Chapter 1801: The Strange Team of the Seven Kings (Part Two)

In the Inferno monarch's palace, every king was the target of the Inferno's many undead. This was because they grasped most of the laws of Inferno and held many of the spots that the undead dreamed of.

However, among the many kings, Spider Queen Rose's team was something that many of the rookies who were training stopped in their tracks... .

The reason was that the elimination rate was extremely high!

Rose's team had a long history. They had experienced dozens of team leader candidates, but none of them had survived. The reason was that they had not passed her test. And this time, her test was even more chilling.

This year, the seventh King's team had recorded 72 people, which was the highest number of people among the ten kings. However, they followed the method of raising venomous insects and carried out internal strife. Out of the 72 geniuses with excellent aptitude, only three were left before the mission!

The three of them entered the various universities as undercover agents and participated in this mission. According to the latest news, among the three of them, whoever could successfully use the tinder to bring back the evil God's nightmare would become the team leader, while the remaining two would be eliminated!

Everyone knew that in the Seven Kings team, they would be eliminated... What did that mean!

During the life and death test, their undercover identity was naturally their first trump card to gain the upper hand. Even the three members of the seven teams did not know who the other party was, so it was naturally impossible for the other teams to know... ..

"This... "

After hearing Ye Feng's explanation of the so-called team seven kings' situation, everyone was stunned.

There was such a perverse screening system? Should they say that they were indeed undead?

"You're saying that... Everyone doesn't know?" Yao Feng narrowed his eyes and asked.

"Yes... "Ye Feng faintly looked at Tyree Fassen and the others. "So... Among your teammates, including you... It's also possible..."

Everyone. " ... "

"This joke isn't funny... "Ravenous Wolf looked at the place coldly, his eyes full of distrust.

However, although he didn't trust them on the surface, his heart was a little cold!

There was something wrong with Mi Jia. There might be other hidden monsters in the team. The sound of it made people feel a little scared...

Very soon, the atmosphere in the team became a little strange. Demon Edge Zhou frowned. He was sensitive to the fact that the people in the team were deliberately far away from Mi Jia and the team's medical hands...

This was very understandable. Mi Jia had already been guessed by him that there was something wrong, and the medical staff was the only two undead in the team. If it was as the other party said, then the undercover of the seventh King's team infiltrated the university, then in their team... The most likely ones were these two... ..

But it was also not right...

"You said just now that there were three people who infiltrated the university, right?" Yao Feng frowned and looked at the other party. "In all the university teams, only we, Tirefarson, have two students with undead backgrounds. No matter what, it can't be enough for you to go undercover, right?"

Ye Feng narrowed his eyes and said, "There are some things that I can't tell you, but... It's not limited to the undead..."

"Not limited to the undead?" Yao Feng was stunned. What did he mean by that?

Were there any non-undead among the people sent by the death realm? This was not right, right?

If it was someone from the older generation, it might still be possible. It was not unheard of for some arcanists who were obsessed with alchemy to secretly seek refuge with the death realm in history, many alchemists now had unclear relationships with the liches in the world of death.

Otherwise, where did all the materials from the world of death come from in the black market?

However, it was different for newcomers. It was unlikely for a junior who had not reached the dragon level to become a spy of the world of death... ..

No matter from any angle, even if it was a native...

After all, his level was too low, and it wasn't easy to hide the traces of his past involvement with the death realm... ..

"Can you reveal a little bit?" Yao Feng said in a low voice, "You said it yourself, only by finding that undercover can we have a chance to get out. If you don't say anything, it'll be difficult for us to help you find him, right? Under such circumstances, sharing information is the most beneficial..."

Ye Feng frowned when he heard that. He exchanged glances with his teammates around him, and a hint of hesitation appeared on everyone's faces... ..

Finally.., only then did the undead that was as tall as Titan speak in a low and muffled voice, "What's there to say? The Seven Kings team is killing each other internally. Do you expect them to show mercy to us? The fact that they did not let us out immediately shows that they did not intend to let us go,

Ye Feng's eyes flashed with coldness when he heard that!

Indeed, after entering the night, the first thing he did was to use the passage between the kings to communicate with the members of the seventh King's team, but... There was no response at all.

His teammates had also tried, but they were unable to leave the night. In other words, the three of them didn't have any intention of letting them go... ..

The tall undead said angrily, "No one in that team knows their identities. As for the undead problem you mentioned, it comes from the laws of the seventh King!

"Laws?" Yao Feng narrowed his eyes...

"This... It's a little troublesome to explain... "the tall undead scratched his head with a troubled expression, as if he was thinking about how to phrase it. .

"Let me do it... "Ye Feng sighed, he continued the topic, "The reason why the seven evil gods are classified as gods by the living world is because they are the rare seven outsiders who can successfully seize the laws of the material universe in the outer realms!"

Tyree Fassen and the others were stunned when they heard that. They immediately recalled that in the historical explanation of the evil gods, there seemed to be a teacher who had mentioned this topic...

From ancient times until now, in countless eras, the invading foreign creatures had entered the stars. However, only the seven evil gods could be called evil gods in the true sense because they possessed the power similar to gods, which was also the so-called... ". . The power of Laws!

It was said that the seven evil gods had taken part of the laws from the universe. Their laws had no scope and were applicable to all their believers!

And Rose was the god of deception!

Yao Feng's pupils constricted, and he suddenly reacted... .

"Looks like you've thought of it... ". "..."Ye Feng looked at him and said, "Her Highness the seventh king is the god of deception. As long as her laws are given to her believers, they can be used in the entire universe, be it the living or the dead worlds. For example.. . she told this world that if these spies weren't undead, then they weren't undead. Perhaps in essence, they were, but all of you.. ... No one, including the ten great heavenly gods, could tell .

Everyone:" !!

"But the laws aren't complete...". Ye Feng continued, "So lies can only be used once. As believers, they can't create their own lies. That's why the seventh king only gave this lie protection. Once it is exposed, it will return to its original form.

"How do we expose them? "As everyone sucked in a breath of cold air, Lu Luo could not help but ask, "Is it useful if we expose them?"

"It's useful! "Ye feng nodded and said, "As long as there is evidence, we can expose them. Once a lie is exposed, it will no longer be protected by the lie. It will also be exposed in front of the other two competitors. In order to save their lives, they will also escape from this darkness as soon as possible... ".
..." "Why do you want to escape? "The demon Feng asks curiously.

“Because there is no security... <per_0> . “Ye Feng narrowed his eyes and said, “The nightmare of the evil god is in the living world, so the medium that can accept it can only be a living person. Once it is exposed and loses the protection of the law of lies, it will no longer be a living person and will lose the effect of a medium. It will not be able to directly control the nightmare of the evil god and will definitely be killed by the other two teammates! So... :. After it was exposed, in order to prevent its teammates from attacking it, it would definitely escape from this dark scene as soon as possible! ”

Hearing this, everyone looked at each other with a strange expression on their faces... ..

They were really playing tricks with each other. What was this... . . Team Seven

Kings, so strange... .

Chapter 1802: Approaching Nightmare

“How is it?”

At the cabbages, everyone was gathered together, but they could only look at each other from afar. A large group of elemental elves surrounded them, and no one dared to take the risk, because the concentration of the elemental elves here was relatively high. Once they went berserk., it was directly equivalent to a level 5 civilization’s high explosive device. Even a star-level powerhouse would be blown to pieces!

It was really hard to understand how a mere level ten little flower spirit could attract so many elemental elves... ..

“Arthas... ”

In the starry team, Tola suddenly said out of boredom or something, “This scene is a little familiar...”

“How familiar?” Arthas frowned.

“Do you remember...” Tola whispered, “That day... at school, when Tyrande resonated with the ancient great elves?”

“Shut up! Don’t say it! !” Arthas was so excited that he directly shouted, causing the surrounding people to cast sidelong glances at him! !

Tura also looked at him in shock. He did not expect that the usually calm Arthas would suddenly be so irritable!

Looking at the stunned crowd, Arthas’ expression was extremely ugly. He immediately found a seat and closed his eyes to rest... ..

Tola was stunned for a moment before he suddenly realized that he had said too much... .

Tyrande was the representative of the Zephyr family’s priestess. He was the next elven emperor. Many people even believed that Tyrande could break the curse and become a true elven emperor.

This thought was brought to the peak on the day of the sacrificial ceremony when Tyrande woke up the great ancient elves. After the ancient water lord was deployed, he was almost brought to the peak. Many high priestesses said in secret.., tyrande might really be able to break the restrictions of the royal bloodline and regain the former glory of the Royal Family!

