

A Bunch 241

Chapter 241: An Evil Brat

Name: Seer. Eldia, age: 21,671 years old, Sky God level: 5, Origin Bloodline: Eldia Thunder Bloodline, Lamu Clan: Night Demon Bloodline.

Faction: officially assessed as a Level 8 planet, population: unknown, civilization preference: unknown, civilization level assessment: currently not applied for assessment.

Everyone was stunned at the beginning of the data. It was as they had expected, a new lord that had just started. However, the information below almost made their jaws drop to the ground.

Reasons for being selected as a Lord: from the east star system's A level great lord, wine god Storm's recommendation guarantee, from the North Star system's B level great lord, Raina. Star Speaker's recommendation guarantee, from the east star system's B level great lord, Creel Lawu's recommendation guarantee, from the east star system's A level great Lord, Burton's recommendation guarantee, from the east star system's S level great lord, Aina's recommendation guarantee! !

Hiss! ! !

The surrounding gods stared blankly at the final piece of information. The group of gods sucked in a breath of cold air, revealing just how terrifying this information was!

A measly level-5 small lord actually had five great lords jointly recommending and guaranteeing him? And who were these people?

Wine God windstorm, Bolton, who hadn't heard of these people? They were all first-rate lords in the Eastern Star Field. Even if they wanted to curry favor with them, they wouldn't be able to get their hands on them. So what was the last one?

S-rank lords would come even if they came, and not just any ordinary s-rank Lord. Aina, she was a veteran Lord who had lived for tens of thousands of eras. She was one of the top ten lords in the Eastern Star Field!

Was this kid really from that third-rate family, Aldia?

Wasn't this treatment like that of a crown prince?

Seer was also dumbfounded. He could still understand the first three. Other than wine god Storm, the last two were recommended by wine god during the Alumni Association. He did not expect to be recommended by the other party just after exchanging business cards, it was obvious that wine god had exerted force behind him. This was indeed a heavy favor.

But the last two... ? He couldn't understand at all. Why would Bolton recommend him? When he was at the alumni association, he had obviously rejected his invitation to cooperate? Logically speaking, it was already good enough that the demon race wouldn't take revenge on him, but they actually vouched for him?

What was going on?

The last one made him even more speechless. When had he ever crossed paths with that big shot, Aina? Why would she vouch for him. Could it be... .. Just because he bought a bunch of skewers from her shop?

Of course, his Spartan expression was perfectly concealed by the helmet. This silent look, in the eyes of everyone, was a calm and composed attitude that could not be seen through.

"How... How is this possible?" Silva muttered in a daze on the spot.

The Titan deity at the side glared at him. Of course, he could tell that this classmate of his was trying to find trouble with him, and now he had obviously kicked an iron plate!

Silva's heart could be said to be in a mess. He was actually a more cautious person. The Viridian Fox clan paid particular attention to planning before making a move. Therefore, after the last incident, he spent some effort to carefully investigate the seer's background, he planned to take revenge when there was a chance.

The reason why he dared to provoke seer so directly today was that after he inquired through intelligence, he confirmed that Seer was born in a third-rate family and was just a little deity without any background. That was why he dared to do so.

But he did not expect this kid to be so strange! !

How did he know a bunch of big shots. A piece of trash who only owned a grade-8 planet. No matter how he thought about it, it should not be...

"I'm really sorry!" After the Titan hesitated for a moment, he took the initiative to walk in front of Xi Ye and said with a trace of apology, "This friend of mine is a little impatient. If there are any offenses, please don't mind."

Xi Ye paused for a moment and walked out from his thoughts. Looking at this muscular guy who was a head taller than him, she was slightly stunned.

As she was born into a warrior family, Xi Ye felt a sense of closeness towards the sky gods who were also warriors, moreover, after this guy knew that he had such a strong background (in fact, it was a lot of water...), he actually acted so responsible at the first moment, it was obvious that he was not the same type of person as that Fox.

Thinking of this, Xi Ye bowed to the junior and said humbly, "Since senior has said so, this junior will naturally comply."

Titan named Will was stunned when he heard that. He did not expect this guy to be so tactful. In public, he had already planned to lose face, but he did not expect the other party to give him so much face, he immediately looked at the other party with a good impression.

Then, he immediately judged that the grudge between this kid and Silva was most likely done by that kid himself. Logically speaking, such a tactful guy should not be easily offended.

“How should I address you, senior?” Seer handed him a business card and asked.

“Oh, my name is Will Andriel!” The other party replied after taking the business card. Then, he took out a business card and handed it to Seer.

Seer was stunned after taking it, “Senior is from the Andriel Family?”

“Uh, yes... is there a problem?”

“Oh, no...” Seer quickly said, “It’s just that I also have a titan instructor from the Andriel family, so I asked a little. I didn’t expect that senior was not only born in Titan, but also a Green Titan...”

“You hired a titan from the Andrea family as an instructor?” Will was obviously stunned, and then he asked, “What’s his name?”

“Ah?” Seer was also stunned. She didn’t expect the other party to ask this. The Andrea family was so big. Would the other party recognize him if she said it out loud?

“Oh, he’s called Zanda. He’s now the chief instructor in charge of the physical training of those Little Titans in my base.”

“Zanda?” Will touched his chin when he heard that. “Yes, it’s that child. I remember that he works in the Gladiator Arena, right?”

He actually knew him! !

Seer not only felt strange, but she still replied, “He was injured in the Gladiator Arena. In addition, his wife is pregnant, so he wants to leave the gladiator arena to find a stable job...”

“Oh... is his wife pregnant?” Will rubbed his hands excitedly when he heard that. “It seems that our Andrea family will have another new life!”

Was there a need to be so excited?

Seer felt that it was even more strange. She even suspected that the child might have something to do with this guy...

“Zanda’s temper is a little explosive. Please bear with him. If he has any problems, you can always let me know...”

“Senior... do you remember the names of the outer family members so clearly?” Seer asked curiously, after all, the guy in front of him must be at least a million years old to be able to reach such a high level. He must be someone of great-grandfather generation in the Andrea family now, yet he still remembered the names of some of the outer family members. It really made him feel a little ashamed. He couldn’t even remember all those messy cousins...

“AH...” Will looked at Seer, his expression became much gentler. “When I entered the academy, I owed the clan a lot. At that time, the clan was already in a slump, and the lives of the outer disciples were even more difficult. This caused these juniors to hold a deep grudge against me. I’ve always remembered the names of those outer disciples who sacrificed their own resources to help me. However, most of them had passed away, so I memorized the names of their children and tried my best to help them in secret...". "..."

So that's how it was! !

Xi Ye looked at the other party and immediately felt a sense of respect. Looking at the difference in their personalities, he had never thought about how he would compensate his cousins who had been cheated by him in the future...

A sense of insignificance suddenly rose in Xi Ye's heart.

"In short... I'll have to trouble you!" Will patted Xi Ye's shoulder, his expression became even gentler. "Because of the resentment of their elders towards me, these guys have never been willing to join my faction. I also have a headache. Although I don't know why you would spend such a high price to nurture a young Titan, I'm still very grateful to you...". "..."

It was clear that at this moment, he had already completely trusted Seer. After all, in the eyes of the Titans, those who could spend such a high price to nurture the Titans would definitely not be bad people, just like the third Lord back then., even though the federation had later declared that he had colluded with the void, the people of the Titans still treated him with great respect. Until now, they still did not believe the official story.

"Lords, please pay attention. The candidates are about to enter the venue. Please return to your recruitment positions..."

When the Lords heard this news, the onlookers immediately dispersed. However, they all remembered Xi Ye's appearance and planned to find an opportunity to get to know him. After all, the potential of a crown prince with such a background was definitely unquestionable.

Seer immediately remembered that he had not bid for the price yet, so she quickly bade farewell and returned to her recruitment position.

Will kept Seer's business card after the other party left and walked towards his position. Silva followed closely behind. After walking far away, Silva said in a low voice, "There's definitely something wrong with that kid. Old Classmate, let me tell you..."

"Shut up!" Will gloomily turned around and glared at him. He lowered his voice and warned, "If you want to provoke him, don't bring me along. This is my last guarantee for You! !"

Looking at Will who had turned hostile, Silva panicked. "No... old classmate, please listen to my explanation..."

However, Will completely ignored him. He strode towards the area he belonged to. Silva looked at Will's back and his expression instantly turned gloomy like water... ..

Chapter 242: Li Goudan's background

"Jiayi has been missing for half a month. How can you sit still?" In the CEO's Office of the Li Group, Li Yichen, the CEO of the Li Group, who was about to go to a meeting, was forcefully stopped by his wife.

Director Li frowned and said to his secretary, "Inform the staff to postpone the meeting by 15 minutes."

The secretary said, "Yes... director Li!"

"What? Director Li wants to send me away in fifteen minutes?" In the CEO's office, a middle-aged woman who looked very well-maintained smiled angrily.

"What are you doing?" Director Li waited for the Secretary to go out and said with a straight face, "It's fine if you're making a scene at home, but why are you making a scene in the company?"

"At Home? Have You Ever Been Home? Your daughter has been missing for so long, and you act like nothing happened. I was forced into a corner. Do you think I'm willing to come to your lousy company? You call this making a scene?"

"Then what do you want me to do?" Director Li Glared at him. "Oh, you're not going to do anything about the company? Jiayi's disappearance should have been filed, and finding her is a police matter. What's the use of me going back with you now? Complaining about the police's slow efficiency in the living room like you?"

"You..." the woman pointed at him and said angrily, "Are you saying what a father should say?"

"I'm trying to reason with you!" Director Li's face softened slightly, "I can't just do nothing for Jiayi, right? The company has tens of thousands of people to support, and I've done what I should do. What else can I Do When I need to report the case and ask my friends and friends for help? "You asked me to unfreeze her credit card and bank card, and I did it. What else do you want me to do? Why Don't you tell me the rules and I'll do it?"

