing those things, Aisi felt goosebumps rise. Her previous feeling of losing carelessly was instantly extinguished because from the traps that the other party had prepared, even if she did not hallucinate., there was a high probability that she would be played to death.

“You’re a commoner-born child, how did you get so much equipment?”

“Of course I used the credits to slowly accumulate them...”Dalton looked at the other party speechlessly. “It’s precisely because I’m poor that I have to know how to save up. Don’t you understand this simple principle?”

Ai Si:”...”

“Well, it’s a shame to send such a rookie to deal with me, but it’s good to save some money...”

Dutton stretch a lazy waist, put away the equipment left the scene, and then a blue light, all the equipment manager appeared is out of the information!

“Someone eliminated so quickly?”The bronze academy side of the crowd was stunned, they had just entered the city gate, looked at the sky, obviously a little surprised, and the key is the first eliminated is actually the people of Tirefarson?

“What’s there to think about?”Matt said coldly. “The person who was eliminated was a rookie who had just joined the Tiriverson Academy team this year. He was clearly used as a trial. It was just that he had failed a trial for a rookie...”

“Oh!”The people scattered across Gale Academy were also very excited when they heard the news.

“Captain is awesome!”Miller chuckled. She looked at the information of the person who had been eliminated and chuckled. “Choosing a rookie to snipe the captain, who are you looking down on?”

“We didn’t help him choose it, but he chose it himself...” a deep voice came from the other side. It was the only undead in Tiriverson’s team... ..

“He obviously overestimated his own strength...”

“He’s a newbie, he doesn’t have enough experience...” Miller grinned. “I’ve read his intelligence. He’s the direct descendant of the great elder of the Holy Church family. The captain probably can’t compare to him in terms of direct ability.”

“Experience is also strength. Do you have to find an excuse to not perform well after losing?” The undead said in a deep voice, “There’s no excuse for fighting. Sometimes, the price of losing is life...”

“What the... . How come you never change your lines... .” Miller looked at each other speechlessly, as if he was familiar with the place.

“Because lost, so often to talk about it...” the other side grinned at Miller: “You Say Right, sister?”

“Yo...” at the southeast seat, Piran sat leisurely on a tree and said lazily, “I didn’t lose face. If I was jerked off by a rookie, I wouldn’t recognize this captain even if he was appointed by my mentor...”

As he spoke, he looked at a blurry black shadow not far away and chuckled. “So, as a newcomer, you must be careful when picking your opponent. Don’t act recklessly just to prove yourself. You must see clearly what you are capable of, don’t you think so?”

Shadow, a short figure slowly came out, looking at each other with a heavy face.

Ace was eliminated so quickly that he had to be more cautious and did not dare to make the first move. If he were to roll over like him, it would be difficult for him to stand in the team in the future. . .

“Well, well, what did I say?”

In the southwest, a blue-clothed banshee was floating in the air, looking at the flabbergasted little wind demon across from her, he laughed and said, “Do you really think that a captain of a top ten academy is so easy to deal with? If you want to pick a soft persimmon like me, how can there be so much trouble? Don’t you think so, Little Girl?”

Li Goudan flapped his wings and stared at each other with displeasure. “I am not a pushover!”

Chapter 1696: Brother and sister

Brother...

Miller... After hearing the word ‘sister’, Hathaway couldn’t hold back her relaxed expression...

Miller:. The Hathaway family was a large family of elven craftsmen. They were best at making mechanisms, weapons, traps, and other ranger equipment. They had always produced either top-notch craftsmen or rangers... ..

Miller was a branch of the family, but his brother and sister were both very talented. His brother had very good alchemy talent, and he himself had transformed into a ranger. In the family, this kind of configuration was considered standard.

This year's Hathaway family's younger generation didn't have too many outstanding characters. He and his brother gradually rose to the top, attracting the attention of the elders. Forty years ago, his brother was the first to be admitted to the Divine Arcana Academy, it instantly confirmed the focus of the family's future development.

After all, the Divine Craftsman Department Academy was rare, and the Divine Arcana Academy was the most outstanding existence. His brother took the entrance exam for the special class. This kind of talent was first-class even in the direct line of descent. After all, the Hathaway family wasn't considered top-class. In the sea-like east star area, they were only a middle-class... ..

His older brother entered a good academy and set an example. Miller, who had worshipped his older brother since he was young, worked hard to catch up. There was only a difference of ten years between them, and the time for the exam was imminent... ..

During those ten years, his older brother came back every year, but every time he came back, he wasn't as high-spirited as he had imagined, nor did he have the sunny smile that he had before. He became more and more gloomy.

