Chapter 181: The Magic Bicycle

“Hello, Doggie?” Brother Dog called Doggie immediately after he went offline.

He had actually planned to stay in the game for the time being. Firstly, he wanted to avoid elder Li and the others pestering him about getting in touch with the sects. Secondly, he wanted to focus on developing his foundation in the game.

After knowing the truth and knowing that everything in the game was real, he didn't want to slack off. As the development of the base got better and better, they would definitely walk into the Sea of stars. Since he was lucky enough to be in the first batch..., he couldn't miss such an opportunity.

What he wanted to do now was to conquer a piece of territory in the New World. When the time came, he would bring his grandfather and the others over and enjoy the feeling of being a local king.

He didn't expect to encounter dog egg, but that was normal. As time passed, most people would realize that something was wrong.

Brother Dog moved his body, clenched his fists, and adapted to the strength of his body in reality... ..

His body in reality had improved a lot under the nourishment of the nutrient solution. In order to let them adapt to the temporary situation, the base had strengthened their bodies when the players went online, therefore, at the beginning, Brother Dog felt that it was not an illusion that he had not woken up recently. It was indeed because his kidney function had improved.

However, the difference was still very big. He had to be very careful when he did violent movements because his brain was used to the strength of the Green Titan. When he used this body, it would sometimes cause strain to his muscles and bones that exceeded expectations, the last time she beat up that dog, she did not feel it at first, but the next day, she only felt pain all over her body.

“Brother Dog, why did you only log off? I've been waiting for you for more than two hours...” dog egg complained.

“Sigh... do you think I want to...” brother dog rolled his eyes and said, “I've accepted a long-term mission. I didn't plan to log off during this period of time. Do you know how much time you've delayed me by sending me a private message?”

“UH...” dog egg was stunned at first, but he quickly caught the meaning in brother dog's words, especially when he said that he didn't intend to go offline for a long time, which made her realize something.

She suddenly remembered some small doubts from before, such as sometimes she played too much and didn't go offline. She drank a few bottles of nutrient solution in the game, and after going offline, she wasn't hungry for a long time and didn't feel very tired...

What was going on?

“Brother Dog, I want to ask...”

“Is this game real?” Brother Dog asked straightforwardly.

“UH... is that real?” Dog Egg said in a daze.

“Yes!”

Dog Egg:” ...”

After getting an affirmative answer, dog egg was stunned on the spot. He didn't know how to reply for a long time. He had originally thought of many questions and planned to expose them if brother dog used some excuse to trick her, however, he did not expect the other party to be so straightforward.

It was true...

And then?

Dog Egg was at a loss. For a moment, he did not know what to say.

Brother Dog Sighed. “Where are you? Tell me a place, I'll find you...”

“What do you want... To Silence Me?” Dog Egg said in horror.

“Silence your * ss...” brother dog rolled his eyes. “There are tens of thousands of players in the game, but they will find out later that something is wrong. If you want to silence me, why would the game spend so much effort to train you guys? Is it fun?”

“Who else knows about this except you?” Brother Dog asked again.

“Not many...” brother dog rubbed his nose and calculated. “All the developers basically know about it...”

“D * mn... On what basis?” Brother Dog exclaimed.

“On the basis of their intelligence...” brother dog said lazily, “Isn't it normal for us, the lower class who move bricks and farm, to know less? That's why studying is the way to go...”

Gou Dan:” ...”

“Let's meet... Since you know that you've been targeted by yun-ji mu recently, I'll teach you some things to protect yourself...”

“Oh, OH...” gou dan immediately said, “That's a good relationship, Brother Dog. Let's go to Nanshan Park, it's quite close to my home...”

“Okay...”

After getting an answer, Gou Dan glanced at a bicycle and rode toward the park. Not long after she left, a sneaky figure suddenly appeared behind her.

It was Li Xiaoqian.

Looking at the figure of Goudan riding the bicycle, Li Xiaoqian's eyes narrowed slightly. She thought about the conversation between Goudan and her. What game was that? What was real? To silence her?

As expected... there was something strange about this girl...

Thinking of this, she hurriedly glanced at the bicycle and chased after her.

She didn't know why she cared so much about these things. When she lived next door to the Wang family, she had always been very distant from this family.

Especially after Wang Chengbo expressed his toad-like desire to eat swan meat, she disliked this family even more. But now, young master Huang Favored Chengbo, Yun Ji Mu, and that woman who could send the security door flying with a slap, all of them came to the Wang family to pester them. This made her realize that this family, which was originally ordinary and even despised by her, was actually hiding a secret that she didn't know.

After she found out about this, an extremely unbalanced feeling welled up in her heart.

But the more unbalanced it was, the more she wanted to know... .. What exactly was this family hiding or... .. Was it that this family had recently... ? ... obtained something?

At the thought of this, she followed Gou Dan all the way because on the phone, Xiao Jia seemed to want to meet someone, and it was definitely about her secret... ..

As she thought of this, she followed closely behind him, but as she followed, she felt that something was not right...

Why was this wretched girl riding her bike so fast? Was this the way up the hill?

In order to maintain her figure, Li Xiaoqian often worked out. She had ridden a lot of sports bikes and the like, but she did not expect to be left so far behind by a bun-faced girl.

Realizing that she was about to lose him, she immediately stopped and hailed a taxi. "Sir, Nanshan Park."

"Okay!" The taxi driver glanced at Li Xiaoqian and his eyes lit up. It was rare for a beautiful woman to hitch a ride, and his mood instantly improved.

He immediately struck up a conversation and said, "Beautiful woman, are you going to the park to go on a date with your boyfriend?"

Li Xiaoqian frowned and hummed softly.

Seeing that the pretty girl's tone was cold, the driver did not continue to strike up a conversation. After all, the police were very strict these days. If you said a few more words, they could call the police. At that time, they would say that your intentions were unclear, and you would not even be able to make sense of it...

After a while, Li Xiaoqian finally saw Doggie's figure. She hurriedly said, "Master, follow the bicycle in front. Walk slowly and don't get too close."

“Huh?”The driver was stunned. It was the first time he had encountered such a request after driving for more than 20 years. The police only told you to follow the car in front, how could they follow the bicycle in front?

“Master, sorry to trouble you...”Li Xiaoqian directly took out a stack of federal coins from her bag and handed it over.

“Okay!”The driver immediately beamed with joy. With money... .. everything was easy to talk about. There was such a good thing... .. Sigh, people nowadays really knew how to play.

The driver took the money and used it as a cushion. It was worth at least 10,000 yuan. He might not even earn this much in two months. TSK TSK, what a great harvest.

Just as he was happy, he suddenly felt that something was wrong.

He realized that as the stream of people became more and more remote, the girl riding the bicycle in front was getting faster and faster. The driver was stunned and thought to himself, is that the speed of going uphill?

Then, he stepped on the accelerator to keep up.

However, as soon as they got closer, the bike accelerated again. Li Xiaoqian, who was beside him, quickly said, “Step on the accelerator...”.

The driver was stunned. He looked at his watch. It was already 40 yards. This was not a highway. If he added more, he would be speeding... Uh, no, that was not the point... ..

It was already 40 yards. What was the situation with the bike?

Chapter 182: Strange!

“Beauty... are you sure you want to follow me?”The driver’s voice was a little shaky. It was late at night, and a girl was riding a bicycle up a hill for 40 yards. She was giving you 10,000 yuan. If she told you to follow, would you follow?

Li Xiaoqian also felt that it was strange, but the more strange it was, the more she felt that her judgment was correct. There was indeed something wrong with this girl.

“Follow!”Li Xiaoqian’s expression of excitement and fear twisted together, giving the driver an even stranger feeling. He suddenly felt that the 10,000 yuan was very hot to the touch, when he reached 50 yards and realized that he still could not catch up, the driver finally could not help but stop the car.

“Beauty, I’m not doing this business anymore...”as he spoke, he handed back the stack of money he had just received.

Li Xiaoqian frowned. She was about to scold him, but in the end, she rationally suppressed her impulse and said in a low voice, “I’ll raise the money.”

“Beauty, it’s not a matter of money...”the driver frowned and said, “In such a strange situation, I advise you not to touch it... you’re so young...”

“100,000!”

“Forget it, you’re just a little girl. It’s quite dangerous to put you here. By the looks of it, you’ll definitely chase after you if I put you down. Sigh... I owe you. wechat or cash?”

“Hurry up and Chase Me. I’ll transfer you via wechat!”Li Xiaoqian said impatiently.

“Okay, beauty, sit tight!”The driver was invigorated and directly stepped to 80 yards. This kind of uphill mountain road, with the steering wheel thrown all the way, displayed the skills of an experienced driver.

However, as she chased after him, Li Xiaoqian felt that something was wrong. The speed of the car was already so high, why was there still no figure. Moreover... ..

Was this Nanshan Park?

Li Xiaoqian looked out of the window. The road was cold and quiet, as if there was no end to it. There was also no sign of anyone around. The scenery of the park was excellent in early autumn, so how could there be no one around? Moreover, after driving for so long, they were almost at the top of the mountain, right?

“Master? Are We Going the wrong way?”

“No, I’m very familiar with this road...”the driver said confidently.

Li Xiaoqian looked at him and her heart inexplicably tightened. Maybe she had just exposed her wealth too much? Did this guy have evil intentions?

No Way...

Suddenly, Li Xiaoqian’s phone rang. Li Xiaoqian looked down and saw Wang Xiaojia’s words on it. She subconsciously picked up the phone.

“Jump out of the car!”Wang Xiaojia’s voice came from the phone.

“Huh?”

Li Xiaoqian felt inexplicably terrified when she heard that. She turned her head to look outside and found that Wang Xiaojia had been following behind on her bike.

She immediately asked, “Xiaojia, who are you exactly?”

“That’s not important. Jump out of the car now. There’s something wrong with your driver!”

There’s something wrong with the driver. Li Xiaoqian’s heart tightened. She looked up. For some reason, after hearing Wang Xiaojia’s voice on the phone, she felt that the driver’s expression was extremely gloomy when she looked over.

Although she could only see the side of his face from the back seat, when she looked over, she realized that the smile on the driver's mouth was extremely strange. The angle of the smile was so wide that it almost reached her ears. Instantly, Li Xiaoqian's entire body turned cold!

Now that she thought about it, there was indeed a problem. Usually, no taxi would take the initiative to go up the road in Nanshan Park. After all, those who were willing to come here would enjoy the pleasure of hiking up the mountain, even if there were people who wanted to take a taxi to the top of the mountain to enjoy the scenery, they would usually take a taxi to go up and down with an empty car. When she hailed a taxi, it would be... This taxi was indeed going up the mountain with an empty car...

Moreover, the timing was too coincidental. Just when Li Xiaoqian couldn't catch up with Wang Xiaojia and wanted to hail a taxi, this taxi came...

Usually, taxi drivers wouldn't go down this road with an empty car, right?

The more Li Xiaoqian thought about it, the more she felt that something was wrong. Her phone, which was trembling, almost fell out of the car.

