Chapter 1901: Escape -Partpart 2) !

On the black spaceship, in the cockpit, the wine glass in the hands of the Heavenly Fox, who was leisurely tasting the delicious fruit wine, paused for a moment. The sky-blue liquid, which had been chosen in a very rhythmic manner, spilled out half of it, however, the person involved seemed to have not seen it at all. Instead, he focused his attention on a direction beside him.

“What’s Wrong?”

There was an incomparably white stone statue in that direction. At that moment, the stone statue seemed to come alive as it looked at the heavenly fox...

To be honest, if Mike was still here, he would definitely be scared out of his wits. This stone statue had been in this room since the beginning. It was actually very eye-catching, but for some reason, no one noticed it. Only when it moved.., as if a switch had been activated, the entire space was filled with an inexplicable cold aura.

And the stone statue’s cold and strange face only gave people one sense... ! . and that was terror!

An indescribable terror. That kind of facial features, that kind of body, it was as if they were born for terror. Every action could make people’s Goosebumps stand up, but this thing, at the very beginning... Was staring at Mike from less than half a meter away... ..

Fortunately, Mike didn’t feel anything at that time...

(‘I say... “Heavenly Fox shook her head helplessly. “Don’t move, my hair is standing up... ”

“Is that so?”The stone statue smiled. There was an apologetic smile on its face, but that strange facial features, when it smiled apologetically, it also made people feel cold all over!

The Heavenly Fox twitched its mouth speechlessly. It averted its gaze and looked outside. “What’s wrong with you?”

It knew that this fellow would not move easily. It was usually in a semi-dormant state. In this state, its body’s energy would almost enter a state of complete stagnation. Only its thoughts were clear. It was like a silent observer. Many times, one would forget about it. For example, after the last mission, everyone had forgotten about it in the spaceship and only remembered it when they returned to the death realm... ..

As for why it maintained that state at all times, it was because it needed to constantly concentrate its mental energy to suppress a terrifying thing in its body!

This was a huge consumption, so in order to save energy in its body, it would enter a dormant state at any time.

The Heavenly Fox did not like this guy, but it also valued the other party's sudden action because it knew that if it was not necessary, it would not easily move... ..

"That fellow wants to escape... "the stone statue said in a low voice.

"Want to escape? "The Heavenly Fox frowned slightly and looked at the small spaceship outside.

The speed and the energy state of the engine were very normal. There was no intention of escaping at all. Moreover, the other party would not be so stupid, right?

What kind of quality did that spaceship have that he did not know? Facing a spaceship of his level, what could it use to escape?

"Are you sure?"The Heavenly Fox looked at the other party suspiciously... .

"It can't be wrong... "the corner of the stone statue's mouth slowly rose, it curled up into a terrifying arc, like a sinister smile of an evil spirit, but its tone was extremely gentle as it said, "I can feel... that is a confidence that is like the blazing sun, gathering its strength and waiting to be unleashed. What a beautiful food! "

Heavenly Fox's brows furrowed even deeper. "That Green FOX?

To be honest, he couldn't tell at all that that fellow was obviously a very crafty and shrewd fellow, right? Where was his confidence and decisiveness?

"I'm talking about that little girl... "

Heavenly Fox's incomparably handsome facial features froze for a moment. He hesitated for a moment before looking over. "Are you sure?"

"Looks like you didn't notice. Our commander... "the stone statue grinned ferociously. "Could it be that you didn't notice that that Lass noticed me the moment she entered this place?"

Heavenly Fox: " ! ! "

He... really didn't notice...

However, this didn't sound too believable. This was because the federation's information shouldn't be fake. How could a first year freshman who had just entered the bluespirit Academy be able to see a stone ghost?

This didn't sound like an ordinary lie!

When a stone ghost was hibernating, it was even more concealed than a dragon-ranked assassin. This was because one wouldn't be able to sense its existence in space. It was in a state of complete hibernation. just like a lifeless rock.., even when a master assassin passed by a stone ghost, they would basically not notice it.

A little girl who specialized in the Master of the soul, looking at her age, should only be around a hundred years old? Did she notice the Stone Ghost?

“AI, activate scan mode. I want to see the state of the other party’s engine! “The Heavenly Fox ordered with a frown.

Although the stone ghost did not usually lie, he still felt that it was a little ridiculous...

(‘I’m sorry, I don’t have enough authority...”

The Heavenly Fox: ” . . . ”

Was this AI suddenly getting smarter? He was the commander of the spaceship and had the highest authority. Why would he come even if he did not have enough authority?

However, the next second, an even more unexpected scene appeared!

In the originally luxurious control cabin, countless mechanical cannons were suddenly aimed at the two of them, the cold AI voice carried a warning tone. “Warning, warning. The control cabin can only be entered by crew members with authority above level five. Crew members who have not reached level five are requested to leave immediately. Leave immediately. Otherwise, we can not rule out the possibility of using force to suppress them! “!

“What did I say?” Shi Gui laughed even more happily. “It’s an interesting little guy, right?”

Heavenly Fox: ” ”

“TSK! “On the other side, Guo Xiaoyun, who was fiddling with the engine, suddenly frowned. She raised her head to look in the direction of the other party’s spaceship and clicked her tongue. “That guy has indeed noticed me...”

“What’s That?” Mike, who was trapped in the mental energy wall, suddenly jumped up. All the hair on his body stood up like steel needles, and his expression became extremely horrified.

What kind of malice was that?

Mike only felt that all the bones in his body were knotted!

“Gargoyle... “Guo Xiaoyun sped up and fiddled with the engine while replying,

“I’ve seen it before?” Mike was stunned. “When?”

“Just now...” Guo Xiaoyun said faintly, “In the control cabin where the fox is, less than three inches behind you, don’t you remember the white stone

Stone statue? Mike was even more confused. At that time, there were countless luxurious and eye-catching things in the cockpit. How could he still remember the stone statue? It was not until the other party mentioned it that Mike vaguely recalled it through his brain.

If you didn’t mention it, when he recalled it, it seemed to have a bit of an impression. There seemed to be a strangely shaped stone statue behind him at that time. It was just that there were too many luxurious things around at that time, so it was not very eye-catching.

But when he thought about it carefully, it seemed to be quite special... .. Especially that positive appearance... ..

Just as he thought of this position, Mike suddenly hugged his arms tightly. Goosebumps could be seen on his strong arms, and his face was full of terror!

When he thought about it, he suddenly realized how terrifying that face was, but why... .. Didn't he remember it at that time?

"Don't think about it..." Guo Xiaoyun rolled her eyes at him. "The more you think about it, the more likely it is that something will happen!" Then, she pointed at Mike's forehead from a few meters away, as if his brain had been flicked, Mike suddenly woke up from the seed of fear. He immediately sat on the ground weakly as if he was a manager in a big battle. Strangely, he exhausted almost all of his physical strength!

"What... Is That Thing?" Mike asked with a trembling voice, not caring about the sweat on his body.

"How would I know?" Guo Xiaoyun rolled her eyes and quickly returned to the cockpit. She sat in the main seat and activated the absolute manual mode!

"I'm just a freshman... Sit Tight! "

As soon as she said that, the engine of the entire spaceship emitted a beast-like sound.. In an instant, a blue flame spurted out from the back of the spaceship, and the spaceship instantly started to accelerate, it directly rushed forward at an astonishing speed with a distortion of space!
