Chapter 1771: getting used to it, that's it

What was that thing?

Yao Xing sensed the aura from afar and quickly hid in the shadow plane, looking into the distance.

Looking at the dented steel floor, Yao Xing sucked in a breath of cold air. This was an ancient metal, wasn't this physical power at the level of a Dragon?

And who are these people. Why do they look like... .. So Undead?

In the academy that came this time, only their Tyrifson had undead. After all, there weren't many academies in this world that could accept undead... ..

Why would Xiao Jia come here? To specifically provoke such a group of people?

Looking at the dog egg that was hammered by the gigantic creature's arm, Yao Xing was nervous but not panicking. He knew that Xiao Jia was also a monster!

Boom! !

Another loud sound was heard, and the skinny undead laughed strangely and retreated. Then, he looked at his bloody fist and said, "It's quite tough! "

"Huh?"The female undead and the bald man looked over and found that the fist on the arm of the mutated creature had almost exploded, as if... .. He didn't gain any advantage... ..

The smoke dispersed, and a figure covered in black scales slowly walked out.

His eyes were burning with flames as he looked at the figure and said coldly,

"You 're not going to fight anymore?"

Suddenly, a malevolent smile appeared on his skinny face. He clenched his fists, and immediately, the churning flesh and blood from his chest quickly piled up towards his arm. The arm exploded with a bang, leaving behind only a bloody skeleton. However, in the next second., the churning flesh and blood once again hugged the skeleton tightly, turning it into incomparably sturdy muscles, completely arming the entire arm!

In a world that couldn't even breathe for half a breath, the gigantic arm instantly transformed. The pair of arms turned green and black, and the squirming lines of the muscles revealed a terrifying pressure. It was very obvious that the newly formed arm was even more powerful than the previous one!

"This little fellow is really something. He's forced the unexpected to reveal his trump card... "the Bald Head said faintly.

The female undead narrowed her eyes. The unexpected arm was actually able to withstand such a level of mutation. It seemed like the strength of the soul had been strengthened once again... ..

Ghouls could adapt to all kinds of mutated bodies, but it was not without a price. The stronger the biological weapon, the greater the side effect of the soul distortion. The price of a biological arm of such abrupt degree was probably not small!

“Captain...” abrupt chuckled as he looked at foyego. “If I kill her, Pm very interested in her body. Can I use it to strengthen it?”

“Sure! “Foyego smiled and said, “If you can do it... ”

“Hehe! “Wu suddenly laughed weirdly when he heard that. A trace of madness flashed in his eyes. His greenish-black arm expanded once again and charged towards Goudan!

This time, the wind brought by the light caused the ground to slightly distort. The terrifying force was obviously far stronger than before!

Yao Xing, who saw this scene from afar, had a grave expression on his face. This undead monster actually held back?

Bang!

The huge arm smashed onto Goudan’s body once again. With Goudan as the center, the one kilometer steel ground instantly collapsed. The terrifying force directly formed a hurricane, it forced the female undead and Baldy, who were standing on the side of the sudden attack, to take a few steps back involuntarily!

This lunatic!

With such strength, he was not afraid of completely destroying his spirit body!

Suddenly, the female undead’s complaining words froze. She could see that under such power, this time, she was not able to send her opponent flying like before... .. In fact...

The smoke dispersed, and the huge greenish-black arm was held firmly by a dragon claw. It could not move at all. The terrifying power caused the entire ground to distort, but it was unable to make that petite figure take even a step back!

Wu’s originally savage smile froze on his face as he looked at the other party with a strange expression.

How could this be?

“HMM... it’s quite powerful... “the black dragon nodded slightly. The Dragon

Claw that was holding onto the huge arm was lifted up gently. The veins on Wu’s body bulged as he exerted his strength once again. The ground caved in a few meters with a bang!

However, it was still useless. The pair of huge arms was still unable to suppress the Dragon Claw as it slowly lifted up!

“That’s it? “Dog Egg tilted his head and asked coldly.

Suddenly, his crazy face stiffened and he said in disbelief, "How did you do it? Just now..."

Just now, she could not bear his strength... .

"Oh... Pm not used to it at first... After all, this is the first time Pve met someone with such great strength like you... But... "dog egg looked at him coldly. "You'll get used to it eventually! "

Abruptly. " ... "

Just... was it because he wasn't used to it?

Before he could think about it carefully, he felt a sharp pain in his arm. The huge biological arm that had fused with his soul suddenly twisted like a fried dough twist!

A wave of violence that he had never encountered before swept over him. abruptly, his expression changed, and he desperately tried to break free. Ghouls and bodies were highly bound, and when the other party twisted his body, he was also twisting his soul, the double torture nearly caused Wu Tu to collapse!

This was the disadvantage of ghouls. A mutated soul and powerful biological technology could form an extremely violent biological power. However, the disadvantage was that when they were absolutely suppressed, the damage they received would be doubled!

"Save me, Muncie!"Wu Tu suddenly screamed in pain...

The Baldy behind the undead quickly took down the huge rune book behind him. With a gentle flip of his hand, the rune book opened. Instantly, a blue rune appeared above Goudan, and a blue light instantly shone down and froze goudan!

"This is..."

Yao Xing, who was far away, was shocked when he saw this!

Runic imprisonment!

Yao Xing looked at the Bald Man in disbelief. That iconic runic book, the runic syllables that directly appeared, and the power that could directly imprison others.

It was clearly the runic book of the ancient Aerida Civilization!

This thing was already extinct, right?

Yao Xing remembered that history class had mentioned that the special spell of this rune book had been lost along with the extinction of the Arida race... ..

"Damn it, make your move earlier! "Wu Tu complained.

The bald undead laughed, "If you didn't say it, how would I know that you couldn't hold on anymore?"

Wu Tu's face instantly turned black. Obviously, he knew that the other party was teasing him, so he ignored him and looked at eggface hatefully, "This monster... "

As he spoke, he was about to pull out his arm, but to his surprise, his arm didn't move at all!

“Muncie... “suddenly, he was a little shocked.

The bald undead also looked over with a serious expression. Runic imprisonment was a high-level skill in the runic book. The moment it was used, the other party’s power would be completely cut off by the mysterious runic power, but why couldn’t he pull out his arm?

“You Want These Hands?” A cold voice came from within the blue runes, immediately causing the undead to be greatly shocked!

“Then tell me first, where’s Goudan?”

“Munsey! !” Suddenly, he cried out in horror!

The bald undead’s expression was incomparably grave as he placed his hand on the runic book. Instantly, an even larger rune appeared above Goudan’s head, one after another, finally forming three layers of runes that covered the sky, the enormous runic power enveloped Goudan with a humming sound! Zi...

His strength had clearly increased, but this time, he couldn’t even temporarily control it... ..

The sky-blue runic light beam was instantly filled with spider web-like cracks. In the next second, it directly shattered with a bang, and the runic power instantly dissipated. The bald undead abruptly took two steps back as he stared blankly at his opponent!

After the light beam dissipated, a dragon claw was still tightly gripping the abrupt arm!

“Quite an interesting power... “Wang Goudan looked at the runic power floating in the sky and then looked coldly at the stunned bald man. His tone was still as cold as ever. “But Pm used to it.... and that’s it!”

Chapter 1772: What an excellent seed...

As for anti-magic, many basic biology classes would explain it. After a long period of evolution to overcome the environment, the body would naturally develop resistance to natural elements, such as fire resistance and cold resistance. As long as a creature could survive in that environment, it would eventually develop the corresponding anti-magic, which was also known as adaptation... ..

A creature’s adaptability was very strong. Given enough time, it could adapt to almost any attribute or environment in the universe. And those creatures that died out because of the environment mostly didn’t have enough time to adapt...

Therefore, in the strength of a creature, adaptability was a very big standard. There were some creatures that had incredible adaptability. Usually, after a battle, those that had never come into contact with some attributes would have a lot of resistance... There were not many such creatures in the universe, but as the ceiling, the dragon race had this kind of talent...

The bald undead stared blankly at the guy who had forcefully walked out from the seal of runes. In his heart, he recalled the first time he learned resistance lessons. At that time, there was a famous instructor who said that.., pure runic energy was the best way to test a creature's resistance. The earlier one could adapt to the pressure of pure runic energy, the stronger the resistance of the creature.

