Chapter 171: "I'm going to die!"!

So fragrant...

Dog Egg floated all the way down the stairs and smelled the fragrance of the kitchen. Her body was in a strange posture. Her toes touched the ground, but she was walking forward at a 45-degree angle, however, she, who was indulging in the fragrance of meat, didn't notice that her walking posture was even more strange than a ghost's.

Moreover, there was no sound at all, which caused Wang Chengbo and Yunji Mu, who were sitting in the living room, to completely not notice when she went down the stairs.

At this time, Little Puppy Egg drifted all the way to the kitchen and smelled the fragrance in the pressure cooker. He then looked at the ingredients. Other than the commonly used dry chilies, spices, cinnamon, fragrant leaves, and nutmeg, there were also many hawthorn slices.

When he saw that thing, Wang Puppy Egg was sure that it was the work of his unscrupulous elder brother. The so-called mutton radish, beef tea, pork wenhuo, and Hawthorn were the words of his mother back then... Unfortunately, his mother had left early, and this skill had only been inherited by his heartless brother.

Mm... Wang Goudan wasn't perfunctory, but she still wouldn't be soft-hearted. Wang Goudan licked his lips and said. 1

Right, how could there be wild boar meat without the fat otaku happy water? He had to buy a bottle of it quickly, and it had to be cold!

Thinking of this, Goudan ran out of the door excitedly.

The door was open, so Goudan slipped out of the store. Yunji Mu didn't notice him at all in the living room, so Goudan ran downstairs to the supermarket happily, he generously took out ten Yuan and slapped it on the table of the snack bar. "Fat otaku water, a big bottle!"

"Ugh... Oh..."the boss nodded and suddenly realized that he had seen wrongly just now. This girl seemed to have suddenly appeared...

Could it be that he was in a trance?

"Eh? Xiao Jia?"Suddenly, a familiar female voice sounded. The originally happy face of Goudan instantly wrinkled into a bun. She didn't like this voice, but she couldn't remember who it was...

"Xiao Jia, you've grown so big. I almost didn't recognize you!"As the female voice approached, a beautiful face instantly entered Goudan's field of vision.

Looking at that face, Goudan hesitated for a few seconds before reacting. He frowned and said, "Li Xiaoqian?" 1

“Rude!” Li Xiaoqian put on a cute expression of pretending to be angry. She reached out her hand and was about to pinch Wang Goudan’s bun face. “You have to call Xiaoqian Sister!”

Goudan took a step back and tilted his head slightly back. He dodged the other party’s demonic claws with great precision. Li Xiaoqian, who had pounced on nothing, was stunned. She thought to herself, this little fatty is quite agile...

“What are you doing here?” Gou Dan frowned and his tone was a little gloomy. He thought to himself, “Did that Guy Wang Chengbo help her cook that wild boar meat? !”! F * CK, this damn dog licking is really hopeless!

“Is your brother at Home?” Li Xiaoqian asked with a smile.

“The pork is already cooked, what do you think?” Gou Dan rolled his eyes and said.

Li Xiaoqian was stunned when she heard that. She did not understand what the other party meant, but she still came closer and asked in a low voice, “Did your brother bring a beautiful woman home today?”

Goudan’s eyes widened as he stared at the other party. He thought to himself, is she talking about herself. F * ck... ..

If it was not for the large number of people around her, she really wanted to shake the coke bottle in her hand and open the lid to say to her, “Eat my happy fat otaku water!”! ! !

Just as she could not help but want to take action, another voice sounded, “Xiaojia, where did you go? I’ve been looking for you for a long time, but I can’t get through to your phone!”

Goudan paused and looked outside. It was father Wang, who was walking over with a pile of vegetables.

“Uncle Wang!” Li Xiaoqian greeted him eagerly.

“Eh?” Old Wang was stunned for a moment before he recognized her. He said in surprise, “Oh... It’s Xiaoqian, why are you here?”

“Well, I haven’t been able to visit you since I returned to C city. I’ll come over today when I have time...” Wang Xiaoqian quickly went over to help take the vegetables from old Wang’s hands. “You bought so many vegetables? Let Me Help You...”

“Uh... oh...” Old Wang looked at her in surprise.

This girl was not so hospitable in the past. She had never been so hospitable even when the two families often visited when she lived next door. She had always been arrogant since she was young.

“Uncle bought so many dishes to serve someone?” Li Xiaoqian said with a smile.

“Uh... Ah, well, Xiaojia’s friend came to visit, so she bought more dishes...” Old Wang forced a smile on his face, but he thought to himself, why did this girl come to join in the fun?

“My Friend?” Eggface was stunned. “Who is it?”

Li Xiaoqian’s eyes lit up when she heard that, and she quickly asked, “Xiaojia doesn’t know?”

“Know what?” Eggface frowned.

“Indeed! !” Li Xiaoqian sneered. She said, what internet friend, what nonsense...

As if an expert had found the other party’s weakness, Li Xiaoqian’s aura suddenly rose. She carried the food and walked valiantly into the residential area.

It had to be said that sometimes imposing manner could really affect a person’s physical state. Who would have thought that a woman who was usually so delicate could actually walk like a bird while carrying two big bags of vegetables? Old Wang was stunned when he saw this, he could not help but mutter, “What’s going on?”

“I still want to ask what’s going on!” Goudan, who was at the side, suddenly became angry. “Dad, we used that wild boar leg for the mid-autumn Festival. You actually used it to greet this guy?”

“I. . . I didn’t...” Old Wang hurriedly explained.

“You didn’t?” Goudan said angrily, “You bought so many vegetables in big and small bags... last time when Aunt Zhou came, you weren’t so attentive...”

“What Aunt Zhou... you damn girl, what are you talking about...” Old Wang glanced at the boss, who was holding back his laughter, and glared at his daughter.

“Dad...” Dog egg said earnestly, “Have you forgotten our position “? You said it yourself, licking a dog is a thing that needs to be beaten, trampled, and humiliated to wake him up. How can you change your position “? Just because he licked Li Xiaoqian home for a meal, you believe that he has a chance “? Dad, you’re already over 50 years old, why are you still so naive?”

“What the hell?” Old Wang rolled his eyes and said, “I didn’t know that Li Xiaoqian was coming, okay? These dishes are for your friends!”

“My Friends? What Friends Do I have?” Gou Dan was stunned.

“Your online friends... still pretending, you little girl!” Old Wang smiled and said, “Not bad, I didn’t expect our Xiaojia to have such a high-quality resource. If you had brought it out earlier, your brother might have already realized it...”

“Online friend? A man or a woman?” Asked Gou Dan.

“Eh?” Old Wang was stunned and immediately said in horror, “Then... could it be a man? Don’t scare me! !”

Gou Dan:” ...”

His father didn’t look like he was joking. There really were online friends looking for him? Who could it be. A Woman: ? ... could it be Li Gou Dan?

That fellow had said that he would come to City C to play with him in the next few days. Could it be that he had come earlier? However, he hadn’t spoken to her on the phone. How did she find her home? Wasn’t she a little too resourceful?

“What’s that person’s name?” Goudan asked.

Old Wang was stunned. He scratched his head and tried to recall. “I think it’s called... What’s it called?”

Goudan: "Is it called..."

Old Wang: "Oh, that's right!"

Goudan: "Li Goudan!"

Old Wang: "Cloud Herder!"

Goudan: "Who is cloud herder?"

Old Wang: "Who is Li Goudan?"

"Ahem..." Goudan coughed lightly and was the first to react. "Oh, so her real name is cloud herder..."

Old Wang's eyes twitched. He thought to himself, such a gentle and generous girl, but her online name is Goudan?

"But why does this name sound so familiar..." Gou dan muttered.

"Let's go up and say, don't let that Li Xiaoqian go up and play tricks. How could she come at such a coincidence?"

The father and daughter immediately stomped up the stairs.

At this moment, Li Xiaoqian had already taken the lead to enter the Wang family home with the dishes in her hands.

On the sofa in the hall, Wang Chengbo was dancing as if he was talking about something happy. Beside him, Yunji mu stared at him quietly with her autumn-like eyes. The corners of her eyes were slightly raised, and a natural smile appeared on her face, she was like the sister next door who was watching the little boy show off his achievements. She was so gentle that even Li Xiaoqian, who had just entered the room, was stunned.

However, the next second, she immediately turned into a sneer. Then, she knocked on the door and interrupted Wang Chengbo, who seemed like he was about to take off.

"Xiaoqian, why are you here?" Wang Chengbo was chatting happily when he suddenly heard a knock on the door. He turned his head and saw Li Xiaoqian walking over with vegetables in her hands. He immediately frowned.

Seeing that the first expression on the dog's face when it saw her was a frown, Li Xiaoqian was instantly furious. She almost threw the vegetables in her hands at the dog's face.

However, she still held back her anger and smiled. "What? I Can't Come?"

"No... of course I'm happy that you're here..." Chengbo still reflexively said this. After all, it was a conditioned reflex for many years.

"That's more like it..." Li Xiaoqian's expression softened slightly.

"Eh, what are your dishes?" Cheng Bo asked curiously.

“Oh, I came with uncle...” Li Xiaoqian deliberately said intimately. She didn’t even mention the word “Wang” before she looked at Yun Ji Mu.

Seeing that the other party was very calm from the beginning, and his eyes were as clear as autumn water, Li Xiaoqian first bit her lips and then smiled. “Isn’t miss mu here to look for Xiao Jia? Why isn’t she with her?”

“Xiao Jia isn’t at home...” Cheng Bo quickly explained.

Li Xiaoqian rolled her eyes at him and then looked at Yun Ji Mu. “Since they are such good friends, why don’t they leave their contact details with each other?”

Yun Ji Mu was silent for a while before she finally said, “What do you want to say?”

“I saw Xiao Jia down there just now!” Li Xiaoqian said faintly, “She is right behind us. She will be here soon...”

Hearing that, Mu Yunji’s pupils constricted. Finally, a trace of fluctuation appeared on her calm face. She seemed to be slightly nervous. She clenched her fists and thought to herself, is she here?

Seeing this expression, Li Xiaoqian was even more certain that the other party was looking for an excuse to get close to Cheng Bo. If she didn’t appear, Cheng Bo would definitely cooperate with the other party and suppress this matter in the ambiguous atmosphere, however, she had to bring this matter up to the surface today.

“Miss Mu is young master Huang’s honored guest. Her conditions are naturally not something that commoners like us can compare to. May I ask what is your motive for scheming and using xiaojia as an excuse to get close to our Cheng Bo?”

Li Xiaoqian shielded Cheng Bo behind her, causing Cheng Bo to be stunned. His eyes instantly revealed a look of confusion.

Our... Cheng Bo...

Li Xiaoqian used the corner of her vision to see Cheng Bo’s expression. A smug smile appeared on her face.

What should she do if her temperament, beauty, and qualifications were inferior to the other party’s?

Of course, she would attack the other party’s inner self!

She also had a set of methods to attack dog-licking. After all, Wang Chengbo was not the only dog-licking person around her. She had a lot of experience. For creatures like dog-licking, it was useless to insult or trample on them, because the most basic element of dog-licking was to overestimate oneself!

No matter how big the gap between oneself and the other party was, dog-licking would always think that it had a chance. Some people said that dog-licking was lowly, but in fact, dog-licking was one of the most pretentious groups. Therefore, it was useless to attack and trample on dog-licking, because you could never wake up a person who was pretending to be asleep.

