

A Bunch 1731

Chapter 1731: not a single one of them is weak...

At this stage of the situation, no one felt that Grodo would definitely win. After all, the other party was able to kill two of the divine arcanist students 'tough opponents. There was already a chance of winning against Grodo. This was something that Grodo himself understood, therefore, he used his full strength at the first moment with a thunderous momentum!

However, no one would have thought that Grodo would lose so miserably!

Looking at Grodo, who was cut into two halves along with his weapon, everyone had blank expressions on their faces!

Clearly, they were in complete disbelief!

Grodo. The gray stone, ranked 15th in last year's social gathering and one of the best powerhouses in the entire Federation's higher education institutions, had been cut into pieces like tofu?

Even the mysterious captain, Ba Lie, had a look of disbelief on his face!

As his old partner, he was the clearest about Grodo's strength. If he were to face him with his full strength, at least Lily would have the chance to take him down... ..

Turning his head, ba lie stared blankly at the calm expression on Mica's face. His heart instantly sank to the bottom of the valley!

Was this still mica?

That punching bag who was bullied by Grodo like a sandbag, who was tormented by Bato but still endured it, could actually reach such a stage?

How many years had it been since he died? Even if he had encountered some good fortune in the death realm, wasn't this improvement a little too exaggerated?

"You... "

This voice gave everyone a fright again, because they realized that the one who had spoken was actually Grodo, who had been split into two halves!

They saw his body, which had been split into two halves, constantly wriggling, as if he was struggling to stand up. His eyes were bulging, and together with his ferocious face and the flesh that was seeping out, it was extremely horrifying... ..

However, everyone also discovered a puzzling point. It was that Grodo, who had been split into two halves, did not seem to have any blood spurting out. It gave people a very strange feeling... ..

“Don’t move recklessly, senior... “the instigator, MI JIA, walked over with a smile. The tip of her sword was gently placed on the other party’s flesh that had been split open. She said in a low voice, “If you touch the fire recklessly, it will be troublesome...”

Only then did everyone realize that at this moment, there was a thin layer of purplish-blue at the wound of Grodo. It was clearly the unique flame of the death realm!

Everyone’s hearts trembled. This guy could actually control the flame of the death realm to such an extent!

The flame of the death realm had the effect of freezing everything. Grodo’s wound was clearly frozen...

And under the situation where the blood had not completely flowed out of Grodo’s powerful body, he managed to forcefully preserve his life force!

“That’s right... “looking at how the other party carefully used the contraction of his flesh and blood to adjust the blood flow once again, trying his best to maintain his life force, Mi Jia’s smile became even more beautiful.

She remembered that before she died, the harder she tried to survive, the more excited this fellow and Ba Tuo became during the torture. They forcefully gave her the most desperate death under the situation where she desperately wanted to live!

God knows how much he had endured in order to survive. He only thought that when those two graduated, he would be able to escape from the sea of bitterness.

But obviously... he was thinking too much!

With the memories of that time of despair, MI JIA laughed until tears flowed out. The short sword in her hand lightly danced, turning into a beautiful sword flower, directly cutting a fine cut on Grodo’s flesh!

In the next second, the flesh and blood separated. A piece of cartilage located on the left rib was cut out under the gorgeous blade light. It was cut out extremely smoothly. Its movements were fluid and smooth, like the most professional bone dissecting chef, the bones were separated out forcefully. Many people did not even have time to react before an incomparably rough cartilage appeared in Mi Jia’s hand!

Grodo grunted and clenched his teeth tightly. His eyes that were separated stared at Mi Jia like an evil ghost!

“Yes, you have to be this energetic... “mi jia caressed the badly mutilated bones, her face was filled with infatuation. “I finally understand why Barto likes to torture others for fun so much. It’s actually such a pleasurable thing?” Everyone. ...

“Senior, you must always maintain such a good spirit so that I can slowly knock out your bones one by one!

((Bastard! !

Beilie’s entire body could explode in an instant. Just as he was about to make a move, a terrifying chill suddenly struck him, instantly cooling down most of the scorching hot bailie!

He immediately looked at the other side in horror!

“Please respect the good rules... “the leader of the other side, Sauta, said with a faint smile, “If you don’t want to talk about rules, then we can also do it the way that we don’t Talk About Rules!

Ba Lie.”

The five gray-robed undead opposite him instantly displayed an imposing aura that gave him a terrifying pressure that was as thick as the abyss and could not be seen!

In an instant, both he and Carmen did not dare to move a single inch! !

It was very obvious... ... ! The strength of this group of undead far exceeded their imagination!

“We admit defeat! ! “Ba lie was silent for a few seconds before he instantly made a decisive decision.

“Admit defeat? Are you sure? “Mi Jia looked at the other party with a smile. Then, she looked at the wager this time: Emily!

“No... No! Emily immediately screamed and retreated desperately!

However, it was clear that the other party did not give her a chance. An incomparably short undead waved his hand gently behind him. Emily, who had already equipped herself to escape, suddenly appeared in his bony hands!

Hiss! !

This scene made everyone take in a breath again...

Everyone could clearly see that Emily had originally intended to run away. In her panic, she had instantly leaped a few hundred feet away. However, she had been forcefully pulled back by someone!

Everyone could clearly see that the one who had grabbed Emily was an invisible palm that was completely constructed with spiritual power. However, it had captured Emily, who had fled in a panic, as if she was grabbing a chicken!

One had to know that Emily was at least a level-12 powerhouse. Moreover, as a descendant of a top-tier Shenao family, although she did not walk the path of a divine craftsman and had entered medicine instead, her physical qualities were not inferior to that of an ordinary warrior.

However, she had been forcefully grabbed back by someone else with spiritual power. Furthermore, she did not resist at all. She had been tightly grabbed. Even though Emily had already sprinted until her skin and flesh had split open, it was still unable to stop the palm from dragging her back bit by bit!

Such terrifying spiritual power made people dumbfounded!

Once again... Everyone was certain that among that group of undead, there was probably no one who was easy to deal with!

“Next, who will come? “Looking at Emily’s face filled with despair and terror, Micah revealed a satisfied smile. Then, she looked at the other side and smiled like a greedy devil.

Everyone fell silent. Carmen and Ba lie looked at each other.

Right now, the two of them were the strongest single combat power here. Only the two of them dared to say that they were able to suppress grodo!

However, the two of them had their own choices. In terms of condition, Carmen was clearly much better than Barlie.

Someone looked at each other for a few seconds, and finally... Carmen sighed. "I'll do it... but the bet must be one of your divine arcanist students...."

Chapter 1732: Fierce Battle!

As soon as Carmen opened his mouth, although Ba Lie's face was tense, he heaved a sigh of relief in his heart.

Carmen's words were clearly the greatest compromise...

At this moment, in terms of state, individual combat ability, and emotional stability, Carmen was the most outstanding person on the scene. Although Ba lie was not weaker than Carmen, his hand bones were injured, and he had consumed a lot of energy using his secret technique just now, naturally, his overall condition was not as good as Carmen's.

Against an opponent like his opponent, who could kill Grodo in one move, even the slightest difference in condition might be a foreshadowing. From the perspective of the greatest probability of victory, Carmen was clearly better than Grodo!

But the question was, would the others be willing?

It was very obvious that mica was specifically looking for trouble with the Divine Arcanists. If the situation became chaotic, there was a high probability that these undead would also give priority to finishing off their divine arcanists. It was not impossible for the spark students to use this opportunity to break out of the encirclement... ..

At this moment, Carmen was the number one main force. Being able to stand out and withstand this wave was already enough to consider the overall situation!

Therefore... the conditions were actually not too excessive.

It couldn't be said that the enemies that the students of Divine Arcana had provoked, the students of spark would take the place, and the wager would still need the people of Spark Academy, right?

Ba Lie's face tensed up. In the end, he didn't waste his breath to continue bargaining. He knew clearly in his heart that the other party's conditions were definitely the bottom line, and there was no way he would back down. At this time, bargaining would instead make his side appear stingy.

With this thought in mind, he looked at the remaining people in the academy.

The faces of the group of people instantly turned pale. Everyone knew what would happen if they fell into the hands of a perverted undead!

Meanwhile, the heart of Spark Academy was tensed up. They looked at their own captain with a worried expression, including Amanda, who usually did not think much of Carmen's background.

This was because she also knew that their captain was the strongest in his team, and the distance between him and the people around him was not small. If he lost, it was likely that no one would be able to walk out of this place today...

"Di, come here..." ba lie beckoned to a thin and weak Wastaya Deerman.

The Deerman's expression suddenly changed, and he clenched his teeth tightly!

She was actually prepared to be chosen. Among the remaining people in the Divine Arcana Academy, besides the fourth main force, Ladd, there were only three outsiders. The Scout South Stream was the third main force in the team, and as the core force., naturally, Ba lie would not choose him. Moreover, the other party also had the ability to reject him.