During the test, the instructor gave a very large data table. There were many familiar top-tier creatures, such as the Titan Snake, the starry sea insect race, the Black Hole Dragon Whale, and among them, the dragon race that was the ceiling creature.., the instructor also gave the data. He remembered that the record of the top-tier Pentashade Dragon race was eleven seconds!

How many seconds did that girl use just now?

Before the bald man could think of an answer, a shrill scream came from the front. Suddenly, a shriveled, ghostly figure twisted into a ball. It was obvious that it had suffered a great deal of pain. If one looked forward, they would see.., his huge biological arms were twisted like a twist. Countless tendons popped out from his skin and squirmed like snakes. A large amount of blood sprayed out along with the shattered flesh. It looked extremely horrifying!

Just as the spiral force was about to spread along his arms and twist Wu Wu into a fried dough twist, a green light flashed, and suddenly, a pair of arms were neatly chopped off!

Wu suddenly knelt on the ground and let out a mournful wail. His entire twisted face had clearly been forcefully enduring the pain just now, but at this moment, it was as if he could not hold it in anymore, and his emotions directly collapsed!

And the person who had helped cut off that pair of arms was the fifth King's captain, Foyego.....

At this moment, he was completely focused on the little girl who was covered in black dragon scales in front of him. He was full of interest, but he did not seem to notice the mournful wail behind him...

The bald man and the female undead silently looked at each other, and a complicated feeling rose in their hearts!

They all knew that the sudden wail wasn't just because of the pain in their arms. In terms of pain, it wouldn't be any more painful than when they had been twisted into a mess.

This wail was more... despair! !

Ghouls were such a complicated existence. High-strength souls allowed them to perfectly combine with all sorts of mutated biological weapons, achieving neural reactions that were even more sensitive than living creatures. However, the drawback was.., when a highly bound soul was damaged by a weapon, the damage to the soul would also be very severe.

This pair of biological arms allowed Wu to possess the strongest physical strength in the team. However, after being cut off, his soul would probably be cut in half... ..

An undead that had lost half of its spirit body would only have a premature aging period waiting for it. Its growth would stop there, and the outcome of being eliminated would be a foregone conclusion... ..

Foyego had not looked at it since it cut off its arm because... .. At this moment, there was no longer any value in looking at it anymore. Helping it just now was already considering the friendship of its last teammate... .

The Bald Man and Lingji were silent about this result. Purgatory was such a cruel place. One step at a time, one would carefully walk to the top, and one moment of carelessness would cause one to fall into the abyss and be smashed into pieces. As for you who fell... No one cared. Just like now, all the captain's interest was placed on that powerful prey... ..

They could feel that the captain... ! ... had already regarded that girl as the best teammate to replace the abrupt one!

"Powerful girl... Your Strength is amazing!" Foyego slowly stepped forward and bowed elegantly. The etiquette was a bit like the etiquette of the energy clan, but it had a more withered beauty than the elf etiquette.

"Who are you?" Wang Goudan did not attack directly this time. Instead, he stood where he was. The scales all over his body were tensed up as he looked at the other party with a serious expression.

Those who were familiar with Goudan's personality would definitely be surprised because this was the first time Goudan had taken the initiative to ask for someone else's name since he became a dragon.

The genes of dragons carried an incomparable sense of superiority. Wang Goudan, who inherited this sense of superiority, rarely respected people around him, especially people of the same age. Because the weak genes in front of the dragon clan were difficult to arouse respect...

And when a dragon took the initiative to ask the name of another creature, there were only two reasons. The first reason was that the opposite was also a dragon, and the second reason... .. Was because the opposite had genes that were comparable to dragons!

To be honest, this was also the first time Wang Goudan had such a feeling. He had this sense of importance that came from genes... ..

In the face of the inquiry, Foyego smiled gently, he bowed again. "I, Foyego Yongshuang, the fifth King of Purgatory: the Chief family of His Highness The Broken King, the powerful Black Dragon, join us and become that Lord's slave. You will get everything you can not imagine! "

Slave? "Wang Goudan grinned. "What else can I get if I'm already a slave? You look pretty powerful, but why do you look like your brain isn't working properly?"

Foergo smiled. "Because that Lord wants everyone in the world to be the first to serve him..."

"He's just a dog..." Wang Goudan curled his lips, grabbed his dragon claw, and narrowed his eyes. "Let me ask you, where's Li Goudan? Did you attack her?"

"Li Goudan?" Foergo's gentle smile paused for a moment. What an interesting name, and then his smile did not diminish. "Is it a wind demon?"

"It's really you guys!" Wang Goudan's pupils constricted, and black and red flames soared into the sky!

“F * ck!”

The bald undead behind him pulled the female undead and the ones on the ground back quickly. With a face full of surprise, he said, “How can there be such a thing? Isn’t this thing the unique talent of Black Dragons?”

The female undead who was pulled back frowned, “Isn’t that just a black dragon?”

“I’m talking about a pure-blooded black dragon!” The bald undead said in a low voice. “According to the intelligence, the pentashade dragons shouldn’t have any pure-blooded descendants anymore!”

“Interesting...” Foyego’s eyes lit up again. “What a great seed....”

Chapter 1773: Wang Goudan V S Foyego (1)

“Yo, where’s your captain?”

At this moment, in the distant southern city district, a purple-haired female undead was coldly looking at a screen in front of her. On the screen was a bewitching and exquisite face...

“Captain has something to attend to and has to go out for a while. Does Captain Sauta have something to attend to?” The woman’s tone was cold, but on the surface, she showed the respect that she should have and performed the proper etiquette. The reason was because of the identity of the person on the screen... ..

Purgatory King’s Palace: the Sixth King, the first wife of His Highness the king of Eternal Night, the captain of the sixth King’s team: Sauta. Kabirul! In terms of rank, the other party and their captain, foyego, were on the same level...

“Hahaha, it’s nothing serious. I just have something to discuss with your captain...” Sauta said with a smile, “Can you tell me where your captain went?”

The woman smiled, “Captain Sauta, can you tell me why you are looking for your captain?”

“I’m afraid it’s not convenient...” sauta said with a smile.

“I’m sorry...” the woman also smiled, “It’s the same here, it’s not convenient...”

“Tsk... she’s still such an unlikable girl...” sauta clicked his tongue and waved his hand, “Okay... Remember to contact me when your captain comes back...”

“Yes, Captain Sauta, I’ll be sure to inform...”

As soon as he finished speaking, the other side turned off the screen...

“Captain...”

On the other side, a tall, handsome man stood respectfully behind SAUTA and asked cautiously, "Is Captain Foyego going to..."

"Do you need to say that?" Sauta sneered: "This kind of opportunity, you really think he will be selfless?"

The few undead teammates around them also sneered.

The captain of the ninth King's team, Ice Eye, had fallen. What else could foyego do when he left his own city without permission. Anyone with intelligence would know that he had most likely gone to pick peaches... ..

"Mi Jia..." Sauta turned his head to look at the other party. "Your previous intelligence said that there is a very powerful existence in the Tyree Fassen Academy. The chances are that he is at the Captain Level?"

"Yes..." mi jia hurriedly said, "He is the direct disciple of the young patriarch of the Holy Church clan. I heard that he is a native, but he has the bloodline of the Black Dragon. His strength is very high. He once defeated the Crown Prince of the bronze clan in the bronze palace..."

"Tsk..." Sauta touched his chin. "I also know about this. I just didn't expect it to be to such a degree. Do you think... Ice Eye was killed by her?"

"It's most likely her!" Mi Jia said in a low voice. "When I was in Tirefarson, I got close to that Guy a few times. That guy gave me a lot of pressure. I feel..." As she spoke, Mi Jia glanced at Sauta carefully. "I feel that he's not worse than you, Captain."

"Oh?" Sauta's interest was immediately piqued. "Interesting, interesting... this kind of interesting person can't let Foyego get his way so easily..."

"Then what do you mean, Captain?"

"Mi Jia..." Sauta looked at the other party with a smile. "You shouldn't have been exposed over at Tirefarson, right?"

"I shouldn't have..." mi jia said respectfully, "Although I have been away for a while, the spiritual connection in the team hasn't been broken. As long as I return to the position not far from the team, I can reconnect at any time..."

"Okay!" Sauta immediately clapped his hands and smiled. "Then I'll have to trouble you to make another trip..."

Mi Jia frowned when she heard that. "Captain Wants me to go back? What's the main reason?"

