

A Bunch 1781

Chapter 1781: emergency (Part One)

“Captain, why did they take so long?”

In the East District, the people from the Tirefarson Academy were resting and waiting for Yao Xing and the others to return. However, almost a week had passed, and not a single person was seen.

Yao Feng did not reply when he heard this, and his expression became a little solemn.

Yao Xing’s mobility was not bad. As he was able to pass through the shadows, he could directly omit many of the terrains. It was even more convenient than flying, and he should be able to catch up to Goudan... ..

“Lu Luo, is the link still broken?”

Lu Luo’s expression was solemn. “Yes, the link hasn’t been connected! ”

Just now, Goudan had suddenly run out and Yao Xing had chased after him. In order to not expose the team’s position, Yao Feng had asked Lu Luo to break the spiritual link first. After all, if it was a long-distance connection, it would be easy for people to discover each other’s positions.

Logically speaking, as long as Yao Xing could catch up to Gou Dan, he should try to restart the link. Not to mention bringing Gou dan back directly, he should at least be able to reconnect and send them the coordinates.

But it didn’t happen...

“Could it be that Xiao Jia ran too fast and Yao Xing couldn’t keep up? The captain also knows that Xiao Jia couldn’t catch up even if he were to put a vitality booster on Yao Xing... ” Simon asked in a relaxed tone.

However, these words didn’t make the atmosphere in the team relaxed...

Everyone knew that even if demon star couldn’t catch up, he would leave a mark at every place and send the coordinates through the spiritual link.

However, it didn’t happen. One star had passed and there was no intention to contact them. The probability was... .. Something had happened...

Just as the atmosphere was heavy, Lu Luo’s eyes suddenly lit up. She felt a spiritual fluctuation coming from the outside. It was a request for a link.

The people around also became spirited when they saw this.

“Captain, where are you guys?”

After the spiritual link was connected, a familiar voice was heard. However, it was not demon star's voice, but the voice of another team member... ..

"Mi Jia?" Lu Luo was stunned. "Where did you go?"

"Uh... that windwalker is a bit tricky, he wasted a lot of time. Captain, I have something important to tell you!"

Yao Feng was slightly stunned. "What is it?"

"It's not convenient to say it in the link. Anyway, the current situation is very dangerous, I'm afraid that the entire trial has already gone wrong!" was shocked!

"What's the specific situation?" Yao Feng narrowed his eyes and asked. "It's not convenient to say it here. I need to meet up with you guys. In any case, it's very dangerous outside. Captain, where are you guys?"

"Lu Luo, give him the coordinates!" Yao Feng said directly.

"Yes..." Lu Luo hurriedly sent the coordinates.

"Captain, wait a moment. I'm quite far from here. I'll be there as soon as possible. Captain, please be careful."

Said, then directly hung up the link, the whole team suddenly inexplicable each other.

"This is..." the equipment player Simon swallowed a mouthful of saliva: "What does he mean by that? The entire trial has gone wrong?"

"In fact, I had a feeling that something might have gone wrong when Jia was fighting that windwalker... <per_0> . "green Luo narrowed his eyes and said, "At that time, Xiaojia obviously lost control and almost hurt the other side. By right, the control instructor should have attacked, but there was no fluctuation at all..."

"En..." Yao Feng also nodded his head. "That windwalker was obviously still able to fight, but he left at the last minute as if something had happened. At that time, our entire team was there. The members of the Windwalker Academy could only have encountered something else, and..."

"And what?" Seeing their team leader stop at this point, everyone immediately glared at him.

"Captain, what time is it? You're still keeping us in suspense?" Lu Luo was the first to complain.

"I'm not keeping you in suspense..." Yao Feng sighed. "It's just that there are some things that are hard to say. I think... There's something wrong with Mi was stunned and immediately looked at Yao Feng in bafflement. "Captain, you're not joking, right?"

"Would I joke about such a Thing?" Yao Feng narrowed his eyes and said, "Let's not talk about the fact that he has disappeared for such a long time and hasn't contacted the team at all. Just a moment ago, there was something wrong with what he said..."

“What do you mean?” Lu Luo frowned. “He was very cautious. I didn’t hear anything...”

“The meaning in his words was as if there were enemies all around...” Yao Feng narrowed his eyes. “He seemed to be cautious and didn’t expose too much during the conversation, but the problem was that he directly asked for our coordinates!”

Everyone: “ ..

“If the situation is so tense, it’s possible for someone to monitor our spiritual connection at any time. Isn’t it not good to ask for the coordinates? Shouldn’t he let us say a place and then cautiously try to meet up?”

“Maybe... he didn’t think of it for a while...” green 1010 stuttered. “Maybe...” Yao Feng took a breath. “I hope I’m thinking too much...”

“UH...”

Everyone’s heart sank. Yao Xing and Wang Goudan had never contacted each other. The captain also said that there was something wrong with Mi Jia. It really came wave after wave, making people’s hearts heavy... ..

“Who?”

At the moment when everyone’s hearts were heavy, Yao Feng suddenly looked in one direction!

Everyone who was already heavy instantly became vigilant. Simon even directly prepared to activate the combat device!

A mellow voice sounded, and everyone was instantly stunned... .

“You Are...” everyone was stunned when they saw the person who came, especially Yao Feng. He suddenly looked over. “Dutton? ?”

The person who came... .. It was the current leader of Gale Academy: Dutton!

Everyone was instantly shocked. Because other than Dutton, they also saw the person behind the other party. That person who had almost wiped them out by herself previously!

“What happened to her?” Lu Luo asked while swallowing her saliva.

Dutton took a deep breath. Something big happened. is your team’s medic here? My team member’s injuries are not looking good! ”

“Hurry up and carry her! !” Yao Feng said quickly.

“Captain?” Lu Luo looked at Yao Feng, obviously wary of the other party.

“It’s nothing...” Yao Feng said telepathically. “You ‘ve seen the strength of that wind demon. Even Xiao Jia couldn’t do anything to her. To be able to injure her like this, if she was an enemy, there wouldn’t be any conspiracy...”

Hearing that, Lu Luo paused for a moment. That was indeed the case... ..

After Darton recovered, he hurriedly walked over with Li Goudan.

The team's medic quickly took out a mechanical bed from the space. "Put it on Top!

Darton's heart jolted, and he hurriedly put Goudan on it... .

Everyone gathered around. When they saw the injuries, they all took a deep breath.

This injury was practically hanging in one breath! !

There were wounds that were so deep that bones could be seen everywhere. Moreover, there was clearly some energy infection at the wound. It looked extremely terrifying... .

Everyone looked at each other. It seemed that Mi Jia did not lie during the call. There was a big problem in this trial. Otherwise, she would not have allowed the student to have such injuries!

"Please take a look quickly!" Dutton said hurriedly. His tone was filled with anxiety... ..

"Okay!" Medical Hand Mi si nodded hurriedly and immediately activated the detection device on the medical bed. The moment it was activated, the first result made her face change abruptly!

"How did she get this injury?"

Chapter 1782: Emergency (Part Two)

"What's Wrong?"

The others' hearts sank when they saw Misi's panicked expression. Yao Feng quickly asked.

"This is a burn wound left by the Frost Crystal Infection!" Misi took a deep breath.

Everyone sucked in a breath of cold air when they heard that!

Frost Crystal?

Most of the instructors in Tirefarson were undead liches. No one knew more about the death realm than their academy. Of course, they knew what Frost Crystal was!

"How could it be..." Yao Feng's expression changed as he looked at Dutton.

"What's going on?"

"It's the undead!" Dutton said with a heavy expression. "Our team members encountered the undead and even lost one..."

"Lost..."

This word made everyone's heart sink to the bottom.

“Lost... means... “Simon asked with a hint of luck.

“It means what it says! “Dutton looked at the place. “Don’t take any chances. There was a problem in this trial, and the one who attacked was an undead. My teammates are truly lost, unable to be reborn! “ Everyone: ” I. !

This situation was worse than they had imagined!

If the undead attacked and killed someone, then they would really be dead. They wouldn’t even have the chance to do it again!

“Your teammate was also injured by the undead?” Yao Feng took a deep breath and asked the question he was most concerned about.

With the Wind Demon’s combat strength, if this was the result, then...

“Yes... “Dutton didn’t hide anything and said directly, “Our teammate was attacked at that time, so I rushed over immediately. Jiayi also rushed over...”

Yao Feng and the others were stunned and immediately reacted. So the little wind demon suddenly left because his teammates were asking for help?

“What about the undead that injured you?” Yao Feng asked quickly.

“Jiayi killed them... “Dutton took a deep breath and said.