At that time, when he was preparing for the exam, he did not realize it. His parents only thought that it was because his brother was under too much pressure from entering a strong school. They only tried their best to let him relax. However, they did not notice the inexplicable scars on his brother's body... ..

During those ten years, he spent every second chasing after his brother's back. Every day, apart from sleeping, he would train. He would also familiarize himself with all kinds of ranger knowledge. He was almost completely filled up.

Her results were also in line with her expectations. She was one of the best among her siblings of the same generation!

Finally, the results of the national examination were out. As she had wished, she was admitted to the Zephyr Academy and even successfully became the disciple of the leader of the School of Tomorrow, Tia!

Filled with excitement and anticipation, she took the notice from the school and returned to her family like an old farmer with a bumper harvest. All she wanted was to be able to show off in front of her brother who was one step ahead of her and see her brother's appreciative smile once again.

However, when she returned, she only saw her parents'dejected expressions and the silver-white funeral flowers in her family...

The corpses were sent over two days after the fellowship, and it was said that... .. Dying in an accident in the ancient lands was a common occurrence in high schools. Although the ancient lands had strict cleaning and the protection of the elders at all the places where students trained, it was still a mysterious place that had yet to be fully explored until now, even a tianyuan-level figure would not dare to say that they would be safe in there, let alone the students.

Every year, there would be accidents where the top students of the university died...

One could only say that it was unfortunate... .. That it happened to fall on their heads... ..

“Is it a man-made disaster?” Miller finally could not help but ask the question in his heart...

“Of course it is...” in the dark room, the familiar voice was cold. “Can’t you recognize my handwriting?”

Miller’s body trembled once again, and his eyes turned red... ..

While he was packing up his belongings, he accidentally found his brother’s diary. Only then did he know what kind of terrifying bullying his brother had suffered during his ten years in the Divine Arcana Academy!

Some horrible abuse and humiliation had turned his once sunny brother into a gloomy and taciturn person, making his family suspect that his brother’s death was just an accident...

However, Hathaway family was just an ordinary family. It was impossible to make the nobles of Divine Arcana Academy pay with just a suicide note. Even if they went through the federal prosecution process, it was impossible to get justice. After all... .. His brother’s corpse was almost chewed up by some kind of creature. There was no evidence of him being abused at all.

His parents were even more devastated because of the diary. His mother’s spirit was already weak. After this incident, she went with him not long after. His father also quietly went out to work and rarely came back.

As a mercenary, it was very likely that he would not be able to return from a mission...

A warm home, and in the blink of an eye, she was the only one left... ..

“My parents are very sad...” Miller calmed his emotions and said.

“It’s useless to be sad... no matter how sad they are, they can’t do anything for their son. When the weak meet with trouble, they can’t do anything except cry and be sad...” the familiar voice carried an unimaginable coldness, it was as if there were no emotional fluctuations in the fate of their parents!

Miller raised his head and looked at this familiar yet unfamiliar existence. His heart was extremely sad... ..

It was exactly the same as last year when he saw him. He had his brother’s soul, but he was also like a ghost in his brother’s skin... ..

There was a researcher who said, “Never treat the undead as the same thing when they were alive. They have the same soul and the same memories, but after returning from the world of death, they are not a kind of existence...". The family, friendship, or other precious memories that you thought they had might be nothing in front of these things...

"Join us and become strong together, Sister!" The undead slowly took off her mask, revealing a pale face. The familiar face made her eyes redden, and her heart could not help but become excited again... ..

But in an instant, she regained her composure...

The undead would not have a living body. After all, her brother's corpse was already destroyed. The familiar face in front of her was obviously deliberately created by the undead in order to disrupt her mind... ..

Miller raised his head and looked at the undead. "I won't join you. I haven't lived long enough..."

The other party's body clearly stiffened when he heard those words. Then, his originally cold eyes were filled with a terrifying chill, and an undisguised killing intent assaulted him!

Miller took a deep breath, and his muscles instantly tensed up as he entered battle mode...

"Not bad..." the undead grinned and said, "You've improved a lot compared to last year. At least you dare to resist..."

Miller pursed his lips slightly when he heard that...

Last year, at the Fellowship Party, they had also met one-on-one. At that time, his spirit had almost collapsed, and he had no intention of resisting at all. If not for his senior's timely appearance, he might have died at that time...

Yes, last year, his brother... .. ! Wanted to kill him!

This was actually not unusual. Every undead that returned would have a strong killing intent toward their family and friends who had strong feelings for them. They all wanted to make the other party become one of them in an instant... ..

