Chapter 191: Dragon Organization's establishment plan (Part One)

In Yanjing City, Old Master Li had been having a hard time these past few days. The main reason was that the plan to establish the extraordinary organization was not going well.

Ever since the incident with the Liu and Yun families, the Yun family had been very perfunctory about their own matters. They were not as enthusiastic about contacting other aristocratic families as before, which gave boss Li a headache.

Previously, when the Yun family and the Liu family were at odds, he stood by the Liu family not only because he was old comrades-in-arms with old Liu, but also because he felt that the Liu family was in a weak position at that time and wanted to resolve the conflict between the two families by making peace.

Who knew that the power behind Liu Shiyu was so awesome that he could single-handedly pick off all the external helpers of the Yunshan sect?

This time, the nature of the matter had completely changed. The government still did not treat these aristocratic families as their own, favoring their own insiders. Moreover, the Yunshan sect behind the Yun family had lost face this time, so it was clear that they were taking their anger out on the government.

This matter was now very difficult to handle.

Originally, they had supported the Yun family because they had taken into account the relationship between the Yun family and the Yunshan sect. They wanted to use this line to try cooperating with the Yunshan sect first.

Among the top ten sects, the Yunshan sect, as a rookie, did not have as deep a prejudice against the government as the other large sects. In addition, they had a weak foundation, so it would be very convenient for them to rely on the government, and the government needed a serious and powerful sect to help build this extraordinary team. It could be said that each would get what they wanted.

Sure enough, when he had analyzed the situation for the higher-ups and won the mission, he had indeed received a response as he had expected when he tried to recruit the Yun family. The progress could be said to be extremely smooth, his work had also received the support of the leader.

The remaining thing was that as long as the Yunshan sect was willing to try and set an example, allowing the outside sects to see the benefits of cooperating with the authorities, then slowly, other sects would be willing to relent. As long as this virtuous cycle continued., the gap between the transcendent powers and the authorities in central China for a thousand years might slowly be reversed.

And the situation where Central China had been silent all along in the Federation's international scene would also have a breakthrough because of this!

But at this moment, such a mishap happened! !

Elder Li sighed slightly. Of course, he wasn't blaming the Liu family. After being bullied to such an extent, anyone who wasn't so cowardly would have resisted. If he hadn't stood on the Liu family's side at that time, how many elders would have been disappointed? This was a matter of principle, but the problem was that this way, the originally good situation would be gone.

"Elder Li, I'm Back!" A loud voice suddenly sounded from the side. Elder Li looked up and saw that it was Tian Jizhong, one of the deputy team leaders of the extraordinary project this time.

He was also one of the executors of the extraordinary project this time and was mainly responsible for Shandong.

Looking at the other party's glowing face, elder Li's heart moved slightly and he quickly asked, "What? Little Tian's harvest this time is not small?"

"No, no, small gain, small gain!" Tian Jizhong could not hide the smug look on his face as he said, "The Xia, Shen, and Zhao families of Shandong are willing to cooperate with the authorities and are willing to send outstanding juniors to form the first batch of extraordinaires."

"What about the Huangjue Temple?" Elder Li quickly asked.

The target of Shandong was naturally the Huangjue Temple of the top ten sects.

"UH... THEN... There's still no progress..." Tian Jizhong's smug face stiffened slightly.

"Is that so? Haha, Good, well done. You've worked hard. Go and rest first. I'll celebrate your victory later," Old Li said with a smile.

Tian Jizhong's expression turned slightly, and he said with a smile, "What are you talking about, Old Li? It's just a matter of duty. Without the support of the higher-ups, the work won't be so smooth..."

Elder Li patiently listened to the other party spout a whole bunch of words. Then, he smiled and let the other party go to rest. After seeing the other party leave, elder Li slowly sighed.

This child didn't grasp the main point at all. Those aristocratic families were completely useless to the current situation of the government. He only wanted to use them as a catalyst to get in touch with the sect, the extraordinary combat strength of the sect was what the government urgently needed in the current situation!

Ever since the incident in South Africa, there had been rumors everywhere that Huazhong intended to break the previous situation and leave the world. On the side of Red Sun and North America, they often tested the intentions of Huazhong for no reason.

The intelligence department also sent news that many extraordinary forces had been wandering around the borders of Huazhong recently. It was obvious that they were testing something. At this time, Huazhong urgently needed to make a strong response.

Under such circumstances, what use were those aristocratic family disciples?

If they wanted to intimidate the outside world, they would need at least Earth immortal level elders to act.

He had also heard of the families that Tian Jizhong had mentioned. They were all small fish and small shrimps with no relation to the sects. These aristocratic families were of no help to the current situation at all. However, this mission had only just begun., tian Jizhong's results were already considered quite good. If he was discouraged, his subordinates would probably have even less motivation.

Those aristocratic families and sects were all proud and arrogant. This time, when the officials took the initiative to contact them, it was as if they were licking their faces. Many of his subordinates did not seem very motivated to do this. If he were to be discouraged again., it would be even harder to carry out the work.

However, this was not a solution. The Yun family had fallen. If he still could not produce any results, it would be very difficult to explain to the higher-ups. Back then, he had obtained the military order...

Just as he was in a dilemma, the phone suddenly rang. Elder Li looked at the phone and frowned. He did not want to pick up the phone right now because most of the calls were from the higher-ups asking about the progress, in this situation, he didn't want to report his work.

However, when he picked up the phone and saw the caller ID, his eyes lit up. It was Xiao Liu!

That Brat had been hiding from him for so many days. He finally knew how to call the management?

"Hello, Grandpa Li? How are you?" Brother Dog's voice came from the other end of the phone.

"Not good!" Elder Li said with a straight face.

"Eh? What's the matter?"

"Aren't you the one who made me angry? You clearly promised the old man that you would hide from him the moment you ran back to C city. You Kid, you're really something. Aren't you being perfunctory with Your Grandpa Li?"

"How could I?" Brother dog quickly said, "Didn't I immediately go back to the sect to pass on your intentions to the people in the sect?" "In order to convince the sect leader, I have spent a lot of effort. You Can't accuse me wrongly..." "..."

"Is that so?" Elder Li's eyes lit up, but he didn't believe it. "Kid, you can still talk to the sect leader? Don't Fool This Old Man!"

The sect behind this kid of the Liu family was definitely not simple. This kid of the Liu family had so much weight in the sect?

"Of course, we are cultivation geniuses, the top-notch immortal seedlings of the sect!" Brother Dog shamelessly boasted.

"Just keep bragging..." elder Li suppressed the excitement in his heart and pretended to be disdainful. After drinking a mouthful of tea, he asked, "Did you convince your sect leader of the top-notch immortal seedlings?"

“I did. The sect leader said that he is willing to cooperate with the authorities!”

“What?” Elder Li instantly spat out a mouthful of tea! !

Chapter 192: Dragon Team Formation Plan -PartpTwo two)

So... he's willing to cooperate?

Elder Li was a little dumbfounded. His ideal situation was for the other party to be willing to make contact, talk, and then test each other out. On his side, he would show the sincerity of the government and the benefits of cooperation, and the other party would talk about the conditions. The two sides would try to get along and negotiate...

The result... ? The other party was willing to cooperate without saying anything?

Ah Xi... was there such a forthright person?

Cough... ... It should mean that he was willing to come into contact with him. It must be that the child of the old Liu family didn't pay too much attention to his words. HMM... ... After all, he was still a young man, so he wasn't too cautious... ...

Thinking of this, elder li said, “That... Shiyu, Tell Grandpa Li in the sect, what is the attitude of your sect towards our government?”

“Attitude?” Brother Dog was stunned for a moment before saying, “Very good! Good policy, good thinking, high efficiency. It would be even better if we could control the price of pork and housing!”

Elder Li:” ...”

“Don't be so naive. I'm asking what is the internal difference between your sect and our government regarding contacting us? WHO supports contacting us? Who opposes it? What is the status of those who oppose it in your sect? Who are the people who support contacting us? It's best if you can arrange a meeting with this old man...”. “...”

What a mess. He could really imagine it... ... On the other end of the phone, Brother Dog couldn't help but cover his head. He didn't even say anything and the other party had already imagined the power of the sect... ...

Brother Dog turned his head to look at rainy girl without melon and saw rainy girl without melon taking out a piece of paper. She mouthed, “Repeat after me...”

Brother Dog looked at the contents of the script and immediately coughed lightly. His tone immediately changed and he said in a low voice, “The old man really has sharp eyes. Indeed, there is a big difference within our sect!”

Wasn't that obvious? Elder Li rolled his eyes. A sect that was hundreds or even thousands of years old definitely had conservative old and new factions. How could it be so harmonious?

“How’s the situation? Quickly tell me what you know!” As Old Li spoke, he hurriedly asked his secretary to take out a book and prepare to write it down.

“Uh...” the corner of Brother Dog’s eyes twitched, then, he saw Rainy Girl write out a script at the speed of light, he followed in a daze and said, “Ahem... “...””. “Well, our sect is an ancient reclusive sect. The sect is divided into moving bricks, farming, and assembly lines...” . Uh, no, there are three sects: Mountain moving, Vientiane, and Xuanji. Ah, the current situation is that the mountain moving sect is opposed to contacting the authorities. The Vientiane sect is reserved, and Xuanji sect is inclined to cooperate with the authorities.”

“Oh, oh...” elder Li looked at his secretary, the other party nodded to indicate that he had noted everything down, he asked again, “Then what is the status of your three sects? What important figures do you have? Why is the mountain moving sect opposed to contacting the authorities? And why is Xuanji sect willing to contact us?”

Brother Dog’s head was about to explode from the questions. He looked at Rainy Girl’s notebook and quickly said, “That... Grandpa Li, there are some things that are inconvenient to talk about over the phone, right?”

Elder Li was still very cautious. First, he chose to contact the Xuanji sect that brother dog said had the best attitude toward the government. Moreover, he planned to contact the younger disciples first. His attitude could be considered very humble.

“Oh... no need, no need!” Brother dog quickly said, “You’re so old, don’t run around. Er... in the next few days, our Xuanji sect’s sect master will bring a group of elders to visit you personally.”