"It's been more than a week since the bank card was defrosted..." the woman looked uneasy. "But the police said that Jiayi didn't touch a single cent in her account. Aren't you worried at all?"

"What's the use of me worrying? Can it change anything?" CEO Li looked at his watch impatiently, then he said, "This project is a collaboration with the Basson government to build an intelligent high-speed rail link to the whole country. It's the biggest project our group has received in the past 50 years. Once we sign this project, our group's market value will instantly increase by more than ten percent. Now is a critical time, can you not come and make trouble?"

"Work, project... . Using these things to talk about things . . . . These things will always be more important than US mother and daughter . . . ." The woman smiled bitterly and said, "I'm afraid that if that illegitimate child of yours had gone missing, you would probably be jumping up and down by now, right?"

"You! !" Director Li looked around and his expression instantly became very ugly. His gaze gradually turned cold as he said, "You must use this to talk about things, right?"

"What? Can't talk about it?" The woman said with a sneer.

Director Li said, "Zhang Minjun, if you want to talk about it, I'll talk about it with you. The old man has always been very dissatisfied with you and your mother. If you had a good stomach, would I have gone to other women? "Especially this time, Jia Yi ran away from the marriage, causing the Wu and Li families to lose face. It was completely because you spoiled her. This time, the old man was even more furious. Who Do you think appeased her? “Who do you think is the reason why you can still be the main wife without any problems?”

Zhang Minjun was stunned for a long time. She stared blankly at the other party and felt that the last string in her heart had snapped.

Seeing the other party’s dazed look, it was obvious that she knew how powerful she was. Premier Li tidied his clothes, his voice was slightly gentler as he said, “Let’s go back first. I will call Jiayi after the meeting to urge her. You Don’t have to worry too much. She’s such an adult, what can happen to her? She...”

“Divorce...”

“Right... everything is so... What did you say?” Director Li’s expression changed as he looked at Zhang Minjun in shock.

“I said... Let’s get a divorce...” Zhang Minjun looked at Zhang Minjun with a bitter expression. “When Jiayi finds me, I’ll sign the agreement. I don’t care if she leaves home empty-handed or whatever, as long as you’re happy. I just want my daughter to be mine...”

“You...” director Li’s face instantly turned livid as he pointed at the other party with a trembling finger. “Do you know what you’re saying?”

“I know... .. I just.. .. I don’t want to endure it anymore...”. Zhang Minjun smiled bitterly and said, “Actually, this marriage should have been divorced more than ten years ago. I was too weak. Let’s just leave it at that, director Li. We won’t fight over the mother-daughter relationship anymore. It doesn’t matter if the old man wants that woman to become an official or if he wants your son to succeed the throne. Let him be happy about it. We won’t fight over it anymore.” “...”. “...”

“You...” director Li pointed at the other party. Before he could say anything, the secretary suddenly knocked on the door and shouted, “Director Li, the meeting is waiting for you...”

Li Yichen pointed at the other party and glared at him. He didn’t say anything and quickly walked out.

After the other party left, Zhang Minjun immediately fell to the ground as if she had lost all her strength. Finally, she burst into tears.

-----

“Mom?” Far away in the position of Barson, Li Goudan suddenly woke up from the dream, looking East direction, eyes are confused.

What’s going on?

Li Goudan frowned, she just had a dream, she went back to his mother has been kicked out, selling sweet potatoes in the street for a living...

It’s not that bad?

Why sell sweet potatoes anyway? . Her mother had graduated from Tsinghua University... ..

Li Goudan patted her chest and said with a face full of fear...

Actually, she was quite embarrassed about running away from the marriage. After all, her family had good food and drinks to support her growing up. She had a 14-year-old Lamborghini life. Logically speaking, she had enjoyed so much. It should be a matter of course for her to obey the family arrangements. As for this aristocratic family... ? . Aren't they all?

But that casting was a bit much, wasn't it?

He looks like a mangy dog, and he's a pervert who eats both men and women. I'll... . This is not a fire pit. It's like a melting pot...

It's impossible to go back and marry that pervert, I'll make money and give you back the Lamborghini, OK?

After making up her mind, she took out her new card from the organization and called her mother. . .

Inside the chief's office, the Secretary was reporting the latest developments to Chief Barson.

"The intelligent high-speed rail project has basically been finalized. The insurance company chosen is the Li's group in central China, which has a good reputation in industrial technology, has cooperated with many countries in South Africa in the railway project, and the project quality is very good."

"Well..."the leader nodded. The domestic high-speed rail equipment was indeed very old, and the official finances were very abundant. It was time to update the railway system.

The choice of a company in central China to take over the project was also approved by most people. The industry in central China had advanced by leaps and bounds in recent years. The quality was not inferior to other big industrial countries, and the price would be greatly reduced because of the relationship between the two countries, the cost-benefit ratio was extremely high.

"Who is in charge of the project meeting this time?"

"Minister Charles, the meeting is scheduled for today at three o'clock in the afternoon!"

"Understood..."the leader nodded, however, he immediately thought of something and said seriously, "Go and inform Wang Ye in Huazhong to bring the members of the Dragon Group along to protect Charles. I suspect that those guys will not let go of this opportunity."

The secretary was stunned and then quickly nodded. "Okay, I'll go now..."

Chapter 243: Malice from the Kagura Legion

"Little Wang, when you have time, do more ideological work and try to persuade Green Sparrow to stay. This is also what the higher-ups want you to do..." "..." "First, it's for the friendship between our two countries. Second, it's also to show to the outside world that we, Huazhong, have the ability to protect them!" On the other end of the phone, elder Li said earnestly.

“Elder Li...” the corner of Wang Ye’s mouth twitched when he heard that. “This... I think... the ideological work is not very meaningful. I’ve talked to that guy. She’s a money-grubber. The funding is the big problem...”

“Don’t worry about that!” Elder Li immediately smiled when he heard that it was about money. “Your performance this time is very good. Once you can continue to stabilize the situation, the higher-ups will give full support to the construction of the Dragon Group so that she doesn’t have to worry about the treatment. With her performance, the organization will definitely not mistreat her.”

“Okay, elder Li!”

“I just heard from the secretary that the head of the Li Group is going to your place today to discuss the construction of the high-speed Rail Project?”

“Yes, someone from the other side has already informed us. He hopes that we can protect the entire process...”

“Yes...”. “Looks like the people from Basen’s side are very thoughtful.” “...” elder Li said seriously, “To be honest, I think so too. I don’t think that after the setback last time, those people outside will give up on this test. The destructive power will definitely be even more fierce next time. Your task is very difficult, little wang. Remember, you must not lose.” “! ! !”

“Yes!”

After hanging up the phone, Wang Ye sighed. There was a lot of expectations from the higher-ups, but this feeling was very strange. Although elder Li said that he had a lot of expectations for their entire team, in fact, he knew it himself. Everyone’s expectations were placed on the green sparrow...

This was also the reason why he did not like being a support. The world would remember the one with the highest output or the highest single kill rate. Who would remember who was the one with the most eyes?

Shaking his head, he threw out some thoughts that he should not have. He strode all the way to Li Goudan’s room.

The place that the Basen government had arranged for them was a luxurious villa in the center of the city. The living environment was first-class. The materials used to pave the ground were all marble. It looked very grand, and the overall tone was warm, this made Wang Ye’s heavy mood ease a lot.

However, when he reached the door of the dog egg, he suddenly felt a chill in his heart. He immediately became alert. His right hand reached to the back of his waist and slowly unholstered his gun, he knocked carefully on the door and asked, “Green Sparrow? Are You There?”

There was no response from inside.

Wang Ye’s heart sank. Then, he slowly pulled out his pistol and opened the door of the room!

As soon as the door was opened, a gust of cold air blew into his face. The temperature in the room dropped by at least ten degrees. Wang Ye was so scared that he almost raised his hand to shoot.

However, his strong heart, which had been created by many years of mission experience, still suppressed his conditioned reflex because he saw that Qing que was the only one in the room.

“What’s Wrong?” Ye Wang looked at the livid Qing que and asked carefully.

To be honest, this little girl had been smiling all the time these past few days. It had made him forget that this little girl was an extraordinary human, a dangerous extraordinary human.

And most of the extraordinary humans that he had come into contact with were temperamental...

Goudan Li looked at Ye Wang. His expression slowly eased from the coldness, but it still did not look good. Only then did ye Wang clearly see that there were many metal remains on the ground. From the looks of it, it should be a cell phone.

Who was he talking to that caused him to lose control of his emotions?

No matter what, he first tried to comfort him, “Are you... Okay?” Wang Ye tried to sound as caring as possible.

“You... can you put down the gun and say that?” Li Goudan rolled his eyes at him and said, “It’s as if you’re going to raise your hand to shoot me if something happens to me...”

“Uh... hehe...” Wang Ye awkwardly put the gun back. This girl could still joke, which meant that it shouldn’t be a big problem now... ..

“I want to go back recently...”

Wang Ye had just relaxed a little when he heard this. His heart was in his throat as he thought to himself, what kind of trouble is this?

“This... We just promised the leader here that we would stay here for a long time, and now we have to run away... isn’t that a little bad?”

Li Goudan was silent. She didn’t think it was very good either, but... “So What?”. So what? Her mother was about to be kicked out of the house. How could such a messy matter be more important than her mother?

“Did... Something Happen?” Wang ye asked carefully.

“Something happened at home. I have to go back and deal with it...” Li Goudan’s tone was a little dejected.

Hearing the other party’s tone, Wang Ye’s heart tightened. Looking at the little girl’s dejected look, he couldn’t help but think: so she had a home?

Weren’t most of these disciples from sects orphans?

“How about this... I’ll explain your situation to the higher-ups in a moment, and try to ask your sect’s people to replace you. What do you think?”

Hearing this, Goudan nodded and then remembered that he should ask the system for help.

“Uh...”after hesitating for a moment, Wang ye said, “Green Sparrow, I understand that you’re in a bad mood, but there’s a mission this afternoon. Look...”