And there were only two ways to divert dog-licking's attention. One was to appear a character that it wanted to lick more, so that it would give up the role. The other was to destroy the image of the perfect goddess (male god) in dog-licking's heart!

When the dog licked a person, it would magnify the other person's strengths infinitely, thus covering up all their weaknesses. At one point, it thought that the other person was the most perfect person, thus creating a kind of crazy belief.

Once this situation was formed, it would be really difficult to wake him up. The only way was to break the perfect image of the other person in the dog's mind before this situation formed.

As expected, some doubt appeared in Cheng Bo's eyes when he heard this. He was not very infatuated at the moment, and he immediately resonated with Li Xiaoqian's words.

Right... ? The other party had such good conditions, why would he take the initiative to contact me? Was it because of my looks or because of my talent?

If Li Xiaoqian knew what Wang Cheng Bo was thinking, she might really throw the dish at his face...

"I'm here to look for Wang Xiaojia!" Yunji mu said with a serious expression.

"Really?" Li Xiaoqian sneered. Just as she was about to say something, Wang Xiaojia's voice suddenly came from the door, "Who's looking for me?"

The scene suddenly changed. Yunji Mu, who was originally full of fairy-like aura, became extremely nervous!

This voice... was really her! ! !

Li Xiaoqian looked at the other party's changing expression and felt even more proud in her heart. She thought about how she had exaggerated her conspiracy after the other party was exposed, and turned Wang Chengbo's gaze back to her.

"Xiaojia, why don't you introduce such a beautiful friend to sister Xiaoqian?" Li Xiaoqian said with a smile that was not a smile.

Wang Xiaojia looked at Li Xiaoqian's fake smile and curled the corner of her mouth. However, when she saw Yunji Mu, she was first stunned. Then, her entire body froze on the spot as if she had been struck by lightning!

With a thud, the happy otaku water in her hand fell to the ground.

Li Xiaoqian was stunned. She felt that this girl's reaction was a little exaggerated? Even if she didn't know her, she didn't have to be like this...

"Senior..." Yun Mu Ji took a deep breath and stood up. She cupped her hands in front of her chest and said with uncertainty and respect, "Long time no see..."

"F * ck..." bun-hit-dog Wang's beady eyes almost popped out of their sockets.

SH * t! The NPC jumped out of the screen!

Chapter 172: I Have a vague feeling...

“Yun Ji Mu is in City C?”

At this moment, in a beautiful villa in the city, two groups of young men and women were temporarily arranged by the villa's owner. The villa's owner's surname was Luo, and he was a top-tier wealthy businessman. His family business had been listed for three generations, he was still standing, and the Luo Corporation was spread all over the world. He was a well-known entrepreneur that all the politicians in the federation would welcome upon seeing him.

However, the manor's owner, Luo tianxing, was personally greeting these two groups of young people. Furthermore, his attitude was extremely humble.

The disciples of the Luo clan directly took on the role of serving tea and water. They nervously greeted this group of young men and women, personally using a special tea technique to brew the Luo Mountain Mist that was unique to the manor.

The background of these two groups of men and women was naturally very big. They were all direct descendants of the top sects. The group on the left was dressed in green clothes, while the group on the right was dressed in white clothes, and they were the disciples of the number one sect in the southwest, Emei, they were the sect leader of the cultivation world, a disciple of Kunlun.

At this moment, near the fog spring, there was a table with the best view. On the left, one could see the peak of the Luo Mountain, while on the right, one could see the extremely famous mouth of the fog spring.

To be able to sit in such an advantageous position, one's identity was naturally extraordinary among the two groups of people. They were the elders of the two sects and the personal disciples of the sect masters of the two sects.

The person in charge of this table was naturally Luo tianxing himself. As a well-known entrepreneur, a wealthy businessman of a generation, he naturally possessed extraordinary social skills to manage such a large enterprise of the Luo clan. It was obvious that there was an age gap between the two generations, however, he managed to adjust the atmosphere extremely well.

And the only person who was allowed to sit together with his father to help him greet this group of bigwigs was the only personal disciple of the Luo family's elder who was cultivating in the mountain, Luo Feifan.

At this moment, both parties seemed to be talking about the previous martial arts practice session. When they talked about the previous martial arts practice session, they naturally could not be separated from the two most dazzling stars of the previous session of Cloud Mountain: Lu Xingfeng and Mu Yunji from Cloud Mountain!

As the rookies who participated in the martial arts practice session for the first time, these two people directly reached the peak of Kunlun and took first place. At that time, it could be said that everyone was shocked.

At that time, the person who lost to Lu Xingfeng by one move was the direct disciple of the sect leader who was sitting next to the elder of Kunlun, Situ Ming. Naturally, there was also Situ Xue, who was on par with Mu Yunji back then!

When Emei intentionally mentioned these two people, the expression of Kunlun's side changed slightly. After all, they were the side that had been taken first place by the Dark Horse. It would be a little unnatural for anyone else.

Seeing that the atmosphere was awkward, Luo Feifan suddenly mentioned the rumor he had heard in the Huang family two days ago, saying that Yun Shan and Yun Ji had come to C city

"She will also come out of the mountain?" The one who spoke was the number one female disciple of Kunlun, Situ Xue. It had to be said that there was a reason why Yun Ji had immediately compared her to Wang Goudan back then. Under the mist of the spring, this woman was really as otherworldly as a fairy.., even Hong Jianshan, who was an elder of Emei, was secretly amazed.

At this moment, the ice-cold fairy, who had never cared about anything, suddenly heard Mu Yunji's name. Her eyes, which were like a pool of clear water, finally had a trace of mortal emotion.

After the failure of Kunlun's martial arts competition, she had inquired about Mu Yunji. She was a complete cultivation fanatic. In addition, mortals had no relatives. She spent most of the year cultivating in the mountain and rarely went out.

"I heard that she's visiting a friend..." Luo Feifan's heart skipped a beat when he saw his goddess talking to him. He tried his best to suppress the excitement in his heart and act calm.

However, it was obvious that his voice was still trembling, which made his senior brother roll his eyes.

"Oh? She actually has friends here..." Situ Xue's face melted and she smiled. "I want to know which one it is..."

"That's Easy!" Luo Feifan quickly said, "I'm quite familiar with the people from the Huang family. I'll help senior apprentice-sister Situ ask them tomorrow..."

"Sorry to trouble you..." Situ Xue did not reject him. She was really curious. There were not many things in this world that could attract her attention. It was rare for her to have one. This trip was not in vain, was it?

"Oh right... speaking of the younger generation, I really saw a very impressive young man yesterday!" Emei elder Hong Jianshan also changed the topic.

"Oh?" The elders and eldest disciple of Kunlun, Situ Ming, were slightly moved. As a well-known elder of Emei, Hong Jianshan could actually personally praise a junior like this, and he didn't even need to use this word.., this made the few of them slightly curious.

"Master... is that person really as amazing as you say?" Luo Feifan frowned and said, "I can't tell. I feel like a very ordinary girl."

“That’s because you don’t have a good eye!” Elder Hong rolled his eyes at him. “It’s not that I’m exaggerating. The little ones of your generation probably have no chance of winning against her...”

When he said this, not only did Kunlun look surprised, er mei and the other disciples also looked displeased. Especially in front of outsiders, they were even more displeased after being belittled by their own elders.

“Is she really that powerful?” Situ Ming looked interested.

“AH...” Hong Jianshan took a sip of tea and said faintly, “You have to be careful. In my opinion... that girl might be more troublesome than Lu Xingfeng...”

“Oh?” Situ Ming only smiled slightly when he heard that. “It sounds a little interesting...”

Elder Kunlun looked at the calmness of the number one ace of their mountain gate and nodded with satisfaction. Since the last defeat, this child’s temperament had become much more stable, and her realm had increased by leaps and bounds in the past few years. It seemed that the last defeat was not a bad thing...

“A woman?” Situ Xue was also a little concerned. “Senior, do you know where she came from?”

“I don’t know...” elder Hong shook his head slightly. “At first, I thought that she was a new disciple of Kunlun...”

“In that case...” situ Xue slightly frowned, do not know why, she vaguely have a feeling, elder Hong said that person, seems to be able to meet her soon...

“Achoo! !” Far away on the Wang family dining table, Wang Goudan suddenly sneezed, could not help touching his somewhat red nose, thought: “And who is thinking of this Goudan?”

Speaking of which, Yesterday I sneezed and today I met an NPC, and today I’m here again... ? What else do I have to meet?

Goudan looked at the extraordinary Yunji Mu in front of him. While stuffing pork into his mouth, he used his limited brain to quickly think about what was going on... 1

The game couldn’t be so realistic. Jumping out of the screen was a little too much!

No, no, no... .. How could there be such a ridiculous thing. HMM... ? The game studio must have deliberately sent it to scare him, right... . ? No wonder the game needed to fill out personal details, it was to prank him offline... ..

Humph, this doggie wouldn’t fall for it! ! !

However, such a beautiful person didn’t debut as a star, but became an NPC model for a game studio. It was indeed a bit of a waste... .. luxury, luxury... ..

After dog egg comforted himself like this, his heart instantly calmed down. He immediately gave himself a thumbs up for his brilliance and secretly enjoyed the pork even more.

At this moment, the atmosphere at the dining table was very strange, and everyone had something on their minds.

Li Xiaoqian's heart was complicated. She didn't think that the other party really knew Wang Xiaojia. It was really Wang Chengbo, that fellow who had gotten lucky with his sister, that he could get to know such a character. This made her previous actions seem a little despicable.

So at this time, she was much quieter and wanted to observe first.

Wang Chengbo kept putting her favorite pork leg with skin on it into Goudan's mouth with a fawning look. At the same time, he kept staring at her with vigilance, if this girl was going to expose that he had stolen her pocket money, he would quickly put a piece of pork into her mouth!

Father Wang looked at Li Xiaoqian with a complicated look. As someone who had been through this, he naturally knew why this girl suddenly cared about his Chengbo. At this time, he had to keep a close eye on his silly son. This was a good opportunity to escape the trap.., he couldn't let his son go back!

As the two main characters of this dinner party, Goudan and Yunji Mu didn't have any thoughts on Wang Chengbo at all. They carefully sized each other up.

Yunji Mu didn't dare to probe too much, but she could still feel that senior seemed to be very different from before. His temperament wasn't as unfathomable as before... Moreover, his Qi and blood were very weak. What was going on?

"Senior, you sure have a good appetite..." mu Yunji looked at the dog eggs that were full of wild boar meat and carefully opened the topic.

Cultivators actually had a good appetite, but most disciples of sects ate pills. Even if they ate meat, it was a special kind of non-sour meat. As for secular delicacies, disciples like them were actually not very interested in them, who would have thought that a mighty senior heavenly immortal would like this kind of food.

"Haha... Little Mu, don't laugh at Me!" Father Wang said with a smile, "This second girl of mine has been eating well since she was young. However, young people are still growing, so it's good to eat more."

"Uh... Haha, you're Right..." Mu Yunji covered her mouth and laughed. She looked curiously at Wang Xiaojia, who was puffing his mouth. She really wanted to know what was going on with this family.

"Oh right, Little Mu, why are you calling second girl senior?"

When Dog Daddy asked this, the atmosphere, which had finally calmed down, suddenly became tense again. Goudan's action of putting meat into his mouth obviously froze, and Yunji didn't know what to say for a moment.

She still didn't understand what was going on with this senior and this family in front of her. From their words, it seemed that this family didn't know about the extraordinariness of the senior. If she rashly said it, it was very likely that she would make the senior hate her... .. or even... ..