Sect Master? Elder?

Elder Li’s eyes instantly lit up, and his hand that was holding the phone trembled slightly.

From what the other party meant, this Xuanji sect placed a lot of importance on official cooperation...

Yunshan sect also had the intention of cooperating with the official, but they had always maintained an arrogant attitude. They had only used the Yun family to make connections. After interacting with them for so long, if it wasn’t for the incident with the old Liu family, he wouldn’t have even seen the elders.

However, from Liu Shiyu’s tone, one of the three sect masters actually planned to come to his place personally, along with a group of elders!

This attitude was obviously very amiable...

This was a great progress!

Thinking of this, elder Li hurriedly said, “Little Liu, are you sure about this news? Don’t try to Fool Your Grandpa Li!”

"I wouldn't dare..."brother dog hurriedly said, "If I dare to fool you, Won't my own Grandpa Hang Me Up and Slap Me?"

"Okay, okay, okay!"Elder li nodded repeatedly. "Then... When will they come? I'll be ready to receive them!"

"It should be in the next few days. I've given them your old number. When the time comes, the sect master will contact you directly..."

"Eh? You're not coming?"Elder Li was instantly stunned.

"I. . . I've reached a critical point in my cultivation, so I have to go into closed-door cultivation and can't come. Besides, why would I, a doll, come here to discuss matters with your adults?"

"Is that so... Alright then. You must help me look after this matter well. try to explain it to them. Our government is very sincere. As long as it is not an extreme request, it is easy to discuss..."

"That... you can talk to the sect master when the time comes. I Won't get involved. Even if you tell me, I won't understand, right?"

Elder li paused for a few seconds when he heard that. Finally, he nodded and said, "That's fine too. You've worked hard, Little Liu. You've really helped a lot this time. Grandpa owes you a favor..."

"It's alright, it's alright, it's what I should do, what I should do..."brother dog laughed and said, "Then I'll hang up first, you're busy..."

After hanging up the phone, Brother Dog looked at the eavesdropping crowd around him and said in a daze, "Boss, isn't this Mars? You can actually get through?"

"Ahem... Don't mind these details!"Xi Ye coughed lightly and clapped her hands. "Now, the key question is, who will be the sect master and the elders of our Xuanji sect?"

"Ahem..."rain girl, Wu Gua, naturally took a step forward.

"You can't..."Xi ye shook his head. "Your image is too bad. You Don't have that high-class feeling. Moreover, there are a lot of matters in the territory that need your attention!"

Rain girl, Wu Gua: "I..."

"Why don't we call him chief instructor? He's mighty and domineering!"Wang Goudan, who was wrapped up like a dumpling, suggested.

"He's not suitable..."Xi ye shook his head. "That door of mystery sounds like a very elegant classification. We need to find someone with Immortal Qi."

"How about teacher Vivian?"Goudan continued to suggest.

"Eh?"Everyone's eyes immediately lit up. In terms of immortal qi, teacher Vivian, who had the bloodline of a space elf, was indeed much more powerful.

“With a few more elves... HMM, this lineup should be enough, right?” Xi Ye looked at rainy girl without melon.

Rainy girl without melon turned her face away angrily. “I don’t know!”

“Boss... What’s the meaning of this dragon group formation plan?” Brother Dog asked curiously.

“Of course it’s meaningful!” Xi Ye said seriously, “As players show more and more anomalies in reality, they will be gradually noticed by the authorities. In addition to the sect dispute with dog egg this time, we are borrowing the official shell. Many things are much easier to do in reality.”

“This...”

“And you also get paid more, don’t you?” Seer continued to bewitch them, “When you go out on missions and become special agents, isn’t it better than working in the real world to earn money?”

Everyone:”...”

“Wow, Gou Dan... You...” around noon, brother Gou invited a group of people to say goodbye. Apart from Li Gou Dan, who was one of the duo Gou Dan, there were also emperor liver, Pu Yunchuan, Leng Xing, and the others. They were all people that he usually got along with.

He was also one of the few famous galaxy legends under Emperor Seer in the future. Of course, this was all for another day.

At this time, they were all gathered together for a long-term mission. Most of the time, they would not be able to see each other. When they heard that dog egg was injured, they came over to take a look.

“F * CK, didn’t you go to Molundo to grab the land? How did you become like this? Did you eat poisonous mushrooms?” Pu Yun Cong curiously poked dog egg’s fat foot, which was covered in blood sprouts.

“Don’t poke around, it hurts!” Dog Egg said unhappily.

“You’re also amazing. There are so many people in the base, and you’re the only one who got into trouble... Look at how swollen you are...” Leng Xing said coolly.

“Shut up, Big Head Leng, you only know how to gloat. No matter how swollen I am, it’s not as big as your head!” Dog Egg said fiercely.

“I’ve already said not to randomly give people nicknames. When did I get a big head?” Leng Xing immediately said angrily.

“HMPH!” Leng Xing glared at her and turned his head away angrily.

Rainy, who was standing by the side, looked at the noisy duo. As the Green Titan with the best aptitude in the base, Leng Xing was the only ruthless person who had fully repaired his weapon. He was scheduled to be a big shot in the later stages of the training, and he had a cold personality. Usually, he would not be able to say anything, but surprisingly, he was willing to be very close to dog egg and the others. This made her very curious.

From the information, cold star was actually an international professional assassin. His background was very bloody. It was said that he had offended the western European supernatural organization outside before sneaking back to China under the arrangement of his master. This place in central China.., there were no mercenaries or assassins to feed him, so he had no other survival skills. He could only find a job as a bodyguard. Usually, when he had nothing to do, he would play games, he was the only D Ball player among the seer people who had received combat training in the early stages.

She did not expect such a person to be so close to Wang Goudan and the others in a day.

“By the way, where are you guys going next?” Goudan asked curiously.

“Gouzi and Pu Yunchuan are planning to go north. Li Goudan wants to go to the western islands. I’m planning to go to the southern grasslands to take a look,” emperor liver said from the side.

“Eh?” Goudan looked at Li Goudan, who was also goudan, and said, “Why did you accept the third mission? I thought you would accept the first mission and pretend to be a noble!”

“That thing is too troublesome...” Li Goudan said while trimming his long and beautiful nails, “And most of the spots have been taken by the developers. I feel nervous when I think about playing games with these big shots in the future.”

“Then... why don’t I team up with Brother Dog and go north?” Dog-egg asked again.

“What’s so good about fighting and killing?” Dog-egg li spread his hands, “And I heard that the northern plains is barren and there’s nothing special about it. I’m a tourist. How good would it be to go to the western islands to explore the sea view of this game map? “I heard that there are many countries in the western islands. The customs, culture, food, and scenery of each country are different. How can I miss such a rare opportunity to travel for free?”

“Wow! !” Wang Goudan’s face was filled with envy. To be honest, if she didn’t have to study, she really wanted to take on this mission... ..

Rainmaiden Wugua looked at the girl and quickly searched for her information in her mind.

Li Goudan, formerly known as Li Jiayi, the daughter of the Li family of the star group, the standard white, rich, and beautiful little princess. Her mother heard that there was also the royal bloodline of a small country in western Europe, and she was very famous in the aristocratic circle, little Jiayi had been groomed by her mother according to the etiquette of the royal family since she was young. Her temperament and etiquette were excellent, and she was originally the perfect model for this role-playing mission.

However, it was just a game. Everyone wanted to experience another kind of life, and she couldn’t force them, so in the end, she could only accept the third mission and become a pirate... ! Cough, cough, merchant at sea!

“By the way, Don’t you care why I went to the South?” Emperor liver said unhappily.

“UH...” Goudan was confused, but in the end, he still cooperated, “Then why did emperor liver go to the south?”

“Of course it’s for the tribe! !” Emperor liver said while hammering his chest.

“Huh?” Everyone was stunned...

“Master, the things are ready. When do we leave?” A hoarse voice came from outside the room. Everyone looked over, and it was a gnoll, and it seemed to be different from an ordinary gnoll.

The Gnoll who spoke was nearly two meters tall. Its arms were over its knees and its back was straight. It was completely different from the stooped gnolls from before. Its dark gray skin, which was full of circular spots, had also changed. Its fur was shiny and beautiful. Its pair of orange-yellow eyes had turned dark blue. It looked damn mighty and handsome...

“This is...” everyone said anxiously.

“Walker, my sidekick, the Gnoll!” Emperor liver introduced with a smile.

“This is a freaking Gnoll?” Goudan was stunned. “Don’t gnolls have spots all over their bodies? Why are they so domineering?”

“You... strengthened his genes?” Leng Xing frowned.

“No, I changed his genes. I spent 10,000 points to buy the Northern Star Wolf’s genes. How is it? Cool, right?”

“Cool!” Eggface’s eyelids twitched. “You spent 10,000 points on this guy? Are you out of your mind?”

“Walker is very capable. It’s worth investing in!” The liver monarch quickly said, “I’ve thought about it. This time, when we go to the southern orc tribe, we need someone who is familiar with the environment there to lead the way. Walker is very smart, and he is good at tracking and being vigilant. He is very suitable to be my follower.”

When Walker heard his master’s affirmation, he immediately straightened his back and looked very proud.

“Then... what exactly do you want to do in the Southern Plains? Are you familiar with little cabbage?” Leng Xing frowned and asked.

“Not familiar...” the emperor of the liver shook his head and said, “I don’t even know her. Haven’t you noticed that the flower spirit players are all very Buddhist? Usually, they are either paddling in the base or herding outside. How could they have any connections with the great emperor of the liver?”

“Then... great lord liver emperor, what exactly are you doing over there?” Eggface was speechless. If he didn’t say it now, he wouldn’t ask anymore.

The liver emperor, who had been repeatedly questioned, finally revealed a satisfied expression. He immediately put his hands on his waist and laughed loudly as he announced, “I want to be the Chief!”

“Huh?” Everyone was instantly dumbfounded.

“I heard from Walker that there are many weak tribes over at the Beast Race’s side. They all like to attach themselves to strong people. I’ve decided to subdue them and then go against the five great tribes. Finally, I’ll unify the Southern Plains and become a great emperor! ! !”

