

A Bunch 1902

Chapter 1902: I Don't want to be with you...

"Yang... how much longer?"

In the spaceship that was in chaos due to the intelligence system, a petite woman with a shaggy body was moving quickly in the control room. Upon closer inspection, one would realize that the entire room was filled with her shadows, and these shadows.., each of them blocked the bullets from the control room's cannon barrels!

With her astonishing skills, she managed to block all the energy weapons in the control room by herself. Meanwhile, the others in the control room did not move at all. They did not even lift their eyelids, as if they did not care about the cannon fire that filled the sky...

"What, you can't Hold On Anymore?" In the control room, a man with green hair and pale skin said with a grin.

"If you continue to talk nonsense, I'll use you as a shield..." the petite woman said sinisterly. ...

"Hehe... Don Pm just joking..." the green-haired young man hurriedly said. He knew that the other party would really do this. "Sister Bing, hold on for another five minutes at most!"

"But to be honest, this hacker can do it. Just by using the basic authority from the entry level, he can invade to such an extent. Needless to say, just his brain's computational ability is amazing!"

"Isn't she using a hacking program?" One of the tall and strong men frowned.

"She hasn't touched anything since she entered the ship. How did she get the chance to use a hacking program for her?" The green-haired young man named Yang smiled and said, "I've seen the surveillance footage. She didn't do anything along the way and has been hiding behind that ranger. It's impossible for her to come into contact with the CP interface. The only way to hack into the ship is to use the neural link and use the basic access we've given her as the foundation to completely hack into the ship using an algorithm!"

"Algorithm? How long has she been here?" A woman in gray frowned and said,

She has been watching the monitor for less than ten minutes, right? The intelligence level of this spaceship is not low..."

"That's why I said that this hacker can do it!" The green-haired man smiled. "His computational ability should be above mine!"

Everyone: " ..

"Above you?" The woman's frown deepened. The green-haired man in front of her was the chief equipment master of their team. He was proficient in Arcana, machinery, and biological devices, his super high computational ability allowed him to activate more than three top-tier devices at one time. He was a genius member that made other teams envious.

But this guy actually said that the little girPs computational ability was above his?

“Are you serious?” Heavenly Fox also looked at him. “That guy is a first-year freshman!”

“You believe that?” Yang immediately rolled his eyes!

The Heavenly Fox was silent. To be honest, the data of the Federation’s public campus system would not be fake. If it really was...

In the midst of silence, one of them suddenly looked outside. “Yang, hurry up, they ran away!”

“Calm down!” Yang pursed his lips. “How far can they run in a few minutes?”

Are you afraid that you won’t be able to catch up with our spaceship?”

“It’s hard to say...” the gargoyle who had been silent all this time said sinisterly.

Everyone suddenly shivered. Green-haired yang raised his head in puzzlement. In the next second, his eyes almost popped out!

“DAMN! ! What’s going on? So Fast?” Green-haired ignored the program in his hands and hurriedly took two steps forward to take a closer look. The dark green pupils in his eyes had turned into a hexagonal shape. It was obvious that he had activated some kind of ocular skill!

“Eh? I didn’t know that Ranger was a fanatic. The engine is pretty good!”

“The engine can be changed so fast?” The tall man next to him frowned. “Not to mention other things, just his shell and energy transfer tube can’t stand it for long, right?”

“Of course, the original design wasn’t modified like this, but now it has been changed...” Yang smiled. “That little guy directly used Hall’s alchemy to change the current power unit and added the power at the last minute, TSK TSK...”

“Changed at the last minute?” The Heavenly Fox frowned. “This shouldn’t last long, right?”

“That’s hard to say...” “...” Yang shook his head. “This girPs mechanical attainments are not bad. Although the change of route is very exaggerated, it also takes into account stability to the greatest extent. At least she won’t collapse within a Star! “! Tsk...” “To be honest, it’s a little too powerful. If it were me, I might not be able to change it better than her!”

(Ye Feng... “the Heavenly Fox looked at the gray-clothed woman beside her and said, “You go ahead. Yang’s side will last at least five minutes. If the opponent’s speed can last for a star, it’s possible for them to shake us off...”

“En... “the woman called Ye Feng nodded, she took off her hood. In the next second, countless black metal particles absorbed into her body like magnets. In less than two seconds, the metal particles transformed into a pitch-black miniature mech that completely wrapped around the woman!

And in the package of the moment, the woman instantly disappeared in place!

Someone is chasing! “Mike looked at the screen, carefully reminded Guo Xiaoyun is on the bridge.

This guy, not only a top-notch hacker, but a top-notch mechanic, in the space of a few minutes? He was able to completely transform his ship’s kinetic energy system into something so powerful!

The horsepower was at least ten times higher than before!

The key point was that the kinetic energy system had not yet collapsed at this speed. As a mechanical ranger, he knew very well how terrifying this skill was!

Who exactly was this girl?

“You Drive! “Guo Xiaoyun directly removed the spirit energy wall beside Mike and said to him.

“Me? “Mike was stunned. Did she trust him so much? Wasn’t she afraid that he would turn around and join her?

Just as he raised his head and wanted to tease her, he couldn’t utter a word. An unprecedented chill surged in his heart!

What the Hell Is This?

Mike’s body was stiff. He couldn’t even swallow his saliva. His body was stiff as he looked in front of him. The ordinary-looking girl instantly turned into an extremely beautiful white-haired woman!

She was dressed in pale-white scales and her eyes were pitch-black. She was so beautiful that it made people gasp in admiration. However, such a beautiful thing made people feel incomparably cold!

Mike swore that he had never felt this kind of feeling in his entire life. This kind of groundless fear deep within his soul. In an instant, he felt as if all the cells in his body had frozen. He could not muster even the slightest bit of courage. He felt as if he was frozen in despair!

As a Ranger who had lived for hundreds of thousands of years, he had experienced many dangerous situations in the past few years. He had seen all kinds of strange creatures, but he had never seen such an existence that seemed to be fused with fear!

“Phew... “Guo Xiaoyan closed her eyes and took a deep breath. Only then did she put away the cold fear in her body.

As soon as she put it away, Mike collapsed on the ground as if he had lost all his strength. He was gasping for air!

“Run at full speed to the battlefield that you led us to. They are undead. I believe that if they can escape, you wouldn’t want to mingle with these guys, would you?” Guo Xiaoyun tried to control her voice as gently as possible.

In fact, it was also very gentle, but unfortunately, that inexplicable temperament still made Mike Tremble instinctively!

In fact... .. He didn’t want to mix with the thing in front of him more than those undead....