"A reminder... do your best to make Tirifson avoid Foyego..." sauta smiled and said, "And give me the coordinates at any time. When Pm done here, I'll come and look for you..."

When Mi Jia heard this, she looked at the entrance of the underground base at the side. Her frown deepened... ..

"Don't worry..." Sauta smiled and said, "I'll leave the people you want for you..."

He was naturally referring to those people from the Divine Arcana Academy... "I hope that captain will keep his promise..." mi Jia said very solemnly.

"Of course!" Saouta replied with a smile.

Mi Jia bowed and quickly disappeared from where she was. After he disappeared.., the female undead behind him who had been fighting against Grandpa Lu's spiritual power at the beginning frowned and said, "This newbie is too impudent. He actually wants to talk about conditions. Captain... you spoil him too much!"

"Haha... Small Matter, small matter!" Saouta waved his hand and said, "Everyone in a team is a family. What's there to be bothered about such a small matter? Moreover, that young Mi Jia is a mortal enemy. It's not a big deal for him to care about some things..."

"No one doesn't care about his enmity...". The female undead said coldly, "Otherwise, we wouldn't have specially chosen the south city gate. However, he also has to think about the team. Currently, the competition is fierce. Any chance to strengthen the team is rare. If we can get rid of ice eye's powerhouse, if it is taken away by the fifth team, the gap between US and the fifth team will be even greater!"

"What you're saying..." Sauta rolled his eyes at her. "You make it sound like there's a big gap between us and team five..."

"Isn't That So?"

"Of course not!" Sauta glared at her. "There's just a little gap..."

The surrounding companions curled their lips when they heard that. It was obvious that they did not agree with her guilty words at all... .

The Five Kings team was publicly acknowledged to be the strongest among the new kings team. Otherwise, foyego would not have become the overall commander of this operation. Of course, the Five Kings team was also under pressure. As the strongest team among the new kings team.., his Highness the fifth King had always wanted his family members to rely on the ancient kings team, which was ranked in the top four!

After all, the first four kings in the Ten Kings Palace were undead mighty figures who had been recruited before the natural disaster. After the four kings, they had all joined one after another after the natural disaster. There were no major battles to prove their abilities.., so they needed their families to fight for their glory.

But... . . Compared to the first four kings 'team, which had been passed down since the natural disaster era, the new kings 'team, which had only been established in the recent era, was too weak... ..

But it was precisely because of this that every chance to strengthen themselves was precious. To be able to defeat an expert with ice eye, it would greatly improve the team. Foyego had noticed this, so he had disregarded his pride and prepared to go down personally.

Meanwhile, this newcomer on his side was still dwelling on his small grudge.

He did not care about the team's interests at all!

“Captain... then should we hurry up?” The female undead asked as she looked at Savitar.

“Don’t be anxious...” Savitar turned around and looked at the entrance of the base. “That Phoenix is very strange. Our team members are precious. We can’t die here because of carelessness. We can’t be like ice eye and be arrogant...”

Hearing that, his teammates looked at each other and didn’t say anything more. Not only was the Phoenix’s spiritual power exaggerated, but it also had the ability to digest the energy of the world of death. It was indeed strange. The death of the nine team leaders was right in front of their eyes. Always be on guard against them. Don’t underestimate the living world... .

The living world really couldn’t be underestimated!

At this time, at the East City District, two figures, one black and one green, were constantly colliding in the air. The fierce collision left many space depressions in the air. The intensity of the collision made the bald man and the female undead below feel a wave of fear!

It was fortunate that the two of them did not engage in a fight as impulsively as Wu Ye. Otherwise, their outcome would not have been much different! This little fellow was actually able to fight captain foergo to such an extent!

Chapter 1774: Wang Goudan V S Foyego (part two)

The captain level was the highest level of combat power among the 10

kings’ families in the Purgatory monarch palace. Unlike the captains in the federation universities, the captain did not represent the highest level of combat power in the federation universities, usually, a person who was experienced and had the ability to command would very likely surpass the trump card and become the captain of the team.

However, such a thing did not exist in purgatory. In a team, only the person with the hardest fist could be the leader!

Foyego was publicly recognized as the person with the most ability to command among the new king’s team leaders. However, as the leader of the strongest new king’s team, his hard strength... ” . Was naturally the strongest!

At this moment, Lingji looked at the situation in the air and could not calm down for a long time!

Everyone said that she was infinitely close to the captain level, but only after seeing the captain’s full-force attack did she realize how far away she was from the true captain level!

At this moment, the black shadows in the sky kept colliding. Whether it was the vice-captain Baldy or lingji, who was known as the trump card that was close to the captain level, they both realized that they had no chance to participate in this battle.

The extremely powerful physical force shocked the two high-level mental strength experts. They felt that the force of each collision in the air was enough to crush them, but the most important thing was that they couldn't see their movements clearly.

The two of them knew clearly that if any one of the two people in the air wanted to kill them, they would be crushed into minced meat in the next second, and they wouldn't even be able to react in time.

As for the sudden cry on the ground, at this time is a stupefied expression, it turns out... He had never taken himself seriously, for he had been a clown from the very beginning. . .

"That's a lot of power!"

After countless collisions, Foyego borrowed the force and retreated hundreds of feet, looking at the other party with great admiration. This guy was better than he had imagined, but in terms of explosive power, perhaps no captain in the new king's team could match him, it was just that the technique of using force was a little crude. However, this was not a point reduction, but a bonus point.

Because if crude techniques had such explosive power, then it represented... . Infinite potential. His opponent was... ! ... still had a lot of room for improvement. If he could join the Five Kings 'team, in time, he would be the top trump card of the team!

Compared to Foyego's obvious joy, Wang Goudan appeared to be extremely frustrated!

She looked at the guy who was covered in green light, and her heart was violent but also extremely solemn. This guy... " What was going on?

This was the first time she had fought so aggrievedly!

No matter how much she erupted, she found that she could not hurt the other side. Every burst of power was like injecting cotton strength. It was as if no matter how much strength she exerted, the other side would be able to take it, it was very different from his thin and weak body!

The most important thing was that the opponent's green leather armor seemed to have an inexplicable suction force. Every time it touched, it seemed to be greedily absorbing her own strength. Every time she collided with the opponent, her strength seemed to be losing... .

Panting heavily, Goudan looked at her trembling arms and suddenly looked at the opponent. "What's on your body?"

The current her was very sure that there was something strange on the other party's body. She had only fought for a short while, and she was already panting heavily? The rate at which her physical strength was depleting was faster than she had imagined. Clearly, it was not a normal rate of depletion!

"Your reaction speed is not considered fast... "foyego smiled as he looked at the other party with an amiable expression. "You were born in Tirefarson Academy. Has No one ever taught you about runic weapons?"

Runic weapons?

Dogball was stunned. He felt as though he had heard of it somewhere before... . How many times had he heard it during his sleep in class?

If it was a standard Tirefarson student, he would definitely be shocked by this title at the first instant!

Runic weapons, one of the three great evil energy runes of the death realm. In the past, there was a team of Invincible Knights in the Calamity Legion, known as the Broken Legion. They had directly defeated the regular armies of several great lords of the Federation at that time!

And the reason why this team of knights had such terrifying destructive power was because of their unique rune weapons!

The Broken Legion's weapons could absorb the lifeblood of the living world!

No one knew what the structure was, including the countless advanced alchemy masters who could not figure out how the broken weapons were formed, but that terrifying destructive power was still fresh in the memories of the Federation!

No matter if you were a powerful Titan Army or a windwalker scout who came and went like the wind, as long as you encountered a broken weapon, your blood and Qi would begin to be absorbed. The few leaders of the once strongest Titan army..., were all sucked dry by such a weapon, causing all the physical knights of the entire federation army to be extremely fearful of that broken army!

Until the end of the natural disaster, there was still no knight army under the banner of that Lord who could defeat that Strange Army head-on!

And this army was also known as the nemesis of Warriors!

"Your luck is very bad..." Foyego looked at the other party with a smile. "To be honest, with your exaggerated physical fitness, you have a chance of winning against the other captains, but unfortunately, you met me..."

"Very cocky, you brat..." Wang Goudan's eyes turned cold, and the flames on his body instantly covered every dragon scale. The terrifying high temperature made the bald man and the others who were thousands of feet away retreat, afraid of being implicated!

Facing the terrifying flames..., foergo smiled slightly. "Such a pure flame of Destruction, I'm afraid it's already infinitely close to the ancient times, right?"