"Cough!" Goudan swallowed the pork in his mouth, after coughing lightly, he said in all seriousness, "We're online friends, and we all know each other through playing games. In the game, the most important thing is to be first. This Goudan's level is high, and her equipment is first. She's a god gamer, so of course she has to call her senior!"

"UH... is that so..."Goudan was stunned for a moment. It was said that one could find a wife through playing games, but it turned out to be true ... The quality was so high...

"Miss mu still plays games with her identity?"Li Xiaoqian suddenly interjected.

"En..."facing the others, Yun Mu Ji appeared very cold. She only gave a slight "En". However, due to her excellent temperament, she didn't give people the impression that she was rude.

"Identity?"Father Wang frowned and then said with a smile, "What does Little Mu Do?"

Almost everyone looked at her...

Chapter 173: Bury a Hole?

This question tickled everyone's interest. Li Xiaoqian wanted to know the background of this woman who was able to fly down from the house even though young master Huang was so respectful to her.

Father Wang wanted to know how well-off she was and if his silly son really had a chance. Even if he didn't, it didn't matter as long as he could help Chengbo jump out of Li Xiaoqian's sinkhole, this girl didn't look like a girl who liked to hang others. Her temperament seemed to be much simpler.

Wang Chengbo also really wanted to know. After all... He still hoped that his admiration could have a glimmer of hope for a result.

The most curious one was eggface.

Was this guy a game model or an NPC. The aura of a game model was a little too extravagant. This was obviously the face of a top-tier celebrity the moment he debuted, although it was a little worse than Doggie's appearance in the game... ... but it was still too extravagant... ..

But to say that it was an NPC...

The first explanation was more reliable...

Faced with everyone's expressions and Doggie's bright eyes, Yunji Mu's heart skipped a beat. Of course, she didn't dare to tell the truth, but she didn't want to lie either, so she weighed the words, finally, she said, "My family... runs a martial arts arena..."

Yunshan started off as a martial arts arena. She... Couldn't be considered lying, right ... Mu Yunji comforted herself in her heart.

"Oh, a martial arts arena?"Dog father nodded. "That's amazing..."however, he was a little happy in his heart, although the business of the martial arts arena was big, it wasn't a noble family. In addition to this child's pure temperament, her silly boy might still have a chance.

“Martial arts dojo?” Li Xiaoqian was stunned and secretly pursed her lips. So he was born to be a martial arts practitioner... No wonder he was still showing off his qinggong. ...

Wait a minute... ? By the way, could that thing be learned in the martial arts dojo?

Just as she was about to ask again., beside her, Gou Dan said excitedly, “Born to be a martial arts practitioner? So it was true that the game said that martial arts practitioners were invited to be mentors. It was a game of conscience... “By the way, how much does the studio charge for people like you who are both martial arts instructors and models?”

“Ah?” Yunji Mu was stunned...

Game... ? Studio? Galaxy? What on Earth was going on?

After returning to the Huang family’s villa, Yunji Mu couldn’t figure it out no matter how hard she racked her brain... ...

Should she inform her sect?

Mu Yunji hesitated for a moment and eventually gave up on this idea. Her sect had just fought with someone else, and it wouldn’t be good if some radical faction wanted to get back at her...

She vaguely felt that the sect behind Wang Xiaojia was a very difficult person to provoke.

Just as she was thinking about it, Mu Yunji suddenly felt a hint of coldness. subconsciously, she leaped out of the window and lightly stepped on the roof. Then, she saw a person who surprised her.

“Situ Xue?” Mu Yunji was stunned. “Why are you here?”

Under the moonlight, Situ Xue was like a fairy who had descended to the mortal world. Her temperament was still as elegant as before. However, looking at her now, Mu Yunji was not as stunning as before. Instead, she was thinking more about Wang Xiaojia’s long silver hair and her indescribably beautiful face...

“I was originally observing the ceremony with the disciples of Er Mei. When I heard that you were here, I came over to take a look...” Situ Xue said coldly.

“That’s really thoughtful...” Mu Yun bowed in return.

He couldn’t help but feel a little irritated. There were many ancient books in large sects, so there would often be trading activities during the ceremony. This was Yunshan’s weakest point at the moment. Because there were too few ancient books that they could take out, such trading activities were rare. This was also the difference in the foundation of the sects...

In the end... ... It was still not as good as these thousand-year-old big sects... ...

Thinking of this, Yunji mu recalled the last martial arts demonstration in Kunlun. She and her senior brother had obviously won the first place, but they were targeted in the mystic realm, resulting in nothing...

She didn't have a good impression of these big sects...

"I heard that you're here to visit a friend?" Situ Xue smiled.

"Your news is quite accurate..." mu yunji frowned slightly and thought to herself, could it be that the Huang family had revealed her whereabouts... ? It seems that I have to knock on the Huang family's door. I really don't take sects seriously... ..

"I'm very curious..." Situ Xue said with a smile, "What kind of person is qualified to make friends with you?"

These words made Mu Yun ji slightly stunned, and she thought to herself, should I dig a hole?

After hesitating for two seconds, Mu Yun Ji still had the upper hand in her bad taste, so she said with a smile, "Powerful people naturally make friends with powerful people. It's always been like this in our cultivation world, isn't it?"

"Oh?" Situ Xue's beautiful eyes narrowed slightly. "How Powerful?"

"Stronger than me... Naturally, I'm also stronger than you..." mu yunji continued, "Maybe I'm even more powerful than the person behind you..."

Hearing that, Situ Xue's eyes flashed with a sharp light. Then, a slender figure slowly walked out from the Black Shadow. It was the leader and disciple of Kunlun sect: Master and disciple Ming.

"You have made great progress..." situ Ming looked at the other party and frowned. "You actually noticed me..."

"You flatter me..." mu Yunji bowed slightly.

"What's the name of that guy you mentioned?" Situ Xue asked with a frown.

Mu Yunji smiled. "Your intelligence is so good that you can even find out where I went to visit my friends. Can't you find out where I went to visit my friends?"

Situ Xue frowned and was about to say something when her senior brother said, "Alright, Little Xue, let's Go..."

Situ Xue immediately suppressed the unhappiness in her heart and followed her senior brother's footsteps as they left. Two people dressed in fluttering white clothes floated down from the roof like two snowflakes falling to the ground. Their movements were extremely graceful, seeing this, Mu Yunji sighed slightly.

Kunlun was really a big sect. Even this light body movement technique contained an unfathomable mystery. Obviously, it was also a secret manual technique. This point made Yunshan seem much colder.

However, even if Kunlun wanted to bump into that person, it probably wouldn't be that simple... ..

After pausing for a moment, Mu Yunji took out her phone and dialed young master Huang's number.

"Hello, Sister Mu?"

"Who did you tell about my whereabouts?" Yun Mu Ji's voice was slightly cold.

“Ah?” Young Master Huang was taken aback, but he quickly said, “I didn’t...”

“Really?”

“I really didn’t...” young master Huang quickly said, “I only reported your whereabouts to my family...”

“Is that so...” Yun Mu Ji’s expression softened slightly, she had already guessed that it was probably because young master Huang’s brothers had divulged it to her. It didn’t seem like he was a person who had so much to do with this child in the past few days. She would haggle over this in the future. At the moment, she still had other things she wanted to know, thus, she said, “Help me prepare a gaming device... mm... it’s the one that’s very popular now...”

“Virtual Gaming Cabin?” Young Master Huang asked.

“UH... Yeah, get me one of those, uh... Better get me an instruction manual...”

“Xiaojia, is this the game?” In the game cabin, Cheng Bo pointed at the unique texture of the game said: “This icon is done well...”

“You Say Cloud Ji is in this game when the NPC model also part-time martial arts instruction?” Cheng Bo asked excitedly.

“Yun Ji?” Goudan rolled his eyes. “You really dare to call her that. You were clearly the humble miss mu and miss mu before, but in the end, you actually called her that in secret. As expected... losers like to fantasize in secret.”

“Shut up!” Cheng Bo rolled his eyes at her and immediately opened the game. However, his face stiffened the next second.

“1.3 million people are queuing up in front? F * CK, did you hire a ghost soldier?”

“Do you think it’s a rubbish studio like yours?” Goudan rolled his eyes. “It’s a big studio. You saw it today. The models they hired are all top-notch beauties. Do they need to hire a ghost soldier?” “Search the post yourself. How popular is this game...” “...”

“UH... then how long will the queue take?” Cheng Bo was anxious.

“I’m not sure...” Gou dan shrugged. “This game is restricted to players. Some people have waited for half a year and still haven’t gotten in. Alright, Scram, I still need to go online to see my land...”

“Xiaoxue, calm down...” at this moment, on the streets of City C, Situ Ming looked at Situ Xue, who had a cold expression on her face, and sighed. “Mu Yunji is obviously provoking you...”

“So what if she’s provoking me?” Situ Xue said coldly, “Senior brother, our thunder cultivation requires a clear mind. If Mu Yunji dares to provoke me, she’ll dare to barge in. Is there anyone in Kunlun that we can’t afford to offend?”

Situ Ming: “...”

This little sister of his seemed to be as cold as an iceberg, but in fact, she was a hot-tempered person. However, who would be really indifferent when it came to practicing thunder cultivation?

“Senior brother, aren’t you curious?” Situ Xue continued, “I have a faint feeling that the person mu Yunji mentioned and the person elder er Mei Hong mentioned should be the same person...”

Chapter 174: Production Player’s future plans

Welcome back player Wang Goudan. You currently have 90,700 points. Would you like to repay part of the loan in advance?

Wang Goudan happily went online, but when he suddenly heard such a sentence, he reflexively said, “No! !”

Paying the loan in advance could avoid part of the interest... . The system gave a friendly reminder.

“I won’t Pay You Back!” Goudan said resolutely.

What a joke. He had caught so many new farmers to raise, and now that he had paid the money he had, would he turn around and come back for a loan? Do you think I’m Stupid?

After the system heard the reply, it silently reported to seer backstage, “Player Wang Goudan has refused to pay in advance. Currently, there are a total of 39 people who have been tricked into paying in advance...”

Goudan naturally did not know that she had such a foolish 39 compatriots. Otherwise, with her bad character, she would definitely send a private message to mock them one by one.

She opened her stats window and looked at her changes.

Name: Wang Goudan, age: 19, Race: Elven Wind Demon, health level: 2, class: Ranger and Landlord Grandpa? Accumulated points: 90,742.

Attribute Panel: Strength: 3, agility: 11, spiritual power: 1.2, vitality: 3.5!

Hint: the current system and strength of rangers are relatively weak, so it is recommended to strengthen their training.

Under the name of industry: Base East area, 1,000 acres of farmland, 2,000 private slaves, of which, 45 were classified as Orcs: (Gnoll 30, Black Panther 6, Earth tribe advanced species 2, Gale tribe advanced species 2, Thunder tribe advanced species 5.)

There were more than 1,900 humans, and they were of the same race, but they had different occupations. They were classified as: Earth Farmers: number: 600,41. They were low-level farmers who were proficient in farming, but did not have advanced agricultural skills, and relied solely on their experience, there were 474 farmers and women: they were good at a certain level of tailoring (most of their skills were crude) , cooking, and some general knowledge of farming, 373 pure artisans: good at tailoring, leather making, blacksmithing, gourmet cooking, wine making, jewelry, floral art, spices, and other industries production, please click on the list to see the detailed classification.

Merchants: more than 350 people, most of them hawkers, and a small number of imperial chamber of Commerce Elite. Please click on the details of the resume to see.