Everyone trusted tyrande. After all, she had created a miracle... ..

But what if... .. But what if she did not create that miracle?

Once this thought appeared in Tura's mind, he could no longer suppress it. He stared blankly at the side of the cabbage, his thoughts turning a hundred times!

As for Arthas, he secretly looked over there, and an uncontrollable panic spread out in his heart... ..

Did the family ask him to monitor this little guy because they sensed something?

While the atmosphere was strange, Helan Ziyue, who had been closing her eyes in the distance, suddenly opened her eyes and looked into the distance.

"Someone is coming!"

Everyone immediately stood up on guard and looked over warily.

However, they didn't see anything!

They immediately looked at Zi Yue in puzzlement!

"Over there..." Zi Yue closed her eyes and suddenly pointed in a direction. Everyone immediately looked over. Immediately, a spatial ripple appeared and a familiar figure leaped into everyone's sight... .

"Demon star?"

Everyone looked at the other party in shock. At this moment, Demon Star looked extremely miserable. Beside him stood a female elf who was dressed in red and covered in injuries... ..

This is...

Everyone looked at the female elf curiously. Although she was covered in wounds, her entire body had an extremely sharp aura.

It's her?

Some people immediately recognized her. After all, this girl had once performed stunningly in the Hall of Judgment!

"Why are you here?" Tura couldn't help but ask Yao Xing first.

Yao Xing rolled her eyes at him, too lazy to reply. Feng Doudou, on the other hand, was the first to notice little cabbage. His face lit up with joy, but when his gaze landed on Grandpa Lu, who was undergoing surgery, his pupils constricted!

Boom! !

Before she could take a closer look, a violent vibration in space interrupted the shock in her heart. She quickly turned her head and saw a space shattering like glass, two extremely disheveled figures rolled out of it!

“It’s you guys?” Yao Xing looked at them and warily tensed up all the muscles in her body.

The two people who rolled out were actually the undead that had fought with them earlier!

Feng Doudou looked at the two guys and frowned. She remembered that they seemed to have used a space spell to escape, but... .. They weren’t in such a sorry state, were they?

“It’s You?” One of the undead raised his pale face. When he saw Feng Doudou, for some reason, he was pleasantly surprised. “That’s Great! ”

This scene made the others look at Feng Doudou in shock, and Feng Doudou himself was also stunned. He looked at the other party... ..

What do you mean by that’s great?

It was as if they were very familiar with each other...

“This is?”

Tura furrowed his brows. He could clearly sense that these two... .. Were undead!

On the side of Netherworld Academy, the group of teammates had strange expressions on their faces as well. On the other hand, Purple Moon’s eyes flashed with an unknown look...

“What’s going on?” Yao Xing looked at Feng Doudou in a daze. The corners of Feng Doudou’s mouth twitched. How did she know?

“Cough... you guys... What’s going on?”

Feng Doudou looked at these two guys who treated her as their savior and couldn’t help but ask.

It was obvious that something had happened to these two guys. Their injuries weren’t light, and... . She remembered that there were clearly quite a number of people in this group, but now, there were only the two of them... ..

“That monster... ” the female undead little ai was about to say something when a buzzing sound suddenly rang out. The entire space let out a sharp cry, and everyone couldn’t help but cover their ears.

Feng Doudou also covered his ears and looked forward. The space that little AI had escaped from earlier had already started to heal, but something had torn it apart from the inside, making an extremely ear-piercing sound.

Soon after, an incomparably pale face appeared at the location of the spatial crack, giving everyone a fright. The pale-faced person looked at everyone with a sinister smile, and his long nails tore the space apart bit by bit, the sharp sound was like fingernails scraping against glass, giving people goosebumps all over their bodies!

Yao Xing widened his eyes. He was very familiar with that face. wasn't it the captain that Feng Doudou had beaten back earlier?

I think his name was... Sa Wuta or something?

"Ji Ji..." after sa wuta tore a small hole in space, he slowly crawled out like a snake. His body was so soft and strange that it was frightening. Everyone felt a wave of physical discomfort... ..

"This guy... he wasn't this abnormal before, right?" Feng Doudou frowned as he looked at Little Ai and the others. "What's going on?"

Little Ai's face was pale as he trembled. "Captain... Captain, he... No, he's not the Captain! !"

The captain wouldn't do such a thing to his companions...

When he thought of his companions' miserable state, Little Ai's face turned even paler, and his face was filled with fear!

"What should we do?" Yao Xing looked at Feng Doudou nervously.

"Who cares what he is..." Feng Doudou pulled out his frost crystal sword. "Let's kill him first..."

"AH..." sauta, who had climbed out, slowly retracted his neck. He looked at Feng Doudou with longing in his eyes. "An ancient body, an ancient body, too perfect..."

"Disgusting!" Feng Doudou furrowed his brows and turned into a red shadow as he pounced on him.

"Too perfect!" Sauta let out a strange laugh and pounced on Feng Doudou. The white and red figures instantly collided!

Has It started?

In the crowd, a figure in the dark narrowed his eyes at Savitar, who was pouncing toward him.. He muttered to himself, "Are there already people like these two?" ?

Chapter 1803: Doudou says he won't lose, so he won't lose...

"I'll GO!

On the night Nether Academy's side, a group of people were dumbstruck...

What was this?

Looking at the red and white figures that filled the sky, the few main players in the team felt their scalps go numb. They were completely unable to see the trajectory of the body movements, as well as the power and cold air that erupted from the exchange of ice blades in the air. They could almost instantly confirm... If they were to sneak in, they would not even be able to cover for them... ..

If they remembered correctly, that little girl was from the Bronze Academy, right? When did such a ferocious fellow appear from the Bronze Academy?

What the hell was that undead that appeared from behind?

The Starry Sky Academy and Spark Academy's side were slightly calmer. After all, they had already seen some unreasonable existences before.....

However... It was still not as exaggerated as the one before them. .

Carmen, Ba lie, and Tura, the ACE players of these teams, secretly glanced at each other. Their eyes were filled with a complicated look.

In the past, in a social gathering, they could be considered the absolute main characters. Every time the social gathering started, the amount of money surrounding them was greater than the sum of all the other players combined. The real main characters felt like... ..

Although they also knew that the main characters in the next social gathering would not be them, they did not expect that there would be a new wave before the descendants of the royal family had even left the stage... ..

"The new generation is awesome..." Carmen muttered, his tone filled with vicissitudes of life.

Ba Lie, who was usually arrogant, seemed to be sighing at this moment. He looked over with a complicated expression. In terms of age, they were still in their prime, and it was the perfect time for them to shine. It was a pity that they were born at the wrong time and met the year of the crown prince. From the looks of it now... Fortunately, they met the year of the crown prince and had already applied to quit the team at the Academy in advance. Otherwise, if they met these monsters in the next session, their faces would probably be swollen...

"Don't be sentimental..." Arthas directly interrupted the crowd and said with a sigh, "Toula, if you activate the device, are you confident that you can help?" Help...

Toula was silent. Since when did the requirements for him become so low?

"I can!" Tura nodded. "If I can activate the device, I can barely help. If I can also use the great blessing spell, I should be able to join the battle..."

"I think it's best not to do that..."

A faint voice sounded. It was Helan Zirai... ..

"Captain Zirai, what do you think?" Carmen asked, his tone full of respect as usual.

"I don't have any suggestions, I just don't want anything to happen right now..." . Zirai raised her head and looked ahead. "That monster... .. although it was entangled with the little elf, its eyes never left us. Obviously, it was guarding against our activation device ... " .."

"You can see it?" Carmen's expression turned cold, and the people around him looked at him with fear.

"I can barely see it..." Purple Moon said in a low voice, "If the nightmare hadn't been taken away and my spiritual power hadn't been damaged, I should be able to help a little. Unfortunately... right now, I can only barely see it..."

Is this for real?

The few of them looked at this fellow from the Night Shade Academy with fear in their hearts. They had all heard that this new captain of the Night Shade Academy was very strong, able to make the previous captain willingly step down as soon as he stepped onto the stage.

“Captain Purple Moon, do you think it will be dangerous to activate the device now?” Asked Arthas with a frown.

“Yes...”. Purple Moon looked at the sky and said, “That little elf is very powerful. He’s almost on par with that monster. However, the problem is that this distance is too close. Any one of them would only need an instant to pounce over. If it were me, if you dared to activate the device, I would prioritize killing all of you at the risk of getting injured. Furthermore, I wouldn’t have to pay too much of a price. You’ve all seen the skills of these two people. If any of them rushed over, they would only need the blink of an eye to kill us!”

