

A Bunch 221

Chapter 221: Worm

“Elder Long is back? How is it? What did the official say?” In the courtyard of Yanjing’s North Spring Mountain, many big shots gathered together, looking expectantly at Elder Hu who had returned.

Looking at the expectant eyes of the crowd, elder long sighed slightly. “The official agreed to elder Li’s suggestion, and promised to fully support the establishment of the long group if that sect could really display its expected strength this time.”

“What a fool! !” When the crowd heard this, they immediately slapped their legs and sighed, “The Guan family is still too young. To nurture the arrogance of the sect like this is truly a foolish act of digging one’s own foundation!”

In the crowd, a middle-aged man who looked slightly younger stood at the back. He looked at the group of old men who were sighing towards the sky and felt a little strange in his heart.

These people... ? Were they acting or were they hypnotizing themselves?

Actually, everyone understood why the aristocratic families refused to allow transcendent sects to enter the world. Ordinary people had a natural disadvantage when facing transcendents. The reason why these aristocratic families were able to contend against the transcendent families was because of the enormous power behind them, even if they were to face those thousand-year-old sects, these aristocratic families still had the confidence. However, what would happen once the transcendents entered the government?

When the extraordinaires also received the support of the government and joined the government, what advantages would their political aristocratic families have?

Under the competition of the same platform, what would ordinary people like you have to compete with them?

This was what everyone was most worried about. It was also the main reason why they were most opposed to the official acceptance of sects. Everyone was well aware of this point, and in fact, if transcendents were to enter the world, would it be beneficial or detrimental to the current situation?

Those who had a little foresight and international common sense would understand that the benefits outweighed the disadvantages. In the current world situation, transcendents were already a way to display the strength of a country. They could force a small country to cooperate with you with a human-shaped nuclear bomb., others could use transcendents to brazenly collect protection fees in the world, but you could only look at this huge market, unable to stretch out your hands and feet. Despite having a large number of transcendents in the world, you could only protect yourself, naturally, you would not be able to convince other effects to cooperate with you.

As time passed, as the Extraordinaires' forces developed better and better, the authorities would be more and more isolated internationally. This point... It was impossible for these old-fashioned aristocratic families not to see it, but they still maintained this stance. To put it bluntly, ... They were just unwilling to part with their power and influence... ..

The middle-aged man sighed slightly and thought to himself, 'after a long time, will I be like these people? I'm obviously harming the country and benefiting myself, but I can continuously hypnotize myself and become a person who can act to the point that even I believe in it?'

"But elder long, the official family is now blindly listening to the words of those despicable people like Li Chongshan. They only care about the immediate interests and completely disregard the overall situation. What should we do?" One of the elders asked with a worried expression.

"HMPH!" Elder Long was filled with anger when he thought of elder Li's smug look this morning, he said coldly, "Let's see first. Li now has something to rely on. Let's see how strong his backing is. There are so many extraordinary forces at the border, but that sect is actually so arrogant. They only sent two people. We don't have to do anything but watch him roll over. When that happens, we'll have a lot to talk about."

"Elder Long is right..." "..." "But..." One of the old men said hesitantly, "But I've also heard that the sect behind that kid from the Liu family seems to be very impressive. Even the Yunshan sect was pushed back. Although it's a little arrogant, I'm afraid that they still have the strength." ..."

The surrounding people immediately fell silent upon hearing that. If they weren't afraid of anything, they were afraid of what might happen. What if the two of them really had the strength?

Elder Long's expression also became a little solemn. After a quarter of an hour of silence, he said to the few elders closest to him, "Let's talk inside..."

A few elders with the highest status accompanied elder Hu into the house, while the rest waited in the courtyard hall.

After entering the hall, elder long sat at the head of the table and looked at a few elders who were the same age as him, with a gloomy expression, he said, "Everyone, the situation is urgent now. We must not let Li Chongshan and his group succeed. Once the extraordinary force sneaks into the government, there will be endless calamities. I'm afraid we will be in trouble with the unscrupulous people of the Tang Empire!"

When the elders heard this, they all nodded with solemn expressions.

"Then elder long, what do you mean?"

"This is the only plan for now..."

As elder long said this, he lowered his voice and voiced out his thoughts. When the elders heard this, their expressions immediately changed. "This... this..."

"Everyone!" Elder Long said in a deep voice, "If I didn't have no choice, I wouldn't have come to this step. However, the current situation is extremely dangerous. I have no choice but to do it. I don't care about the small details when doing big things. This is also to maintain the overall situation..."

When the elders heard this, they looked at each other. After a moment, the hesitation in their eyes finally disappeared and turned into a trace of viciousness. They nodded and said, "Elder Long is right. For the sake of the overall situation, some small sacrifices are also unavoidable..."

"Old Wang, what kind of trouble did you get into?" In the C city police station, the Fat Old Zhang looked at Dog Egg's father Wang Lin with a solemn face. "Why do the people of Kunlun want me to hand it over for you so forcefully?"

"How do I know?" Father Wang pulls old Zhang's lotus king and slowly asks: "What is the reason of that group of people?"

"They said that you have connections with evil cultivators. According to the rules set by the authorities and their sects, you should be under their jurisdiction..." Old Zhang rolled his eyes at him and said, "I didn't see it, Old Wang. You actually have a background as an evil cultivator." "? Tell me, what kind of demonic technique do you cultivate?" "? To harvest silver to replenish Yang or to cultivate blood?"

"To step on mud?" Old Wang almost choked on his cigarette, he rolled his eyes at the other party and said, "I've been working overtime for you all day and I almost lost my kidney. Where would I find the time to pick silver to replenish Yang? Besides, my background is so clean that others don't know about it."

"I really don't know..." Old Zhang curled his lips and said, "With a salary lower than mine and living in such a big house, no matter how you look at it, there's something wrong with it."

"That's my wife's!" Father Wang glared at him. "I'm so handsome, isn't it natural for me to find a wife, a car, and a house? You Can't find your own belly full of fat, so you blame me?"

"Heh!" Old Zhang immediately laughed in anger. "You're living off a woman so righteously."

"It's a skill to be able to live off a woman..." Father Wang grabbed another puff of smoke and said in satisfaction, "HMPH, if my wife were still alive, would I be able to survive until I find you to smoke every day? "Back then, I didn't smoke during the prosperous times, okay? "But now, in order to raise two children, I can't even bear to buy a seven-yuan dragon and Phoenix?"

"Cut the crap... to be honest, although these people from the sects are annoying, they won't shoot off their mouths. What did you do?"

"What did I do?" Old Wang sighed. "Now, it's most likely that something happened to Xiao Jia..."

"Xiao Jia is a heretic?" Old Zhang was stunned.

"Heretic My A * s, they say heretic is a heretic?" Father Wang spat. "My girl is so cute, would she do anything that would harm the heavens? It's obvious that my girl had some fortuitous encounter, and now she's being envied by others."

"D * mn, Wang Daoliu, you're so confident?"

"Actually, I'm not sure either..." father Wang finally sighed, his eyes were filled with worry. "I'm also very worried about that girl's situation..." After a pause, he continued, "Old Zhang, you have to help me keep an eye on Chengbo. If those sects dare to break the rules and attack mortals, you have to help me protect my child. That's the only child of my Wang family." "..."

"Come on, look at you..." Old Zhang pinched the eyes in his hands and said fiercely, "I've long been unhappy with those sects. If they dare to break the rules, I'll immediately bring my brothers to surround that SH * t Kunlun! !"

Chapter 222: People from unassuming sects

"Boss? Why aren't they here yet?" In the temporary base of the transcendents, a young man held his head and asked in boredom.

This time, there were more than ten people in the base. They were dressed in casual clothes and were all young. They looked about twenty-four or twenty-five years old. Although they were all dressed in casual clothes, they were all standing, sitting, or even half-lying down. Their waists were straight, and their seemingly lazy tone could not erase the spirit that was seeping out from their bones. It was obvious that... They were a group of well-trained soldiers.

The young man with a crew cut who was called the leader was sitting in a corner reading a miscellaneous book. When he heard his subordinate's call, he frowned slightly.

He was actually very uncomfortable in his heart, but he had also worked with those people from the sects. He knew the arrogant character of those people, so he was more patient than his subordinates.

Crack...

As the people complained more and more, the gate was finally opened. Everyone followed the voice and looked over. When they saw the people who came, the group of people who were careless just now immediately stood up straight and saluted, "Elder Li!"

"Good, good, good!" Elder Li nodded with a smile. "Some things have been delayed. Sorry to have kept you waiting!"

Wang Ye stood upright like the people around him, but he still frowned slightly. He knew elder Li very well. Although he was a leader, he was a very proper soldier and had a very good sense of punctuality.

Wang Ye would not believe it if he said that he was late. The person who was late was definitely the person behind him, but elder Li had taken responsibility for him. Thinking of this, he sighed slightly. Elder Li was good at everything, it was just that he was too indulgent with the people from these sects.

"Let's introduce them..." elder Li didn't say any more nonsense, he slightly moved aside and let the person wearing the blue cloak behind him walk forward. "This is the member No. 01 of Our Dragon Group. He is also the main helper who will cooperate with you to remove the extraordinary members who are causing trouble within ba tie!"

When Wang Ye heard this, his frown deepened. He remembered that he had received instructions to cooperate with two members of the Dragon Group from the new organization to carry out this cleaning mission in BA tie. Initially, that number made him feel that the other party was messing around. He did not expect that there would only be one...