"Jump out of the car quickly. It will be too late when he drives into that road!" Wang Xiaojia's voice sounded again.

This time, Li Xiaoqian didn't hesitate anymore. She opened the car door and jumped out. Then, she felt that her body was out of balance. Just as she was about to hit a sharp rock on the ground, a white arm grabbed her, then, Li Xiaoqian felt that her body was held firmly. Suddenly, a sense of fulfillment surged in her heart. Li Xiaoqian quickly hugged that person tightly and cried.

"Xiaojia! !"

"Okay, okay..." Wang Xiaojia quickly put down Wang Xiaojia and held her hand. "Stop fooling around, let's Go!"

Li Xiaoqian quickly nodded with a choked voice and quickly followed the other person to a small path on the side.

"Thank you, Xiaojia!" The two of them walked all the way to the mountainside. Li Xiaoqian looked at Wang Xiaojia, who was holding her hand, and said gratefully.

"It's okay..." Wang Xiaojia replied coldly.

"Hey, by the way, why are we going this way?" Li Xiaoqian frowned and looked around. Pine needles were dropping everywhere on this small muddy road, causing the ground to slip and there were many thorns, after walking for a while, she felt that her clothes were covered with many marks.

"It's easy for cars to catch up with us if we take the main road," Wang Xiaojia replied.

"Oh..." Li Xiaoqian nodded and felt that it made sense...

Thinking of the driver and the scene just now, Li Xiaoqian suddenly shivered.

What exactly was the driver? How did Xiaojia know? Moreover, when did Xiaojia become so powerful that she could actually catch herself who had jumped out of the car? What on Earth was going on? A belly full of doubts was suppressed in Li Xiaoqian's stomach.

But she knew that this was not the time to ask questions. After thinking for a while, she finally said with gratitude, "It's all thanks to you, Xiaojia. If I hadn't received your call..."

When she said this, Li Xiaoqian was suddenly stunned.

Phone Call...

She suddenly remembered something... When she saw Wang Xiaojia's name when she answered the phone in a hurry just now, she subconsciously picked it up, but now that she thought about it... ! I don't have Wang Xiaojia's number in my phone!

Suddenly... A cold feeling once again rushed into Li Xiaoqian's heart. She stared blankly and looked at Wang Xiaojia holding her hand. It was white and slender, but it was like an iron hoop, firmly holding her... ..

On the other side, the driver saw from the rearview mirror that the guest in the back row actually jumped out of the car. His eyeballs almost popped out. Before he could walk out of his surprise, he suddenly saw a white figure in front of him standing right in the middle of the road, he hurriedly stepped on the brakes.

With a series of screeching tires, the car finally came to a stop the moment it was about to hit the person.

"Are you crazy?" The driver got out of the car and pointed at the person in front of him.

"Are you the one who's crazy?" The person rolled his eyes and said, "You're already at the top of the mountain, yet you're still driving so fast. Aren't you afraid that the car will fly out of the mountain?"

The driver was stunned for a moment before he reacted. He looked around and immediately thought that he was lucky. He was so excited that he almost forgot that he was almost at the top of the mountain.

"Eh?" The driver calmed down and looked at the clothes of the little girl in front of him and the bicycle that was parked next to her. He was instantly stunned. "It's You?"

Wasn't this the person that the woman just told him to chase?

The person in front of him was Wang Xiaojia...

"Stop it!" Wang Xiaojia rolled her eyes. "Why are you following me?"

"I... I didn't..." the driver denied subconsciously.

"You didn't?" Wang Xiaojia laughed in anger. "You're a taxi driver, and you ran to Nanshan Park empty-handed?"

"I . . . I brought chicken to my mom. My mom opened a spring chicken restaurant on the mountainside..."

"You said it was on the mountainside. Why did you chase me to the Mountaintop?" Wang Xiaojia continued to sneer. "If you don't tell me the truth, I'll call the Police!"

Wang Xiaojia deliberately shouted loudly. Some people who were strolling in the park were soon attracted to her.

The driver saw that there were more and more people around. If he called the police later, he would be in trouble. Moreover, there was a customer who jumped out of the car just now...

Thinking of this, the driver hurriedly said, "I... Really didn't mean to follow you. I did come to deliver chicken to my mother. I also picked up a female customer. She told me to follow you and gave me 10,000 yuan."

"Female customer?" Wang Xiaojia looked at the empty taxi and said coldly, "Where?"

"She jumped out of the car... Just Now!" The driver quickly said.

"Cheh! !" The surrounding people immediately jeered. She didn't even know how to make things up. If she jumped out of the taxi, why didn't you say that she exploded?

"It's true!" The driver immediately said anxiously.

Wang Xiaojia frowned. She remembered that there was indeed someone following her when she first rode the bike, so she asked, "What did she look like?"

"That..." the driver hurriedly recalled, "She was wearing a pair of blue casual pants. She was dressed very pure but..."

"But he had a smug look on his face, didn't he?" Wang Xiaojia continued.

"AH, yes, yes, yes, yes!" The driver nodded repeatedly.

"Where did you jump from?" Wang Xiaojia asked with a frown.

Chapter 183: Evil cultivators!

"Cheng Bo, is this the game Xiaojia has been playing recently?" Father Wang looked at the metal icon in the game cabin and asked curiously.

"Yes..." Cheng Bo nodded. "I've heard about it in the past, but I've been too busy these few months. I've been doing plot planning for the company's game, so I didn't pay much attention to the market. I didn't expect it to be so popular now!"

"So many people playing it?" Father Wang frowned.

"Not many people..." Cheng Bo touched his chin and said, "I looked at the forum. There seem to be only 10,000 players in the game, but there are almost two million players in the queue..."

“So many people in the queue?” Father Wang was stunned. “Then why are there so few people in the game? Is it in the inner side?”

“Yes...” Cheng Bo nodded.

“Then... how much is the activation code?” The dog father hurriedly asked.

“It’s good that you can buy it!” Cheng Bo scrolled through the forum and said, “The game designer has a personality, which is to line up according to the order. He said that the game server can’t hold so many people now. No matter how much money the rich second generation behind them clamors, they won’t give us a slot. It’s very new...” “...”

“There’s such a Thing?” Dogdad narrowed his eyes and said thoughtfully.

When he was young, he played a lot of games. He knew that the activation code was an important strategy to quickly return to the first wave of the game before the early game was exposed, especially in central China, where unscrupulous operators ran rampant, in the past, he was often scolded by poor people like them!

He didn’t expect that there would be a game operator with a fair line. This was interesting...

What’s more interesting is that the excuse of not allowing people to queue in is that the server can’t fit in... ..

Speaking of an online game, your server is full with 10,000 people? Your server is made of rubber, right?

“Then how long will the queue take?” Dad continued to ask.

“I’m not sure...” Wang Chengbo shrugged. I heard from the person on the post that someone had queued for half a year and there were still more than 100,000 in front... ..

“I see...” his father was about to ask again, suddenly, his phone rang. When he saw the caller ID, he was stunned. It was director Zhang. He quickly answered, “Hello, director, what’s Up So late?”

“The person in charge of solving that case is here!” Director Zhang said in a low voice, “Thank you for coming. Tell the person in charge the details...”

“Oh, so soon?” Father Wang looked surprised.

The case director Zhang was talking about was the case that had been classified as a cultivator a few days ago. This kind of case usually had to wait for the surrounding sects to call people to help solve it.

The police needed to solve the case, and the people in the sects needed to eliminate the so-called evil cultivators. It was not a new thing for them to cooperate with each other.

In C City, the people who had the most contact with each other were Emei and Qingcheng. The disciples of Emei had always been arrogant. Every time, they had to put on airs and ask their chief to visit them, this time, he had thought that the case would drag on for a few days, but he had not expected that Emei would send a message in the morning and send someone in the evening.

A lot of people had gone missing in this case. Seeing that someone had come to solve it, father Wang naturally did not dare to neglect it. He hurriedly changed his clothes and rushed to the police station, temporarily putting aside the game with Goudan.

“Hello, I’m Wang Lin!” Father Dog hurriedly came to the police station. When he saw the two people wearing the green clothes unique to Emei, he hurriedly went forward to greet them.

Director Zhang was also greeting them at the side. Seeing the situation, he hurriedly introduced, “This is Emei’s elder, Hong Jianshan. Beside him is Emei’s sect master’s personal disciple, Li Yunsi!”

Father Dog Wang Lin was stunned. Elder plus personal disciple, this lineup...

He had dealt with many disciples of the sect in handling cases, so he naturally knew the importance of these two people in the sect. He immediately said, “Are the people who committed the crime this time so troublesome?”

Li Yunsi frowned slightly. He had a feeling that the other party was not very polite. Shouldn’t ordinary people be polite when they heard the introduction?

However, Hong Jianshan seemed to be very satisfied with the other party’s attitude. He nodded. Previously, director Zhang had said that this police officer named Wang Lin was very capable in handling matters. Now, from the way he spoke, it was obvious that he was a person who did practical things.

Thus, he went straight to the point and said, “He is indeed not a simple person. Let’s talk inside.”

The dog father nodded, and the few of them walked into the serious crime room together.

“That person is called Fang changze, an abandoned disciple of the former Qingcheng sect. His aptitude is extremely good, but he has strayed into the wrong path!” In the room, Li Yunsi was in charge of explaining.

“Fang Changze?” The dog father was stunned. He vaguely remembered that when he was handling cases with a Qingcheng disciple, he seemed to have heard that the Qingcheng Mountain’s current sect master was called Fang Changze...

“It seems like you have heard of him...” Li Yunsi looked at the dog father’s expression and said coldly, “Fang Changze is the elder brother of this generation’s sect master of Qingcheng City!”

A big case... “...”. The elder brother of the sect master had come. The dog father thought that he was lucky. Fortunately, he had judged it to be a special case at that time. If he, the ordinary police, had run into it, he was afraid that it would be a disaster...

“But why... are the people from emei coming?” After hesitating for a while, the dog father couldn’t help but ask.

According to the rules, when people from their own sect committed a crime, it was usually the people from their own sect who came to clean up the mess, right? Even if Emei was the largest sect in the southwest, it was reasonable to say that Emei wouldn’t easily interfere in the family affairs of such people.

“Qingcheng can’t solve it...” Li Yunsi said with a heavy tone, “Just yesterday, we found the corpse of the Qingcheng sect leader. Apart from the sect leader, Li Changqing, the twelve sons of Qingcheng were all killed!”

“Hiss...” father dog sucked in a breath of cold air when he heard that... ..

He had heard of the reputation of the twelve sons of Qingcheng. In the past, he was lucky enough to have handled a case with one of them. That was also the first time he had witnessed a confrontation between the top forces of these cultivation sects. To be honest.., it was no different from watching those superhero fights in Hollywood blockbusters. It was also the first time he had truly learned about these extraordinary cultivation sects.

Only then did he understand why these extraordinary cases had to be solved by these extraordinary people. From then on, father Wang had never tried to act tough in similar cases, this self-awareness allowed him to live safely until his children grew up.