This was the unique feeling of an undead. It was the kind of twisted feeling that was created after being tortured by loneliness in the world of death!

Thinking of this, Miller pulled herself together. This was because she knew that her brother would definitely kill her if he had the chance. He would not care about any punishment. Undead... ! ... the greatest benefit was that they were not afraid of death!

Chapter 1697: Bewilderment!

The second elimination spot appeared very quickly. In less than a few minutes after Dutton eliminated the direct descendant of the Templar clan, the second person who was eliminated appeared very quickly... ..

The person who was eliminated had exceeded the expectations of many people!

Fuhrman tatu!

Anyone who had watched the previous year's friendly competition would know that this was a stunning rookie. He was the newly promoted ace of the Dark Shaman Academy of Tiryfson Academy and ranked 22nd in the friendly competition last year!

Her individual battle results were extremely outstanding. She had fought against the Ace Priestess of Starry Sky Academy, the captain of Red Lotus Academy, and the Dark Knight Jialuo of Netherworld Academy in the friendly competition. Although they had all fallen into a disadvantage, they had not been eliminated!

To be able to survive against those few trump cards, one could only imagine her outstanding individual battle ability. In fact, before demonic star erupted, foreman, this new banshee, had always been called the number one dark horse by all the major players at that time!

Such a person, so quickly eliminated, is no one expected... . .

"Interesting..."

At Starry Sky, a group of people who had just entered the city were all surprised and curious when they received the news. After all, everyone felt that Gale Force Academy would not be able to fight back against Tyrifson.

Before the elimination of that is still okay, can understand not new rollover, but now this eliminated guy is not the same, is a real hard hand, Tyree Fasson one of the five main force! !

"Captain..." in the team, a silver-haired girl frowned slightly and said, "Is this fuhrman the one who fought with you previously?"

That fight had been recorded as a video, and most people knew that Fuhrman was a top-notch fighter!

In the team, other than the captain and Ace Tura, no one could guarantee that they could win against that guy!

After receiving the news, Captain Arles was obviously a little surprised. At this moment, he narrowed his eyes slightly as he looked at the news, his eyes flashing with an inexplicable light.

A few seconds later, the handsome young man's thin lips slightly curled up. "Interesting, Gale Academy actually hid an ace this time..."

On the opposite side, inside the Night Shade Academy, one of the purple-haired youths wearing black armor also frowned slightly, as if he was recalling something.

He was impressed by the banshee from Tyrifson College. He didn't hold back last year, but he couldn't take her down in a short time. In order to save his strength, he had to watch her escape.

The school of Fashion has the ability to eliminate this one after graduating from the old school? What a surprise!

And at this time, as the core of the whole thing, the Tyree Fasson Academy people are even more unexpected... ..

“Captain...”

The people who stayed behind were all shocked. Their expressions were completely different from when that kid from the Templar clan was eliminated!

After all, the new kid from the Templar clan was obviously still a fledgling. Fuhrman was different. Although he wasn't an old student, his combat strength was almost at the top level of the team.

Among the five main forces, only Yao Xing and Tan Lang could suppress fuhrman...

Yao Feng took a deep breath and looked at the green-haired Naga Lola...

With just a glance, Lola knew what the captain wanted to ask. As an old member, she was relatively calmer. In the face of the question, she quickly came back to her senses and shook her head slightly. “I didn't receive Fuhrman's request for support...”

As soon as she said this, everyone's hearts sank once again!

Lu Luo was the most outstanding spiritual master in the Academy. Even in the ancient lands, with a spiritual link, she could still receive messages from her teammates very quickly...

Hearing this, Yao Feng's expression also became solemn. “You're already familiar with the energy density here, right? If Fuhrman calls for help immediately, how long will it take you to receive it?”

“Within 100 kilometers, three seconds!” Green Luo very firm way.

Yao Feng nodded. It was unlikely that the battle would take place more than 100 kilometers away. After all, they had to clear their tracks even if they were out of tracking range. It's impossible to run 100 kilometers in such a high-energy place... ..

In other words, the battle is likely to end in less than three seconds! !

At the thought of this possibility, even Yao Feng, who had always been calm, could not help but take a deep breath...

As a student who was in the same batch as Fuhrman, he was very clear about his opponent's strength. Fuhrman's strength was definitely within the top 50 in the Fellowship, and as the number one dark shaman in the academy., her strongest ability was the survival ability inherited from the Dark Lich. In the previous fellowship, she had faced the top aces of other academies many times, but she had still been able to retreat unscathed.

She was eliminated before she could even ask for help. It sounded a little scary...