“What Mission?”Goudan raised his head and asked.

Goudan nodded. “I understand... call me when it’s time...”

“Oh, okay!”

Wang Ye let out a long sigh of relief. His impression of this girl became better. Compared to the wayward sect members he had worked with before, this one in front of him was obviously much easier to manage. The key was that she was so powerful!

Thinking of her strength, Wang Ye was a little worried. The strength that this girl had displayed that day was indeed considerable, but the number of people was still too small. After the previous failure, Wang Ye could imagine that if the other party made a move today.., it would definitely be much more violent than the last time. would this little girl be able to handle it?

On the other side, in a dark basement, a group of short, yellow-skinned people gathered together. These people were dressed very ordinarily, so they would definitely not attract any attention if they were among the passersby, however, at this moment, each of them had an inexplicable aura about them.

If those familiar with the intelligence were to see this group, they would definitely turn pale with fright. Who would have thought that in such a small room, there would be five captain-level figures of the Kagura Legion gathered!

Among them was a young man with strange-colored pupils. Those familiar with the transcendence world knew that this was an extremely dangerous figure. He was the 37th generation successor of the yin-yang Master Abe family, he was also the vice-captain of the Ghost Team of the Kagura Legion: Abe Xuanjing!

Surrounded by a dilapidated hut and under the dim lighting, the intelligence officer was under tremendous pressure as he told the big shots about the information.

“The meeting place will be at Basen’s international business club. The one who will be attending the meeting this time is one of the four ministers, Charles. The one from the Li family will be their leader: Li Yichen!”

“Leader?”One of the women frowned slightly. “The Li Group has many cooperation projects with Red Sun. This time, they are involved in the construction of the fourth artificial island. If we kill their leader, it will cause an impact on the businesses of the big families. Moreover, if we kill our business partners rashly, it will cause panic among the other partners.”

“HMM... that’s a problem...”the one who replied was Abe Jingxuan. He smiled and said, “But... as long as we don’t leave any traces, it’s fine, isn’t it?”

“Is it that big of a Deal?”The woman sneered when she heard that. Everyone revealed a bloody smile when they heard that...

If they didn't leave any traces, it meant that they didn't leave any survivors. That meant that it wasn't an assassination, but a massacre!

“After all, it's rare for so many people to gather...”Abe Jingxuan tilted his head and sneered. “If we don't make it big, how can we live up to our appearance fees?”

Chapter 244: Horror!

Charles expressed his panic. Originally, he was in high spirits to sign a big deal today. If the cooperation went well, the Li Group would set up a branch here and have a long-term cooperation with Basen.

This kind of large-scale project increased the investment of the enterprise and solved a lot of employment needs for their country. This was supposed to be a very meaningful thing, but just as he arrived at the capital city, the chief met him alone, he talked with him for the whole morning.

The specific content was: this afternoon, 90% of people will come to assassinate you, and most of them are members of large-scale extraordinary organizations. But in order to stabilize the situation and draw out those dangerous people lurking in the shadows, you must attend the meeting according to the original plan, and you must not cancel it!

As for security, you can rest assured. We have already contacted the most professional person to protect your safety throughout the whole process!

Charles turned to look at the so-called professional. He was thin and small, about 1.6 meters tall. Although he was wearing a loose cloak, his face could not be seen clearly. But he could still tell that this was a young girl who was probably only in her twenties...

What a F*cking professional!!!

His first reaction was: was the leader unhappy with him and wanted to change people?

You always have the intention to say that... “...”. Why did he have to go so far?

Charles suddenly felt like crying...

“What's wrong, uncle? Are you not feeling well?”Li Goudan was very sensitive to the sadness on Charles'body.

“I... I'm fine...”Charles said in fluent huazhong language, “I... I just feel... I miss my family...”

Miss My Family? Goudan Li suddenly remembered his mother who was far away in Huazhong and was now helpless. He suddenly felt sympathy for her. “Are uncle's family far away from you?”

“Not far... just in the capital. It's only 20 minutes by taxi...”

“Then... you can go to see them directly after the talk. Why Are You So Angry?”Goudan frowned.

“When I saw that the professional they mentioned was you, I felt like I didn’t have a chance to go home...”

Eggface: “Uncle, you’re being rude...”

Charlie calmed himself down. After all, he was a big shot who had been in a high position for a long time, so he could control his emotions. Although he knew that he was in great danger, he still calmed down instantly when he was about to see an outsider.

As one of the four ministers in charge of attracting business and investment, he had experienced many big scenes. Of course, this was the first time that he was about to face such a situation. His legs were clearly trembling when he walked... ..

Soon, the group of people met the Huazhong businessman, the head of the Li Group, his business team, and the chief designer of the entire project.

Goudan looked at Li Yichen, who was approaching them, and was shocked... .. He thought to himself, why is he here?

“Oh, welcome, my friend from the east! !” Charles was as enthusiastic as usual as he gave Li Yichen a big bear hug.

Li Yichen was not really interested in this kind of intimate diplomacy. On one hand, his family etiquette was more traditional, and on the other hand, he had some mysophobia, he usually tried to keep a distance from foreign people who had a strong body odor, especially those who smelled like they had been eating curry all year round.

However, this was a national high-speed rail update, including the high-speed train project. It was a huge deal worth hundreds of billions!

Under such circumstances, it was necessary to tolerate a little curry smell. Hence, he forcefully cleaned up the discomfort in his heart. Li Yichen also responded with a bear hug enthusiastically.

Li Goudan could not help but sneer inwardly at this scene. His father was usually so cold and aloof. Not to mention outsiders, if he and his mother did not take a shower and smelled of sweat, he would keep a distance from them. At this moment, hugging a foreigner was quite enjoyable...

It seemed that in this world, the rich were still the masters...

The more she thought about it, the more she decided to become a rich woman in the game in the future!

Feeling an obvious chill, Li Yichen subconsciously turned to look at Goudan. Li Goudan hurriedly lowered his head and covered himself with a hood.

Eh?

Li Yichen was stunned. Even though Li Goudan was covered by a cloak, she was still a daughter who had raised him for more than 20 years. Looking at that skinny figure, an incomparable sense of familiarity welled up in his heart.

Jiayi?

Li Yichen subconsciously thought of it, but he immediately realized that it was almost impossible.

How could that girl appear at such an occasion? What was he thinking about?

Li Yichen retracted his gaze and continued to smile. "Thank you very much for your country's trust in this humble company. On behalf of the Li Group, I assure you that I will not let you down."

"Haha, you're Too Kind!" Charles immediately laughed. "We've long heard of the Li Group's reputation. Even a major industrial country like Red Sun has cooperated with you to build an island. It can be imagined that your company's industrial standard is definitely world-class..." "..."

"You're flattering me..."

Looking at the two of them boasting about the rainbow fart, Li Goudan turned her head slightly out of boredom. She did not like her father, especially after her mother was treated like that. She loathed this person even more.

Then, she quietly left the group and walked outside.

The strange thing was that she left openly like this, but no one noticed her, including the security guards.

The soldiers acted as if they didn't see her, allowing her to smoothly arrive at the position where Wang Ye was standing upstairs.

Wang Ye didn't see Goudan until Goudan came close and knocked him on the head. He immediately looked like he had seen a ghost and was about to open fire.

"Why didn't you go to Charles' place to guard it?" Wang Ye saw her clearly and sighed in relief. Then, he complained.

"It's boring..." doggie stretched. "Besides, there's no situation."

"Take it easy..." Wang Ye rolled his eyes at her. He was obviously dissatisfied with her idle attitude, but he didn't blame her too much. After all, she was not a professional.

"Wow... the people outside have all been cleared out?" Eggface looked outside curiously. She remembered that the business building was Barson's signature building. Usually, there was a lot of traffic outside, and there were also many tourists taking selfies.

"Of course. How could they let the people gather in a place that might be dangerous if they knew that someone was coming to cause trouble?" Wang Ye looked at her helplessly and said, "Not only here, the area within a few kilometers has been cleared out. Since the last incident, they have learned their lesson. The defensive line against sniping has been set up to a range of 20,000 meters."

"Wow... That's amazing..." Eggface looked outside with a curious expression.

“Oh right, how did you get here?” Wang ye asked curiously.

From Charles’s position to this place, there were several layers of security along the way. This girl felt as if there was no reaction from the people around her...

As an assassin, she had a very high score in the base when it came to this high-level skill of hiding from people’s sight. High-level assassins were able to observe the iris characteristics of the people around them through their wide field of vision, they could judge the other party’s field of vision to avoid it.

Therefore, many times, no matter how many ordinary defenses there were, they would not be able to guard against high-level assassins like them. This was because they could rely on this skill to openly walk in, to them, those ordinary soldiers were no different from common chickens and dogs.

However, in the next second, she discovered something very interesting.

It was a woman of the same species, a woman with two ponytails. Just like her, she walked into the hall openly, as if there was no one there!

The woman with two ponytails was like a mischievous elf, shuttling between the soldiers who could not see her. When she entered the hall, she even mischievously stuck a flower on the back of a soldier.

Those who were familiar with her knew that this seemingly innocent woman with a childlike face was already in her forties. She was an extremely dangerous existence on the extraordinary list.

Tomorrow’s Flower Kira: ranked 21st in the extraordinary evaluation, but she was ranked in the top three in terms of danger!

This was because of her magical infiltration technique, which treated defense as nothing!

She was an assassin that had caused the expressions of many high-level figures to change!

Flower Kira was also very confident in this mission. There was no one in the entire Kagura organization who was more skilled than her in assassinating high-level figures who couldn’t even truss a chicken.

However, the moment she entered the hall, she realized that this mission wasn’t as simple as it seemed.

Her wide field of vision allowed her to instantly notice Li Goudan’s gaze. It was also in that instant that she realized that he was a member of the same species... ! A top-notch assassin who excelled in high-level infiltration just like her!