“From the intelligence report... .. There’s a slight chance “...” rainy girl said as she adjusted her glasses, “The plains believe in absolute strength. The competitive environment is actually much more benign than the human military. Of course, the weakness is that it’s difficult in the early stages. The large tribes will usually kill the small tribes before they rise up, unlike the human military, which has a large force to guarantee it.”

“I see...” Pu Yunchuan immediately clapped his hands and sighed, “Why didn’t you say so earlier? If you had said so earlier, we brothers would have gone to the grassland together and messed around. Who knows, we might still be able to succeed.”

“Hehe!” The liver emperor rubbed his nose, “This time, I’m not forming a team because I want to become a great emperor. We Won’t split the profits!”

Everyone: “Tsk, don’t let others beat the SH * t out of you!”

“I’m too lazy to talk to you ignorant people...” the liver emperor smacked his own muscles proudly. “Let’s Go Walker, let’s go, towards the Great Emperor’s path! ! !”

“Yes, master! ! !”

“Then old PU and I will leave too!” Brother Dog said, “Rox’s main force will be leaving this afternoon. I have to go too. Dog Egg, you look like you can’t move. Ask Leng Xing to help you with the farm matters.”

“I don’t have time...” Leng Xing said coldly, “I’m too busy with so many things on my own.”

“Bighead...” Gou Dan looked at him pitifully.

“Humph... just this once...” Leng Xing almost swallowed what he had just said in the next second, but he still said with a proud face, “I still have work to do, I’ll help you when I’m free...”

“Speaking of Big Head, you said you were a professional bodyguard before?” Li Goudan asked curiously, “It can’t be the kind of domineering female CEO’s personal bodyguard, right?”

“How is that possible? You’ve read too many novels!” Leng Xing looked at the ceiling and said coldly.

It really was... “...”. Rainy Girl, Wu Gua, secretly pursed her lips.

After Leng Xing returned to China, he really became the personal bodyguard of a female CEO of a certain company under the network of his master. It was exactly the same as those YY novels.

He was handsome, his skills were excellent, and he also had the temperament of an assassin that was not too cold. He was really a F * cking YY King of the city.

Unfortunately, he was addicted to the internet and could not be of much use. Once he changed shifts, he only knew how to fool around with Wang Goudan all day long... ..

Speaking of which, this loser team was either a noble or an official's son, or a king like Leng Xing. The real losers seemed to be Wang Goudan and Pu Yunchuan... ..

After everyone left, Wang Goudan suddenly looked at Li Goudan, who was still beside him, and said in a daze, "Why aren't you leaving? Aren't you going on a trip?"

"Before you leave, you have to settle your business!"

"My Business?" Goudan was stunned and immediately understood. "You... You Know?"

"Nonsense, who is as slow as you?" Li Goudan rolled his eyes at her and said, "I can catch bullets with one hand in real life, how can I not notice that something is wrong?"

"Then... how are you going to solve it?" Goudan asked curiously.

Li Goudan: "Go and show off! !"

Chapter 194: Don't you want to introduce him to your grandson?

"Old Li? Are you sure that kid from the Liu family is reliable?" In the Secret Service Department's Workshop of the new organization in Yanjing, an old man with thick eyebrows and big eyes and a square face was looking at Old Li with his hands behind his back. His expression was a little serious.

Old Li looked at the other party. This guy was Zhao zexin, Old Zhao, who had supported him in establishing the extraordinary organization. This person was also a big shot in the military and was an important force in the support of the extraordinary plan.

"Old Zhao, how would I know?" Old Li Sighed. "After all, he's just a doll and used to be a good-for-nothing. If you want me to guarantee it, do you think you can trust him?"

"I'm not forcing you..." "..." The organization was very dissatisfied with our progress!" Zhao zexin sighed and said, "We've been carrying out the plan for more than half a year. Other than some second-rate families, we haven't managed to win over any sects. For some reason, those guys from Red Sun and North America have been probing outside. We're very passive..." "..."

"I know..." "..." elder li sighed and said, "I also know that the situation is very tense right now and that the higher-ups are under a lot of pressure, but..." "..." This thing can't be rushed. I've already told you, that kid from the Liu family said that we should first suppress this matter and not report it to the higher-ups until there are some signs of it. Otherwise, wouldn't it be awkward for us to just throw our lives away? Yet, you have such a big mouth..." "..." "..."

"Wasn't I being rushed?" Old Zhao said a little embarrassedly, "That group of opponents always say that we are doing useless work and wasting the country's resources. This group of people is the best at fighting a war of words. If we were to waste resources, they would have come up with a solution, but in the end, there was no solution. They are simply a group of Worms!”

Old Zhao said angrily.

“Sigh...” Old Li’s face darkened slightly when he heard that. He didn’t have a good impression of those old-fashioned people who only knew how to object but couldn’t come up with a solution. He was afraid of this kind of worm.

“I’m telling you, Old Li. This time, no matter what, I’m going to stick to you. I’ve bragged to the higher-ups. If I lose face, I won’t Let You Go!”

“Hey... You Old Scoundrel!” Old Li laughed and scolded da speechlessly. Just as he was about to scold Da, the phone in his hand suddenly rang.

It was an unknown number!

Old Li instantly became excited.

“Hello?”

“Is it old Li?”

A clear voice came slowly from the phone. Through the phone, that voice seemed to be able to invade his heart through the infinite network. Old Li instantly felt his whole body go limp...

“Ah... right, right, right!” Elder Li was stunned for a long time, but Zhao Xinze couldn’t stand it anymore and poked him for a while before he came back to his senses and hurriedly said, “Yes, I’m Li Shangguo, may I ask who you are...”

“Luofu sect’s Xuanji sect: Qin Xuanji!”

“Oh, Hello!” Elder Li, who had finally waited for the phone call, suddenly became excited, however, his many years of being an official still made him speak in a steady tone, “When will sect Master Qin come to Yanjing? This old man will bring people to pick you up.”

“En... we have already arrived. We will be staying at Grandpa Shiyu’s place for the time being. I look forward to meeting you.”

“Old Liu’s place?” Elder Li was immediately shocked. It seemed that Shiyu’s status in the sect was indeed not low.

“This... you too. Before You Come, tell us. This old man will receive you well. This...”

“Our Luo Fu has never been restrained by these things. Elder Li, you don’t have to take it to heart. Would you like to tell us a place so that we can come or not?”

“Oh, no, no. You can take care of us at Old Liu’s house. I’ll come right away!” Elder Li hurriedly said.

After hanging up the phone, elder Li rubbed his hands and stood up excitedly. “I didn’t expect that Old Liu’s kid to be so reliable. He really called people over.”

“It’s not that simple.” Elder Zhao rolled his eyes and said, “This sect must have wanted to talk to the officials long ago. That child from the Liu family is just an opportunity. But it’s good too. Let’s go. I’ll go and see what a big sect figure who can beat up the Yunshan sect until they have no temper at all looks like.”

On the other side, the Liu family hall, at this time do members of the school in addition to the tutor, there are Li Goudan, Xu Xiangan grass snake, Cai Xukun where people? Young Bald, moral integrity 1 catty 25 and other player lineup play.

Two men and four women, basically all played by Elf players with excellent temperament, and two flower spirit players, with a slight change of shape and make-up on their pointy ears, made them look like otherworldly immortals descending to the mortal world, see a group of Liu family juniors in the dark in a daze.

These are Shiyu’s fellow disciples? Aren’t they too different from the rabble from last time? This is what a cultivation sect should be called!

Regardless of gender, the eyes of the younger generation were shining. There was actually such a beautiful person in this world. It was probably impossible to draw such a peerless beauty, right?

This was because drawing was what people thought, but could the person who drew think of such a peerless beauty?

Especially those girls from the younger generation, they only felt that the traffic was obviously weak. That delicate and handsome man was really like someone who had appeared from the second dimension. It made them feel that they would probably never be able to face those third dimension faces again for the rest of their lives...

“Everyone has graced us with your presence. This old man did not treat you well. Please forgive me!” Elder Liu said with a smile.

He sighed in his heart. That’s right. This was the temperament that a cultivation sect should have. What was all that nonsense about Wang Goudan and the emperor of the liver last time?

Although... .. they were indeed very good at fighting, but it did make elder Liu feel that his grandson had joined a fake sect.

“Elder Liu, you’re too polite!” Virien held up the Teacup and took a light sip. Her eyes lit up slightly, and she nodded inwardly. This thing is interesting, and the taste is very novel., compared to the federation’s tea leaves, although the level difference was too great, the taste was elegant. As long as it was slightly cultivated, it might be a good specialty drink.

As a high-level flower spirit, she quickly judged the value of the tea leaves.

“It’s the Great Red Robe of the Misty Mountain!” Elder Liu smiled and said, “I wonder if it suits the taste of Immortals like you.”

“Where in the world do Immortals come from?” virien smiled and said, “It’s just a saying that cultivators put on a good face. Elder Liu is Shiyu’s grandfather, so there’s no need to be so polite.”

The other party's amiable attitude surprised boss Liu, and he secretly nodded in his heart. He didn't know how much better he was compared to the people from the sects that he had seen in the past, shiyu was really lucky to be able to enter such a sect.

Thinking of his own grandson, elder Liu hurriedly asked, "I wonder how my useless grandson is doing in the sect? Did he give you any trouble?"

"Elder Liu, you must be joking..." Wei Lin took a sip of tea and laughed, "Shiyu is very talented. The elders of the moving mountain gate think highly of him. He has a bright future ahead of him!"

"Hahaha, right? That's good, that's Good!" Elder Liu immediately smiled with a bright face.

The players on the side had a strange look on their faces as they thought to themselves, HMM... .. He is indeed very talented. The brick-moving thief is F * cking awesome. ...".

Elder Liu's face was full of joy, but the other members of the Liu family did not think much of it. They thought to themselves, "What kind of talent does that dog, Liu Shiyu, have?"? These immortals definitely have not seen any good ones!

To be honest, if it were not for the elders warning them not to go in, they would have rushed over to acknowledge him as their master long ago...