“Ah? “Everyone was stunned. They didn’t expect such a result.

“Just... killed them?” Green Willow stuttered and asked.

“Yeah... “Dutton said, “That thing is very powerful. Jiayi was also seriously injured...”

(I see... “everyone immediately heaved a sigh of relief.

If that was the case, then the situation wasn’t terrible to the extreme.

“But that guy still has companions... “Dutton continued.

Everyone: ” ..

(I say... “Green Willow glared at him fiercely. “Can you finish the story in one

“Companions?” Yao Feng said solemnly, “Are they also undead? How many are

“There are quite a few, at least six or seven of them... “Dalton said, “But their strength is not as exaggerated as the one who fought with Jiayi, but they are definitely not weak...” as he said that, he told the story of how Li Goudan scared away the group of undead in the end.

Everyone was happy to hear that. They looked at the unconscious Li Goudan in a daze. This little wind demon looked soft and weak, but he was actually so fierce?

It wasn’t about her strength, but her courage at the end. She was really worthy of respect!

“That’s right! “The main force of the team, Ravenous Wolf, grinned and said, “This girl is indeed worthy of being the one who almost killed our entire team ! Dutton: “Eh?”

Everyone: ” ..

(‘I understand... “Yao feng exhaled and said, “Then how strong do you think the remaining undead are?”

“Very strong! “Dutton narrowed his eyes and said, “Although Jiayi could kill one of them when she was seriously injured, the remaining undead are definitely not weak. Any one of them is not on the same level as me... ” as he said that, he looked at the other party, after a moment of hesitation, he said, “To be honest, I don’t even think that you can win... ”

These words sounded a little harsh!

A group of people who were scared away by Li Goudan said that they couldn’t win?

“Then why did you come to us?” Lu Luo couldn’t help but retort, “Don’t tell me that you just happened to meet us?”

Yao Feng stopped Lu Luo from complaining. He looked over and said, “Did you find us because you wanted to find a doctor for this little guy?”

“Yes... not exactly... “Dutton took a deep breath and said, “Before Jiayi fainted, she asked me to find Tirefarson’s dog egg. Which one of You Is Dog Egg?”

Everyone.

What the hell? Who would call such a name?

“Are you talking about Wang Xiaojia?” Yao Feng was the first to react.

His teammates were stunned again. They suddenly remembered that Xiaojia seemed to like this dog egg and this dog egg’s self-names for nothing... ..

The two of them knew each other? ?

Everyone immediately reacted! !

But thinking about it, it seemed to be the case. When they fought before, the way the two of them communicated, it seemed like they did know each other in the past... ..

There was really such a person?

Dutton hurriedly asked, “Who is that person?”

“He’s the trump card of our team... “yao feng directly said, “He’s not weaker than this little girl that you guys are hiding... ”

“Really? “Hearing that, Dutton was instantly delighted. No Wonder Jiayi had specially asked him to look for Tyrephson Academy. It turned out that they had strong reinforcements. “Where is she?”

Everyone: ” ..

This question... .. They also wanted to know...

Yao Feng: "Let's treat her injuries first, Meese. can her condition be treated?"

Meese shook his head. "We can only do a simple treatment. We can use energy supplements and epinephrine to force her to hang on!"

"So Serious?" Yao Feng Leng.

"It's more serious than you think! "Misi looked at Li Goudan and said quietly, "The infection rate is at least 70% , and he's still not undead. This guy's vitality is already at monster level. "

"Can't you debride it?" Said Dutton anxiously.

"Can't... " ...". "Frost crystal is the crystallization of the flame of the death realm. It is a top-tier alchemical material, and it is extremely corrosive. The scalpel will corrode as soon as it gets close to it. How can we debride it? "This kind of surgery requires a great doctor to be equipped with special tools to debride the wound! "Great Doctor?

Yao Feng frowned. Great doctors were at least dragon-level, and only those who could operate on dragon-level living beings could be called great doctors!

What should they do?

Xiao Jia was not here. If they could restore the wind demon at this time, the team's safety would be guaranteed, but now... ..

"Is there no way? "Dalton was a little anxious. He knew that if they did not do debridement and only relied on energy to sustain their injuries, they would not be able to hold on for long!

"If there is, do you think I won't do it?" Misi said with a bitter smile.

"This... "in an instant, Dalton's heart lost the joy of finding someone... ..

Even if he could find strong reinforcements to ensure his safety for the time being, there was no one who could help Jiayi with the surgery. What should he

"woo..."

Just as he was in a state of anxiety, the originally unconscious dog egg moaned.

"Jiayi?" A group of people quickly came over, including Misi. It was a little strange. He hadn't injected his kidney hormone yet, but this guy could still wake up from such an injury?

"How are you, Jiayi?" Dalton asked.

"Cabbage... "Li Goudan groaned weakly.

"What?" Dalton was stunned.

"Cabbage... "Li Goudan groaned again and passed out.

"Jiayi?" Dalton quickly said, "What cabbage? Tell me clearly."

He felt that at this time, he couldn't say that he wanted to eat cabbage, right?

The surrounding people also looked at each other in a daze...

“Could it be... that she’s confused?” Ravenous Wolf said carefully.

“No...” before Darden could refute, Yao Feng was the first to deny this statement. “I know who she’s talking about...”

“Oh?” Everyone looked over, and Darden also quickly looked over. “You know?”

Yao Feng: “If I’m not wrong, what she said should be a newcomer in the Starry Sky Academy.... and also a character I investigated before coming here, little cabbage moon god!”

Chapter 1783: More Than One!

Who was that?

When Tyree Fassen heard this name, he was stunned for a moment. It seemed like the captain had specifically mentioned it during the previous meeting... ..

Lu Luo was the first to react and said, “I remember now. Captain, you said before that it might be a dark horse?”

“Yes... .. Yao Feng nodded and said patiently, “At that time, I had already said some information. That Genius Magical Beast Master from the Royal Family of the nether night, the He Lan family, originally wanted to give the new students of the starry sky academy a big embarrassment on the first day, but he didn’t expect to be resolved by another new student. The Nether Night Clan didn’t provide us with any specific information, but I could roughly guess that it should be that little cabbage...”

“That makes sense... “. “greedy wolf added, “There are only two new members in the starry sky team this time. Helana’s recruitment is in line with our expectations. After all, her talent is there, and the other one is not famous at all. She is only the stepdaughter of an elder of the moon god family. There is very little information about her. The one who was selected is probably the one who stopped Helana when the new students were recruited...”.

“But... “the equipment user, Simon, was puzzled. “Don’t we need to find a doctor in this situation? What’s the use of finding a Magic Beast Master?”

Everyone nodded in puzzlement. Yes, this little wind demon clearly needed someone who could restrain its injuries. What was the use of finding a magic beast master?

“Perhaps it’s useful... “at this moment, the medical doctor, Missy, spoke.

group of people immediately looked over.

Missy explained, “For her injury, if she were to use surgical methods, she would need to be at the level of a great doctor as well as first-class surgical equipment. Moreover, the success rate isn’t very high. However, you must know that the medical methods in this world are far from just biological surgery!”

That's right... the others nodded upon hearing this.

Most of the instructors in Tirifson Academy were undead without any faith. The medical methods they advocated were purely biological treatment. As for priests, priests, and some other supernatural treatment methods, the kind that relied on the laws of the world., the undead instructors from the dead world were not very interested.

That was why there had never been a priest department academy in Tirifson Academy.

Just as Misi had said, in the current situation of the wind demon, it was very troublesome to use surgical methods, but there was still a chance to use other methods. For example, the healing method of Magic Potions, the purification method of priests, and the blessing method of priests were all useful. Even if it was not completely cured, it could at least be alleviated... ..

"I remember that little cabbage is a flower spirit, right?" Lu Luo rubbed her chin and said, "But it is a magic beast master profession after all. If it is a magic plant master or a priest type, it is still better to think about it..." Hearing this, Darden also looked a little hesitant.

Most magical plant masters were proficient in medicine and were good at making potions. Priests could even use some blessings to dispel the undead power in Jiayi's body.

But the other party's profession was a magical beast master...

To medicine, this was probably the most useless profession... ..

"Could it be that the little cabbage has a high-level healing magic beast?" Greed guessed.

Everyone's eyes lit up when they heard this. It was possible!

There were many types of magical beasts. Other than the dangerous dark-type magical beasts in the demon Abyss, there were also many support-type magical beasts. For example, the spirit frog seed from the ancient forest was a species with strong healing abilities.

If the other party had a healing-type magical beast, in addition to the flower spirit's already friendly elemental energy, there was indeed a chance to alleviate Li Jiayi's symptoms.