Warrior class: over 250 people. Most of them are ordinary infantrymen. Their system is slightly stronger than ordinary citizens. They have a certain level of combat skills and military qualities. However, their qualities are average. There are five regular knights. All of them are bronze knights who graduated from the Empire's academy. However, as they have not fought for many years, their actual combat abilities are weak. The value of nurturing them is not high...

When Gou Dan saw that he actually had so many underlings, he immediately beamed with joy. However, what annoyed him was how to arrange them?

Goudan was a relatively rational person. He did not directly bring out all of these people. After thinking for a while, he decided to discuss it with Grandpa Lu.

She did not waste any time. She looked at her friend's coordinates and quickly flew to the entrance of the elven base.

The last time she saw Grandpa Lu was four or five days ago. At that time, Grandpa Lu had already swelled up to four or five meters, and now...

Looking at the pile on the base, Goudan thought to himself, "This guy has dried up enough to feed the emperor of the liver and the others..."

"Eh? Goudan is here?" Grandpa's voice was distorted, like a hopeless fat otaku.

"Grandpa... Are You Okay?" Goudan asked with a strange look.

"I'm fine... I'm just a little bored. I've grown too big ... ""Grandpa said with a bitter expression, "Last time, after I accidentally killed two cows, the instructor forbade soap from applying lotion on me. Without the lotion, it took me four hours to walk here from the base...". ""

"..."doggie

"By the way, why are you looking for me?"

"Oh, didn't my last mission add a lot of people? I don't know how to settle it. Can you help me take a look?"

"Oh? Show me the list and I'll help you take a look!" Grandpa's eyes suddenly lit up. At this time, he was most afraid that no one would look for him. It was really too boring.

Brother Dog had participated in the mission of going north to join the army. In the past few days, he had been playing the role of the son of Baron so-and-so. Meanwhile, Emperor Liver had taken on the mission of rescuing cabbages with his new pet, the Gnoll. He had gone to the southern plains to have fun. There were also other players.., most of them had gone missing after receiving long-term missions. Only he and soap had nothing to do in the base for a day.

It was rare for someone to be willing to look for it, so Grandpa naturally did his best.

“There are more than 2000 people. You definitely can’t afford to feed them with the points you have now. You definitely can’t bring all of them out...”Grandpa Lu quickly said after taking a look.

“Well, I didn’t. But how should I deal with them?”Asked dog egg hurriedly.

“Sell it!”Grandpa Lu curled his lips and said, “At that time, only a few hundred of you went to participate in the quest. Judging from Big Boss Rain’s analysis of the situation, we definitely won’t have such a big opportunity to capture people in the future. Those players who didn’t participate in the quest before would definitely be willing to spend money to buy it.”

“Do they have that much money to buy it?”Wang Gou Dan was puzzled. After all, most of the players who didn’t go were still moving bricks for a living. How many farmers could the brick-moving players afford?

“There will definitely be,”grandpa Lu said with certainty. “There will definitely be a large number of small quests to allow newly promoted players to earn points later on in the base. How else are we going to stir up the market?”

“That’s true...” . “Then who should we sell it to?”Goudan was a little conflicted. “Land farmers are definitely the most sought after nowadays. I just passed by and looked at the market. Those traders seem to be the least valuable. One of them is only selling for 500 points now. Moreover, most of the players seem to be planning to let them farm the land.”

“That’s because the market hasn’t formed yet...” . “When the market is big, the traders will definitely be of great use. Keep these traders and don’t sell them cheaply. At most, cultivate them to help farm the land. You have to know that when your agricultural products come out later, other than selling them to the base, you can also sell them to those people in the New Territories.”

“Those people in the New Territories? How do you sell them?”Eggface was stunned.

“First of all, they must sell them to the players who are pretending to be noble lords. They want to cultivate their own private armed forces, so high-energy food is a must.”

“They can’t grow their own food?”

“Definitely not in a short period of time!”Grandpa Lu shook his head and said, “This new land needs to be carefully prepared by the Lord. The agricultural products in our base can not be grown on just a piece of land. Currently, there are only a dozen or so bio-system developers in the base who are engaged in this area. We don’t even have enough manpower to develop the local agricultural land on Mars. How can we allocate resources to the New Territories? After all, this is our most stable base, okay?”

Pausing for a moment, he continued, “In the future, the development of the base will definitely prioritize the main star. Regardless of agriculture, technology, or anything else, the newest products will definitely start to ferment from here. Therefore, the players who have land and resources here will definitely have the advantage. This is also the basic setting that the game side has made to balance the gap between the players. Otherwise, the other players will be the city lords. The gap between us who are workers and students who are still landlords is too big.”

“That’s true!”Goudan smacked his palm in realization and said with a smile, “Grandpa, you’re really good at analyzing things. Should I take this opportunity to apply for more farmland?”

“It’s necessary...”. Grandpa lu nodded and said, “The base is definitely developing agriculture now. Of course, the animal husbandry industry should also start construction. There are already many players using gnolls to graze, and the effect is very good. I guess they will also open up a portion of grazing land. After all, the population is increasing, and basic food needs to be guaranteed.”

“AH... Gnolls, why didn’t I think of that!”Goudan said angrily.

“Ah, don’t worry too much about that...”grandpa lu smiled and said, “You have so many farmers. If you focus on developing agriculture, you will definitely make a profit. However, you don’t need to keep so many farmers. While the farmers are still popular, sell half of them first.”

“AH... so many!”Goudan suddenly felt a little reluctant.

“If we don’t sell it now, the depreciation will be more serious...”

“I can keep it for farming!”

“Don’t think like that!”Eggface said seriously, “Land can only be contracted with a loan. If you use so much leverage at one time, the risk is too high. If the first wave of products doesn’t make a return, it will be more and more hurt by the loan later...”

“I see...”eggface lowered his head and hesitated. In the end, he nodded and felt that his grandpa was right.

“Try to keep the merchants and some artisans. As for those warriors... if they can be sold, then sell them. They’re useless...”

“Why?”Eggface said in a daze, “I still want to form a knight regiment myself...”

“Useless...”. His grandpa shook his head and said, “According to the intelligence, the quality of these southern knights is very poor, and it takes a lot of effort to train them. Moreover, we are the players at the rear of the base, and we mainly rely on productivity to make money. We don’t have a private territory, so what’s the use of having so many warriors besides looking good? “Even if we want to start a territory war, it’s the players outside who have received long-term missions that should be trained. Don’t worry about that. I’m sure that the base will strongly support the players outside to train their private weapons. When the time comes, the more warriors they have, the greater their consumption will be, and the more things they will import to the rear. Only then will we be able to earn money from those players!”

“Therefore, at this time, we shouldn’t waste any of our original capital. We should try our best to manage our current production well!”

“HMM... Alright, I’ll listen to You!”Goudan raised his head and smiled. “If that’s not the case, I’ll throw you into the Septic Tank!”

Grandpa Lu: "..."

This little girl was definitely a dog!

Grandpa Lu thought to himself. Just as he was about to retort, Goudan suddenly raised his head and was stunned. "Eh, the Lord is looking for me..."

"No Way..." Grandpa Lu was stunned. Even sitting in the base has a hidden mission? Why Can't I encounter such a good thing?

Chapter 175: Talent Awakening of life form

"Is the Lord Looking for me?" This was the first time Eggface had entered the Lord's room. He looked around curiously. Normally, only a few developers could enter this place.

There were many legends about developers because these players would complain and resist desperately in the beginning, saying that this was a scam job.

However, after a period of time, these players would all become brainiacs without exception. Moreover, when they looked at the other two types of players, they had a faint feeling that everyone was intoxicated, as if they had attained a certain level of sublimation...

Some players said that it was a really fragrant job, while others said that this job might have some kind of brainwashing quality... Anyway, there were all sorts of opinions.

After sneaking in, Wang Goudan looked at seer with a fawning expression. After all, he was a big shot with points. If he fawned on him a little, what if he gave him a few plots of land?

"Oh, Goudan is here..." seer said gently, "Sit..."

When Goudan heard this, he immediately jumped onto the chair that looked like a piece of technology. He touched it left and right, causing seer to be slightly stunned. Then, a trace of gentleness flashed across his eyes.

After all, he was just a child. He couldn't possibly be as black-bellied as rainy girl...

"Lord, how many points does this chair have?"

"100,000... If you want it, I can give you an installment. Are you interested?"

"No... forget it, Lord, why are you looking for me?"

"You're one of the few players who are about to activate their talents..." seer smiled and said, "That's why I'm Looking for you. I want you to understand that recently, remember to strengthen your basic training. It will be helpful in awakening your talents later."

"Talents? What's That?" Goudan said excitedly, "It means... can I add some points?"

"HMM... something like that..." seer clearly tilted his head to the side and answered.

Wang Goudan immediately became excited after receiving the answer. Currently, he knew that familiarization and techniques were all obtained through training. All the players were similar, although it was more realistic. Therefore, some players felt that the personalities of individuals were not very distinct, he felt a little regretful. He did not expect that there was a point-adding system?

As expected, it was a game without any flaws. Emmm!

Goudan hurriedly asked, "I can't find the talent system template. How Do I pull it out, Lord?"

"Cough cough...". Seer coughed lightly. "Our game is different from other games. The Awakening of talent points is based on the individual player's physique. It can not be controlled. In the later stages, it can be trained according to the awakening of talent points. However, in the early stages, it is unpredictable ..."

Seer tried his best to use the game's explanation to explain this matter. In reality, this was not the case.

Before a player entered a level 3 life form, the basic attributes of their body would be suppressed by their genes until the awakening of talent points would result in a qualitative increase. At that time, a Level 2 life form would have the opportunity to break through to a level 3 life form, if one failed to break through, they would need to accumulate more points. Therefore, for many young family members in the federation, breaking through to Level 3 was the second time their families would assess whether they had the value of nurturing them.

For ordinary bloodlines, starting from awakening the bloodline, it would usually take more than ten years to go from level 2 to level 3. For outstanding bloodlines, it would take about five years for a descendant of the Thunder bloodline like seer to reach level 3. Some geniuses could shorten this period of time, for example, his eldest cousin Ryan only took half a year to reach level 3. He was a top-notch genius.

However, this kind of genius did not seem to be in the minority among the people of Planet D. The dog egg in front of him was already the seventeenth.

Of course... The speed of time was a point. After the talent was awakened, what kind of talent was another point. However, this thing was more metaphysical. Many living things that were awakened were different. This also became the standard of their individual differences.

Take Zanda, the chief instructor of Titan in the base, for example. His talent was the strengthening of the blood supply to the heart. When he evolved to level three, the genetic strengthening concentrated on the heart, allowing the heart to have a more obvious evolution, when he activated his talent, he could change the strength of his blood and Qi with an extremely fast heartbeat rate, allowing his body to enter a high explosive state.

He called it the blood explosion skill, and it was considered an active skill.

There were also many passive skills, such as bone strengthening or blood strengthening. There would be individual differences in the four limbs, five senses, and these skills. In theory, one should only choose a class after their talent had been strengthened, however, there was also a saying that one should first choose a class and silently influence the genes in one's body to produce a talent. At that time, Seer had also chosen the second method in order to allow players to have a certain amount of combat power faster.

The above-mentioned talent strengthening belonged to the individual strengthening of one's physique. It was a relatively normal series and was very common in the continent. Whether it was worth nurturing depended on the degree of the strengthening. There were also some that were less common.