If Liu Shiyu could do it, why couldn't they?

"Grandpa!"

Just as the Disciples' hearts were itching, a figure suddenly jumped in and did what the juniors wanted to do but did not dare to do it!

Elder Liu, who was chatting with Wei Lin, and the elder who was in charge of entertaining the guests at the side suddenly frowned and turned to look. It was the son of the third son of the Liu family, Liu Wenhao!

"Eh? There are guests?" Liu Wenhao rushed into the living room as if he had just seen Wei Lin and the others. He immediately put on a calm smile and said, "Grandpa, aren't you going to introduce them to your grandson?"

Chapter 195: confidence in Liu Wenhao

Liu Wenhao was a very confident person. This confidence came from the approval of the elders around him and the contrast of his weak peers. When it came to the younger generation of the Liu family, almost everyone knew about him.

Although he was not as successful as his eldest cousin, who was already an official at the age of 30 and had a good political record, or as young as his eldest cousin, who was able to take over the business of his eldest aunt's listed company and become an elite in the business world.

But he was still the most famous of the younger generation of the Liu family!

Everyone knew that he was well-liked, that he knew how to conduct himself in the world, and that he had unique views on both politics and business. The younger generation around him were very convinced by him, this also caused many of the older generation to think of the younger generation of the Liu family the moment they mentioned him. It was not the eldest grandson of the Liu family, who had already entered official career, nor was it the granddaughter of the Liu family, who was already on her way in the business world, it was this Liu Wenhao, who had yet to achieve any actual results.

Therefore, his excellence was not imagined by himself, but by everyone else. Naturally...

At this moment, Liu Wenhao stood in the living room. His expression was as gentle and indifferent as usual. He looked at the few people around him who were so handsome that they defied the heavens. His eyes maintained an extremely pure admiration. Although there was some surprise, he maintained a distance from them, he had the demeanor of an aristocratic family's disciple.

He was familiar with this posture. In the past, when he came into contact with the arrogant ladies from aristocratic families, he was like this. He was neither servile nor overbearing. His eyes were pure, but he kept a distance from them, without exception, he had aroused the curiosity and good feelings of the arrogant ladies. They took the initiative to contact him. Then, with his knowledgeable and interesting conversation, he was able to create a unique persona for the children of aristocratic families, they, who were used to people fawning over them, had an unusual sense of novelty, and thus, had a different attitude toward him.

The people in front of him were the same. They were so good-looking that they must have received all kinds of heated gazes. In order to gain their good feelings, one could not pretend to ignore their beauty, but also could not appear too cordial, it was enough to maintain a gentleman's magnanimity.

However... .. There seemed to be a problem with the current situation... ..

It had been almost two minutes since he stepped into the living room, but no one answered him. He had indeed made everyone notice him. The Beauties in the living room did not say that they were deliberately ignoring him. On the contrary, all of them were staring at him in a daze. But just by looking at him like this, no one said anything. The atmosphere suddenly became a little strange...

How could this be?

Liu Wenhao's gentle smile slowly became a little stiff. Logically speaking, since he had started the conversation like this, the woman who sat at the head of the table with her grandfather should at least politely ask, "Who is this Little Langjun? Or is this your grandson or something like that?"

Then, her grandfather would casually introduce him, and she would take the opportunity to strike up a conversation with him, trying her best to give these immortals a good and deep impression in a short period of time. On the way, he thought of more than a dozen types of text for the dialogue, which corresponded to various people's settings, this was what he was best at. Whether it was facing someone with an arrogant personality, stern, or someone who refused to be swayed by force or persuasion, he was confident in dealing with them.

But this was really the first time he had encountered such a situation. Everyone looked at him, but did not say a word. They just stared at him like this, and it made his scalp go numb... ..

How could it be like this?

Liu Wenhao was suddenly a little speechless. The expression of indifference that he had accumulated became more and more difficult to maintain, and he immediately looked at his grandfather.

Elder Liu sighed slightly when he received his grandson's pleading gaze. He looked at his grandson, who was praised by everyone in the outside world. His feelings were actually very complicated.

This child was really the same as second brother!

Of course, he knew what his grandson wanted to do, but the people around him clearly knew that he did not want to cooperate with him. If you asked me to help you out of such an awkward situation, wouldn't it be awkward if others did not buy it?

However, seeing that his grandson's expression was getting more and more unsightly, he finally sighed and said, "Sorry for the joke, everyone. This is my good-for-nothing grandson, Liu Wenhao, Liu Shiyu's cousin."

In order to find a topic for his grandson, he even brought out Liu Shiyu, causing the corners of Liu Wenhao's eyes to twitch slightly. He had a rather complicated feeling in his heart. He didn't expect that one day, he would actually be reduced to basking in Liu Shiyu's glory!

That Bastard born from a dancing girl...

"Mm..." Wei Lin took a sip of tea and replied softly. Then, he did not continue.

This caused Liu Wenhao's expression to suddenly become somewhat untenable!

Mm?

That was it?

When the old man said those words, he instantly thought of more than a dozen words. If the other party replied with: mm... As expected, he was a dignified person. He followed this topic and said humbly, "You're too polite, immortal elders. It's already a blessing that this kid's skin can be considered worthy of your eyes. How can he be a dignified person?"?

Such self-deprecating words could not only show his generosity, but also indirectly flatter the other party. It could be said that he killed two birds with one stone.

If the other party replied, "HMM, he's quite similar to Shiyu...".

He could also shamelessly climb up to the next level. He simply licked his face and said, "We're blood brothers. It's only natural that we look like each other."

This way, he could also increase the favorability of the other party.

If the other party simply spread unfavorable remarks about him because of that bastard Liu Shiyu, causing the other party to coldly reply, "Well...". He had heard Shiyu talk about it.

He could also thicken his face and continue to say, “Ha, Shiyu also mentioned it?” “I wonder how Shiyu usually talks bad about my brother behind my back?”

This topic was opened up. Apart from using this opportunity to salvage his image, he could also find out from the side how that bastard arranged his story behind his back.

As long as the other party replied, he had the confidence to open up the topic. No matter what, he had to create an image here today. However, the other party only replied with a single sentence and then remained silent again... ..

Wen Hao looked at the monkey-like gazes around him. He was only one step away from saying, ‘mm? F* ck! mm!’!

Under such an awkward situation, Wen Hao finally decided to take the initiative to break the deadlock. He tried his best to maintain the smile on his face as he said, “Is there a flower on my face? are all the seniors looking at me like that?”

This time, someone finally replied. The one who replied was Li Goudan, who was sitting at the end of the left side. She said coldly without holding back, “It’s to see when you will voluntarily SCRAM!”

As soon as she said this, the juniors hiding in the dark let out a chuckle and almost burst out laughing... ..

Liu Wenhao’s smile, which had been taut for a long time, finally froze on his face. He did not expect that the other party would slap his face so unhesitatingly in front of the old man. For a moment, his expression turned extremely ugly.

“Alright... you can leave first...”elder Liu sighed slightly when he saw the situation.

Elder Liu had actually expected this outcome. This was also the main reason why he had forbidden those three generations of his grandchildren from entering the capital in the first place. He had seen how Shiyu had been despised by his cousins of the same generation ever since he was young, now that he saw that the other party had caused trouble, he wanted to come and bask in his glory? How could there be such a good thing?

When the people from the other party’s sect came to Yanjing, the first thing they did was not to look for elder Li who wanted to cooperate with them, but chose to come to his Liu family instead. This was clearly to support Shiyu’s face. Under such circumstances, you were still licking your face and asking for a beating.., you really don’t understand the situation at all. Where did your usual quick-wittedness go?

Looking at his own grandson leaving with an ashen face and embarrassment, elder Liu’s expression was not very good either. He had expected that the other party might not buy it, but he did not expect that they would slap his face so directly.

“Elder Liu, don’t blame me...” “...”Wei Lin waited for Liu Wenhao to walk to the threshold before he lightly said, “This is my personal disciple, Qing que. She has a very good relationship with Shiyu in the sect, so naturally, she would not be too interested in some of the people that Shiyu spoke of. She has not lived in the world for a long time, and her words are a little rash. I hope elder Liu won’t take offense.”

“Haha... It’s Alright...”elder Liu smiled bitterly as he listened to the explanation of the stomachache.

The other party seemed to be explaining, but in fact, she was supporting Shiyu. The target of the slap was Wenhao, but she was apologizing to him. She had no intention of dealing with the victim at all. Moreover, the meaning of her words was very obvious, her own disciple was more rash, so she directly slapped his face. We elders are more mature, so we indirectly slapped his face. Anyway, it was to see that you, Liu Wenhao, were unhappy.

When Liu Wenhao, who had walked to the door, heard this, his expression became even more unsightly. His Qi and blood surged, causing him to tremble as he walked. His fists were tightly clenched, and his nails were deeply embedded in his flesh. A trace of resentment flashed through his eyes, he quickly left the living room.

The juniors who had seen this scene from the dark looked at their second brother, who they had once admired, but they had no intention of sharing a common enemy. In fact, they were even somewhat gloating in their hearts. Ever since the incident at the gym.., although these cousins did not have much of a change in their opinion of Liu Shiyu, they only thought that he was lucky.

However, their opinion of Liu Wenhao had changed quite a bit. In addition to this show, their previous image had collapsed quite a bit...

Elder Liu sighed slightly when he saw this. In the past, he had also been biased against Liu Shiyu’s mother, causing him to be somewhat dissatisfied with this child. He had been isolated by his third generation of cousins, and he had not been able to deal with it properly in the first place, now, he could be considered to have suffered the consequences. Now that Shiyu’s child had such a great opportunity, it should have been a chance for his Liu family to prosper.

But now, this situation was clearly a little troublesome...

Chapter 196: A Motley Crew!

“Damn Liu Shiyu, damn bastard! !”Liu Wenhao walked over gloomily, cursing his cousin whom he had always looked down on.

He knew very well that the reason why the people of this sect were so hostile to him was most likely because of that bastard. He didn’t expect that this kid could have such great influence in a sect. In the past, he had underestimated this guy!