Therefore, when he heard that all twelve sons of Qingcheng had been killed, his father would have an incredulous expression on his face. This was because the impact on him was almost the same as the Avenger Alliance in the eyes of the manga fans, it was definitely a first-class BOSS.

“May I ask...” the dog father, who had a strong desire to live, asked directly, “Even the Qingcheng sect leader was killed. Are you two... confident?”

Li Yunsi frowned and looked at father Wang unkindly. Apparently, he was very dissatisfied with these words. He said in a low voice, “Director Zhang, it seems that you, an old criminal policeman, don’t have any common sense. Our Emei and Qingcheng are two different things...”

His father was stunned. Although these words were arrogant, they made him feel much more at ease. So, he hurriedly said, “That’s good, that’s Good!”

Li Yunsi’s expression became even darker. “You’re such a cowardly person, yet you can become a criminal police officer? Director Zhang, I think it’s better to find someone else to assist us. What use can such a person be?”

Director Zhang smiled bitterly helplessly. At the side, the dog father’s eyes lit up. That was a good relationship. He really did not want to touch this kind of case at all. His life and death depended on whether his teammates were good or not. This was the same as playing as a support in the promotion competition.., even those who fought for the C spot boasted about how awesome they were. It was fine as long as you bunch of weaklings won. Who knew what would happen if they really fought?

“Yunsi, don’t be rude!” Elder Hong frowned and interrupted the young man. He turned to look at his father and smiled apologetically. “I’m really sorry. It’s inevitable that young people are angry. Officer Wang, don’t be calculative with him.”

The dog father secretly pursed his lips. He actually wanted to say, “I’m calculative. Please change people. I really can’t play supporting roles. I often sell C seats!”!

However, after seeing his boss’s cannibalistic gaze, he reluctantly compromised for the sake of his job. His wife died early, his eldest son was unreliable, he had worked for so many years without any savings, and his daughter still couldn’t provide for him... .. He still had a loan for his car... ..

“Anyway, let me talk about the situation this time...” elder Hong said seriously. “...” elder Hong said seriously, “The target this time is indeed extremely vicious and the risk is extremely high, so this old man alone doesn’t have much confidence. Originally, I wanted to wait for senior brother to come and take action together, but fortunately, Kunlun is willing to lend a helping hand this time. This way, the confidence is much greater.”

“Kunlun...” old dog was stunned. He had heard of this name before. Whether it was in fantasy novels or in reality, it had always been the position of the dragon head. This also seemed to make people feel much more at ease.

Therefore, he asked, “What is this Fang changze good at? Why didn’t he even take down the Qingcheng sect leader’s team?”

Elder Hong glanced at the other party and became more and more convinced of director Zhang’s recommendation, thus, he smiled and said, “This person is good at deceiving the mind. In the past, he was obsessed with making strange fragrances. Later on, he found a strange mountain and sea seed, the camphor nine-headed Qubai. From then on, he embarked on the path of no return in cultivating this evil creature.”

“Uh... that camphor nine-headed qubai... what is that thing?” Dogdad asked with a dumbfounded expression.

Elder Hong said, “The ancient species recorded in the mountain and sea monster chronicle is a strange species that resembles a tree or a snake. It likes to eat the blood of young girls, especially those who have a dark fragrance. It can produce a top-grade hallucinogenic chameleon by sucking the blood. Together with the illusion created by the mind-deceiving technique, it can make it hard for people to distinguish the real from the fake!”

After a pause, he continued, “Generally speaking, hallucinogenic techniques are very difficult to work on cultivators with strong Qi and blood. The Qingcheng sect master is already at the peak of the Earth immortal realm, and the twelve sons are also upper-class Earth Immortal Realm Warriors. Normally, when these people gather their qi and blood, they should not be affected by hallucinogenic techniques. However, it is clear that Fang Changze’s nine-headed Qubai has probably grown to a height of more than 100 meters...”. “...”

“100 meters?” Father Wang was stunned at first, but then he quickly said, “In that case, it shouldn’t be good to place it in the city...”

“Yes...” elder Hong looked at him and said, “Where do you think it is, officer Wang?”

Father Wang frowned and recalled the locations of the missing people in the past few days. These missing people were not scattered. Most of them were concentrated in the Southern District, and in the Southern District, a place where they could hide something that was 100 meters wide... ... If they had not infiltrated the southern forest, then it could be... ...

Nanshan Park!

After getting this conclusion, father Wang’s face suddenly turned pale!

He suddenly remembered the message his daughter had left him two hours ago: father, I have an appointment with a friend to go for a walk in Nanshan Park, I'll be back later...

Thinking of this, he quickly took out his mobile phone and dialed his precious daughter's number...

Chapter 184: Inferior people

"This is the spot..."the driver brought Wang Xiaojia to the spot where Li Xiaoqian had jumped out of the car and said with a slight tremble, "This is the spot..."

However, this explanation made the boos of the onlookers behind them louder because there was nothing. Jumping out of the car at this spot was definitely a narrow escape. Who would be so stupid?

If there was something to be afraid of, what else could the driver do to her with so many people sightseeing at the peak of Nanshan Park?

However, Wang Xiaojia saw something different from the passersby...

As a wind demon ranger, she had always learned well in the tracking course. She could tell in an instant that what the driver said was true.

The ground was asphalt. It was difficult for an average person to tell if there were footprints, but she saw it clearly. The driver said that there was a heavy landing point at the spot where he jumped out of the car. Thinking of this, Wang Xiaojia walked over and squatted down, she carefully observed the sequence of the footprints. It changed from one person's footprints to two people. Then, she walked all the way down the slope.

Who was this person who suddenly appeared?

Wang Xiaojia narrowed her eyes slightly. From her knowledge in the game, she was able to determine the situation at that time. The speed was 80 km/h, and Li Xiaoqian jumped out of the car. Then, there was a person who followed closely behind the car and caught Li Xiaoqian who jumped out of the car.

This was obviously a little unbelievable...

And... This fragrance...

As Rangers, the knowledge of survival in the wild was indispensable. Their instructors had taught them some lessons about the dangerous creatures in nature. Among them, it was said that Rangers had to be very vigilant against some inexplicable fragrance in the wild.

Fragrance was mostly secreted by wild plants. Many people might like this kind of thing, but from a biological point of view, the smell emitted by plants was not to please you, there was a reason for any creature's characteristics, and so was plant scents. Most plant scents were for reproduction, and could not be moved. They attracted animals or insects through their scents, and through the activities of insects and animals, cross-pollination happened.

Of course... ! This was most of the cases. Rangers had to be wary of those few cases, because some plants emitted scents to hunt for food!

The teacher had once said that on many planets, there were some plants whose nutrients could not be completely satisfied by the land. They were carnivores among plants, however, they could not move freely like animals, so they would evolve some special hunting methods. Fragrance was one of them. The fragrance of some plants could affect the animals' nervous senses and cause hallucinations, as a result, the other party would lose the ability to resist.

Wang Xiaojia had only smelled this fragrance for a short while before she realized that this thing was the kind of existence that her mentor had mentioned.

This smell was very similar to the sample that her mentor had taken out at that time. It was the smell of a man-eating flower liquid called the fishy orchid. It was the kind of feeling that would make one's mind wander and become excited after smelling it.

Looking at the inexplicable people and fragrance, with Li Xiaoqian is walking that kind of remote path, dog egg heart rose a sense of foreboding.

After a few seconds of hesitation, or follow the trail to the past!

At this time Li Xiaoqian as the dog egg thought that, sank into the incomparable fear and despair, she and Wang Xiaojia looked exactly the same guy took her to a place full of scarlet branches everywhere!

It was very strange. The twisted movements looked like a snake from afar, but it was even more strange from a closer look. It was like blood vessels that were covered in the mountain. The bifurcated nerve endings made people feel that this mountain was really alive.

After about a quarter of an hour, Li Xiaoqian finally saw the owner of these blood vessels. It was an incomparably huge tree. Countless red branches squirmed in the wind, emitting a hissing sound that made people's hair stand on end like a snake.

When she looked up, she saw that there were still dozens of women tied up on the tree. Those women had pale faces and their expressions were twisted with extreme pain. They looked extremely ferocious, and their bodies were covered with those red branches. At a glance, it was as if the blood vessels were exposed, causing one to shudder...

"Don't..." Li Xiaoqian shook her head with a face full of struggle. Her face was full of begging!

She regretted coming here. She knew that Wang Xiaojia was a strange person, and she knew that she might be in danger, but she couldn't suppress her curiosity...

"Is it curiosity?" Wang Xiaojia looked back at Li Xiaoqian as if she had read her mind. She smiled sinisterly and said, "It's greed, right?"

Li Xiaoqian was stunned for a moment, and then she shook her head desperately!

"Are you still lying?" The man smiled sinisterly and said, "You are obviously well-off, graduated from a famous university, and have a good image and temperament. As long as you are down-to-earth, you will most likely have a way out. However, you can't help but be greedy and want to take a shortcut and become the president's lover. The annual salary of a million yuan is already a salary that many people can't reach, but you are greedy and want to marry into a wealthy family."

"It's the same this time. What does that Wang Xiaojia's secret have to do with you? Why do you have to come and investigate? Isn't it just greed, wishful thinking, and evil thoughts of stealing?"

Li Xiaoqian shook her head desperately in panic. This kind of thing, which had clearly encountered an extremely terrifying thing, still had to be torn apart all her outer shell, made her more and more desperate.

"Please don't do this, Please!"

However, the other party seemed to like seeing her like this, and said with a smile, "Are you regretting it now? You look like if you could live this time, you would really hate greed and embrace stability."

"I will, I Will!" Li Xiaoqian nodded desperately.

"I won't..." that person sneered and said, "I have seen too many people like you. No matter how many times I give you a chance, you will repeat the same mistake. Once, twice, how many times it will be the same."

"That won't happen, that won't happen!" Li Xiaoqian cried and shook her head desperately.

The man looked at the man's expression and seemed to be very satisfied. Just as he was about to say something, suddenly... Her satisfied expression froze as if she had sensed something. Then, she raised her head and looked at a place. A hint of admiration appeared on her face. "Good move!"

Li Xiaoqian was stunned. She followed the man's gaze and saw that on an inconspicuous pine tree, Wang Xiaojia was like an agile bird. She stood on the pine needles. Under the moonlight, her posture was extremely elegant.

"My Qubai covers a radius of ten miles, yet you managed to avoid it one by one. That's really impressive!" The Man's voice recovered from Wang Xiaojia's woman's voice to that of a middle-aged man.

Li Xiaoqian could not see the man clearly from afar, but she could still vaguely see who it was from his body size. She hurriedly screamed, "Xiaojia, save me! !"

Gou Dan frowned as he looked at Li Xiaoqian, who seemed to have grabbed onto the last straw of life, and then looked at the girls on the tree. He hesitated for almost half a second, but in the end, he gently tapped the pine needles with the soles of his feet, he retreated like a bird!