She was instantly curious. There was actually such a person in such a small country?

Could it be... that the rumor a few days ago was true?

A few days ago, they had received a tip-off that Huazhong had sent the so-called Dragon Group’s personnel over to support them and had even caused the extraordinary corps to suffer a great loss.

Was this the guy?

Hua Qiluo looked at him with a provocative smile on her face. She did not know why such a guy would be so far away from the people she was protecting. could such an unprofessional person really cause the extraordinary army to suffer a great loss?

At this distance... it was impossible for the other party to catch up, right?

After all, the other party was on the third floor. Even if she jumped down, she would have enough time to cut off the heads of the two targets before that!

Thinking of this, she did not hesitate anymore. Her muscles tensed up and she was about to move...

But at that moment, a cold voice suddenly sounded behind her, "I advise you not to do that!"

Hua Qiluo was shocked. With her wide field of vision, she instantly saw that the guy who was supposed to be on the third floor behind her appeared behind her as if he had teleported, less than half a meter away!

Suddenly, she felt a sense of horror that she had never felt before!

Chapter 245: Jia Yi?

Li Goudan's voice wasn't soft. In an instant, it attracted the attention of a large number of soldiers in the solemn hall. It also attracted the attention of Charles and the Li Corporation's team who were in the middle of a discussion less than ten meters away.

When the group of people looked over, they realized that this person had appeared out of nowhere in the Hall!

When did these two people arrive at that position?

The group of soldiers raised their guns in horror and aimed at the two of them!

Charles was also very frightened. His face was pale as he desperately leaned back. The people from the Li Corporation were baffled. They did not understand why the group of people were so nervous. wasn't she just a girl doll?

However, in the next second, some people who had experienced it felt that something was wrong, especially Li Yichen. He immediately reacted.

How could such a mysterious little girl get so close to him under such tight security?

Moreover, he felt that something was wrong from the beginning. The security around him was too tight. It didn't seem like a serious business negotiation!

Sensing that something was wrong, he also shrank back...

At this moment, hua qiruo's muscles were tense to the extreme. It was like a fully drawn bowstring that could explode with great power at any time.

But she didn't dare to move, not because of the dozens of guns aimed at her, but because of that guy in the blue cloak!

She was more dangerous than all the guns combined, and countless times more dangerous!

Every cell in her body was telling her that she couldn't move... Otherwise..! ... She would die!

Several captains who had sneaked in not far away were stunned when they saw this scene. One of them, a bald man, sneered, "Hey, I didn't expect that she would be defeated one day. I thought her infiltration was really flawless!"

"Don't Gloat!" Abe Jingxuan, who was in charge of commanding, frowned and said, "Get ready to cover!"

He looked at the person wearing a blue cloak behind Hua Qiluo with some vigilance.

He knew very well that with Hua Qiluo's strength, it was impossible for these soldiers to discover her. Then, the accident must be that person...

Ninjutsu: Worm-clearing Ultimate Yama cricket! !

The bald man pressed his hands on the ground, and an ink-like substance instantly spread out in all directions. In the next second, the entire business hall fell into darkness!

The sudden loss of light caused all the soldiers to panic.

A few soldiers could not help but pull the trigger, but they realized that they could not hear the gunshots...

This strange scene made most of the soldiers who had not fought against the extraordinaires retreat in panic.

As for Hua Qiluo, the moment the space turned dark, she reacted and thought to herself, did that guy from Damen cast a spell?

As a teammate, when she knew that her teammate had such a move, she did not panic as usual because she had lost her light. Instead, she immediately seized the opportunity and her shoulder muscles bulged, they suddenly elbowed Li Goudan, who was behind them.

In such a moment of loss of five senses, no matter how powerful a person was, they should be able to reveal a hint of weakness in their hearts... That was what flowery Luo thought in her heart. ...

On the other side, after casting the spell, the other teammates immediately took out a bottle of blood that they seemed to have prepared beforehand and poured it into their mouths.

In an instant, the darkness in their field of vision returned to its original color. Regardless of whether it was sound, vision, or sense of smell, all of them returned in an instant.

This was the blood of the spellcaster. As long as they drank it, they would have the same immunity as the spellcaster for a short period of time. This was a spell that could cause them to lose their five senses!

However, the instant they regained their five senses, the scene in front of them shocked all of them!

Hua Qiluo... was dead!

Three to five seconds after they drank the blood, a captain of the Kagura Legion, an expert ranked 21st on the transcendents list, died just like that!

Looking at Hua Qiluo, who was decapitated at the entrance of the hall, and Li Goudan, who was holding a short sword in his hand, the captains immediately sucked in a breath of cold air.

Instantly killed? What kind of joke was this?

Abe Jingxuan bit his tongue in disbelief. Hua Qiluo's physical skills were not very strong in the team, but they were definitely not weak either. What kind of skills could make her not last more than five seconds?

"Do it!" Among the team leaders, one of the men saw that Hua Qiluo's head was beheaded, and his face hardened. He pulled out his katana from his waist and flew over like a shadow!

The other two men remained cautious and did not move.

Abe Jingxuan stared at the team leader who was charging forward. This man was called three trees of willow tree. He was a descendant of the Willow family. His sword skills were extremely high, and his direct combat strength was one level higher than Hua Qiluo's.

Moreover, unlike Hua Qiluo, he had the advantage in terms of tactics. Hua Qiluo did not drink the blood at that time, so she had lost her five senses just like her opponent. However, three trees was different.., he was basically facing an opponent who had lost his sight, hearing, and sense of smell in a normal situation!

Bang! !

As a cold light flashed, Li Goudan's Blue Hood was instantly cut open by the sharp blade light, revealing a head of silver-white long hair and a stunning face that made everyone instantly lose their senses!

What a beautiful woman!

Xuan Jing exclaimed in admiration, "It's really too much for such a beautiful woman to die here..." when he said this, the last word was stuck in his throat and he could no longer say it.

The beautiful woman closed her eyes, retreated, withdrew, and drew her sword. Her movements were so smooth that it was like a beautiful dance. The three trees facing her were in this extremely smooth sword movement, it was as if she didn't feel anything at all.

A few seconds later, her body fell to both sides, and blood gushed out!

Although her death was miserable, her eyes were filled with confusion before she died, and the scene in her eyes was forever fixed on the elegant sword posture of her opponent.

"This is... It can't be wrong!" The cautious captain next to Abe Xuanjing narrowed his eyes and said, "This is lord Dongyao's selfless realm! !"

Jingxuan was shocked when he heard that and immediately understood who the other party was talking about. Dongyao Miyamoto, the number one sword saint of the Red Sun, the number one swordsman in the past three hundred years!

“Let’s retreat... This is obviously a heaven immortal from central China. We Can’t win!”The captain made a judgment.

Abe Jingxuan nodded when he heard that. Then, the few of them quickly retreated while taking advantage of the aftershock of the tactic!

Just as the few of them retreated for about ten seconds, the spell in the hall finally dispersed. Everything returned to its original color, and everyone once again regained their light.

Everyone subconsciously touched themselves. After all, the feeling of not being able to see or hear anything just now made it difficult for them to determine whether their heads were still on their necks or not.

However, the next second, when they saw the blood and the two corpses on the ground, everyone became nervous again. Then, they looked at the silver-haired woman in the middle. She was so beautiful that it was a little out of the ordinary.

“Don’t shoot! We’re on the same side!”Wang Ye hurriedly greeted her.

Everyone looked at each other. Although they were still vigilant, everyone heaved a sigh of relief when they heard that they were on the same side.

In the business hall, Li Yichen, who was huddled at the back with Charles, was completely dumbfounded. This incomparably beautiful woman... Why did it feel like this ... She looked a little like... ? Her own daughter?

“B * Stard, at 5 o’clock, those assassins are heading towards your position. Stop Them!”Wang ye hurriedly shouted into the walkie-talkie when he saw the retreating figures from upstairs.

“Stop them!”Goudan, who had been silent all this while, suddenly shouted when he heard Wang Ye’s voice into the walkie-talkie. “Are you crazy? Do you want them to die?”

Wang Ye was stunned. He stared blankly at Goudan Li, who was angry at him. This was the first time he had seen someone from a sect who cared so much about the lives of his soldiers. Which of the sect members he had worked with in the past did not use them as cannon fodder?

“Jiayi?”

At this moment, Yichen was even more shocked when he heard Goudan Li’s voice. This voice... Was exactly the same as his daughter’s voice.

Finally, he tried to sound her out with a surprised tone.

Goudan’s body visibly stiffened when he heard this voice.

Yichen’s heart jolted when he saw this scene. That’s right. It Can’t be wrong. It’s really his daughter Jiayi!

However, Goudan ignored his father. With a flash, he disappeared from where he was and chased after his father in the direction of five o’clock!

Chapter 246: You Blind Little Bastard!

“Director Li, Basen’s side has gone too far!” At this moment, in Basen’s temporary accommodation room, the people of the Li Corporation were still in shock. One of the women even jumped up and complained.

“They clearly knew that there would be an attack today, but they didn’t inform us beforehand. They still made us take the risk as promised. Their intentions are to be punished!”

The moment this woman said this, all the teams that followed her nodded. After all, they might have lost their lives if they were careless just now. They had seen many soldiers shoot in panic when the lights went out, they had killed many of their comrades by mistake. If they did not react quickly and lie down on the ground, they might have been shot by now.

However, Li Yichen was in a daze at this moment. He did not listen to the woman’s complaints at all. All he could think about was his daughter... ..

Jiayi was an extraordinary? ?

How was that possible? Why didn’t he know about this at all?

However, on second thought, it did not seem like he could not understand it. Ever since Jiayi went to school, he rarely went home because Xiaoli gave birth to a fat boy for him. Hence, he paid less and less attention to his daughter, he didn’t even care what university she went to.

In that case, if this girl had some fortuitous encounter and became an extraordinary... .. It wasn’t impossible for him not to know...