There was also the team's chief physician and Master of the mind. He was also from the same clan as her, White Deer: Ling.

Although they were both Wastaya people who were despised by the people of the Divine Ao clan, the other party was proficient in the art of the mind. She also had superb biological pharmacy and surgical skills. She was the number one assistant in the team, even Barto had never made a move against her before.

And now, the one with the least status and value was himself, the medical assistant...

Di clenched his teeth tightly, but in the end, he did not dare to refute. He was not South Stream. He did not have the ability to refuse. He had become a wager. He still had a chance to live. If he refused, he would definitely be beaten to death by Barlie!

Carmen could not be bothered to look at the internal affairs of the Divine Arcana Academy. As the captain, he had already done enough to protect his team members as much as possible at the last moment. As for the crooked wind of the Divine Arcana Academy, he did not have the ability., nor was he in the mood to care about it.

After all... . At this moment, what he had to face was also a life and death battle!

"Senior Carmen..." Mi Jia smiled and bowed slightly across him. Her attitude was gentle and genial to the extreme. She was not at all like the vicious person who had picked a bone with Grodo just now.

Carmen looked at him with a complicated expression and slowly put on his metal fist. "I remember meeting you last year. At that time, I already knew that you were a very powerful person. It's just that I didn't expect you to be so powerful..."

Mi Jia was slightly stunned. Then, she smiled and said, "Senior Carmen seems to be so rough, but your mind is very meticulous. In just a few moves, I still remember it now..."

"Heh..." Carmen touched his head. "I'm just that simple. My impression of strong people has always been very deep..."

Mi Jia paused again, then raised the tip of her sword. "Please, senior Carmen! "Since you call me senior, why don't you go first..." Carmen grinned and said.

Okay!

Mi Jia did not waste time at all. Her figure swiftly turned into a stream of shadow and moved forward. The short sword in her hand moved smoothly and directly hacked towards Carmen!

For the first time, everyone finally saw Mi Jia's skills clearly!

Those with sharp eyes all revealed a solemn expression!

Just now, they were still holding on to the hope in their hearts that Mi Jia could win against Grodo by relying on the weapon in her hand. However, at this moment, with the skills and sword skills that the opponent displayed, those with discerning eyes could tell at a glance that she was a top-notch expert. Those with slightly less discerning eyes..., people like Amanda could not even see the opponent's trajectory clearly!

In the distance, South Stream was also very certain this time. In the beginning, the one who attacked him was Mi Jia in front of him!

His heart immediately became incomparably complicated. He had some impression of this young man who had been tortured to death a few years ago. He was born in a middle-class noble family and was a collateral branch, yet he had quite a good divine craftsman's talent. However, at that time..., he didn't see that the other party had such a stunning sword skill.

And from his point of view, such a sword technique was something that a normal direct descendant would have to painstakingly practice for hundreds of years?

How long had this fellow died?

What had he experienced? Moreover, what kind of background did those fellows behind him have? What exactly was that so-called ten kings?

All sorts of doubts surged up in his heart. However, he was unable to investigate it in detail at this moment. He could only focus all his energy on the battle. If Carmen lost, the ones who would be able to fight again would be him and Ba lie. At this moment, he had to try his best to familiarize himself with the opponent's path!

Bang! !

Very quickly, the first exchange between the two began!

A flash of sparks could be seen. This time, there was no more terrifying scene. Carmen's gloves easily parried the opponent's short sword and launched a counterattack!

The fist shadows that blotted out the sky and covered the Earth rained down on Mi Jia like raindrops, causing the hearts of the group of people from the later development academy to Jolt! !

Instantly, the hearts that were hanging in the air relaxed by more than half! !

What they were most afraid of seeing was that Carmen was the same as Kalodor, dying in one move without knowing why!

As Mi Jia parried, she retreated with a smile and said, "As expected of senior Carmen. He is indeed different from that trash from before. He saw through it so quickly!

Carmen's eyes narrowed. He was not happy because of the other party's praise. On the contrary, he became more solemn.

He could see that the other party was able to finish off Grodo in one move. The reason was indeed as many people had expected. It was because of the Frost Crystal Short Sword!

However, it was definitely not just because of the short sword. The frost crystal was the crystallization of the flames of the death zone. It had a very strong absorption ability. After it was activated, the temperature would reach an extremely exaggerated degree, the reason why the other party was able to cut Grodo and his weapon into two with one slash was not because of the sharpness of the short sword. Instead, it was because he had used the special characteristics of the frost crystal to instantly melt it!

However, because the other party's energy erupted too quickly and withdrew too quickly, coupled with the fact that the energy was extremely efficient and concentrated, the flash of the sharp edge gave people the feeling that it was like the cutting edge of a blade, but in reality, it was not!

This was also the reason why he dared to accept the challenge...

As long as he could grasp the opportunity when the other party erupted his energy, either to dodge or to cut it off, he would be able to avoid the outcome of Grodo just now. And that technique of his just now was to directly intercept the explosive point of the other party's energy.., he forcefully cut off the energy that the other party had gathered on the blade of his sword. Only then did he successfully deflect the other party's short sword. He also received Micah's praise.

It seemed like... He had gained the upper hand!

However, from the moment the other party opened his mouth, he knew that his chances of winning were very slim! ! !

He had used all of his strength. Every bit of Qi in his body was used in his meridians. In high-intensity battles, especially Qi cultivators, they were the ones who were the most speechless. This was because it would affect the operation of the energy. At the very least, it would increase the burden on them by quite a bit... ..

Yet, the other party was able to speak!

Even though the other party's swordsmanship had improved tremendously, he was still a divine blacksmith warrior in essence. There was no difference between him and the other party. All of his energy had been channeled into his meridians, yet he was unable to touch the other party at all. On the other hand, the other party was able to speak with ease.., the difference in energy between them was at least not small!

What should he do?

Carmen began to feel anxious. The movements of his hands seemed to be violent, but his heart was getting heavier and heavier... ..

He couldn't lose. If he lost, Starfire Academy would be doomed!

"Senior... "suddenly, a cold light cut through the fist shadows that filled the sky, carrying Mi Jia's lazy voice. "My Heart is in a mess!

Carmen's heart was shocked. However, at this moment, that cold light had already reached his life gate. If he dodged at the last minute, his luck would definitely be messed up. And in his heart, he also knew that his current momentum was in a mess., the next round would be his opponent taking over the home ground!

He was already weaker in terms of energy. If his momentum was taken advantage of by his opponent, he might really have no chance at all!

At the thought of this, Carmen hardened his heart and directly ignored that cold light. Without any hesitation, he threw a punch towards his opponent's head. It was actually the method of mutual destruction!

"Che..."a hint of a ferocious smile flashed across Mi Jia's handsome and delicate face. She did not Dodge or Dodge. The sword in her hand did not change. She forcefully charged towards the opponent's life gate. It was as if she completely ignored the opponent's iron fist that could shatter her head!

The pupils of a few experts who could see the trajectory contracted, and their breathing stopped for a moment. Under this kind of gambling contract, such a method of fighting with mutual destruction was really too heart-wrenching!

However, just as the two people who did not care about their lives were about to collide, with a bang, under the illumination of a thick flame, the originally fearless mi JIA's expression instantly changed to one side. She swiftly retreated and withdrew her strength smoothly! It was clear that this seemingly desperate action of hers with Carmen was actually holding back!

Carmen's expression was ferocious.. Unable to withdraw his strength, he could only watch helplessly as the flame shone down! !

Chapter 1733 The Miraculous Grandpa Lu

Cha! ! !

Everyone, including the people from the Divine Arcana Academy, were so shocked that their eyes were about to pop out of their sockets!

Ba Lie, the two great experts from South Stream Academy, and the vice-captain of Starfire Academy, Rhine, instantly turned to look at the group of undead!

If the other party had not intended to abide by the agreement from the start, then they would have no choice but to break out of the encirclement by force!

But when they looked over, the three of them were slightly stunned, because they discovered that the group of undead seemed to be frowning tightly, and they were retreating one after another, as if they were very repelled by this flame!

At this time, the three of them finally reacted and looked at the huge flame!

That's right, the other party was an undead, how could they use such righteous flames? Even if he was an alchemist, most undead would avoid molding energy.

Not to mention, among the four elements, the fire element was the most destructive to undead!

Then this flame was...

At this moment, Carmen, who was trapped in the flame, was also stunned. At first, he was in despair, but when the flame hit his body, his heart instantly changed, and his face turned into one of shock... ..

Because as he was in the flames, he realized that this seemingly intense flame covered his body, but he did not feel any burning pain. On the contrary, an extremely warm feeling surged into his heart, a comfortable feeling that he had never felt before... It made Carmen feel as if he was not being burned by the flames, but soaking in a hot spring...