Elder Li smiled wryly when he sensed Wang Ye's dissatisfaction. In fact, he was also quite dissatisfied. Initially, it was already difficult for him to account to the higher-ups if only two people were left. In the end, it was even reduced. The key point was that the one who was left was still a small one... Even if you wanted to keep that elder... ..

"Hello, my name is Li Gou... ahem... my name is Qing que..." Li Gou Dan swallowed awkwardly. He was still not used to the new ID... ..

"I received instructions that there was an elder and a disciple in your sect who contributed this time..." Wang Ye directly interrupted the other party's self-introduction and said, "May I ask, are you an elder or a disciple?"

"Uh... a disciple..." Li Gou Dan rubbed his chin and recalled his role ... He should be a disciple. At that time, he could not win in a fight...

"In other words, you promised two people to help, but in the end, only one came, and only a small one came? is your sect really willing to cooperate?"

Faced with the questioning, Dogface's mouth twitched. She was also very helpless. In reality, the nominal elder was actually a young lady in her thirties. After being urged by her family to get married for a long time, she was somewhat resistant to matchmaking. Every time, she would find an excuse to avoid it. In the end, her parents came to her house personally and surrounded her. was she going to come at the last minute? What should she say?

It was good to be young...

"Wang Ye!" Elder Li immediately shouted at him. Although he wanted to say so, it was clear that he could not cooperate with her just now...

"Elder Li!" Wang Ye did not give in. "When warriors go on missions, it's a narrow escape. If the other party doesn't take it seriously, I don't have the face to lead a team to send my men to their deaths!"

"You..." elder Li immediately covered his head. This kid's stubbornness was back... ..

The soldiers behind Wang Ye were all stunned. They looked at each other in dismay, they thought to themselves, "They all say that this new boss is relatively tough, but I didn't expect him to be so tough. He actually dared to directly rebuke his superior. The key is that he's not an ordinary superior. That's elder Li, a marshal-level figure..."

"Don't be so fierce, little brother..." just as elder Li was thinking about how to ease the awkward atmosphere, that Li Goudan took the initiative to step forward. He pulled down his hood, revealing a head of extremely beautiful silver-white hair.

"I'm not inferior to an elder... although I'm a little small, I'm very reliable!"

Li Goudan stood on the upper floor. Under his flowing white hair was an exquisite face. He grinned and revealed a pair of cute tiger teeth, just like an elf in a fairy tale.

All the soldiers were shocked by this scene, and the air immediately became quiet. Even Wang Ye, who had always been unhappy with the people in the sect, could not say anything to refute it.

“Boss... I think... She’s quite reliable...” behind Wang Ye, a big man with a strong back and a strong build whispered into Wang Ye’s ear.

“Scram...” Wang ye rolled his eyes at the other party. This silly guy who was blinded by lust. This was a life and death mission, could he be more serious?

“Ahem...” elder Li coughed lightly and took the opportunity to say, “This Lady Green Sparrow is the personal disciple of the Xuanji sect master. Although she is young, she is at the Earth immortal realm. I believe that she will be outstanding enough to help you complete this mission...”

Earth immortal realm?

Many soldiers were stunned and did not understand what was going on. However, Wang Ye and the burly man were in disbelief. Wang Ye looked at the little girl who walked out of the painting and thought to himself, she looks like she is at most twenty years old, right. She had not even graduated from university in reality...

Such a little girl was an Earth Immortal?

In his impression, the Earth Immortals that Wang Ye had come into contact with were all white-bearded old men. Even during a mission to help capture evil cultivators, the personal disciple of the Kunlun sect leader, Situ Xue, whom he met, had not reached the Earth immortal realm...

But should he say it... ... This girl was indeed more beautiful than Situ Xue. He had always thought that situ Xue might be the most beautiful woman in the world... ...

“Wang Ye... come here...” after elder Li finished his long speech of encouragement, he woke up Wang Ye who was in a daze.

“Oh...” Wang Ye immediately nodded when he heard that. His resolute face was like he had just woken up from a dream. He looked rather silly and cute, which made elder Li laugh slightly.

After the two of them left, a group of soldiers immediately surrounded them and looked at Li Goudan with a curious look.

One of the soldiers could not help but ask, “Little sister, do the people in the sect all look like fairies like you?”

Seeing the soldiers openly provoking them, the vice-captain, Yan Hui, who had deliberately said that the other party was reliable, secretly felt that things were not good. He had acted like a pig just now to ease the tense atmosphere caused by his captain. In his heart, he kept a respectful distance from the people from these sects...

He had worked with these people all year round. He knew that these people from these sects were arrogant and looked down on ordinary mortals. Moreover, they hated being surrounded like this the most.

Once they lost their temper, it was possible for them to directly attack. When he thought of this, he hurriedly wanted to open his mouth and scold the soldiers to disperse. However, the next second, his words were stuck in his throat.

The woman didn't seem to be angry at all in front of the crowd. Facing the teasing words, she smiled and said, "Little brother, you really know how to talk, but a little fairy like me is also a rare thing in the sect."

"Yu! !"The crowd immediately jeered.

Seeing that the other party was willing to talk, the soldiers immediately became interested and asked questions one after another.

"Then... does your cultivation sect know that... that nine heavens lightning controlling true mantra?"

"That's made up by immortal pig. Little Brother, don't believe it. Flying on a sword is also nonsense..."

"Then... Can You Fly?"

"My senior sister can..."speaking of this, she felt extremely regretful. In fact, she really wanted to become a wind demon... ..

Looking at this harmonious atmosphere, Yan Hui did not know what to say for a moment. He looked at Li Goudan in a daze and thought to himself, this guy... .. He is actually easier to talk to than I thought...

-----

"Elder Li, I think we should reconsider this operation?"Wang Ye accompanied elder Li to an office outside. As soon as they entered, Wang Ye could not help but ask.

"I understand..."elder li nodded and said, "I just contacted their sect Master Xuanji, but the other party still has a lot of confidence in his disciple, so I can't say anything..."

"What sect is so arrogant?"Wang ye frowned. "The people who created trouble in Ba tie this time, although they are all unrated characters and there is no trace of the three major forces, this is clearly an investigation. I suspect that there must be an expert hidden..." . "..."

"I think so too..." . Elder li nodded. "The Americans and the people from Red Sun have been probing the border for so long, so the trouble in Ba tie this time must be related to them. Ba tie is currently the most pro-china neighbor, and the President has personally asked us for help, so we can't just stand by and watch. This time, you will lead a team to mainly focus on detecting information, and try to avoid exchanging fire. After detecting the strength of the other party, immediately report it. I will use this opportunity to try to ask for help from their sect again."

Pausing for a moment, he said, "If I really can't do it, at most, this old man will lose face once more and beg Kunlun..."

Hearing this, Wang Ye was stunned and immediately stopped talking. He had heard from his father that twenty years ago, there were also people who caused trouble in Ba tie. It was elder Li who had risked his face to personally go to Kunlun to ask for help...

With his status, he was the only official who could do such a thing...

This was also the reason why he respected the old man in front of him. Compared to those people who claimed that they were suppressing sects but were only doing it for their own interests, he was the official who truly served his country and his country.

Although he also hated sects, he also knew that without sects, Huazhong would have long been affected by the cholera...

Chapter 223: Earth Immortal? I've wanted to give it a try for a long time

On the plane, Wang Ye finally compromised and led the team to set off. He also understood the particularity of this situation. Although he complained, he still had to go for the mission. After all, there were many professions in the world that could fire bosses. But this was the only one that could not be fired... ..

At the thought of this, he looked at Li Goudan, who was sitting next to him, and thought to himself, "Hopefully, the sect behind this little girl is as powerful as the intelligence reports boast...". "Otherwise, if something like what happened 20 years ago happens again, it would really be a huge loss of face."

Just as he was thinking about it, Li Goudan, who was sitting next to him, urged him, "Turn the page, turn the page... haven't you finished reading it yet?"

The corner of Wang Ye's mouth twitched slightly when he heard this, and he thought to himself, "Is this little girl really a member of the sect?"?

He remembered that the members of the sect were all quite good at sitting quietly. The last time, Situ Xue was one of them. After a long journey of more than ten hours, she was able to shut her eyes and not say a word. Unlike this little fellow, who seemed to be unable to sit still and urged him to turn the page of the novel.

He had stolen the novel from elder Li's office. It seemed to be an ancient web novel called Earth player. It was quite an interesting novel. It was a very good choice to kill time on the long-distance plane, who told him that he couldn't play with his phone on the plane?

He didn't expect that the novel he stole would become this girl's book flipping tool...

By the way... was this really an earth immortal?

Wang Ye looked at the other side of the long and beautiful eyelashes, grow more fairy-like than Situ Xue, but feel more human than Situ Xue...

"Move on... move on..."

"Oh, OH..."

In the chief's office in the capital of Bassin, Chief Cregash sat in his office chair and looked solemnly at the chaos reported by his men.

"Forty-five public buildings have already been destroyed, including the subway accident at the two ends of the road. The number of casualties has reached more than 400 people. leader... Should we send..."

"Send what?" Kelijash covered his face helplessly and said, "If sending ordinary soldiers was useful, there wouldn't be extraordinaires running Amuck Today!"