No wonder she dared to leave just like that. Even after he stopped her card, she still didn’t go home for such a long time. It turned out that she had such a solid foundation?

My Li family... actually produced an extraordinary? ? ?

At the thought of this, Li Yichen was so excited that his entire body trembled. The grievance he felt from being almost cheated to death was instantly swept away. His entire body and mind were completely disoriented by this sudden lucky bag!

As the head of a corporation that had done business all over the world, he knew very well the significance of an extraordinary person.

An extraordinary person’s family and an ordinary family were two completely different circles. Having an extraordinary person’s inheritance was an extremely important matter. It was a great opportunity for the family to transform, it was also an important ticket to the top-tier capitalists!

The so-called extraordinary families that were made of iron and flowed like water. Regardless of whether it was overseas or domestic, the family that possessed the inheritance of an extraordinary person would be immortal for a thousand years. As for ordinary families, being able to last for three generations was already a great feat. After all, the business world was changing, one might feel lonely at any time. However, for a family that had the inheritance of an extraordinary person, as long as the inheritance was there, the family’s flame would be there.

It was just that he did not know whether his precious daughter was a sect's inheritance or a genetic change like that of an extraordinary army.

But no matter which one it was, it was of great significance to the Li family.

With this thought in mind, he did not delay. He had to quickly report this matter to his old master!

Just as he stood up, the woman from earlier walked up and said, "Yichen, I think we should carefully consider the matter of cooperating with Basen..."

Li Yichen was stunned. He frowned at her. "Consider what?"

The woman did not notice the impatience in Li Yichen's eyes. With a face full of hatred, she said, "I don't think Basen is a trustworthy partner... why don't we..."

"Are you crazy?" Li Yichen rolled his eyes at her words. "You don't want to do a business worth hundreds of billions just because you say so? Do you think they have other options other than us? Can you be a little more intelligent when you speak?"

The woman was momentarily stunned by Li Yichen's rebuke before her face was filled with grievance. Ever since she gave birth to a chubby boy for the Li family, this was the first time Li Yichen had rebuked her in public.

Meanwhile, the people around them covered their mouths and snickered secretly. They were gloating over Li Yichen's misfortune. After all... "...". No one wanted to see a woman who relied on her body to climb up the social ladder strut her stuff above them. She clearly did not know anything, yet she held a higher position than them.

Li Yichen ignored the aggrieved look on the man's face and walked out of the room without looking back. He needed to negotiate with Barson's people and arrange a private room for him to call. He had to hurry up and report to the old man about Jiayi, and he didn't want anyone around him to know about it, especially this woman... . .

"What? Are you sure?" In a sea-view villa somewhere in central China, Old Master Li, who had been leisurely sipping tea, was so shocked by the call that even his favorite purple clay teapot fell to the ground.

The teapot, which he had treated as a treasure all day, was now in no mood to look at it. He hurried to the inner part of the room and whispered, "Is it really Jiayi?"

"It can't be wrong!" Li Yichen was very sure. "It must be Jiayi! !"

"Hiss! !" Old Master Li took a deep breath and immediately trembled with excitement just like his son. He paced back and forth in the room.

After a long while, he quickly said, "Your Daughter is an extraordinary. Why didn't you notice it at all after so many years?"

"I..." Li Yichen was at a loss for words. He forced himself to stutter, "Isn't it because of Xiaoli... she's been neglecting her mother and daughter all these years?"

"Didn't you say before you left that Min Jun wanted to divorce you? Does she know about this?" The old man asked with a trembling voice.

"This..." Li Yichen's heart skipped a beat. He was wondering why that woman suddenly became so stubborn and wanted to divorce him. She didn't even want her daughter ... ! Holy Sh * t!

Now that he thought about it... It was really hard to say... ..

"Do you know or not?" Old Master Li pressed on.

"This... It's hard to say... maybe you know..."

"Then how is their mother-daughter relationship?" Old Master Li continued to ask.

Li Yichen's heart skipped a beat when he heard this. After hesitating for a moment, he stammered, "Then... When I'm not at home... It's Always Minjun taking care of my daughter..."

Elder Li immediately understood the situation. His daughter was an extraordinary and her father didn't know about it. A mother might know about it. Most importantly, the relationship between mother and daughter seemed to be much better than that between father and daughter!

What a F * cking situation! !

"Then... how's Jiayi's strength?" Elder Li asked carefully.

"It should be... not bad, right..." Li Yichen recalled the scene and said, "At that time, the ones who attacked us were also extraordinaires. Two of them were directly killed by Jiayi, and..."

"And what?"

"And... from the looks of it, they are Asian and have a katana... they should be... probably Japanese..."

"Japanese?" Elder Li's heart skipped a beat. He stuttered and asked, "God... Kagura Legion?"

"This... the specific situation is still unclear..." Li Yichen was a little embarrassed. His own daughter was actually able to kill two people from the Kagura Legion alone. He found it unbelievable even if he told others... If this was true...

The value of this treasure was extraordinarily high!

"Aiyo, you blind little bastard! !" Old Master Li was instantly angered to the point of stomping his feet.

"Don't you know how to keep such a treasure at home? Why do you go out and fool around every day?"

His Li family actually produced an extraordinary who could kill an expert of the Kagura Legion. If it weren't for this incident, such a treasure would have been taken away by a woman without a sound... ..

When he thought of this terrifying outcome, elder Li felt like strangling this foolish son of his to death!

"Please quickly calm down Jiayi over there and find out more about the situation!"

"Then... Minjun's side..." Li Yichen asked weakly.

“Calm down over there first...” elder Li said in a serious tone, “I’ll personally pacify Minjun’s side...”

Li Yichen was stunned. The old man was such a proud and arrogant person, yet he was actually willing to bow down to his daughter-in-law personally... He not only sighed at the impermanence of the world... ..

He hurriedly said, “I understand, old man. I’ll definitely calm Jiayi down!”

Chapter 247: Uncle... misunderstanding!

“Old Yan, are you alright?” Wang Ye helped the injured Yan Hui out of the infirmary. When he saw the wound on his chest that had just been given a title, he felt lucky. If it had been a little deeper.., it would have been over with just a stitch.

“I’m fine... It’s just a superficial wound!” Old Yan said as he took out the flat wine flask that he had used to store old white wine from the bag.

“Drink it after you’ve recovered...” Wang Ye frowned and grabbed the wine jug.

Old Yan rolled his eyes and sighed. “We’ve been doing this for so many years, but we’re still not used to those monsters who aren’t afraid of bullets... What do you think is the purpose of our existence in the face of these extraordinaires?”

Wang ye said, “To receive intelligence, to explore our vision, and to be cannon fodder when necessary...”

After a moment of silence, old Yan said faintly, “I want to hear your comfort... Not the truth...”

Wang Ye turned his head away. “I even want someone to comfort me...”

“You...” Old Yan shook his head and stared at him, not knowing whether to laugh or cry. Then, he let out a long sigh and suddenly said faintly, “This time, the disciples of this sect seem to be different from the others...”

“HMM...” for the first time, Wang Ye surprisingly did not refute, he clearly remembered that when he rushed over in the afternoon, he saw Li Goudan cursing at a group of injured soldiers, “Are you all crazy? Wang Dazhou told you to stop him, and you really went to stop him? Don’t you have a mind of your own? How did you survive to this age? Is that something you can stop? “Do you know how to paddle?”

At that time, he could see that there were a few bloody marks on Qing Que’s body. It was obvious that he was injured. At that time, his first reaction was that the other party might have been injured because they were trying to save someone.

That was because those three guys who were running away looked like they didn’t even dare to fight...

He secretly asked around behind him... and sure enough...

They were holding them back...

“Boss... do you think the people behind Li Laojian’s dragon team are all like Green Sparrow? They are good-looking, and their personalities are like Candy?”

Wang Ye glared at him. “I don’t remember asking you to drink it just now, right? You got so drunk just by smelling it? Do you want me to buy you some peanuts to suppress it?”

“Hey... you... can’t you say something Nice?” Old Yan laughed angrily. Just as he was about to say something else, a gentle voice suddenly sounded. “Excuse me...”

The two of them were stunned. They looked up and saw Li Yichen in a suit and tie.

“Uh... Oh, Hello...” Wang Ye was stunned when he saw the person. This person... “...”. He knew him. When he received the mission information, it said that he was the leader of the Li Corporation.

What did the other party mean by coming to find him? Could it be that he was looking for trouble?

At the thought of this, Wang Ye still felt a little guilty. After all... ... It was obvious that these people knew that they were in danger, yet they still used the other party to lure those extraordinaires into their trap. It was indeed somewhat unjustifiable...

“Excuse me... Are You referring to the white-haired girl that you mentioned just now?” Li Yichen asked with a smile.

When they heard that the other party was actually coming for Qing que, the two of them immediately frowned.

“What’s the matter, Mr. Li?” Wang ye asked coldly.

There was quite a lot of gossip about this Li Yichen. It was said that many entertainment celebrities were having an affair with him. Currently, the most popular mixed-blood celebrity, Fei Xinyue, was backed by him.

When such a guy suddenly asked about green sparrow, the two of them were instantly on high alert. They could not help but let out a cold smile as they thought to themselves, you old man, are you really a pervert? You even dare to have designs on our country’s dragon team?

“Oh... It’s like this...” Li Yichen smiled and handed over a gold-plated business card. “This humble one is Li Yichen. My main purpose is to thank the Lady Green Sparrow that you mentioned. Can you introduce her to us?”

“There’s no need to thank me... It’s our duty to protect the safety of the people!” Wang Ye coldly rejected.

Protect the safety of the people? Li Yichen was stunned. He had suspected it before, but now he was sure that his daughter had actually joined the government?

What was going on?

“Um... ahem, this humble one has something to ask her. Can the two of you see if you can...”

“Are you done yet?” Wang Ye could not help but stand up and strangle the other party. “Let’s go outside and talk...”