Everyone. ” ... ”

It sounded a little disheartening, but it was the truth...

“Should we try to pull away? “Someone in the team suggested.

However, almost no one replied to his suggestion...

Since they were already targeted, the other party would naturally not let them pull away. Even if they used a spatial spell, the other party would risk getting injured to keep them.

At this time, the group of people suddenly felt extremely complicated. On one hand, they did not feel the sense of dignity of being ignored, but on the other hand, they were annoyed that they had been noticed. If the other party did not take them seriously, they would be able to help a little.

“In other words... We can only watch?” Ba lie frowned and said in a muffled voice.

Purple Moon was silent. It sounded a little embarrassing, but it seemed that this was the only way.

“This... “the group of people looked at Arthas, and their expressions were not very good.

No matter what, everyone’s safety depended on the little elf who suddenly appeared. It really felt a little...

“Let’s take a look first... “arthas sighed and looked at the battlefield.

Although... They could not see anything...

But what could they do. This purple moon guy might have been straightforward, but he was also telling the truth. Under such circumstances, if they stayed obediently, they might have a chance to survive. If they moved recklessly, they might be wiped out in the next moment...

Ding!

With a crisp sound of weapons clashing, the two figures immediately separated. The sky was filled with sword shadows and saber lights. It was extremely beautiful. After the two separated for a short while, there were still intense sparks in the sky!

Everyone quickly looked over, and their hearts suddenly tightened!

That Feng Doudou... .. Seemed..! ... to be at a disadvantage! ! !

Everyone could clearly see that the old wounds on her body had not undergone professional repair and suturing. She had relied on her own muscles to forcefully tighten and stop the bleeding. Now that she was in a high-intensity battle, she naturally could not maintain it, causing the wounds to open up greatly. She was like a bloody person... ..

Moreover... There were obviously a few new wounds on her body!

Looking at the new wounds that were burning with frost and fire, everyone, including little Al and the other two undead, felt their hearts jump to their throats!

After all... .. Once this elf lost, they probably wouldn't even have a chance to escape!

Chi Chi!

Just as everyone was feeling anxious, Feng Doudou turned his right hand, and a dagger appeared in his hand. A blade light flashed, instantly cutting off the new wounds and flesh that were burning with frost and fire!

Everyone had goosebumps all over their bodies!

This girl has such a ruthless heart! !

"No... "Arthas shook his head. "We can't continue being passive like this..."

After saying this, he shouted at Feng Doudou, "Schoolmate, can you stall him with all your strength? You only need five minutes! "

"Five minutes?" Feng Doudou didn't even turn his head. He smiled and said,

"Five minutes, the winner has been decided! "

Everyone. " ... "

"Don't worry... "Feng Doudou grinned. His white teeth were exposed, and his eyes were full of excitement. At that moment, everyone felt that they saw an extremely bright light in the darkness, and it was so bright that they couldn't open their eyes...

"I won't lose! "Feng Doudou promised in a low voice. "I will definitely win this round! "

"This... "Arthas and the others swallowed a mouthful of saliva and looked at each other. For some reason, the little girl's words gave people a great sense of trust. For a moment, they actually felt at ease.

Although they logically believed that such peace wasn't desirable...

"Listen to her..."

Just as everyone was hesitating, a gentle voice was heard.

Everyone immediately looked over. It was Bai Cai, who had been focused on the surgery... ..

“Bai Cai?” Tura looked at him in surprise.

“Doudou said that he wouldn’t lose, but he has never lost...” Bai Cai was still focused on the surgery. His tone was indifferent as he said, “Just don’t move....”

Chapter 1804: Worst Case Scenario!

“Captain, everyone is here...”

Outside the black curtain, a group of undead gathered outside. It was the five kings team led by Foyego...

“Let’s announce the information...” Foyego said to the female undead in the team.

Everyone looked over in confusion, and then the female undead, Ji, announced the information solemnly.

“First, let’s focus on the dangerous characters that were rediscovered during this mission. Several of these dangerous characters came from various universities, and all of them have the strength of a Captain!”

Everyone was stunned when they heard this, and a few of them who had never experienced this before revealed looks of disbelief.

Was this a joke? That group of creatures had the strength of a Captain? Or were there several of them?

Using the soul link, Spirit Ji transmitted the images and information to everyone, introducing them one by one...

Focus 1: new student from Gale Academy: Li Jiayi. According to the intelligence provided by team nine kings, she single-handedly killed the newly promoted team nine kings captain: Ice Eye, although heavily injured., but she managed to escape from team nine kings. According to the latest intelligence, it was possible for her to meet up with Team Tyree Fasson. Due to unknown reasons, she had entered the black curtain and had single-handedly killed a team captain level character with an S danger rating!

Focus 2: Hidden Ace of Rufassen Academy: Wang Xiaojia. The initial intelligence came from Team Six Kings ‘Micah. She said that she had the strength to face the crown prince head-on. She had long been classified as a grade A dangerous character, the East City district had met with team leader

Foergo by chance and was able to escape unscathed under team leader Foergo. Now that she had officially been promoted to grade S, she was also a dangerous character at the team leader level!

“What?”

All the team members were stunned. They couldn’t believe it. He was able to escape unscathed from Captain Foyego’s hands?

“You’re joking, right? “In the team, an undead clad in black armor couldn’t help but ask, “Is he that powerful?”

Lingji and the bald undead on the stage couldn’t help but twitch their lips. For a moment, they didn’t know what to say.

To be honest, the excuse of being able to escape unscathed from Captain Foyego’s hands was a little forced...

Foyego also coughed lightly and said in a low voice, “Don’t waste time, continue.

Lingji hurriedly nodded. “Focus on three, Feng Doudou from the Bronze Academy. The initial intelligence also came from the six kings team Micah. It described that the newcomer had once fought head-on with the captain of the Esoteric Academy, Ba Lie, in the Judgement Hall of the Bronze Academy. He was listed as an a-class character. Later, in the South City District, he single-handedly killed the puppeteer of our team. He was also able to directly recognize the Miya siblings who could change their memories. At that time, he was promoted to an A-class character and was given special attention... ”

And now... ”

After a pause, he took a deep breath and continued, “According to the latest intelligence, Feng Doudou met the six kings by chance and forced them into the dark! ”

“This... ”

The undead couldn’t hold it in any longer and questioned him!

“Isn’t this too exaggerated? One person can force out all the members of the six kings? Even Captain Foyego can’t do that, right?”

“That’s right. Is there such a powerful creature? Did that scout see it?”

“I saw it!”

Among the undead, an undead shrouded in black mist said coldly.

Everyone was stunned and immediately fell silent...

Shaye, the third main force of the Five Kings, the number one assassin in the team!

“First of all, let me explain...”. The undead called Shaye said coldly, “To be able to force the six kings into a collective escape zone, there must have been some luck, because when she got close, the six kings didn’t have time to activate the device, but that Feng Doudou did defeat the captain of the six kings, Sauta! ”

After she said that, the crowd became even quieter!

In other words, two captains had already lost?

No wonder the captain’s expression was so serious. It sounded like a lot of trouble... ..

“There’s something even worse... “Lingji took a deep breath and said, “The three important creatures mentioned above have all entered the black curtain area. You should know what it means... ”

Everyone. ” ... ”

Three captain-level creatures entered the black curtain area?

Of course, they knew what it meant. The seventh King team might have the combat strength of three captain-level creatures, and something even more terrible could happen...

“It seems that you’ve realized the seriousness of the problem...” . “ Lingji said faintly, “Two of the three captain-level creatures are seriously injured. Even Feng Doudou isn’t in full condition. It’s possible for that kind of situation to happen inside the black curtain area. Once that happens, we’ll all die after the night covers the

“This... “the undead swallowed their saliva and looked at each other. The black-armored undead couldn’t help but say dryly, “The members of the seventh King’s team won’t do that, right?”

“Of course! “Foyego interrupted the other party’s lucky tone without hesitation and said coldly, “Don’t get lucky. Members of the seventh King’s team, if you do this, you will only be rewarded by Rose! ”

The Dead:” ... ”

“Reiki...” foyego sighed and looked at reiki: “The device is activated, ready to go, let’s Go! ”

“Yes!

On the other side, the battle between Feng Dou Dou and Saouta was in full swing. Everyone held their breath and looked at the battlefield. Although they couldn’t see clearly, they didn’t dare to be distracted. After all, this was a one-on-one duel that determined everyone’s fate!