Ever since the extraordinaire army combined extraordinaires with modern weapons, individual combat had been brought to the extreme. It took decades for them to prove their superiority to the world.

As individuals, extraordinaires were not as limited as some heavy weapons. The damage they caused was not as bad as heavy weapons. Furthermore, their bodies were flexible, and they were more precise and efficient than any other high-tech weapons, if it were not for the fact that genetic modification was too expensive, the era of national evolution would have already begun.

The only ones that could contend against them were those extraordinary countries that had a long history and had a natural training system. However, like many small countries, they did not have the cutting-edge genetic technology of North America, nor did they have the ancient training system of red sun and Huazhong.

Faced with these armed extraordinaires, they are truly powerless... .

"When Will Huazhong's aid arrive?" Asked Kragash with a frown.

"Already on the way, expected to arrive at Dongcheng Airport around 7 pm..." the secretary replied quickly.

After about half an hour of silence, he looked at the time and turned on the intercom. "Tell Barson to get ready. I want to meet him in person!"

"Yes, my Lord Chief..."

Inside Kunlun:

Kunlun, also known as Kunlun Xu, the number one sacred mountain in central China and the mountain of ten thousand ancestors, has been endowed with many mythological colors since ancient times, there are many kings dream of immortality method!

This theory has attracted many Taoist people to go to Kunlun in search of false. Whether they have found the queen mother of the west and found the so-called method of immortality is unknown. Anyway, in the ancient Xia period, the first group of Taoist practitioners who came here from thousands of miles away tracked down and established the number one immortal sect in the transcendental realm in central China.

This position had never been shaken for thousands of years. Even when the middle Tang dynasty came into power and the imperial power was at its peak, the Li family did not dare to invade the ancient sacred land that had existed for thousands of years.

At this moment, in the Jade Hollow Temple of Kunlun sect, the twelve elders gathered together for a rare occasion. It was obvious that they were discussing something important.

“According to the news from elder Li, there is a high possibility that there is a secret place in the Southwest Region!” The old man who spoke had the shape of a pine crane. He had a strange appearance and exuded the demeanor of a celestial being. He was the current sect master of Kunlun, Jiang Wuji!

As soon as he said this, the elders who had been sitting quietly with their eyes closed suddenly lost their breathing. They suddenly opened their eyes with a look of shock and bewilderment.

Kunlun was different from other sects. Half of the elders were in the Heaven Immortal realm. With such a number of top-notch combat strength, they were able to maintain their position as the dragon head of cultivation for so many years.

Many of the elders present were over 300 years old. Whether it was their experience or their magnanimity, they were far from being comparable to ordinary people. However, they were still shocked by this news...

After a long silence, someone said, “Is this news... Reliable?”

“I don’t know...” the sect leader shook his head, “When elder Li was hunting down evil cultivators, he discovered that there were suspected to be great Luo Realm Masters...”

“Great Luo realm! !” All the elders were shocked again. In the entire cultivation world, there were only two such mythical realm masters... And everyone knew that such a realm could only be cultivated in a mystic realm.

“This time, we can’t let go of the Huangjue temple like we did a thousand years ago!” The sect leader’s eyes were shining with divine light.

“Then... What’s the clue now?” An elder beside him asked carefully.

“In a mortal, the key is that the mortal has an official background...” the sect leader said with a frown, this scene was very similar. Back then, the Huangjue Temple had relied on the Tang Empire’s protection to prevent them from making any moves. However, after that, they couldn’t do anything about it.

“This...” the elders looked at each other and didn’t know what to say for a moment. Although the current official might not be as powerful as the Tang empire, it could be said that they were the most powerful in history. After all, this was a high-tech era?

“Let us wait... However, the sect leader did not panic. “The current situation is different from the past. The situation outside is far less stable than that of the Tang empire. I have also heard that there are extraordinary people causing trouble at the border. If the authorities can not solve it, they will naturally come to us. When they come to us for help, we will put pressure on them and force them to hand over the person!”

“master is wise!” All the elders heard the words immediately restore color, repeatedly nodded...

-----.

Eastern airport:

Outside the airport, at a high point 10,000 meters away, a blonde woman in black was chewing gum and looking at the airport through binoculars

“Life-saving straw, can not solemn point?” Next to a holding a sniper rifle aimed at the airport of the big white man laughed.

“That’s true...” the woman spat out the gum on the ground and looked ahead with narrowed eyes. “Are we really going to make such a big deal?”

“Yes, we’re going to make such a big deal!” The man smiled excitedly. “The higher-ups said that this time, we’re going to test the other party’s bottom line!”

“I heard that the person who came to support us is an Earth Immortal?”

“Earth Immortal? What does Earth Immortal Mean?” A skinny white guy behind him asked curiously.

“Earth immortal means! !” The Big White Guy with a sniper rifle sneered. “These Chinese cultivators really dare to flatter themselves. I’ve long wanted to give it a try. How many bullets does this god-killing immortal need?”

Chapter 224: No. 001 of the Dragon Group?

It was actually the leader himself who came to greet them. Wang Ye got off the plane and looked at the welcoming lineup. He was truly shocked... ..

Looking at the two rows of soldiers who were standing straight to greet them, as well as the BA tie leader who often appeared on television, even Wang Ye, who had gone through a lot of storms, could not calm down.

For a country’s leader to personally receive them, it was usually a standard that only national leaders would have, right? A big-headed soldier like him did not expect this day to come?

But the more it was like this, the more he understood that it was because he had a solid backing and was strong enough to win such respect...

The feeling of being respected... was really very good...

After taking a deep breath, Wang Ye immediately led the soldiers to stand straight and return a military salute.

Leader Kelighash returned the salute with a smile. He sized up this group of energetic young men, but a trace of doubt flashed through his eyes. In his impression, the extraordinary experts in Huazhong were usually more powerful as they got older. But at first glance, they seemed to be young people...

From their posture, they were undoubtedly excellent soldiers, but... .. this was not what he needed right now ... What he needed were those old men with hunched backs... ..

Finally, after looking around for a while, he finally saw a person who was dressed rather differently. His entire body was covered in a blue cloak, making people look down on him.

Could it be him?

But Krakash still saw a pair of tender white hands under the wide cloak... ..

Those were clearly not the hands that an old man should have...

What did Huazhong mean by this?

Although his heart sank slightly, Klie Gash still maintained a smile on his face and said, "Welcome to BA tie, my friends from Huazhong."

As a top-notch soldier king, apart from having an excellent combat quality, Wang Ye was also very sensitive to the emotions of others. He could instantly see the doubt in the other party's heart. He was actually also very embarrassed.., but he could only brace himself and say, "Greetings, Sir Leader. I am the captain of Huazhong's Investigation Team, Wang Ye. This time, I am mainly here to probe for the information on the extraordinary humans that your country mentioned."

"Probe for information?"The leader finally could not help but frown slightly. Behind him, a few ministers revealed dissatisfied expressions. If it were not for the fact that they were in public, they might have lost their temper.

They had been pressed to the ground and slapped in the face. The subway had been destroyed twice. What kind of information did they need to scour for? Would they lie about such things for fun?

The leader was also very uncomfortable. Although he had always believed in the beliefs of his ancestors, this time the other party had indeed gone a little too far. His side was already on fire, yet you were still taking it so slowly, this was a little inappropriate. After all, it was obvious that there was a power deliberately trying to probe your country.

Wang Ye also felt a little embarrassed when he saw the expressions of the people across from him. From other people's point of view, they did indeed seem a little casual this time, but there was nothing they could do about it. It was not good for them to openly say anything about the domestic situation, right?

"Ahem... This is green sparrow, member number 01 of our Dragon Group. He's the main force in charge of gathering extraordinary intelligence this time..."Wang Ye coughed lightly and decided to pull the dragon group's skin.

"Dragon Group? Number 01?"Cregash was stunned for a moment before his eyes lit up.

He had also heard of the legends regarding the Dragon Group in the south. They had wiped out the ACE Group 2 of the North American Beyonder Army, and it was said that they had even killed three captain-level figures of the Kagura Legion. It could be said that they had shocked the beyonder world.

Of course, there were also many people who didn't believe this news. Even kaligasi doubted the authenticity of this news. Their BA tie and central China had been friends for hundreds of years, so they more or less knew some inside information. The Beyonders in central China had conflicts with the authorities. The Dragon Team... .. It seemed like it was made up by an internet writer...

He didn't expect that there really was... .. Number 01. Then... .. Perhaps he was an incredible expert?

"My name is Qing que. Greetings, leader!" Li Goudan bowed slightly. His voice was like a clear spring that invaded people's hearts, causing everyone's hearts to go numb...

A Girl?

Cregash was stunned again. Judging from his voice, he was definitely not old. Was he reliable?

He remembered that twenty years ago, when he accompanied the previous leader to receive the transcendents from central China, the lineup was much larger than it was now. There were four to five elders and a group of disciples. Each of them had a deep aura, even ordinary people like them could feel that they were extraordinary.

Now, there was only one of them. Judging from her voice, she was still a girl. Even if the other party said that she was the dragon team number one... .. She still gave people a feeling that she was very insecure. ...

Just as he was about to ask another question, Li Goudan suddenly moved. She, who was covered by a blue cloak, suddenly jumped in front of Kelighash, this sudden move caused the surrounding security guards to raise their guns and point them at her!

Wang Ye was also shocked by this sudden move. He quickly shouted, "What are you doing?"