Li Yichen: "Eh?"

Yan Hui: "Be Gentle. Don't kill her..."

"Watt? Eh... brother, it's not like that... Listen to me... Don't misunderstand... Aiya! !"

---

In half an hour...

"Uncle, it's a misunderstanding, a misunderstanding! !" Wang Ye held a cup of hot tea and showed a smile that was uglier than crying. He apologized to Yi Chen repeatedly.

This is getting out of hand...

Say You are green sparrow father you should have said so, put on such a wretched expression, who can recognize it?

"Misunderstanding?" Li Yichen pointed at his swollen head and said coldly: "Little Brother, this is not a misunderstanding can explain it?"

"Say, why are you always so impulsive?" Yan Hui took the Teacup with a look of reproach and hurriedly offered it to Li Yichen. "Look at how you beat up uncle..."

Li Yichen: "..."

"Go Away..." Li Yichen rolled his eyes at the thick-skinned Yan Hui. Then, he turned to look at Goudan Li, who was applying medicine on him. "Look at the group of people you've been hanging out with all day?"

Li Goudan applied the medicine on him expressionlessly. "It doesn't matter who you hang out with anymore, does it? Anyway, we're not part of the Li family anymore. You Don't have to act like an elder anymore..."

Li Yichen was stunned when he heard this. He thought to himself, has Min Jun contacted her daughter? Didn't that woman say that she couldn't find her daughter?

He didn't have time to think about it and quickly said, "Hey... Child, do you really take your mother's angry words seriously? We've been married for so many years. How could we possibly get a divorce?"

"Is that so?" Goudan li sneered. "I thought you were planning to take this opportunity to make your side consort official..."

"You..." Li Yichen glared at his daughter. If it were in the past, he might have slapped her across the face, but... .. Now... He had not seen his daughter for many years. He was not sure how much authority her father had. If he acted rashly, he might lose his hand. ...

"Then... wasn't it your grandfather who forced me to do it? It's not like you don't know that the older generation's ideology is outdated. After all these years, your grandfather forced me to do it, but I still didn't give him any status, did I?"

"Hehe..." Goudan Li laughed. "Sure, you even dare to shift the blame to your grandfather. Alright... If you still dare to say that when we get back, I'll believe you..."

Li Yichen's neck immediately shrunk, but then a surge of joy rose in his heart. Lass... ? She was willing to go back with him?

He was instantly overjoyed. "Alright, Alright, Alright. Let's talk when we get back. Let's talk when we get back... I'll go and ask my secretary to Book A Flight Ticket for Tomorrow Morning."

Hearing this, Wang Ye became anxious, but before he could say anything, Li Goudan said, "I can't go back tomorrow. I can't miss work here. I'll have to wait for someone to replace me."

Wang Ye and the others immediately heaved a sigh of relief, but then they were a little disappointed. Hearing this, it seemed that Qing que still had to leave in a short period of time...

Li Yichen frowned when he heard this and immediately asked, "Jiayi, you've made such a big decision. Why didn't you discuss it with your family? Why did you suddenly go to work for the government?"

Wang Ye and the others were instantly displeased when they heard this. So what if they went to work for the government?

Li Goudan sneered when he heard this. "I didn't see you coming over to discuss with me about which university I'm going to. Are you so old that you have no control over what kind of job you're going to find now?"

"No... Dad, what I mean is..."

"That's enough...". Li Goudan waved his hand and interrupted the other party's words. "Don't waste your time on me, sir. I know what you're thinking. If you have the energy, you should think about how to appease Mom. If she's really like what you said, she can say anything in a fit of anger. If not, then..." ... Heh... ..."

Yichen's face tensed up instantly. He understood that his daughter was able to see through the situation and did not seem to have any rebellious thoughts. However, the bad news was that she seemed to be completely on Zhang Minjun's side. In other words, now... ... The initiative of the situation was in the hands of the child's mother...

Chapter 248: the Li family's scheme

Just as Li Yichen had thought, her daughter indeed understood their little scheme. Li Goudan was not stupid. Her father, who had not paid any attention to her for more than ten years, was suddenly so solicitous, how could she not guess what the other party wanted?

Being able to become an elf was a delicate thought. It was naturally different from those silly green titans.

She actually didn't mind. She didn't have much resentment towards the Li family. After all, they had provided her with good food and drinks for so many years. Although they didn't give her any kinship, they didn't mistreat her either. They had given her all the people that a rich family's daughter should have... ...

Raising a daughter this big, she felt that it was fine for her to make some contributions. Of course... ..
The premise was that the person who treated her the best was still in the Li family.

She had been brought up by her mother since she was young. Even though she used the Li family's money, the emotional investment was her mother. The money could be returned, but her mother could not be wronged. This was Li Goudan's bottom line!

Her attitude now was very clear. As long as the Li family coaxed her mother well and made her willing to continue staying in the Li family, then she did not care what the Li family wanted her to do. It was just to repay the kindness of raising her.

However, if her mother wasn't willing to stay in the Li family, then she would only have an interest relationship with the Li family. She would repay the money she owed one by one. As for the rest, she would just laugh.

She had actually thought it through. If her mother wasn't willing to stay in the Li family and be a rich family's wife, she would bring her mother to the game and travel with her to the new coast of the New Territories. She would enjoy life and travel around that New World, when the base was expanded, she would bring her mother to travel around the starry skies and see just how prosperous the universe federation that the Lord of the territory had mentioned was...

When that time came, she would change her surname to take her mother's surname and her online name to Zhang Goudan! !

"Alright, you should rest early..." after putting down the medicine, Li Goudan clapped his hands and sighed, "I'll go rest too..."

Li Yichen hurriedly added, "Alright, Alright, don't work too hard. This is just a small injury. You Don't have to worry too much. You're tired today, so you should rest early."

I'm not worried at all... "...". Li Goudan rolled his eyes and did not say anything else. He turned around and walked out.

Wang Ye and the others saw that the situation was not looking good and were about to leave. However, they were stopped by Li Yichen. "Hey, Young Man, where are you going? Come back, come back, come back. Let's have a good chat..."

"I..." Wang Ye turned around with a wry smile. "Uncle... do you have anything else to ask..."

Heh, now you're feeling guilty? Li Yichen looked at him and sneered. He sipped his tea slowly and said, "Tell me, when can our daughter leave?"

"This..." Wang Ye's heart tightened and he said with some difficulty, "This is not up to me. I have to ask the higher-ups, and..."

"And what?"

"And..." looking at the other party's unfriendly eyes, Wang ye braced himself and said, "Green Sparrow just promised to stay here for a long time..."

“What? ?” Li Yichen jumped up in shock. “You wish. I will never agree to this...”

Wang ye smiled bitterly to himself when he saw this, but he could only brace himself and said, “But... Green Sparrow did agree to the higher-ups. Even if she wants to apply to go back, it can only be for a short period of time unless her sect can arrange for someone else to replace her.”

“Sect?” Li Yichen narrowed his eyes slightly and thought to himself, this girl is actually a member of a sect?

Actually, when he first saw how much the girl had changed, he thought it was genetic modification. He did not expect her to be a member of a sect. This made him feel a little regretful.

If it was genetic modification, with the financial resources of his Li family, he could definitely set up a private research institute and let the girl leave a sample for research. Then, he could try to let his Li family completely grasp this gene.

Of course, the girl herself could not marry into another aristocratic family. She had to find a son-in-law. All of the girl’s bloodline had to stay in the Li family.

But if it was someone from the sect, it would be a little troublesome if they wanted to privatize their power...

But fortunately, he had thought of both scenarios. The sect had the benefits of the sect. The sect was equivalent to the girl opening a path for the Li family and the sect. As long as the Li family could establish a connection with the sect, then the Li family would be able to make a huge profit! If he could strive to become a vassal family of the sect, then his Li family would also make a huge profit!

Don’t look at how some people secretly cursed those affiliated companies for being dogs raised by the sect. However, if they were given a chance to become dogs, these people who secretly cursed them would probably be extremely willing in their hearts.

Being a subsidiary company of the sect was not a free investment. Although a large amount of funds were needed to support the sect, the sect would also give you great protection. One of them was: as long as your family’s disciples had the aptitude for cultivation..., the sect would give priority to recruiting and grooming them. Just This alone was something that many groups could not even hope for.

Furthermore, companies that had the protection of the sect would also receive great protection when doing business internationally. Their Li Corporation was doing business outside..., just paying protection fees to those inexplicable extraordinary forces would require them to hand over nearly half of their profits!

And for those companies that had the protection of the sect, which ignorant person would dare to cause trouble for them outside? Not to mention those small supernatural forces, even the famous supernatural corps would not dare to touch those companies easily.

Although the transcendents of Huazhong did not travel internationally, who did not know the power of those sects in Huazhong? Who would dare to provoke them easily. Internationally, the people who were most afraid were those old fellows in Huazhong...

However, since they were from sects, why did the girl’s appearance change so much?

Li Yichen was still a little puzzled. He had never heard of someone who could practice martial arts so beautifully. If it was not for the fact that her silhouette was similar, he would have thought that he had met a goddess...

"Uncle?" Wang ye cautiously asked when he saw that Li Yichen did not speak for a long time.

Li Yichen came back to his senses. He was furious when he saw this sneaky fellow, he said coldly, "Alright, I got it. You guys should ask for instructions now. You'd better book the time for me as soon as possible...". At this point, he suddenly looked at the other party and said faintly, "Kid, don't use the official name to play tricks in the middle. Don't think that I don't know what you're up to. I'm telling you, as long as I'm still alive, don't even think about it !!!"

"I. . ." Wang Ye's face immediately turned red. He really wanted to refute that he didn't, but for some reason... .. He couldn't say it out loud...

Some of the surrounding soldiers saw this scene and covered their mouths to snicker. Not only did they think that his head was really awesome, he even dared to beat up his father on the first day. It would be difficult for him to beat up the green sparrow...