But what should he do now?

While Liu Wenhao was complaining, he was secretly thinking of a solution. That Bastard had already climbed to such a high position. No matter how lucky he was, this was clearly a fact. If he did not quickly think of a plan... His situation would probably become more and more difficult in the future...

Just as he was thinking, he suddenly saw two familiar figures in front of him hurriedly walking towards the inner courtyard. If he took a closer look, was it elder Li and elder Tian Jizhong?

These two were big shots in the military. Even his grandfather's status before retirement could not compare to these two. Why would they come here?

"Grandpa Li, Grandpa Tian!" He hurriedly gathered his emotions and greeted them.

"Oh, Wen Hao!" Elder Li nodded and said somewhat anxiously, "Where are elder Liu and the guests?"

"En... in the living room..." looking at the anxious expressions of the two elders, Liu Wen Hao immediately guessed what the other party was here for, and his heart immediately became more and more irritated... ..

"Good, good, good!" Elder Li smiled and said, "Wenhao, your Liu family has been a great help this time. Fine, you can go and do it yourself. Don't worry about us. We are familiar with the road, so you can go there by yourself!"

Without saying much, he brought old Tian to the inner hall with ease.

Looking at the anxious backs of the two people, Liu Wenhao's expression became more and more unsightly... ..

He had almost guessed what was going on. The sect behind Liu Shiyu not only took a liking to Liu Shiyu, they were even willing to cooperate with the authorities. In this way, regardless of whether it was the sect or the authorities, it could be said that Liu Shiyu was benefiting from both sides!

No... ! I Can't let this matter succeed just like that. I have to think of a way to ruin this matter!

Liu Wenhao gathered his emotions and quickly thought about it. It was no longer a secret that the authorities wanted to form an extraordinary organization. If this matter was allowed to succeed, Liu Shiyu's position in the family would probably be unshakable.

This might be an opportunity for him. He would first ruin this matter and then lead young master Yun's side to facilitate the cooperation between Yunshan and the authorities. In that case, Liu Shiyu would at most be a disciple of the sect. The significance would not be as great as it was now. As long as he could facilitate the cooperation between Yunshan and the authorities, he would be valued by both sides. When that time came..! . The most outstanding son of the Liu family is himself!

Liu Wenhao thought so, his heart began to plot how to mess up the plan, but never thought that even if he can mess up the matter, his weight in the end enough to promote Yunshan and the official cooperation?

"Oh, Old Liu, hard for us to entertain guests!" Old Li entered the door on the feeling thanks.

"Haha, What Are You talking about? They are all seniors of Shiyu's sect. Isn't it proper for this old man to entertain them?" Elder Liu smiled and stood up. Then, he looked behind elder Li and was stunned for a moment. "Oh, Old Tian is here too?"

Tian Jizhong nodded slightly and smiled as he found a seat at the end of the table and sat down. When elder Liu saw this, he hurriedly gave up his seat and said, "Then you guys chat. This old man has retired, so I won't get involved in these matters."

Elder Li revealed a grateful expression when he saw this. Elder Liu was giving him a promotion!

Wei Lin, who was next to elder Liu, also took the initiative to stand up and slightly bowed to elder Li. Her actions were light but elegant and generous. Coupled with her already beautiful figure, the two old men were slightly stunned when they saw her.

They thought to themselves, "What a celestial bearing. Looks like this is the true upper echelon of Liu Shiyu's sect. It's a completely different concept from the group of baffling people from before."

"I'm Li Zhonghua. This is Tian Jizhong. The official cooperation project this time is mainly managed by the two of us old men. Greetings, Sect Master Qin!"

"Elder Li is too polite!" Wei Lin said with a smile and made a gesture of invitation.

After elder Li sat down, he took a look at the people around him. All of them were dressed in white and had silver hair. Regardless of whether they were men or women, they were all natural beauties. Other than Li Goudan, most of the players had put on light makeup and looked a little more mature, they looked more and more like a senior from a celestial family.

"Sect Master Qin came from afar and is full of sincerity. This old man will not spare wanzi, so I will ask directly. I wonder what your sect's attitude towards the cooperation is now?"

Virien smiled slightly and the script that he had memorized when he came appeared in his mind, he smiled and said, "I, Luofu, am originally a reclusive sect and rarely go out. However, a few days ago, the Heaven Secrets Compass calculated that there would be a great calamity, so I sent my disciples to the source of the calamity that the compass indicated. It was the mutated virus that happened a few days ago. At that time, it was an emergency and in order to gain the trust of the foreign government, I used the official name. Here, this sect master has to apologize on behalf of those juniors..."

It was indeed you guys! !

Elder Li's eyelids twitched, but he still maintained a smile on his face and said, "Sect master, what are you talking about? Our Huazhong is one body. Your sect was able to break the rules and enter the world in order to save the common people. You are truly a great hero. This old man respects you all!"

"Elder Li, you are too polite..." virion smiled and said, "After that time, we realized that cooperating with the authorities isn't a bad thing. It's much more convenient to travel in the world with our identity."

"That's right!" Elder Li said, "The other sects just don't understand such a simple principle!"

Elder Li paused for a moment and said, "But I heard from Little Shiyu that your sect still has opposition parties?"

"Well..." virion nodded and said, "I, Luofu branch, Move Mountains, Vientiane, and Xuanji sect. Among these three sects, move mountains is the main force cultivator. It's more straightforward and straightforward, and it's somewhat repulsed by restrictions..."

"Don't worry about that!" Elder Li quickly said, "If you are willing to cooperate, the government will consider your special situation and give you great freedom and authority. Apart from some basic terms and conditions, it will not restrict you too much. On the mission, we will also consult your opinions. The government will not be unilateral...". "...after a pause, he said, "We will also give you the greatest support in the construction of the sect!"

Elder Li quickly expressed the sincerity of the officials.

Elder Tian frowned slightly from behind. He felt that elder Li's attitude was a little too low. This would instead make the other party wait for the offer to be sold...

Just as he was thinking about it, he heard the other party ask, "How much is the salary?"

"Huh?"

The two old men were stunned when they heard this and did not react in time.

When Wei Lin saw this, he smiled and said, "I heard from Shiyu that the officials want to organize an extraordinary team. They should be planning to let our disciples and elders move in, right? Could it be... that they are working for free?"

"This... of course it's impossible!" Elder Liu choked for a long time before he quickly smiled apologetically and said, "Sect Master Qin, you must be joking..."

"I'm not joking...". "...Wei Lin shook his head and said, "Our Luofu is a reclusive sect. We don't have any business aristocratic families outside. In the grotto-heaven, we are all self-employed. Now that our disciples want to enter the world to work for the government, we must have a share of food and clothing, right?"

"This..."the two old men looked at each other with strange expressions. They had not expected such a situation.

"Ahem...". Elder Tian coughed lightly and interrupted, "Don't worry about your sect. The extraordinary organization that we have established is an official organization that faces the world. Usually, we do some relatively dangerous work, so the treatment is naturally very generous...". "..."

"How Generous?"The surrounding players interrupted.

The two old men's faces twitched when they heard that. Why did they feel that these immortal people were all desperate for money?

"Ahem..."virien coughed lightly and interrupted the desperate players'voices and explained, "It's like this. After all, it's a cooperation. When I go back, I have to report the specific cooperation data to the sect leader, right?"

The two old men's eyes lit up when they heard this. Elder li quickly said, "Your sect... sect leader agreed to cooperate?"

Virien nodded, "Before I came, there was a meeting. In the end, sect leader still felt that it was useless to think too much, so he decided to cooperate first. If it's not suitable, then we can part on good terms, right?"

"Uh... Hahaha, your sect leader... is really a forthright and generous person!"Elder Li praised repeatedly.

Hehe... He was just an unscrupulous boss who didn't want to pay his salary ... Wei Lin secretly slandered him in his heart.

"Then... Since your sect is willing to cooperate... this old man wants to ask, how many disciples do you plan to send over?" Elder Li asked the question that he was most concerned about.

"HMM... how about two hundred first?" Wei Lin probed.

"PFFT!" The two old men almost choked to death with a mouthful of tea. They were stunned for a long time before they said in unison, "Two hundred?"

"Is... is that too much?" Virien said with a little guilt.

After all, it seemed a little too much to ask for so many rice bowls at once... ..

"Not too much, not too much, not too much!" The two old men shook their heads repeatedly. What a joke. They were currently lacking people. They did not think that it was too much even if you asked for two thousand. They just did not expect that the other party would be so generous... Ideally, they would already feel that they had given them a lot of face by sending over ten people...

"It's just that... I did not expect your sect to be so generous..." old li said honestly.

"AH... .. Is That So?" "...virion smiled and said, "Our sect members usually have a lot of things to deal with, so we are not able to be on call at any time. Giving out so many quotas is also for the sake of the cooperation between both parties. In case you need people to do missions, you won't be unable to find them in a short period of time."

"I see, your sect is really thoughtful!" Elder li nodded repeatedly, completely ignoring the situation where other people had to get paid even if they were to log in.

"I wonder how the standard of your sect's more than 200 disciples is?" Elder Tian interrupted and asked. He was still relatively sensitive. If the other party called in a bunch of nobodies, it would be difficult to explain to the higher-ups.

"Don't worry about that..." virien said confidently, "Our Luofu sect has always been very cautious in accepting disciples since ancient times. We only accept top-notch geniuses. Anyone who is qualified to come into the world is at least at the upper stage of the Earth Immortal Realm!"

Upper Stage of the Earth Immortal Realm? 200?

The two old men sucked in a breath of cold air. They also knew some cultivation realms. When they heard this, they were immediately shocked. Where the hell did this faction come from to be so fierce?

However, when they thought about that time when they competed with Yunshan, it didn't seem like they were bragging... ..

"I wonder when the 200 disciples of your sect will be in position?" Elder Li said with some excitement.

He couldn't wait to bring these 200 earth immortals to beat up those probing rats outside.

"Oh... I'm afraid it will take some time..." virien smiled embarrassedly, she had asked for so many spots first, but in fact, there were only 20 to 30 people who had signed the confidentiality agreement in the base, other than the group of developers. It was just that she had opened the gap so that people could get in.