Many people called it the ghost type. It was the strengthening of some inexplicable talent that would allow an individual to possess a special ability talent. In the words of the D ball, it was a divine ability.

There were all sorts of different types of talents, and it was almost impossible to repeat them. From the observation of physique, the dog egg's attributes were close to the threshold of level three, but there were no obvious signs of body strengthening, it was very likely that he had awakened this type of talent. As his people's first ghost talent player, Xi Ye decided to pay more attention to it. After all, this could be used to observe if there was a false number in the high capacity of a person in sphere D, this was also an important sample for judging a person's talent in sphere D.

Of course, this kind of thing could be observed in secret. Today, he had taken the initiative to call Eggface over because of another matter.

It was Goudan's current situation in reality...

"Goudan!" Seer laughed. "Due to your outstanding performance and activity, this Lord has decided to reward you. What do you want?"

Goudan: "Give me that piece of land in the east, the free kind!"

What a straightforward child...

"Alright, this Lord understands what you mean. In order to reward your activity, this lord has decided to give you a beautiful accessory!"

"Hey... Lord, do you understand... I'm talking about the ground..."

Xi Ye: "This accessory was made by a master in the studio. It's beautifully made. As a girl, I'm sure you'll like it very much..."

"I'm talking about the ground..."

Xi Ye: "Alright, it's decided then!"

Eggface pursed his lips. In the end, he resigned himself to his fate and sighed. He asked weakly, "Then what attribute does the accessory have?"

"Attribute? Oh... It has a lucky attribute!" Seer said seriously, "With this Lord's blessing, it will make the girl with a smile even luckier!"

Eggface: "..."

"The gift will be delivered to your neighborhood in half a day. Please sign for it!"

“AH? Offline?” Eggface was stunned, he said discontentedly, “Why do you officials always like to play offline activities? It’s not practical to call npcs to my house. How about I give up the land? You can waive the loan for my current land, Great Lord?”

“Alright, that’s it. Pay attention to signing and receiving gifts. I’m busy, so I won’t keep you!”

As he said that, Seer waved his hand, and Goudan discovered that the scene around him had suddenly changed, and he instantly appeared outside the base!

Goudan looked around in a daze, smelling the fragrance of the surrounding vegetation and cow dung. He said in a daze, “You can even chase people away like this...”.

On the other side, Seer covered his head slightly, and the intelligence said faintly, “My lord, is it really necessary to add the rule that you can teleport greedy people out of the office?”

“Of course!” Seer said seriously. “What if those guys want more money and ask for a raise collectively?”

Intelligence: “...”

“Lord, is there really no need to avoid Wang Goudan’s real-life situation? From the probability, it’s very likely that she will be involved in the local forces’ Disturbance!”

“There’s no need!” Xi Ye crossed her hands and dragged her head as she sighed. “She can’t hide anything for long. It’s a shame that this child is so silly. If it were anyone else, they would have already felt that something was wrong...”

AI: “...”

Xi Ye: “Furthermore, I’m very concerned about the cultivation factions on sphere D. From the information you’ve gathered from the surveillance on Cloud Mountain, it seems that the celestial immortals on Sphere D possess a divine ability. This divine ability most likely corresponds to the innate talent of a high-level life form. Under the circumstances of sphere D’s low elemental energy and their own weak genes, they were actually able to train a level-three life form. In theory, this should be impossible...”. “...”

Ai: “So the Lord wants to use the players to understand the situation? But if the Lord gives her the personal teleportation device, what if the elf body falls on the D Ball?”

“Just ask the players to take it back!”

Ai: “Er... isn’t that a little too much?”

“No worries...” Seer waved his hand. “We’re facing a private force this time, it won’t be harmonious...”

AI: “...”

Chapter 176: Wang Chengbo is a fragrant bun?

In the Huang family's villa, the rarely-in-charge old master Huang suddenly appeared. He was sitting quietly on the sofa, with Huang Shijie, the youngest of the three generations of the Huang family, in charge of making tea for the old master.

Opposite them, two young men about the same age as young master Huang were kneeling in the living room with pale faces. Upon closer inspection, one would discover that there were sparkling glass shards where they were kneeling, at this moment, blood had already seeped through the bottom of their pants from their knees, but the two young men still did not dare to move. They gritted their teeth and held on.

Young Master Huang was extremely glad that he did not do anything out of line. From the beginning to the end, he had been extremely dutiful. Otherwise, he would be the one whose feet were crippled from kneeling!

"Aiya! !" Suddenly, a scream came from the door. A noblewoman dressed luxuriously with a face full of heavy makeup suddenly pounced over with a scream, "Shihui!"

The woman looked at the young man kneeling on the broken glass with a pained expression. She quickly tried to pull him up and screamed, "What is this, Old Man?"

Two men and a woman immediately came in from behind. One of the men and woman walked together. When the woman looked at the other young man on the ground, she also showed a pained expression, however, she tried her best not to lose her composure like the woman in front of her.

When the kneeling young man saw his mother, he heaved a sigh of relief and looked at his mother with a pitiful expression.

"Alright, Child, get up. I'll bring you to the hospital..."

When grandfather Huang heard this, he placed the Teacup on the table and looked at the young man gloomily. The young man called Shihui quickly withdrew his body from his mother and continued kneeling obediently.

Seeing her child in such a frightened state, the woman said angrily, "Old Master, what are you doing? Didn't you just offend a girl from the Yunshan sect? Is there a need to be so uptight?"

After pausing for a moment and seeing that old master Huang did not speak, the woman became even more displeased, "Speaking of which, that girl is too much. How amazing is she? Our Shihui did not think much of her fawning over her. Forget it then. This time, we only missed her whereabouts when we were chatting with our friends. So what? "What's there to hide about her whereabouts? "She still has to humiliate my son like this. Does Old Master really treat our Huang family like a dog in Yunshan?"

Her voice was extremely loud. It was obvious that she was deliberately shouting at Yunji Mu in the room upstairs.

As soon as she said this, the entire room fell into silence. Old Huang's expression was extremely gloomy. His wife's husband's face instantly turned pale. The other couple at the side sighed inwardly.

Especially that woman. She looked at the woman who was crying and shouting and shook her head inwardly. The wife that second brother had married was indeed not presentable. She had entered the sect for so many years., yet, she still could not figure out what the sect represented to support aristocratic families like them...

“Since you’ve asked this question, I’ll give you two points!” Old Master Huang sneered and said, “First, our Huang family is a dog of the Yunshan sect. In the past, now, and in the future, our children and grandchildren will be!”

The woman was stunned when she heard that. She didn’t expect that old master Huang would humiliate the Huang family like this. She immediately felt that something was wrong...

As expected., the next second, old master Huang continued, “Second, the Huang family is our Huang family, not your Huang family. From now on, you’re no longer a member of the Huang family. I’ll call a lawyer to give you the divorce agreement later. As for this...”. As he spoke, old man Huang pointed at Huang Shihui, who was kneeling on the ground with a pale face, and continued, “Bring him along and scam. If you want to raise him, then continue raising him. If you don’t want to raise him, then let him fend for himself...”. “...”

“You...” the woman immediately sat down on the ground with a pale face. She immediately turned around to look at her husband as if she was asking for help, only to find that her husband was evading her request.

The woman’s heart immediately turned cold, but her face was still filled with disbelief...

What did she mean? Just because of her shout, she was going to be chased out of the Huang Family? She didn’t even want her children and grandchildren?

“Second brother, you don’t have any objections, right?” Old Huang looked at the fat middle-aged man and asked faintly.

“No... No...” the second brother of the Huang family shook his head repeatedly.

After hearing her husband’s weak and useless reply, the woman confirmed that she was really going to be chased out just like that. He wasn’t trying to scare her!

“No, no, no, old master, I didn’t mean that!” The woman immediately gave in. She hurriedly knelt down and wanted to crawl over, but was stopped by a tall figure.

Everyone looked over. It was old master Huang’s personal bodyguard for many years: Instructor Hong.

Seeing this person appear in the inner hall, the children knew that old master Huang didn’t intend to give them a chance this time.

Seeing that she couldn’t go, the woman hurriedly pounced on her son. “Son, say something and apologize to grandfather. Quick, say that you won’t do it again in the future...”

“Don’t You Touch Me! !” Huang Shihui instantly pushed his mother away, then, he repeatedly kowtowed and said, “Old Master, that woman is spouting nonsense. I didn’t mean it at all. It was also this woman who urged me to chase after Miss Mu previously. I know I was wrong. Please Don’t Chase Me Away! ! !”

Old Master Huang sneered slightly when he heard that. "You haven't learned anything else. This ruthlessness of not recognizing your own kin is 100% learned. Unfortunately, we are a family here. The family doesn't need people like you."

Shihui was about to continue speaking when he saw instructor Hong directly kick him. A 1.8-meter-tall man was sent flying several meters away by the kick. He slowly slid down the wall like a poster, and no one knew if he was dead or alive.

The corner of young master Huang's eyes twitched. He didn't expect Uncle Hong to actually hit a Huang family member so hard without an order. It wasn't impossible for him to be beaten to death this time...

"If it's not the members of the Huang family, don't bark in here. If you want to be buried in the back garden..." instructor Hong looked coldly at the frightened woman, the woman immediately didn't dare make a sound. She didn't even dare turn around to look at her son.

Then, the mother and son were dragged out by the bodyguards called in from behind. After dealing with the mother and son, Old Master Huang looked at another couple.

This couple was Huang Yunrui, the third son of the Huang family, and his wife, Zhang Min.

Seeing the old man look over, Zhang Min took the initiative to ask respectfully, "How does the old man plan to deal with Sihwa?"

Elder Huang looked at the third couple, who had always been calm, and nodded slightly. "What do you say?"

"It's up to the old man to decide!" The third son said solemnly.

"Okay...". Old Huang nodded. "There are two ways. The first way is to be like that scoundrel of the second brother's family, get out of the Huang family. The second way is to remove him from his position as the representative of the Northern Europe region of the Huang Group, and go to Yunshan to be a servant disciple. If he can become an outer disciple in his lifetime, he can still have a place in the Huang family. If he can't do it, he will stay in Yunshan until he dies!"

The husband and wife looked at each other, their faces pale. They didn't expect the old man to be so ruthless. If this was handed over to Yun Shan, wouldn't he be bullied to death if people found out that his son had thoughts about the sect leader?

After hesitating for two seconds, the two finally compromised. "We choose the second option..."

"What About You?" The Old Man's face softened slightly and looked at Sihwa.

"I'll listen to Mom and Dad!" Sihwa gritted her teeth and said.

"Okay!" Old Huang nodded. "Get Up..."

Only then did Sihwa relax. However, her knees were already numb, so how could she get up? At that moment, the couple quickly went forward to help their son up. Zhang Min caressed her son with a face full of heartache.

This fall... was too big...

Looking at Sihwa, who was still relatively sensible., old Huang Sighed. "I know that you're still a little unconvinced, but as a member of a big family, the more you should understand that there's a difference in status. If you're like boss's son and can become an inner disciple of Yunshan, this old man will definitely encourage you to pursue a granddaughter-in-law of Yunshan for me, but you're not. If you don't have that threshold, then don't think about those things that you shouldn't think about!"

"Grandpa..."Sihwa could not help but ask in the end, "Is the difference between us and the people of the sect that Big?"

"The difference is big. You'll know when you go there..."old master Huang said slowly, "Go, don't delay the treatment of your leg injury."

Huang Shijie, who had been serving the old master drinking tea, sighed. He did not expect the difference in status to be so big. Just because of Sister Mu's warning, the old master had done so much...