“Captain...” ravenous wolf, who was carrying dogball on his back, couldn't help but ask, “Could it be that that girl, Fuhrman, didn't have any intention of asking for help because of her pride?”

These words immediately made everyone's expressions soften a lot. Otherwise, that previous guess would have been too scary...

Yao Feng hesitated for a moment. In fact, he also wanted to believe what greedy wolf said. After all, that girl Fuhrman was indeed arrogant. She probably couldn't bring herself to ask for help when dealing with a rookie.

But was that really the case?

Goudan's face immediately twitched. He looked at him with concern, as if he had nothing to do with this Goudan...

"Small JIA, what do you think?" Yao Feng stared at Wang Gou egg tightly.

"I think what big dog said makes sense!" Wang Goudan said quickly.

Tan Lang: "..."

When did I get that nickname? What part of you looks like a dog?

"Is it?" Yao Feng took a deep look at the dog egg again, then looked at the place where Yao Xing left, a trace of worry flashed in his eyes...

"Fuhrman's Out? Already?"

On the way, Yao Star the first time contact green lu: "Where is her coordinates?"

"Less than five kilometers from you, I have sent you, you be careful, do not fall into the trap..."

"Hey..." demon star grinned: "I have not met can let me be careful of the trap..."

"Captain told you to be careful of that Wind Demon!"

"Eh?" Yao Xing was stunned when he heard this. Then, he smiled and said, "I will..."

These words caused Lu Luo to be slightly stunned. This was the first time she had heard Yao Xing be so obedient. In the past, she usually did not take this kind of situation seriously... ..

"What did he say?" Yao Feng looked at Lu Luo, who had a strange expression, and asked directly.

Green Luo will talk about the dialogue, Yao Feng heard a flash of ineffable eyes, thought: it seems that you have long been aware of...

Demon Star followed the coordinates and soon found Fuhrman's location.

At this time, Furman sat quietly under an iron tree, was covered by a white light, is the rules set by the elders of the Bronze Academy, the decision to protect the students after the elimination of the barrier.

Under the white light, the expression on Fuhrman's face was even clearer, causing the heart of the demon star who was close to this place to tremble!

Because Fuhrman's expression was full of sudden realization, as if he was still in a dream... ..

Chapter 1698: running away after pretending?

"TSK TSK, the newcomers these days are really scary..."

At the East Gate of the city, Bernard rubbed his fat chin and widened his eyes. Apparently, the scene just now had shocked him.

"This speed is not something a level-9 elf should have, right? A Royal? That's not right. Aren't royal descendants not allowed to come in this time? Moreover... this pupil shape is quite rare. It feels a little familiar..."

The stout and plump Bernard frowned. Just as he was about to search the memory in the depths of his brain to see if there was any information regarding this pupil shape, a chill suddenly struck him from behind.

"An ancient bloodline, has it already caused people to forget to such an extent? To actually not be able to recognize a sorcerer of your level in the first instance?"

Bernard was shocked, and his body mecha instantly activated. But just as the core was activated, a slender and tender finger pressed against Bernard's back, causing the metal spreading all over his body to instantly disappear! !

The muscles in Bernard's body instantly became extremely stiff. A drop of cold sweat rolled down his forehead... ..

Who was this...

Taking a deep breath, Bernard carefully turned his head back. When he turned his head back, his heart trembled once again. The iron forest behind him had unknowingly been completely frozen solid by the black frost. The entire iron forest... ! It was filled with an inexplicable sense of gloom!

I can't believe I didn't feel anything at all?

"Long time no see, Bernard..." a gentle voice came from under the black cloak. The mysterious man who had controlled Bernard slowly took off the hood on his head, revealing a pale and beautiful face!

As soon as this face appeared, Bernard's whole face became pale beyond compare, without a trace of color!

"It's You! !"

The situation may be more difficult than expected...

Yao Xing looked at the fuerman that suddenly look, the heart slightly heavy, this expression, obviously do not understand how he lost the expression...

“How are you?”The demon star approaches, bends over to ask.

“Since when do you like to ask this kind of nonsense?”Fuhrman came back to his senses and pursed his lips, then moved his dislocated hands. “Obviously, not so good!”

Yao Xing took a simple look at Fuhrman’s injuries. Her hands were dislocated, and the concentrated mana source on her back was scattered. Her technique was clean and neat. Obviously, the other party had finished her off before Fuhrman had the time to transform!

Fuhrman was the number one banshee in Tirefarson Academy. Her main subject was the demoness course. She was good at all kinds of Yimo transformation. From the unicorn horns on her body, it could be seen that., fuhrman was preparing to transform into a type of foreign evil demon called Lie Lin!