"But how did Jiayi know?" Dutton was puzzled for a moment...

"Didn't you realize..." Yao Feng narrowed his eyes and said, "That they are in cahoots?"

"Ah?" Everyone was stunned when they heard this.

"Didn't you realize that these newcomers have something in common recently?" Yao Feng said in a low voice, "Wang Xiaojia in our team, Li Jiayi in your team, and that little cabbage, including that Little Wood Elf who was able to exchange blows with the ace of the Divine Arcana Academy in the Bronze Hall of judgment a few days ago, all have the same characteristics?"

Hearing this, everyone's expression changed, and they immediately remembered.

That's right, now that they thought about it, it was indeed a coincidence. They were all new students...

" . They were all wood elves!

“Most of them know each other... and most of them are from the same place!” Yao Feng said faintly
Everyone: ” ..

“What place is so fierce?” Lu Luo gulped. “Could it be that it can produce such a top-tier native genius? That’s impossible. The ones that are most unlikely to be mass-produced are native geniuses!”

Everyone nodded. If ancient bloodlines could mass-produce geniuses, those genes would be on fire...

(‘I didn’t say mass production... “Yao Feng hesitated for a while. “But it’s very possible that they knew each other and came from the same place, and... “he paused here and finally stopped talking.

From the current performance, these aborigines, especially Wang Xiaojia and the wind demon, are too good, even feel that they are not inferior ancient genes, as if... . . It was as if the ancient race had come to life in the past... ..

This guess was somewhat frightening. He didn’t really believe it when he said it out loud. After thinking about it, he decided to suppress it in his heart. Everything... .. Wait until he met that little cabbage.

“No matter what, let’s do as this girl says first. Find the starry sky academy and find that little cabbage!”

“Aren’t we waiting for Little Jia and the others?” Lu Luo asked in surprise.

“No!” Yao Feng shook his head. “The situation is urgent. Just now, Dutton also said that there are still a group of undead chasing after them. It’s very dangerous to stay in the same place. Let’s go to the center of the city first. Lu Luo, pay attention to the spiritual link at all times. If Yao Xing and the others send a message, contact them immediately. Pay attention to distinguish the spiritual fluctuation. If it’s Mi Jia’s, don’t pick it up!”

“Uh..” Lu Luo was stunned for a moment before frowning. “This... isn’t good, right? How are we going to explain this to him later?”

Yao Feng replied, “Just say that the situation is urgent and that we have temporarily shifted our position. Furthermore, in order not to be tracked down, we don’t dare to casually connect to the spiritual link...”

“Let’s Go!”

The group of people immediately packed up their equipment upon hearing Yao Feng’s words. Meanwhile, Darden was in charge of cleaning up the traces left behind by the group of people.

Seeing this scene, the people of Tirefarson immediately felt much better. Although the other party had brought trouble, they had also brought warning information. Moreover, the addition of an excellent windwalker scout was very useful to the current situation... ..

“Captain Dutton... “on the way, Yao Feng asked, “Don’t the other members of your team try to regroup?”

Hearing that, Dutton shook his head. “The original plan was to break them into pieces. Now, we don’t dare to let them regroup. As you know, our overall combat strength is weak. If we separate, our chances of survival are even greater... ”

“That’s true... “Yao Feng nodded. Just as he was about to say something, he suddenly looked forward.

They saw a figure coming towards them quickly. Everyone instantly became vigilant.

“It’s Mi Jia! !” Lu Luo said with a frown.

“Captain?” In the distance, Mi Jia came closer with a face full of surprise. “I’ve finally found you guys. Why aren’t You Waiting for me at the same place?”

That smile on his face didn’t have the slightest hint of doubt. Darden, who was watching from the side, secretly curled his lips. Because just now, he could clearly feel that Yao Feng was very guarded against this member called Mi Jia. Just as he was thinking about this, a voice transmission suddenly came from Darden’s heart... ..

“Captain Darden, be careful.. In our team, MI JIA is not the only one who has problems!”

Chapter 1784: the latest reinforcements to arrive at the little cabbages?

“Captain Demon Blade... What did you say?”

A storm raged in Dutton’s heart. However, as an experienced old student, he had basically steadied his expression. Not only did his expression not change, but his spiritual fluctuations were also very calm.

“We suspected that there was something wrong with Micah, so we didn’t plan to wait for him at that time. Captain Dutton, you are an expert at cleaning up traces. Do you think that Micah can be tracked through traces?”

Dutton was silent. As a windwalker who was not that talented, he strived to do his best on the basis of a Ranger. When it came to basic lessons like tracing and covering up traces, he knew that he would not lose to any outstanding windwalker, even when the Windwalker team was full of talented people in the past, he did not fall behind in this aspect.

The Windwalker Ranger was unrivalled in the world. It was not just a saying. He did not think that the traces he covered up could not be traced, but at least it would not be so fast... .

After all, they had only left that place for less than half a week, and the other party had already chased after them... ..

“You’re saying... someone informed him of his location?” Dutton immediately understood Yao Feng’s meaning.

“Yes... ”

“Then does captain Yao Feng know who it is?” Dutton’s heart was heavy as he asked.

At this time, for something like a spy from an external force to appear in the team, it was really too much pressure.

(‘I’m not sure for the time being... “Yao Feng said in a low voice, “Missy is the most suspicious. After all, in the team, other than Micah, she’s the only undead that came out from the world of death. It’s not like the others aren’t suspicious...”

“Missy? “Hearing this, Darton’s heart was even colder. Wasn’t Missy the one who showed Jia Yi’s injuries just now. Damn it, Jia Yi was now relying on her to fish for her life with some renin. If she was the spy on the side of the attacker just now...

“Captain, what happened to this child’s injuries? “Mi Jia, who had returned to the team, soon noticed Gou Dan and asked curiously.

“He was attacked... “Yao feng sighed and said, “It’s a very troublesome injury.

Mi Si can’t deal with it. We have to find assistance from other academies...”

(‘Mi Si can’t handle it?’ Mi Jia took a closer look and her expression immediately changed. “Frost Crystal!

Everyone secretly observed mi jia. That surprised expression didn’t seem to be faked at all... ...

In fact, Mi Jia was indeed not faking it. She was really very surprised!

However, it was not the frost crystal that was surprised. After all, everyone in their team was equipped with this kind of weapon. It was not a rare thing. What surprised him was the injured person... ...

There were so many wounds on the other party’s body that their bones could be seen. Logically speaking, any lite form below dragon-tier, even if their skin was cut by the frost crystal, would most likely be completely infected and turn into an undead.

But this fellow, with so many wounds all over his body, he was actually able to survive?

Such an existence could actually be released? Shouldn’t they bring him back to be studied? Who Did It?

If it was the East City District, it should be the ninth King’s group, right? Wait!

Mi Jia suddenly reacted. In the previous intelligence report, the captain of the ninth King’s group had fallen in the East City District. He had always thought that it was Wang Xiaojia’s doing. Was it possible that it wasn’t? But it was another person?

At the thought of this, he stared at Li Goudan tightly. This exuberant vitality wasn’t impossible... ...

“Captain... where is little jia?” Mi Jia asked immediately.

“Why do you suddenly care about her?” Yao Feng looked at him in amusement.

“Aren’t you always on bad terms with her?”

(‘I’m not too happy with that guy... “mi jia curled her lips and said, “However, it’s not a good thing for him to be alone in this situation.”

“Why do you feel that he’s alone?” Yao Feng narrowed his eyes and said,

“Didn’t you notice that there’s still one person missing in the team?”

Mi Jia was stunned and immediately reacted with a smile. "Oh right, senior Yao Xing isn't here either. Is He with Little Jia?"

"It seems that you are still more concerned about Wang Xiaojia... "Yao Feng didn't answer him, on the contrary, he smiled and said, "The first thing that you cared about was whether Little Jia was there or not. You actually completely forgot about Yao Xing. He thinks very highly of you... If you let him know like this, he will feel a chill in his heart for a while..."

"Hahaha... "mi jia immediately scratched her head and said embarrassedly, "It can't be that cold..."

Yao Feng smiled and didn't say anything. He secretly observed the other people's expressions.

If there were people in the team who cooperated with Mi Jia, then he had suspected that Mi Jia's information should have already been passed on. However, why did Mi Jia not appear to be so cautious? Instead, she appeared to be even more exposed... ..

In the end... who could it be?

"This little girl's injuries are more troublesome. We have to find Starry Sky Academy and Request for assistance. Mi Jia, demon star isn't here. Your skills are the best. Help Scout the path in front and Darden will be responsible for cleaning up the traces at the back. "

"Yes!"