"To think that a dragon like you could actually appear in the living world."

Looks like the universe's consciousness is starting to relax in this aspect... "However, it's a pity that you haven't grasped the essence, so you don't know how to use this talent ."

"Noisy! ! "Eggface snorted coldly, and like a flaming meteor, he rammed into his opponent once again!

Foyego was still smiling, and his movement technique cleverly avoided his opponent's head strike. Meanwhile, Eggface used his powerful physical ability to instantly turn around and continue his fierce attack!

"Your physical ability is really exaggerated..." Foyego said with a smile, "The transition from maximum speed to zero, Pm afraid that many top assassins will feel ashamed when they see it..." "

This guy was so annoying!

Wang Goudan continued to attack in frustration, but he was evaded one by one by the ingenious movements of the other places. After this kind of exchange of attacks and dodging for nearly ten breaths, Foyego began to counterattack!

Once again, intense sparks burst out in the air, and the two once again fought head-on!

It was like this again! !

Goudan narrowed his eyes. Every time this guy fought with him, he would be able to receive his attacks head-on. Moreover, if this continued, he might even be inferior in terms of strength!

However, this wasn't because the other party already had the strength to contend against him. Instead, for some unknown reason... "!" His strength had become weaker!

From the moment he got close to him, his physical strength would weaken every second. Normally, after a few dozen breaths, the other party would be able to clash head-on with him. After a few dozen breaths, he would find it more and more difficult to fight until he was completely suppressed!

This fellow... ! was stranger than any opponent he had ever met before!

Chapter 1775: foul-breaking evil energy!

Once again, Wang Goudan quickly pulled away!

A strange feeling came over him again. After pulling away, his weak body gradually recovered through the rapid engorgement of blood, and his numb limbs also began to regain consciousness... ..

In the distance, Foyego looked at Goudan with a smile. He didn't say anything, but he didn't do anything, as if he had no intention of pursuing the victory... .. Eggface squinted his golden eyes and rushed forward again. However, he suddenly stopped when he was thirty feet away from Foyego... ..

As if there was a red line in front of him, Eggface carefully touched it with his dragon claw. Then, he pulled it back like lightning and looked at the opposite side... ..

That's it... That's the distance!

What a sharp intuition!

A hint of surprise flashed in Foyego's smiling eyes!

The energy absorption effect of a broken weapon had a limited distance. This distance was adjusted according to the runes of the equipment, and the distance was also different. Every broken warrior's energy absorption distance was different.., most advanced arcanists could judge the range by the frequency of the broken runes.

However, it was very difficult to judge, so they usually could not use it in battle. Another way to judge was to rely on battle instinct, like the guy in front of him.

Foyego had fought his way out of the King of ruins 'domain and gained his current position as the team leader. He was experienced in sensing the range of broken weapons, but to be honest, even he might not be able to do what the other party did, he was able to accurately determine the range so quickly!

The key was that the other party's appearance was clearly the characteristic of the first time he had encountered a broken weapon. It was his first time. He was actually able to accurately determine the range after just two exchanges. What kind of terrifying battle instinct was this?

Perhaps... it was luck?

Foyego's eyes flashed. He secretly used his spiritual power to adjust the runic regulator. In an instant, a green light flashed faintly on his body, and the range suddenly expanded!

However, at this moment, Wang Goudan's pupils contracted as he retreated!

This guy...

Foyego's smile disappeared as he looked at the other party seriously. Although the other party retreated suddenly, he did not panic. He stopped about 20 feet away from the limit range, then, he carefully walked forward and heard the limit range of the expanded range once again!

"How did you do it?" Foyego could not help but ask.

Wang Goudan looked at him and smiled, "Sure enough, this range is the absorption range of that weird equipment of yours, right? As long as you leave this range, that weird thing on your body won't be able to absorb your lifeblood, right?"

"So what if it is?" Foyego smiled, "Are you just watching?"

Wang Goudan laughed. "Why can't I Watch? You seem to be busier than me..." "Aren't you looking for your friend?" Foyego laughed. "Aren't you in a hurry?"

Wang Goudan said, "I think with my friend's ability, you shouldn't be able to hurt her! "

"Tsk..." foyego sighed, he slowly took out the green longsword from his back. It looked like a crusader sword, but it was thinner and longer. It was almost as long as a person, and the other party was holding it with one hand. It gave people a feeling that it was very uncoordinated.

However, Wang Goudan's muscles instantly tensed up!

The other party had never used a weapon since the beginning of the fight with her. A person who could fight with her bare hands for so long, other than the top players in the base, had never done it before. She also knew that after the other party used a weapon, his battle prowess would definitely rise... ..

"I've been underestimated..." "a green light flashed in Foyego's eyes. As he took out his longsword, the aura around his body skyrocketed. From his previously gentle appearance, he instantly became like a ferocious beast from the abyss of Hell!

Wang Goudan's pupils constricted abruptly, and she retreated without hesitation!

The other party should be of the same generation, right. This aura... ! ... Wang Goudan felt that this was the first time since she had transformed into a dragon that she had felt such an aura among her peers!

If it was in the past, with her temper, she would have ignored everything and directly attacked. However, this time, the genes in Goudan's bones were no longer as violent and impulsive as before. Instead, they quickly calmed her nerves, she also chose to retreat immediately!

Before she could figure out the characteristics of the other party's weapon, Goudan did not plan to fight directly. Her carelessness just now had already caused her to lose a lot of her stamina!

Goudan retreated quickly, while the other party chased quickly as well. The black and green figures instantly turned into black dots in the air and disappeared in front of Lingji and the other undead!

After the two monster-level existences disappeared, the two undead heaved a sigh of relief.

To be honest, when this guy was here, the two of them were under a lot of pressure. If the black dragon didn't follow the rules and directly came at them, even the captain wouldn't be able to protect them. Without the equipment, they would be a burden! They were a complete burden!

"Lingji..." the bald undead looked at the sky and let out a long sigh. "How long do you think that guy can last under the captain's hands?"

"I'm not sure..." "..." Lingji shook her head. "This is the first time I've seen a level-12 creature with such an exaggerated basic ability. I would believe a dragon-level creature with such strength. Captain, you're right. In the past, we "..." "We've underestimated the living world..." "

The bald undead fell silent. This was not an exception. He remembered that before they came, their main target was windwalker, who had killed ice eye. Now, there were already two captain-level powerhouses!

What if there were more?

Although it sounded a little unlikely, he had to think about it this way...

This time, they were facing eight high school teams. They only sent four teams, but with four captain-level powerhouses leading the team, they originally thought that there would be no mistakes, but if... It meant that if two more of those things came, this mission would be... ! ... might not be as simple as it seemed!

What was going on?

Eggface, who was flying in mid-air, suddenly felt his heart tighten!

His stamina was still running out!

He had clearly pulled away, so why was his stamina still running out?

Eggface glanced behind him. The other party had been following him closely, but he had maintained a distance of a thousand feet without moving a single inch closer. He had been biting down hard on himself. No matter how much he accelerated or decelerated, it was still the same distance.

He did not know if it was because of that sword, but at a distance of a thousand feet, the opponent could also absorb his qi and blood!

What was going on?

Why did he not use this ability in the beginning? Wasn't this too F * cking buggy?

Wang Gou Dan had always felt that he had broken the rules. Today, he had finally seen it for himself. There was actually such a shameless way of fighting. He could absorb blood and mana from so far away, and he was even hitting the

F * Ck...

Something was wrong!

Just as she was fretting over Goudan, a cool feeling suddenly came from her genes, pulling her out of the chaos.. A flash of fire flashed in Goudan's eyes, and she suddenly braked, goudan, who had been sprinting forward, suddenly rushed toward the back of Foyego without any symptoms!

Chapter 1776: Weakness!

Foyego was stunned by the sudden turn. He didn't know if he had reacted or not, but his movement was obviously slow. With a boom, he forcefully caught it with his sword, and the burst of flames instantly sent him flying hundreds of feet away!

Wang Goudan stood on the spot in confusion, looking at his dragon claws thoughtfully...

In the distance, Lingji and the Bald Man, who had used their spiritual power to see this scene, immediately looked at each other and saw the shock in each other's eyes... ..

That guy...

"It was a coincidence, right?" Lingji said in a low voice.

"It was a coincidence, but it was also a test..." the bald man said faintly, "This little guy's battle awareness is very unusual. The Captain has to be serious!"