What was going on?

In the next second, a huge burp was heard. In the sky, a huge and fat bird appeared out of nowhere. Its entire body swelled up like a balloon, and it looked as if it was inflated... .. Grandpa Lu?

"F * ck, it's that stupid bird! ! "Amanda could not help but cry out!

The group of people also stared blankly at the Phoenix that seemed to have been inflated. For a moment, their faces were filled with confusion... ..

What was going on with this fellow?

It had suddenly disappeared just now. Why did it suddenly appear again? And what was going on with this huge flame?

On the other side, a group of gloomy and cold undead frowned as they looked up at the gigantic and pure fire element. Their eyes were flickering with uncertainty!

There was such an existence among this group of people?

"What is this stupid bird doing?"

Amanda's face instantly turned ashen. Their captain was a bargaining chip that they had a chance to use. At this moment, it was fine if this fellow couldn't help them, but he even attacked one of their own people?

“Something doesn’t seem right. Look at the Captain! ! “Beside them, Jane seemed to have noticed something and hurriedly called out.

Everyone looked over carefully and immediately discovered that Carmen, who was in the midst of the flames, didn’t seem to be in a miserable state of being burnt at all. Not even his clothes were burnt to a crisp. On the contrary, his entire person seemed to be bathing in a hot spring. His expression was one of incomparable enjoyment... ..

What was going on?

“The flame of the Red Lotus! ! “Jian’s eyes were filled with excitement as he said, “That fellow has awakened the flame of the Red Lotus! !”

Flame of the Red Lotus? ?

Everyone’s hearts skipped a beat when they heard this, but they soon revealed looks of pleasant surprise!

The flame of the Red Lotus was one of the Divine Flames recorded by the Federation. Furthermore, it was one of the superior divine flames, and it was also the flame of the Red Lotus race!

It was rumored that it was a divine flame passed down from an extremely rare Phoenix. After that, it was passed down from generation to generation by the Red Lotus race who served the Divine Flame!

“Isn’t that your race’s personal divine flame?”Avatar frowned and asked, “How did that fool manage to use it?”

“This divine flame was originally from a Phoenix! “Jane said excitedly, “It’s just that very few phoenixes possess this kind of talent. Even in ancient times, it was still a rare species. Not to mention now, it’s practically extinct. I never thought that the old master would actually possess this kind of talent. When we return, I’ll definitely invite him to join the Red Lotus race...”. “. ”

If they could go back...

Amanda cursed in her heart, but she didn’t say it out loud. It wasn’t a good time to break everyone’s confidence...

Burp...

Just as everyone was surprised, grandpa burped in the air. The flame that was like a pillar of fire instantly cut off the source and slowly shrank until it disappeared.

Carmen, who was below, stretched his muscles and bones after the flame disappeared. His whole body made crackling sounds. Even a blind person could see that his mental state was excellent!

Hu...

Carmen let out a long breath. He felt that his entire body was filled with power. This flame was like the purest energy, constantly mixing into his blood through his pores. It was even easier to absorb than an energy potion., it was magical to the extreme!

“Wei! “Carmen looked up at the sky, full of gratitude!

If Grandpa Lu hadn't stopped him, he would have died. Besides, he had a feeling that he wouldn't have died together with Grandpa Lu!

Urgh! ! !

Less than two seconds after Carmen raised his head gratefully, Grandpa Lu let out a vomit sound in the air, and another huge flame poured down! !

Carmen. " ... "

Everyone. " ... "

"This... is vomiting?" sura Leng Leng Leng Leng Leng Leng Way.

Everyone was stunned, looked at each other, and then looked at the mid-air Lu Grandpa this posture, for a time the expression is extremely strange...

"No Way ... .." Jane swallowed her saliva. As a red lotus tribe who used the flame of Red Lotus as a totem, she really couldn't accept the fact that the other party was vomiting the flame of Red Lotus... ..

"Shit, this guy's still puking?"

While everyone was stunned, a red light flashed, and a familiar figure appeared beside Jane. It was Piran, who had previously traveled to the Elemental Plane!

Only saw he came out to see the top of the Lu Grandpa, immediately scolded:

"Have Not finished? ?"

The crowd stared at him with a blank look on their faces.

Was he really throwing up again?

Carmen's face was also extremely stiff...

In other words... What he had just absorbed into his body... .. ? Was it that Guy's vomit?

Carmen instantly felt that the burning energy in his body was no longer fragrant... ..

"What's going on? Amanda asked, "Where did you guys go before?"

Piran's expression was complicated. He did not know what to say... ..

At that time, he had immediately judged the situation and decided to give up on Spark Academy and use Shadow Steps to escape first. He did not expect that this damn Phoenix could actually follow him in.

It was one thing for him to be able to come in, but the key point was that there was more to this guy than this!

After this guy entered, the elemental particles around him quickly gathered. Although the flow was gentle, more and more of them gathered, causing part of the spatial mass to become extremely high!

This made Bi Lan instantly not dare to transmigrate. With such a terrifying quality of energy, if he were to cause even the slightest ripple when transmigrating, he would probably be blown to bits!

Even though he was an anti-magic body. he did not dare to take the risk.

However, the surrounding high quality energy was accumulating more and more. If this continued, he would sooner or later be trapped here!

And just as he was anxious, a miraculous scene happened. Grandpa Lu, that fellow, suddenly opened his mouth wide and directly sucked in the surrounding elemental energy! !

At that time, his eyes almost popped out of their sockets!

In the end, this fellow swelled up hundreds of times in an instant, like a balloon that had been blown up!

Then, he saw miraculously that this fellow sucked in the surrounding elemental energy again and again, and spat it out again and again. It really shocked his worldview!

However, what this fellow had sucked in was the four elemental energy, but what he spat out was pure red flames. Moreover, the Red Flames did not seem to harm his body, which allowed him to successfully use shadow steps to travel back... .

However, this process was too ridiculous. In the face of questioning, Bi Lan did not know what to say for a moment... Just as she was thinking of how to explain to the people around her, Carmen suddenly shouted, "Be careful, Little Everyone quickly looked over and found that at some point in time, a handsome undead with white hair was holding a slender frost crystal sword in his hand.. He was slashing down on the head of his grandfather who was still vomiting in the air!

Chapter 1734: The Miraculous Grandpa Lu (Part Two)

"Be careful! !"

Carmen roared, but he could only be anxious because his entire body was covered by a huge flame, preventing him from moving at all!

Although the flame energy did not harm his body, there was a high energy pressure that made it difficult for him to stand, let alone rush up to help Grandpa Lu.

However, even without the fire, he probably would not have been able to make it in time. When he discovered the ambusher, she was already quite close to him. With that ghostly movement technique, Carmen knew that he would not be able to stop her!

In fact, in the two high schools, Nanxi was the first to discover the ambusher.

However, although he was extremely shocked, he did not make a sound. This was because he knew very well that with the opponent's skill, making a sound was useless. The sound had not even reached him.., the matter had long ended!

However, in reality, it did not seem to be the case...

When everyone heard the sound, they looked over and clearly saw the figure of the undead!

This was clearly illogical because the speed of the undead was far faster than the speed of sound. However, everyone still managed to see it. This caused South Stream to be stunned. This was because he could clearly see that it was not because Carmen's speed had surpassed the speed of sound, it was the other party who had been forced to stop!

That ghostly figure was forcefully controlled by an invisible force. The terrifying blade was unable to advance even a single inch within the three feet distance of the Phoenix!

This scene caused the people from the Divine Arcana Academy, especially Ba Lie, to be taken aback.

What a familiar scene this was...

"How is this possible?"

In mid-air, that short undead's pupils constricted, and his eyes were filled with shock!

In the next second, that invisible force transformed into a huge palm, directly smashing the small undead down from the sky! !

With a bang, the huge force directly smashed a deep pit into the high quality metal ground of the abandoned base, causing the entire ground to shake!

"Hiss!

The group of people from the Academy instantly sucked in a breath of cold air, staring blankly at the vomiting Phoenix in the sky, especially Ba lie, their expressions extremely complicated!

He remembered that under the effects of the secret technique, the other party's spiritual power did not move at all. He already knew that the other party's spiritual power was not on the same level as his group of students, but he was still conservative!

This was clearly the spiritual power of a dragon! !

If this Phoenix had done this to him back then, his bones would probably have been shattered!

Spark Academy... . Really had a good card hidden up their sleeves!

The undead's hands were firmly pressed against the ground, trying his best to stand up. However, under the pressure of the invisible palm, the bones all over his body made a popping sound, but he was still unable to move at all!

"Interesting..."

On the undead's side, the leader, Sauta, saw the situation and rubbed his chin.