"Wang Xiaojia! !" When Li Xiaoqian saw that Wang Xiaojia actually ran away without any hesitation, she was stunned for a moment before she roared with a ferocious and twisted expression in the next second.

Meanwhile, the mysterious man smiled coldly. "Run?"

As he said that, he threw Li Xiaoqian backward. Countless blood vines instantly formed a net in the sky and trapped Li Xiaoqian firmly. However, at this moment, Li Xiaoqian was no longer as terrified and desperate as she was at the beginning. Instead, her face was filled with resentment! Looking at the direction where Wang Xiaojia had fled, he could not wait for the other party to end up like him!

Chapter 185: Brother Dog Is Here!

This body... is too slow! !

Dog Egg said anxiously as he ran out.

From the moment he had chased after her, dog egg had tried out his skills and realized that he was really different from before. However, even so, he was still far from being in the game. If she was in the game state, why would she need to run?

Fang changze, who was chasing after Goudan, was secretly shocked. This little girl's Qi and blood was not strong, but her skills were mysterious. She was perfectly compatible with the surrounding wind and air. Clearly, she was an expert who had entered the Dao realm.

From the memories of the girl just now, he knew that this child called Wang Xiaojia was only a teenager, right? Who was the expert who trained her to be such a sharp young man?

At the thought of this, his muscles tensed up, and he immediately sped up and rushed towards Wang Xiaojia like a bullet.

Although the opponent's movement technique could be said to be perfect, his strength was limited, and his speed could not be compared to his.

After dog egg felt the malicious intent approaching from behind, he instinctively twisted his body, perfectly avoiding the opponent's grab towards him through his perception of the direction of the wind behind him. He turned sideways and circled behind Fang changze!

Fang Changze was stunned by this nimble movement technique. The other party should have sprinted with all her strength, so how could she stop so quickly? Wasn't the turn a little too smooth?

Just as he was about to feel a pain in his back, he saw Goudan's leg kick at the open back of his spine the moment he turned!

Fang changze immediately tensed up his muscles to defend himself, but he only felt that the other party's kick was as strong as the tip of a needle, almost dispersing his Qi in one kick!

Instantly, he was greatly alarmed. If this girl had used a little more strength, the strength of this kick would have penetrated his spine, and he might have really been crippled!

Fortunately, the strength was limited. His face immediately turned extremely gloomy after he was covered in cold sweat. He knew in his heart that he had been too careless. This junior could not be measured with common sense.

If he had not just entered the realm of Heaven Immortal a few days ago, he might have failed miserably today!

At this moment, Goudan's attack had failed. After sensing the opponent's dense killing intent, he didn't stop at all. He used the reaction force of the kick to instantly pull apart the distance and escape in the opposite direction!

At this moment, because he had used all his strength to dive down, he didn't have Wang Xiaojia's terrifying agility, so Fang Changze couldn't stop instantly. In addition to the strength of the kick, his body couldn't help but continue to fly forward. Coincidentally.., there was a flat stretch of land in front of him, and there was not a single large tree trunk...

Could This also be part of the opponent's calculations?

Thinking of this, Fang Changze was even more amazed. How could such a small doll have such sharp calculations? It was as if he had been through hundreds of battles!

Seeing that the distance between them was increasing, a cold light flashed in Fang Changze's eyes. He formed a hand seal, and countless blood-colored vines suddenly broke out from the ground, instantly forming a blood net to catch Fang changze.

The vines were exceptionally flexible. After being pulled out by Fang changze like a spring, they instantly began to bounce back. With this force, Fang Changze was like a cannonball, instantly chasing in Wang Xiaojia's direction!

F * ck! !

Seeing this scene from afar, Goudan couldn't help but curse. What the F * ck, there was such a skill?

Fang changze smiled coldly. After seeing this girl's agility, he didn't go too fast to chase after her this time. He seemed to be much more patient. He continued to cast a spell, and countless vines broke out from the ground, they swept towards Wang Xiaojia.

But every time Wang Xiaojia could pass through the slight tremors on the ground, it was as if she had eyes on the soles of her feet, accurately avoiding the vines that broke out from the ground.

Not only that, her speed did not decrease at all as she deliberately avoided the position of the vines. It was clear that every dodge was calculated without any precondition of sacrificing speed. This kind of operation stunned Fang changze behind her, she could not help but sigh again: good move!

As long as the opponent's physical ability was a little stronger, he would be at the Earth Immortal Realm. Not to mention that he could fight against her, at least he would be able to escape unscathed from her hands.

Such an incredible junior, which family had raised such a child?

Er Mei? Kunlun? How come he had never heard of Wang Xiaojia?

Lu Xingfeng of Yunshan, Mu Yunji, Situ Ming and Situ Xue of Kunlun, as well as the direct disciples of other sects, he more or less knew about those dazzling existences. This person in front of him.., he had never heard of this person before.

It was a pity to destroy such an unpolished jade, but who asked her to meet him?

Thinking of this, Fang Changze revealed a sinister smile. A dead genius was not a genius. The feeling of destroying an immortal seedling with his own hands made him especially excited!

“Old Wang, Old Wang, slow down! !” Director Zhang stuck out his beer belly and chased after him, panting. “Calm down!”

He grabbed old Wang and said, “The two experts from Emei said that they would wait for the comrades from Kunlun to arrive before going together. These experts don’t dare to take the risk, so what’s the use of you going? “Moreover, that person is just hiding there. Your daughter might not have met with an accident.”

Father Wang slapped the other party’s hand away and said, “Xiaojia didn’t pick up the phone. I have to go no matter what!”

“Why Are You So Disobedient?” Director Zhang said angrily, “You heard it just now. The Qingcheng sect leader was killed by that person. Even if it’s as you think, your daughter met him. What can you do if you go there?”

After a pause, he saw that the other party was silent, director Zhang continued, “Calm down. As a policeman, you should not be impulsive at this time. The comrades of Emei have already sent a message. When the people of Kunlun arrive, we will set off immediately, okay?”

“Not good...”. Father Wang shook his head. “We will only know what we can do when we go there. I have already guessed the location, and I can’t help much. When the time comes, all they need to do is rush over. I have already done what the police need to do.” As he said that, he took out his police badge and slapped it in chief Zhang’s hand. “Now ... I’m a Father!”

After saying that, he no longer paid any attention to the other party. Father Wang ran out in big strides.

Chief Zhang stood where he was and looked at the other party’s back. He wanted to say something but hesitated. In the end, he did not continue to stop the other party. If he was in the other party’s shoes, he would most likely be in the same situation.

“Chief? Are We... not going to stop him?” A police officer beside him asked.

Director Zhang rolled his eyes. “He threw his police badge here. What reason do I have to stop him?”

“But...” the policeman was stunned. “Captain Wang handed in his police badge but he didn’t hand in his gun!”

“Shut up, you’re so talkative!” Director Zhang Glared at him and said, “Immediately tell our brothers to get ready. When all the people of Kunlun are here, we will immediately set off to support captain Wang!”

“Pick up the phone, damn girl! !” On the highway, Old Wang was speeding while looking at his phone anxiously!

Ding! !

Suddenly, his phone vibrated, and Wang Xiaojia’s voice came from the phone, “Dad? What’s Wrong?”

Hearing his daughter’s voice, Captain Wang’s heart instantly returned to his stomach, and he immediately felt that the surrounding darkness had returned to its original color.

“Girl, where are you?”

“In the South Mountain. What’s wrong, Dad?”

“Where are you in the South Mountain? Is there a lot of people around?” Father Wang quickly asked.

“Yes, at the top of the mountain. There are quite a lot of people...”

“Okay, okay, okay!” Father Wang immediately let out a sigh of relief. Then, he quickly said, “You just stay where you are and don’t move. I’ll come to find you immediately. Don’t go down the mountain alone. Just stay at the top of the mountain. Do You Hear Me?”

“Oh... Daddy, did something happen?”

“Don’t worry about it. Just stay here. Daddy’s coming. Be a good boy!”

“Oh...”

With the phone off, father Wang Eyes to restore the spirit, pull the alarm after a step on the accelerator, speed suddenly, driving toward the South Mountain Crazy!

On the other side, Fang changze who hung up the phone looked at Wang Xiaojia who was tied up in the air and sneered, “From Li Xiaoqian’s memory, your father is a policeman, isn’t he?”

Goudan, who was tied up by the blood-colored vines in the air, struggled crazily. His expression became even crazier when he saw the other party talking to his father with his own voice. He said coldly, “You will regret it!”

“I will regret it?” Fang changze laughed coldly. “Are you trying to say that you have a big background?”

“I believe that. For you to have such a skill, the expert behind you must be extraordinary. Moreover, your blood can’t read your memory. It’s obvious that there’s a restriction placed on you, right?” “It’s true that the person who can restrain the bloodline is extraordinary, but so what? “The background is the background. You Are you. After you die, I’ll Take My Baby and go to South Africa. Will the person behind you still chase after me and bite me?”

As he said that, he held the phone in his hand and smiled contentedly. “From your father’s tone, it seems that I’ve been exposed. I really have to thank you. Without You, I might have been besieged later, right? “In order to thank your father for his intelligence, I’ve decided to make his daughter’s corpse look better. What do you think about the broken S?”

Fang changze was even more excited as he looked at Goudan's expression, which was twisted with anger. "I'm really looking forward to it. Thinking about how your father thought you were fine and came over to find his daughter in pieces, his expression must be very interesting, right?"

"You! !"Goudan stared at him, and for the first time in his heart, he hated himself for being powerless...

"Broken s sounds good!"Suddenly, a cold voice came from the hillside.

"Who is it?"Fang changze hurriedly raised his head to look.

He saw a black shadow descend from the sky and snatch Wang Xiaojia from the vines.

Fang Changze was stunned. The fibers of his vines were very strong, and it was extremely difficult to break them with brute force. The other party came from the sky and shattered the vines with a single blow. Clearly, the technique of using force was extremely ingenious, and the shock force was very pure!

She's an expert! !

Support came so quickly? Fang changze's brows instantly furrowed.

"You Are... Brother Dog?"At this moment, Goudan, who had more than half of his blood sucked away, had a weak expression and hurriedly said, "Run quickly..."

"This silly girl..."brother dog looked at the other party's expression that was worried about his safety at the first moment, and his heart immediately warmed. Then, he looked at the wounds all over her body, and when he looked at Fang changze, his expression became even gloomier!

Another child? Fang Changze was stunned when he saw Brother Dog's young face, he then smiled and said, "I'm getting more and more curious about who nurtured you guys... but didn't your master spend a lot of effort to nurture you guys? What do you think his expression will be when he sees your broken bodies?"

"A piece of trash like you must be an orphan without any relatives, right?"Brother Dog looked at the other party with a cold smile. "But it doesn't matter. I'm different from you. I didn't break you up to show other people at all. I just wanted to crush you piece of trash!"!

As he said that, brother dog tore off the necklace on his neck and pierced his palm!

Chapter 186: it must be her! !