“Purple Moon, how was the battle?”

This was the first time Carmen had asked this question. Purple Moon’s face twitched, and she suddenly regretted saying that she could see the battle clearly. Did He F * cking treat her as a live commentator?

“The situation is a little complicated... “purple moon took a deep breath, and her gaze was a little complicated.

She could clearly see that the wounds on Feng Doudou’s body were increasing. It was obvious that he was at a disadvantage. After all, up until now, the undead’s clothes were still intact... ...

But...

Judging from his aura, it was completely different!

She didn’t know why, but the more she fought, the braver she became. The more she fought, the more familiar she seemed to be with her opponent’s style. It had been a long time since she had been injured... ...

The Undead’s sword gradually couldn’t hurt her anymore!

“What an excellent creature... ” Savitar let out an ear-piercing exclamation!

This exclamation was sincere. As an ancient nightmare, it had abundant experience and could perform Sauta’s body to perfection. Whether it was its bodily functions or its own skills, they would be displayed to the extreme in the hands of the nightmare, if Sauta could perform 80% of its body's abilities while controlling its own body, then it could perform 120% !

This was also why Feng Dou Dou was able to defeat the genuine sauta, but was unable to defeat this pirated version in front of him... ..

However, such an advantage was slowly being eroded by the opponent's astonishing talent... .

The reason was very simple...

In the battle, this fellow had improved visibly, and was injured again and again. It was obvious that she was slowly getting used to her own strength, slowly getting used to her own speed, and slowly getting used to her own techniques!

The Nightmare King laughed...

Just as it was about to say something, its pupils suddenly constricted, and it jumped out of the range of the sword contest!

Feng Doudou didn't chase after it, because she felt an intense pressure just like the other party!

"Who is it?"

Feng Doudou looked over. After seeing the other party clearly, he immediately froze on the spot, his face extremely pale!

On the other side, the nightmare that controlled Saouta's expression was extremely ugly as well. He muttered, "This is really the worst case scenario..." In the darkness, a figure covered in dragon scales slowly walked out!

Chapter 1805: when a powerful talent is used!

"After you guys leave, you must be careful of some strange whispers..."

This was Ysera's last warning before they left. Feng Doudou remembered the expression of the Big Green Dragon at that time... " It was very serious!

"What is a Whisper?" Little cabbage asked foolishly.

"It's something that occasionally appears in your ear, and some inexplicable voices... especially when you're meditating or sleeping, it's easy to appear... " "Damn, a Ghost?" The group of people immediately looked horrified.

"It can be considered..." " ". Ysera said faintly, "It's actually a little more dangerous than the ghosts in your culture. In your Western culture, those hell demons often do this. When ordinary civilians encounter this kind of thing, they need professional priests or priests to perform exorcisms..." "

Everyone. " ... "

“We... will definitely encounter it?” This time, rain girl asked without a melon.

Everyone looked at each other expectantly. As expected of rain girl's Big Boss, she always asked the crucial questions, unlike cabbage, who only asked silly questions... “.

“There's a high probability that we'll encounter it...” “...” “...” “Ysera said in a low voice, “The better the body, the easier it will be for the evil gods to spy on them. Things like them are somewhat similar to the undead in the universe. They all have powerful spiritual power but don't have good bodies. However, unlike the undead, they can infect spiritual power and directly control living people to become their puppets...” “...”. In other words, the so-called possession was very similar to the possession of demons in the Western culture of Planet D.”

“All the big clans have high priests and priests. Every day, they will record the words and deeds of their outstanding children. It is very rare for them to be bewitched by Evil Gods. However, you are different. You do not have a special set of equipment, so do not leave the academy for no reason. When you are on a mission, you must also go with the high instructors. Remember, once you hear the whispers in your ears, you must immediately report it to your life instructors and get the high priests and priests in the academy to perform the exorcism ceremony for you!”

“What if you've already been possessed?” Rainy girl continued to ask.

“Then it depends on luck...” “...” “...” Ysera smiled and said, “With your aptitude, the higher-ups of the normal academy should be trying to protect you, but they might not be able to do so, because an exorcism that has already been possessed would cause a great loss to the body...” “...” “.”

Pausing for a moment, he said seriously, “Also, if you are out on a mission and you find that your companion has been possessed, do not try to solve it yourself. You must inform a senior instructor to help you subdue him...”

“Why?” “Everybody is suddenly curious.

“Because it's very dangerous!” Ysera said in a deep voice, “Any one of you who is possessed is not someone that any of you can deal with. Don't compare your usual battle records. After possessing you, your battle strength and peacetime... <per_0> . Not on the same level! !”

Knock, Knock.

The dull sound of footsteps beat like a drum on everyone's heart, and everyone's face became a little panic.

Most of the people did not know who that figure was, but the pressure that the figure brought was real, at least a few hundred meters away, but everyone had a feeling of breathing difficulties!

“Someone from Tyree Fasson?” Carmen said with a sullen face.

This was the first time he realized that talking was such a difficult thing, and he was being suppressed by someone of the same generation...

“Who knows this guy?” Ba lie sensitively took a few steps back, clearly sensing the danger of the other party... ..

He Lan Zi Yue's pupils constricted, and her face became a bit pale. She quietly retreated to the back of the team... ..

Even sauta, who had been fighting Feng Dou Dou earlier, didn't make a sound. He stood rooted to the ground, not daring to move... ..

"Everyone, retreat..." Feng Dou took a deep breath and said cautiously!

She was quite familiar with Wang Goudan, because she was the one who had fought with her the most after she transformed into a dragon... ..

And because of this, she was very sure that this guy in front of her was definitely not Wang Goudan! ! !

The pitch-black dragon scales, the black-red flames, and the astonishing aura and pressure were all exactly the same as before. The only thing that was different was that pair of eyes...

There was a trace of scarlet in the pitch-black, giving off a strong sense of fear. In the past, the violent aura that Wang Goudan's eyes gave off after transforming into a dragon was also very strong. However, it wasn't as exaggerated as it was now. Most importantly, there wasn't such an incomparably malicious feeling... .

Wang Goudan's violent aura was purely a negative emotion caused by his warlike genes. However, the one before his eyes was different. This gaze... .. It was just like an executioner who had been through a lot of killing. It was a gaze that only a pervert like Wang Goudan would have.

Wang Goudan definitely would not have such a gaze, nor would he emit such a disgusting malicious aura!

Dong... Dong!

Goudan, who was covered in dragon scales, slowly approached step by step. There was a teasing smile on his face, and he wasn't in a hurry at all. It was as if he was enjoying this slow and pressuring process... ..

"How about joining forces?"

Feng Doudou was taken aback, and so were the people behind him. The person who said this was obviously sauta, who had fought with him a while ago!

From the aura, everyone could clearly feel that the two of them belonged to the same species.

Why did he want to join forces with me?

"Don't have any doubts..." Sauta said in a low voice. "I'm very sincere. The reason is complicated, and it's not convenient for me to say it now. This guy in front of me is indeed the biggest threat to me!"

"Okay!" Feng Doudou didn't hesitate and directly put forward his conditions.

"You take the vanguard, and I'll support!"

"Sure!" Sauta didn't say anything else. He directly turned into a black shadow and pounced forward. The Frost Crystal Sword in his hand quickly rose up. In an instant, the wave force was formed, and the entire sword force was used.., it was likely that Sauta himself would be dumbfounded here. It was completely beyond his level!

Feng Doudou didn't hesitate to follow. Using the Sword Force formed by the other party, he quickly guided part of the water force to his side. Then, it rapidly expanded, and in an instant, it also formed a wave force that was about the same size as Sauta's! Two towering waves surged toward Wang Goudan under the two people's exquisite sword skills!

Good Aptitude! !

Sa Wuda not only thought to himself, "What a great embryo...".

Faced with this incomparably powerful sword momentum, Wang Goudan sneered. Without hesitation, he stretched out his two dragon claws and clawed at the two sword momentum!

Bang! !

The energy collided, and the surrounding space instantly distorted. The group of people behind them were directly sent flying. The wind elements on Bai Cai's side quickly turned into wind walls and caught them!

Everyone's faces were filled with shock. This power, was it really just a few students fighting?

Even if it was a battle between dragon level experts, there might not be such a movement, right?

In front, Feng Doudou couldn't suppress his qi and blood and directly spat it out. His eyes were filled with shock as he looked at the opposite side!

The full force of the sword energy was actually torn apart by his bare hands?