In the air, foyego, who had been blown away, withdrew his longsword. The green light on his armor expanded greatly, and a powerful force was released from his body, dragging his body, which was flying backward for thousands of meters, he barely managed to stand still.

"Tsk..." Foyego clicked his tongue, looked up at Goudan, who was not chasing after him, and said with a smile, "Can you..."

Goudan narrowed his eyes and looked at him. "I got you..." Foyego's smiled. "What do you mean?"

"I mean... this time... I really got you..." Wang Goudan looked at him seriously.

"I didn't get you the last few times!"

Foyego's smile froze. "Why do you say that?"

"Because your strength is not that strong..." Wang Goudan said seriously, "I've been feeling strange since the beginning. Every time you fight, you obviously want to avoid the confrontation first, but every time you fight, your condition gets better and better. Whether it's your strength or speed, they're both stronger than before. Moreover, they're more coordinated. Even if you fight for a long time, you can completely suppress me. This naturally has to do with the weakening of My Qi and blood, but the real reason is that you're getting stronger and stronger! "

Foyego smiled. "Is it an illusion?"

"It can't be an illusion..." Wang Goudan shook his head. "Because when I leave the range of your energy absorption, my blood and Qi will return to normal. When I attack you again, you will first avoid a wave, and after a few rounds, you will enter your state again. I think..." "That strange thing on your body is not only absorbing energy, it can also steal my attributes onto your body, right?"

Clap Clap Clap!

Foyego immediately clapped his hands in admiration. "Your analysis is very fast. What else did you analyze?"

"That sword of yours..." Wang Goudan pointed at the sword on his opponent's back. "It shouldn't be a serious attack weapon, but a rune regulator. Once activated, that weird equipment of yours will enter a different mode. I'm not sure what exactly the mode is, but the range of energy absorption will become exaggerated. It can absorb my energy from a long distance. This is also the reason why I can't Shake You Off, because you're using my strength to chase me. Every time I explode, you can absorb a part or even half of My Qi and blood. Of course, I can't Shake You Off " ... " ...

The lifeblood of a living being was released in waves during a battle. Every time the lifeblood churned, it required a process to produce energy. And every time it erupted, the endurance of the veins was also limited. The body was like a large magazine, and the veins were like the barrel of a gun, the energy that was released was only bullets. Of course, the other party could not absorb all of her blood essence in one go. If it could, she would have been sucked dry long ago.

However, as long as the opponent could absorb half of her explosive energy, he would be able to steadily keep up with her rhythm!

This was the secret of the opponent's equipment. Every time the opponent avoided her initial attack, it was because the equipment had not completely digested her energy. After a few rounds, the equipment had absorbed enough energy.., it would be able to be as hard as her, because the power used was originally her own!

To be honest, although he did not know the principle, this piece of SH * t equipment was not ordinary shameless!

But... it had a weakness!

Wang Goudan rushed over again. Foyego's eyes flashed with a green light. Just like before, he easily dodged Goudan's attack. The script was exactly the same as before.

But this time, Wang Goudan, who was already familiar with the script, made a different move. He was no longer frantically trying to grab his opponent like before. Instead, he stood still and flipped his palm. Energy instantly gathered in his palm!

Instantly, with Goudan as the center, a powerful suction force distorted the surrounding space into a ball, just like a small black hole!

It was very powerful, but if there were outsiders, they would definitely be puzzled, because this move looked good but was useless...

It looked cool, but the suction force produced by the energy was limited. It was not a black hole created by a mage using heaven and earth energy. How strong could the suction force be? It looked scary, but in fact, a normal warrior could completely stabilize his body as long as the difference in level was not too big. He would not be affected at all.

However, the strange thing was that Foyego floated toward Wang Goudan like a silk thread under the suction force, and Foyego's face changed abruptly!

"I've got you! !"

Goudan grabbed foyego, who was being sucked over, with a sinister smile on his face, and directly threw a punch! !

He used all his strength in this punch. The powerful flames, along with the extremely violent power, turned into a pillar of fire and smashed foyego down from the sky. With a loud bang, the ground several kilometers away collapsed under the terrifying power! ! !

"Captain! !

In the distance, Lingji was shocked when she saw this scene. Just as she was about to step forward, she was firmly held down by the bald man next to her!

"Don't get too worked up, Lingji. Captain won't fall so easily... "the bald man shouted with full spiritual power, "You can't help even if you go now. We're not on the same level at all! "

Lingji gritted her teeth and looked forward indignantly. She recalled the days when she first entered the realm of the five kings, and the days when she was constantly losing her life.

She thought that she would no longer be able to repeat the days of the past, but now it seemed that the road she had to walk was still very far... ..

The bald man looked at the sky with a sigh. This little guy was really not an ordinary difficult person to deal with. He had actually found the weakness of the broken device so quickly!

"As expected... "looking at the fist that he had thrown out, a feeling of incomparable comfort surged up in his heart. The grievance that he had been unable to use his strength before was instantly released. It couldn't be any more pleasant!

As for why that seemingly flashy move could catch foyego, it was naturally because of the characteristics of Foyego's equipment.

From the moment he understood the broken device, Doggie had been curious about a question. If the guy on the opposite side had limited strength initially, he had to first avoid him and wait for the equipment to activate and absorb his strength before he could contend with him.., then the question was, where did the speed that he used to avoid him come from?

At the beginning, the opponent's movement technique was not weak at all. It was on the same level as him, and even a little higher. But for some reason, after absorbing his strength, the opponent's speed did not increase. In fact, many times, he did not feel as light as he did at the beginning... ..

At that time, Goudan was suspecting one thing. Was the speed at which he spun around him in the beginning his own?

In the beginning, there was no external energy being absorbed. If there was such a speed, shouldn't it crush him after absorbing his strength?

But the opponent didn't, that meant... ! ... He didn't have that speed!

But the speed at which he dodged was real. Then what was going on?

An idea was born in Goudan's mind. This device could absorb the strength of others and adjust the attributes of others to support oneself. Could it adjust one's own attributes?

For example... . ! By absorbing one's own strength, vitality, and even spiritual power, one could break through the limits of a certain domain. For example, agility!

If it was true, the other attributes of the other party would definitely be greatly reduced. In fact, as Goudan had expected, the other attributes of the other party would be greatly reduced. With a single energy siphon., foyego, whose vitality and strength had been greatly reduced, was instantly sucked over.

That was how the previous scene had happened!

"Heh..." doggie looked down proudly. "I told you, if that equipment didn't have a single weakness, why would you play with it? How could there be such a shameless thing in this world?"

Clap Clap Clap. Amidst the smoke, a loud clapping sound could be heard. The surrounding smoke slowly dispersed, and foyego, whose entire body was emitting an infinite green light, walked out. He looked at the sky, his eyes emitting an emerald-like glow, there was a gaze that made one feel as if they were about to die.

"You're really not an ordinary outstanding being... "at this moment, Foyego's smile had a strange twist to it, causing even Dogball's heart to feel an inexplicable chill... .

"This won't do. You're such an outstanding creature, and it makes me want to destroy you even more...."

Chapter 1777: Foyego's strength!

Something wasn't right...

Goudan looked down at Foyego, who was slightly damaged. At this moment, the green leather armor on Foyego's body was full of cracks, as if it would completely shatter if it was touched again. It seemed that he had suffered quite a serious injury... ..

But for some reason, Goudan felt a strange feeling...

“To tell you the truth...” foyego stretched his muscles. Perhaps it was an illusion, but his thin body seemed to have grown taller... ..

It was not obvious, but his flesh and blood seemed to have changed!

Eggface narrowed his eyes and immediately became alert. An aura that could make even him alert was spreading from his opponent’s body!

“Since I became the captain...” foyego smiled and said, “I haven’t unlocked this set of equipment...”

As soon as he finished speaking, the leather armor on his body seemed to have reached its limit. It bounced and broke, revealing his smooth muscles!

Eggface’s heart was immediately alarmed!

It was hard to imagine that such a thin and weak guy would have such a body of muscles. The strength of those muscles was completely different from the people she usually met!

Eggface had done her homework regarding the identification of the warrior’s muscles. Back then, in the Emerald Starfield, the ones who had sparred with her the most were those muscular Titans!