He chuckled and said, "Little Ai, this fellow is very similar to you..."

"Tsk... "in the team, a similarly short figure cut lightly and raised his hand!

In the next second, a terrifying wave of spiritual energy spread out. Below the undead that was suppressed by Grandpa Lu, an invisible force gradually raised its head and transformed into a huge palm, dragging the Suppressive Force on his body up, everyone could see with their naked eyes that the Suppressive Invisible Palm was forcefully lifted up by the newly-formed palm!

"It's that fellow! "Nanxi's voice was grave.

Everyone looked over and recognized that the one who had made a move was the same fellow who had forcefully used his spiritual energy to drag the wager of the Divine Arcana Academy over!

"I was almost crushed to death! "The undead on the ground slowly stood up and looked gloomily at the Phoenix in the sky. With a cold smile, the body that had been suppressed until it was almost deformed had actually recovered in an instant, seeing this, the hearts of the people from the academy trembled again. They cursed in their hearts, "Monster!" !

Their Hearts also turned cold!

Grandpa Lu's sudden performance had ignited a glimmer of hope in the hearts of everyone. However, from the looks of it now, it seemed that he was still being suppressed!

"Hey! "The short undead slowly walked out and looked at the sky. His voice was hoarse and cold as he said, "How much longer are you going to vomit?" Grandpa Lu: "Wula, Wula, Wula..."

"Is that so?"The short undead said indifferently, "Then I'll Ask Your Name

After You Die! "

As he said that, his eyes flashed. The huge palm that was dragging Grandpa Lu's spiritual power suddenly squeezed and directly crushed the invisible hand that Grandpa Lu suppressed!

The short undead stretched out a pair of skinny palms and gently closed them. In midair, two incomparably huge transparent palms suddenly appeared on both sides of Grandpa Lu. Clearly, it was also a phenomenon of powerful spiritual power taking shape, under everyone's astonished gazes, the short undead closed his palms and that pair of gigantic palms pressed down on Grandpa Lu without any hesitation. Between his palms, there was a huge wind pressure.., it was so strong that even the students of the high school could not open their eyes.

This terrifying power was more than ten times stronger than Ba lie who had just used a secret technique?

The group of people's faces turned pale when they saw this. To be able to display such terrifying power with just spiritual power, it was on a completely different level from them. Even the arrogant ba lie had a hint of despair flashing through his eyes at this moment.

This group of people... No. ... ! ... this group of undead was simply not something they could match up to!

Boom!

A huge sound wave spread out. No one knew whether it was because they were affected by the wind pressure or because they could not bear to see it, but they all subconsciously closed their eyes...

Retch...

However, just as everyone was feeling despair, that familiar sound of vomiting instantly made everyone's heart jump again, and they abruptly opened their eyes!

This is...

In midair, two huge palms stopped three feet away from the Phoenix!

Just like any previous attack on the Phoenix, the distance between the three feet was like that of a god. No matter how hard they tried, they could not cross

The short undead that launched the attack made a strange sound. He slowly took off his hood, revealing a beautiful face!

It was hard to imagine that a pair of skinny hands that had taken off the hood would actually have such a beautiful face!

"Interesting! "A green light flashed in her eyes as she clasped her hands together once more. In the next second, countless gigantic palms appeared in the sky. Layers upon layers, countless formless palms brought with them a power that was even more terrifying than before, they slapped towards her grandfather!

Everyone in the academy was numbed by what they saw. This kind of person was on a completely different level from them!

"This fellow... "

Among the undead, a figure that was about the same height as a member of the Shenao tribe chuckled and said, "If one were to construct a technique with such a level of spiritual power, their strength would be more than ten times stronger than before. In the end, only this fellow can directly use it naked! "

"You can do it if you have the capital she has... "sauta smiled, but in the next second, the smile on his face faded for the first time. His eyes, which were looking at the sky, also narrowed into slits... ..

The tall undead was stunned when he saw this. He looked over as well, and then he was stunned... ..

The spiritual power of their companion was indeed terrifying, but the opponent... .. The mental barrier that the Phoenix, which was obviously no longer in its state, could not break was even more exaggerated... ..

"What a magical guy... "Sauta said with a smile. .

Chapter 1735: Despair?

"Can you do it, Little Ai?"

In the ranks of the undead, the undead who was even taller than the Shenao clan chuckled and looked at the short undead with terrifying spiritual power!

"Shut up! ! "The short undead replied coldly and looked up at the Phoenix.

Ever since she awakened, there were only two people of the same level who had spiritual power that could rival her. The first was the fifth prince, Karma, the direct disciple of Spider Queen Rose! The second was the Crown Prince of the space elves, Tyrande, whom she had met once before!

It had to be said that the living world was really vast. There was actually such a person in a high school that had yet to enter the top ten!

“Wither!

The short undead slowly gathered his hands on his chest. His pair of green eyes emitted a strange and demonic light. As his hands and ten fingers rapidly constructed runes, complicated arrays were formed in an instant!

Seeing this scene, Amanda and Jane’s expressions became somewhat horrified!

As a powerful alchemy school, in the field of rune array formation, spark college admitted that it did not lose out to any top-tier universities. Even starry sky college might not necessarily have a specialty in this field compared to their college.

And in the field of rune array formation, the numerous law students of spark college were practically all top-notch experts!

After all, Spark Academy had a unique rune separation structure. If they weren’t proficient in rune arrays, they would get lost even when they went out. In this kind of environment, if the law students wanted to enjoy resources.., they had to reach the minimum passing level in this exaggerated array.

As for the exaggerated rune array above Spark Academy’s head, if they wanted to reach the passing level in other academies, they would need to reach the top level... ..

Under such circumstances, as the leading alchemists, Amanda and Jane had extraordinary attainments, but when they saw the rune array constructed by the other party, they immediately felt their scalps go numb...

The level of the rune array was clearly the same level as when their academy’s instructor gave them the arcane environment. The complexity of the array was so high, dozens of arrays connected quickly, and the energy operation was so smooth... Only when the tutor gave them a demonstration could it have such an effect...

Even... If one looked carefully, one would feel that even if the tutor came, he might not have such an effect... ..

Under the shocked eyes of the two, the array was quickly constructed, and in an instant, the effect appeared. A cold energy spread out along with the core of the opponent’s array, and the surrounding elements were instantly infected by the cold energy, the entire space dimmed, causing the living to feel an extremely uncomfortable chill!

On the surface, nothing seemed to have changed, but many people knew that the environment had changed, and the entire space had changed. There was something floating around, and something had invaded the world of the living!

“Wither?”

Jane’s ruby-like pupils revealed a look of shock, and beside her, Amanda’s pupils also shrank...

“Jane, Really? “Amanda gasped.

“It can’t be wrong... <per_0> . “Jane shook her head slightly. “I have an elder who has studied the subject. We even kept the place where the Necromancer died. This feeling can not be wrong now. It is exactly the same as when I was in that place... <per_0> . .”

These words let a few people who are close instantly heart a chill!

Wither... ! ... anyone who knew a little bit of history would know that this was the ultimate weapon used by the death realm to invade the living world!

The undead were originally very weak in the living world. They needed to rely on the living bodies here to barely use their energy. However, at that time,

Alsace’s army of undead had practically swept through the entire universe!

The reason was that this could affect the living world’s environment: Wither!

This was a secret technique developed by necromancers. They used the energy of the dead world to instantly affect the living world’s environment, turning the surroundings into the most comfortable environment for the undead. They could even convert the energy of the living world into the energy of the dead world!

Back then, countless sorcerers wanted to crack this secret technique and reverse the withering of the Undead Army. However, even after billions of eras had passed since the end of the natural disaster, the academic world was still unable to crack the withering!

However, they did not expect that an undead who claimed to be of the same generation as them actually possessed this secret technique!

Those who were familiar with history knew that this secret technique was only mastered by the most core lich under Arthas. Even the top-notch liches who later betrayed Queen XI did not manage to master this secret technique... ..

Moreover, it was said that the secret technique was complicated and often required thousands of liches to help build the basic runes. Then, the secret technique liches would release a large-scale decline of the undead army.

However, he did not expect that the undead in front of him could actually do what the entire Lich Army could do in the books!

What did this mean?

Although the area was not as large as what was recorded in history, this kind of ability to wither in a small area, did it mean that the undead had mastered the ability to do it in a small area?

If that was the case, then wouldn’t the living world lose its home field advantage to the undead in the death world?

But now, it was obviously too late to think about such a far-reaching matter...

The withered hands of the female undead quickly moved again, like a musician conducting a band. The elements in the entire space followed her rhythm and quickly formed a powerful convergence... ..

Soon, a pale blue crystal began to solidify in the air. Although it was a crystal, it carried a burning momentum and quickly swept towards the Phoenix in the air!