“This...”the two old men looked at each other, in the end, elder Lee said, “To tell you the truth, the government urgently needs such a force to intimidate the outside world. Because of the incident with your sect in South Africa last time, many forces in the world are now watching us closely, especially the extraordinary forces of Red Sun and North America, who have been probing the border...” “...”

“In that case... we’ve caused trouble...”virien said apologetically, “Then how about this, I’ll leave Green Sparrow and elder Bai behind and help you get rid of the rats probing the border first...”

“Uh...”elder Li was stunned and quickly said, “Sect master, according to our intelligence, the people from several forces are not weak. Let’s just call them two people, isn’t that...”

“It’s okay. The forces that elder Li mentioned have all been contacted by my disciples outside...”

Wei Lin smiled and said confidently, “They’re just a motley crew!”

Chapter 197: Gou Dan and Leng Xing

In the base, Leng Xing walked into Wang Gou Dan’s farm with a poker face.

From a distance, a sturdy-looking farmer ran over quickly. “Hello, this is master Gou Dan’s farm. May I help you?”

Leng Xing looked at the sturdy farmer in front of him and narrowed his eyes slightly. Gou Dan had obviously strengthened the farmer’s genes once, and it was done with a relatively good native gene, the pure gene strengthening that would not affect the subsequent evolution would cost twice as much as the normal strengthening.

This girl usually had a sour and greedy face, but she was more kind to the people below her than most players.

Thinking of this, he took out a contract and said, “Your grandfather has some matters to attend to recently. Leave the farm matters to me for the time being.”

The faint blue runes on the contract emitted a faint blue light. They resonated with the slave imprint on the farmer’s body. The farmer immediately knew that this matter was not a lie, he hurriedly nodded and bowed. “I’ll listen to your orders. How should I address you, Master?”

“My surname is Leng...”

“OH, Master Leng, do you want me to show you the farm?”

“Yes...”Leng Xing nodded.

As the farmer led the way, Leng Xing patiently looked at the entire farmland. He could see that the farmland had been well taken care of by Goudan. Whether it was the plot planning or the distribution of farm work, everything seemed to be in good order, it was obvious that he had spent a lot of effort.

Moreover, the crops were growing well. The base was filled with the thick scent of Taro. It could be seen that these farmers were also very diligent.

Therefore, Leng xing nodded and praised, "Very good."

"Thank you for your praise, Master!" The farmers hurriedly nodded and bowed.

They had been captured for one to two months, and they were gradually getting used to the life here. They were usually fed three meals a day, and after familiarizing themselves with planting techniques, they were not tired. Although master Gou Dan was always baring his fangs and brandishing his claws, he was actually a good person. He was usually willing to teach the children to read and write. "...". So far, they were quite satisfied!

But now, there was a new master, and he was such a tall and big guy who looked like an orc. It was inevitable that they would feel a little terrified.

"Call everyone, I have something to say."

"Yes, master..."

There were more than 30 women and children on the farm. At this time, they looked at their new master and became a little nervous. The few children who were usually naughty also became obedient.

They looked at those apprehensive eyes and didn't mind the cold stars, they said indifferently, "Your master dog egg has recently contracted ten plots of land and accepted many farmers. The new farmland will still be planted with the two crops that you are currently planting. When the time comes, I will assign you old people who are already skilled to teach the newcomers and be in charge of managing them."

Was this... The meaning of being promoted?

The eyes of a few farmers lit up.

Seeing everyone's cold expression, they nodded and said, "After the management of the farmland is promoted, all of you must do your best. Not everyone is as kind as your master dog egg and can give you so many opportunities. Make good use of them and plant the crops well. When your master is profitable, there will be no lack of your rewards."

"Reward?" The farmers looked at each other. Other than food and accommodation, there were other rewards?

Seeing this, Leng Xing continued, "Usually, we don't let you out of the farmland because the surrounding cities are still under construction. It's not safe for you to go out. After some time, the city will be built and the trade market will open up. Then, you can buy what you want like before. As long as you work hard, there will be more and more things to enjoy in the future. In the past, only the nobles could afford to eat, wear clothes, and your children can enjoy a higher level of education, becoming doctors, teachers, warriors, and so on... However, the premise is that you have to do your job well!"

The few old farmers were honest and simple farmers. How could they withstand such a big pie? They patted their chests repeatedly and said, "Don't worry, master. We will definitely take good care of the farm for Master Gou Dan!"

Leng Xing nodded and gave a few more instructions before leaving the farm. He walked towards Gou Dan's recuperation room in the base. When he reached the recuperation room, he placed the contract deed all over the ground in front of Gou Dan, he explained patiently, "Your qualifications are enough to contract a total of 20 pieces of land. I contracted 10 pieces for you..."

"Why!" Dogball immediately said unhappily.

"There's too much. You're under a lot of pressure to get a loan!" Leng Xing said coldly.

As a cold-blooded killer, Leng Xing chose the Green Titan class. His temperament combined to achieve the most handsome Green Titan title. His big green face with a cold and slightly paralyzed face looked very unique.

"So Bold!" Goudan shouted.

"Are you sure?" Cold Star looked at her.

"Uh... Hahaha, forget it... ten it is..." Goudan immediately swallowed his words.

After knowing that this was not a game but reality, she did not dare to act recklessly. If she owed a huge sum of money, she would not be able to go back on her words just by logging off.

"I've sold all your humans, beasts, and gnolls for you. 200 points each..."

"Eh, you can sell them for 200 points?" Eggface's eyes lit up. Wasn't it only 50 before?

"Recently, the Lord opened up a pasture, and everyone knows about the gnolls'talent for herding. Naturally, the market will rise..." Leng Xing explained.

"AH... is that so? If I had known earlier, I would have applied for two pastures," Eggface said with a face full of pity.

Leng Xing looked at the greedy little eggface and could not help but knock her head that was bandaged.

"First, do one thing well before you consider doing other things. Do you still need me to tell you the truth that you can't Chew More Than You Chew?"

"It hurts..." Eggface said as he covered his head.

"I didn't use any strength... is it that exaggerated?" Leng Xing hid the concern in her eyes and pretended to be cold.

"Your head is swollen..." dog egg said pitifully.

"Is it that serious?" Leng Xing looked at the dog's head that was obviously bandaged and couldn't help but say in a gentle tone.

"Wuwu... forget it, let's not talk about this. Where are my land farmers? How are they allocated?"

“Ahem...”. Leng Xing coughed lightly and said, “Your land farmers have a total of 600 and 41. I helped you sell half of them. Ten plots of land should be left with 300 land farmers. You still have some other people who can help with the care. Although they are not professional land farmers, they can also help with some chores.”

“They’re selling so fast?” Gou Dan was stunned.

“Yeah...”. “Land farmers are still short of resources at the moment, and the market is pretty good. I’ll sell them at 500 points each. Since a lot of farmers and farmers are tied together, I’ll give a discount when selling them in pairs, selling them at 700 points each.”

“What about the farmland?” Gou Dan asked repeatedly.

“According to your idea, the farmland is planted with taro, raw fragrance, and Purple Rice. But... isn’t the risk a little too high? I see that many people choose the No. 7 crystal rice with less risk according to the system’s analysis.”

“The risk is small, but the profit is low...” Gou Dan said proudly, “There’s no future if you follow the public...”

“I hope you won’t Cry when the time comes...” Leng Xing said coldly.

“Don’t Jinx it, Big Head!”

“Don’t Call Me Big Head...” Leng Xing glared at her.

“Humph!” Gou Dan rolled his eyes at her and then started to daydream happily, “When this Gou Dan’s first batch of farm produce makes money, I’ll open a few shops and specialize in this area of delicacies. I’ll also open the Gou Dan chain of taro and fragrant delicacies, and open all over the base. When the time comes, I’ll bring my father over to enjoy his life. I’ll let him take off his police uniform and have a good rest, so that he can have a taste of being a landlord.”

On the other hand, Leng Xing looked at the daydreaming dog egg with a gentle look in her eyes.

“I wonder how father is doing now... is He in a hurry to look for me everywhere? How is that heartless brother...”

“Do you want me to take a look for you?” Leng Xing suddenly asked.

“Ah?” Dog Egg was stunned, then his eyes lit up. “Really?” Then he said, “Don’t you usually work as a bodyguard? You Can’t... Go Too far, right?”

“It’s fine... just resign,” Leng Xing said indifferently... ..

“This... isn’t Good?” Eggface didn’t know what to say. She felt a little bad for letting the other party lose his job, but she was indeed worried about her father and the others. Although Big Boss Rain said that she was going to solve it soon, but... She was still worried... ..

“There’s nothing bad about it...” Leng Xing said coolly, “Isn’t it the plan to form the Dragon Group? I’m going to be an official agent soon anyway. I Can’t be a personal bodyguard at that time anyway.”

"I see... Then I'll have to trouble you, Bighead..." Eggface's eyes were smiling like crescent moons, which made Leng Xing's heart skip a beat. He turned his head away and said unhappily, "How many times have I told you, don't Call Me Bighead!"

"By the way... is your boss the overbearing female CEO in novels? Wouldn't it be a pity if you quit?"

Leng Xing: "You've read too many novels..."

A few hours later, in a villa, a beautiful female CEO looked at the cold man in front of her with a shocked expression. "What? You're quitting?"

Chapter 198: A Woman's sixth sense

"You want to resign?" In the villa, a beautiful woman in a suit looked at Leng Xing, who had even packed his luggage, and asked in surprise.

The woman was beautiful, and her facial features were good, but not tacky. She looked clean and neat in her business suit, which revealed the competent beauty of an elite lady.

Different from girls from small families, this kind of temperament, which was accumulated from business experience and successful career, was most infatuated with men who were eager to conquer.

"HMM... I have something urgent..." in reality, Leng Xing was the same as in the game, his face was so stiff that it gave people the feeling that his face was paralyzed. However, his starry eyes decorated the entire scene perfectly, forming a cold temperament.

"What urgent matter?" The beauty frowned and asked.