This guy was too reckless. He was the leader of a country. Even if he wanted to show off his strength, he shouldn't be playing like this, right?

Li Goudan did not reply. Instead, he reached out and lightly grabbed. Two jade-white fingers caught a sniper bullet from afar!

That sniper bullet carried a blue flame. When it was clamped between Li Goudan's fingers, it was exceptionally eye-catching, causing everyone to be shocked!

This was especially so for leader Kelighash. That bullet was only a few centimeters away from his temple when it was caught, the Blue Flame and the terrifying air currents formed by the spiral penetrating force allowed him to directly feel the terrifying power of this bullet.

He immediately broke out in cold sweat and quickly retreated. The soldiers at the side quickly went forward to protect him and formed a circle.

"There are snipers, protect the leader!" A group of soldiers quickly surrounded him and looked around vigilantly. The head captain in charge of security immediately had a look of panic on his face, he thought to himself, "That's impossible. The sniping points around the airport have clearly been swept... Moreover, there aren't any high vantage points around the airport. The nearest tall buildings should be at least 10,000 meters away, right? How is it possible to snipe someone from that distance?"

After all, the latest sniping record was only 3,400 meters, and this record had not been broken for 50 years!

Of course... .. What was even more surprising was that the girl could actually catch a sniper bullet with her hand...

-----
“What the... ? Caught it with her hand?” In the distance, the extraordinary sniper who saw this scene through his sniper scope was so shocked that he bit off the cigarette in his mouth!

“No Way...” the woman in black who was holding a pair of binoculars at the side was also shocked.

That was a sniper bullet, and it was even a sniper bullet with special power. She had once seen her companion shoot through half of an elephant’s body at a distance of 10,000 meters with this hand. The power was extremely overbearing. If someone could dodge it, she would understand, but... It wasn’t normal to dodge it. The bullet’s speed was over 3,000 meters per second. No living creature should be able to react in time ... But if the other party had merely dodged it, she would have been able to understand a little. wasn’t it a little too ridiculous to use one’s hand to grab it?

Was this the dragon group that was mentioned in the intelligence report?

Just as she was in disbelief, an even more terrifying scene suddenly appeared.

The person who caught the bullet suddenly raised his head and looked in their direction. From a distance of 10,000 meters, the woman holding the binoculars felt a chill that was as sharp as a ray of light on her back. She was so frightened that the binoculars in her hands almost fell to the ground, she hurriedly screamed, “Retreat! ! !”

The sniper who was originally lying on the ground suddenly jumped up. He did not even intend to take the sniper rifle. He directly took the lead and ran downstairs. When the blonde woman saw this, she also hurriedly followed, on the other hand, the young man behind him who was wearing earphones had a dumbfounded look on his face. He didn’t know why the two seniors were so flustered.

His reaction was a few seconds slower, and he immediately felt that something was wrong. He hurriedly followed them down. His superpower was metal control, and his physical strength wasn’t very good. Naturally, his running speed was far inferior to the two seniors. He couldn’t help but complain in his heart, these two seniors really left him behind just like that?

What on Earth scared them so much? Why did they look like they had seen a ghost?

In the end, the moment he came out of the stairway, he was instantly stunned...

On the empty road outside, the figures of the two seniors were still running, but their heads were forever in the hands of the other blue-clothed woman. From the expression on that head,. They didn’t seem to be able to react to the fact that they were already dead... ..

The young man froze on the spot. He looked at the fairy-like woman in front of him and didn’t dare to move. That bone-piercing chill made him finally understand why the senior had that expression on his face... ..

Chapter 225: Stay?

Hummingbird, scarlet. Laura, a member of the first team of the extraordinary corps. The Dark Net ranked 37th in the global extraordinary rankings. She had been implanted with the gene of the South American black venomous wasp. Her explosive power was extremely strong, and her body possessed a toxin that could poison up to a hundred colossi, her level of danger was even ranked in the top 10 internationally.

Blue Flame, Guste. Howard was a member of the first team of the extraordinaire corps. He was ranked 29th in the dark net. The gene transplant was unknown. He was the number one sniper of the extraordinaire corps. He had a special ability that allowed him to snipe. He had once shot and killed a captain-level figure of the Kagura Legion from 30,000 meters away. His reputation had been greatly boosted, and his level of danger was even ranked in the top three in the world...

Based on the intelligence photos and the report of the special sniper rifle that was left at the scene and the toxin from Laura's dissected body, Barson's intelligence team finally came to this conclusion after nearly 11 hours of accurate comparison, in addition to the testimony of the white boy who was captured alive, they finally came to this conclusion about his identity.

After receiving the report, leader Kregash could not calm down for a long time...

The Beyonder Legion, the strongest beyonder force in the world at present. He had heard quite a bit about these two old members. They were notorious internationally, yet they were killed so easily?

Dragon Group 001...

The international rumors were actually true. Did Huazhong really organize a group of extraordinaires with extraordinary strength?

The initial dissatisfaction in Cregash's heart instantly vanished. If it was really Dragon Group 001, it proved that Huazhong still attached great importance to his side. Moreover, based on his understanding of his old friend... It can be said to be the most low-key, as long as anything is not 100% sure to take out of the publicity, this time since took out that means...

At the thought of this he was a little excited, so that his country would never have to worry about those Bullsh * t supernatural forces!

Thinking of this, he cleaned up his mood and asked his secretary to postpone the schedule. He was going to contact this member of the Dragon Group. If possible, he even wanted to apply to Huazhong for the other party to stay here permanently!

---

"Damn, so fierce. You can actually catch bullets with your bare hands, Green Sparrow?" A group of soldiers' eyes lit up as they surrounded Li Goudan.

Goudan proudly waved his hand. "It's no big deal. I'll show you guys a machine gun catch one day."

"Oh, oh!" The soldiers immediately jeered.

Wang Ye, who was watching from the side, was stunned. He didn't know when his subordinates had become so familiar with this guy, and... ? This girl seemed to be too easy to talk to, right?

“Boss!” Just as he was thinking, his assistant, Yan Hui, walked in. “Leader is looking for you.”

“Huh?” Wang Ye was stunned for a moment, then he quickly nodded and said, “I’ll go right away...” then, he approached the other party and said in a low voice, “Keep an eye on this girl. Don’t let these soldiers go too far...”

Yan Hui was stunned for a moment, then he smiled and said, “I think it’s pretty good...”

“What’s good about it?” Wang Ye rolled his eyes and said, “These people from the sects have very strange personalities. Look at how easy-going she is now. She might turn hostile later. You must keep an eye on her when I’m not here. Don’t make trouble.”

“Oh... is that so...” Yan Hui looked at the little guy who was smiling so proudly and innocently. He couldn’t be vigilant in his heart, but he still nodded and said, “I understand.”

Looking at his teammate’s perfunctory expression, Wang Ye said in a low voice, “Don’t take it lightly. You saw it today. This guy is very ruthless when he fights. He’s not as harmless as he looks now...”

Upon hearing this, Yan Hui’s face immediately turned serious. He thought of the white guy who was so scared that he wet his pants when they rushed over, and the two headless bodies that were still running. His expression finally became a little serious, he repeated, “I understand...”

“Lost contact?” In a secret basement in the downtown area of the eastern city, a white giant who was almost three meters tall suddenly stood up from the sofa. The sofa, which had an excellent texture, was immediately shaken until its springs leaked out.

“Yes...” the person in charge of replying was a red-haired woman with an excellent figure, she had three-dimensional facial features and a beautiful face. She was clearly a top-notch beauty among white people. However, the only flaw in her beauty was the glaring scar on her face. This made the original beauty look even more ferocious.

If one was familiar with the international transcendents’ Circle, they would be able to recognize that this was the number one assassin in the Transcendents’ army: Red Ghost Katarina!

She was one of the five strongest members of the transcendents’ army, along with the second team’s Ace Blade.

And the three-meter-tall muscular man was the team leader of the first team, Mad Crocodile Walker!

This time, the transcendents’ army had actually produced two of their strongest members in a row. This was extremely rare in the history of the transcendents’ Army’s mission.

“Was it an ambush?” Walker frowned.

From what he knew, the cooperation of Blue Flame and hummingbird, if they were prepared, even the strongest fighters like them would find it difficult to face them.

After all, one was the strongest sniper in the organization, and the other was one of the best in the organization in terms of close combat ability. If they were to choose the sniper point according to normal circumstances, he did not believe that the two of them would fall at the hands of others.

"This is not clear... according to the intelligence, the person from the central China this time is an Earth Immortal!" Carter shook his head and said.

"Earth Immortal? So what? It's just a title, could it really be an immortal?" Walker looked disdainful. "If it really is an immortal, how could their country's officials suppress them?"

"Maybe the intelligence is a trap?" Carter frowned slightly. This intelligence came from the internal leak of the other party's initiative, so the reliability was indeed not very high.

"Who knows... this group of crafty Huazhong People!" Walker said in an angry tone. The intense anger caused faint scales to appear all over his body.

"Hey, Walker?" Carter frowned as he looked at Walker. If this guy were to explode here, it would be troublesome...

"Hu..." Walker paused for a moment when he heard this. He took a deep breath before the scales on his body slowly faded away. Then, he said gloomily, "Tell your subordinates not to act rashly and wait for Kagura's people to test it out."