Demoness was a foreign sorceress who had once believed in the foreign lands. Through faith and the material universe converging, demoness could temporarily invite the gods to ascend, borrowing the evil God’s soul from the foreign lands, and using her own body in the material universe to complete the demon transformation.

This specialty was unique to the northern star field. Although it was spurned by the other three continents, it was a very powerful combat profession. They could transform into many kinds of demonic souls, and their individual combat ability was extremely strong, relying on their skilled transformation techniques., fuhrman had a brilliant result in the previous friendly match!

But she didn’t expect that this time, she was killed before she could even transform!

“How did she win?”Yao Xing didn’t waste any time. She wanted to take advantage of the time when Fuhrman was sent away by the law to ask some real questions.

“If I knew how I lost, I wouldn’t have looked so silly just now...”Fuhrman smiled bitterly.

“Tell me the details...”demonstar frowned as she looked at the increasingly blurry figure of the other party.

“She was very fast... ridiculously fast, her eyes couldn’t keep up...”Fuhrman clearly knew that he was about to leave, she didn’t waste any more time and told him the information she didn’t know much about. “Before I could react, my arm dislocated...”

“You didn’t react at all?”Yao Xing narrowed her eyes.

“Not at all...”fuhrman shook his head, “Be careful, her speed is not inferior to yours... No, she might be faster than you!”

“Is that so?”Yao xing smiled, “That’s really interesting... Alright, go in peace, wait for me to avenge you...”

“You make it sound like I’m going to die...”Furman rolled his eyes. Just as he was about to scold the other party for Jinxing, he suddenly froze and stared behind Yao Xing.

“Alright, don’t worry...”Yao Xing said with a smile. Then, he stood up and looked behind him.

On an iron tree not far away, a small figure stood there quietly. A pair of emerald eyes looked at him curiously...

“I can’t leave...”the wind demon shook his head. “I don’t dare to fly too far here. You’re very fast, so I can’t Leave...”

“When did you know that I’m very fast?”Yao Xing smiled. “In the video?”

The wind demon shook his head. “In the hall, when you approached the East Hall, you showed that you were very fast...”

As expected...

Yao Xing’s eyes narrowed slightly. It wasn’t a coincidence at that time. He had probably been noticed by that fellow the moment he entered the hall!

Yao Xing stood up silently and looked at the distance between them.

Eighty-one meters...

Back in the Judgement Hall of the Bronze Academy, the other party had noticed him when he was a hundred meters away. Now, the other party had only noticed him when he was eighty-one meters away, and it was in the ancient lands.

The energy density in this place was much higher than that of the bronze academy, so it would be more difficult for him to hide.

In other words, at least in terms of hiding, he was weaker than the other party!

“So you waited for me here? You knew that I would definitely come looking for you?”Yao Xing smiled and said.

“I felt that it should be...”Gou dan tilted his head. “I was a little surprised that she was the first to come.”

Yao Xing asked, “Are you that sure?”

“I’m sure...”eggface nodded. “Because on the way here, you often observed me...”

These words made Yao Xing’s heart sink again.

He had indeed observed her on the way here, but he had done it very discreetly. He did not expect that this little girl knew everything. When he was observing her, he was noticed by her, but he did not feel anything at all... ..

In other words, the other party’s spiritual perception was above hers...

This troublesome opponent was probably the most troublesome opponent she had ever faced since she had awakened her bloodline!

“Don’t overturn your luck too...”Fuhrman, who was behind her, looked at Yaoxing’s back. This was the first time she had been worried about this fellow. If it was possible, she would have wanted to stay behind and watch the battle to see the results, but unfortunately... ..

As her body became more and more transparent, she could only warn him. Soon, the light disappeared into the world.

Demonstar looked at the spot where Fuhrman disappeared and said indifferently, “Fuhrman only needed 1.5 seconds to transform, you... only took 1.5 seconds to beat her?”

“0.7 seconds...”Li Goudan was silent for a few seconds before he gave an accurate answer... ..

“Very good!”Yao Xing no longer hesitated. He turned into a black light and directly retreated to the place he came from!

Li Goudan:”...”

This guy... After pretending for a long time, he actually ran away?

Without any hesitation, Li Goudan turned into a green light and directly chased after him!

Chapter 1699: Li Goudan v S Demon Star (1) !

“What’s going on?”

Everyone in Tirefarson’s team felt their hearts skip a beat as they turned to look at Soul Master Lu Luo!

Due to the activation of the soul connection, everyone in Bolton’s team could feel the strong emotions of the other party. They then turned to look at him.

“Hiss...”