— — — —

At this moment, outside the Li family's villa in the middle of the country, Old Man Li had already rushed over here the moment he got off the plane. When he walked in the manor, his footsteps were as fast as flying. It was impossible to tell that he was an old man in his seventies or eighties.

"Dad, slow down. You're already in your seventies or eighties. Aren't you afraid of falling? Is there a need to be like this?" A woman dressed luxuriously at the side hurriedly came forward to support him and asked with a frown.

"Of course there's a need!" The old man of the Li family panted a little. "Just now, your brother called and said that Jia Yi, that girl, has already been stabilized by him. As long as Zhang Minjun agrees, this matter will be settled. Huiya, let me tell you, whether our Li family can become a real aristocratic family depends on this wave."

"Dad, that girl might just be an ordinary disciple. We won't be able to gain any glory, right?" The woman said unhappily.

"Absolutely not!" The old man of the Li family said seriously, "I've asked around just now. The ones who caused trouble in Basen this time are all extraordinaires from big forces. I heard that the dragon group experts sent by the country have already repelled a few waves! "Even the leader of that place has personally requested for the girl to stay there in Huazhong. Is it possible if she doesn't have some strength? "She's still so young, but she's already so powerful. I reckon that at the very least, she's a personal disciple of an elder. She might even...". "..."

After a pause, she continued, "Anyway, it's definitely not a problem to use her to open the door to the sect. Who knows, she might even be able to give you and third's son one or two spots to cultivate in the sect."

“This... is that so?”The middle-aged woman immediately stopped refuting, she immediately became attentive, “That’s really... Haha, Dad... You said that Jia Yi that girl is usually quiet and quiet, but I really couldn’t tell... she really shocked the world with a single feat...”

“That’s right...”old man Li also sighed. “This old man didn’t expect that woman surnamed Zhang to have such an amazing phoenix seed...”at this point, the two of them just happened to walk to the entrance of the villa, the housekeeper in the distance hurriedly came forward to welcome them...

The old man said in a low voice, “We’re here. Pay attention later. This time, you must lower yourself and put away that arrogance of yours. No matter what, you have to stabilize this woman. Even if you lose a little face, it doesn’t matter, understand?”

“Ah, I know!”The woman immediately said with a smile. As long as she could give her two sons the opportunity to enter the sect, what was the point of making her lose a little face?

Chapter 249: playing games is a great skill!

Inside the villa, Zhang Minjun, who was putting on makeup, was stunned when she heard this. She subconsciously wanted to rush down to greet him. In this family, there was only one person who was qualified to be called master, and that person was the previous generation’s leader of the Li Group: Li Guoshang.

Although the identity of the leader had been handed over to her husband ten years ago, the actual person in charge of the Li family was known in the hearts of both the outside world and the insiders.

It was also this old man who had been pressing down on her heart like a huge mountain for so many years, making her tremble with fear. Especially after the doctor told her that she could no longer have children, she had always been afraid of this old man.

So subconsciously, her conditioned reflex was to appear very anxious.

But just as she stood up, she sat down doubtfully. What was there to be afraid of? Hadn’t she already decided to leave this cold li family?

At the thought of this, her mood slowly calmed down. That’s right... ... She was about to leave. Wasn’t elder Li’s greatest threat to her? What was she still afraid of?

At the thought of this, the original fear in her heart slowly dissipated and was replaced by years of grievance and anger.

After taking a deep breath, she sighed, “I’m still applying makeup. Help me entertain the old master. I’ll be there in a while.”

The servant was stunned when he heard that. Then, he revealed an incredulous expression. After being stunned for a while, he could not help but continue, "Young lady, the old master is Here!" Her voice became a little louder the second time.

Zhang Minjun looked at the servant who almost shouted and could not help but smile bitterly. A Butler dared to shout at her. What was the meaning of being the young lady?

What did she want all these years?

Thinking of this, Zhang Minjun felt even more disgusted. Without turning her head, she said coldly, "You don't understand what I'm saying, right? I said... I told you to entertain her first. I'll come after I put on my makeup!"

The old Butler immediately burst into laughter. He thought to himself, how many dishes? Drinking like this? A chicken that doesn't lay eggs really takes me seriously, right?

Without saying anything else, she walked out with a cold smile on her face. She was waiting to see how this young madam would embarrass herself...

She didn't have much respect for this young madam who was born in a commoner's family and didn't have any family backing. She had been in the Li family for many years and wasn't liked by her husband's father-in-law.

It had to be said that human nature was like this. She bullied the weak and feared the strong. A female master like Zhang Minjun who didn't have any backing and had a gentle personality was obviously much easier to serve than a woman from a big family. However, such a woman in charge of the house would instead breed some wicked slaves...

"Master... Young Madam said that she was putting on makeup, she asked you to wait..." after the housekeeper arrived at the hall, she immediately relayed Zhang Minjun's words. She did not add any more embellishments because she knew that this one sentence was enough to make the true leader of the Li family in front of her, Lei Ting, furious.

"AH... Dad, Look, it's different with a trump card. The waist is very thick..." the daughter beside Old Master Li said.

"Shut up!" Li Guoshang glared at his daughter and said.

The woman pursed her lips, but did not say anything.

This scene made the housekeeper stunned. She was the housekeeper raised by the Li family since young. Her grandfather and father were the Li family's royal housekeeper, so she was naturally very clear about the Li family's relationship.

The woman in front of her was called Li Siyan. She was Old Master Li's sixth child, the little girl of the family. As the saying went, the king loved the eldest son, and the common people doted on their youngest son. Even if she was just a little girl, Li Siyan had been completely doted on since young, old Master Li was even reluctant to let her marry outside. He had recruited a son-in-law to the outside world.

She had not seen old master Li being fierce to her daughter since she was sensible. What was going on today? Just for that daughter-in-law who was most disliked?

Moreover, what trump card did Li Siyan say just now?

The butler sensibly realized that this matter seemed to be not simple.

Then, he obediently stood at the side and did not continue to speak, obediently waiting... ..

This wait lasted for more than two hours. She felt that her legs were numb from standing, and her heart felt that something was wrong. She thought to herself, that woman really dared to leave the old master alone for so long? The most important thing was that the old master had actually been sitting and waiting for so long?

Even Li Siyan, who usually did not sit next to him, was now so well-behaved that it was frightening. She had been sitting and not making a sound, which made the housekeeper even more nervous.

After a long time, the sound of footsteps came from afar. Zhang Minjun stretched her back and slowly walked to the hall. When she saw Old Li and the others, she was obviously stunned. She did not expect that the old master would wait for her for so long. Logically speaking, he should have been angry and left a long time ago... ..

This unexpected scene made her somewhat flustered. However, she immediately comforted herself in her heart. She didn't have to be afraid of them. After all, she didn't want anything from the Li family... ..

At the thought of this, her mood slowly recovered. She sat across from them as if nothing had happened and said softly, "Sorry for the wait, Dad..."

The housekeeper looked at Zhang Minjun, feeling more and more confused... "...". She really wanted to know why this woman was so confident?

"Minjun... all these years, it's been hard on you..."the old man was actually not very comfortable facing that cold face of hers, however, after so many years of being a businessman, this seemingly high and mighty old man was actually more flexible than anyone else.

"Dad... There's no need to be polite..."Zhang Minjun thought that it was just a polite excuse for her to get a divorce, she said expressionlessly, "Bring the divorce agreement here. I'll just sign it. We, the Li family, won't take anything from your family... you can rest assured about this..."

"This..."Old Li was suddenly angry. He thought to himself, I didn't see it before. This girl is so decisive in doing things. Doesn't she give me any room for negotiation?

Li Siyan couldn't hold it anymore. "Sister-in-law, your words are a little unfair. Our Li family hasn't mistreated you for so many years, right? The treatment that young madam should receive doesn't differ from yours. It's... "... Big Brother did some disgraceful things. He was looking for someone outside, but he also had his own difficulties. Our aristocratic family places the most importance on inheritance. It's not like our family is like this. You should have understood when you married in the beginning. But now that you've gained power, you're so ruthless. It's not good, right, sister-in-law?"

Zhang Minjun was baffled by his words and could not help but say, "How did I go so far? I have no intention of taking any money from your Li family. What else do you want me to do? Sell my body to pay off your debts?"

"You..." Li Siyan was instantly furious. At this moment, was there any point in this fellow pretending to be crazy and acting stupid?

Elder Li's face also sank slightly, but he still endured it and said, "Minjun, we are a family. Do we have to make things so awkward? "Even if you take Jiayi away, how much benefit can a single woman get? "How about this, we won't spare Wanzi. Whatever conditions you have, just say it. I will make the decision for you if I can..." "If you really don't like that mother and son outside, I will make the decision to chase her out of the Li Corporation. I will also make sure that illegitimate child doesn't take a single bit of the Li family's things. I will also never acknowledge his identity to the public. What do you think?"

"Huh?" Zhang Minjun's eyelids twitched, and she looked dumbfounded. "You... What did you say?"

Elder Li's face twitched, and he thought to himself, F * ck you. I've Said So Much, and you still want me to repeat it?

"Sister-in-law..." Li Siyan, who was beside him, also hurriedly walked over and held her hand. "I know that you've been wronged for so many years, but no matter what, your family has been together for decades. How can it be broken so easily?" "Jiayi is also part of our Li family's bloodline, isn't she?" She paused for a moment before continuing, "Besides, that girl is in the sect. With a family backing her up, Jiayi's status in the sect is also a little more important "If you don't think about yourself, you should at least think about Jiayi, right?"

What nonsense. Zhang Minjun felt that she didn't know what these two were talking about at all, but she roughly understood the meaning: ... Today, they... ... didn't seem to be here to force her to get a divorce. On the contrary... It seemed like they were trying to persuade her to stay?

Why?

"I... I need to think about it..." Zhang Minjun covered her head. She felt that there was a lot of information. She felt that she should figure it out first. After all, she had to know what the Li family was planning, right?