"Well... . . I thought so too... ." Carter looked at the other side calm down and slightly relieved.

After all, this guy is out of control. Without Big Miller, I'm afraid no one can stop him from going crazy!

— — — —

"Ha? You mean to let the Green Sparrow Stay?" Wang Ye after hearing the other party request some blankly looked at the other party.

"Eh..." Cregash seemed to be a little embarrassed as well, but for the sake of his own family's stability, he still shamelessly asked, "I'm sure you all understand the situation on our side. Those people who are probing will definitely not give up. Moreover, our country also needs such a guardian to stay permanently. That kind of panic incident can not happen again in the next few days."

"But..." Wang Ye was suddenly in a difficult position... ..

Upon seeing this, ke lie gash hurriedly said, "Since you all said that this is a national organization, it should be able to accept long-term missions abroad, right? "We have also seen that person's performance today. The ministers are all very sure of her strength!"

"UH... this matter... I can't make the decision. I have to consult the higher-ups..." Wang Ye hurriedly delayed.

"AH, of course!" Cregash rubbed his hands and said, "But please give a quick reply from your country so that my men can feel at ease..."

Wang Ye:"..."

Chapter 226: patiently guide them

“What? They want to keep Green Sparrow?” On the other side of central China, elder Li was stunned when he received the call. He quickly asked, “What’s going on?”

After Wang Ye reported the matter in detail, elder Li’s expression immediately became complicated. He was pleasantly surprised but also in a dilemma. He immediately fell into deep thought.

According to Wang Ye’s report, Green Sparrow had just arrived at Basen’s place and had killed two of the transcendent Legion’s generals. Elder Li had also heard of the two transcendents. They were famous internationally, however, he did not expect such a young child to be able to do it all by himself. It did not sound like much effort.

Such a battle record had greatly boosted Yang Wei’s morale abroad as well as his plans to build a dragon organization!

He was not only sighing in his heart. It seemed that the sect behind that child Shiyu was indeed extraordinary. It was probably even better than Kunlun.

Twenty years ago, when his friends were harassed, he personally went to Kunlun to ask for help. He pleaded for three days before he managed to persuade Kunlun to take action. At that time, the lineup was not small. Two elders led the team, and under them were all personal disciples, although he had defeated the people of the extraordinary army, it was not as easy as it was now.

After all, the times were different. The extraordinary army combined with high-tech weapons, and their individual combat ability was clearly not as simple as these conservative sects thought. At the beginning, they were still in a rather sorry state, although they managed to force the enemy back with the power of the elders at the peak of the Earth immortal realm, the price was not small. They lost many disciples. He remembered that those personal disciples of his back then were basically useless in that battle, therefore, he did not have much expectations for green sparrow’s performance this time.

However, he did not expect... Such a boost in morale...

It seemed that he had to reevaluate the value of this sect...

However, elder Li seemed to be in a difficult position with regards to the request from his friend. On one hand, he was very happy that Qing que had the ability to gain the approval of his friend, but on the other hand.., he really did not want to send out this person who had finally entered the group after much difficulty.

What a joke. There was only one person in the entire dragon group who could be ordered around. That so-called elder was still nowhere to be found. If Qing que was sent out, wouldn’t his dragon group be left with no one?

But if they didn’t send him out, the leader of the friendly nation would have already spoken. They couldn’t just reject him like this, right?

After all, they would definitely not know that Qing que was the only person in the dragon team...

Just as he was about to tell his secretary that the leader had called, elder Li smiled bitterly when he heard that. It was obvious that the other party couldn't wait any longer and called the leader directly.

Sure enough, as soon as he picked up the phone, the person on the other end said, "Old Li, Ke Lie Jia Shi just called me."

"Yes... Do you want us to leave the Green Sparrow There?" Elder Li asked with a wry smile.

"The Green Sparrow's performance this time was very good. I didn't expect that a personal disciple of that sect would have such impressive combat strength. Old Li, your cooperation with this sect this time is really amazing!"

"I didn't expect it either..." Old Li also sighed.

One could imagine how powerful those elders were. If this cooperation could be maintained, they probably wouldn't have to rely on those arrogant sects of Kunlun anymore. In the field of international extraordinary forces..., they should be able to make a very loud noise.

"Can the request that Kelijash said be satisfied?" The other end of the phone asked a crucial question.

Elder Li Sighed. He did not hesitate and explained the current situation.

"Is that so..." the person on the other end of the line became a little troubled. "But the other side has already requested. If we reject it, it will easily hurt our friendship."

"I know that too..." elder Li also had an incomparable headache, thus, he said, "But this is not something that we can completely decide. After all, we had agreed at the beginning that such a major matter would have to be discussed with the sect. It can not be decided by US alone. If we go back on our words right after cooperating, I'm afraid it will not be good for the future cooperation..." "..."

The other side was silent for a while when they heard that, then, he said, "I understand, and I understand your difficulties. How about this, you'll have to trouble yourself to discuss with the sect's contact over there and try your best to get their agreement. Also, try your best to get more disciples to move in. You have to know that it's not only basen that's being probed outside..." "..."

"Mm... I understand..." elder Li nodded.

"It's up to you, Lao Li!"

"I will try my best..." Lao Li hung up the phone with a wry smile, sighed and dialed the number left by Master Xuanji. . .

"What? You want me to stay here?" Li Goudan, who had received the news, immediately shook his head like a drum and said, "I'm not going to..."

"Why not?" The system asked. "The prices here are cheap, and the conditions are generous. As the guardian of this country, your freedom is definitely higher than in this country, and you can even get a salary at both ends. How can you not do such a good thing?"

“Hmph... even if you say so...”Li Goudan resisted the temptation of the fragrance and retorted with difficulty, “I don’t want to do it either. Am I a person who needs money?”

“Ha...”. “The day after you ran away from home to escape from the blind date, your father froze your bank card and credit card. The change you have on you is 371.60 yuan, which translates to 63 barrels of Lao Tan pickled cabbage noodles. Even if you only have one barrel a day, this money is only enough for you to live for two months, and it’s even when you sleep in the bridge hole.”

“HMPH, can’t I just enter the game and live?”Li Goudan pouted.

“Reject the organization quest, we will temporarily close your right to enter the game.”

“You guys... Force a woman to do something!”Li Goudan said angrily, “I’m an extraordinaire, how can I not get a living here?”

“Breaking the law and breaking the rules, the consequences will be very serious...”the system prompted, “Be careful of being attacked by other players.”

“I...”Li Goudan pouted angrily, not knowing what to say.

“Sigh, what’s wrong with that?”After the system’s threat, it began to coax him, “Even if you run into the game and disappear for so many days, are you going to hide from your family forever? “If you have the identity of the Dragon Group and the government protects you, can your father force you to go on a blind date?”

“This...”Li Goudan began to hesitate.

“Besides, you are a resident here. The leader of the other party has personally asked you to stay. Your position in the future will be absolutely superior. Don’t you want to experience it? The feeling of learning to walk like a crab in a Country?”

Li Goudan: “Emmmmm!”

Inside the base on Mars, the system was speechless. “My Lord, is it not good for you to use the system’s name like this?”

Xi Ye waved his hand. “Then do you really need to use my name for something like this? wouldn’t that tarnish my glorious image?”

The system replied, “You’ve never been glorious before... ever since you tricked me into signing the contract...”

“Ahem... be careful with your words!”Xi Ye coughed lightly. “You’re the one who came up with this plan. It’s impossible for a decent person like me to come up with such a plan...”

System:”...”

“Alright, help me keep an eye on the situation on both sides. The safety of the players is the priority, especially in the New World. Remember, don’t let anything happen!”

Ai: "Understood..."

"I'll be leaving first, I'll leave this side to you..."

"Lord!" Ai suddenly said.

"What's Wrong?" Xi Ye asked in surprise.

"This time, please be careful..."

"Get lost!"

Chapter 227: Ryan's intuition

"Welcome to Proxena!" A sweet voice rang out as Seer slowly recovered from the dizziness in the space. She looked at the female police officer in front of her with a sweet smile on her face, Seer coughed lightly and slightly puffed out her chest.

As a god Lord who had visited Proxena three times, he had clearly been marked as a high-quality customer. This was definitely an amazing achievement for a new lord. Of course... .. The price was also not cheap, such as the expensive tax...

Sigh... ? How could I send this scene to the group of heavenly gods without showing my face. Seer thought to herself.

"May I ask if you need to hire a guide, my respected Lord?" Pi Cheng smiled like a peach blossom.

"AH... no need, this is not my first time here. How about this, send me the coordinates of Lord Isana's shop once."

"Lord Isana?" The policewoman's eyes lit up. This was the famous elven lord. The prices of his shop were not low. He was indeed a golden seedling!

As a policewoman who was no longer young, she had recently started to look for a partner. The beauties of Skin City were noble, and everyone knew it. But because of this, they were very careful in choosing their partners, after all, the people in the circle were all wealthy. If she chose a loser, how would she face others when she went out? How could she act pretentious in her circle of friends?

However, she had to consider what kind of wealthy people she would marry. At the very least, those rich goblins could not marry. No matter what, they were still noble beauties. How could she serve those disgusting-looking characters for money? Moreover, goblins never suffered a loss. If she were to get divorced one day, she would probably not even be able to get a share of her underwear.

Working for an aristocratic family was the choice of the vast majority of people. Of course, the prerequisite was that their family background was good and they had some achievements. According to their standards, they would at least start out as a planet Marshal.