"Elder, is that nine-headed Qubai very powerful?"In the car, Situ Ming asked his elder curiously.

"Whether it's powerful or not depends on how big it has grown!"Elder Kunlun looked at the night outside the window with a serious expression and said, "This kind of thing is very fragile in the early stage. It obviously likes to eat fresh blood, but it's afraid of creatures with strong Qi and blood. Therefore, it often targets relatively fragile women, and only loves women with strange smells."

After a pause, he continued, "But once it grows up, it will become a very terrifying monster. There were records that there was a small country in the western region, and the entire country was covered by this kind of monster. The people of that country even worshipped this thing as a god. Every year, hundreds of young girls would be sacrificed for its blood and food. I heard that its Taoist skills are infinitely close to Big Luo's level..." "..."

"Then... What's going on behind such a monster?" Luo Feifan, who was following the carriage, gulped and asked.

"I heard that it was subdued by the first generation Arhat of the Huangjue Temple, who was traveling west. There are also some who say that it was the pure Yang adept of the Tang dynasty who destroyed it. There are different accounts..."

"But elder...". Situ Ming frowned. "Since the bigger it is, the more powerful it is, then how did Fang Changze carry it around with him?" "We clearly found the blood vine of the nine-headed cypress in the place where the Qingcheng sect leader was killed, but we didn't find the real body of the nine-headed cypress. The Qingcheng sect leader, who could kill a half-step celestial immortal, should have grown quite big, right?" "How did Fang Changze take it away?"

"That's the scary thing about this fiend...". Elder Kunlun said solemnly, "This thing can condense the essence in its body and shrink it into a blood seed. When it comes to a new land, it can quickly recover its previous body size. This is the reason why many evil cultivators will use it as a dharma treasure to nurture it!"

"That... sounds like it's quite suitable to be used as a magic treasure..." Luo Feifan muttered.

"HMM?" Everyone immediately looked at him with cold faces.

"UH... of course, if it doesn't suck human blood..." Luo Feifan said with a weak smile...

"We're Here!" The elder looked at the mountain range in front of them and said faintly.

Many police cars stopped at the foot of the mountain. There were at least thousands of police officers deployed. It was not a small force, but director Zhang was not confident at all.

After the people of Kunlun's ER Mei got off the cars, director Zhang walked over with a beer belly and said with a smile, "Zhenrens, please say it. How should we cooperate with you?"

The elders of Kunlun looked at Hong Jianshan. Hong Jianshan looked at Nanshan, who was faintly emitting an inexplicable fragrance, and a heavy expression appeared on his face.

He could smell the fragrance of the nine-headed cypress even at the foot of the mountain. This evil creature had probably grown to a terrifying scale. It was very likely that Fang Changze had already entered the heavenly immortal realm!

Although he and elder Kunlun were both elders in the Heaven Immortal realm, it was hard to say who would win if the other party had such an ancient monster... after thinking for a moment, Hong Jianshan said, "Elder Li and I will go up the mountain to investigate the situation. You will be responsible for sealing off the mountain range. If you find Fang Changze escaping, don't fight him head-on. Just follow him closely and report your position at any time. Elder Li and I will rush over immediately."

"Good, good, good!" Director Zhang rubbed his hands together and smiled. When he heard that he did not need his own people to go up the mountain, he heaved a huge sigh of relief in his heart. He also had experience in handling cases in this area. No matter how well-trained the elite police were., when he met that kind of cultivation big shot, he would basically be gone in a single move. The chances of death and injury were extremely high. He could not bear to send his own family members to their deaths.

"Elder?" The situ siblings and Emei's personal disciple, Li Yunsi, frowned when they heard this. It seemed that the elder did not intend to bring them along.

"You guys are here to assist chief Zhang and the others..." elder Li of Kunlun did not speak loudly, but his tone was unquestionable.

Situ Xue frowned. She was about to speak when she was stopped by Situ Ming. Situ Ming shook his head at her. In the end, Situ Xue held back and did not refute him.

When Situ Ming saw that his sister had calmed down, he heaved a sigh of relief in his heart. Then, he asked the elder, "Elder, is this trip really so dangerous?"

The elder looked at the increasingly mature and steady situ Ming and nodded, he lowered his voice and said, "Elder Hong and I will enter the mountain. If we can quickly kill Fang changze, we will return in an hour. If Fang Changze escapes, you must not forcefully stop him. Also...". He lowered his voice even further. "If elder Hong and I are unable to return within two hours, you must return immediately and seek help from the mountain gate. Tell the sect leader that a great demon has appeared. No matter what price such evil cultivators have to pay, they must not be left alive. We must not give them any room to grow!"

Situ Ming: "Yes! !"

On the other side, elder Hong Jianshan also instructed the ER mei disciples. The two old men looked at each other before entering the southern mountain with solemn expressions.

"Old Hong, this scale is more troublesome than I thought!" The two of them directly used the light body technique to go up the mountain from the small path in search of the fragrance. Along the way, they saw the blood vines all over the mountain, and their expressions became more and more solemn.

"Yes..." Old Hong nodded solemnly. The Qi and blood in his entire body were stimulated to his temperament, and his body instantly became like a furnace, emitting a majestic heat. The surrounding blood vines began to shrink and retreat visibly a few meters away from the two of them.

"We can't leave this Fang Changze alive. If we allow him to use the monster to grow in the future, he will definitely become a big trouble! !" Elder Hong's face was full of killing intent.

"Someone is here!" Elder Li's eyes flashed with a sharp light. He formed a sword spell with his finger, and the longsword on his back let out a clear cry. Then, it turned into a ray of light and soared into the sky.

"Wait!" Elder Hong suddenly said, "It's a mortal! !"

Elder Li was stunned. He looked into the distance and saw that the figure was dressed in ragged clothes. Her lifeblood was very weak, and it was obvious that she was injured. He immediately withdrew his sword and asked in a puzzled tone, "Could it be a hallucination technique?"

"The possibility isn't high..." elder Hong shook his head. "I'm a practitioner of the physical establishing sage technique, and my lifeblood is twice as strong as those of the same level. If even I'm affected by this hallucination technique, there's really no need to fight this battle."

Elder Li nodded when he heard this, and the two of them quickly approached.

Both of them were top-notch mighty figures in the world, and the distance of a hundred meters was almost instantaneous. They arrived beside the woman, and when the woman saw a figure suddenly appear, she immediately screamed. It was obvious that she had been greatly frightened before..., seeing this, elder Hong immediately grabbed the woman's arm, and the aura from his body slowly spread over.

After feeling a warm current of goodwill, the woman's terrified emotions slowly calmed down... ..

"Little girl, don't be afraid. We're here to save her. Can you tell us what happened?" The woman immediately nodded and pointed behind hurriedly. "There... There's a monster... There's a monster!"

The two elders looked at each other. Elder Li took the lead and rushed over with his flying sword. Elder Hong comforted the woman slightly and was about to get up when he was grabbed tightly by the woman.

Elder Hong immediately frowned. Just as he was considering whether he should knock the woman out first or not, elder Li's voice came from the other side, "Old Hong, come over and take a look!"

Elder Hong was stunned when he heard that. Then, he brought the woman over in a flash.

"This is..." under a huge tree..., there were dozens of pale-looking women lying on the ground. In the middle of the huge tree trunk, a man was embedded in the tree trunk. His appearance was extremely miserable. It was clear that he had been forcefully embedded into the tree trunk.

The muscles all over his body were completely deformed. His bones were shattered, and he was stuck to the tree like a specimen.

Elder Hong looked at the only face that had not been deformed but was twisted and ferocious. He was stunned for a few seconds before saying, "This... isn't this..."

"Ah, Fang Changze!"! Elder Li narrowed his eyes and said, "It can't be wrong. His facial features are exactly the same as the one on the wanted poster. Moreover, although he is dead, his blood drops are as full and transparent as pearls. The power of the essence condensed is undoubtedly at the Heaven Immortal realm... "And the trunk behind him clearly wants to protect him "... "..."

While speaking, elder Li pointed at the red broken vines on the ground. "But they were all smashed into pieces. The person who killed him must have cultivated a very powerful cultivation technique!"

"Yeah..." elder Hong looked carefully at Fang Changze's corpse with a solemn expression, the bones of this celestial immortal were extremely strong. Even a sniper rifle would find it difficult to make a single crack. At this moment, almost all of Fang Changze's bones had been smashed into pieces, leaving only his flesh and blood in a mess.

As for this nine-headed quahog cypress, its trunk had been completely deformed from the beating. The essence core in the center of the trunk had also been violently taken away. Judging from the battle marks, this killer's technique was extraordinarily domineering!

Elder Hong then looked at the woman next to him. "Little girl... did you see who did it?"

Elder Li rolled his eyes. "She's just a mortal. Even if she saw the situation back then, how could she possibly recognize who it was?"

"That's true... this old man is confused..." elder Hong shook his head and said with a smile, "But no matter who it is, with such an overbearing method, they even took away the essence core of the nine-headed cypress. They might not be good people. We have to be more vigilant..."

"Yes..." elder Li also nodded solemnly.

Mortal? Heaven Immortal? Sect? Elder?

The woman's expression kept changing after hearing these words. She suddenly understood what kind of people mu Yunji and the others were. So there was such an existence in this world?

How could she miss such a good opportunity? She hurriedly said, "I know who it is!"

"Oh?" The two elders were stunned. They didn't expect the woman to say this. Elder hong frowned and asked, "Do you know her?"

"It's Wang Xiaoqia!" The woman was Li Xiaoqian. She said with a ferocious expression of excitement, "It can't be wrong. It must be her! ! !"

Chapter 187: Scheming Li Xiaoqian

"Li Xiaoqian, what the F * ck are you talking about?"

In the police station, father Wang's mood was originally very unstable, but when he heard Li Xiaoqian's testimony, he immediately exploded. In his excitement, he almost pulled out his gun and killed that woman on the spot!

As a veteran criminal police officer for many years, there was naturally a reason why he was so excited...

Last night, his child had clearly told him on the phone that he was safe. However, when he arrived at Nanshan Mountain, his daughter's whereabouts were unknown. When the people on the mountaintop told him that his daughter was tracking down the small path.., his heart immediately turned cold.

Then, without hesitation, he chased down the small path. After searching for a long time on the mountainside that was filled with blood-colored vines, he only found his daughter's phone. At that moment, he felt as if his entire being was about to collapse, in addition to the lingering fragrance in the mountain, he fainted on the spot.

As a result, he was called to identify the body the moment he woke up. When he heard this, he almost fainted again. Then, with the support of his son, Cheng Bo, he trembled and identified the body with a bunch of grieving parents who had lost their daughter as well.

Fortunately, he did not see Wang Xiaojia inside.

When the father and son had just relaxed a little, they heard Li Xiaoqian say that Wang Xiaojia was a murderer the moment they returned to the police station. Who wouldn't explode on the spot?

Fortunately, Cheng Bo, who was next to them, held back his impulsive father. The group of police officers then quickly subdued father Wang and brought him away.

At that time, it caused the dissatisfaction of the Kunlun elders.