She clearly saw that Goudan didn't do anything. He only tore apart the sword energy with his bare hands. The power that he displayed and his prediction of the weak points of the sword energy were incomparably accurate. It was completely incomparable to Wang Goudan in the past!

Now, Feng Doudou finally understood what Ysera had said back then: after possessing someone, their combat power is completely different from each other's!

Indeed, they wouldn't be on the same level at all. If this continued...

Without time to think, Feng Doudou and Sauta instantly changed their sword stances. They coordinated seamlessly, using the power of the flowing water to guide the other party's strength. After another rotation, the other party's strength once again surged forward. Once the strength was reversed, it was..! It was more than twice as strong as before!

"What a good coordination!"

Almost everyone, including the two undead that had escaped, couldn't help but sigh!

The coordination between the two of them could be said to be perfect. One on the left and the other on the right controlled the waves to divert the opponent's strength. At the same time, they circulated their power to become even stronger. Then, they swiftly formed a new and even more powerful monstrous sea force behind the opponent, the coordination between the two of them through this sword force was completely greater than the level of 1 + 1!

Perhaps... They could deal with that monster!

After being sent flying, Xiao Ai, who was kneeling on the ground, had this thought in his mind. However, just as he was thinking, a voice suddenly appeared in his mind!

“You have two minutes to prepare your space spell and escape with us. If you can’t do it, I’ll kill you first later...”

Xiao Ai: “Eh?”

Chapter 1806: Already Dead!

What’s going on?

Hearing this voice, Ai was almost dumbfounded...

Because she immediately recognized that this voice belonged to that very powerful elf!

Instantly, a lot of question marks popped up in her head!

Wasn’t the other party so eager to fight? Why was she suddenly thinking about escaping?

It was fine if he wanted to escape, but why did he ask her to prepare? Shouldn’t she be the one who should be the least trusted?

What the hell was two minutes left?

“You have one minute and forty seconds left... “the cold voice sounded again!

Xiao Ai shivered all over and shrank her head. She looked into the distance. Although the place where the fight was taking place was a little far from her and the other party looked like he was completely stalled, she still felt that sense of threat. She was very sure that the opponent wasn’t joking. Two minutes later, he might really come and chop her with a knife...

“No, constructing the spell takes at least five minutes! “Xiao Ai quickly replied!

“Five minutes? You clearly didn’t spend that much time before. I advise you not to play any tricks at this time! “Feng Doudou’s voice was cold and doubtful, but it also carried a strong sense of threat!

“I didn’t... “Ai quickly denied it. She instantly understood why the other party had chosen her.

So it turned out that they were interested in her ability to quickly construct spatial spells!

It made sense. It was rare for apprentice mages to be able to instantly construct spatial teleportation spells like her. Many dragon-level specialized spatial warlocks couldn’t do it either... ..

“The item needs to be cooled down, and my mental strength isn’t as good as before. Five minutes is already very difficult...”

“Three minutes! !”Feng Doudou’s voice became urgent. “Don’t bargain anymore. I Can’t last five minutes either. You have to finish it within three minutes. If I can’t hold on any longer, I don’t care how your mental strength

Little Ai shivered and looked forward!

The battle between the two sides was extremely intense, but it was clear that they were evenly matched. Why couldn’t they last five minutes?

Little Ai didn’t have time to think. He quickly started to quietly construct a spatial technique. From the other party’s tone, it didn’t seem like he was lying. He could only try his best!

“Everyone, get closer to that undead...”

Little Cabbage’s voice came from everyone’s minds. After a moment of shock, they didn’t think too much and all moved closer!

“Do you want to run?” Sa wuta smiled sinisterly...

“Are you waiting to die if you don’t Run? “Feng Doudou sneered. “Do you still think you can beat this thing?”

Sa Wuta was silent. Both of them knew that although they seemed to be evenly matched, the amount of energy consumed wasn’t on the same level. Although the other party’s explosive power was strong, she obviously didn’t expend much energy due to her astonishing physical fitness!

On the contrary, both of them controlled the monstrous sword energy, and their physical strength and energy were rapidly depleting. If this continued, they would be exhausted in less than a few minutes!

“Are you bringing me along?” Savitar smiled.

Feng Doudou: “I’m not interested. You should think of a way yourself... ” “I think so...” Savitar smiled sinisterly. “But it’s a pity, your body...”

As soon as he finished speaking, the sea power in his hand, which had been perfectly coordinated with Feng Doudou, suddenly changed. It was as if he had just let go of his hand and merged with Feng Doudou’s sword power, instantly increasing the pressure on Feng Doudou!

Meanwhile, Sauta himself turned into a black light and pounced toward Ai!

When everyone saw this scene, their expressions changed greatly!

They knew the plan and didn’t want to leave with this thing. Without Feng

Doudou, even if they could successfully escape, who would take care of this guy?

“The spell can’t be stopped... “Xiao Ai transmitted. “If it’s stopped, I won’t be able to create a second one! ”

Everyone’s emotions sank to the bottom. Could it be... “. ” They really want to run away with this thing?

What kind of joke was this?

“Take me away. I promise I won’t Touch You!” Sa Wuta’s hoarse voice sounded.

I don’t believe you! !

Almost everyone thought the same thing...

However, what else could they do in this situation. However, if they really wanted to take this guy with them, they were extremely unwilling... ..

However, in an instant, an even more unexpected scene appeared. The Black Dragon, which was still entangled with Feng Doudou, suddenly turned into a black light and pounced over!

“F * ck, what’s Going On? ?”

If it wasn’t for the wall of wind blocking his back, he would have run away in fright!

“Damn it! !”Sauta’s expression immediately turned ferocious as he glared at the other party. What’s going on with this guy? Why did he choose to chase me at this time? The Elf who clearly grasped two sword auras is more threatening, right?

From Afar, Feng Doudou laughed coldly and transmitted his voice, “I’m sorry, Pm more familiar with this guy than you are. She... she has always preferred to fight first and escape...”

Sauta: ” ... ”

Weng!

A Roaring Dragon’s roar rang out, and the terrifying explosive power made it so that Sauta had no way to dodge. He could only brace himself and use his sword skills to resist!

With a creak, everyone watched in horror as the Black Dragon grabbed the frost crystal sword in Sauta’s hand and twisted it into a twist. At the same time, Sauta’s arm that was holding the sword also turned into a twist!

“Save me!” Savitar immediately shouted at Feng Doudou in the distance, “Without me, you won’t be able to escape! ”

“That might not be the case! “Feng Doudou laughed coldly and raised the short sword in his hand!

Boom!

Before the result could be seen, a surge of sea energy quickly rose from the ground and wrapped the two of them together!

Savitar’s expression froze. This guy... What? He could successfully control two sword energies?

She... actually held back!

This damn elf had been plotting against him from the start!

However, it was too late for him to be angry. The monstrous waves instantly swept the two of them together. Feng Doudou instantly flashed in front of Little Ai. "Why aren't you leaving?"

Little Ai didn't dare to hesitate anymore. He instantly activated his space spell. A white light flashed, and everyone, together with the elemental elf that little cabbage had attracted, disappeared from the spot!

"You can't run, you can't Run! !"

A shrill cry sounded from the back of the space, like a demon trying to kill someone. Everyone who had been teleported felt their hair stand on end as if they had been electrocuted... .

Bang!

Everyone fell to the ground after the space shook violently. Only little cabbage was able to land safely under the Elemental Sprite's consciousness. From the beginning to the end, little cabbage's surgery had never been heard of. It was still extremely detailed... He was suturing Grandpa Lu i s head... .

"Cabbage... "Feng Doudou struggled to get up and leaned over. "Help me treat my injuries... that thing might find us soon..."

"Wait a moment... "little cabbage didn't even raise his head. "I'll help you once Pm done here..."

Feng Doudou looked at Grandpa Lu on the operating table and was silent for a few seconds. In the end, he said, "Don't continue..."

Little cabbage's entire body froze...

"You know... Grandpa is.... ALREADY DEAD! "Feng Doudou said faintly

Chapter 1807: Monster!

It's already dead... It's already dead... .

Feng Doudou's words made Bai Cai Freeze on the spot like a statue. Everyone instantly felt the atmosphere was extremely stifling and didn 't dare to make a sound... .

This guy...

The two team leaders who were priests, Arthas and Helan Ziyue, were secretly shocked. Their feelings were the most obvious. They could clearly feel that the surrounding space was affected by the little flower spirit's emotional changes.

At this moment, the entire space was not being suppressed by an illusion, but the elements of the entire space were cooperating with the little flower spirit, so it had become so oppressive and heavy!