The crystal seemed to be able to solidify anything in the space. Everyone felt that their eyes were fixed on the outer layer, unable to see into the depths of the space!

“It’s the flames of the death realm! “Jane’s voice was filled with undisguised horror. ...

At this moment, it was completely confirmed that the opponent had used wither. Otherwise, the opponent would not have used the energy of the death realm in the living realm!

“We can’t let him burn that Phoenix... “the person who spoke was Nanxi, who was not far away. He looked at the Necromancer with an extremely cold gaze.

However, just as Nanxi’s leg muscles contracted, a sudden chill struck!

His entire body stiffened. Before he could feel where the chill came from, he heard an extremely cold voice beside his ear... ..

“I advise you... It’s best not to move...”

Nanxi’s entire body instantly stiffened. He slowly used the corner of his eye to look behind him, but he realized that there was nothing there. Puzzled, he followed the chill and slowly looked over. Only then did he see that, at the distance of several dozen battles.., among the group of undead, there was a tall and slender undead that was about the same size as him. Under the bamboo hat, a pair of green eyes looked at him indifferently!

After locking onto his target, Nanxi’s breathing froze. His entire body stiffened, and he didn’t dare to move!

The feeling that the other party gave him just now was as though a dagger had been placed at his throat. However, not only was the other party far away from him, he didn’t even have the intention to make a move. Just based on his aura alone, he felt as though he was suffocating!

In an instant, he knew that he wouldn’t stand a chance against that fellow!

This group... . . were all monsters! ! !

South Stream looked up at the Phoenix in the sky, his eyes filled with despair.

He had originally thought that the Phoenix that had suddenly appeared in Spark Academy was a turning point, as he was able to use the flame of the Red Lotus, and was actually very effective against the undead. If he hadn’t been restrained by that necromancer, the group surrounding the Phoenix might have had a chance to break out of the encirclement... ..

But now, they might not have the chance...

Today... was it really going to end like this?

Just as they were in despair, an unimaginable scene suddenly appeared in midair! !

The vomiting Phoenix faced the flames of the death realm that seemed like it was about to freeze the entire space.. It suddenly opened its beak wide and bit down on the phoenix like it was eating hail! !

Chapter 1736: Unravel! !

Crack, crack...

The entire space was frighteningly quiet, leaving behind only the crisp cracking sound, and this sound..! ... was also the source of the silence in the surroundings!

This time, including the undead, they were all staring blankly at the sky. Their expressions, which had always been indifferent, were now filled with astonishment. Even the frivolous smile on the leader, Sauta, had disappeared without a trace... In its place was an incomparably grave expression...

It was obvious that a prideful fellow like him was also frightened by the scene before his eyes... ..

Thinking about it, it made sense. Anyone who saw a fellow who ate the flame of the death realm as a biscuit would probably be frightened!

Crack, crack...

"I say..."

Ba lie swallowed his saliva and stared blankly at the sky. He said to the vice-captain of Spark Academy, Rhine, who was beside him, "This fellow...

just... just what kind of path does he take?"

Rhine's face was also blank, completely at a loss for words...

God knows what kind of strategy this guy has...

After a pause, he looked at Amanda and the others behind him.

This guy always liked to bully that Phoenix, so he should know more about it than himself, right?

Amanda felt the gaze of the vice-captain and immediately looked at Bilan with a complicated expression... ..

Why are you all looking at me? Bi Lan was speechless. He only got to know him today, alright?

However, facing everyone's gaze, Bi Lan felt that he should say something... ..

"Ahem..." after coughing lightly, bi lan straightened his face. "This... the flames of the death realm... should be... inedible, right?"

Everyone.

How could this fellow say such silly words?

“You speak as if the flames of the living realm are a dish in the recipe. Tell me where the flames can be eaten? “Amanda, who had the most crafty character, could not help but be the first to retort.

smiled bitterly. “But to this student of yours, the flames of the living realm seem to be something that can be eaten...”

Everyone.

Zizi!

Before everyone could ask any further questions, the sound of an enormous amount of energy gathering together once again pulled everyone’s gaze over!

It was the Necromancer who had released the flames of the death world!

Looking at the Phoenix in the sky who was eating the flames of the death world, the mage was momentarily stunned before he became incomparably furious. The movements of his hands were as if he was having a stroke as he constructed a new runic array at an extremely exaggerated speed, the speed was at least twice as fast as before!

Boom!

In the next second, the high-quality metal on the ground instantly rotted. Tentacles that were like liquid soared into the sky. They were clearly soft like mud, but they gave off an incomparably sharp feeling, even the alloy made by the ancient developers on the ground was easily pierced through!

“This is...”

The observant Jane and Amanda instantly recognized that this was the wood of the death realm!

The source of the withering pollution was the most infectious element in the universe known to the outside world!

Everyone, including Carmen, could only look over worriedly, but no one made a sound, because everyone knew that they couldn’t be of much help. The only one who could solve all of this was that fellow himself!

“Don’t worry...”

Just as everyone’s hearts were tensed to the extreme, Perrin spoke faintly... .

“What do you mean? “Amanda hurriedly asked.

Perrin raised her head and looked at the mud vines that filled the sky. With a faint expression, she said, “To that fellow... Pm afraid... Everything is in the recipe!

Amanda. ” ... ”

What was he saying?

Could it be... how was it possible?

Amanda almost subconsciously wanted to refute him. Even if that silly bird could magically devour the flames of the death realm, it was absolutely impossible for it to devour the wood of the death realm!

That was the most polluted death realm element that was universally acknowledged. It was a terrifying element that even the moon spring, the most purifying element of the elf race, could not purify!

But she could not say it out loud. After all... ? ... If that silly bird did not have the ability, wouldn't there be no hope at all?

With this thought in mind, Amanda once again stared blankly at the sky, looking at the Phoenix that was about to be devoured by the black vines in the sky... .

For the first time, a look of anticipation appeared in her heart towards the Silly Bird...

Perhaps... it could?

After all... If he could eat the death realm flame, an element with extremely high corrosive and high temperature, then... .. ? ... perhaps he could?

Since he was already so weird, why couldn't he be a little weirder?

Grandpa, who was eating the crystal fire, seemed to have been attracted by the black vines that filled the sky. He slowly turned his head around and opened his beak...

Was he really going to swallow it?

Below, including the undead, all of them stared with wide eyes!

However, in the next second, another unbelievable scene appeared. After opening his beak, a pale blue crystal was suddenly spat out from his mouth, turning into a sky full of pale blue snowflakes..., the black mud vines that were about to pierce through instantly froze!

Looking at this phoenix that could directly use the flames of the death realm, everyone fell into a daze once again...

GO!

Among the undead, the tall undead that always mocked mages had his mouth wide open, and his green eyes were wide open!

"Little Ai, this weirdo, you didn't lose unjustly! !"

Scram! "The female undead glared at him coldly, clapping her hands together. The runic formation that had been constructed earlier suddenly gathered together, and in the next second, a huge rune appeared under her feet! The Undead's expressions changed when they saw this scene!

"Damn, Little Ai, are you crazy? Are you using this move here?"

"Stop, Little Ai!" At this moment, even sauta, who seemed to be the leader of this group of undead, had a change in expression. He wanted to stop her, but at this moment, his invisible spiritual power was like a wall, separating the undead that wanted to stop her!

“Damn it! “Sauta cursed angrily and looked at the undead in another corner of the team. “UDIE, prepare to move!”

The undead in that corner nodded and took out a green crystal ball from his cloak...

At this moment, the faces of the people in the opposite academy were even more unsightly. Anyone could see that this undead mage was using a very terrifying spell!

“Heh, can the spatial device of Your Spark Academy be used?” Ba lie hurriedly asked.

“It can’t be used... “avatar directly replied coldly. “Just now, Jane and I were forcefully interrupted by you in the activation process of the refining array. Our spiritual power was damaged, and now we can’t activate any device. Where’s

Your Equipment Hand?”

The corners of Ba Lie’s mouth twitched. Their equipment hand? Didn’t they see that there weren’t even bones left?

“Damn it! !” Ba lie stared ahead. The group of undead didn’t seem to have any intention of giving way...
...

They could only go all out! !

Disregarding the unfathomable group of undead, Ba lie put on his gloves and transmitted his voice, “South Stream, Carmen, Let’s Go! !”

The distant Carmen nodded slightly. It was obvious that he knew that he had no choice but to go now...

With a furious roar, the two of them charged towards the mage with a whistling sound.

However, the strange thing was that the group of undead did not seem to have any intention of stopping them. They only looked on with a cold smile!

Boom!

In the next second, the huge bodies of the two captains seemed to have crashed into an iron wall. With a loud boom, the two captains realized that they could not advance even a single inch!