The huangs are dogs, and all their descendants are Yunshan's dogs. What a disadvantage it is for the old man to say such words...

When Huang Shijie lamented the fate of his two cousins, he was a little worried about Wang Chengbo. Now that he thought about it, it was good for that guy to continue being cheated by Li Xiaoqian. The woman he was with now was really a life-threatening existence...

"Hello? Dad, yes, yes, the house has been repossessed by me. I've thought it through. The house is quite good. Why Rent It to someone else?"Li Xiaoqian was now carrying big and small bags to Wang Chengbo's residential area, i'm trying to take back the house my parents bought here when I was in high school.

This time she was going to fight a long battle. She had to get that dog back. Whether it was to get revenge on Master Huang, Wang Chengbo's fickle dog, or to get angry with Yunji, she was going to fight for it.

"Security guard..."Li Xiaoqian said with bags in her hands, "Did you put the key to Building D's 902?"

The security guard didn't answer Li Xiaoqian's question. Instead, he looked at her in a daze.

Looking at the security guard, Li Xiaoqian was half proud and half disgusted. She was proud because she was very charming. If a master could be so charming, it was because the other party was so old, he was really shameless.

Just as she was impatiently urging him, a cold female voice suddenly sounded behind her.

"Excuse me, is this Hua Yu Jin Xiu residential area?"

Li Xiaoqian was stunned. She only felt that this voice on a hot day was as refreshing as cold spring water. When she turned her head to look, she was instantly stunned.

In this world... there was actually such a beautiful person?

She immediately understood that she was not the one who had stunned the security guard...

“AH... Yes, yes, yes!”The security guard nodded repeatedly. “Little girl, what do you want?”

“Um... excuse me, is there a person named Wang Chengbo in D Building 901?”

“Oh... the doll of old Wang’s family, right? Oh, yes, yes, yes, it lives in D Building 901...”the security guard quickly said.

Li Xiaoqian, who was standing beside him, was stunned.

What the hell...

Chapter 177: Karakorum martial arts demonstration, I’ll wait for You!

“Nonsense! !”In the manor, the elder of Karakorum reprimanded Situ Ming with a livid face. “How could you let that girl be so ridiculous?”

Situ Ming lowered his head, with a helpless expression, he said, “Martial uncle, it’s not like you don’t know Xiaoxue’s temper. How could I control her? She was just in the front yard a moment ago, but she disappeared in the blink of an eye. I knew she must have sneaked off to look for the person that Mu Yunji mentioned...”

“She doesn’t know her limits!”The elder immediately sighed and said, “For a junior to be praised by elder Hong like that, he must have either a top-tier major sect or a Mighty Heaven Immortal. If it were the former, it would be fine since they were all disciples of major sects. Even if Xiaoxue was a little rude, she probably wouldn’t go too far for the sake of Kunlun. But if it were the latter...”. “...”

“The latter?”Situ Ming asked curiously, “Don’t major sects also have Heaven Immortals?”

“Since ancient times, how powerful are the people... .. you guys ... You think too simply about Huazhong!”The elder sighed, “In all the dynasties, which period wouldn’t have some top-notch civilian mighty figures? What sect was the pure Yang Master from back then? And what sect was the half-step great Luo Liu Bowen from the Ming dynasty? You guys... ..”

“Don’t these civilian mighty figures have scruples about Kunlun?”Situ frowned.

“That depends on their mood...”. The elder said faintly, “Any celestial immortal is basically the top existence in the world. This kind of person is on the same level as the patriarchs of Kunlun. As long as they don’t attack the mountain, what can we do with them? “Ask the Patriarchs to come out of seclusion and chase after him all over the world?”

Situ Ming:” ...”

“Let’s go. I hope it won’t be the worst situation!”The elder said with a gloomy face.

Situ Ming nodded and quickly used his movement technique to bring the elder to the residential area mentioned by the Huang family.

“Beauty, are you Chengbo’s friend?” On the elevator, Li Xiaoqian asked curiously.

“Yes...” the one with the temperament of an ice mountain goddess was naturally Situ Xue of Kunlun...

How could it be...

After getting a positive answer, Li Xiaoqian couldn’t hide her disbelief. Forget about Murong Ji, where did this one come from?

These women were of a higher level than the idols and celebrities. What did he, Wang Chengbo, do?

To be honest, Li Xiaoqian even suspected that young master Huang had hired an actor to act for this loser Wang Chengbo...

Eh...

Thinking of this... Li Xiaoqian touched her chin and suddenly felt that this reasoning seemed reasonable...

These rich kids loved to play games. It was not impossible for them to find these two peerless beauties to help this loser Wang Chengbo act out this scene out of boredom. After all, rich people did whatever they wanted...

The more she thought about it, the more she felt that it made sense. Li Xiaoqian immediately swept away her previous sense of inferiority and carefully sized up the other party. Only then did she notice that the other party was actually holding a sword from a period drama in his arms.

Her eyes instantly lit up. With one look, it was obvious that she had just come down from the set. She did not even have the time to return the props to the crew. With one look, it was obvious that she was an extra!

Just as she was thinking about it, the elevator door opened with a ding-dong sound. Situ Xue walked out slowly and looked at each other. It was obvious that this was her first time here.

“Where is the Cheng Bo family...” Li Xiaoqian felt that she had grasped the truth, her mood calmed down a lot. She even took the initiative to point at the Wang family when she saw the other party’s appearance. Then, she crossed her arms and looked at the other party as if she was watching a show. Her face was full of mockery.

I knew it... ! What netizens? What seniors? baffling. A bunch of actors. I, Li Xiaoqian, will see what other tricks you can play today!

Situ Xue could feel the woman’s teasing expression behind her. Her face showed slight confusion, but she did not have the time to care about the emotions of such a mortal ant. In the end, she walked straight to the Wang family’s door, her hand gently pressed on the security door.

Seeing this, Li Xiaoqian snickered, and then she said mockingly, “Beauty, are you used to filming in ancient costumes? You Can’t even ring the doorbell, right?”

Just as she finished speaking, the security door suddenly caved in, and with a jump, the security door was directly bounced into it, and with a bang, it hit the wall of the house, Li Xiaoqian, who was feeling proud of herself, was dumbfounded!

What the hell?

Wasn't it supposed to be a romantic movie about vulgar beauties fighting for a loser? Why did it turn into a fantasy movie?

Speaking of which... was that a special effect?

But how the hell did this special effect come about in real life?

Li Xiaoqian's mind was in a mess and she was dumbfounded. At this moment, her imagination was really not enough...

The two siblings who were eating lunch were also confused. The chopsticks in their hands fell to the ground, and their faces were twitching...

"Brother... What's going on?" Goudan said in a daze.

"How would I know?" Wang Chengbo was also confused. F * CK, in broad daylight, a beautiful woman who looked like a fairy suddenly ran out and slapped the security door of their house away. Who would know what was going on?

"Who is Wang Chengbo?" Situ Xue looked at the two siblings who were eating noodles and asked coldly.

"Him (her) !!" The siblings immediately pointed at each other!

"F * CK, are you shameless! !" Goudan was instantly furious!

Situ Xue first looked at Chengbo. This man's Qi and blood were very weak. Let alone a martial artist, his body was probably much weaker than that of a healthy man. It shouldn't be the person that Yunji Mu and elder Hong were talking about.

Thinking about it, it made sense. As a guy who worked overtime in the office all year round, it was common for him to be bald before the age of thirty. How could he have any qi and spirit of a martial artist?

Situ Xue immediately turned to look at Goudan.

His Qi and blood were very strong, but at most, he was only at the level of an outer sect disciple. However, he had an inexplicable temperament. The feeling that his qi and spirit gave her was similar to that of an elder.

Thinking of this, Situ Xue immediately made a judgment, "Is it you?"

"Uh..." Goudan was instantly dumbfounded. It was one thing for Wang Chengbo to be shameless, but how could this woman be so blind? Goudan, who had a strong desire to live, quickly said, "Beauty, you must have made a mistake, right? Chengbo, Chenbo, how could it be a girl's name?"

Wang Chengbo: "..."

“Do you still want to Pretend?” Situ Xue drew her sword coldly...

Looking at this woman who actually carried a cold weapon with her, the corners of Goudan’s eyes twitched. Which Program team was this?

But then he looked at the anti-theft door that was still mounted on the wall and suddenly felt that this was not something that a production team could do, right?

Seeing that the other party was still in a daze, Situ Xue’s face turned cold. The sword in her hand turned into a cold light and directly stabbed toward Goudan. Her posture was extremely beautiful, but her speed was also extremely fast. Wang Chengbo, who was at the side, was completely unable to react in time.

Ding! !

With a slight sound of collision, the cold light instantly stopped. What stopped the agile sword light was actually a pair of wooden chopsticks...

This scene caused Situ Xue’s pupils to shrink. Although this move of hers was only a test and did not use much strength, using a pair of wooden chopsticks to clamp her sword was too... ..

Wang Chengbo, who was at the side, saw that her opponent actually dared to draw her sword and commit murder. He hurriedly raised his hand and smashed the bowl in his hand.

Situ Xue’s eyes flashed with a cold light. She immediately withdrew her body and pulled out her sword. Goudan seemed to be a little confused about his own actions, so he was unable to react immediately and allowed Situ Xue to successfully pull out her short sword.

After that, the short sword in the other party’s hand turned into a screen of light and sword flowers after he retreated. It actually blocked all the oil soup that filled the sky, not even a single drop could escape!

Wang Chengbo’s eyes almost popped out.

What the F * ck... was this something that a human could do?

“Interesting!” Situ Xue looked at the still confused dog egg and said, “It seems that Mu Yunji didn’t lie. Very good. Kunlun martial arts demonstration, I’ll wait for You! !”

Chapter 178: this family... ! ... is hiding a secret!

“Senior brother? Elder? Why are you here?” Situ Xue saw the unconscious security guard and the gloomy-looking elder the moment she stepped out of the residential area.

“Let’s Go! !” The elder spat out a word coldly. Without saying anything else, he turned around and left. Situ Xue was stunned when she saw him. On the way back, she asked her senior brother carefully, “Brother... what happened to Elder?”

Seeing this girl who usually had a cold attitude call him brother, Situ Ming sighed slightly. Then, he looked at the residential area behind him with fear and said in a low voice, "Elder and I... Couldn't get in just now."

"Were we blocked by the security?" Situ Xue thought of the security guard who was unconscious on the ground.

"Of course not!" Situ Ming rolled his eyes.

"Then... why couldn't we get in?" Situ Xue was curious.

"It's just that we can't get in..." situ Ming said with a serious face, "It's like being blocked by an invisible wall. No matter what we do, we can't get in!"

"How could this happen?" Situ Xue didn't believe it.

"Almighty!" The elder who had been walking in the front suddenly interrupted, "I didn't expect such an almighty to exist in this small city c!"

Upon hearing this, Situ Xue immediately fell silent. Her senior brother might be teasing her on purpose, but the elder's words...

"Elder... What kind of person can do such a thing?" Situ Ming was both fearful and curious at the same time.

"Someone who can cross that threshold!" The elder said with a heavy expression, "To be honest, I have been in the cultivation world for so many years, but I have only heard of such a person in Legends!"

"Legends?" Situ Xue was stunned.

The elder said, "For example, Zhuge Kongming, who could trap an army of 100,000 with a formation map, the pure Yang Spiritual Master from back then, and... The one in the empty seat of Kunlun..."

The two juniors were shocked speechless... ..