"Okay, okay, okay. Think about it carefully. We are not in a hurry..." seeing that his daughter-in-law had relented, elder Li's expression relaxed. It was good that he was willing to talk, but he was afraid of those who would not listen to the carrot and stick. Now, as long as he could keep Li Jiayi in the Li family, everything would be fine!

Seeing that the other party had relented, Li Siyan's expression also lit up. Then, her tone became even more intimate. "I'm not saying that you don't know. Jiayi has the ability, so why are you hiding it? How many things have you delayed..."

Zhang Minjun tried her best to keep her expression calm. Listening to the other party's barrage of fawning words, she roughly understood. It seemed like... ? It was because of Jiayi?

This tone sounded like Jiayi had caused some big trouble, as if that girl was very capable...

A daughter was like a mother. Jiayi, that girl, was raised by her own hands, so how could she not know what kind of ability she had. Her studies were average, and she didn't have any artistic talent or business talent. She had tried to cultivate it herself. She had the aptitude of having all seven orifices and all six orifices. Other than playing the game well, she could beat a bunch of people in the arcade with a single coin at the age of ten...

But was playing the game well considered a skill?

Of course... "...". If Li Goudan were here, he would definitely say proudly, "Playing the game well is a great skill!"!

Chapter 250: a bunch of boring brainiacs

In the base, the current situation was divided into two levels. This was reflected in the developers and the other two types of players.

In the base, regardless of whether it was the Green Titan players or the elven players, they were all very busy. The advanced players were busy with quests, while the non-quest players were carefully managing their own fields and slaves.

The low-level players were all working hard. According to statistics, since the high-level players began to contract the land, the average time for the new Green Titan players to carry bricks was almost three hours longer than before, it seemed that everyone wanted to get out of the brick-carrying period and become well-off!

The instructor's application for the course became more and more intense.

The ELF players were the same. After seeing their own kind transform into a tall, rich, handsome, fair, rich, and beautiful person, these elf balls desperately went online to try to transform, the typical example was Grandpa Lu, who was almost ten meters tall outside the base...

On the contrary, the developers had fallen into a period of boredom during this period of time, especially the first batch of advanced players!

This group of developers had experienced the painful learning period in the beginning, and were successfully transformed into top students. Their leveling efficiency was extremely fast. Up until now, the 11th Level 3 player had appeared among the developers.

This was a number that even the huge Green Titan and elves combined couldn't compare to.

However, after this group of advanced developers reached a certain level, the instructors in charge of the basic lessons started to have a headache...

Students... were too smart! ! !

Even in the Space Federation, the number of developers was extremely small. This was a bloodline that had once created a glorious civilization and suddenly disappeared. Its capacity was even lower than the Green Titan's. Many lords were used to strengthen the genes of the natives, not for evolution genes at all. Their purpose was to nurture some low-level technology applications, such as the program ape...

However, if a high-level developer appeared, it would definitely be the target of all the famous universities. They had heard that the headmasters of Hex Academy and Star Ocean Academy had once fought over a high-level developer student...

Now, they finally understood why the principals of those famous universities would disregard their status so much. This group of evildoers was simply too heaven-defying...

They were only level three, and each of their spiritual power had already caused them, as level four and five instructors, to feel immense pressure. They were all born in famous universities, and their bloodlines weren't considered low. However, compared to the spiritual growth and learning efficiency of these students, they all felt a sense of despair...

After studying for more than 30 years, they felt that they had nothing to teach after only three months...

They vaguely felt that they were not far from losing their jobs... ..

"Do you think the Lord will fulfill the contract?" In a resting room in the base, a biology teacher who had been idle for almost half a month asked carefully.

There were relatively few players in the base who chose biology, and a few of them seemed to be about to graduate from teaching... F * ck ... He felt like he graduated faster than he did when he applied for admission... ..

Therefore, he was considered to be the most idle among the teachers, and also the teacher who was most likely to lose his job...

"Ahem... This should be possible, right? Our Lord looks like a kind man..." one of the teachers who was in charge of teaching organic chemistry replied weakly.

"He wears such a thick helmet all day long. How can you tell that he looks like a kind person?" The teacher who was in charge of the mechanical engineering course rolled his eyes.

Mechanical Engineering was the most popular course for developers, so he felt a little more at ease now. Although his students graduated quickly, fortunately, there was a steady stream of people coming in... .. should be ... He wouldn't lose his job so soon, right. ... should be... ..

"Think about it..." one of the instructors who was in charge of teaching alchemy and chemistry chuckled. "I think our base will have a new batch of people to fill in the gaps, and there will be new developers coming over to teach us, right?"

"How many more can there be?" The biology teacher rolled his eyes. "Do you think such high-quality developers are like cabbages? Cutting off wave after wave? Do you still expect millions of such developers to line up to teach you?"

"AH, ha-ha-ha-ha, that's true... but seriously, if that happens, we might go crazy in a few years..."

“Is it?” A few teachers around also laughed, but do not know why, in the heart inexplicable rise a bad feeling... 1

And at this time, which so-called has graduated the developer, is moaning in the base without disease...

...

Other than those who were busy taking mecha and arcane courses, those who were studying alchemy or biology had nothing to do. There was nothing in the base that could allow them to continue improving. However, they were already used to the days of constantly absorbing knowledge. When one day they found that there was nothing to learn, they suddenly felt that the world was extremely empty and lonely...

Some bored people had already started experimenting with all sorts of projects, but they could not do many of their experiments without a basic test bed. Now, they could only gather together and discuss some hypothetical data.

This process had been going on for many days. Each time, one person would come up with an idea, and then everyone would start discussing it. The discussion would last for a day, and the players who passed by would avoid it, they were afraid that they would be blinded by the brilliant light of these guys.

Today, a developer suddenly brought up a very interesting topic. “I recently found something very interesting from the data of the base’s players!”

“What is it?” The eyes of the bored developers around them suddenly lit up. It had been a long time since they had found anything interesting...

“I did some statistics on the base’s players... and found something interesting. Except for a few who are cultivators, those who have good training results in the base are gaming nerds who are addicted to games!”

“Aren’t you talking nonsense?” A developer next to him frowned. “Gaming nerds spend a lot of time online and train a lot. Naturally, their results are better than ordinary people...”

“No, no, no, no...”. The player who brought up the topic quickly shook his head and said, “That’s not the case. As the number of players increases, the number of pure gaming nerds will fade. Many people are actually just casual players. It was only after they entered this game that they became heavily addicted to the Internet. These players usually spend as much time online as those nerds, but their training results are obviously not as good as the first batch.”

“Eh? There’s such a Thing?” The eyes of the other developers lit up when they heard that. “Then what’s the result of your data?”

“Game talent!” That player grinned and said, “I did a careful investigation. The players who have the best training results today, Brother Dog, Pu Yunchuan, cold star, and Emperor Liver on the Green Titan side, other than cold star who is a professional killer, the others are either the second generation of the decadent rich, or otakus who play games at home except for work. But they all have one thing in common: they are good at playing games!”

“NONONO!” The player said, “That’s because you haven’t investigated it carefully. Although Wang Goudan and Li Goudan aren’t Otakus, they have quite a good gaming talent. I’ve investigated and found that Wang Goudan is a king 800 expert in the first server of the Glory Alliance. Although Li Goudan doesn’t play the Glory Alliance, he is an expert in arcade games. He can often beat the entire game hall with one coin.”

“Where’s Xu Xian?”

“Damn, is that the Little Puppy?”

“Keep your voice down!” The player glared at him and said, “Do you want to die? You have to let those players know that we can access their private information. Be careful that they don’t stuff you into the Septic Tank!”

“But why?” One of the developers asked, “Why is it that when the game is played well, the training effect is good?”

“I think the game talent is good, especially the competitive talent. His battle awareness is very strong...” the player guessed, “It’s just that there’s no chance to show them in real life.”

“No Way?” One of the players said in disbelief, “Abandoned otaku, abandoned otaku, aren’t they talking about this group of people who are obsessed with the game? Each one of them has a weak kidney. No matter how you look at it, they don’t look like teenagers with excellent talent in martial arts.”

“That’s because of the environment...”. The player who initiated the discussion pushed up his glasses and said, “Sitting and playing games for a long time is a bad thing for the body. After a long time, whether it’s the waist, back, or prostate, there will be problems. The physical fitness will naturally become worse and worse. The physical fitness will be poor, and the muscles can’t keep up with their battle awareness. Naturally, they look like the five dregs of a warrior. However, if they are given a body with an attribute that is off the charts like our base, then their battle awareness will be maximized.”. “...”

“D * MN... now that you mention it... is this data reliable?”

“There’s not much data at the moment... I’m still in the process of compiling it. Once the statistics are done, I’ll go look for the Lord to exchange for money. I’m so happy!” That player said with a smile.

“There’s something...” a few people nodded one after another, following that, another person said, “Then it looks like my ten-thousand-year-old bronze-rank handicap, who can’t even go up to silver-rank, chose the right developer. If I choose a combat class, I might be left behind for the rest of my life...”

Another player touched his chin and said, “Then doesn’t that mean that I, a silver-tier player, was delayed by the developer Class?”

“Silver-tier... is also a strong player?” A developer beside him asked in a daze.

Ai secretly paid attention to this group of guys and could not help but secretly sweat in his heart. A group of guys who had nothing to do and had nothing to do, being able to develop such a meaningful inference in such a leisurely situation, the developer was really a terrible bloodline...

I wonder what his lordship plans to do with them?

And at this time, in the distant hundreds of millions of light years away, is holding wine god to his business card, came to a very simple decoration of the school gate.

In fact, he had already recruited enough instructors at the job fair. However, he felt that ordinary instructors could not teach the advanced developers at the base for the time being, and now was not the time for the base to use them. However, he could not let them stay idle all the time.

In that case... .. Xi Ye looked at the simple school gate and a bold idea arose in his heart... ..