"Personal matter..." Leng Xing replied indifferently. He didn't want to say anything more. Obviously, he had the intention of saying that a wet woman had no melon... ..

This attitude made the woman feel uncomfortable, but she didn't show it on her face. Instead, she said in a slow voice, "If you have something urgent, I can give you a holiday. There's no need to resign..."

"No... I have a new job. I don't need to be a bodyguard anymore... Thank you for taking care of me during this period of time," Leng Xing politely refused.

"You..." the woman blurted out, "Why? Is it unfair for you to be my bodyguard?"

As soon as she said this, the old Butler's expression suddenly became a little strange...

As expected... .. The young miss seemed to have some interest in this child...

But this was also within expectations...

The young Miss was born into a prestigious family and her own ability was strong. She had single-handedly supported the old master's business. There were very few people in the same generation who could stand shoulder to shoulder with her. Although such a woman was outstanding, it was difficult to find a suitable partner.

Unlike a man who was strong, if a man was strong, he would also like a woman from a small family who was very dependent on him. A woman was different. If she was strong, she would definitely not like a weak chick. The more shrewd and capable a girl was, the more capable she would be, often, she would like a man who was stronger than her.

However, most of these men who were stronger than her liked a man with big breasts...

Of course, the young lady's breasts were not small, and she was also very good-looking. However, her achievements were too high. As a 27-year-old family leader, it was almost impossible to find a rival among her peers, let alone someone stronger than her.

This also made her single to this day. She was not lacking in suitors, but people who were suitable for her. As a member of the business world, most of the people who had her achievements were old enough to be her father. Among the rich children of the same age.., most of them were still good-for-nothings, so how could they catch her eye?

But this man in front of her perfectly filled this gap.

His background was mysterious, and he was very powerful. He had once killed more than 20 bandits with his bare hands in a kidnapping plan aimed at the young miss. In addition, he was young and had a good body.., he was many times more attractive than those rich children who had been emptied of their wealth by alcohol and sex.

Therefore, it was not unreasonable to say that a domineering female CEO was a mercenary. To be able to become a female CEO at such a young age, her skills and abilities were extraordinary. In such a situation, it was almost impossible to find a man who was compatible with her in the business world, on the contrary, it was not illogical for a powerful soldier king or King's bodyguard to be able to attract their attention with another kind of excellence. Otherwise, how could such a type of book be so popular for so long?

However, this child did not seem to be interested in his miss... ..

This made the butler very puzzled. His miss was at the most beautiful age of a woman. She was mature, intellectual, and had a noble temperament. Was this kid blind? Or was he really a fast wood?

Just as he was thinking about it, he saw that the man had already begun to walk out with his suitcase. The Butler immediately looked at his miss.

"Call Uncle Kun and ask him who he introduced. Why is he so irresponsible and resigned just like that?"The woman said with an ugly expression.

"Yes, Miss..."the butler quickly said. Just as he was about to go down, the woman stopped him again. "Inform my secretary to change my schedule. Put the Jiangnan project on hold for now. I'm going to talk about the project in C City First!"

"City C?"The housekeeper was stunned when he heard that. Why was she going to City C? Did the small project in City C need miss to talk about it personally?

Could it be... "...". Leng Xing was going to City C this time? The housekeeper guessed secretly.

The housekeeper's guess was right. His miss had indeed decided to change her schedule at the last minute because she saw Leng Xing's plane ticket to City C.

She just wants to see why Leng Xing left her.

She was keenly aware that cold star's so-called private affairs should be related to women... .

Inside Kodovia:

Rain Woman Wu Gua was sending off her two dolls with a reluctant look. The faces of the two developers who pretended to be children twitched when they thought of the days of daily military training that followed, and their faces turned bitter, they should not have come to join in the fun in the beginning. Now, they were regretting their decision. How good would it be to do scientific research in the base?

"Don't worry, Madam..."Rox looked at rainless melon and smiled gently. "I will take good care of these two little guys."

"I hope that you will train them well and don't have any misgivings. Only by experiencing hardships can they grow into men who can carry the burden of the Feier family!"Rainless melon said with a pained but determined look.

When the two players heard this, their faces twitched and they could not help but think to themselves, 'Big Brother, what kind of grudges do you have?'

At this moment, the generals behind Rox could not help but laugh.

Rain Girl, Wu Gua, on the other hand, secretly glared at the two generals.

The two of them immediately returned to their stern expressions.

Obviously, the two of them had been replaced. When Rox's army searched, they finally found a tragic battlefield in the wilderness of Molundo. The ground was filled with the corpses of humans and beasts. There were less than a hundred survivors and two generals., the scene could barely be considered realistic, but the strange smell of flour on the ground still made the soldiers in charge of patrolling feel curious.

Marshal Rox was also depressed in the face of such heavy losses, but fortunately, the battle was ultimately won by the humans. Molundo was recovered as the end. Although his last battle before retirement was not a great victory, it could be considered a perfect ending.

When he returned, he planned to use the heavy losses as an excuse to resign from the position of Marshal of the three armies. He wanted to give more opportunities to the young people so that he could retire behind the scenes and nurture the younger generation.

Thinking of the younger generation, Rox looked at the illegitimate children team in the southern city this time.

The quality this time seemed to be much worse than the previous ones. Most of the children's physical training was not satisfactory. This could not go on, but fortunately, although these children's physical training was average, their attitude was still decent. These few days, helping to count the heads and carry the supplies, they could be considered to be hard-working and worth nurturing, unlike those two guys...

Rox looked at Brother Dog and Pu Yunchuan, who were chatting with their arms around each other's shoulders in the corner with an unfriendly expression. Looking at their careless expressions, he felt angry in his heart.

Originally, it was normal for the illegitimate children's group to have a few useless trash, but now that Rox had suffered heavy losses, what he wanted to see the most was a vigorous new seedling, and not such a waste of resources!

He thought to himself that after he returned and resigned, he must apply to personally guard the Academy's selection. He must not let such a worm go in and waste resources!

Chapter 199:: good stuff!

The Empire Avenue ran from the south to the north. It was a great avenue built by countless craftsmen and master dwarves over the centuries in the steel arms empire. It was also a guarantee for connecting the major cities.

It was not only connected to the major border passes, but also to the major trading ports. It was like a main blood vessel that maintained the flow of the Empire's blood.

The Great Dao was costly. Every few dozen kilometers, there would be a large-scale relay station that could provide food, accommodation, and supplies for traveling merchants. Of course... The price would be slightly higher.

To the soldiers, these relay stations were all free, but no relay station could satisfy the supply of tens of thousands of soldiers. Therefore, most of the supplies were brought by the soldiers themselves. The relay station could at most provide hot water for tens of thousands of people, which was very powerful.

Therefore, the soldiers usually did not stay at small stations. Most of them marched with a plan and arrived at the large stations that were one hundred miles away before nightfall.

Marching for a hundred miles a day was not a problem for the elites of the empire that Rox had brought, but it was a big problem for the illegitimate children that had just joined the team.

In such hot weather, despite the scorching heat, they still had to carry heavy luggage. On the first day, many people could not hold on anymore and slowly began to fall behind...

However, Rox did not pay attention to those who fell behind. The entire country was waiting for him to bring back the heads and corpses of the soldiers. Of course, he would not slow down the journey for the sake of the fragile illegitimate children.

Moreover, this was also a test for these boys who were about to enter the army. It was also good to let them understand the rhythm of the high intensity of the army in advance.

However, these illegitimate children had been trained since they were young. Regardless of whether it was their physique or willpower, they were much stronger than ordinary people. On the first day, apart from a few people who fell behind, most of them still persevered.

However, on the second day, most of them could not do it. After resting for a night on the high-intensity journey, the next day, their legs seemed to be filled with lead. They really did not want to move at all.

Gradually, more and more people started to give up. It was still early to leave school, so why did they have to follow this group of soldiers? Was it just to see the cheers of the people? Was it necessary?

Some people started to find excuses and gradually convinced themselves. In the end, they chose to stay on the hard couch in the Courier Station and sleep to their heart's content.

Some people started to infect like a plague. More and more people chose to give up. By the second day, there were only half of them left.

Seeing this, Rox shook his head and thought to himself, "In recent years, fewer and fewer people have successfully become knights in the Knight Academy. It seems that it's not the quality of the Academy's teaching, but the reason why the number of students is getting worse and worse."

"It seems that it's time to clean up the south. The atmosphere is too comfortable..."

"However, the forces in the south are complicated. Many mage families have always opposed the military's plan. It's indeed a little troublesome to overhaul and implement it to improve the military literacy of the entire population, but it can be a start..." They could start with some border towns that were more inclined to the military's territory.

Morondor, which had just been reclaimed, was a better pilot. Currently, Lady ICASIO, who was qualified to temporarily manage the place, was only a baroness. Although her child was the only descendant of the felon family.., she was the most legitimate heir, but if she wanted to successfully take over such a large piece of territory, she needed strong support.

Regardless of whether she was sincerely leaning toward the military or to consolidate her power, at least her work on the surface was well done. Both children had been entrusted to her, so it seemed that she would be more obedient in the short term, moreover, there was still a lot of work to be done in Molundo, so it was most suitable to be used as a pilot city for the new policy.

At night, Rox walked outside alone, taking in the cool breeze as he thought about these problems. He had already decided to retreat behind the scenes, so he sincerely intended to properly nurture the next generation of the empire.

After all, the losses this time were really unexpected. Forget about the elite soldiers, the ones who suffered the most were the high-end combat strength. This time, not only did they lose the Buddha Dawn Divine Sword, but seven empire generals had also fallen, it seemed that the northern front would have to maintain a conservative stance for a long time.

The replenishment of fresh blood was imminent...

Just as he was thinking, Rox suddenly smelled a fragrance. He was stunned for a moment and subconsciously followed the fragrance.

Even if it was a large-scale courier station, it was obviously impossible to feed tens of thousands of people. Rox had never been special. Just like the Warriors around him, he ate sun-dried butter biscuits and the hot soup prepared by the courier station.

Could it be that Ickes and Duke (the general played by the players) could not help but start cooking? Rox was secretly curious, but then he shook his head. Among the generals who came this time, the two of them were more rigid. They would not do such a thing. It would be easier to say that it was the skull crusher who did it.