"Let's go back first, I have to report this to the sect leader..." after a pause, he turned to look at Situ Xue and said, "You went to find trouble with him, what was the result?"

"Let's call it a draw..." situ Xue lowered her head and answered.

"And then? You left without a winner?" The elder felt a little surprised.

"I. . ." Situ Xue was stunned, and she lowered her head even more, "I... Invited her to Kunlun to perform martial arts..."

"Xue'er, you..." Situ Ming immediately covered his head... ..

The elder rolled his eyes and said, "Great, now she has a reason to come directly!"

No wonder Xue'er could walk out so easily. The elder thought to himself, so the other party's goal has been achieved... ..

Previously, when elder Hong of Emei mentioned that junior with considerable talent, he felt suspicious. He wondered if someone deliberately let the junior show off and wanted Emei to take the initiative to approach him.

Now it seemed that... it was most likely the case!

Emei's juniors had withered over the years, and it was almost time for the ten realms martial arts demonstration to fail to get a very good ranking. In the previous session, even the disciples who were qualified to enter the mystic realm were only the direct disciples of the sect leader. They were not even comparable to Yunshan sect, which had the weakest foundation.

The martial arts demonstration was held once every three years. If Emei wanted to change the predicament of the previous session, it would either have an amazing talent suddenly appear among the younger generation of disciples, or... ! ... It would be to invite outside help!

This method had been used by many sects in the past. When the sect was in decline and the younger generation was dying, they would often agree to let some wild cultivators join the sect. Of course, this would entail a certain amount of risk, if it was an evil cultivator, their sect would have to bear the responsibility.

When he heard elder Hong's words previously, he had guessed in his heart that it was possible that a heaven immortal mighty figure wanted to take advantage of Er Mei's decline and join Er Mei as a guest elder. Then, he would ask his disciple to represent er mei in the battle.

Elder Hong was obviously a cautious person and did not take the bait easily. However, this child of his... Sigh...

There were only two ways for wild cultivators to come to Kunlun to perform martial arts. The first way was to obtain the recommendation and guarantee of more than two of the ten great sects. If one was not an evil cultivator, he or she could participate. The second way was to obtain the invitation of Kunlun sect itself. In the end, the people of Emei did not fall for the trap, but his own disciple gave him the truth...

Thinking of this, Kunlun elder faint sigh, thinking of how to go back to explain to the sect leader.

Originally Junior's verbal promise, this thing is can cheat not to admit, but this kind of very likely to step into Big Luo Big Boss, where is so good to cheat?

"Hello? Chief? What? Apologize, that's it?" Inside the Wang family, listening to the voice on the phone, father Wang's face became more and more ugly, he said angrily, "We can pursue criminal responsibility for this kind of violent intrusion into a private house and committing murder with a knife, right? Even if we apologize, shouldn't the other party show up? "Moreover, in this kind of situation, the walls of my house have been smashed, and the two children have been scared out of their wits. Is It Okay to just apologize?"

"What identity? I don't care about the other party's identity. What? The other party will compensate one million yuan? Oh... then please be busy, chief. I'll explain something to the children..."

As he said that, father Wang slowly hung up the phone. Then, he saw the two siblings looking at him with disdain.

“Father... your child was almost killed. You sold us out for one million yuan!” Gou Dan said righteously, “No, you have to give me half of it!”

“Give my ass!” Father Wang rolled his eyes. “I went out to work and my family was ruined like this. Sit properly and tell me honestly. Where did you offend such a powerful person?”

“It’s him!” Goudan jumped up and pointed at Wang Chengbo. “It’s him. That woman came in aggressively and asked, who is Wang Chengbo?”

Goudan imitated Situ Xue’s appearance. It was neither proper nor proper. He had an extremely fierce expression, which made Li Xiaoqian and Wang Chengbo roll their eyes.

Father Wang looked at Wang Chengbo and his face became a little serious. “Chengbo, do you have any impression?”

He really wasn’t someone who was greedy for the one million yuan. He wasn’t someone who could make his own bureau chief, who was protective of his own people, speak up for them. Father Wang vaguely felt that the person who was looking for trouble had a great background, so he took advantage of the situation to drift away.

However, there were some things that he had to figure out. He had to figure out how Chengbo had provoked such a person that he couldn’t afford to offend.

“I... I don’t know...” Chengbo had an innocent look on his face.

Seeing that his son’s expression was not fake, father Wang frowned, he turned to Li Xiaoqian and said, “Xiaoqian, did you say that the woman pushed the security door like this?” He pointed at the door that was still mounted on the wall.

“Um...” Li Xiaoqian nodded with a look of realization. To be honest, she still felt a little dreamy until now. She felt like she was watching a fantasy movie... ..

But what surprised her was that Father Wang didn’t have the reaction that an ordinary person should have after hearing her affirmative answer... .. seemed like.. ... He looked like he could accept it...

As someone who used to work in the financial circle, Li Xiaoqian’s ability to read people’s expressions wasn’t bad. She immediately realized that Father Wang... ! ... obviously knew something that they didn’t know! ! !

Li Xiaoqian’s guess was correct. Father Wang had been a criminal police officer in the city for many years and was also in the Major Crimes Department. After working for a long time, he had occasionally come into contact with people from the so-called sects...

For example, the case he handled this time had already been determined to be the work of an evil cultivator. Their police force was responsible for assisting the people of Er mei in solving this case.

He knew much more about these superpowered people than ordinary civilians.

Li Xiaoqian rolled her eyes and suddenly said, "Xiaojia is so powerful. She caught that woman's sword with a chopstick!"

As soon as she said this, Cheng Bo and father Wang looked at Goudan.

Father Wang was stunned, while Cheng Bo suddenly remembered something with an expression, "Yeah, how did you do it?"

"Just... it was a reflex... I guess she was lucky..."Goudan said guiltily, "She's also quite weak..."

Weak? Everyone looked at the security door and rolled their eyes.

"Maybe she was merciful..."father Wang looked deeply at Goudan and then walked over carelessly.

Li Xiaoqian was not willing to accept it. Just as she was about to say something, she was interrupted by Father Wang. "Xiaoqian, it's getting late. I've really troubled you today. It's quite chaotic here and it's not convenient to greet you. You should go back first..."

Li Xiaoqian was stunned. Seeing that the other party was in such a hurry to chase her away, she suddenly felt that something was wrong...

What kind of secret was this family hiding...

Li Xiaoqian's sensitive heart caught this point...

Chapter 179: Suspicion from Doggie Dad

"Xiao Jia? Xiao Jia?"After walking out of the restaurant, Cheng Bo waved his hand in front of Wang Goudan. "What's wrong with the girl? She has a silly look on her face. She doesn't eat seriously, unlike you..."

This time, his dad specially brought his brother and sister to eat Xiao Jia's favorite old hotpot. Usually, this girl would have at least four bowls of rice, but today, she didn't even finish the dishes she ordered. Her fighting strength was really lacking...

"AH? Oh..."Goudan came back to his senses and looked at his father and brother. He immediately smiled. "Nothing, I'm just thinking about something..."

"Are you still thinking about what happened during the day?"His father asked with concern.

"Sigh, it's all my fault. It's too extraordinary..."Wang Chengbo suddenly said from the side.

His words made Goudan and his father look over.

Chengbo stroked his chin and said seriously, "Now that I think about it, it's indeed a little unusual. Why did so many people come to find me? Mu Yunji came to find me with an excuse. This time, that woman is the same. Maybe it's because..."

"Because of what?"The father and daughter asked in unison.

“Because my background is not ordinary...”. “Yes, it must be so. Do you think I was an almighty in my previous life?” “Just like in the novel, the invincible immortal emperor or something like that. After transcending the tribulation and reincarnating, his memory didn’t wake up. This time, his whereabouts were suddenly discovered?” 1

Father and daughter:” ...”

“Dad? When I was born, did anything unusual happen? For example, the phenomenon of heaven and earth?”Wang Chengbo asked excitedly.

“There was no phenomenon of heaven and earth, but there was something unusual...”

“What is it?”Cheng Bo’s eyes lit up.

Father Wang took a puff of smoke and said faintly, “At first, the doctor told us that it was a girl doll. Your mother and I were happy about it, but in the end, it was born with a penis. Tsk...”

Cheng Bo:” ...”

Gou Dan: “Isn’t a man good?”

“A man has to pay for it...”. Father Wang sighed. “We have to prepare a house for him and a betrothal gift for him. Your father, a poor policeman, doesn’t have that much money. Fortunately, your mother and I have you later on. We finally have a chance to keep our money.” “ ...”

“ ...”

“Father, you even prepared a dowry for me?”Cheng Bo immediately said happily. He instantly forgot about his previous words about the reincarnation of the immortal emperor...

“Heh...”father Wang shook the ash off his cigarette. “The facts have proven that your mother and I were overthinking things. Not everyone can use the dowry money...”

“Dad, your words are a little hurtful, ha...”

The family returned home in such a noisy manner. On the way home, Goudan felt much more relaxed because of his father and brother’s playful conversation. However, there were still some things that he wanted to understand clearly.

Therefore, after returning home, he simply helped clean up and went upstairs early in the morning to enter the game.

Downstairs, father Wang watched his daughter enter the room, turned off the light, and kept watch downstairs. About half an hour later, he turned on the battery and boiled a sweet wine egg. Then, he got up and walked to the door of his daughter’s room and knocked on the door.

As he expected, there was no response, so he gently opened the door and walked in. He turned on the light and quickly walked into the room. First, he glanced at the bed. After seeing that there was no one there, he quickly walked to the game cabin.

Just like the last two times when he looked for his daughter, the power of the game cabin was plugged in, but there was no one inside...

After a few seconds of silence, father Wang turned off the light and found a low stool to sit at the door, staring at the game cabin... ..

Welcome back player Wang Goudan. You have 90,700 points now. Would you like to repay part of the loan in advance?

"I won't!" Wang Goudan replied angrily.

She had heard that some players would be asked such a sudden question when they came online. After they replied with a return, their points would instantly be reset to zero. Thief Jill was terrifying. The system didn't even need to confirm it again before directly deducting the payment. It was simply shameless...

Then I wish you a happy game!

The system's obviously disappointed tone made Goudan doubt whether the system was intelligent or not...

Of course, this was not the time to deal with this matter. Right now, she mainly wanted to know some of the doubts in her heart...

No matter how neurotic she was, the things that happened during the day were enough to make her feel that something was not right.

Thus, she found Brother Dog in her friend list and sent a private message, "Is brother dog around?"

After about ten seconds, brother dog replied, "Yes, what's the matter, Doggie?"

"Where are you?"

"I'm registering for a mission here...". "...". brother dog replied, "This mission to the north is very troublesome. I have to train the basic sword skills and combat aura of this world, and I also have to learn some knight etiquette. After Marshal Rox counts the heads, we fake nobles will have to follow him to the north. Time is very tight... "...". "I don't even have time to deal with my land...". "..."

Brother dog suddenly said, "Oh right, I heard from Grandpa Lu that you've obtained a lot of land farmers in this mission. Is it bad? My land is very good, I'll transfer it to you!"

"Good, good, good!" Brother Dog's eyes lit up, and he nodded repeatedly.

"Okay, that's it then... I still have to practice this combat aura technique. When the time comes, I think there will be a test during the school opening test. As for the land, I'll find an intelligence to transfer it directly to you..."

"Oh, okay... uh, no!" Eggface hurriedly sent a message. "Brother Dog, I want to talk to you about something. Are You Free?"