The most ideal would naturally be some sky god Lords with potential.

After all, an excellent lord was equivalent to a local emperor, and a woman, who would not have the heart to become an empress?

This deity before her was obviously very talented. From the two previous consumption records, it was obvious that she had quite a good financial background. Such a lord was either from a rich family background., or the planet with excellent talent could have enough loans in the bank. Either way, it meant that the other party was a good seedling.

And if she wanted to become the wife of a deity lord, she naturally couldn't be fawning over the other party after she became famous...

Of course... .. If she knew that this idiot in front of her had borrowed money from a usurer, she might not think so. ...

Thinking of this, she smiled gently and said, "Lord Isana has 131 properties in Proxena, and the distance between them is quite large. Why Don't you tell me what you want to buy so that I can recommend you where to go?"

"I see..." seer touched the metal chin of the helmet and sighed in her heart. As expected of a top-tier lord. To have more than 100 properties in such an expensive place, TSK TSK ... The rent alone would probably be enough to buy Mars...

"I want to build an elven city in my territory. I need high-quality living wood building materials and tree spirits!"

The most unique feature of an elven city was the living tree spirits. They could both be used as buildings and communicate with people like living creatures. This was one of the main features of an elven city. However, the drawback was that it required a lot of care, moreover, the more expensive the species, the higher the requirements.

"Building a city..."the policewoman's eyes lit up, she hurriedly said, "You really have good taste. Lady Isana has the best flower spirits in the federation. The living wood and tree spirits that she cultivates are of top-quality in the federation. Although the prices are a little expensive, they are definitely the best choice for the materials of an ideal elven city."

"UH... is it expensive?"Seer was immediately embarrassed, after the previous transaction, he had always thought that this lord's shop was the type that had a good price and low profits. Although the products were slightly flawed, the hard quality was still passable, after all, one could not buy such a high quality skewer with 100 divine coins anywhere...

"UH, is there a problem?"The policewoman of pi city asked cautiously. After all, there were some situations where one was strong on the outside but weak on the inside that she had to avoid in time to avoid being cheated.

"Ahem... of course!"Xi Ye coughed lightly and said, "What I care about is quality. As long as the product is good, it is reasonable for the price to be higher..."

Only then did the policewoman smile again.

-----

“Sir, the enemy has appeared again!” In the territory of the Eldia family of the glorious purple star, Raine’s eyes brightened when he received the report from his subordinate. He hurried to ask, “Where is it?”

“Planet Proxena!” His subordinate answered immediately.

“Proxena again?” Rene’s excitement turned into annoyance, he thought to himself, “I remember that this idiot borrowed money from a loan shark, right? Why isn’t he taking it easy? Does he always go to that place? Does he really think that he doesn’t need to pay back the money?”

If the enemy always landed on Planet Proxena, he wouldn’t have sent people to assassinate them. After all, it was the biggest trading planet in Pi City. It had the top defense system of the Federation, furthermore, the policewomen in pi city were not just for show. Every policewoman had a set of hex equipment worth tens of millions of federation coins, and their combat strength was not inferior to the top ten great lords’ legions.

In the countless eras, even the top great lords had not dared to cause trouble in there. If he dared to cross the line, once it was revealed, neither his own family nor his own lord would be able to protect him!

However, he was unwilling to give up this opportunity. Recently, he had invited a dragon-ranked seer in his territory to divine the seer’s coordinates for him. However, divination was very unstable, the other party had also said that it would take more than ten years if it was fast, and a hundred years if it was slow.

Thinking about how he would have to wait another hundred years, Rennes became increasingly restless. Originally, for a lifeform like him, who was destined to become a dragon-ranked lifeform, a hundred years was equivalent to a week in planet D. However, for some reason., he just didn’t want to wait. He kept feeling a great sense of unease in his heart.

His father said that he couldn’t hold it in, and his lord also said that he couldn’t hold it in. But they weren’t him. They didn’t understand the inexplicable unease in his heart. This was a kind of intuition toward danger. In the past, he had relied on this intuition to avoid countless life-threatening situations on the battlefield...

But this time, it was even more intense than before... “...”. Although it sounded a little ridiculous, a Lord who had just started out by borrowing money from loan sharks posed a fatal threat to a life-threatening situation where he could become a dragon-level in at most a thousand years. Even if he said it out loud, he did not believe it. But his intuition had never been wrong...

Finally, Rennes said in a deep voice, “Help me check the recent train trips to Proxena and help me book the tickets. I’m going to meet my god-like brother!”

Chapter 228: S-class dangerous character

“Lord, please come this way...” the policewoman elegantly led the way for Xi Ye.

However, Xi Ye’s legs were getting weaker and weaker as Xi Ye led the way... ...

As a level 5 lifeform with high-quality genes like the deity race, he naturally wouldn't get weak just because of this little distance. What made his legs weak was the increasingly expensive goods around him...

Seer had also heard that although Proxena was one of the top trading planets in the federation, its interior was also divided into the ordinary and noble districts, and it was clear that the place that this police sister with an excellent figure had brought him to was not the former.

Along the way, Seer had seen some cutting-edge new products that had just been released in the Federation's news, the latest wargod series mecha, all sorts of high-quality dragon-level magical pets, as well as all sorts of magic materials that he had never heard of before. There were even some that sold top-notch Titan star cores., all of these were things that he could not afford to buy with his current savings.

So... ? ... He was only here to buy some building materials, did he need to go to such a high-end place? Could it be that a lump of living wood was going to be sold for hundreds of millions of gold?

Finally... ... In his incomparably perturbed state, the other party did as he thought and brought him to a magnificent place.

It was a typical elven building. The entire white jade stone slab was cut together with exquisite artistic reliefs. It was equipped with high-grade living wood vines to decorate and connect the space. The living wood bloomed with extremely high-quality flowers and plants, it attracted high-grade jade bees and spirit butterflies. The scene was so beautiful that even seer could not help but be slightly dazed.

If the buildings in his city were of such high and noble standards, he would definitely post it on his moments every day...

Of course, the most important thing was that he could raise taxes with a clear conscience. However, the problem was that the cost was clearly not something he could afford at the moment. White Jade was a building material, and the quality in front of him was at least 10,000 federation coins per square meter. Seer's current financial strength was barely enough to buy a villa like this, let alone a city...

"Welcome..."when the Starlight Elf at the door saw that seer had been personally brought here by the female police officer of pi city, her eyes lit up and she greeted him respectfully.

These female police officers of pi city were usually proud and arrogant. Those who could lower themselves to lead the way were all outstanding individuals...

Seer took a deep breath and nodded as she walked in. She had already decided that no matter how much the other party talked about her, she would put on a dissatisfied expression and find an excuse to leave this place...

"May I ask what this respected Lord wishes to buy?"The receptionist asked with a smile.

Xi Ye looked at the other party. Although this little girl looked weak, her aura was so sealed that he could not tell the depth of her aura at all. It was estimated that she was at least level-8 and above. For a shop to use a starlight elf who was above Level-8 as a receptionist... As expected of a first-rate Lord faction...

She was so enviable...

"HMM... I plan to build an elf-style city and want to buy some building materials."

"Oh, is that so!" The receptionist immediately narrowed her beautiful eyes into crescent moons. "You like elf-style city buildings. It seems that you're also a lord with good taste..."

Seer: "..."

Indeed, it was elven-style. He despised all other races in the field of art... ..

"Is this your first time building a city, Lord?" The receptionist asked with a smile.

"Ahem... Yes, it is..." Seer did not intend to hide this. After all, he was only a level-5 Lord. It was a bit exaggerated to say that he already had many elven cities...

The receptionist said, "Since this is the first time, I'll introduce some common materials to the Lord..." as she spoke, she brought seer to the materials area.

"Elven cities are very particular about cutting and embossing, so they have higher requirements for stone materials. They usually use natural stone materials with white tones, such as white embossing, moonstones, white jade, wax jade carvings, and so on..." "Of course, there are also dark-colored styles, such as the purple jade carving of the night elves or the jade carving of the wood elves. However, these kinds of combinations are more complicated, and the effects are not as clear and natural as those of the public elves "... "

Upon hearing this, seer nodded and hummed. He looked like he did not like to talk much, and when paired with his heavy helmet, it gave people a feeling that it was not easy to get close to him...

However, the receptionist did not care, she continued to introduce enthusiastically, "It's the first time the Lord has built a city with such a style. He would rather recommend the white floating stone. This stone is more suitable for a newbie to build a city for the first time. It's easy to shape and maintain, and it doesn't require much in terms of embossing skills..." "

Xi Ye was slightly taken aback when she heard that. She thought that this receptionist was rather interesting. She had actually enthusiastically suggested that she buy the cheapest material, and she had even found a reason for it. Clearly, she was trying to give herself a way out.

Not Bad... .. As expected, she was a high-quality elven receptionist. She was completely different from those salesmen who were so desperate for money that they would bite you to death...

"Mm..." seer acknowledged once again, but her voice was clearly much gentler than the cold voice from before.

The receptionist smiled slightly, then, she said, "After choosing the stone, it's naturally the choice of living wood and tree spirits. Elven buildings are all cut and pieced together using neat stone. In order to not let the cement destroy the aesthetic feeling of the lines, we all use living wood to decorate and piece together. Therefore, living wood is an essential material."