Everyone in the team sucked in a breath of cold air. All of them had expressions of disbelief on their faces!

Although Fuhrman had lost very quickly just now, no one thought that Yao Xing would lose. This was because within the school, Yao Xing’s level was not on the same level as the others... ..

“Sita, bless! !”Yao Feng directly roared!

In the team, a white-haired girl’s eyes flashed with silver light, and a huge phantom appeared behind her. It was like a huge jellyfish, releasing a strange singing voice, but although the voice was strange.., it gave people an inexplicable sense of comfort.

Everyone’s muscles seemed to be stimulated, blue veins popped up, and an endless stream of energy was injected into them. Everyone’s blood and Qi were instantly stimulated, and they even wore a layer of black soft armor. On the soft armor, countless eyes grew out!

“Eh... So Disgusting! !”Wang Goudan immediately let out a disdainful sound and quickly jumped down from greedy wolf’s back!

This was because greedy wolf’s body was also covered with those fleshy eyes. It looked very scary.

Eh?

In the next second, Wang Goudan suddenly felt different. Although his blood and Qi were stimulated, a clear feeling surged into his mind. For a moment, his vision expanded to an extreme extent, wang Goudan suddenly felt that he could see bacteria and bugs a few kilometers away, and he could even see elemental particles from a distance!

And he was not tired at all!

Although his field of vision had become so fine that even the particles could be seen clearly, his brain did not feel tired at all when processing these images and data. It was as if there was something helping him to share the burden. If he felt carefully, he would discover that.., it was those disgusting eyes on his body that were sharing the pressure of his vision expanding!

What a wonderful feeling...

But it was indeed very practical!

Wang Goudan instantly looked at the other party curiously. “What is this?”

The priest in charge of blessing looked at Goudan in surprise. It was obvious that he was somewhat shocked that she could completely adapt to her current state!

The blessing that he had used was one of the seven preludes of the Cthulhu system priest, the thousand-eyed demon prelude song! Only a few priestesses with excellent aptitude could master it. Only those with the bloodline of the thousand-eyed demon and the ability to communicate with the thousand-eyed demon from the outer realms could use it. Its effect was extremely powerful, it could greatly enhance the vision, spiritual power, and biological defense of teammates, and it could also trigger the potential qi and blood of the body!

However, this was still the power of darkness. Ordinary people would need a relatively long time to adapt to this blessing power. They would usually release it when they were preparing beforehand, even if it was an old teammate who was already familiar with her energy, it would take at least one to two minutes to adapt to it. Usually, the first time they came into contact with it, they might not even be able to adapt for half an hour.

But this girl...

“Simon, can we use the black blood device now?”Yao Feng was the second to adapt and asked directly.

In the team, a tall and strong man shook his head. “No, we didn’t warm it up in advance. It’s too unstable now!”

Eggface looked at the man. This man was the equipment master of the team. He was the leader of the biology, Arcana, and mechanics departments. The number one logistics officer was Simon Davis. Davis!

A hint of annoyance flashed across Yao Feng's eyes when he heard that!

He was too careless. The strength of Gale Academy was too weak on paper. He didn't want Simon to activate the black blood device immediately. The main reason was that the equipment was too expensive. He felt that it was too much of a waste to use it against Gale Academy.

He had not expected that the academy had hidden such a sharp trump card!

"What about the magnetic field? What can it be used for?"

"The gravitational magnetic field can be used!"

"Use spatial transmission to send it to Yao Xing immediately. Activate other equipment that can be warmed up for a short period of time, in case we don't need it!" As he spoke, he looked at Lu Luo.

"Report the distance! !"

"It's 37.4 kilometers away from here!"

Yao Feng was stunned. The first time he reported the distance was 39.6 kilometers. With Yao Xing's speed, how could he only pull away by two kilometers after such a long time? He was obviously blocked!

This meant that Yao Xing couldn't even pull away by himself!

"Everyone report the distance after you get used to the blessing. Get ready to set off! ! !"

"So Fast! !"

On the other side, 37.4 kilometers away, Yao Xing, who had been caught up, felt a chill in his heart! !

He was already cautious enough and chose to retreat immediately. Many people thought that he was a person who liked challenges, but in reality, he wasn't. Yao Xing had always been a reliable person.

In the last fellowship, he had used his teammates to test the data of all the strong players before choosing to make a move. Before this, he had been hiding in the team and playing the role of a soy sauce... ..

In his mind, if he did not want to flip the car, he would not drive!

However, he did not expect that he would be caught by someone who gave in and ran away at the first moment!