“Damn it! !” Ba Lie’s fist landed on the invisible wall, but he realized that there was not even a fist mark on it. It was exactly the same as when the Phoenix had separated him! !

Was it over just like that?

The two of them were the closest to each other. As they felt the energy that was about to surge out from the huge refining formation under their feet, as well as that bone-piercing cold feeling, a wave of helpless despair surged up in their hearts!

“Break!”

Suddenly, Grandpa Lu's pair of wings suddenly hugged together. The gorgeous pair of wings formed a strange mark when they intersected, and an ancient and ancient voice was spat out from Grandpa Lu's mouth!

Then, everyone was stunned to see the huge rune array under the necromancer's feet shatter like glass!

Chapter 1737 it's great that you're in our academy...

How is that possible?

The female necromancer who had been cold all this time finally couldn't hold it in anymore. She stared at the broken runes under her feet. This time, she didn't hide the shock in her eyes at all!

The refining array that she had constructed was forcefully disintegrated by someone!

It wasn't a violent destruction or external interference. She knew very well how her spell formation had collapsed. It had been forcefully reversed by someone!

A reversal from nine to zero!

Only her teacher had done such a thing, she didn't know how much higher her standard was to be able to do it, but she knew that this was definitely something that could only be achieved by a state of suppression!

"Retreat! ! "The Necromancer's voice was trembling slightly!

The many undead were stunned when they heard that, but they immediately looked at the sky and understood!

A huge rune array appeared in the sky. Those who knew a little bit of rune knowledge were able to identify it. The huge rune array in the sky was exactly the same as the one the female undead had prepared to use... .. ! It was exactly the same!

Clang! !

A cold glint flashed past. Unknowingly, within the huge energy whirlpool in the sky, a fleeting figure instantly approached Grandpa Lu at a strange angle. When a cold glint flashed out from his hand., in the academy, experts like Carmen, Nanxi, and Ba lie barely managed to react. Other than Nanxi, the other two were instantly shocked!

With such skills, if the target of the assassination was the two of them, they might not even be able to react in time!

As for Nanxi, who was also an assassin with high agility, he felt a little helpless amidst his shock.

When he was targeted by the other party just now, he knew that that guy was not someone he could deal with at all. However, when he really saw the other party's skills, he was still shocked.

He finally understood why the other party would treat them like they were playing a game and made a promise to let them go as long as they beat Mi Jia.

The reason was actually very simple. It was not because they trusted mi jia, but because they were extremely confident in their overall strength. They knew that even if mi Jia lost and let them all go.., it would not pose the slightest threat to them.

And judging from the level displayed by only two of the members, there was no problem with this confidence, because any one of them would probably have the ability to wipe them out! !

Nan Xi let out a deep breath and looked at the sky. Now... ! ... The only hope was that Strange Phoenix that had no intelligence before!

TSS! !

Under everyone's helplessness, they could only watch helplessly as that cold ray of light pierced towards their only hope... .

Come on, Little Guy! !

Ba lie clenched his fists tightly as he stared fixedly at the sky. His heart was burning with anxiety as he secretly said, "Bring out the imposing manner that you used to deal with me just now! !"

If someone were to read Ba Lie's thoughts at this moment, they would probably roll their eyes...

However, it was only human nature. Did they not notice that even Amanda, who usually despised her grandfather's native bloodline, was now staring at her grandfather with anticipation?

Finally, all expectations were met. That shocking cold light flashed and disappeared, leaving only a faint trace in the air. Meanwhile, the assassin who displayed such skill had unknowingly returned to the undead team...

Captain Sauta looked at him, and he slowly shook his head...

"How interesting..." Sauta immediately grinned and said, "I originally thought it was a boring mission, but I didn't expect such a pleasant surprise.

interesting... too interesting!"

"Captain... "suddenly, a gloomy voice came from the corner, "The spatial device has been activated, should we retreat?"

"Retreat! ! "Sauta waved his hand and said without hesitation!

As soon as he said that, a huge space rune instantly lit up.

"We'll meet again, everyone... "sauta bowed elegantly to everyone and said with a smile, "We'll meet again soon..."

Meanwhile, the female necromancer stared at Grandpa Lu who was above her and said in a cold voice, "This time... you win, but I won't let you win forever..."

Before she finished her words, a ray of black light shone down. A group of undead, including Mi Jia, who had a slightly unwilling expression on her face, directly disappeared from the spot under the cover of the Black Light.

After the group of undead disappeared, the group of people from the Academy was stunned for a few seconds before they finally reacted. In an instant, all of them sat weakly on the ground, including Ba Lie, who had always been tough. At this moment, he did not put on any pretense and sat weakly on the ground, his face was filled with the expression of someone who had survived a disaster!

Suddenly, Amanda thought of something and hurriedly looked up!

The tactics that that silly bird used to scare off the undead was extremely shocking. Once it was released, even if the position was not aimed at them, it would still affect them!

However, when she raised her head to look up, she was stunned once again!

The huge rune array in the air was disappearing one by one, as if a machine was being disassembled, slowly returning to its source in an exquisite and orderly manner...

“Oh my God... “Jane’s voice came from the side, “It seems that we’ve really misjudged him. The guy that teacher forced in is a huge dark horse! ”

“Tsk... “Amanda was unwilling to accept it, but she did not continue to refute. As alchemists, they all knew how exaggerated the other party’s current operation was!

The structure of the spell was extremely complicated, but when it was about to be released, this guy could actually calmly reverse flow and lift weights as if they were light. Clearly, his rune attainments were not on the same level as the two of them!

If they were to ask themselves, if it were the two of them, with the combined efforts of the two of them and a complete support Warlock team, it would probably take them more than an hour to prepare for this level of spell formation...

Moreover, they might not even be able to guarantee a 100% completion, let alone reverse the flow when it was about to be released. This kind of operation was something that they didn’t even dare to think about! After all, for this kind of complex energy shaping spell formation, if one of its structures were to collapse, there was a risk of self-destruction!

As for the people from the Divine Arcana Academy, they looked up at the sky with complicated expressions on their faces.

Of course, it wasn’t a good thing for their rival academy to have such a terrifying trump card. However, if it weren’t for this guy, they would most likely be in deep trouble...

Just as everyone was feeling different emotions, Grandpa Lu, who had completely reversed the flow of the technique in midair, finally let out a sigh of relief. He looked down sneakily and said, “He should have been scared away,

Everyone.

“Oh... I was scared to death! “Grandpa Lu flapped his wings and looked down at his teammates who had fallen to the ground. “I said, what are you guys doing? You guys didn’t come to help me when you saw that guy sneak-attack me?” Everyone. ” ... ”

“Wei! “Carmen, who was standing at the foot of Grandpa Lu’s hair, reacted and grinned. “It’s all thanks to you this time. Well done. Without You, I’m afraid we would have all died here today... ”

As he spoke, he straightened his body and bowed to Grandpa Lu. “It’s really great that you’re able to join our Spark Academy! ” “Captain... “Grandpa Lu looked at him with a face full of gratitude. “I... Euler... Euler...”

Before he could finish his words, everyone stared at the Phoenix, who was originally moved. Then, with a look of vomiting, the lava-like red lotus flame poured down on Carmen, who was bowing to him....

Chapter 1738: those two weren’t just some random fish

“How long... is this guy going to vomit for?”

Carmen, who was struggling to walk out of the red lotus karmic fire that was spewing out of his grandfather’s body, patted the marks on his body and sniffed them from time to time. He didn’t know if it was just an illusion, but he felt that the remaining flames on his body had a bad breath... ..

Everyone looked at their grandfather, who had no intention of stopping in mid-air, and then looked at Bi Lan... ..

“Why are you all looking at me?” Bi Lan was speechless. “That’s your teammate, okay?”

“Uh... “everyone from Spark Academy was also speechless. What the other party said... . It seemed to make sense. The key was... .. They really didn’t understand this guy... ..

“Ha... Your Academy has produced an interesting guy... “Ba Lie clapped his hands and looked at the sky. No one knew what he was thinking.

Carmen looked at the other party coldly and said calmly, “I think Captain Ba Lie, since you have the time to pay attention to our teammates, why don’t you pay more attention to yourself?”

As he spoke, he pointed at the two people on the ground.

One of them was Bator, whose body was so twisted that it was impossible to tell if he was dead or alive. The other one was the one who had just lost the bet, the team doctor from the Divine Arcana Academy, Emily!

At this moment, Emily was looking at the ground in silence. Her expression was numb, and no one knew what she was thinking about.

Bator looked at her and asked directly, “Can Bator still be saved?”

Emily raised her head and looked at the captain numbly, she shook her head and said, "His muscles, bones, and muscles have been severely damaged, and his body has been completely deformed. If he wants to repair this body, he needs to be at least a level-15 professional surgeon, and he also needs a very professional equipment. This place doesn't have it, so he can only use stimulants to forcefully prolong his life... "..."."