"Director Zhang, the person who killed Fang Changze did us a great favor this time, but he took away the core of the nine-headed qubai. Whether it is good or evil is unknown, and it is a huge hidden danger. If the other party is an evil cultivator who is more vicious than Fang changze, it will be troublesome. Do you understand?"

"I understand, I understand!" Director Zhang wiped his sweat and nodded repeatedly.

"If you understand, then don't let your men do whatever they want. If I didn't see wrongly, that policeman just now wanted to draw his gun, right? "In the police station, a policeman actually drew his gun and openly intended to shoot a witness. This old man has really witnessed it."

"No, no, no..." "...". Old Wang was just acting on impulse... "..." director Zhang waved his hand repeatedly and said, "You don't know that the Wang Xiaojia that the girl mentioned just now was Old Wang's daughter. The fact that the child's life and death were unknown already made the family feel bad enough. If that girl continued to spout nonsense, even a parent wouldn't be able to stand it!"

"Oh? He's that child's father?" Elder Li's eyes lit up, after coming back to confirm, his disciple, Situ Xue, told him that the girl called Wang Xiaojia was most likely the one she came to find trouble with previously, in other words, the one who attacked this time was most likely the cultivator with unfathomable strength behind Wang Xiaojia.

The threat of a cultivator at this level holding nine-headed cypress was much greater than that of his Fang changze. This matter had to be taken seriously. When they heard that the policeman was actually Wang Xiaojia's father., elder Li and elder Hong looked at each other, their eyes revealing a thoughtful look.

"Cheng Bo, you have to believe me! !" On the other side, young master Huang and Cheng Bo were sitting next to Li Xiaoqian. Li Xiaoqian's eyes were red as she cried, "I have no intention of framing your sister. Your Sister... Xiaojia, there's really something wrong with her!"

Young master Huang immediately frowned as he looked at Li Xiaoqian. He instinctively felt that there was something wrong with what Li Xiaoqian said. It might not be all fake, but it was definitely mixed with some lies.

He looked at Chengbo worriedly. If this guy still believed Li Xiaoqian at this time, he would really be a rotten vegetable...

Wang Chengbo stared blankly at the other party. This was the first time... He observed Li Xiaoqian so carefully.

To be honest, although he had always liked the other party, he was a little fuzzy about the other party's specific appearance...

It sounded ridiculous, but in fact, most people were like that. When they liked someone, especially when they had a crush on someone, most people actually did not dare to look at the other party directly.

Every time they stole a glance, the other party would hurriedly look away. Even when they were in a normal conversation, they wouldn't dare to look directly at the other party. They would look away like thieves.

Therefore, the more this happened, the more perfect Li Xiaoqian's image in Wang Chengbo's heart was. Even if there was a small flaw on Li Xiaoqian's face, he would remove it in his mind.

This time, it was really the first time he looked at Li Xiaoqian so carefully...

He didn't know if it was because he saw her too clearly this time, but her pitiful appearance didn't have the astonishing lethality of the past.

Wang Chengbo suddenly couldn't help but laugh.

"You... What are you laughing at?" Li Xiaoqian's face stiffened and she asked in shock.

Young Master Huang also looked at Chengbo. This time, Chengbo didn't avoid it. He calmly looked at the other party. "You told the police that my sister is a murderer?"

"Cheng Bo..." Li Xiaoqian hurriedly said, "You have to believe me. I'm not talking nonsense. I have no enmity with Wang Xiaoqia. There's no reason to frame her, right?" ? And why hasn't she been found yet? Don't you have any doubts ? Cheng Bo, you have to believe me ... I. . . .

"Why are you following Xiaoqia?"

"Eh?" Li Xiaoqian was stunned.

Wang Chengbo looked at her and continued, "My dad told me on the way here that there was a taxi driver. He said that you told him to follow Xiaoqia all the way up."

It was the first time that Cheng Bo looked at Li Xiaoqian with such an oppressive gaze. Li Xiaoqian dodged it unaccustomed, she stammered, "At that time... at that time, I felt that there was something wrong with Xiaoqia, so I followed her out of curiosity."

"What's the problem?" Chengbo pressed on.

"Don't you think it's Strange?" Li Xiaoqian asked back, "A character like Yunji MU inexplicably took the initiative to contact you, and that woman that day, such a powerful character, Wang Xiaoqia caught her sword with chopsticks. Don't you suspect that there's something wrong with your sister at all?"

“What does that have to do with you?” Wang Chengbo looked at her curiously. “All of this doesn’t seem to have much to do with you, right? Is there a need to be so exaggerated in stalking? What do you want to know? Or... What do you want to get, Li Xiaoqian?”

When these words came out, Li Xiaoqian and young master Huang were stunned.

They had finally come to their senses, old friend! !

Young Master Huang was on the verge of tears, while Li Xiaoqian’s face turned green and white. After a long while, her expression gradually turned cold. She sneered and said, “I’m just curious. I want to know what’s going on. What’s wrong? Is this against the law?”

“Is that so?” Wang Chengbo smiled. His smile was somehow relaxed and complicated, as if he had let go of something. The complicated part was facing himself...

After seeing some things clearly, he realized how stupid he was in the past. He actually liked such a person... ..

After shaking his head, Wang Chengbo got up and walked out, intending to find his father first.

“You really know, Don’t you?” Seeing Wang Chengbo get up with that smile on his face and ready to leave, Li Xiaoqian’s face changed, and she hurriedly said, “You really know, don’t you?”

Wang Chengbo didn’t even bother with this madman, and walked straight out.

“You can’t hide it! !” Li Xiaoqian’s face was a little distorted as she yelled, “You can’t hide the secrets of the Wang family! ! !”

Wang Chengbo became more and more irritated when he heard the roar. He walked out quickly. Master Huang looked at Li Xiaoqian and sneered. He was about to say something when a deep voice came from afar.

“That girl doll... come here, I have something to ask you...”

The one who spoke was elder Li of Kunlun.

Young Master Huang looked over. These people were dressed in the same way as Yunji Mu. They were the so-called people of the sect. For chief Zhang to personally accompany them, their identities were definitely not ordinary. It didn’t seem like it was a good thing that he cared about Li Xiaoqian’s crazy words...

He turned his head to look at Li Xiaoqian. Young Master Huang was surprised to find that there was a hint of smugness hidden in Li Xiaoqian’s pretended crazy expression.

Suddenly, his heart tightened, and an ominous feeling welled up in his heart...

This crazy woman... What did she want to do?

Chapter 188: The Shrewd Father Wang!

“Girl Doll... Don’t do that with me...”when she was asked alone., looking at Li Xiaoqian’s face that was filled with tears, elder Li waved his hand impatiently. “If you were really that fragile, you wouldn’t have shouted so loudly twice on purpose to attract my attention. Tell me... What is your purpose?”

Li Xiaoqian, who had been exposed, was not embarrassed. After wiping her tears, she immediately said without caring about the makeup on her face, “I . . . I heard from that evil person that I have fragrant blood in my body, which is a great material for cultivation.”

“Yes...”elder Li nodded. “But you have already lost your virginity, so the effect of your cultivation will be greatly reduced.”

“Then... can you take me as your disciple?”Li Xiaoqian hurriedly asked.

Elder Li chuckled. “Little Kid, you sure know how to seize opportunities. If you met me when you were four or five years old, you might have a chance. In Kunlun, do you think it’s that easy to be an elder’s direct disciple or my direct disciple?”

He didn’t boast. As one of the few elders who had broken through to the Heaven Immortal realm, his status in the sect was almost the same as the sect leader. Didn’t he see that the situ siblings, as the direct disciples of the sect leader, were also respectful to him?

One had to know that the sect leaders of many sects were not necessarily heaven immortals!

“Is there no chance at all?”Li Xiaoqian said with a face full of unwillingness.

“You are too old. Although you have not completely passed the cultivation period, it is considered a very late start for you to start cultivating now. Although your constitution is special and is very suitable for some cultivation techniques, you have broken your virginity. It can only be said that you are slightly better than ordinary disciples. If you can give me satisfactory information, I can recommend you to be an inner disciple of Kunlun. But don’t even think about becoming a direct disciple of an elder!”

Hearing this, Li Xiaoqian lowered her head slightly in silence. Then she raised her head and said, “Isn’t the red-faced elder outside the same as you?”

“Are you thinking that elder Hong will give you better conditions?”Elder li sneered and said, “Little Doll, you have a lot of thoughts. Indeed, we are not on the same side. However, this old man will not frame you. Elder Hong is elder Emei, and most of the Emei techniques are yang-oriented. With your physique, there is no way out for you with him. Our Kunlun is the largest sect in the world, and we have many secret manuals. The other sects added together can’t compare to us. Elder Hong will not give you better conditions. If you believe me, this old man will tell you now. If you don’t believe me, you can go look for him. However, this old man will say it first. If you miss this old man now, this old man will not sell you out!”

When Li Xiaoqian heard this, her eyes revealed a trace of hesitation. There was too little information, so she was completely unable to determine whether the other party was telling the truth or not. Generally speaking, a person like the other party would disdain to lie to her, however, this was what Li Xiaoqian did not believe the most. Whether she was willing to lie depended on the size of the benefits. She disdained because the benefits were not enough. What she could not determine was whether she had the qualifications to be cheated by the other party.

Li Xiaoqian's suspicion was actually correct. Elder Li was deceiving her. That so-called virginity and age were all deceiving Li Xiaoqian. In cultivation, only when one's bones were fixed would one begin to truly cultivate, dolls that did not grow back their bones in the early stages were just repeating some basic breathing exercises and stance techniques.

At Li Xiaoqian's age, she was only a few years later than a normal cultivator. As for her virginity... .. It was a ploy from some web novels to fool the other party. A layer of film. It had nothing to do with cultivation!

Moreover, Li Xiaoqian was not the best material for cultivation. She was the best cauldron, a good material for dual cultivation. The elder naturally would not reveal this in advance. Therefore, he was only half interested in what secret Li Xiaoqian was talking about, he was actually more interested in Li Xiaoqian.

In other words, regardless of whether Wang Xiaoqian played this trick or not, elder Li was planning to lure her to Kunlun after learning that she had a fragrant blood physique.

In the end, Li Xiaoqian compromised under the other party's flawless expression. She said, "The Wang family has a big secret!"

"Oh? Tell me about it?" Elder Li smiled slightly. He wanted to see how the girl could spout nonsense.

"Elder, let me ask you. If it were me, how long would it take for me to cultivate to the level of Yun Ji Mu or that white-clothed woman outside?"

"You Mean Xue'er?" Elder Li smiled and said, "This little girl of yours is very ambitious. Xue'er started cultivating at the age of nine, and it took her more than thirty years to reach her current realm!"

"Ah... She's already forty years old?" Li Xiaoqian said in surprise.

"Ahem..." elder Li coughed lightly. "Cultivators have a long history. At her age, she's considered very young in the cultivation world. You will be the same in the future."

"Is that so?" Li Xiaoqian's heart jolted when she heard that.