He had retreated with all his strength and did not hold back. Moreover, he clearly saw that the other party was stunned for a moment and lost the opportunity to chase after him. Even so, he still caught up with him in four seconds!

Shadow steps: Fold! !

Feeling the chill behind him, Yao Xing did not hesitate to use the secret skill of the sanctuary that he had recently learned. His body turned into a shadow and strangely appeared in the shadow three kilometers away!

In the next moment, Gou Dan's hand broke the shadow that was left on the spot!

"Eh?" Gou Dan immediately turned his head and locked onto Yao Xing who was three kilometers away. He was clearly a little surprised. It seemed that Yao Xing had jumped there in an instant. Was it a secret skill?

"Phew..." in the distance, demonic star took a deep breath, adjusted his breathing, and looked solemnly at puppy in the distance.

Folding was a secret skill that used the refraction technique and shadow steps of the Templar's secret skill. It used psionic power to instantly borrow light and shadow to complete an extreme shift, which consumed a lot of physical energy. If it was not necessary, he did not want to use it at first, he could only blame the situation for being a little dangerous at that time.

His full speed could not pull apart the distance at all. It was the first time in his life that he had met someone of the same generation!

Just as he was thinking, the little guy from three kilometers away turned into a stream of light and pounced on him again!

He could not see clearly! !

Yao Xing's face was extremely solemn. No Wonder Fuhrman had fallen so completely. With such speed, it would be a miracle if she did not fall!

Yao Xing took a deep breath and activated all of his blood essence. A green light enveloped his entire body. It was the symbol of a spiritual warrior activating his spiritual energy!

He knew very well that with the opponent's speed, even if they were three kilometers away, they would not be able to escape. They could only accept the challenge...

'hasn't the reinforcements arrived yet?'

For the first time, Yao Xing complained about the speed of the reinforcements!

Just as he was feeling anxious, a spatial fluctuation was suddenly transmitted over. Yao Xing's eyes lit up, and he felt as though he was checking... ..

It wasn't the black blood device!

A hint of disappointment flashed across Yao Xing's eyes when he discovered the equipment that had been teleported over. However, he had expected that the black blood device would require at least half an hour of warm-up. Previously, when he was facing Gale Academy, he had never thought that he would need this.., clearly, it was too late for him to make any last minute preparations!

Even though he was disappointed, he still hurriedly checked the equipment that had been teleported over.

Gravity Device?

The disappointment in his eyes disappeared in an instant. Yao Xing's expression eased up slightly. At least he had obtained a very useful item!

Without the slightest hesitation, Yao Xing activated the gravity device!

Chapter 1700: Li Goudan v S Demon Star -Partpart 2) !

Simon's space bag contained over a hundred magnetic devices. Among them, the most useful devices were naturally the black blood device and the activation device. However, these two devices needed to be warmed up. of the devices that could be used now., the priority of the gravity device was quite high. After all, it was quite difficult for an agility-type ranger to traverse in this high-energy environment. The gravity device could disrupt the trajectories of the surrounding elements., it would make it even more difficult for the opponent to move around in the originally complicated environment!

In a showdown between experts, it was necessary to increase the difficulty in this instant!

Yao Xing took a deep breath and waited calmly. Although his vision could not catch the opponent's figure, he could still roughly see that according to the data sent by Lu Luo, the effective range of the gravity device in this space was 1,000 square meters!

He had to activate it when the other party entered this range in order to have an unexpected effect.

This distance came very quickly!

Under his attentive observation, Yao Xing widened his eyes and finally managed to catch the Red Line when the other party entered the range of 1,000 meters. Without any hesitation, Yao Xing activated the gravity device.

Actually, it was best not to activate the magnetic device at the extreme distance because the other party could retreat at any time. The theoretical time was more than half of the distance, so it was best to use it when the other party was close to him.

However, Yao Xing did not dare. With the other party's speed and distance of a thousand meters, he would probably disappear in the blink of an eye!

The magnetic field instantly opened up, and a hundred times gravity instantly suppressed the surrounding elemental energy into chaos. It even caused quite a bit of energy turbulence, and there was even a situation where the energy exploded!

As for Yao Xing's body, it was completely unaffected under the energy membrane provided by the gravity device!

The effect of the gravity device was better than expected, but Yao Xing's expression did not show any signs of relaxation. On the contrary, it had become even more serious.

To be able to cause such a large area of energy explosion, it proved that the stability of the energy here was poor. The chaotic effect caused by the gravity device was extremely obvious, but even so, he was still unable to see it!

That's right, under such circumstances, he was still unable to clearly see the movement techniques of the other party!