"Remind that guy... " Ziyue secretly transmitted her voice to Arthas. "Tell her not to provoke your little flower spirit..."

She could clearly feel that the flower spirit of Starry Sky Academy was like a barrel of oil that could explode at any moment. The danger level was not inferior to that black dragon at all... ..

Arthas nodded. He wanted to say something, but it was already too late... ..

“Grandpa Lu isn’t dead... ”

Little Cabbage’s voice was soft to begin with. When she became stubborn, it sounded exceptionally pleasant, but this kind of paranoia made people feel a chill... ..

“Cabbage... “Feng Doudou took a step back and looked at cabbage nervously... ..

Because... She could clearly see that something was wrong with Bok Choy’s condition. ...

The originally clear emerald-colored double barrel had turned scarlet, as if the purest emerald had been dyed with mixed colors...

This situation made Feng Doudou feel an inexplicable sense of unease... ..

“Grandpa isn’t dead... “Bok Choy stared straight at Feng Doudou.

Feng Doudou swallowed a mouthful of saliva. Looking at Bai Caps creepy gaze, she subconsciously replied, “Yes... Grandpa didn’t die...”

For the first time... .. Feng Doudou was scared. She had a feeling that if she didn’t say this, this guy... .. ! Was going to eat her alive!

Among all the first batch of players in the base, Bai Cai was the most harmless. This was the consensus of almost everyone. The topics she talked about were always the jokes that everyone liked to hear and see. Things like the son of Heaven, the kidnapped Empress, the lying-flat great sage, and so on. Everyone in the base knew about her nicknames...

Everyone was teasing her about how no matter how she lay flat, she always had luck that no one could catch up with no matter how hard they fought!

She was clearly captured by the npcs, but she could become the chief of a tribe in the outside world. She was clearly kidnapped by the undead, but she was able to recruit an extremely astute butler. She clearly didn’t do anything, but she was the highest level flower spirit in the base, she had the largest faction in the base.

This fellow seemed to be born with luck on her side. However, under the influence of such luck, no one paid much attention to Bai Cai.

Subconsciously, they all felt that she wasn’t that strong...

Even though she was at the highest level, even after the Emerald Starfield, the dragonized Wang Goudan’s level wasn’t as high as hers. Even though her mental strength was the strongest, even rainy girl and Wu Gua weren’t as strong as her. Even though Ysera said that she was an elven royalty.., everyone’s impression of Bai Cai was that he was a hooligan who ate and drank. Feng Doudou also thought so. Even the leaders of the five major cities rated the dangerous players.., bai Cai was also the harmless type.

But now...

Feng Doudou felt like he couldn't even hold his sword properly when facing this guy...

Roar! !

Just as the atmosphere turned gloomy, a shocking dragon's roar sounded. Everyone jumped in fright and looked around in Panic!

"Over there!"

Xiao Ai looked at the place where the spatial link had been, his face full of shock!

Everyone looked over and finally understood why they couldn't see the shadow of the roar even though it was so close. It turned out that...! It was in the Space

Link!

That monster had actually followed the space they had teleported over!

Was it crazy?

With this kind of space tunnel opening, if the surrounding turbulence wasn't guided by a spell, even a star-level expert would be caught in the turbulence!

Did this guy really dare to follow them over?

Bang!

Just as everyone was in shock, a pair of huge dragon claws appeared at the space opening, forcefully tearing the already shrunken space apart. The sizzling sound of friction made everyone's hair stand on end!

This monster! !

"Heh..."the monster grinned, revealing its white fangs as it tore the space apart bit by bit. Even Feng Doudou couldn't help but take two steps back when he saw it... .

This scene was even more terrifying than a female ghost crawling out of a Television!

While Feng Doudou was panicking, a trace of anger flashed in his eyes. To be honest, she should have thought of it long ago. Wang Goudan's wild instincts were extremely strong, and the thing he was least afraid of was that kind of spatial turbulence, because with his super strong instincts... He could almost completely avoid the danger that could appear at any time in the spatial turbulence... ..

"Quick, close the passage! !"Arthas hurriedly shouted.

Little Ai was both terrified and speechless. If she could close it, she would have done so long ago. Opening the passage was easy, but closing the passage was at least several times more difficult. With the mental strength of these high school students, let alone closing the passage... It would be difficult for them to even help activate her spatial tool... .

"Back off! ! "Feng Doudou hurriedly shouted, his face tensed up.

To be honest, she had no chance of winning against this dog egg. Even when she was working with that undead, she was still struggling. She might not even be able to stall for time by herself!

If she really couldn't... . She could only run away with Bai Cai...

“Dog egg, wait for a moment...”

When the situation was extremely tense, an incomparably gentle voice sounded out in the atmosphere of fear. Hearing this voice, everyone couldn't help but shiver, and an even greater chill surged in their hearts.

When they turned around, the first thing they saw was a pair of beautiful and bewitching red jades...

Feng Doudou was also stunned. He hadn't been paying attention, and it had turned into this...

Bai Cai didn't pay attention to the crowd. Instead, he looked straight at Goudan, who was about to crawl out of the space. “Wait a moment. After I Save Grandpa and deal with Doudou, I'll Come Find You...”

Wang Goudan, who had already opened the space, was stunned when he saw Bai Cai's gentle tone. He stared at him in a daze.

Bai Cai smiled sweetly. With a gentle clench of her white hand, the entire space tunnel started to shrink!

It was as though it was forcefully closed by a huge force!

A ruthless aura flashed in Wang Goudan's eyes. He roared furiously, as though he wanted to increase the force to open up the space. However, under that mental energy, he was directly swept back by the space behind him and disappeared before everyone's eyes! !

In an instant, as the dragon's roar gradually faded away, the entire space became extremely quiet!

What... was this?

Everyone stared blankly at the forcefully closed passageway, their faces blank...

Xiao ai stared blankly at the already closed spatial passageway, his face stiff. If he wasn't mistaken, just now... .. It seemed like this fellow had used pure spiritual power to forcefully close the passageway!

For a moment... .. Everyone held their breath, not daring to make a sound, watching cabbage step by step back to the operating bed, listening to the sound of a little bit of sutures...

All of a sudden... .. Everyone had this feeling...

This one over here A black dragon, I'm afraid. . Something even more terrifying....

Chapter 1808: Who is the traitor (Top) ?

“Captain, here...”

In a market area shrouded in darkness, Lingji pointed at a few remains and transmitted to Captain Foyego.

Foyego quickly gathered his teammates and walked over...

The market had been severely damaged by some kind of force, and it was almost a ruin. Faint frost crystals floated in the sky. It was obvious that the frost crystal weapons here had been used before.

“This is... ”

A few undead who had rushed over saw the most important thing. There were about seven or eight dried corpses. At first glance, they looked like decomposed corpses, but in fact, everyone could recognize that these corpses were not so-called corpses, they were the biological shells of these new undead!

This was their latest secret, and it was also the reason why they could enter the living world in their best state... ..

Of course, these new undead did not enter the living world by relying on their souls. Instead, they relied on a kind of high- level biological technology. This technology combined with many big shots, including some ancient undead lichens... And also some big shots in the living world. The one who was recently exposed was one of the ten great lichens: Andrew... ..

With the joint efforts of many big shots, they had developed the most bionic material for the dead world!

According to the theory put forward by Andrew, who used the dead world material to make a body, the dead world material could be used in the living world. This meant that the laws of the living world were only targeted at the souls of the dead. In essence, the matter of the Yin and Yang realm., in fact, it was not repulsive, at least it would not be completely insoluble!

Therefore, after many experiments and eliminating hundreds of millions of materials of the two worlds, they finally found the best biological fusion material. Whether it was the capacity of the elements or the strength of the material itself, they were both perfect, in the end, the Palace of Lords decided to carry out the project.

This biological material was extremely malleable. After the soul was stuffed in, it would stick close to the soul to form a perfect bionic system. It almost replicated a living creature with the soul as the carrier!

However, the material was too precious and the production was extremely low. Therefore, only the ten great kings had a small number of slots.

Of course, this thing also had its shortcomings. For example, the soul that stuck close to the soul had to completely mold the physiological structure of the soul that stuck close to the body. It was equivalent to an ultra-thin body membrane. Once it was damaged, the soul would also suffer great damage.

The second point was that it could not be recycled. Once it was damaged, the soul would be forced to return to the death realm, and the body would quickly dry up, just like what was happening before their eyes.