“What is it?”

“Um... It’s not convenient to talk here. What’s your number? Can We go offline and talk?”

Brother Dog frowned and hesitated for a few seconds before replying, “It’s not convenient for me to go offline now. What can’t you say in a private message?”

“About Yunji Mu...”

Brother Dog:” ...”

“You really know something, don’t you?” Seeing that the other party didn’t reply for a long time, dog egg hurriedly sent a message.

She had thought it was ridiculous at that time. Those disciples of some sect were so weak that brother dog could handle them alone. Why did he call so many players? Now that she thought about it, it was extremely abnormal.

Brother Dog: “How about this, you go offline first, I will call you later...”

“Yes!”

As soon as Goudan went offline, he came out of the game cabin and saw his father at the door. He was so scared that he almost fell to the ground

Bang, the light in the room went on, the old man smiled and said, “Isn’t it because you ate so little just now, and then I cooked you some sweet wine eggs?” In the end, I realized that you were gone the moment I got here. I was wondering if you sneaked out of the window to meet your boyfriend.”

“This is the ninth floor, Dad!” Goudan rolled his eyes. “All the people in our country live in commercial houses. Do you think it’s like overseas where everyone lives in villas and goes through the windows every day?”

As he said that, he took the sweet wine eggs and took a sip. The sweet smell of rice wine immediately made Goudan reveal a happy expression. “My sweet wine eggs are still the best.”

“I’m not teasing you. Your father tied your mother up with this trick.”

“Isn’t it because you’re handsome, Daddy?” Goudan took a bite of the egg yolk and said in a daze.

“Of course, that’s also a big part of the reason...” father Wang said proudly. Then, he casually asked, “Were you playing games just now?”

“Yes...” Goudan nodded.

“Oh... I heard from your brother that you’ve been obsessed recently. Are you playing some fujoshi games? For example, the three thousand male pets of the Empress?”

“Father actually knows about this game?” Goudan looked at him strangely.

"Of course, I remember when your mother..." "...". "Sigh, forget it, let's not talk about this..." "Well, you're about to graduate, so you should play less games recently. I was thinking that your major isn't very reliable, so I'm going to enroll you in a computer training class. What do you think?"

"To be a program ape?"

"Then... it's better than rearing silkworms, right?"

"We'll see..." dog egg finished the last bit of rice wine soup in one gulp, then, he handed the bowl back and said with a smile, "Dad, I'm going out for a walk to digest my food. I'll be back in a while." Without waiting for his father to agree, he ran downstairs.

"Oh... come back soon!" The dog father could only exhort.

"Hey, I'll be back soon!"

After Doggie left, Dad's smile disappeared. Then, he looked at the game warehouse. He was sure that Xiao Jia had disappeared and reappeared out of thin air!

What on Earth... was going on?

Chapter 180: The Illegitimate Army of the empire

How should I explain this to Gou Dan?

After Brother Dog finished his private message, he was in a daze. wasn't Yunji Mu in the capital? Why did she appear in City C? It was one thing for her to appear in City C, but why did she coincidentally meet Gou Dan? Was City C really that small? This was a metropolis with a population of a million!

"Hey, what are you daydreaming about, Sim?"

A voice that sounded like a broken gong interrupted brother dog's daydreaming, causing brother dog to subconsciously shiver. He looked over at the instructor who had been giving him a headache these past few days: David. Texas.

"Don't think that just because Miss Sunny gave you a spot, you can slack off like this, you trash!" David said with a fierce expression, "You wasted so many years of the Orlando family's resources, yet you still went to deceive such a kind-hearted Miss Sunny's pity. You piece of trash, if you don't succeed this time, I'll Skin You Alive!" "!"

Brother Dog was speechless... ? "... This character, rain girl, Wu Gua, that guy is deliberately messing with me, right?"

After participating in the mission of going north to join the army, Brother Dog finally realized how fucked up their identities were...

All of this had to start from the Knight Academy of the Steel Martial Empire.

The Knight Academy of the Empire was said to be open to all the legitimate residents of the empire. To the public, it was said that as long as an individual was outstanding and had the potential to become a warrior, they would be able to be accepted and nurtured by the academy, and they would have the opportunity to become a qualified knight!

It sounded very fair, right. Actually, that was not the case... ..

The so-called individual excellence referred to one's physique and foundation before entering the academy. In terms of physique, one had to have a strong physique and be able to withstand high-intensity training. The foundation referred to a certain foundation of combat and weapon application.

This basically isolated most of the children from ordinary families. After all, for one's physique to be strong, other than a few fellows with divine power, the vast majority of people needed to be nurtured after birth, in addition to scientific training, they also needed sufficient nutritious food, especially meat.

Moreover, they also needed to hire teachers to teach their children basic fighting and weapon applications. How could an ordinary family afford this?

Generally, only some wealthy merchants and nobles could afford it. Not to mention wealthy merchants, most of the children of noble families were trained to manage their children since they were young, especially in the south. Then, the war in the northern part of the empire was so tight.., with such a huge demand for knights, how could they fill it?

The answer was: the Empire's huge illegitimate children group!

As nobles, most of the nobles, especially the males, had romantic temperaments.

Like Brother Dog, the current Earl of the Odolan family had hundreds of illegitimate children...

Brother Dog Only Knew What a stud was when he knew this number. As expected of a feudal civilization. If it were in his era, an NBA player with an annual salary of tens of millions of dollars.., even if there were six or seven illegitimate children, they would be forced to sell their underwear because of the alimony!

To get back to the main topic, due to the high quality requirements of the Knight Academy, most commoners could not enter this threshold. Under such circumstances, illegitimate children would be the main force of the Imperial Knight Academy.

The reason was very simple. Most of the direct descendants of the nobles were here to inherit the management of the nobles' territories and the nobles' businesses. Since young, they had learned about the etiquette of the nobles, management, business, and other knowledge, naturally, they would not let them go to the northern battlefield to fight to the death. However, what if they wanted to strengthen the family or supplement the family's loyal armed forces?

The illegitimate children perfectly solved this problem.

As the bloodline of the nobles, in name, it was basically impossible for them to compete with the legitimate children for the title of nobility and territory. However, it would be a waste not to do so, so they might as well train them to go to the Knight Academy, if they were lucky enough to obtain a title of nobility and obtain more titles, the nobles would immediately resume their titles as the children of the legitimate families. From then on, they would become a branch of the nobles in the family. If they were not able to become nobles., they would only be knights. They could return to the family later and become knights of the family to serve the legitimate children.

After all, they were blood relatives. As the saying goes, 'don't let the good water flow to outsiders'. Of course, hiring foreign knights would not be as good as training them in the family, right?

Therefore, in this empire, most of the illegitimate children had a good life since they were young. They would be unified and taken back to the nobility. They would be fed well and fed well. They would be called regular knights to train them. Everyone would have the opportunity to stand out.

Of course, when the opportunity was given, the obligation was also necessary!

After receiving the resources of the clan, they naturally had to serve the clan. Their only path was to enter the academy and fight on the battlefield. Moreover, before entering the academy, one had to choose a regular disciple as the object of loyalty.

Since it was to nurture knights, the contract had to be fixed from the start. Whoever became a knight and worked for would be responsible for one's expenses and tuition fees in the Knight Academy!

This was also one of the rules for the management of illegitimate children of nobles. In this way, besides nurturing a private force for legitimate children, it also tested the foresight of both parties.

This was a double-selection system. It could only be established if both parties agreed to it. Most of the illegitimate children who had performed well since they were young would choose the eldest son who was likely to inherit the title of nobility as the object of loyalty, of course, there were also some people who chose the promising potential stocks or the children who would inherit the family business. Very few people would choose the women of the family to be guardian knights.

The SIM that Brother Dog played was such a role. Because this useless guy was too useless, basically no one wanted him. In the end, he licked his face and cried as he begged the second miss of the family, Miss Sunny. He shamelessly begged for a spot for a few days. After looking at Simm's memories, Brother Dog actually wanted to blow his head off..

SIMM was actually a two-faced bastard among illegitimate children. Not only was he not talented, but he was also lazy. He used the name of the family to bully good people and even owed a lot of gambling debts. At the end of the day, when he saw that no one was going to be kicked out of the noble, the two-faced bastard instantly panicked. There were a lot of people waiting for him to be kicked out and want to beat him up... ..

He had no choice but to break the rules in the end. Every day, he knelt outside miss sunny's courtyard, who had the gentlest personality, begging for help. He was crying with Snot and tears. That ugly scene made Brother Dog, who had received his memories, want to die...

"Don't Blame Simm. He has been working very hard these few days..."a sweet voice sounded and immediately interrupted Brother Dog's memories. Brother Dog subconsciously raised his head to look at the second-skinned woman who had taken him in.

"You've changed a lot, Sim..."sunny looked at Brother Dog Gently. "If you had worked so hard earlier, you wouldn't have had to follow a person like me who has no future..."

“What nonsense are you talking about, Miss?” David suddenly said in dissatisfaction, “It’s a great blessing that you can take him in. Don’t be too indulgent to this kind of person!”

The more David thought about it, the angrier he got. He had just gone out to do some things, but he didn’t expect that this dog had taken advantage of a loophole and used that method to get his miss to give him a spot. If he were here, F * ck, he wouldn’t be dead!

Although Miss Sunny was a direct descendant and had a noble status, she wasn’t valued by many of her brothers and sisters. As a woman, her appearance was far inferior to his sister’s. She had brown hair, gray pupils, and a few small freckles, compared to those fair-skinned women with sapphire blue eyes and beautiful blonde hair that were unique to the Orlando family, Miss Sunny wasn’t very popular when it came to external marriages.

Most of the noble women had to marry out of the family. As for marriage... Other than their status..., the most important thing was naturally their looks. Because of their good looks, her sisters had long been engaged to the heirs of many marquises and even dukes. Even the youngest fourth young lady, vinier, was already engaged, sunny was almost seventeen years old, but no one cared about her...

This also caused the count to allocate very little of her pocket money...

The more this happened, the more serious miss sunny had to be when choosing a guardian knight. She had to choose someone who could afford it!

After all, apart from the dowry, guardian knights were also one of the important appearances of noble women.

Miss Sunny’s pocket money was limited, and there were not many places that she could train. All these years, David had been worried about finding a suitable knight for her.

Most of the talented illegitimate children were not willing to become a female guardian knight. Even if they were willing, most of them were not willing to join Sunny, who had no future. It was not easy for David to find two in the past few years. In the end, he had only entered the northern battlefield for a few months before he was taken away...

All these years, the count had been increasingly harsh on sunny’s allowance. In the end, this silly child had even given her limited resources to such a shameless fellow.

The more he thought about it, the more David could not help but want to kick this guy to death! !

Looking at David’s unfriendly eyes, brother dog, perhaps due to his memory, actually moved to the side a little guiltily. When this mouse saw the cat-like expression, sunny beside him burst into laughter, he quickly came over and grabbed David’s arm, acting coquettishly. “Well, Uncle David, hasn’t Sim performed quite well these few days? It’s different from the rumors outside!”

“He’s drowning and pretending!” David glared at brother dog and said, “He’s just pretending. Don’t think that I’ll change my opinion of you. If I see you like before, I’ll beat you to death!”

Brother Dog:” ...”

“Well... It’s so late. Let Sim Rest...” sunny shook David’s arm and Winked at Brother Dog. David said helplessly, “Hey, my lady...”

Brother Dog was stunned. Looking at Sunny who winked at him, his heart skipped a beat. What a sweet personality...