A drop of cold sweat slowly flowed past. At this moment, Yao Xing suddenly felt that this newcomer from the Zephyr Academy had probably completely exceeded his and Yao Feng's calculations!

He was probably not on the same level as Wang Xiaojia!

Zi!

Very quickly, before he could even think of how to react, that chill once again appeared!

Once again, without even realizing it, the other party had closed in on him!

Could this guy maintain such speed in such an environment? Wasn't he afraid of being sucked in by the energy explosion?

A hint of ruthlessness flashed in Fiend Star's eyes. The psionic power on his body instantly exploded. Tens of millions of hairs on his body shot out along with the explosion of psionic power, enveloping almost every space around him like a storm!

Moreover, the hairs on his body became extremely hard under the support of psionic power, instantly piercing through the surrounding hundred times gravity energy!

The violent shaving of his hair had caused the blood in fiend star's pores to gush out. In an instant, he had turned into a bloody person. However, he did not frown at all. Instead, he concentrated his spiritual energy to sense his surroundings and capture the position of the other party!

With the other party's speed, he only had one chance!

He did not expect that one day, he would also use a warrior's method to deal with high-agility life forms. Usually, it was others who would use this method to deal with him!

21 degrees southeast corner!

Yao Xing's eyes lit up, and her entire body was trembling with excitement. In this sorry state, she finally saw the opponent's position clearly!

At this moment, the wind demon was only less than three meters away from her. With both hands spread out, it used an extremely gentle technique to stir up the surrounding energy to divert the hair that was flying away from her!

It was now!

Without the slightest hesitation, Yao Xing's leg muscles suddenly expanded, and all the blood and Qi in his body exploded. With a bang, he pounced towards the opponent, and the ground under his feet was forcefully stomped into a huge pit!

Secret Technique: Yao Xing!

After he had fully activated his energy, what seemed to be a reckless attack actually had a strange effect. Under such an energy environment, a direct attack like Yao Xing's would create a huge friction with the surrounding energy, if the body was not very strong, even skin, flesh, and bones could be worn through!

However, the strange thing was that Yao Xing, with a body full of friction flames, actually disappeared on the spot, causing Goudan, who was not far away, to be momentarily stunned!

The opponent's instantaneous burst of speed was very fast, but it was not so fast that he could not see clearly. However, the opponent had strangely disappeared just like that, as if he had completely disappeared into the power of space!

"Where is he?" Goudan looked around for a moment. Even if the opponent had burst of speed, he should not have disappeared in an instant, right? With her good vision, she realized that there was no one within a radius of dozens of kilometers!

Could it be the secret skill of teleportation just now?

But if she could teleport so far away, she wouldn't need to fight at all!

She had learned this secret skill before. There were many such secret skills in the faction of Bright Day, but they all consumed a lot of stamina. Especially in such a high energy environment, to be able to teleport dozens of kilometers away, one must be at least a dragon-level powerhouse. If the other party had this kind of strength, she wouldn't even need to fight... ..

Just as she was puzzled, an inexplicable chill suddenly attacked her. Dog Egg's body quivered, and in an instant, his movement technique changed and disappeared on the spot. On the spot, countless black shadows turned into sharp thorns and pierced through the place where she was just now!

"Damn, what the hell?" Dog Egg kept dodging those shadow thorns that suddenly appeared, and he was stunned.

What kind of demonic technique was this?

The Shadows of everything around him seemed to come alive. Not only could they break through dimensions and attack him like sharp blades, they could also transform and attack him in all sorts of shapes. It was extremely strange!

What the hell was this?

Puzzled, Eggface raised his hand and shot out two cold beams. This was the throwing knife technique that wind demon was good at.

With the professional guidance from Gale Academy, Eggface's throwing knife technique improved by leaps and bounds. The two throwing knives turned into a stream of light, and their speed was not one bit slower than a high alloy bullet!

Demon Star, who was secretly observing, felt a chill in his heart. This throwing knife technique was truly incomparably sharp. The speed of the light wheel was probably comparable to a level 11 alloy bullet. If the other party had used him at the first moment, he probably would not have had a chance at all.

Unfortunately... "...". The little guy was still being careless. A ranger didn't use such sharp throwing knife techniques, but he actually wanted to engage in close combat against him at the first moment. He gave up his advantage and fought like an assassin!

At this moment, although he was extremely astonished, he was no longer flustered. Demonic Star's secret skill was his lord: Lord Lich's custom-made secret skill. It was a skill that could almost completely replicate the ancient netherspirit secret skill! Although it consumed a lot of energy, once he used it, unless he was a few levels higher than himself, there was no way he could lose!