"Is this related to the secret of the Wang Family?" Elder Li asked.

"Yes..." Li Xiaoqian nodded repeatedly. "How is Wang Xiaojia compared to that senior sister Situ Xue?"

Seeing that the other party was addressing her as senior sister, elder Li secretly laughed in his heart. This girl is so young, but her thoughts are sly and sophisticated. If it wasn't for the lack of information, I'm afraid I wouldn't be able to fool her.

"I heard from Xue'er that they were evenly matched..."

Forget it... "...". Li Xiaoqian rolled her eyes. The other party used chopsticks to receive your sword. No matter how she looked at it, it didn't seem like they were evenly matched.

However, Li Xiaoqian still didn't expose it. She quickly said, "I can guarantee that three years ago, Wang Xiaojia was absolutely still an ordinary person!"

"Are you sure?" Elder Li frowned slightly, obviously not believing it.

"It's true!" Li Xiaoqian quickly said, "At that time, I saw Xiaojia and now I have a completely different feeling when I see her. I didn't pay much attention to it a few days ago. After experiencing these things these days, my senses have become more and more obvious. The previous Wang Xiaojia definitely didn't have this ability, and..." "..."

"And what?"

"And Wang Xiaojia probably didn't know that she was so powerful..." Li Xiaoqian recalled the confused look on Wang Xiaojia's face when she caught Situ Xue's sword with her chopsticks.

"Do you have any evidence?" Elder Li suddenly felt that the other party's information was somewhat interesting.

"Yes!" Li Xiaoqian quickly said, "There's a phone call..."

"Phone call?"

"Yes, before I followed Wang Xiaojia, I overheard a phone call between Wang Xiaojia and someone. On the phone, Wang Xiaojia seemed to be asking if it was true or not. The person on the phone seemed to have invited her to Nanshan for a meeting. The person you're looking for, the person who killed that Fang Changze, should be that person."

"Did you see him?" Elder Li asked.

"Yes!" Li Xiaoqian nodded.

"What does he look like?"

"I'm afraid... He's not human..." Li Xiaoqian recalled the horrifying and violent scene.

"Dad?" Cheng Bo came to an office on the second floor of the police station. Looking at the crowd surrounding his dad, he approached him carefully.

"Cheng Bo is here?" Seeing that old Wang's son was here, some of his colleagues stood up one after another, one of them, a middle-aged man with thick eyebrows and big eyes, clapped his hands and said, "Okay, okay, stop surrounding him. Old Wang is annoyed. Let the father and son have a chat. Let's go out!"

When he drove his colleagues out, he patted Cheng Bo's shoulder again. "Your father is not in a good condition. You are the eldest son of the family. You must be responsible at this time."

"Yes, Uncle Zhu..." Cheng Bo nodded. Then, he looked at his father who was covering his face on the sofa. His heart sank. This person in front of him and his father were good friends for many years. Even he couldn't persuade his father?

After everyone left, his father suddenly said softly on the sofa, "Close the door..."

"Huh?" Cheng Bo was stunned. He looked at his father and saw his father's fingers covering his face slightly open. He gave him a look and said, "Hurry Up!"

"Oh, oh!" Cheng Bo quickly closed the door and walked over. "Father, what's the situation?"

"Don't talk. Now listen to me!" Father Wang passed a piece of paper to him and said in a low voice, "Memorize this number. You can cancel this paper later. When you go out, find a way to contact the owner of the phone!"

Wang Cheng Bo was stunned. He was about to ask who the owner of this number was, father Wang seemed to know what he wanted to say and quickly said, "I don't know who the owner of this phone is either. This number is the last call she made before she went to Nanshan Hill in Xiao Jia's phone records, but it is very suspicious because when I handed over Xiao Jia's phone, I found that the phone records were missing. Moreover, when I called mobile to check the phone records, I found that the phone records were also missing!" "!"

Cheng Bo was stunned. He felt dizzy and confused. He couldn't help but ask, "Dad... What does this mean?"

"Li Xiaoqian is right. Xiaojia has a big secret! !" Father Wang said seriously!

"Dad, why are you also..." Cheng Bo was interrupted by his father before he could finish, "I told you not to talk!"

Cheng Bo: "..."

"Listen to Me Now!" His dad said quickly, "Xiao Jia's secret has a lot to do with the game she has been playing recently. When you go out, you must think of a way to enter the game. Secondly, you must remember this number. When you go out, you will definitely be monitored. You must find a good time to contact the person on the phone. You must be very careful and not trust others easily, including that young master Huang! "You're the eldest son in the family. The task of finding Xiaojia will be handed to you!"

"Dad, you..." Cheng Bo was stunned when he heard this tone. Why did it sound like he was leaving his last words?

"I can't Get Out!" Father Wang immediately answered the question that Wang Cheng Bo had yet to open his mouth. "That stupid woman Li Xiaoqian will definitely say something to those people in the sect. No matter whether what that woman said is true or not, the people in the sect will definitely use the investigation as an excuse to demand someone from director Zhang. No matter whether director Zhang protects your dad or not, I can't get out. The task of the investigation can only be handed to you!"

"But... if they don't let you out, Will They let me out?" Wang Chengbo was stunned.

"They will!" Father Wang narrowed his eyes and said, "From the police's point of view, I have too many suspicious points, and many things can not be explained clearly. For example, when I rushed to Nanshan Hill in advance and fell unconscious on the mountainside, many suspicious points can be used as an excuse to detain me. You are different. You did not participate in the whole process. According to procedure, it is not good to directly detain you. and on the sect's side, they are also willing to let you out...". "..."

"Why?"

"Compared to me, letting you out would be easier to control. It would also be easier for them to follow your lead and find the person they want to find."

"D * mn..." Cheng Bo rolled his eyes. "Dad, after hearing what you said, why do I feel that I'm in a more dangerous situation than you?"

"Isn't there no other way?" Dad sighed. "If the situation wasn't like this, why would I let you, an idiot, take on such a big responsibility?"

"Father... These words are a little hurtful..."

"Old Wang, director Zhang is looking for you!" While they were talking, a shout came from outside. Apparently, it was uncle Zhu from earlier.

"Chengbo..." father Wang took a deep breath, he pinched Chengbo's shoulder. "Be careful... Don't be anxious. Protect yourself first. Xiaojia is smarter than you. If she's fine, she might contact you on her own initiative. Don't be a burden then!"

Wang Chengbo: "..."

Chapter 189: The Underdog

"Yawn..." brother dog stood up and rubbed his muscles, yawning as he opened the wooden door that was clattering.

As soon as he opened the door, a big hand reached in and grabbed brother dog out. Brother Dog quickly held his breath and moved his body in accordance with the other party's movements, allowing the other party to lift him up a little.

After all, although he looked like a 1.7 m sim on the outside, he was actually a three m tall, Fat Man!

His muscles were well-trained, and his weight was about the same size as a cow in this world.

His body cooperated with the other party, and he even used his toes to support his weight, trying to make the other party feel like he was grabbing a skinny chicken that weighed dozens of kilograms. His limbs also had to make it look like he was almost pinched to death, it was really a skill.

Bang!

Finally, after a long minute of cooperation, Brother Dog made an expression as if he was about to suffocate. Finally, the opponent was satisfied and threw him under a cherry tree.

"What are you doing, Uncle David?" Brother Dog imitated Sim's tone.

“Don’t call me uncle!” David glared at him and said.

That title was exclusive to Miss Sunny! !

“Look at the time, why are you still sleeping? We’re leaving in the afternoon, hurry up and say goodbye to Miss Sunny, then scam to the north and die early!”

That’s right...

Only then did brother dog remember that today was the day to set off for the north.

According to his memory, it should still be half a month later. After all, the academy started at that time, but this year was different. Marshal Rox returned with a great victory.., these young disciples of his could take the opportunity to get to know the heroes of the military.

Thinking of this, brother dog quickly spat on his saliva and tidied his hair. He followed behind David and walked all the way to Miss Sunny’s courtyard.

The Count’s residence was very big. It was hard to imagine that a private residence could be built to the size of a garden. It was not uncommon to walk from one courtyard to another for more than ten minutes.

One could not help but sigh at the degree of extravagance of this noble...

Sunny’s courtyard was much simpler than those of her sisters. Of course, this was also because she was not valued by her father and had limited pocket money. After all, a prosperous garden required a lot of money to be managed by a lover, therefore, the plants in her courtyard were all carnations that were easy to manage.

Of course, there were also some purple cherry trees that she liked the most. From her memory, she knew that Miss Sunny seemed to be very keen on planting fruit trees. However, if her garden turned into a fruit courtyard, it would inevitably be laughed at by the surrounding sisters.., in the end, she could only settle for the next best option, which was to plant purple cherry trees. The branches and leaves of these trees were very exquisite, and they were often used to decorate the wooden door. Purple cherry flowers were also very effective in horticulture, and most of the nobles could also plant them, the disadvantage was that the flowers bloomed for too short a time, resulting in the colors of the trees at other times to be very monotonous.

However, Lady Sunny did not care about this. The purpose of planting this was to allow her to eat the sweet purple cherry fruit in spring, and at the same time, she would not be laughed at by her sisters for being a greedy brat, this was because many noble gardens did have this, didn’t they?

Looking at the thoughts of this child who was usually greedy and afraid of being talked about by others, brother dog was especially looking forward to seeing sunny lying on a stool in spring, quietly picking the fruit while looking around vigilantly for fear of being discovered...

What a pity... ! He couldn’t see it anymore. There were still a few months before the result of Ziying. When that time came, he would definitely be fighting with a group of muscular men in the northern Knight Academy!

When they arrived at the courtyard, Brother Dog and David saw Sunny sitting on the rocking chair in the distance, pouting and looking unhappy.

“What’s Wrong?” Brother Dog looked at David Curiously. In his impression, this little freckled lady always had a bright smile on her face like a flower. She actually had a small mouth that could hold oil?

David’s expression was not very good. He whispered, “Shi Senming transferred to third Miss Yesterday!”

“Shi Senming?” Brother Dog was stunned. He subconsciously thought of a famous assistant in the history of Huazhong Game, the official selection of the strongest dog concubine.

However, he also subconsciously thought that this was a planet that was light years away from D-ball 200 years later. Even if he was reincarnated, he would not be able to cross such a distance. It should just be that the tone of the name was more similar.

After adjusting his memory, Brother Dog finally remembered that before him, Miss Sunny had a knight who trained her. Of course, it was not because he was a thick-skinned person, but because he was valued by David, he had spent a long time trying to rope in a real knight who was reluctantly willing to join him.

From David’s words, he learned that Miss Sunny had always been very good to this SSENMING. It was said that a few days ago, she had personally sewn a sweater for him. David had also personally taught him the skills of weapons whenever he was free.

It was a pity that if sincere kindness could be exchanged for good results, how could there be so many scumbags in the world?

“Oh, Sim is here?” Sunny pouted and did not hide her unhappy mood at all.

Brother Dog looked at this angry and cute look and could not help but laugh.