"Haven't arrived yet?"

On the other side, the Starry Sky Academy's group who had been rushing from the South City District to the center did not look very good at this moment!

After meeting up with the Serene Night Academy, and in order to continue on their journey, the group of people not only maintained a certain speed, but they also had to remain vigilant at all times. Their minds were highly focused, and in this space with high energy density.., the group of people were currently in a somewhat weak state!

Their physical strength was still alright, and they had brought along recovery potions. However, the mental pressure on them during such a long journey seemed to have become increasingly oppressive.

"Soon..."Arthas looked ahead, he took a deep breath and said, "According to the map, we are almost at the center, but the area at the center is huge. If we want to find allies from other academies, we have to hold on for a while longer..."

Although everyone knew that this was the case, they could not help but feel frustrated...

From the moment they had met up, they hadn't encountered another attack, but the danger hadn't receded.

The curtain of night in the sky had always passed by every hour. It was like a dark cloud that would follow people, always shrouding their heads. Walking over 10,000 kilometers, it had always been that oppressive twilight.

The long period of pressure had naturally caused the negative emotions in their hearts to grow...

“Captain Zirai... “the people from the Starry Sky Academy couldn’t help but ask, “That nightmare has been following us all this while. Is there no way to Zirai didn’t even lift her eyelids when she heard that. She said calmly, “According to the information, once a nightmare chooses its prey, it will never rest until one of us dies...” “Are we just going to keep wasting time like this?”

“You can choose to lie flat...”

“Enough! “Arthas snapped the quarrel that his teammates were about to make and said in a deep voice, “Calm down!”

As he spoke, he looked around and his heart instantly sank, because everyone’s eyes were more or less filled with hostility. If this continued...

Unfortunately, there was no pure flower spirit priestess in the team. Otherwise, if there was a moment of peace, the situation would be much better... ..

In his current state, he would not be able to hold on for long... ..

Just as he was thinking about this, purple Moon’s pupils suddenly constricted. She took a step back abruptly, and a powerful spiritual power was emitted from her body.

“What’s Wrong? “Everyone was shocked when they saw the situation, and they became alert.

“Someone is coming...” purple moon looked ahead and said faintly.

Someone is coming?

Arthas was stunned and quickly looked over. However, this strange night greatly limited the range of his spiritual power. Even when he used all his spiritual power, he could only see a few hundred meters. He could not see anything.

“Southeast, 1,400 meters away, there is a group of people...” Purple Moon reported the coordinates.

The people of Starry Sky Academy were shocked. This purple moon could see so far? Was it because her spiritual power was too strong or because she had a nightmare talent?

“Is she an enemy?” Arthas asked nervously.

“No...” a hint of excitement flashed across Purple Moon’s face. “She’s from another university!”

“Which university?”

Chapter 1785: Rendezvous -Partpart 1)

“Which university?”

Everyone’s spirits were lifted. They had been under so much mental pressure all the way here, and everyone was already on edge. At this time, bad news could easily break their nerves, but good news could also have a huge positive effect.

The center of the city was extremely large. On a Grade 7 planet, it was equivalent to an intercontinental continent. It was not easy to find other teams in such an area. If one was lucky for one or two days, it was possible for one or two months if one was unlucky.

However, they met one not long after they arrived here. They had to admit that this was a very good start, and it was also very exciting!

“Judging from the school logo, it should be... “Zi Yue’s eyes lit up. “From the Spark Academy and the Divine Arcana Academy! ”

“Two academy teams?”

Hearing this, the crowd became even more excited. To meet two academy teams at once, their luck was really good. Moreover, it was the academy with more Arcanists among the many academies, especially the Spark Academy. According to the intelligence, there were two major arcanists and two substitutes. If they were lucky, they would have gathered enough mages to open the space gate by now... ..

“Maintain the formation, the device is ready to be activated at any time... “Arthas said to his team members, “Be careful...”

His words made everyone calm down a little. They suddenly felt that they were too lucky, so they all became vigilant. Beside them, Zirai nodded slightly, they thought to themselves, “As expected of the captain who has led the team to win many fellowship championships. His psychological quality is top-notch, yet he can still be so calm under such circumstances.”.

But just as they were thinking this, a stream of light flashed past, and instantly, Zi Yue’s pupils constricted. What the hell?

The expression on Arthas’face also changed. “Cabbage! ! ”

Zi Yue and the others reacted and looked over abruptly. They immediately discovered that the little flower spirit who claimed to be able to see the dream world had disappeared!

Was that streak of light just now her?

No Way? That speed... was it a flower spirit?

Under the condition that their mental energy was highly concentrated, they actually couldn’t even see her figure clearly... ..

The Other Night Shade Warriors in Ye You’s team were also stunned. Clearly, they couldn’t understand how a flower spirit magical beast master could have that kind of speed.

On the other hand, the people from the starry sky academy were slightly calmer. After all... .. They had seen with their own eyes that a flower spirit was holding two dual blades and slashing like a grand swordmaster... ..

“This girl! ! “Arthas hurriedly said, “Follow her! ”

On the other side, the leader of the Spark Academy, Carmen, and the leader of the Divine Arcana Academy, Ba Lie, instantly became nervous.

As high-ranking warriors, they were keenly aware that something was coming! !

Carmen immediately tensed up his muscles and wanted to warn them. However, the moment he opened his mouth, he heard a cheerful voice behind him.

“Grandpa...”

Carmen and Ba Lie’s hair stood on end. They knew very well that this voice definitely did not belong to anyone in their team...

The two of them tensed up their muscles and turned around stiffly. They did not know when, but they saw that there was an additional person in the team. He was rubbing Grandpa’s bird head excitedly... ..

At this moment, their grandfather opened his eyes weakly. Looking at the other party, he said with an aggrieved expression, “Bai Cai...”

It was a flower spirit?

Carmen and Ba lie were stunned. They looked at each other and saw the shock in each other’s eyes.

When did a flower spirit enter?

“Grandfather, what happened to you?” Bai Cai widened his eyes and looked at grandfather Lu. He felt as if the other party had been drained dry, and he looked exhausted.

“Bai Cai... Grandpa, I... Euler, Euler, Euler...”

Before he could finish his words, he suddenly vomited on the ground again. Bai Cai hurriedly moved aside, and the group of Starry Sky Academy students who had rushed over from afar were instantly stunned by this scene.

“Is that Phoenix? Is It... vomiting? “In Starry Sky Academy, the Ace Knight, Tura, said dryly.

“It seems to be... right... “Arthas was also a little stunned.

“The thing it vomited... looks a little familiar...”

“Mm...”

On the other side of Night Shade Academy, Zirai was also stunned.

That was... the fire of the Red Lotus, right?

Captain Arthas?”

On the other side, Carmen was the first to react and hurriedly walked up to greet him... .

“Oh, Captain Carmen... “Arthas came back to his senses and quickly went up to greet him. “It’s great to meet you guys...”

(I think so too... “Carmen also smiled warmly.

“Carmen, is that one of your team members?” Toula had a good impression of Carmen. After a few exchanges in the friendship, the two became very familiar with each other, and they addressed each other more casually than Arthas. Toula could not help but ask, “It feels... very different...”

“Haha...” Carmen Smiled. “The same goes for you, and the same goes for that team member of yours...”

A flower spirit that could instantly dash to the back of their team like a ghost had the nerve to say that his teammate was different?

“Captain Carmen, did you guys encounter something?” Argus took the lead and asked.

Because he was very sensitive to the fact that there seemed to be a few people missing from the Divine Arcana Academy. The mental state of the two teams was not very good either. In fact, they were not even as good as them.

One had to know that they had been under the pressure of the nightmare curtain all the way. Their physical strength and mental strength had been greatly exhausted, but they did not look as exaggerated as the other party. The faces of these people were all pale, as if they had collapsed... ..

“We did encounter a lot of things...” Carmen sighed and said, “The situation is quite serious now...”

As he said that, he roughly told them about the situation on his side...

Everyone had an interesting expression when they heard it, especially when they heard that the undead had entered the arena later, and then when they heard that Mi Jia from Trepson was the mole..., he couldn't help but say directly, “Our Divine Ao clan has said before that those undead are unreliable.

The federation just doesn't believe in evil. I think that the mole might not only be mi jia, but the people from Trepson Academy might also be the mole...”

“You're here again...” Carmen frowned and said, “This is not the time to be suspicious of each other...”

“Then how did you guys escape?” Beside them, Zirai asked in puzzlement.

From their description, they should have been trapped in that so-called underground base. Why did they come here all of a sudden?