Ysera had taught those few people more than once that the way to train one’s muscles must be meticulous, optimizing every bit of energy, tightening the density of cells and blood qi, and through high-end training methods.., one could train muscles of a completely different quality compared to those of the same grade.

For a melee class, the quality of their muscles was the guarantee of their combat strength!

Among all the Titans, Leng Xing’s muscles were trained the best. He was not impatient and was willing to use the slowest method to train the highest quality Titan muscles. Among all the Titans, Leng Xing was the smallest, and his strength was also the weakest, however, his potential for growth after birth was very high. Because his physique and talent were not as good as Pu Yunchuan and the others, Leng Xing chose the most time-consuming training method: the dragon muscle body tempering method!

With the strength of the dragon race, during the bone tempering stage, one could train their muscles to the strength of a dragon. However, their progress was slow and basically no one in the universe would use it. The reason was very simple. Once one reached the dragon level, one’s body could be reconstructed, there was no need to go through so much trouble to focus on your muscles from the start.

However, it was not without benefits. If they could train their dragon muscles before reaching the dragon level, after reaching the dragon level, their ability to create blood would be even stronger. With a solid foundation, they would advance by leaps and bounds in the early stages of the dragon level, breaking through the many difficulties of the dragon level in one go, this was also the benefit of having accumulated experience.

Leng Xing’s coverage rate of dragon muscles seemed to be 60% . Wang Goudan remembered that, under his Level 9 life form standard, this was already a very good result.

The one in front of him...

Goudan took a deep breath. If he hadn't seen wrongly, the coverage rate... Was... ! It seemed to be almost full!

"Eh?" Fovego seemed to have noticed Goudan's vigilance and immediately laughed. "Looks like you've noticed... That's true. The dragon race, it's very normal for them to be sensitive to dragon muscle..."

As he spoke, he pulled out the sword on his back once again. It was different from the huge sword from before. At this moment, the Green Longsword had suddenly become the size of an ordinary longsword, but it gave off an extremely dangerous feeling.

"Coming!" Foyego smiled slightly, and his figure instantly disappeared on the spot!

The scales all over Eggface's body tightened, and her expression finally changed, because she realized that she... "..." She actually couldn't see the other party's movements clearly!

Without even thinking, Eggface suddenly grabbed towards his back!

"Yo..." Foyego lightly retreated, avoiding Eggface's grab. But this time, not only was he retreating quickly, the coordination of his entire body's strength was completely different from the feeling of being as light as a feather at the beginning!

Goudan's heart instantly sank!

"Your reaction is quite fast!" Foyego grinned and directly slashed out with his sword!

It was a very straightforward move, without any fancy tricks, but Goudan felt an extremely great pressure!

Subconsciously, Goudan raised his dragon claw to forcefully resist this sword.

In the next instant, with a bang, Goudan was directly sent flying by the sword. His entire body fell like a meteor, crashing heavily onto the ground, he landed right where Foyego had been!

The already dilapidated ground instantly collapsed. The power of the explosion was shocking!

Yao Xing, who saw this scene from afar, was stunned. This was the first time he had seen someone suppress Wang Xiaojia in terms of power. Who was that Green Guy?

"This is..." Lingji looked at this scene in a daze. "Captain?"

"I haven't seen it for a long time..." the bald man smiled. "But it's true. No one has been able to make captain unseal it all these years..."

"Seal?" Lingji looked at the bald man curiously.

"Oh, right, you haven't seen it..." "..." the bald man smiled. "The most important function of captain's worn-out equipment is to suppress his strength, train his dragon muscles, and even train his dragon bones. Captain was able to enter dragon-level thirty years ago, and he has been relying on this equipment to suppress his strength. He wants to strengthen his foundation so that he can catch up to the captains of the top four teams faster after reaching dragon -level!"

“You were able to reach the dragon-level 30 years ago?” Lingji took a deep breath. Many people said that she was talented. She was already a level 14 creature with 200 growth rings, but the captain seemed to be less than 100 years older than her?

He could reach the dragon-level at any time? A 300-year-old dragon-level creature?

Lingji was silent... The captain often praised this genius and that genius ... It turned out that she was the true top-notch genius!

“Cough cough...” after about four or five breaths..., dogball slowly walked out from the collapsed ground. His hands were dripping with blood, and he coughed up a mouthful of black-red blood from the corner of his mouth. Blood with flames seeped out from the scales all over his body. It was obvious that he was seriously injured, if a surgeon were here, he would be able to tell with one glance that Goudan’s internal organs were far more damaged than they looked!

“TSK TSK... “Foyego carried his long sword, he walked down from the air step by step, he looked at the other party with a strange expression. “You’re really outstanding. With this body of yours, a level-12 you possess almost all the conditions of a dragon-level life form. If you were to be placed in the Orthodox Dragon Race, you would be a complete monster...”

“Unfortunately, you’re still too young... “Foyego looked at Goudan’s hundred-year-old age and smiled. “You’re too young. If I gave you another hundred years, I might not be as good as you, but now... HMM?”

Suddenly, Foyego stopped what he was saying and looked at the other party in surprise.

He saw that the blood in the other party’s body was flowing more and more, constantly seeping out from the scales. The amount was growing larger and larger, and the scales were completely opened, as if bathing in the dragon’s blood!

Something was wrong...

Foyego’s pupils constricted. The opponent was not injured... ” ! “! It should be said that it was not a complete injury. It was intentional. He was squeezing and causing a large amount of blood!

Foyego pounced at Goudan. Although he did not know why, his intuition told him that he had to stop it!

“It’s too late... “Goudan raised his head. This time, pure black flames were slowly burning from his blood, wrapping him up. Unlike the aura of the flames that soared into the sky, this time, all the power seemed to have condensed into a ball... ...

Secret Skill: Wings of death! !

Chapter 1778: Wings of Death!

“HMM?”

Inside the Emerald Galaxy, Ysera was taking a rare nap leisurely...

Ever since Brother Dog began to master the communication with the newborn Titan spirits, the entire emerald world had become calmer than expected. All the newborn Titan spirits were in a peaceful silence, the entire world's practice was also surprisingly smooth.

It caused the few Ysera to feel like they had nothing to do recently. Suddenly, they felt a comfortable sleepiness that they had not felt for a long time.

Of course... ... One could not sleep deeply. The nature of the dragon race caused a dragon king of her level to sleep for tens of millions of years. This was not something that could be avoided. It was better to keep watch at all times.

However, it was not completely relaxing. For Ysera, there was one thing that had always been on her mind...

"What's wrong with you now?"

Beside her, Diana closed her book speechlessly. The book was the recent history of Planet D. she was very interested in the local civilization where the entire planet was full of super geniuses, especially in the religious aspect, she had been reading with great interest for the past few days.

However, many times when she was reading, she would find that Ysera moved a little suspiciously.

When the Dragon King moved, the surrounding elements would sway a little. After all, the space was not stable yet, so the disturbance would affect Diana's reading ability... .

"Hey... "Diana could not help but roll her eyes. "Why are you always so shocked? Ever since that guy left, you always do this..."

"Ahem..."Ysera coughed in embarrassment. "Well... I'm mainly concerned about the younger generation..." "

"Bullsh * T... You're just concerned about your own experiments! "Diana glared at her. "To be honest, you really dare to use... The bloodline of that thing!"

"This... Hahaha, isn't the material too good?"Ysera scratched her head guiltily. She didn't look like a mature elder at all.

In fact, this was Ysera's true appearance. All the dragons who were familiar with her knew that this guy was too bored over the years. He gradually mingled with the alchemists of other races and eventually became an anomaly among the dragon kings, who would have thought that the Green Dragon King would be obsessed with arcane alchemy?

However, it was a pity that Ysera was interested in this aspect. Otherwise, she wouldn't have created such a big project like the Emerald Starfield...

"By the way... is it really alright not to tell seer about this? "Diana asked suspiciously.

“There’s no benefit in telling him... “Ysera said seriously, “Other than making him worry, it’s useless. Anyway, it’s already been transplanted... it can’t be removed... ”

Diana choked for a moment. This old thief had been living a comfortable life recently. His previous shameless face had returned!

“But this is too bold...”

At this time a cold voice came, Diana did not look back to know, is the only Fairy God: Anya!

“Ha Ha ha. ... “Ysera laughed even more guiltily, waving his dragon claw and saying: “Well... science, how can not be bold?”

“This is not the reason to take someone else to be bold... “an ya rolled her eyes at the other party, then faintly looked at the sky: “After all... that is the wings of Death!”