The last point was that a little bit of the black mist of the death realm was needed to avoid the strong physical elements to a certain extent to avoid wear and tear. The cost was very high.

According to the rules, if they could forcefully return to the death realm and bring back the body, although they would be punished if they failed the mission, since the new creature's body could not be rebuilt and could not be retrieved, they could only be used on one person, there was a high chance that they could stay in the team.

However, the situation before them clearly showed that no one could forcefully return to the world of death... ..

The faces of the corpses were distorted. They must have suffered a terrible thing when they were alive...

...

"It's the six kings team... "after the test, LINGJI confirmed, "The seven members of the team are all members of the six kings team. Their souls have already dissipated, so the probability of them dying completely is very high! "

Hearing the word 'completely dead', all the undead's bodies fought with great sensitivity.

"What about Sauta?" Foyego asked.

"Captain Sauta isn't among them, but... "Lingji hesitated for a moment, but she still took a deep breath and said honestly, "But judging from the battle traces around them, the one fighting with these members is probably Captain Sauta! "

All the specters: !

"It's really the worst case scenario... "Foyego's face was gloomy!

The thing he was most afraid of was that the thing in the Dark Curtain had a higher-level body. It was already a very dangerous signal for Sauta to be controlled at his level... ..

"How's the spread of the Dark Curtain?"

"It's very exaggerated... "Lingji said in a low voice, "It has already covered one-third of the central city. At this rate, in less than half a day, the city center might be completely covered, much faster than the original plan... "

"Where's the Tinder? How many pieces have you found?" Foyego asked again. Lingji said, "According to the information of the surrounding teams, the six kings team has found one piece. Combined with the fact that one of the Seven Kings team controlled one piece first... They have unlocked two Split

Nightmares! "

"What about the information of the Seven Kings Team?" Foyego said in a low voice, "Did you analyze it? Who is most likely to be those three guys?"

Everyone looked over. This was probably what they were most concerned about right now!

Originally, they didn't really care about the identity of the Seven Kings as a spy... .. Because the original plan was that the other three kings wouldn't have any conflict with the Seven Kings at all!

The original plan was that the nine, five, and six kings would lead the college students to get the Divine Fire Shard and force them to go to the center of the city. Then, the three spies of the Seven Kings would activate the nightmare, under the cover of the college students, they would compete with each other to decide the ideal captain for Princess Rose.

In other words, when these college students were forced to the center of the city and gathered, they didn't need to care about them. Before that, they could choose the right seedlings to kill and replenish the quality of the team.

After the black curtain was activated, they could just go to the periphery of the city and wait for the result!

There wouldn't be any conflict at all, but the situation before them had completely changed. According to the scheduled time, there were still three days before the evacuation of the city. So early in the morning, team seven King's Nightmare had already grasped a body at Sauta's level! Of course, the members of team seven King wouldn't follow the original plan so obediently!

Needless to guess, they would definitely spread the black curtain and quickly cover the entire city, enveloping all the other team members of the King's team... ..

They were already competitors. If there was a chance, they would kill them if they could. After all, after they left, they could completely deny that the nightmare had lost control, right?

Foyego had sensed that something was going to happen after Wang Goudan, Li Goudan, and Feng Doudou had entered the Black Curtain. Now, it seemed that the other side had turned hostile. Otherwise, the sixth king team wouldn't have died so miserably...

"Captain..."lingji said, "Those guys from the seven kings seem to want to eat us whole! "

"They haven't solved their own problems yet. They sure have a big appetite! "The vice-captain, the bald undead, had a cold expression on his face. "Aren't they afraid of holding on until the end?"

Foyego sighed. "Now, perhaps they really do have the strength. Lingji, in the intelligence analysis, which one is most likely to be a spy?"

Spirit: "For the time being, only Helan Zirai from the night tour academy might be more obvious. She is the evil priestess of the nightmare realm and has natural conditions. The probability is one of them... "

"The probability?"Foyego looked at the dark sky.

"Is there a problem, Captain? "Spirit asked in confusion.

"Of course there is..."foyego said faintly, "If we are all so suspicious, the other two competitors will also be so suspicious. But if it was really that simple, Rose wouldn't have chosen them...."

Chapter 1809: Who is the traitor? (part two)

Tick Tock... Tick Tock...

Time passed second by second, and the people waiting for the cabbage surgery could only hear the sound of sweat dripping from each other...

At this time, no one dared to run away first. Even though everyone knew that the flower spirit that could close the passage with pure mental power was most likely infected, no one dared to move... ..

Feng Doudou could only stand there, holding his sword, holding his breath, waiting for the result of the surgery...

“She shouldn’t be asleep, right?”

After an unknown amount of time, he lanna suddenly opened her mouth to break the silence, giving everyone a fright! !

They all stared at each other, as if they wanted to sew her mouth shut!

“What kind of expression is that?” He Lanna shrugged and smiled. “You guys have secretly transmitted a lot of messages, right? That guy can hear the messages. If he cared about what you guys said, you guys would have died ten thousand times already!”

Everyone: ” ..

In an instant, everyone looked at the people of Starry Sky Academy as if they were waiting for the other party’s affirmative reply. Arthas was silent for a few seconds and nodded slightly.

F * ck! !

The group of people immediately took a deep breath. wasn’t this F * cking too perverted? To be able to hear the messages of others, if the teams were to fight, wouldn’t the plan be equivalent to being naked in front of the other party?

“Since you can hear the voice transmissions, why don’t you have any reaction?”

The first person who was suspicious was Helan Ziyue.

“How would I know, my dear sister... “Helan Nana smiled as she looked at the other party. “You are the black priestess, shouldn’t you know more about evil gods, especially nightmare lords, than us? Why are you asking us?”

Everyone immediately looked at Helan Ziyue, and their eyes became a little inexplicable!

Ziyue: ” ... ”

“Captain Ziyue, you don’t have to feel burdened...” ” ... “. “Everyone can see the current situation clearly. Since the voice transmission did not cause a reaction from Bai Cai, speaking directly naturally would not cause it, and we don’t have to worry about touching on sensitive topics. If we don’t say it, how would we know what is a sensitive topic? “If we wait like this, sooner or later, something will happen, right?”

“Captain Arthas is right...” . Carmen replied, “Waiting like this isn’t a solution. It’s better to face it openly. Even if we accidentally trigger that guy’s attack in advance, there’s nothing we can do. It’s impossible to say that the longer we wait, the safer it will be, right?”? “What do you all say?”

The people from the other universities looked at each other and finally nodded slowly.

Rather than being depressed and silent, it was indeed better to openly discuss a countermeasure or just go all out. Otherwise, if they continued to wait like this, they would collapse before that guy exploded...

...

While everyone was talking, the cabbage inside seemed to have not heard anything. It was still extremely focused on stitching up Grandpa’s wound.

Seeing this scene, everyone felt a little more at ease...

It seemed... .. They would not easily trigger the other party’s reaction... ..

“Captain Zirai, why don’t you tell us your opinion first...” “Arthas looked at the other party faintly. “After all, you know them the best, don’t You?”

“These two should be the ones who know them the best, right?”Zirai pointed at the two undead coldly.

Only then did everyone react and look over. Indeed, although Zirai was suspicious, there was basically no need to doubt the two undead in front of them. There was definitely something wrong...

“My two friends...”Arthas looked at each other. “Now that everyone is tied to the same rope, is there any useful information that we can divulge?”

Xiao Ai and the other undead looked at each other and gritted their teeth. Finally, Xiao Ai said, “Evil God Whisper...”

Was It really so?

Everyone immediately narrowed their eyes. Arthas quickly said, “Continue...”

Xiao ai said, “That team member of yours must have a very strong obsession in her heart, which led to a loophole being exploited. The reason why she did not attack us is because her own will still has the strongest will supporting it, which is to save that Phoenix...” . “.

“The evil god used this obsession point to invade the other party, but because of this obsession point, she was temporarily unable to completely invade the other party. But once the surgery was completed, she realized in the end that there was still no... ” ... “. Having said that, little ai obviously paused for a moment, it was as if she was afraid that this sensitive topic would attract attention, she deliberately changed her words and said, “If we don’t idealize it, when our emotions collapse, we will be completely invaded. And with the power that she displayed just now, once we are completely invaded... I’m afraid that it will be the time for all of us to Die! ”

Everyone immediately fell silent. The pure spiritual energy had closed the spatial passage, and the pure elemental elves around them. If it were any other serious dragon-level powerhouse, it would probably be difficult to deal with these things, not to mention them!

"Is there any way to break it?" Carmen quickly asked.