“That underground base is the control center of the underground city. It can activate any teleportation device in the city!” Carmen said in a low voice, “We fixed one of the lines, activated a teleportation device inside, and escaped!”

“Teleportation device?”

These words immediately made everyone excited!

“Where can the teleportation device be sent to?” Arles quickly asked.

“Any location...” the mechanical alchemist Amanda said, “This center not only controls the underground city, but also the entire hemlock forest. As long as one has enough mental strength, they can even connect to the teleportation array outside the city!”

“There's such a thing!” Everyone immediately became excited.

“If that’s the case... why didn’t you directly teleport to the outside of the city?”Zirai asked.

This question also calmed everyone down and they looked at them with puzzlement.

There were many loopholes in the other party’s explanation. First of all, this mechanical city had been in disrepair for a long time. How could such a high-precision thing like the teleportation array still work?

The other party said that they had fixed a line. This sounded a little unlikely. This was the remains of the civilization of the developers. How could a mechanic in school be able to fix a line? Even if a star-ranked master came over, he might not be able to fix a line here, right?

Lastly, it was Zi Yue’s question.. If they could teleport out of the city, why didn’t they just leave?

Chapter 1786: Rendezvous (middle)

In the face of questions, Arthas did not hide anything and directly asked.

After all, in the current situation, he no longer had the energy to scheme against each other. If there was a problem on the other side, it was better to have a good fight than to hide and scheme against each other. At the very least, he could vent a little of his anger. Otherwise, if this continued, the entire team would collapse under such circumstances... ..

In the face of Arthas’ question, the other side’s answer was also very straightforward.

“They didn’t directly teleport out because they didn’t have enough mental strength... ”

The one who replied was the mechanical alchemist in charge of this teleportation: Amanda. She had a weak expression, but she looked at Arthas with an infatuated look and said, “To activate the space matrix, you need an energy device. The underground base also has an energy device, but the energy reserves have been gone for a long time. The shaper must prepare the purified energy to carry out the space teleportation. As you know, the energy connection required by the space matrix must be very pure, and it must be completely dematerialized. Although the Arcanists of Spark Academy have learned the shaper class, they are not professional shaper mages, so they are not good at shaping energy... ”.

After pausing for a moment to catch his breath, he said, “Not only do we need to prepare energy, we also need to leave enough mental energy to control the space equipment. We don’t dare to be careless when operating this kind of unfamiliar equipment. We definitely don’t dare to operate it to the limit if we want to leave enough mental energy. To be able to teleport so far away was already the limit of what we could do back then... ”.

Hearing this answer, Arthas and the rest nodded secretly. The reason was very reasonable and also very logical. The energy equipment in the underground city must be dry. It was indeed more troublesome to re-create energy.

“How did you repair the equipment?”purple Moon asked from the side. “This is the ruins of the developer civilization. Isn’t it a bit too exaggerated to say that it was repaired?”

“You guys are very suspicious... “Amanda was not so polite when facing purple moon.

“Sorry... “to avoid conflict, Arthas quickly continued the conversation, he said gently, “We also encountered a very bad thing here. Everyone’s emotions are quite tense. I didn’t mean to question you, but I’m just a little anxious to understand the situation...”

Facing Arthas’ gentle face, Amanda, who had secretly admired him, coughed lightly. “Well... I can understand...”

Everyone: ” ..

Even Purple Moon was stunned. This woman’s attitude was too exaggerated? “Students like us will naturally not be able to repair the equipment... “Amanda sighed. “We were able to repair the equipment because of this... ”

As she spoke, she spread out her spiritual power and a high-precision metal box appeared in her hand. Everyone’s eyes widened.

Inside the box, there was a ball of silver flame. Although it was contained in the high-precision box, everyone still felt an astonishing energy intensity.

“This is... “everyone’s heart skipped a beat... .

“Divine Fire?” Arthas swallowed a mouthful of saliva and asked.

“Yes... “Amanda nodded and smiled. “It’s also thanks to us finding this that we were able to rely on the characteristics of divine fire to repair one of the equipment circuits and restart the spatial device... ”

“This is really... “Arthas and the others looked at each other, their eyes filled with shock and complicated emotions.

The people from Nethernight Academy also had strange expressions on their faces.

On the other hand, the people behind Amanda had ugly expressions on their faces.

“Carmen... I say, is there something wrong with this teammate of yours? “Ba lie asked secretly through voice transmission.

Carmen’s face was gloomy and she did not say anything.

As a teammate, although Amanda had a bad personality and was criticized for treating her teammates differently because of her status, everyone still trusted her and put the divine fire fragment they found in her place for safekeeping.

Because she was the most senior alchemist in the team, and as a mechanical alchemist, it was obviously more appropriate for her to keep the flame seed that could mechanize all substances.

However, no one would have thought that this guy would be able to use the precious tinder that the team had obtained so easily to present it as a treasure...

Could this kind of strategic material be presented to others like this?

“Can I take a look?” Arthas looked at the other party carefully. Although he felt that his request was not very reasonable, he could not help but ask.

“This... is not appropriate, right?” Carmen immediately frowned and replied.

“What is not appropriate?” Amanda rolled her eyes at Carmen. “What is there to distrust about Captain Arthas’ character?”

As she spoke, she looked at Carmen with a smile. Her eyes narrowed into crescent moons. It was completely different from her cold appearance in the team before. She directly held the box with both hands and handed it over... This scene caused Ba lie, who was beside Carmen, to widen his eyes and stare at the other party in a daze.

“She... handed it over just like that?”

Carmen. ” ... ”

“Damn... ” ba lie said with a grumpy tone through voice transmission, “If this was my team member, I would have wrung her head off! ”

Meanwhile, in the team of Spark Academy, the faces of the group of people were extremely gloomy. Even Jane, who usually had a good relationship with Amanda, did not look too good at this moment.

Everyone knew that Amanda did not have a high attribute to belonging to the team, especially to captain Carmen, who came from an ordinary background. It was just that they did not expect it to be to such an extent.

Even if ULS came from a prestigious family, he was still from another team. Did you forget your own surname?

“Thank you... ” Uls’ face brightened. He naturally saw the ugly faces of Carmen and the others. However, there was someone in the other team who was flattering outsiders, so he was naturally happy to accept it.

Just as he reached out to take it, the flame in the box suddenly flashed and disappeared into the box. Arthas was stunned when he saw this and immediately looked across.

Amanda frowned and immediately looked behind her. As expected, the flame returned to the annoying Phoenix’s side again!

Why did he say again?

Because this flame seemed to have taken the initiative to find the Earth Phoenix from the beginning. As long as there was a slight movement, it would run back to Grandpa Lu.

“Are you sick?” Amanda glared at Grandpa Lu fiercely. “Hurry up and bring me the Flame! ”

Grandpa Lu opened his eyes weakly and said, “There’s something inside them. Little Grey is afraid... ”

“What nonsense are you talking about?” Amanda said sternly, “Hurry up and bring it over, you country bumpkin, you’re nosy... ”

“Shut up!

A deep voice directly interrupted Amanda’s words, causing her to be stunned on the spot. When she turned around, she saw Carmen’s incomparably gloomy face.

Not only Carmen, Amanda instantly saw that all of her teammates looked at her with unfriendly gazes, causing her to swallow the words that she wanted to curse back.

“Captain Ayers... “Carmen directly ignored Amanda, he looked at Arthas, in a deep voice, he said, “My teammates don’t lie. Can you explain? On your side...”

Is there something? I noticed it just now. Why is the sky getting dark? “This is the underground city. There shouldn’t be such a thing as night, right?” “ThiS...

Arthas and his group suddenly felt a little guilty from being questioned. When their team came, they brought good news. The central control center of the underground city, the teleportation array that could teleport outside, and the godly fire that could activate the city’s installations!

They were practically Santa Claus giving gifts, yet they were still questioning each other.

When it was their turn, not only did they not bring anything, but they also brought a monster that could kill them at any time. They were indeed a little embarrassed to speak... .

“You can’t Sleep! ! !”

Just as Arthas was thinking about how to organize his words so that the other party could accept the fact that they were about to shoulder a certain monster with them, Zirai suddenly shouted from the side!

Carmen and the others were instantly stunned by the shout, while Arthas and the others nervously looked in the direction that Zirai was looking at. It was the Phoenix that could control the flames previously.

Perhaps it was too weak, the Phoenix seemed to be so tired that it had fallen asleep...

“Can’t sleep, can’t Sleep! ”

Beside her grandfather, little cabbage also became nervous. She pulled up her grandfather’s bird head and slapped it.

PA! !

A bloody light flew up and everyone saw that the Phoenix’s bird head flew out along with the cabbage’s Slap!