“What is this?”

In the distance, Ling Ji, who was using her spiritual power to observe and occupy her space, withdrew her spiritual power almost instantly. Her originally pale skin was now even paler, as if she was a dead person, and her eyes were filled with fear!

At this moment, she looked at the bald man beside her, and the bald man looked at her. Both of them could see the fear in each other’s eyes!

The last scene was the little girl with the dragon genes stretching out a pair of wings on her back... ... It didn’t seem to be wings... It was the shadow of wings.

She didn’t know what it was, but the moment it came out, lingji only felt an indescribable terror surge into her heart. Almost subconsciously, without even thinking, she decisively cut off her spiritual power, she didn’t dare to look at it again!

Although they were hundreds of kilometers away, the boundless and terrifying pressure made her feel as if she would suffer an extremely terrifying thing if she looked at it again!

The bald man next to her was also pale. He looked at Ling Ji blankly and shook his head slowly after hearing her question. “I don’t know... Captain... Captain...”

The bald head tightly bit the tongue, want to say something, but really can not say!

Lingji is also a tight look, yes, a hundred kilometers away, they are so stressed, close to the captain face, but the real monster!

On the battlefield, and all the people see the reaction of the wings, Foyego Heart is the first time to rise a chill, almost without hesitation to stop the figure of the pouncing, suddenly opened up the distance!

He barely managed to get rid of the terrifying chill after flying to a height of 30,000 feet!

What was that?

As an undead, his back was almost covered in cold sweat after he transformed into a physical body!

At this moment, Goudan's entire body looked extremely miserable. Large amounts of dragon blood oozed out from his scales. His expression was extremely ferocious, but his eyes were frighteningly cold, as if everything looked so tiny...

Raising his head slightly, Goudan looked at Foyego who was hundreds of thousands of feet in the sky. The corners of his mouth curled up slightly. It was unknown whether he was sneering or mocking him again. An incomparably cold voice came from his throat, "Come down!"

This voice was extremely deep, and it also carried an overdraft of weakness. However, for some reason, it gave people an unbreakable sense of tyranny!

Foyego, who was high in the sky, instantly felt an overwhelming pressure. He suddenly fell from the sky and crashed onto the ground!

This guy...

Foyego struggled with all his might, but he realized that no matter how hard he struggled, he could not raise his head. Above his head, it was as if a sky was pressing down on him, suppressing him to the point that he had no room to resist!

What exactly was going on with this guy! !

A long-lost sense of panic welled up in his heart. Ever since he had served the king of ruins, he had never encountered such a powerless situation!

He could not even lift his head, and could only listen to the heavy footsteps on the other side... ! Step by step, he was walking towards him! ! !

Drip...

A drop of cold sweat slid across his forehead and dripped onto the ground. Foyego's face was filled with a fear that he did not dare to believe.

Before he came, he would never have believed that such a situation would happen...

He could not do anything. He could not even take a glance at his enemy. He could only lower his head and wait for his opponent to approach him step by step, devouring his prey. He was like a lamb whose legs were weak. He did not even have the right to escape!

Kacha! !

Suddenly, there was a crisp sound of bones cracking. Foyego almost subconsciously thought that one of his bones had been broken!

Just the mental pressure alone was enough to break his physical bones. What kind of difference was this? How was this possible?

Just as he was panicking and in disbelief, he suddenly felt a strange sensation... He didn't seem to feel any pain on his body?

Could it be that the pressure was too great and his nerves were numb, so he couldn't even feel the pain?

At this moment, if he could raise his head, it would be even more strange.

Because the so-called crisp bone cracking sound didn't come from himself, but from the other side... ... The existence that gave him immense pressure... ... Wang Goudan's cold expression showed a hint of embarrassment... ...

Oh No.... His leg was broken! !

Chapter 1779: A team that schemed against each other

Kacha! !

Another crisp sound of bones cracking could be heard, and Doggie's face instantly turned red!

Damn it, this move was indeed a deceptive move...

He remembered that before he left, Ysera had looked for him alone and taught him a secret technique. At that time, he was still in high spirits, but this was a high-end technique after all?

To be honest... High-end was also high-end, but it was too high-end... .

"Doggie... Remember, this secret skill can only be used as a wall, not to face the enemy. Remember, before you reach dragon-level, don't take any chances.

This secret skill is definitely not something you can master at the moment... " So... If you can't master it, why are you teaching me?

Doggie was speechless at that time. After suffering so much, she thought that she had learned some big move, but in the end, it could only be used as a fork. At that time, she was so angry that her nose almost tilted!

But now, she realized that if she didn't have this skill to use as a fork... She would probably be gone today. .

But the key point was... What should she do now?

Goudan looked at her body, and for a moment, she was in a dilemma... ...

Foyego was currently pressed down on the ground, and he was extremely uncomfortable. However, Goudan's current discomfort was not any weaker than his opponent's. The power of the secret skill was not something her body could withstand. She only moved slightly... His leg bones were broken... ...

However, he did not move at all, and the burden was also very great. Dogball could even faintly hear the crackling sounds of his back bones and sternum being torn apart.

Without even looking, he knew that in another minute or so, the bones in his body would probably not be able to withstand this power and break apart!

What a dogshit-like secret skill!!

Gou Dan could not help but retort again...

“Save me, I’m still looking at the F * ck! !”

Gou Dan suddenly roared at Yao Xing in the distance! !

With this roar, not only was Yao Xing dumbfounded from the roar, even Foyego was dumbfounded!

What was going on?

However, Yao Xing’s reaction was still a little faster because he had already felt that something was wrong when he saw Gou Dan covered in blood. Although the terrifying aura behind him was so oppressive that he did not dare to look over.., he still felt that the other party’s power was too abnormal.

Everything had its limits. The Aura and pressure that dog egg had just displayed was obviously not something that someone of her level should have.

Therefore, the moment dog egg roared, demonstar immediately understood... ! She was bluffing!

Without any hesitation, demonstar instantly cut into the shadow plane and arrived behind dog egg. At that moment, dog egg also retracted the pair of huge wings in the shadow!

The terrifying pressure that filled the space also disappeared at this moment. It came in all directions, and when the pressure was released, it was completely gone. Even foyego, who was lying on the ground, felt as if he had just experienced an illusion... .

After a few breaths, he carefully raised his head, but in front of him... .. Where was the other party’s Trace? He had long disappeared without a trace!

Foyego’s expression suddenly changed, and he suddenly collapsed on the ground. He laughed so hard that his whole body was twitching. He looked at Lingji and the bald man who had rushed over and were stunned!

“Captain? “Lingji asked carefully, “Where... where is that person?”

“It’s really embarrassing... “foyego laughed for a long time before he reluctantly walked out of his crazy state. He shook his head and said, “I’m afraid I haven’t been this embarrassed since I was awakened by the Lord...”

“Captain... “Lingji and the Bald Man were stunned, waiting for Foyego to calm down... ..

The moment the pressure disappeared, they rushed over and saw Foyego laughing crazily. As for the black dragon, which could only emit a monstrous pressure, it had long disappeared!

Lingji was very confused about what had happened, but when she saw the captain’s expression, she cautiously shut her mouth.

At this moment, a familiar spiritual power came.

Lingji was stunned and immediately looked at the captain again. “Who? “Foyego sat on the ground and directly raised his head to ask.

“The captain of the sixth King’s team: Sauta! ”

“Take it... ”Foyego said coldly.

Take it?

Lingji was a bit stunned when she saw the captain’s miserable look. The bald man beside her quickly poked her. Lingji suddenly reacted and immediately picked up the video without hesitation!

“Hey, Lingji, something doesn’t seem right. Where’s your captain?”

Lingji bit her lip and was about to say something when Foyego’s indifferent voice came over. “What do you want?”

As Foyego spoke, the camera turned to him. Sauta was stunned for a moment, then he smiled and said, “Ah! Captain Foyego, what happened? Why are you in such a Sorry State?”

“I made a fool of myself... ”foyego smiled, “I came to deal with the mess left by Captain Iceman, and I almost rolled over... ”

“Really...”sauta narrowed his eyes and looked at him, “Is it that troublesome?”

“It’s quite troublesome...”foyego laughed, “If Captain Sauta encounters it, please be careful. We... can’t afford to lose a second captain...”

“Hahahaha! ”Sauta suddenly laughed. “Thank you for your concern, Captain Foyego. I will remember it!”