Barlie immediately frowned. The other party was in such a miserable state, and he wanted to use stimulants? This woman really dared to say that using stimulants in such a state would be worse than death?

But he also knew that if he didn't do it, Barlie might really die here!

"Go ahead..."in the end, Barlie nodded.

After Emily's Numb face turned to look at Barlie, a hint of excitement appeared in her eyes... .

As for the others, they looked away. They were obviously not interested in this scene where their bodies were twisted into a pile of meat...

"What should we do next?" Bartok looked at Carmen. "I feel that those guys shouldn't have gone far. If we go out of the base, there's a high chance that we'll be ambushed..."

Carmen heard the face also became heavy, looked in the direction of the coming...

Outside the abandoned base, as Barry said, the spirits of the dead that had been transferred were indeed waiting not far from the base...

"Captain..."

In the ranks of the dead, the skilled assassin said, "Are we giving up the base just like that?" "We spent a lot of effort to find it, and we also spent a lot of effort to activate the lighting system inside. We're only one step away..." " " "

"The last step is just your imagination..."sauta stretched lazily, "In fact, you don't know how many more steps we need to take to find the Tinder, do you?"

"But even if you say so... you shouldn't give it away so easily, right?". The tallest undead in the team rubbed his chin. "After all... with four coordinates, our place is the most likely to produce the tinder fragment..."

"So What?" Sauta smiled. "Didn't you see what happened just now?" "That Phoenix can directly reverse little APS alchemy array, and it can even duplicate it. In addition, that Phoenix's spiritual energy is even stronger than Little Ai's. Isn't it courting death if we fight it head-on in that underground base?"

The female necromancer raised her eyebrows when she heard that the Phoenix was stronger than her, but in the end, she did not say anything. It was useless to not admit something. That Phoenix's spiritual power was indeed stronger than hers.

"If we activate the Black Knight Device, we should be able to win..."in the team, the long-haired necromancer who was in charge of opening the spatial device said gloomily.

“Isn’t everyone gone?” saouta laughed and said, “We all feel that there’s no need for us to open the device. From the beginning, there was no intention to activate the device. It was so sudden just now, how could we have the time?”

Shouldn’t you be responsible for being careless? “The long-haired Specter said.

“UH... cough cough... hahaha, there’s no need to be so serious about that... “Saouta immediately rubbed his head and laughed, then he pointed to the abandoned base and said, “There’s only one space portal here, and the other side can’t escape. If there really is debris down there, wouldn’t it be the same for us to wait for it?” After all... <per_0> . The living... <per_0> . Easier to get the Shard, isn’t it?”

“You are the captain, you call the shots... “the long-haired ghost is still cold way.

“Tsk... . What an unlikable character...” sauta pursed his lips, however, he immediately looked towards the sky. “I wonder how the other teams are doing? I wonder if they have encountered interesting fellows like us. Oh, right...” “Right. Saouta looked towards Mi Jia, who was at the end of the team. “Mi Jia, I heard that the demon star in Tirefarson is very powerful, right? “You’ve stayed there for ten years. How do you feel, that guy?”

Mi Jia lifted her head and replied indifferently, “That’s it. He has the talent to pass through the shadow region. His direct strength is about the same as Carmen’s...”

“Oh?” Saouta instantly lost interest. “Then Bing Mi and the others seem to be going very smoothly...”

“It might not be very smooth...” mi JIA shook her head. “In the current team of Tirefarson, the strongest is not that demon star, but another newcomer...” “Is he very powerful?” Sa Wuta’s interest was immediately piqued.

“Very powerful...” mi jia nodded.

“How Powerful?” The Big Guy at the side also came over and asked.

“If it’s a head-on fight...” mi Jia hesitated for a moment, and finally said, “The captain should not be able to win...”

“Oh? Really?” Sa Wuta looked at the other party excitedly. “How did you

“Last month...” mi Jia took a deep breath and said, “That guy got into a fight with the crown prince in the bronze royal family. Three descendants of the royal family plus the Crown Prince had no resistance in front of her at all!”

“Damn...” Saouta instantly patted mi JIA’s head. “There’s such a powerful guy, why didn’t you tell me earlier?”

“I’m not the captain, I’m not interested in hard bones...” mi JIA said faintly. “I prefer to come here to settle old scores with my old friends...”

“TSK TSK...” sauta immediately spread out his hands. “It’s not easy to bring along a team member with smuggled goods...” pausing for a moment, he suddenly looked at the long-haired undead. “Right, which district did Foyego

“Ah Pui! Pm your boss, you traitor, can you at least respect your captain?”

The other party directly ignored his words and said indifferently, “Boss went to the West Gate...”

“West Gate?” Sauta tilted his head and asked, “Which two teams are at the West Gate?”

“There are three teams at the West Gate... “the long-haired undead corrected him, “In addition to the ELF Academy of Atlan and the main family’s bronze academy, there’s also the School of Dawn...”

“Dawn?” Sauta rolled his eyes. “The school that got in through connections?”

Don’t you need to emphasize this kind of trash?”

the team, the assassin suddenly spoke. “The school that only has one man and one woman?”

“You’re familiar with it?” Sauta looked at the assassin.

“I’m not even familiar with it... “the assassin shook his head. “But... Those two aren’t trash.... “

Chapter 1739: West City...

“What do you mean?”

Sauta was obviously very interested in the undead assassin’s words... ... “Didn’t you ask me to track the teams in four directions in the beginning?”

“Yes... “the burly man beside him nodded. “Isn’t this kind of mission usually given to you? Who asked you to have that kind of talent?”

Mi Jia looked at the other party. As a newcomer, he had only recently become familiar with this person.

Demon Shadow: Black Wheel, the strongest assassin in the four teams.

Moreover, he also had an extremely unique talent, which was shadow clone... ...

The shadow of black wheel could replace his real person, while black wheel could have many shadows. These shadows, each of their skills were comparable to top assassins... And you never knew whether the person standing in front of you was his real body or his shadow, including now...

Perhaps even Captain Sauta was not sure whether the person standing in front of them was his real body! Or a shadow!

“Why did you target those two guys?” This time, the one who asked the question was the female necromancer with an exaggerated mind power. Apparently, she was also interested in black wheel’s words.

“It’s a separate academy with only two people. Plus, the two of them are left behind. It’s very suitable for them to infiltrate... “the assassin replied indifferently.

The undead immediately understood and nodded.

That was indeed the case. According to the intelligence, the two people from the Morning Light Academy were complete rookies. In addition, they were not from the top hundred academies, so there was very little information. There was no detailed information on their personalities, so it was very easy for them to be disguised... .

Black Wheel had the best makeup skills, and his shadow art could completely imitate the muscles and bones of others. It was indeed a very good choice to disguise as the two rookies and join the team.

“What happened in the end?” Sauta asked curiously.

“He was killed...” black wheel replied with his eyes narrowed... .

The moment he said that, all the undead were stunned. They looked over, and even Sauta was a little surprised. “He was killed? He didn’t even have time to recover?”

Black Wheel’s talent was extremely difficult to deal with. Not only did the split shadow have an extremely strong individual combat ability, but it could also be recovered at any time. As long as the main body felt that the shadow was in danger, it could be recovered with a thought.

It was a very shameless BUG skill. Many times, he felt that this monster skill was not very reasonable...

But the place was killed?

“Too fast...” black wheel narrowed his eyes and recalled the last video message before the shadow disappeared. ...

“That woman’s sword speed is very exaggerated. I didn’t expect such a person to exist in an unknown school. It was gone in an instant!”

“Damn...” sauta immediately touched his chin and smiled. “This is a gathering of dark horses. Not Bad, not bad. It seems that it’s getting more and more interesting...”

“Yunji, what was that?”

At this time, has quickly walked to the city gate of Wang Chengbo some frowned asked.

“Not clear...” cloud herder ji also frowned shook his head.

The guy who suddenly attacked them just now was very strange. She was sure that her sword didn’t miss, but the fact was that there was nothing left at the scene...

Encountering such a strange thing before entering the so-called dungeon, a bad feeling suddenly rose in her heart.

“Chengbo, this place might not be as safe as the instructors said. That person just now gave me a very dangerous feeling...”

“En...” Wang Chengbo also nodded. The guy who appeared just now gave him an inexplicable sense of threat. This sense of threat was very familiar, as if he had encountered it before. ...

“You stay close to me...”yun mu ji said, “I can support you at any time. I keep feeling that something is wrong here...”

“Okay!” Wang Chengbo immediately smiled and leaned over happily...

Yun Mu Ji looked at Wang Chengbo’s happy expression and pursed her lips. Then, she looked ahead and said, “You said Feng Doudou left a mark for US just now?”