“Mm... This lord knows. Then, what kind of living wood should we use?” Xi Ye asked.

The receptionist: “Living Wood depends on what kind of flower seeds you want to match. May I ask what the flower spirit’s rank is like under the Lord?”

“Mm... they’re all newbies. After all, they’ve just started...” Xi ye said modestly.

“Is that so...”. “Then I suggest that the Lord purchase the living trees of the green-fused pine species first. As for the tree spirits, try to buy some good living species as well. After all, noble species require the protection of high-level flower spirits. For the time being, Lord, you don’t have to do that yet.” ...”

What a talkative little girl!

Seer nodded her head in satisfaction.

The female police officer from Leather City, on the other hand, secretly looked at the other party with some dissatisfaction. She had brought this fellow here to test his financial strength. What was the meaning of you trying to sell some cheap goods?

Facing the female police officer’s dissatisfaction, the star elf receptionist did not pay any attention to the other party. She had been working here for a long time and knew these female police officers very well. Naturally, she understood the other party’s intentions, but what did this have to do with her?

Her job was to attract high-quality customers for the shop. The sky god Lord in front of her was clearly in the novice stage. You recommended some noble materials that the other party could not use, not to mention whether the other party would fall for it and buy them, even if the other party insisted on buying it and let them make a profit, what would happen after that?

Did she know that he would still patronize this shop after she cheated him? Obviously not. Excellent shops would not do such a business of killing the goose that laid the golden eggs. Since the Overlord was able to attract the female police officer to lead the way personally, it was obvious that he had a good aptitude and was a high-quality potential customer, of course, she had to plan for a long-term cooperation.

The other party’s sincerity had clearly moved seer, giving him a very good excuse for being in a dilemma about how to care about his face and wallet. Seer was very satisfied with this and could not help but sigh inwardly. As expected of a great Lord’s shop, it was indeed well-mannered.

“Then how much should I buy?”

“Lord, please tell me the style of the city you plan to build first. It would be best if you could input the template into our system so that I can calculate the amount of building materials you need to buy.”

“Alright, Alright, Alright...”

While they were chatting happily, an extremely high ranked flower spirit was staring at them with a shocked expression. Actually, ever since seer entered the shop, the owner of this shop, the flower spirit, had already noticed seer, she had been maintaining an extremely high level of vigilance.

This helmet... ... It should be the Lord that Lord Astral Soul had been defeated by, right? What was he doing here this time? Looking for trouble?

Ever since Lord Astral Soul failed his mission and died, Lord Aina had classified this lord who loved to wear his helmet as an s-class dangerous character. She never thought that the other party would actually take the initiative to look for them!

When she thought of this, she immediately reported this news to the Lord.

On the other side, just as seer was about to submit the order, a familiar and annoying voice sounded.

“How does your shop do business? Are you looking down on me by recommending this kind of material to others?”

Chapter 229: Still Too Young

“This is?”

The sudden voice successfully attracted everyone’s attention. After all, it sounded like he was here to cause trouble.

The policewoman from Pi city scanned him, and Hex’s own AI system instantly revealed his identity. He was the young master of the ELDIA family: Ryan!

The policewoman’s eyes lit up when she saw this person’s information. He was also an outstanding son-in-law.

He wasn’t very old. He was only 20,000 years old, yet he was already a level 13 lifeform. He was highly regarded by great Lord Bolton, and he already held the position of interstellar deputy commander. Moreover, he had the genes of the previous second generation head of the Eldia family, the Dragon Baron, becoming a dragon within 10,000 years was basically a certainty. Once he became a dragon, he would at the very least become an interstellar marshal. An interstellar marshal who was only 30,000 years old was considered a promising young man in the entire federation, judging from his age, he still had high potential, and there was hope for him to advance even further!

The most important information was that he was still single. Such a marshal’s wife would not be inferior to the empress of some minor deity lords...

This minor deity’s surname was also Eldia. These two were actually brothers. Their luck today was pretty good. Thinking of this, a thought flashed across the policewoman’s eyes, and she was thinking of how to interject the topic between the two brothers, from then on, how could she befriend this young and Promising Thunder Warrior?

As seer heard the other party’s voice, her body clearly stiffened for a moment. She raised her head and looked at the other party with an extremely complicated expression. Looking at this brother whom he had the closest relationship with when he was young, her heart was filled with mixed feelings for a moment... ..

It has been ten thousand years since she last saw him... “... This fellow has become much taller,” seer sighed as she looked at the other party. “...”.

At this moment, Rennes was wearing plain clothes. Most of his muscles, which contained explosive energy, were exposed. He gave off an extremely masculine and beautiful feeling. In addition, he had a sunny and positive image, at first glance, he fit the most positive image of the Thunder Warriors.

“What? You Don’t even recognize your big brother after becoming a deity overlord?” Rennes grinned. He still had that forthright and sunny smile, which stunned seer again.

Even though he already knew what kind of person Rennes was in his heart, under his current appearance, it was very difficult for him to overlap with the sinister image that his family had portrayed.

“Why are you here?” Seer took a deep breath and asked in a cold voice. The deity bloodline in his body was trying its best to suppress the Thunder gene that wanted to get close to his bloodline.

Seeing that his younger brother’s voice was cold and completely different from before, Rennes did not show the slightest bit of dissatisfaction on his face, he still went over and pinched the other party’s shoulder. “I was on vacation on planet Phuket. When I heard that you were here, I quickly came over to take a look. You’re the same. You’ve come back twice, yet you didn’t even come to see your brother.”

Seer:” ...”

“HMM... you haven’t gained much weight. You’ve suffered a lot over the years, haven’t you?” Rennes said as he pinched seer’s shoulder.

Seer was silent. He could not follow the other party’s hypocritical response, but he could not continue to speak coldly either. This guy was really the same as before, no matter how much you knew behind his back how hateful he was., it was difficult to speak ill of him in front of his face when he was so passionate.

Ever since he was young, he had felt that the other party was more suitable to lead the family than he was. He had never thought of competing with him. Compared to his grandfather’s genes, he actually wanted to become a night demon like his mother...

Unfortunately... ... the person in front of him would definitely not believe it... ...

Seeing that the other party did not speak, Rennes was not embarrassed either. Instead, he put his hand on Seer’s shoulder and brought the other party to the counter again. “I heard that you were building an elven city outside just now?”

“Mm...” seer frowned. She did not know what the other party was planning to do.

“Alright, Kid. You have good taste, but it’s obvious that you don’t have any experience. Big Brother can be considered half an expert in this area...” . “...” Ryan looked excited. “Although the white float is cheap, its color and texture are not satisfactory. It looks decent from afar, but once you close the distance, it’s simply not pleasing to the eye...” . Ryan patted seer’s shoulder. “How can the first city of our young genius be so shabby?”

The shop assistant frowned slightly, but did not say anything. She knew this Ryan, and he was highly valued by the great Lord Bolton. He often represented Lord Bolton to their shop to buy goods. He was a big customer, and it was not good to offend him, moreover, this was the business of the two brothers, so it was not good for an outsider like herself to interrupt.

Seer smiled coldly. Naturally, she would not be fooled. She said bluntly, "No money..."

"Oh... I forgot..." Rene looked as if he had suddenly realized something. "I forgot that you still owe ten billion usury..."

The policewoman was stunned when she heard that. Ten billion usury? Borrowing usury to show off here? Is this guy crazy?

She thought that he was a golden seedling, but it turned out that he was a fool. The policewoman thought that she was lucky and looked at seer with an unfriendly gaze.

"How about this, don't worry about buying it. Big Brother will pay for it. Treat it as a gift from Big Brother for the birth of our first God..."

"Is it... Like This??" Seer's cold attitude melted instantly when she heard that, he rubbed his hands and smiled. "How can I do that?" Then, he turned to the salesperson and said, "Change all the materials just now. Change all the white flotsam to white jade, and change the living wood to purple wax wood. Match it with the purple star fragrant flower seed. If it's a tree spirit... "...". "Charge it to him!" There was no hint of politeness in his words, he looked like he was afraid that the other party would go back on his words. The salesperson and the policewoman's faces twitched when they saw this. They sighed inwardly. What a despicable face.

Ryan was also stunned. He looked at his cousin who was wearing a helmet and thought to himself, 'it's been a while since we last met, but this kid's skin has grown thicker...'.

Unfortunately... he was still too young.

After being stunned for two seconds, Ryan nodded at the salesperson who was looking at him. "White Jade is for Grade-3 products, and the purple wax wood is for yellow wax wood..." then, he said to seer, "Cousin, what do you think?"

"I'll listen to you, Cousin!" Seer nodded with a smile. He also called him "Cousin" very affectionately, which was completely different from his cold attitude just now.

Although the price of the materials changed was at least four to five times lower than before, Seer did not intend to continue to pester him. As long as he could earn money, it was good. After all, it was rare to get a chance to get this guy after so many years.

"Place the Order!" Ryan smiled and nodded.

When the salesperson heard this, he immediately began to exchange the materials on the system. Finally, he said, "A total of 3,146 million."

When Ryan heard this, he nodded and immediately took out his black card.

Seeing this scene, Seer was immediately puzzled. Did this guy really come here to give him benefits? Even if he was pretending, what was the point?

Just as he was thinking about it, the system suddenly notified him that he did not have enough money!