“What are you laughing at?” Sunny showed a rare vicious expression and stared at him.

“Uh...” brother dog, who was rarely scolded by this lady, was stunned. He subconsciously said, “I... remembered... Something Happy...”

“What is it?” Sunny pursed her lips. She was clearly getting more and more angry.

David, who was beside her, also had an unfriendly expression. If this kid also spouted nonsense and made miss sunny angry again, he would give him a good lesson today.

Looking at the unfriendly expressions of the two, Brother Dog wanted to give himself a slap. Master Xing hurt people. These famous scenes were all engraved in his genes...

“Haha, after that idiot, Shi senming, left, no one will fight with me for the Sweater!” Brother Dog pointed at the sweater that had been sewn on the table with a smug look.

“PFFT...” after seeing the other party’s smug face, Sunny’s pursed lips suddenly burst with anger. She rolled her eyes at him and smiled, “You wish. You’re so thin. It’ll take a lot of effort to change it.”

“Oh...” brother dog suddenly looked wronged.

“Then... I’ll try my best...” looking at Brother Dog’s expression, sunny smiled and comforted him, “See if I can change it before you leave in the afternoon.”

“MM-HMM!” Brother Dog looked expectant.

Sunny pursed her lips and smiled. She skipped up the stairs with her sweater. Looking at the girl who was as happy as a bird in an instant, Brother Dog’s heart skipped a beat. He muttered, “She’s really a flower-like person...”

“Really?” David said gloomily.

“Uh... Ah, hahaha!” Brother dog quickly said, “I mean... to let down such a good master like Miss Sunny, that SSENMING is really a dog!”

“Humph!” David’s face softened slightly. He looked at Sunny who had gone upstairs and finally sighed. “Second miss is actually a child who is easy to satisfy, but even so, her sisters still don’t like her.”

“HMM... third miss?” Brother Dog asked curiously.

“She is the most typical one!” David said angrily.

Hearing that, Brother Dog searched through the memories of this third miss again.

This third miss was the same as Sunny. They were both young ladies in the Earl’s family who had reached the age of marriage but had never been able to get married. However, unlike sunny, sunny was not interested in anyone, on the other hand, the third young lady had been trampled over by the suitors. It was just that she had been too ambitious and had never been able to find a suitable one.

The third young lady, Jenny, was a pearl of the Earl’s family in Orlando. It was said that she had inherited her mother’s silky white skin and gem-like blue eyes. Therefore, she was extremely doted on by the Earl, she was bent on marrying her daughter off to a Duke’s family.

However, because of the high requirements, Jenny was never able to marry off. Like Sunny, she became one of the two oldest women in the Earl’s family who were never married off. She was always being discussed by others.

It was unknown whether it was because outsiders often discussed the two of them. Jenny had always been very mean to her sister. She clearly had enough, but she still liked to snatch things from Sunny’s hands, it was obvious that Sassen was the spoils of war that his sister had squeezed out of his sister!

It seemed that he was in a bad mood, and it was rare for him to make sunny happy. For the first time, David treated brother dog as a narrator. He scolded Sassen for not being a good person, and at the same time, he listed the many evil deeds that the third miss had done to sunny.

After so many years, sunny did not even have a single guardian knight. More than half of the credit was due to that sister. After saying that, David even fiercely told himself that he had to successfully graduate from the Knight Academy, otherwise, when Miss Sunny got married, the daughter of an earl wouldn’t even have a guardian knight. That would be a great shame!

Having been entrusted with such a heavy responsibility, brother dog was a little dumbfounded. Even the third miss, who wanted to snatch the SH * t away from him, didn't care about him. It was really unexpected that David would place his hopes on him...

"Should we... discuss whether we can pass the test or not?" Brother Dog said dryly. Going North ahead of schedule had shortened his battle Qi training schedule. To be honest, brother dog was not confident about his battle qi level. ...

"I've arranged this for you..." David looked around, then quietly took out a piece of paper and handed it to himself. "After you arrive at the Imperial City, follow this address and find a guy named Reeves!"

"Oh? Is He a battle Aura Master?" Brother Dog's eyes lit up.

"No, he's a popular guy. He specially passed the test for others. His reputation is very good!"

Brother Dog:" ..."

Chapter 190: we are willing to cooperate with the authorities!

Back in the house, Brother Dog stared at the note in a daze. After so many years, his brother dog had once again reincarnated to the point of hiring a gunman!

Yes, reincarnated. Because of this, he had done it before during the college entrance examination. It was instigated by those scoundrels. The gunman's standard was not bad. He had helped him to get over 680 marks. Other than a few top universities in the country, he could not go, most schools were allowed to go.

But he was reported...

When the exam venue was allocated, the person sitting behind him was the class monitor who was usually very unhappy with brother dog, who drove a Ferrari and played with class flowers when he was in his teens.

He decisively reported him out of justice!

This time, could it be...

Although Brother Dog did not like reading, he deeply agreed with the words of those big shots in the literary world, especially that famous quote of old Mr. Lu.

Although the people around him weren't from Huazhong, he was still unafraid to use the worst kind of malice to speculate about them.

For example, as a guy who was indebted to Miss Sunny, but betrayed her at the last minute for his own benefit, would he still report brother dog for cheating even though he felt guilty, would he then step on his benefactor again?

The answer was most likely yes...

Although he knew that doing so would make miss sunny even more ridiculed by the sisters around him, Brother Dog felt that he would most likely do it...

Once a person crossed the bottom line, it was not unusual for him to do anything the next time. How did the phrase "Do it or do it" come about?

So... should he repeat the same mistake?

Brother Dog looked at the note and sighed. Finally, he put it away and planned to go back first. Before he left, he took a look at the dog egg. Once he went north this time, he would live with many people, it's hard to get back to the base.

Thinking of this brother dog felt for a while outside, after making sure that no one, then activated the temporary transmission device.

"Welcome back, players!" Following a familiar intelligent notification, Brother Dog opened his eyes again and found himself in the main base.

After participating in the mission, he compressed his dorm room into a suitcase, in case he was already gnawed away by the group of Huskies when he returned.

After taking a look at the base, there didn't seem to be as many new players as there were a few days ago. Brother Dog heard that the passage was temporarily slowed down because the educational resources were becoming increasingly insufficient, especially the weapons instructors of the Green Titan, many players had to wait for half a month to make an appointment, which greatly affected the players' leveling efficiency.

Therefore, it seemed that the Lord had decided to delay the players' entry before increasing the number of instructors.

Thinking about this brother dog, he felt that it was very magical. This kind of colonization method was really breaking the rules. He wondered if the truth would come out when the time came. could he, the first batch of people who decided to sell their compatriots, be considered traitors?

It shouldn't be. After all, the Lord didn't intend to invade the land, right. At most, he would be lying to people to get a job. At most, he would be an accomplice of the heartless boss... Mmm ... Not yet at the level of a traitor...

Brother Dog comforted himself.

As he thought of these messy things, he walked towards the infirmary. Soon, brother dog saw a wronged dog egg in the infirmary.

At this moment, she was wrapped up like a dumpling, looking round and round. It was extremely comical.

Brother Dog couldn't help but laugh. "What's the situation? Isn't it just some external injuries?"

“It’s more troublesome...” a voice suddenly sounded from behind. Brother Dog was startled. He turned around and saw that Lord Xi Ye had suddenly appeared behind him.

Brother Dog was still a little nervous about this boss, but he could not help but ask, “What’s wrong with dog egg?”

“The situation is more complicated...” seer snapped his fingers as he spoke, lights lit up in a nutrition cabin next to them. Inside was the body of the dog egg wind fairy. However, the strange thing was that there were some thin blood vines growing on this body.

Seeing these blood vines, Brother Dog was shocked. Wasn’t this the... .. That...

It was the camphor nine-headed cypress that Fang changze owned!

“What’s going on?” Brother Dog asked in horror.

“How should I explain it to you... sigh, forget it. Anyway, you won’t understand even if I explain it to someone like you who carries bricks.”

Brother Dog:” ...”

Although Seer’s words were a little unpleasant, they were not fake. This matter was indeed very complicated.

The main reason was the void attribute that had been infected by this batch of players a while ago. The players’ brains had simulated this attribute, so in reality, when Wang Goudan was attacked, his body instinctively plundered the nine-headed Cypress’s genes.

But logically speaking, this gene should have existed in the human body in Goudan’s reality. He did not expect that when his mind transferred the brain’s data to the wind demon’s body, the gene would actually be brought over. It caused Goudan’s elf body to be infected by the gene of the nine-headed quakewood... ..

As for why it could be infected through mental transmission, the specific reason was still under investigation. After all, the void gene was the most complicated gene in the universe. Many of their abilities from different dimensions could not be deduced by common sense.

The void gene was not the only thing troubling Goudan now. The plant family called the camphor nine-headed Quakewood was also very strange. It had a rather terrifying growth rate., after combining with the ELF gene, it had a momentum of rapid evolution. Now, it seemed to be seizing the position of the main gene in the wind demon’s body.

This was very troublesome. If it could not be solved, even if Goudan was reborn, there was no guarantee that the gene of the nine-headed cypress would not enter the newly born elf body. If it did, it would be an endless cycle. Dog Egg would truly be a tragedy...

Now, they had to study the characteristics of this plant in order to find a solution.

However, the knowledge reserves of the base’s current developers were clearly insufficient, and seer did not really want to bring it to the federation for appraisal.

He had a vague feeling that this species had great development value. If it was brought to the federation for appraisal, others would definitely replicate the sample. This way, his advantage would be gone.

Planet development was always like this. If he were to take all the valuable things for identification, how would he develop a unique product?

Thinking of this, Seer felt that it was time to consider sending a few outstanding developers to further their studies. If they wanted to develop quickly, high-end knowledge reserves were obviously essential.

However, he had to hold it down for now. The lack of money at the base was the top priority right now. The most important thing now was to quickly stabilize the ore industry.

As for Goudan...

Seer frowned. As a gentle boss, he could naturally see that Goudan was eager to go back and report his safety. Moreover, in reality, Goudan's father seemed to have discovered something, and the most important thing was that the people from the sect had also joined in, this caused the matter to become very complicated.

How should he solve it?

At this thought, he looked at Brother Dog.

Brother Dog, who was being stared at like this by the Lord, suddenly tensed up and took two steps back. "Boss... What are you doing?"

"I remember that elder Li from before seemed to want to form an official supernatural force, right?"

"Uh... seems to be..." brother dog nodded in surprise, not understanding why his boss would suddenly ask this.

"How many sects have responded to him?" Xi Ye asked.

"No sects..." brother dog shook his head, he recalled the situation his old man had told him about, he said with some uncertainty, "I heard from my old man that there are only a few aristocratic families that are willing to help take the lead right now. No sect cares about them at all. That's why elder Li wants to get in touch with that whatever sect behind me."

"Mm... Alright!" Xi Ye nodded. "Go back and tell him that we're willing to support the authorities in establishing an extraordinary force!"

"Huh?"