“Yes...” Chengbo nodded. “It’s a mark left by Boss Rain. That guy wanted to leave a road sign for us. He probably left it for us because he was afraid that we wouldn’t be able to find the way, but...”

“But what?” Yunji mu asked curiously.

“But this mark was left halfway...” Wang Chengbo narrowed his eyes and said, “The mark was left in a hurry. I think something happened...”

“Why do you say that?” Yunji mu frowned and asked.

Feng Doudou, if something happened to that guy, things would be a bit troublesome... ..

“There are two pairs of deep footprints at the place where the mark was left. Obviously, Feng Doudou and the other person stayed there for a long time. I think they were waiting for us, but for some reason, the two of them suddenly decided not to wait. Feng Doudou also left a mark. Something urgent must have happened...” . ” ...”

While they were talking, Yun Mu Ji suddenly stopped in front of them. Wang Chengbo asked curiously, “What’s Wrong?”

“We’re here...” Yun Mu Ji looked ahead and saw a huge teleportation formation.

Wang Chengbo was stunned. He looked at the formation and frowned. Something’s wrong...”

“Yeah...” Yun Mu ji nodded. Theoretically, there should be a teacher guarding the teleportation formation, but there was nothing here. It gave people an inexplicable cold feeling... ..

“Senior, are you sure this is the place?” Feng Doudou and Reina quickly arrived at a location in the West District. It was a huge underground market that was as complicated and huge as a maze, there were all kinds of tall stands and exquisite decorations. It could be seen that this place used to be a very prosperous area.

But now, it was dead silent, giving people a feeling of emptiness and coldness.

Reyna walked in front, squinting to activate the totem in his body and looking around vigilantly.

Originally, the two of them had been made difficult by the captain and were left outside to receive Yunji and Yunji. But suddenly, a distress signal was sent from the spiritual link.

Without hesitation, the two of them gave up the reception and rushed to the place where the distress signal was sent.

But here... .. There was nothing. It was so quiet that it was as if there was no sign of life... .

“The source of the signal is here...” Reina lowered her voice and said, “And even now, I can feel that Paris’s spiritual power is still here...”

Feng Doudou furrowed his brows and looked at the other party. Paris was the team's spiritual master and healer. She was the first assistant and was the most important person to be protected. It was impossible for her to be alone.

If Paris was here, then logically speaking, the entire team should be here. Why did senior Reina only say Paris was here?

"Over there! eyes suddenly lit up as she rushed in a direction. Feng Doudou quickly followed.

Soon, both of them stopped in their tracks. Both Reina and Feng Doudou's expressions became extremely ugly!

In front of their eyes... .. That scene was something they had never expected...

Chapter 1740: horror...

"Paris..."

Reina froze on the spot, her eyes wide open as she looked ahead. Under the carved metal wall, a familiar figure was sitting quietly like a statue, not moving at all.

Her expression was stiff, and her entire face was deathly black. She looked lifeless./

"Paris..." Reina took a step forward. Other than shock and terror, there was also a hint of mercy and caution on her face

"Senior..." finally, Feng Doudou, who had been following behind Reina, took a step forward. He used one hand to stop Reina, who was still in a daze, and his expression became extremely serious and cold.

"I advise you... It's better not to get close..."

Hearing this, Reina's body stiffened, but she still quickly said, "Doudou, we have to save her. Paris is the number one doctor in the team, and it means a lot.

She can't be eliminated...

"Eliminated?" Feng Doudou sighed and slightly pulled out the sharp sword that Reina had lent him. "In this situation, senior, do you still think that this is a competition? Senior, please understand the reality..." Feng Doudou pointed at the person who was sitting on the ground. "That senior named Paris is already dead...

Perhaps... It's worse than death...

Feng Doudou narrowed his eyes and recalled some bad memories

Back when the new world was polluted, many of the creatures that were polluted by the black goat's energy were the same as Paris...

“Impossible...” Rayna shook her head, he walked over and said, “This trial is monitored by the seniors of our academy. The seniors in charge of monitoring are all mighty figures. It’s impossible for them to allow students to die. If it had happened, this trial would have ended long ago... &per_o&gt; .

Feng Doudou looked at Rayna walk past the figure, did not continue to persuade, she has been clear that a truth, many people rely on words is difficult to persuade...

As for the trials?

I’m afraid it’s been terminated...

When she came in through the gate just now, she felt something was wrong when there was no so-called senior waiting for her at the gate. I’m afraid. Something big has happened...

‘Paris, how do you feel? Is it a curse? Damn it!’ Rayna crouched down. Very professional put on the rune gloves, touched the other side of the heart position, but also the first time to open the spirit, want to find the root of the curse

But... ... There was nothing at all. Her hand only felt cold, and there wasn’t the slightest sign of a living person. After activating her spiritual sense, all she could see was gray, and she couldn’t see any spiritual path at all

“Paris...” Reina’s heart went cold, and her hands that were close to her trembled slightly. Her professional first aid knowledge told her that the body before her had already stopped functioning

But... How was this possible?

Just as she was thinking, she wanted to resist everything in front of her, but when she raised her head, she suddenly felt an inexplicable fear...

Paris was still sitting quietly, and her expression did not seem to move. The heart that had stopped beating and the blood that had stopped flowing also told her that the body in front of her could not move, but Just now... ... Was this Paris’ expression?

Reina saw that the corner of Paris’ mouth seemed to split open in a very strange arc. For some reason, her numb and cold eyes seemed to carry an inexplicable malice, as if she was a malevolent ghost!

Was it a psychological effect?

Just as Reina’s body stiffened, Feng Doudou, who had been standing quietly behind her, suddenly opened his mouth.

“Senior Reina, you don’t have to doubt whether you’re seeing things, it’s just what you think...”

Reina • ”

“Doudou... Don’t joke at this time...” Reina’s hands slowly moved away from Paris’s body, her voice trembling.

However, everyone could tell that she was frightened...

However, as soon as these words came out of her mouth, Reina, who had been staring at Paris' face, could clearly see that Paris, who was already dead, had the corners of her mouth open wider and wider, and the malice in her eyes was becoming more and more obvious!

This strange scene immediately made Reina's hair stand on end. All the muscles in her body instantly tensed up, and she subconsciously wanted to escape!

Just as Rayna was about to escape, Paris seemed to have sensed it. The corner of her mouth suddenly split open, revealing her incomparably sharp fangs, which carried waves of black gas, like a living corpse that had crawled out of hell, she suddenly pounced towards Rayna, who was just inches away from her!

It was unknown whether it was because she was too frightened or for some reason, Rayna suddenly felt powerless to escape. In an instant, her spiritual power was only left with fear and retreat.

She had completely forgotten that she was still a level-12 priestess! !

Whoosh! !

Just as Reina felt that she was about to be completely devoured, a cold light instantly lit up. It flashed in the middle of the extremely close distance between the two, like a natural chasm that separated the terrifying space.

In the next second, Reina felt someone pull the back of her neck, and her entire body floated up!

In an instant, Reina was brought tens of feet away, and Paris, who had suddenly pounced on her, froze on the spot. In the next second, her head flew up high!

"Hu... Hit..."

Reina, who had been saved, instantly collapsed on the ground after Feng Doudou let go of her. She was so excited that she was gasping for breath, and cold sweat rolled down her back!

"Undead! !

Reina gritted her teeth and spat out those two words. She was extremely scared!

"Doudou, be careful. I'm afraid there's something else around!"

After Reina reacted, she immediately displayed her extremely high quality!

She was so weak just now. It was definitely not because she was really scared. It was because Paris had some sort of spirit-type fear spell on her. The moment she touched her, she was immediately affected by the fear effect, only then would his muscles be unable to exert their strength normally. Only then would he be able to watch as Paris, who had turned into a living corpse, bit him!

Furthermore, Paris's fangs had clearly been modified by a creature. Once he was bitten, the consequences would be unimaginable!

All the federation disciples knew that if they were infected by the power of the undead, they would really die!

Facing Reina's reminder, Feng Doudou directly looked towards a corner of the hall. He slowly walked towards Reina, who had yet to recover her bodily functions. He said indifferently, "Senior, rest assured and recover. I know..."

Reina was stunned for a moment and looked at Feng Doudou's back. She was a direct descendant of the bronze family. Although she was a woman, her body was still much thicker than Feng Doudou's. If she stood up, she would be at least twice as tall as Feng Doudou.

However, at this moment, Feng Doudou's extremely thin and weak figure gave her a feeling of incomparable peace...

PA! PA! PA!

In the next second, an extremely short figure slowly walked out from the shadows in the corner where Feng Doudou was looking. His face was worthy of that petite figure, and he looked like a baby...

"Good move!"

The baby looked at Feng Doudou with a cute smile on his face, revealing sharp fangs....