This notification made Xi Ye's expression freeze... .. not only did he say to himself, "Alright." ... He had not pretended yet.

However, Ryan was stunned. "Eh? You Don't have enough money? How is that possible?"

Thinking about this, he even pulled out his system to check his bank account, then, he looked annoyed. "Damn it, I forgot to pay the account to the higher-ups after the last purchase..."then, he looked at Xi Ye and said, "I'm sorry, Brother... Why Don't you pay for it yourself? I'll transfer it to you later?"

"Hehe..."Xi ye sneered and thought, do you think I'm an idiot?

"Then change back to the materials just now..."Xi ye said without caring about his face.

"I'm sorry... I've already placed the order, I can't change it..."the salesperson said a little embarrassedly.

Xi Ye's expression instantly froze. Although no one could see it under the helmet, everyone could still see that he was very surprised by the obvious stiffness of his body.

Ryan, on the other hand, revealed a hint of a smile.

"What... What's going on if you can't change it?"Xi Ye was stunned. "Can't you even return the Order?"

"You can't return the order you've already placed... This is Proxena's rule!"The salesperson immediately understood that this silly boy had been tricked by his own relative, however, she was helpless about this. Her authority clearly could not resolve the other party's awkwardness.

F * ck...

Xi Ye was instantly dumbfounded...

I knew it, this dog has no good intentions! !

What can we do now?

Chapter 230: What's the situation?

The situation suddenly became awkward...

Seer naturally could not fork out more than three billion dollars. Once he did so, his base would really be finished. There was still some time before the first batch of crystal mines would be delivered, during this period of time, his salary and the consumption that he might use in various aspects would still have to rely on this loan...

Therefore, he did not give up and asked, "Didn't you say that he paid the bill just now? If we don't have the money, whose responsibility is it?"

The salesperson replied, "You're the one who placed the order, and he's the one who promised to pay the bill verbally. If the two of you don't have the ability to spend the money, then the deposit that you paid in Proxena will be deducted and you'll be given a credit penalty."

Seer let out a sigh of relief when he heard that. Although the deposit of 500 million was painful, it was still relatively acceptable. After all, he was not the only one who had been deducted, so he could still accept it in his heart.

Seer was stunned. Before he could say anything, the salesperson beside him reminded him, “If you are able to pay, you must pay by force!”

Seer was instantly dumbfounded...

F * ck, no wonder this guy wanted to lower the specifications of the materials just now. He even said that if it was a scam, shouldn't the more expensive the better. So there was this layer of rules. He was afraid that he couldn't afford it...

F * ck...

Seer finally understood. Rennes had come for him today. Furthermore, he had made sufficient preparations before coming. It was obvious that he had investigated his spending records and calculated his remaining assets before making such a calculation...

What should he do now...

Seer appeared to be a little flustered. He was increasingly regretting that he had not paid attention to these details. He had been so careless that he had not even figured out these ordinary rules. If only he had been more cautious...

Rennes looked at him and laughed inwardly. It was just as he had expected. He was just a country bumpkin pretending to be big...

However, why did this guy like to wear a helmet now? It was obvious that it was not perfect for him to not be able to see his flustered expression.

Seer was silent for a few seconds. In the end, she didn't want to be cheated, so she asked, “Can you make an exception?”

“I'm sorry...” the salesperson looked at him sympathetically. “I don't have that authority... This authority is at least at the level of a store manager...”

“Store manager?” Seer was stunned. Then, as if she had grabbed a life-saving straw, she quickly said, “Well... I know your store manager!”

“Really?” The salesperson was stunned, and Ryan was also stunned behind him...

Including the store manager who was secretly spying upstairs, he was also stunned. He couldn't help but think, who the hell knows you? Please leave quickly, okay?

“Then... shall I call our store manager down?” The salesperson asked tentatively.

The person upstairs immediately covered his head and hurriedly transmitted his voice, “Don't come up!”

The shopkeeper was stunned, and his expression instantly became a little strange... .. Why did it feel like... ? ... his shopkeeper's tone seemed to be a little flustered?

"ER... not your shopkeeper..." Xi ye said, "It's the shopkeeper from South city street who sells pets. He seems to be the flower spirit of a space elf just like you!"

The shopkeeper's entire body trembled when he heard this, and his expression when he looked at Xi ye instantly became even more strange. "You Mean, Lord Astral Soul?"

The expression on the shop manager's face became even more unsightly. He couldn't hold it in any longer and said in a deep voice, "Tell him to back off! !"

As soon as these words were spoken, everyone's expressions were filled with astonishment.

The shop manager didn't expect that her shop manager would actually bend the rules just like that. She knew that within the Proxena Star's industry, her shop manager could be said to be the one who was the most difficult to talk to out of all the shop managers.

Raine and the policewoman did not expect that this kid could really make her give him face...

Raine looked at Seer in disbelief. How many times had this guy come to Proxena? He could actually make this force's store give in. How big of a face did he have? What right did he have?

The amount of goods he had bought here on behalf of Lord Bolton was almost trillions, but he had never seen such a big face...

Looking at Seer, who was wearing a helmet and had no expression on his face, for the first time, Rennes felt that he was a little uncertain about his brother.

But actually, Seer had a dumbfounded expression under the helmet.

I just said it, and it really worked?

HMM... .. Did he owe him a favor? Should he buy another batch of skewers to express his gratitude?

Just as they were still in a state of shock from the sudden reversal of the plot, a warm voice suddenly sounded.

"The order has been placed. Why do we need to withdraw?"

Everyone was stunned again. When they turned around, they saw a fat black-and-white figure enter the shop. It was a fat panda man.

However, unlike the other panda men, this panda man had the supreme purple star eyes that were unique to the deity race.

In the entire alliance, there was only one person who had both the characteristics of a panda man and a deity...

"Immortal wine... Sir?" Rennes said in surprise.

"Hello, customer!" The shop assistant clearly recognized the other party and hurriedly bowed.

This was a genuine great lord, so she naturally didn't dare to be negligent.

"Use my card..." immortal wine handed over a translucent blue card and said.

"Wine God... You Don't have to do this..." Rene hurriedly said.

If the other party paid for his face, it would be self-defeating. Not only did he owe him a favor, but he also paid for that Kid Seer.

Wine God glanced at Rene and said indifferently, "Which one are you? Do you recognize me?"

Rene's body stiffened. He was so embarrassed that he didn't know what to say. The other party actually didn't recognize him?

But thinking about it, it made sense... .. He had only met the other party a few times with Lord Bolton. In front of a lord of such a level, he wasn't much of a character. It was normal for the other party not to recognize him... ..

But if it wasn't for his face, then why did he pay for Seer?

He couldn't possibly have a relationship with seer, right?

"Long time no see, senior immortal wine!" Seer hurriedly greeted him when he saw the other party helping him out.

"Kid, you've already been scammed a few times. Don't you know how to Think Twice?" Wine immortal rolled his eyes at him.

Seer rolled his eyes when he heard this. It seemed that other than this time, the people who had scammed him were all your subordinates, right?

They really had a relationship?

Rennes' expression finally couldn't hold it in anymore. His face was filled with disbelief... ..

What kind of joke was this? ?

Wine Immortal, this was the same as his own Lord Bolton. He was a first-rate lord of several large galaxies. How could this kid have such connections?

How Long had he graduated?

"Seer... Do You Know Wine God?" Rennes asked tentatively.

"We graduated from the same school, what's so strange about knowing each other?" Seer replied indifferently.

What the F * ck... Rennes' eyelids twitched. ... ? "This deity is from the same school, why don't you know the ten great lords?" ? 1

"The bill has been paid, a total of 3,146 million... Please keep the card well!" The salesperson respectfully handed back the card.

After immortal wine kept the card, he whispered, "Kid, you have to pay it back... This time, I won't count it as your interest..."

"Ahem... Thank you for helping me out, senior..." seer replied.

Immortal wine nodded. After putting the card away, he said to seer, "Have a drink?"

Seer: "Okay..." then, he looked at Ryan and said, "Big Brother, I'm going to have a gathering with my friends. I'll look for you later."

Ryan smiled stiffly. "Alright... You're busy. Don't drink too much. It's best if you can go home."

"I'll try my best..." Xi ye nodded and walked out of the shop side by side with wine god.

The policewoman looked at this scene and felt that the plot had taken a turn. What was the background of that Kid? For a moment, she also didn't understand...

Meanwhile, Rennes looked at Seer's back, and a dark expression appeared on his sunny face...

How long had this kid been out for? Not only was he able to make Isana's shop give him face, but he was also able to make wine god pay for him!

What was going on?

-----

"Thank you for helping me out, senior..." Seer said gratefully after leaving the house.

"It's no big deal. Just remember to pay me back... I happen to be pretending as well..."

Seer: "..."

"Senior, did you just happen to pass by?"

"Not really...". Wine god smiled and said, "I was originally going to the North District to buy the chip, but when I saw you swaggering towards the VIP area with your helmet on, I thought you had dug up another mine, so I curiously followed you to take a look." "..."

Xiye was immediately embarrassed. Did he look that cocky?

"Just in time. I don't have anyone to go back to school with, so come with me..."

"Huh?" Xiye was stunned. "School? Senior, are you going back to school? Why are you going back?"

"Didn't you get the message?" Wine God was stunned. "The Alumni Association!"

"Oh..." Xiye suddenly remembered. Damn, I forgot about this... . .