“That’s good... ”foyego smiled. “By the way, what does Captain Sauta want to talk to me about?”

“Oh, nothing. It’s just that I have a problem here and I want to borrow two people from you... ”

“Oh? You have a problem there too?”Foyego stopped smiling. “What’s the situation?”

“A... Difficult Guy...”sauta smiled and said, “You know, I’m a steady person. I don’t like to go up directly, so I Need a chance to go in and probe for information...”

“You want that brother and sister?”

“I told you, it’s always easy to talk to Captain Foyego... ”Sauta said with a smile.

Foyego paused for two seconds and roared, then nodded and said, “I’ll ask them to come to you later...”

“Good, good, good! Then I’ll have to trouble you, Captain Foyego...”

“It’s no trouble. We’re all family in this mission. The key is to successfully complete the mission of the Lord...”

“You’re right... ”Sauta smiled and bowed. “Then Pll get rid of you, Captain Foyego...”

Foyego: “You’re welcome...”

The screen closed again. On the other side, the smile on Saouta's face instantly disappeared. "What's the situation? Even a character like Foyego can be in such a sorry state? There must be some information in the eastern district that we don't know about!"

"Captain, what about us?" The female undead next to him frowned.

"Get Micah to quickly return to Tirifamsen and send the information over as soon as possible!"

"Yes..."

"Captain?" "After the communication ended, Lingji looked at him carefully.

Foyego slowly stood up and spat out a mouthful of black blood. Instantly, Lingji and Baldy were shocked!

"Captain? Are You Okay?"

"Phew..." Foyego quickly waved his hand. "I'm fine." ... He just needed to rest for a while... While speaking, he weakly looked at the place where Wang Goudan had disappeared. "Sauta is already suspicious. We don't have much time.. We have to find that guy quickly!"

Chapter 1780: finding cabbages...

The team that came on this mission did not have complete information, but at least most of them knew. For example, in their own team, there were two strange existences that could tamper with other people's memories.

If other people knew about their own team's situation, then naturally, they also knew about the situation of other people's teams. Mi Jia, the mole in Tiriphaisen, was from the sixth team. Everyone knew about it!

However, that girl just now was one of Tiriphaisen's people!

Sauta was a very smart and cautious guy. Foyego knew that based on the details, the other party had probably guessed correctly... ..

"Captain?" Lingji swallowed her saliva. "We still have to go look for her?"

Foyego sighed. "The other party wasn't as powerful as she showed just now. In the end, that imposing manner was just a bluff..."

Lingji and Baldy were stunned...

Bluff? That momentum that could suffocate her from hundreds of kilometers away was just a bluff?

If it was a bluff, captain, how did you get this injury?

Of course, it was hard to ask...

Looking at his teammate's expression, Foyego smiled wryly.

In fact, he had suspected it from the very beginning. If the opponent had that kind of momentum, he wouldn't have been qualified to fight him from the very beginning.

If it was said to be a trump card, then the improvement was a little too exaggerated, wasn't it?

In fact, from the outcome, it seemed to be the same. If the other party really had that kind of ability, he would have died long ago. Just now, he did not have the slightest ability to resist!

But the other party still escaped, which proved that her condition at that time was actually worse than his!

"Find that guy as soon as possible, remember!" Foyego's face became serious. "No matter what, that black dragon can not fall into the hands of other

Bang! !

At this time, in a remote corner of the East District, Demon Star's figure suddenly darted out of the shadow plane and fell to the ground in a sorry state, panting heavily!

Moving through the shadows was a common thing for him, but it was not the case when he brought people with him. The little girl did not have his shadow resistance, and as soon as she entered, she began to attract a large amount of shadow energy, forcing him to run with all his might!

"Hu... I say, Xiao Jia, are you alright?" Yao Xing looked at Xiao Jia with concern. "Nonsense..." Goudan rolled his eyes. "Do I look like Pm Alright?"

Yao Xing immediately choked, but it was true. Goudan's current condition was extremely bad. His scales were badly mangled, and although his scales no longer bled, his face was extremely pale. Anyone who knew first aid would know that.., at this moment, Goudan's Qi and blood were on the verge of a very dangerous loss!

Yao Xing hurriedly took out a bottle of high-grade energy fluid and handed it over.

Goudan took it and gulped it down!

"Hey... slow down!" Yao Xing's eyes widened, this was an a-grade energy fluid, specially used by dragon-grade lifeforms. A lifeform like him, who was close to level 15, usually only needed a small sip to recover, but it would take a lot of time to digest. This guy.., he actually dared to brag about the entire bottle?

Gou Dan ignored the other party and drank the entire bottle of energy fluid like an ox drinking water. The scales all over his body slowly began to search, and traces of blood began to appear on Gou Dan's face.

This scene made Yao Xing speechless. This guy's digestive ability could be described as abnormal!

The most important thing was that this level of energy fluid, why did it feel like it didn't recover much...

"Is there any more?" Gou Dan asked directly.

“No!” Yao Xing rolled his eyes at him. “Why did you bring so much energy fluid with such a level?” There were still some pharmacists in the team... Yao Xing suddenly paused at this point and said, “Xiao Jia, why did you stop me from running towards the team?”

When he had received Gou Dan, the first thing he had done was to run towards Tyree Fasson’s team. However, Gou Dan had told him to stay as far away from his team as possible.

Wang Goudan licked the bottle and took a deep breath. “You’ve seen that group of people. What do you think will happen if our team meets them?”

Yao Xing paused for a moment and fell silent. What could they do? Based on the strength that those people had displayed just now, any one of them would probably have the standard to wipe out their team!

“The team’s target is too big, and the strength gap between the team members is too big. They won’t be able to save us at all. Rather than that, it’s better to stay far away from them. At least the target will be scattered so that they won’t be wiped out in one go...”

Yao Xing was silent. He knew that Xiao Jia was very strong, but he did not expect that the team would only be a burden!

“But your injury is very serious. You need a doctor to repair it, right?” Yao Xing asked.

“Yes... .. But the one in the team can’t ...” ... “Wang Goudan raised his hand with difficulty. “The broken leg bones, the sternum, and the spine are all seriously damaged. Not to mention the internal organs, it’s almost a half-dead state. I need a professional surgeon to help me restore my bones, and I also need a professional recovery technique to help me restore the internal organs...”

“Then shouldn’t we go back to the team?” Yao Xing frowned. “At least we can help you recover from your injuries...”

“Are you sure?” Wang Xiaojia rolled her eyes.

Yao Xing was stunned, and he immediately reacted. That’s right... ” ...”. Xiaojia was in her dragonform Now!

The academy had secretly tested it. Under the condition of Xiaojia’s dragonform, the coverage of her Dragon Muscles was 100% , and that was not even counting the extremely hard scales. The doctors in the team were very experienced, but he did not have the ability to perform surgery on Xiaojia!

With his mental strength and equipment, he could not even cut through Little Jia’s scales...

As for the internal damage, the doctors in Tiriverson used traditional biological recovery methods and did not have the ability of priests or priests to directly use energy to heal internal injuries.

If they could not cut open little Jia’s muscles, there was no way to help her recover...

“Then what do we do now?” demonstar immediately had a headache. “That group of people appeared strangely, and the instructor in charge of controlling the field is nowhere to be seen. It’s most likely that something big has happened. Now, we can't find any other external assistance... " "There's someone who can help me... "Gou Dan said weakly.

"Who?" Yao Xing asked hurriedly.

"There's someone in the Starry Sky Academy... "Gou Dan's consciousness became increasingly blurry, but he still tried his best to say, "Find little cabbage... "

"Little cabbage?" Yao Xing was stunned. "What's little cabbage?"

But when he asked again, Gou Dan had clearly lost consciousness... ..

"Hello? " Yao Xing hurriedly went up to check, and his face immediately turned pale!

Xiao Jia's condition was worse than he had imagined. When he touched her, his entire body was cold, without any warmth. If it wasn't for the weak breathing and heartbeat, he would probably have felt like he was dead!

Yao Xing knew that Xiao Jia was using the energy-saving mode of self-protection. It was similar to an animal's hibernation, which could greatly reduce the consumption... ..

But even so, if this injury wasn't treated as soon as possible, there would still be a big problem!

"Starry Sky Academy... " Yao Xing carried the dog egg on his back and looked at the center of the city.. "Little cabbage?"