Chapter 1787: Rendezvous -Partpart 2)

“Damn it! This is going to be troublesome! ! ”

At this moment, outside the vast night sky, a group of black-clothed undead looked at the twilight that enveloped them, their faces extremely gloomy!

The leader... .. Was precisely the captain of the sixth King's team that Foyego had secretly schemed against previously: Sauta!

At this moment, his pair of eyes that were as deep as emeralds were looking at the night sky, and his expression was also rarely the same as before. Of course, he could not be pleased now. After all... " " The cooked duck had flown away in front of him. How could he be at ease?

In terms of the beginning, his district could be said to be the one with the best luck. The group of people had directly discovered the location of the tinder fragment. As long as they lured the group of high school students over and let them obtain the tinder... They could immediately start harvesting...

Although the rhythm had been disrupted by a strange phoenix, in his opinion, it wasn't a bad thing at the time.

This time, besides obtaining the tinder fragment, they also came to strengthen the team. After all, the team participating in the hemlock forest mission this time were all top teams of high-level institutions in the world of living beings. There were many talented young students among them, after killing them, they could directly become a strong candidate in the team.

Therefore, if a phoenix with strong spiritual power could appear in these high school teams, it would be good news. Such a creature with high spiritual power was rare, moreover, the team of the ten kings also lacked high-quality members of the spirit faculty.

Taking advantage of the opponent's strong spiritual power to temporarily retreat, it also gave the opponent some hope and illusion. After the opponent took the tinder fragment, they would harvest it together. The rhythm was almost perfect.

However, he never expected that this group of people... . ! They could actually directly activate the divine fire and activate a space array on the main control console. They actually slipped away right under their noses! ! !

In theory, it should be impossible!

Unlike the other divine fires in the living world, the Tinder in the Hemlock Forest was a top-tier alchemy product created by the crazy developer with his extremely profound alchemy techniques and the support of the powerful civilization vault!

It was precisely because of this that the dead world had the idea of taking this tinder. Because it was not innate and was not controlled by the rules, it could be brought to the dead world!

Moreover, the unique mechanical activation ability of this flame was very suitable for the undead army in the dead world. For this mission, the entire operation had mobilized the four kings of the Hall of Lords. They were determined to get it!

The reason why they had the group of living beings take it out was not because this tinder could only be used in the living world, but because it involved a secret from the beginning. It was related to the seventh king, Spider Queen Lorci. They did not know the exact situation.., in any case, it was because after that secret, the flame seed was protected by a layer of protection. It was used to isolate the undead!

Therefore, they needed people from the living world to retrieve the fragment. As long as they were in a suitable place, they would be able to use the King's special refining array to directly plunge the divine fire fragment into the death realm!

But who would have thought that they could actually activate the divine fire!

That was an acquired flame seed. It had a profound alchemy principle that many life sea level elders did not understand. How could a student activate it?

Moreover, that was a fragment. Its structure was extremely unstable, so it was even more impossible to activate it. However, the other party had activated it!

Was there a mistake in the intelligence or was there a problem with the Tinder?

In any case, the cooked duck had flown away in front of Sauta and the others.

After discovering that they had disappeared, Sauta and the others followed the spatial teleportation trail without stopping. They were afraid that they would be seen by the teams from other regions.

Before they came, they had already prepared for the worst. Even if they ran into Commander Foyego, Sauta planned to snatch him away. After all, it was their team that had discovered him first.

But the result was worse than they had imagined! !

"Captain... This..."

Behind sauta, the female undead's expression became extremely conflicted.

"It's that guy..."

'I know...' Sauta gloomily looked at the night sky...

meeting Foyego was better than the current situation. To think that he would actually meet this fellow... meeting Foyego was better than the current situation. To think that he would actually meet this fellow...

This was troublesome! !

"Captain?" Someone behind him could not help but ask.

"Enter?" The group of people immediately looked at the person who asked with a strange expression, including Sauta.

"If you want to die completely, you can go and try..." the female undead coldly said.

"Then... is there anything in there?" The new person asked curiously.

"An extremely dangerous fellow..." Sauta looked at the night sky. "From a certain point of view, he is even more dangerous than some old monsters..."

Huh?

Suddenly, Sauta was stunned. He was stunned as he looked at a certain spot in the northwest. There was an obvious group of familiar figures there. They had actually disappeared into the huge night sky!

“That’s... one of our people, right?” Sauta looked at the peculiar fog and asked.

“Captain... “the female undead behind him said, “It’s a member of the ninth King’s team. The leader is the vice-captain of the ninth King’s team, Ye Feng. I’ve fought with him a few times, so I won’t be mistaken...”

“Are these people crazy?” Beside the female undead, the tall and thin assassin had a strange expression as he said, “They dare to go there?”

Sauta narrowed his eyes at the spot where he had disappeared, and said quietly, “Perhaps... there is a reason why I must go?”

“Captain, are you sure this is the right place?” In the dark, a group of creatures was running fast, it was a group of people of Tirefarson!

“It can’t be wrong... <per_0> . “Yao Feng, who was walking in the middle of the team, said faintly, “When demon star fought with Tura, he left a special mark on an item on his body. If that mark is not activated, it will be difficult to find it. Just now, I activated the mark, and it shows that the location is not far away... ”

“That’s good luck!” Lu Luo smiled and said, “I just activated the mark and found it not far away. I thought that it would be difficult to find it in the center of the city. It was captain’s foresight that set the trap...”

“Good luck?” Yao Feng looked at the inexplicable twilight in the sky and his heart sank. The sudden appearance of the twilight in the underground city was too strange. Moreover, he felt an inexplicable chill as soon as he entered, his intuition told him that there was something dangerous around him!

“Xiao Jia, are you sure it’s Here?”

Yao Xing, who was carrying Wang Goudan on his back, had also arrived at the northeast part of Twilight. At this moment, he looked at the layer of twilight hesitantly. His intuition told him that there was great danger in this dark curtain, and there was great terror inside!

“It can’t be wrong... “Wang Goudan said weakly, “It’s the smell of cabbage. Her smell is the best, it can’t be wrong...”

“Your nose can smell so far away? Why didn’t I notice it before?” Yao Xing frowned.

“It can’t be... “Wang Goudan shook his head. “But if the other party is a cabbage, I can smell it. There’s an attractive scent on her body. I can smell it from hundreds of kilometers away. It Can ‘t be wrong. The scent is getting closer and closer...”

“I hope it’s not wrong... “Yao Xing looked up at the black screen and frowned even more. (‘I keep feeling that this place is very dangerous. It’s even more dangerous than the undead just now...”

“You’re not wrong!” Wang Goudan said faintly, “There’s something inside, it’s very dangerous...”

She also felt the chill that could make her dragon scales stand up. The last time she felt this way was when rainy girl put on the Sky Demon armor... ..

Chapter 1788: You're going to die too...

“WA-WA-WA-WA-WA-WA...”

In the middle of the black curtain, the little cabbage that everyone was thinking about was now screaming in fear!

The expressions of the people around them also changed in shock. They widened their eyes as they watched the Phoenix's head being tossed high up into the air, carrying a liquid that looked like lava. It rolled on the ground a few times, and its eyes were also wide open. It's like he's been through something really horrible... .

“Boo-hoo-hoo-hoo...”

A flash of light, Bok Choy rushed up to hug Grandpa's head, boiling hot magma to her hand soup red, Bok Choy clutched tightly, crying ran back.

“I didn't mean to, Grandpa...”

Little cabbage cried and took out a big machine bed from the space and put Grandpa's head on it carefully. ...

Everyone was stunned. That was obviously a medical operating bed, and from the looks of it, it seemed to be of a very low level. It was a very poor quality operating bed, and many high-level auxiliary equipment did not exist. This was usually used by gods when they were developing low-level planes., was it something that was used out of the alliance's low-level civilization vault?

“Cabbage... What do you want?” Arthas could not help but ask. Although he felt a little regretful about the ending of the Phoenix, little cabbage's current actions could actually infuriate the other party.

Sure enough, the next second, Carmen walked up with a sullen face. “Please return our teammates to us!”

At this moment, the anger in Carmen's heart had almost reached its peak!

The people from Starry Sky Academy had come up to them as if they were interrogating prisoners, and they had been on guard against them. In the end, they had brought along a big trouble, and now, they had even caused their teammates to get into trouble!

From Grandpa Lu's performance just now, he was definitely the future pillar of Spark Academy. Just like that... .. Just like that?

And now, he had to be deliberately humiliated by the other party!

What? The other party was saving Grandpa Lu?