Rox smelled the fragrance along the way and walked over. He found two thin and weak young men in cloth clothes. They were the two who he disliked the most.

Rox was slightly stunned when he saw these two people. These two guys actually persisted until now?

He thought that they had fallen behind in the first wave...

“What are you doing?”

“Oh... reporting, sir, we are eating!”The two people saluted seriously.

Rox looked at the Iron Bowls in their hands. There was steaming hot soup inside, but it seemed to taste a little different. When he looked carefully, there was actually noodles inside...

Rox immediately frowned and said sternly, “Didn’t I tell you not to make a fire privately?”

The kitchen of the courier station was strictly forbidden for people to enter. Ordinary soldiers could only make a fire outside if they wanted to cook a bowl of noodles. However, this was strictly forbidden before. Because there were too many people, it was easy to cause a fire if they made a fire casually.

“There’s no fire, Sir!”Brother dog hurriedly said, “We can eat this noodles after soaking it in hot water!”

“Is that so?”ROX sneered, “Why don’t you soak it for me to see?”

If he dared to lie to his face, he would teach these rookies a lesson...

Five minutes later...

It really became soft?

Rox touched the noodles with his knife and fork. It was very elastic, and it didn’t seem to be too raw...

“Sir, do you want to try it?”Brother Dog suggested.

Rox smelled the fragrance and was a little tempted. After hesitating for a moment, he finally moved his fork. This was to test if the two little guys were lying, and not because he was greedy...

Rox comforted himself like this and finally took a bite. After inhaling a large mouthful of the noodles, Rox’s eyes suddenly moved!

This taste...

The sweet wheat fragrance, the incomparable chewiness, and the incomparable taste of ingredients made him almost swallow his tongue.

“What... What is this?”Rox asked in surprise.

“Uh, instant noodles, our specialty...”Pu Yunchuan said.

“Good stuff!”Rox licked his teeth and recalled the novel taste just now. This was much better than ordinary dry food, even compared to some of the top delicacies in the empire!

It was easy to carry, hot soup, and fast food. It was simply the perfect military food. He didn’t expect that there was such a good thing at the Molendo border?

“Where did this craft come from?”Rox asked quickly. He planned to add this thing into the imperial military food category later. If it was a private industry’s craft, the empire would pay a sum of money to buy the technology.

“Alright, give me the address. After that, I’ll apply for the quartermaster to go talk to that pastry chef...”Rox smiled.

Pu Yunchuan:”...”

F * ck, eating instant noodles could cause so much trouble... ...

Chapter 200: Another scam

The matter of Rox going to Brother Dog’s place every night was gradually being noticed by people. Soon, it spread like wildfire among the illegitimate children!

Of course, they did not know the specific reason. They only knew that Marshal Rox seemed to spend some time with those two guys every night. In the next few days, he seemed to bring those two little nobles, molendor, over to meet them.

This made many illegitimate children feel puzzled and secretly jealous at the same time. Back then, the families behind them had asked them to follow Rox’s troops in advance because they wanted them to find an opportunity to get in touch with the higher-ups of the military.

Not to mention the higher-ups, those ordinary soldiers were very cold to them. They looked as if they would not allow strangers to enter. These two guys, on the other hand, directly skipped over the ordinary soldiers and mingled with the marshal. What was going on?

Moreover, they even gave away two future nobles!

Actually, many illegitimate children wanted to get in touch with the two young masters of Molundo. One of them had the potential to become a duke in the future.

Why did these illegitimate children work so hard to train? Weren't they still trying to stand out? How many of them really wanted to risk their lives in the northern battlefield?

If they had this relationship, they could directly transfer to the future Duke of Molendon's side after graduation and take up a military position. It was not impossible for them to obtain a noble title!

If they could, who would be willing to go back and become a guardian Knight or a family knight? Wouldn't that be equivalent to becoming a dog for others? How could they have any feelings compared to being a noble?

Looking at these two guys who had gone through some godforsaken luck, many of the illegitimate children revealed looks of jealousy, especially Shi senming. At this moment, his feelings were especially complicated.

He had betrayed Lady Sunny and accepted the invitation of the third lady, Jenny, in order to have more resources and more opportunities to stand out. That was why he chose to betray Sunny, who had been good to him.

He had come into contact with sunny much earlier than brother dog, so how could he not know that Lady's candy-like personality?

But so what?

No matter how kind-hearted a lady was, she would have no future in the future. If he failed to make any achievements in the north and was forced to return to his family to become a guardian knight.., would it be better for him to be a guardian knight with a future earl or even a duchess? Or would it be better for him to be a knight with a woman who might only be able to marry a down and out Baron?

It was obvious...

He could not waste his future just because she was kind-hearted, right?

Especially after Sunny accepted a hooligan like Sim as a guardian knight, he became even more determined to betray her. He was so outstanding, yet he was reduced to the point of having to serve the same master as a hooligan like Sim? How could he tolerate this?

He did not expect...

This piece of SH * t actually had such luck...

Seeing the two young masters of Molendon mingling with him, he was incredulous and extremely jealous. On what basis? It was fine that this piece of SH * t shamelessly received Miss Sunny's kindness? On what basis could he have such a fortuitous encounter outside? Was the heavens blind? Or did people like this kind of scoundrel nowadays?

After hesitating for a long time, he finally decided to thicken his face and try his luck.

However, SSENMING was a cautious person. When Marshal Rox was around, he had never chosen to approach him. After all, this kind of person was not qualified to take the initiative to strike up a conversation with him no matter what reason he used.

His only targets were the two little ones...

If Tim, that rascal, can get on so well with two future lords, why can't he?

With this in mind, he had been quietly observing and patiently waiting for a few days, until the night of the sixth day, when he finally got his chance...

— — — —

"Have you seen the news?" Pu Yunchuan said excitedly: "The Lord has released the city template, asking for the player's opinion!"

Brother Dog and the other two developers looked at each other. They were speechless when they saw Pu Yunchuan, who was still happy after being tricked by the Lord.

It was like this. Three hours ago, the Lord Seer had released the players' vote to build the future city style!

Now that the base had enough people to build the infrastructure, especially with a large group of imperial engineers and some dwarven master craftsmen, the Lord of seer finally decided to start building the first city of the base.

However, the construction style of the city made seer fall into a choice syndrome. The system provided a few more labor-saving templates, but seer was still hesitant, in the end, after thinking about it for a few hours, he suddenly slapped his thigh. Wasn't this a great project to recycle players' points?

Hence, he immediately launched a voting option, letting the players decide the future of the first city!

There were a total of five templates chosen. They were the cyberpunk style with heavy industry, the West Arun style with neatly cut stone mats, and the live wood style as raw materials, the Elf city style that was made close to nature, the simple and heavy tanggu style, and the gorgeous and luxurious stacking sky garden style that the heavenly humans liked the most.

Each style seer had marked the difficulty of the construction, the materials required, and the time spent. Of course, the players who had marked so many were hoping that they would donate money...

According to the decision of the city construction style, the more difficult the construction style was, the higher the taxes that the players had to pay and the higher the initial construction support fees!

When this news was released, it caused the players to turn around violently. Looking at the dazzling city style template, most of the players were dazzled. They felt like they had chosen the style of their own house to decorate.

For a time, they were all caught up in the choice syndrome. At the same time, they had almost forgotten about seer's unreasonable follow-up request...

Speaking of which, who would brazenly ask players to pay for the construction of a city?

Looking at Pu Yunchuan's silly smile, the other three did not know what to say. However, they had no choice. After all, they had signed a confidentiality agreement.

The most important thing was that they still had to hand in their points even after knowing the truth. They could not help but curse the lord in their hearts.

Of course, if they knew that seer had already started planning to set up many projects in the private property area to collect players' points in the future, they might really be unable to help but curse.

"What style do you guys think is better?" Pu Yunchuan asked happily.

"The cheapest one..." the three of them said in unison.

"Hey... you guys can't have such thoughts!" Pu Yunchuan said earnestly, "We can earn more points after spending them. Building a city is a big deal!"

"Hehe..." the three of them twitched their eyelids and thought to themselves, seer probably likes idiots like him the most now.

Suddenly, Brother Dog gave them a look and whispered, "Someone's coming."

The few of them immediately stopped talking. Even Pu Yunchuan, who was originally excited, immediately changed his expression.

When Siem got closer and saw the few of them, he immediately stopped talking and frowned. However, he still shamelessly smiled and said, "Yo Siem, I haven't seen anyone for a few days. Why Don't you go over and talk to Your Brothers?"

Brother Dog looked at the other party with interest. He felt that this guy's face was as thick as his second uncle's son, Liu Wenhao. He usually despised him, but now he kept calling him a brother...

"What's there to talk about..." brother dog pretended to be unhappy and said, "Those guys all dislike me. If I go to them, wouldn't I be asking for trouble?"

"What's the matter?" Sim saw that the other party had answered, without hesitation, he took the opportunity to sit on the side and said, "When we go out, we are all blood relatives of the same father. We should help each other and hug each other tightly. Who would dislike who?"

Blood relatives... help each other...

It was so F * cking grand. This guy couldn't be the reincarnation of second brother, right? Brother Dog ridiculed in his heart.

"Oh right, what were you guys talking about just now? Why were you guys chatting so happily?" Seeing that they had successfully joined the group, Shi Senming couldn't wait to blend in.

When the players heard this, they rolled their eyes. Do you F * cking understand what we're talking about?

"It's getting late. The two of you should go to bed early so that Marshal Rox won't scold you guys later," brother dog said calmly.

"Oh, okay, brother Sim!" The two developers immediately looked like obedient babies. They got up and ran into the courier station obediently, which made the smile on Ssenming's prepared face stiffen.

“Oh, right...” brother dog looked at the other party with a smile after saying that the two dolls had left.
“We were just discussing whether the remaining griffin is a male or a female. Brother, why don’t we go and take a look together?”

Shi senming’s face instantly turned black like coal...

Damn, who wants to accompany you to see the male and female griffins in the middle of the night?