Everyone's spirits were lifted, and they all stared straight at Little Ai...

"Yes! "Little ai said, "We just need to find the controller of the Nightmare!"

Everyone was stunned, and then they were puzzled. Carmen directly said, "The Nightmare Controller, isn't he one of yours?" After a pause, he said, "Indeed, he shouldn't be one of yours. Otherwise, he wouldn't have attacked you..."

"They're our people..." Xiao'ai said faintly.

Everyone: " ..

"As for why they attacked us, the reason is complicated, so it's not convenient to say more. But as for the specific identity, we don't know either..."

Arthas heard this word, he frowned. "Why would your people say their identity? Could it be..."

"It's a Spy!" Xiao Ai gave the answer directly.

Everyone's expression turned cold. Arthas nodded. "As expected..."

"You don't know the specific identity of the spy?" Carmen asked with a frown.

"Don't Know?" Xiao Ai shook his head. "There are three psychics who control the nightmare. Their identities are all confidential, but they must be one of the high school students who came this time!"

Everyone: " !!

This news made everyone extremely shocked. So... " ...". There was actually such a thing among their teammates?

Almost the next second, everyone's eyes turned to the captain of the Night Tour team: He Lan Ziyue!

"What are you doing?" The members of the Night Tour team immediately looked around nervously!

"No, it's just a subconscious reaction..." ba lie smiled and said, "After all, from the probability, your captain is the most likely, right?"

These words caused the expressions of the people from the Serene Night Academy to turn cold!

Obviously, they all knew that these words were not wrong...

The captain was a black priestess, and he had always believed in the evil god. Yet, the evil god he believed in was the nightmare! !

It had to be said that from any angle, it seemed too convenient... ..

"Captain Zirai..." several captains from the high schools stared at each other, and Carmen said, "Why don't... you explain a little?"

Zirai smiled coldly. Just as she was about to speak, she found that the members behind her were also stammering. She looked over.

Seeing the captain looking over, the members became even more nervous. In the end, a tall night walker stuttered, "Captain... how about... you... explain?"

Zirai. "

Chapter 1810: the first to be exposed?

What a speechless situation...

He Lan Zi Yue sighed slightly. Looking at her teammate's obviously guilty but obviously wary gaze, she didn't know what to say for a moment... .

But she thought this reaction was very normal...

After all... .. There were too many aspects of her that met the requirements of this medium... .

The black priest, the nightmare totem, and most importantly... .. Her background was extremely opaque...

Many people knew that she had inherited her background, but as a stunning descendant, her parents were just a group of extremely ordinary mercenaries. Speaking of which, it was a little too surreal... ..

All sorts of abnormal combinations, coupled with today's events, were simply a perfect match. To be honest, she even began to doubt herself... .

"I'm not... "Helan Ziyue said coldly. "I don't have any explanation. It doesn't matter if you don't believe it or not. I have no way to prove it! "

Everyone was stunned when they heard this. They looked at each other, and the atmosphere suddenly became a little heavy...

The other party's method was very shameless. It was obvious that he was willing to fight whether they believed it or not, which gave them a headache. In the current situation, if they didn't have absolute evidence, if they acted rashly...

The key was that the other party was very strong. If that Feng Doudou didn't act, to be honest, Arthas wasn't confident that he could take down the other party, even if he had more people on his side!

"Have you ever thought... "Helan Ziyue suddenly said faintly, "You guys are discussing how to deal with that controller, but that flower spirit... "as she spoke, she pointed at the little cabbage. "There's no movement at all. What does this mean?"

"What does it mean?"Arthas frowned.

"It means that the controller behind the scenes has no way of controlling her to do anything. It can be seen how strong this little flower spirit's spiritual will is. Even if it's the evil God's whisper, if there's no special opportunity, it's impossible to get close to her... "

"What does Captain Zi Yue want to say?"Arthas frowned.

“What I want to say is very simple...””zirai said faintly, “That little flower spirit of yours has been very wary of me from the very beginning, hasn’t she ? With the strength of her spiritual power, if she hadn’t let down her guard, she wouldn’t have fallen for it, right ? Are you sure it’s me?”

These words immediately caused the people from the starry sky academy to be stunned. It was indeed so. Little cabbage seemed to be very wary of He Lan Zirai. The moment she got close, she had threatened her. With such vigilance., he Lan Zi Yue shouldn’t have the chance to secretly do anything to little cabbage, right?

If she had the mental strength to crush little cabbage, why would she still be unable to control it now?

It seemed to make sense...

“Is that so? I don’t think so... “a cold voice rang out from the crowd. Everyone looked over in shock, because the person who had spoken out in denial was actually he lan zi yue’s sister in name: He Lan Nana!

Yue’s dark purple pupils constricted as she stared fixedly at her sister, whom she had not seen for a hundred years...

This...

Everyone looked at each other strangely. Although no one would completely not doubt Zi Yue’s words just now, they had never expected that the first person to question Zi Yue would be nana, who was also from the Helan Family!

(‘I think it’s the other way around... <per_0> . “Cabbage’s spiritual power is strong, so it takes time to control her. You used an unknown method to let the evil god control her, but because her power can not be controlled in an instant, you need to stall for time... <per_0> . .”

Helan Purple Moon faintly glanced at each other: “Do you have evidence?”

He Lan Na also glanced at the other party indifferently. “Do you need evidence?”

Zi Yue:”

“In such an emergency situation, you still need evidence? Sister, are you joking? “Na Na said coldly.

Everyone suddenly understood. Yes, what evidence? In such a situation, do I still need to slowly find evidence for you? Pm not a police officer. In such a situation, it’s naturally enough to have suspicions!

“Isn’t it inappropriate for you to say that?” Zi Yue looked at the other party. “We’re sisters... ”

“Never! “Helan Nana interrupted him. “You’ve always been an outsider, always! !

Zi Yue:”

“Alright! “Ba lie stood up, his huge body burning with shocking battle spirit, he looked at Zi Yue viciously, “We are not interested in listening to your family drama here. You self-destructed your spiritual core to prove that you are not the controller. Otherwise, don’t blame me for being impolite!”

“You want me to self-destruct my spiritual core? “Zi Yue narrowed her eyes and laughed, “With you?”

“Little girl! !” Ba lie laughed ferociously. The skin all over his body instantly turned red. The powerful heat caused his entire body to emit a sizzling sound like a boiling kettle!

Boom! !

In the next instant, Ba lie transformed into a red tornado along with this heat wave and directly pounced towards Zi Yue!

When the members of the night excursion team saw this, they were all shocked. “Captain! !”

However, no one had any intention of coming forward to help!

Boom!

An intense energy exploded, and a shockwave spread in all directions. The astonishing power caused everyone’s pupils to constrict!

No one had ever thought that Ba Lie’s strength would be weak. What surprised them was Zi Yue! !

The person who was able to withstand Ba Lie’s incomparably powerful attack was actually Zi Yue’s exquisite jade-like hand!

“Captain...”

Ye You and Shen Ao Academy’s members couldn’t help but call out.

At this moment, the veins all over Ba Lie’s body bulged. The powerful strength caused the metallic ground beneath his feet to begin to crack like a Spiderweb!

However, his fist was unable to advance even a single inch under the opponent’s beautiful jade hand!

Without even thinking, Ba lie knew that this captain of the Night Shade Academy was not someone he could deal with at all!

“Why aren’t you making a move! ! !”

Ba lie roared without the slightest hesitation!

Carmen frowned slightly, but in the next second, he clenched his two steel gloves and turned into a red ray of light as he charged forward. Seeing this, the ace of Starry Sky Academy, Tura, hurriedly looked at Arthas.

Arthas nodded slightly. Tura pulled out his Knight’s sword and also turned into a golden sword light as he pounced forward!

The three versus one scene did not cause Ziyue to panic at all. She only sighed slightly. In the next moment, a black light descended from the sky and enveloped her body!

The powerful force sent Ba lie and the other two team’s aces flying!

Under the Black Light, a few seconds later, the energy dissipated. Everyone was surprised to see that the originally beautiful and elegant he Ian Zi Yue was now covered in a faint layer of dark room. A layer of dark wriggling creature armor covered her entire body, only her beautiful purple hair was exposed!

Everyone could feel that there was an extremely familiar and terrifying aura on the creature armor. It was the same fear that the nightmare invasion gave people!

“It’s really you! !” Ba lie said viciously. However, the moment he opened his mouth, his mouth was pressed down by the white jade hand that was covered in smoke, and he was forcefully thrown to the ground!