It was simply Bullsh * t. how could he save Grandpa Lu with that kind of trash native machine bed that wasn't even qualified to save the Goblins? It was clearly intentional!

He didn't believe that a first-line student of Starry Sky Academy wouldn't even have a basic medical bed...

"Bai Cai?" Seeing Carmen's furious look, Arthas quickly said, "Return the person first!"

At this time, they could not have internal strife!

Bai Cai turned a deaf ear and directly raised his hand. Powerful spiritual power moved the remaining body of his grandfather to the mechanical bed! "Girl! forehead bulged with veins. "You passed! ! !"

As he spoke, his thick arms grabbed towards Bai Cai without hesitation!

Stop! "The Starry Academy members immediately wanted to stop him when they saw the situation. The group from Spark Academy also became vigilant when they saw the situation. For a moment, the tension between them had reached its peak!

Buzz! !

Just as the conflict between the two sides was about to erupt, a buzzing sound suddenly rang out. A water ray that soared into the sky suddenly lit up, directly blocking Carmen behind Bai Cai!

The incomparably powerful elemental energy caused Carmen to immediately withdraw his hand with vigilance, and in the next second, he was instantly stunned on the spot!

Elves?

Everyone was also stunned as they looked over. How could a great elf appear here?

Everyone knew that the elemental elves of the ancient lands were generally in a dormant state, and very few things could awaken them. Why would they suddenly appear here?

Buzz Buzz Buzz...

Just as everyone was puzzled, an even more eye-catching scene appeared. Countless elemental spirits gathered in mid-air and circled around cabbage, emitting a gentle yet firm elemental power as they circled around cabbage!

"This...

Carmen swallowed a mouthful of saliva. His anger from before instantly dissipated as he stared blankly at the other party.

At this moment, Bai Caps attention was completely focused on her grandfather. She did not even turn her head as she waved her hand. A chubby water fairy flew over with a whimper and appeared beside Bai Cai. Following that, a large amount of water elements gathered and gathered into a high-density crystal. It helped Bai Cai clean the lava that was continuously seeping out from her grandfather's neck. A few seconds later, it directly froze that spot... .

Hiss...

Everyone who saw this scene sucked in a breath of cold air! !

Although they had seen so many elemental spirits gathering around cabbage, most likely because they were attracted by her, they still did not dare to completely believe it. Until now, there was no doubt at all... ..

This little flower spirit could actually control the elemental spirits of the ancient lands? ?

How was this possible?

There weren't many in the entire federation who could make elemental elves work in the ancient lands. A single student... " . How was it possible for him to possess such power?

And amongst everyone, the one who was the most shocked was still Arthas!

Looking at the elemental elves gathering around him, looking at the obvious friendliness of those elemental elves, he finally understood why his clan had allowed him to monitor this little fellow... ..

Could it be that the members of the clan... Were Afraid of this little fellow. ... ! ...

threatening Tyrande's position! ! !

Logically speaking, a native shouldn't have such a threat, but if... .. But if...

An incredible thought appeared in his mind... ..

Was she a pure ancient species?

Everything seemed to explain why the other party could use the lost telepathy technique, why a flower spirit could possess such an exaggerated basic attribute, and why she could control the elements of the ancient lands?

What if... . . She is a pure ancient species, the most authentic wood elves, all this... There seems to be an explanation. . .

There's an explanation for the family's fear of this guy...

After all... .. Tyrande was a star Elf, and when she was... Hey! The true king of the Elves is the wood elves!

"Jiayi? What's Wrong?"

On the other side, Yao Feng and the others, who had brought Li Goudan into the dark curtain, became nervous. At this moment, Li Jiayi, who was on Dutton's back, suddenly began to Twitch, and all the vitality in her body disappeared visibly! !

"Retreat!

Without any hesitation, Yao Feng, who had already sensed the ominous aura around him, gave the order to retreat. However, when he looked back, he found that there was no way out?

The Darkness was endless. They were only a few steps away, but it was as if they had fallen into a dark abyss!

“SH * T...” Yao Feng’s face turned pale. “It’s a domain! ! !”

“What’s This?”

At this moment, in a huge reflection, Li Goudan looked around blankly. Everything around him was exactly the same as reality. The only difference was that everything seemed to be reversed... .

Water droplets were flowing backwards, the sky was under his feet, and even the wind was moving upwards. The rules of the world were completely reversed! !

“Dream...”

A cold voice sounded beside Li Goudan’s ear. Li Goudan’s entire body jolted as he looked over...

“Woo... Big Brother, why did you only come out! !” Li Goudan was so excited that he almost hugged the other party...

“If you don’t come out now, you’ll die... “the mysterious elf elder looked around and sighed sadly, “That’s not right. Even if you come out, you’ll die...”

Li Goudan: “Eh?”

Chapter 1789: crisis...

“What... What does that mean, big brother...”

Li Goudan panicked. This time... .. She was really panicking!

Even though she was severely injured, she wasn’t as panicked as she was now because she felt that she still had one last trump card that was useless. But now, this last trump card told her that she was going to die?

The short elder took off the silver hood that she liked to cover herself with all year round, she looked at this upside-down world with a complicated expression. “I originally thought that with your talent, as long as your luck isn’t too bad, you should have the chance to bring me to experience life once Li Goudan: ” ... ”

What did she mean by her luck wasn’t too bad? Did she mean that her luck was very bad now?

“Big Brother, what’s going on? Don’t keep me in suspense. I feel so good! “Li Goudan looked like she was about to cry... ..

“You did well before... “the elder looked at Li Goudan and said seriously, “My judgment is right. Apart from your amazing talent and bloodline, you are also a strong person in your bones...”

Li Goudan was stunned. She knew that the Elder was praising her performance in the death battle with the undead.

She was even more relaxed. Ever since she met this big shot, this guy had never praised her in such a serious manner... .. Could it be... .. That something big had really happened today?

(‘I couldn’t help you before, and it’s the same now... ..’). The elder sighed. “In the Emerald Starfield, I’ve already used up all my spiritual power to help. Before You Reach dragon-level, you can’t help me recover even the slightest bit of my origin. So, even if you were killed by those undead just now, I could only watch...” . ” ”

“It’s the same now... “the elder looked up at the topsy-turvy ground. “This is the dream realm. Originally, I could have played a pretty good role here, but unfortunately, the thing you ‘re facing isn’t something I can solve... ”

“What the heck, even you can’t solve it, Big Brother? “Li Goudan bit her lip, looking extremely unwilling...

She liked to take risks, but she didn’t want to die!

The journey had just begun, and she hadn’t been to many places. She had already thought of the blueprint for after graduation... ..

First, earn enough scholarships, buy a high-quality adventure ship after graduation, join the Adventure Guild, and first explore the Milky Way’s periphery. The Lord had said that if player adventurers could help find a life planet., they could be appointed as the chief administrative officer of that planet according to the situation.

Those people in his family always wanted to take advantage of the situation and fight for a planet for them. They would definitely treat his mother better, and his mother would also be able to live a more comfortable life on a new planet... .

Then, he would go to explore the various ancient ruins that the elder had told him about. On the one hand, he would be a mercenary to complete some scattered missions. On the other hand, he would go to take a look at this incomparably vast world. On the way, if he could get to know a group of teammates... It would be even better if they went to explore the vast interstellar journey together... ..

A Ranger, a hero who traveled all over the world. This was her most primitive wish and also the reason for her transformation. Her bones were filled with the genes of freedom and adventure.

But all of this... had yet to begin...

Many of the places that the elders had mentioned, such as the ancient forest, the super plants that connected the entire galaxy, and the Living Planet

Monsters, had broken the balance of nature and devoured the entire planet. The final resting monster planet, the super mechanized ruins, the kind of ancient civilization that had been forgotten for many years, the mechanical planet that would be fully activated as soon as a stranger entered, serving even one person...

So many... .. Interesting places, she wanted to take a look, she wanted to record them in her diary... ..

Could this be the end of her story?

Looking at the Elder's sorrowful expression, dogball felt an inexplicable sourness in his nose. He silently took out a black diary from his back... .

It was said to be a dream world, but it was extremely real. Even the notebook he brought with him... ..

However, the words on it were all upside down... ..

Year 2219: July 9th... .. Sunny (Let's call it sunny for now...)

This was the 73rd day of my enrollment, the third day of the trial in hemlock forest... ..

Li Goudan very seriously recorded the encounter with the undead today bit by bit. The upside down words did not affect her writing at all. This world seemed to have the essence of being upside down. Even if you wanted to correct it... It could also turn it upside down... ..

"Senior... "Li Goudan's voice was a little shaky. "What exactly is it? I think it can at least be recorded in the diary..."

The elder glanced at her, and a trace of gentleness flashed through his eyes... ..

It was so similar to his previous self, even his habit of taking notes was so similar...

It was already quite a pity that he had fallen in the prime of his life, but this child had not even reached the prime of his life yet... .

"The primordial nightmare..." . ... No one knew its name. It was one of the seven ancient evil gods, and it was as famous as the divine empress, Lorci. It was once known as the Lord of the Eternal Night and was a ruthless dark butcher. Every time night fell, it would start a massacre. It was the only evil god among the seven evil gods that did not have any believers! "

"No Believers?" After Li Goudan recorded his words, he looked at the other party curiously.

"Because no one believes in a god who kills even his believers! "The elder laughed. "It's an existence that completely enjoys killing. It's different from other evil gods. It never bewitched anyone. It only descended to glorify the horrifying slaughter! "

Li Goudan: " ... "

How could there be such a perverted thing?

"Doesn't it sound interesting?"

These words made Goudan Li's hair stand on end, because the direction of the voice came from the other party. However, the voice had completely changed.

It became low, hoarse, and had a terrifying eerie tone... ..

Senior... Senior?"

Goudan Li's entire body stiffened as he looked forward. Then, he saw that the elder had turned around. It was a face without facial features!

Jiayi! !

Outside the dream, Dutton was screaming like crazy, because everyone could see that Li Goudan suddenly had all kinds of scars!

As if scratched by the beast's claws, one after another, along with the leather armor was lifted, blood and flesh flew, several wounds directly tore out more than half of the bone, it was shocking to see! !

What on Earth was going on? ? ?

Yao Feng and the others were also horrified when they saw this shocking scene because there was nothing around them. They could not see what was attacking the little wind demon.

"Captain..." Lu Luo and the others were horrified. "It's not a spiritual body, nor does it look like a curse. What on Earth is this?"

"Anyone of You, think of a way! Think of a way! ! "Dutton knelt on the ground and nearly cried out.

This time, he couldn't even help this junior block a single slash. Who knew what kind of terror this junior was facing now?

The people of Tirefarson looked at each other in horror. This situation seemed too strange. The best way now was to stay away from that wind demon... ..

But this thing... .. They still couldn't do it... ..

"Who?"

Suddenly, Yao Feng looked up, and everyone immediately became vigilant! But vigilance was useless. A huge sickle appeared on Yao Feng's neck without any symptoms... ..

Chapter 1790: you ? I can move, right?

Captain! "

"Don't come over! ! "Yao Feng calmly ordered his teammates to retreat!

Although he was a commander-type captain, in terms of real skills, besides demon star, only greedy wolf could compare with him in Tirefarson's team. An existence that could silently control him without any reaction was obviously not something his team members could help him with...

"Just like the information on him, he's very calm..." A heavy voice sounded in his ear...

"Sir, what's the matter?" Yao Feng asked carefully.

The opponent's skill was able to kill all of them when everyone's attention was attracted by the little wind demon just now!

But he didn't do that, there must be another reason... ..

"There's nothing else. Just stand there and don't move..." the thick voice was cold and unquestionable. .

Yao Feng frowned in confusion, but the others' expressions changed because in the next second, they saw several accomplices walking out from behind the person who had kidnapped their captain... .

They were all undead! ! !

"It's You! ! "Dutton raised his head and immediately recognized these guys.

It was the group of undead that was chasing after Li Goudan!

"Yo handsome, we meet again! "The only female undead in the team greeted Dutton with a Smile!

This scene immediately made everyone's hearts tighten. They immediately guessed the identity of this group of people. It was the person who had injured this little wind demon to such an extent! They didn't come with good intentions!

What should they do?

Everyone looked at each other, but for a moment, they did not notice anything. Darden's words from before were not the slightest bit exaggerated. This group of undead was indeed not something they could deal with...

"Feng... We have to hurry up, that girl is about to die! "A tall undead man beside him said.

Ye Feng, who was holding demon Feng, nodded and gave up on Captain Tiriverson, who was being held hostage without any hesitation. From the probing just now, it could be clearly seen that there was no existence in Tiriverson's team that could threaten them!

"Get out of the way! ! "

Arriving in front of Dutton, Ye Feng kicked Dutton away without any hesitation. His speed was so fast that Dutton, who was a Ranger, was kicked far away without any reaction!

Everyone's faces tensed up, but they still did not dare to move. The speed that Li Goudan displayed just now was something that almost no one could see clearly. At such a distance, there was almost no chance of winning if they fought!

"To think that she could hold on for so long! "Darton squatted down and looked at Li Goudan's terrifying wounds. Without any hesitation, he took out a black crystal.

He didn't dare to delay because he knew that anyone could die within a few seconds after entering the Dreamland!

"What are you doing?"

Darton struggled to stand up, trying his best to stop the other party. However, he was pressed down on the spot by a huge palm. "Don't touch the elf, we're saving her! "

Everyone, including Dutton, was stunned!

They were here to save her? Are you kidding me?

But judging from their skills, there was no need to lie, at least not to them... ..

They could only stare at each other in a daze and put a black crystal into the little wind demon's mouth!

“What a wonderful prey! !”

At this moment, in the dream, the Elf Elder had already transformed from a beautiful short elf into an extremely ferocious and terrifying monster. His pair of sharp claws were like ten blades that were embedded in his fingernails, every wave of his claws could take away quite a bit of flesh and blood from Li Goudan's body!

Goudan desperately dodged those seemingly endless blades!

He did not know if the other party was doing it on purpose, but every time the blade that could harm him was faster than his own speed. Every time he was forced to improve under the pressure of his potential, the blade would also become faster! He was depriving himself of the hope that had just risen!

Just like that, Blade after blade, with incomparable despair and pain, he harvested his own flesh and blood!

“I thought it was already very rare to have such a wonderful prey, but there's actually another one. What kind of Good Day is today?”

The hoarse voice carried the tone that the elder used to be familiar with, giving off an even more terrifying feeling. It was as if your acquaintance had suddenly become a ghost that could devour you. In many horror movies... This transformation was the most physically terrifying point... ..

Goudan was very afraid. To be honest, this was probably the moment she was most afraid when she first stepped into the interstellar realm. However, no matter how afraid she was, her body's instinctive reaction did not make her fall down, even if she could not see any hope.., even if her entire body was a bloody mess and her flesh was almost scraped clean, she still struggled with all her might!

However, the more Goudan struggled, the more excited the monster-like elder became!

The power of a nightmare was the power of fear. The power of a dream was actually very magical. As long as a person had enough courage, they could actually have unlimited power in this place.

The power of a nightmare was that it could compress your courage infinitely. No matter how powerful you were, once you entered the laws of a nightmare, you could only follow the basic rules of the dream. A nightmare that had laid out a plan in advance could have an unimaginable advantage.., it would be able to completely suppress one in the first instance, regardless of any aspect of strength!

Most people would be overwhelmed by this fear in the first instance, and then their lives would be quickly harvested!

Creatures with a strong will to survive would have a certain degree of ability to resist. However, this resistance would gradually become despair under the high pressure of the nightmare's layers, and in the end, they would not be able to escape the fate of a tragic death...

However, the nightmare creatures enjoyed this process. They liked those who could struggle, but they were also afraid of those who could struggle. Hence, they would spare no effort to suppress those who could struggle. The process of suppressing those who could struggle was an incomparable enjoyment!

The creature in front of them was very suitable. She was too weak. Even if she possessed enhanced survival instincts and high-quality genes, she was still unable to obtain too much strength through courage, this kind of existence that could struggle but could not threaten her was truly the most delicious prey!

What if she peeled off her skin with the next slash?

Then, a mirror appeared, showing the appearance of the monster that saw her flesh and bones. Finally, a reflection that seemed like it was going to eat her climbed out of the mirror. Such a sight would definitely make her scream, right?

The elder's face was contorted, and he was so excited that his entire body was trembling. Just as the blade in his hand was about to slice open the opponent's scalp and peel off her skin from the top, a black light suddenly shone down!

Without any symptoms, Goudan was enveloped by a black light!

The elder froze on the spot and stared fiercely at the black light. Then, he let out a mournful roar! !

"Who?"

"Sir... "Ye Feng's voice appeared above Goudan. "Please abide by the rules of the alliance. Creatures protected by the Nightmare Stone, you can not attack..." "

"Is that so?"

The elder's face became distorted. He instantly tore open a space, and the torn space revealed a blurry scene. If one looked carefully, they would find that it was actually where Li Goudan and the others were in reality!

The elder's distorted face slowly emerged from the space. He said darkly, "Then you.... I can move, right?"
